O'Donnell Flooded By Cloudburst Monday

10 to 12 Inches Rainfall Floods Streets, Business Buildings
Business men were in a rush here Monday afternoon—a rush to save merchandise and equipment from flood waters which backed up into stores, offices and shops as aftermath of the cloudburst which struck between three and four o'clock.

The rain began falling with little preliminary fussing around from a cloud about as big as a man's hat and in a few minutes was driving so heavily that one could not see across the streets. A high wind and spray, while sporadic splashes of hailstones were, shattered as they struck cars and buildings. Between ten and twelve inches of rain fell in little more than an hour, flooding the business district, putting Santa Fe tracks under water, and doing considerable damage to crops and buildings.

Acres and acres of growing crops were inhabited by frogs late in the afternoon, with light rain still falling. Many fields were converted into lakes, and in other growing crops were ruined by hail. Flood waters covered walks around the business square, while the streets were more than running-board deep in water. At the Phillips 99 station, water was almost as deep as a tall man.

Merle's Beauty shop, in the basement of the First National Bank building, was "floating out" before the end of the first downpour. The operators, Misses Greenwood and Beach, took of shoes and stockings and waded in to move equipment to higher quarters. Palmer Implement company reported tractor parts and small merchandise floating around the store.

Scores of cars were drowned out and left sitting until the waters drained off, while their owners rolled up clothing and waded barefoot to the comparative dryness of stores. Comparative was the correct word too; none of them were dry, but some had less water inside than others.

Livestock Drowned
Depute Sheriff John Johnson lost more than 100 head of lambs, drowned in the pens and pasture where they were kept. Casualties among chickens, pigs, etc. could not be estimated.

Rain General in Territory
Rainfall apparently was general throughout the territory. Four or five inches precipitation is reported in Dawson county, which had had no moisture for months. While telephone lines and roads were out of order Tuesday, reports reaching here indicate that the heaviest rainfall was in town, though from one inch to four inches has been reported from various communities.

Buildings Damaged
While property loss from wind was less than might have been expected, several small barns and sheds were demolished, porches blown off, windows broken, and other minor damage reported. The C. J. Beach Stock Barn, just north of town, lost the greater part of the roof. Mr. Beach also lost twenty or twenty-five hogs, and other livestock. To cap it off, his car caught fire as it was stalled in the middle of one of the biggest lakes, and was damaged beyond repair before the smouldering flames could be extinguished.

Mr. Paul Morris and little daughter, Carolyn, of Lubbock were guests the first of the week of her mother, Mrs. J. P. Bowlin.

DRIVERS' LICENSES ARE EXTENDED TO APRIL, 1942
The public safety department has extended drivers' licenses until April, 1942, according to press releases Sunday. Normally, said the statement, such licenses would have expired last April, but state police extended them indefinitely in the expectation that the recently adjourned legislature would make changes in the law.

Because some Texas drivers have had their licenses questioned in other states, the department advises that those persons planning out of state trips contact their district patrol office as letters may be procured attesting the validity of their licenses.

CALLED TO STAMFORD BY DEATH OF NIECE
Members of the Middleton families were called Tuesday morning to Stamford by news of the death Monday night of the ten-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chane Middleton.

The little girl had been ill for some time, suffering from a complication of liver and stomach disorders, and had been in the sanitarium at Stamford several days. The ladies join, with other friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved parents and family.

STORES WILL CLOSE HERE JULY 4TH
O'Donnell business houses, other than filling stations, tractor parts, etc. will be closed all day Tuesday, July 4th. Merchants ask that their customers remember this and delay their shopping before that day.

MISS LOUISE EDWARDS UNDERGOES OPERATION
Miss Louise Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Edwards, is in a Lubbock hospital this week recuperating from an operation for the removal of her appendix. She is reported doing nicely as we go to press.

MRS. WRIGHT'S ARM BROKEN SUNDAY NIGHT
Mrs. L. M. Wright, long-time resident of O'Donnell, sustained two broken bones in her left wrist Sunday night when she slipped and fell on the front steps at her residence. She was taken to a Lamars hospital for surgical attention.

SINGERS WILL MEET AT GRASSLAND SUNDAY
All singers of the territory are again reminded of the district singing convention which will meet at Grassland Sunday afternoon.

ATTEND DISTRICT MEET AT LUBBOCK WEDNESDAY
Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wells attended a district meeting of the Texas Lumbermen's Association held Wednesday evening in the Lubbock hotel.

Approximately 138 persons were present to hear F. W. Sternfield of Austin and Max Crutshfield, national painter and wood products lecturer. Mr. Sternberg, state president, discussed the lumber industry in Texas and Mr. Crutshfield illustrated his lecture with slides.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McLaurin and Mr. L. E. Robinson, and Buck Preston were among local people who attended the rodeo at Big Spring Sunday.

Third Annual Celebration Held Held By Lynn Pioneers

Keen-eyed, sunburned, some of them quite as young in body as they were thirty years or more ago, Lynn County Pioneers gathered at Tahoka last Saturday for the third annual Oldtimers' Celebration. Approximately 300 members of the association were present for the all-day session, which also continued until after midnight. News of personal and family affairs, "What Ever Became of Bill" "Is Ole Hank Comin'?" and other similar questions made it difficult to attend to business and listen to the scheduled program.

But taken from every angle, the celebration was indeed successful, and plans are already underway to make next year's reunion even more outstanding.

The business session in the morning, officers for the coming year were elected as follows: John Donahoe, president; J. J. Lehman, first vice-president; J. N. Leonard, second vice-president; Truett Smith, secretary-treasurer. E. T. Wells retiring president, and W. H. May retiring vice-president.

Prizes are Given
A. M. Treway, veteran and loved citizen of this place, received the prize as the oldest pioneer man present. Mr. Treway is 92 years of age. Mrs. N. E. Weathers of Tahoka, aged 82, was the oldest pioneer woman present. J. S. Welch of Ardmore, Okla., was awarded the prize for traveling the greatest distance to be present.

Jack Blankenship of Brownfield and Mrs. E. G. George of New Home were judged best jig dancers in that contest. Mr. Jim Welchford, who worked for the old Square and Compass ranch way back in 1888, called for the square dances in the afternoon program and again Saturday night. Dances included such well-known favorites as "Little Brown Jug" and "Old Snow."

Old-Timers Remembered
The reunion falls each year on the birthday of the late Mrs. J. S. Wells and in the words of the old-timers present, there were lots of folks who could remember when Lynn county was filled with Wells and bluebeards. Many of Granny Wells' children grandchildren, and great-grandchildren were present.

Other outstanding old-timers present were Mrs. Jack Alley, one of the three first white women in Lynn county. The other two, now dead, were Mrs. Bill Petty and Mrs. Eunice L. Seeds. Mrs. Alley's daughter, Mrs. Hall Robinson, was the first child in the county.

Bob Ruak and Henry Hale, both former drivers of the mail back from Big Spring to Gall, Tahoka, and Lubbock. Tom Preston of Midland and J. E. Ketter, whose historical lawsuit broke the opposing ranchers on the South Plains and thus opened the way for agricultural development. Claude Wells and Jim Melcher, who opened the first gin in Lynn county in 1906, and scores of others whose lives have been intimately intertwined with the history and development of Texas and the South Plains were present for the day.

For some of them, Saturday may have been the last round-up; should this be the case it is doubly unfortunate that the day was one of unmitigated pleasure.

Lockhart Speaks
The program proper was held in the high school auditorium with Truett Smith introducing the speakers. G. F. Lockhart of Lubbock made an interesting address on chutes in the county since the early days of its organization.

Orchestras from Draw and New Home furnished numbers for the program. At the close of the morning session, the assembly stood for a moment's tribute to the memory of old-timers who have gone to "the Big Boss in the sky," and at noon more than 500 were served at a barbecue dinner held near the Oscar Robers residence.

In view of the fact that names of those present could not be secured in time for publication, we do not try to give even a partial list.

MRS. C. L. HAFFER HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB
Regular meeting of the Tuesday Bridge club was held this week in the home of Mrs. C. L. Hafer. Heralding the approach of July 4th, tallies bore miniature American flags.

Brownfield Bowlers Mow Local Teams for Loss

O'Donnell bowling teams, both men's and girls', were defeated here Friday evening by the Brownfield aggregation who were over with blood in their eyes to even out their first loss here.

Scores of individual players for the three matches between the men were as follows:
VISITORS: Ross, 230, 190, 166; Buck, 151, 163, 167; Buster, 167, 171, 144; Pittman, 131, 159, 139; Zachary, 165, 149, 210. Total scores, by games, for the visitors were 830, 837, and 870.

O'DONNELL: Brownfield, 157, 183, 159; Gardenhire, 155, 174, 145; Schuler, 183, 175, 161; Brewer, 159, 173, 127; McVicker, 161, 167, 150. Scores by games were 835, 869, 742.

Ladies' Match
VISITORS: Daphene, 123, 117, 153; Genevieve, 130, 146, 162; Dorothy, 118, 76, 76. Scores by games, 276, 339, 271.

O'DONNELL: Huff, 106, 117, 124; Greenwood, 108, 117, 146; Gardenhire, 99, 121, 86. Totals, 313, 355, 336.

To Play Tonight
Manager Zachary of the O'Donnell Bowling Club said early in the week that the teams of men will probably go to Brownfield Friday night of this week to play again, but that due to the fact that two of the local girls plan to be out of town, no ladies' match is planned.

Attend Big Spring Rodeo
Among local people who attended the rodeo at Big Spring during the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Schuler and Miss Agnes White, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Schuler, Mrs. M. J. Whitsett and Miss Thelma Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Creech announced the birth of a son on June 23. The young man weighed nine pounds at birth. Mother and baby doing well.

LAND PLANNING WORK MAPPED
Lynn county's proposed land planning program was discussed at length Wednesday by the Lynn County Land Use Planning Committee. County Agent Don Turner and Home Agent Maurine McNatt, C. L. Spacke and C. B. Ray of the Extension Service.

The committee is working out plans which it hopes will be of inestimable value to Lynn county agriculture in future years. At a meeting several weeks ago this group of farmers met here expressed ideas for better use of lands, made plans for carrying out these ideas, and these two Extension Service men put these plans in writing and returned the same to the committee here Wednesday for further discussion.

Under the plan, Lynn county lands would be divided into four groups, namely, farm land, ranching land, shinnery land, and breaking land, and a livestock and cropping system or goal suggested for each area.

Mr. Spacke is assistant land utilization supervisor of the A. & M. College Extension Service, and Mr. Ray is assistant in the program planning division of the Service.

The local committee working on the proposed program is composed of R. M. Stewart, Tahoka; J. H. Bulman, Tahoka, route 5; R. L. Littlepage, Tahoka, route 2; W. P. Lester, Post, route 2; R. E. Lee, Tahoka, route 1; J. H. Robbins, Slaton, route 2; R. J. Mackler, Wilson, route 1; S. L. Williams, Meadows, route 1; E. J. Cooper, Wilson, route 1; Fred McGinty, O'Donnell, route 3; R. L. Pirtle, Tahoka, route 2; Mrs. R. W. Barton, Post, route 2; Mrs. Henry Heck, Post, route 3; and Mrs. Sam Floyd, Tahoka, route 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Golightly returned Friday night from Florence where they had visited relatives and friends.

C. B. Morrison and Miss Lucy spent the week-end in Clovis with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor, Master Charles and Miss Emma Nell Taylor, who have been guests of the Morris family for some time, returned home.

County Losser In Scholastic

Lynn county scholastics for the year total 9535, the lowest in many years, according to the final approved list received by County Supt. Lenore M. Tunnell from the State Department of Education, Austin.

By school districts, the number of scholastics follow:
Grassland 108
M'Way 69
O'Donnell 459
Tahoka 790
Wells 32
Wilson 404
New Lynn 196
Rural High No. 1 218
Rural High No. 2 385
T-Bar 58
West Point 58
Joe Bailey 74
Edin 30
Three Lakes 30
Dixie 75
Gordon 61
Newmoore 197

Last year's scholastics totaled 3,774, or 719 more than were enumerated this year. The tremendous loss is due to a number of things including the increase in tractor farming, the Government farm program, the loss of Magnolia district to Garza county, the loss of Pride to Dawson county, and also the fact that last fall's crop was not nearly as large as the one the year before.

CHURCH OF CHRIST NOTES
We are still doing business for the Lord, the interest and attendance holds up well. We have a few lukewarm members. We were gratified with the Bible school attendance last Lord's day. We have one hundred active members and had ninety-nine present at Bible study, want one more next Lord's day.

Subjects for next Lord's day: "A Wise Choice," a m. "The Two Builders," p. m. "Come, let us worship after the New Testament pattern at the friendly church." — R. P. Drennon.

J. J. Hodnett dropped by the office Wednesday afternoon to renew their index subscription. Thank you ever so much, sir. He also reported in answer to our inquiry as to why we had not had the pleasure of seeing Mrs. Hodnett for so long that the good lady is suffering considerably from rheumatism. Of course many of our friends know this, but we feel already that others, like ourselves, have missed her quiet, gentle presence in town. We sincerely hope that she may soon be in better health.
