WHITSETT WIN NINE GAMES IN A ROW

Even playing off-form except in the first game, the Whitsett bowlers swept Blocker's for three-straight Tuesday night and thereby made it nine straight games they have won without a loss. The "Underdogs" downed the All-Stars three games last Saturday night.

H. M. SNOWDEN IN JUDGE RACE

Another hat goes into the political ring this week. H. M. Snowden, well-known business man and citizen of Tahoka, makes his announcement through the columns of this paper for the office of county judge of Lynn county, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

Mr. Snowden has been a citizen of Tahoka for about fifteen years. He first came here as agent for the Chevrolet automobile, having his office and show rooms in the building now occupied by J. K. Applewhite and Co. After a few years, he retired from this business and went into the grocery business, having his store on Main Street in the building now occupied by the Tahoka Motor Co. Still later, he was engaged in the handling of Allis-Chalmers tractors for a few years, selling out some time ago to Douglas Finley.

In all his business activities, Mr. Snowden has observed the strictest rules of integrity, and by his honesty and fair-dealing he has won the confidence of the people. He has many friends in all parts of the county, upon whose support he is relying. He says that he expects to make an active campaign and hopes to see personally practically every voter in the county.

Mr. Snowden is a fine, Christian gentleman, and his candidacy should have the thoughtful consideration of every voter.

When Congress adjourns, I shall return immediately to West Texas and visit every community that I possibly can in the 23 counties of our District, not only for the purpose of the primary campaign but also in line with my policy followed in previous years of endeavoring to keep in close touch with the people and their needs in every part of the District."

CLIFF LAMBERT, R. O. STARK NAMED AS NEW ALDERMEN IN ELECTION HERE TUESDAY; 78 VOTES CAST

O'Daniel Asks For Office Again

Austin, April 4.—In tones that rang over all Texas Governor W. Lee O'Daniel Wednesday night announced his candidacy for a second term of two years.

From the gold and white north drawing room of Texas "White House," he declared he was in the new gubernatorial battle to finish and called for the election of a legislature which would cooperate with him in meeting in full the state's social security obligations.

The financing of social security, namely, old age pensions, aid to the blind, aid to dependent children and teachers retirement, he asserted will constitute Texas number one problem.

He advocated "any tax plan" which would raise $50,000,000 a year to carry out the social security program, improve Texas' educational system, wipe out in four years the deficit in the state's general revenue fund and eliminate "fire traps" at eleemosynary institutions.

The governor said he favored a one per cent transaction tax to get the needed money, but would accept any revenue plan approved by the Legislature whether it be a transaction tax, a general consumer tax, a tax of five or eight or ten cents a barrel on oil or any other kind of tax or combination of taxes, so long as enough money will be raised to pay off those honest and solemn obligations of the state.

Crowding the mansion drawing room to hear the broadcast of 10,000 words over a statewide radio hookup were about 100 persons who included members of his family, his appointees to important state offices and various friends and admirers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stansel Jones spent the week end in Quanah visiting relatives.

Henry Gardenhire was a business visitor in Lubbock Wednesday.

Mrs. Marie Jordan of Lubbock visited friends and relatives here last Friday.

Two new city aldermen were selected here Tuesday by O'Donnell voters when they voted in C. O. Stark, station agent, and Cliff Lambert, grocerman. Seventy-eight votes were cast, a surprising number in contrast to the past few previous city elections.

The newly-elected aldermen are to serve in the places of W. T. Huff and Fred Henderson, who opposed them Tuesday.

The two aldermen posts were the only ones voted upon.

TECH STUDENTS CELEBRATE ARBOR DAY AT CAMPUS

Lubbock, April 4—Third annual Arbor Day on the campus of Texas Technological college was celebrated by students and faculty joining forces in setting out hundreds of trees and shrubs. In 1938 under the direction of O. B. Howell, horticulture professor and director of campus beautification, 20,000 trees and shrubs were planted. Last year more than 5,000 were added.

President Clifford B. Jones along with other college officials and students join enthusiastically in the project. Director Howell plants out some essentials in the planting of trees in West Texas, as follows:

1. Deciduous trees and shrubs are usually transplanted bare rooted.
2. Never expose the roots to the sun and air. Never let the roots dry off.
3. Cut off bruised or injured roots.
4. Plant trees to the same depth they were in the nursery.
5. The roots should be spread out to conform as nearly as possible to their natural position.
6. Pack the soil around the roots leaving a depression or basin of 3 or 4 inches below the turf.
7. Keep this basin filled with water for several hours to settle the soil.
8. Fill in the depression with dry dirt to soil line on tree.
9. In West Texas it is advisable to lean the tree slightly to southwest toward the prevailing winds.
10. Large trees should be anchored with guy wires.

TEXAS CLIMATIC CONDITIONS—Weatherford, Tex., April—Texas has the finest climatic and range conditions in the world for Karakul sheep raising," declared J. E. McDonald, State Commissioner of Agriculture, on a recent visit to George H. Kiosseff's Parker County Karakul sheep ranch where successful experiments have proved that Texans have a new three million dollar industry awaiting simple and easy development.

Mr. Kiosseff (pronounced Key-oss-ef) a native Bulgarian whose grandparents and one great-grandfather were killed by the Turks and who himself had to wear a fez until he was twelve years old, has shown, through four years of experiments in cooperation with the State Department of Agriculture that this fur, wool and mutton producing sheep gives better quality pelts than have been obtained in the native habitat, West Central Asia.

Mr. McDonald said statistics show that the United States imports annually three million dollars worth of Karakul and Persian lambskins, and this country, which consumes eighty five percent of the world's production produces less than ten thousand skins a year, whereas German South-west Africa last year produced one million two hundred thousand lambskins.

Of course, women know that the soft, tightly curled, tar-black Persian lamb is born of the Karakul sheep and from a number of these lovely little pelts are made the beautiful coats and wraps so desired by women.

Right now, with the world trade conditions as they are and the country's foreign source of fur supply cut drastically, Texans stand an unusual opportunity to cop the world market in Karakul, believes Mr. Kiosseff who comes of the third generation of Karakul raisers and has spent his life in the fur trade. He also claims the sheep will do as well on damp lowlands, as on hilly semi-arid lands, with the exception of our milder winters the climate throughout Texas is much like that of Bokhara, in the heart of

Texas Stands Behind John Garner

Texas State Democratic Executive Committee gave a ringing endorsement to the presidential aspirations of John Garner, despite some protests which were not warranted.

Mr. Garner is of high ability and probity. He has won great distinction. He aspires to the presidency. Above all, he is a Texan. He has a right to go to the national convention with the solid backing of his state, just as every other state's favorite son may have a right to expect his state's support.

This implies no party split, no discrediting of President Roosevelt or anybody else.

It is just pro-Garner, that's all. Entirely proper.

—El Paso Times.

Central Asia, where the breed originated. "Over there," he says "the sheep are raised on the hilly country as well as on the lowlands. They will lamb twice a year if their lambs are taken within a few days old, and have been known to produce at this rate for fourteen years. No special season is required for the production of fine pelts."

The pelts taken from Karakul lambs which have been still-born within twenty days of the end of gestation period are of extra texture and value, therefore saving the owner the great loss which occurs in most breeds of sheep by what is generally known as "lamb sinking". Mr. Kiosseff thinks they are the hardest sheep in the world and declares it costs less to feed a Karakul sheep than it does a turkey. As a mutton producer he says they top the market.

In making garments the pelts are carefully selected and matched, therefore Texas Karakul sheep owners could market their pelts to the best advantage when a minimum of twenty-five thousand pelts are available annually, says Mr. Kiosseff, who for twenty years has maintained his own fur import business in Battle Creek, Michigan, and who was for three years head of the fur department of a large Fort Worth department store. He has made nine trips to European fur markets as purchasing agent for various well-known concerns.

Mrs. W. L. Palmer and Miss Thelma Palmer, Mrs. Fay Westmoreland and daughter Miss Yvonne were in Lubbock Saturday.

Early in February, 65 Rhode Island Reds and 35 Silver Lace Wyandotte chicks, three weeks of age, were purchased. The lack of a brooder for heating it isn't unusual to hear Mrs. Francis ask, "can't you just see the chicks grow? Surely you can?"

Swell "Youth Treatment:" Change oil for Spring Better yet: Change to OIL-PLATING

What's worse than a late Winter?... The late Winter's oil still slopping around in your engine! Changing now is true economy—and you're a regular economy "shark" to change to OIL-PLATING—at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station today.

All he does to give you an OIL-PLATED engine is to drain and then re-fill with Conoco Germ Processed oil—at a perfectly usual price. But extremely unusual is the costly man-made extra substance in this patented oil. It bonds lubricant to engine parts—like fine PLATING. That's your OIL-PLATING, which can't fly off, or drain down during all-day runs and all-night stands. That's why your OIL-PLATED engine can't even start unlubricated. The less of that oil-starved starting, the less risk of a worn engine that over-eats oil. Change to OIL-PLATING today at Your Mileage Merchant's. Takes no extra time. But it's an extra long time till you need your next quart of Germ Processed oil. Continental Oil Company

FRANK TRAYLER TO CONDUCT REVIVAL FOR GRASSLAND CHURCH OF CHRIST

DRAW W. M. S. HAS ALL-DAY MEETING

"The most beautiful and most beloved of all fellowship Psalms is the twenty-third, the 'Shepherd Psalm' stated Mrs. W. T. Luttrell in her discussion of the fourth lesson in the Bible study.

The Rev. J. Young and Mrs. Dudley Simpson presented the fifth and sixth lessons respectively. They brought out many interesting phases in their discussions of the 'Festical, Processional, and Great Psalms'.

The society concluded their study of the Psalms with these three lessons Monday, last week, in an all-day meeting, with a covered luncheon.

They had an average attendance of fifteen members throughout the course.

DEMONSTRATOR HAS HIGH PRODUCTION GOAL

"The only sure ways to have quality meat in the daily diet is to produce it at home and this can be done because the government will allow feed to be grown on neutral acres for feeding such animals," states Mrs. Clem Gillespie, home food supply demonstrator in the West Point Club.

Mrs. Gillespie is working on all phases of the home food supply, however, special emphasis is being placed on the meat phase. She not only sees the need for quality meat, but realizes the value of variety in the diet. Home grown beef, pork, mutton, chicken and turkey will find a place on the Gillespie table during 1940.

FRAME GARDENS

Frame gardens have "caught on" in the Draw Home Demonstration club. In order to have fresh vegetables from four to six weeks earlier than would be produced in open gardens, seven frame gardens have already been made and planted by women in the Draw club and others will be planted at a later date.

"Frame gardens provide a means of having fresh vegetables at a time of the year when they would have to be purchased or left off the menu entirely," says Mrs. W. T. Luttrell, a cooper in the club. Fresh vegetables probably will not be left

He lived in Rotan then but has since moved to Alpine, where he is conducting an intensive program of mission work among the Mexicans as well as the Americans. Recently he has translated five tracts into the Spanish language for publication by a Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, publishing house.

FOR THE "JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET"

THE Junior-Senior banquet is the all-absorbing topic among the high school crowd these days—especially with the committee members who find themselves faced for the first time in their lives with the problem of big-scale buying and planning. How much coffee will they need? Should they have a peck or a bushel of potatoes? How many quarts of salad dressing and how much butter and cream? They want to be sure to have enough—but they cannot afford to be rashly extravagant and waste food.

So here is a menu and a few 1 1/2 cup cream, whipped 1/2 cup boiled salad dressing and 1/2 cup horseradish. Serve on side of plate.

SCALLOPED POTATOES (For 50)

This dish requires: 12 1/2 lbs. potatoes, 2 tbsp. salt, 1 tsp. pepper, 1/2 cup all-purpose flour, 1 1/2 cup butter and about 2 qts. milk. Wash, pare and cut potatoes in thin slices. CLIFF LAMBERT, R. O. STARK NAMED AS NEW ALDERMEN IN ELECTION HERE TUESDAY; 78 VOTES CAST

O'Daniel Asks For Office Again

Austin, April 4.—In tones that rang over all Texas Governor W. Lee O'Daniel Wednesday night announced his candidacy for a second term of two years.

From the gold and white north drawing room of Texas "White House," he declared he was in the new gubernatorial battle to finish and called for the election of a legislature which would cooperate with him in meeting in full the state's social security obligations.

The financing of social security, namely, old age pensions, aid to the blind, aid to dependent children and teachers retirement, he asserted, still constituted Texas number one problem.

He advocated "any tax plan" which would raise $50,000,000 a year to carry out the social security program, improve Texas' educational system, wipe out in four years the deficit in the state's general revenue fund and eliminate "fire traps" at eleemosynary institutions.

The governor said he favored a one per cent transaction tax to get the needed money, but would accept any revenue plan approved by the Legislature "whether it be a transaction tax, a general consumer tax, a tax of five or eight or ten cents a barrel on oil or any other kind of tax or combination of taxes, just so enough money will be raised to pay off those honest and solemn obligations of the state."

Crowding the mansion drawing room to hear the broadcast of 100,000 words over a statewide radio hookup were about 100 persons who included members of his family, his appointees to important state offices and various friends and admirers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stansell Jones spent the week end in Quanah visiting relatives.

Henry Gardenhire was a business visitor in Lubbock Wednesday.

Mrs. Marie Jordan of Lubbock visited friends and relatives here last Friday.

Two new city aldermen were selected here Tuesday by O'Donnell voters when they voted in C. O. Stark, station agent, and Cliff Lambert, grocerman. Seventy-eight votes were cast, a surprising number in contrast to the past few previous city elections.

The newly-elected aldermen are to serve in the places of W. T. Huff and Fred Henderson, who opposed them Tuesday.

The two aldermen posts were the only ones voted upon.

TECH STUDENTS CELEBRATE ARBOR DAY AT CAMPUS

Lubbock, April 4—Third annual Arbor Day on the campus of Texas Technological college was celebrated by students and faculty joining forces in setting out hundreds of trees and shrubs. In 1938 under the direction of O. E. Howell, horticulture professor and director of campus beautification, 20,000 trees and shrubs were planted. Last year more than 5,000 were added.

President Clifford B. Jones along with other college officials and students join enthusiastically in the project. Director Howell points out some essentials in the planting of trees in West Texas, as follows:

1. Deciduous trees and shrubs are usually transplanted bare rooted.
2. Never expose the roots to the sun and air. Never let the roots dry off.
3. Cut off bruised or injured roots.
4. Plant trees to the same depth they were in the nursery.
5. The roots should be spread out to conform as nearly as possible to their natural position.
6. Pack the soil around the roots leaving a depression or basin of 3 or 4 inches below the turf.
7. Keep this basin filled with water for several hours to settle the soil.
8. Fill in the depression with dry dirt to soil line on tree.
9. In West Texas it is advisable to lean the tree slightly to southwest toward the prevailing winds.
10. Large trees should be anchored with guy wires.

TEXAS CLIMATIC CONDITIONS

Weatherford, Tex., April—Texas has the finest climatic and range conditions in the world for Karakul sheep raising", declared J. E. McDonald, State Commissioner of Agriculture, on a recent visit to George H. Kloseff's Parker County Kara-kul sheep ranch where successful experiments have proved that Texans have a new three million dollar industry awaiting simple and easy development.

Mr. Kloseff (pronounced Key-oh-seff) a native Bulgarian whose grandfathers and one great-grandfather were killed by the Turks and who himself had to wear a fez until he was twelve years old, has shown, through four years of experiments in cooperation with the State Department of Agriculture that this fur, wool and mutton producing sheep gives better quality pelts than have been obtained in native habitat, West Central Asia.

Mr. McDonald said statistics show that the United States imports annually three million dollars worth of Karakul and Persian lambskins, and this country, which consumes eighty five percent of the world's production produces less than ten thousand skins a year, whereas German Southwest Africa last year produced one million two hundred thousand lambskins.

Of course, women know that the soft, tightly curled, tar-black Persian lamb is born of the Karakul sheep and from a number of these lovely little pelts are made the beautiful coats and wraps so desired by women.

Right now, with the world trade conditions as they are and the country's foreign source of fur supply cut drastically, Texans stand an unusual opportunity to cop the world market in Karakul, believes Mr. Kloseff who comes of the third generation of Karakul raisers and has spent his life in the fur trade. He also claims the sheep will do as well on damp lowlands, as on hilly semi-arid lands. With the exception of our milder winters the climate throughout Texas is much like that of Bokhara, in the heart of

Texas State Democratic Executive Committee gave a ringing endorsement to the presidential aspirations of John Garner, despite some protests which were not warranted.

Mr. Garner is of high ability and probity. He JOHN GARNER has won great distinction. He aspires to the presidency. Above all, he is a Texan. He has a right to go to the national convention with the solid backing of his state, just as every other state's favorite son may have a right to expect his state's support.

This implies no party split, no discrediting of President Roosevelt or anybody else. It is just pro-Garner, that's all. Entirely proper.

—El Paso Times.

Central Asia, where the breed originated. "Over there," he says "the sheep are raised on the hilly country as well as on the lowlands. They will lamb twice a year if their lambs are taken when a few days old, and have been known to produce at this rate for fourteen years. No special season is required for the production of fine pelts."

The pelts taken from Karakul lambs which have been still-born within twenty days of the end of gestation period are of extra texture and value, therefore saving the owner the great loss which occurs in most breeds of sheep by what is generally known as "lamb slinking".

Mr. Kloseff thinks they are the hardest sheep in the world and declares it costs less to feed a Karakul sheep than it does a turkey. As a mutton producer he says they top the market.

In making garments the pelts are carefully selected and matched, therefore Texas Karakul sheep owners could market their pelts to the best advantage when a minimum of twenty-five thousand pelts are available annually, says Mr. Kloseff, who for twenty years has maintained his own fur import business in Battle Creek, Michigan, and who was for three years head of the fur department of a large Fort Worth department store. He has made nine trips to European fur markets as purchasing agent for various well-known concerns.

Mrs. W. L. Palmer and Miss Thelma Palmer, Mrs. Fay Westmoreland and daughter Miss Yvonne were in Lubbock Saturday.

Sure Signs Of Spring

Spring is here when motorists dig out the road maps and lay their plans for seeking the "open road," and sailors the country over begin their annual "fitting-out" activities, preparing their water craft for the first jaunt of the season. Here Skipper Ted Skinner begins operations under the watchful eye of Miss Tony Clark, who motored down to the boatyard in her new 1940 Chevrolet.

FRANK TRAYLER TO CONDUCT REVIVAL FOR GRASSLAND CHURCH OF CHRIST

DRAW W. M. S. HAS ALL-DAY MEETING

"The most beautiful and most beloved of all fellowship Psalms is the twenty-third, the 'Shepherd Psalm' stated Mrs. W. T. Luttrill in her discussion of the fourth lesson in the Bible study.

The Rev. J. Young and Mrs. Dudley Simpson presented the fifth and sixth lessons respectively. They brought out many interesting phases in their discussions of the 'Festical, Processional, and Great Psalms'.

The society concluded their study of the Psalms with these three lessons Monday, last week, in an all-day meeting, with a covered luncheon.

They had an average attendance of fifteen members throughout the course.

DEMONSTRATOR HAS HIGH PRODUCTION GOAL

"The only sure ways to have quality meat in the daily diet is to produce it at home and this can be done because the government will allow feed to be grown on neutral acres for feeding such animals," states Mrs. Clem Gillespie, home food supply demonstrator in the West Point Club.

Mrs. Gillespie is working on all phases of the home food supply, however, special emphasis is being placed on the meat phase. She not only sees the need for quality meat, but realizes the value of variety in the diet. Home grown beef, pork, mutton, chicken and turkey will find a place on the Gillespie table during 1940.

FRAME GARDENS

Frame gardens have "caught on" in the Draw Home Demonstration club. In order to have fresh vegetables from four to six weeks earlier than would be produced in open gardens, seven frame gardens have already been made and planted by women in the Draw club and others will be planted at a later date.

"Frame gardens provide a means of having fresh vegetables at a time of the year when they would have to be purchased or left off the menu entirely," says Mrs. W. T. Luttrill, a cooper in the club. Fresh vegetables probably will not be left

The spring meeting at the Grassland Church of Christ will begin Sunday morning at 11 o'clock April 7, and will continue through April 17 at least. Evangelist Frank Trayler, Alpine, Texas, will be the speaker.

Last August, Evangelist Trayler held the Grassland meeting with twenty-two responses as the result. He lived in Rotan then but has since moved to Alpine, where he is conducting an intensive program of mission work among the Mexicans as well as the Americans. Recently he has translated five tracts into the Spanish language for publication by a Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, publishing house.

The Grassland congregation is happy to have Evangelist Trayler back in this section, and each member is extending the public a cordial invitation to attend the meeting.

FOR THE "JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET"
The Junior-Senior banquet is the all-absorbing topic among the high school crowd these days—especially with the committee members who find themselves faced for the first time in their lives with the problem of big-scale buying and planning. How much coffee will they need? Should they have a peck or a bushel of potatoes? How many quarts of salad dressing and how much butter and cream? They want to be sure to have enough—but they cannot afford to be rashly extravagant and waste food.

So here is a menu and a few suggestions which we hope will save these youthful committee members from a few very unpleasant headaches.

DINNER FOR FIFTY
Fruit Salad with Crisp Crackers
Baked Ham or Ham Loaf
Horseshardish Sauce
Scalloped Potatoes
Green Beans
Jelly Pickles Hot Rolls
Ice Cream Cake
Coffee

Fruit Salad: Arrange halves of canned pears on lettuce leaves with a little cottage cheese or small balls of cream cheese in center. If you wish to tint one of the pear halves pink and the other green, you will have a dainty color scheme. Serve with French Dressing or mayonnaise modified with whipped cream. (2 No. 10 cans of pears or 7 qts.—1 qt. cottage cheese—1 qt. salad dressing—12 heads lettuce.)

HAM LOAF (For 50)
This loaf requires: 5 lbs. lean pork, ground—3 lbs. smoked ham, ground—1 1/2 tsp. pepper—1 1/2 tsp. salt—3 eggs—2 1/2 pints milk—2 1/2 qts. bread crumbs.

Mix together the ground meat and the seasonings. Add the well beaten eggs, milk and bread crumbs. Mix thoroughly and mold into loaves. Place in 6 greased baking pans (size of small bread pans), and bake 1 1/2 to 2 hours (depending on size of loaves) in a moderate oven, 350° F.

HORSERADISH SAUCE (for 50): Blend together thoroughly:

1 1/2 cups cream, whipped, 1/4 cup boiled salad dressing and 1/2 cup horseradish. Serve on side of plate.

SCALLOPED POTATOES (for 50)
This dish requires: 12 1/2 lbs. potatoes, 2 tbsp. salt, 1 tsp. pepper, 1/2 cup all-purpose flour, 1 1/2 cups butter and about 2 qts. milk.

Wash, pare and cut potatoes in thin slices. Put a layer of potatoes in greased baking pans, sprinkle with salt, pepper and flour and dot with butter. Repeat layers until pans are sufficiently full. Pour over enough hot milk to almost cover top. Bake in moderate oven (325° F.) until potatoes are tender. (Time depends on size and shape of pans; probably 1 1/2 to 2 hours slow baking.)

COFFEE FOR 100 CUPS: 3 pounds coffee—6 1/2 gallons water. Tie the coffee in thick cheese cloth bags, leaving plenty of room for coffee to swell. Bring slowly to boiling point and boil 3 minutes. Remove the bags and keep coffee hot for serving.

OTHER AMOUNTS FOR 50 Baked Ham (Two 12 lb. hams will serve 50)
Green Beans (2 No. 10 cans) (each can contains 3 quarts)

Butter (2 slices to a lb.—2 lbs.)
Cream and Leaf Sugar (2 qts. cream—2 lbs. sugar—8 serv. ice cream (bulk, 7 qts.—8 serv. ings per qt.)—(brick, 8 qts.—7 serv. ings per qt.)
Cake (4 layer cakes—14 slices per cake)—(2 1/4 8x12 inch sheet cakes—20 slices per cake)

AAA Deadline Announced

College Station, April 4—No more applications for agricultural conservation payments or for range conservation payments under the 1939 AAA program can be accepted after May 31. This deadline is final, according to a ruling of the state Agricultural
