Cleanup Is Next Week

Clean Up Week September 19-23

Because we feel that this is a very serious time in O'Donnell. we want to urge each property owner to this week (September 12-17) start cleaning up his own individual property, so by the time the Community's Clean-Up Week arrives, it will not take long to finish it up. Our City officials are putting in long hours of overtime, after dark, and holidays in performing the task that they are supposed to, and we as citizens, in order to prevent a very serious epidemic, need to clean our own individual property now - TO DAY. After an epidemic breaks out, it is always "a little late". Illness and death ride along with the epidemics which can almost always be presented when each citizen does his part in cleaning his own property and not expecting the very busy city officials to not only clean up the places that the City is responsible for, but the individual's property.

To prevent a very serious ill ness in O'Donnell, today is the time to clean up our own property ourselves or hire it done as fast as possible.

Folks are urged to check their trash cans and other items in the yard that may hold water. Skeeters travel only a short distance unless carried by the wind.

SCOUT NEWS

Country Editor

While riots are rocking the nation, our Baldies are enjoying Christian fellowship and good will among our Anglo, Latin-American and Negro citizens. We have so much to be proud of our Plains.

A point to emphasize this was last Thursday when rites were read in the White Baptist Church for a popular Colored High School Senior and football player. The Colored church was too small to seat the mourners. A number of the pallbearers were Anglo, Latin, as well as fellow Colored students.

Certainly we are concerned about American cities suffering from mobs but we feel blessed in being "just friendly West Texas."

If Christianity didn't work last Thursday as well as on Sundayit's no good-but it DID work.

There are lots of local boys that we would be proud to call our sons. Off the top shelf is Louie Birdwell. A high ranking Scout, a good high school student and foot ball player, he is carrying his youthful habits on as he enters young manhood. Of his own option he is paying his own pay through college, in part, by what he calls "horse trading". He buys any saleable items and resells to other Tech students. It was heartening to hear him say that he was getting more from college by working part time. Incidentally a great number of our boys and girls are working part time while

First bale of 1966 Lynn county cotton was unloaded on the First National Bank corner in Tahoka Tuesday night.

Ginner at about 8:00 p. m. Tuesday, the load of hand pulled seed cotton weighed 2,400 pounds and produced 600 pounds of lint and 1,050 pounds of cottonseed.

Meadow Tips O'Donnell 14-6

Two runs up the middle gave the Meadow Broncos a 14-6 edge over the O'Donnell Eagles here Friday night.

O'Donnell managed a touchdown on a 1-yard run by Bobby Ewing in the second quarter and held the edge in the statistical department. But Meadow's Tim Melcher ran 15 yards for a first-quarter score and Roy Cato passed to Loyd Jordan for the two points that actually spelled victory. After O'Donnell's pass for the extra points failed, Meadow iced the victory in the third quarter on a 19-yard run by Terry Jones. The PAT pass failed. The Eagles had 111 yards rushing and 110 yards passing. Meadow had 160 yards, all of it on the ground.

1rmu Worms In Grain Sorghum

Armyworms are reported to be attacking grain sorghum in several counties in the High Plains, according to Extension entomologist Don Rummel, of Lubbock.

Rummel says he has received reports of armyworm infestations in Bailey, Hale, Lubbock and Floyd Counties. In some cases armyworm populations are so large that they are completely stripping the leaves from the leaves from the grain sorghum.

A number of insecticides are available to control the worms he said, but at this stage of the season it is important that producers select only those labeled for use shortly before harvest.
