Brennan on the Bayou

Among new publications is a book about people who have weird hobbies, such as collecting oily rags or painting faces on pin-heads. The author unwittingly overlooked yours truly. I collect book dedications.

No telling how many of us there are in the world. We are so loosely organized that I have never heard of anyone else who shares my hobby, and if there's a scientific name for what we do, I don't know that either.

Collecting dedications isn't as easy as you might think. In the first place, not all authors dedicate their books, and of those who do, only a few feel obliged to treat the reader to a small taste of their creativity. It is extremely disappointing to open a bestseller by a world renowned author, only to find on the magic page:

To Mother
To my wife
To R. B.

They of all people, should be able to enlarge my files of miniature knee-slappers, mind-benders, and tear-jerkers. But no, they put all that in the rest of the book.

In fact, Dr. Freud might have had a few words to say about so many books being dedicated to Mother, although with the business of publication so erratic, I suspect writers aim their sentiments homeward just in case it's their only chance at literary fame before they return to clerking in ladies' shoes.

There are other obstacles to surmount during my library research. One is the arithmetic difference between the height of the shelves and the extent of my reach. I am convinced that librarians were designed by giants for giants. And since I ripped the seams out of more than one good shirt, I have put all shelves more than six feet high off limits. No doubt the choice dedications are stashed up high; but why be a fanatic about one's hobby?

The other major problem has two legs and a surly disposition. Librarians, like department store clerks, do not like people to finger their wares. The two breeds are of one persuasion, as evidenced by the fact they always follow right behind me straightening the rack and stacks, all the while looking daggers at this serious researcher.

Presumably, I have enough sense to put things back where I found them. But apparently people who shop for clothes without buying, or who thumb through books without checking them out are a bit beady of eye and worthy of close observation by the official in charge.

All in all, the business of collecting book dedications is a physical, mental and emotional strain, but the rewards are greater than the trouble involved. When, after two hours of blank pages, "To Mother" and obscure Latin incantations, I finally read, "Dedicated to the man who made it all possible, the inventor of the aerosol spray can," I can truly say it worth the effort.

Therefore, it is with great humility that I dedicate his column to the entire population of South African tree toads, without whose existence I would not have had a snappy ending for this week's essay.

Mrs. Richard Carver is in room 218 of Bethania hospital following surgery Tuesday and is reported recuperating nicely.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Muse, Rt. 2, Iowa Park, have announced the engagement of their daughter Deborah and Larry Joe Robbins. He is son of Mrs. Perry Robbins of Dean Dale and the late Mr. Robbins.

Deborah is a graduate of IPHS and attended Midwestern university and is employed with K-Mart. Larry is a graduate of Petroli high and attended MU. He is employed with Paper Service Co.

The couple will be married on Dec. 8.

Read Books

Story Time begins each Wednesday with the children reciting the Pledge to the Flag, followed by singing of "America." They then say the days of the week and the month of the year. Sometimes the children are asked to indicate the month in which they were born.

After all the months had been repeated, one little girl informed us she was born "in Florida."

We had 22 present this week. Thank you, parents, for bringing your children. They are learning to sit quietly while the stories are read. They are making new friends. It is a pleasure to meet with them.

Refreshments were provided by Mrs. McDonald. Craig Nicholes of Wichita Falls visited with us as a guest of Cheryl Barker.

"Proud New Flag" by F. Van Wyck Mason is a brilliant historical novel of the Confederate navy in the years 1861-62. It is the story of the naval war between the Union and the Confederacy with authentic descriptions of bitter naval action on the Mississippi. High in adventure and romance, blending Mason's thorough research with his gift for telling a rousing good story.

Did you ever wonder how one American can make $19,939,652.39 a year and pay no income tax, while his chauffeur has to pay hundreds of tax dollars? "The Rich and the Super Rich" by Ferdinand Lundberg will provide this information.

Farmers Poorly Advised by Secretary Butz

Plaintiff farmer Frank Moore says cotton farmers were misled by the U.S. Department of Agriculture last spring when he was advised to plant more cotton.

"We followed the recommendation and increased our acres of cotton considerably. Now we are blessed with a bumper crop and cursed by low prices. Now Nixon is doing nothing to relieve the disaster his henchmen have caused."

Price on some cotton has fallen to 10c a pound since the record crop was announced.

Price on cotton seed also is down Texas farmers are receiving only 52.6% of parity on their cotton seed. This is a hard blow because of the low price of fiber.

Moore thinks farmers should be unwilling to listen to anyone in the Nixon administration for advice on their farming practices.

Farm Bureau Re-Elects Officers

About 150 Farm Bureau members and friends were present for the annual election and spaghetti supper held last Thursday night in the junior high cafeteria.

Gordon Parkey presided over the resolutions session. Policies pertaining to Highways; Beef Imports; Agricultural Research; Farm Program; Price Controls on Raw Agricultural Products were adopted. One amendment to the Constitution and By-Laws was passed as result of realigning of commissioner precinct.

Committee reports were made by Carl Moeller, Loys D. Barbour and Carl Barnhill.

All officers were re-elected.

Directors elected from Burk-burnett were Newton Crane, Raymond Schroeder, Brack Preston Jr., Norman Roberts; and from Electra: Ed Foster Jr., Floyd Brose, Carl Moeller.

Young Homemakers of Texas has been named to head up the 1972 Multiple Sclerosis Hope Chest Campaign in Iowa Park. The announcement has been made by Mrs. Pauline Mahan, of the Wichita Falls Area chapter of National MS society.

Mrs. Felton Williams is president here, and Mrs. Delbert Wilson is publicity chairman.

The appeal is scheduled to open on Monday, Nov. 6 for the hours 6:00 to 9:00. The money will support area patient services for multiple sclerosis victims and their families and to advance the Multiple Sclerosis Research programs.

Mrs. Williams said this week: "Sixty cents of every dollar contributed will remain here for programs to services to patients and for professional and public education." Such programs vary in the communities, but here they include friendly visits of Staff and volunteers, counseling equipment plus transportation of workers and recreational activities provided by the chapter.

"The research program gives renewed hope for the conquest of multiple sclerosis. This has been made possible by national support of previous MS Hope Appeals. We look forward to finding the cure and treatment of his neurological disease which has afflicted an estimated half million Americans.

"MS is a disabling disease of the brain and spinal cord. It distorts and sometimes blocks nerve impulses that control such vital functions as walking, talking, seeing, hearing and balance. It usually strikes its victims between the ages of 20 and 40, hence its identification as the great crippler of young adults."

Mrs. McDonald Cited as a Personality of the South

One who has been the recipient of many honors in the work of our schools, churches and community activities has been selected to be listed in the 1972 edition of "Personalities of the South." Few people in Our Town have done as much as Bertha McDonald to contribute to the good life of so many.

The certificate she has been awarded states that it is given in recognition of past achievements, outstanding ability, and service to the community and state, as a distinguished and notable leader.

Bertha Baxley was born in Richmond county, North Carolina. She was educated there and taught school there for 18 years.

In 1943, she resigned, and was a member of the Women's Army Corps for 30 months.

In 1945 she and the late M. J. McDonald were married and she came to Iowa Park as a bride. She had hardly unpacked her belongings until Supt. W. R. Bradford had enlisted her as a school teacher, and the Rev. Mr. Floyd Brose, had her leading in the youth department of the Methodist church.

Mrs. McDonald retired in May, 1972, after 26 years as teacher here . . . making a total of 44 years in the profession. She was honored with a lovely tea by the school personnel and was presented an orchid corsage, a silver engraved tray and a personalized silver pencil.

Through the year social studies as been her major teaching field but her extra-curricular work has been varied and worthwhile. She coached extemporaneous speech and three of her students won first in state: Page Morgan, Jeri Goss and Robert Dawson.

She also instructed in the area of United Nations. Tests were sent out by that organization to be given locally and the top two papers were sent to state headquarters. Four of her students have ranked in the top 100 in the nation: Larry Dodd, Mike Dodd, Robert Dawson, John Schmidt.

In 1969 Steve Streich's paper was in the top 14 of the nation.

Typical of her support of all extracurricular activities, in 21 years she missed only three Hawk football game. She has on her mantel as a trophy a mounted football, one that had been used in a state contest, autographed by every member of the team.

In 1969 the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U.S., Voice of Democracy Award was presented to Mrs. McDonald in appreciation for and recognition of valuable co-operation and assistance given generously to help inspire outstanding high school student participation in the annual "Voice of Democracy Broadcast Script Writing Contest."

Bertha pursues her church work with the same enthusiasm she has for work in secular education. For 20 years she has been teacher of the Christian Workers class. She is a life member of the Wesleyan Service Guild and was conference secretary of Missionary Education for four years. She was leader of the youth department from 1945 to 1952; is now the Lay Representative from the local Methodist church to the annual conference; and has served in that capacity a number of times. She was one of the official hostesses to the uniting conference of the Evangelical United Brethren and Methodist churches in Dallas. She has been a member of the official board of the local church almost her entire years of residence.

In other areas of service Mrs. McDonald is and has been for years a member of the Chamber of Commerce; is a life member of Parent-Teacher association; in 1971 was registration chairman for the Regional Iris Society convention; and is now membership chairman of the Benson Area 12 Iris Society.

She is chairman of social studies for District IX of TSTA and vice president of the Wichita Falls area branch of Retired Teachers Association.

Though her name is not on any paid activity roll of employees, Bertha continues to be a contributor to the welfare of humanity in all the areas she has served so well. Iowa Park is glad to salute her as an Outstanding Personality of the South!

Funds Needed for Community House

Women in Construction of Wichita Falls, Chapter 18, are sponsoring a fund-raising project as a benefit to Valley Farms Community House. Members of the Valley Farms club will co-operate to make it as profitable as possible as the refurbishing of the Community House as been their aim for many years. Last year a good start was made. Much needs yet to be done.

Miss Pauline Carson is projects chairman with Mrs. James Lane as co-chairman. Iowa Park members of Women in Construction include Mmes. Shirley Cobb, Norman Williams, Frank Schmidt.

On Oct. 24, beginning at 6:30 p.m. the public is invited to come buy. There will be a Country Kitchen, Bingo, cake-walk and Country Store. Ceramics, home-made articles, home-cooked foods, and other accessories will be available.

JERRY CLINTON SNOW

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Don Snow are parents of a son Jerry Clinton born Sept. 28 at Bethania hospital. Weight 6 lb 15 oz. He is their first child.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Snow of Wichita Falls and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Thornton of Duncannon. Great-grandparents are Mrs. Murty Snow of Loving and Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Jones of Duncannon.

Mr. and Mrs. Snow have lived on FM 369 in the Valley Farms a little over a year.

Jimmie T. Kasparek Jr. has been graduated from the plumbing specialist course conducted at Shepard AFB. He learned to install and maintain water supply and distribution piping systems and is being assigned to Cheyenne Mountain Complex, Colo., for duty with a unit of Aerospace Defense Command.

Jimmie's parents reside in Iowa Park. His wife Galyia is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Beals of Iowa Park. He is a 1971 graduate of IPHS.

Bird Lore

You need not travel beyond your own backyard to become a bird watcher. For the beginner, many interesting hours can be spent watching cardinals as they search for food, or feed their young in a nearby shrub or hedge.

The various songs of the mockingbird are quick to draw attention to a new observer. My bird watching began with a purple martin house which attracted one pair of young birds the first year.

A pair of binoculars and a field guide are musts if you wish to identify birds. The 7x35 binoculars are good for all around observation and can be had for as little as $15. I believe the best field guide for our area is "A Field Guide to the Birds of Texas" and adjacent states, by Roger Tory Peterson. This book can be found at most bookstores at a cost of about $6.

We are situated on the Central Flyway for migratory birds. This extends through the central portion of the USA from Canada to Mexico. Many non-resident birds stop in our area as they fly south in fall and as they return north in spring.

A little known fact is that almost all migratory birds are protected by state and federal laws. This means that the youngster who shoots migratory birds with a B.B. or Pellet gun within the city limits not only violates a city ordinance but also breaks state and federal regulations. These laws include protection of birds of prey, eagles, hawks and owls.

The reason for the complete protection is simple: Birds are valuable as a natural means of insect and rodent control.

Members of Park Area Home Demonstration club met Oct. 18 in the home of Mrs. Ed Penn. Mrs. O. B. Nolen opened the meeting by leading the salute to the flag. Mrs. James Fortner and Mrs. Roy Fortner led the devotion by singing "The More We Get Together" and "Smiles."

Mrs. Bill Warren from the Social Security office gave a talk on security benefits.

Mrs. Roby and Mrs. Ray I. Low each volunteered to bake a cake to be taken to SAFB for this month.

Others present were Mmes. O. M. Jones, Floyd Stermer, H. M. Mahler, James Oliver, A. H. Estes, Leo Fletcher, Lee Vaughan, G. V. Henderson, Joe Cope, W. C. Flerning.

Iowa Park Hawks punished the Brownwood Lions last Friday evening here with a devastating attack through the line which the Gordon Wood boys could not contain.

A stadium filled crowd of about 8,000 fans got all it came for and went away singing the praises of every Hawk. Incidentally, it was a team victory, with every man on the Hawk roster going on the playing field.

Iowa Park kicked off and the Lions got off six plays with only 14 yards of gain before punting.

Iowa Park reeled off three first downs before punting to Brownwood. They made three first downs and threw a pass which we intercepted and started back from the Iowa Park 44. After a first down on the Brownwood 44, the first quarter ended.

On the first play, Brownwood intercepted a pass and wound up on the Hawk 17. Three plays and a penalty put the ball on the Hawk 2. This was punched over and a good kick made the score 7 Brownwood with 8:49 remaining in the half.

Iowa Park was unable to get over the penalties blues and had to kick. Brownwood couldn't go and kicked to the Iowa Park 28. After a 5 yard gain, Frazier hit Burkhardt with a perfect pass and he didn't stop until the goal line was reached. Hallford's kick was good, and we were even.

Brownwood fumbled on the first play after our kickoff, and Iowa Park was in business again. Eight short runs accomplished another score. This time it was David Ross from 1 yard out. Again Hallford's kick was good.

At this point 1:04 was left in the second quarter. But it took only two plays for Brownwood to tie the game. A pass good for 56 yards did the trick and there were still 49 seconds to play.

After the usual marching and musical performances by visiting Brownwood and the Mean Green Marching Machine, the Hawks confidently took the kickoff and marched upfield, stalling on the 11 yard line. Here Hallford filled the gap by kicking a 27 yard field goal.

Brownwood couldn't go, so we took their kick on the 27. After 4 running plays, Frazier fooled the Lions by handing the ball to Randy Brown at the 40. He got away from everybody and raced over the line. Again Hallford did his PAT job and we had a 10 point lead with 1 minute left in the 3rd stanza.

Brownwood promptly fumbled and Iowa Park took possession. Seven plays later the score was raised to 31-14. Now there was 9:37 left on the scoreboard and Grady Graves began inserting his reserves in the game.

Ball control then set in, and Brownwood was forced to kick twice, giving the Hawks the opportunity to hang on until 2 minutes remained. From midfield, aided by some Iowa Park penalties and two completed passes, the Lions managed a six-pointer with 5 seconds remaining.

Final score 31-20.

During the past week Mr. and Mrs. Homer Mulkey entertained a number of guests in their home including Mmes. Vera Maxwell and Vera Farmer of Belen, N.M.; a niece Mrs. L. C. Grisham of Amarillo; and Blake and Burke Lucy of Ft. Sill, Okla. Mrs. Letha King and Claude Wilmoth of Wichita Falls joined them for Sunday dinner in their home.

"World Order and Peace Day"

Through several functions and programs, World Order and Peace Day was observed Sunday at the United Methodist church.

"Makers of World Peace" was the theme of the morning sermon by The Rev. Mr. Don Youngblood. "Let peace begin with me. A pious wish for peace is not enough. Preaching and prayer are not enough. People in church and the community must get along.

Mrs. Georgia Flanagan, chairman of the Area of Social Concern, defined the objectives of that facet of church organization and closed by reading the poem "Others."

Of special significance was the presence in the congregation of SAFB students from four foreign countries as follows:

- Ist Lt. Nuason Pornler of Thailand
- Ssgt Visiane Navongphanth Ssgt Phasith
- Ssgt Nhomg Sayavong Ssgt Vanna Khamvongsa all four of Laos
- Ist Lt. Charles Oputa Aic Theophilus George the two of Nigeria
- Sgt. Davoud Reaisi of Iran

At the noon hour the congregation and guests enjoyed a meal in the dining hall, at which time all were entertained with a musical program.

As a sentimental and informative conclusion to the day's program, Mrs. W. A. George was speaker at the evening service. She gave a graphic description of the work of Larry and Mickey George at the mission station in Mrewa, Rhodesia, where they have just concluded a year of teaching and serving. She closed by playing a recorded sermon by Larry on the subject "You are either a missionary or a mission field."

Again all were invited to the dining room where WSG served punch and cookies as each exchanged with another ideas on the happenings of this eventful day in the local church.

Music Study

The first of three studies on the Trapp Family Singers was presented Thursday evening by Miss Ethyle Kidwell at the meeting of Modern Music Study club. Members gathered in the home of Mrs. James A. Sewell with Mrs. Keith Aults as co-hostess.

Theme for the year is "Around the World with Music." Story of this Austrian family is "A Family on Wheels." Miss Kidwell said it "reads like a fairy tale" as she gave background information on the Trapps.

Mrs. Aults played and sang a medley of German airs; Mrs. Delbert Todd sang "Wah-Wah-Tay-See," an American lullaby, words by Longfellow, with Mrs. Sewell as accompanist.

"La Paloma" by Sebastian Yradier was the contribution of Miss Helen Reed. Schumann's "Lotus Flower" was sung by Mrs. Kenneth Flowers, accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Schell.

Frmi's "Indian Love Call" was a duo-piano number by Mrs. Sewell and Mrs. Georgia Flanagan.

Mrs. Gene Owens directed the old American song "Reuben and Rachel" as the group sang.

The refreshment table was loaded with goodies from foreign recipes ranging from fondue to fortune cookies.

Others present were Mrs. J. W. Farmer, Otis Gay, Bertha McDonald, Cal McKinnon, Sue Jacquart, Esther Gallop.

Senior Citizens

Guests present and participating in the games at Senior Citizens club Monday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Emmons of Tampa and Mrs. Ada Mayo of Colton, Calif. Mrs. Emmons is a sister of Hill Spruiell.

Others present were Messrs. and Mrs. J. A. Berg, Bob Pruit, Ed Hayes and Spruiell; Messrs. Shirley Trimm, Myrtice McDonald, Amma Chesher, Glad Thompson, Myrtle Travis, O. Jones, Lydia Hudson, Johnnie Barnes, Mae Roby, M. L. Hines; Messrs. Grover Hodges, F. A. Clark, T. M. Clark.

DAWN MARIE SWANSON

Mr. and Mrs. Davey Swanson parents of a daughter Dawn Marie, born Oct. 10. Wt. 7 lb. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Schroeder of Wichita and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Swanson of Iowa Park. Great-grandmothers are Mrs. E. Brown, Mrs. Ina Swanson, Mrs. Rose Schroeder. Grandmother Mrs. Sarah Swanson of Duncan, Okla., is great-grandmother of the young lady.

Birthday Party

Mrs. George Wood was honored on her birthday Oct. 7 in the home of her daughter Mrs. Carolyn Smith at Wichita Falls. All of her children except Mrs. Wendell Gray of Ft. Worth and Mrs. Lou Campbell of Kansas City and the grandchildren joined in making a lovely celebration.

Taking part were the sons John, Loyd, George and his son Steve, all of Iowa Park; and the daughters: Mmes. Pete Shook, Eldon Dowell, Erwin Bauch, Stacy Braeberry, all of Iowa Park.

Refreshments of punch, coffee and cake with all the lovely gifts made the birthday most enjoyable.

Eastern Star

Iowa Park Chapter 42, Order of the Eastern Star, met Tuesday evening for a short business session, followed by an openhouse to entertain Masons and the families.

Faye Gibbs, worthy matron, greeted the guests. A humorous skit was presented under direction of Janis Latimer. Eastern Stars depicted wives of Masons getting together to discuss their dissatisfaction at the preoccupation shown in the Masonic Lodge by their husbands. Some funny ideas were expressed on what it is all about.

A reading "The Level and the Square" was given by Mrs. Robbie Smith.

Favors were distributed to the guests and members, after which refreshments of sandwiches, cake, coffee and punch were served.

Mrs. Gibbs will attend Grand Chapter in Ft. Worth and will be a member of the Grand Choir.

Shooks Visit in England

When Wink and Melba Shook decided to take their first airplane flight together, they did a Jimmy Dean, they went whole hog! It was a five day visit in England earned by Beall Auto Parts and sponsored by United Delco Co.

Mrs. Shook reported they left Dallas on Sept. 27, stopped in Detroit for refueling and arrived in London about 10 hours out of Dallas. "We flew above heavy clouds at 37,000 feet and did not get to see anything until a beautiful sunrise, which was really something to behold.

"Shook and I were supposed to become air sick, but though it was a rough flight, we were not affected."

The Texas tourists, 176 in this group, stayed pretty much together for their sight-seeing because it was so well planned and gave them the maximum of coverage in the minimum of time.

"Our first tour was of the central part of London starting from the Royal Garden Hotel. Joining it on the north was Hyde Park, where lots of people go after closing time. Most of them do not have yards, so the parks are best suited for relaxation and visiting.

"At the west end of the park is a museum; then to the south of it is the beautiful home of Princess Margaret. On our trip we passed the Embassy building and St. Paul Cathedral and then arrived at the Tower of London.

"There are several towers in London. The guards assigned to them are appointed for life and at death they are buried in their tower! Some were sociable and would let us take their pictures. Others would not talk with us.

"We crossed the Thames river across London Bridge. There are some 17 such bridges and we crossed several of them."

The tour included a view of Westminster Abbey and lunch on Piccadilly Square. Turned loose there to take in more of the sights, the Shooks had the rare privilege of riding in a taxi back to their hotel.

"If you have not ridden a taxi in London, you have missed it all," says Melba.

The next day's tour was to Windsor Castle. The Texans were permitted to go inside but not to take pictures. However, a booklet describing and picturing the ancient building was available. They went through the Norman Gate constructed for William the Conqueror to complete a ring of fortresses around London. In 1180 Henry III replaced this with a stone building known today as the Round Tower.

"We visited the State Apartments since the Queen was out of England at the time," said Mrs. Shook. "We also toured Queen Mary's doll house and it is just that. All furniture, pictures and carpets are very pretty. We had lunch in the Castle Hotel just across the street from the Lower Ward. The afternoon was used for shopping, seeing the downtown and the parks."

A 200-mile trip took up the final day of the visit in England. We went to Oxford and Stratford-on-Avon. On the trip we saw some houses with roofs made of reeds. We saw Shakespeare's birthplace. Once it was torn down and rebuilt. Now it was torn down again and built again the original style. Our trip through rural England was awe inspiring."

Mr. and Mrs. Shook did not get to make acquaintance with many English persons, but there are scores of fellow Texans who share their new-found interest in Merry Old England.

Special Education

Dr. Earl F. Watson was speaker for an informative program at the meeting of Iowa Park Association for Special Education at the Bradford Cafeteria Tuesday evening. He gave illustrations from experience of signs that indicate children who would profit most by being in Special Education classes. He listed difficulties in hearing, sight, hyper-activity, or making decisions or emotional responses.

Parents then entered into an interesting discussion on the experiences they have had in these areas with their children.

Mrs. Charles Galliton was in charge of business. She reported three rugs have been bought for two rooms at Bradford at cost of $425. Teachers Rena Otten and Jeanne Herschel expressed gratitude for this aid in their class work

The president also reported the sale of a sofa the children have upholstered and of ceramics they have made, with the proceeds going into the treasury of the organization.

By way of adding to the treasury further, it was voted to have a Fun Room at the Halloween Carnival Saturday evening and to include a Tasting Party of home-made foods as part of the entertainment.

Mrs. A. L. Miller exhibited some green felt banners she had made that day and said they can bring in a profit if members will help with the cutting and selling. The Association adopted the project. It was voted that a catered meal be served previous to the meeting in December as another source of revenue.

Other teachers present included John Sibley, Steve Witchey, Joyce Allen, Pat Davis, Mary Simmons, Edith Hamilton, Caroline Branch and Beverly Cashon.

Mrs. Tommie Jares served coffee and donuts to 42 persons and Richard Elliott accepted payment of $2 per family membership dues for the school year.

Red Cross Honors Two Parkans

Two community workers were surprised last Thursday when the Bloodmobile was here. Amid the activity of the afternoon Joan Robinson and Sue Cook were paged and called to come to the front of the room.

Harry Moore, local blood chairman, introduced them, and Joe Arrington, executive director of Wichita county chapter of Red Cross, presented them certificates "in grateful appreciation for the many hours of service to the Iowa Park blood program."

For eight years Joan was chairman of the Blood project here and a member of the Red Cross board of directors three years. Sue has been helping since 1968.

Robbie, Joan's husband, is a director at the present time and last Thursday became a three-gallon donor. He is an instructor at Sheppard AFE.

The Cook and Robinson families are members of United Methodist church here. Joan is secretary to the pastor Don Youngblood.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Trammel spent last weekend in Austin with their daughter Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ryan and Silas. On Sunday they attended services at the University United Methodist church. Mary Helen Gibbs has returned from Hampton, Va., where she has been visiting the past three months with her brother Bill and family. Bill is stationed at Newport News, where his submarine is being overhauled. Mary is employed in Wichita Falls with the Woods Memorial Nursing Home.

Home Again

Mrs. R. B. Sisk returned Tuesday from a vacation in Arizona. She went first to see her daughter Bettie at Tucson, and they made a one day sight-seeing trip to Nogales.

Bettie's friend Joan Henderson joined them for a visit to Scottsdale to see Mrs. Tirzah Portis and Miss Hazel Crites. There they "talked about everybody in Iowa Park" they could think of because the sisters wanted news of their many friends, with particular mention of Mrs. Frank Immanuel. Pepper the dog is still a member of the family.

Tirzah proudly showed pictures of her great-granddaughter, the daughter of Jimmie Don Portis, who lives in New York.

Other items include baked goods, Christmas decorations, plants, gifts for the hospital room, oven pot lifters, travel kits, jellies, decoupage.

The bazaar will be open for business from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 4 at Park West Shopping Center, next door to the jewelry store.

Miss Blanks has returned recently from a tour of the Northwestern states and Canada. Several items she found on the trip will be for sale. Garments for children will also be for sale.

The Women of the Church are inviting all area folk to the bazaar.

"BOY, CAN I PICK 'EM!"

100 W. PARK PH. 592-4139

Iowa Park Camp Fire Leaders Association met Tuesday in the Chamber of Commerce office with Mrs. Kenneth Young directing the session. Major item of business was outlining activities for several months. Mrs. Tom Neeley and Mrs. Ray Lunsford served as the calendar committee. The following events were scheduled:

Nov. 18: North Central Council girls will participate in the Festival of Dolls and are getting dolls to present to some less fortunate children at Christmas time. The Festival will be in the gymnasium of First Baptist church in Wichita Falls. Mrs. Austin Webb of Iowa Park will be director of the sing-song.

Jan. 20: Local annual meeting: covered dish supper for leaders and directors and sponsors.

Mrs. Chris Proctor of Wichita Falls, field representative, was present to assist in the planning.

Each leader is to give a craft suggestion at one of the meetings. Tuesday, Mrs. Howard Hatcher showed how to make burlap flowers and also how to make a "cloved apple" with net around it, which is beautiful and keeps indefinitely. Mrs. Bill Miller exhibited a novelty decoration, a little blue bird perched on a piece of bark beside a spray of dried flowers.

Mrs. Dee Hughes and Mrs. J. L. Chapman will bring craft ideas next month.

STEPHEN GREGORY ROPES

MSgt and Mrs. Russell Stanley Ropes are parents of Stephen Gregory, born Sept. 22, 1961, in hospital. Weight 8 lb 2 oz. He has sisters Jeanine 4 and Kathy 1 to play with.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bertrand of Amarillo and Mrs. Frances Callahan of Mattoon, Ill.

Great-grandparents are Mrs. Ida Ropes of Chicago and Chester Dallas of Mattoon.

The Ropesfamily have been in Iowa Park five months and plan to stay in Texas. Russell is a medical lab technician student.

Plans are being made for the Valley Farms Community annual homecoming on Nov. 4. All residents and former residents and their families are invited and urged to attend and to bring food. Registration will begin at 5:00 p.m. and the meal will start at 6:30.

Youth Sunday

Grateful for the church's opportunity to share in "National Youth Week," the First Presbyterian church will observe Youth Sunday on Oct. 22. Young People will be in complete charge of the Worship Service at 9:00 a.m.

Message will be brought by Amy Dressler, Gary Frazier and James Richter. Both the Youth and Children's choirs will sing. Teresa White will be worship leader and Dena Johnston will lead in prayers.

All of the other young people of the church will take part in the service in some way. They are urging everyone to come to the church dressed informally for the service.

Presbyterian Paragraphs

The first Saturday in November will be a good time to get your Christmas shopping done at the Benefit Bazaar sponsored by Miss Titia Belle Blanks and Mrs. L. D. Hawkins, assisted by the Lucy Birk circle of the Presbyterian church.

The bazaar funds will be used to benefit the Baptist Children's Home at Round Rock and Goodland Presbyterian Children's Home at Hugo, Okla.

There will be many unique items for sale at the bazaar, such as: Queen Elizabeth cake recipe, reportedly the only cake the Queen ever makes. The recipe is not to be passed around and is to be used for charity purposes only.

Social notes made with pressed flowers from the Queen's court in British Columbia, and flowers from Mt. Garibaldi, dried and pressed.

HERE'S WHAT McGOVERN IS DOING FOR RURAL AMERICA

HIS STANDING - George McGovern has been elected time and again as a Democrat from a Republican farm state . . . because they know where he stands.

TAXES - His tax proposal would end the loopholes for tax-loss farming by giant corporations and the wealthy individuals who compete unfairly with family farmers. McGovern's proposal calls for the same tax on capital gains as on earnings.

FARM ISSUES - He sponsored and cosponsored: Meat Import Limitation Law; Dairy Import Act; Wheat, Feed Grain, and Soybean Emergency Reserve Bill; Rural Development, Rural Job Development, and Rural Telephone Acts; Farm Credit Act; and other pieces of important legislation.

HIS BELIEFS - George McGovern knows that the answers to many of our most pressing problems in America today can be found by developing genuine opportunities for everyone in our small towns and rural areas throughout the country.

Let's not be taken for granted by the Nixon Republicans. Rural America has always fared best under a Democratic administration. If you want to stand up and do something good for rural America, the answer is to help put a Democrat in the White House. We need George McGovern . . . and George McGovern needs us.

Carolyn Gibson of Iowa Park is participating in Women's Intramural Volleyball at Hardin-Simmons university, Abilene. She is a member of Tri Phi No. 2 team.

A number of relatives visited Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Moore this week to help celebrate his birthday. His sister Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Butler of Bryson were here on Wednesday. A nephew Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Moore and a grandnephew Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wayne Moore, all of Snyder; a sister Mrs. Effie Howze and friend Jess Hall; and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Briscoe of Iowa Park had Sunday dinner in the M. G. Moore home.

Chamber directors met Monday for lunch and business with Pres. Ralph Beall in charge. Don Hughes reported on the Harold Swanson Fund drive. All individuals, churches, and city organizations have been helpful. The fund has passed $1500 and much canned food and staple grocery items have been donated.

The Lioness club, both Lions clubs and ESA are carrying on projects.

Harold Swanson Sunday was broadcast over KTRN radio with assistance of the Rotary club. It brought in food and clothing. Herbert Skinner is administrator of funds collected.

George R. Huckaby gave a report on Historical Aids and recommended that records of the town and all organizations be obtained and kept at a central location, such as the school, chamber or library.

Mrs. Frank Harlin has decouped a picture "The Man with the Golden Helmet" by Rembrandt and given it to the Chamber of Commerce. The directors are grateful and invite art lovers to come and see this handsome work of art.

Annual membership meeting of the C of C will be held at noon Nov. 20. All members will be notified and encouraged to make reservations and come for lunch. Election of directors will be held.

Plans are being made to have a nominee to enter the Pioneer Bowl Queen contest. The girl selected to represent Iowa Park will be in the parade, attend a luncheon, be on television, attend the banquet and be presented at the Pioneer Bowl game on Dec. 9.

"Self Estimate" was theme of an interesting talk by Sue Owens at the meeting of Alpha Epsilon Omicron chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, Tuesday evening in the Texas electric Service Co. office. Aspects suggested for judging were personality, work, health, and each one present was asked to state "What makes me happiest."

Betsy Sawyer announced that rituals for new pledges will be a part of the Oct. 24 meeting. The pledges are Lela Garrels, Carolyn Fulfer; and Andrea Barker will take the ritual of jewels, having transferred here from another Beta Sigma Phi chapter.

A family wiener roast is scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 29, at Scotland Park at 5:00. . . . and members will have a bake sale Saturday morning at Piggly Wiggly food store.

The group voted to donate a book each month to Iowa Park Library as a service project.

Mary Bludnick served refreshments during fellowship time. Also present was Barbara Grove, reporter.

SHUCKS

by George R. Huckaby

The massive screwworm epidemic Texas has experienced is another example of Republican agricultural neglect which will cost farmers and consumers billions of dollars.

Under previous Democratic administrations a program was established in conjunction with Texas leaders like John C. White which almost entirely eliminated the screwworm threat to Texas livestock.

The recent six months of neglect has destroyed 10 years of successful screwworm eradication. Now a massive screwworm epidemic plagues Texas.

Before this emergency is finally brought under control again the cost to farmers and consumers will have run into billions of dollars.

Each passing week make it more obvious that we must return Democrats to the White House before this callous administration totally wreck's the nation's agricultural economy.

PHI CHI THETA AT MIDWESTERN

Business or economics students at Midwestern university have an organization for women called Phi Chi Theta. It is a national fraternity. Although not a social club, members enjoy activities with one another and faculty members.

Besides emphasizing service to the School of Business and Midwestern university, Phi Chi Theta encourages the ever-expanding role of women in the business world and friendship among those dedicated to business careers.

1st Baptist Items

by Mrs. Edd Penn

Sunday guests registered at the First Baptist church were C. R. Drake of Guymon, Okla., guest of Darlena Boring.

Bertha Blair of Wichita Falls with Mrs. H. N. Hall.

Mrs. O. B. Carroll of Tyler, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McKinnon.

Janie Henson, city, guest of brother Hines.

W. A. Terrell is at the home of his daughter Mr. and Mrs. Jim McClendon after three weeks in Bethel hospital. He was brought here Wednesday about noon and insisted on being fed lunch at the Bess Cafe before going home to get in bed. Now, Alwin, mind your daughter and hurry and get well.

New Policeman

Gerald Franks jr. is now on active duty as a full-fledged member of Wichita Falls Police Department. He was graduated last Friday in a service conducted at Police Headquarters, and was top student in the class of 15.

Gerald and his wife, the former Dawnna Scobee and their 22-month-old son Cody live on Route 1, Wichita Falls. His parents also live on that route.

Gerald and Dawnna are graduates of IPHS and members of the United Methodist church here.

Niece Dies

Mrs. Johnnie Wilhoit of Perrin died last week in a Wichita Falls hospital. She was a niece of Mrs. P. E. Lemon and Mrs. Ruby McKenzie of Iowa Park.

Funeral service was conducted in the First Baptist church of Perrin with the Rev. M. E. L. Mullins officiating. Burial was in the Perrin Memorial Gardens.

Survivors include her husband; daughter Mrs. Richard White of El Paso; son Johnnie Mack of the home; her mother Mrs. Ola Casbeer and sister Mrs. Buster Armstrong of Jacksboro; two brothers C. A. Massengale of Hurst and Harold Barber of Ben Brook; two grandsons; and a number of nieces and nephews and aunts.

Mrs. Casbeer has been a frequent visitor in Iowa Park.

TOPS 138

A word scramble on diet and food directed by Shirley Hicks was diversion for members of TOPS 138 at their regular meeting Monday evening at Texas Electric office. Gerald Wood was the queen for the week. Margaret Farr was absent and missed getting paid from the money jar.

Members attending the workshop at Ft. Worth last week report a profitable meeting. Iowa Park unit will be responsible for the Hospitality Room next May at the convention.

Pug Walsh qualified again as a KTW and is looking forward to being eligible once more as a KOP member.

Next Monday the tape measure losers will be hostesses for the salad supper and Halloween celebration. Secret pals will be revealed.

Others present were Allene Sigafus, new member; Bessie Vestal, Hazel Moore, Louise Helms, Corky Pickens, Betty Lowe, Era Mae Baxter, Adele Callaway, Mildred Beall, Lela Garrels, Mildred McLemore, Gay Williams.
