PEDESTRIAN MISHAP—A pedestrian-automobile mishap shortly after school dismissed Nov. 24 sent Tommy Lee, 16, of 1000 Mary Drive to Wichita General Hospital where he was reported Wednesday in satisfactory condition suffering a broken right leg and multiple scrapes and bruises. David H. Pitcock of 601 Manes was driving a vehicle northbound on Johnson Road which struck Lee near the south access road intersection. Lee was thrown 35 feet, according to Iowa Park police reports. Pitcock and a passenger, Richard Dietrichson, were not injured. Iowa Park patrolmen quickly responded to the scene [upper photo] to apply emergency first aid to Lee, who was picked up by Gold Cross Ambulance Service 15 minutes from the time of the accident. Lower photo shows damage incurred by the Pitcock vehicle. No charges were filed as a result of the mishap, police said.

Petition for annexation is presented to council

Almost half a square mile is proposed to be annexed into the city of Iowa Park.

Meeting in a called session Tuesday night, the city council set a public hearing on the annexation for Dec. 13, which is the council's next regular meeting date.

Annexation is being requested by petition, primarily from residents of housing developments Shiloh I and II. However, the area involved takes in considerably more than the developments.

The proposed territory is bounded on the north side by Shiloh II, and on the west by the west fence of Park Tank, a firm that fronts on the access road, and Johnson Road on the east.

A petition signed by 48 residents of the proposed annexing territory was presented to the council by Don Flowers, who resides in that area. Of the 48 signatures, 44 signed as being for annexation, and four signed as being against annexation.

The signatures reportedly represented 80 percent of the eligible voters owning property in the area, and under state law, a simple majority can carry such an issue.

Article 974, which was quoted at the meeting, states:

"When a majority of the inhabitants qualified to vote for members of the State legislature of any territory adjoining the limits of any city incorporated under, or accepting the provisions of, this title, to the extent of one-half mile in width, shall vote in favor of becoming a part of said city, any three of them may make affidavit to the fact to be filed before the mayor, who shall certify the same to the city council of said city. The said city council may, by ordinance, receive them as part of said city; from henceforth the territory so received shall be a part of said city; and the inhabitants thereof shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of citizens, and bound by the acts and ordinances made in conformity with the constitution and passed in pursuance of the title."

G.R. "Rusty" Rusk, owner of Park Tank, appeared before the council Tuesday to voice his disapproval of being included in the annexing area. He explained that he had moved out of the city to where he is now located because of problems created with neighboring residents by his heavy equipment which operates on a 24-hour basis.

Mayor Johnny Crawford assured Rusk that the area along the Access Road would be considered for zoning as light industrial and business use by the city's planning and zoning commission.

An effort was made by residents of the Shiloh additions earlier this year to be annexed. Complications brought about by inaccurate legal description of the area nullified the proposal, however.

The proposed area at that time included only the two housing developments and three residential properties fronting Johnson Road.

Besides taking in a squared-off area this time, the home of Junior Guthrie is included this time.

Guthrie, who platted Country Hills Estates, the residential area north of the Expressway, had not included his home site in the original plat.

One tract of land on the west side of Johnson Road is already in the city limits. The tract is the Kidd Texaco Station, which was annexed when the business was built about five years ago.

Other areas nearby the proposed annexing area had indicated a desire to be taken into the city, such as the home of Rip Smith north of Shiloh. However, because of the half-mile limit as set out in the law, that area could not be taken in under this petition.

The council is to make a decision on whether to accept the area into the city following the public hearing. Indications are, at the present, that aldermen will vote in favor of annexation.

Charter study group to meet

Third meeting of the Home Rule charter study committee is slated for 7:30 this evening in the city council meeting room, according to Dr. Erwin Soell, chairman.

Members are studying various sections of a document which residents will vote on, if they approve drafting of a new charter.

Citizens will vote on whether to have a document drafted at a special election called for Jan. 15. Charter commission candidates will be listed on the same ballot, who will then draft the charter should the proposal be approved.

Recommendations on a charter will be proposed to the charter commission by members of the study group.

Building permits nearing million

Another million-dollar construction year for Iowa Park is almost assured, according to building permits reported through November at the city hall.

Permits were issued for $127,750 by the city during November, bringing the 11-month total to $966,399.

At this time last year the permits amounted to $1,530,062. However, that included the junior high school remodeling and a church construction.

Two years ago, permits amounted to only $510,200 for the same 11-month period.

Permits were issued for three new homes last month, boosting the total.

Permits included:
W.C. Fleming, 509 W. Aldine, shed, $750;
R.L. Gill, 111 W. Pecan, mobile home,

$6,000;
Ed. W. Anderson, 1329 Sunset, patio, $500;
Cecil Johnson, 1112 Louisa, add-on, $4,800;
William Martin, 412 Poe, mobile home, $5,000;
Richard Schroeder, 801 N. Park, new residence, $21,000;
Rip Smith, 1504 Waggonwheel, new residence, $45,000;
L.D. Janzen, 506 W. Washington, mobile home, $7,500;
B.J. Dickerson, W. Emerald, shed, $300;
Jim Spikes, 501 Aleott, mobile home, $6,500;
Bernice Trask, 306 W. Ruby, add-on, $1,000;
Rip Smith, 22 Surrey, new residence, $15,000.

Former Iowa Park policeman faces felony drug charges

A former Iowa Park police officer, Gene Earl Adams, was among five persons arrested and charged in the wake of a Nov. 16 drug bust in Guadalupe County when law enforcement officials seized almost 800 pounds of marijuana.

Adams and three others face felony charges for possession of over four ounces of marijuana. A fifth person was charged with conspiracy to possess over four ounces of marijuana.

Adams, 27, a summer graduate of Nortex Police Academy who recently received his basic law enforcement certification, resigned from the police force here in September, according to Chief Charles Beaver.

He had served on the police force here since August of 1975, Beaver said.

Beaver offered no additional comment on the case. Four of the persons are reported free on bond; however, only after original bonds were lowered.

Guadalupe County Justice of the Peace Willie Mae Morawetz originally set bond at $100,000 each for Adams; William Gregory Forbes, 25, of Wichita Falls; David Allen Dillard, 35, of Denison; and Jose Louis Alvarez, 27, of Mission.

A district judge later reduced the bonds.

The Seguin Gazette reports Adams is free after posting $20,000 on Nov. 22.

Forbes also is reported free on $20,000 bond.

Alvarez is free after posting a $40,000 bond.

Dillard reportedly remains in Guadalupe County Jail in lieu of $40,000 bond.

The fifth person, Delores Everett Cox, 39, of Denison, was charged for conspiracy to possess over four ounces of marijuana and is free after posting $5,000 bond.

The drug bust began to materialize around 7:30 p.m. Nov. 16 when a Guadalupe County deputy sheriff noticed a low-flying aircraft circling the county airstrip, located about 35 miles northeast of San Antonio.

The aircraft landed and parked near the hangar.

Noticing no movement inside the aircraft, the deputy called for a backup unit, but when both officers converged on the aircraft the pilot was gone, the Seguin Gazette reported.

The officers discovered the aircraft was loaded with kilo bricks of marijuana, later estimated at 800 pounds with a street value of $257,000.

More police units were called to the scene and the search for the pilot continued.

Seventeen law enforcement officials were involved in the investigation, the Seguin newspaper reported.

Officers discovered a male had checked into a motel near the airport, and the room and aircraft remained under surveillance.

At 2 a.m. a female arrived at the motel room, and almost two hours later an enclosed blue van arrived at the motel. Three men entered the motel room, the newspaper said.

Shortly afterward, two men left the motel and made several trips between the motel and the airport in the automobile.

Then the four males left in the van, drove to the airport and proceeded to empty the contents of the airplane into the van.

Law enforcement officials converged on the aircraft at that time and made the arrests.

Officers reported no violence. U.S. Customs agents seized the airplane, automobile and van.

Sunday deadline for decorations

Sunday is the deadline for entries to be in place in the downtown Christmas decorations contest.

Organizations entering are to erect Christmas scenes and decorations on 10 by 12 foot plots along the median of Park Street. Sites are designated by Chamber of Commerce secretary Mrs. Ray Pittman.

The organizations will be vying for $50 first place prize money, and $25 for second place. The Iowa Park Retail Merchants Association is sponsoring the contest.

Decorations will be judged Dec. 15, according to Don Flowers, chairman of the organization.

In addition, business houses in Iowa Park will be judged for Christmas decorations, on the basis of overall appearance, either inside or outside or both. A prize of $50 will be awarded the winner.

Burglar gets small haul

Discount Food Store at 107 W. Park was burglarized Monday night; however, thieves escaped with only $1.50 in nickles, according to Iowa Park Police Department reports.

Junior Wakefield reported the burglary to the business which occurred sometime between 8 p.m. and 11:15 p.m. Monday.

Police investigation showed the burglars gained entry through a door to the alley.

Wakefield estimated $1.50 in nickles had been removed from a cash register.

Iowa Park High School was the victim of vandalism Nov. 23. Gilbert Stogsdill discovered two plate glass doors to the building had been broken.

Police found a large rock inside the school.

Tommy Johnson at 701 W. Manes reported $50 worth of tools had been taken from a parked pickup truck sometime between Nov. 23 and Sunday.

ABRUPT HALT—A pickup driven by Shirley Scroggins of Abilene stopped in a hurry shortly after 10 p.m. Friday when it slammed into a Texas Electric Service pole about an eighth of a mile west of Iowa Park on Smith Road. Impact of the vehicle snapped the pole, and a wire carrying 12,500 volts, according to a TESCO spokesman. Electric service was knocked out 20 minutes to Cryovac and almost an hour in downtown business area and west half of south Iowa Park. Miss Scroggins and her passenger Scott McClure of Wichita Falls were bruised, but otherwise uninjured.

Partneys are honored on golden anniversary

A large number of relatives and friends from Fort Worth, Henrietta, Whitesboro, Gordonville, Wichita Falls, Houston, Amarillo, Roby, Nocona, Elbert and Iowa Park in Texas, Adair, Okla. and Kansas City, Kansas attended a reception held in the Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon to honor Mr. and Mrs. W.G. Partney who were commemorating their 50th wedding anniversary.

Hosting the event were the couple's children and their spouses, Mr. and Mrs. L.H. Hicks of Rotan, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Huckaby of Iowa Park, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Partney of Nocona, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Banks of Wichita Falls and Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Robertson of Borger. Fifteen of the honored couple's seventeen grandchildren were present and assisted with the reception. Their three great-grandchildren were also present.

W.G. Partney and Cora Lee Hargrove were married Sunday, Nov. 28, 1926 at Throckmorton by the late Rev. Carnell, pastor of First Baptist Church. They farmed near Throckmorton until 1934 when they moved to Young County to farm.

A dream to own their own farm and home which they had cherished since their marriage became a reality when they were chosen by the Farm and Home Administration as good prospects for farm owners and to own a farm in Wichita Valley Farms. They celebrated Christmas Day 1937 by moving to their new home southeast of Iowa Park where they lived until they sold the farm and moved into Iowa Park April 17, 1970.

In addition to farming, Mr. Partney worked for Carnation Milk Co. 25 years. Since retiring from the company, he has driven a bus for the Iowa Park Consolidated School District and is presently working as custodian at Bradford Elementary School.

Mrs. Partney's first work outside the home was to open the first cafeteria in the school system here when all the grades were housed in one building. She later worked at Mrs. Olsen's Sandwich Shop in Wichita Falls for 10 years and for McClurkan's Department Store. A former member of Park Area Home Demonstration Club, she became active in home demonstration club work soon after the family moved to the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Partney are active members of First Baptist Church and are vitally interested in the summer building mission projects of the church.

Guests were greeted at the reception Sunday by Mrs. M.E. Goforth.

Miss Louri Robertson and Miss Sondra Banks, two of the Partney's granddaughters, registered guests at a table laid with a gold and white knit cloth. The appointments included an engraved invitation to the 50th wedding anniversary reception framed in gold, and a gold vase holding white carnations and plumosus fern centered with a gold satin bow.

The refreshment table was the focal point of interest in the setting. Covered with a gold satin cloth featuring a top overlaid with gold lace and a shirred floor length skirt, the centerpiece was a nine-branched white steel candelabrum holding votive candles in gold cups rising from a bank of white carnations, fugi mums and plumosa.

The special feature of the table was the three-tiered anniversary cake decorated with pale gold roses touched with pale green leaves. Lending itself to the occasion was a pretty, yet not over sentimental, top ornament formed of two white doves and the number of years the anniversary celebrated in gold in a fluff of gold-flocked tulle supported by a lacy base. Gold punch was served with the cake.

A nearby table that held the silver coffee service featured a cloth identical to the one on the cake table.

Granddaughters who presided at the refreshments during the afternoon were Misses Nancy Huckaby, Houston, Sarah Robertson, Borger, Mary Lee Hicks, Rotan; Mmes. Paul O'Boynick, Kansas City, Kansas, Ronny Griffith, Amarillo, Gary Morgan, Houston and Bill Beck, Wichita Falls.

Members of the house-party were Mmes. C.O. Dodd, Wayne Williams, Clyde Patterson and Glen Miller.

Another center of interest in the reception room was the gift table which held an assortment of pictures taken during the years of Mr. and Mrs. Partney, their children and their families. A gold container held a floral arrangement made up of tall gold carnations, gold satin ribbon canes centered with the gold numerals "50".

Elsewhere in the room were placed gold potted mums and bouquets of white carnations at vantage points.

During the reception, Mrs. Partney wore a long blue and brown print knit dress styled with a V-neck, long sleeves and a matching sleeveless jacket. She wore a corsage of gold-tipped white carnations and Mr. Partney wore a matching carnation boutonniere.

Commissioners name
Anderson county judge

The controversial question of who would fill the unexpired term of county judge was put to rest Monday when Wichita County Commissioners appointed Wichita County Atty. Hank Anderson to the post.

Anderson will fill the unexpired term of County Judge Calvin Ashley, who was appointed to succeed retiring 30th District Court Judge Arthur Tipps.

The transition will take place Jan. 1.

Anderson, 29, will retire from the county attorney's post on Jan. 1. Bob Estrada will become county attorney along with a host of other politicians elected in November's general election.

Anderson collected the Democratic Party's nomination for county attorney in 1974 when he defeated G.A. Benesh, presently serving as Iowa Park city judge.

Benesh also had applied for the county judge position in addition to Anderson and four other hopefuls.

LEARNING TO RIDE A BICYCLE

When I was growing up I never saw a small bicycle. They were all huge and, unfortunately, no one had invented training wheels at that time.

My first experience with a bicycle was at my brother's friend's house one Sunday afternoon. He had a bike — I guess the first one I ever saw. It was the color of rust. In fact, it was rust and it had no seat, just an old rag wired to where the seat should have been. But he could sure make it fly. We all wanted to ride it but I was afraid. My brother learned sorta how after several spills and spins. Our friend pumped me but I would never try it by myself.

All we could do for the next few days was talk about that bicycle and wish we had one.

To our surprise Dad came home with one about a week later. It was a used one but it looked brand new. Dad had done some work for a man and had taken the bicycle for pay. In no time my brother had mastered it but I was still afraid. It seemed so big! When I stood beside it it was nearly as tall as I was. I used to hold it by the handle bars and push it around the yard, pretending I was riding it, fast as the wind. But I just knew I would never learn how.

One day brother told me he would hold it up and push it if I wanted to ride on the seat. That was great! He pushed me around the yard a time or two then asked me if I would like to go out on the road.

"O.K., if you'll be careful." On the road he said, "Work the pedals and I'll hold it up and push you." It was lots of fun as I was pedaling and he was pushing and I was telling him how much fun it was but he wasn't answering.

Then I realized he wasn't back there anymore. He had given me a push and had turned me loose. I was surprised to find I could actually ride it by myself but I knew I was in trouble because I had no idea how to stop it or get off. I must have ridden a mile or more when out of desperation, I jumped clear of the bike into a deep sand dune. The bike crashed into a barbed wire fence.

My brother ran up to me laughing and yelling, "You did it! You did it!" I spat sand out of my mouth, looked at the bike and nodded. I was pretty proud.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Bob:

Over a period of approximately 1 1/2 to 2 months, there has been a very dangerous, repeated violation of the laws of the City of Iowa Park occurring at the corner of 4th Street and Lincoln Drive. During this period of time, I have contacted the Police Department five times, the City Administrator twice, and the Police Commissioner once to complain about this violation with no apparent success.

The person living at the corner of 4th and Lincoln repeatedly parks an "18 wheeler" tractor-trailer in front of his house, in violation of two specific ordinances; 1. parking less than a specified distance from a corner and 2. operating a tractor-trailer on the streets of the city. Operating the tractor (truck) is legal as long as the trailer is not attached.

The City Fathers have seen fit to raise taxes for the betterment of our city, of which the streets are a part, and I back them 100%. It seems rather wasteful, however, to spend tax money on streets and then allow a heavy, commercial rig to break them down; however, this is not my "beef". I am concerned about the safety of the citizens, including children, who pass by this particular corner on their way to work and school daily. I, personally, have barely avoided either hitting another vehicle, or being hit on three different occasions. The view of oncoming traffic is severely restricted when turning onto 4th from Lincoln, or vice-versa. The flow of traffic on Lincoln is also effectively limited to one, safe lane at the corner.

Many neighborhood children on their way to and from Kidwell, either on foot or bicycle, use Lincoln as a main artery. In fact, there is a pedestrian crossing lane on 4th Street some fifty feet south of the corner. Streets, corners and intersections are dangerous enough for children without compounding the situation. Perhaps the sign on the opposite corner from where the truck parks should be changed from reading "Caution - Children Playing" to "Use Extreme Caution - Children May Be Obscured From View By Illegally Parked Commercial Vehicles".

I am not a complainer, and detest having to complain, except where there is a legitimate reason for doing so. I started at the bottom and worked all the way to the top in a courteous manner. I have bypassed no one in the chain of authority, so I feel I have a right to voice my opinion about this matter publicly.

Although I do not profess to be a lawyer, this should constitute sufficient public notice to the operator of the commercial vehicle that he is in violation of the law, and criminally liable for any damage to property or personal injury resulting from any future violation. I would also think that the City of Iowa Park would be equally liable, if not legally then morally, for either condoning this repeated violation, or failing to enforce the law by levying fines in a sufficient number and amount to discourage such violations by this party.

I would encourage my neighbors in the area to join me in objecting to the dangers of this situation, and to let their voices be heard. Thank you for letting mine be heard.

As I See It....

by BOB HAMILTON

Should we write a law that would require a performance bond of our elected officials?

It seems that all too often, persons run for an office, are elected, and then don't fulfill their promise to the public. That promise is to serve for the length of term of office they seek.

A performance bond would be forfeited if the official failed to complete the term. Maybe death or severe health reasons could serve to release payment of the bond.

I have no quarrel with Wichita County Commissioners naming Hank

Anderson as county judge, or with Calvin Ashley vacating the county judgeship to accept the governor's appointment as district judge.

My problem is Arthur Tipps, who announced his retirement starting the musical chairs reaction.

Elected two years ago, Tipps apparently had no intention of fulfilling his new term of office. At least he gave no indication to that effect when questioned by reporters, or in the statement he issued about retiring.

It appears he had a date planned to retire, and had nothing else to do but draw the fat judge's salary until that time. So he did.

In doing so, he let down every voter who marked Tipps' name on the ballot. He told them, thanks, but I just don't want to any more.

And he, in effect, also told those in power to appoint that they could do what they wanted and the voters could just twiddle their thumbs until the next election date.

The problem: an incumbent is the odds-on favorite to be re-elected. So those in power of appointment become king makers.

Maybe the amount of that performance bond should be whatever it costs to hold an emergency election of the voters to decide on a replacement.

The amount of money should hold them off from quitting. But the fact that they couldn't have anything to do or say about their replacement might be even stronger.

Congratulations Hank, lots of luck Calvin, and a thumb to the nose for Arthur.

New exemption policy adopted

Iowa Park High School Student Council held a meeting Nov. 10 to adopt a new exemption policy for the remaining two quarters of the 1976-77 school year.

New policy states that a student must:

1. Maintain grade average of 70, absent no more than one day and a citizenship grade of B plus.
 2. Maintain grade average of 80, absent no more than two days and a citizenship grade of B plus.
 3. Maintain grade average of 90, absent no more than three days and a citizenship grade of B plus.
- One unexcused absence automatically removes a student's exemption. Unexcused tardies are to count against a student's citizenship grade in the following way:
1. One unexcused tardy lowers citizenship grade to A minus.
 2. Two unexcused tardies lowers citizenship grade to B plus.

3. Three unexcused tardies lowers citizenship grade to B.

Second quarter begins Thursday, Nov. 18 and ends Friday, Feb. 25. Third quarter begins March 2 and ends May 27.

For the people who miss their chance, a new law called the Voluntary Contributory Educational Assistant Program was signed into law. This bill will give servicemen or women an opportunity to put back $50 or $75 each month, up to a maximum of $2700, toward their future education. The Veterans Administration (VA) will put $2 for every $1 the servicemen or women put back.

If the student signs up before Dec. 31, he or she will receive approximately $292 a month for his or her education.

Giant earthworms invading IPHS?

Giant earthworms invading IPHS? It appears that way. The northeast corner of the school has a long ditch where it appears a giant earthworm has come to the surface.

Actually, the opening is the result of a cave-in due to soft dirt. During the summer a drainage system was to be installed and when plans were canceled, the hole was filled. Recent rains caused the surface to cave in.

Leaders Needed Now

By Lisa Bartow

Many people believe the adults of today should prepare, so those of tomorrow will have something left. Commercials, bulletin boards, and pamphlets urge people to conserve, so future generations will have the essential elements of modern life.

Maybe tomorrow will be too late for anything to be done. The blame will be placed on future adults, but the fault will lie with today's.

Television is filled with fictitious stories about killer bees, overwhelming floods, and men being turned into snakes. Of course these are not true, but there is still the realization that they COULD happen. We do not know what the future holds. We do know that if society is not careful, it may very well be that tomorrow we may face such dangers.

It seems that most of the movies on television now, all come with the statement "due to mature theme, viewer discretion is advised." When youngsters see this violence and horror on today's shows, surely they will grow up wondering when it will happen to them.

Of course life always is not a bed of roses, but if a small child has to live with that kind of fear SOMETHING has to be done!

Clear solution for the problem seems to be not waiting until tomorrow for future adults to act. Action is needed now and if today's adults cannot or will not do it maybe the youth should.

Stricter laws are needed to make people avoid such violence, and resist making drugs that might harm the majority. A more careful watch on weather is needed. Fuel needs to be conserved and plans for future use made. Our environment must be preserved.

If adults cannot accomplish these requirements maybe today's youth should take their place in a society starving for results.

Frosh lose last game

Iowa Park freshman football team was defeated 26-42 in a game played at Graham, Nov. 4.

Graham went ahead during the first half with two touchdowns. However, the Hawks stayed in the ballgame with Jeff Crenshaw handing off to Troy Thompson to score three touchdowns on 3, 5, and 10-yard runs. All of the extra points failed.

Defensive standouts for this game were Ronnie Taylor, Billy Maupin, Kirk Flippin and Scott Hutson.

Also scoring for the frosh was Scott Hutson on a 10-yard run. Hutson also ran for the extra points.

This was the last game of the season for the frosh. Running in the plays during most of the games was Randall Schram, Ronnie Dearsen and Mike Phillips.

Belle, Lisa Shultz; Lizzie Ann, Cheryl Hathaway; Minnie Sue, Kathy Wheeler and Ozzie, Steve Anderson.

This is a story of a family where Joshua, the father, does not want to have Christmas and the family strongly disagrees. Then the feud begins.

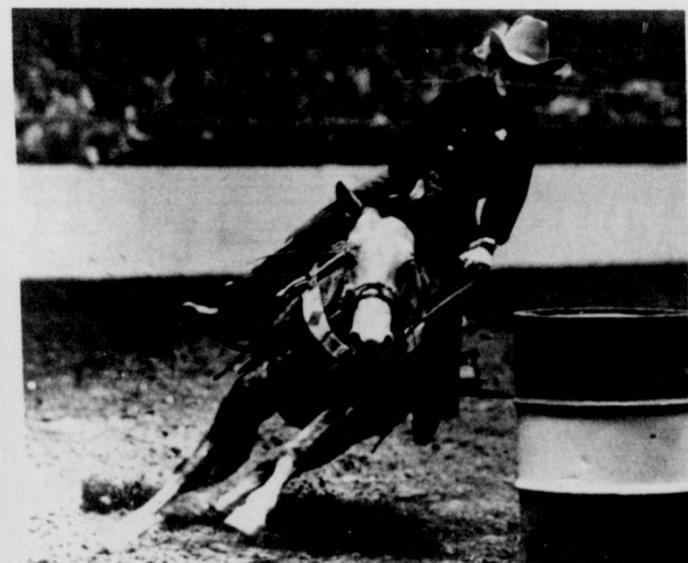

Choir concert Tuesday

Iowa Park High School's Mixed Choirs will present their annual Christmas program Tuesday, Dec. 14 at the high school.

Program begins at 7:30. "Jingle Bell Rock" and other Christmas songs will be sung by second period choir. Fifth period choir will present "Good News Medley."

Mixed choirs will combine to perform the cantata, "Night The Angels Sang," by John W. Peterson.

Miss White is competitor

"I believe anyone who is successful in a sport can trace their success and inspiration back to a specific person who wouldn't give up on them," said Diana White, physical science and health teacher at Iowa Park High School. She also barrel races at local and national rodeos.

Miss White barrel races during the spring with her two horses, Weo and Wanderer. The two are quarter horses which she enters in quarter horse shows, amateur rodeos, parades and professional rodeos.

Girls Rodeo Association (GFA) and West Texas Barrel Racers Association are organizations to which she belongs. She was also sponsor of the high school rodeo club for two years and co-sponsor for one year. Goals Miss White hopes to achieve are to be in the top five barrel racers in GRA, to run at the National Finals Rodeo in Oklahoma City and to get enough points in quarter horse barrel racing to attend the annual Quarter Horse Conference in Oklahoma City. One goal she achieved was that of running at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show and the Rodeo's Ranch Girl Barrel Race.

Miss White attributes much of her success to her close friend and barrel racer, Frances Smith of Burkburnett. Miss Smith is the teacher and inspirer for Miss White's barrel racing. She has already achieved the goals Miss White hopes to achieve in the future.

Golfers win

Iowa Park golf team is undefeated so far this year in the two practice tournaments they have played in. Regular play starts in late February and will go on until the state tournaments in early May.

practice this year. This problem was not solved until recently when they were allowed to play on Burkburnett's golf course.

Next tournament will be Thursday, Nov. 24. This will be followed by another tournament at Skyline Country Club on Dec. 10.

Hawks swamp Quanah 83-37

The Iowa Park Hawks matched their win record for all of the 1975-76 season here last week when they defeated the Quanah Indians

83-37. The team last year went 1-28 for the season. Iowa Park completely humbled the Indians, racking up 34 field goals and 15 of 31 free shots. The Hawks led only 19-10 after the first period and 42-25 at the half. But the visitors were allowed only two points in the third quarter, and trailed 27-63 going into the final quarter.

Jim Rowell and Doug Rogers led in scoring for the locals with 23 and 16 points respectively.

But Tuesday night Hirschi outscored the Hawks eight points in the third period and fought off a late challenge to beat the Hawks 68-56.

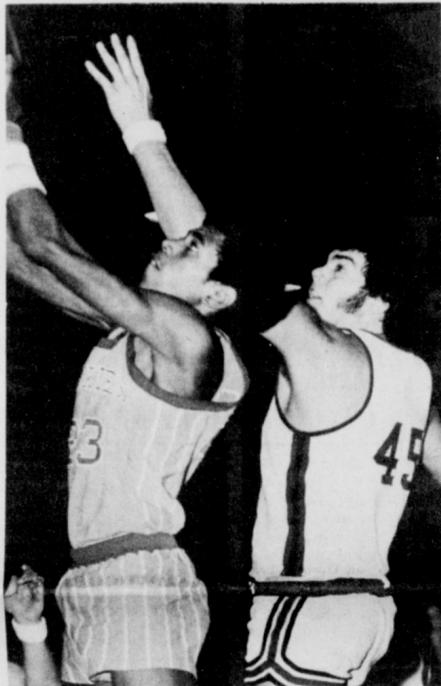

Iowa Park led 16-10 at the first official rest stop, but fell behind in the last minute of play before halftime, 25-29.

Rowell racked up 10 points in the first quarter, was held scoreless in the second, and finished with 20 points. Rogers followed with 13, including five free shots in the second period.

The Hawks, now 1-2, will host Notre Dame Friday night and travel to Bowie for a return match Monday, and Quanah Tuesday.

The junior varsity swamped Quanah 54-13, but was edged 53-55 in the final two seconds by Hirschi. The team will play in the annual Wichita Falls High Junior

Iowa Park student is karate expert

It's unusual for one to become an expert at only 14 years of age, but Iowa Park High School freshman Charles Parks is just that. He now holds the black belt in the Sho-Rin-Rhu style Karate.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Parks, 104 S. Yosemite, underwent his test before a review board Wednesday evening of last week at the Wichita Falls Central Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA).

According to Gregg Russell, YMCA karate instructor, a student of only 14 receiving his black belt is extremely unusual.

However, Charles wasn't the youngest of the evening. History was made when 10-year-old Todd Weir, son of a Sheppard AFB civilian employee, also earned his black belt, becoming the youngest student ever promoted to black belt in the Sho-Rin-Rhu style in the United States.

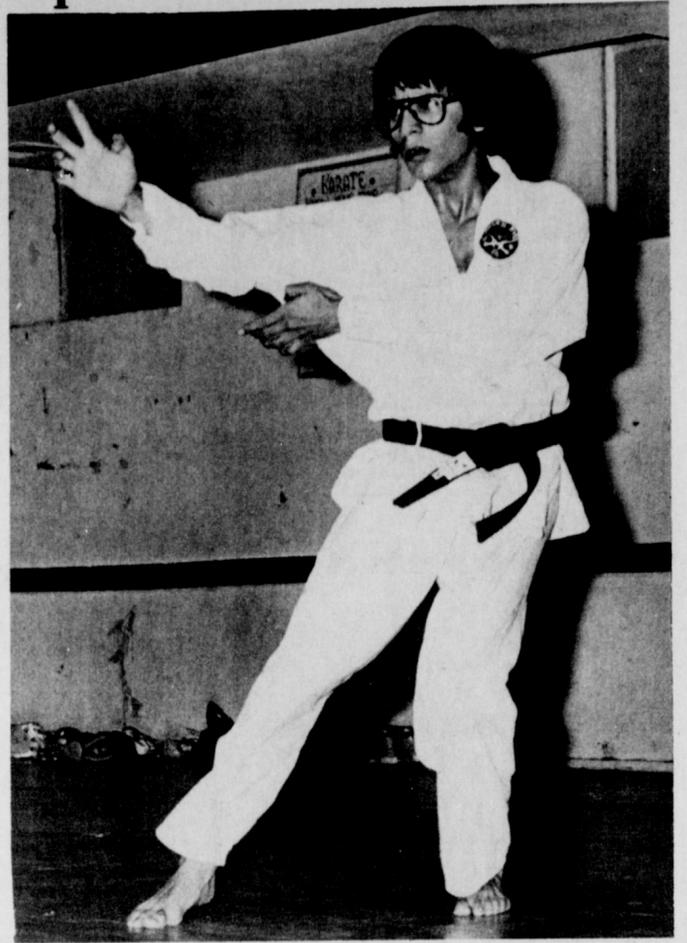

Two older students also tested for black belt that night.

In addition to Charles, two Iowa Park men tested for levels of brown belt Wednesday. Fred Pavlovic earned his third degree brown belt, a step below black belt, and Jerry Pittman tested for his first degree brown belt.

Charles, who has been taking karate instruction since he was 11, is now a first degree black belt. There are nine levels in black belt, however no one holds higher than eight, as the final is said to be perfection.

Each student was tested before a review board made up of Gregg and John Russell, Damon Williams, Joe Bobalinski and Bill Perry, according to John Bartley, YMCA president in Wichita Falls.

Charles' test for his black belt included an exhaustive 30-minute session during which he performed his skills individually, and in one-minute "fights" with each of the review board members.

Groom and Gorman here Friday in semifinals

CLASS B PLAYOFFS

A couple of highly geared football teams will be playing Friday night in Hawk Stadium to decide which advances into the Class B state championship contest next week.

The 7:30 p.m. kickoff will pit the Groom Tigers and Gorman Panthers.

Sporting the better record is District 6-B champ Gorman, which enters the contest with an impressive 12-0 record.

Coach Allan Gibbs is no stranger to Iowa Park, having been on the staff at Jacksboro back in the days when Iowa Park and Jacksboro hooked it up in big AA games. Fans will probably be attracted to Gorman's two all-state candidates, quarterback Mel Maxfield and runningback Billy Burgess. Young Maxfield is the son of Gorman superintendent of schools G.W. Maxfield.

Other than a couple of hobbling ankles which were twisted in last week's 14-6 quarterfinal win over Italy, Gibbs said his team was healthy and ready.

Scores of the Panthers are reminiscent of the glory days of the Hawks, with non-conference wins over DeLeon, 29-8, Dublin, 52-0, Throckmorton, 58-0, Ranger, 30-6, and 55-6 over Millsap.

Evant gave the Panthers their only run for their money in district play before losing 14-22. Then Gorman put away Rising Star 28-0, Lometa 60-6 and Blanket 54-0 to earn the zone title.

The Panthers took care of the other zone winner, Eden, in a 40-6 fashion, and advanced to the state playoffs, where they won 11-6 over Rochester in the 18 District.

Groom, 9-2, had a harder time reaching the playoffs. The Tigers were edged in their season opener 12-13 by Claude. That was their only non-conference contest.

They lost 20-29 to Booker, but that club was defeated by Wheeler a week earlier 12-9, and the two teams shared the District 1-B title, with Groom advancing into the playoffs.

Other conference wins by the Tigers were 26-8 over Miami, 37-6 over Texline, 51-0 over McLean, 47-0 over Higgins, 36-6 over Follett and a 34-0 shutout in the regular season finale over Lefors.

For the Bi-District championship the Tigers put away Sundown with an impressive 40-15 routing. Last week they squeaked past Forsan 7-6 for the right to continue in the playoffs.

According to Coach Russell Roberts, senior fullback Chris Britten is their big gun. The 185-pounder has rushed for 1,001 yards, and from his linebacking position he has been credited with 130 tackles for the season.

Yule season for burglars

'Tis the season to be jolly, but while St. Nick is making preparations for his perennial visit, burglars are making plans that could spoil Christmas for unsuspecting shoppers.

People in their joyous mood often are careless and become prime targets for home and automobile burglars, said Chief Charles Beaver of the Iowa Park Police Department.

A few minutes of time this year will determine the success of many potential thieves, Beaver said.

Nationwide statistics compiled in the FBI's Uniform Crime Report show burglaries have increased 4 per cent in the past year.

"The trend in Iowa Park is no different," said Beaver, who is encouraging citizens here to tighten home and vehicle security against Christmas burglars.

"People become victims of their own habits," the police chief said, noting unlocked cars and homes.

"Ninety-nine per cent of all outer doors today can be opened with a pocket knife or credit card," he said, and car burglars have devices that can crack a car within seconds.

To ward off home burglars, persons should secure all windows and doors. When residents are away, they should burn as many exterior lights as possible and have a friend keep an eye on their home.

A simple telephone call to the police department will assure regular patrol checks on homes where owners will be away for an extended visit.

The best security against automobile burglary is to lock any valuables in the trunk, Beaver said.

Thieves are less likely to enter an automobile if they are unable to view its contents, he said.

The reasons for increased crimes around Christmas are simple.

"This time of year people carry more money and they have gifts stored in their homes," Beaver said.

And it's not only burglaries that increase during Christmas.

"Every year at this time violations against persons (murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault) and violations against property (burglary of homes, businesses and autos) are on the increase," the police chief explained.

Although burglaries are on the increase nationwide, Beaver maintained similar violations here are tapering off in Iowa Park because more burglars are being arrested or are moving their business to other locations.

Beaver added the police department here has been aided greatly by the citizenry.

"The effectiveness of a police department is determined by the support and cooperation it receives from its citizens.

Wheat producers to meet in Wichita Falls

Wheat producers, staggered by the lowest prices, highest costs and most smothering surpluses in recent years, will converge on Wichita Falls Dec. 9 and 10 for two days of fact finding and "crystal balling" relative to their plight and to map corrective action for the future, according to Winston Wilson, Qunah, president of the sponsoring Texas Wheat Producers Association.

During the sessions, the Texas Wheat Producers Board in cooperation with Texas Agricultural Extension Service will conduct a technical seminar on production and marketing strategies in view of current changing and challenging conditions, under leadership of Dwight Hamilton, Olney, chairman of the board, and Ed Garnett, Vernon, District III extension agent.

A Pendleton, Oregon

The opening address on Friday morning at a similar time will be Gene Vickers, executive vice president of Western Wheat Associates,

Mrs. Williamson heads Tarleton advisory board

Seven members have been selected to serve on the advisory board of the Tarleton State University Rodeo Scholarship Association which was formed in October.

An immediate goal of the Rodeo Scholarship Association is to secure funding for a minimum of 12 scholarships of $500 each to be awarded for the 1977-78 school year. Long-range goals include the accumulation of adequate endowment funds to provide annual scholarships from investments.

Annual donors of $500 or multiples of this amount will have the option of designating the name in which the scholarship or scholarships will be awarded.

Contributions of $5,000 or more are to be placed in an endowment fund to provide permanent scholarships, designated by name, to be awarded annually. Donors will become life members in the Association.

Individual Association memberships are available for 1977 with donations to range from $25 to $499, with the total amount to be applied toward rodeo scholarships.

Coaches talk about teams

Iowa Park varsity basketball coaches Mike Billingsley and David Williams provided the program Tuesday for the Noon Lions Club meeting.

The two told of their outlook for the season which is now underway, and of the number of students participating.

Billingsley said he was carrying 11 players on the varsity, 15 on the junior varsity, 14 on the freshman team, 17 in the eighth grade, and a whopping 62 were out for the seventh grade team. Marvin Brixey coaches the JV, Jackie Denton the freshmen, Bob Gray the eighth grade and Doug Chaney the seventh grade.

"Great men, like nature, use simple language." Vauvenargues

About his varsity, he said "I feel we will at least be a surprise to our district teams this year." He pointed out the 1975 team lost conference games by a 28 point spread on the average.

It is going to take time to develop girls' basketball, after not having the program since 1970, Williams explained.

He said his varsity wants to win so badly "they try so hard that they're all thumbs. But they do try to do everything I ask of them."

He told the Lions he had only three seniors among the 12 players he carries on the varsity. Eighteen are on both his junior varsity and freshman teams.

The eighth grade girls, coached by Mike Billingsley's wife, is undefeated so far.

WHAT CHRIST IS COMING FOR

Sentimental pictures have sometimes been drawn of Christ returning to live humbly among men as he did before, and to search men's hearts by the impact of his own character and teaching. These bear no relation to the realities of Christ's Second Coming as they are shown in Scripture. Having suffered, he "entered into his glory" (Luke 24:26), and it is in glory that he will appear again in the earth. He will accomplish a work just as real and necessary as that of the days of his flesh, but wholly different in kind.

[1] He will raise from the dead and judge those who have known his message and so are responsible to him.

He repeatedly says of the man who truly believes on him, "I will raise him up at the last day" (John 6:39, 41, 44, etc.). He also speaks of two classes coming forth from the graves: "They that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation" (John 5:29). This is very like the prophecy of Daniel: "Many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt" (Dan. 12:2). Paul says of the day of Christ's coming: "The dead in Christ shall rise" (1 Thess. 4:16; 1 Cor. 15:23). Christ links together his judgment and his glory when he says: "Whosoever shall be ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of Man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels" (Mark 8:38). "Whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven" (Matt. 10:33). Men cannot be ashamed of or deny him unless they have known of him; therefore, Christ limits this judgment to a class made responsible by knowledge. This is in harmony with his teaching elsewhere on that which brings men into condemnation: "This is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light" (John 3:19). "The word that I have spoken, the same shall judge you" (John 12:48). "If ye were blind ye should have no sin" (John 9:41). Paul teaches the same when he says: "Sin is not imputed when there is no law" (Rom. 5:13). He is writing to the Church at Corinth, "them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints", when he says: "We must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ" (2 Cor. 5:10). And in the parable, it is those to whom their master has "given the money" that are called to render an account before him at his return (Luke 19:11-25). They are judged according to the responsibility entrusted to them. These Scriptural limitations exclude the old idea of a universal assize. There is evident justice in the teaching of Scripture: those who have not heard the message, though they cannot be rewarded with life as though they had been faithful to it, also will not be condemned as though they had despised it. Like the animals to whom God "gives their meat in due season" (Psa. 104:27), such men enjoy the benefits of this mortal life only; then they pass away "like the beasts that perish"; "they shall never see light" (Psa. 49:19-20).

[2] His Kingdom being an actual earthly realm with a political centre, Christ will establish his throne in Jerusalem.

In Psa. 2, which gives a picture of the raging of the nations at Christ's appearing, Jehovah says: "Yet have I set my King upon my holy hill of Zion" (v.6). "Out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem" (Isa. 2:3); "Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom" (Isa. 9:7); "The Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David; and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever" (Luke 1:32-33).

[3] He will execute judgment on those nations who try to resist his reign.

"Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. Be instructed, ye judges of the earth. Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way" (Psa. 2:9-12). "The Lord shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake" (Joel 3:16). "A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the Lord hath a controversy with the nations, he will plead with all flesh; he will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the Lord" (Jer. 25:31). In his prophecy of the successive phases of human rule under the symbol of wild beasts Daniel has a vision of the divine judgment to come in the time of the fourth beast; and he says: "I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame. As for the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away" (Dan. 7:11-12).

[4] Christ will extend his dominion over the whole earth, and after a reign of a thousand years, which is the final stage in the process of the world's redemption, will surrender the rule to God himself.

"He shall have dominion from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth. They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust. . . . Yea, all kings shall fall down before Him: all nations shall serve him" (Psa. 72:8-11; Zech. 9:10). John, describing his vision in Revelation, says the saints who were "made kings and priests unto God" (1:7; 5:10) "reigned with Christ a thousand years" (20:4). "Then (says Paul) cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom of God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. . . . And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all" (1 Cor. 15:24-28).

Introducing a little tag that can help you save on energy costs in a big way.

E-OK is a term Texas Electric Service Company is giving to homes that are certified energy efficient. Homes that can use a lot less energy than most other homes.

E-OK homes have more insulation, sealed windows, weatherstripped doors, and more efficient lighting, heating and cooling equipment. E-OK homes can offer significant savings on your energy costs.

You can spot these homes all over town by the blue and orange E-OK tag on windows, yard signs, doorbell identification and framed certificates. Look for them. E-OK tells you that builders, along with Texas Electric, are concerned about saving electric energy and saving you money.

An E-OK home is one that has been thoroughly checked by our customer representatives several times during construction. It will not only save you money year after year, it will also be more comfortable. Why? Because of more effective heating and cooling, and also because it's quieter.

An E-OK home doesn't have to be a new home either. With certain modifications, you can make your present home more energy efficient. Should you later decide to move you could have a higher resale value from an E-OK home. Lower energy bills are quickly becoming a very big selling point.

To learn all about an E-OK home and how it can be certified energy efficient, call Texas Electric for our free booklet. Or request one on the comment portion of your electric service bill.

Construction activity on new school visible

The first sign of construction activity will become visible today when workers begin ground work on Holliday's new high school.

It will be the destruction of a minor landmark here that will signify the beginning of construction.

First thing on today's agenda for crews of Miller & Holmes Construction Co. will be the caving in of the old community storm cellar located in the northwest section of the school campus.

Filling in of the old concrete storm cellar is scheduled for this morning, building officials said.

Today's activities will be the preliminary step toward ground leveling

Work on the construction site will mark the first of a 300-calendar-day work schedule submitted by Miller & Holmes.

Last week the Holliday School Board approved a total project bid of $1,159,008.

Miller & Holmes was low bidder from a field of six construction companies vying for the job.

The project was approved by school district voters last year in a bond issue election.

Included in the project will be construction of a new high school, auditorium, stadium seating, athletic dressing room facilities, tennis courts, bus barn and renovation of the present school structure.

Sanders leads girls in win over Seymour

Nancy Sanders came on like one of Pappy Boyington's fighter pilots when she almost single-handedly shot down Seymour's felines in a 43-41 aerial show here Tuesday night.

Sanders, Holliday's scrappy star forward, paced the varsity girls in scoring with 28 points.

She hit on 18 of 25 trips at the charity line.

It was a nip-and-tuck battle for coach Scotta Schroeder's girls throughout most of the night, but Sanders pulled Holliday into the lead with two free throws inside the two-minute warning.

Seymour tied the game 41-41 with a minute remaining, and the large crowds on both sides of the fieldhouse were brought to a frenzy.

Tanya Woods, a veteran Holliday guard, spoiled a last-minute offensive drive by Seymour when she batted down a feline jump shot.

The game was still tied when the buzzer sounded, but guard Beth Barry was fouled, sending Sanders to the charity line again.

The stands were alive when Sanders burned the net on the first of two free throws. The game was won, but Sanders sunk her other shot for good measure giving Holliday's varsity girls their second win of the season.

Gayla Minnix and Becky Ward paced Holliday with seven rebounds each.

Varsity Boys

Coach Walter Lemons' varsity Eagles found the clock running in Seymour's favor Tuesday night when the Panthers edged past Holliday 62-51.

Bob Gilmore proved to be the game's most valuable player, racking up 17 points.

Jay Miller and Andy Barton each garnered 11 points.

In their pre-Thanksgiving outing, the Eagles were handed a 53-51 overtime loss by the Notre Dame Knights. Clay Carver scored 19 points, trailed by Gilmore with 17.

On the other side of Turkey Day, the varsity Eagles and Burkburnett held a rematch with the Bulldogs coming out on top 75-63.

Barton was highpoint with 17 against Burk. Gilmore had 16, and Mark Mankins had 10.

JV Girls

Holliday's junior varsity girls dropped their season opener here Tuesday night in a 47-41 shoot out with Seymour. Mindy Lowder was highpoint for Holliday with 27.

JV Boys

Holliday's junior varsity Eagles maintained their unblemished record by defeating Notre Dame and Burkburnett.

Butch Battles highpointed with 18 points in Holliday's 56-43 decision over Notre Dame. Dennis Holt picked up 12 points.

Holliday downed Burkburnett 45-30 with Battles collecting 16 points and Kent Lemons making 13.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade boys have a balanced season record with a win over Electra and a loss to Seymour.

Ray Looney was highpoint with seven in Holliday's 26-19 loss to Seymour. Shannon Owen scored 10 points to pace Holliday to its 34-21 win over Electra.

Holliday seventh grade girls also have a balanced season record with a win over Electra and a loss to Seymour.

Susan Parker paced Holliday with 21 points in their 27-14 decision over Electra. Parker was good for 15 points in the 41-21 loss to Seymour.

Eighth Grade

Holliday's eighth grade

girls maintain an unblemished season record with two wins.

Kristi Lucy nailed down 20 points to pace Holliday in its 31-24 win over Seymour.

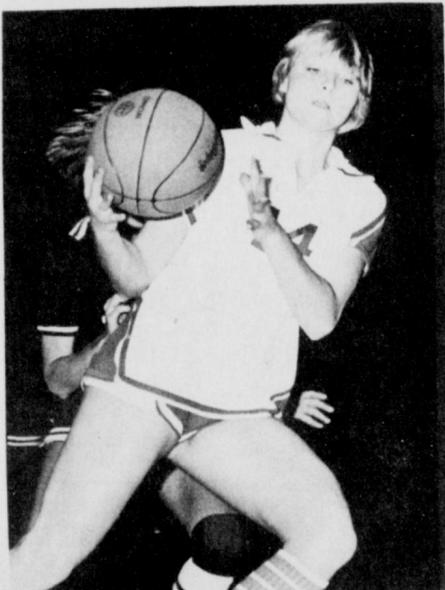

The eighth grade girls edged past Electra 26-25 with Lucy turning in the most points for 15.

The eighth grade boys were defeated in their first two outings.

Lindy Dolberry scored 16 points in Holliday's 30-20 loss to Seymour.

Electra barely edged out Holliday 43-32 with Larry Boydston hitting for nine points, followed by Kent Lilley and Dolberry with eight points each.

GREEDY GUARD—Senior guard Tanya Woods steals the ball to stop an offensive drive in Tuesday night's 43-41 win over Seymour's felines.
