

Iowa Park to hire a new head coach

Iowa Park High School is apparently to have a new head football coach and athletic director.

Though no official action has yet been taken by the board of trustees, a statement, solicited by the Iowa Park Leader, was issued Wednesday by Superintendent of Schools Faris Nowell, stating:

"In a closed session on January 19, 1978 the Board of Trustees of the Iowa Park Consolidated Independent School District instructed me to inform Coach Pat Tone that he would be reassigned to another job for the remainder of his contract, beginning with the employment of a new head coach."

Rumors began circulating around the school and town about three weeks ago, concerning the position. And last week a visiting prospect for the job was inadvertently introduced to a few athletes while touring the schools.

The Leader has received numerous telephone calls concerning the naming of a new head coach.

Contacted yesterday, Tone said he was "shocked" and "very disappointed" over the situation.

At a meeting in December of the athletic council, Tone recalled, nothing of this nature was apparent and "everything seemed to be all right."

"We did the best we could," stated Coach Tone, who said he had no plans formulated for the future at this time.

Tone's two-year contract was renewed early in 1977, giving him a contract through the 1978-79 school year. He apparently, according to the superintendent's statement, will be reinstated to a classroom teaching duty only, but will continue to receive his contracted salary.

Nothing was mentioned in the statement about the rest of the coaching staff, but it has been learned that one coach has already submitted his resignation, effective Feb. 15.

Tone took over as head coach and athletic director from Grady Graves, after Graves had experienced a 0-10 football record the fall of 1975. Graves had enjoyed three consecutive 8-2 seasons preceding '75, however.

His first season here, Tone's 1976 team had a 1-9 record, and last fall went 0-10.

The next meeting of the school board is Feb. 14.

Burglars hit coin machines

Burglars apparently concentrated their efforts in two areas Sunday and Monday.

Monday night they hit coin machines in three locations, while during the day they were in the 100 block of West Cash.

Both coin operated laundries in the city were hit sometime Monday night, as was a newspaper rack.

The Davis Wash House soft drink machine was forced open, and cash and numerous bottles of soft drinks were removed. Also, according to the investigation report, several other machines were damaged as entry was attempted, and a plate glass window in the front was knocked out.

No estimation was made as to the amount of money taken.

The same evening the U-Wash-It Laundrymat was hit. Three machine coin boxes were forced open, and attempts were made on two other machines, as well as the bill changing machine.

T.C. Berry, local agent for the Wichita Falls newspaper, reported the new rack at the post office was forced open, and $1.10 apparently taken. But damage to the $125 rack was considerably more than the change.

Paul Callaway, owner of Paul's Stop and Shop at 100 West Cash, reported he apparently failed to lock the front door of his business when he left about 4:30 p.m. Monday.

Someone entered, allegedly taking three small portable radios, each valued at $12.95.

That same day, Perry Schroeder reported two go carts were taken from beside the shop of his grandfather, Carl Sullivan, in the alley of 100 West Cash. Schroeder valued the go carts, one without a motor, at $60.

January permits total $179,735

Building permits for two new homes and a major remodeling of a church were issued during January, giving the city an indication of another million-plus construction year.

Only five permits were issued during the first month of the year, but they amounted to $179,735, more than double the first month of 1977, $83,600.

Permits issued included: First Baptist Church, 319 N. Yosemite, remodeling, $100,000; Swan & Kiser, 203 E. Garden, new residence, $24,310; Cashion Builders, 310 W. Clara, new residence, $53,000; John DeClerice, 303 E. Bank, garage, $2,000; H. Smallwood, 519 W. Texas, carport, $425.

BIG MAN'S GAME - A Stephenville player tries to find some way to get by two of Iowa Park's big men, Jimmy Rowell, 45, and Eddie Cannedy, 43. More action will be taking place in the high school gymnasium tomorrow night, as the varsity teams host Burkburnett for the final home game of the schedule. Former Hawk basketball players and coaches will also be recognized by the Student Council, which is sponsoring a basketball homecoming.

Friday big day for basketball

Tomorrow will be a big day for basketball at Iowa Park High School.

The day has not only been designated "homecoming" for all former Hawk players and coaches, but that evening will be the final regular season home game.

Former Hawks and coaches will be introduced during a student assembly, which will be followed by an informal reception. And that evening they will be introduced to an anticipated capacity crowd.

The final home game will feature junior varsity and varsity games with Burkburnett. And Tuesday the four teams will close out their season schedule on the road, at Vernon.

The Hawks must have one more win to clinch the North Zone championship. They are undefeated in zone play, while Vernon and Graham are 2-2, and Burk has yet to win a game against either of the three teams.

In their last outing, the Mean Green out-scored the Bulldogs 77-71, at Burkburnett.

The Hawks are 23-4 on the season, averaging 68 points to their opponents' 57. Against North Zone clubs, Iowa Park is averaging 75 points in four outings, and allowing 65.

The Hawkettes still have the opportunity to earn a zone playoff birth. Vernon leads all girls' teams in the zone with a 4-0 record, while Iowa Park and Burkburnett are 2-2 and Graham has yet to win.

Under the Dist. 4-AAA basketball setup, any ties for first or second place will be played off, girls Feb. 9 and boys Feb. 10.

Then Feb. 13, the second place girls' team in one zone will play the first place team in the other zone, and the boys' teams will do the same Feb. 14.

District girls' championship playoff will be Feb. 16, and Feb. 17 for boys. Those games could wind up with two teams from the same zone, because the inter-zone winner will then play the zone winner. Or it could be that the two second place finishers in the zones could meet for the title.

In other words, should the Hawkettes finish second in the North Zone, defeat the South Zone winner, they would play the other inter-zone winner for the conference championship.

Open house of the Iowa Park Recreational Activity Center is scheduled for Feb. 11, according to Ken Kukenbecker, executive director of the facility.

Located at 304 E. Texas, operation of the revitalized old "youth center" will be funded by United Way. It is the second function here financed by United Way, joining the Friendly Door which caters to older persons.

Although the recreational activity center will be available to anyone in the community, there will be an emphasis on activities for the youth, Kukenbecker said.

"We're going to try to satisfy the needs of the youth to their benefit," Kukenbecker said. Kukenbecker plans to make the center flexible to avoid conflicts with other civic and school functions.

The building includes a large dance floor, ping pong tables, a game room with pool tables and other table games, juke box, soft drink machines and a conference room which will be available on a rental basis for meetings, Kukenbecker said.

Tentative hours of operation for the recreational activities center will be from 4-8:30 p.m. Tuesday, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Wednesday, 4-8:30 p.m. Thursday, 4-11:30 p.m. Friday and 11 a.m.-2 p.m. and 6-11:30 p.m. Saturday.

Effective Feb. 15 a $2 annual membership fee will be charged.

"There will be no age limit for members because it will be open to the public," Kukenbecker said.

However, he said some activities, such as youth dances, will be limited to certain age persons.

No smoking or alcoholic beverages will be allowed, and the facility will be

Three vocalists All-State

Iowa Park High School students were awarded three positions in the all-state choir, while another three youths here earned alternate spots in all-state choir and band.

Lee Gwinn, bass; Scott Fowler, baritone; and Carrie Cole, soprano, each secured a place in the all-state choir.

Chris Lester, baritone, and Norman Flowers, first tenor, each was named first alternate during all-state choir auditions at the University of Texas at Arlington.

Lori Dick earned first alternate tympany in the all-state band.

Risa Roberts and Tim Adeock also competed in the band auditions at UTA.

The three students named to the all-state choir will travel to Houston Feb. 8-12 to attend all-state activities held in conjunction with the Texas Music Educator's Convention.

They will participate in rehearsals, exhibitions and demonstrations.

The all-state choir concert is scheduled for Feb. 11.

On Feb. 12 a grand concert will be presented by each of the all-state organizations, band, choir and orchestra.

The three alternates from IPHS will not make the trip to Houston unless one of the other students fails to fulfill their obligations.

Accompanying Fowler, Gwinn and Miss Cole will be band director David Mooney and choir director Darrell Dick.

Heart Fund drive leaders are named

Mrs. Erwin Soell and Mrs. Charlie Lee were named co-chairpersons for the 1978 Heart Fund Campaign in Iowa Park. Announcement of their appointment was made by Gordon Brown, County Heart Fund Chairman, and Jim Marks, Chairman of the Campaign Committee of the Wichita County Division of the Heart Association.

Mrs. Soell and Mrs. Lee will coordinate the efforts of approximately 75 volunteers in distributing heart-saving literature and accepting contributions from each home and business in Iowa Park.

Funds collected will be used in the research, education, and community service programs of the Heart Association. These include school programs, training in cardiopulmonary resuscitation, nurses education, free blood pressure clinics, referral system for heart patients, nutrition information and many others.

Heart disease is the nation's Number One Killer, accounting for 52.5 percent of all deaths, over a million Americans last year and affecting 29-million more in one way or another. There were 546 deaths from cardiovascular disease alone in Wichita County last year.

Keith Aulds will serve as chairman of the business campaign.

ALL-STATE IN MUSIC - Six Iowa Park High School students garnered awards at all-state choir and band auditions. Lori Dick, seated, earned first alternate tympany in band. From left, Scott Fowler, Lee Gwinn, Carrie Cole, Chris Lester and Norman Flowers received various honors in the all-state choir.

Immediately following the wedding, the couple went to Waco where they were honored at a reception given by the bride's parents at their home.

The refreshment table was covered with white lace over yellow. The appointments consisted of a bouquet of yellow carnations, white daisies and baby's breath, the wedding cake, bride's book and crystal punch service. The two-tiered white cake was divided with tall pillars and decorated with refreshing frosting yellow roses and a bride and groom on top standing on a dais covered with frills of net and lilies of the valley under an arbor of lacy wedding bells.

A supper at Water Works was held later in the evening to honor the newlyweds.

Library News

Among the many books on the shelves of Iowa Park Library, one of greatest significance, "History of Iowa Park," is missing. In fact, it has never been there, and this has been a matter of grave concern to Mrs. Earl Watson for several years. Realizing that someone had to take the initiative in compiling a chronological record of historical events of the city for posterity, she has taken the lead and has enlisted many of the local people to assume responsibility for different phases of life and events of the past.

The Texas-Oklahoma Fair has been assigned to Olive Blalock. To adequately describe its role in the development of the city and enhancing its prestige, she needs information contained in old newspapers or fair catalogs or first hand information from people who worked closely with the fair. Contact her at 592-4431 or 592-4279.

In 1783, Noah Webster published his "American Spelling Book." Its estimated sales in the next 100 years were 70 million.

South America is topic of Lioness Club program

Mrs. R.A. Tanner presented "Around South America" through colorful slides and masterful lecture Thursday evening for the Iowa Park Lioness Club. The meeting was held in her home with Mrs. Faris Nowell sharing hostess duties.

Mrs. Tanner toured South America during the summer of 1977 fulfilling a dream of long standing. Her slides and narration proved that the tour was both educational and pleasurable.

A bird's-eye view of the tour which actually invites exhaustive treatment starts at Rio de Janeiro, a city of six and a half million, where some of the places of greatest interest were Christ-the-Redeemer Monument, Cocha-babba Beach, Sugar Loaf Mountains, Guanabara Bay, the mosaics and orchids.

At Brazilia, which started in 1967, Mrs. Tanner, like all who enter the Congregational Church made of fused glass, was awed by its beauty. She was also impressed with the president's home and American Embassy.

The most interesting city in Brazil to Mrs. Tanner was Sao Paulo with its seven and a half million people, a city that has no pollution even though half of the industries in the country are located there. The Butatan Institute where people are treated for poisonous bites and the Botanical Garden increased interest in the city, and the coffee plantations were the chief attractions in Santos.

The spectacular Iguacu Falls, extending over two miles wide with more than 20 cataracts averaging 200 feet high, on the Parana River made a lasting impression on the Iowa Parkan.

The tour group arrived in Paraguay during the National Soccer Football Game and sensed the atmosphere to be much the same as it is in the U.S. during college or professional football play-offs. They found the Gaucho and toe weaving interesting there.

Mrs. Tanner showed a picture of a complete marble house taken at Montevideo, Uruguay explaining that it was not actually a sign of affluence there but that houses constructed of wood would be because of the scarcity of wood. The city is known for its many yachts and boats, a large casino and the Regional Hospital.

At Buenos Aires on the Rio De La Plata, the Liao Hotel, Parrilla (a barbecue place) and a chocolate factory aroused interest of the tourist. The famous statue, "Christ in the Andes," Chilean Lake and Alkan Highway claimed attention in Chile.

Going on to Peru, the archeological wonder of the world, Mrs. Tanner saw the oldest cathedral in South America, the Prayer Block and llamas in the Land of Incas.

At Quito, Ecuador, the Equator Monument and beautiful farms were things of interest and the bull ring and Hilton Hotel will be some of the things the travelers will remember about Colombia.

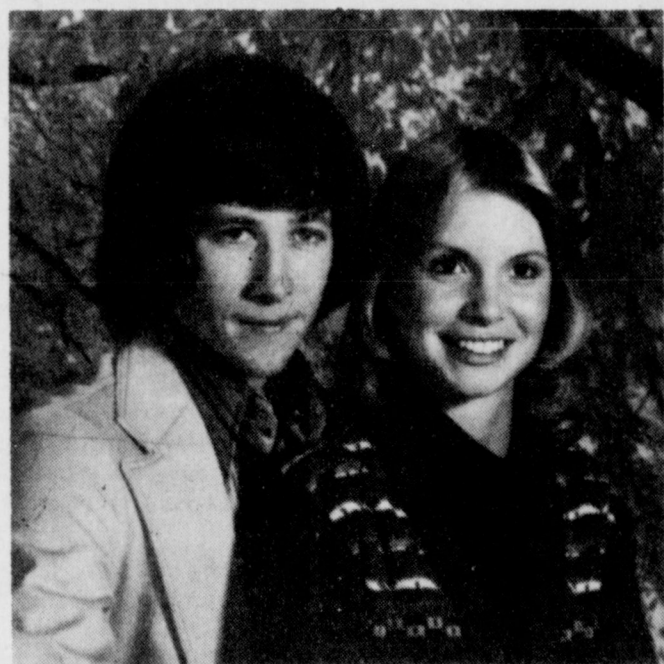

Preceding Mrs. Tanner's program, a boys quartet composed of Tony and Lowrey Bartow, David and Norman Flowers sang five selections.

Mrs. D.O. James used "A Busy Homemaker's Psalm" for the title of her devotion.

Mrs. L.A. Thurlow was a guest. Other members in attendance were Mmes. Sam Hunter, Wm. Nunn, W.E. Karstetter, Sam Hill, Keith Aulds, W.F. Booher and Homer Blalock.

Shower fetes bride elect

Miss Beekie Horton, bride-elect of Terry Wirmel, was complimented at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Richard Schroeder. Assistant hostesses were Mmes. Gary Neves, Jack Witherspoon, James Grove and Thurman Reitz.

A pink and white color theme dominated decorations and appointments for the party.

The honoree wore a corsage of pale pink satin roses and baby's breath with her smart costume featuring a white crepe blouse laced with gold at the collar and cuffs and a tan shirt. The flowers were a gift from the hostesses.

Former resident passes CPA test

Judy (Mrs. Armon) Smith of Gainesville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Spruiell of Iowa Park, has passed the test and is now a certified public accountant, according to word received by her parents this week.

A 1971 graduate of Iowa Park High School where she was salutatorian of the graduating class, she was graduated from Midwestern State University summa cum laude in 1976 with a major in accounting and a minor in business.

She works for Reigler and Schalk Accounting Firm at Gainesville.

A focal point of the decorative setting was the refreshment table centered with a cameo doll holding a bouquet from which pink and white satin streamers fell onto the table. Pink candles encircled with pale pink roses flanked the doll. Crystal and silver services completed the table decor.

The table where guests registered held two white ceramic doves and the white feathered pen.

Mrs. Robert Horton, mother of the honoree, was a special guest.

The couple will recite their matrimonial vows Feb. 11.

DEBORAH ADAMS

Couple sets April date

Miss Deborah Lee Adams and Steven Paul Lewis will be united in marriage April 29, according to an announcement being released today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd J. Adams. Parents of the groom-to-be are Mr. and Mrs. William F. Lewis of Lawton, Okla.

Miss Adams was graduated from Iowa Park High School and Midwestern State University. She is presently attending Vernon Regional Junior College and is employed as a system operator for Texas Electric.

Her fiancé, who works for KLUR Radio, was graduated from Lawton Eisenhower High School and attended Oklahoma University at Norman.

Lions hear farm topic

"We had a lot more farmers in Washington than the big newspapers and television reporters said," commented Floyd Heard, local member of the American Agriculture movement, speaker Tuesday at the Lions Club meeting.

The Washington Post had reported some 2,000 farmers had converged on the nation's capitol two weeks ago, but Heard said a check with that city's Chamber of Commerce indicated 20,000 hotel and motel rooms were occupied, and there were a lot more farmers sleeping in facilities outside the city.

He reported he was impressed not only with the number of farmers who went to Washington, but the reaction of elected and departmental officials he spoke to.

He made numerous points on how little the buying power of the farmer is today, as compared with years in the past, and finished with a quotation by William Jennings Bryant:

"If you destroy our cities, and leave our farms, the cities will spring back almost like magic. But if you destroy our farms, then the grass will surely grow in the streets of the cities."

MUSICAL DIRECTIONS - Some 330 musicians were here Saturday for the Region Two, North Zone District Band workshop and concert. They represented over 1,100 musicians who tried out for positions on the three bands, one made up of seventh and eighth graders, one of freshmen, and the other of Class A and AA school musicians. Robert Taylor, director of bands at Fort Worth Pascal High, directs the junior high band workshop.

Wichita Falls attorney county judge candidate

Tom Bacus, a Wichita Falls attorney, last week announced his candidacy for the office of Wichita County Judge in the Democratic primary.

In making the announcement Bacus stated, "I feel strongly that persons in the field of law should devote a portion of their lives to public service. My family and I have given careful consideration to this decision and would like to serve the people of Wichita County as County Judge."

TOMBACUS

The County Judge serves as chairman of the Commissioners Court which administers an annual budget of more than $5-million. He must also sit as judge of criminal, probate, and other law matters. Bacus said, "Five years of work as an attorney with trial and probate matters and my experience with business will help in working with our County Commissioners for efficient county government."

Bacus, age 31, graduated from high school in Big Spring. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Texas Christian University in 1968, majoring in government and public administration, and a Doctor of Jurisprudence from Texas Tech University in 1973. He is associated with the law firm of Fillmore, Lambert, Farabee, Purtle and Lee. Bacus is a member of the American Bar Association, State Bar of Texas and the Wichita County Bar Association. He served as treasurer of the Wichita County Bar Association and on its Board of Directors. He is on the Board of Directors of the Wichita County Legal Aid Society.

He and his wife Karen, who is a native of Wichita Falls and a former teacher with the Iowa Park school system, have two children. The family is active in the First Baptist Church where he serves as Deacon and a director in the Sunday School department.

Bacus is a veteran of the

Letters to the Editor

Editor,

I read with interest your letter concerning the trash problem here in Iowa Park. I for one, am all for the new containers, anything has to be better than what we have now. Our trash cans are full because our trash hasn't been picked up all week. My neighbors trash is blowing everywhere because dogs have turned their cans over and they don't bother to pick it up. I really hate paying the city for a service that never gets done. I sympathize with their labor problems, but I hope we'll stop discussing and act.

I also hope they'll vote to get cable TV for Iowa Park. No one has to pay for the hook-up if they don't want the service.

It would be great to have a little variety in our viewing. On weekends if you don't like sports you're out of luck. The local stations in Wichita Falls are against cable for their city. I hope Iowa Park's city council will not be influenced by them, and will not delay in getting some action started for our city.

I really enjoy reading your paper. For a small town paper it's very informative and up to date. I've never written to you before, but I wanted to express my feelings on these subjects. I always enjoy your editorials. Keep up the good work.
Mrs. Jason Blair

Citizens of Iowa Park:

As a student of IPHS and member of the varsity football team I would like to express to you my opinion and views on the rumor circulating that our coaching staff is to be replaced in spite of the fact our head coach still has another year on his contract.

I feel and firmly believe our coaching staff did the best they could with the inexperienced team they had, plus the fact they had the attitude of some of the team members to contend with.

It is also my belief that all players should at least be asked their opinion before the school board action to replace the men we play for. It is the coaches and the players who have to live with an 0-10 record during the football season, throughout the year and into the next year; while the school board members and townspeople live with it mainly on Friday nights and Saturday mornings. The players opinions should be taken into consideration.

How are the players going to get used to a coaching system if the school board keeps bringing in new coaches?

Miracles don't happen overnight and aren't expected to. So why not give the coaches support and consideration they deserve?

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Gary Blackerby

As I See It....

A couple of items in Tuesday's edition of the Dallas Morning News caught my eye, prompting comments.

The first was on the front page, and the subject was one which has been in the news from time to time. Disturbing, to say the least.

Seems a state penitentiary prisoner is suing employees of a convenience store in Dallas for shooting him, as he was leaving the scene after robbing the store.

You guessed it. He claims his injuries violated his civil rights because he was shot "without adequate cause and provocation."

Apparently no one has asked him what his reaction would have been, had he been the robbery victim. But doubtlessly he would have let the robber and his money go without question, since he is concerned about civil rights.

Poor guy was hospitalized 47 days with his injuries.

I think the guy who shot him ought to file a counter suit on the guy for having lived through it.

The robber filed a similar suit in state court earlier, but the case eventually was dropped, according to the article. The new suit is filed in federal court.

Obviously, legal actions by such people make a mockery of our judicial system. The person who did the shooting undoubtedly will not be found guilty, should the case even make its way into court.

But in the meantime, he must be suffering from doubt, and will have to finance legal defense.

The other article was an announcement by the paper's publisher that the News would observe a new policy of not charging to print obituaries, and the paper would even go so far as printing the name, age, city of residence, a descriptive phrase of the deceased where appropriate; time, day and location of the services, and even the name of the funeral home.

Good heavens! What a concession to make to readers!

Apparently the very large newspapers are just now finding out how important such everyday news is to the people. Those of us in community press have known it all along.

But we are often asked the charge of printing articles. We explain that there is no charge for our publishing news, and that includes obituaries, weddings, birth announcements, family gatherings or anything, including cards of thanks.

The latter seems to surprise most people, including many of my fellow publishers. But I just can't bring myself to charge anyone, as long as it is not of a commercial nature, who wants to express thanks through the newspaper.

I don't mean to poke too much fun at the Dallas newspaper. But the publishing of obituaries, one of life's three major events, seems only natural.

The other two most important events? Easily, birth and marriage.

I haven't attended a Little League baseball game in years. But, the hizzahs linger on. Most parents look back on Little League days with nostalgia. I look back and heave a sigh of relief.

Little League baseball is played in the height of the grass growing season, and the Number One Son inherited a dislike of yard work, naturally. He got it from me since I always maintained yard work was more a curse of the working class than demon rum could ever be.

Although he never admitted it, I always felt Little League was a ploy to avoid grass cutting. Memories of the confrontations almost bring me to tears.

"Son," I would say, slipping my arm over his shoulder, "the Health Department nailed a notice on the front door. If the grass is not cut this evening I must appear in Municipal Court tomorrow to explain why. This city has an ordinance against growing weeds for fun and profit."

His answer was always the same.

"I'd like to help, Dad, but I have a Little League game this evening."

The excuse was weaker than a Watergate alibi. With his batting average the only person with less time in the game was the grounds-keeper.

But, he would promptly recite a litany of sick and injured players, dropouts and kids on vacation.

"I'll be in the lineup this evening. Why don't we hire a yardman?"

I would counter with a list of bills and point out my assets consisted of a battered typewriter, one large mortgage on the house, and an ant farm masqueraded as a front yard.

It never worked.

By the end of my speech he was gone with a fielder's glove in one hand and a peanut butter and jelly sandwich in the other.

Resigned to my fate I would push the lawn mower into the ankle high grass as a neighbor called out.

"Going to the Little League game?"
"Nope. My son said I have to stay home and cut the grass."

Teams sweep Graham games

Strong second-half performances, especially the fourth quarters, led to big victories in their last two outings by Iowa Park's Hawks.

The Mean Green blew Stephenville out of the gymnasium Friday with a 70-38 score, and then traveled to Graham Tuesday for an impressive 64-46 South Zone victory.

The Hawkettes fell victim to Stephenville, 48-61, but upped their North Zone record to .500 with a 65-40 win over Graham.

Coach Keith Barrick was not at all impressed with play of his starters against the Yellow Jackets, but said he liked the way his bench played.

The Hawks had to come from behind to tie the score at 11-11 by the end of the first quarter, and were ahead only 26-24 at halftime.

But a strong 21-point third period, coupled with defensive play which limited Stephenville to only four points, gave the Hawks breathing room. When Barrick inserted his reserves, which included mostly junior varsity players, Iowa Park was leading 53-35, and the youngsters outscored the visitors 17-3 in the final 4:44.

Four Hawks finished in double figures: Jimmy

Richardson, 16, and 10 each for Doug Rogers, Eddie Cannedy and Jimmy Rowell.

The Hawks knew they had to play well Tuesday at Graham, because they had to fight for their lives to take a narrow, 74-73, win over the Steers here a couple of weeks ago.

And they did. Though they were ahead only 10-8 and 24-19 at the end of the first two periods, they broke the game open in the fourth quarter, outscoring the Steers 24-13 in the final eight minutes of play.

Rowell was the leading Hawk in scoring, with 20 big points.

The boys' junior varsity, which did not see action against Stephenville, lost to Graham, 61-54.

GIRLS' GAMES

Coach Mike Fountain believes the scores, and play of his team, against their last two opponents indicate how much they have improved.

Though the Hawkettes lost 48-61 to Stephenville, Fountain points out that Stephenville has been the district champion the past six years. And he went to the record book to further prove his point, explaining that Stephenville won 82-22 last year, and 112-22 the year before.

Stephenville picked up most of its winning points at the foul line, outscoring the Hawkettes 19-10 in that department. Both teams drew 20 personal fouls.

Freshman forwards Jo Ann McClurg and Jill Watts led local scoring, with 28 and 12 points, respectively.

The Hawkettes continued their domination of Graham, through not having as easy a time as their earlier 45-13 win.

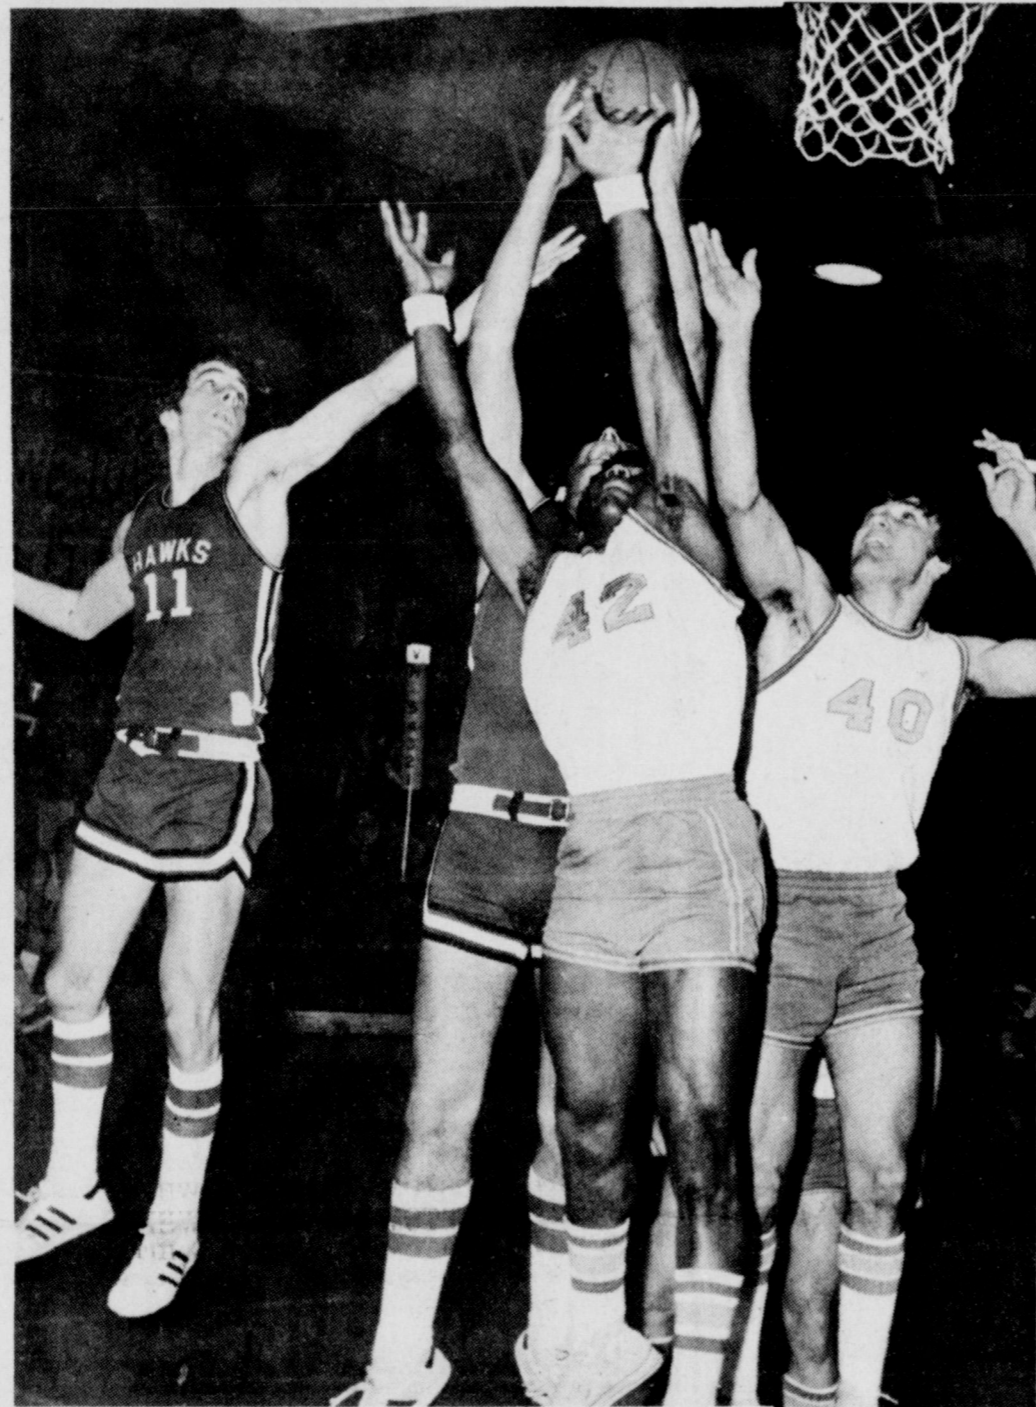

After jumping to a 18-6 lead in the first period, the Hawkettes were matched 18-18 in the second quarter, but outscored their hosts 17-10 in the third, and then ran away with the contest with a 20-6 fourth period. McClurg canned 29 points in the game, and senior Wendy Baston, who has missed several games with flu, contributed 17. The girls' junior varsity lost 43-32.

HIGH-SCORING freshman Jo Ann McClurg receives a pass against Stephenville. In that Friday game, and Tuesday against Graham, she scored a total of 57 points. She is the leading scorer of the season for the Hawkettes, and is expected to exceed 450 points for the year.

JIMMY RICHARDSON goes high to capture a rebound, over the heads of two Stephenville Yellow Jackets, and the outstretched hand of team mate Doug Rogers. The Hawks won the game, 70-38.

Eagle sightings need reporting

Information about the Southern bald eagle (Haliaeetus l. leuccephalus) is being gathered by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department with the help of state wildlife observers such as sportsmen, bird clubs and interested citizens.

The Southern bald eagle operates along the Gulf Coast area and inland from Nueces county north to the Red River. Natural habitat includes tall trees, large streams, creeks, rivers and lakes. Nests are usually six to 10 feet across and made from large and small sticks, lined with moss, roots and grass.

Benefit game slated Thursday

The Iowa Park Evening Lions will take on the Prime Time Players of KAUZ-TV next Thursday in a benefit basketball game.

To begin at 7:30 p.m. in the junior high gymnasium, admission will be 50 cents for students and $1.25 for adults.

Sweep Burk

Junior high basketball teams swept a doubleheader with Burk Burnett Monday evening.

Seventh grade boys won 25-20 and eighth grade boys 30-24. That gave the younger team a 14-2 record on the season, and the older 16-6.

Both clubs will close out the season when they participate in the City View tournament next weekend.

The Southern bald eagle is on the endangered list and can be recognized by a heavy yellow beak, unfeathered legs, dark brown above and below with snowy white head and tail.

If the Southern bald eagle is spotted, do not disturb, but notify your local game warden or Bill Brownlee, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, 4200 Smith School Road, Austin, Texas 78744 or call (512) 475-4971.

first political race in 1974 for U.S. Congressman of the vast 21st District. The politicians gave him no chance. The people elected him. And re-elected him by one of the widest margins in Texas political history. Once in Washington he quickly emerged as a new national leader and was voted the Most Effective Freshman Congressman.

Bob Krueger, since 1973, has called himself an "Independent Democrat," independent of power politics and narrow partisanship. He listens to every viewpoint. Then he votes, not just for what is politically popular but for what is best for the people of our state and nation.

Whether advocating a strong national defense, better health care, less governmental interference in our daily lives, more fiscal responsibility, a strong agriculture or a sound and productive energy program—when Bob Krueger takes a stand he is a tough, intelligent fighter for his beliefs.
