Fave Howard and Pat Harris Wed in Church Here Mndav. July 27

In a double ring ceremony performed in the Methodist church at 3:00 p.m. Monday, July 27 by Rev. Guy E. Perdue, pastor, Miss Minnie Faye Howard became the bride of Pat Harding Harris.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Howard; the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. (Bill) Harris and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Harris, all of Iowa Park. The bride chose a blue cotton street dress with which she wore red accessories for her wedding costume. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Only members of the immediate families and Mike Thornberry attended the young people. Both are students in the local high school. Pat is employed with the Texas-Oklahoma Fair association.

The newlyweds have established residence in the Searl apartment on East Cash street. An interesting point in relation to the marriage is that Pat is the third Harris generation to be married in this county. His parents and grandparents were also married in Wichita county.

Dr. Baker James Cauthen, former teacher of Missions at the Southwestern Seminary and presently secretary of work in the Orient, will be Baptist Hour speaker for the next three months over a nationwide radio hook-up. The hour is 2:30 Sunday afternoons.

Jimmy Seav Discharged From Navy After Four Years of Sea Duty

Jimmy Seav, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Seav, has received his discharge from the navy on July 2 after serving four years in Korean waters and on the west coast from Canada to Mexico aboard the USS A. J. Isbell.

His parents and sister Nancy met Jimmy in San Diego. Afterward they took a tour through Montana, staying at the Deer Lodge before going to other states on their vacation.

Jimmy was graduated from Iowa Park High School in May 1949, and on July 6 enlisted in the navy. He served 27 months in Korean waters.

June 11 he received a citation for helping stop flooding and restorable the ROK AMSB—Korean ship—in Kinsong harbor.

The Iowa Park lad says he is happy to be back in civilian life. He plans to enroll in college this fall, but has not yet selected his school.

Presbyterian Retreat, Mo-Ranch, Offers Many Comforts, Great Beauty

Rev. and Mrs. Maurice C. Yeargan and their daughter Cecilia have returned from a brief visit to Mo-Ranch, estate of the late Dan Moran, well known oilman, purchased by Presbyterians of Texas as their year-round conference grounds.

Situated in the hills of Kerrville on the picturesque Guadalupe river, the buildings at Mo-Ranch are fabulous creations of native stone, inlaid colorful tile, iron grillwork and native wood.

Outstanding is the Guest Lodge with its polished floor of cross sections of cedar inlaid in blue-flecked cement. A large stone fireplace in the center of the room serves as base for the stairway to a balcony that encircles the bedrooms with their double bunks on the second floor.

At one end of this building is the game room with pool table and bowling alley, a cabinet of table games, radios and readings materials and comfortable chairs. At the other end is the diningroom and coffee bar.

Other buildings include the Main House that looks like an old castle, a large auditorium with stage and mammoth fireplace, a basketball court, skating rink, shuffleboard court and space for other forms of recreation.

The jewel is a little chapel of native stone, art glass, wrought-iron grillwork and inlaid tile, surrounded by velvet lawn, fragrant flowers and shrubs, set in the side of a mountain. The church holds about 40 worshippers.

There is a conservatory of exotic flowers and plants just opposite the tiled swimming pool with its pavilion of reclining seats and couches in gay colors.

There are also a commissary, a large dormitory for boys, a building that will house 75 girls, and several stone balconies with barbecue pits for camp atmosphere.

According to records, more than 100,000 meals have been served at Mo-Ranch to Presbyterians and other guests during the past year.

County Agent Haws Picks Late Sorghum Varieties for Area

Due to recent rains in Wichita county, there is interest in information on sorghum varieties for late planting that perhaps will escape frost damage. B. T. Haws, county agent, this week analyzed the varieties as follows:
Double Dwarf Yellow Sooner and Double Dwarf White Sooner mature quicker than any varieties planted in Texas, and they are also sensitive to the length of day. Thus as the days become shorter these varieties have a tendency to mature quicker than normally.
Early Hegari is early maturing and sensitive to length of day, so it would be my third recommendation and it also would be a good variety to plant for bundle feed or hay.
Fourth choice is Combine 7070, as it is fairly early maturing and sensitive to length of day. Other varieties recommended for late planting would be Redbine 60 and Combine Fafir 60.

In general, most crops require a longer period of time for maturing when the weather begins to get cool and the same is true for many varieties of sorghum. The Sooners would be first choice for grain and Early Hegari first choice for roughage. Most seed dealers will know sources of seed of these varieties.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beck and daughter Leslie Susan of Dallas were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright, Tuesday night.

Vaughn Issue Call for Hawk Band Rehearsals

Band director C. L. Vaughn was in town over the weekend and left the following notice for his next year band students:
"Greetings from the middle of summer school at OU!
Now that summer is practically over, we should make some preparations for the coming school year—at least as far as band is concerned.
"At 7:30 p.m., August 10, the Iowa Park High School band will start work in preparation for the term ahead. With three weeks start, the musicians will be in good shape for playing and marching by the time school starts in September.
"Following are two lists of students and the times they will report for rehearsals:
"Monday, August 10, 7:30 p.m.—All of last year's high school band members; also Nancy Smith, Kara Ann Smith, Peggy Koonce, Darlene Banner, Betty Stewart, Beth Adams, Glenna Archer, Kenneth Berg, Sue Bedford, Sonny Vincent, Melva Lee, Joan Calloway, Cletis Wright, Thomas Jones and Larry Parker.
"Tuesday, August 11, 8:00 a.m.—Nancy Smith, Kara Ann Smith, Peggy Koonce, Betty Stewart, Donald Richter, Margaret Schwalbe, Kay Scott, Lenora Brown, Pat Craft, Carolyn Whittenberg, Kenneth Berg, Jerry Whittaker, Darlene Banner, Sonny Vincent, Larry Parker, Cletis Wright, Glenna Archer, Sue Bedford, Melva Lee, Joan Calloway, Beth Adams, Ann Vestal, Mike Thornberry, Beverly Earler, Bill McMahon, Eugene Phillips, Thomas Jones and Paul Parkey.
"Tuesday, August 11, 10:00 a.m.—All of last year's 4th and 5th grade band members.
"With instruments, what else?"

Mary Etta Thompson Hostess to Sunbeams

Seventeen Sunbeams and their two leaders of the Baptist church visited Mrs. Mary Etta Thompson Monday afternoon and presented a program of songs and Bible verses.

They also presented her a sunshine box and flowers.

The leaders Mrs. Fred Parkey and Mrs. Jim Miller were accompanied by Sharon Bryant, Linda Peacock, Marilyn Martin, Patricia Martin, Barbara Thompson, Paula Thompson, Sue Spruiell, Donny Watson, Ann Parkey, Nancy Hays, Linda Wendt, Cecil Wooten, Phyllis Deary, David Wendt, Patricia Kagy, Danny Voyles, Gordon Parkey.

Mrs. Thompson expressed her thanks and appreciation to the children and their leaders.

Friends Give Shower For Mrs. Schenk

Mrs. Cletis Schenk was honored with a stork shower Tuesday evening at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Adams. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Bud Patterson, Miss Joyce Evans, Mrs. C. O. Halford and Mrs. R. E. Wilkerson.

Traditional colors of pink and blue were used in decorations. Refreshments were served to about 40 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bradford announced the birth of a daughter in a Norman, Okla., hospital Tuesday, July 28. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bradford and great granddaughter of Mrs. J. D. Overbey.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ketchum and son Bobby and Mr. Edgar Ketchum will attend a family reunion this weekend at Buffalo Gap.

Two I. P. Oddities Featured in News

Iowa Park seems to get in the news one way or another. Two unusual items have appeared this week in the Wichita Falls papers:

IOWA PARK LAW BANS PINT SIZE

Iowa Park has been bone dry for many years but on old city ordinance still on the books forbids the carrying of liquor in a bottle smaller than quart size.

Enacted around the turn of the century, the ancient regulation stems from the habit of bootleggers who stowed liquor in their boots.

In the rough and ready days about 1900, bootleggers habitually did this, making it difficult for an officer to search them. If a marshal stooped to look in a suspect's boot for a bottle, he was likely to be slugged on the head by the culprit he was investigating.

So the Iowa Park city fathers of that day passed an ordinance banning transporting liquor in containers less than quart size. And the law is still on the books.

53-YEAR-OLD DEED IS FILED HERE

A deed dating back 53 years was filed Tuesday in the office of County Clerk Dora Davis, transferring ownership of a lot in Iowa Park townsite.

The deed conveyed lot 2, block 143, Iowa Park townsite from Jack Dimock and his wife, Eliza, to W. R. Weeks for $175 cash.

The transaction was executed July 21, 1900. It was signed by Mr. and Mrs. Dimock and witnessed in Iowa Park by W. F. Miller, a notary public.

Fifty cents worth of internal revenue stamps—five stamps for 10 cents each—were attached to the deed.

The Weeks home has recently been sold to Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Marsh.

T-O FAIR

Still another in the long line of "firsts" for the Texas-Oklahoma Fair will be registered this year as the Silver Anniversary Show presents the first Junior Poultry Show. Aimed at providing a show place for the hundreds of youngsters whose projects are limited to poultry as a part of their 4-H or FFA work, the poultry show will take its place alongside the Junior Livestock, Dairy, Beef, Sheep and Swine departments. It promises to outline in the show world in this area.

The skills and handiwork of the people who make up the Texas-Oklahoma area are always given recognition during the big Fair, and the Silver Anniversary Show will go all out to offer the richly deserved plaudits of the area to its Farmers, Stockmen, Merchants and Homemakers as the various sections of the show take shape.

Recognition of the diversity of farming methods is responsible for the two sections of the Agriculture department. Farmers occupying irrigated areas and those who depend on dryland farming, are given opportunity to show the results of their labors in the fields of the Fair area each year. And annually, whether during drought period or when there's "rain plenty," the farmers of the area present an outstanding exhibit of the products of Texas and Oklahoma soils.

The newly-won prominence of professional agriculture workers—whose guidance is often responsible for the considerable advance in agriculture—is given a show-place and recognition in the exhibit presented each year by the District Agriculture Workers' Council. This group, a federation of men in various fields devoted to the improvement of agriculture, occupies the south wing of the Main Auditorium with their exhibit.

Parkans Attend Shower For Childress Relative

Mrs. A. H. Estes and Mrs. Lowell Short and children Jimmy and Suzy were special guests of a bridal shower given recently in Childress for Mrs. Billy Rasberry jr.

Mrs. Rasberry is the former Miss Paula Ann Griffin, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. Paul Griffin of Childress and granddaughter of Mrs. Estes.

The lovely bridesbook was a gift of the bride's aunt Mrs. R. E. Van Horn of Iowa Park.

A collection of gifts was presented to the honoree by Jimmy and Suzy Short and by Linda Morgan and Mary Katherine Williams of Childress.

Mrs. Short, cousin of the bride, assisted at the refreshment table. Approximately 65 guests called during party hours.

Mrs. Mae Roby had a wonderful surprise Tuesday afternoon. The T-33 jet trainer plane that flew over Iowa Park was piloted by her son Capt. Harold Roby of Valdosta, Ga. He stopped at Sheppard AFB to refuel. Mrs. Roby went to the base and had a visit with Harold before he took off from Sheppard.

Chill Wills Visits Here. Made T-O Fair Director Your C. of C.

Chill Wills' visit to Iowa Park late Tuesday afternoon did not create much stir, since it was arranged on the spur of the moment and lasted only a few minutes.

But its effect will be felt in Iowa Park's great annual attraction, the Texas-Oklahoma Fair, for years to come. The reason—he has accepted a place on the Fair association's board of directors. Chill was careful in taking this position to make it clear that he was not a director in name only, but would give of his experience and knowledge of show business as much as our Fair needed to make the Silver Anniversary show and future Fairs even better exhibitions.

Mr. Wills was in Wichita county as an ambassador of show business with special attention to his latest picture "Man from the Alamo," which had its premier in San Antonio Monday.

Theater goers will remember that Chill Wills was the deputy sheriff in "Boom Town" which featured Burk Burnett in its most feverish period of oil production.

A longtime friend of T. Leo Moore of Electra, public relations director for the T-O Fair, Chill has promised to return for Pioneer Day if at all possible.

He was accompanied on a whirlwind tour of Wichita Falls, Iowa Park, Electra and Burk Burnett on Tuesday by Moore, Ted Overbey, secretary-manager of the T-O Fair, Sheriff Weldon Bailey, Texas Ranger Jim Geer and Jimmy Boyle of the Universal-International office of New York.

Walter D. Cline, oil man of Wichita Falls and high official in the Shrine, discussed still walking before the Iowa Park Lions club at their meeting Tuesday. He was introduced by Jack Austin, agricultural director of the Wichita Falls chamber of commerce, formerly secretary of the T-O Fair.

Mr. Cline stated that still walking is the youngster's answer to the instinct of getting higher than everybody else that works in all persons. He said there are still walkers everywhere of all ages.

The desire for power, said Mr. Cline is carried into every phase of life, social, financial, religious and political. As for himself, the speaker is afraid of power, a force which makes otherwise likable people intolerable.

The older folk fear and resent the rising generation because they are smarter than their parents. He advised his listeners not to worry about the youth of the community, but to try in every way to give youth a chance to develop toward forces for good.

Soil Conservation

Early this year a group composed of Fred Parker, Lester Brooks and Elvy Sargent of Iowa Park and Dr. W. O. Trogdon of Midwestern university made plans to study the quality and quantity of grasses grown in the Wichita Valley.

Clippings were begun on March 15 on fescue grasses and June 12 on coastal bermuda. To date the following air dry quantities have been produced: Fescue grass on the Rufus King farm 2112 pounds; common bermuda on the King farm 1856 pounds; King ranch bluestem on the Earl Lehman farm 6912; Lehman coastal bermuda 15,752.

Dr. Trogdon has begun analysis of the forage produced and will soon make those results available. One of the early fescue clippings had a 26 per cent protein content.

James L. Barbour has had about 15 acres of land staked for leveling. Max Goetze of Electra has had another farm pond staked for construction.

A waterway was staked for Willie Thorman, southeast of Wichita. No shaping will be necessary. Sudan will be seeded for cover for grass seeded next spring.

Shem Cunningham has obtained good results from sodding coastal bermuda. Jack Ellis of Wichita Falls has obtained good results from sprigging coastal bermuda, watered by the sprinkler method. He is using drainage ditch water and applying it on an adjoining area that before had furnished little grass.

Miss Paula Ralston, daughter of Mrs. Jack Ralston, has been dismissed from a Shreveport, La., hospital after being a patient last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis and son Lloyd left last Saturday for Red River, N.M., and Colorado, on a vacation trip. While they are gone the other son Harold is running the Park Feed Store.

Mrs. Moss Honors Two Here Monday, July 27

A surprise pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Donald Hill of Iowa Park and Mrs. Joe Harris of Wichita Falls was given Tuesday evening, July 28, in the home of Mrs. Jack Moss in Wichita Falls.

Informal games and conversation were enjoyed by guests, who were high school classmates of the honorees.

A dainty refreshment plate was served with pink and blue place cards as favors.

Attending from Iowa Park were Mrs. John Mixon, Mrs. Bryan Faris jr., Mrs. Roy Kimberlain.

A. A. Birdwell is improving after surgery at the Clinic hospital. He entered Wednesday, July 22.

BOARD MEETING

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce will meet Tuesday morning, August 4, at 6:30 for breakfast and business at Rolling cafe. Any member of the C of C is a welcomed visitor at any directors meeting at any time.

GAIN AND LOSS

The Chamber has gained 30 new members and lost two directors during the past month: J. K. Bradshaw, agriculture teacher who recently moved to Albany; and Terrell Graham who moved to California during the past week.

At the July board meeting directors elected Percy Phillips to succeed Bradshaw for his unexpired term of six months.

At the August meeting directors will elect a successor to Graham for his unexpired term of 2 years and 5 months.

CLOUD SEEDING

Anyone interested in a little more rain for this area will be interested in the cloud seeding meeting to be held in Wichita Falls at the Kemp hotel on Friday. This C of C has been invited to send a representative delegation to hear representatives of cities that have tried it, as to its value.

More about this later.

PARK IMPROVEMENT

During the past week the City of Iowa Park has installed four floodlights in the City Park for evening picnickers. This added attraction calls forth high praise from those who like a delightful clean spot for outdoors suppers in the cool of the evening.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

At date of this writing, according to You and Your Congress: The Congress is in high gear and driving hard toward the finish. Both branches are meeting early and staying late, hoping for a July 31 finish.

Some leaders think Congress can quit by that date if there is "more action and less talk"; but issues that are to be cleared require talk before there can be any action:

The increased postal rate; the refugee bill; items of appropriation; renewal of reciprocal trade program; legislation; establishment of a Small Business Administration; a bill to let the President give surplus food to needy foreign countries; reorganization of the basic federal credit system for farmers which the Farm Credit administration directs; and leasing of submerged lands of the continental shelf beyond historic borders of coastal states.

KOREAN TRUCE

The signing of the Korean truce brings to mind while driving down the highway in the wide open spaces of West Texas: Having come a great distance we stop and look back. For miles and miles the road stretches away behind us. And then we look ahead. For miles and miles the road stretches before us—the road we still must travel to reach our destination. We've come a long way but a great distance must still be covered before we reach the ultimate goal—world peace.

Auto Inspection Dates Set by Garrison

The new period during which motorists will be required to have their autos inspected has been set for Sept. 15 through next April 15, it was announced this week. The modified law calls for inspection of brakes, lighting equipment, horns, rear view mirrors and windshield wipers.

Mrs. D. O. James and Caroline Sewell will attend a band concert at McMurry college, Abilene, Friday evening in which June James will be a featured twirler. June will return with them Saturday after being in band camp for two weeks. On their return trip they will visit the Esterwoods in Anson.

Crude Oil, Horned Frogs and Cotton Bales Made Good Swap Material At Scout Jamboree

Bruce Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Hughes and one of the Life Scouts of Iowa Park, returned with 30 other scouts and 3 leaders of this area last Sunday after attending the third national Boy Scouts Jamboree in Santa Ana, Calif., on the Irvine Ranch, July 17 through 23.

This group left Wichita Falls at 6:30, July 9 aboard an air-conditioned bus. En route they visited the Mormon temple at Salt Lake City and swam in the salt waters of the lake.

They arrived at the Jamboree city Monday night, among the first to reach the camp site, where they were assigned to section 33.

Things that impressed Bruce the most were: How wonderful the Scout work is, and how wonderful the chow we had all the way there, while at the Jamboree and on the way back. Plenty of it.

Highlights to most of the boys were the Hollywood All-star Night, and the fireworks furnished by Japanese Boy Scouts.

Bruce thought the Canadian uniforms were the best looking in the camp.

Wichita area campers took Texas crude oil in small bottles, horned frogs, small bales of cotton and Texas neckerchiefs and neckerchief slides and many other Texas products to swap for souvenirs of other areas.

All the Scouts went swimming in the Pacific for the first time in Jamboree history. Seven amphibious vessels and three helicopters maintained a sharp vigil over the area, which was manned by the best lifeguards from California beaches. Bruce said he nearly froze to death in the ocean water.

The Scouts toured San Francisco and Los Angeles and spent one night at Treasure Island naval base.

On their return trip they went through Tioga Pass near Yosemite Park. Veteran park rangers said their bus was the biggest vehicle ever to climb that treacherous road to the top.

Three boys from Kamay were among the group: John Ray Crenshaw, Hardy Lee Gage, and Bobby Lands. The three "grand" leaders accompanying the Scouts were: Tandy R. Jackson of Kamay, John Hopkins of Archer City and A. V. McFarland of Childress.

Bruce expressed this week his appreciation to the Iowa Park Lions club, his many friends and his parents for making his trip possible. If any club, church or other organization would like for Bruce to review his trip, he will be happy to do so.

Leonard Luckett Points Out Dangers of Tractor Operation by Youngsters

By Leonard Luckett

It is a well-known fact that farm youngsters and others enjoy the dangerous practice of playing and riding on tractors. Some parents even allow their children to operate them.

It is also a pretty well known fact that tractors are associated with more accidents than any other farm machinery.

Wichita County 4-H club boys learned something about how to operate a tractor safely in county-wide and community tractor clinics. Less publicity has been given to the fact that many young children are injured and killed in tractor accidents.

A recent news story tells about a 12-year-old farm boy who was helping his father haul hay from one farm to another. The boy was operating the tractor alone. He misjudged a corner and the tractor toppled over into a ditch, throwing him under the rear wheel.

He suffered a broken pelvis, a cracked rib, and severe bruises on his face and body.

This accident happened in Minnesota, but it is typical of what can happen in any area when children are allowed to drive tractors.

A survey of some newspaper clippings of farm accidents from May to December 1952 produced the following information: 45 children were seriously injured or killed while operating farm machinery.

17 children were killed and an 11-year-old killed a 75-year-old man. 35 children were operating tractors.

All of these youngsters were 5 to 15 years of age. Handling a tractor, under most farm conditions requires mature skill, coordination and sound judgment which a 12-year-old or even older child does not have.

Of course, children vary a great deal in these capacities at certain ages, but youngsters are not allowed to drive automobiles in most states until they are 15 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Doss Lay of Dallas have been visiting their new grandson Stephen Glenn Scott and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Scott.

Proper Trucking of Hogs Advocated by B. T. Haws

A live hog weighing 200 pounds is worth more than $50 at most markets on a dead one represents a loss instead of a profit.

B. T. Haws, Wichita county agent, warns that thousands of hogs will be dead when they reach market unless special attention is given to making their summer trip to town a comfortable one.

He says hogs should not be disturbed prior to shipping and that loading and shipping should be done either early in the morning or evening when it is cool. Never overfeed prior to shipping for hot weather coupled with nervous digestion can make the trip to town costly from the standpoint of losses.

Clean wet sand makes the best bedding and it's a good idea to give the sand an extra wetting after loading. Check the truck to make sure there is sufficient ventilation but watch for heavy wind drafts which will cause the hogs to pile up. Load the hogs slowly and quietly driving them with a broom or a canvas slapper. Never use a whip, club or cane, for bruises are expensive.

While in transit the hogs should be checked at least once per hour. Fast or reckless driving gains little time and is seldom worth the price that is often paid.

The important thing, says Haws, is to get the hogs to market in top condition. Dead hogs can take the profit from an entire shipment.

And finally, don't overload. The few extra head crowded into the truck may prove to be expensive passengers.

Linda Maier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleburne Maier of Houston, entered the Methodist hospital in Houston, Monday, July 27, to undergo surgery the latter part of this week. The Maiers are former residents of Iowa Park.

RENDERERS HURT; FARMERS FACE UNPLEASANT TASK

Low prices on hide and non-edible grease have dealt many of the nation's rendering plants a mortal blow. But the biggest-blow of all may be struck at the farmer.

Should these rendering plants close, he is faced with an unpleasant task to perform. In the past, he has been able to have his dead stock removed free-of-charge by a rendering plant. Without rendering service he would have to either bury or burn the carcass himself within 24 hours of the animal's death, as required by most state laws.

Fortunately, the farmers in this area can still rely on Central Hide & Rendering Company. However, this company also is feeling the pinch, as evidenced by this recent announcement by Mr. Jack Bowen, Manager of the Wichita Falls plant.

"It has been necessary for Central Hide & Rendering Co. to cut expenses because of the depressed market in hides and non-edible grease. In order to do this, the following changes in policy are being made:

1. There will be a nominal fee for each trip to the farm for dead stock.
2. We will not be able to accept COLLECT telephone calls regarding animals. (This call will cost you 37c or less and if accepted by Central Hide & Rendering Company, it costs us 74c.)

It would seem that the considerable time and labor saved by the farmer in having the rendering plant handle his dead stock will more than make up for the small expense to him for this service. adv.

Two young men from Iowa Park are among the 10 who enlisted in the marines in July. Enlisting for three years were Roy Earl Lewis, son of Mrs. Cleo Agnes Lewis; and Weldon Ray Pautsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Alvie Pautsky.

Mr. and Mrs. Bee Gwinn visited their son Glen, who is stationed at Brooks Field, San Antonio, last week.

Warren Camp

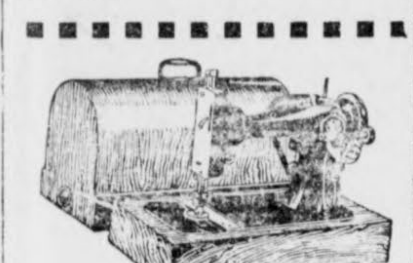

Miss Patsy Knowles was honored with a birthday party given by her parents at Warren hall. Square dancing furnished the evening's diversion. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Whisenant and Earl, Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson and Kay Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Peterson and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hubbard, Don and Van, Bo Jones, Jo Ann Hallum, Linda Lou Lester, Louise Hill and Rebecca Adams.

Guests in the W. H. Williams home have been Mr. and Mrs. K. R. White and children from Chickasha, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Ladd Laws and Rita Ann recently visited in Stamford with his mother Mrs. Margaret Laws.

Recent visitors in the Edgar Gury home were Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Neeley and children from Seminole and Mrs. Lizzie Brown, also from Seminole.

Bi-County Day Camp Set for HD Clubs on August 4 and 5

The Holiday Home Demonstration club will be host to the four other Archer county clubs and the 17 Wichita county clubs for the annual bi-county home demonstration clubs encampment August 4 and 5.

Facilities on the local school grounds will be available for the encampment. A basket supper will be served Tuesday evening with members of the various clubs bringing baskets of food.

Following supper a program made up of a skit from each of the 21 clubs is to be presented in the school auditorium. Any club failing to present a skit will be required to pay a $3 fine. Previous programs of this nature have been highly entertaining. The public is invited to attend this program.

Club members from the two-county area who desire to spend the night will bring cots and necessary bedding.

Breakfast will be served in the cafeteria by the Warren club. The Huff, Archer City and Windthorst clubs will serve the noon meal. A charge of $1.25 for the two meals or $5 cents for dinner only, will be made.

The morning program will consist of a demonstration in crafts put on by the Huff Hobby Shop of Wichita Falls.

It's Fine To Be Fooled - Sometimes

Handy Peters entertained for the ladies of the Auxiliary the other night—and had the ladies believing for a while that he's the best marksman ever.

Handy put on a great act. He set up a whole bunch of balloons on a muslin backdrop and then took out his pea-shooter. He shot blindfolded, standing on his head, every which way—and broke a balloon every time!

No wonder Handy impressed the ladies. What they didn't know—till the show's end—was that Buck Mulligan was hiding behind the backdrop improving on Handy's aim with a hatpin.

From where I sit, we all got things "put over" on us now and again. When it's good-natured—fine! But, some folks would like to fool the rest of us into believing it's wrong to enjoy an occasional glass of beer—just because they prefer something else. For real American tolerance and neighborliness these people are simply "off target."

Shower, Dinner Parties Honoring Miss Brubaker Dot Social Calendar

Twenty hostesses planned the lovely pre-nuptial shower for Miss Bobbie Ruth Brubaker, bride-elect of Theron Baber, which was an event of Tuesday evening in the parlor of the Baptist church.

The affair will long be remembered for its extraordinary beauty and will forever bear testimony to the large host of friends of the honoree.

Hostesses included Mmes. Earle Denny, Dave O. Harbour, Charles Metz, D. O. James, W. R. Bradford, Herman Mahler, Sam Hill, L. E. Brooks, Carroll Duke, T. M. Thaxton, Fred Wright, Dorothy Thompson, O. M. Jones, Lila Traylor, O. E. Lochridge, Otis Gay, Taylor George, Fred Parkey, Bonnie Hudson and Homer Blalock.

The parlor was transformed into a veritable "garden of dreams" with its profusion of colorful and fragrant summer flowers and dainty symbols of bridal significance ranging from flower vases and containers to clusters of china wedding bells.

The refreshment table was a graceful and romantic picture especially decorated to fit the mood of the occasion. The decorations against a snowy-white linen cloth featured a replica of a nuptial space with a miniature bride dressed in formal satin approaching the space. A bouquet of white and pale pink roses framed by soft candlelight furnished decorations for the setting.

Mmes. Hudson, Hill, Thaxton and Harbour alternated at the refreshment table during the party. Greeting guests were Mmes. Jones, Parkey and George, while Mmes. Traylor and Thompson were on duty at the bridesbook. The other hostesses arranged the gifts for display after they had been unwrapped by the bride-elect.

Delightful music throughout the party further enhanced the garden of dreams atmosphere. It was provided by Misses Katy Merle Sumrall and Lou Ann Duke, vocalists, and Miss Barbara Butts, Mrs. Gay and Mrs. Lochridge, pianists.

Following the party Miss Brubaker expressed appreciation to each hostess by presenting her a pastel organdy apron.

Mrs. Fenton Dale and her daughter Mrs. Ron Woods of Harlingen started this week's round of pre-nuptial parties for Miss Bobbie Ruth Brubaker with a linen shower and porch party, Monday evening at the Dale home.

Petunias in shades of orchid and white and velvety lemon leaves combined to form an attractive centerpiece for the refreshment table laid with white linen. A further complement to the table were the silver candleholders which held glowing white candles.

Hurricane lamps were used on the porch to provide more light.

Games and informal conversation furnished entertainment. Close friends of the honoree from Iowa Park and Wichita Falls attended the party.

Two dinner parties given for Miss Bobbie Ruth Brubaker, bride-elect of Theron Baber, over the weekend were keyed by beauty, simplicity and hospitality. The decorations and appointments for both affairs were governed by the colors of orchid and white, those chosen by the honoree for her wedding.

Mrs. Dorothy Thompson and Mrs. Homer Blalock entertained at a dinner for Miss Brubaker Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Thompson. They were assisted by Mrs. Ada Curry and Mrs. Bill Curry. Miss Lynda Jo Thompson provided piano music during the evening.

The guest list included Mmes. W. A. Baber, Lon Fletcher, Doyle Tate of Wichita Falls; W. F. Baber of Vernon; Otis Martin of Lake Charles, La.; R. R. Brubaker, G. E. Nichols, Don Davis, Jack Coleman and Miss Brubaker.

The home of Mrs. Charles Metz was the scene of a buffet dinner and personal shower Saturday evening. Sharing hostess duties with Mrs. Metz were Mrs. Earle Denny and Mrs. Doyle Tate.

Attending were Mmes. R. R. Brubaker, Otis Martin, Roy W. Dickey Jr. of Wichita Falls, Donald Hill, Don Davis, Sam Hill, Homer Blalock, Ron Woods of Harlingen.

And Misses Maude Thomas and Betty Perry of Wichita Falls, and the honoree.

Mrs. Estelbelle Eain and Mrs. Erlene Harris of Irving and Mrs. Ann Vogel of Burkburnett visited Mrs. Mae Tanner and Mrs. Nannie Smith last Thursday. Mrs. Eain and Mrs. Harris are daughter of Floyd Hammer, formerly of Iowa Park.
