FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Hawk-Ram shootout Friday at Graham

The District 4-AAA boys basketball championship will be decided tomorrow night at Graham.

Coach Keith Barrick and Supt. Faris Nowell met with Mineral Wells representatives in the host city yesterday to decide on a location.

Tip off time will be 8 p.m. in the Graham High School gymnasium.

Supt. Nowell emphasized that fans wanting to see the game should be there early, because the gymnasium seats only 1,100 persons, and tickets will be sold only on a first come, first serve basis. He suggested fans should be there early to buy tickets when the window opens.

Admission will be $1 for students and $2 for adults.

Mineral Wells has reportedly been filling its 1,500 capacity gym in that city through the season, and Hawk fans have increased recently to standing room only in the local gym, which holds slightly more than 800.

Nowell said there was considerable discussion between the two groups before the neutral site was decided. Because no gym between here and Mineral Wells has the seating capacity to hold the expected crowd, Iowa Park was proposing to use the Rider High gym in Wichita Falls. Mineral Wells proposed Stephenville or Denton.

Nowell said he suspected the Mineral Wells representatives wanted something as close to their city as possible, to load up on local fans, and he expects a large turnout from that town at Graham, too.

The Rams are the defending Dist. 4-AAA champions, and have built a lusty 28-2 record this year with four of last year's starters returning. Those two losses were to AAAA teams.

Iowa Park is having its most successful basketball season since the 1950s, boasting of a 26-4 record. Four of the Hawk starters have been on the first team since they were sophomores. They suffered a 1-28 record their first year.

Mineral Wells came out on top in the only meeting between the Hawks and Rams, 76-44. But that was played at Mineral Wells, and without the services of Hawk 6-10 center Jimmy Rowell, who makes a big difference when he's missing. Also two other IP players were slowed by the flu bug.

The Rams went undefeated through South Zone play, and Tuesday knocked off Graham, North Zone runner-up, 84-47.

Iowa Park likewise was undefeated in North Zone play, and the Hawks shot down South Zone runner-up Brownwood 64-45.

Trustees accused of violating law

Despite criticism of judgment, Iowa Park school trustees voted in a called meeting Thursday to re-assign head football coach Pat Tone.

A split among trustees over the issue was exposed during the meeting, when board members voted 5-1 to re-assign Tone, when Roy Boutwell voted against the proposal and also made a statement critical of the action.

But most critical of the issue was Dan Nethery, a resident of the district, who grilled the members of the board as if he were in a court of law.

Nethery accused members of having violated the Texas Open Meeting law on two different occasions.

He first said they were in violation for having instructed Supt. Faris Nowell to take an action, while in an executive session during the January meeting.

The second offense, Nethery said, was when four members of the board went to Childress to meet with Wheeler coach Preston Smith to discuss hiring him as a replacement

Trustee political pot begins boil

Eventhough trustees of the Iowa Park school district have not yet officially called for an election, two candidates have filed and two others have indicated they would file.

Incumbent Roy Boutwell has filed, as has Jerry Hutchins. Dan Nethery filed, but withdrew his application, reportedly to decide whether to run for a full three-year term or the two-year unexpired term of Hoyt Watson, temporarily filled by the appointment of Martha Dudley.

Gerald Brown indicated Wednesday morning he would file that afternoon.

for Tone.

It was pointed out that the Wheeler coach did visit facilities at the high school and was introduced to some of the athletes.

Smith came at the invitation of the superintendent, who said he had been instructed by trustees to contact him. But Nowell said Smith never filed an application nor discussed a salary.

After board president C.E. Myers called for a motion on re-assigning the coach, Bill Spruiell moved for the change, Rusty Rusk seconded the motion, and they, along with trustees Delbert Catlin, Martha Dudley and Jessie McCullough voted for the motion.

Myers later made the point he "...felt like every member was doing what he or she felt was best for the district, and there were always two sides to every issue."

Boutwell was critical of the change and actions of fellow trustees. He stated there was no indication of such a move during a meeting in December when he, as chairman of the athletic committee, and C.E. Myers agreed everything was going well in the athletic department. "But one other member didn't agree." He said he and Myers had felt Tone should have another year.

Coach Tone, who attended the meeting, said he would have no public comment on his re-assignment until after he had talked with his lawyer. He did not know when that would take place, though he had tried to reach the lawyer earlier without success.

The meeting was moved from the administration building to the junior high library due to crowded conditions. In the audience along with Nethery were his wife, some five other parents, two football players, several girls from the basketball team, numerous newsmen and almost the entire coaching staff.

TABLE ACTION

Trustees tabled action on the resignation of Mike Fountain, girls' basketball and track coach, until they could study a six-point proposal to change his duties. The issue is to be brought up when the board meets next.

- Fountain's proposals were:
1. Girls' coach completely removed from football coaching duties;
 2. Girls' Athletic Director should be hired.
 3. High school girls' athletic period should be divided into two periods, too many enrolled.
 4. Varsity basketball coach should be free to work with junior high coaches.
 5. No mixing of girls and boys in physical education period because little can be accomplished.
 6. Girls varsity basketball coach should teach in high school, not junior high.

Fountain made the point he was required to coach football, which he knew nothing about. But Supt. Nowell reminded him that when he was hired, he had agreed to learn and work in that capacity.

High school principal Bob Dawson made a point that with only one gymnasium, there was no chance that two different periods could be held for girls athletics, two for boys, and then separate the physical education classes additionally. "There's got to be some common sense here," he stated.

Two mothers of girls in athletics expressed fear that a football coach would be hired to take on additional duties of girls' coach, and said they felt Fountain had done an outstanding job this year with girls' basketball.

Trustees held an executive session, closed to the public, for an hour and a half, after which the meeting was re-opened and criteria for hiring a new head football coach was discussed.

Johnson given sentence

In the wake of his lawyer's bid for leniency and after a personal apology, H.C. Johnson of Iowa Park was sentenced Monday to 16 years in federal prison for his conviction on eight counts of issuing false grain warehouse receipts to area farmers.

Within an hour of sentencing Johnson was released on $10,000 bond after his attorney filed notice of appeal.

On a related issue U.S. District Judge Robert M. Hill granted motions by defense and prosecution to dismiss a charge against Pat Price of Iowa Park, bookkeeper for the bankrupt grain handling businesses of H.C. Johnson and his missing brother, Robert "Bobby" Johnson.

H.C. Johnson, who was convicted by a federal jury in December on eight counts of a 26-count indictment, appeared for sentencing Monday afternoon in the cavernous federal courtroom on the second floor of Wichita Falls's Post Office Building.

Accompanied by his attorney, Howard Martin of Wichita Falls,

Johnson was shown support from many friends and family who attended the sentencing hearing.

The government was represented by Asst. U.S. Atty. Ron Eddins, chief prosecutor of the week-long, and FBI Agent Steve Gray.

Before Martin's mitigation, Judge Hill acknowledged he had received "50 or maybe more" letters from Johnson supporters who asked for leniency.

"They're from simple people, by and large," Martin said as the judge held up a large folder bulging with the letters. "(The letters) are from friends who have known him best since he was a very young man," Johnson's attorney said.

Martin, who argued against incarcerating Johnson, said he had never represented a man more deserving of leniency.

"Up until this sad day (Johnson) has always obeyed the law," the silver-haired Martin maintained.

He said it was unfortunate the charges against Johnson had been so widely publicized because of "what may or may not have happened to his brother."

Martin argued Johnson would be a model probationer, who could do more good on the outside than on the inside of the walls of a federal prison.

Explaining Johnson was broken financially, Martin said Johnson was "going to have to start at the bottom again."

Before ending his seven-minute mitigation, Martin again asked the court to set aside publicity surrounding the missing brother.

Asked if he had anything to say, Continued on page 5.

Trustees to meet Monday

Continued comments about the football coach situation and calling of an election are among the items on Monday's school board meeting agenda.

The meeting was originally set for this evening, but now has been put off until 7:30 p.m. Monday. It will be held in the junior high library, instead of the administration building.

Dan Nethery, who questioned trustee action in seeking a new head football coach in a called meeting last week, sought and received additional time on tonight's agenda. He was told by board chairman C.E. Myers that there would not be a general discussion of the subject, however.

Calling of an April trustee election is also on the agenda. Two trustee positions, currently held by Roy Boutwell and Delbert Catlin, will be voted on, as well as the unexpired term of Hoyt Watson, being filled by appointed Martha Dudley.

Other items on the agenda include:

- * Consider individualized instruction - Project Guide Special Education - Bradford Elementary School;
- * Report of the Five Year Planning Committee;
- * Tennis Association proposal - Bob King;
- * Approve budget changes;
- * Release securities for State National Bank;
- * Consider recommendations presented by Coach Mike Fountain.

- * Approve tax report and adjustments;
- * Transportation report; sell school bus;
- * Cafeteria report;
- * Discuss purchase of tractor and mower;
- * Policy pertaining to one-year contracts;
- * Personnel meeting (the February meeting is when the board usually considers contract of principals and other key personnel.
- * Approve change of 1977-78 school calendar.

City election has candidates

Two incumbents and a former city councilman have filed for election in the coming municipal races.

Incumbents Lita Watson and Joe Singer both have filed for a return to their posts on the Iowa Park City Council.

Bill Gilmore, former alderman who was defeated a year ago on his bid for a return to office, also has filed for election in April.

The big municipal ballot will include the selection of three aldermen and mayor.

Mayor's post currently is filled by Johnny Crawford. Aldermen's whose terms will expire include Mrs. Watson, Singer and Gregg Ross.

City hall remodeling project takes setback

Remodeling of the city hall building took a setback this week, when it was learned it could not be financed without an increase in taxes.

The remodeling project has been pushed hard by Mayor Johnny Crawford, but when he learned during Monday night's council meeting that a tax increase would be required to do the job, he said he could not at this time continue to encourage the project.

The mayor added, however, that the remodeling was going to have to be done, and the cost is escalating at about 10 percent a year.

At one point during Monday's meeting, Crawford called for a recess, and conducted a tour of the building for more than a dozen persons in the audience. He pointed out how inefficient the present arrangement is and how it might be improved.

Additionally, he pointed out that "This building is not indicative of the people of Iowa Park."

It was learned that the financing could not be arranged for the remodeling, along with the financing of the containerized trash collection system, through time warrants or certificates of obligation.

The council had hoped to finance the new trash system through warrants or certificates, but due to confusion in the procedure and time limitation, decided to continue with the earlier decision to finance the purchase through a lease-purchase plan. Interest on such financing will be 7.7 percent.

Rifles stolen

Iowa Park police received two reports yesterday of rifles being stolen from pickup trucks.

Police said in both instances, the wing windows of the parked trucks had been broken to gain entry.

Last Friday police here received a report from William B. Miller, 610 W. Manes, that the driver's window of his car had been broken with a soft drink bottle.

The containers are to begin arriving here in early April, it was said.

Bloodmobile date changed

The Red River Red Cross Bloodmobile will be here Friday instead of the usual Thursday schedule, according to a spokesman for the organization.

The unit will be at the First Christian Church between 1 and 6 p.m. Friday, seeking to fill Iowa Park's quota of 75 pints of blood from donors.

The spokesman pointed out that blood is always in shortage, but even more so, now, with all the recent automobile accidents caused with harsh winter weather.

Each community in the Red River area is given a quota to enable the blood program to meet the total needs for blood and blood products of all residents in the 41-county region.

To meet this need, which is currently 91 units of blood per day, Red Cross relies on the cooperation of the entire community for donor support.

Horton-Wirmel wedding held in Wichita Falls

Miss Beekie Ann Horton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horton of Iowa Park, and Terrance George Wirmel, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wirmel of Wichita Falls exchanged double-ring wedding vows Saturday evening at Our Redeemer Lutheran Church in Wichita Falls. The Rev. Ken Roeber was the officiating minister.

Miss Laura Hubner directed signatures of wedding guests in the bride's book when they arrived at the church for the wedding and Miss Julie Cope and Miss Wendy Baston, the usherettes, handed out wedding programs to them.

The altar decorations featured spiral candelabra entwined with greenery, arrangements of pink azaleas, the unity candle grouping and a white satin kneeling cushion. The church pews were marked with pink satin bows, each centered with a red bird.

Patrick Sargent and Andy Jacobi, the acolytes, lighted candles to illuminate the setting.

Wedding musicians were Miss Debbie Wylie, organist, Miss Holly Burrell and David Schroeder, vocalists. The organist accompanied the vocalists for their duet numbers, "O Perfect Love", "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow", "The Lord's Prayer" and "We've Only Just Begun" sung for the recessional. Miss Wylie played the processional composition of tradition.

Following the ceremony, as the bride and groom were leaving the church they lingered for her to present red roses of love to both mothers, to Mrs. John Brooks, the bride's aunt, to Mrs. Eli Copeland and Mrs. Betty Krottinger, grandmother and aunt of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of white organza and Alencon lace.

The lace-covered empire bodice featured sheer bishop sleeves cuffed with organza. Distinguishing the skirt was a wide row of the lace at the hemline that extended into a chapel train. She wore a two-piece veil of illusion crowned with a Juliet cap of lace trimmed with seed pearls.

The bride's bouquet consisting of white silk roses and baby's breath was carried on a white Bible belonging to the groom's mother which was used for both "something old" and "something borrowed" bridal traditions. She completed the rhyme with the blue garter, her new wedding ensemble and the lucky sixpence in her shoe.

A charming sextet of bridal attendants wore pink crepe gowns overlaid with chiffon styled identically to the bride's gown. They wore pink lace Juliet caps trimmed in pearls and each carried one hot pink silk rose with light pink streamers.

Mrs. Martin Brubaker of Abilene, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and Miss Carla Cole was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gary Neves, Mrs. Farley Friday and Miss Theresa Sargent. Miss Robyn Horton, the bride's niece, was junior bridesmaid.

Miss Kimberly Scarborough of Lawton, Okla., cousin of the bride, the flower girl, wore an appropriately styled pink crepe frock and carried silk roses in a white basket.

Matthew Herder, the ring bearer, was attired like the masculine members of the wedding party in white coat, pink shirt and black pants. The groom chose an all-white tuxedo.

Best man was Jeff Haskins. Groomsman were Don Peterson, Randy Daymude, Farley Friday and Kevin Wirmel, brother of the groom. Danny Sargent was junior groomsman.

Ushering and seating guests were Blaine Horton and Bennie Horton, brothers of the bride, Mike Prestwood and Ronson Griffith.

At the wedding, Mrs. Horton wore a long shrimp-colored knit dress and matching jacket complemented with a white orchid tied with pink ribbons. Mrs. Wirmel wore a green knit gown topped with a green eyelet jacket and a pink orchid accented with white ribbon.

The Educational Building was the scene of the postnuptial buffet dinner and reception given by the bride's parents.

The bride's table was covered with a white satin cloth. The centerpiece was a white porcelain bowl filled with pink silk roses surrounding a tall pink candle held by white porcelain cherubs. The punch service and serving dishes were in silver.

The table decorations were highlighted with the distinctive three-tiered cake on a tall cake stand lifted by colonial white pillars. Inside the pillars a suspended cherub flew over a milk glass bowl holding pink roses and baby's breath. The cake was decorated with garlands of pink roses, lattice work, wedding bells and doves. Cherubs separated the two top tiers, and the top ornament was a cherub standing on puffs of pink nylon net touched with wedding bells in a heart accented with two flying doves.

At the base of the cake stand were three heart-shaped cakes baked and decorated especially for mothers of the couple and the bride and groom.

The groom's table, laid with pink linen, held a strawberry-flavored cake frosted in white with reverse shell border and interlocking heart designs on the sides. The unique top ornament pictured a bride clinging to the coat of a reluctant bridegroom as they sped through a garden of roses. The bride's book brought from the church and opened with a pink rose, silver coffee and tea services were other table appointments.

Reception assistants were Mmes. Jerry Frazier, John Brooks, Robert Horton, William Horton; Misses Paula Stith, Sherry Dozier, Jeanette Cruzon, Annette Cruzon.

The bride changed into a black empire-style dress her education at Midwestern State University.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at Underwood's.

Other out-of-town wedding guests included Messrs. and Mmes. John Brooks and Cheryl, Jim Scarborough, Jena and Becky, Martin Brubaker and students from Concordia Lutheran College.

The new slate included Mmes. Darrell Dick, president; Vern Horsky, vice president; Jimmy Howell, secretary; Glenn Phillips, treasurer; Don O'Donnell, historian; Johnny Bernstein, parliamentarian.

In other business, it was voted to purchase a book and donate books for the Iowa Park Library. Announcement was made of the Santa Rosa District Spring Convention at Quannah March 17-18.

Mrs. Faris Nowell, career education director with the Iowa Park School System, presented the program in connection with the Education Department of General Federation of Women's Clubs. She discussed the importance of career education and displayed samples of study used by students.

Club members participated in using some of the career testing and selection methods used by Mrs. Nowell in her teaching.

Mrs. Dick brought the meditation on "Love" and the group sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic" by Julia Ward Howe.

Mrs. David Springer was welcomed as a new member.

Padre Island program topic for ESA

Mrs. Allen Gilstrap presented a paper on "A Shore of All Seasons", describing Padre Island, which is fast developing into a Texas version of Miami Beach at its southern tip at the meeting of Epsilon Eta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Tuesday.

"A new four-lane causeway glides motorists over Laguna Madre and into the mainland harbor town, Port Isabel, once described as "like a 19th century fishing village that somehow slipped its European mooring and drifted across the Atlantic to land here unnoticed", she said.

She gave interesting historical facts surrounding the island beginning in 1553 when three of a 20-ship fleet battered by a storm smashed into Padre Island, then continued with the role of the pirates and the treasures they buried on the island. She told that one of the buried vessels was rediscovered in 1967 and its treasures salvaged.

"Padre Island is a place completely free from involvement with everything except nature", she concluded.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Chester Morrison and Mrs. Homer Blalock was assistant hostess.

Cook-Cooke vows exchanged Valentine's Day at SAFB

A double-ring ceremony performed Valentine's Day evening united Miss Tonya Suzette Cook and Patrick Alan Cooke as they recited their vows.

Chapel 3 at Sheppard Air Force Base was the scene of the nuptials officiated by Father Frank Tomasiewicz.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Cook and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Cooke.

Members of the wedding party entered the chapel to stand before the altar decorated with twin arrangements of red gladioli and white mums and tall white candles burning in single brass candlesticks.

Mrs. Mary Wallace, organist, provided the musical setting. For prelude selections, she played "Evergreen", "The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face" and a medley of love songs and at the close of the service she played "The Lord's Prayer." Her offerings also included the traditional marches.

The sentiment of the occasion was enhanced when the groom entered with his parents and the bride entered with her parents. They met the officiant at the altar where the parents presented their children for marriage. When they were seated, the couple faced the audience to exchange marriage vows.

The bride wore a formal gown of white bridal satin and Chantilly lace made by her mother. The lace covered the empire bodice, formed the long, fitted sleeves and the chapel train attached at the waistline. Her tiered waistlength net veil was caught to a tiara of lace and seed pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade of red and white roses and baby's breath.

Miss Tenna Cook, sister of the bride, participated in the wedding as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Lisa McBay and Miss Paula Stith. They were attired in smart red and white gowns featuring red velvet skirts and white silk blouses with soft bows at the high ruffled necklines. Each carried a single red rose combined with baby's breath.

Elizabeth Cook of Dallas, the bride's niece, acting as flower girl, wore a long red velvet dress fashioned with a yoke accented with tiny colorful flowers and a sash that fell in streamers from a bow in the back. She carried red and white flowers in a dainty white basket.

Mark Cooke, brother of the groom, the ring bearer, was clad in a dark blue suit corresponding with suits worn by fathers of the bride and groom.

Mike Cooke, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Sonny Cook and Steve Honkomp.

The groom wore an all-white tuxedo and his attendants were attired in Windsor tuxedos of white coats, red ruffled shirts trimmed in black and black pants.

Mothers of the couple chose red and white formal gowns favoring the popular Valentine colors. The bride's mother wore a red velvet skirt and jacket and a white silk blouse. The groom's mother was attired in an off-white dress designed with a cowl neckline and a red velvet jacket.

Guests went immediately to Texas Electric Reddy Room in Wichita Falls for the reception given by the bride's parents.

Mrs. Wayne Cook of Wichita Falls, sister-in-law of the bride, secured signatures of guests at a white satin-covered table holding a white basket filled with red velvet and white satin rosebud rice bags, and a red feathered pen.

The wedding cake table

was gracefully draped with white satin. The centerpiece was an attractive bouquet of red silk roses and baby's breath arranged in a white stoneware vase. A wicker basket holding rice bags and the cake were interesting additions to the decor.

The three-tiered white cake was enhanced with filigree dividers, cascades of red roses on which tiny white doves sat. A perfect topping was the youthful kissing bride and groom standing under entwining circles covered with lace.

The bride's attendants were reception assistants. Parents of the groom hosted the rehearsal dinner Sunday evening at McBride Seafood and Steaks.

The new Mrs. Cooke was graduated from Iowa Park

High School in 1977 and works for Karan's Discount Hair Fashions. In high school, she belonged to the pep club, VICA and was named to Who's Who in cosmetology. She was also chosen as outstanding student of the month by Opti-Mrs. Club.

The groom will graduate from Iowa Park High School in May. He was a member of the varsity football team and received honorable mention in district as defensive end.

He is employed by Sutherland Lumber Co. in Wichita Falls.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will live at West Winds Apartments in Wichita Falls. The bride's traveling costume was a white pant suit stitched in red and a red blouse.

Out-of-town wedding guests were Mrs. Wardell Price of Cottonwood, Tenn., grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. O.A. Stafford and Steve of Sherman.

"Clean filters can save on heating bills, so I check mine once a month."

"At Texas Electric, where I work, our job is to provide you with the electricity you need.

But higher construction and fuel costs are making it more expensive to do.

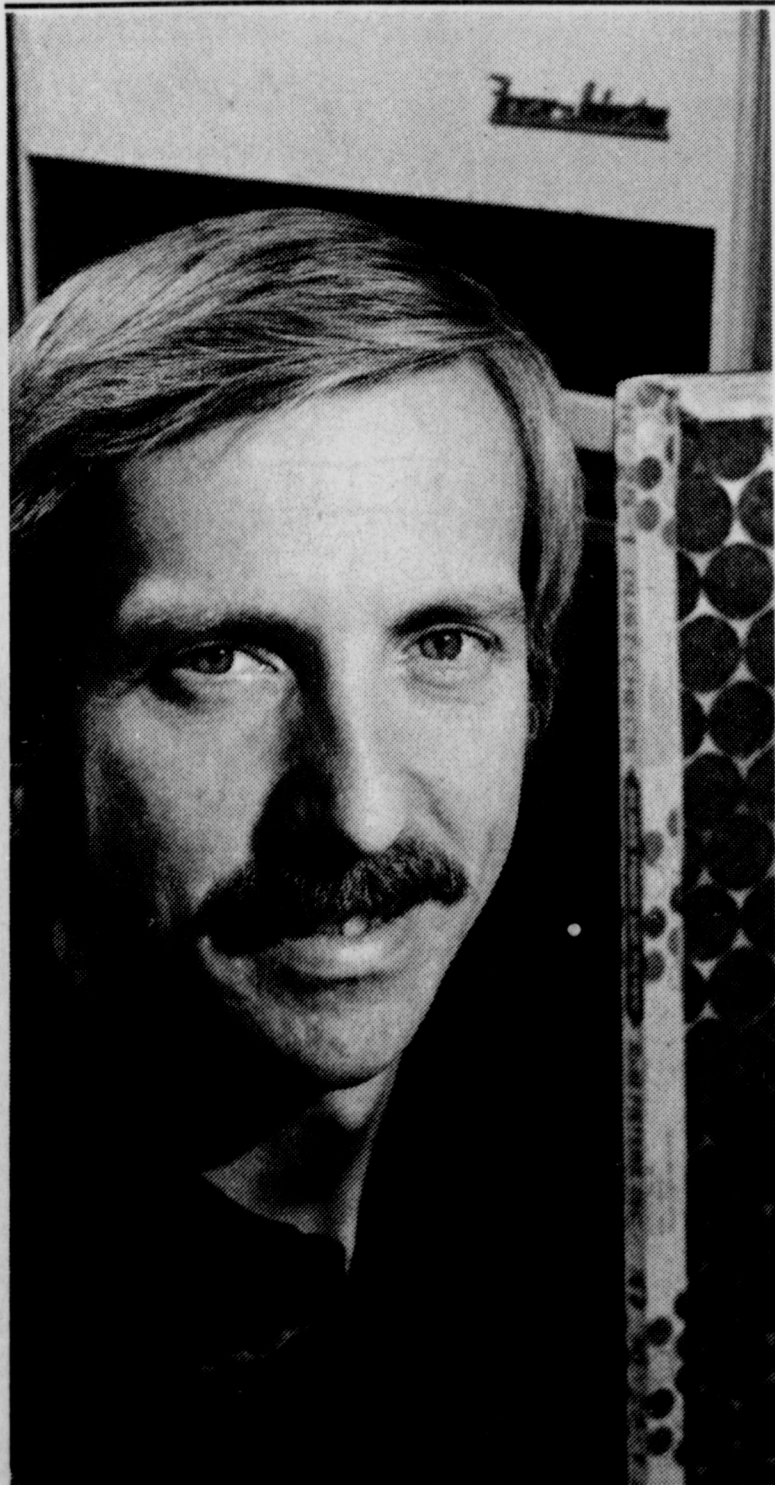

I can tell just by looking at my electric bill.

One thing I do at home is to keep a checklist right on my heating/air-conditioning unit. I have the months listed, and every time I clean the filter I check off that month — so I make sure I check it at least once a month. I couldn't remember it otherwise, and it's important.

A dirty filter limits the air flow through there — and that uses more energy."

Electricity. You count on it today. We're working to keep it that way.

County Building Committee to be in session today

By DON D. DECKER
County Agent

A noon meeting of the Building Committee will be held today at Underwoods. Wichita County Program

This citizens' committee directs the efforts of the county extension program.

Representatives from agricultural commodities, agribusiness, agri-finance, family living, youth, home economic and farm organization, and agricultural agencies make up this planning group. They examine the county situation, identify problems, and arrange action programs.

The county program building committee is headed by Loys Barbour with Ralph Harvey as vice chairman. Mrs. E.W. Roderick is the secretary - treasurer. This committee will be planning spring and summer extension programs and activities.

Allen Kemple is adding pecan and fruit trees to his existing orchard located near the Red River, north of Electra. He is planting the new and recommended varieties for this area.

The peach and plum trees are being placed on the side of a hill for better air drainage. This helps to escape frost damage since the cold air can drain away from the trees. The more cold hardy species such as pecan are being planted on the flat and deeper land.

Pecans make up the major planting in his orchard. He is adding 30 Choctaw, 30 Mohawk, 30 Kiowa, and 20 Wichita trees to his existing orchard. Previous plantings include Desirable, Choctaw, Mohawk, Comanche, and Burkett. Pollination is an important consideration. Both early and late pollen shedding trees are needed to insure adequate orchard pollination. For example, Desirable sheds pollen early while Wichita is a late pollen shedder.

A post hole digger takes a lot of work out of the tree planting. Holes are dug with a 12 inch auger. An extension, 3-4 inches wide and 18 inches long, can be welded to the center shaft of the auger at the top of the fins. This bar can be curved on the end to throw the soil upward. This extension will dig a reservoir at the top of the hole for watering purposes.

Newly planted trees must be watered weekly during the hot, dry summer months. The reservoir at the base of the tree can be filled with water from a water tank. Commercial fertilizer is not recommended on newly planted trees.

The Wichita County Annual R-PEP meeting is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Feb. 22 at Underwoods in Wichita Falls. The theme of this event will be cotton and grain sorghum production, since so many producers are looking to these crops to rotate with wheat.

Highlights on cotton production will include variety information on yield, grade, and micronaire; planting rates and date, planting equipment, subsoiling, anhydrous ammonia vs. complete fertilizer, weed control, and fleahopper and boll weevil control.

Grain sorghum information will be varieties, seeding rates, planting dates, soil fertility, planting equipment, harvesting tips, emergency harvesting alternatives, herbicides, and control of sorghum pests.

Instruction will be provided by Dr. Dale Lovelace and Emory Boring, Extension area specialist, and Don Decker, County Extension Agent. This event is being sponsored by the county field crops committee headed by Loys Barbour. It's potato and onion planting time for Jim Barger near Charlie, and he is using herbicides to combat the weed problem. He is planting about 10 acres of Irish potatoes with staggered planting dates starting on February 25. One acre of onions are being planted at the same time.

Humorist to highlight banquet

Humorist Joe Griffith will appear as guest speaker at the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce banquet March 4.

Tickets for the annual event, which will begin at 7 p.m. in the high school cafeteria, are on sale at the Chamber office and Texas Electric Service Co.

Price for the tickets is $5 each, which includes a steak dinner with all the trimmings, prepared by the Iowa Park MuleSkinners.

Other highlights of the banquet will be recognition of the year's Outstanding Citizen, Senior Citizen and Agriculturist, as well as the installation of new officers.

Although Griffith is in the business of humor, he comes with a background as a stockbroker, pilot, night club entertainer, and television newscaster.

His humor is always clean, fresh and up-to-date. As one program stated "Not many people can keep it 'clean' and make people laugh as hard as you do."

Griffith's successful speaking formula of 85 percent humor and 15 percent message has entertained audiences from Alaska to Maine.

In addition to appearances as a humorous after-dinner speaker, Griffith is an actor who has appeared in numerous movies and over 200 television commercials for companies such as Gulf Oil, Dayton Tire, Holiday Inn and McDonalds.

He's also acted with such personalities as Jack Nicklaus, Sal Mineo and Lorne Greene.

A resident of Dallas, Griffith is a graduate of East Texas Univ. and the New York Institute of Finance.

I was in college, with a man I will call William Joseph Hansford, Jr., when his son William Joseph Hansford, III, was born. The baby was typically cute as an infant, but by the time his father and I had graduated, three years later, he was a hellion.

The final blow came when his grandfather, William Joseph Hansford, Sr., died. His parents asked me to baby sit with Willy Joe during the funeral.

"I'm sorry, but I can't do it. Our reserve unit will be honor guard at the funeral. Colonel Hansford was in the Army Reserve and he's entitled to a military funeral."

Apparently, no one else would baby sit, so his parents brought Willie Joe.

I had a hard time standing at attention during the funeral mass. I was watching Willie Joe.

Willie Joe was silent through the entire ceremony. Just before the end of the service I closed my eyes and asked God if parents sinned when they dragged their children. I thought someone had slipped the kid a mickey and thought I didn't plan to tell - I figured God knew about it already.

It finally happened at the graveside. As the coffin was lowered into the ground, the bugler blew taps. The honor guard fired a six gun salute, and the widow, overcome with grief, fainted.

Before anyone could even catch Mrs. Hansford, Willie Joe lived up to his reputation.

"I'll be an (expletive deleted)", he shouted.

"They shot Grandma."

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

You may recall some of my Aug. 18 column being about HR 7700, which proposes numerous important changes in the Postal Service.

Well, Peagoober Carter has pulled one on the sponsors of the bill, and on the citizens of the nation.

The bill had been slated to go before the full house for a vote last week. Every knowledgeable person inside and outside the house was forecasting passage by at least a 2-1 margin.

However, at the eleventh hour, Pres. Carter personally intervened and ordered House Speaker Tip O'Neill to stop HR 7700 from coming to a vote. As a result, the bill, at least temporarily, has been removed from the house calendar.

I guess Carter had told O'Neill he couldn't play golf in the Bob Hope Classic last weekend if he didn't comply.

I join the National Newspaper Association in condemning the action by the President. He has been a consistent foe of HR 7700 (claiming the cost would be too high and supporting retention of the existing postal structure). Of course, he has the right to vigorously advocate his position (no matter how wrong we believe that position to be) and try to defeat the bill on the floor.

But, for the President to use the tactic he used here - preventing the members of the house from having the opportunity to vote - is, in my view, reprehensible, and certainly the antithesis of the "open government" pledges he made during his campaign.

Carter seems to have made several campaign pledges, as oil and agriculture people should remember. HR 7700 is not dead, however. Those of us in the newspaper industry are going to fight to have the bill brought out on the House floor, and I believe many of the organizations within the Postal Service are going to work toward the same goal.

I hope some of you will help. It is, in all honesty, to your benefit as well.

Letters to the Editor

How Can They Justify Such Greed?

The Texas Electric Service Company spends a lot of money trying to keep the confidence of the people, and justify the large increase of the 13% plus rate charge. When the Company increased the meter charge from $1.77 per month to $7.00-It lost all rhyme and reason and borders on pure greed.

I have lived in Iowa Park for 17 years and paid $1.25 per month to $1.77 - meter charge - for those 17 years. I believe it would average over the long haul, at least $1.50 per month or $18.00 per year - or a total of $306.00 in all those years.

Household that has had meters for years has paid for them several times. How can a company claim - they need an increase in their investment - when they have received the cost many times over.

Now your electric bill is $84.00 per year before you use any electricity.

This company that shows so much concern for public image - shows no concern that they are adding to inflation, that hits at everyone's livelihood - and shakes the basic democratic principal - of live and let live.

It would be well if companies would live upon past history - in other countries - where they showed little concern for the welfare of the people. Such tactic led the country down the road to socialism or dictatorship - and their own destruction. I would hate to see this great America come to this plight.

Why can't we have a more realistic charge - of about $2.50 per month?

I think it would be well if all the people would write letters to their state representatives - as this seems the only recourse we have. Let's fight inflation.

Johnson

Johnson stood before the judge.

"I'd just like to say I'm sorry this happened..." Johnson said.

Johnson remained unemotional when the judge sentenced the Iowa Park man to two years on each of the eight counts to be served consecutively, bringing the total sentence to 16 years.

Judge Hill could have fined Johnson $40,000 and sentenced him to 40 years in prison.

Eddins, a federal criminal lawyer from Fort Worth who had spearheaded the investigation and prosecution of Johnson, called it a "good" sentence.

After sentencing, Johnson was remanded to the custody of a federal marshal, but was free on $10,000 bond less than an hour after sentencing on the notice of appeal filed by his lawyer. It was not known whether Johnson would continue the steps necessary to pursue an appeal to the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans.

Within minutes of Johnson's hearing, the case of Pat Price was called.

Mrs. Price, who had worked as a bookkeeper for the Johnson brothers, appeared in court with her attorney, Gene Douglass of Wichita Falls.

At least in part due to lack of evidence, Douglass and Eddins both had filed motions to have the charge against Mrs. Price dismissed.

She had been named in the same 26-count indictment on a charge of aiding and abetting in making false warehouse statements to the U.S. Department of agriculture.

Judge Hill said he was "reluctant" to dismiss the charge against Mrs. Price because of her connection with the Johnson brothers and the scandal that left empty handed many farmers who had stored their 1976 wheat crops in Johnson elevators.

Although he eventually dismissed the charge against Mrs. Price, it was not until after Judge Hill had scolded the Iowa Park bookkeeper.

He said the affair should serve as a warning to her and that in the future she should "disassociate" herself from a business atmosphere similar to that which resulted in the bankruptcy of the Johnson family businesses.

"You're very lucky you don't stand in the same shoes as Mr. Johnson as you stand in this court," the judge told Mrs. Price.

Biggest snow storm in 20 years slows Iowa Park lifestyle

SEASON ENDS

Hawkette rally falls short Monday at Stephenville

Though the Hawkette season came to an abrupt halt Monday night at Stephenville, had their season been just a couple of weeks longer they may have developed into a state champion.

The club lost in the district playoff to defending Dist. 4-AAA champion

Stephenville 69-61 on the Yellow Jacket court, snuffing their chances for a league title. Stephenville, South Zone champion, plays Vernon, North Zone winner, for the conference title tonight.

The Hawkettes earned the right to enter the playoffs by winning second in the zone. But that required an upset win over the Lady Lions of Vernon, and they did it.

Momentum, mainly developed by experience, almost carried them into a repeat meeting with Vernon, for the Hawkettes had an opportunity to defeat Stephenville.

The Yellow Jackets jumped to a 24-14 first-quarter lead, held on at 43-32 at halftime, and increased the cushion to 58-43 going into the final period.

Iowa Park rallied in the fourth quarter, and pulled to within four points later in the game, but could not overcome the experienced, all-senior hosts.

Hawkette guards held Stephenville to only four field goals during the final eight minutes of play.

Jo Ann McClurg, who wound up with 33 points for the evening, led the rally, scoring 14 points in the final stanza. She hit 21 of 28 free throw shots during the game.

Jill Watts hit seven of 11 attempts from the charity line, and wound up with 19 points.

Though Iowa Park outscored Stephenville from the free shot line, hitting 31 of 44 for 70 percent, while Stephenville averaged 65 percent hitting 25 of 38 shots, the Yellow Jackets made the difference in field goals, 22-15.

SEASON STATS

McClurg wound up as the high scorer for the season, with 694 points for an average of 22.4 per tilt. The freshman hit 40 percent of her field goal attempts and 72 from the foul line, was credited with 67 rebounds and 114 interceptions and steals.

Iowa Park's other high-scoring freshman was Watts, who averaged 15 points per game, averaging 42 percent from the floor and 57 percent at the charity line. She had 77 rebounds and 74 interceptions and steals.

The third freshman forward, Carlotta Troutman, wasn't pulled up from the JV until the final six games, but managed an average of 4.8 points per game.

Wendy Baston, one of only four seniors on the team, averaged 6.3 points per game and hauled down 68 rebounds.

Leading rebounder on the team was senior Sheryl Thornton, who started the season as a forward, averaging 11.3 points per game, and was moved to guard by Coach Mike Fountain. The move was credited with the major improvement for the Hawkettes, as she also led in steals and interceptions, 151 for the year.

The other two seniors on the team were guards Linda Frederick and DeDe Rich, who accounted for 146 rebounds and 119 steals and interceptions between them.

Returning guards Pennie Baker, Frances Sampley and Teresa Hatch bolstered the team and accounted for 212 rebounds and 181 steals and interceptions.

On the season, the Hawkettes won 17, lost 14, and finished as runners up in Dist. 4-AAA North Zone.

Mean Green dumps Lions to earn championship try

Iowa Park's Mean Green basketball team Tuesday night set the stage for the District 4-AAA championship shootout Friday when they expectedly defeated Brownwood 64-45 before a capacity crowd.

While the Hawks were dumping the Lions, South Zone runners-up, Mineral Wells was punishing Graham, North Zone runners-up, 84-47, to set the other part of the stage.

Iowa Park did not have one of its better games, according to Coach Keith Barrick, considering the Lions were playing without their 6-7 center Mark McCurry, who had been suspended from the team. When the two teams last met, with McCurry, the Hawks won 64-49.

Brownwood's traditional tight zone defense bothered the Hawks early in the game. The Lions led 8-2 midway through the first quarter, but the Hawks battled back to even the score at 10-10 with 1:57 remaining, and each team matched buckets as the period ended at 12-12.

But with big Jimmy Rowell scoring well on the inside, and Doug Rogers from the outside, the Mean Green steadily pulled away from the visitors.

Rowell finished with 21 points, and Rogers had 14.

A Rowell bucket with 4:31 remaining in the second period put the Hawks ahead, 20-18, and they were never tested the rest of the game, leading 33-22 at halftime, and 45-28 after three periods.

Iowa Park pressed Brownwood the second half, breaking the game wide open. Only sloppy play from time to time kept the Hawks from completely burying their visitors.

The Mean Green built a 22-point lead, 62-40, when HARD WAY to get a tie ball, but successful for Hawk forward Rusty Price, 15. Action was in the third quarter Tuesday here against Brownwood, won by the Hawks 65-46. Offering help at the left is Anthony York.

Barrick cleaned his bench with 1:48 remaining in the game.

Iowa Park out-gunned Brownwood from the floor, hitting 27 field goals to 20. And from the charity line, they hit 10 of 19 from the free shot line while the Lions were able to connect on only five of 15. The Hawks drew 16 personal fouls to only 14 for Brownwood.

The victory extended Iowa Park season record to 26-4.

1978 track season opens next week

Division I, for schools AA, A and B classification, has 15 teams entered. Preliminaries will be held Friday afternoon, with eight qualifiers in each running event coming back Saturday afternoon for the finals. All field events will be completed Friday.

Eight teams are scheduled to compete in the other two divisions: Div. II for AAA schools; Div. III for AAAA

Dobie Romines paced the team with 18 points, while Andy Borton netted 14 points.

The Eagles finished the year with a 5-5 record in District 13-A.

The rescheduled match between Holliday and Archer City tilted toward the Wildeats here Saturday night.

The lady Eagles fell to the county seaters 72-38. Sanders paced the red birds with 18 points, and Wood had a dozen points.

In an overtime bout Archer City edged out the Eagles 82-77.

Tied 71-71 at the end of regular overtime saw the Wildeats put in nine points while the Eagles netted six total points supplied by Romines, Mark Wells and Dennis Holt.

Romines highpointed with 21, while Borton scored 11. Holt and Kent Lemons each made 10 points.

Archer City went on to capture the boys district title, but the girls loop title may have to be decided by a playoff if the Archer City felines can't handle Callisburg in their final tip-off of the year.

Holiday's other contest in the home stretch was with Muenster, who the Eagles defeated 57-54 last Friday night in the Hornet's Nest. Lemons highpointed with 16, while Borton, Mankins and Holt each scored 10.

The lady Eagles were upset by Muenster 53-47 despite the efforts of Sanders who dumped 21 points into Holiday's bucket.

Wood scored 14 and Mindy Lowder hit for 10 points.

HIGH POINTER - Nancy Sanders [24] scored the most points this year of anyone in Holliday's roundball program. Consistently highpoint for the lady Eagles, Sanders scored 258 points in district competition for an average of 26 points per game. On her best night she scored 45 points. The least she scored in loop play was 15. An all-district shoo-in, Sanders hit 35 on two nights and another night sunk 34 points.

Contracts for Holliday's entire coaching staff were extended through the 1978-79 school year during Monday night's regular school board meeting.

The six coaches also each received a $300 raise.

Monday night's meeting included two sessions behind closed doors.

The first session of executive discussion lasted about a half hour. Included in the closed session was the full board, Supt. Ray Coe and Don Lucy, head football coach and athletic director.

When the session reopened to the public, the motion was made by Jack Ayres and seconded by Royce Coats to extend Lucy's contract a year. The motion received unanimous support by trustees.

The board again voted itself into executive session to discuss the contracts of Lucy's five assistants: Bill Lee, Ralph Klinkerman, Cotton Davis, Matt Robinson and Cody West.

After almost an hour behind closed doors the meeting was again reopened to the public. Tommy Mankins' motion was seconded by Ayres to extend the staff's contracts for a year and award a $300 raise to Lucy and his five assistants.

In a related issue, the board accepted the resignation of former girls coach Scotta Schroeder, who last year was approved a year's leave of absence.

Tax assessor-collector Louis Hodge appeared before the board to recommend automobiles be dropped from the school district's tax rolls.

He said Archer City had not furnished the district with an auto registration list in two years and that new staggered auto registration procedures would compound the confusion.

He said some autos in the district are taxed if owners render their vehicles. "What it boils down to is we're taxing some and not taxing others," Hodge said.

He noted Wichita County had not taxed autos in several years.

Holiday ISD in Archer County contains $531,850 in autos and in Wichita County has $32,360 for a total of $564,360 taxable autos in the district, Hodge said.

Total tax value of autos in the district would be $11,002, Hodge said.

On the recommendation of Hodge, Bob Martin motioned to drop autos from the tax rolls. His motion was seconded by Joe Wells and approved by the board.

DELINQUENT TAXES

Hodge also reported the district had accumulated a delinquent tax roll totaling $67,916 during the past two years.

"It's the highest it's been since I've been here," Hodge said, explaining the value of property was increasing but not at the rate of delinquent accounts.

He said tax collections for the year were 92 per cent complete. That's about 4 per cent behind normal collections, Hodge said.

Hodge presented the board with a list of delinquent tax accounts which owed the district $100 or more.

Trustees instructed Hodge to contract the district's tax lawyers, who will be told to send letters on intent to file suit to delinquent tax accounts.

CALL ELECTION

Trustees formally set April 1 as the election date for two school board positions.

The terms of board president Lonnie Brackeen and Royce Coats are up for election. Neither incumbent has announced his intentions.

Persons interested in filing for a spot on the board may obtain the necessary papers at the school administration offices.

In other business Monday night the board accepted a bid of $19,050 from R.B. Swinford of Burkburnett to pave school parking areas, approved payment of monthly bills and amended the budget.

Holiday once again without a policeman

Holiday again is in the market for someone to provide the city law enforcement protection.

Police Officer Dennis Rees submitted his resignation effective Feb. 24 at Tuesday night's Holliday City Council meeting.

Rees, who had been employed by the city six months, stated his reasons for resigning in a letter he read to the council.

He said the resignation was brought about because of a misunderstanding over the time allowable to become a certified law enforcement officer under Texas laws.

Rees, who was certified in Massachusetts, said he thought he had a year to complete the 80 hours of additional Texas law training needed to be certified here.

However, a new law passed last September requires officers in Rees' position to meet the additional education requirements in six months, the resigning officer said.

Rees said if he did not resign and remained on the city payroll the city could be fined $100,000 a day.

Mayor Jim Darr said he verified with state officials that the city could be fined $100,000 a day if Rees remained, uncertified.

Rees said he had enjoyed his work here and said he and his family would remain residents of Holliday although he has begun work at a hospital in Wichita Falls.

Rees also made arrangements for return and payment of equipment purchased by the city.

Councilmen discussed the possibility of either advertising to hire a new officer or contracting for additional police protection through Archer County Sheriff's Department.

REIMBURSEMENT ASKED
G.E. Jarvis appeared before the council to see if the city would pay for damages caused when his car was driven into a hole in a street where water line repairs were being made.

Jarvis said he was unable to avoid a large hole in Whitaker Street Sunday morning. He estimated damages to his car at $125.

He offered to secure a damage estimate for his late model car and it was suggested the city forward the matter to the company which handles their liability insurance.

Alderman Ben Ezzell said Jarvis should have his car repaired, and that if municipal liability insurance would not cover the bill the city should pay for it.

"I think we're opening up a can of worms," said Alderman Fred Maier.

Although it was established no barrier had been placed around the repair site to warn motorists, Maier added, "I don't think it's the city's responsibility. (Jarvis) took the responsibility when he got out on the street."

Jarvis promptly left his seat and headed for the door of Holliday City Hall.

"If it's going to cause that much ill feelings, I'll just suffer the loss and go on down the road," Jarvis said as he was leaving the meeting.

DRAINAGE PROBLEM
A drainage problem at Bob's Grocery and Market was the issue brought to the council by Bob Martin, who requested something be done about the street east of his store.

"It's a real eyesore in there," Martin said, adding two motorists were stuck in a large hole there last week.

"If we get a good, hard rain it's going to flood. It's going to come in my store," Martin maintained.

The mayor said he would contact County Commissioner Arthur Carter for a solution to the drainage problem.

Councilmen decided to have a meeting with Lone Star Gas officials concerning bill collection in Holliday.

The utility currently pays City Sec. Evon Carter $35 a month to take payments from their customers since Lone Star has no office here.

The mayor suggested it should be more like $100 a month Lone Star pays the City of Holliday since it is city employees, Mrs. Carter and office aide Judy Nichols, who perform the utility's bill collecting here.

"It takes up a lot of their time," Darr said.

Mrs. Nichols said the city receives many complaints concerning Lone Star Gas. Mrs. Carter was absent from the meeting due to the death of her mother, Mrs. Alice Williams of Longview.

"People have chewed out me and Hershel (McDaniel) and we haven't got anything to do with it," said city employee Junior Akers.

OTHER BUSINESS
In other business Tuesday night the council discussed apartment complex trash collection with Rudy Molina, and approved a water allowance for city employee Melvin Hoover.

Akers said he had been asked by Ed Cornelius and Richard Cox to discuss an area north of the school considered a fire hazard. The property in question is owned by the school district.

The mayor said he would contact Supt. Ray Coe to seek permission for the city to burn off the property under the supervision of the fire marshal.

The council concluded its meeting with an executive session.

Discussion behind closed doors was expected to include pay hikes for city employees. Just before going into executive session several councilmen voiced disapproval of the mayor approving the purchase of a chain saw without full council approval and consideration of bids.

There also was discussion of Akers firing and re-hiring city employees Timmy Teafatiller and Hoover.

Thinlads look to meet

Holiday tracksters are scheduled to make their spring sports debut at the Hawk Relays in Iowa Park Feb. 24 and 25, according to Bill Lee, HHS track coach.

However, the annual Eagle Relays will not be held this year due to the bad condition of Holliday's track, Lee said.

The track schedule is as follows:

Feb. 24-25 - Iowa Park, varsity boys;

March 4 - Nocona, varsity and JV boys and girls;

March 10 - Henrietta, varsity and JV boys and girls;

March 17-18 - Burkburnett, varsity boys;

March 31 - Archer City, varsity and JV boys;

April 1 - Quanah, varsity girls;

April 7-8 - Saint Jo, junior high and high school district girls;

April 14-15 - Saint Jo, junior high and high school district boys;

April 21-22 - Stephenville, regional girls;

April 28-29 - Stephenville, regional boys;

May 5-6 - Austin, state girls meet;

May 12-13 - Austin, state boys meet.

Two city races are contested

At least two races in the April 1 municipal election will be contested.

R.W. Koehler has filed for the alderman's spot in Place 4.

Koehler will have at least one opponent, incumbent Red Denney, who has filed for a return to his council post.

The other contested race has developed between councilman Charles Parker and municipal judge Tom Hall. Both candidates have filed for the mayor's post, currently filled by Jim Darr.

Billy Phillips is the lone candidate to file for the post Parker is vacating as alderman, Place 3.

The fourth council spot up for election is for alderman, Place 2, which is currently filled by Ben Ezzell. No one has filed for the Place 2 post.

SCHOOL BALLOT BLANK

Two positions on the Holliday school board will be up for election on April Fool's Day.

Members whose terms will expire are Royce Coats and Lonnie Brackeen, board president.

The school board election has not attracted any candidates.

Persons have until March 2 to file for any of the six local positions up for grabs.

School board hopefuls should contact the administration office of Holliday schools. Council candidates may file at Holliday City Hall.

IRS to compute some tax forms

The Internal Revenue Service will compute the income tax for single taxpayers having an adjusted gross income of $20,000 or less and married taxpayers filing jointly with an adjusted gross income of $40,000 or less when deductions are not itemized. Taxpayers can use either the Form 1040A or Form 1040 to request the tax computation by the IRS.

The taxpayer's income must be solely from wages, salary, tips, dividends, interest, pensions and annuities for the IRS to compute the tax.

To take advantage of this

IRS service, the taxpayer need only complete certain portions of his or her tax return, attach all W-2 forms, sign the return, and mail it by April 15 to the address listed in the tax instruction booklet.

The tax will be determined from the proper tax table and the taxpayer will either receive a refund for any overpayment or be notified of the amount of any tax due.

Exact details of which portions of the return must be completed in order to have IRS compute the tax appear in the tax package instructions mailed earlier to each taxpayer.

Eye Bank explained

The need for voluntary donations to the Dist. 2-E1 Lions Eye Bank were explained Tuesday at the Noon Lions Club meeting by Al Comstock of Wichita Falls.

Comstock, a Deputy District Governor, is president of the district eye bank. He explained the workings of the organization, and the benefits of recipients.

Once volunteers have registered as donating their eyes to the organization upon death, authorities are notified, the eyes removed, a recipient obtained, and within 48 hours, the cornea transplant completed.

An average of 90 persons go blind every day, Comstock noted, and there is a total of 150,000 blind persons who could see if they could receive a cornea transplant.

Transplants are done in three regional hospitals in this part of the country: Dallas, Oklahoma City and Houston.

There are no charges to the recipient, as all expenses are paid by the Lions Clubs of the district, which includes the counties of Wichita, Archer, Baylor, Callahan, Clay, Comanche, Eastland, Erath, Foard, Hardeman, Haskell, Jack, Jones, Knox;

Also Montague, Palo Pinto, Shackleford, Stephens, Stonewall, Taylor, Throckmorton, Wilbarger and Young.

Hines, Evie Teal, George Trammell, Margaret Carter, Gene Owens and Arch Hughes.

The Ruth Circle met with Mrs. L.A. Thurlo and Mrs. Estle Gallop directed the program built around the theme, "Ye Shall Be My Witnesses in Jerusalem".

Others attending were Mmes. L.L. Lindesmith, W.M. Owens, C.L. Thompson, Charlie Thompson, Eldon Thompson, Floyd Boyd and Kathleen Hatten.

Mrs. Bertha McDonald led the program, using the same theme of the Ruth Circle, for the Mary Circle meeting held in the home of Mrs. Carl Sullivan.

Others attending were Shirley Lowrey; Mmes. Allan Bennett, H.M. Mahler, Gene Lowrey, R. Carrillo Miranda, James Todd, T.J. Pace, Jimmy Kasparek, Elgin Denny, Otis Gay and Phil Krum.

Alexander given prison sentence

Ricky Dean Alexander of Iowa Park was sentenced Tuesday to 10 years in state prison.

Alexander pleaded guilty in 78th District Court in Wichita Falls to burglary of a building. The sentence was given by District Judge Temple Driver.

THE NEED to more carefully define what we mean by the words "revival" and "evangelism" has never been more urgent than right now. We have been using these words interchangeably for so long that their real distinctions have become obliterated.

From the dictionary we discover that revival means to renew, to awaken, to reinvigorate, to restore to new life that which is dying or dead. Evangelism, on the other hand, means announcing, with the purpose of persuasion, the good news of the gospel.

"Revival is what the church experiences. Evangelism is what the church engages in. Revival is God crying out to lethargic Christians: "Wake up and get to work." Evangelism is an awakened church crying to sinners: "Repent and be saved."

Revival is not always welcomed. For many, the price is too high. It entails repudiation of self-satisfied complacency. Revival replaces conformity to the world with obedience to Jesus Christ. It exchanges self-indulgence for self-denial.

"Revival is not a miraculous visitation falling upon an unprepared people like a bolt out of the blue. It comes when God's people earnestly want revival and are willing to pay the price."

Effective evangelism depends on revival. The disciples found this so on the day of Pentecost, and Christians have found it the same ever since. Without the tarrying, the going is ineffective, fruitless and frustrating. But when the heart is revived, renewed and refilled by His spirit-then the world is "turned upside down."
