Mayor instructs police to shut down speeders

The Iowa Park Police Department was instructed to take a get-tough position on traffic violators in the city, aldermen were told water could become a critical issue, and some insight into next year's cost of city operation, during Monday's regular meeting of the city council.

Mayor Johnny Crawford told Chief Jim Voyles to have his personnel start cracking down on speeders, running of stop signs, and controlling excessive noise of vehicles.

"Our streets are beginning to look like race tracks," the mayor commented while instructing Voyles. Additionally, the city hall is receiving numerous complaints of loud vehicles, not only on the streets but being worked on in residential neighborhoods.

Voyles explained attempts to catch speeders with the radar unit were often times foiled because of citizen band radio units. "They know where we are as soon as we set up," he told Crawford.

"I don't care how you do it, as long as it's within the law. But we've got to stop this speeding and make our streets safer," Crawford said.

About excessive noise of vehicles, Voyles said "What you're talking about, we've already started."

WATER SITUATION

Not only are the city's water supply lakes becoming alarmingly low, due to dry conditions, but the water treatment plant is so limited in its capacity, that City Administrator Gene Britton is considering increasing purchase of water from Wichita Falls.

He explained the cost of producing water in the city's plant is almost as expensive as buying it, a spread of about two cents. The savings of operating the plant part time while buying more Wichita Falls water might offset the cost, he said.

Iowa Park has not taken any Wichita Falls water for about two months, due to an equipment supply problem. That is another reason why the lakes are as low as they are, he told the council.

Britton said the piece of equipment had been on order a month and a half, but the manufacturer's plant was closed by a strike, which reportedly ended this week.

The administrator explained that it requires the same manpower, over a 24-hour period, to operate the city's water plant that produces a million gallons of water daily, as it would if the plant had a three-million capacity.

He is studying the possibility of closing the plant at night, during the off-peak season, to hopefully save money.

BUDGET

In a brief review of the tentative budget, Britton's proposal is to increase most employee salaries, to keep up with inflation. However, in many departments, manpower cuts offset most financial increases, when compared with last year's budget, he explained.

When asked if there was a possibility of a tax decrease or an increase in property tax deduction for elderly, both Britton and Crawford said it was still too early to say yes or no.

Crawford appointed each of the aldermen to areas of responsibility. He named Lita Watson over parks, and also as mayor pro tem; Eldon Thompson over police; Johnny Lee over streets; C.A. Hicks over sanitation; and Bud Adams over sewer and water.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business, the council held a required public hearing on proposals to spend revenue sharing money, but no one other than city personnel had any suggestions; aldermen confirmed hiring of Kurt Cullum, former Wichita Falls jailer, on the police force; heard a report from Britton on a block grant pre-application; held an executive meeting concerning a suit against the city; and heard a report by the administrator about the previously approved project of codification of ordinances.

ANOTHER SCHOOL BURGLARY - Junior High School Principal Jimmy Alsop found his office ransacked Thursday morning, and the safe broken into, with some $250 missing. Butcher knives were used to cut a gaping hole in a wall, and also to attempt to get into the safe. After knocking the safe's hinges and handle off, it was turned on its side, and entry gained through the bottom. But one box, containing some $165, was missed by the burglar, and retained. Officers are puzzled how entry not only to the building, but the room in which the safe was kept, was made. The hole in the wall was blocked by an unmoved filing cabinet. The burglary was similar to one at the high school about a month ago.

County re-evaluating portion of Iowa Park

Residents in the west portion of Iowa Park will be receiving notices of property re-evaluation for 1978 this weekend from the Wichita County tax assessor/collector office.

Miles Graham, appraiser for the office, said notices for 1978 taxes would be mailed this afternoon.

Iowa Park has been divided into three sections, for re-evaluation.

This year the area includes that property west of Pacific, north of the railroad tracks, and bordered by the city limits.

In 1979, the area affected will be south of the railroad tracks.

In 1980, Graham said the area is east of Pacific, north of railroad tracks, to the city limits.

No "open land" is being re-evaluated this year, according to the appraiser, other than where new construction is being completed. Graham included the communities of Valley View, Kamay and Kadane Corner as open land.

He said open land was re-appraised in 1975 and 1976.

The county's re-appraising program was launched in Wichita Falls last year, causing a considerable uproar from property owners in the affected area, some of whom alleged their taxes were raised three and four times.

MOTHER'S DAY

Local resident pays fine following chase

In the wake of a high speed chase that ended Saturday night north of Iowa Park, an Iowa Park man was fined $297 yesterday in Wichita Falls municipal court.

Ubaldo G. Fernandez of Iowa Park was fined $203.50 after being found guilty of alluding a police officer, and he was fined $93.50 after pleading guilty to a charge of speeding 100 miles per hour in a 50-mile-per-hour zone, according to a clerk in Wichita Falls municipal court.

The clerk said the state dismissed charges against Fernandez for no driver's license and failure to stop.

Capt. W.E. Davis of the Wichita Falls Police Department said the chase began Saturday night on the Old Iowa Park Road inside the Wichita Falls city limits.

Fernandez allegedly floorboarded his car when Davis tried to stop him after clocking the suspect by radar for speeding.

Davis said the chase took them into Iowa Park via Old Iowa Park Road, through several Iowa Park streets and out east of the city limits. After taking several rural routes and gravel roads, Fernandez was finally apprehended 3 1/2 miles north of the expressway on FM368, Davis said.

Davis, who reportedly fired several shots at the fleeing car, stopped Fernandez by ramming the suspect's car with his police cruiser.

The chase, which began about 8 p.m., resulted in both vehicles being towed away by wreckers.

The Iowa Park police were not involved in the chase, said Iowa Park Police Chief Jim Voyles.

All the shooting, at least five shots, reportedly was done inside Iowa Park, in a residential area. Several phone calls were taken at the local police station, complaining about the shots.

Gerald Walsh, a resident of 305 E. Washington, was extremely upset by all the shooting that took place in his neighborhood.

"There were a lot of people who came out of their homes when they heard the siren, and they could have been hit by one of the bullets. Everybody started running when they heard the shots, trying to take cover," Walsh told the Leader.

Walsh said he felt Capt. Davis owed the city of Iowa Park "an apology for what he did here. It's a very serious thing, and could have been disastrous."

Chief Voyles said the Wichita Falls

cruiser had only some 5,000 miles on it when he rammed the car. He, too, was critical of the Wichita Falls officer for firing his gun in the residential area, according to his report Monday at the city council meeting.

Two concerts next week

Two concerts are on tap Monday and Tuesday at the high school auditorium.

The junior high band and choir will perform Monday, starting at 7:30 p.m., and at the same starting time Tuesday, concerts will be given by the high school band and Valley View band.

Board date changed

A lengthy agenda faces school trustees when they meet at 7:30 this evening, after postponing their regular meeting date.

The meeting was to have been held Tuesday, which was the board's regular second Tuesday meeting date. However, after confirmation last Wednesday, and the story published in Thursday's edition, it was decided to change the date so the meeting "would not conflict with the spring choir concert."

No explanation is given on the agenda for two items, entitled "hear request from teachers" and "discuss contract adjustments."

Other items on the agenda, other than regular monthly listings, are:

- * open bids on roof repair on junior high gym;
- * approve 1977-78 school calendar adjustments;
- * approve budget changes;
- * approve summer band program and tuition rates;
- * report on five year plan;
- * approve driver education tuition rates for 1979;
- * open bids on school bus sale;
- * discuss vandalism;
- * approve sale date for items no longer used;
- * present school board policy changes.

Padgett polls most votes in primary Saturday

Iowa Park's Jerry Padgett pulled off a Derby Day finish winning the Democratic Party's nomination for Wichita County Clerk with the largest percentage of votes garnered by any county candidate.

Wichita Falls attorney Tom Bacus skated into the Democratic Party's nomination for county judge, but Democrats will be called back to the polls in June to decide a runoff in the county treasurer's race.

Padgett, a lifelong Iowa Park resident supported by retiring County Clerk Dora Davis and retiring County Judge Hank Anderson, emphasized in his campaign the experience he had as chief deputy county clerk.

Easily carrying the five Iowa Park area boxes, Padgett garnered 10,765 votes throughout the county trailed by Clyde B. Freeman Jr. with 1,376 and Howard Allison with 2,288.

In the November general election Padgett will face Josephine Riner, who was unopposed in her bid for the Republican nomination.

While Padgett captured almost 76 percent of the total county Democratic votes, Bacus was handed the county judge job with almost 63 percent of the ballots cast.

Bacus, who will not face GOP opposition in November, was nominated with 9,236 votes followed by Ann L. Krempp with 3,737 and Tom Schrandt with 1,779.

With neither candidate gaining a majority of the Democratic ballots, Mary Lynn Welborn and Bob Terry must continue their campaigns into a June runoff election for county treasurer.

Welborn made the best showing with 6,977 votes to Terry's 3,799. Carl Wilson was eliminated with 3,589 votes. Whoever takes the Democratic nomination will not face a GOP opponent in the general election.

Also on the local scene, State Rep. Charles Finnell of Holliday was unchallenged in his bid for Democratic renomination to District 53, as was GOP hopeful Gail L. Sogard. They will unleash their campaigns for the November election.

Iowa Park's Justice of the Peace Virgil Hill was unopposed in his quest for the Precinct 3 Democratic nomination and will go unchallenged by Republicans in November.

U.S. Rep. Jack Hightower handily took the Democratic nomination for the 13th Congressional District, and will face Clifford A. Jones, winner of the GOP nomination over Larry Kelly.

In Wichita County Jones received 554 votes to Kelly's 523.

Precincts 32, 33, 34, 35 and 60 combined to give Jones the local GOP nod with 32 ballots while Kelly took 21 votes here.

With the exception of the governor's race, Wichita County Democrats joined Texans in all other races including rejection of two proposals which would have allowed the legislature to enact bills to allow pari-mutuel horse racing by local option and higher interest rates on loans under $5,000.

Wichita County joined the state in nominating Bob Krueger to the U.S. House of Representatives, Bill Hobby as lieutenant governor, Mark White as Texas attorney general, Warren G. Harding as state treasurer and Reagan V. Brown as agriculture commissioner.

The importance of name identification also was illustrated in Saturday's primary election with Jerry Sadler gaining the Democratic Party's nomination to fill an unexpired term on the Railroad Commission. As a legislator, Sadler is the only Texas lawmaker in recent times to be publicly censured by the Texas House of Representatives.

Although Sadler succeeded in winning his party's nomination he will face GOP hopeful James W. Lacy in November.

It was in the governor's race that Wichita County Democrats differed from the rest of the state. Attorney General John Hill was successful in his bid to oust incumbent Dolph Briscoe; however, Briscoe took the edge in Wichita County.

Republicans will be fielding Bill Clements against Hill in November.

Across Wichita County Clements polled 677 votes, trailed by Ray Hutchison with 438 and Clarence G. Thompson with 28.

Republicans from the combined five local precincts supported Clements with 33 votes. Hutchison had 21 and Thompson garnered two votes.

A breakdown of how Democrats voted at the five local precincts follows.

Lane-DeWitt wedding vows exchanged Saturday

The Floral Heights Assembly of God Church in Wichita Falls was the setting for the Saturday evening ceremony uniting Miss Barbara Diane Lane and Michael Lee DeWitt. The officiants were the Rev. James L. Harmon, pastor, and the Rev. C.L. Fuller, retired minister.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick De Shong Lane of Iowa Park and Mr. and Mrs. Irwin DeWitt Sr. of Hastings, Mich.

Vows were repeated before an archway of greenery backgrounded by an arrangement of white gladioli and mums and a row of votive candles on the chancel rail. Four tall candelabra filled with burning wedding tapers, the kneeling bench and unity candle completed the setting.

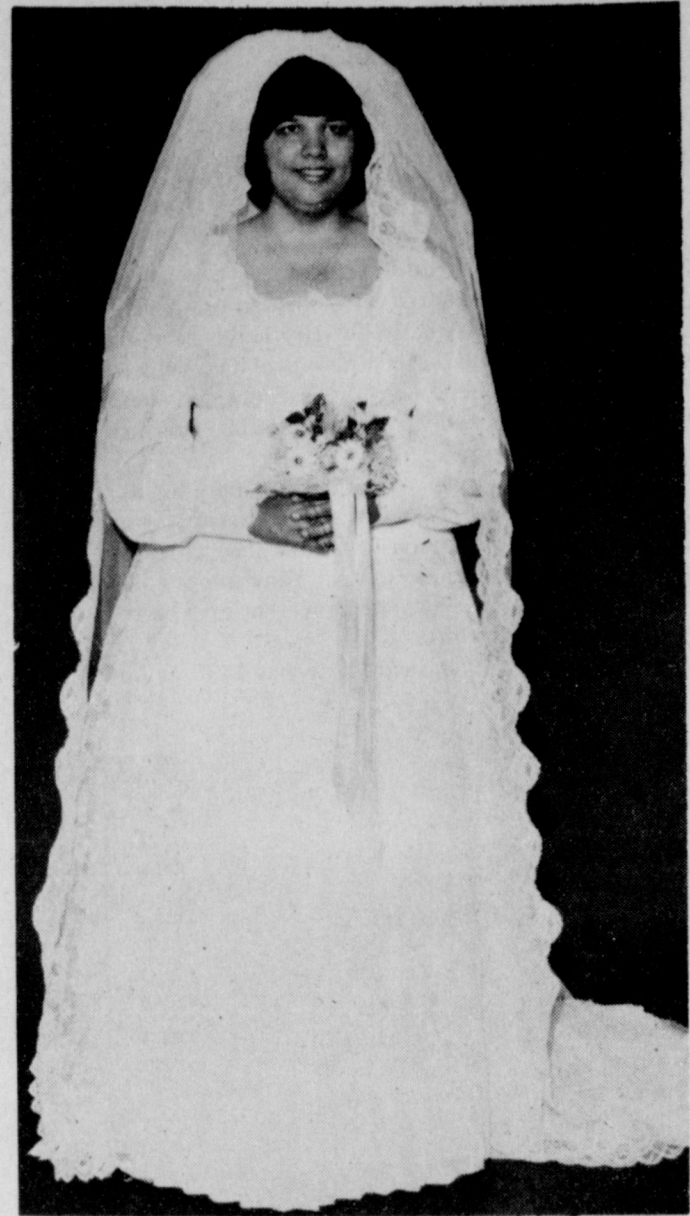

Larry Lane, organist, a vocal trio and two soloists provided the wedding music. The trio composed of Mrs. Clifford Klinkerman, Mrs. David Hatfield and Edward Lane sang "We've Only Just Begun". Mrs. Klinkerman sang "More" and Miss Terri Blancett sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's father presented her for marriage. She wore a formal gown of white organza, Chantilly lace and pearls. The slightly raised bodice had a bateau neckline covered in lace and pearls. The camelot sheer sleeves were also trimmed in matching lace. The full A-line skirt had a panel of pleated silk chiffon down the front with a chapel length train. She chose a chapel length veil of bridal illusion trimmed in lace that drifted from a cap of lace and pearls.

The bride carried a cascade of white carnations and English ivy centered with a white orchid. Her sentimental additions included a pin set with the diamond from her mother's engagement ring, her mother's diamond earrings and the popular touch of blue.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Irwin DeWitt Jr. as matron of honor. She was attired in a blue dotted organza empire style gown trimmed with Cluny lace. She wore blue carnations tied with blue ribbons in her hair and carried a bouquet of blue carnations and baby's breath.

Other feminine attendants dressed in gowns styled identically to the matron of honor's gown were Miss Lisa Lane, sister of the bride, maid of honor, Mrs. Mark Sawyer, Mrs. Larry Lane, Miss Dee Lynn Smith and

MRS. MICHAEL LEE DeWITT

Miss Cindy Francis, bridesmaids. They wore yellow, mint green, pink, orchid and apricot frocks, respectively. They wore floral headpieces and carried bouquets to match the color of their gowns.

Lisa Jane Eddy of Battle Creek, Mich., the flower girl, wore yellow. Roy Hollis was ring bearer.

Prenuptial shower held

Blue and white governed decorations for a pre-nuptial shower given Friday evening to fete Miss Susie Settle, bride-elect of Richard Lee Harper. The colors will be emphasized in the couple's wedding which will be solemnized this Friday evening at City View Baptist Church.

The function took place in Texas Electric Reddy Room. Hostesses were Mmes. Jack Kelly, Howard Eddins, Lucille Roach, Darnell Richardson, Louise Berry, Gary Galliton, Luther Shaw and Miss Kellie Hamilton.

The focal point of interest in the room was the refreshment table covered with white linen accented with panels of lace. The unique centerpiece was the bride-elect's wedding slipper arranged on blue net and silk flowers dotted with seed pearls. Table accessories harmonizing with the centerpiece were white wedding bells complemented with blue net, ribbons, baby's breath and streamers inscribed with "Susie and Rick".

Of special significance in the setting were the antique cloths, the handwork of Mrs. Berry's late grandmother, that covered the gift and registry tables. The table where guests registered held a votive candle arranged with silk roses and two love birds.

Silk gardenias, lilies of the valley, blue leaves and seed pearls were used in the handsome corsages presented to the honoree, her mother, Mrs. A.K. Settle and the groom-elect's mother, Mrs. E.L. Harper. Mrs. Lottie Watson, aunt of Miss Settle, was a special guest.

Mike Lane, brother of the bride, was best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Irwin DeWitt Jr., Edward, Jon, Steve and Lance Lane. All men wore wheat colored pants, beige coats and ruffled shirts.

Steve and Jon Lane were candlelighters.

The bride's parents were hosts for the wedding reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride's table was covered with white lace finished with a satin skirt. An arrangement of flowers in the spring shades noted in the bridal attendants' gown formed the centerpiece. The same colors were featured in frosting decorations on the four-tiered bride's cake. The tiers were separated with Grecian columns and the top ornament was a bride and groom standing inside a dainty gazebo.

The groom's table, laid with beige linen, was highlighted with an open Bible-shaped chocolate cake inscribed with "With This Ring I Thee Wed."

An arrangement of pink flowers and the pink plume pen were featured on the table covered with white satin overlaid with apricot lace where Mrs. John Daniels registered guests. The champagne fountain was used on another table in the room.

Assisting with the reception were Mmes. Clark Lane Jr., Jack Lane, Dale Kepler, Herman Erskine, Misses Monica and Monique Klinkerman, Melissa Morrill, Louise DeWitt and Lydia Davenport.

The mother of the bride chose an apricot knit formal gown with an empire waist, chiffon sleeves and pleated skirt for the wedding, complementing it with a green orchid. The groom's mother wore light blue knit gown accented with a jacket and a yellow orchid.

The groom's parents gave the rehearsal dinner at Underwood's. The couple will spend a tour of Michigan. They will live in Iowa Park when they return.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Park High School and is activities director for Lane's Nursing Home. The groom, a graduate of Hastings (Mich.) High School, is employed by Cool-Temp Siding Co.

Mrs. Childers hosts supper

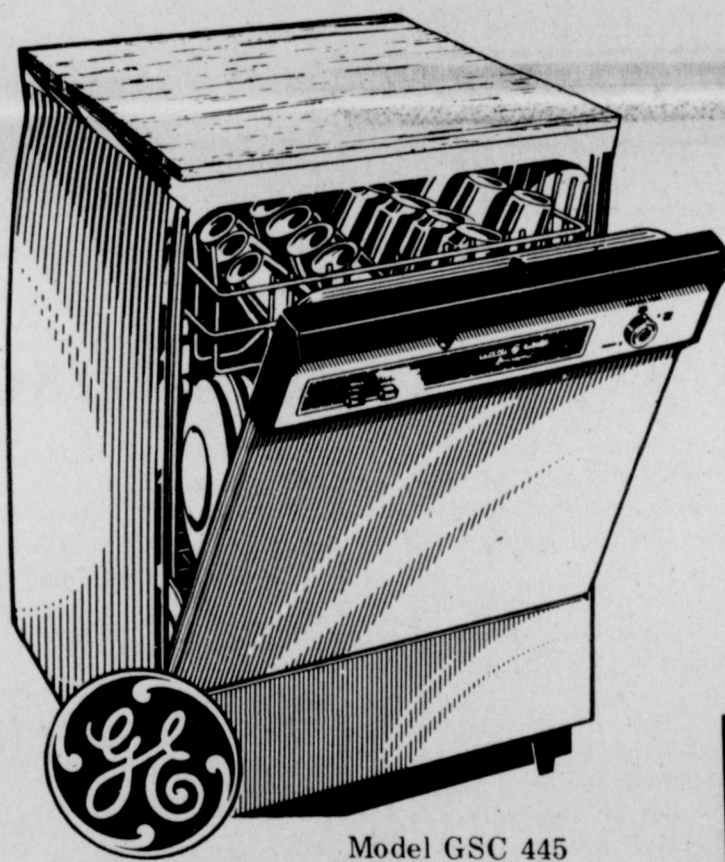

Mrs. Roy Childers was hostess at a "poor boy" supper of red beans, hush puppies, salads and desserts Tuesday night and gave the program for the Rachel Circle of United Methodist Women. "You Have to Work at It" was the program topic.

During the business, it was voted to help needy children in monetary ways.

Visitors were Mmes. Jim Connatser, Margaret Carter and Jimmy Kasperek. Other members present were Mmes. Larry Parks, Mike Isbell, Jay Farmer, Jim Rinehart, David Springer, Wilbert Wynn, Ralph Carrillo Miranda and Andrea Barker.

Shower fetes Miss Dozier

The shower theme, tastefully carried out through the use of gaily-decorated umbrellas and sprinklers, was combined with yellow and mint green appointments, wedding symbols, white lace and satin cloths to impart interesting distinction to the setting for a bridal shower given Monday evening complimentary to Miss Sherry Dozier, bride-elect of Bob Aulds.

The party was given by Mmes. Luther Skinner, Bill Cook and W.F. Williams in the Fellowship Hall of the Church of God.

Upon entering guests registered at a table draped with white satin overlaid with white lace. The romantic appointment was a bride and groom standing on a cushion of yellow roses with mint green leaves in a gold gazebo. Roses trailing down either side from white bells on top extended inside to form the cushion.

The honoree greeted guests and opened gifts at a table covered with white lace over mint green. A yellow candle standing tall in a circle of white daisies, lilies of the valley, yellow chrysanthemums was the decorative appointment.

Sitting with Miss Dozier, who wore a carnation corsage in her chosen colors, were her mother, Mrs. Wallace Smith and sister, Mrs. Bill Streich, and the future groom's mother, Mrs. Keith Aulds.

The long gift tables were covered with lace-bordered white satin cloths over pure white silk skirts. The novel centerpieces were a yellow umbrella covered with white net and accented with clusters of white daisies tied with matching ribbons, and a tall garden sprinkler completely hidden by cascading roses starting at the top where two white doves were perched.

The refreshment table decorations stressed the yellow and mint green color scheme. The centerpiece was a bouquet of daisies in a milk glass vase shaded with a yellow umbrella showered with daisy clusters. The table cover was identical to the one used on the table where the honoree sat.

The refreshments repeated the chosen colors. The yellow napkins lettered with "Sherry and Bob", white lacy wedding bells topped with mint green and yellow bows and simulated wedding bands, which were favors, and the crystal punch service completed the table decor.

Mrs. Louise Ault, grandmother of the bride-elect, was a special guest.

The honoree wore a blue carnation corsage from the hostesses with her formal pink sheer gown. She unwrapped her gifts and greeted guests at a table covered with white linen which held a small crystal basket filled with assorted spring flowers.

E.E. Sargent was recognized for leading exercises, and O.S. "Buddie" McLemore was cited for building the Friendly Door's award winning float in the Christmas parade.

About 100 persons were present for the covered dish luncheon Tuesday at the organization's adopted facilities in the fellowship hall of the First United Methodist Church.

In addition to a vast array of foods contributed by members, the Rev. Jim Connatser entertained by singing several songs. He was accompanied by Mrs. Otis Gay.

Mrs. Albright also entertained, philosophizing the various stages of life in prose and poetry.

Look for this sign. It can help you save on energy costs in a big way.

Whether you're going to buy a new home or build one, you should know about E-OK. It means that the home has been thoroughly checked and certified as energy efficient by Texas Electric.

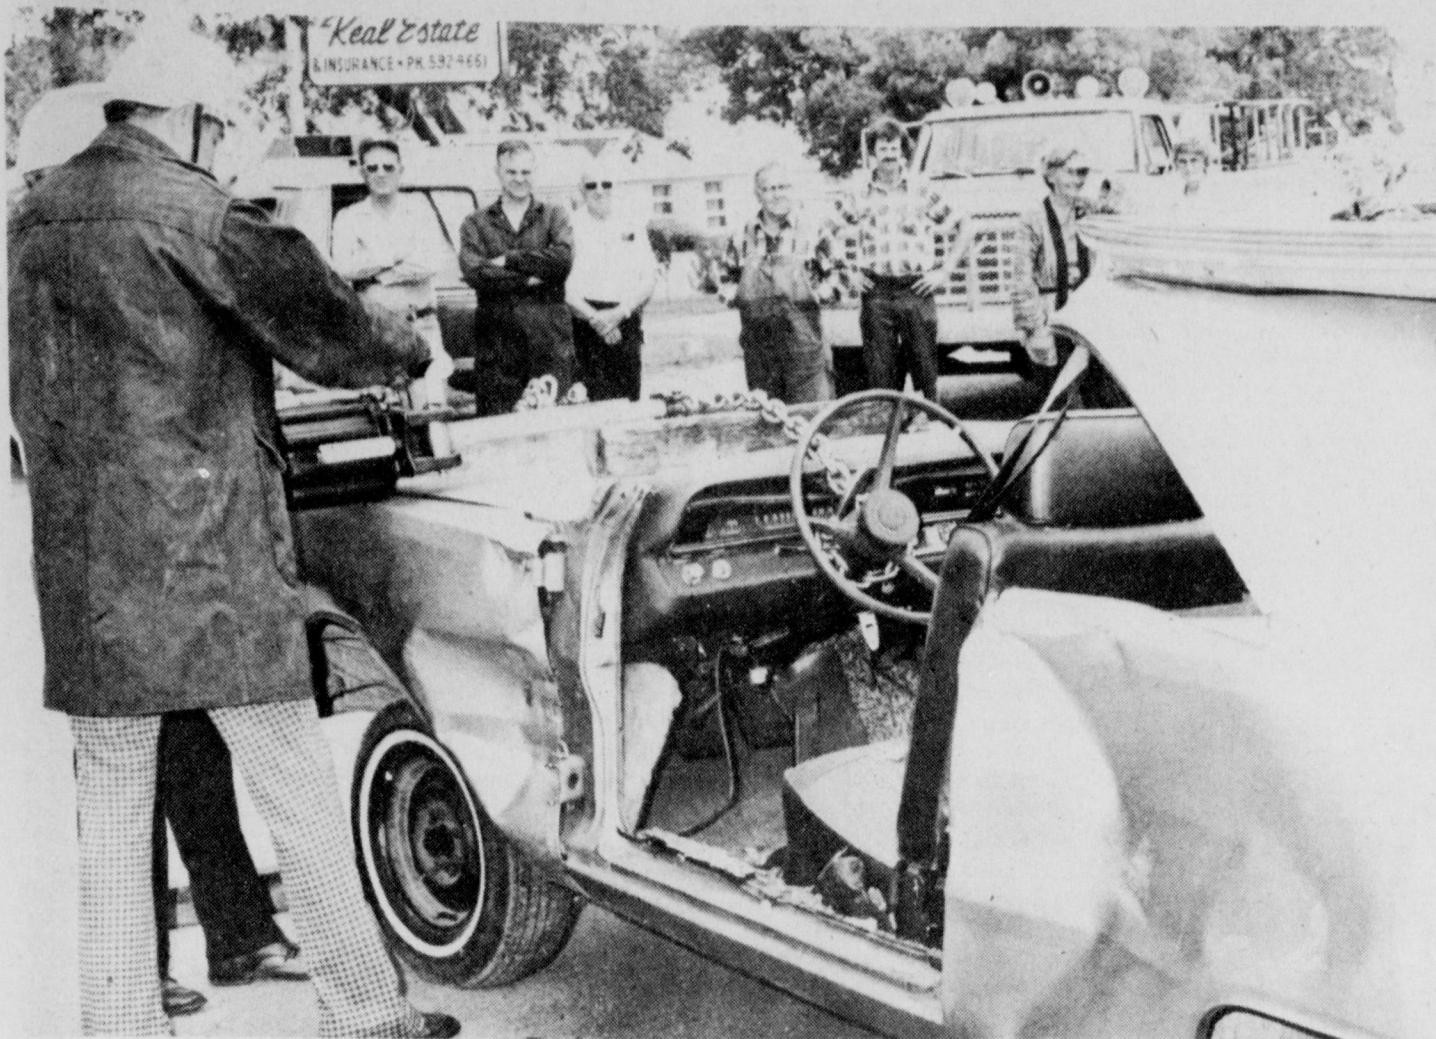

An E-OK home has more insulation, sealed windows, weather-stripped doors, and more efficient heating and cooling equipment. Living in an E-OK home means lower energy bills year round. And with the extra insulation, it's quieter, too.

Should you later decide to move, the lower energy bills from an E-OK home could help sell the home faster. Potential home buyers are increasingly concerned about what your bills have been.

Ask your builder about the added features of an E-OK home, or get your free E-OK booklet from Texas Electric. Just call us, or ask for the book on the comment section of your electric bill.

JAWS OF LIFE DEMONSTRATION was held on Cash Street Saturday afternoon for interested spectators. Members of the Electra Volunteer Fire Department gave the demonstration, removing two doors, peeling back the roof, bending the steering wheel, and also lifting the car some 40 inches, in less than 15 minutes. Their demonstration was done slowly, giving spectators a chance to watch every step of the process. The Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department has launched a donation campaign to raise $5,500 with which to purchase a Jaws of Life machine. Donations have already been deposited in the "Jaws of Life Fund" at State National Bank. The drive was initiated after two accidents within a week's period in the city, in which the machine would have been extremely useful, possibly saving a life had injuries been severe enough.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

Yes, you're right. I'm still trying to figure out how John Hill and Jerry Sadler won in the state Democratic primary Saturday.

Though I was supporting Dolph Briscoe, I had reason to be concerned about his election possibilities. He ran a poor campaign, and I've got to blame the type of campaign and advice affecting it on a professional political campaign agency Briscoe reportedly imported from the East coast.

Those people just don't understand Texans. If you'll notice, Briscoe's campaign completely ignored the small newspaper advertising right down to the final week. All the money was spent on television. And that was a big mistake. One of them, anyway.

Two vehicles burglarized

Iowa Park police are investigating two vehicle burglaries.

P.D. O'Brien, 510 S. Colorado, told police Monday his vehicle was burglarized while parked at Grace Baptist Church.

Burglars gained entry through an unlocked door and took a small first aid kit, a mobile home title, pickup truck title and a burial policy.

Last Wednesday Allen Neal Forney of Route 3 Wichita Falls told police here his pickup had been burglarized while parked on the east high school parking lot.

Burglars took a small tool box and an estimated $80 worth of tools from a larger tool box mounted in the bed of the truck.

Two dances set

The Recreation Activity Center has youth dances scheduled for Friday and Saturday, according to Ken Kukenbecker, RAC director.

There will be a juke box dance Friday for youths in the fifth through eighth grades.

A disco dance is slated Saturday. Mad Martin will be manning the turntable.

I understand the Republican candidate is already working on Briscoe supporters, to vote against Hill in November. Shades of the old "Dixiecrats" and "Shiverscrats".

People apparently remembered the name Jerry Sadler, either as the old traveling show entertainer or as a politician. But they failed to remember Sadler as the bad guy. This is the Sadler who is the only modern history legislator in Texas ever to be publicly censured by the Texas Legislature.

In the June runoff, I urge you to remember the name John Poerner. I've personally met and talked at length with him, and talked with others who've known him since public school days, and Poerner is the man we need on the Railroad Commission.

Speaking of political campaigning, I heard a talk by Lloyd Unsell, executive vice president of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, recently in Lubbock. He said the labor unions have it all over business, when it comes to campaign contributions.

Quoting from a study by Common Cause (Unsell doesn't like the organization but found its study interesting), labor donated $2,314,000 to political campaigns in 1976, whereas only $809,000 was given by all the nation's energy producers, including oil, coal, electricity, etc.

That 1976 labor campaign donation doesn't sound bad, but it went into the campaigns of only 13 candidates in 1976. The energy producer figure was for all politics in 1976.

One of those 1976 recipients of labor funds was Sen. Jose Montoya of New Mexico, who received $101,000, Unsell said.

The Washington-based Unsell stated that labor was funding only those politicians who are against business. And he said, "I expect, before I retire nine years from now, to see the oil industry nationalized, as well as steel and others, just like Great Britain."

38 attend meeting

Thirty-two members of United Methodist Women and six guests attended the Tuesday morning meeting and heard a lecture and slide program presented by Mrs. Ellen Palmer of Wichita Falls on Haiti.

Mrs. Palmer has just returned from Haiti where she attended a work camp which seeks to help medically the people of the republic. She was presented by Miss Ethyle Kidwell and her program opened the study of "Voices from the Caribbean".

The speaker stated that one per cent of Haiti is wealthy and the rest poor and undeveloped. She also said that even though Catholicism and Protestantism are represented all the people still believe in voodooism and superstition.

Mrs. Palmer devoted most of the time to the work of the hospital and medical work camp in Pedegua, a town founded in 1621. She told how the missionaries, Allen and Betty Darby originally from Canada, and the Methodist Church were seeking to help the Haitians to better health, writing, reading, farming as they brought the gospel of Christ to them.

Continuing, she said that the hospital was built by American marines in the 1930s and 1940s. She described the United Methodist Committee Overseas Relief as a primary source to help people of Haiti and told how American businessmen and service organizations from the U.S. have sought to improve agriculture there with fertilization of the land and desalting of ocean water.

She said that another work camp would be held in Haiti in October and that old reading glasses, prescription glasses with prescriptions enclosed could be taken to Floral Heights United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls between now and then for workers to take with them to people in that area.

Second thoughts given on contracting deputy

Some members of the Holliday City Council are having second thoughts about whether they should contract with Archer County Sheriff's Department for municipal police protection.

In the wake of open and closed-door discussions on the police situation at Tuesday night's regular council meeting, a special meeting on the topic was called for 7 p.m. Monday.

Newly elected alderman Jim Virdell said Tuesday night that some city employees had complained that a policeman contracted through Archer County Sheriff's Department would receive hospitalization and retirement benefits not offered the remaining municipal staff.

Virdell called the city employees' arguments "Legitimate complaints."

Under the proposal offered by Archer County Sheriff Floyd Hoggins, his department would furnish Holliday a deputy for policing inside the city limits here. The contract would call for Holliday to purchase a new patrol car and pay the county $1,200 a month for the service.

Initially, council members thought such an arrangement would solve their inability to attract good officers since the county pays its men higher salaries and offers hospitalization and retirement benefits.

But after further consideration it appears Mayor Ben Ezzell and at least three councilmen—Virdell, Mike Parker and Fred Maier—are having second thoughts.

Cost, limited control over a deputy and benefits not offered other city employees appear to be the chief concerns.

"I feel like if there's a cheaper out than this sheriff's deal, I personally feel we might use part of the money on streets," Maier said.

There was some discussion about the possibility of hiring a yet unnamed retired police officer living in Holliday. The possibility of hiring that individual may have been the subject of a closed-door executive meeting voted to discuss "police personnel." The closed meeting lasted 20 minutes and was requested by alderman Melvin Bills. No action resulted from the meeting behind closed doors.

Discussion on the police situation grew from an item on the agenda calling for the bid openings on a new police car. Two bids were submitted.

Moore Ford submitted a bid of $5,341 on an LTD II, and Murphy Brothers bid $5,394 on an Impala. Trade-in on the present city cruiser was computed in both bids, but action was tabled on purchase. Councilmen indicated they wanted to see if the present car could be restored to satisfactory condition if they opt to hire a patrolman outside the auspices of the sheriff's department.

Mayor Ezzell indicated the school board would not help pay for the plug and its installation. Maier said he thought the school should help pay for it since more than half the students live outside the city limits with their parents paying school taxes but not municipal taxes.

The $1,356 project was approved by a 4-1 vote with Parker dissenting.

Council approved the purchase of a chlorinator, a chlorine regulator for the water system, at a cost of $790.

Discussion on the problem caused by the time city bills arrive and the time they are reviewed and approved payment by the council also was discussed.

Mayor Ezzell said he had been contacted by the Archer County News, which wants the council to change its meeting nights to Monday in order to accommodate their publication deadline.

Ezzell told the council he would be in Austin Friday with engineer Ernest Andrews for a hearing to seek final approval of the city's request for a grant to update its sewer system.

Brown makes semifinals

Holliday's ace netter Debbie Brown advanced to the semifinals of the girls state tennis tournament before being eliminated.

Brown was defeated by Memphis' Sonja Hutcherson 6-2, 6-1 in the semifinals at the state tourney last Friday in Austin.

Brown's opponent in the quarterfinals, Tracy Bueck of Schulenburg, fell 6-1, 7-5.

It marked the Holliday senior's third trip to the Class A state meet in women's singles tennis.

School to conduct vocational survey

Holliday school board voted Monday night to conduct a vocational survey of high school students.

The survey of both boys and girls is to be completed by the end of September to help determine interest among students in grades 9-12 concerning various vocational training programs that might be instituted into the curriculum here.

The proposal was approved by the board on a motion by newly elected trustee Durhl Caussey.

Another proposal of Caussey's, a motion to discontinue candy sales by elementary students here, died on the floor for lack of second.

Following up on a pledge made after being elected president of the board, Tommy Mankins made appointments to four special committees. They were:

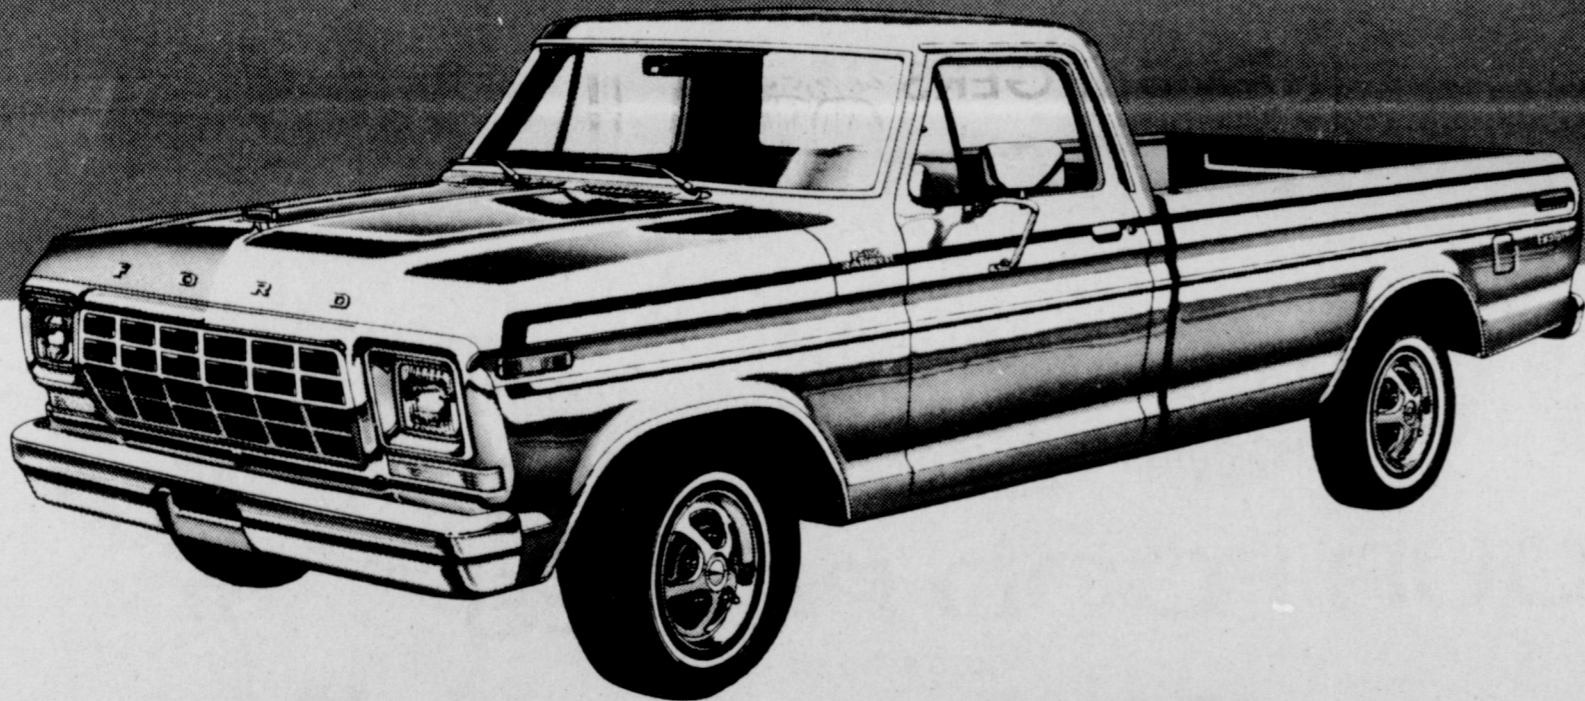

Building committee - Joe Wells, Jack Ayres, Caussey.
 Bus committee - Ayres, Terry Parnell and Gene Harmon.
 Finance committee - Bob Martin, Caussey and Wells.
 Athletic committee - Parnell, Harmon and Martin.

Following discussion on doors for the bus barn, Mankins appointed Ayres, Wells and Parnell to serve on a special committee to investigate that undertaking.

Board members met with Don Lucy, athletic director, to discuss the athletic budget and coaching personnel.

Trustees approved Sammy Lawson and Red Slack as additional members of the tax equalization board, and set 10 a.m. June 26 as the date for the school system's tax consultants, Pritchard and Abbott, to be present for equalization hearings.

Cook of the Week

The horn of plenty has long been associated with an overflowing of fruits, nuts, vegetables and goodies and is popular for decorations during the harvest season. According to Greek mythology, there are two stories about its origin and in both stories it could be filled with whatever the owner wished. The Horns of Plenty, one of Jan Rodgers' recipes for this week, seems to be filled with an abundance of good eating. Her other recipes, some handed down from her mother and grandmother, sound equally as delicious. Jan and her husband, Neal, came to Iowa Park the last of February when he was called to be assistant pastor and youth director of

First Baptist Church. He has been commuting to the Southwestern Seminary at Fort Worth four days a week. The former Jan Graham of Van Buren, Ark., where she was graduated from high school, she attended Ouachita Baptist College at Arkadelphia, Ark. where she belonged to the Baptist Student Union and the BSU Council. While in high school, she was a member of A Cappella Choir. She participated in the Miss Van Buren Pageant and was a semi-finalist in the Fort Smith Miss Teenage Pageant.

In Iowa Park, Jan is a member of the sanctuary choir and assists her husband with the youth work in First Baptist Church. She also works as a cashier at Settle Drug. Her hobbies are painting, tennis, racquet ball and reading.

Mrs. Neal Rodgers

Scott Stubbs is recognized

Scott Stubbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Stubbs, has been selected the Opti-Mrs. Club's outstanding student of the month. A senior at Iowa Park High School, he is outstanding in auto mechanics. He has been in track four years and belonged to the Rodeo Club his freshman year.

He is a member of the Church of God and sings in the youth choir.

Scott's hobbies are hunting and drawing, but most of all "Bessie", his 1962 red Chevrolet pick-up. He plans to attend Lincoln Tech Institute, where he is already enrolled, and major in diesel truck technology. His favorite subjects are auto mechanics and history.

The public is invited to attend the services.

April Williams and Pam Collier celebrated their 10th and 11th birthdays, respectively, at a joint slumber party given recently at Woodbriar Apartments recreation room.

The birthday cake was decorated in spring colors and accented with a green and gold butterfly and pink candles.

Girls attending were Karen Davis, Kari Robnett, Jill Copening, Keri Kennett, Dawn Cumpston, Brenda Copas, Sandy Feix, Staci Wright, Cheryl and Angie Baker and Necia Williams. Also attending were Mrs. DeWayne Williams and Mrs. Sandra Collier, mothers of the honorees.

Guess who's opening for dinner?

HORNS OF PLENTY
Cut together as for a pie crust:
2 cups flour
1 T sugar
1/8 t salt
3/4 cup butter

Dissolve one package of dry yeast in 1/2 cup warm water; add two beaten egg yolks, then add to first mixture. Set aside.

For filling or meringue, use 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten to which 1/2 cup sugar has been added.

Form dough into a ball, then cut into four equal parts. Roll one part of dough at a time on well-floured board into 8-inch thickness. Spread 1/4 of meringue mixture on each part, sprinkle lightly with cinnamon, then add 1/4 cup chopped pecans.

Cut each part into 8 pie-shaped pieces and roll as for butterhorns, starting at wide end. Bake on greased cookie sheet at 375° for about 15 minutes. Frost lightly while warm with powdered sugar glaze.

JELLO SALAD
1 large pkg. strawberry jello
1 can fruit cocktail
1 cup hot water and juice from fruit cocktail. Put juice in a measuring cup and add hot water to make a cup of liquid.
1 cup nuts
1 box whipping cream (whipped)
1 cup miniature marshmallows
1 large pkg. Philadelphia cream cheese

Let jello stand in cool place until partially jelled. Beat and whip until fluffy, add cheese and mix. Fold in marshmallows, fruit, nuts and whipped cream. Put in pan and cut in squares.

MACARONI AND CHEESE BAKE
1/2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese
1 can Campbell's cream of mushroom soup
1/2 cup Pet milk
3 or 4 cups macaroni, cooked
1/2 to 3/4 cup chopped canned tomatoes

Place in casserole dish and top with 1/2 cup grated cheese. Bake at 350° for 30 minutes.

BROCCOLI CASSEROLE
1 box frozen chopped broccoli (boil five minutes longer than directions call for)
1/2 can cream of mushroom soup
1 egg, well beaten
1/2 cup grated sharp cheese
Salt and pepper to taste
1 T minced onion
1/2 cup mayonnaise

Mix and put in buttered casserole dish. Top with cheese. Bake at 350° for 30 minutes.

BAKED LASAGNE

To cook lasagne: Bring 4 quarts water to rapid boil. Add 2 T salt and 1 T vegetable or olive oil. Add lasagne, a strip at a time and continue boiling 10 to 12 minutes or until tender. As lasagne cooks, separate strips occasionally with a fork. Drain and rinse with cold water. If lasagne is not to be used immediately, let stand in cold water to keep strips separate.

MEAT SAUCE:
In large skillet, brown one pound ground beef in 1 T vegetable oil or olive oil. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Stir in 2 (6 oz.) cans tomato paste, 4 (6 oz.) cans water, both packets from a package of American Beauty spaghetti sauce mix. Cover and simmer 15 minutes.

CHEESE FILLING:
Combine 2 (12 oz.) pkgs. cottage cheese, 1 T chopped parsley, and 1 pound Mozzarella cheese. Lightly grease a large baking dish and spoon in enough meat sauce to cover the bottom; top with strips of cooked lasagne and spread with part of the cheese mixture. Repeat layers ending with meat sauce. If desired, sprinkle with 1/2 cup Parmesan cheese. Cover and bake in a moderate (350°) oven for 20 minutes. Makes 6-8 servings.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT - The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Britt caught the Leader's cameraman while he was shooting his mother and another woman Saturday, using the new voting machines at the Democratic Party primary. The camera looked more interesting than the political process to him, anyway.
