REMEMBER WHEN? - Iowa Park High Class of 1968 held its 10 year reunion last weekend attended by 49 of its 81 graduates. Teaming up for a stretch pool shot are Regina Boulware Whipple and Terry Brookshire, selected Mr. and Miss IPHS 1968 plus 10.

Special activities set Tuesday at pool

Competition for awards and some drawings for valuable prizes will highlight activities July 4th at the Bicentennial Swimming Pool, according to Dick Wineinger, manager. "A little something extra for the kids" was planned by Wineinger for the annual holiday. "Just to make their day a little more enjoyable." The pool maintains a policy of observing a 10-minute rest for swimmers once every hour. At that time everyone is called out of the water. It will be during the hourly breaks that the competition will be held. Wineinger explained. A race for three divisions will be held during each break throughout the day. Competition will include all styles of swimming, freestyle, breast stroke, back stroke, and others. Also, at one break, there will be competition in diving. Another contest will be for the "big splash". Wineinger said ribbons will be awarded to the first three winners in each division. Competition will be held for youngsters 10 and under, 11-14 and 15 and over. Breaks take place on the hour, and the pool will be open from 1 to 7 p.m.

Highway work is announced

Projects in Wichita County were included as the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission approved a $70.5 million program to improve safety and to protect the public's investment in 3,766 miles of state-maintained highway facilities.

The program is the 1979 State Highway Safety and Betterment and Farm to Market Road Improvement Program. It includes work in every part of the state.

Work in Wichita County, in the Highway Safety and Betterment Program includes: On US 287, a seal coat project on frontage and crossroads, between Johnson Road in Iowa Park and Loop 11 in Wichita Falls, a total of 3.6 miles at a cost of $71,000; on SH 240, a seal coat project from Loop 370 to SH 79 in Wichita, a distance of 0.8 miles at a cost of $14,400; on SH 25, a seal coat project from FM 367 to Loop 477, a distance of 11.0 miles at a cost of $85,600.

In all, 566 projects are proposed in 193 of Texas' 254 counties.

Police investigating two theft reports

Iowa Park police are investigating two reported thefts.

Max E. Millender told officers last Wednesday night that a $100 go-cart had been stolen from his residence at 329 1/2 Cash.

Also last Wednesday, police here received a report from Bill Bates Chevrolet Inc., 216 N. Yosemite, that the tailgates from three pickup trucks had been stolen. They were valued at a total of $900.

Closings slated for July 4th

Most businesses in Iowa Park have indicated they will close Tuesday, for the national holiday, July 4th.

However, food establishments, grocery stores and most of the service stations have indicated they will be open for business as usual.

The city hall will be closed. Operation Motorcade, observed by the Texas Department of Public Safety, will begin at 6 Friday evening, and continue 102 hours. Col. Wilson Speir, director, estimates 53 lives will be lost in Texas in traffic-related accidents.

Every available officer in DPS Region 5 will be working during the holiday period, and a series of extensive road checks in certain selected areas will be conducted.

The primary purpose of the road checks is to enhance enforcement of laws relating to speed and overweight violations, according to a DPS spokesman.

Bolstering DPS patrol troopers will be those normally assigned to drivers license, motor vehicle inspection and license and weight troopers.

Iowa Park city council Monday night approved a $1,136,280 budget for 1978-79, but only by a narrow 2-1 vote by aldermen.

Aldermen Lita Watson and Bud Thompson voted for the new budget, which reflects an increase in expenditures of $96,000 over last year, and Eldon Thompson voted against it. Aldermen Johnny Lee and C.A. Hicks were absent. Hicks was also absent when the budget vote was held last year.

Aldermen approved an ordinance which sets the tax rate of $1.75 per $100 value, assessed at 60 percent. Of the $1.75 rate, 37 cents will go for bond retirement and $1.75 for general expenses of city government.

Thompson explained he was not voting for the budget because he did not like the contingency fund portion called for, saying he wanted to see more of that portion set aside for purchase of equipment.

The alderman also called for elimination of a $3,000 street sweeper and cutting the cost of a car wash for city equipment from $2,000 to $1,000. But after it was explained the sweeper was to be used primarily for street repairs, he said he was all for it.

Thompson called for an additional $1,000 property tax deduction for property owners 65 years and older, which would raise the deduction to $4,000. He asked that the subject be put on the agenda for the next meeting.

His proposal brought approving comments from the audience of approximately 20 persons, most of whom were senior citizens. It was the second consecutive meeting to draw a large turnout of AARP members.

Spokesman Taylor George told the council they weren't asking for a handout, in seeking the additional exemption, but "we aren't making any money on our Social Security checks". He said the rising costs were causing additional hardships on fixed income persons.

Thompson pointed out that only 11.32 percent of the elderly living in the city do not now pay city tax due to the deduction allowed, and the additional $1,000 deduction would add 8.8 percent more to that group.

In discussing how the budget could be cut, Adams said it would be simple to cut the budget several thousands of dollars, but when the cuts were made, so would be city services.

He mentioned that street repairs could be cut, eliminating cost of equipment, materials and even personnel. Thompson responded he didn't feel like the citizens understood that.

Concerning salary increases built into the new budget, City Administrator Gene Britton told the council that after taxes were withheld, only eight city employees take home more than $125 a week. "Most of these people have families, and that's not much for them to try to live on," he said.

NEW EMPLOYEE

Britton introduced Jerry Van Fossen of Henrietta to the council, and recommended he be hired as water and sewer department superintendent.

Aldermen approved his hiring unanimously, and Van Fossen is to report for work Monday.

The new superintendent holds B ratings in both sewer and water operations. He has held a similar position at Henrietta almost two years, and previous experience was for the city of Mount Pleasant.

Aldermen approved a lease to CATV to install microwave antennas on the Gordon Lake water tower, as well as constructing two small structures at the base to house equipment for the cable television firm. The city will receive $500 annual

TESCO PROPOSAL

Texas Electric office manager Wayne House made his formal presentation for a rate increase to the council during the meeting. Information on the proposal had already been received, and the council was ready with a resolution, which members adopted, to put off any action on the proposal for a 120-day period.

In the meantime, the city is joining other cities served by the utility to fight the rate increase before the Public Utilities Commission in Austin.

House's presentation primarily explained the cost of generating electricity, and how his company was constructing coal-burning plants in an effort to hold down future generating expenses. All plants now in operation are natural gas burning operations, which he explained would cause considerably higher rates in the future when present gas-purchasing contracts expire.

Under the resolution passed, the council is not obligated to take any action on the rate proposal until early in October.

CONTAINER PROBLEMS

Council members instructed Britton to continue his efforts to reach a settlement with the trash container manufacturers, in order to obtain the remaining containers contracted but as yet undelivered.

Britton explained the Plainview firm had bid to provide 200 small, one and a half cubic yard, containers, along with the three-yard containers. But when the small containers were received, they did not meet bid specifications and were returned.

The small containers were required to have the light, fiberglass lids on them, but when received, they had heavy metal lids which are considered dangerous.

Britton told council members the manufacturers have since told him it will be several months before the small units are built.

Aldermen asked if Britton could put the system into operation with larger containers already on hand. He said he could, but some containers would have to serve three homes, rather than two.

Britton asked if he could negotiate with the manufacturer to accept 150 large containers instead of waiting for the 200 small units ordered. He could get by now with 143 more at the present.

The city still holds the $141,000 to be paid the company for the equipment.

Mayor Johnny Crawford told Britton to send the company a registered letter, informing them the additional cost of operation incurred by the city due to lack of delivery would be deducted from the payment, or the city would accept larger containers for those small units not delivered.

Loses leg in accident

Deryl Walls, 19, of Iowa Park, was recovering from surgery yesterday following an oil field accident that caused the loss of his right leg.

The mishap occurred about 3:30 p.m. last Friday east of Windthorst, according to relatives of the injured man, whose leg was completely severed above the knee by a falling oil rig derrick.

Walls was a swamper for Barbour Trucking.

Relatives said his right leg was completely severed above the knee and the lower part of the leg was crushed.

He was taken to University Hospital in Oklahoma City by ambulance. The trip took four hours when the ambulance broke down twice enroute, relatives said.

Doctors at the Oklahoma City hospital attempted to save the estimated six inches of Walls' leg, however, their efforts failed and Walls underwent surgery again yesterday for removal of the remaining stump, relatives reported.

A 1977 graduate of Iowa Park High School, Walls was expected to be returned to the hospital's intensive care unit following the second surgery.

Area teachers take part in Backdoor productions

As the final bell rings, and all of those freckle-faced, itchy-britches scream across the playground into the joyous freedom of summer, teachers everywhere, those stalwart stewards of education, are given a few hot months to catch their breath.

Some, who are brave or hungry, get out the fans and plan for those sweltering summer classes. Some take on other summer jobs. Still others kick back and plan vacations to Colorado, Canada, or Throckmorton. And then there are those who take their performances from the classroom to the stage.

Although you won't find it in any travel brochure, Backdoor Theatre in Wichita Falls has vacation reservations for quite a few of our area teachers. Beginning the Summer Season at Backdoor, "Santa Fe Sunshine" is the latest production of the pen of Preston Jones, author of "Texas Trilogy".

Another North Texas first for Backdoor, this premiere performance of "Sunshine" will bring three area teachers to the stage with another assisting in the wings. Set in the heart of the Beatnik 1950's in Santa Fe, New Mexico this contemporary satire spoof's the New Mexico tourist industry and the would-be artists who propagate it.

Patsy Todd portrays Gussie Davenport, the rich art patron from St. Louis to whom everyone has something to sell. Patsy teaches in Iowa Park and has been seen on the Backdoor stage many times. Busy at home as the mother of two children, as an actress she has gone from one Jones' comedy in "Texas Trilogy" straight into another with "Sunshine".

Linda Johnson brings to life the finer points of the New Mexico art gallery owner as Henrietta Clipping. Teaching for nine months a year in Holliday, Linda's last appearance at Backdoor was in "The Three Musketeers". Linda and her daughter, Kelly, are well known to Backdoor as they are both around the Theatre often, assisting in whatever the current project is.

Pat Jackson is delightful in the lead role as Gino

Bruno, the old Santa Fe artist. As the Speech and Drama coach at Wichita Falls High School, Pat and his family do a lot of work with the Theatre.

Noel Irby, teacher at Crockett Elementary in Wichita Falls, is adding her talents as Prop Mistress for the show.

Evening performances are set for June 29, 30, and July 1, 6, 7 and 8 at 8:15 p.m. with a Sunday matinee.

Voluntary water curtailment to continue one more week

Iowa Park citizens are being asked to hold off one more week on their outdoor watering and car washing.

The voluntary water curtailment is going into its fourth week, but should be ended next week, according to City Administrator Gene Britton.

Voluntary curtailment was first asked by city officials when the heavy water use season arrived, and the water line from Wichita Falls could not be used. When the line was repaired, officials shut down the local treatment plant for long overdue maintenance and repairs.

Since the curtailment, about half the water normally used by citizens citizens require as much as two-million gallons a day. And that's why the voluntary curtailment was sought by city officials.

Most of the inside work at the plant is expected to be completed this week, and painters are to start on the outside early next week. As soon as that's completed, the plant will be put has been available.

The treatment plant has a production capacity of approximately a million gallons a day. That is the same amount Iowa Park's contract with Wichita Falls allows to be taken in a day.

However, during peak-use days, back into operation, according to Britton.

Lifting of the curtailment will come just in time, as the community has been experiencing several days of 100-plus degree temperatures, and no moisture has fallen in more than three weeks.

evening in the Faith Baptist Church for Miss Cynthia Sue Smith and David Allen Collins. The Rev. Clyde Markee, pastor of First Christian, was the officiant. He was assisted by the Rev. Bill Campbell, pastor of Faith Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Patricia A. Smith, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Collins.

Two large votive candle-trees flanked an archway swathed with gypsophila centering the altar area. At the extremities the votive candles burning in arch candelabra decorated with the flowering greenery enhanced the setting.

In the outer area, two candles that glowed in the unity candelabrum during the ceremony were extinguished by the bride and groom after they had used them to light the significant candle to symbolize their union. The church pews were decorated with white satin bows.

Tim Adeock, organist, and Robin Fox, vocalist, presented a program of prenuptial and wedding music. The former played "You Light Up My Life", "Because", "O Perfect Love", "Whither Thou Goest", "O Promise Me", "Calm as the Night", "Our Wedding Prayer", "Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us", "Clair de Lune" and "Liebestraum" and the vocalist sang "Wedding Song" before the ceremony. The latter concluded with "The Lord's Prayer" and the traditional marches were played by the organist.

O.N. Newman escorted the bride to the altar and presented her in marriage for her mother. She chose a white organza gown featuring a slightly raised bodice covered in Venise lace and pearls, a sheer yoke in the back graced with the lace and self-covered buttons, and bishop sleeves strewn with lace appliques. The full skirt was trimmed with the matching lace that flowed into a brush train.

She wore a chapel length veil of bridal illusion embellished with the lace and appliques cascading from a cap covered with the lace. Her waterfall style bouquet consisted of white roses, pixie carnations, gypsophila and English ivy. The traditional "something" which completed the bride's "new" gown were the "old", her great-grandmother's handkerchief, the "borrowed", her mother's diamond earrings, the popular "blue" accessory and the lucky sixpence.

The bride was attended by her sister, Ginger Pyle, as matron of honor. Mrs. Marcus Jordan of Seymour and Mrs. Wayne Radford of Wichita Falls were bridesmaids.

They wore formal gowns of poly knit in dusty rose styled with slightly raised bodices, V necklines accented with self-fabric roses, capelets covering the shoulders, and A-line skirts. They wore hair combs of baby's breath and carried long stemmed red roses attractively arranged with rose-colored satin bows, streamers and baby's breath.

Crystal Sauls, niece of the groom, and Kimberly Pyle, niece of the bride, shared honors as flower girls. They wore dainty full length dusty rose frocks trimmed with white baby lace on the sleeves and collar and around the white chiffon aprons with sashes. They carried small white straw baskets trimmed in rose satin ribbon filled with red roses and white pixie carnations.

Bryan Pyle, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer and wore a silver gray tuxedo like the groom and his attendants wore. The groom wore a white ruffled shirt and the others wore white shirts with gray lace.

Douglas W. Collins served as best man for his brother. Michael Ehlerl of Wichita Falls and Leroy Threet were groomsmen, and the ushers were Bobby Collins, brother of the groom, and Russ Smith, brother of the bride.

Douglas Smith, brother of the bride, lighted the candles for the service.

The bride's mother was escorted by her eldest son Joe C. Smith of Wichita Falls. She wore a formal gown of gray chiffon designed with a slightly raised bodice, scooped neckline, a tiny gray belt at the waistline, an A-line skirt and a sheer cape that covered the shoulders and extended the length of her gown. The groom's mother chose a long white chiffon gown over aqua with a billowing cape. The bodice of the gown was white and aqua braided satin. Both complemented their dresses with corsages of red roses and pink carnations.

Miss Tamela Ankne of El Reno, Okla., cousin of the bride, presided at the bride's book table covered with white linen in the game room. The table held a tall white candle impressed with the couple's wedding invitation, the feathered pen and attractive book.

The beauty of the bride's table in the living room was accented by the distinguishing appointments. Draped to the floor with rich white satin swagged with smilax caught up with dusty rose and pink ribbons, lilies of the valley and wedding bells, the centerpiece was a silver candelabrum centered with an imposing bouquet of roses, carnations and baby's breath in the chosen shades and tall white candles.

The bride's cake clearly stood apart in the table setting. Tall Grecian pillars separated the second and third tiers to provide space for a cluster of white satin wedding bells trimmed with seed pearls complemented with puffs of net and lilies of the valley raised by filigree petals. Draped garlands and lacework of white frosting and cascades of dusty rose and pink roses added further ornamentation to the cake.

The top tier was covered with the frosting flowers. Mrs. Pat Kennedy and Mrs. Lyndell Berry presided at the cake and punch service.

The groom's table in the den was laid with ecru linen. It held a silver candelabrum with votive cups and the chocolate cake iced in chocolate and topped with clusters of shaded green grapes. Mrs. Larry Sauls and Mrs. Joe Smith served at the table.

Also in the den was the table holding a wide assortment of buffet foods.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at Bird's Steak and Seafood House.

The bride and groom were both graduated from Iowa Park High School. She is a senior at Midwestern State University and is employed by G.R. Rusk Park Tank Service. He attended Midwestern State University and Fort Lewis University at Durango, Colo. and works for Clayton Electric.

The bride chose a traveling costume consisting of pink polyester pants and a white polyester blouse featuring a Bertha type

Black-Helms nuptial vows exchanged in base chapel

MRS. DAVID RAY HELMS

Chapel Four at Shepherd Air Force Base was the setting Saturday afternoon for the exchange of marriage vows uniting Miss Evelyn Black and David Ray Helms.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William S. Black and Mr. and Mrs. Billy R. Helms.

The ceremony, officiated by Chaplain Alewine, took place before an altar where an open Bible and an arrangement of white gladioli, blue carnations and

Mrs. Pat Gamboa, organist, played a selection of traditional wedding music. These included "Oh God, Thou Faithful God" and "Romance". "Lord of Love Unfailing" was played while the mothers of the bride and groom were being seated. Soloist was Miss Mindy Pinson of Dallas, cousin of gypsophila were the points of interest. Seven-branched candelabra on each side, completed the altar setting.

the bride, who sang "Someday, Somewhere" after the mothers were seated. Following the exchange of vows, she sang the prayer "What Love Is". Mrs. Gamboa played the traditional wedding marches by Wagner and Mendelssohn.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was wearing an elegant floor length gown of white silk organza. The slightly raised bodice and full, sheer sleeves were accented with Venice lace appliques. Delicate lace edged the scooped neckline and cuffs of the sleeves. The full A-line skirt extended into a chapel train. The veil of silk illusion, accented with lace appliques, extended into a full train and was held by a cluster of lace leaves, adorned with seed pearls.

She completed her bridal costume by carrying a bouquet of blue and white morning glories and orange blossoms with blue and white streamers tied with love knots.

Following bridal tradition, she wore her German grandmother's ring for "something old", her mother's silver cross necklace for "something borrowed", and a blue garter. Her father placed a penny in her shoe prior to the ceremony.

Miss Heidi Black, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and Miss Lori Carender served as bridesmaid. They wore matching long dresses with a delicate blue and white floral design, featuring an empire waist and ruffled hemline. They wore wide picture hats with blue silk roses attached and carried bouquets of blue and white morning glories and apple blossoms, surrounded with lace and blue and white streamers.

Miss Nancy Black, sister of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a floor length yellow floral organza over taffeta and carried a lace basket filled with yellow morning glories and apple blossoms. She wore matching flowers in her hair.

The groom wore a white tuxedo, trimmed in black velvet and his attendants wore blue suits.

Chester Posey served the groom as best man. Albert Alemba and Larry Tennant assumed the duties of ushers.

Mrs. Black chose a long blue dress with a long-sleeved floral jacket, and Mrs. Helms wore a gown of Qiana. Both mothers wore corsages of white gardenias.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents hosted a reception in the Colonial Room of the NCO Club. The refreshment tables had white, ruffled skirts, draped with blue cloths. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered cake. Separated with filigree columns and elaborately decorated with blue and white roses and lattice work, the cake was topped with a bride and groom standing before a satin heart accented with pearls. Silver candle sticks holding blue tapers, and white napkins with the names of the bride and groom and their wedding date imprinted in silver, completed the setting. The other tables held the punch service and the wedding buffet.

Presiding at the guest book at the reception was Nancy Black. Cynthia Alemba presided at the refreshment table.

After opening their wedding gifts, the couple left on a wedding trip to Lake Texoma. When they return, they will live at 910 S. Colorado. The bride is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and is employed at Cryovac. The groom is also an Iowa Park High School graduate and is employed by

Posey's Appliance Service. ## Reception honors engaged couple

Mr. and Mrs. Bill J. Bates entertained at an elaborate reception Sunday afternoon to present their daughter, Spring Elaine, and her fiancé, Justus Edrington Hill at their home, 700 North Jackson.

The receiving line was composed of the hosts, the honored couple and Mrs. Jimmy W. Hill, mother of the groom-elect.

A wedding band theme combined with peaches and cream, colors chosen by the bride-elect for the wedding Aug. 5 at First Baptist Church, governed the artistic decorations and appointments for the function.

The large number of friends who called during the reception registered at a table holding a votive candle in an antique snifter trimmed with peach satin ribbon tied in a lover's knot centered with a make believe wedding ring.

In the dining room, the refreshment table was truly an exquisite picture reflecting both the antique and contemporary. It was gracefully draped with an antique satin cloth topped with cream lace caught up at vantage points with fresh sonja roses, baby's breath and wedding rings.

The handsome centerpiece was an antique silver wine cooler fronted with matching cups for the bride and groom filled with baby's breath, fresh sonja roses topped with two white doves carrying wedding rings, one for the future bride and the other for the future groom. Pleasing additions to the table decor were the silver candelabra holding peach candles, the silver services, petits four and romantically-shaped mints in the chosen colors. The white napkins were engraved with "Spring and Justus".

Reception assistants were Mmes. Donald Hill, Glen Miller, Clifford Bridwell, Glen Schell, Joe Singer and Kenneth Flowers.

Miss Bates was attired in a cream-colored sundress with a flounced bodice and tiered skirt trimmed with matching lace and ribbon. She wore a corsage of sonja roses and baby's breath with lace accents. Her fiancé wore a boutonniere of sonja roses and baby's breath.

EVERY WEEK

We'll Be Open 4 Nights A Week

SERVING ALL YOU CAN EAT AT GOOD PRICES!

Four days each week, Tuesday through Friday, we'll be open from 6 A.M. until 8:00 P.M. serving country food at its best. We'll feature a special entree each evening, and we promise you'll like what you get.

Every now and then we'll serve a little more complicated meal just to show we can—something like roast Pekin Duck or Prime Rib or great Jumbo Shrimp from the waters off Bayou la Batre, Alabama.

For now, however, we're sticking with the old standbys—things we've all learned to love, slow cooked roast beef, baked Virginia ham, southern fried chicken and catfish with hush puppies.

Of course, Kathy's Cafe will continue its policy of not letting people leave hungry. All our evening meals are all you can eat for one price, though we'll serve children ten and under all they can eat for a lower price.

And if you don't want so much to eat you can choose a hamburger or one of our steaks or maybe even a vegetable plate. You'll find you can eat very well regardless of what you're in the mood for, and you won't have to pay a king's ransom.

Below are our first week's menus. We hope to see you at Kathy's.

Farmer-Mason vows recited

Miss Julia Lorene Farmer and Dudley Akin Mason were married at 2 p.m. June 17 at the home of her brother, Franklin Farmer. The Rev. Franklin Farmer officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a native of Iowa Park and is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Urbian G. Farmer. The groom, a native Nashvillian, is the son of Mrs. Permia Mason of Nashville and the late Martin H. Mason.

Vows were repeated before a fireplace decorated with pink carnations and white mums.

The bride wore a pale blue suit of shantung and Qiana, with pearls and white accessories. She carried an arrangement of pink roses atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Franklin Farmer was her attendant. A corsage of daisies completed her attire. She has just observed her tenth anniversary as an employee of the Baptist Sunday School Board in Nashville.

The groom is a retired agency cashier for Mutual of New York, having served in Nashville and in Montgomery, Alabama.

Following the ceremony the bride's family entertained at a reception at their home. The table was laid with a white lace cloth, and the bride's chosen colors of pink and white were carried out in the floral decorations and other table appointments.

Mrs. Robert A. Brown made the wedding cake, topping it with the arrangement from her own wedding cake. Nieces of the bride - Julie, Jennifer, and Jill - assisted with hostess duties.

The couple will live at 1232 Belvedere Drive in Nashville, following a wedding trip to Kentucky.

The bride is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. She served as educational secretary of First Baptist Church, Wichita Falls, 1944-46, and as pastor's secretary of that church, 1953-1963. Other church positions in this area include educational director, First Baptist Church, Olney, 1951-53; educational associate, North Side Baptist Church, 1963-1965; and educational associate, Tulia Baptist Church, 1965-1968. She has just observed her tenth anniversary as an employee of the Baptist Sunday School Board in Nashville.

They were joined at noon for a picnic meal by Mr. and Mrs. Travis Neal Hines of Trinity, Mrs. Lillie Belle Moak of Brookhaven, Miss., Mr. and Mrs. Bill Corbin and John Hines of Houston.

In recital

Iowa Park High graduate Stan Blair was presented in senior recital Saturday evening in Hardin Auditorium at Midwestern State Univ.

Blair, a bass, has sung leading roles in musicals and opera productions at MSU and is a student of Dr. Don Maxwell.

Cook of the Week

One of the newest residents of Iowa Park is Mrs. Michael Jackson, a highly educated and very active mother of three.

She's the wife of Rev. Michael Jackson, new pastor of the First United Methodist Church. The family moved here from Sherman early this month, when he was called from the Grace United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Jackson was born in Sterling, Ill., but she can't really call it her home town. She explains that her family moved frequently throughout the midwest and east, as her father was assigned to various industrial plants.

Following her graduation from high school in a suburb of Cleveland, Ohio, she received her BA in English from Cornell Univ. at Ithaca, N.Y., and then received her MAT in English at Yale, where she and her husband met.

The young couple was married in a chapel on Yale campus following her graduation. She then taught the next year, while he was receiving his Bachelors of Divinity.

Mrs. Jackson humorously points out that her job that year was at Madison High School, the campus used by the author of the old television series "Our Miss Brooks".

Rev. Jackson is a Texan, raised at Sulphur Springs. He received his BA at East Texas State Univ.

The couple have three children, Jill 7, Philip 5 and Jeff 3.

His first appointment was at Archer City, where they served during the year the Last Picture Show movie was filmed. He then went to the campus of Midwestern State Univ., and later to Sherman.

Mrs. Jackson lists her hobbies as swimming, tennis, piano, singing and reading.

"I've found it (Iowa Park) very friendly," she commented. "The people seem to have a lot of community spirit," she said, pointing out how impressed she was after hearing how the people had contributed to build the swimming pool and purchase the Jaws of Life.

Mrs. Michael Jackson

She was also impressed with the town as a whole, referring to Iowa Park as being "church orientated", because of all the churches in the community.

Finnell expects session

State Rep. Charles Finnell of Holiday said he expects Gov. Dolph

Briscoe to call a special legislative session July 10 on tax relief.

"The time and temperature is right," Finnell said, acknowledging the governor's considering a special session was influenced by the success of the now famous Proposition 13 which lowered ad valorem taxes in California and brought big spending governmental entities to their knees.

"Without a doubt the California proposition has caused a lot of people to think about taxes for the first time, however, Texas has always taken better care of its business than California has of its.

"I would hope that we would never allow our state's financial picture to deteriorate to the point that California allowed its to," Finnell said in an interview yesterday.

The Holliday lawmaker said he supports a special week or 10-day session if business is limited to three areas of tax relief.

Finnell said he is opposed to any "far fetched" tax reform concepts. "It's tax relief that I'm interested in providing," he said.

One of the tax topics Finnell would like to see addressed is repealing the 4 percent state sales tax on utilities. Repeal of this tax would mean a 4 percent drop in utility costs to consumers.

The second issue Finnell believes in deserving of attention is the raising of the exemption on state inheritance taxes from the $60,000 ceiling established in 1923 to $200,000.

"In effect, it would lower inheritance taxes," Finnell explained.

Third on Finnell's list of concerns is granting persons over 65 a mandatory homestead tax exemption of $5,000 on property taxes. Already adopted by Wichita County Commissioners Court, Finnell supports this proposal which would affect all phases of government with ad valorem taxing capabilities.

"The time and temperature is right for this if we hit on these three issues," Finnell said. "Those three measures would provide a total of $4-million in tax relief for every man, woman and child.

Citing a surplus in state funds, he said the time is right to provide tax relief.

"In a week's time well spent this summer we could get tax relief while the momentum is rolling. What better time to provide tax relief for our citizens," he said.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

If you've not seen the musical "Texas" in the beautiful outdoor amphitheatre in Palo Duro Canyon, you are really missing a great event. It's outstanding.

I feel kinda silly saying that, because we lived within 60 miles of Palo Duro the first few years of the production, and never took the time to go. Now, 240 miles away, we've finally attended, and loved every minute of it.

Dolores and I attended the 99th annual summer convention of the Texas Press Association in Amarillo over the weekend. It was my final meeting as president of the organization.

Friday night's show was one of the convention highlights. The theatre was virtually sold out, with the audience made up of people from five states and three foreign countries. There was even a large group of people from a church in Wichita Falls.

During the intermission Dutch George came over and said hello. To my surprise, he, his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Watson were also there.

Much of Palo Duro, a state park, was damaged by flooding a few weeks ago. Crews are working hard to get things back to as near normal as possible, and the crowds are beginning to return there for outings.

The amphitheatre was untouched by flood waters. When it was being planned, one of the requirements was that it be located where high water would not hamper or detain audiences, should flooding occur.

To the surprise of a lot of newspaper people in other parts of the state, mainly those from the east and south, those attending the convention had a good time. They found out West Texans can have a good time without going to the ocean shores, piney woods or big cities.

They also found out that those of us in the western part of this big state have been traveling a long distance to attend meetings held in the usual places all these years. The last time the TPA held a meeting in Amarillo was 22 years ago. I doubt it will be that long until the next time, however. We had a near-record crowd of 312 in attendance.

It would be nice to hold one of our conventions in Wichita Falls some time. But that money-saving community hasn't the facilities to host one of our committee gatherings, much less a full-blown convention.

State comptroller Bob Bullock was one of our speakers. It made a very interesting point in his talk relating California's Proposition 13 to the Texas scene.

Some two-fifths of the billions thought to be saved by the tax-cutting action will now go to the federal government. That's the money they were deducting from their income tax which, now that it isn't going to the local government, will go to Washington.

Bullock thinks there will be some tax-cutting legislation to come out of Austin, after Proposition 13, but he doesn't feel there will be as hard a push here as took place in the west coast state.

Speaking of tax money, but not having anything to do with Amarillo or Bullock, my friend James Roberts, publisher of the Andrews County News, has an interesting observation about Democratic Party candidate for governor, John Hill.

Roberts apparently isn't any more impressed with Hill than I. He says that before Hill took office in 1972, the attorney general's office employed about 150 people and operated on a budget of $2 1/2-million. In the six years Hill has been in office, personnel has jumped to 345 people... and the budget is set at $18.1-million for this fiscal year.

The Andrews publisher, by the way, was elected second vice president of the TPA and Bill Dozier of Kerrville first vice president. My long-time friend Fred Barbee of El Campo, formerly of Seminole out in West Texas, was voted president.

It was nice to hold my final meeting in Amarillo. I first lived there in 1937, then again in the mid 1950s while attending Amarillo College. And it was also in Amarillo that I met and married Dolores.

Letters to the Editor

Editor:

Because of the effort and support of many people a Jaws of Life rescue tool has been ordered for Iowa Park.

The members of the Fire Department are grateful to the area residents and business people for making this purchase possible. We would also like to thank the Leader for supporting this drive and the Community of Pleasant Valley for their support. The Fire Department is very fortunate to have the kind of support we receive from our community and we realize that the people of this area are responsible for a major portion of the updated equipment we possess.

Upon arrival of the Jaws, a public demonstration will be held to show its abilities. This short demonstration will be followed by an evening of entertainment to show our appreciation for your help. All of this will be announced at a later date and hopefully as many of our friends as possible will attend so we can again thank you for your support.

(spiritual and physical) or killed or kill some one else - just because I was instrumental in making it legally possible for them to have greater access to alcoholic beverages. (Statistics show that when liquor sales is legalized that per capita consumption increases - therefore more drunkenness.)

Proponents of the legal sale of liquor advocate that it will help our community economically. This I deny! First of all the Bible tells us in Prov. 21:17 and 23:21 that drinking leads to poverty. The verdict of science and of history is that alcohol leads to poverty financially and worst of all spiritually. For example: An alcohol study made by a joint committee of Emory University, the City of Atlanta and Fulton County, Georgia revealed that for every dollar received in alcoholic beverages (including fines) the use of alcohol costs the city and its citizens $6.43. How? For the demand in increase in law-enforcement and maintenance as a result of the alcohol traffic. The only people that benefit financially from legal liquor sales are the manufacturer, the wholesale and retail distributors.

Yes, it is a proven fact that alcohol is a destroyer of our moral and spiritual values. And the hope of America lies in our being great morally as we are materially! In our being just as great spiritually as we are scholastically! In our being just as great faithfully as we are financially! Our hope lies as much in our saints as in our scientists! It lies more in our character than in our capital! It lies more in having wholesome purposes fulfilled, than in having our PURSES FILLED!

I invite my fellow concerned citizens to stand up and be counted! Don't hesitate to cry out against that which you see to be destroying the very foundations on which our nation rests! Voice your protest! Let the people know where you stand, and why you stand there! Here lies America's hope! Vote against legalized sale of liquor on July 8th!

Gil Peters, Holiday, Texas

Dear Sir:

I oppose legalizing the sale of liquor in our precinct and I encourage others in our precinct to oppose this move to make available more places of access to alcoholic beverages because first of all - alcohol is a destroyer of our moral and spiritual values! I do not want to make available to my loved ones or be responsible for tempting them with anything that would lower their moral standards and remove their moral restraints.

What right do I have to object to legalizing the sale of alcoholic beverages? I have the right to object, because I do not want to be responsible for making available to my children or any body else children the alcoholic beverage by making it a common place thing in our community. I want to avoid in every way I can being a contributor to a person in a way that some day he or she may be seriously injured.

WHAT THE FACTS SHOW

Legalized Liquor Sales Will Mean:

- FACT 1: INCREASED AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS (at least half of all highway deaths are caused by drinking drivers)
- FACT 2: INCREASED ALCOHOLISM (increased availability of liquor increases alcoholism)
- FACT 3: INCREASED CRIME IN COMMUNITY (increased cases of : intoxication in public, driving while intoxicated, disturbing the peace, number of minors charged with possession of alcoholic beverages, rape, murders, prostitution, etc.)
- FACT 4: INCREASED PER CAPITA CONSUMPTION (therefore more drunkenness)
- FACT 5: INCREASED LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPENSE (added police costs, jail costs and increased prosecution costs)
- FACT 6: INCREASED BROKEN HOMES (increased aid for dependent children, welfare, broken hearts, etc.)
- FACT 7: INCREASED LOST PRODUCTION (lost production of goods and services)
- FACT 8: INCREASED LITTER COSTS
- FACT 9: INCREASED REVENUE (Regardless of the beautiful dollar - green picture the liquor people have painted, your city will get only one penny on every dollar or only $100 for every $10,000 spent on alcoholic beverages. The only people who profit financially from legalized sale of liquor are: the manufacturer, the wholesale and retail distributors.)

IS IT REALLY WORTH IT?

Carefully weigh all the EVIDENCE.

MEETING TONIGHT

CALL organizes in opposition

Organized opposition has surfaced in the July 8 election to decide the issue of legalized beer sales for off-premise consumption in Archer County JP Precinct 2.

A meeting is scheduled for 7:30 tonight at the Holliday Church of Christ for anyone interested in joining the contingent of opponents, said Gil Peters, Church of Christ minister, who is spearheading the opposition movement.

Peters and Rev. Lloyd Riddles, pastor of the Holliday First Baptist Church, last week were named co-chairmen of the opposition movement styled Citizens Against Legalized Liquor. Doris Stone was selected treasurer of the group.

At last week's meeting "there wasn't a very large number present because of the short notice," Peters said.

He said he hopes more people will attend tonight's meeting which will feature a talk by an official from Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education, Inc.

Interested persons also are to be named to telephone, transportation and publicity committees, Peters said.

He said CALL's political strategy includes the mailing of brochures to residents in JP Precinct 2 which includes Holliday, Lake Kickapoo, Dundee and Mankins.

Tonight's meeting, Peters said, "is one means we feel of informing the people of what the issue is."

Peters, who said he did not know until last week that the election had been called, appeared at Monday's meeting of Archer County Commissioners Court in an effort to have the election order rescinded.

He cited what he believes to be technical inaccuracies in the petitions circulated to obtain support to force the election.

On the advice of their attorney Bob Russell, the commissioners decided no laws had been violated, that the petitions were in order and that the election would be held as scheduled.

Commissioners approved the election two weeks ago when they were presented signature petitions by Lake Kickapoo grocery owner Marge Fenner.

The names of 93 qualified voters were required, and Mrs. Fenner turned in 98.

Absentee voting will continue through Monday in person at the courthouse or by requesting a ballot by mail through the Archer County Clerk's Office.

Early retirements offered at SAFB

A special voluntary "early out" retirement open season has been approved for the period June 12 through August 18 at Sheppard Air Force Base.

This is for civilian employees paid from appropriated funds who are serviced by Sheppard Air Force Base according to Fred Davenport, civilian personnel officer.

Those eligible to take advantage are persons who will be at least 50 years old with 20 years' creditable service and those of any age who will have 25 years' creditable service on or after Aug. 18.

Purpose of the program is to allow persons to take early retirement to ease the adverse impact of the Reduction in Force (RIF) on others. It helps to reduce the large number of involuntary separations that might otherwise occur.

There are a lot of other ways you can help cut down on the amount of electricity you use this summer. For our free tips booklet on ways to lower your bill, call Texas Electric, or request the booklet on the comment section of your electric bill.

Wayne Wilkins

Services were Sunday at Tanner-Aulds Funeral Home for Wayne Wilkins, 19, who was found drowned Friday at Lake Kickapoo.

Rev. Mike Jackson, pastor of First United Methodist Church, officiated. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Roger York, Rick Carter, Keith Gillen, Ralph Dillard, Randy McLoughlin and Daniel Montes.

Wilkins and his mother, Mrs. Marion L. Wilkins, were on Goat Island about 1:30 p.m. last Thursday when their boat began to drift away from the island. He tried to swim through the choppy waters to retrieve the boat, but was overcome.

Wilkins' body was found about 11:30 a.m. Friday after a search that included six boats.

Justice of the Peace Red Slack of Holliday ruled the drowning accidental.

Lake superintendent Ed Neal said it appeared Wilkins tried to turn around and swim back to the island when he realized he could not reach the drifting boat which left Mrs. Wilkins stranded on the island until rescued by a fisherman.

Born Oct. 7, 1958, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Wilkins was a 1977 graduate of Iowa Park High School. He had lived here three years and was employed by the Cryovac Division of W.R. Grace & Co.

Survivors include his parents; a brother, Kenneth of Cedar Falls, Iowa; and his grandparents, Mrs. Harriet McDermott of Cedar Rapids and Mrs. Ruby Wilkins of Glendale, Calif.

A longtime resident of Clara, Miss Goetze was born Jan. 26, 1883, in Germany. She was a member of the Trinity Lutheran Church. Miss Goetze was a farmer and had lived in Clara 93 years.

Survivors include a sister, Frieda Goetze of Iowa Park.

The meeting of the Evening Lions Club Tuesday in the Fellowship Hall of First Presbyterian Church was highlighted by Ladies Night and the installation of new officers.

Gordon Griffith was master of ceremonies.

The Rev. Clyde Markee, minister of First Christian Church, installed officers following the meal. Those who were installed were Wayne House, president; Arch Hughes, first vice president; Sid Grant, second vice president; Steve Mahan, third vice president; Randy Underwood, secretary-treasurer; Mike Isbell, Lion tamer; Mel Moulton, tail twister; Michael Dye, Gary Hunter and Mike Isbell, directors; Hughes, R.E. Waters and Sam Hunter, holdover directors.

The Rev. Markee pinned the new president with his pin, and he in turn presented the past president's pin to Griffith. Underwood was recognized for having brought three new members into the club during the year.

Preceding the installation ceremony, special music was furnished by a male quartet composed of Chris Lester, Lee Guinn, Scott Fowler and Norman Flowers. Their numbers were "Oklahoma", "Gloryland Way", "The Animals", "A Little Talk With Jesus", "Yes Sir, That's My Baby".

Season family swim permits approved

A family swim permit was initiated this week for Iowa Park Bicentennial Swimming Pool.

A family permit for the season was approved by the pool committee, just in time for the expiration of the two-year permits given to those who contributed to construction of the pool.

Regardless of the size of the family, a season pass for this summer is $50.

Regular rates for individuals are $1 for youths 14 and under and $1.50 for adults, 15 and older. Books of 10 tickets are available at $7.50 for children and $12.50 for adults.

Recently the committee approved a $20 season permit for all students of the Iowa Park school district.

Pool Manager Dick Wineinger is seeking interest from those who would like swimming lessons to be held in the evenings, after the pool closes at 7. If enough interest is indicated, he will schedule a class.

Weight room doors opened

Tommy Watkins has announced the weight room at the football field house will be opened to the public starting next week.

The athletic director of Iowa Park schools said the room will be opened at 5 p.m. and close at 8 each weekday evening, starting July 5, and remain open until Aug. 10.

Watkins said there was no restriction on age, but individuals wishing to use the equipment were welcome. A member of the coaching staff will be present to oversee the building during opening hours.
