SEASON OPENER FRIDAY

Hawks to meet top-ranked Bowie

Not many of the Iowa Park Hawks remember the season of 1970, but everyone of them have the 1978 season opener burning in their memories.

Back in 1970, the Hawks were the top-ranked Class AA team in the state, and Bowie's Jackrabbits were a very small AAA club. Coach Tommy Watkins tried everything he could, including using lineman as backs and throwing passes directly to Bowie defenders for interceptions, and still settled for a 70-0 mismatch.

Well, this year Bowie is the top-ranked AA school in the state, and Iowa Park is a small AAA team. Though the Hawks delighted fans with a 4-6 record last year, it still must be pointed out they are 5-35 over the past four seasons.

And one of those losses last year was the 20-6 season opener to the Jackrabbits in Hawk Stadium. Bowie wasn't even supposed to get out of District 10-AA because of Bridgeport, but the Rabbits won the conference crown and advanced all the way to the state quarterfinals.

Back from that glorious year, best-ever for a Bowie football team, are 10 starters among 14 lettermen.

They're the products of Coach Willie Brooks, winningest football coach in the history of the biggest town in all of Montague County.

But, as one writer has already pointed out, the Mean is back with the Green of Iowa Park.

Coach Tommy Watkins, who is among the top winning coaches in Texas still practicing their profession, wasn't bothered but very little by graduation last spring. He has returning 19 starters among 22 lettermen, and they've been making their loyal fans cheer with glee while recalling the golden winning days of old.

For the first time in half a decade, the Hawks have the valuable combination of experience, size, leadership and speed.

They have another thing, also. Confidence. That is a trademark of a Watkins ball club, and each member of the team is convinced there's not a Friday night opponent Iowa Park can't beat.

The Hawks last Friday showed marked improvement over their first pre-season scrimmage. They had shown well against a very good Electra team, and last week drew praise from each member of the coaching staff for their play against Lawton MacArthur, top-ranked AAA team in Oklahoma.

Game time Friday is 8 p.m. in Bowie's stadium.

A pep rally is planned for 3:05 p.m., just before the Hawks board their bus for the trip.

LONG LINE of ardent Hawk fans was on hand Tuesday evening at the high school when season football tickets went on sale. There were 250 tickets sold that evening, bringing the total of season tickets sold to about 550, including option ticket holders. This compares with 473 season tickets sold all of last year. Bob Dawson, principal, said more season duets have been sold this year than any season since 1974. "But we still have plenty available," he commented.

BUILDING PERMITS

Student count rises slightly

Pupil count failed to increase as much as school officials anticipated, and hoped, following the Labor Day holiday.

An enrollment count taken yesterday indicated a gain of only nine students overall, according to Supt. Faris Nowell.

Kidwell Elementary now has 359 students, Bradford Elementary 258, Valley View 264, junior high 284 and high school 706, giving a total of 1871. There were 1,862 enrolled on the second day of classes.

The high school was actually the only campus that failed to gain students during the first week. It actually dropped from 711 to 706.

Burglars make hauls Tuesday

A rash of thefts from vehicles Monday night flooded the Iowa Park Police Department's records this week. All of them were in the northwest part of town.

Largest haul was approximately $2,500 worth of tools and other items from a pickup owned by Johnny Crawford. The vehicle was parked in his driveway at 1518 Rita.

A citizen band radio was stolen from a vehicle at 600 W. Texas, owned by Roger Ray Richardson.

Whoop-T-Do is growing

Anyone who sees and participates in all the activities now planned for Whoop-T-Do will have an extremely busy and tiring day.

The annual event, sponsored by the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce, will be held Sept. 29. It was designed to be held the same weekend as Iowa Park High School homecoming, which this year will be Sept. 28.

Already scheduled are several performances of Danny and the K.C. Dolls, a favorite of past years, performances by the Bradford and Kidwell Fourth Grade Choir, Valley View Fifth Grade Choir, Junior Band, High School Choir and Band, Lucille Doran School of Dance, Iowa Park School of Dance, a special variety show, a Miss Whoop-T-Do contest, and the annual Turtle Trot.

The 23 Study Club will once again sponsor an arts and crafts show and sale, with voting on a people's choice winner.

Latest addition will be a 10,000 meter (6.2 miles) marathon, as well as a mile run, sponsored by Boy Scout Troop 38.

Monday night the Iowa Park Recreational Center is to seek permission from the city council to hold a street dance in the downtown business district.

A number of booths have already been reserved, according to Mrs. Ray Pittman, Chamber secretary, who says interested organizations should contact her as soon as possible to reserve booth space if they have not yet done so.

Booths are used by non-profit organizations as fund-raising projects. They help develop a carnival-like atmosphere, offering food and drink, items for sale, and games of skill.

This year's Turtle Trot will be staged at 1 p.m. As in the past, the winner will be awarded a $25 Savings Bond.

United Way campaign to kick off Thursday

The United Way kickoff, originally set for the Wichita Falls Activities Center, will be held Thursday, Sept. 13 in the Texas Electric Service Company covered parking area in Wichita Falls at 12 noon.

The Mavericks will cater the dutch-treat affair starting the two-month long campaign for funds to aid 33 agencies in the Iowa Park, Burkburnett area.

The goal for 1979 is $1,314,500.

"These agencies are very vital to the people of Iowa park," Keith Aulds, local chairman, said. "Our citizens are fortunate to have the Friendly Door and RAC Center here in Iowa Park, but we also benefit from the Red Cross, Salvation Army, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Campfire Girls and the services offered by Mental Health and other agencies."

Meetings are scheduled throughout the campaign for progress reports from the three cities.

Solicitation of funds for the United Way is carried out in businesses throughout the area. There is no door-to-door campaign.

"Only once a year are citizens asked to contribute to the United Way," Aulds said. The funds are then disseminated to the agencies by a Budget committee of volunteers from the three cities.

"Allocations are based on the programs the agencies offer the community and the community need," Aulds said.

DIVISION LEADERS for the United Way campaign include David Parkey, left, advance gifts, Vern Horaky, major firms, and Steve Morath, public employees.

UNITED WAY LEADERS include Dr. Carter Pirkle, left, professional division, Keith Aulds, Iowa Park campaign chairman, and Bill Steger, metro division.

City, school meetings set

The Iowa Park city council and school board will hold their regular monthly meetings next week.

City aldermen will meet at 7 p.m. Monday in council chambers, and school trustees are to meet Tuesday in the administration building, starting at 7:30 p.m.

According to City Administrator Steve Morath, the following items will be among those listed on Monday's agenda:

- * Public appearance by Harvey Eaton, petitioning for city water outside city limits at 902 W. Highway.
- * Recreational Activity Center representative to request permission to hold a street dance in the downtown area Sept. 29.

- * Consider an ordinance that would establish rate increase for Texas Electric Service Co. An increase of 2.74 percent, recommended by the Texas Municipal League staff, would reportedly generate $14,588,000 per year for the utility company.

- * Award bids for mobile radio units for city vehicles.

- * Work session on the new budget to follow regular meeting.

Supt. Faris Nowell said Wednesday, that other than regular items such as department reports and bill paying, he knew of nothing else for the agenda.

Shirley-Rogers wedding held in Wichita Falls

The altar of the Freewill Baptist Church in Wichita Falls was centered with an archway entwined with garlands of fern accented with white silk orchids Friday evening for the wedding of Miss Vicki Dianne Shirley and Douglas James Rogers. The setting was lighted by tall candles uplifted in slanting seven-branched candelabra on either side of the archway.

The Rev. Earl Scroggins, pastor, performed the double-ring nuptials to unite the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Shirley Jr. and the son of Mr. and Mrs. D.J. Rogers.

The musical background was provided by Mrs. Earl Scroggins, pianist, Mrs. Raymond Schroeder, organist, and David Schroeder of Burkburnett, vocalist. Mrs. Scroggins presented the prelude music and traditional processional and recessional compositions. Mrs. Schroeder accompanied the vocalist for his solos "Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's father escorted her to the altar and when the minister asked "Who giveth this woman in marriage?" he answered "Her mother and I."

A romantic expression of summer beauty characterized the bride's gown of white organza and Chantilly lace fashioned along traditional lines. The lace-covered bodice showered with pearls chattered apart with a sweetheart neckline, sheer yoke touched with lace medallions and wide-cuffed lace sleeves. Side panels of lace starting at the front of the pearled waistline dipped deeply into the back of the skirt that drifted into a chapel train edged with lace.

Her rounded fingertip illusion veil featuring a wide band of the lace was attached to a Juliet cap, and she carried a bridal bouquet of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Allen Lindsay of Irving, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown of yellow polyester was fashioned with a flattering empire bodice, double spaghetti straps, crystal pleated skirt and a matching chiffon capelet. Her complimentary bouquet was centered with a yellow rose surrounded by white and yellow pixie carnations, baby's breath and brown silk ribbons all against a lace background.

Mrs. Daniel York Jr., sister of the groom, and Miss Teresa Kibler were bridesmaids. Their costumes and flowers duplicated those of the matron of honor.

Taking part in the wedding as best man was John Lee of Wichita Falls, brother-in-law of the groom. Daniel York Jr., another brother-in-law, and Anthony York were groomsmen. Steve Shirley of Garland, the bride's brother, and Allen Lindsay of Irving, her brother-in-law were the ushers. They wore beige tuxedos trimmed in dark brown velvet and pale yellow shirts.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with tails and three yellow rosebuds with baby's breath for his boutonniere.

The wedding reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church with the bride's parents the hosts. They were assisted by Miss Denise Melchiori, who secured signatures for the bride's book scrolled with hearts, flowers and doves, and Miss Jo Ann Melchiori and Mrs. Steve Shirley, who presided at the cake and punch services.

The refreshment table was draped attractively with yellow satin overlaid with white net looped at the sides and clustered with silk orchids and brown silk ribbons. The table was appointed with two white baskets of yellow and white carnations and greenery, and the cake and punch services marked table extremities.

To make their wedding cake something really special, it was topped with a beautiful, yet not over-sentimental, ornament focusing upon a bride and groom standing under lace bells trimmed with lilies of the valley. Two sets of Grecian pillars divided the four-tiered cake decorated with heavy scrollwork and clusters of yellow roses and other delicate flowers on the sides.

The reception preceded the departure of the newlyweds to Corpus Christi and Padre Island via air for their wedding trip. They will live in Wichita Falls upon return.

Both young people were graduated from Iowa Park High School, he in 1978 and she in 1979. The groom made the All-District basketball team during his junior and senior years. He is a student at Midwestern State University where he will continue his education, and he is employed by the Electrical Supply Division of United Electric.

In high school, the bride was head cheerleader, secretary of the senior class, homecoming queen nominee, and lettered in volleyball and track.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Finstead of Grapevine were out-of-town wedding guests.

Mashburn-Simmons wedding held in Methodist Church

Following a wedding trip to Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Eugene Simmons, who were married Friday evening in a formal ceremony at First United Methodist Church, will establish residence in Wichita Falls.

The bride is the former Neta Lois Mashburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Mashburn, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Simmons.

The Rev. Byron Myrick, pastor of the University Methodist Church in Wichita Falls, officiated the exchange of double-ring nuptial vows by the couple. The altar decorations featured tall white candles aglow in two seven-branched white candelabra swathed with leather and emerald green.

Gleaners meet

Eleven members and one guest, Mrs. Larry Balsley, attended the monthly meeting of the Gleaners Class of Faith Baptist Church when they met in the Fellowship Hall Thursday evening.

Mrs. Hubert Thompson brought the devotional reading on "Falling Feathers and the Reluctant Visitor."

ery accented with soft white silk bows, two arrangements of white carnations and daisies, and the white-cushioned kneeling bench trimmed in brass.

Church pews for family members were marked with blue satin bows.

Mrs. Otis Gay, organist, and Mrs. Kris Miller, soloist, provided the musical setting. The latter sang "If, 'Twelfth of Never", and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Gay furnished accompaniment, and her other offerings included the prelude music and the wedding marches particularly favored by so many couples for their entrance into and exit from the church.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage for both parents. She chose a white organza gown lavishly trimmed with Chantilly lace that completely covered the tight bodice, formed the long sleeves cuffed in organza, then was repeated in wide front and back lace panels on the skirt that swept into a chapel train. Seed pearls were sprinkled over the bodice set apart with a pleated organza yoke and sweetheart neckline. Her imported lace-framed illusion veil floated to cathedral length from a bandeau of organza.

To complete her costume, the bride carried a long cascade of light blue daisies, sky blue pixie carnations and gypsophila graced with blue and white lace streamers, and observed bridal traditions.

Mrs. Roy Quisenberry of Quanah, cousin of the bride, served as matron of honor, and Miss Debra Parks was bridesmaid. They wore stylish blue polyester gowns imprinted with blue and white floral designs, giving the charm of low elasticized necklines, lace butterfly sleeves, self belts terminating in back bows and streamers, and beading flounces headed with lace and narrow blue satin ribbon. They wore blue hats trimmed with white ribbon and baby's breath.

Their colonial bouquets consisted of light blue daisies, sky blue carnations and blue and white lace streamers.

The groom's father served his son as best man and Roy Rose was groomsman. Bruce Mashburn and Charles Simmons, brothers of the bride and groom, were ushers.

In keeping with the shades of blue chosen by the bride for emphasis in their wedding, the groom wore a light blue tuxedo trimmed in dark blue, a white ruffled shirt and a white carnation centered with a blue daisy for his boutonniere. The male participants wore light blue coats, dark blue vests and pants.

Mrs. Mashburn, mother of the bride, wore a turquoise blue crepe gown with a gathered bodice and a blue sheer cape accented with purple floral patterns. Her shoulder corsage was formed of blue and white carnations trimmed in blue. Mrs. Simmons, mother of the groom, wore the same flowers with mint green and filled with blue lilies of the valley. The dais which supported them was covered with white net frills.

Other table adornments were the crystal toasting glasses in silver holders, crystal punch service, a centerpiece of blue and white carnations and daisies, and white napkins where fine silver lines formed a wedding motif and names of the newlyweds and their wedding date. Serving at the table were Miss Cindy Pechacek of Fort Worth, cousin of the bride, Misses Paula and Deanna Mashburn, her sisters. House-party members were Mrs. Leon Pechacek, Mrs. Floyd Page, both of Quanah, Mrs. Robert Phillips of White-wright, and Mrs. Charles Webb of Houston.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner Thursday evening at Underwood's.

The bride and groom were graduated from Iowa Park High School in 1977. He is employed by Miller & Holmes Construction and she works for Texas Electric Serice Co.

Attending the wedding from out-of-town were Mrs. Lois Buckholt of Quanah, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Pechacek, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Quisenberry, Mrs. Floyd Page, all from Quanah; Mr. and Mrs. Brad Page, Deborah and Kenneth, Paducah, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Phillips, Whitewright, Mrs.

Charles Webb, Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Moser, Henrietta, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rose, Lake Arrowhead, Miss Cindy Pechacek, Houston.

One of the prenuptial courtesies extended to the new bride was a miscellaneous shower given in Texas Electric Reddy Room. Hostesses were Mmes. J.A. Jacobi, Wayne House, James McLemore, James Beals, Homer Hodges, Willie Moser and Jack Hodges.

MRS. CURTIS EUGENE SIMMONS

accents to complement her mint green polyester gown topped with a matching full length lace coat.

Brenda Spikes, sister of the groom, registered guests in the church foyer preceding the wedding. The round table holding the bride's book, feather pen and floral appointment was laid with a white embroidered linen cloth.

The reception following the wedding was hosted by the bride's parents in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The refreshment table covered with white lace over blue was the center of interest in the room. The snowy four-tiered cake was a special attraction with its two sets of cherub dividers and blue scrolls, drop flowers and clusters of roses in frosting patterns. # Williams-Wilson nuptials performed Friday evening

In impressive nuptials performed Friday evening in the Church of Christ, Miss Connie Ann Williams became the bride of Michael Dale Wilson. James Trent, minister of the Faith Village Church of Christ in Wichita Falls, was the officiating minister for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Williams of this city and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Wilson of Wichita Falls.

The registry table in the church foyer where wedding guests signed the bride's book as they arrived for the service was laid with white satin. An overlay of white scalloped lace featured swags caught up with blue and white silk bows. Contributing beauty and color was a bud vase holding shaded blue carnations decked with matching bows and the plume pen. Miss Donise Kidwell presided at the table.

The nuptial music was furnished by Miss Christy Cox who sang "I Believe", and an ensemble composed of Mrs. E.E. Wiggins, Mrs. Mike Priddy, Chris Lester and Lee Gwinn. Their vocal selections included "Cherish", "Faithful and True",

MRS. MICHAEL DALE WILSON

"Wedding Song" and "O Perfect Love".

Members of the wedding party entered the church to stand in a nuptial space dominated by a brass archway entwined with garlands of boxwood accented with silk white mums and blue carnations. Gold wedding bells were nestled in a blue satin bow in the center of the archway. Tall seven-branched candelabra decorated in the same theme held glowing candles shedding soft illumination on the setting. Pots of fern flanked the baptistry in the background.

Imparting interesting distinction to the decorations was a needlepoint ring pillow trimmed in lace and a satin bow. The pillow was made by Mrs. Mary Leach and rested on a large family Bible supported by a tall altar table. The rings exchanged by the couple were lifted from the words in needlepoint "With This Ring I Thee Wed, C.A.W. M.D.W. August 31, 1979."

The attractive decorative scheme was continued in the lower altar where two tall brass stands swathed with lemon leaf held sunburst arrangements of all silk flowers consisting of white mums and stock, light blue carnations and asters, and darker blue cornflowers. The brass unity candlestick featured the boxwood and blue ribbon trim. Mothers of the bride and groom lighted the two outer candles preceding the ceremony, and these were later extinguished by the couple after they had used them to light the "unto death do us part" candle.

The church pews were marked with blue votive candles banked with ivy leaves, light and blue silk bows and streamers.

The bride walked to the altar on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage for both parents. Her lovely gown was a romantic impression of flattering white organza detailed with rich Chantilly lace which covered the bodice and adorned the full skirt that floated into a chapel train in three wide tiers. The bodice was adorned with scattered pearls, low neckline, long sleeves with tight cuffs. A soft organza bow at the back waistline added charm to the gown.

She chose a cathedral illusion veil appliqued with lace and blusher caught to a Juliet cap of lace and pearls for her headpiece. The bride carried a teardrop bouquet fashioned of glabella flourets, Hahn's ivy and gypsophila centered with a glabella corsage that was later lifted for her to wear with her going away costume.

Her jewelry included a ruby engagement ring of her maternal grandmother, Mrs. T.L. Ward of Vernon chosen for "something old"; her mother's diamond necklace for "something borrowed"; a garter for "something blue" held the lucky sixpence, and she slipped two pennies dated the years of the couples' births in her shoe.

A maid of honor and two bridesmaids presented a charming picture in their long light blue Qiana halter gowns styled with empire waists, spaghetti straps and sheer split capes that plunged in the back. They carried nosegays consisting of blue silk daisies, blue and white carnations touched with baby's breath, light and dark blue silk streamers.

Miss Cheri Scott was the maid of honor and Mrs. Bobby Hilliard and Miss Carol Crush were bridesmaids.

The groom wore a white tuxedo and a blue silk carnation centered with a white sweetheart rose for his boutonniere. Masculine participants in the wedding wore light blue tuxedos.

Harold B. Wilson served as best man for his son. Fritz Self Jr. of Irving and Monty Marley of Wichita Falls were groomsmen. Guests were ushered and seated by Glenn Tartar, Bobby Smith and Steve Flinn.

Mothers of the bride and groom wore white silk glabella and florets tied with blue bows and streamers for corsages with their formal gowns. Mrs. Williams wore a rose Qiana empire gown designed with a low neckline trimmed with self-covered buttons and loops, and a matching lace jacket. Mrs. Wilson was attired in a gray and white striped Qiana gown topped with a sleeveless jacket.

The postnuptial reception was given by the bride's parents in the Fellowship Hall of the church where guests were greeted by the bride's mother. Others in the receiving line were parents of the groom, the bride's father and newlyweds.

The total effect of the refreshment table was loveliness from every perspective. The cloth was identical to the one that covered the bride's book table except for the use of white satin wedding bells instead of the bows. The attractive centerpiece was an eight-branched silver candelabrum holding slender blue candles banked with white fugi mums, blue and white carnations silk creations and baby's breath.

The four-tiered white wedding cake was beautifully decorated with two sets of Grecian pillars, clusters of light blue frosting roses and darker blue lilies of the valley. An ornament in the romantic mood cresting the cake was the traditional bridal couple in formal wedding attire standing in front of a pearled heart centered with lace.

The crystal appointments included the bride and groom toasting glasses and punch service. Additional adornments were white wedding bell-shaped mints and light blue napkins with the names of the newlyweds engraved in dark blue.

Mrs. Doug McMillan of Henrietta and Miss Donna Jackson of Wichita Falls served refreshments to the guests during the reception.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner Thursday evening at Frontier Steak House. The betrothed couple presented gifts to their attendants during the evening.

The couple will live in Burkburnett following a wedding trip to Eagle Nest, N.M. The bride chose an orchid crepe dress imprinted with purple flowers and cranberry accessories for travel.

The new Mrs. Wilson was graduated from Iowa Park High School. She is a former county and district Farm Bureau Queen and is employed by the City National Bank. The groom, who is a personal banker at First Wichita National Bank, was graduated from Rider High School and attended Midwestern State University where he belonged to Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Guests attending from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. T.L. Ward of Vernon, grandparents of the bride; Messrs. and Mmes. James Ward, Norman, Okla., Leland Davis, Henrietta, Leonard Phillips, Robert Phillips, Bluegrove, Jess Haralson, Nocona; Mrs. James Newton and Kasey, Farmington, N.M., Mark DeWoody, Ga.

As I See It....

Included in the maze of type on the front page of this issue is a numerical notation that means little to most people, but an awful lot to the Hamilton family and others on the Leader staff.

It's worth noting that the change is on our masthead, or name plate as you might call it. It says "Volume XI, Number 1."

What that means, is, this newspaper has now completed 10 years of publication, and this is the first issue of the eleventh year.

I'll join you in asking "where has the time gone?"

I learned this week that Dolores and I have only 15 more years before we will lose our "newcomers" label. That's fine, because based on how rapidly the past 10 flew by, the next 15 years will hardly last a bat of the eyelid.

It seems Iowa Park has long held a policy of identifying anyone who hasn't lived here 25 years as a newcomer. It was interesting to me to learn its background.

Back during the days of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair, which was the pride and joy of all Iowa Parkans, they gave a free barbecue meal to oldtimers. You had to be here 25 years to qualify, I'm told.

It's said Mrs. Buddy Tanner feels she never really reached her status of oldtimer, or rather non-newcomer. The fairgrounds building burned on her 23rd year as a resident, and she never got that free plate of barbecue.

We have no problem remembering when the turn of our fiscal year in Iowa Park rolls around. It always coincides with the opening of Hawk football season.

The atmosphere around town today is so similar to what it was back in 1969, it's almost like reliving one's life.

When we moved to town, everyone was talking football. They had enjoyed five glorious seasons of Hawk victories, and were looking toward the state championship, which was to materialize.

The feeling among residents, who were all Hawk fans, wasn't whether the Hawks would win on Friday night, but rather by how much.

After seeing that long line Tuesday night, waiting to buy season tickets, seeing all the fans at workouts, hearing football talk at the coffee shops, and with the season opening tomorrow night, life in Iowa Park is almost a mirror of 1969.

The Leader's staff looks forward to the eleventh year of publication, just as much as we look with interest toward a successful year of football. I feel we have the same desire today as we did this time 10 years ago, to work as hard and as long as we can, to produce the best and most complete news coverage of Iowa Park and area as is physically and professionally possible.

We are the first to recognize that, without the interest and support of our readers and advertisers, we wouldn't have lasted 10 weeks, let alone 10 years.

It should be said, we appreciate you all.

Plats on agenda for commission

Two plats will be considered when the Planning and Zoning Commission meets at 7:30 this evening in council chambers.

One will be for Block 26, Texas Addition, where the school district has purchased land for building and trades classes to construct homes. The other is for Blocks 16 and 17, First Addition, located on Lake Gordon, where a series of duplexes are proposed to be built.

Two public appearances are on the meeting agenda. One is from Alvin Jeter, seeking a variance from the building code to build a carport at 1004 W. Louisa. The other is from R.O. Harper, applying to locate a mobile home at 508 W. Washington.

Members of the commission are to discuss zoning of mobile homes, and also hear a report on a comprehensive planning grant.

Hawks dominate scrimmage

"I had to keep reminding myself that they were scrimmaging, and not playing a championship game," commented one fan about Friday's controlled scrimmage between the Hawks and Lawton MacArthur.

The fan was describing the tone of play, which was recognized by others in the beautiful Lawton stadium, and confirmed by the coaches, that there was hard hitting by both teams, and outstanding offensive play as well.

Eventhough MacArthur carries the preseason rating of the top AAA team in all of Oklahoma, Iowa Park gave them all they could handle, and then some.

The Hawks outscored their hosts 2-1. And the second units held their counterparts scoreless.

Format of the evening was the first units running 20 plays each on offense, taking a break while the second units ran 15 plays each, and then coming back for a period of game-style play.

Fullback Mike Ray scored both touchdowns for the Hawks, one in each section of play and both on one-yard plunges.

Lawton scored on the third play of the 20-down series. But it was on a fluke situation, and also would have been called back in a game situation because of a clipping penalty.

Coach Tommy Watkins had given his starting tackles, Tommy Ross and Billy Maupin, a well-earned rest after the offensive series. They start both offensively and defensively.

Somehow, one of the reserve defensive tackles didn't get the word, and wasn't on the field. It was over that position that Lawton's quarterback ran, and scampered 61 yards to the end zone.

The first offensive unit rolled up 12 first downs during the evening, picking up 107 yards rushing and 65 passing for 172 total yards. They completed six of nine pass attempts, but two were interceptions.

Tailback Troy Thompson, senior, was the leading ground gainer for the Mean Green, picking up 44 yards on 11 carries, including one for 24 yards.

Ray, a junior, was called on nine times and responded with 29 yards.

Alternate tailback James Spears turned in 19 yards on the three carries he had with the first unit. Curtis Martin, quarterback, picked up five yards net.

Longest pass reception was by senior tight end Ronnie Reusch, who went high in the air with a defender and brought down a 30-yarder.

Defensively, Lawton's first unit was held to only five first downs the entire evening. They gained 118 yards, including that long touchdown, but neither of two pass attempts was completed.

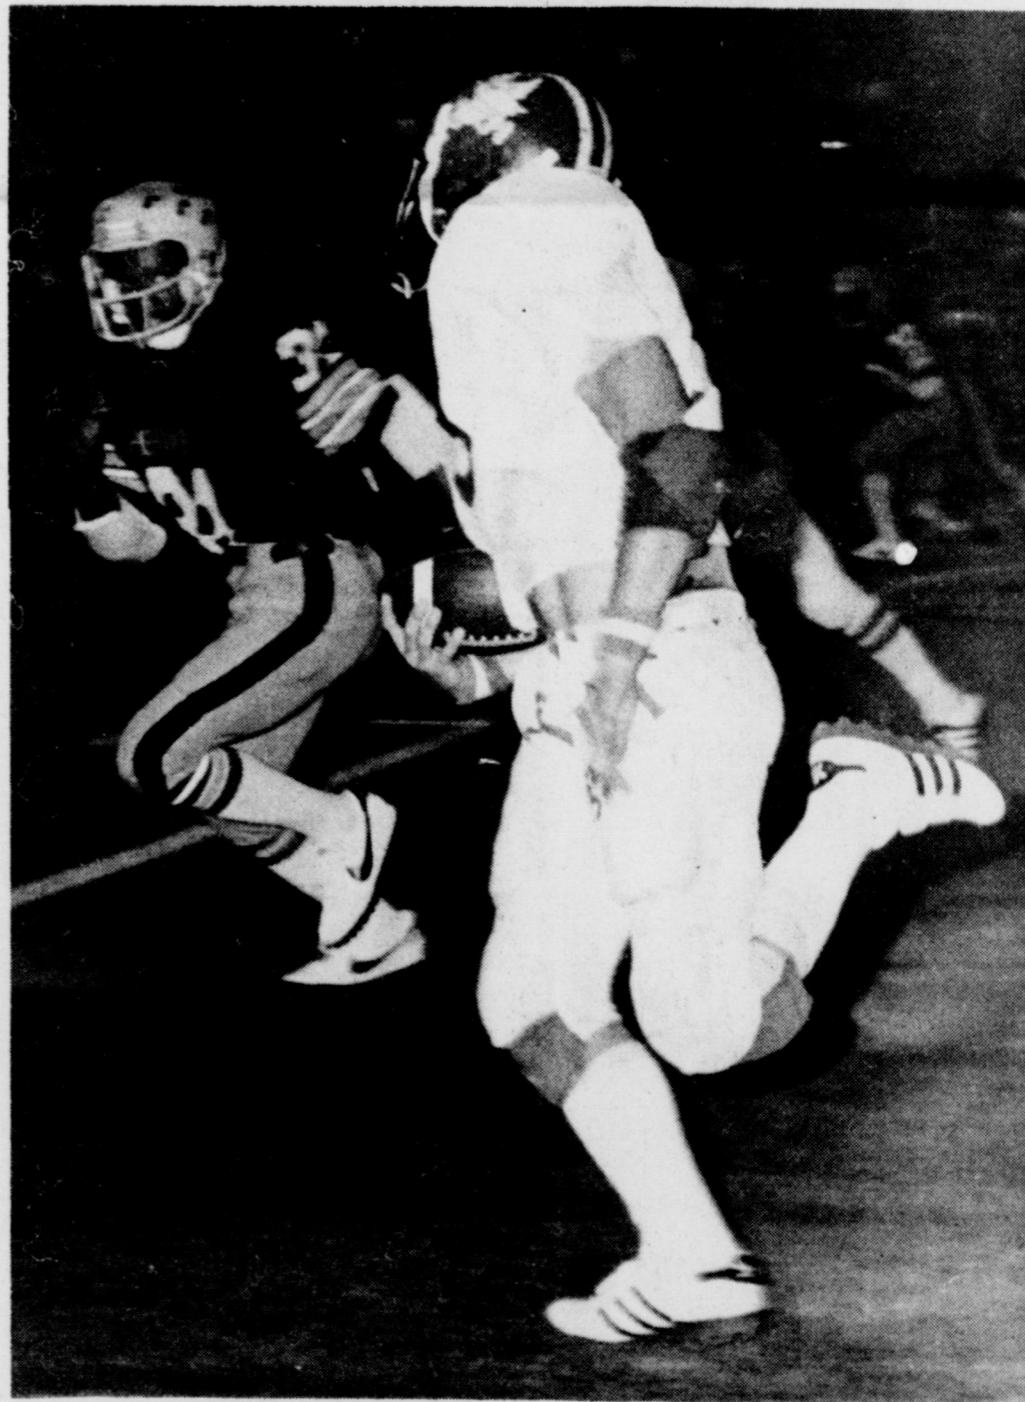

Martin made an impression on viewers with his defensive play.

The junior was given a breather after the first offensive series, like the tackles, and was sent in to play "monster" after MacArthur had run seven plays.

He made four consecutive tackles once he got on the field. The first two were on the line of scrimmage, the third was a three-yard Oklahoma loss, and the fourth was a nine-yard loss for the Lawton quarterback.

Eagles hold Bowie scoreless

Big Red Machine opens season Friday at Olney

The Holliday Big Red Machine played the David role against a band of Goliaths in Bowie Friday night, as both teams fought to a 0-0 stalemate.

Armed with a swarming defense, the Eagles held Bowie runners to 167 total rushing yards, and forced turnovers on two crucial drives.

Early in the contest, Bowie had the ball inside Holliday's own 10-yard line. On the final play from the eight, Bowie's quarterback found a receiver open in the end zone. However, the receiver was pushed as soon as he caught the ball and was unable to keep his feet in bounds.

On Bowie's last possession of the ball, another drive was thwarted when Joe Todd pounced on a fumble at the Eagle seven.

Holliday's offense showed marked improvement over the previous week, especially in the offensive line. Eagle running backs James Porter and Sophomore Ray Looney scrambled for 171 yards. However, the Eagles could penetrate no further than the Bowie 32. Holliday recorded 10 first downs, while Bowie was held to nine.

Eagle receivers could muster but one reception for the evening out of five tries, and that one catch was aided by an interference call. Bowie receivers caught three of six for 28 yards, with one interception.

In earlier action, the freshmen won 2-0, while the both JV teams failed to score.

SEASON OPENER

Tomorrow night's game at Olney promises to be quite an aerial show, according to head coach Don Lucy.

"If we can control the passing game, and not make a number of mistakes, then we can win the game" Lucy stated.

The strength in Olney's passing attack comes from quarterback Ron Myers, who last year was instrumental in leading the Cubs to a .500 season. Only six starters from last year's team will be back to challenge the Eagles.

Game time will be at 8 p.m.

Brown-Romines nuptials are exchanged in garden

Miss Deborah Brown and Randel Ray Romines of Holliday were married Saturday evening in a garden wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brumley, Pleasant Valley Estates, Iowa Park. The Rev. Doyle Fuller, pastor of the Pentecostal Church of God officiated.

The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Romines, all of Holliday.

The patio decorations consisted of a white wrought-iron archway covered with English ivy, two wicker baskets holding pink mums and poppies, and two large hanging Boston ferns.

Jan Greer of Henrietta and Mrs. Roy McAllister of Holliday were pianists for the wedding, the latter playing the marches for the entrance and exit of the wedding party, and the former playing the accompaniment for Carmelita Hail of Petrolia who sang "Wedding Song" and Joe Brumley who sang "Butterfly Kisses."

When given in marriage for both parents by her father, the bride was wearing a formal white sataglow and Chantilly lace gown. The delicate open-work trim touched with seed pearls covered the bodice, adorned the Victorian neckline and formed the long sleeves finished with buttoned cuffs. The full skirt featured three tiers that extended into a chapel train, and a soft bow accented the gown at the back waistline.

The bride's mantilla-style headpiece featured the facial, fingertip and chapel length pearl-lace veils caught to a band of pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white and baby pink orchids and stephanotis.

Bridget Talley, Holliday, the maid of honor, wore a long rose-colored gown with spaghetti straps. Bridesmaids, dressed the same, were Vickie Getts, Wichita Falls, and Donna Ruth, Holliday.

Tonya Goff of Iowa Park and Michelle Hart, Wichita Falls, the flower girls, wore long pink ruffled dresses. Bryan Edgemon, Wichita Falls, the ring bearer, wore a silver tuxedo.

Gary Benson, Wichita Falls, was best man. Dobie Romines, Holliday, brother of the groom, and Randy Getts, Wichita Falls, were groomsmen. Mark Style, Wichita Falls and Frank Blanscet, Henrietta, were ushers.

MRS. RANDY ROMINES

After a wedding trip to Runaway Bay, the newlyweds are at home in Wichita, the bride chose a three-piece plum-colored suit for travel.

The bride and groom were both graduated from Holliday High School and are students at Midwestern State University where he is a senior and she is a sophomore.

In high school, she won numerous awards and honors in tennis on the local, district, regional and state levels in UIL competition. She was a drum majorette, won most valuable tennis player award and Who's Who in Spanish. As a freshman at MSU, she was chosen the most valuable tennis player and she works for the pharmacy, Bethania Hospital.

The groom, who is manager of Putt-Putt Golf Course, was named All-District football player in high school and was outstanding in basketball and track. He belonged to National Honor Society and received Who's Who in math.

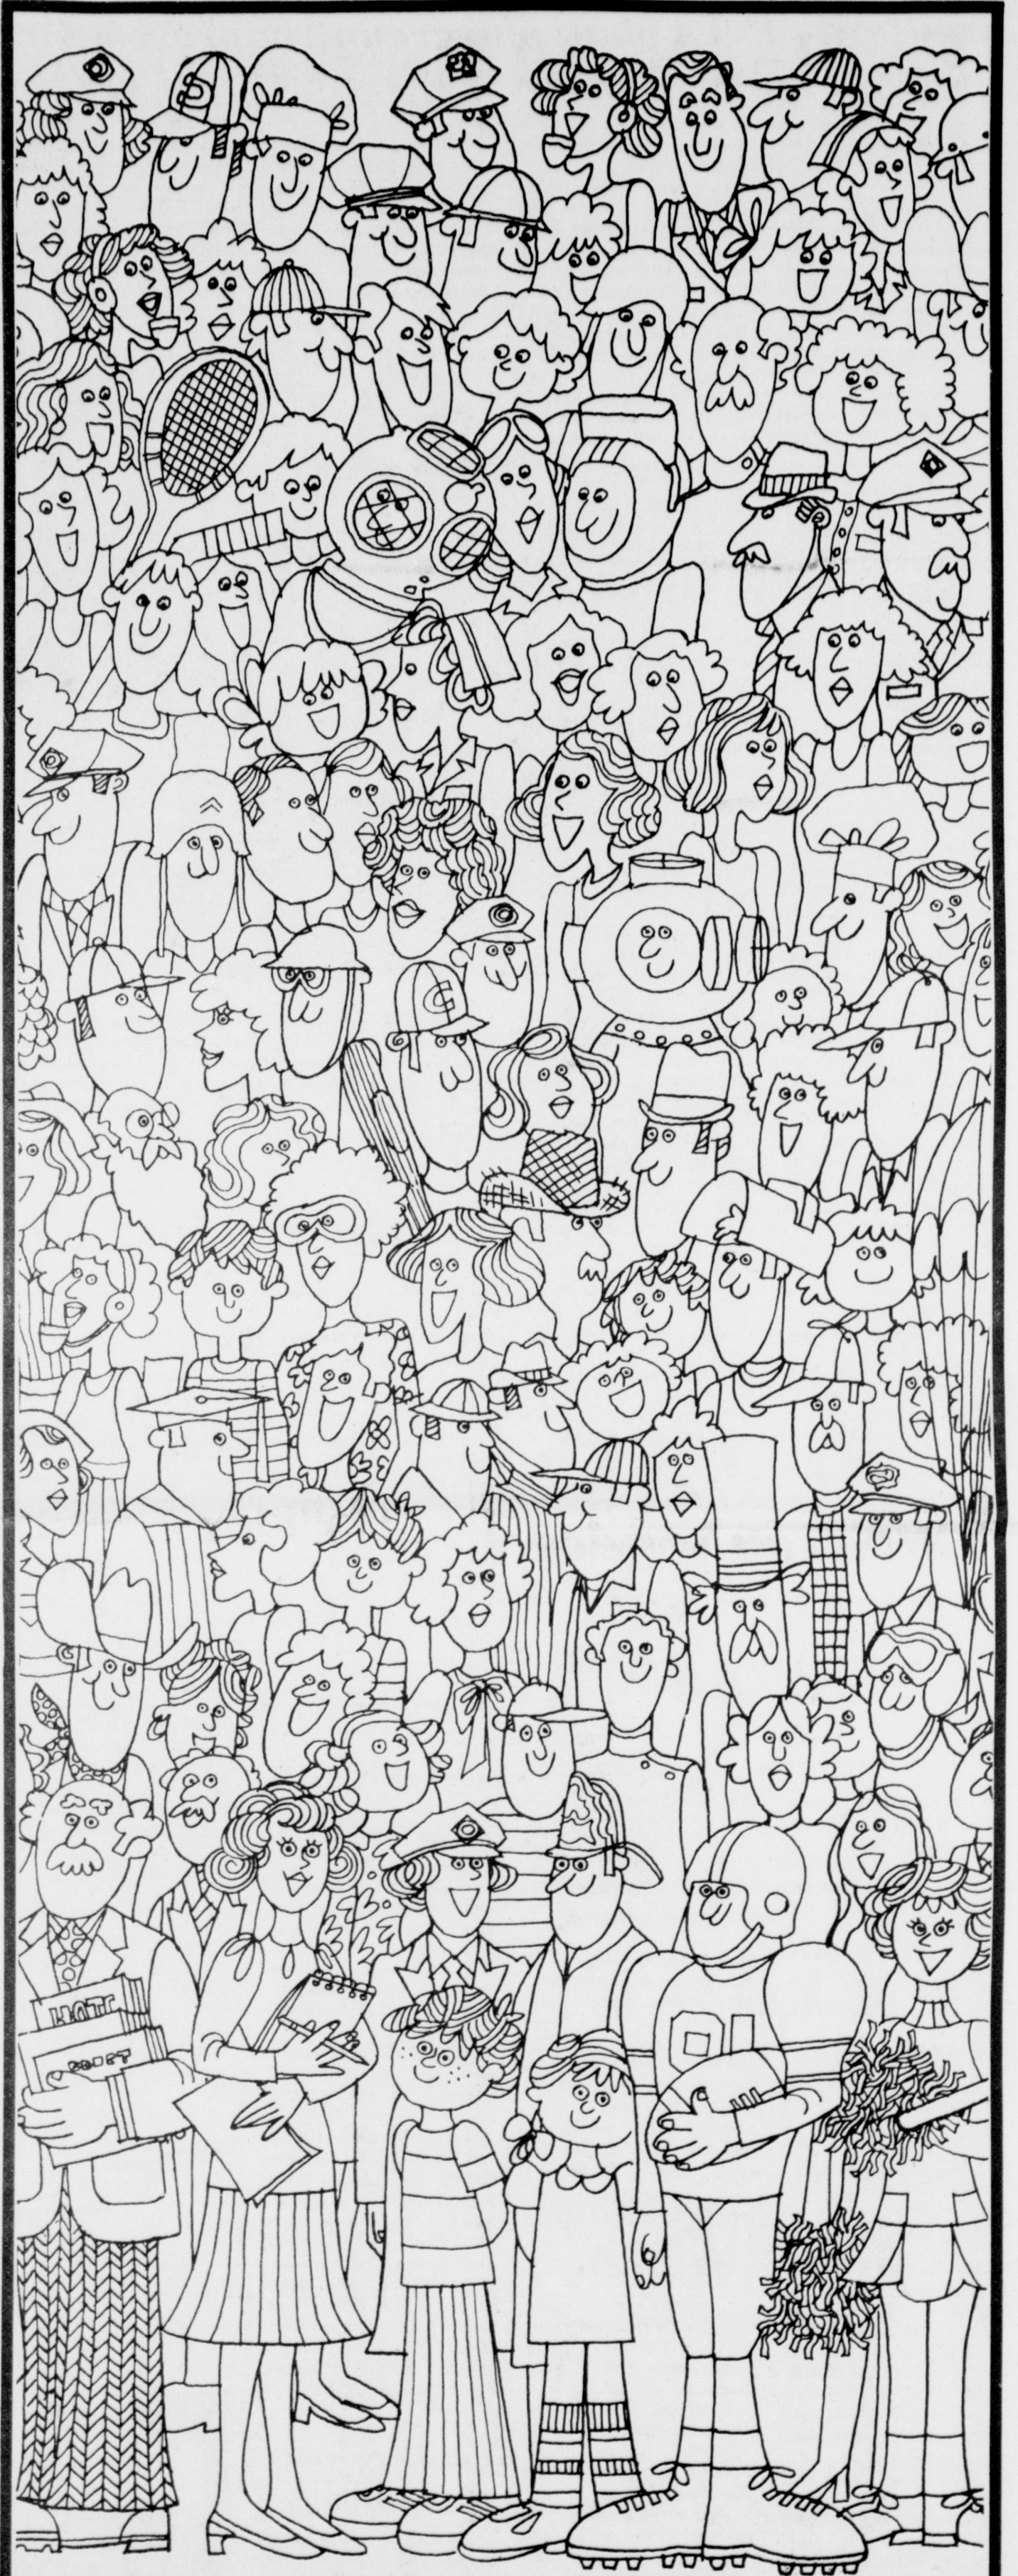

For the reception, the bride's book table and serving table were covered with white lace. Appointing the serving table were a bouquet of pink satin roses holding the rice for guests to shower the newlyweds with when they left on their wedding trip, the three-tiered cake decorated with pink roses and topped with the traditional bride and groom.

Reception assistants were Kathy Styles, Fay Blanscet, Kerry SADBERRY, Monica Walker and Pam Polvado.

Special wedding guests were grandparents of the couple, Mrs. Ruby O. Brumley and Charles R. Romines, the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C.G. O'Brien, Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Ickard, Oklahoma City and Virgil Walker of Lawton, Okla., the bride's grandparents.

Holliday city council studies bid on tower

The Holliday city council Tuesday night "acknowledged" a bid for an additional water tower.

Aldermen voted to acknowledge a bid from Security Tower and Tank for a used tower which would be moved here from Baton Rouge, La., installed, painted and given a 12-year guarantee providing the city maintains it, for $64,000.

By using the term "acknowledged", the council tentatively accepts the bid, subject to study by an engineer and recommendation for approval.

Another used tower was also offered in a bid, but was $33,000 higher than Security's offer. Highest bid was for a new tower, $153,500. The tower the council is studying is a tripod structure with a capacity of 100,000 gallons.

In a related bidding, the council also acknowledged a bid of $163,740 by West-Tex Construction Company for installation of a new water line. Next low bid was $215,000.

Council members approved a $692.60 expenditure to the state comptroller's office, representing taxes assessed on traffic fines since 1971, but never sent to the state.

The city also voted to purchase a 220 Lincoln welding unit, a cutting torch, and lease related equipment to cut down on expenses when such work is needed on city equipment. A request for a 9.87 percent rate increase from Lone Star Gas Co. was tabled 120 days for study. The increase would affect 422 customers in the city.

17% increase in sales taxes

Sales tax rebates to the City of Holliday are up 17 per cent over this time last year.

The August rebate check was for $3,481 as compared to $2,655 received in August last year.

Holliday has been rebated $23,061 for the year. By this time last year municipal coffers here had benefited from $19,585 in the sales tax reimbursements collected by local merchants.

Cook of the Week

George Bernard Shaw said "There is no love sincerer than the love of food." The interest that continues to be shown in the Cook of the Week feature attests to the truthfulness of the observation by the British author.

Quite frequently we at the Leader are told by our readers that the Cook of the Week is the first thing they look for in the paper. We are often asked how we continue to get such good cooks with so many delectable recipes. Much of the credit goes to you, our readers, who are so kind to recommend good cooks to us, and we are very appreciative of every suggestion.

In the past, several women have called and said that they themselves had recipes that they would like to share with others. We do not for a moment consider this presumption on anyone's part because we know, of course, that no human being is omniscient, and we could not possibly know the great hosts of good cooks in our midst - unless it was by work of mouth. Please keep the good work up.

La Veta (Mrs. Tom) Kaiser, this week's cook, was recommended to us by a previous cook of the week. When she was contacted,

Mrs. Tom Kaiser

Registration opens for PP&K entries

Registration is now underway for the 1979 Punt, Pass & Kick Competition in the showroom of Shaw Motor Co. In making the announcement, Luther Shaw, president of the dealership, said, "We're looking forward to a big local PP&K competition in Iowa Park on Sept. 29. We hope all the youngsters, 8 through 13 years of age, in this area will come in to register and take part."

Shaw pointed out that PP&K - throughout its six levels of competition - is free of any charge, and that youngsters need only have a parent or guardian accompany them to the showroom to register.

"Our competition here will have first, second and third place trophies for contestants in each of the six age groups, or 18 trophies in all," said Shaw. "Increasing each entrant's chances of winning is the fact that youngsters compete only against others in their own age group," said the Ford dealer.

"Of course, there is no body contact in PP&K. It's punting, passing and place-kicking for distance and points, just as the name says. First place winners in each age group in our competition will go on to the Zone competition. And from there, the top winners go on up the ladder through District, Area, Division and National Finals," he said.

"This year, the National Finals will be held at Super Bowl XIV on January 20, 1980, in Pasadena, California. Naturally, we hope some of our Iowa Park PP&K winners will make it all the way to the Super Bowl," Shaw said.

The Ford dealer further explained that each entrant, upon registering, receives a free PP&K Tips Book. In the 1979 edition, there are competition tips by NFL stars Pat McNally, Roger Staubach and Frank Corral. The Tips Book also includes complete PP&K rules and helpful conditioning exercises for contestants.

This is the 19th anniversary year of PP&K. From its inception, the youth activity has been sponsored by the Ford Dealers of America in cooperation with the National Football League. In that time, millions of youngsters have taken part in PP&K, making it one of America's largest youth activities.

Activities, classes scheduled at RAC

The Iowa Park Recreational Center promises to be one of the busiest places for activities, as the fall season's schedule was announced this week by Mrs. Betty Merriman, director.

Activities are planned for residents of all ages.

The first of many classes will begin next Thursday, when a course of macrame will begin at 9:30 a.m., taught by Mrs. Merriman, and at 10 a class in basket weaving will be taught by Mrs. Hollie Gray of Wichita Falls.

These are two of the most popular home decorating accessories used today.

Material for the first project will be furnished in both classes.

Renee Christie, well-known dance and exercise teacher from Wichita Falls, will begin a class in Rhythmic Aerobics, also at 10 a.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Christie has a degree in dance and recreation. She has taught several years at Midwestern State Univ., and other area locations.

The art of Yoga will be taught by Mrs. Gerald Stone of Iowa Park.

Yoga is one of the oldest forms of exercise, and the most used form in the Far East. The slow, passive exercise is perhaps the best all-around exercise used anywhere in the world, Mrs. Merriman said. Because of its more gentle movements, people who cannot do more strenuous exercise often find this the perfect solution for them.

Not to be mistaken for meditation or religious forms of Yoga, this course will be Hatha (health) Yoga. The class will be on Tuesday, beginning Sept. 18, at either 10 a.m. or 7:30 p.m.

Anita Chaney of Lone Star Gas Company will hold a seminar for homeowners on ways of weatherizing the home for winter. "Wise Up - Tighten Up" will be the title of discussion, to begin at 1:30 p.m. Sept. 12. The public is invited and there is no admission.

A rummage sale will be held this Saturday at the RAC, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Also Saturday will be a "Let's Get Acquainted" session, held for the public to get acquainted with Mrs. Merriman, and to view improvements made in the building.

A pool tournament is on schedule for youths eight through 12 years of age. To begin at 4 p.m. Friday, Sept. 14, a first place trophy will be awarded.

Mrs. Jim Spears was named Jonquil Girl chairman. Mrs. Dalton Bleeker gave a budget report, preceding reports by standing chairmen.

Mrs. Carter Pirkle discussed some of the educational programs planned for the year including discussions and demonstrations by representatives from the Red Cross, Energy Conservation and Lone Star Gas Co.

Mrs. Barry Mahler, ways and means chairman, discussed projects including the upcoming Whoop-T-Do. It was reported that the chapter raised $1189.30 for "Jerry's Children" during the Labor Day holidays, $887 in pledges and $320.30 collected by children. Members used facilities at Shaw Motor Co. to take pledges.

The duties of the chapter during the 1980 convention at Fort Worth when District VI will be host were discussed briefly.

Seventeen members were in attendance.

Housing seminar scheduled today

A special housing seminar is scheduled today at the Municipal Auditorium in Wichita Falls. The event is being cosponsored by the Rolling Plains Economic Program and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Registration and viewing of the exhibits will be from 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. The program will officially start at 9:45 a.m. The registration fee is $5, which includes the noon meal.

The event will focus on housing needs, housing alternatives, owning vs. renting, financing, building and remodeling for energy efficiency, landscaping for energy efficiency, farm storage and water facilities for the farm homes, and alternate fuels for the farm.

'Nightmare of Spring' film depicts worst Texas tornado catastrophe

Band Boosters slate meeting

Area premiere showings of the Insurance Information Institute's new motion picture, depicting in a moment-by-moment account the fifth worst tornado catastrophe in U.S. history and the worst ever in Texas, are now being scheduled. "Nightmare of Spring" is a 14-minute film describing destruction that occurred April 10 along the Texas-Oklahoma border. Fifty-eight persons lost their lives in the series of storms, and insured losses are estimated by the American Insurance Association's Property Claim Services to be in excess of $240 million. The film recaptures the scene of three funnel clouds combining into one giant tornado that cut a path of destruction half a mile wide and nine miles long through Wichita Falls. Additional footage reflects damage in nearby Vernon and Lawton, Oklahoma. In interviews conducted with victims and insurance company representatives just hours after the storm, the film shows personal reactions of citizens as they began helping each other start the long process of rebuilding huge portions of their community. Also dramatized is the prompt response of federal, state and local government disaster officials, the Red Cross and insurance industry personnel in lending assistance to homeowners and businessmen in the stricken areas. The film makes it clear that: * Lives could have been saved if victims had reacted immediately to the "take cover" warnings, though quick response did save hundreds and perhaps thousands. * Many homeowners had not updated their insurance coverage to keep pace with inflation. * Most homeowners had not kept an up-to-date inventory list of valuables and personal belongings. * A lack of adequate business insurance protection forced many businesses to close their doors permanently. Copies of the film are available on a free loan basis from the Insurance Information Institute's regional offices in Austin, Suite 501, 1011 Congress, Austin, 78701, and in Dallas, 1777 Fidelity Union Tower, Dallas, 75201. For more information, call 512/476-7025 or 214/741-5195.

The Band Boosters will hold the first meeting of the year Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the high school band hall. David Robnett will preside during the meeting when the budget and money-making projects will be discussed. Parents of band students will also have the opportunity to either renew acquaintance or to get acquainted with Gregg Miller, the band director.

Cubs to meet Tuesday

A meeting of all boys interested in joining the Cub Scouts will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the First Christian Church.

All boys ages eight, nine and 10 are encouraged by Cubmaster Buddy Johnson to attend the meeting of Pack 36, and bring their parents with them.

Television cause for increased crime rate

Almost two out of every three Texans think that crime and violence on television and in the movies cause moderate to large increases in the crime rate. This was one of the findings of the latest Texas Crime Poll, a survey of attitudes and opinions in the area of Criminal Justice conducted by the Criminal Justice Center at Sam Houston State University. A total of 1,463 Texans living in 176 counties participated in the survey. They were asked separate questions concerning television and the movies, and results were almost identical.

A total of 28 percent felt that crime and violence on television have caused a "large increase" in crime and 35 percent said a "moderate increase." Of the remainder, 23 percent felt they caused "very little increase" and 13 percent said they "had no effect."

One fourth (25%) of those participating felt that crime and violence in the movies caused a "large increase" in crime and 35 percent said a "moderate increase." Another 26 percent felt they caused "very little increase" and 13 percent again said they "had no effect."

Dr. Glen Kercher, an associate professor of criminal justice at Sam Houston and a psychologist, said that most studies have shown that viewed violence can cause violent behavior, but that there are exceptions. "All kinds of unusual things happen in this area," said Kercher. "It's not a simple relationship."

Studies have shown, for instance, that watching extremely violent crime "turns people off," said Kercher. Also, people who watched lawmen riddle Bonnie and Clyde with bullets became aggressive.

In general, moderate amounts of violence tend to incite people, he said. Children who watch violent cartoons show an increase in violent play.

On the whole, however, Kercher said he would agree with the 35 percent who selected "a moderate increase" as their answer.

Several questions in the survey dealt with post-trial disposition of criminals, specifically probation and corrections.

Most Texans (90%) said that probation should not be allowed for persons convicted of violent crimes, while about the same number (85%) felt probation should be allowed for non-violent crimes.

Respondents were also asked to evaluate the Texas prison system's effectiveness in preparing people to return to society, with four percent saying it does an "excellent job," 18 percent saying "good job," 51 percent saying "fair job," and 20 percent saying "poor job."

An overwhelming majority of the respondents (87%) said that juries should be informed about parole laws.

Dr. Raymond H.C. Teske, Jr., Survey Research Program director, said this indicates a growing concern among the public that individuals sent to prison are not serving their full sentences.

Asked how they would solve the prison population problem, 42 percent said they would build more facilities, and 40 percent said they would find a way to keep less dangerous criminals under supervision in their own communities.

Survey participants were asked what improved criminal justice services they would support with increased taxes. Improved police services led with 42 percent approval, followed by court system, 33 percent, more prison facilities, 22 percent, probation services, 12 percent, and more judges, 11 percent. Some 34 percent said they would not approve of a tax increase for any of the improvements.

Another section of the survey contained questions designed to measure the public's fear of crime and what Texans are doing to protect themselves. Several of the questions had been asked on previous surveys and were asked again for comparison purposes, and two were new.

Another new question revealed, however, that only a small percentage (5%) had asked a police or sheriff's department for a home security check if the service is offered.

Mulberry tree can be problem

The fastest growing tree for this area is the nonbearing mulberry. However, it has some serious disadvantages.

As the tree begins to mature, it develops roots on top of the ground. The entire area covered by the tree is saturated with roots which take virtually all of the moisture and nutrients. For this reason, there is no way to get grasses nor ground covers to grow under the mulberry tree after it becomes large.

C.W. Hartney of Wichita Falls has a large mulberry tree and he is having a problem with bare ground beneath the tree. He made a small retainer wall, and soil was added to a depth of about 12 inches. Roots from the tree surfaced through the added soil.

Some type of structure is probably the best way to make the area under mulberry trees attractive.

For example, Jay Shiflet of Iowa Park built a brick patio under his mulberry. The brick does not extend over the feeder root zone under the outer tips of the branches. An iron railing was added to the patio. This area is functional for the family and is very attractive in the landscape. Other type structures which might be considered include the addition of pine bark under the trees, gravel or stone may fit some landscapes, or decking can be attractive in most landscapes.
