TWO ACCIDENTS in less than an hour's time late Tuesday afternoon resulted in only minor abrasions to two persons. The first accident, shown on the right, was the more spectacular. Barrett Lee Bleeker was on the south lane of the east-bound access road when, about the Third Street intersection, a tire blew out and he lost control. His car swerved into a pickup driven by George Allen Gould. Both vehicles spun, with the Bleeker car going over the guard rail and down the embankment, coming to rest on the side of the Expressway, but without ever rolling over. Bleeker received only a few scratches to one arm. About 50 minutes later, Dan Conley, shown in center of photo on the left, was traveling south on the Kamay Road when his motorcycle collided with an automobile. His bike broke out in flames, but he escaped with only minor cuts to his knee.

HOMEcoming, WHOOP-T-DO

Countdown underway

The countdown has begun for the big Sept. 28-29 weekend in Iowa Park. Those are the dates for homecoming and Whoop-T-Do. Homecoming events include a pep rally, parade, football game and ex-student banquet. Those will be spread out over a three-day period. Whoop-T-Do will all take place on Saturday of next week. And the term "all" means a lot this year, as the event will be the largest in numbers of activities and participants in the event's history.

The traditional bonfire will not be held the night before the homecoming football game. Instead, a town-wide pep rally will be staged at Hawk Stadium, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Friday afternoon a parade will make its way through the downtown business district. Sponsored by the Student Council, theme of the parade this year is "Almost Anything Goes."

The student council has reversed its earlier decision to charge a $5 entry fee for participants in the parade, which has already drawn numerous entries of floats, various types of vehicles and marching groups.

Prior to the game Friday night between Iowa Park and old-time rival Jacksboro, the homecoming queen will be crowned.

A highlight has been added for halftime activities at the game. Members of the great 1969 Class AA state championship football team will be introduced. Team members are to be the official guests of the school, and free tickets are available at the principal's office, according to Bob Dawson.

A dance for high school students will follow the game. Saturday evening the Ex-Student Association will hold its annual banquet at the high school cafeteria, where officers for the coming year will be elected.

WHOOP-T-DO SATURDAY

Besides having the traditional carnival-like booths set up in the 100 block of East Cash for the Whoop-T-Do, several other events will take place that day.

That morning, Boy Scout Troop 38 is sponsoring a mile run, and then a 10,000 meter marathon. It will start and end at the junior high, and Cash Street east to Bell Road, and Bell north to the Expressway, will be closed off for the race.

Entry fee is $4 for participants, and entry forms are available from Thomas Johnson, any members of Troop 38, at Park Clinic, Chamber of Commerce or the Iowa Park Leader.

The mile run is to start at 9 a.m., and the marathon at 9:30.

About the same time, at the junior high football field, Shaw Motor Co. will hold its annual Punt, Pass and Kick competition. Entry forms are at the company's office.

At least 29 booths are already spoken for at the Whoop-T-Do, according to Mrs. Ray Pittman, Chamber secretary. Organizations have until next Thursday to reserve a booth space.

One of the biggest single attractions will be the People's Choice Art Show, sponsored by the Iowa Park Art Association. To be held on the west side of Park Hotel, artists will register between 8 and 10 a.m., with a $3 fee for the first five entries.

Competition will be open in oils, acrylics, watercolors, pastels, charcoal and pin, graphics, photographs, hand crafts, and a special youth division. The "Best of Show" will be announced at 2 p.m., after the public has had an opportunity to vote.

Saturday evening a street dance, sponsored by the Recreational Activity Center, has been scheduled.

A complete list of organizations and their activities, as well as a schedule of special events, will be published in next week's edition of the Iowa Park Leader.

County tax appraisal district meeting topic

Representatives of both the city of Iowa Park and the local school district will attend a meeting in Burk Burnett this evening, where taxing entities of the county will discuss a county-wide tax appraisal district.

Both local entities met in called meetings Tuesday afternoon to decide whether they were in favor of a five-person or 10-person district board of directors. Both chose the 10-person format.

Mayor Johnny Crawford said he understood that three-fourths of the 10 taxing entities of the county could decide whether the board would be composed of five or 10 persons.

Indications are that all the entities, with the possible exception of Wichita Falls city and school, favored the larger board. Those wanting more members than five are hopeful of more input from the smaller taxing entities.

The Texas legislature included in the 1979 tax code provisions for a universal appraisal system for assessing values of all taxable property in each county of the state.

The county-wide board would establish appraisal policies and could either create a separate tax appraisal office or contract for appraisal services with an existing tax office.

Each taxing entity is to pay a proportionate share of the cost of operating the tax office.

Each taxing entity will continue to set its own tax rate, collect and spend its own district's tax money. The county-wide district will handle only that money given it by the taxing entities for the operation of the tax appraisal office.

Candidates for the board will be nominated and voted on in the near future.

Crawford will represent the city at tonight's meeting, which is to begin at 7:30 in the Burk Burnett Community Building. Representing the school district will be Supt. Faris Nowell, Harold Cowley and Bill Steger.

Young Farmers active group

One of the more active organizations in Iowa Park, the Wichita County Young Farmers, this week is joining with more than 200 other chapters across the state in observing Young Farmer Week in Texas.

Membership is open to anyone, ages 18-35, in farming, ranching, or other phases of agriculture.

The Wichita County Young Farmers began in December of 1972, with Ray Hicks being elected as the local chapter's first president. There were 22 charter members, and the group has grown until they expect more than 70 before the year's end.

Former Vocational Agriculture instructor Richard Davis was the driving force in organizing the chapter. Advisors for the group now are Dennis Brooks and Jerry Gholson, agriculture teachers.

During Hicks' term of office, he served until August of 1974, the chapter took on sodding the inside berm on Hawk Stadium, and also sponsored the Iowa Park FFA and 4-H Project Show.

Rex Wells was elected president in 1974. Besides continuing sponsorship of the Project Show, they also fed the buyers at the county stock show, and organized the first tractor pull in the county. From proceeds, they donated $250 to the Cripple Children's Auction. They also initiated the annual awards banquet for the chapter that year.

Third president of the local chapter was Barry Mahler. During his term a farm show was added to the tractor pull, and the organization sponsored a hunter safety course and a pesticide certification course. During that year, the Young Farmers donated $1,000 to the Cripple Children's Auction.

David Bogart is the current president, being re-elected for a second term. The chapter's donation to the Cripple Children's Auction, following last year's tractor pull, was $1,500. Last year the chapter bought the FFA chapter a set of portable scales.

Dues in the Young Farmers, which is sponsored by the Texas Education Agency, are $5 per year. Meetings are the first Tuesday of each month, at 7:30 p.m., in the Vocational Agriculture Building.

County Agent Don Decker will have the Oct. 2 meeting, presenting data on wheat varieties grown in the area.

A group of Young Farmers will be traveling to Winters this weekend for the Area III convention. Melvin Joyner will be a candidate for Area secretary. Chapter representatives there will learn results for the application they made for Outstanding Young Farmer Chapter of the state, radio and television award, public relations award, and Outstanding Associate Member award.

Mahler has served as Area president, 1977-78, and state vice president both 1978-79 and 1979-80. He will be a candidate for state president at the convention in January, to be held in San Antonio.

Hawks take on Lynch Friday

"This team scares me more than the other two."

That was Coach Tommy Watkins' assessment of the Dallas Bishop Lynch Friars, hosts of the Hawks Friday night.

Tickets for the Bishop Lynch game are on sale at the principal's office at Iowa Park High, through noon Friday. Adult general admission is $2.25 in advance, $2.75 at the gate; students are $2 here, $2.75 at the gate; elementary are $1.50 here. Only 200 student and 50 elementary tickets are available.

Eventhough the Friars are 0-2 on the season, just the opposite of the Hawks, Watkins says they are a big-play team, one which can break open a game at any point.

Lynch has scored twice against both opponents, losing 34-12 to Wichita Falls Hirschi in the season opener and 24-14 last week to Terrell.

What scares the Head Hawk is his scouting report that the Friars have the best quarterback (Southwest Conference coaches like him) and receivers the Hawks have seen this year. Lynch, in the opinion of those who scouted the games, can make the big play, and that's what Bowie and Decatur couldn't.....against the Hawks.

And while the Friars are big-play makers, the Hawks aren't. The Mean Green is a steady, basic type club that depends on its defense to hold down the score, while the offense grinds out mostly short-yardage plays.

Defensively, Lynch is said to be especially strong inside, with good size ("they can manhandle you"). Iowa Park defeated Lynch 12-0 last year in their first meeting.

At least three Hawks, including quarterback Curtis Martin, were "under the weather" early this week. Watkins said he felt they would be on the field Friday, but he could not be sure of their condition.

Speaking to the Booster Club Monday night, Watkins admitted the coaching staff had not done the job they should have in preparing the Hawks for a surprisingly-strong Decatur club. But he also said he felt the townspeople had a slight hand in the team's attitude, by telling players what an easy time they could expect.

Watkins said the Hawks should have led 14-0 at the half, but penalties at critical times thwarted drives.

However, the Head Hawk complimented the Hawks, pointing out that they had the character needed to come from behind to win.

Though the scouts had seen Decatur three times already, Watkins said the Eagles had apparently made great strides in improvement prior to playing here Friday, and complimented them by saying they were a better club than Bowie.

With all District 4-AAA teams having played two non-conference games, the Hawks and Weatherford are the only clubs yet undefeated. Mineral Wells, Vernon, Burk Burnett and Hirschi are 1-1, and Graham is 0-2.

Iowa Park leads most of the district's defensive statistics, being first in team defense (124.5 yards) and holding their opponents to only six points. Vernon has allowed 21 points for second place.

The Hawks are best in turnovers, having lost only twice while gaining seven, for a plus five. Weatherford is the only other team in the plus column, with two losses and five gains.

In pass defense, the two Hawk opponents are averaging only 13 yards through the air.

Offensively, Mike Ray, junior fullback, ranks third among conference ball carriers with 34 carries and 192 yards, and three touchdowns, where he ranks fourth in scoring.

Ronnie Taylor ranks second among conference punters, averaging 36 yards on six kicks.

Chamber president resigns, Tommy Key is replacement

Tommy Key was named to replace Bill Bates as president of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce, during the organization's meeting of directors Monday.

Key, who has served as first vice president this year, was elevated to the top position when Bates submitted his resignation to the directors. He offered illness and doctor's orders as his reasons.

Helen Rich, who was elected second vice president at the beginning of the year, was moved to

Krum-Morgan nuptial vows recited here Saturday

Miss Vicki Ellen Krum walked to the altar of First United Methodist Church Saturday afternoon with her father to the sweet strains of Wagner's Bridal Chorus to exchange wedding vows with Steven Gregg Morgan. The Rev. Michael Jackson performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Krum II, who gave her in marriage to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Morgan of Wichita Falls.

Aisle candles marked the church pews where family members were seated, and the bride lingered by the ones where the mothers sat to present them with red roses, to her mother as she neared the altar, and to the groom's mother as the couple started their exit from the church.

Two features of special attention in the nuptial decorations were the brass knelling bench garnished with asparagus fern, and the brass three-branched unity candelabrum entwined with emerald and leather leaf, both in the lower altar. The candlestick held two lighted candles during the ceremony, and the third one was lighted by the bride and groom after they had been pronounced man and wife, symbolizing their deep feelings that "marriage is forever."

The decorative pattern was completed with twin triangle-shaped arrangements of pink gladioli, burgundy carnations, gypsophila and emerald and two seven-branched brass candelabra decked with emerald, pink bows and tall white tapers.

Mrs. Billy Hacker, organist, and Mrs. G.L. McWilliams, vocalist, furnished the beautiful wedding music. The former offered for pre-nuptial selections "I Love Thee", "All My Love", "The Sweetest Story Ever Told", "Theme from Water Music", "O Perfect Love", "Claire de Lune", while mothers were being ushered and seated, "Twelfth of Never" and "Till There Was You." She accompanied Mrs. McWilliams who sang "There Is Love" and "Always and Forever" before and "The Lord's prayer" near the close of the ceremony. Adhering to tradition, Mrs. Hacker played the processional and recessional from the works of Wagner and Mendelssohn.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white sheer organza fashioned in the prevailing style of the year for bridal gowns. Designed with a Chantilly lace-covered bodice, dainty yoke, scoop neck, bell sleeves, the billowy skirt captured attention with its hemline flounce and chapel train. She wore a mantilla-inspired veil of Chantilly lace and carried a cascade bouquet of pink miniature carnations, burgundy roses, gypsophila and asparagus fern.

The bride's sentimental additions included a gold cross on a chain, a gift she received when she was an infant from a paternal great-aunt dated "3-20-38" for "something old"; gold ear studs loaned by the groom's mother for "something borrowed"; a tiny blue silk butterfly attached to her pink garter for the "something blue" addition; and her lovely bridal costume for "something new."

Miss Pennie Baker took part in the wedding as maid of honor. Miss Connie Krum, sister of the bride, and Miss Pam Morgan, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore long Qiana gowns styled with sheer blouson bodices, split sleeves and shirred necklines. Miss Baker wore a burgundy gown and the bridesmaids wore pink gowns. Each wore a pink picture hat and carried colonial bouquets composed of pink miniature carnations and baby's breath showered with white lace streamers.

Miss Jill Jackson, the flower girl, carried a white lace basket filled with miniature burgundy carnations, baby's breath and asparagus fern. Her dainty pastel pink floor length dress featured a lace yoke, lace-trimmed cap sleeves and a sashed skirt with a flounce at the hemline.

Philip Jackson, the ring bearer, wore a burgundy tuxedo with pink ruffled shirt to match the attire of all male participants and fathers, except the ushers who wore white shirts.

Candles were lighted for the wedding by Miss Sharon Wynn and Kevin Cisco of Burkburnett, cousin of the groom. She wore a long pink nylon dotted swiss frock featuring lace trim at the neckline, butterfly sleeves, pink ribbon trim at the waistline and a skirt ruffle just above the floor. He was dressed in a burgundy tuxedo.

The groom was attired in an all-white tuxedo with tails and wore a pink carnation centered with a burgundy sweetheart rose for his boutonniere.

Richard Morgan, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Victor Corral and Kenneth Krum, brother of the bride, who also assisted another brother, Philip Krum III with duties of ushering and seating guests.

Except for color, mothers of the bride and groom wore identical silesta gowns designed with square necklines, wide capelets trimmed with candlelight cluny lace forming Vs in the back. Mrs. Krum wore pink and a corsage formed of a burgundy sweetheart rose accented with baby's breath. Mrs. Morgan complemented her burgundy gown with a pink sweetheart rose and baby's breath corsage.

The wedding reception given by the bride's parents was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church which was attractively decorated in the colors emphasized in the wedding.

The refreshment table was an impressive picture of pink and burgundy beauty. Draped to the floor with white lace over pink, the attractive centerpiece was an artistic bouquet of pink and burgundy roses, gladioli and carnations accented with scatterings of baby's breath and emerald. On either side, candles in the same hues burned in silver holders. The colors were repeated in the punch, napkins engraved with the names of the newlyweds and their wedding date, table delicacies served in silver and crystal dishes, and cake decorations.

The cake was beautifully decorated to delight the hearts of the bride and groom and to please the most fastidious guests. Sprays of moulded burgundy frosting roses, pink drop flowers and one set of filigree dividers played an important part in the eye appeal of the three-tiered confection. Topping the cake was an ornament in the romantic mood featuring a kissing bride and groom sitting on a bench under an archway trimmed with fluffs of net, lilies of the valley and wedding bells. Mrs. Philip Krum III served the cake after it had been cut by the bride and groom, who toasted each other and then took their places in the receiving line to welcome wedding guests.

Mrs. Kenneth Krum directed signatures of guests as they arrived for the wedding and at the reception. The table, covered with burgundy overlaid with white lace, was appointed with a smaller version of the bouquet on the refreshment table, the bride's book, pink plume pen, the pink and burgundy satin rosebuds filled with rice to throw at the newlyweds when they left on a wedding trip to Dallas. The bride chose a burgundy terry cloth dress with a V-neck and short sleeves for travel.

Another table in the room was laid with burgundy polyester for the gifts, and bouquets of the chosen flowers were placed at vantage points in the room to add color and beauty.

Houseparty members were Mrs. John Chapman, Miss Jtoy Chapman and Miss Roberta Martin.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at Underwood's.

The couple will establish residence in Oklahoma City and he will be working for Kinney's Shoes in Midwest City. A graduate of Rider High School, he was a member of DECA and has worked for Kinney's Shoes in Sikes Center for three years, serving as assistant manager of the Wichita Falls stores before his transfer to the Oklahoma store. He was recipient of numerous awards in high school including prize-winning essays on "Employer of the Year" for two years.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Park High School. She was named Who's Who Among American High School Students and Opti-Mrs. Student of the Month. She was a member of the A Cappella Choir, officer in Office Education Association and was employed at Cryovac during her senior year in conjunction with Vocational Office Education training. She has been employed at Kinney's Shoes in Wichita Falls.

Special wedding guests included Mrs. E.J. Blanton of Belton, the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. T.J. Johnson of Little Rock, Ark., the groom's maternal grandmother, and Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Morgan of Wichita Falls, paternal grandparents of the groom.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Robert Land, Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Boike, Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Carrington, Oklahoma City and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Sadler and Page, Fort Worth.

Gray-Davis wedding held recently in Iowa Park

The altar decorations for the wedding of Miss Charlotte Diane Gray and Leonard Franklin Davis III August 31 at the Church of God featured a garden setting.

The Rev. W.F. Williams, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony to unite the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wayne Gray of Iowa Park, and the son of Leonard F. Davis Jr. of Iowa Park and Mrs. Mary Miller of Houston.

The garden theme was carried out in a white wrought-iron arch entwined with boxwood colorfully accented with pink, yellow, lime green, peach, orchid and white silk flowers and blue silk bows, giving the first hint of the colors chosen by the bride for her wedding. White candles burned in holders attached to the top of the arch at the sides. A miniature flower bed was abloom with mums, poppies, roses and carnations in the same hues, and a tall pottery bird bath held a pitcher filled with boxwood and blue grapes. Six-branched low candelabra on the piano and organ held tall white candles.

A marble-topped kneeling bench illuminated by a yellow pillar candle burning in a brass candlestick, where the bride and groom knelt near the close of the ceremony, marked one rostrum extremity. At the time they knelt, the miniature bride and groom knelt with them, and their attendants knelt in the lower altar. A variety of fresh pot plants formed the background for the setting.

A white wicker table in the outer altar supported a brass stand that held the candle uprising from a base of orange blossoms, daisies and lilies of the valley that the bride and groom lighted to seal their vows.

Wedding musicians were

MRS. LEONARD FRANKLIN DAVIS III

Mrs. Arnold McDuffie of Wichita Falls, organist, Mrs. W.F. Williams, pianist, Kurt Foreman, violinist, Jack Headings who played the steel guitar, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Beggs and Johnny Lee, vocalists.

The organist played the prelude selections and wedding marches. Mr. and Mrs. Beggs were accompanied on the steel guitar for their duet number, "Amazing Grace". The pianist and violinist accompanied Johnny Lee who sang "One Day At a Time" before the ceremony and "In the Valley" during the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a Qiana and Chantilly lace gown designed with a slightly raised bodice featuring a shirred waist, lace-trimmed V neck and long sleeves, and an A-line skirt forming a chapel length train enriched with lace trim.

For her headpiece, the bride wore a halo of white baby's breath and carried a cascade of silk flowers consisting of blue and pink mums, yellow, green, orchid and peach carnations and baby's breath.

The bridal attendants wore identical long silesta chiffon gowns, except for color, styled with blouson bodices and long sleeves. They carried candles in votive cups encircled with silk flowers and baby's breath to match the color of their gowns. The two honor attendants' candles were distinguished with the use of mums instead of carnations used with the bridesmaids' candles.

Mrs. Eddie Robertson of Wichita Falls, the matron of honor, wore pink, and Miss Dorothy L. Schalabs, also of Wichita Falls, the maid of honor, wore blue. Bridesmaids dressed in yellow, peach, lime green and orchid gowns, respectively, were Miss Shanley Griffith, Miss Mary Gray, sister of the bride, Mrs. Danny Bohannon and Mrs. Richard Whitaker.

Participating in the wedding as miniature bride and groom were Michelle Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Robertson, and Brian Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes of Houston.

She wore a white silesta chiffon dress with a slightly raised bodice, round neckline and long sleeves. She wore a halo of white baby's breath and her bouquet was a smaller version of the bride's bouquet. He wore a black vested-tuxedo.

The groom chose Bill Cribbs of Iowa Park and Ivan Hambright of Wichita Falls for his best men. Groomsmen were Danny Bohannon, Tim Kingeade, Danny Gray, brother of the bride, and Gordon Bohannon, all of Iowa Park. Their formal suits were white tuxedo coats, black pants and vests and their boutonnieres matched the color of the gowns worn by the bridal attendants that they walked the aisle with.

The ushers dressed in black-vested tuxedos were Bobby Gray, brother of the bride, Kevin Davis and Rodney Davis, brothers of the groom, Coy Lee and Scott Sanders.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with white ruffled shirt and a white silk carnation boutonniere.

The Fellowship Hall of the church was the scene of the postnuptial reception given by the bride's parents. Assistants were Mrs. Charles Hughes and Miss Sherry Hughes of Houston, Mrs. Barbara Chadwick and Miss Melonie Chadwick, and Miss Gertrude Pruett, all of Wichita Falls.

The bride and groom greeted guests as they stood under an arch decorated like the one in the altar area of the church with the addition of white butterflies to the greenery and ceramic boy and girl figurines at the base.

The refreshment table was draped with a white satin cloth with a floor length ruffled skirt. The appointments included a five-branched silver candelabrum filled with white candles, a large wicker basket holding flowers in the colors that dominated altar decorations and costumes of the attendants, two small baskets holding the same flowers flanked by white doves, the silver punch bowl, cake and rice paper napkins imprinted with the names of the bride and groom and their wedding date.

The cake of three tiers was decorated with flowers in the pastel shades and detailed frosting designs. The top ornament was a bride and groom standing before a trellis covered with flowers and leaves, further stressing the garden theme.

Guests signed the bride's book as they entered the church at a table covered with white satin overlaid with white lace. The table held a votive candle in a crystal holder raised by a gold and crystal stand, with dangling prisms, the book and white plume pen.

The catered rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's father at the church.

Following a week spent in Houston, the newlyweds are at home in Iowa Park. She chose a baby blue three-piece suit to travel in. Both were graduated from Iowa Park High School. She is employed by the Board of Commerce and Industry in Wichita Falls and he works for the Wichita County Water District.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gray of Frederick, Okla., grandparents of the bride, were special guests at the wedding. Other special guests were relatives and friends of the bride and groom and these included Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilson of Borger, Mary Ann Williams of Little Rock, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes of Houston, Mrs. Jan Sykes and Miss Kaye Sykes of Muskogee, Okla.

Old homes subject of Philia

Members of the Philia Study Club were taken on an arm chair historical pilgrimage to Jefferson, Texas Monday evening through a program presented by Miss Linda Ayers, assisted by Mrs. Robert Jones and Mrs. David Mannas, all from the Home Economics Department of Iowa Park High School.

They were introduced by Mrs. Hoyt Lovelace, vice-president and program chairman for the year.

The program featured slides and movies of many of the renovated homes in the Victorian period of history. One of the interesting homes was the House of the Seasons that dates back to the days of the Republic. Miss Ayers stated that the outstanding feature that gives the house its name is the third floor that has four windows with different colored glass to depict the seasons.

Another outstanding structure shown was The Manse, the oldest in Jefferson and built in 1839. The house has been recognized by Congress as having architecture worthy of preservation as an historical landmark.

The famous Excelsior House, a hotel that has been in continuous operation since 1850 and provides guests with Old World Charm of a century ago, and the scene of the famed "Queen Mab" balls which was a part of Jefferson's own Mardi Gas, marked another high point of interest in the program.

The meeting took place in the home of Mrs. Johnny Bernstein and Mrs. Jimmy Howell was co-hostess for a salad supper preceding the program. Mrs. Tommy Watkins and Mrs. Valer Mae Jones were introduced as new members.

Mrs. Thomas Johnson, president, introduced her theme for the year, "Appreciation of Values" and her motto "Where love and skill work together, expect a masterpiece."

Mrs. Deryl James reported that the queen-size quilt with a butterfly motif which club members had worked on during the summer was finished and on display at the Iowa Park Library. The quilt, a contribution to the library project will be given away during the Whoop-T-Do. Ticket donations can be secured from club members or at the Whoop-T-Do.

Mrs. Jerry Padgett reported that two beautifully-illustrated nature books were presented to children who won awards in the Summer Reading program.

To close the evening, Mrs. Howell gave a meditation by Marjorie Holmes entitled "I Am So Tired" and members answered roll call with something of value that Texas has to offer.

The Living Word

The Word of God remains relevant in every generation. The centuries since the creation have been varied in social, political and economic ways. If the Biblical message was a dead letter, it would have perished with the fall of Rome. Human nature and man's basic needs have not changed. Man still has the same emotional, intellectual, and spiritual needs he has always had. There are new settings and new modes of dress, but the fundamental needs of life are just the same. The underlying causes for our present problems, war, race riots, dope addiction, murder, are the same as in centuries past - hate, envy, greed, lust.

There are those who would say that in our scientific 20th century the Word of God is no longer relevant. However, civilization is in a serious condition because of man's inability to solve the same basic problems that have plagued each generation. Space Age man has been able to circle the moon and to develop a variety of material comforts, but he has not been able to harness himself! From the beginning of His earthly ministry Christ spoke to the basic needs of man. In the Sermon on the Mount he reinterpreted the traditional religion of His day with the words, "But I say unto you." After looking in every possible direction and hearing the modern voices of indirection and confusion, and finding no adequate solution to man's dilemma, I appreciate the reaction of the multitude to Jesus' teaching. "They were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes." Matthew 7:28, 29.

To a world that desperately needs more brotherhood He teaches the parable of the Samaritan who willingly stopped and involved himself in the needs of a wounded man (Luke 10). The words of Christ as recorded in the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5, 6, 7) and the entire Biblical message meets the needs of today's man. The Word of God as revealed in the Bible is the "Living Word."

As I See It....

A news report this week told us the federal government is threatening to cut short its highway assistance money to Texas, because too many drivers are exceeding the 55 mile per hour speed limit.

That sounds like the problems we had when we were kids. You remember. If you didn't play by the rules the kid with the ball dictated, he'd take his ball and go home.

Only difference in this situation is, the money is our's in the first place, and secondly, a good bit of the crude oil from which the gasoline is made that we use in our vehicles is produced and refined right here in our own state.

The government tells us we will save fuel if we drive at their prescribed speed. I sometimes think the people who figured that out are the same ones who tell what mileage the new cars will get.

There's a simple solution to coping with the federal government's demands on speed controls and threats of withholding highway money.

We just don't send any money to the federal government, and not allow any Texas-produced gasoline to leave the state.

Such measures would, of course, upset our yankee neighbors to the north. The whole idea is to share what we have, and if we don't share, what would they have?

There's been a lot of fun poking in the past, about Texas dropping membership in the United States, and forming its own four-state nation. Danged if the idea doesn't sound appealing, whenever the Washington bureaucrats get on our case.

Threatening to withhold Texas' money is like having your personal money on deposit at a bank, and the banker saying he's not going to honor your checks or let you withdraw any of it, unless you cook your pinto beans by his recipe.

We are fast approaching the state where the government of the United States is a government of the people, by the people and for the people...as long as the people do what the government says.

Iowa Parkans get role in productions at MSU

The directors of the three fall shows are quite pleased with the quality of the readings at the tryouts conducted just recently. Fifty aspiring actors tried out for 23 parts. Four are from Iowa Park.

Tim Connors, Director of the first show, "The Mousetrap" by Agatha Christie, Oct. 11-14, cast the following people; Teresa Micucci and Paul DeDoes as Mollie and Giles Ralston, Scott Martin as Christopher Wren and Melissa Majors as Mrs. Boyle. Les Morrisett is cast as Major Metcalf, Laura Neely as Miss Casewell, David Iglesias as Mr. Paravicini, and Tim Brown as Detective Sargeant Trotter. Jacqueline DeCamp, director of Philip Ayckbourn's

"Absurd Person Singular," Nov. 14-18, MSU's entry in American College Theatre XII, cast Stacy Edwards and

Robert Craighead as Jane and Sydney Hoperoff and Evelyn Laramore and Ron Wilson as Marion and Ron Brewster-Wright. Lydia Bushfield and Gary Moer will portray Eva Jackson and Geoffrey Jackson.

Michael C. Gerlach, director of the Christmas Children's show, Dec. 13-15, cast Richie Dye and Tana Hunter as Jan and Madam Dekker and Cindy Flanagan as Anna Dekker. Brooks Tuttle, Frances Russell portray Cornelius and Madam Holst and their son, Hendrik, is played by Bruce Coleman. Penny Little plays Mistress Tilly, Jose Mancias is Dirk and Freddie Buckner will play the title role of the Pied Piper.

Hunting, Fishing Day program has champions

Olympic gold medalist Darrell O. Pace and champion fisherman Roger Moore are slated Saturday to give exhibitions during the Third Annual Morale, Welfare and Recreation Division Hunting and Fishing Day at Sheppard AFB.

In addition, Mike Theimer, of Iowa Park, 1979 national interservice ring target champion, is slated to display his shooting skills.

All activities are open to the general public. Events will be conducted from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m., according to Ken Hyde, assistant recreation director for MWR.

Also available for outdoor enthusiasts will be displays on taxidermy, knife making, rod tying, shell loading and much more, said Hyde.

Casting and fishing contests are planned for children in grades one through six, with prizes going to the top winners.

Numerous area groups and organizations are also slated to participate in the activities. They include Northwest Texas Field and Stream, Big Bass of the Month Club, Sheppard Bassmasters and the Red River Renegades.

The Renegades will give demonstrations in musket firing and use of tomahawks and Bowie knives. They will be dressed in the buckskin outfits.

Theimer holds eight national ring target championships and was a member of the 1973 U.S. team. He will provide demonstrations in mixed runs and olympic course.

Most of the activities will be conducted at the recreation center, Building 430. There will be movies, boat dealer displays, hunting safety courses and displays from area bass clubs.

JV, frosh top Decatur

The high school junior varsity and freshman teams had relatively easy times in games with Decatur last week, but Tuesday the junior high teams had their problems with Vernon.

The junior varsity Thursday edged out Decatur 13-8, while the freshmen shut out the hosts 13-0.

Prior to the seventh grade "A" team losing 8-0 and the eighth grade dropping a 22-8 decision, the seventh grade "B" team tied Vernon 8-8.

Bowie comes to Hawk Stadium this afternoon for games with the JV and freshmen. Tuesday, the seventh and eighth grade clubs travel to Graham for a doubleheader.

Cemetery needs funds

The Holliday Cemetery Association is soliciting donations from all lot owners for the upkeep and beautification of the cemetery.

The total expense of the desired upkeep will not be known until a later date, says board president, Jim Virdell. Virdell also added that a working fund must be established before the project can be started.

The new fence and other improvements to the grounds have almost depleted the current funds, said Virdell.

NHS officers named Tuesday

Officers of the National Honor Society of Iowa Park High School for 1979-80 were elected Tuesday morning at a meeting held in the library.

Deanne Patterson was elected president. Serving with her will be Jeff Shaw, vice president; Risa Roberts, secretary; Norman Gwinn, treasurer; and Karen Arrington, historian.

Ehlert outstanding

Associate Sales Manager D.E. Ehlert of the Wichita Falls District of Life and Casualty Insurance Company of Tennessee has been honored for his outstanding sales accomplishments and service to policy owners during the 1979 "President's Trophy Campaign."

Ehlert, an Iowa Park resident, has received an individual trophy cup in recognition of his sales and service.

first vice president. Mrs. Rich told directors that she had sold her business, The Bee Hive, but wanted to remain a member as an individual.

The annual all membership luncheon will be held Nov. 19 at the First Presbyterian Church. It is at this meeting that all members of the Chamber meet to elect a new slate of officers. The meeting will be a catered luncheon.

Directors heard a report on a proposed truck stop and national chain restaurant which is to be located at the intersection of Bell Road and the Expressway. A problem of fuel allocation is reportedly holding up the project, and the Chamber president and city mayor have been asked to meet with officials in Dallas to help with their influence in obtaining the allocation.

Noros Martin of Wichita Falls presented a talk on organization of a Better Business Bureau in that city.

The Chamber will be represented at a social event at Sheppard AFB, hosted by Maj. Gen. Robert Bazley

Sept. 24, by Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gilstrap.

Directors approved increasing insurance coverage of the office contents to $5,000, and agreed to purchase a full page advertisement in the Iowa Park High School annual.

Hawks outfly Eagles, 7-6

The Iowa Park Hawks just about had all the Eagles from Decatur they wanted Friday night, when they had to come from behind to eke out a 7-6 non-conference victory.

While the Hawks won the battle of statistics, and appeared to be ready to break the game open at any time, it cannot be denied that Decatur has an effective swarming defense, and an offense which is capable of putting a lot of points on the scoreboard any time they take the field.

Ron Taylor's extra point kick, coupled with a poor snap by Decatur's center, spelled the difference in the ball game.

Three different times, the Hawks were well on their way to scoring, when major penalties aided in stalling the drives. Other drives were either stopped by swarming Eagle defenders, or mistakes by the Hawks themselves.

All the game's scores came in the third quarter.

Decatur took the opening kickoff of the second half, and made shambles of the vaunted Mean Green defense by racing 72 yards in only seven plays to score. When the Eagle back took a pitch around his right end on a six-yard touchdown, Decatur had consumed less than two minutes of playing time.

The Eagle kick holder bobbled a bad snap from center, on the extra point attempt, and Troy Linticum covered it to quash the play.

On the following kickoff, things looked gloomy for the Hawks again, but only briefly. The kick was short, and Taylor, normally sure-handed, bobbled the ball. But Tim Blackwell pounced on the ball, giving Iowa Park possession on the Hawk 35.

With tailbacks Troy Thompson and James Spears and fullback Mike Ray alternating running with the ball, the Hawks needed 15 plays to reach Decatur's four yard line.

Ray, plunging over his left guard the final distance, was accompanied by a yellow flag as he crossed the goal line. But the penalty was against Decatur, and was declined.

Taylor could have had some apprehension as he kicked the extra point (his fourth without a miss this season). He had attempted a MEAN GREEN DEFENSE SWARMS OVER DECATUR EAGLE ...visiting back stopped after short gain at Hawk 45.

36-yard field goal in the first quarter, well within his range, but pulled it left with his soccer-style kick.

But the kick for extra point was true, and proved to be the margin of victory.

Taylor's attempt at the field goal was at the end of the first drive by Iowa Park in the opening period, when the Hawks had driven to Decatur's 19 yard line. A 13-yard sack of quarterback Curtis Martin forced the Hawks to punt on their next possession.

The third possession was stalled by a 15-yard penalty, after driving all the way to Decatur's 17 yard line. The same thing happened early in the second quarter, when Iowa Park reached the Eagle 16, drew a major penalty, and then lost a fumble.

Iowa Park was knocking at the Decatur door when the first half ended, but time ran out.

On their first drive in the final quarter, the Hawks had picked up a first down, but were set back by another 15-yard flag, and lost possession trying to pass to make up the yardage, but the ball was intercepted.

So confident of his defense, Coach Tommy Watkins opted to kick off at the start of the game and again after halftime, to have the east wind at his back. It worked well, too, because Decatur's punter had only one kick over 28 yards the entire evening, giving the Hawks good field location each time.

Ray led Hawk ball carriers in yardage for the evening, thanks to a 45-yard breakaway late in the second quarter, with 109 yards. On one of his 16 carries, he broke over the line of scrimmage on his own 16, found the path clear, and ran a foot race to the Eagle 39 before being hauled down from behind.

Thompson carried 21 times for 76 yards, Spears seven for 19, and Robert Hastings four for 16.

Martin attempted six passes and completed two.

Electra hands Eagles second loss

When opportunity knocks at one's door, one should take any measure available, while eliminating possible mistakes to take the fullest advantage of that certain opportunity. For the second straight week in a row the Holliday Eagles heard that knock several times, but were denied each time as the Eagles lost to Electra Friday night, 13-0.

The game began with the Tigers handling the kickoff at their 19. Fullback Sammy Weaver ran three consecutive times off right tackle for 37 yards. But the Eagle defense finally marked their man and held their ground, forcing the Tigers to punt.

The punt sailed high in the air, landing at about the 10, and rolled to the three, where the Tigers downed it. The Eagles, using senior Kent Lemons at the fullback position (Lemons is usually the starting tight end), rammed the ball through the heart of the Tiger defense for a first down at the 15. Before the Eagles could take advantage of the extra breathing room, James Porter fumbled the ball on the next play, giving Electra excellent field position at the Eagle 19.

It took Electra six plays to hit paydirt, with quarterback Shaw Matthews running a perfect option around the left side for seven yards and a touchdown, with 4:47 left in the first quarter.

The next drive by the Eagles also came up short after the offense drove to the 42. From there, junior fullback Carl Martin ran for 10 yards, tailback Ray Looney lost a yard on a sweep around the left end, and again an Eagle fumble stalled the drive at the 34. Electra then began a drive that was highlighted by Matthews' 28-yard run to the Eagle 22. Two more running plays put the ball at the 12-yard line. With first and 10 at the 12, it looked as if the Tigers would run away with the game, but a fumble covered by sophomore rover Joel Mankins at the 14 kept the Eagles within striking distance.

The Eagles, unable to move the ball, punted to the 49, where the Tigers set up shop.

On the next series, Electra caught the Eagle defense off guard as Matthews passed on a fourth-and-four situation to wingback Todd Bell over the head of safety Shane Owens for a 22-yard touchdown. The PAT was wide to the left, and the scoreboard read Electra-13, Holliday-0.

Perhaps Holliday's most serious threat began at the Eagle 12 after the next kickoff, with Porter returning the ball 22 yards to his own 34. Runs by Porter and Lemons, plus a 24-yard pass completion from quarterback Gregg Graves to Mankins, put the ball on the Tiger 37. Two running plays for six yards and a pass incompleteness made it fourth-and-four at the 31. The Eagles, down 13-0 with less than three minutes left in the first half, decided to go for first down.

Graves faded back in the pocket as if to pass, but instead handed off to Porter on a draw that netted 14 yards and a first down at the Electra 17.

Looney and Lemons ran the ball to the four in two plays, giving the Eagles another first down in the process.

Before the Eagles could take advantage of their momentum, things began to go awry again. Lemons recovered his own fumble on the next play for a yard gain, Looney was trapped in the backfield minus four, and a pass attempt to Shane Owens failed, making an almost sure score into a life-or-death situation by the Eagles, who now faced fourth and goal at the seven.

Kyle Stone took a pitch-out from Graves, rolled to his right, and lofted a pass in the direction of Jeff Smyers, who had a few steps on his defenders in the endzone. However, the ball fell helplessly to the turf in front of Smyers, and the Tigers proceeded to run out the clock to end the second quarter.

SECOND HALF

The second half began with the Eagles receiving the kickoff at the 14 with Porter returning the ball to the 33. Holliday started a long drive, eating up seven minutes of the clock with runs by Porter, Looney, and Lemons, along with the aid of a pass interference on Electra at the Tiger 25.

Three plays later, faced with fourth and one at the 16, a dive by Porter came up short and the ball again became the Tigers' possession.

A 22-yard option run by Matthews was nullified by a holding penalty, taking the ball back to the Tiger 33. On the next play, a host of Eagle defenders greeted the Electra quarterback as he attempted to throw, causing Matthews to fumble the ball away to Holliday at the 22.

Three plays later, facing fourth and five, Graves was again picked off, this time by Bell, who was most instrumental in causing the Eagles a lot of heartache with his defensive play and the earlier touchdown reception.

Another run by Matthews in the next stanza for 33 yards was again called back by the aid of the flag, this time a clipping penalty.

Faced with fourth and 13 from their 17, the Tiger punter unleashed a 60-yard punt to the Eagle 27. Owens apparently failed to field the ball cleanly, and was stripped of the ball at the 26.

After a run for minus yardage, the Tigers, determined to add another insurance score, proceeded to throw the ball four consecutive times, completing three of them for 17 yards. An offside penalty on Electra put the ball at the Eagle 15.

On the next play, sophomore Joe Chase provided the Eagles with one of their few moments of glory as he intercepted a Tiger aerial at the five, perhaps saving a touchdown in the process.

The Eagles racked up 11 first downs in the game, rushing for 82 yards, and completing five out of ten passes for 48 more, with two interceptions.

Electra rushed 37 times for 159 yards, and completing six of eight passes for 62 yards, with one interception.

The most noticeable statistic that spelled doom for the Eagles were the turnovers, and when they were committed.

The Eagles lost the ball on fumbles four times, two of the fumbles costing them a chance to score, and the other two indirectly aiding both Electra scores.

The Tigers coughed up the ball three times, twice on fumbles and once on an interception.

The Eagles were intercepted twice.

Offensive standouts for the Eagles were Porter, who rushed 13 times for 57 yards, and Lindy Dolberry, who completed two of the five receptions for 26 yards.

Defensive standouts were Smyers, Lemons, Mankins, Kyle Stone, and Tommy SADBERRY.

PASS INTERFERENCE - Eagle receiver Jeff Smyers is struck by a Tiger defender in the back before the ball reaches him. The play resulted in a first down at the Electra 26 late in the second quarter. The drive ended on the Tiger 16.

COACH LUCY:

'The boys are ready to win'

The Holliday Eagles, 0-2 in non-conference play thus far this season, will take on Henrietta's Bearcats tomorrow night in Henrietta, beginning at 8 p.m.

Henrietta, District 2-AA foe to both Electra and Seymour (Homecoming game, Sept. 28), is predicted to place near the cellar this year, has a team loaded with sophomores, a new coach, and a gambling-style game plan.

Despite what some might term as setbacks for the Bearcats, they are 1-1 in non-conference play, winning their opener against Nocona, 18-0, and losing 7-6 to Archer City on an unusual two-point conversion try that was thwarted in the last seconds of the game.

Henrietta, trailing Knox City from the first quarter, 7-0, put together a 70-yard drive late in the fourth quarter, scoring on a 10-yard touchdown pass from junior quarterback Jimmy McMillon to end Kendall Patterson.

The Bearcats lined up for the extra point with the center, holder and point with center, holder and kicker alone in the middle of the field and the rest of the team on the far right.

Patterson, the center, hiked the ball laterally to Lloyd Duncan. Duncan tried a throwback pass to Patterson, who went up with two Wildcat defenders but came down empty handed.

The Henrietta offense, coached for the first year by Mark Quinlan, runs a stacked I formation, similar to the Wishbone in the running plays, with an extra back set directly between the quarterback and fullback. This formation is rarely used, being that it takes away from the passing game. The Eagles, according to Coach Don Lucy, have played some good football, but cutting down on mistakes is his main concern.

"Last week's game with Electra was a lot better performance by the team, especially in the offensive line (ie. Dillard, Vinson, Collier, Flarety, and Reece), than the Olney game," says Lucy. "In fact," he added, "they played real well against Olney, it was just the mistakes that cost them the game."

Asked about the Eagle preparations for the Bearcat game tomorrow night, Lucy said, "We worked quite a bit with the specialty teams, and overall with the offense and defense. We had some good practices. These boys are ready to win."

The first graders chosen for crown bearers and flower girls are Greg Lofland, Colin O'Brien, Angie Stewart and Staci Finley.

City works on finances

The Holliday City Council paved the way Monday night for the completion of formalities concerning the issuance of revenue bonds to build the sewer system and water works in Holliday, received a state flag from Representative Charles Fennell, and hired an assistant city superintendent.

The council passed a resolution giving notice of intent to issue revenue bonds concerning the water works and the sewer system bonds. A motion was also passed by the members for the EPA to extend an additional $15,000 to the $170,000 appropriations at not more than five percent interest to provide a cushion for any future overrun on the current bid. The current bids were $9,000 over the appropriations.

At the start of the meeting, the city was presented the state flag of Texas, along with a plaque commemorating the event, by Representative Charles Fennell. He presented them to Mayor Tom Hall. The flag, according to Fennell, was flown over the state capitol on August 21, 1979. It was made by inmates of the Huntsville State Penitentiary.

Council members, after meeting in an executive session, announced the hiring of Hershel McDaniel as assistant city superintendent.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business,

ATE officers are elected

The Holliday chapter of Association of Texas Educators (ATE) elected officers.

Elected were: De Elva Cottrell, president; Patsy Shawrer, vice president; Connie York, secretary; Tommy Lofland, treasurer; and Rexine Hardin, parliamentarian.

council members appointed a council member to sit on the county tax appraisal board, passed a cost of living raise to city employees, and set the tax rate for 1979.

John Goforth was appointed by fellow council members to sit on the county-wide tax appraisal board. The board was just recently formed, with all nine jurisdictions approving the formation of such board with the exception of the Archer City school system.

The council also passed a motion granting all city employees a 25-cent an hour salary increase to compensate for the cost of living increase.

The 1979 tax rate was discussed and passed by council members, with a resolution passed that will tax personal automobiles. The tax rate will remain the same as last year, with $1.50 per $100 on a 50 percent evaluation.

In the general business discussion, council members agreed to have windows on two city trucks replaced, agreed to inquire about moving the city limit sign at the intersection of FM1954 and 368, appointed Leon Addison to study where intersections within the city limits should be controlled by signs, and passed a motion to have the city hall building brought up to national code, concerning wiring, and to add additional outlets to compensate for the welding machine.

Red Cross Blood Bank is Epsilon Eta program

Patty Tucka, a region donor recruiter for the Red Cross Blood Bank, presented the program for the Tuesday evening meeting of Epsilon Eta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha. The program was timely since the sorority has accepted the blood-mobile visits to Iowa Park for a service project for the year.

Introduced by Mrs. Larry Hall, service chairman, the recruiter explained how blood is processed and tested after it is given and showed a film to emphasize the urgency for all who can to give blood to save the lives of others.

The meeting was held in Texas Electric Reddy Room. Mrs. Bud Mercer directed the business following the program. She made additional committee appointments which included Mmes. Roy Johnson, scrapbook; Carlton Hicks, educational; Jennie Jones, service; and Jim Dyer, ways and means. Mrs. Phil McDonald and Mrs. Dalton Bleeker were named to serve with Mrs. Jim Spears on the home-coming float.

The chapter's involvement in the Whoop-T-Do activities consumed most of the business session. Mrs. Barry Mahler and Mrs. Paul Tigrett, who are in charge of the Queen Contest stated that the queens would be crowned at 1:45 p.m. September 29 and that all contestants would need to be at the Chamber of Commerce office by 1:15.

The face painting booth at the Whoop-T-Do will be directed by Mmes. Bill Hrcirik, Phil McDonald and Marty Maxwell. Children's faces will be painted to their fancy whether it be a clown, wonder woman, geisha girl or others.

Mrs. Mercer announced the District VI Seminar Oct. 13-14 with Burkburnett chapter the hostess.

Mrs. Charles Dudley and Mrs. Allen Gilstrap, rush chairmen, discussed plans for the activities to honor new members.

Firsts were earned in the six-woman hook-up and women's water polo by Pat Raby, Bobbie Jones, Esmeralda Koeing, Candy McKee, Francis Skinner and Terissa Hatch.

Library News

A handmade quilt donated by the Philia Study Club, to be given away during the annual Arts and Crafts Show, to benefit the Iowa Park Library is on display at the library. The show will be held in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce Whoop-T-Do. For more information, contact the library or any member of the Philia Study Club.

Mrs. Billy Mashburn, librarian, announced new hours for the library during the winter months. It will be open Monday through Friday from 8:30 to 1 and from 2 to 5:30, and will not be open on Saturday.

Some of the new books at the library are "Nurse" by Peggy Anderson; "Dragon-drums" by Anne McCaffrey; "The Distant Music of Summer" by James Maher; "Call the Darkness Light" by Nancy Zaroulis; "Enemies" by Richard Harris; "A Marriage of Convenience" by Tim Jeal; "The Spring of the Tiger" by Victoria Holt.

Other new books are "Stealing Home" by Philip O'Connor; "Tomorrow Is Mine" by Rebecca James; "Promises to Keep" by Thomas Fleming; "Fight Back - a Woman's Guide to Self-Defense" by Emil Parkas; "Sophie's Choice" by William Styron; "My Life with Elvis" by Becky Yancey; and "Class Reunion" by Rona Jaffee.

A new set of Encyclopedia Britannica has also been added to the reference section.

175 attend FFA meeting

Approximately 175 members and parents attended the first meeting of the Iowa Park FFA Chapter held recently which was highlighted by a business meeting, tour of the agriculture classroom and workshop, and an ice cream supper.

Wendy Hicks presided during the business which was devoted primarily to discussion of money-raising projects. Included in these were the scrap iron drive, concession stand at football games and Whoop-T-Do booth. Chapter members welcome all scrap iron donations and will pick them up if notified at 592-9052.

It was announced that the current officers of FFA will attend the National Convention at Kansas City, Mo. Nov. 6-9, which will mark the first time for the group to attend a national convention.

Cosmo students hold election

Cosmetology students of Iowa Park High School elected officers for the year at a meeting Tuesday morning.

Students elected included Judy Fuller, president, Denise Lemons, vice president, Sharon Miller, secretary-treasurer, Mary Crittenden, reporter, Misty Canada, parliamentarian, and Troy Linthicum, sergeant at arms.

Members discussed plans for next week's homecoming parade.

Officers installed

Mrs. Howell Farnsworth installed officers of the Hope Sunday school class of First Baptist Church at the annual salad supper held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

She used "The Church" for an installation theme and 1 Chron. 29:3 for a scriptural background, endeavoring to show how Christians should set their affection on the church of God. Mrs. Joe Singer sang "I Love Thy Church" for a special musical number.

Officers installed were Mmes. J.C. Helms, president; Hoyett Baker, vice president; Gene Young, secretary; C.O. Dodd, corresponding secretary; Jimmy Voyles, social chairman;

A.J. Wood Jr., telephone chairman; S.A. Verble, Leroy Stankewitz, Clifford Roberts and Wood, group captains.

The interest center featured a hand-painted picture of the First Baptist Church building erected in the early 1900s, loaned by Mrs. O.E. Lochridge. Mrs. Farnsworth gave each officer and others present a green felt "vine and branches" book marker to conclude the service.

Special guests were members of the Friendship Sunday school whose teacher is Mrs. C.A. Hicks. The tables were decorated with bouquets of red and white poppies, carnations, roses and tulips accented with mushrooms.

Cook of the Week

Mrs. Carroll Clark

WMU meets

Fifteen members of the Night WMU of First Baptist Church and a guest, Mrs. Hoyett Baker, attended the meeting held Monday night in the home of Mrs. J.A. Berg.

Mrs. Bill Curry, prayer chairman, directed the annual State Missions Week of Prayer program which emphasized some of the ministries in the state that are supported or benefited by the offering taken during the week.

Assisting with the program were Mmes. Roy B. Smith, C.L. McKinnon, E.T. Patterson, W.F. Booher, Homer Blalock and Miss Helen Reed. Mrs. V.I. Woodfin gave the testimony of a nurse who worked during the summer months in the River Ministry to conclude the program.

Mrs. Woodfin was in charge of business.

"Strong beliefs win strong men, and then make them stronger." Walter Bagehot

With a touch of autumn already in the air at night and early morning, many cooks are getting out their recipes for chili, soup, pies, candy, casseroles, etc. because they have more incentive to light their ovens and heat their kitchens when the weather is a little cooler.

Mrs. Carroll (Nita) Clark's recipes sound especially good for this time of year. Her Asparagus Casserole is a new dish to the Cook of the Week section, if memory is not playing tricks, and it will surely be a delight to asparagus lovers.

Asparagus belongs to the lily family and can be found growing wild on the shorelines and river banks in many parts of Europe and on the steppes of Russia. Both the Greeks and Romans enjoyed the succulent vegetable and transplanted the young wild plants to cultivated plots.

The early American colonists enjoyed asparagus boiled and flavored with "butter, pepper, oyl and vinegar, or as everyone's manner doth please."

Mr. and Mrs. Clark and family moved to Iowa Park five years ago from Lindsay, Okla. He is an electrician for Texas Pipeline Co. A graduate of Muskogee, Okla. High School, she worked as a dental assistant in Lindsay before moving here. They are active members of Faith Baptist Church where she is church hostess and director of the five-year-old department. Her hobbies include crewel embroidery, sewing and cooking.

The Clarks have two daughters, Mrs. Clifton Cummings of Lindsay, Okla., Paula, a freshman at Iowa Park High School, and a son,

1 can mushroom soup
Ritz crackers, crumbled
Cheddar cheese, grated
Layer the ingredients in two layers. Bake 40 minutes at 350 degrees.

PEANUT BUTTER CANDY
1 cup graham crackers, crushed
2 sticks oleo, melted
1 cup crunchy peanut butter
1 box powdered sugar
Put crackers, peanut butter, powdered sugar in bowl. Pour melted oleo over and mix. Spread on cookie sheet. Place Hershey bars on top, melt in oven 5 to 10 minutes. Take out and spread chocolate. Cut in bars and refrigerate.

CHILI
2 1/2 lbs. chili meat
5 or 6 pieces garlic
1 large onion, chopped
Cook above ingredients 1 hour in quart of water, add: 1 quart tomato juice
1 t celery seed
2 t camino
1 1/2 t oregano
1 oz. chili powder to each lb. of meat.
Cook slowly for another 30 to 40 minutes. Add 2 or 3 cans pinto beans, drained.

FIVE-IN-ONE DISH
Quarter desired amount of potatoes, carrots, onions and cabbage.
Roll 1 1/2 - 2 lbs. ground beef in meat balls. Add enough water to cover potatoes and carrots. Bring to boil and simmer 1 to 1 1/2 hours or until vegetables are tender. Serve with corn bread.

PRALINE PUMPKIN PIE
3 T butter
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup pecans, chopped

PUBLIC NOTICE
 BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
 SPECIAL ELECTION
NOVEMBER 6, 1979

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 108)
 House Joint Resolution 108 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution relating to the appointment and terms of notaries public. The proposed amendment would: —Require the Secretary of State to appoint a convenient number of Notaries Public for the state; and —Authorize terms of office of Notaries Public of not less than two years nor more than four years. A temporary provision of the proposed constitutional amendment provides that the amendment would take effect January 1, 1980; that each person who was appointed a notary public before January 1, 1980, would continue to serve as a notary public for the term for which the person was appointed; and that this temporary provision would expire January 1, 1982. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide for the appointment of notaries public for the state and for a term of not less than two years nor more than four years as provided by law."

the process of rulemaking by agencies in the executive department."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 13)
 Senate Joint Resolution 13 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution authorizing the Legislature to provide for the guarantee of loans used to purchase farm and ranch real estate for qualified borrowers. The proposed amendment would allow the Legislature to provide for, issue, and sell general obligation bonds called "Farm and Ranch Loan Security Bonds" of the State of Texas not to exceed 10 million dollars. All money received from the sale of such bonds would be deposited in a separate fund with the State Treasurer and administered by the commissioner of agriculture without further appropriations. These funds would be used to guarantee loans for the purchase of farm and ranch real estate. The commissioner of agriculture would use these funds, under provisions to be prescribed by the Legislature for the purpose of guaranteeing loans used for the purchase of farm and ranch real estate, to acquire real estate mortgages or deeds of trust on lands purchased with guaranteed loans. These funds would also be used to advance to the borrower a percentage of the principal and interest due. The Legislature may also authorize the commissioner of agriculture to sell at foreclosure any land acquired in the manner authorized by this amendment. The commissioner of agriculture would be required to charge at least 6 percent interest on such loans. The proposed amendment appropriates an amount that is sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the bonds that mature or become due during the fiscal year less the amount in the interest and sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for the guarantee of loans for purchase of farm and ranch real estate for qualified borrowers by the sale of general obligation bonds of the State of Texas."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 133)
 House Joint Resolution 133 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to provide for legislative review of the process of rulemaking by agencies in the executive department. The proposed amendment would allow the Legislature to enact laws: —To provide for legislative review of the process of rulemaking by agencies in the executive department; —To prescribe conditions for rules to take effect; —To provide for suspension, repeal, or expiration of rules; —To prescribe procedures; and —To delegate powers to either or both houses or to committees of either or both houses. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide for legislative review of
