Happy New Year

Christmas tree bonfire a New Year's Eve signal

Members of the Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department always hate to see a fire. But there will be one exception New Years Eve.

The firemen will hold a Christmas tree bonfire at 5 p.m. on the south side of Gordon Lake dam, between the dam and the baseball field.

By sponsoring the bonfire, firemen are satisfying a solution to a number of problems: giving residents a place to do away with the trees which will not create problems for the sanitation department or for county road maintenance crews; get the trees out of the house as they have become a severe fire hazard after turning tenderbox dry; not allowing children to gather them to make a shelter where they again become a fire hazard; and also the bonfire will provide something of a "fireworks" display to signal the beginning of a new year. Firemen and equipment will be on the scene to light the bonfire, and also to extinguish any fires which might start in dry grass and weeds in the area. The bonfire will be postponed, should winds be too strong and pose a threat of a major fire firemen might not be able to control. In case of postponement, firemen will determine when at a later date they will ignite the trees.

Many to close New Year's

Most businesses will be closed New Year's Day, except for food stores and a few service stations. The city hall will be closed Thursday, but will re-open for regular business Friday. Students of all Iowa Park schools are to report at 8:30 a.m. Monday, ending their two-week holiday.

Three burglaries are reported here

Three cases of burglary were reported during the past week to the Iowa Park Police Department. Officers patrolling early Friday morning found a front window of the Jiffy store knocked out. Investigation determined a cash box containing an undetermined amount of money the only thing missing. Also that same evening a cassette player and tapes were reportedly removed from a pickup at 300 E. Magnolia, owned by Jimmy Dale Smith. Loss was set at $300. Marilyn Lowe of 118 West View, told police that sometime during December two diamond rings and a 35 mm camera were taken from her home. The items were valued at $1,879.

ERA CHANGE - When the newly-elected county officers are installed at 10 a.m. New Year's Day in the 30th District courtroom at Wichita County courthouse, an era will change. E.E. "Buck" Voyles, right, will be stepping down from office as county commissioner, which he has held 32 years, and Gordon Griffith will take over the precinct three post. The two are shown as ballots were counted after general election polls had closed in November.

The Highland Cemetery Association will meet Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the First Christian Church. During the business, officers for 1981 will be elected.

Murder, landmark top '80 stories

How often have you heard someone say, "Nothing ever happens around here."

A review of the headlines which appeared during 1980 in the pages of the Iowa Park Leader refutes that statement. Iowa Park was indeed a very, very busy community during the past year.

Pressed on a question of what were the leading news stories of the year, two events would be the most significant, when judged for newsworthiness: a murder and a landmark.

The murder was that of James Leon Harrington Jr. in June, and remains unsolved.

The landmark was the donation of the old Park Hotel to the city by Mrs. W.F. George, for the use and benefit of the city library.

A review of the year's highlights is as follows:

JANUARY

Cryovac, Iowa Park's leading industry, got the new year started off on an economic highlight with the announcement of a $10.3-million expansion program which would increase the facility by 100,000 square feet. School trustees indicated they would close the campus at Valley View after a study made of the closing indicated the district would save $122,667 by keeping all fifth and sixth grade classes in town. Stanley Williamson was sworn into office on the newly-created Wichita County Tax Appraisal Board. The old M-7 self-propelled howitzer landmark which had been on display since the early 1950s in the park between the post office and city hall was given back to the Army, earmarked as a gift to England. Two members of the Iowa Park Masonic Lodge, Paul Coppock and Earle Denny, received 50-year certificates. Mike Smith received the Best Hustler Award, Tommy Ross the Ball Hawker award and Ron Taylor the Outstanding Hawk Award at the annual football banquet.

FEBRUARY

Kidwell, Outstanding Educator; Mrs. Bertha McDonald, Outstanding Senior Citizen; Gordon Griffith, Outstanding Citizen of the Year; and Ray Hicks, Outstanding Agriculturist. Also at the banquet, the first woman to ever serve as Chamber president, Mrs. Gus Rich, was installed into office. Robin Doan was named Miss Wichita County. TG&Y announced it would build a family center at the old Texas-Oklahoma Fair Grounds. Faris Nowell, who had served in the school system since 1961 and as superintendent since 1965, resigned his post and Harold Cowley was named acting superintendent. City aldermen approved bids to expand the police department. Two members of the girls' basketball team, JoAnn McClurg and Linda Rowell, were named to the all-district team.

MARCH

The city council approved a bid of $142,741 for street paving and sealcoating. Local exhibitors dominated the annual Wichita County Junior Livestock Show. Jim Voyles resigned as chief of the police department. Ronnie Reusch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earnie Reusch, received an appointment to West Point Military Academy.

APRIL

Iowa Park High School placed first in the District 4-AAA University Interscholastic League literary contest. Newcomer Jimmy Howell was elected to the school board and Rusty Rusk was re-elected. In the city election, Johnny Crawford was re-elected Mayor, Lita Watson was also re-elected, and Bud Thompson was successful in his bid for an alderman post. Roy Boutwell was named president of the school board. The city council responded to complaints of Cash Street merchants and had angle parking changed. Ronny Sawyer and Stanley Watson were named Star Chapter Farmer and Star Greenhand, respectively, at the annual Future Farmers of America banquet. The high school's one-act play qualified to compete at the state meet. Jeff Shaw placed first in persuasive speaking and Connie Heard second in typing at region to qualify for the state UIL meet.

MAY

Gordon Griffith and Virginia Klinkerman were forced into a Democratic party primary runoff in their bid for county commissioner, with Griffith eventually winning. David Collins, former Hawk football standout, signed a contract to tryout for the Houston Oilers football team. Shaw and Heard finished at the state UIL contest exactly the way they did at the regional literary contest, first and second, respectively. Lawrence Anthony Bartow and Ronnie Reusch were announced valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, of the 1980 IPHS graduating class. The city council, after several meetings considering a mobile home ordinance which would restrict their locations, decided to shelve the issue indefinitely. Mike Ray, a junior, placed fifth in the shot put at the state track meet. Tracy Johnson and Tim Adcock were named Best All-Around Girl and Boy by the high school faculty. Susan Streich was named valedictorian and Loretta Bartow salutatorian of the junior high. Outstanding spring sports athletes were: JoAnn McClurg, basketball; Forest Murfield, golf; Roger Combs, baseball; Linda Rowell, basketball; Ken Thomason, basketball; Ronnie Reusch, basketball; Stephanie Frazier, volleyball; Wayne Watson, tennis; Troy Thompson, track; Kit Brown, track; Paige Watkins, tennis; and Lou Ann Corless, tennis. Tommy Ross was named to the Texas team in the Oil Bowl. The tradition of speeches by the valedictorian and salutatorian at graduation exercises was changed, and high school principal Bob Dawson's speech drew a standing ovation. Guinette Johnson Pavlovic was awarded the Doctor of Medicine degree from Texas Tech Univ.

JUNE

Charles Whittingstall was named chief of police and Robert Dean sergeant. Harry Moore, who began donating blood to the Red Cross in 1954, completed his ninth gallon. Lynn Davis was elected president of the Jaycees. Football Hall of Famer Sammy Baugh was a guest lecturer at a football camp held here. An Iowa Parkan, James Leon Harrington, was found shot to death, but no arrest was made in the ongoing investigation by city police. Roger Combs was named to the all-district football team.

JULY

Iowa Park, as was all of this part of the country, was locked in the grip of an extended heat wave which saw temperatures ranging between 110 and 116 degrees daily. Citizens were asked to conserve on water consumption while the water transmission line between here and Wichita Falls had a major break repaired. The preliminary census which said Iowa Park had grown from 5,796 to 6,124 during the past decade was challenged by city administrator Steve Morath. Ray Moulton received an unusual birthday present when his son and three other skydivers bailed out over the city singing happy birthday to him. A series of grassfires kept local and area volunteer fire departments extremely busy. Billy Maupin received an appointment to West Point Academy. The heat wave was a bother to more than persons and the water supply, it also gave the cable television system fits. Cecil Gilmore's vacation was spoiled when moments before he was to leave he was involved in a motorcycle accident. The annual Wichita County Young Farmers promoted another successful tractor pull.

AUGUST

A high-speed chase which began in Wichita Falls ended on a local residential street with the arrest of a young Iowa Parkan, with more than a dozen law officer units converging on the scene. A dance and carnival sponsored by employees of Quikie Food Store netted several hundred dollars for the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Local voters joined the majority of other county citizens at the polls in rejecting creation of a proposed county hospital district. The school board lowered its tax rate from $1.58 to $1.35 per $100 evaluation and approved a budget of $3,788,548. Crews installed street lights at major railroad crossings in an effort to help drivers see trains at night. A burglar successfully broke into the safe at the high school and stole an undetermined amount of cash. First-day enrollment in Iowa Park schools was 1,808, lowest since 1967. The largest number of local Boy Scouts to receive at one time the Eagle Scout rank included John, Allen and Mark Henderson and Wayne Watson.

SEPTEMBER

O.N. Newman was named local United Way Campaign drive chairman. Local and federal law officers investigated a tire-slashing incident at the post office where 18 tires were ruined. Vandals shot out windows of 18 vehicles, and also those of a school bus carrying Breckenridge football players. H.M. Nipper and O.N. Newman were re-elected to the Industrial Development Corporation's board of directors. Lt. J.G. Wayne Hallford was uninjured when he was forced to eject into the Arabian Sea from the Navy F-14 jet fighter he was piloting. Mr. and Mrs. Steve English were named recipients of the Yard of the Year award, sponsored by the Iowa Park Garden Club. The friendly Door acquired a new van with which to transport members. The city council approved a budget of $1,372,854. The Young Farmers hosted the area meeting of other chapters. Slightly over eight inches of rain was measured during the last week of the month.

OCTOBER

A new shopping center, to be established in the southeast corner of Pacific and Expressway, was granted a zoning change to permit construction at that location. An Iowa Park woman, Mrs. Norman Russell, was reunited with her two brothers after 42 years separation. Tammie Robertson was named homecoming queen. The annual Whoop-T-Do was a roaring success, according to Chamber officials. Two men, one wanted in four states, were arrested on charges of drug possession. Shaw Motor Co. celebrated its 25th anniversary. Two workers were seriously injured in a fall from a 26-foot scaffolding in the high school gymnasium.

NOVEMBER

Gordon Griffith was successful in his bid for election as county commissioner of precinct three. Local voters joined most of the rest of the nation in supporting Ronald Reagan for president. The Hawk band earned a Div. I rating in the annual UIL marching contest. All full-time school personnel were given an early Christmas present, a $200 cash bonus, by the board of trustees. Twenty one seniors played their last football game for Iowa Park High, which was an 18-0 victory over Burk Burnett, giving the Hawks a season record of 5-4-1. Dr. Tommy Clark was recognized at the Texas Christian Univ. homecoming as the school's oldest graduate. The Presbyterian Church celebrated its 90th anniversary. Tommy Key was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce, Phil Welch first vice president and Linda Merrick second vice president. Jeff Watts received the National Farmer Degree, highest recognition for an FFA member.

DECEMBER

Four Hawks, Jim Smith, Robert Hastings, Curtis Martin and Roger Hamilton, were named first-team all-district. City aldermen first rejected a proposal to apply for a federal block grant, and then at the next meeting changed their vote; the money to be used to build a sub station for the fire department if it is approved by HUD. Renee Alexander was named North Texas-Southern Oklahoma Miss Pecan Queen at Nocona, the third consecutive Iowa Park candidate for that honor. Jimmy Howell and Mrs. R.E. Goodner were big winners in the Wichita County Pecan Show. School trustees began legal efforts to have the new high school gymnasium completed after the contractor became a year late on the project. Lone Star Gas filed for another rate increase. The old Park Hotel was donated to the city by Mrs. W.F. George, for the use and benefit of the city library; to be demolished by Gilmore Inc. because of its condition. Keith Lavender, head coach at Cameron Univ. was guest speaker at the annual football banquet where Roger Hamilton received the Best Hustler award, Curtis Martin and the Ball Hawker award and Robert Hastings the Outstanding Hawk award.

Spruiell, Clapp nuptial vows exchanged

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. James Luther Clapp will establish residence in Iowa Park. They exchanged double-ring nuptial vows Saturday evening in Faith Baptist Church with Rev. Norman Nettleton, minister of First Presbyterian Church, officiating.

The bride is the former Miss Janet Lynn Spruiell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Spruiell, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clapp Jr.

The couple repeated their vows at a candle-illuminated altar centered with a fifteen-branched votive candelabra flanked by seven-branched votive candelabra, each holder graced with emerald, leather and lemon greenery. Twin arrangements of white snapdragons and burgundy-tipped white carnations topped brass stands in front of the candlesticks holding seven softly glowing candles.

The solemnity of the altar setting was noted in the face-to-face kneeling bench in the foreground, and the refined taste of decorations was enhanced by the use of white silk pew bows gently touched with greenery and baby's breath.

A musical background for the wedding was provided by Tim Adcock, organist, and Miss Michelle Mueller, soloist. The organist presented the prelude selections which included "O Perfect Love," "Savior, Like A Shepherd Lead Us," "Our Wedding Prayer," "If Thou Be Near," "Moonlight Sonata," "You Light Up My Life," "Whither Thou Goest," and "Liebestraum." He accompanied Miss Mueller for her vocal offerings, "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The organist sounded the strains of the processional from Lohengrin by Wagner for the entrance of the bridal party, then swelled the notes for the bride to walk to the altar with her father. Following the ceremony, he played "Trumpet Voluntary" to accompany their exit from the sanctuary.

The bride's father presented her in marriage for both of her parents. For the special day in her life, she chose an exquisite formal bridal gown of white Qiana and Chantilly lace fashioned with a bodice sprinkled with seed pearls, a high wedding ring lace neckline above a sheer scalloped yoke, long sleeves that terminated in petal points over the wrists. The full skirt swirled into a graceful chapel train. Her lace-bordered illusion veil floated in tiers from a Juliet lace cap encrusted with seed pearls.

The bride's cascade-style bouquet featured fresh white roses and starburst mums and small white silk roses tipped with burgundy. Snuggled in the bouquet were two red roses for her to present to her mother and to the groom's mother during the service. In keeping traditions, she wore a necklace set with a diamond of family sentimental interest for "something old." She wore her mother's diamond earrings for "something borrowed." Her beautiful gown and the popular garter provided the "something new" and "something blue" additions, and she wore the lucky sixpence in her shoe.

A matron of honor and two bridesmaids walked the path to the altar preceding the bride. They wore identical gowns designed with burgundy pleated Qiana skirts and matching lace blouson bodices. Enhancing the beauty of their striking gowns were their bouquets created with pink and burgundy silk lilies and fern, dried gypsophila, all backgrounded with pink lace and finished with pink and burgundy streamers.

Mrs. Armon Smith of Lake Kiowa, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Miss Vickie Robinson and Miss Carrie Andersen shared bridesmaids' honors.

Miss Pam Conner, the groom's niece, and Jim Conner, his nephew, took part in the wedding as flower girl and ring bearer. She wore a long burgundy Qiana frock accented with a chiffon capelet and carried a small nosegay consisting of the flowers in the bride's bouquet. He wore a black tuxedo.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with a solid white shirt and two white roses with baby's breath added for his boutonniere. All male participants wore black tuxedos and white shirts trimmed in burgundy.

Mark Thompson was the groom's best man. Groomsmen were Doug Guthrie of McLean and Gary Crawford. Guests were ushered and seated by Jeff and Joe Spruiell, brothers of the bride, and Bill Clapp, the groom's brother.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Spruiell selected a mauve crepe gown set off with a long matching V-shaped chiffon overlay. Mrs. Clapp wore an aqua knit gown accented with a smart chiffon cape that fell to the waistline that fell to the floor. The skirts on the bride's table and registry table were swagged with pink and white silk roping, and the front of the skirt to the cloth on the groom's table was overlaid with burgundy velvet.

The bride's cake at one extremity of her table was a creation that will forever be a vivid part of wedding day memories for the couple. The four-tiered white confection was highly embellished with sugar burgundy and pink roses, bridal trumpets, forget me nots, petunias and white stephanotis, and fantastic frosting designs. Grecian pillars raised the top tier adorned with a bouquet of the same blossoms to complete the floriated theme. A four-branched brass candelabrum holding pink and burgundy carnations and pink candles ornamented the other table extremity. The center was appointed with brass plates holding mints shaped in various wedding symbols and the pink napkins engraved with the names of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Alan Cutcher and Mrs. Marcus Jordan presided at the bride's cake during the reception.

Serving at the groom's table were Mrs. Doug Guthrie, Mrs. Mark Thompson and Mrs. Gary Crawford. A large German chocolate cake decorated with colorful marzipan fruit flanked by single burgundy candles uprising from brass holders formed the centerpiece. Two round tables adjoined the long table on either side, one held a silver and brass punch bowl and the other held a brass samovar from which the coffee was served. The gold flatware, crystal plates and cups lent further interest to the decor for both tables.

Mrs. Ricky Ricks presided at the table which held the bride's book and pink feather pen.

Wedding guests were seated for refreshments at white-covered quarter tables centered with pink candles glowing in clear hurricane globes encircled with pink and burgundy starburst mums.

In connection with rehearsal for the wedding, the groom's parents hosted a dinner Friday evening at the Country House in Wichita Falls.

Special wedding guests were Mrs. James Armstrong of Atlanta, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. John Clapp Sr. of Iowa Park, grandparents of the groom, Mrs. Hill Spruiell, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fish of Iowa Park, the bride's grandparents.

Other out-of-town relatives were Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Bradford of Atlanta, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blitz of Lithonia, Ga., Mrs. Evelyn Qualline of Oklahoma City; Messrs. and Mmes. Bill Fish of Plano, Bill Fish Jr. of San Antonio, Fred Wright of Gainesville, Fred Norris of Corpus Christi; and Armon Smith of Lake Kiowa.

Jennifer and Blaine Bernstein announce the birth of Bruce Grant, a nine pound, one ounce baby brother, born December 26. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Bernstein.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Bernstein and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hill of Iowa Park. The great-grandmothers are Mrs. L.C. Hill of Iowa Park, Mrs. O.F. Bernstein of Albany, Texas and Mrs. Bert Ledbetter of Springtown, Texas.

Legislators slate 'listening session'

Two area legislators will hold a "listening session" prior to commencement of this year's legislative session in Austin.

Representative Charles Finnell and John Gavin are to be at the Gallery of North Texas Federal Savings and Loan Association between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. next Wednesday.

"We are looking forward to visiting with the citizens who may not yet have had opportunities to voice their concerns and priorities for the coming 67th session," Finnell said.

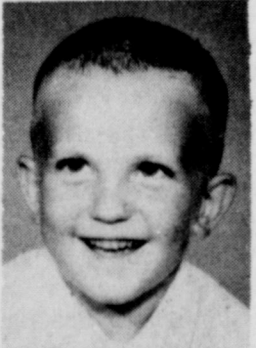

The 140-day session is to convene Jan. 13.

County committee appointments made

A new slate of officers was elected at the recent meeting of the Extension County Program Building Committee. Marta Armstrong of North Texas Savings and Loan Association will head the over-all county committee in 1981-82. Fred Dwyer, agriculture producer, will serve as vice-chairman while Madeline Weeks, homemaker, will be the secretary.

Outgoing chairman Ralph Harvey announced the expiring terms of three commodity chairmen. He appointed their successors. The appointments included field crops committee, Rex Wells succeeding Fred Dwyer; livestock committee, Dean Rankin succeeding Dr. Jim Barrington; and landscape and garden Bryan Stine succeeding Alex Wooton.

Members of the program building executive committee were announced including Armstrong, Dwyer and Weeks which are incoming officers. Others serving include Harvey and Loys Barbour, past chairmen, and Pat Roberts, member at large.

The Long Range County Program revision was presented by Armstrong who headed the revision committee. Her report indicated Extension efforts in the next five years would be directed toward energy conservation, economic and social development, conservation and development of our natural resources, and marketing along with consumer information. The program was adopted, and it will be printed and distributed in early January.

Schedule for:

Recreational Activities Center

Iowa Park Recreational Activities Center will launch a new fund-raising project which will likely be met with considerable enthusiasm.

Beginning Friday, Jan. 16, the RAC will hold bingo games at 7:30 p.m.

"This is a new venture for the RAC and we urge all you who like to play this popular game to attend," commented Mrs. Betty Merriman, director.

A reminder was also given by Mrs. Merriman that all who take classes at the RAC are also subject to paying annual dues of $2, and they are due now and good until October.

Dues support the RAC and help make available various activities during the year.

Shipwreck loot to be on display

In the Spring of 1554, three Spanish ships laden with silver coins and bullion were wrecked off the desolate shores of Padre Island during a savage thunderstorm.

Their ill-fated voyage, the ordeal of those who survived the disaster, and the modern archeological methods used to excavate the shipwrecks are all described in "Treasure, People, Ships and Dreams," a Texas Antiquities Committee traveling exhibit which will visit the Wichita Falls Museum and Art Center from Jan. 8 to Feb. 22.

The exhibit represents an extensive project begun eight years ago by the Antiquities Committee. Scientific marine archeological techniques, painstaking laboratory conservation measures, and exacting archival research in Madrid were used to uncover the colorful historical record of these ships, their passengers and their cargo.

Hundreds of artifacts recovered from the remnants of the sunken ships have been incorporated into the exhibit. These include cannon barrels, a crossbow, silver pesos, an anchor, eating utensils, and the oldest astrolabe known to exist.

Maps, photographs, drawings, and text complement the artifacts to provide a revealing view of those 16th-century Spaniards who served as links between their mother country and her New World colonies.

To deepen visitors' understanding of the display, the Museum will be showing a related 30-minute film, "Graveyard of the Gulf," on Sunday, January 11 at 2 p.m. Exhibit catalogs also will be available for purchase. Docent guided tours are available for school groups and other organizations. Warren Lynn, an underwater archeologist who worked on the site, will present a talk, "The Recovery of Sunken Treasure" on January 15, 1-2:30 p.m. On Feb. 5 at 1-2:30 p.m. Phil Coley from Midwestern State University will discuss local archeological finds. Both lectures are open to the public and are free of charge.

In preparing its "Treasure, People, Ships and Dreams" exhibit, the TAC worked closely with several organizations: the Texas Archeological Research Laboratory, University of Texas at Austin, where artifacts were sent for conservation and recording; Old Spanish Missions Research Library at Mission San Jose, San Antonio, which was contracted to research and translate 16th-century documents in Madrid, Spain; and the Institute of Texan Cultures, San Antonio, which designed and constructed the exhibit.

The display is open for viewing from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 1 to 5 p.m. on Sunday.

FAMILY AFFAIR - Mark Simons was commissioned a second Lieutenant in the regular Army, Armor Branch, during a ceremony held at Hardin-Simmons Univ. Dec. 19. His wife is the former Kathy Ann Hines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hines of 602 Cornelia. Hines' first assignment will be the Armor Officers Basic Course held at Fort Knox, Ky.

Worth Quoting

As I See It...

By BOB HAMILTON

Darkness had fallen as the van weaved its path down the narrow streets among two-story brick buildings silhouetted against occasional street lights.

We were met at the entrance to one of the buildings by a pretty, young blonde haired girl dressed in a jogging suit. She welcomed us in a cheerful voice. "Don't be afraid. We're not all crazy," she said through the steel mesh that separated us.

A tall woman wearing a white uniform soon appeared with a key to permit our entrance and prohibit the exit of the fifty some odd residents of Eastern Hall, Wichita Falls State Hospital.

With considerable anxiety, four adults and ten youths from Henrietta First United Methodist Church passed through the security gate carrying armloads of potato chips, cookies, Hawaiian Punch and hymnals. A sign on the bulletin board near the nurse's station announced the occasion: Christmas Party, Sunday, Dec. 7, 6:30 p.m.

The young woman in the jogging suit mingled among us as we marched down the hall. "You all look scared to death," she said. Most of us were.

Scenes from "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" kept popping into my mind. I kept expecting to see Jack Nicholson and Nurse Ratched.

Before long our church group and the patients were assembled in a large living room area singing Christmas carols.

A tall, lanky, pimple-faced young man dressed in bib overalls shared a hymnal with me, following the words to the songs above my moving index finger.

Someone requested "Amazing Grace". The big, red Methodist hymnal included the words to only four verses, but the young man in the overalls knew the fifth verse by heart.

While having refreshments, I spied a handsome young man with a moustache sitting at one of the tables. He was not eating, only smoking a cigarette. "How about some punch and cookies?" I offered.

"No thanks. Just had a big supper," he said, smiling as he patted his tummy.

He continued to explain how he was a "voluntary" patient. He has become hooked on drugs and two months earlier had admitted himself to the hospital to kick the habit. On Sundays he went home to visit his family.

Not everyone we met was as rational, but everyone I spoke with had some conversation to offer. They were all colors and all ages from a sixteen-year-old girl to those in their sixties. They were all clean and well mannered. They made us feel welcomed and appreciated.

On the way back to Henrietta, about six miles west of town, a loud POP! resounded from the rear of the van. The right rear tire had blown.

Having to change a flat tire on the shoulder of a busy highway at night is bad enough. And ten giggly teenagers cutting up in the bar ditch does little to enhance the situation.

Just as I was about to scream obscenities and flail at them with the lug wrench, I remembered the folks back in Eastern Hall and thought about just how trivial most of my problems really are.

Someone, years and years ago, established the idea that the first of a year is the time to reflect on the year past and look forward to the year future. I don't really know how or why the idea was developed, but I guess the timing is as good as any, if one wants to reflect and project.

Most of our reflecting is done on the front page of this issue. We always try to cover the year's highlights in a summary in this issue.

But what is coming up in the year future? What will happen to our taxes: with the advent of the new county-wide taxing system; with the legislature fixing to go into session in a couple of weeks; with promises by incoming President Reagan?

What is coming up in our future on inflation: with Opec raising the price of oil; with our automobile industries in trouble; with built-in increases created by state and federal regulations, as well as those demanded and received by unions?

What is coming up in the field of education: with fewer and fewer students enrolled in our public schools; will the 12th grade be eliminated, as has been proposed by one major state group; will the trend continue toward the basics as a solution to the deterioration of education; will our colleges and universities be allowed to continue increasing their faculties and building their new buildings, while enrollments continue to slide downward?

Blood donors reach levels

Robert Wilcox completed his sixth gallon and Mrs. Robert Massingill her second, when the Red Cross Bloodmobile visited here Monday afternoon.

Wilcox is a clerk at the post office and Mrs. Massingill is a mother and housewife.

They were among 18 who donated blood, according to local co-chairmen Connie Hrncirik and Sandra McDonald with the Epsilon Sigma Alpha.

What is coming up in the field of law: will the courts continue liberal interpretations as judges want, or as the laws were intended when written; will our county and district attorneys continue to provide such poor cases that many more are dismissed than are tried (some of the blame can certainly go to the judges, also); will crime continue to increase on all levels?

What is coming up locally: will we have a sub station to house a fire truck in the south part of town; will that gymnasium at the high school ever be completed, in good workmanship standard; will we have a new library; will something be done to cut down the number of traffic accidents on the old highway in the city; will there be a significant change in the makeup of the city council in this spring's election; will the city council continue its outstanding leadership and record of accomplishments (if you think they are poor, please review the administrations of past years before judging); will our downtown ever be improved, especially those buildings controlled by absentee owners who could care less?

True, these are some tough and searching questions. We all have our ideas about what is going to happen, or rather what we would like to happen.

But there is no real crystal ball. We'll just have to wait and see.

What kind of a year will 1981 be? I hope it's the best you've ever known. Happy New Year!

Cook of the Week

What's on the menu for New Year's Day? Blackeyed peas, of course. The eating of the peas or Hopping John on New Year's Day is an old tradition in the south and said to bring good luck throughout the year.

All peas are believed to be descended from wild plants that come from Europe and southwest Asia. They were known and used by the Chinese in 2000 B.C. and the Bible mentions peas. They were brought to America about 1800. The cowpeas (blackeyed) traveled across the Atlantic with the slaves for whom they had been staple foods in Africa.

Our friends in the northern part of the nation do not have a taste for blackeyed peas like the people in the south have. In fact, many of them are surprised to know that they are food for people until they have been around southerners for awhile.

Mrs. E.H. White, our cook for this week, has had plenty experience as a cook with her five children, 17 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren who think that she is the grandest of all cooks. Today, she is telling us how she cooks blackeyed peas and is giving some hints for foods that are good to serve with the vegetable.

Mrs. White moved to Wichita Valley Farms in 1942 and she and her late husband moved into Iowa Park in 1960. She is an active member of Faith Baptist Church and a charter member of Friendly Door.

Her children are Jerry Griffin of Wichita Falls, Alma Lee Moore of Inex, Ky., Eddie Harold White of Bander, John C. White and Marie White of Austin. John served as Texas Commissioner of Agriculture many years, and is currently National Democratic Party Chairman.

Local students are recognized

Five students from Iowa Park and one from Holliday are among 47 Midwestern State Univ. students who have been selected for the 1980-81 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

The publication is a directory of the country's most outstanding campus leaders.

They include Karran Jo Brown, Cindy Jo Flanagan, Dale Lee Gwinn, Alice Elaine Montz and Sharon Tigrett-Brister of Iowa Park and Douglas Nevelle McMillan of Holliday.

Selection to Who's Who is based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential.

MSU students selected join an elite group from more than 1,200 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign countries.

Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934.

It's strawberry bedding time

Don D. Decker
County Agent

It is time to put strawberries to bed for the winter. Willis Moser has a new bed of strawberries and he is covering them with six to eight inches of wheat straw to protect them from winter cold.

After strawberries begin to put out in the spring, he will pull the wheat straw back, exposing the plants to sunlight. The straw between the strawberries will serve as an excellent mulch during the spring and summer. This mulch will shade the ground reducing surface evaporation, maintain a cooler soil temperature, and control the weeds. Actually the wheat straw serves two purposes - cover during the winter and mulch in the summer.

Strawberries are adapted to the sandy soils of this area. They perform better when planted in early spring. The plants are set 12 inches apart in double rows on top of 40-inch beds. All of the flowers and runners are removed the first spring. A fall crop can be harvested, but the main crop will be harvested one year later in the spring. Runners produced by the mother plants should be pinched off in order to maintain strong plants.

The ever-bearing varieties do the best here. Recommended strawberries for this area include Gem (Superfection), Ozark Beauty and Ogallala.

When sandy soils are not available in the yard, strawberries can be grown in special beds. Redwood or cedar beds can be planted above ground or pyramids can be constructed to contain a sandy soil for growing strawberries.

It is easy to mistake woodpecker or sapsucker damage for borer holes in trees. Mrs. Dot Wood of Wichita Falls thought her liveoak tree had come under the attack of shade tree borers, however, a closer examination of the holes revealed the work of a woodpecker or sapsucker.

The distinguishing characteristic of woodpecker damage is a series of holes made side-by-side on the trunk or main branches of a tree. The holes extend only through the bark to the cambrium layer where they feed on plant juices.

Borer holes make no pattern, which are located at random over the trunk and branches. The borer makes a single hole which goes deep into the heartwood of the tree or tunnels just beneath bark of the tree. Borers leave a frass in the tunnel as they feed. A wire can usually be pushed into the hole for a considerable distance while the woodpecker hole is very shallow.

It was a pleasant surprise for Mrs. Wood knowing her tree was being hit by woodpeckers rather than borers. The shallow holes caused by the woodpecker caused little damage to the tree. She is combating the problem by wrapping aluminum foil around the areas being pecked by the birds.

Another method of combating this problem is to eliminate the culprit with a pellet gun. This is difficult to do because a woodpecker usually flies whenever anyone enters the yard.

CARD OF THANKS
I would like to take this time to thank all of you who came to our aid recently when my wife fell and broke her hip and arm. A special thanks to I.P. Fire Dept., I.P. Police Dept., to my neighbors, and to Ken Cole for his support. This is all very much appreciated by my wife and myself.

Holliday's year is reviewed

The year 1980 for Holliday residents saw many changes occur within the community, including the opening of new businesses and the change in ownership of another.

Holliday's school board initiated new guidelines to gradually phase out senior trips by 1984, in the process putting money back into the pockets of many parents, but also eliminating a standing tradition that several of the board members themselves were a part of.

The following is the Leader's review of the previous year:

JANUARY
The Holliday Eagles captured the Archer County Shortgrass Tournament consolation trophy in boys basketball. The city council rejected two rate increase proposals from Lone Star Gas Co., and also retained the services of policeman Don Pennington after clarifying misconceptions as to the actual duties expected of him. Engineer Ernest Andrews also reported to councilmen that work on the city's new sewer treatment plant was ahead of schedule by three months. Diana Gully Higginbotham, formerly of Holliday, was promoted to assistant vice president of the First State Bank of Shallowater, a suburban bank in Lubbock County. Kent Lemons, a two-way starting senior end for the Eagle varsity football team, was named to the All-State offensive squad for Class A. Holliday school trustees awarded superintendent Ray Coe a one-year extension on his contract on a split vote. Icy road conditions that hit the area around the end of the month caused the cancellation of the Holliday-Archer City basketball games, scheduled in Archer City.

FEBRUARY
Contracts for two principals, the head football coach and band director were all renewed. Two local men, Timmy Teafatiller and Elvin Hoover, pleaded guilty to assault charges after they allegedly attacked two youths. Mary Denney, city judge, Don Pennington, police chief, and Elvin Hoover, city water superintendent resigned during the city council's monthly meeting. Fire Chief Glenn Wood reported to councilmen that the city's fire department was three men less than the minimum required by state law, calling for new prospects to join. Holliday's sales tax receipts for the preceding month was 170 percent over last year's figures, with a rebate check for $7,672.42. Lone Star Gas was granted a partial rate increase, and volunteer fire department members were given water and dump ground allowances. The "Fun After Fifty" Club observed its third anniversary at a dinner held at Frontier Steak House, with forty-eight members attending. Woody Bowles, graduate of Holliday High School and two-time state high jump champ, placed second at the NAIA National Indoor Track Meet in Kansas City, Mo. with a jump of 7-1. A fire gutted the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walker at 718 S. College. Leah Sanchez, Bill Holton and Kent Lilly earned first division ratings at the District UIL Band Solo and Ensemble Contest. The city council hired 20-year old Larry Spencer to fill the vacancy left by policeman Don Pennington in a special called meeting.

MARCH
Parker Square Savings and Loan Association opened a new branch in Holliday March 10 at the intersection of Highway 277 and Bois D' Arc St. Mindy Lowder and Kristi Lucy were named to the first team All-District basketball team. Donna McGill, Beth Barry, Paula Sanders and Jamie Smyers were also named to second team and honorable mention lists. Councilmen granted Lone Star Gas an increase in revenue and added a proposal to the April 5th city election ballot concerning the purchase of three civil defense sirens. The Holliday school board added two amendments to the minutes of the January meeting, deleting one motion that violated state election laws. City councilmen added a proposal to construct a new city hall to the April 5th city election ballot, but their March meeting was cancelled due to lack of a quorum. For the fifth year in a row, Holliday High School Thespians placed first in one-act play competition, despite an accident that injured the leading actress, Karen Wilkerson. Wilkerson was named Best Actress in the contest.

APRIL
Students in the Holliday school system were given an opportunity to apply their tornado drills when a three-county area, including Archer County, was put under a tornado warning. Holliday High School students placed second behind Archer City in the UIL literary meet at Midwestern State University. Faith Tabernacle of Holliday announced groundbreaking ceremonies to celebrate the second phase of construction of the new educational complex and fellowship hall. The 440-relay team consisting of Carl Martin, Joe Chase, Mark Rathman and Jim Ezzell took first place at the Olney Cub Relays. Incumbent Tom Hall was re-elected in city-wide elections to the mayor's post. Leon Addison, Fred Daume, Terry Parnell and Jake Cottrell were successful in their campaigns. The city council passed a resolution stating the sewer lift pumps now in use in the city to be a "calamity and a health hazard," calling for immediate action to replace the pumps. The Holliday High School tennis team placed first in their own tournament. School trustee Tommy Mankins was re-elected president of the Holliday school board. Don Rives, six-year professional tackle for the Chicago Bears, was guest speaker at the all-sports banquet. The Lady Eagle track team captured the team trophy at the District 13-A track meet. Kent Lemons, Brad Harmon, Jim Ezzell, Shane Owens and Kreg Enzie qualified for the regional track meet. Lemons and Donna McGill were named best all-around athletes at the all-sports banquet.

MAY
The high school band was awarded Sweepstakes at the UIL concert and sightreading contest held in Vernon. The band earned the honor by placing first in marching earlier in the school year, then earning a "T" rating in both concert and sightreading. Steve Laukhuf and Lucretia Halenack advanced to the state UIL literary contest after qualifying in regional competition. Holliday High School captured the Spring Meet trophy for District 13-A by nearly one-hundred points over second place Archer City. The city council removed fire marshal Glenn Wood from that position after it was reported the position was causing a conflict of interest. P.L. Pippin Jr. and Leroy "Red" Addison were forced into a runoff for Archer County sheriff, Democratic candidate. Charles Fennell was assured the Democratic nomination for state representative. Holliday High School lady golfers placed second in regional competition. $500 above base salary increases were given to school administrators and coaches, and $200 above base to teachers. Kristi Lucy, Carla Lear, Carla Cottrell, Debbie Long, Rhonda Talley, Kristy Williams and Terri Davis were named cheerleaders for 1980-81. Kelly Jo Morgan was named valedictorian for 1980 at Holliday High School, and Beth Barry Salutatorian. Others in the top ten included Jody Collier, Teresa Borton, Karen Wilkerson, Nancy O'Neal, Cathy Halenack, Clifford Wood, Paula Sanders and Donna Dunn. City council approved the purchase of three civil defense sirens.

JUNE
City councilmen denied a TESCO rate increase proposal and hired Janette Christopher of Iowa Park as the city's new waste water operator during their regular meeting. In a special called meeting, the Holliday school board accepted a bid from T.A. Litteken & Sons for the construction of a new vocational agriculture building and storage building. P.L. Pippin Jr. beat Leroy "Red" Addison in a runoff election to decide the Democratic Party candidate for Archer County sheriff. The Archer County Centennial celebration began June 29 in Archer City with a festival of faith. Superintendent Ray Coe was named chairman of the Cystic Fibrosis Breath of Life Campaign in Holliday.

JULY
The Class of 1942 sponsored a reunion for all graduating classes at Holliday High School July 19. Diane Collins, Jan Bennett, Robin McLaren and Cal Gauden were hired by Holliday school trustees to fill teaching positions, and set guidelines to gradually phase out senior trips by 1984. Texas Football Magazine predicted the Eagles to again capture the district title in football. Kyle Brown and Laura Holt earned first chair honors at the West Texas Band Camp.

AUGUST
A five-man committee was named to coordinate efforts to renovate Holliday's Community Center. Sixty-eight prospective Eagles turned out for two-a-day workouts August 10th. School trustees passed the 1980-81 budget calling for an increase in expenditures of $165,000 over the previous year. Holliday city council purchased $9,000 worth of asphalt to pave streets. School lunch prices were raised approximately a dime more than the previous year's prices. School enrollment figures for the 1980-81 school year at Holliday showed a decline in the number of high school students, and a substantial increase in the number of elementary students.

SEPTEMBER
City fathers hired Danny Moore of Moore-Camp Associates to audit the city books after the previous auditors, Maloney and Associates of Wichita Falls, failed to meet the council's expectations. School trustees passed a three-percent tax rate increase, set at 52-cents per $100 valuation. Three varsity Eagle starters were injured by the second game of the season, including Bobby Vinson, Larry Boydston and Jeff Belcher. Doug Peters was named president of the high school band. The Eagles took the first game of the season 27-0 over Seymour. The regular meeting of the city council was cancelled due to lack of a quorum. Many area taxpayers flooded tax assessor/collector Louis Hodge's office with calls after the new methods of tax appraisal took effect.

OCTOBER
Boyd's Yellowjackets gave the Eagles their first district defeat in seven years 33-26, with the varsity squad decimated with injuries. Holliday City Council accepted a bid from Marvin Groves Electric Inc. for the installation of the new civil defense sirens. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nichols became the new owners of White's Home and Auto after purchasing the store from Mr. and Mrs. Jim Huff. Donna Alderman was hired to teach in the Holliday Elementary remedial program. Rhonda Talley was named Roundup Queen during homecoming festivities. Kristi Lucy was named Homecoming Queen, and Sheryl Boyd HHS Band Sweetheart. Holliday city council held a tax rate increase hearing in accordance with new state legislation, which requires a hearing if the tax rate in 1981 is increased more than three-percent over the previous year's rate. Holliday's was 3.17 percent over last year's rate. Nineteen Holliday High School students received letters for their scholastic achievements during a school assembly. Carla Cottrell, daughter of school trustee Jake Cottrell, was seriously injured in a two-car accident on Seymour Highway, fracturing the fifth vertebrae in her neck.

NOVEMBER
Although Holliday voters favored the winning candidates in most state and local races, residents stuck to their Democratic guns in favoring President Carter over Ronald Reagan in the November general elections. Holliday High School students swept all but one category in the horse division at the Archer County Junior Livestock Show. The Round-Up at Holliday High School was termed a success, with seniors taking in almost $2,000 over last year's figures. The Holliday High School band received a "II" rating in the UIL Marching Contest held in Wichita Falls. Danny Holman and Donna Alderman submitted resignations to the Holliday school board. Donna Billingsley and J.R. Thompson were hired to fill the vacancies. Holliday city councilmen agreed to purchase an additional air pac for the volunteer fire department. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hamady opened Holliday Drug Store, giving local residents their first drug store in over 15 years. Susan Parker was named all-district in volleyball.

DECEMBER
Five Eagles were named to the District 13-AA all-district list, including Lindy Dolberry, Ray Looney, Rodney Moore, Joe Chase, and Larry Boydston. Carla Renee Lear represented Holliday at the Archer County Christmas parade. Four Holliday High School band members, Laura Holt, Kyle Brown, Kathy Molina and Lucretia Halenack were named to the all-region band. The Lady Eagles fell to Petrolia in the finals of the Holliday Basketball Tournament. City employees were given a $50 bonus from city fathers, and city attorney James Cook was given $200.

WENDY ANN GLOVER and RANDY KEITH STONE

Announce engagement

Miss Wendy Ann Glover and Randy Keith Stone will exchange vows of matrimony January 24 at the First Baptist Church in Holliday, according to a recent announcement made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Glover. The future groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T.H. Stone. Miss Glover was graduated from Kailua High in Hawaii, and attended the Barbizon Modeling School. Her fiancé graduated from Holliday High School. He is a self-employed welder.

Teams enter tourney

The New Year begins with a bang for Holliday basketball teams, with the Eagles and Lady Eagles traveling to Archer City for the three-day Archer County Shortgrass Tournament, beginning today.

Both teams meet Electra in the first round today, with the girls' game beginning at 4:30 p.m. The Eagles play immediately following.

Electra split second round games with the Holliday squads in the Holliday Tournament. The Eagles lost a close one 45-42, while the Lady Eagles advanced in the winner's bracket with a 38-34 victory, eventually losing to Petrolia in the finals.

The Eagles won the consolation trophy last year in the Shortgrass Tournament with a 49-41 win over Megargel.

Winners of the first round games today advance in the winners' bracket against the victors of the Olney-Throckmorton games. If the Lady Eagles win today, they will play at 4 p.m. tomorrow. The Eagles will play at 5:30 p.m. if they win.

The losers of today's contests play earlier, with the girls scheduled at 1 p.m., and the boys 2:30 p.m.

Championship games are to be played at 7 and 8:30 p.m. Saturday. Host Archer City hosts Windthorst in the first round, in the upper bracket. Both Holliday teams are in the lower bracket with Electra, Megargel, and Petrolia.

My face wiped clean, I peered into the mirror again, discovering that what I thought were whiskers was still there. It actually turned out to be a large patch of freckles. When Dad found out (he found out when he looked at his strop) he said he ought to use the strop on me but since I seemed interested in learning about razors he would teach me the proper way, even though he didn't think I would have need of the knowledge for sometime yet.

REMEMBERING...

By BILL BROOKS

MY FIRST SHAVE

It looked pretty simple as I watched Dad shave. He would get out his mug with the soap in the bottom, put a little water in it and stir up vigorously, making a bunch of white foam, thick like whipped cream. He would put it on his face with the brush then get his straight razor out. He would always stroke the razor several times on a leather strop then commence to shave. He would hold the razor a certain way, screw his mouth around and in no time at all he would be through.

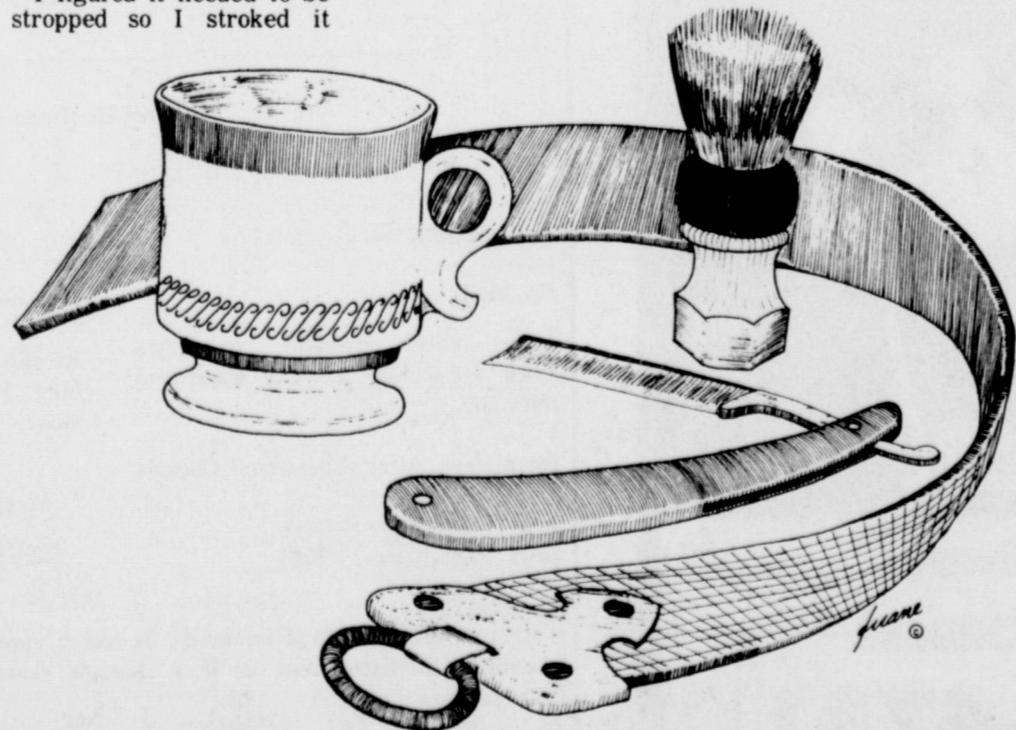

He would soak a towel in the hot water and hold it on his face for a while, and say, "Son, one of these days you'll hafta to this too". I was wishing I could already do it. One day when everyone was gone I looked at my face in the mirror and caught a glimpse of some real whiskers. "Yep," I said to myself, "those better come off". I got all the stuff and heated some water on the stove.

Making the lather was harder than it seemed like it would be. I stirred and stirred but still it was just a watery mess. I stirred some more and decided it would just have to do. I brushed some on my face and what didn't get in my mouth ran down my neck and got on my shirt.

I took the razor and tried to hold it and my mouth the way Dad did. I put it to my cheek and pulled. Ouch! It felt like it scraped away most of the skin. I looked closely in the mirror but couldn't discern any permanent damage.

I figured it needed to be stropped so I stroked it

A real wheat success story: 11 bushels seed to 26,000

By Don D. Decker
County Agent

One of the best-known biblical stories involves Jesus changing five loaves of bread into five-thousand to feed a multitude of people. This kind of increase nearly occurred in a seed wheat deal by a small group of enterprising young farmers at Iowa Park. They reaped 2,600 bushels of seed wheat from only 11 bushels of seed.

Freddie Daume, Ray Hicks, and Rex Wells contacted the Foundation Seed Division of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station during the summer of 1979 for some new TAM 105 foundation seed wheat. To their disappointment, they received all together only 11 bushels of the new wheat. It was obvious 11 bushels couldn't produce near enough to provide seed wheat for their 1980 fall planting. It looked like "a drop in a bucket" to them.

They decided planting the wheat on one of their farms would be futile. This got them to thinking. They came up with the idea of getting an irrigated farmer on the High Plains to plant the 11 bushels in hopes of maximizing the production from their limited seed supply.

Well, they got to inquiring about a possible irrigated grower who would grow their wheat for them. A contract was discovered through a family member. This contact led them to Charles Schlabs of Hereford. He had been able to get six bushels of TAM 105 for himself. With the 11 bushels from Wichita County, he had a total of 17 bushels.

Hicks loaded the little "dap" of 11 bushels on his truck and started for Hereford. It began rain showering along the way. Hicks tried to get the 11 bushels in the cab, but it wouldn't quite fit. So he got a small box of plastic bags, and placed each sack of wheat into a plastic bag protecting the precious wheat seed from the moisture.

Schlabs sowed the 17 bushels on 50 acres which amounted to only 21 pounds of seed per acre. It was dry at wheat sowing time last year, and he had to prewater the field before planting.

The enterprising young farmers had to check on their investment a couple of times during the growing season. The stand was very thin in mid-December. Later the wheat began tillering. Daume said, "We could part the heads at harvest and find like 18-20 tillers from each stool."

As it turned out, Schlabs just happened to be a very knowledgeable producer with a reputation of being one of the best farmers in the whole Panhandle. He was experienced in growing both registered and certified seed and working closely with Extension and the experiment station. Hicks says, "His farm is immaculate. There isn't a single weed on the entire place. He must do most of the work himself because we didn't see that much help."

Hicks received a telephone call early one June morning. It was Schlabs informing Hicks they had better get up there for their seed wheat. He had the combine, all his trailers and grain buggies full of wheat, and he could not continue with the harvest.

The trio quickly dispatched Phil McClendon's semi-truck to haul the seed wheat. It ended up taking three truck loads to haul all of their wheat back to Iowa Park.

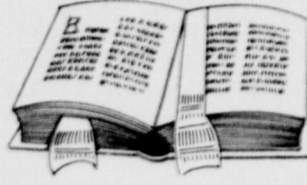

Their 11 bushels had grown into 2,600 bushels of prize TAM 105 seed. The production amounted to 80 bushels of wheat per acre with one patch producing 90 bushels. They, of course, had an arrangement with Schlabs to pay him for growing the wheat at a specified price over the market per bushel.

Wells, Daume, and Hicks used this seed wheat to plant a portion of their crop this year. They still have more seed than they can use, and it is being sold to other growers in the area. This may be a source of good, plump, weed and wild-oat free seed wheat at a reasonable price.

Municipal Court Records

Christmas money may have run a little short for a few local drivers. When municipal court was held Christmas Eve, several had to pay premiums because they had not appeared in court when originally designated, and additions were added to their fines.

- The results were:
- Mickael E. Sosebee, disobeyed stop sign, $38.50;
 - Vernon Douglas McCoy, speeding, $38.50;
 - Garin Lee Jackson, exhibition of acceleration, $38.50;
 - Garin Lee Jackson, expired motor vehicle inspection sticker, $28.50;
 - Rodney L. Singleton, no drivers license on person, $38.50;
 - Rodney L. Singleton, speeding, $32.50;
 - Michael Lynn Jordan, speeding, $48.50;
 - Jerry Louis Sauls, speeding, $43.50;
 - Tanya Chamberlain Lagunas, disobeyed stop sign, $28.50;
 - Thomas Frank Schenk, speeding, $48.50;
 - Francis Ruth Blount, disobeyed stop sign, $28.50;
 - Donald Lee Duerson, speeding, $28.50.

The Living Word

Tragically, there are many people who are on the road to eternal ruin, but who hope to get to heaven at last. They hope to live for Satan's pleasures in sinfulness, yet still stand justified before God in the day of judgment! The Bible teaches that you can't live wrong and die right! "Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting." Gal. 6:7-8. Many have suffered, and will suffer, because some person recited, "Oh, young people must sow their wild oats." This thinking has led today's youth into rebellion against decent conduct, they have thrown off all restraint, and are defying social restrictions. Hosea said, "They have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind." 8:7.

This nation pays more on crime control each year than it does on all schools, hospitals and churches. We allow men in high government offices to flaunt the law, wallow in bribery, steal elections, "feather their nests" at taxpayers' expense, and still send them back for more of the same lawlessness! Proverbs 14:34 is still true today, "Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people."

Adam and Eve chose the wrong course, and forfeited rights to the tree of life, and brought down the death sentence of the family of man! Those who lived before the flood chose the wrong life, and world was destroyed by the flood. Israel sinned against God, and suffered death from fiery serpents. Wrong living by Sodom and Gomorrah caused the two cities to be destroyed by fire! Ahab and Jezebel's wrong living brought them to a pitiable end, with dogs devouring their remains. The Bible is full of examples which attest to the fact: You just can't live wrong and die right!

Let's look at the other side. There are great rewards for right conduct! At the close of his life, Paul could say, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not for me only, but unto all them that love his appearing." II Tim. 4:7-8. If you live right, you die right. . . if you live wrong you can't die right. What preparations are you making for eternal life?

IRS sends out annual tax forms

Households throughout the country began receiving 1980 income tax packages from the Internal Revenue Service Dec. 26.

Most post offices received the packages and held them for distribution until the day after Christmas, as requested by IRS. The only exception for earlier delivery were packages going to certain business firms and tax service agencies.

Postal officials stated that while the packages travel as third-class mail, they will be forwarded without charge to the recipient if such service is necessary. The Postal Service will recover any forwarding charges from the Internal Revenue Service through a prearranged agreement.

The tax forms are delivered to some 86-million households across the country.

Final Tax Payment Due Soon for 1980

Taxpayers must pay by January 16, 1981, the final installment of estimated income tax if they did not have enough 1980 Federal tax withheld or if their amended income estimates for 1980 changed substantially during the last quarter, the Internal Revenue Service says.

The one exception to this rule is for taxpayers who file their returns to pay all taxes due by February 2, 1981, according to IRS.

Generally, taxpayers must file estimated tax if their tax is expected to be $100 or more and if they have more than $500 in income not covered by withholding.

For additional information, taxpayers may order the IRS free Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax," using the order form in the tax package. The publication can be ordered by calling the IRS forms/tax information number listed in the local telephone directory.

Retired Taxpayers Can Avoid Estimated Tax Payments

A retired taxpayer who does not wish to make estimated tax payments can file a special withholding statement to have tax withheld from annuity checks, the Internal Revenue Service says.

Just as they had tax withheld from salary while actively employed, retirees can have Federal income tax withheld from their pensions. All that's necessary is to file a form W-4P, "Annuitant's Request for Federal Income Tax Withholding," with the payer of the annuity.

If the retiree does not have a sufficient amount withheld from his or her annuity, an estimated tax must be paid in installments, which are due for 1981 payments on April 15, June 15, September 15, 1981, and January 18, 1982.

Supplies of Form W-4P and information on filing requirements and tax benefits may be obtained by calling the IRS forms/tax information number listed in the telephone directory.

Final Tax Payment Due Soon for 1980

Taxpayers who did not have enough 1980 federal tax withheld, or whose amended income estimates for 1980 changed substantially during the last quarter, are required to pay the final installment of estimated income tax by January 15, 1981, the Internal Revenue Service says.

The IRS notes that there is an exception to this rule for those taxpayers who file their returns and pay all taxes due by February 2, 1981. This exception applies whether the declaration is an original or amended one.

Farmers Must Pay Estimated Tax Soon

Individuals who earned at least two-thirds of their 1979 or 1980 gross income from farming have until Thursday, January 15, 1981, to make a 1980 declaration of estimated tax and pay any taxes due, the Internal Revenue Service says.

However, farmers who plan to file their 1980 income tax return and pay the total tax balance by March 3, 1981, are not required to make an estimated tax declaration, according to the IRS.
