Hazardous narrow bridge to be widened

The Texas Department of Highways and Transportation recently announced two projects to begin in the near future, including one project which could possibly eliminate the risk of a serious accident on FM 368.

The project site, located at Antelope Creek, one mile south of the Wichita River and two miles north of FM 1206 on FM 368, has been the scene of several close calls in the past, involving one or two vehicles.

"Judging by the marks on the guardrail, it looks like the guardrail is brushed quite often," Ralph Self, public affairs officer, said.

The project includes the widening of a bridge and reconstruction of approaches at Antelope Creek. When approaching the bridge from either direction, the road makes a jogging curve before leading through the narrow bridge. "The project mainly includes widening the culvert, and straightening the approaches to the bridge," said Self.

A pre-construction conference is scheduled for 10 a.m. tomorrow in the

Cowley's contract renewed

Trustees okay building plan; table vocational course

School superintendent Harold Cowley got a year's contract extension, the green light was given on the Bradford physical education building project, the band program got more money and a hold was put on a proposed new vocational course during Tuesday's school board meeting.

Following a 30-minute closed executive meeting of the board, trustees unanimously voted to extend Cowley's contract as chief officer of the school system.

Board president Roy Boutwell commented that trustees had an evaluation of Cowley's performance during his first year as superintendent and he had rated "extremely high," and had done the job well during the past year.

The physical education building which has been studied for the Bradford campus was cut back considerably, after it was brought out at the last board meeting the cost would run well over $200,000.

Dimensions of the structure were cut back to 58 by 64 feet, the land work was postponed and finishing of the proposed dressing rooms and rest rooms delayed, cutting the cost for the plain structure back to the area of $100,000, initially.

Trustees said the finishing of the other work could be put off for future years, but the need of the structure, which also will provide a room for the music department, was needed next year.

Architect Don Daugherty said he would have plans and specifications ready for bidding before next month's meeting.

Trustees approved a recommendation by Cowley to fund up to $7,000 additional monies for replacement of old, major band instruments.

Greg Miller, director, told board members many of the instruments were beyond repair. He said one instrument was built in 1922, according to its serial number.

Though $18,000 had been requested, Cowley recommended the $7,000 supplement to go with $3,047 Miller already had approved for instrument replacement, giving the department $10,000 to spend this year.

Miller is to provide at a later meeting an additional two-year program for instrument replacement.

Vocational administrators Karl

King and Richard Davis recommended to the board that the auto body vocational course be dropped, and replaced with a two-year course in welding. They said auto body is the least desired course offered by the department, and area skilled labor needs are greatest for welders.

Equipment and building renovation, above what is already on hand, would cost between $8,000 and $10,000, Davis said.

Trustees, on a split vote, turned down the proposal because they wanted more information on cost of materials and utilities. However, they changed the decision and tabled any action until the information is available. A called meeting is expected later this month when action is expected to be taken.

Cost of school lunches will take a jump next year. Bill Steger told trustees that federal reimbursement for lunches has been cut, costing the local district approximately $1,000 per month.

But Steger said funds are available to maintain the present lunch rates the balance of the year and he will have price recommendations prior to start of the 1981-82 year.

As of the meeting, 59.4 percent of the 1980 school taxes have been paid, well ahead of the 55 percent reported the same date last year, Steger said.

Adult courses start Tuesday

All but one of the adult vocational courses being offered by the Iowa Park school system will begin next week, according to Richard Davis, coordinator.

Four of the courses are filled to capacity, but three still have openings. The course for family communications has been cancelled due to lack of interest, Davis said.

Filled are courses for small gasoline engines, tune-up and emission controls, furniture finishing and refinishing and ten-key calculator training.

Business forms and letters had 13 enrolled, and three openings remain until the course starts Tuesday. The class will meet in three sessions.

The course to begin Feb. 10 on filing principles and procedures has 12 enrollees, with a capacity of 16.

Also to begin Tuesday is the eight-session course on spray painting techniques. The class has nine enrolled, but can hold 14.

Those wishing to enroll in any of the courses not yet filled can use a form in an advertisement on page two of this issue, or go to the vocational office at the high school. Davis said he could not enroll anyone over the telephone.

25 musicians All-District

Twenty five Iowa Park school musicians earned honors Saturday in competition held at Wichita Falls High School.

Fifteen were named to the Freshman All-District Band. They were: Brenda Cook, Sherry Green, Robin Hawthorne, Sonya Herald, Caroline Patterson, Kristen Proulx, all clarinets; Kristi Woods, flute; Bryan Fowler, alto saxophone; Susan Streich and Leona Kent, trumpet; Paula Mashburn, trombone; Mike Bean and Scott Baily, baritone; and Tim Norris and Dan Scott, tuba.

Making the Junior High All-District

Band were: Kristi Wynn, Michelle Crittenden, Vicki Floyd, Becky Woods, clarinet; Lisa Turner, trumpet; Kyle Cheek and Keith Kelly, trombone; Philip Clements and Donald Young, tuba; and Amy Silvers, percussion II.

Testing slated in basic skills

For the second year, students of selected classes in Iowa Park schools are scheduled to participate in the Texas Assessment of Basic Skills testing.

Pupils in the third, fifth and ninth grades will be given the tests Monday through Friday of next week, according to Herman Escue, counselor.

The local district was asked by the Texas Education Agency to give the tests early so scoring procedures could be expedited on a state-wide level, Escue explained. The testing was mandated by the state legislature and is designed to measure student achievement in the basic areas of reading, writing and mathematics.

Only two grades, the fifth and ninth, were tested last year. Local students scored well, with respect to other schools in the state, Escue said.

Results of next week's testing will be presented to the school board near the end of the year, when computerized results are received.

AUDITOR REPORTS

City's finances improved

"The overall financial condition of the city is greatly improved, especially considering three years ago," commented Walt Fowler, auditor, who reported Monday to aldermen on the 1979-80 city audit.

Fowler went through a 14-point letter prepared by his firm which commented on minor irregularities which took place during the year or made suggestions on how auditors thought the city might improve.

All irregularities, such as timing of deposits or bookkeeping procedures, were corrected during the year, but Fowler said he felt they still should be brought before the council.

Some of the suggestions, such as insurance coverage of the library, had nothing to do with record or bookkeeping.

After formally receiving an appeal for a rate increase for Lone Star Gas Co. from local office manager Bud Burch, the council passed a resolution delaying any action on the proposal 90 days for study of the proposal.

Lone Star is seeking a 13.57 percent overall increase in revenues, system-wide.

Council members passed a resolution authorizing the mayor to enter into a contract with Gilmore Welding Inc. for demolition of the old Park Hotel, which was donated to the city by Mrs. W.F. George for the benefit of the library.

Bill Gilmore said work on the project would begin as soon as paperwork was completed and a security fence was erected around the site.

During a public hearing, when comments are to be received suggesting how federal revenue sharing funds might be spent during the coming year, no one addressed the council from the audience.

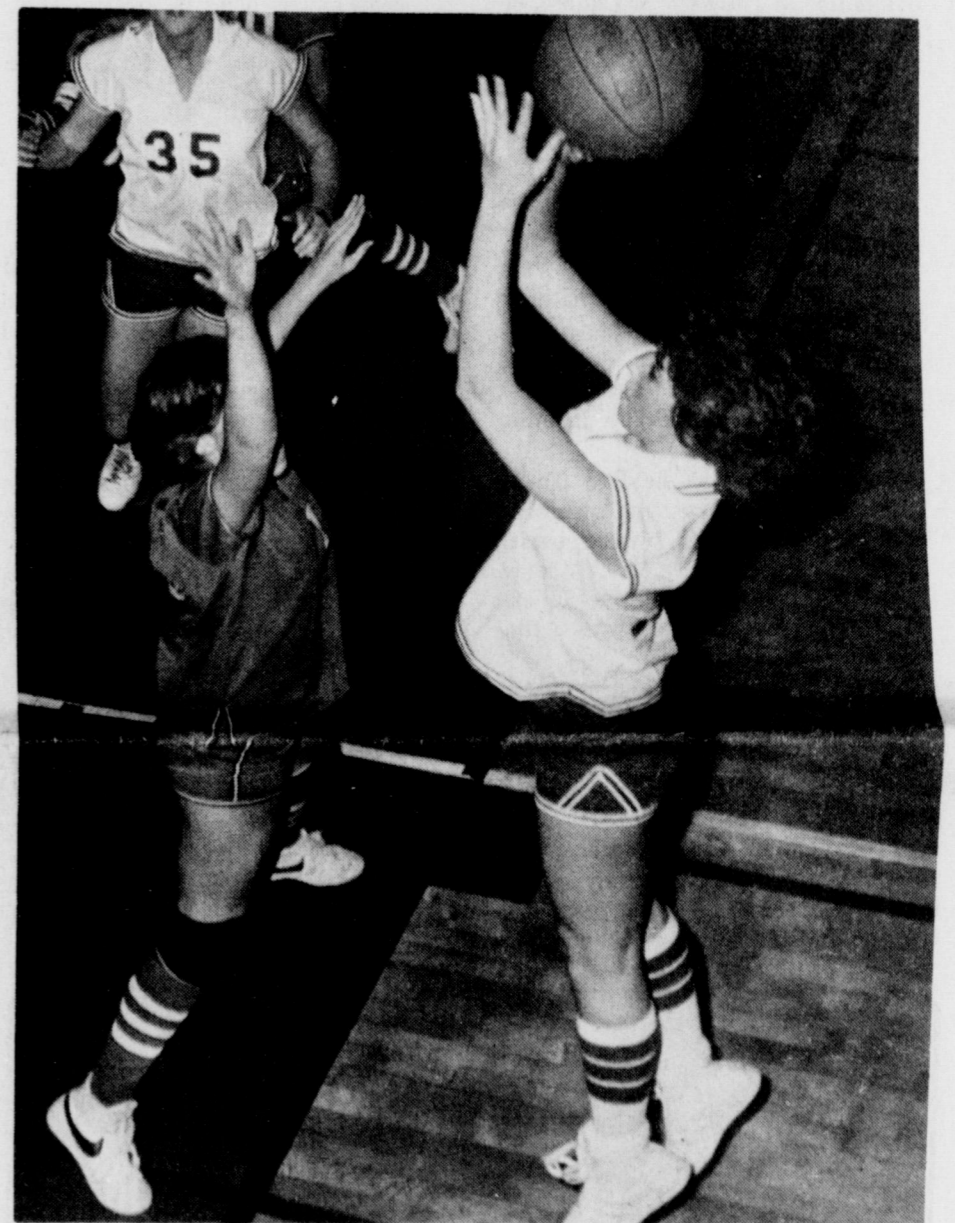

On a proposal to sell some city-owned property on East Pecan, no action was taken until further study was made on the legal status of the property.

GENERAL DISCUSSION

The council regularly holds a general discussion period at its meetings, when topics are brought out but no action is taken. The meeting's topics during this period included:

* Alderman Bud Thompson wanted to know if Cable TV is living up to its franchise agreement by not providing 10 channels, and a representative of the cable firm will be asked to meet with the council in the near future.

* General dissatisfaction with service and repairs locally by Southwestern Bell Telephone was brought out by both council members and others in the audience. Gilmore said anyone having a complaint about

Kindergarten term to begin Monday

The second term for kindergarten students will begin Monday, according to Bob Cole, Kidwell Elementary principal.

Parents of children who were five years of age by Sept. 1, and the children did not attend kindergarten the fall semester, can enroll the beginners at Kidwell this week.

Kindergarten classes are held from 8:30 a.m. to 2:20 p.m. weekdays.

Those to be enrolled must have a certified birth certificate and current validated immunization record, Cole said.

Crime report is revealing

This past year was not a record for thefts and burglaries in Iowa Park, but two records were broken, according to Chief Charles Whittingstall of the police department.

In compiling a report for the past three years, Whittingstall said 1978 was worse for reported burglaries and larceny thefts than was 1980.

In 1978 there were 56 reported burglaries and 52 larceny thefts, while those figures were 30 and 45, respectively, for last year.

A study of 1979 records indicated 44 burglaries and 26 larceny thefts. The records broken, for the three-year period, were one murder and two auto thefts. None were reported in 1978 or 79.

One case of robbery was reported last year and the year before, but none in 1978. Two assault cases were reported last year, the same as in 1978, but seven cases were reported during 1979.

License plates stolen

License plates were reportedly stolen from a pickup owned by Kent Chapman sometime Tuesday while it was parked at Gilmore Welding.

The theft reportedly took place sometime between 8 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

American family preservation topic of 23 Study Club program

The 23 Study Club held the first meeting of 1981 Thursday afternoon in Texas Electric Reddy Room. The program, relating to the home life department of General Federation of Women's Clubs, was designed to create renewed interest in the preservation of the American family.

Hostesses were Mmes. O.E. Lochridge, Joe Singer and Fred Widmoyer.

Mrs. Keith Aulds was program leader for the afternoon. Mrs. James A. Sewell contributed the devotion, using "The Quiet People" for her theme.

For the appropriate art feature of the program, Mrs. Sam Hill gave "New Year's Thoughts." These included "365 Shiny New Days" supplemented by a selected poem, "What God Has Promised"; "January", an article taken from "Too Busy to Pray" by Imogene Sorley; and "The Bright New Year" by Jessie Brown Thomas.

Mrs. C.E. Birk and Mrs. Erwin F. Soell were the speakers for the program, the first speaking on "The Electric Church", and the latter coordinating a discussion of "Home Life in America."

Mrs. Birk's material for her talk was taken from two sermons of Rev. Roy T. Sherrod, pastor of First Presbyterian Church at Waco. In his evaluation of The Electric Church, he described it as a new expression of American Evangelical Christianity which is carried by radio and television.

Emphasizing the phenomenal growth of the church, the minister stated that until 1940 religious broadcasting was largely confined to local broadcasts on Sunday morning with time provided free by the station. At the present time, it is authoritatively estimated that 1400 radio stations and 35 television stations are devoted exclusively to religious broadcasting, all tied together loosely in a National Religious Organization.

Mrs. Birk concluded with Rev. Sherrod's observation that the Electric Church is here to stay and his firm belief that Christian people will continue to support their local church and minister to people in a way that those on radio and television cannot do.

"The family is the oldest most fundamental institution and most precious national resource, and the preservation of the American family is a top issue touching the lives of all people," Mrs. Soell stated. As a reminder that strengthening the American family is of national interest, she referred to the White House Conference on Families called by President Carter during the summer of 1980 for the purpose of finding ways to accomplish the aim.

Mmes. Rollins Woodall, O.E. Lochridge, D.O. James, Travis Smith, China B. Smith and Miss Ethyle

Kidwell helped in the development of the topic through giving opinions and suggestions from noted leaders and professional people, aimed at reinforcing family values and passing them on to generations yet unborn.

The comments stressed that the family is an instrument of social learning, transmitter of values, and its purpose is to foster individual growth and to support its members in ventures in the larger society. "Producing people and providing services to its members which are not performed by anyone else" was defined as the family's main role.

Some of the forces mentioned that have contributed most to the changes in the family structure included: sex revolution, women's movement, "do your own thing" trend and failure to realize the value of mealtime for children.

In closing, members divided into separate workshops to study what GFWC was doing and what each club woman can do to strengthen family life in America.

Mrs. China B. Smith conducted the business session following the program. Mrs. Earl Watson reminded committee chairmen that it was time to get their reports to her to send to district chairmen for judging. Mrs. Soell, vice president of Santa Rosa District, requested each club member to submit four recipes for a cookbook that the district plans to compile. Twenty members attended the meeting.

LOOK WHO'S NEW

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Williamson announce the birth of Kelly May, a seven pound, three ounce daughter, born December 9. The baby has one brother, Reese, three years of age.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williamson and Mrs. Richard Holdeman of Iowa Park. Great-grandparents are Mrs. Carl Williamson of Iowa Park, Mrs. James Williams of Wichita Falls, and Mrs. Clara Hamilton of Linden, Texas.

New officers are elected

New officers to serve for the 1981-82 club year were elected Friday morning during a meeting of the Iowa Park Garden Club held in Texas Electric Reddy Room. Hostesses were Mrs. David Parkey and Mrs. Eddie Worthy.

Mrs. W.A. George will head the new slate as president. Elected to serve with her were Mmes. Marvin Klinkerman, vice president; M.T. Archer, treasurer; Vernon Gilbert, recording secretary; David Parkey, corresponding secretary; and Eddie Worthy, historian.

Mrs. Frank Harlin gave the thought for the day using New Year's resolutions that were conducive to practicing love, not only to friends but also to enemies, during the year.

Mrs. R.L. Good presided during the business meeting. She appointed Mmes. Archer, Charlie Lee and Harlin to serve on a committee to check into the possibility of purchasing stainless steel flatware for the Reddy Room.

Mrs. George conducted the workshop during which time decorations for the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce banquet were finished.

Mrs. Good announced a plant exchange and covered dish luncheon as highlights of the next regular meeting. Each member is to bring a plant for exchange.

Dorothy T. Montgomery, owner of Educational Service Associates, a firm begun in 1979, who is assisted by her daughters, Linda M. Gipson and Diane M. Spiller, was guest speaker for the Philia Study Club meeting Monday evening.

The meeting was held in Texas Electric Reddy Room, and members of the Amity Study Club were special guests. Hostesses were Mrs. Thomas Johnson and Mrs. Valer Mae Jones. Mrs. Herman Escue was the presiding officer.

Mrs. Montgomery, a noted educator of the area, discussed some of the services rendered by her firm that were aimed at self-improvement techniques and time management pointers.

She explained services offered to students individually through tutoring, educational testing and evaluation, diagnostic teaching, instruction for learning disabilities and referral services. In serving the students in small groups, she told how she and her daughters helped to prepare them for college entrance.

Becker, Millender vows exchanged in Indiana

The First Baptist Church in Seymour, Ind. was the setting for the Jan. 3 wedding of Miss Deborah Lynn Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl A. Becker of that city, and Michael Miles Millender, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Millender of Iowa Park.

Dr. Stewart H. Silver, pastor, officiated the double-ring nuptials at an altar centered with a white arch decorated with green and white garlands, burgundy and dusty silk roses. Seven-branched candelabra set off with matching silk roses flanked the arch. The altar setting was completed with the unity candelabrum. Church pews for parents were marked with cascades of French roses and forget-me-nots tied with burgundy ribbons.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Vincent Wince, organist, Miss Debbie Wince, pianist and soloist, Mrs. Gail Brown and Rev. Greg Cope, soloists, and Miss Linda McIntire, flutist.

The bride was presented in marriage by her parents. She wore a traditional wedding gown of white organza over taffeta. Chantilly lace formed the high collar and the ruffled lace accented the sheer yoke and fitted bodice. Further interest in the gown was added in the unusual treatment of the long, fitted sleeves overlaid with sheer bishop sleeves and tiers of Chantilly lace bordering the hem of the skirt and cathedral train that lifted on the sides to form swags.

The bride's fingertip veil of silk illusion was edged in the chosen lace and secured to a cap of the same ornamentation. She carried an all-silk bouquet of baby orchids, sweetheart roses and stephanotis in her chosen colors of burgundy and rose. The bouquet was accented with baby's breath, forget-me-nots, satin and lace streamers.

The bride was attended by Miss Susan Becker of Seymour, Ind. as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Jill Besser, also of Seymour, and Miss Debbie Sluder of Wichita Falls. They wore dusty rose Qiana gowns enhanced with matching chiffon overblouses and wore clusters of roses and baby's breath in their hair. Miss Becker carried three French roses arranged with baby's breath, greenery and burgundy velvet ribbon. The bridesmaids' bouquets

The bride's parents were hosts for the wedding reception held in the Fellowship Center of the church. The tables in the room were appointed with burgundy candles burning in white candelabra. Miss Amy Alexander served the three-tiered cake, and Mrs. Melody Ude registered guests.

The groom wore a burgundy tuxedo enriched with a velvet coat, white shirt with burgundy-trimmed ruffles and a boutonniere formed of pink French roses, baby's breath and forget-me-nots. All male members of the wedding party were clad in burgundy tuxedos.

Dale Merrill of Wichita Falls served as best man. Tony Harrison and Max Millender, also of Wichita Falls, were groomsmen and also acted as ushers with Dan Becker of Iowa Park High School and is presently a student at Midwestern State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Millender and Mrs. Viola Becker were out-of-town guests for the wedding.

Cook of the Week

After eating turkey and dressing with giblet gravy, potatoes, cranberry sauce, hot rolls, mincemeat and pecan pie throughout the holiday season, most people enjoy returning to their normal everyday routines, most especially good, old everyday eating.

Not only is this soothing to the tastebuds, but at the same time an economical move, with today's food prices.

This week's cook, Mrs. Ken Wheeler of Holliday, shares two recipes calling for ground beef, and one with chicken which have become two of the main meats served in budget-minded households around the country.

Mrs. Wheeler and her husband, an oil field pumper, have lived in the Holliday area since 1934. The Wheelers have two sons, J.R. of Albuquerque, N.M., and Kenneth of El Paso.

When times were good, the Wheelers, like several other families in the area, feasted on steak, roast and potatoes. Beef prices were low enough and steaks, roast and other meats could be served without too much strain on the family pocketbook.

"I remember buying a whole beef several years ago," said Mrs. Wheeler, "and after it was dressed, the boys and my husband refused to eat the ground beef, so I eventually gave it away to friends. When I see today's beef prices, I think back to that time. It would never happen

Mrs. Wheeler is active in the Holliday Church of Christ, and considers crochet her main hobby, although she spends several hours in the spring and summer in her yard where she grows a wide variety of flowers and plants.

Another recipe, "Orange-Onion Salad", is one which at first sight, might not appeal to everyone's senses, but more than likely will have surprising results. "The first time I saw the recipe, I booed it," remarked Mrs. Wheeler, "but one day I tried it served with roast beef and vegetables, and it was surprisingly delicious."

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

"The judges are running our schools," stated a frustrated school principal last week in a small Louisiana district, and his next comment is likely shared by a vast majority of Americans: "... and I'm getting sick and tired of it."

The principal was talking about a federal judge's edict that three white girls were not to attend his school, in their neighborhood, but must be bussed several miles to another campus where the enrollment was dominated by blacks. And he was in the middle of a challenge of a state judge who instructed him to enroll the girls at his school, against the wishes of the federal judge.

It appears that law is like religion. . . whatever you believe is however you interpret what is written. But, unlike a preacher, you can't ignore what a judge tells you, or you'll wind up broke or in jail, or both.

Did you hear the law handed down by a federal judge named Justice, who this week said Texas' bilingual education is not adequate. He has given our state public schools instructions to increase bilingual education beyond the first three years to five, and a bunch of other stuff just as silly, expensive, unnecessary and, as far as I'm concerned, unconstitutional.

Closer to home, within the past couple of weeks down at Haskell, that county's sheriff was charged with four violations of law, including official misconduct, to which he pled guilty.

A district judge not only slapped his wrists with a light fine, but issued an unusual verdict which included the acts, or any other act committed before Nov. 4, could not be used to remove the sheriff from office.

In other words, God is not the only one who can forgive us of our wrongdoings.

Sure, we have energy problems, but . . .

let's keep running strong.

We Americans have always been determined and inventive people. No matter how bad things have been from time to time, we've met our challenges together, and kept on running. We've even gone ahead.

With plenty of cheap energy, we've made our lives easier and better. Now the oil and gas that are easy to recover and cheap to burn are gone. But that doesn't mean we've run out of energy. There's enough coal in the United States to last 300 years, and a dependable supply of uranium. We also have oil and gas, even though they're harder to recover. All these fuels cost more than they did in the past, but the energy is there.

Some people think we shouldn't try to use it. They believe we'd be better off to retreat to a romantic past when life, so the thinking goes, was simpler. They forget the bad things about those "good old days." Most of all, they forget that the world's main source of energy was human drudgery.

We believe there's enough energy for all Americans . . . so long as we conserve together, and work together to make sensible use of our coal, our nuclear fuel, and the oil and gas that are still necessary.

Together, we'll solve our energy problems . . . and keep running strong.

With their 25-19 win over Graham Monday, the freshman girls' basketball team now holds a 7-3 season record.

Their other wins have been 32-24 over Childress, 32-29 Rider, 26-25 Wichita Falls High, 37-26 Vernon, 31-29 Olney and 24-14 over Childress.

One of their wins brought the consolation title at the Vernon tournament.

Their three losses were 34-29 to Rider, 37-29 to Quannah and 37-27 to Vernon.

Firemen honored

Hawkettes turn winners

The Hawkettes approached last weekend with only two victories in the young basketball season, but they now appear to be rolling, having won three of their last four games.

Two of the wins came in the Wichita Falls Basketball Classic tournament, where they won third place. And then, to show they are for real, the Hawkettes defeated Graham Monday night, in a non-conference game.

Iowa Park opened tournament play with a 51-49 decision over Wichita Falls High, but fell in the second round, 58-35, to Hirschi, which eventually wound up in second place. They humbled Burkburnett 65-46 in the finals to cop third place among the eight competing teams.

Though Monday's game with Graham had been billed as their district opener, Coach Ray Sefcik said it was a fill-in game and would not count on the district record. Tomorrow's game at Vernon, however, will be the Dist. 3-AAAA opener.

Sophomore Lisa Yeakley led Hawkette scoring against Graham with 19 big points, and Kay Stevenson had 11.

The girls jumped to an 18-10 lead by the end of the first quarter, and extended it to 33-20 by halftime. Graham narrowed the gap by three points to trail 43-33 after three periods, but Iowa Park emerged 61-45 victor.

In the first tournament game, host Wichita Falls took command in the first quarter with a 15-9 lead, and the two teams equaled each other with 11 points in the second period. But the last half was all Iowa Park, 15-8 in the third period and 16-15 in the fourth. Jill Watts was high with 26 points.

It looked like another Iowa Park win through the first quarter of the Hirschi game, as the Hawkettes led 12-8. But the second and third periods were all Hirschi, as they outscored Iowa Park 23-11 and 20-5, respectively. Stevenson was the only Hawkette finishing in double figures, with 10 points.

The Hawkettes played like they owned Burkburnett, outscoring their opponents 13-10, 23-10 and 18-14 in the first three quarters. Four players finished in double digits: Tammie Richardson, 14; Yeakley, 15; Watts and Lindy Neely, 10 each.

Following their district opener tomorrow at Vernon, the Hawkettes will next host Mineral Wells Tuesday.

Hawks edge Bowie

Breaking their three-game losing streak and winning the consolation bracket of the Wichita Falls tournament last weekend was a big thing for the boys' varsity basketball team.

But Tuesday night's 47-46 win over Bowie was even larger.

Coach Earnie Reusch got his Hawks back on the winning track after losing their tournament opener to Rider, the eventual champion, by winning their next two games in the Wichita Falls Basketball Classic.

The win over Bowie looms as a major feat for the Hawks, however, because Dec. 30 at Bowie, the Jackrabbits handled the Mean Green in a bad way, 52-38.

It was a big second quarter for the Hawks that made the difference in the score. The two clubs were tied at 12-12 after the first quarter. But Iowa Park outscored Bowie 14-8 in the second stanza, and then held on for the win.

The Jackrabbits caught up with four points in the third period, 10-6, but their rally fell short in the final frame.

Junior Steve Smith provided almost half of the Hawks' points, hitting 21.

The junior varsity, as it did in their earlier meeting, beat Bowie, 57-43.

In the tournament opener, Rider jumped on the Hawks in a cold-shooting second quarter to take a 30-16 lead to the dressing room at halftime. Going into the last quarter behind 46-27, Iowa Park put on a 16-9 rally, but fell short of overtaking the tourney champions. High scorers for Iowa Park were Steve Smith and Ken Thomason, with 11 each.

In their first game of the consolation bracket, the Hawks bounced the Coyote JV all over the court, leading by more than 20 points at several times before finishing 66-54. Coach Reusch played every member of his 15-man squad. Thomason had 18 points, Steve Paige 17 and Smith 13.

Defeating Hirschi 46-42 for the consolation trophy could have a bearing on the final standings of the forthcoming Dist. 3-AAAA play.

The Huskies are usually in the thick of the race for the conference title, but Saturday's play by Iowa Park served notice to other district teams that the Hawks are to be reckoned with.

Both clubs were tied with 19 points at the halfway mark, and it looked like Hirschi was going to blow the Hawks off the court in the third period when they outscored Iowa Park 14-5.

But the Hawks came roaring back in the final frame to out-point Hirschi 22-9 to take the bracket title. Three Hawks finished in double digits: Paige, 13; Thomason, 11; and Smith, 10.

The Hawks will host Wichita Falls High with a doubleheader tomorrow night, and then will spend the next week preparing for their Jan. 23 conference opener here with Graham.
