RECORD-SIZE AUDIENCE JAMMED INTO CITY COUNCIL CHAMBERS MONDAY
... Planning and Zoning Commission asked for citizen input.

Considerable interest in child care shown

A record crowd jammed into the city's council chambers Monday evening for the meeting of the Planning and Zoning Commission.

All the seats were filled, and people were standing two and three deep around the walls.

Most of them were on hand in response to a notice issued by the Commission, seeking input concerning child care centers in the city, mainly in residential areas.

It was explained that city officials had discovered several years after the zoning ordinance had been discovered, that such care centers were in violation when located in residential areas. Commission members wanted to hear from the public before making a recommendation to the city council whether a change in the ordinance should be made.

But, because there are so many points to be considered and the issues are so complex, Commission members decided to delay at least a month before drafting their recommendation.

Another issue on which input was sought was whether open carparks should be permitted without special permission. Several citizens were present to make comments.

A third item before the Commission was presentation of a preliminary draft for proposed construction of a 35,475 square foot business building between Park West Shopping Center and Shaw Motor Co.

Commissioners apparently will recommend to the council that open carparks be permitted, after certain preliminaries are completed by the owner.

Final drafting of an ordinance for carparks will be considered at the next Commission meeting, before it is presented to the council for its consideration.

Lane Cavin, representing Dunaway and Associates of Fort Worth, a firm which does the preliminary work for Wal-Mart Stores, gave copies of the preliminary plans to Commission members. The plans call for a structure 155x225 feet to face the south from the north side of the lot, and the balance of the area be paved for parking.

Cavin said the plans will be completed to permit a 20,000 square foot expansion on the west end of the building sometime in the future.

Two entries off West Highway and one off Pacific are shown on the plat.

Cavin said the only problem he sees is a larger water line than the four-inch line now located there, would be necessary for fire protection. An eight-inch line is on the east side of Pacific and 14-inch line on Magnolia and both are available for tapping, he was told.

When asked about how soon he expected construction to begin, Cavin said he understood the company has Iowa Park listed as one of three top priorities. The first store to be built is at Killeen and second at Burkburnett. Announcement of that store was made some three months ago.

"Wal-Mart is anxious to get operating (here), and serious about getting open," Cavin said.

During discussion on child care centers, more than half of those in the audience responded when asked how many were connected with operating centers here.

All but one man in the audience said there should be little or no restrictions on operating child care centers, once they have been licensed by the state.

The one man who spoke against them said he lived next to one where 30 children were kept. He complained that traffic was heavy, parking almost impossible, that there was considerable noise and some rock throwing. "They will run a neighbor ragged," he said.

Commission members, and Mayor

Johnny Crawford, all agreed there is an obvious need for child care here, especially with so many families where both the husband and wife work. But they said there must be some type of protection for those in the neighborhood, and how to provide that while not reducing the city's capacity of care centers was the problem for which they must provide answers.

In expected light voting Saturday, two political newcomers were elected, one to the city council and one to the school board.

Two incumbents were returned to office, one in each race, and a city incumbent was rejected in his bid for re-election and replaced by a former alderman.

Charlie Lee, manager of Cryovac plant, was the newcomer named to the city council, while Rex Wells, a farmer and rancher, was voted onto the school board in his first political bid.

Bill Gilmore was successful in his campaign for another term as city alderman, and Jerald Brown was equally successful as a candidate for school trustee.

George Hammonds had sought re-election as city alderman, but fell short to the vote count garnered by Herman Mahler. Mahler had previously served 16 years on the council, and put his name back in the hat after a few years absence.

Only 708 votes were cast in the three school election ballot boxes, while 594 voted in the city election.

Saturday is climax for Clean-Up Week

Judging from the number of telephone calls received by the Chamber of Commerce office, this week's annual community clean-up project will be a major success, according to Mrs. Ray Pittman, Chamber secretary.

Clean-Up Week began Monday and will continue through Saturday.

The city's sanitation landfill is open free of charge for dumping, but only to residents of Iowa Park who have obtained a permit or temporary permit at the city hall, according to Steve Morath, city administrator.

The telephone calls Mrs. Pittman referred to are from citizens who have large items which are not permitted to be deposited in the trash containers.

By calling the Chamber office,

592-5441, and reporting the address and location of the items, a city crew will pick up the items. Included are such large objects as chairs, divans, mattresses, and refrigerators.

Saturday will be the climax and major thrust of the week-long clean-up. Already, five groups have volunteered to clean up designated areas, and others can volunteer by calling the Chamber office.

Wayne House and Keith Aulds, Chamber directors who are heading this year's project, will be designating the areas to be cleaned by volunteers. Groups and individuals wishing to work Saturday should be at the Chamber office by 8:30 a.m. from there the volunteers will be dispatched to work areas.

Plastic bags are being provided by Cryovac. When filled, they will be left along roadsides to be picked up by other volunteers and city employees.

The council designated Saturday as an extra work day for all street and sanitation department personnel.

Groups who have volunteered to work include the Rotary Club; Cub Scout Pack 36, supervised by Jim Denton and Gary Coleman; Boy Scout Troop 37, supervised by Randy Lovelady; Boy Scout Troop 38, supervised by Don Barnes; and Junior Girl Scouts, supervised by Nancy Jones.

Free soft drinks will be provided for all workers, and will be delivered to the workers by a vehicle.

The annual Clean-Up Week is co-sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and city of Iowa Park.

Seven students qualify for region UIL contests

Seven Iowa Park High students qualified for the Region I University Interscholastic League literary contest by placing in the Dist. 3-AAAA contest held Saturday at Burkburnett.

With the one-act play contest yet to be held, Iowa Park has earned 70 points in district competition. The play results will be added to that total.

Students qualifying for the region contests, to be held Apr. 24-25 at Odessa College, are: Kevin Robnett, first, number sense; Darla Flick, first, typing; Robby Hausler, second, typing; Buck Cargal, second, headline writing; Wayne Watson, second, persuasive speaking; Kari Hamilton, third, editorial writing; and Melanie Mason, third, poetry interpretation.

Two other contestants would have qualified, but will not make the trip. Carla Kent tied for third in prose interpretation, but the tie was broken on a coin toss. Linda King placed second in shorthand, but was disqualified for taking dictation on unspecified paper, according to Bob Dawson, principal.

One-act play competition will be held today at Vernon Regional Junior College. Iowa Park's cast will be performing "The Shadow Box" at approximately 1:30 p.m.

Community prepares for Easter

As Easter nears, the community of Iowa Park is preparing to observe one of the holiest of all periods among Christians.

The schools will dismiss tomorrow afternoon and classes will not resume until Apr. 20.

Good Friday services will be held Apr. 17, beginning at 12:30 p.m., in the sanctuary of the First Christian Church, co-sponsored by the First Christian, First United Methodist and First Presbyterian churches of Iowa Park.

The devotional will be given by Rev. Clyde Markee and special music will be a solo, "Lonesome Valley," sung by David Hildebrand.

Congregational hymns will include "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," "Are Ye Able?," "Beneath the Cross," and "In the Cross of Christ I Glory."

The Lord's Supper will be served during Maundy Thursday services, 7:45 p.m. Apr. 16, in the First United Methodist Church sanctuary.

Following a brief devotional by Rev. Michael R. Jackson, worshipers will go by "twelves" to a special room prepared for them to receive the Lord's Supper in a manner similar to the way in which Jesus and his disciples received it, according to biblical accounts.

Lone Star rate increase request on city's agenda

Two ordinances concerning Lone Star Gas Company service and rates in Iowa Park will be considered when the city council meets at 7 p.m. Monday.

Prior to taking up the business of the ordinances, the old council will receive minutes of the Planning and Zoning Commission and Traffic Safety Council meetings, canvass election results and administer oath of office to new members.

Two new aldermen and another being returned include Herman Mahler and Charlie Lee, and Bill Gilmore were re-elected Saturday.

With a 90-day delay for study of a general service rate by Lone Star expiring next Tuesday, the council is required to either take action on the request or set an additional 30-day period for further study.

During the past 90 days, the council has hired the services of a consulting firm, McMorries and Associates of Amarillo, to study the rate request and make recommendations for council action.

The second ordinance to be considered is in response to a request by the utility company. It concerns permitting Lone Star to do line repairs between its meters and the customer's home, instead of requiring an outside plumber to be hired.

Steve Morath, city administrator, said an ordinance requiring persons working in eating establishments to take a food handlers' course every two years may be on Monday's agenda, if an official from the county can be available to address the council. If not, the issue may be postponed until a later meeting, he said.

Sale postponed

The annual plant sale of the high school horticulture class has been postponed until Apr. 18, according to George Brandt, instructor.

Brandt said several people had been informed the sale would be held this Saturday.

ARSON SUSPECTED - Volunteer firemen from Iowa Park, Burkburnett and West Wichita answered two separate fire calls to Wellington Lane last week where they found unoccupied houses engulfed in flames. The first was reported at 1:18 p.m. Tuesday and the second at 2:22 p.m. Thursday. They were less than a quarter mile apart. Officials are investigating.

Middle East is topic of study club program

"The Middle East", one of the 23 Study Club's most relevant program topics for the year, was discussed through a panel composed of Mmes. Travis Smith, Charlie Lee and Sam Hunter during the Thursday afternoon meeting held in the home of Mrs. W.G. Steele. Mrs. Sam Hill shared hostess duties.

The program was planned to show that the U.S. must reevaluate its relationship with all countries as the changing world revolves. Topics discussed were Egypt, Israel and the plight of the Palestinians. Each speaker gave pertinent historical facts and present status of the countries or people of her assignment.

Mrs. Bill Bates was leader for the afternoon. Mrs. T.M. Thaxton read Handel's Masterpiece for the devotion. For the arts number, Mrs. Steele contributed an organ solo, "Hear O Israel" by Jarome Weinberger.

Starting with the richness and grandeur of Egypt's illustrious past, Mrs. Smith stated that she was one of the leading civilizations from 3500 to 1150 B.C. Her people produced the world's first calendar, first method of measuring, built the pyramids that still give the story of the country's grandeur, established local and national government, introduced hieroglyphic and demotic writing, pioneered in astronomy, medicine, dentistry, architecture and agriculture.

She said that historians have not been able to explain the decline of the country which led to Egypt being a subject nation for many, many years and did not end until Nasser took over the reigns from British control. Mrs. Smith remarked that Sudat, the present ruler, has done much in a relatively short time to bring the people toward the benefits of the 20th century and to bring peace to his part of the world.

She stated that the country's reentry into the Arab State Systems was contingent on progress made in settling of issues of the West Bank, Jerusalem, Gaza and Palestinian questions. She closed by asking "If no settlement is made what effect will it have on the Middle East and the whole world?"

Mrs. Lee discussed the nation of Israel, which in Old Testament times included the 12 tribes, now an independent Jewish republic upon the termination of the British mandate over Palestine. Jerusalem is its capital and Hebrew its official language. The population of the 7,000 square mile republic was 655,000 in 1948 and had increased to 1,872,390 by 1956. In the first three years after it became a republic, the people built 78,000 new dwellings, established 345 new villages and farm communities.

In considering the present status of Israel, Mrs. Lee said that it has become a parliamentary democracy since the inception of the state, but it has no written constitution. The Knessett is a unicameral, 120-member body and is elected by secret ballot. Begin is the prime minister of Israel which is currently plagued with inflation and governmental scandals. Mrs. Hunter began the history of Palestine with the early nomadic Hebrews, tracing them through days of slavery, captivity and the Crusades. In ancient times, it was the region of southwest Asia bordering on the Mediterranean Sea and extending east of the Jordan river in Bashan and Gilead. In modern times, it was the country between the Jordan river and Mediterranean Sea. It was a British mandate between 1923-48, and after that it became a republic of Israel and Arab territory and today, there is no Palestine as such.

Mrs. Hunter told how the Jews, when they had no homeland of their own, left Palestine and migrated westward and established themselves in various countries. In spite of persecution and mistreatment, they produced many gifted leaders in business, finance, science, philosophy and other fields. She said that Palestine came under the authority of Britain in 1900 under a covenant of the League of Nations. For years the Jewish Zionists had been agitating for a back to Palestine movement. In 1910, the British government issued the Balfour Declaration promising the Jews a national home in Palestine, but the Arabs resented it and through the ensuing years the battle over boundaries has raged until Palestine has become lost in the struggle.

During the business directed by Mrs. China B. Smith, a report of the recent Santa Rosa District convention was given by Mrs. Erwin F. Soell, and plans were finalized for the luncheon meeting April 16 honoring the 1981 Outstanding Girl and Boy of Iowa Park High School.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with an antique white crocheted cloth over pink satin. The centerpiece was an arrangement of roses, poppies, phlox and daisies in spring hues with an Easter rabbit standing at one side. Yellow candles glowed in tall silver holders and the Easter theme was carried out in the napkins and refreshments.

HOURS OF LABOR are represented in the two quilts pictured that will be given away Saturday at the annual Friendly Door bazaar. The one hanging on the wall is a Queen-size daisy-patterned beauty and the one four members are holding is a patchwork quilt. Pictured are four members that spent considerable time working to get the quilts and other items ready for the event. From left: Mmes. T.C. Scott, Elmer Singleton, R.G. McLaurin and Lloyd Lowe.

Cook of the Week

Mrs. Jim Kirkhart likes to cook and her recipes today attest to her preference for desserts. When thinking of a beverage to go with cakes, pies and cobblers, the most popular of all seems to be coffee, our great American beverage.

Legend has it that many, many years ago sheep happened to graze upon the berries and seeds of the coffee arabica shrub and became so stimulated that they could not sleep; then the shepherds tried nibbling the berries too. According to the legend, Mohammed appeared to the shepherds and told them to boil the berries in water and the drink would make them require less sleep so that they could have more time for prayer.

History tells us that Johann Sebastian Bach was so fond of coffee that he wrote the Coffee Cantata, a humorous one-act operetta about a stern father's attempt to check his daughter's indulgence in the coffee habit, and that Balzac drank as many as 40 cups of coffee per day. Coffee has been around for many years, and even though not many people like it to the extent of drinking 40 cups per

Letters to the Editor

Dear Bob,
After a heated public meeting in which my opinion appeared to be the minority I would like this chance to reiterate my position on child care and the state laws governing child care centers.

First of all I concur that local neighborhood child care is an essential service and one that should not be denied. The state of Texas has established extensive and thorough regulations on child care. To understand my recommendations let me clarify the various state categories of child care.

The first category is that of the "registered family home." This is a home where more than (3) three but less than (7) seven children are watched for financial compensation. Again this is only a registration and there is no state regulation. There are (34) thirty four such homes registered in Iowa Park.

The second category is state licensed and regulated. As many as (12) twelve children may be watched in this category which is defined as "kindergartens, nurseries, and group care homes." Occupancy is also limited by the amount of area which is freely accessible to the children for their expressed use. In this category each child must be provided (30) thirty square feet each indoors and a fenced outdoor play area of an undetermined size. There are (5) five of these type facilities in Iowa Park.

The final category is a "licensed day care center," again regulated by the state of Texas. This type of facility can watch an unlimited number of children as long as area requirements can be met. These area requirements are (30) thirty square feet of space indoors and (80) eighty square feet of space outdoors, enclosed by fencing of buildings; for the maximum number of children allowed out doors at any one time. There are (2) such facilities in Iowa Park and only one is in a residential area.

I feel that these state regulations are sufficient in controlling the amount of children watched and that the zoning board need regulate only the amount of space allowed for day care center's use in residential areas.

I propose that "family dwellings in residential areas shall be permitted to use said dwellings in a secondary manner to family occupancy for the expressed purpose of child care when this service can be performed without altering the dwelling beyond its original exterior dimensions and fulfillment of all applicable state regulations has been met for the number of children to be cared for."

An example of such an ordinance would permit the enclosing of a two-car garage, some 400 square feet, and the use of a family room of 150 square feet to legally accommodate up to (18) eighteen children.

I feel that this would be a fair ordinance allowing for the numerous homes who watch less than twelve children and also permit those individuals who wish to remodel the interior of their homes in order to accommodate a slightly larger number of children. However, by maintaining original exterior dimensions large additions would be prohibited thereby limiting the number of children that could be watched in a residential area to about twenty. Also by clarifying that the structure still be used primarily as a family dwelling a vacant house could not be purchased solely for use as a child care center.

Thank you for this opportunity.
Ken Thornton
P.S. I have received anonymous phone calls, agreeing with my stand on large scale day care centers, from fellow citizens at the meeting Monday night but who could not speak out since they were families which watched smaller numbers of children.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

I understand there's another move afoot down at Austin to make horse race betting legal in the state. It's been an on-going effort for a number of years.

Besides those who love to watch horse racing, and those who own the horses they want to race, I ran across some pretty strong figures last weekend which make it obvious there will be some towns in the state who want to back the proposal, from a business standpoint.

Horse racing, at least for the city of Hot Springs, Ark., is a whole lot better than federal programs for generating money.

On the inside of the back cover of Oaklawn Race Track's program is a list of figures which point out the money it generates. Since the track has long since been located there, the information can only be for public relations, and not to get betting allowed there.

The information inside the cover states:

"Paid $1,057,429 to the City of Hot Springs in breakage in 1980, and since 1935 has paid to the city over $6,000,000 in breakage.

"Paid $66,798 to Garland Country upon cancellation of unredeemed mutuel tickets in 1980, and since 1965 the county has received more than $415,000 in unredeemed mutuel tickets.

"Produced over $8.5-million in special taxes on racing for the State of Arkansas in 1980, and since 1935 Oaklawn has produced over $92-million in similar taxes.

"Paid $6,700,500 in purses to horse owners, and since 1935 Oaklawn has paid in purses to horse owners a total of more than $65-million.

"Has produced since 1968 for Arkansas breeders and owners $2,108,121 in breeders' awards and owners' supplementary purses."

What the brochure didn't point out was the money the track generates for eating establishments, hotels and motels and service stations, by being such an attraction. The city is full of them. Nor did it point out the hundreds hired to work at the track.

Of course, the hot mineral water baths is still a major attraction to the city, accounting considerably to pulling people from around the nation to the town. And beautiful Hamilton Lake does its share, also.

But Saturday's gate of almost 53,000 persons was felt by the businesses who catered to them before and after the races.

There have been a lot of arguments against parimutual betting, many of them good and valid. But there's also the other side, equally good and valid.

Start average billing before you start your air conditioner

If you use the same amount of electricity this summer as you did last year, you're going to see a big increase in your summer bills.

Our Average Billing Plan can help, because it "averages out" your electric bills. You still pay for all the electricity you use, and your payments will still vary from month to month. But in high-use months you pay for less electricity than you use, and in low-use months you pay for more than you use.

Many customers find this helps ease the impact of high summer air conditioning bills. Our average billing plan is available to both residential customers and churches. If you'd like to know more, give us a call at Texas Electric.

Farmers of America. She attended Vernon Regional Junior College Technical Center in Wichita Falls and is currently employed at Beall Auto Parts. Easter Seal telethon pledges short of '80

A total of $1,715 was pledged by the people of Iowa Park to the Easter Seal Telethon Mar. 28 and 29 for the North Texas Easter Seal Rehabilitation Center in Wichita Falls. A total of $90,698 was pledged from Wichita Falls and surrounding area. At least $100,000 is expected when final tabulations are in.

Connie Hrncirik, telethon coordinator for Iowa Park, said that the amount pledged from Iowa Park was under the amount for the 1980 telethon, which was $2,296. However, the amount is expected to increase when the final pledges are in.

Bob Birk of Iowa Park is a board member of the rehab center. One hundred and seventy three patients have been helped from Iowa Park at the rehab center. Bettye Wages, executive director of the rehabilitation center, expressed appreciation to all those who operated the satellite pledge center, as well as to those who contributed.

She said the rehab center has chocolate Easter bunnies to sell. Cost is $2. The bunnies also are being sold now through Easter at Wichita Falls grocery stores.

The telethon, aired for 20 hours over Channel 6, KAUZ-TV, featured the Wichita Falls segment 20 minutes of every hour. Max Andrews, general manager of Channel 6 and telethon host, said: "I'm very pleased how the community responded. TV-6 has always been interested in helping the rehab center. We are proud to have been a part of the telethon and in helping the handicapped."

Ron Longino, telethon chairman, added: "I also want to thank the community and all the people in the area who made pledges, as well as the volunteers and Channel 6 for their

Returning to education is sorority's program

A talk on "Sharing Education" was given Tuesday evening by Katie Myer to provide the program for the meeting of Epsilon Eta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha. She was introduced by Mrs. Lloyd Brister.

One of its purposes is to provide a support group for incoming non-traditional students and assist them in attaining a smooth transition into the university setting, the speaker stated.

The meeting took place in the home of Mrs. Roy Reid and the co-hostess was Mrs. Paul Tigrett.

TOPS meets

The TOPS Club started two new contests during the meeting Monday night. One that will end May 25 is for both TOPS and KOPS and the best loser or one that has maintained her weight control will receive an assortment of kitchen linen brought by club members. The second contest for TOPS only will end June 15.

Mrs. Pauline Steele, leader, appointed Mrs. A.O. Beall, hospitality chairman, Mrs. DeWayne Williams, contest chairman, and Mrs. Lloyd Lowe, program chairman for April.

Nineteen members weighed in for the meeting. Mrs. Williams was the best TOPS loser. Mrs. Carl Walsh and Mrs. Gene Young tied for ideal KOPS honor.

Ramming, Stone wedding in Wichita Falls

Honeymooning at Lake Tahoe are Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Wade Stone who were married Saturday afternoon at the Fain Memorial Presbyterian Church in Wichita Falls. Vows were officiated by Michael Parsons.

The bride is the former Brenda Sue Ramming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rogers Cowden and Dr. Richard Ramming Jr. of Wichita Falls, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Stone of Holliday.

Mr. Cowden escorted his daughter to the altar and presented her in marriage for her parents. She was a radiant bride in her formal gown of white organza and Venise lace. The slightly raised bodice sculpted in lace fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline applied in lace and cap sleeves was atop a full skirt adorned with the lace appliques and a lace hem flowing into a chapel train. Her bridal illusion veil trimmed in the openwork ornamentation drifted to waltz length from a Juliet cap of lace.

The bride carried a nosegay of yellow silk roses and white silk daisies intermingled with fresh gypsophila accented with yellow and white cascading ribbons. A diamond drop, a gift from the groom, was her "something new" tradition. The "something old" accessory was a dime that her late grandmother wore in her wedding shoe. "Something borrowed" was a handkerchief of Mrs. Floy Welch of Holliday, grandmother of the groom, and her garter added the touch of blue.

The charming trio of bridal attendants wore chick Qiana gowns of mint green. The blouson bodices featured spaghetti straps with chiffon capes covering the arms. The three-quarter length skirts were styled with a wrap front effect over an underskirt. They wore matching floppy picture frame hats banded with yellow and white daisies, and carried nosegays consisting of yellow and white silk daisies, fresh baby's breath, green and white ribbon effects.

Mrs. Steve Petty of Houston, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Rick Johnson of Holliday and Mrs. John Grimsaw of Wichita Falls were bridesmaids.

The couple exchanged their vows in a setting featuring fifteen-branched candelabra entwined with boxwood, two spiral candelabra, two altar arrangements of white gladiola, mums and roses, and a double prayer bench. The pew bows were fashioned of greenery and flowers in the bride's colors.

Dr. Roland Hough, organist, presented the prenuptial music and the traditional marches. Miss Debbie Stone, sister of the groom, provided the guitar accompaniment for her vocal selections, "There Is Love" and "We've Only Just Begun."

The groom's best man was his brother, Kyle Stone of Holliday. Groomsmen and ushers were Rick Johnston and Jerry Ayres of Holliday and Jerry Cowden of Oklahoma City. The groom wore an all-white tuxedo and a yellow silk rose touched with springer fern for a boutonniere. His attendants were attired in black pants topped with white jackets with black lapels.

Mothers of the bride and groom complemented their gowns with white japette orchids. Mrs. Cowden wore a mauve Qiana gown. In design, it featured a natural waist bodice enhanced with tiny tucks, a long-sleeved jacket and A-line skirt. Mrs. Stone selected a maize chiffon gown set apart with a slightly raised bodice, Queen Anne neckline, long sheer sleeves and accordion pleated skirt.

On the eve of the wedding, the rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents at the Wichita Club. A toasting party honoring the betrothed couple followed the dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N.E. McBride.

The reception following the wedding was given by the bride's parents at the Wichita Club. The tables in the setting were covered with white satin.

The bride's table, which was attractive from every perspective, stood out prominently in the room. The centerpiece was a four-branched candelabrum holding a silk bouquet of green carnations, white daisies and snapdragons, large yellow daisies and fresh baby's breath.

The lavish tower cake possessed the prettiness to please the most fastidious. The elegant tiers and top were covered with yellow, green and white roses and daisies shaped in frosting and separated with graceful pillars.

The groom's table was appointed with an arrangement of fruit and a chocolate cake decorated tastefully with marzipan fruit.

The bride's book table held an Easter basket filled with white and yellow silk daisies formed into a nosegay.

Members of the houseparty were Mmes. Lloyd Taylor Jr., Steve Wilson, Steve Stone, Ricky Stone, N.E. McBride, T.M. Dobbins, Clifford Burross, Reggy Lowder, Oran Washington, Clark McDaniel, Bob Wellman, Ricky Allgood, Kirby Crenshaw, Debbie Karsell, Barbara Keeney, Donna Lynn Hogan; Misses Dorothy Brunette, Julie Hawkins, Rennee Borland, Marla McCord and Beverly Keeney.

The bride was graduated from Rider High School and received a degree in dental hygiene from Midwestern State University. She is employed by Dr. T.M. Dobbins and Dr. Steven K. Burross. The groom was graduated from Holliday High School and is self-employed in farming and bulldozing contracting. They will live in Wichita Falls when they return from their wedding trip. The new Mrs. Stone wore an original red jump suit when she departed on the trip.

Special wedding guests were Mrs. Floy Welch and Mrs. Ola Mae Stone, grandmothers of the groom.

Other out-of-town guests were Dr. Curtis Roberson of Oklahoma City; Messrs. and Mmes. Ronny Wind of El Campo, Steve Hale of Abernathy, John Knapp of Garland, George Harrelson of Abilene, Tom Jones of El Campo, Mike Gobel of Graham, Phil Anderson of Breckenridge, Grandy Enis of Decatur, Doil Dalton of Grapevine, Bill Karsell of Amarillo. Others were Mrs. John Rice of Austin, Mrs. Bob Newberry of Arlington, Misses Vicki Faulkner of Lewisville, Vickie Poe of Dallas, Susan Jones of El Campo; Marty Ewing of Oklahoma City and Fred Florence of Dallas.

Students place second

Holliday elementary and junior high students have been assured of at least a second place finish in the U.I.L. Elementary and Junior High Meet, held Tuesday in Nocona.

According to Dan Owen, elementary principal, only tentative results will be available until final judging of the ready writing contest, which should be sometime next week.

"If we can sweep ready writing, we could take first place," Owens said. Holliday is currently in second with 60 points, behind first place Nocona with 90. Windhorst and Boyd are tied for third with 25 points each.

Holliday has won the literary meet the last two years, according to Owens.

For the third consecutive year, the fourth and fifth grade picture memory team placed first in the contest. This year's team, consisting of Klonie Berend, Katha McAllister, Mellissa Faver, Tammy Beaves and Pam Bailey, scored an almost perfect 100, finishing with 99.60. "That means three scored a perfect 100, and two scored 99," Owens remarked.

Tentative results are as follows: ORAL READING - Fifth and sixth grade: Tim O'Brien 2nd, Jamie Martin 5th.

SPELLING AND PLAIN WRITING - Fifth and sixth grade: Stephanie Fleming 4th; Amy Goodlett 6th. Seventh and Eighth grade: Laura Bills 3rd.

NUMBER SENSE - Fifth and sixth grade: Chuck Bearden 2nd; Jason Loftiss 5th.

STORY TELLING - Brian Roland 6th.

PICTURE MEMORY TEAM - Fourth and fifth grade: Klonie Berend, Katha McAllister, Mellissa Faver, Tammy Beaves and Pam Bailey 1st.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express my deepest thanks and appreciation for the many prayers, cards, flowers, food and love shown to me and my family during this time of sorrow in the loss of my husband, Rayford. It is only in a time like this that we realize how much our friends and loved ones mean to us.

Educators seek kindergarten count

Any parent who has a child five years old as of Sept. 1 and entering kindergarten in the 1981-82 school year should contact elementary principal Dan Owen, at 586-1986.

Owen said his office needs figures on how many pre-schoolers are to enroll the following year. He also stated that if the parents have an older child in school, there is no need to contact his office.

The tentative start for pre-school kindergarten is May 5. The location and time will be available in the near future, Owen said.

No sweepstake bands this year in district

None of the Dist. 3-AAAA bands qualified for the sweepstakes in University Interscholastic League competition, an unique situation.

To qualify for sweepstakes, a band must earn a division one rating in marching competition, held during the fall, and each spring when the concert and sightreading competition is held, division one ratings.

The concert and sightreading competition was held Tuesday at Vernon, and four of the six bands in the district entered with division one ratings in marching, and needing the same ratings in concert and sightreading.

Mineral Wells was the only band to earn division one ratings in both events Tuesday, but it had a division two rating in marching.

Iowa Park and Vernon, both holding division one ratings in marching, were awarded the superior rating in sightreading, but both received division two in concert playing.

Graham and Burkburnett, the other two bands with division one ratings in marching, both received division two in Tuesday's events, as did Hirschi.

Insurance course set this evening

Is life insurance necessary? Whose life should be insured? How much insurance is enough? These and other questions will be answered at 7 this evening at the second insurance shortcourse meeting to be held at the County Extension office, 1626 Midwestern Pkwy.

Eddie Huffman, associated with Boley, Featherston, Huffman & Deal, will be the featured speaker. There are basically three types of life insurance policies - term, whole life, and endowment. Each of these may be modified to fit one's own particular needs. Each has advantages and disadvantages. Huffman will discuss these policies and, if necessary, modifications can be made to adequately protect one's family.

Huffman will also discuss health insurance programs.

The shortcourse is sponsored by Wichita County Family Living Committee, Marta Armstrong, Chairman, and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Barbara Cornelius, County Extension Agent.

Present and former 4-H members may be eligible for $5,750 in college scholarships grants if they meet requirements set by the Cooperative Extension Service.

All but one of the grants are valued at $1,000 each, and primarily are for young people planning careers in agriculture, or such related fields as forestry, veterinary medicine or animal science. The other scholarship, valued at $750, has no limits placed on choice of study. The scholarships are provided by private sector donors and arranged by National 4-H Council, a not-for-profit organization serving the 4-H program.

The Warren scholarship, established this year in memory of Gertrude L. Warren, a pioneer 4-H leader often described as the "Mother of 4-H," is a $750 grant awarded to one present or former 4-H member matriculating this fall at an accredited college, university, technical or trade school. The recipient can major in any recognized field of study and must have been influenced by 4-H in selecting a future career.

A $1,000 scholarship, donated by Educational Foundation of Alpha Gamma Rho, goes to a current 4-H member who will be enrolled as a college freshman this fall. The recipient must be planning to major in agriculture, forestry, veterinary medicine or a closely-related field.

Allied Mills, Inc. donates scholarships to two present or former 4-H members who will be enrolled as college juniors this fall and plan to major in animal science.

Two former 4-H members currently enrolled in a college of veterinary medicine can each earn $1,000 scholarships provided by Champion Valley Farms, Inc., Recipe Division.

Trustees hire teachers, others included for bonuses

Iowa Park school trustees Tuesday night hired three teachers, okayed salary increases for some school personnel, canvassed Saturday's school election and issued oaths of office to the two successful candidates during the board's regular session.

Following a 20-minute executive session, trustees reconvened in open session to hire three teachers and accept resignations from two West Wichita Cooperative teachers.

Resignations were accepted from Cynthia Pettit and Sandra Sullenburger, West Wichita Cooperative teachers working at City View.

Named to replace the two were Tony Perkins and Debbie Baber. Terry Davis was hired to teach in the Iowa Park school system.

According to superintendent Harold Cowley, Perkins is currently doing her special education work in the Holliday schools, and is scheduled to graduate from Midwestern State University in May. Baber formerly taught in Iowa Park before moving to Houston last year.

Davis, a former graduate of Iowa Park High School and the son of vice-principal Kenneth Davis, is currently teaching in Chico. Cowley said Davis was sought last year by the board, but couldn't obtain a release from contract by the Chico school board.

Salary increases were given to maintenance personnel, bus mechanics, cafeteria employees and bus drivers. Salaries for maintenance personnel was raised to $4.80 per hour, bus mechanics to $6.75, cafeteria personnel to $4.45, hourly employees to $3.45, and bus drivers to $19.50 and $22.00, depending on the length of the route.

In addition, teachers with contracts negotiated in January and February were given $500 across the board increases.

Newcomer trustee Rex Wells and incumbent Jerald Brown were issued the oath of office after the canvassing of Saturday's vote.

When trustees reorganized the board, Roy Boutwell was reinstated as president, Brown was named to replace former trustee Delbert Catlin as vice-president, and Martha Dudley was named to a second term as secretary.

Trustees then adopted a resolution to present Catlin, who chose not to run for another term on the board, with a plaque at the end of the school year, honoring his work done on the school board the past eight years.

In other business, trustees accepted tax assessor/collector Bill Steger's recommendation to set the Board of Equalization meeting for June 30 at 9 a.m. for local real estate, and July 1 at 9 a.m. for oil and gas industry. Both meetings will be held in the school administration building.

Also, trustees cast votes for Region IX Education Service Center board, with Mrs. Garland F. Johnston and Lawrence A. Berend running unopposed for Places Two and Six, and Place Four candidates Robert N. Ewing of Burkburnett and Gerald G. "Jerry" Johnson of Wichita Falls.

While explaining the ballot to trustees, Cowley mentioned that "...Place Four is what we are mainly concerned with," explaining that, under an agreement with Wichita Falls and the surrounding communities, Wichita Falls will seat two members on the board, with Iowa Park, Burkburnett and other communities in Region IX seating members on a rotating basis. Fred Parkey of Iowa Park is the outgoing Place Four member.

IRS Tax Tips

Automatic Extension on Windfall Profit Tax

The Internal Revenue Service today said that individuals claiming an overpayment on windfall profit tax on their 1980 income tax returns will have an automatic extension until June 15, 1981, to file their individual income tax return. No penalty for late payment will be asserted if the balance due is paid by June 15, 1981; however, interest, at the rate of 12 percent a year, will be charged on any unpaid tax after April 15, 1981. Taxpayers who wish to avoid payment of interest on the total tax due should file Form 4868, Application for Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return by April 15, 1981, and pay the tax estimated to be due on the return when filed.

Although the late payment penalty is generally asserted even if an extension of time to file is granted when the total tax due is not paid by April 15, the IRS, in view of its previous conflicting and ambiguous instructions, will not assert the late payment penalty in this instance, if the return is filed and any balance due is paid by June 15, 1981.

Tax Return Errors Delay Processing, Refund Checks

Many of the errors that delay tax return processing, slow refund checks, and inconvenience taxpayers are avoidable, the Internal Revenue Service said.

In 1980, 7.1 percent of all Form 1040's and 6.2 percent of all Form 1040A's contained at least one taxpayer math error of some type. Errors ranged from incorrect addition and subtraction to failure to compute the Earned Income credit when eligible.

The most common math error on both forms last year was incorrectly reporting the tax from the tax table. Problems resulted from taxpayers using the wrong tax table for their filing status, following the line for the wrong income level, and looking under the incorrect column for number of exemptions for that taxpayer.

Cotton planting date is May 18

By Don Decker
 County Agent

The uniform cotton planting date has been set for May 18, which is aimed at giving a biological control of the feared boll weevil. This uniform and voluntary planting date was set by the Wichita County Field Crops Committee along with representatives from cotton growers in the Wichita Valley. The irrigated valley has some different management concerns from dryland cotton production.

The date was set as early as possible and still have assurance of providing natural control of the weevil. The principle of weevil control with uniform planting date is based on denying one-third grown squares to the over-wintering weevil for egg laying. In other words, the weevil dies off without being able to propagate itself.

Weevils migrate to the cotton fields in this area from about May 25 to June 7. They survive up to three weeks after arriving in the cotton fields. An over-wintering weevil reaching a cotton field on June 7 could live and lay eggs until June 28 at which time it dies. The absence of cotton squares about the size of a pencil eraser prevents a site for egg laying.

It takes 40 days for cotton to go from planting to squares large enough for a weevil egg laying. If we back up 40 days from June 28, it leaves May 18 as the earliest date we can plant and still be assured of destroying the weevil cycle. Cotton growers are requested to plant cotton on or after May 18. The uniform planting date has provided excellent weevil control for the past four years. An urgent appeal goes to all growers to voluntarily cooperate with this program.

This weevil control program is directed by the county crops committee headed by Rex Wells. Junior Jinkins and Chester Brown represent the valley cotton growers. Other committee members include:

Finnell reports on drug bill

State Rep. Charles Finnell this week provided a status report on the "Texans' War on Drugs" legislative proposals which he is supporting.

"I am pleased in the amount of interest shown in these bills. The citizens of our district are very supportive of these proposals to combat the usage of illegal drugs," stated the 53rd District legislator.

As co-sponsor of HB 733, Finnell announced that this proposal to outlaw "headshops" was favorably reported out of the Criminal Jurisprudence Committee on Wednesday and is now ready for debate by the full House of Representatives.

Other anti-drug legislation cosponsored by Finnell includes HB 729, which would stiffen penalties for persons over 21 selling illegal drugs to minors, and HB 730, which proposes to toughen penalties and aid law enforcement against large-scale traffickers in illegal drugs. These bills have been referred to a House subcommittee.

Finnell is also supporting another "Texans' War on Drugs" proposal, HB 732, which would require immediate suspension or revocation of the licenses of health care professionals who are convicted of drug-related felonies.

Finnell reminded citizens that less than 60 days remain in the current legislative session. "I urge all citizens to make known their views on these bills and any other pending legislation prior to June 1."
