Chamber directors hold down inflation

Directors of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce thumbed their noses at inflation Monday, and voted to maintain the same rates for booths when the annual Whoop-T-Do rolls around Oct. 3.

Chamber leaders voted to retain the rates of $10 for regular booths and $15 for those requiring electrical service.

Linda Merrick, second vice president, is chairman of this year's event.

Reporting on the annual clean-up week participation, Keith Aulds and Wayne House, co-chairmen, said the response by citizens, especially youth groups such as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and Cub Scouts, was outstanding.

Scout troops 37 and 38 were estimated to have picked up some 30 tons of trash around the city lakes pits.

House complimented city government when he said a program has been carried out during the past year in which city employees pick up litter on a regular basis along major thoroughfares. That relieved one area where volunteers were going to work, so they were able to concentrate more on parks and lake areas, he said.

Directors will not hold a meeting in May, president Tommy Key pointed out, maintaining a policy established several years. The next meeting of the board will be June 15.

Mock disaster slated Friday

A simulated disaster will be held here tomorrow.

Weather permitting, the city's civil defense sirens will be tested, and volunteer fire departments from the surrounding communities, along with the Iowa Park Police Department, will be responding to the exercise.

City meeting agenda short

Monday's city council meeting will probably last only a few minutes, according to the early-planned agenda.

One ordinance, establishing a new general service rate for Lone Star Gas Co., will be considered. Aldermen approved a rate hike at their last meeting, and the utility company's schedule to arrive at its approved profit total will be in the ordinance.

Other items on the agenda are regular items, such as receiving minutes from boards and commissions and making budget adjustments.

Mayor Johnny Crawford and Alderman Charlie Lee reportedly will be out of town and not at the 7 p.m. meeting.

CETA program cut no effect here

The federal government's budget-cutting plan to eliminate the CETA program will have little or no effect on jobs in Iowa Park, according to city and school officials.

In many communities, persons working in the CETA program must find permanent employment by mid-summer, or be out of work, according to reports.

The school has not had CETA workers in the past few years, according to Harold Cowley. "The last time we had some under the program, it cost more to hire supervisors than the plan was worth," he said.

The city usually has three or four CETA workers in the summer, to work in the parks. But city administrator Steve Morath said their unavailability would not substantially affect the parks program.

CETA funding will be discontinued in the 1982 federal fiscal year, according to reports.

New store to open

A new business plans to open its doors to the public this weekend, if all its equipment arrives in time.

Mini Mart, a convenience store chain, plans to open at Johnson Road and the Expressway in the building formerly occupied by Jiffy Food Store, if its gasoline pumps and check-out counter arrives.

James Kerby, public relations director for Carr Oil Co. of Jacksonville, Tex., the parent company of Mini Mart, said work was begun last week to prepare the store for opening. Workers were stocking yesterday.

There are some 100 Mini Mart stores in north east and north central Texas, with the nearest being two in Wichita Falls and one in Vernon.

The management is planning for a grand opening in two or three weeks.

The building has remained unoccupied after Jiffy closed its doors at the location about a year ago.

Students leave for Odessa

Seven Iowa Park High students, as well as the school's one-act play cast, will be competing this weekend in the Region One literary contest at Odessa College.

Qualifying individuals include: Kevin Robnett, number sense; Darla Flick and Robby Hausler, typing; Buck Cargal, headline writing; Wayne Watson, persuasive speaking; Kari Hamilton, editorial writing; and Melanie Mason, poetry interpretation.

Two thefts reported

Two thefts were reported from vehicles in the city last week, according to the police department.

Terry Glen Reaves said a tool box and tools were taken from his pickup at 408 W. Washington, and the loss was set at $1,500.

A .22 caliber rifle was reported taken from a vehicle owned by Dale Williams. The rifle, described as a nylon stock Remington, was taken from 405 E. Jefferson.

IOWA PARK'S FUTURE FARMERS RECEIVED RECOGNITION TUESDAY NIGHT
...Bruce Whitaker, Kyle Wells seated, Stanley Watson, Dale Anderson.

FFA chapter honors outstanding students

Outstanding students in the Iowa Park High School Vocational Agriculture program were recognized Tuesday evening at the annual Future Farmers of America chapter banquet.

Additionally, the members recognized two adults for their support to the program.

Star Chapter Farmer award went to Stanley Watson, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Watson. He was recipient of the Star Greenhand award at last year's banquet.

Two students were named Star Greenhand, possibly the first time the chapter has ever named co-recipients of the award. They were Bruce Whitaker, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whitaker, and Kyle Wells, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Wells.

Outstanding Vo-Ag Student recognition went to Dale Anderson, president of the chapter. He is the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson.

The Distinguished Service Award was presented to Bill Steger.

Luke Coffman's name was added to the list of 74 adults who have received the Honorary Chapter Farmer award from the local chapter. Coffman is vice president of the Wichita County Young Farmers.

Recipients of the Star Agribusinessman award, the best overall cooperative students, were James Brixey, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. T.R. Brixey, and Joe Collins, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Collins.

James Cowley received three foundation awards: Sheep Production; Public Speaking; and Extemporaneous Speaking.

Other foundation awards went to: James Brixey, Ag Mechanics; Bruce Whitaker, Diversified Livestock; John Macom, Dairy Judging; Ronny Sawyer, Crop Production; Mickie Gregg, Soil and Water Management; Kay Stevenson, Beef Production; Dana Hicks, Swine Production; and Rick Nanez, Poultry Production.

Wells was also recognized for being the top salesman when the chapter held its annual fruit and sausage sale in the fall.

Two highlights of the evening's program were Cowley's district-winning speech entitled "Water, Destiny of Man," and a film slide review of the chapter's activities during the year.

Despite heavy rains Tuesday evening, the high school cafeteria was almost filled to capacity with FFA members, parents and supporters.

Parks Board projects told

The Parks Board of the City of Iowa Park met Monday evening in the council chambers.

Virgil Woodfin, president, reported that 50 pecan trees had been purchased and planted in Oscar and Foley Parks and around the RAC building.

He also recommended that the Soil Conservation Service be consulted in regard to a drainage problem around the tennis courts at Pace Park. The consensus of the board members was that no improvements to the court could be successful until the problem was corrected.

Steve Morath, city administrator, reported that the merry-go-round for Pace Park had been ordered. It was voted to assist Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority financially in purchasing the larger size model. Morath recommended that redwood signs be made for the parks, and board members voted to accept the recommendation. Charlie Helms, city maintenance supervisor, reported that the water lines at Foley Park had been completed. He reported on the condition of the trees in the downtown area, stating that the dead tree in front of State National Bank will be removed.

Fifty-two members, inactive members and guests attended the annual ESA salad supper Tuesday evening in the Fellowship Hall of First Christian Church.

The attractive decorations for the room and tables featured pink and green paper lilies and floating candles in crystal glasses filled with green liquid. The head table held a silver tea service, silver candelabra and the Maxine Larson service award that the sorority won at the District VI spring convention.

Mrs. Roy Johnson, president, served as mistress of ceremonies. The invocation was given by Mrs. Jim Spears, chaplain.

Following the meal, a fashion show, courtesy of the Velfree Shop, was presented with inactive members modeling. Mrs. Don Lucy of Holliday was narrator and one of the models.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

Dear Ron,
How's the weather up there in Washington? Hope it's as nice as we've been having recently.
Glad to hear you are feeling better.
Ron, I need to talk with you about one of your guys down here in Texas. You need to help him get his act together. He's making his own set of rules as things go along, and is trying to make us do what he says.
Now, I don't want to be a tattletale, but this guy, William Wayne Justice, is really giving us a hard time. Just because he's a U.S. District judge doesn't give him the right to make his own rules, does it?
I don't think he realizes that if all us Texans spend the money he is telling us to spend, we won't have enough left to pay his salary. . . or yours, either!

Most of us down here don't think that is right, and we always were taught things were run the democratic way, where the majority ruled.
Justice didn't think that was enough, so now he wants us to build private rooms for prisoners, and have a guard for every six prisoners in our prisons. And besides that, he tells us that we've got to build our new prisons in the most expensive parts of the country!
With crime on the increase as it is, can you imagine how many prisons we are going to have to build? And then to give each one of them a private room, well, that's a bit much. Did you know the average cost of a prison cell is enough to build a two-bedroom home?

And he says we must build all the new prisons right next to the biggest cities in the state. Have you priced any land around our big cities lately?
Ron, what we need down here are judges who will hold court trials to determine whether criminals should be punished. We don't need judges telling us how to do things. We've got enough elected people and bureaucrats doing that!
There just isn't any justice with (William Wayne) Justice.
Hope you keep on getting better and that you'll come and see us the next time you are out this way.
Your friend,
Bob

Grasshoppers, harvesting meetings here next week

Stopping grasshoppers will be the topic of a short meeting scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Monday at the ASCS Building in Iowa Park. Grasshoppers took a heavy toll last summer and are expected to be active again this year.
Effective control is based on killing grasshoppers while they are still in the hatching bed. This must be accomplished early in the season.
Emory Boring, Extension Area Entomologist, will show the prospects for grasshopper infestation in 1981, locating hatching beds, chemicals used for control, and measures which can be applied after grasshoppers begin their migration.
All agricultural producers are invited. Part time farmers were especially hit hard by grasshoppers last year because more areas for hatching beds are usually located around small farms.

A custom harvest and farming meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Iowa Park High School cafeteria. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss custom combine, hay baling, and plowing rates.
The aim of the meeting is to look at rates which will be fair to both the farm producer and the custom operator. Norman Brints, Extension Area Farm Management Specialist, will give some research information on the cost of operating a combine and custom plowing rates.
Waldo Wedel and Ruben Ollenberger, custom combine operators from Kansas, will discuss their cost of operation. They will talk about the custom harvest rates from the custom operators view point. Louis Sawyer of Iowa Park will also talk about the cost of operating hay baling equipment.

One of the points which might be considered is the number of bushels per acre where the override price begins. At present, the override begins at 20 bushels per acre. Present combines have a much higher capacity than those used a few years ago. Some of the local wheat growers are wondering if the bushels per acre should be increased before the override begins. Both wheat growers and custom operators are invited to participate in this exchange of ideas.
This event is being arranged by the county field crops committee headed by Rex Wells and the Wichita County Young Farmers, Fred Daume, president.

This summer electricity will cost at least 50% more than last summer.

Here's why:

- All the fuels we use to make electricity are more expensive. As longstanding contracts for low-cost natural gas expire, new gas costs a lot more, and the price keeps climbing. Even lignite coal, our most economical fuel, is becoming more expensive.
- Since last summer, a rate increase has been approved and gone into effect.
- You'll see the full effect of these increases — fuel costs and the rate increase — this summer when electricity usage is at its highest level.

Here's what you can do to help hold down your bill:

- Leave your air conditioner off unless you really need it. It probably uses more electricity than your lights and all your other appliances combined.
— When you're away from home, turn it off.
— At night, unless it's really hot, turn it off. Try sleeping with open windows and a fan to circulate the air.
- Turn off anything that's not in use.
- Live a little warmer. The higher you set your thermostat, the more electricity you'll save.
- Use fans to keep air moving. It feels cooler.
- When the air conditioner is on, keep your cool inside. Close windows, doors, blinds, draperies and fireplace dampers.
- If you're installing or replacing an air conditioner, be sure it's energy-efficient. Use the "Energyguide" on every new unit to compare. It may cost more, but it will help you hold down your electric bills.
- Weatherstrip, caulk and insulate. Call us for free booklets that show how to do it, or to learn when we'll have an "Operation Tighen-Up" workshop in your neighborhood.

Christian Workers elect new officers

New officers of the Christian Workers Class of First United Methodist Church were elected Thursday night during the monthly covered-dish dinner and business meeting.

Herman Mahler was elected president. Also included in the slate were Mes. Ida Parker, vice president; Carl Sullivan, secretary; Herman Mahler, assistant secretary; Kathleen Hatten, treasurer; Bertha McDonald, teacher. Assistant teachers elected were Pauline Smith and George Trammell, and Mrs. Ethyle Scott and Mrs. Ruth Hunter were elected the telephone committee.

The dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lowrey, Mrs. Carl Walsh and Jane Gauntt. The table decorations and napkins carried out an Easter theme.

Twenty-six members and two guests, Mrs. Maurice Todd and Mrs. Jo Gilbert, were present.

Cook of the Week

Gardening, canning and pickling are good ways to catch the flavor of spring and summer. Tomatoes are one of the most popular vegetables grown in the garden, and pickling gives one the chance to enjoy the spice shelf to the fullest. Mrs. Riley Thompson's Green Tomato Relish sounds like a splendid way to combine the popular vegetable and spices in a pungent, tantalizing dish.

In earlier times, the tomato was often thought to be poisonous and some Europeans grew it as a curiosity. The French called the decorative plant "love apple", and a poetic Italian named it "golden apple." Thomas Jefferson grew the tomato at Monticello, but there appears to be no record of tomatoes being consumed by Americans until 1812, when the influence of French cuisine in New Orleans started the influence of the tomato on its way to becoming a culinary favorite.

The history of the tomato shows that it traveled a long route from the Andes Mts., where wild plants still sprawl, to the prehistoric gardens of the Mexican Indians. The migratory tribes took them to North America where explorers from the Old World discovered the curiously-fruited plant and took it home with them.

Flossie Nunn Thompson, a popular elementary teacher in the Iowa Park school system for 15 years until her retirement in Jan. 1981, was graduated from Eufaula, Okla. High School, and received a B.S. degree from North Eastern State University at Tahlequah, Okla. She taught 12 years in Okla. and 25 years in Texas, including the years that she taught here.

She is a member of First Baptist Church, Night W.M.U. and Iowa Park Lioness Club. For hobbies, she enjoys sewing and gardening.

She and her husband, Riley, who is a retired civilian employee at Sheppard Air Force Base, have six children and five grandchildren.

Six Hawkettes in region meet

The Hawkettes are figured to score only two points Saturday at the region one track and field championships in Odessa, based on qualifying times.

But just about every coach in the region will point out that performance at the big meet might not be exactly as it was in the athletes' respective district meet.

First and second place finishers in the regional qualify for the state meet.

District 3-AAAA champion is expected to run second to Ector by 14 points. Ector is figured to be good for 78 points, while the Lady Lions are picked to generate 64 points and Canyon 52.

The Hawkettes and Hirsch athletes are projected to finish in a two-way tie for 21st place.

Most of Iowa Park's qualifiers are in the distance events.

Angel Bean's 13:32.29 in the 3200 meter run is the sixth best qualifying time among the regional entrants. Bryant of Stephenville qualified with a 12:50 and Hernandez of Crowley had a 12:55.

Jan Hale and Cindy Wells had the seventh and eighth best qualifying times in the 1600 meters with 6:14.17 and 6:16.0, respectively. Loudermilk of Stephenville tops the event with a 5:35 in the district meet, and Bernice Naviaz of Dunbar had a 5:41.5.

In the 800 meter run, Iowa Park's Mary "Boo Boo" Gray qualified with a 2:33.52, eighth best among qualifiers. Laura Lovell of Dumas had a 2:24.2 and Woodard of Stephenville was clocked in 2:25.46.

Sixth best qualifying time in the hurdles was Lisa Sefek's 15.85. Best among the qualifiers was a pair of Dunbar athletes, Yolanda Allen, 14.1, and June Harris, 14.3.

Shelley Untalan had the seventh-best qualifying distance among the discus throwers, 108-0 1/2. Tops was Graham's Angela Tate's 125-1 1/2 and Cindy Beck of Canyon, 124-10.

Because there are four districts in the region, and two qualified in each event, there will be no preliminaries required in any of the running events. The track has eight lanes. All running events will be finals.

Hawk thinclads to loop meet

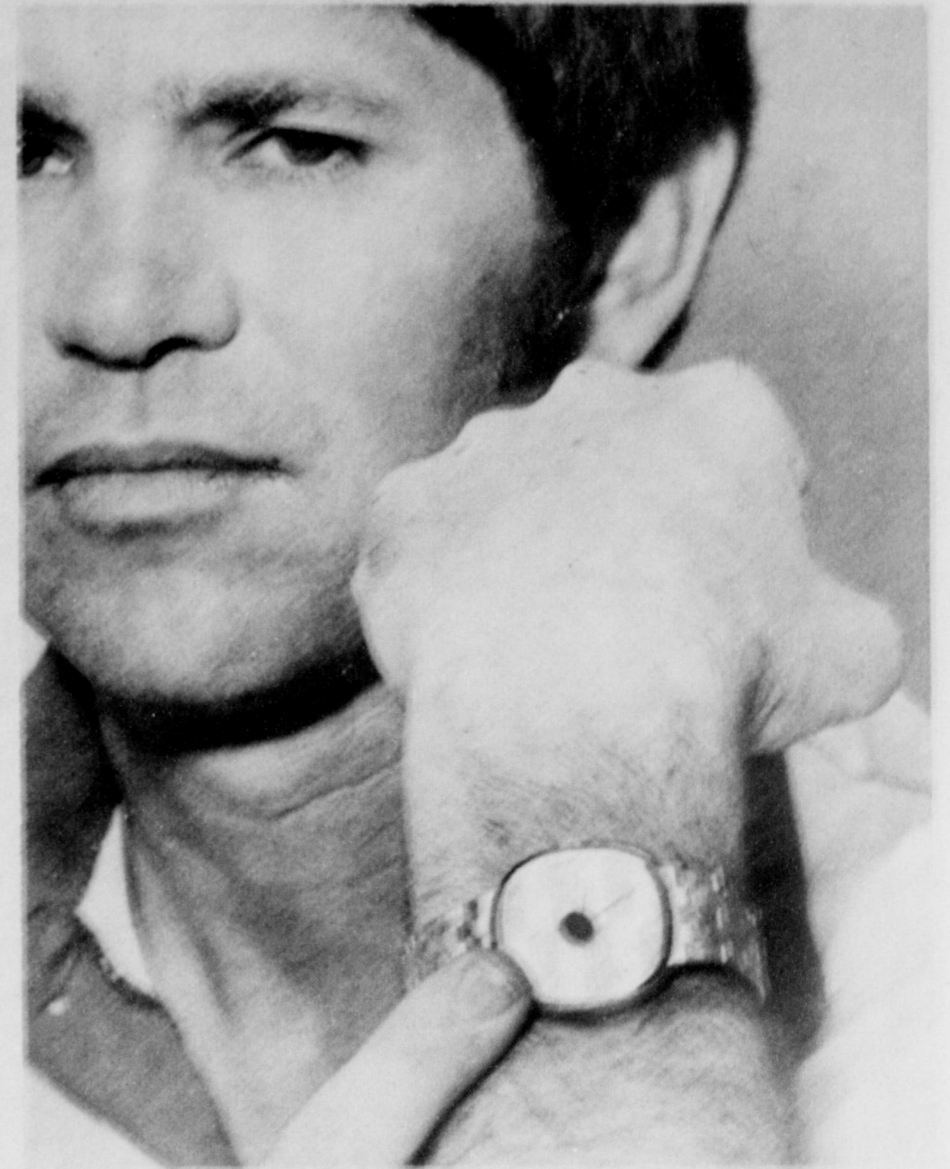

The Dist. 3-AAAA boys track and field championships will be held Saturday at Graham.

Coach Jim Arnold is figuring his charges will rack up more than the 21 points they got last weekend at the Lions Relays in Vernon.

At Vernon, Russ Haley placed third in the high hurdles (15.7); John Henderson placed fourth in the 3200 meters; Kenneth Smith was fifth in the 800 meters (2:09); Robin Combs was fourth in the discus (132-4); and Troy Linthicum finished in a three-way tie for fifth in the pole vault (12-0).

Mike Ray didn't compete in the shot put, nor did Kevin Parker in the sprints. Ray has been complaining about back problems and Parker is nursing a pulled leg muscle.

The top two placers in the district meet will qualify for the region meet at Odessa.

MARKED TIME - Head football coach David Raugh points to a green stamp on the face of his wrist watch which reminds him it's only 134 more days until the 1981 season opener. Every time he looks at his watch, he's reminded "It's time to beat Breckenridge," which will be Sept. 4. Raugh said the small green stickers are available for all Hawk supporters, and can be worn on watches, eye glasses and other similar articles.

ADULTS RECOGNIZED during Tuesday evening's annual Future Farmer banquet included Bill Steger, left, Distinguished Service Award, and Luke Coffman, Honorary Chapter Farmer.

Area Christians set meet here

The First Christian Church will host the Christian Women's Fellowship in the Central Area of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in the Southwest workshop Saturday. Fifty-two churches have been invited. The keynote speaker will be Kathryn Williams, associate regional minister of the Disciples of Christ in the Southwest. She served 10 years in missionary service in Zaire and three years as a director of Dos Mundos, a multi-cultural, multi-lingual urban ministry sponsored by the Coastal Bend Christian Service Association in Corpus Christi.

A graduate of Texas Christian University and Brite Divinity School, she received her D.M.D. in May, 1948. She has served as pastor of Bethany Christian Church in Corpus Christi and is currently president of the International Association of Women Ministers.

Study materials of C.W.F. for 1981-82 will be reviewed during the workshop. Reviews will be given by churches in Iowa Park, Burk Burnett, Bowie, Wichita Falls and Graham. The Central Christian Church of Vernon will show a completed sewing kit for overseas missions, which is the service project for Women of the Christian Church in the Southwest to be held June 19-21 at Texas Christian University in Ft. Worth.

Thank you....

for your votes and support which re-elected me to the Iowa Park School Board. I will work very hard to earn your trust and confidence.

James Cook named mayor

Cable tv contract approved by city

NEW MAYOR
... Cook takes oath.

Holliday city councilmen Monday night appointed city attorney James Cook as the new mayor of Holliday, and Holliday Cable Vision, Inc. was given approval to start a cable television service in the city.

Cook will fill the unexpired term of Hall, who died Thursday afternoon after suffering a stroke and subsequent heart attack during the council's special called meeting last Tuesday.

Councilmen were discussing the proposed contract with Holliday Cable Vision, Inc., and its principal investors, Ray Polvadore of Cambit Cable Vision in Santa Fe, N.M., and C. "Chick" Ayres of Holliday.

MAYOR NAMED

According to mayor pro-tem Jim Virdell, the council had two choices in replacing Hall—call for an election, or appoint a mayor to fill the unexpired term.

Councilmen found that last time a similar situation arose in Holliday, the council decided to call for an election, which cost local taxpayers $2,000.

When Cook was sworn in as mayor by Archer County Judge Bill Holder, he spoke of Hall's accomplishments while mayor. "Looking back, I see we have civil defense sirens installed, a conscientious policeman, a first-class water superintendent and city administrator, the streets are improving, living conditions for the elderly are improving—all of this during the time Hall was mayor," Cook stated.

Judge Holder also administered the oath of office to three incumbents on the council, Virdell, Jimmy Willis and John Goforth.

Goforth was re-elected treasurer of the council, and Virdell mayor pro-tem.

CABLE TV CONTRACT OKAYED

Councilmen approved a contract with Holliday Cable Vision, Inc. after hearing several good reports on the cable services in Santa Fe, where Palvadore operates.

Cook and city administrator Jim Hamill, after telephoning sources in Santa Fe, including the chamber of commerce and Better Business Bureau, heard nothing but praise for the company's performance.

In addition, Cook said the three-percent revenue from the basic service that goes to the city is acceptable and that asking for same percentage from all services (Home Box Office and Cinemax) would leave the company with little profit.

"Taking only three-percent from the basic service will act as an incentive to get the company here in the first place," Cook said.

Holliday Cable Vision, Inc. will also receive a city lot for one dollar rent per year, but will pay water taps and sewer costs.

OTHER BUSINESS

Councilmen appointed Bob Bryan fire marshal for the city; set salaries for election judges at $60 per day and election clerks $50; agreed to purchase a trauma kit for the civil defense; and motioned to have the appointment of a city electrical inspector; and a right-of-way contract with the Texas Highway Department tabled until the May meeting.

OPEN LETTER TO HOLLIDAY CITIZENS

Citizens of Holliday:

Heretofore the Fire Marshall's office has been a "Sore Spot" with most people. The Fire Marshall's office has several functions:

1. When active it reduces your insurance rates;
 2. Helps prevent fires by making inspections of public and private buildings;
- The State Board of Insurance requires periodical inspections to be made and report to them of inspections made.

The main thrust of the office is Fire Protection.

I have been asked to serve as Fire Marshall of Holliday in accepting I will need your support and cooperation to have an active and effective office. I ask that you invite inspections of your public and private buildings as well as offer suggestions concerning how we may work together in preventing fires in Holliday.

We have a very good fire department with excellent equipment and effective manpower but when the department has to go into action it is normally costly, because property is destroyed and those "Keep Sakes" are lost.

The only axe I have to grind is "FIRE." Let's work together to prevent them.

Any suggestions or comments should be directed to City Hall or the Fire Department in writing.

Thanks for Your Cooperation
Bob Bryan
Fire Marshall
