SEASONS
GREETINGS

Vol. 13, No. 16 IOWA PARK, WICHITA COUNTY, TEXAS 76367 THURSDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1981

Robison, Hallford vows are exchanged in Virginia

Red and green, the traditional Christmas colors, were highlighted in decorations for the nuptial setting and reception following the wedding ceremony performed Saturday in which Miss Linda Lee Robison and Lt. Charles Wayne Hallford plighted their troth.

Dr. Dwight Christenbury officiated the double-ring service in the First Presbyterian Church in Virginia Beach Va. During the exchange of rings, the bride was given two solid gold bands and the groom a single wide gold band.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Arley Robison of Virginia Beach, Va., Mrs. Richard Wolfe of Archer City and Charles O. Hallford of Wichita Falls.

The altar decorations featured three full red poinsettias flanked by seven-branched candelabra trimmed with Christmas greens and red satin bows. A towering Christmas tree and wall scones accented with greenery and burning candles lent impressive interest in the outer altar. Pews were marked with seasonal greenery and red satin bows.

The vocal wedding music by Miss Diane Borgesser, cousin of the bride, reflected the joy and peace of the season. For prelude selections, she sang "Silent Night," "Angels We Have Heard On High," and then "O Holy Night" while mothers of the couple were ushered and seated.

David Kunkel, church organist, presented a concert of classical pre-nuptial music which included "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," "Canon in D," "Pastorale," "Wake, Wake the Night Is Flying." He played "Trumpet Voluntary" for the bridal attendants to enter the nuptial space. Wagner's processional composition for the bride to walk to the altar. For the recessional, the organist played "Trumpet Tune" and "Theme from Masterpiece Theater."

The bride was presented in marriage by her father. She wore an exquisite formal ivory satin gown embellished with reemboirdered Alencon lace and English net. The chic corselet bodice of the lace was designed with an off-the-shoulders sweetheart neckline embroidered with Brussels lace, and adorned with tiny seed pearls. The beauty of the gown was enhanced with a full ruffled overskirt of English net showered with pearly Alencon lace appliques and a scalloped hemline of Brussels embroidery that extended around the chapel length train.

Her complementary headpiece was a wreath of silk-faced satin rosebuds on a pearl stamen interwoven with satin ribbons that fell in streamers to which a chapel length illusion veil was secured. The bridal bouquet consisted of fresh ivory roses combined with stems and greenery casually gathered with ivory satin ribbons.

A matron of honor, four bridesmaids and a flower girl preceded the bride to the altar. Each wore a formal gown of Christmas red taffeta. The attendants gowns were fitted with bodices featuring off-the-shoulder flounced necklines and tie belts. The floor length circular skirts captured interest with their deep bias cut hemline flounces caught up in bustle effects.

Mrs. David Robert Hanby, sister of the bride, the matron of honor, wore white silk poinsettias in her hair comb and carried an arm bouquet of white silk poinsettias and Christmas greenery gathered with red satin ribbons.

The quartet of bridesmaids included Mrs. Duane A. Beauchaine, Miss Barbara Doherty, both of Virginia Beach, Mrs. Peter Smith of Aurora, Colo., cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Thomas Wilde of Wichita Falls, sister of the groom. Their arm bouquets were fashioned of red silk poinsettias, green Christmas foliage and tied with red satin ribbons.

Jessica Beauchaine, the flower girl, wore a long-sleeved frock with white lace trim on the bodice, collar and sleeves.

The groom and father of the bride wore black tuxedos with tails, black vests and ties. The best man, groomsmen and father of the groom wore black tuxedos without tails.

1st Lt. Steven B. Poteet of Oceanside, Calif. served as best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Lt. Duane Beauchaine, Lt. Mark A. Harris, David R. Hanby, all of Virginia Beach, and Capt. David Sterling Noble of Newport, N.C.

The bride's mother chose an Irish lace taffeta gown designed with a fitted bodice and spaghetti straps covered with a nylon sheer jacket accented with a shirred jeweled neckline and pleated taffeta cummer bund. The full skirt swooped to floor length. She wore a hair comb of cream roses.

The groom's mother was attired in a rose suede polyester gown graced with a crystal pleated flowered chiffon cape. She wore a large white orchid on her shoulder for a finishing touch.

The groom gave white carnation corsages to his sister, Mrs. Patti Stone of Arkansas and Mrs. Lori Wolf of Dallas.

After a skiing trip to Killington, Vermont, the couple will live in Virginia Beach.

The new Mrs. Hallford was graduated from Ben L. Smith High School in Greensboro, N.C. and Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Va. She is a departmental chairman of Special Education at Lynnhaven Junior High School and special education teacher in Virginia Beach.

The groom was graduated from

Iowa Park High School and Texas A&M University. He is assigned to the Oceana Naval Air Station in Virginia Beach and serves aboard the USS Eisenhower.

The reception following the wedding was held in Little Creek Officers Club and hosted by the bride's parents. Capt. Kathleen Gamez presided at the wedding memories book.

The cake tables and food tables which held hot and cold hors d'oeuvres were decorated with red poinsettias and seasonal greenery. The four-tiered white cake served by Mrs. Jenette Payne featured red silk poinsettias between the layers.

The father of the bride took her from the receiving line for his traditional last dance while the band played "I Love You Just the Way You Are," then he gave her to her husband for their first dance.

MIKE DIETZEL

Junior-high student lauded

The Iowa Park Optimist Club has named Mike Dietzel for the Outstanding Student of Iowa Park Junior High School for December. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Bryant.

Mike is an eighth grade student and sings tenor in the school choir this year. He was a member of safety patrol in the fourth and fifth grades at Kate Haynes Elementary School in Wichita Falls. He was also a library and teachers aide in the fifth grade and he wrote articles for the school paper when he was in the fourth and seventh grades.

He won library aide and safety patrol awards when he was a fifth grader and he made the "A" honor roll the first six weeks of this school year.

Mike lists his hobbies as riding motorcycles, collecting pennies, reading, pottery, swimming, skating and taking care of 252 parakeets for a neighbor.

In thinking about his future, he would like to attend college and major in law because he would like to help people and see justice done.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our deepest thanks to all who were so thoughtful during the illness and passing of our loved one, B.J. Boyd. Our special thanks go to Kay Hamilton, who brought sunshine and cheer to him each day while he was in the hospital; to Rev. Tony Roberts and Rev. Hal Farnsworth for their spiritual ministry; and to the neighbors, friends and members of First Baptist Church for the food and many gestures of sympathy and concern.

Study Club has Yule party

The true meaning of Christmas as found in the birth of Christ was felt in fullest measure Thursday afternoon in the 23 Study Club's program and in the many lovely, gay and bright symbols of the season that governed decorations in the home of Mrs. Earl Watson where the meeting was held. Mrs. Charlie Lee was co-hostess.

Upon entering the Watson home, members felt immediately the real Christmas spirit - contentment, friendliness, peace and good will toward men. The decorations, highlighted by beautiful simplicity, featured a harmonious combination of Yule symbols: trees, candles, lights, tinsel, bells, angels, garlands of spruce, baubles, wreaths, pine cones, etc.

Mrs. Sam Hill was program leader for the afternoon. Mrs. O.E. Lechridge gave the meditation which centered around Christmas of yesteryear, concluding with a selected Christmas Prayer.

Mrs. Joe Singer, accompanied by Mrs. Bill Bates, organist, sang "Birthday of a King" by John Peterson which set the stage for a Visit to the Holy Land, a program of slides and narration by Mrs. D.O. James.

Some of the slides shown were the Jerusalem Wall with its towers and gates, Mt. Olives, Garden of Gethsemane, Church of All Nations, built by 16 nations, Last Supper room, Church of the Holy Sepulcher, Place of the Skull, Dome of the Rock, Rock of Abraham and Wailing Wall.

Others were Bethlehem where Jesus was born, Church of the Nativity, traditional tomb of Lazarus, Jericho, Mount of Temptation, Jordan River, Dead Sea, Jacob's Well, Mary's Well, Tiberias, a Roman theater, and Mosaic pictures of the five loaves and two fishes.

Mrs. Singer and Mrs. Bates led the group in singing Christmas carols to conclude the program.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with white lace and appointed with a holiday centerpiece of fresh flowers and treasured Christmas bells.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Erwin F. Soell, president-elect of Santa Rosa District, presented members with Christmas calendars from the Soell family to say Merry Christmas and happy holidays.

Christmas Eve worship service

For the second consecutive year, members of Faith Baptist Church will hold a Christmas Eve worship service this evening, beginning at 11:45, according to Rev. Ken Cole.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

How's your Christmas spirit?

I've asked a lot of people that question, and as you might expect, the response is about as varied as the number questioned.

I think one's attitude about anything is what they allow it to be. Some people will let a fly ruin their entire day of fishing. The fly will keep buzzing around the ear or attempting to land on the nose, and the fisherman will become so frustrated he gives up and leaves. Probably beats his wife when he gets home.

One's Christmas spirit is often dampened, or even ruined, by the pressures one allows to gather at the holiday season approaches. There are a lot of parties and activities... the work load might be heavier and hours longer... all those gifts that have to be bought and not enough money for them... maybe even some relatives coming to visit and you're not particularly happy because they invited themselves.

Or maybe something happened in the past that just plainly turned you against Christmas. And maybe you just don't believe in Christmas.

If these are problems, it could be you just need to sit down, where it's nice and quiet, and think about Christmas, what it is all about and the good things about it. Think positive.

Surely, there's something good about the annual holiday season that has a bright side, one you can appreciate.

Maybe your belief in God and the birth of His son is enough. It should be.

Maybe you appreciate the parties, which could make all the rushing and hurrying worthwhile.

And maybe, if all else fails, you can allow your spirits to be brightened with the knowledge so many other people are happy. A smile is contagious, maybe happiness is. In your mind, just think of little children awakening Christmas morning, rushing to the Christmas tree and finding toys and all the things they've wanted. Concentrate on how you think their eyes will widen, the expression that will develop on their faces and the scream of glee. Frame it in your mind, and just see if it doesn't brighten your thinking a little.

I hope all this has been needless to you, that you are as excited about the coming of Christmas, what it means and appreciate the fact that the event is celebrated annually.

To all of you, from all of us at the Leader, a Very Merry and Happy Christmas!

Letter to the Editor

Dear Mr. Hamilton,

We would like to take this opportunity to thank your newspaper and the people of Iowa Park for the generous support in our joint effort to help our neighbors in need during this Christmas Season.

With the combined effort between the Brownies, Junior Girl Scouts, Bluebirds and Campfire Girls, nearly 200 canned food items were collected for needy families in our community.

Although we gave short notice to everyone and we were unable to cover the whole town, our service project was so successful, we are planning to make this an annual project. Each year, the girls from all four groups will be joining together to collect canned goods and sing Christmas Carols.

Again, we say a big thank you to the community and a happy holiday season to all.

Sincerely
Marsha Benion, Service Director
Iowa Park Girl Scouts

Dear Mr. Hamilton,

As representatives of the student body of IPHS, we the Student Council would like to express our deep appreciation to the citizens and loyal Hawk supporters of Iowa Park. Your attendance and enthusiasm at our recent bonfire certainly gave us a big boost on the road to victory over Burkburnett. We could not have done it without you.

Thank you - one and all!

Sincerely,

Motorcycles said stolen

Two more motorcycles have been added to a list of stolen vehicles reported to the Iowa Park Police Department.

The two bikes were reported taken over the weekend, while one reported by G.W. Whitaker, 523 W. Magnolia, was said to have been taken late in November.

T.H. O'Brien said his 1974 Yamaha dirt bike, black in color, was taken over the weekend, and said its value was $200.

Fred E. Smith said his 1975

Yamaha, painted white, black and blue, was taken from 300 E. Magnolia. According to the report, the bike was registered to Rodney Davis and valued at $500.

CORRECTION

The location where Robert Snyder was arrested was incorrect in last week's issue of the Leader. Arrested on three warrants from outside the city, Snyder was taken into custody at 305 W. Valley by city and county law officers.

Chamber banquet tickets on sale

Tickets for the Jan. 30 Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce banquet went on sale Monday, according to Bill Steger, ticket chairman.

Price of the tickets, which includes a talk by Ray Stone, radio voice of the Dallas Cowboys, and a steak dinner prepared by the MuleSkinners, is $7.50 each.

During a business meeting of chamber directors Monday, a letter from the Pottsboro school district was read, expressing gratitude for the use of Hawk Stadium and courtesies by Chamber and school workers, when Pottsboro played Holliday here for the bi-district football championship.

Allen Gilstrap, Linda Merrick and Phil Welch were named to the budget committee for next year, and it was decided to mail reminders to members who have not yet paid their 1981 dues.

The cost of fuel. And why it affects your electric bill now more than ever.

When we say "fuel" at Texas Electric, we mean the fuel that we use to make your electricity—primarily natural gas and lignite coal.

The cost of fuel is a necessary part of the cost of making electricity. Next year all the fuels we use will cost more, especially natural gas. This is partly because an old contract for low-cost natural gas expires at the end of this year. The gas provided by that contract will have to be replaced with gas selling at the "going rate," which is about 15 times as much as we now pay under the contract.

We buy all our fuels at the lowest price available.* We charge our customers exactly what we have to pay for fuel. And we show the amount for "fuel" on your bill each month.

If you'd like more information about the fuels it takes to make your electricity, give us a call. At Texas Electric, we want you to understand what you're paying for.

*With completion of our Comanche Peak plant, the use of nuclear fuel will help hold down the increasing cost of our fuels.

CRYOVAC

PACKAGING/MARKETING SYSTEMS

Smith, McCormack nuptials solemnized Friday evening

A double-ring marriage ceremony was performed in a candlelight setting Friday evening at the Faith Tabernacle in Holliday to unite Miss Glorine Renee Smith and Donald Edward McCormack. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Coy B. Smith of Kamay and Mr. and Mrs. Red Bray of Wichita Falls. Rev. Roy Stewart was the officiant.

The illumination was provided by burning candles in tree candelabra in the choir loft, heart-shaped candelabra on the main altar and spiral candelabra in the outer altar. Each candlestick was entwined with boxwood greenery. Decorations were completed with the addition of two arrangements of brown cushion poms, beige carnations and leather leaf raised by brass pedestals in the lower altar. Pews were marked with satin bows and cushion poms in the same hues.

Mrs. Roy McAllister provided the vocal and piano music. For vocal numbers, she sang "More" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close. Her instrumental selections included "If," "You Light Up my Life," "Twelfth of Never" and the wedding marches.

To express her devotion to mothers of the couple, the bride presented them with red roses during the service, to hers as she approached the altar and to his as she and the groom were leaving the church after they had been pronounced man and wife.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a striking gown of bridal white satin enriched with candlelight lace. The natural waistline bodice was sprinkled with pearls and fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline, sheer bishop sleeves cuffed in satin. The full skirt extended into a chapel train.

She wore a candlelight lace-covered bandeau on her head to which a cathedral illusion veil was attached. The bride's cascade bouquet was created of brown cushion poms and beige carnations.

Miss Kay Stevenson, the maid of honor, was attired in a long off-white Qiana dress accented with a pleated skirt and matching cape edged with off-white and brown lace. She carried a smaller version of the bride's bouquet complemented with tangerine carnations.

skirt and matching cape edged with off-white and brown lace. She carried a smaller version of the bride's bouquet complemented with tangerine carnations.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically to Miss Stevenson, were Mrs. Jay Lavender, sister of the bride, Mrs. Doug Childres, and Miss Danna Smith, the bride's cousin.

The off-white lace dress worn by Lisa Walsh, the flower girl, was made with short sleeves and sheer train applied with lace. She carried beige carnations and brown poms in a brown wicker basket trimmed with matching ribbons falling toward the floor.

Jayson Lavender, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Robert Bradberry served as best man, and the groomsmen were Tim Tracy, Doug Childres, and David Kerr. Duties of ushering guests were assumed by Jay Lavender and Mike Lavender. All were dressed in brown vested tuxedos.

The groom wore a boutonniere of brown cushion poms with his all white tuxedo.

The bride is a senior at Iowa Park High School where she is president of Home Economics Co Op and works at Iowa Park Florist. The groom, who is employed by E.W. Moran Drilling, was graduated from Iowa Park High School. They will live in Wichita Falls.

The bride's parents hosted the reception following the wedding in the Fellowship Hall of the church, and the groom's parents gave the rehearsal dinner at K-Bob's.

At the reception, the bride's table was covered with a treasured crocheted cloth, the handiwork of her late paternal grandmother, swagged with brown satin ribbons caught up in bows, over brown. A bouquet of poms and carnations in brown and beige hues centered the table, and the extremities were marked with the cake and crystal punch bowl.

The three-tiered white cake, with one set of filigree dividers, was trimmed with cascades of frosting with garlands centered with tiny flowers. On the top, a bride and groom dressed in formal white stood in front of a heart trimmed with net, pearls and coral roses.

The groom's table laid with ivory lace over brown, held a chocolate cake trimmed in beige frosting, an arrangement of beige carnations and silver coffee service.

Yule dinner held by class

The Christian Workers class of First United Methodist Church held the annual Christmas dinner and party Thursday evening in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. George Trammell and Mr. and Mrs. R.M. Thompson.

The decorations in the hall were highlighted with a beautifully decorated tree, and the dinner tables were colorful and bright with red candles, holly, evergreen sprays and Yule napkins. Mrs. H.M. Mahler prepared the turkey and dressing for the meal.

During the evening, gifts were exchanged by members and others distributed to be delivered to the Golden Age members.

Twenty seven members and one guest, Mrs. Verba Lofland, were present.

Reception assistants were Mmes. Wayne Young, Willie Reyna, Mike Walsh and Doyle Davis. Mrs. Young was also in charge of registering the guests at a table holding a bud vase of flowers.

The bride's mother wore a long coral Qiana dress made with pleated bodice and skirt, and the groom's mother wore a similarly styled orchid dress. Their shoulder corsages featured the flowers and colors that were chosen for the bridal attendants bouquets.

Smith, McCormack nuptials solemnized Friday evening

A double-ring marriage ceremony was performed in a candlelight setting Friday evening at the Faith Tabernacle in Holliday to unite Miss Glorine Renee Smith and Donald Edward McCormack. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Coy B. Smith of Kamay and Mr. and Mrs. Red Bray of Wichita Falls. Rev. Roy Stewart was the officiant.

The illumination was provided by burning candles in tree candelabra in the choir loft, heart-shaped candelabra on the main altar and spiral candelabra in the outer altar. Each candlestick was entwined with boxwood greenery. Decorations were completed with the addition of two arrangements of brown cushion poms, beige carnations and leather leaf raised by brass pedestals in the lower altar. Pews were marked with satin bows and cushion poms in the same hues.

Mrs. Roy McAllister provided the vocal and piano music. For vocal numbers, she sang "More" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close. Her instrumental selections included "If," "You Light Up my Life," "Twelfth of Never" and the wedding marches.

To express her devotion to mothers of the couple, the bride presented them with red roses during the service, to hers as she approached the altar and to his as she and the groom were leaving the church after they had been pronounced man and wife.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a striking gown of bridal white satin enriched with candlelight lace. The natural waistline bodice was sprinkled with pearls and fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline, sheer bishop sleeves cuffed in satin. The full skirt extended into a chapel train.

Stansbury, Whitaker vows are exchanged recently

Miss Kimberly Stansbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Goff, of Iowa Park and Jimmy Ray Stansbury of San Diego, Calif. and Cody Whitaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Toby Whitaker, were married recently at the Church of God in a double-ring ceremony officiated by Rev. W.F. Williams.

Mrs. Jimmy Via played the wedding marches of long standing popularity.

David L. Goff escorted the bride to the altar and presented her in marriage for her parents. She wore a picturesque white wedding dress of white Qiana. Dainty lace panels accented the front of the bodice from a high neckline of lace to the waistline and formed the cuffs of the long sleeves. The full skirt fell softly from the waistline and swirled into a chapel train.

The bride's waist length illusion veil was gathered to a camelot cap of lace. She completed her bridal costume by carrying a nosegay of white and yellow silk roses, white silk rosebuds and silk ribbons.

Mrs. Joe Whitaker attended the bride as matron of honor. She was attired in a formal blue gown topped with a ruffled jacket and carried a long stem red rose.

The groom's attendant was Joe Whitaker. Both wore light brown suits and white carnation boutonnières.

The bride said "I love you" to her mother, who was wearing a beige polyester dress accented with a burgundy jacket, and to the grandmothers at opportune times during the service.

The bride's parents gave the wedding reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Mmes. Alvin Jeter, E.L. Via and Dale Sampley presided at the refreshment table covered with lace and decorated with wedding bells. The three-tiered white cake was trimmed with pink and yellow frosting roses and topped with the traditional bride and groom. The white napkins were imprinted with wedding bells.

The bride and groom were both graduated from Iowa Park High School. She is employed at Super Fine Foods and he works for PPG Industries. They are at home in Iowa Park.

Cooking for the Christmas holidays

CHRISTMAS COLE SLAW (with cooked dressing)

Grate and toss together:
 1 head of cabbage
 2 cups carrots
 4 small onions
 3 green peppers
 In a medium saucepan, mix together:
 2 beaten eggs
 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 cup vinegar
 2 T butter
 Salt and pepper to taste.
 Cook until thickened slightly. Pour over slaw ingredients and refrigerate.

Mrs. Gordon Griffith

DUTCH BREAD

Stir together in large mixing bowl:
 1 cup sugar
 2 cups flour
 1 1/2 pkgs. (1 1/2 T) dry yeast
 1/4 t salt
 Heat in small saucepan over low heat until very warm (120-130 degrees):
 1 1/4 cups water
 1/2 cup butter
 (Butter does not have to be completely melted)

Gradually add heated liquid to dry ingredients and beat for 3-5 minutes or until the yeast is dissolved, scraping bowl occasionally.

Add:
 1/2 cup mashed potatoes
 1 egg, beaten
 (These need to be at room temperature)

Beat at high speed until smooth. Stir in 3-4 cups flour or enough to make a soft dough.

Turn out on lightly floured surface; let rest for 4 minutes. Knead until smooth, 10-15 minutes.; adding flour as needed. Place in greased bowl, turning once to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place until doubled. Punch down. Divide into three portions. Shape into round loaves and place in three greased 8" round cake pans. Brush top of loaves with melted butter. Let rise until almost doubled. Bake at 375 for 20-25 minutes or until done.

Brush with butter and sprinkle with cinnamon-sugar.
 Remove from pans and cool on wire racks. Makes three round loaves.

Mrs. R.L. Redcutt

PEANUT BRITTLE

1 c. Karo syrup
 1 c. sugar
 1 1/2 c. peanuts
 Bring to boil until it turns to a beige color. Then add:
 1 tsp. soda
 1 tsp. vanilla
 Pour onto buttered or greased cookie sheet. Let cool, break in pieces.

Pat Holt

DATE NUT CAKE

1 cup chopped dates
 1 cup raisins
 1 cup nuts - chopped
 1 cup boiling water
 1 tsp. soda
 1 tsp. vanilla
 1/4 tsp. allspice
 1/4 tsp. cloves
 1/2 cup butter
 1 cup sugar
 3 eggs
 2 cups flour
 1 tsp. cinnamon
 Add soda to water, pour over fruit and nuts. Cream butter & sugar. Add beaten eggs, and first mixture. Add flour and spices and vanilla.
 Bake in a loaf pan at 350 degrees for 1 hour.

Madge Graham

PEAR PECAN SALAD

1 lb., 13 oz. can pears
 1-3 oz. pkg. lemon jello
 1 cup whipped cream, whipped
 1-8 oz. cream cheese, softened
 1 cup chopped pecans
 Drain pears; reserve 1 cup liquid, bring to boil and dissolve gelatin in it. Chill until partially set.
 Place pears and cream cheese in blender and blend until creamy; stir in gelatin. Fold in pecans and whipped cream. Pour into a 6-cup mold and chill. Garnish with Cool Whip and cherries. Note: lime gelatin may be substituted for the lemon gelatin.

Mrs. Ray Rochau

HELLO DOLLY SQUARES

1 stick oleo
 1 cup graham cracker crumbs
 1 cup grated Baker's coconut
 1 cup chocolate chips
 1 cup chopped pecans
 1 can Eagle Brand milk
 Melt oleo in 9" square pan. Mix cracker crumbs and melted oleo together and put on bottom of pan. Spread coconut on top of crumbs, then spread chips on top of coconut, then spread nuts on top of chips. Pour milk over top of mixture. DO NOT STIR. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Let get cold, then block out. (12 sqs.)

Mrs. Jim Huff

PECAN CRUNCH PIE

3 egg whites
 1 c. sugar
 1 c. finely chopped pecans
 1 tsp. baking powder
 1 tsp. vanilla
 10 single graham crackers (rolled fine)
 1/2 pint whipping cream
 Beat egg whites until stiff. Add sugar, baking powder, then add vanilla and graham crackers. Add pecans. Pour into well greased pyrex pan 9". Bake 25-30 min. 350. Just before serving, top with whipped cream.

Martha Harmon

TEXAS MILLIONAIRES

50 caramels
 2 T butter
 2 T water
 3 cups pecans, half or whole
 1 - 8 oz. candy bar
 2 to 3 ozs. paraffin
 Melt caramels, butter and water in double boiler, then add pecans. Drop by teaspoons on lightly-buttered foil covered bread board. Cool. Melt chocolate bar and paraffin. Stick ice pick in cool caramel nut drop and dip through warm chocolate mixture. Cool on foil. (Note: more paraffin may be used if needed.)

Mrs. Cecil Turner

FRUITCAKE COOKIES

[Makes 150 Cookies]

1 8 oz. pkg. dates
 1 lb. chopped pecans

Cooking for the Christmas holidays

CHRISTMAS COLE SLAW

[with cooked dressing]
Grate and toss together:
1 head of cabbage
2 cups carrots
4 small onions
3 green peppers
In a medium saucepan, mix together:
2 beaten eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup vinegar
2 T butter
Salt and pepper to taste.
Cook until thickened slightly. Pour over slaw ingredients and refrigerate.

Mrs. Gordon Griffith

DUTCH BREAD

Stir together in large mixing bowl:
1 cup sugar
2 cups flour
1 1/2 pkgs. (1 1/2 T) dry yeast
1/4 t salt
Heat in small saucepan over low heat until very warm (120-130 degrees):
1 1/4 cups water
1/2 cup butter
(Butter does not have to be completely melted)

Gradually add heated liquid to dry ingredients and beat for 3-5 minutes or until the yeast is dissolved, scraping bowl occasionally.

Add:
1/2 cup mashed potatoes
1 egg, beaten
(These need to be at room temperature)

Beat at high speed until smooth. Stir in 3-4 cups flour or enough to make a soft dough.

Turn out on lightly floured surface; let rest for 4 minutes. Knead until smooth, 10-15 minutes; adding flour as needed. Place in greased bowl, turning once to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place until doubled. Punch down. Divide into three portions. Shape into round loaves and place in three greased 8" round cake pans. Brush top of loaves with melted butter. Let rise until almost doubled. Bake at 375 for 20-25 minutes or until done.

Brush with butter and sprinkle with cinnamon-sugar.
Remove from pans and cool on wire racks. Makes three round loaves.

Mrs. R.L. Redelt

PEANUT BRITTLE

1 c. Karo syrup
1 c. sugar
1 1/2 c. peanuts
Bring to boil until it turns to a beige color. Then add:
1 tsp. soda
1 tsp. vanilla
Pour onto buttered or greased cookie sheet. Let cool, break in pieces.

Pat Holt

DATE NUT CAKE

1 cup chopped dates
1 cup raisins
1 cup nuts - chopped
1 cup boiling water
1 tsp. soda
1 tsp. vanilla
1/4 tsp. allspice
1/4 tsp. cloves
1/2 cup butter
1 cup sugar
3 eggs
2 cups flour
1 tsp. cinnamon
Add soda to water, pour over fruit and nuts. Cream butter & sugar. Add beaten eggs, and first mixture. Add flour and spices and vanilla.
Bake in a loaf pan at 350 degrees for 1 hour.

Madge Graham

PEAR PECAN SALAD

1 lb., 13 oz. can pears
1-3 oz. pkg. lemon jello
1 cup whipped cream, whipped
1-8 oz. cream cheese, softened
1 cup chopped pecans
Drain pears; reserve 1 cup liquid, bring to boil and dissolve gelatin in it. Chill until partially set.

Place pears and cream cheese in blender and blend until creamy; stir in gelatin. Fold in pecans and whipped cream. Pour into a 6-cup mold and chill. Garnish with Cool Whip and cherries. Note: lime gelatin may be substituted for the lemon gelatin.

Mrs. Ray Rochau

HELLO DOLLY SQUARES

1 stick oleo
1 cup graham cracker crumbs
1 cup grated Baker's coconut
1 cup chocolate chips
1 cup chopped pecans
1 can Eagle Brand milk
Melt oleo in 9" square pan. Mix cracker crumbs and melted oleo together and put on bottom of pan. Spread coconut on top of crumbs, then spread chips on top of coconut, then spread nuts on top of chips. Pour milk over top of mixture. DO NOT STIR. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Let get cold, then block out. (12 sqs.)

Mrs. Jim Huff

PECAN CRUNCH PIE

3 egg whites
1 c. sugar
1 c. finely chopped pecans
1 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. vanilla
10 single graham crackers (rolled fine)
1/2 pint whipping cream
Beat egg whites until stiff. Add sugar, baking powder, then add vanilla and graham crackers. Add pecans. Pour into well greased pyrex pan 9". Bake 25-30 min. 350. Just before serving, top with whipped cream.

Martha Harmon

TEXAS MILLIONAIRES

50 caramels
2 T butter
2 T water
3 cups pecans, half or whole
1 - 8 oz. candy bar
2 to 3 ozs. paraffin
Melt caramels, butter and water in double boiler, then add pecans. Drop by teaspoons on lightly-buttered foil covered bread board. Cool. Melt chocolate bar and paraffin. Stick ice pick in cool caramel nut drop and dip through warm chocolate mixture. Cool on foil. (Note: more paraffin may be used if needed.)

Mrs. Cecil Turner

FRUITCAKE COOKIES

[Makes 150 Cookies]

1 8 oz. pkg. dates
1 lb. chopped pecans
2 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 tsp. soda
2 eggs
1 cup oleo
1 tsp. cinnamon
1 1/2 cups sugar
8 oz. candied pineapple
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. vanilla
Chop fruits and nuts coarsely into a large bowl. Sift flour, soda, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg together. Scatter about 1/2 cup flour mixture over fruits and nuts. Cream oleo, add sugar gradually and mix until smooth and fluffy. Beat in eggs, add fruit and nut mixture, to creamy mixture. Mix well. Drop from teaspoon onto ungreased baking sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for 10 to 12 min. Makes about 150 med. size cookies.

Elwanda Stone

PEANUT BUTTER & OATMEAL COOKIES

3 cups of sugar
3 tbsp cocoa
1 stick oleo
1/2 c. milk
Mix sugar, cocoa, oleo, and milk in saucepan. Bring to boil and boil for one minute. Remove from heat and put in 2 1/2 cups of oats and 1/2 cup of peanut butter. Beat well and drop by teaspoonsful on wax paper.

Elwanda Stone
