HAPPY NEW YEAR

YEAR REVIEWED

1981 remembered as year of change

Change in the Iowa Park business and public areas was the hallmark of 1981. Probably more change in these areas took place during the past year than any period in more than two decades.

Anyone who was away from Iowa Park a year or more would be amazed with the new and improved appearance of these areas.

Leading off the change was the demolition of the old Park Hotel landmark, which has stood at the corner of Cash and Wall more than five decades. It was levelled to make room for a new library building.

However, a change in that intention was made when the Burnett home was donated for a library. During the coming year the library will be moved to its new location. What the old hotel site will be used for in the future is yet to be determined.

Another major change is the construction of a discount store, Wal-Mart, on the old fair grounds, located between Park West Shopping Center and Shaw Motor.

Change was indicated in the shopping center when huge amounts of fixtures were placed in a vacant area next to White's, where part of that building will be converted into a super market soon after the first of 1982.

Improvements in the downtown business area were also obvious. O.N. Newman purchased a building next to his law office and expanded with renovations both inside and outside the structure. Soon afterward the Spruiell brothers had the exterior of their building which adjoins Newman's remodeled.

Some major changes have been made on the old highway as well. Barbour Trucking rearranged both its truck yard and made major changes in its office interior and exterior. Down the road a block, Armadillo Arcade was placed on the vacant corner. The Patty Wagon opened in an old service station next to Salt Lick. At West Highway and Third Street, a new car wash was built, and at Johnson and Expressway, the long-closed Jiffy was reopened by Mini Mart.

In the single block of West Cash, one is surprised to find a ski shop now occupying the old Famous building. The old awning was torn down and new concrete replaced the crumbling sidewalk in front of three buildings occupied by City Cleaners, Johnny Lee and the MuleSkinners.

Across the street from city hall, the old Conoco station is currently being remodeled for a new business, and workers have been busy re-roofing and remodeling the interior of the old cleaners building on the north side of the street.

Other news of the year is recapped by months:

JANUARY

Jerry Padgett, life-long resident of Iowa Park who was serving his first term as Wichita County Clerk, died as a result of an accident while he was cutting fire wood. A burglar took a small amount of money and an undisclosed amount of drugs from Park Clinic. Twenty-five members of the Hawk Band made the all-district band. The Texas Highway Dept. announced plans to widen a hazarously-narrow bridge over Antelope Creek on FM 368. Mrs. Pricilla Taylor was named outstand-

FEBRUARY

Although the speaker for the Chamber's annual banquet failed to arrive, because of inclement weather, the event was still held and honors went to: Buck Voyles, Outstanding Citizen of the Year; Mrs. Otis Gay, Senior Citizen of the Year; Rex Wells, Agriculturist of the Year; and Miss Linda Ayres, Educator of the Year. Workers began installation of a crossing guard at the Jackson Street crossing of the railroad. Philip Jackson, son of Rev. and Mrs. Michael Jackson, won the state free throw shooting championship for his age classification, the event sponsored by the Elks Lodge. Lolly Hatcher of Burkburnett was crowned Miss Wichita County 1981. David Baugh was named to replace Watkins as football coach and athletic director. School trustees approved construction of a gymnasium for the Bradford Elementary campus. The city council approved $5,000 for architect fees to draft plans for a new city library. Demolition was begun on one of the city's best-known landmarks, Park Hotel, which was donated to the city for the benefit of the library. The Hawktette basketball team wound up with a 9-15 season record, well ahead of pre-season predictions. City aldermen approved hiring of Iowa Park's first female police patrolman, Pat Hannah. JRB Food Store was purchased by George Roy and Johnny Shanks and renamed Superfine Food Store. Mike Lunney was selected to perform with the 1981 International Sky Ryders Drum and Bugle Corps, based in Hutchinson, Kan. Plans for remodeling of city hall were revealed. A plat for a housing development across the street west of Bradford Elementary was approved by city aldermen.

MARCH

ship, only the second athletic title by a school team since 1970. Some four inches of rain were measured during the first week of the month. Marc Nowell was named a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship program. The Hawks dropped their bi-district game to Cleburne, ending the season with a 17-12 record under new coach Earnie Reusch. Alderman Bud Adams resigned his seat on the city council prior to moving from Iowa Park. Steve Page and Steve Smith were named to the all-district basketball team. Iowa Park youth dominated the Wichita County Junior Livestock Show. School voted $500 salary hikes for teachers. Iowa Park High A Cappella Choir and Table Chorus won sweepstakes in UIL competition. Finished seventh in the national title of the Elks Club National Hoop Shot competition, held in Indianapolis, Ind.

APRIL

In a light turnout at the voting boxes, Charlie Lee and Herman Mahler were elected to the city council along with incumbent Bill Gilmore; Rex Wells became a school trustee while Jerald Brown was returned to his seat. The annual city-wide clean-up week was observed with what officials called "outstanding response by the citizens." Seven students qualified for the regional UIL literary contests by placing in the district competition. A Planning and Zoning Commission meeting drew a standing-room-only crowd when discussions on regulating child care facilities in the city. Junior

Truck route ordinance to be enforced by police

Information has been mailed to truck owners in Iowa Park that truck traffic is restricted to certain routes inside the city limits and the police department is to begin enforcing the restrictions more vigorously.

The city council some time ago approved truck routes in the city because of damage to pavement not intended to carry heavy truck loads.

Truck routes include: Loop 370, northwest city limits to east limits; FM 368, north to south; Johnson Road, north to south; West Smith Street, Yosemite to city limits; and Atlantic Street, north to south.

The ordinance provides for trucks to travel on the other streets only if they are reaching a loading or unloading destination, such as a moving van or commercial hauling.

The city's definition of truck traffic is "the operation of any combination of a truck tractor, semi-trailer or pole trailer. A truck tractor operated singly is covered by the definition."

Vehicles in excess of seven feet in height or 30 feet in length may not be parked on any city right of way except for loading or unloading purposes, according to the ordinance.

When parked for loading or unloading on any street or alley, at least 10 feet of width of the roadway must be left available for traffic.

"Trucks may be parked only in truck terminals or industrial or commercial areas having sufficient space for such use," the information sheet sent to owners stated.

Vol. 13, No. 17 IOWA PARK, WICHITA COUNTY, TEXAS 76367 THURSDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1981

BEGINNING NEW YEAR'S DAY

Drivers must have insurance

Beginning tomorrow, Texas drivers contacted by Department of Public Safety officers or other peace officers in the state during traffic stops and vehicle accident investigations will be required to furnish proof of compliance with the new compulsory liability insurance law.

Charles Whittingstall, chief of Iowa Park police department, said each time a driver is asked for his driver's license by a patrolling officer, the driver will also be asked to show proof of insurance.

Under House Bill 197, an amendment to the Texas Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Act approved this year by the 67th legislature, all drivers must carry minimum liability coverage for medical expenses of $10,000 per person ($20,000 for two or more) and property damages of $5,000.

Col. Jim Adams, director Department of Public Safety, reports troopers will accept as evidence of insurance coverage the policy for the vehicle being operated or a document issued by the insurance company.

"Such a document must contain a statement that the liability coverage for the motor vehicle is the minimum prescribed by the law," Adams said. "The document must also include the name of the insurance company, the name of the insured person, the policy period and the policy number. This document may take the form of a letter or a card, depending upon the preference of the insuring company."

Insurance companies throughout the state recommend drivers do not carry their original policy or a photostatic copy of the policy declaration page or the insuring agent's binding agreement. They would rather motorists carry with them an official card or letter.

Adams has pointed out that DPS troopers will be enforcing the provisions of this law along highways and rural roads. Local police officers and sheriff's deputies have also been given the authority to request this information.

Drivers who do not maintain the specified coverage, refuse to give information or give false information to law enforcement officers risk a minimum fine of $75 for the first offense or $200 for subsequent violations.

In addition, a conviction under this new law will result in the suspension of the violator's drivers license and motor vehicle registration unless the violator establishes and maintains proof of financial responsibility for five years from the conviction date.

For convicted violators to establish proof of financial responsibility, a filing of an "SR-22" form must be made to the Safety Responsibility Bureau in Austin by the violator's insurer as proof of coverage.

The SR-22 form, used as evidence of insurance, is kept on the DPS computer file for five years, but if the violator cancels or allows the coverage to lapse, the violator is notified that his or her license and registration are suspended and that another SR-22 filing will be required.

Since most insurance companies will not insure those requiring an SR-22 filing, coverage may be obtained through either a county mutual insurance company or through the Texas Automobile Insurance Plan (TAIP), an assigned-risk insurance pool, at a higher premium rate than the norm.

Those persons convicted under this law will pay 20 percent more than the standard rate for insurance, if in the TAIP. Drivers convicted a second time will pay up to 95 percent higher rates.

Out-of-state, government-owned and self-insured vehicles are exempt from these insurance requirements. However, drivers of self-insured vehicles will be asked by DPS officers to produce evidence of self-insurance at accident scenes and traffic stops.

The insurance industry predicts liability premiums to increase because poor drivers who once were uninsured will now be put into the insurance system.

The new law covers motorcycles as well as every form of motor vehicle operated on a public road or highway.

The highway patrol does not plan any extraordinary effort to detect violators, but will ask for insurance proof during routine traffic stops and while investigating accidents. It has been past policy of the DPS to issue warnings rather than citations during the first 90 days after a new law has taken effect.

News in brief

Christmas tree burning set

The city of Iowa Park, in cooperation with the Iowa Park Volunteer Fire Department, will be sponsoring a bonfire of old Christmas trees at 5:30 Saturday on the east side of the Activity Center.

All persons in and around Iowa Park are requested to bring their Christmas trees to the area east of the Recreational Activity Center and north of the Burnett baseball field before this Saturday afternoon.

Classes to resume Monday

When the bell rings at 8:30 Monday morning, it will signal the end of the two-week holiday for Iowa Park students.

While students will have a day off

Jan. 18 for teacher inservice, their next holiday will not come until April, when they get a full week, Apr. 10-19, off for spring break, according to the school calendar.

Teams to play next week

Iowa Park High's basketball teams will get back into action next week, following the Christmas holidays of inactivity.

The Hawks and junior varsity will host Wichita Falls High Tuesday, and then both varsity teams are entered in tournaments at Wichita Falls next weekend.

District play gets underway Jan. 15 when the varsities host Vernon.

Cemetery group slates meeting

The Highland Cemetery Association will meet at 2:30 p.m. Jan. 10 at First Christian Church instead of Sunday, according to Buddy Johnson, president. During the business meeting, the nominating committee will report and officers for 1982 will be elected.

Stephens, Hines wedding held recently at Guthrie

Wedding vows were exchanged by Kim Mary Stephens of Guthrie, Okla. and Steven Lynn Hines of Oklahoma City Dec. 12 at the Trinity Episcopal Church in Guthrie, with Rev. Dr. Charles H.E. Brown, vicar, officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schrader of Hastings, Minn. and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hines of Iowa Park.

The church was decorated with arrangements of white silk cushion poms and votive candles, and the advent candle was lighted by Brenden Peoples, the acolyte. Mrs. Don Peoples furnished the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by Bill Harris. She wore an ivory Qiana gown designed with a Queen Anne neckline, empire waist trimmed with Alencon lace sprinkled with seed pearls, and a short built-in train ornamented with the lace and pearls. Her all-white silk bouquet was centered with an orchid encircled with cushion poms and carnations from which matching silk ribbons cascaded.

Mrs. Dennis Johnson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Mrs. Bill Harris was bridesmaid. They were attired in street-length dusty rose dresses featuring beige Peter Pan collars and tucks down the front. They carried white silk nosegays.

The groom wore an ivory tuxedo and matching shirt with ruffles trimmed in brown. Lt. Mark Simons, the groom's brother-in-law, the best man, Steve Arrington, groomsman, and Terry Hines, brother of the groom, the usher, wore walnut brown tuxedos, ivory shirts accented with brown-trimmed ruffles. Each wore a white silk boutonniere.

The groom's mother wore a blue polyester shirtdress with a white silk corsage.

Following a wedding trip to Grand Lake near Tulsa, the newlyweds are at home in Guthrie.

The bride was graduated from C.E. Donant High School in Stillwater, Okla. and attended Oklahoma State University where she was on the Dean's honor roll. She is employed as secretary to the manager at Quail Springs Mall in Oklahoma City.

The groom was graduated from Iowa Park High School and Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene with a B.B. S. degree in marketing and pre-law. He is assistant manager for Dillard's at the Quail Springs Mall in Oklahoma City.

The reception following the wedding was held at the church. Guests registered at a small table holding the wedding memories book and a white feather pen.

The refreshment tables were appointed with ceramic kissing angels. The focal points of interest were the attractive cakes made and decorated by Mrs. David Mleko, a close friend of the couple.

The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth. The two-tiered white cake was decorated with pink frosting designs and topped with the traditional bride and groom. Other appointments were the crystal punch service, and pink and green mints. The groom's table was laid with a green polyester cloth and held a chocolate cake topped with a miniature car decorated in "just married" fashion. The ivory napkins on both tables were accented with a replica of the car and "Kim and Steve, December 12, 1981."

Reception assistants were Miss Gina Methvin, Miss Lori Hines, sister of the groom, Mmes. Mleko and Peoples.

In addition to the groom's parents, his brother and sister, Terry and Lori Hines of Iowa Park, and wedding participants, out-of-town guests included Mrs. Clyde Hines, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNalb of Vernon, grandparents of the groom, Lt. and Mrs. Mark Simons and Andy of Temple.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Methvin, Bret, Gina and Darin of Bartlesville, Okla.; Messrs. and Mmes. Jim Bradford and Julie, Jim Bradford Jr. and Jennifer of Vernon, Dennis Johnson of Weatherford, Okla. and David Mleher of Edmond, Okla.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at The Parker House in Guthrie.

MR. and MRS. STEVEN HINES

IOWA PARK and Wichita West volunteer fire departments battled a burning barn full of baled hay Monday afternoon on Wellington Lane. The blaze was started by a trash fire which set dry grass ablaze and was moved by a northerly wind. More than 600 bales were lost and the new barn was heavily damaged.

Mrs. Pyles was born Oct. 13, 1894, in Golconda, Ill. She lived in Electra 52 years before moving to Iowa Park nine months ago. She was a member of Electra First Baptist Church and VFW Auxiliary.

Survivors include a son, Preston Pace of Iowa Park; a grandchild, and three great-grandchildren.

Wade Park

Wade Park, a former resident of Iowa Park, died Tuesday morning at a hospital in Sardis, Miss. Funeral service will be at 2 p.m. today in the Moore Funeral Home at Sardis.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Matt Schott of Lafayette, La. and Mrs. George Green of Arlington; six grandchildren; two nieces, Frances Park of Iowa Park and Mrs. James Ozee of Fort Worth.

Kenneth Davis

Services for Kenneth Davis, 71, were Tuesday morning at Tanner-Aulds Funeral Home, with Rev. Hal Farnsworth, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

He was born May 10, 1910, in Chillicothe and moved to Wichita Falls in 1950. He was a retired realtor and veteran of World War II. He was a member of the First Baptist Church in Wichita Falls. He married Zellah Belle Thompson July 4, 1939, in Iowa Park.

He is survived by his wife; a daughter, Jane Ann Davis, both of Wichita Falls; five brothers, Cecil C. of Vernon, Douglas of Odell, John L. of Mobile, Ala., Owen C. of Gainesville, and Allen D. of Wichita Falls.

Kathryn Johnson named to College Who's Who

According to a recent letter received by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson from John L. Baier, dean of students and assistant vice-president of student affairs at Texas Tech Univ. their daughter, Kathryn Johnson, has been selected for inclusion in Texas Tech University's Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges for 1982.

The selection, made by a distinguished group of faculty, staff and students, is based upon outstanding achievement in the areas of leadership, scholarship and service.

This is one of the highest honors which a student at Texas Tech can receive. The dean further stated "Kathy has made an outstanding contribution to the Tech community." A 1978 graduate of Iowa Park High School where she was the recipient of the 23 Study Club's Outstanding Senior Girl for that year, she is a junior at Texas Tech where she is a Home Economics major in clothing and textiles.

She is a member and the current president of Texas Tech Fashion Board, member and former vice president of Phi Upsilon Omicron, honorary home economics society, and American Home Economics Association. She is a member of high and Bradford Elementary students raised $11,427 for the American Heart Association in a jump-a-thon. The IPHS one-act play cast advanced to the region contest. The 23 Study Club named Laura Dowell and Denny Anderson for its annual outstanding girl and boy awards. Iowa Parkan Cindy Flanagan shared Midwestern State University's "Woman of the Year" award. Recognized at the annual FFA banquet were Stanley Watson, Star Chapter Farmer, Bruce Whitaker and Kyle Wells, co-recipients of the Star Greenhand, Dale Anderson, Outstanding Vo-Ag Student, and Bill Steger. Distinguished Service Award. The former Jiffy store on Johnson road was re-opened by Carr Oil Co. as the Mini Mart. A new ambulance firm, Plumlee Ambulance EMS, Inc., was named to serve Iowa Park along with Wichita Falls, Burkburnett and the rest of Wichita County. Darla Flick and Buck Cargal qualified for the state literary contest.

Texas Tech University marching band and Sigma Nu Little Sister.

Kathy is a one-year member of freshman council and student senate and two-year member of home economics council.

MAY

Joe Spruiell and Wendall Burnam were announced valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, of IPHS graduating class of 1981. Troy Linthicum and Mike Ray won their specialties, pole vault and shot put, at the regional track meet and qualified to compete in the state meet. Junior High honor students were Melissa Hatcher, valedictorian, and Phillip Clements, salutatorian. The high school faculty named Tammie Robertson and Troy Linthicum best all-around students. By a split (3-2) vote, renovation of the city hall was voted down.

JUNE

A fund was established at State National Bank to help pay expenses of former IPHS teacher Gary Lyles, who was severely injured when thrown from a horse. Some parts of the immediate Iowa Park area received up to seven inches of rain in the first week of June. The first major dispute of land use since the city's zoning ordinance was approved 10 years earlier erupted when neighbors objected to construction of a car wash business at the intersection of West Highway and Third Street. Mrs. Kenneth (Robbie) Watts was transferred to a Dallas hospital for repair of a ruptured blood vessel which occurred while she was on her rural mail route. Iowa Parkan Roy Boutwell was assigned a new position on the Midwestern State Univ. staff, director of student financial aids. Monica Klinkerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Klinkerman, won the title of Texas Outstanding Little Miss. New member of the city board of adjustments were appointed, including Charlie Lee, John Brown, Donald Hill, David Padgett and Rip Smith. Debra Helen Hixon, 18, was killed in a one-car accident in Archer County. Some 250 persons attended the annual Valley View school reunion. Superfine Food Store observed its grand opening. Groundbreaking ceremonies were held for construction of Christ the King Catholic Church.

JULY

Largest crowd ever to attend an annual street dance, sponsored by the Volunteer Fire Department, whooped it up on Cash Street. Aldermen voted to oppose a rate increase sought by Southwestern Bell Telephone. Dana Hicks was named a delegate to the Texas Farm Bureau Citizenship Seminar in Waco. Iowa Park merchants held their annual Crazy Day Sale. A 15-year-old youth, Arthur "Mo" Peevey, Jr., was killed and his father severely injured when the jeep in which they were riding was run over by an empty cattle truck on the expressway. Highland Cemetery Association purchased 38 acres of adjoining land from Rex Lehman. Four young vocalists, Russell Shawver, Terry Escue, Brian Cockburn and Eric Birk, returned from a European tour as members of a choral group which participated in the 10th annual International Youth and Music Festival in Vienna. Twenty-one teams participated in the second annual MuleSkinner Slow Pitch Tournament.

AUGUST

School trustees set the coming year's tax rate at 65 cents per $100-valuation, which was the third consecutive year the rate had been cut. Frances Sampley was one of five Midwestern State students named recipients of the Robert D. Gunn Freshman Scholarships. A 19-year-old Iowa Park man, Gerry Boggs, was killed on the old Iowa Park Road in Wichita Falls while pushing his motorcycle when he was struck by another Iowa Parkan, Lloyd Bartow, who was reportedly blinded by the setting sun.

SEPTEMBER

First-week enrollment figures for Iowa Park schools dropped to 1,732 from 1,829 the previous year. The last portion of the old Texas-Oklahoma Fair grounds was sold by the Iowa Park Industrial Development corporation to Wal-Mart. Local residents participated in the 40th anniversary celebration at Sheppard AFB. Ray Hicks was appointed to the school board to fill the unexpired term of Bill Spruiell, who resigned for health reasons. Raymond Hulin, owner-operator of Hulin Rodeo Equipment Co. of Kamay, was reported paralyzed as result of a Mesquite rodeo injury. The Walter Herschman home was named "Yard of the Year" by the Iowa Park Garden Club. Two new soccer fields located on the east side of Gordon Lake were dedicated as the David Kinsey Soccer Fields. David Staber and Wayne Watson were named semi-finalists in the National Merit Program. Movie and television star Dale Robertson was special guest at the annual 2-J Horse Farm consignment sale.

OCTOBER

City aldermen set the year's budget at a record $1.6-million. Vandals inflicted more than $4,000 in damages to Bradford Elementary. Five Iowa Parkans were killed in separate incidents in a five-day period, including Jerry Wayne Moss, John Wayne Roach, Larry Paul Sampley, Ricky Alsop and Zeno S. Defoeldivar. Marianne York was crowned IPHS homecoming queen as the Hawks defeated Northside 14-7. Chamber officials rated attendance of the annual Whoop-T-Do as the all-time best. School trustees voted to have a new roof placed on the new high school gymnasium, replacing the metal roof which badly leaked. City council members approved an ordinance which regulates child care facilities. Region Nine members of the Association of Texas Professional Educators held their annual meeting here. Three area men, J.W. Boren, Ed Cornelison and Clay Witherspoon were indicted by the Archer County grand jury for oilfield thefts. David Roy Styles, owner of a tank truck service at Kamay, pleaded guilty to oilfield theft and was sentenced to 10 years. The Public Utilities Commission turned down a complaint by the Wichita Valley Water Supply Corporation and permitted the city of Iowa Park to sell water to Horseshoe Bend Estates. More than 100 Friendly Door members were served barbecue by the MuleSkinners. The first load of building material was delivered to the Wal-Mart site.

NOVEMBER

School trustees voted to give all full-time school personnel a $400 bonus. Eventhough IPHS enrollment is well below the minimum for AAAA classification, its two-year enrollment required the UIL to relegate the school to the same classification another two years. Fourteen seniors closed out their high school football careers with a 21-18 win over Burkburnett, giving new coach Baugh a 3-6-1 season and 2-2-1 district record. Chamber members elected Phil Welch president, Linda Merrick first vice president and Dr. James Edwards second vice-president for the coming year. Mike Robertson, owner of White's Store of Iowa Park, announced he would commence immediately after the first of the year to convert his furniture department into a super market. Iowa Park hosted the Holiday-Pottsboro bi-district football game, won by Pottsboro. In a one-week period, a burglar took approximately $10,590 in cash and jewelry from the Carl Davis home, and a robber demanded and received an undisclosed amount of cash from Paul Callaway in a daring robbery pre-dawn in front of Callaway's home. Eight Hawks, Steve Harris, Chris Nethery, Russell Hayley, Jeryl Brixey, Jim Smith, Robin Combs, Lynn Fulfer and Don Sidlauskas, were named to the all-district football team.

DECEMBER

A possible disaster was averted at the Texaco Service Station at Pacific and Expressway when a customer drove away with the gas nozzle still in his tank, ripping the entire pump from its mounting and setting spilled gasoline ablaze. Hundreds lined the sidewalks of the business district to see Santa Claus as he rode in the annual Christmas parade, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Trustees approved installation of burglar alarms in two school buildings, including Bradford and another, undisclosed, structure. Two boys 15 and 17, were arrested for stealing a purse containing money from a Woodbriar Apartment occupant. Iowa Park's most beautiful landmark, the Will Burnett home, was given to the city by Anne W. Phillips to be named the Tom L. Burnett Memorial Library, after the home's original occupant. As residents of northern Iowa Park met with the city council to object to a proposal for locating a sanitary landfill off Johnson Road, they heard aldermen vote to lease land southwest of the city as another landfill site. The Hawk basketball team won tournaments at both Petrolia and Holliday, and the Hawkettes brought home the Holliday championship as well.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Mr. Hamilton,
I would like to direct this letter to the parents of children who ride bicycles.

Dear Parents,
I would like to know how much you love your child? Do you love them enough to learn yourself and then teach to your child the laws of bicycling. Did you even know there are laws especially for a person riding a bicycle? I have observed too much "smart" cycling in our town and someday there will be a tragedy because of it. I recently watched as three boys on their way to school "shot" into an intersection. They could not see the car to the right because a truck was parked beside the street. They did not observe the stop sign they had. All three boys had to go to the ditch, one on the opposite side of the street, and two managed to pull away from the car to the right ditch. The driver of the car was frightened I'm sure. The boys all stopped as the car slowly moved on, the boys laughed and all started to school again. This is one of many near accidents that happen daily. Parents, kids play a deadly game on bicycles. Parents make some strict rules and then carry them out. So they get mad at you! Better mad than dead or severely injured. You be the boss for a change. At the schools each day, each child is trying to out smart the other. This is not only boys but girls also.

One night about 8:30, driving into town, I met head on, a young cyclist, with NO lights. Why was he out after dark like that and on the wrong side of the street? A bicycle is not a pedestrian.

It would be hard for me to blame a motorist for hitting a young cyclist, but very easy to blame lackadaisical parents.

It is holiday time. Time for new bicycles. Please teach your child and if they won't obey, lock up the bike. You can if you will.

About our volunteer fire department during the past week, there's been some good news and some bad news.

The good news is that they saved a home early Christmas morning by responding quickly.

Billy Winter was out of town, visiting his mother when, at 2:30 a.m. the circuit breaker box reportedly exploded, setting fire to the home at 1303 Sunset.

Mrs. Winter and her year-old son were there alone and exited without injury.

The firemen were on the scene in only 10 minutes! At any time of day that's outstanding, but for these volunteers to respond so quickly at that time of night is amazing.

Winter quoted his insurance company's investigator as saying the department did a fantastic job saving the house.

The bad news is that the department had a truck badly damaged... by fire.

Late Sunday afternoon firemen were responding to a call on a grassfire west of town. After determining it was a false alarm, the truck was turning around when one of the batteries tipped over and started a fire under the hood.

The pump motor on the back of the unit was useless because it starts off the battery where the fire was. And the hand-held extinguisher normally carried had been removed for a car fire a couple of days earlier and not replaced. Communications were also lost because the radio was powered by the truck's battery.

So firemen had to stand back and watch the truck burn, but luckily it did not explode.

About $6,000 in damage is estimated, if the motor is not ruined, I was told. The truck was a 1975 model given to the department by the county to fight grassfires.

And that brings me to a problem our firemen face all too often.

The call the truck was answering was a controlled burn of tree clearings. Someone wanted to help, not knowing the fire was supposed to be there, and called the department.

The problem was that the land owner didn't notify the department that he was burning on purpose. Seldom does anyone report beforehand that a controlled burn is to be made, and our volunteers are having to leave their work or homes to answer useless calls.

So, property owners, make a new year's resolution: call and inform the volunteer firemen that you are going to start a control fire. It's to your benefit. They might get tired of answering such needless calls and not be on hand to save your house or barn if a real fire starts some time.

Window broken

Delbert Sigafus may be the victim of a youth's Christmas present.

The right rear window of his automobile was shattered between noon and 4 p.m. Sunday by a BB gun shot, while it was parked at 405 S. Victoria.

His loss was set at $60.95.

Cook of the Week

In the south, black-eyed peas are to New Year's Day eating what turkey and pumpkin pie are to the Christmas dinner. Just how long people have eaten them on the first day of the new year for good luck insurance is not known, but it is a fact that most people in the south are careful to include the vegetable on the New Year's Day menu.

Monica (Mrs. David) Kirk, our cook for the last week in 1981, is a native of Calif. and she has not made eating black eyed peas a tradition on New Year's Day, so none of her recipes this week include the vegetable, but she is sharing some that sound like good eating any day of the year.

She was graduated from high school in San Diego and received a degree in general education from Chaffey Junior College in Rancho Cucamonga. She and David married in 1975 and lived in Los Angeles for three years. They were members and workers in the La Porte Baptist Church before moving to Iowa Park recently where he accepted a position as music director at the Faith Baptist Church. He is studying music at Midwestern State University. They have two sons Jeff 4 and Joel 1 1/2 years of age.

Mrs. Kirk is teaching English for International Friends at First Baptist Church in Wichita Falls. Her hobbies are cooking embroidering and crafts.

Mrs. David Kirk

vigorously till soft dough forms. Press 1 level tablespoon dough on bottom and up sides of each cup. Divide sausage among cups. Beat half n' half and egg, stir in onion and salt. Spoon 1 T into each cup; sprinkle cheese over tops. Bake until edges are golden brown and centers are set (about 25 minutes). Refrigerate any remaining tarts. Makes 1 dozen tarts or 36 mini tarts.

CHEESE BALL

1 pkg. softened cream cheese
3/4 lb. shredded Cheddar cheese
1 pkg. Ranch dressing
Mix cheeses together with dry dressing. Form into a ball. Roll in chopped nuts. Chill and serve with crackers.

PRALINE SWEET POTATOES

3 cups cooked and mashed sweet potatoes
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1T vanilla
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup margarine

Mix above ingredients together and put in buttered 2-qt. casserole.

Top with:
1 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup flour
1/2 cup margarine
1 cup nuts
Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes.

SALAD BOWL PUFF

3/4 cup water
1/4 cup margarine
1 cup buttermilk baking mix
4 eggs
Chicken, ham or turkey salad filling
Heat oven to 400 degrees. Grease 9x1 1/4 inch pie plate. Heat water and margarine to boiling in 2-qt. saucepan; add baking mix all at once. Stir vigorously over low heat until mixture forms a ball (about 1 1/2 minutes). Remove from heat. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Continue beating until smooth. Spread in bottom of pie plate. Bake until puffed and dry in center, 35-40 minutes. Cool. Just before serving, fill with your favorite salad filling. Cut in wedges. Serves 6-8 people.

Girl visiting Iowa Park looking to Israeli army

"I am looking forward to spending at least two years in the Israeli Army because I love my country," Chen Mazar stated enthusiastically as she expressed her devotion to the welfare of Israel, and, in so doing, showed that she zealously supports her country's authority and interests.

Miss Mazar, 18½ years of age, is one of 30 American Field Exchange Students attending high school in the U.S. at the present time. She has spent the past six months with her host family, Mr. and Mrs. Sellers in Stow, Ohio. She has attended high school there and given speeches in different schools describing Israel's educational system, comparing and contrasting it with that in the U.S.

According to Chen, two of the main differences in the school systems are that the teachers go to the students in Israel, (there is no changing classrooms on the part of the students), and there are no extra curricular activities connected with the schools themselves. The students are in school from 8:30 a.m. until 1:30 or 2 p.m., and there are between 30 and 40 students in each class.

After classes are dismissed, the students are free to attend youth organization meetings. One of the most popular of these is Sofom, which is somewhat like the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts in America. The students are taught the history of Israel and learn an appreciation for the country by walking. The teenagers serve as guides on the tours.

Chen has spent several days during the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller. Even though she had never met them, she felt that she knew Mrs. Miller because she had heard her grandmother, Mrs. Hana Masan, speak very fondly of her. The two women met in 1975 at Tiberias on the Sea of Galilee when the Iowa Park woman was on a tour and Mrs. Masan was there taking mineral baths for her health. Mrs. Masan was a guest in the Miller home two years ago.

Chen will be leaving the U.S. Jan. 25 and shortly after her return home will enter the Army. In Israel, girls are drafted at the age of 18 for two years of service and boys are drafted for three years. After two years, the girls are in reserve, unless they prefer to remain in the service of their country, and are required to serve a month of each year in the Army until they marry and are expecting a child. The men, who are in reserve, must give two months of the year to their country.

Miss Mazar's parents, Izak and Pnina Mazar, live in Bney Brak, a suburb of Tel Aviv. He owns a garage and serves as a tour guide and she is a reservation clerk for the Israeli Airlines. Their religion is orthodox Judaism. They have another daughter, Dalit, 16½ years of age.

In addition to being chosen an exchange student to represent her country in the U.S., Chen was chosen after screening and tests for a summer exchange student in Germany, Austria, Switzerland and England. She speaks Hebrew, of course, English, some French, Arabic and German. She has a treasure trove of precious memories about each country that she has visited and especially the U.S.

She confessed that she had dreamed of visiting Texas for many years where she could see "real, live cowboys." Mrs. Miller said that she had every intention of trying to make her dream a reality. The Millers plan to give her a cowboy hat and shirt to take home for souvenirs.

Speaking for herself alone, Chen's opinion concerning the recent annexation of Golan Heights is that Mr. Begin was correct but that he went about it in the wrong way. She feels that since Golan is their only protection from Syria, Israel must not be forced to give it away as they are being forced to give away Sinai.

Lack of moisture hurt pecan kernels

By Don D. Decker
County Agent

Most of this year's pecans are high quality, however, there are numerous trees where the kernels failed to fill properly. There is also a tendency for some of the kernels to develop a corky formation on the surface.

The pecan trees of Wayne Coffman of Wichita Falls failed to fill properly. This condition was caused by the trees being overloaded with too many nuts per cluster for the growing conditions of the tree. The trees probably ran out of soil moisture during the month of September.

Pecan trees did pretty good on soil moisture until the later part of August. Dry September conditions placed the pecan trees in a stress resulting in lower kernel quality. Some growers tried to water their trees but failed to add enough moisture for deep penetration into the feeder root zone. This zone is two to 12 inches deep under the outer tips of the tree branches.

Jack Reynolds of Wichita Falls has a Stuart pecan tree which filled very well while his two Burkett trees developed poorly filled kernels. Both had three to four nuts per cluster, which was a heavy load. In this situation, soil moisture was adequate as evident by the Stuart pecan tree filling well. His Burkett pecans were probably affected by pecan scab, which is a disease of the foliage and pecan shucks. Any insect or disease which damages the leaves or the shucks interferes with pecan kernel development.

Some trees in the area were hit by a new disease known as stem end blight. Jim Kuehler experienced a stem end blight infestation on one of his varieties. This disease hit in October during the heavy rains which resulted in some damage to the kernel development. Kuehler sprayed for stem end blight using Benlate just as the pecans were entering the water stage. We thought this would provide adequate protection, however, it is evident now more spraying was needed. Stem end blight begins with marginal leaf burning which eventually envelops the entire leaf.

Diseases and insects may have affected some trees, but most of the poorly filled pecans in this area were caused by the trees running out of water in September.

DPS spokesman reviews window coating rules

A few motorists may be confused over the use of glass coatings and one-way glass in motor vehicles. However, the Texas Department of Public Safety reports that drivers should be aware of the law and exercise caution prior to altering the window glass of a motor vehicle.

Capt. John Mason, of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of the DPS in the regional headquarters for this area, advised motorists not to put anything on the windshield or front side windows. "No coatings, plastic, liquid or other materials may be put on the windshield or front side windows of any motor vehicle that has not been approved by the DPS," said Mason.

However, the DPS spokesman says glass coating materials may be applied to the rear window and the rear side windows if the vehicle has outside rearview mirrors.

Mason says no motor vehicle glass coatings are currently approved by the DPS for application on windshield or front side windows. "Under state law, the DPS has the authority to approve, but due to the variations of the materials and the numerous methods in which they are applied, we simply cannot approve any of the coatings," he said. "Frequently we find these coatings to be dangerous since they often obstruct the driver's vision," he said.

Capt. Mason said the glass coating materials are sometimes spray-on tint, metalized mylar plastic or other kinds of applicable materials.

Holliday's year in review

The year 1981 saw many good events transpire in Holliday, with the Eagle football team enjoying one of its finest seasons ever, the city getting its own ambulance, and local businesses expanding as opposed to national trends of economic slow-downs.

But the future holds an uphill battle in store for the city, with an expected fight with Wichita Falls over the interpretation of a vaguely-written water contract, and hopes of obtaining a physician for the first time in 25 years to practice solely in Holliday. Here is the Leader's review of 1981.

JANUARY - State Rep. Charles Finnell announced his engagement to Miss Kay Fitzpatrick, native of Austin. Supt. Ray Coe's contract was given a one-year extension on a 3-3 split vote of the Holliday school board. Civil defense director Melvin Bills told city aldermen the three new civil defense sirens had been erected and were ready for testing. Rodney Moore and Carla Lear (Ezell) were named Mr. and Miss Holliday High School. 14 bandsmen from HHS made All-District band through auditions in Wichita Falls. Lindy Dolberry and Joe Chase were named to the All-Red River football team.

FEBRUARY - Jim Hamill was named Holliday's first city administrator in charge of overseeing all city operations including the office staff, street, sanitation and water employees. With school and municipal elections six days away, only two candidates had filed with four vacancies to be filled.

MARCH - Action developed in the school and city elections in March with Alice Carver and incumbent Durhl Caussey announcing their intentions to run in the school election. Hershel McDaniel added his name to the city race, opposing Jim Virdell for Place Incumbents John Goforth and Johnny Willis both announced their intentions to run for re-election. School trustees accepted the resignations of assistant football coach Mike Greer and high school teacher Kay Pautsky, and raised salaries for the athletic director and his assistants, school administrators, teachers and auxiliary personnel. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kuykendall celebrated their 80th wedding anniversary. Raises were extended to city employees during the aldermen's regular meeting. Rep. Finnell was named to the national legislative committee. The Holliday Eagles won the boys division of the Eagle Relays. The high school tennis team repeated as champions for the second year in the Holliday Invitational Tennis Tournament.

APRIL - Rhonda Talley, Pam Pruet and Susan Parker advanced to regional competition in tennis. The HHS one-act play "The Taming of the Shrew" was named alternate to state.

Mrs. Carver was named as the first woman school trustee in Holliday history. Trustee Durhl Caussey was re-elected, but Gene Harmon was upset in his bid for a second term. In city elections Virdell, Willis and Goforth were re-elected. Mayor Tom Hall suffered a heart attack during the council's monthly meeting, and died later in the week at Wichita General Hospital. Holliday High School captured the District 13-AA literary meet for the second consecutive year. For the first time since city sales taxes had been collected, Holliday exceeded Iowa Park in collections.

Holliday city councilmen appointed attorney James Cook to replace Hall. Approximately 400 entries competed for prizes at the Maskat Mounted Patrol's third annual Quarter Horse Show held for the first time ever at Jack Ayres' Holliday Creek Ranch. Kyle Brown and Larry Boydston won the district tennis doubles title. The HHS Eagles won the district track meet, and Holliday obtained an ambulance service when county commissioners granted the city use of the county's converted van. Boydston and Kristi Lucy were named outstanding athletes at the all-sports banquet.

MAY - City councilmen okayed a right-of-way contract with the Texas Highway Department for right-of-way easements along US 277-82 from the Kamay Y to the city limits of Holliday. Trustees extended Holliday teachers their second increase in salaries for the 1981-82 school year, upping their above state base pay to $1,000. Holliday High School captured the Spring Meet trophy for the second consecutive year in a row, based on results of spring sports and literary events. Mrs. Morganna Thorn was hired to replace Don Stewart as water and sewer superintendent. Kenton Wayne (Kent) Lilley was named valedictorian and Laura Lea Holt salutatorian for the 1981 graduating class of HHS. 56 HHS seniors graduated May 29 in the Erma S. Barton Memorial Auditorium.

Screening clinic here Wednesday

The Texas Department of Health will conduct a screening clinic from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. Wednesday at the Holliday Elementary School, according to Zandra Underwood, R.N., public health nurse.

The following screening tests will be offered: Blood pressure, diabetes, anemia, height, weight, and skin disorders. If an abnormality is found the person will be referred to the physician of his choice.

JUNE - Annetta Reusch and Patty Wade submitted resignations from their respective posts at HHS. Bill Higgins, Jim Bob Wallace, and Bob White were hired onto the high school faculty for 1981-82. Policeman Larry Spencer resigned, and a list of ambulance drivers and attendants were approved at the council's monthly meeting.

JULY - Former Holliday police chief Lomax Campbell was hired to replace Spencer. Local resident David L. Wylie was awarded the low bid for painting the high school building and athletic complex during the school board's monthly meeting. Gordon L. Turner, Martha Kay Higgins, and Patty Shulte were hired by school trustees during their regular monthly meeting, and added baseball to the list of interscholastic sports at HHS. Justice of the Peace Cecil Hamady announced his intentions of closing Holliday Drug due to the apparent lack of local interest.

AUGUST - Holliday city council called a special meeting to re-designate the streets to be resurfaced after a closer inspection of the streets previously targeted for repair were found to be in worse condition than previously thought. Mr. and Mrs. Don Jones won the chili cook-off at the Old Settlers Reunion Rodeo in Seymour. The Holliday Eagle football team began two-a-day drills for the upcoming season. An approximate 21-percent increase in teachers' salaries was seen as the major reason in a $168,297 increase in the school's budget for 1981-82. City aldermen okayed the 1981-82 budget for the city, with no tax increase anticipated for local taxpayers. A report of first-week attendance at Holliday's schools showed a drop in enrollment of 27 students.

SEPTEMBER - The Holliday Eagles posted their first win of the season over Seymour 27-0 to begin what would eventually be the school's finest regular season ever. Henry Owen was hired as the school's new bus mechanic in a move to upgrade the transportation department. HHS seniors took home approximately $11,000 at the Round-Up festivities.

OCTOBER - Enrollment at Holliday's schools increased from the first week with 19 students entering Holliday schools after the Labor Day holidays. Allen Monroe was hired as animal control warden in a move to rid the city of its stray dog problem. The Eagles moved to eighth in Class AA in the Associated Press ratings.

NOVEMBER - City aldermen voiced their displeasure over Archer County commissioner's lack of action on appointment of a justice of the peace after the resignation of Hamady. The district re-alignments kept Holliday in the same district, but added Jacksboro, Henrietta and Olney to District 13-AA beginning in 1982. The Eagle band earned a "1" rating in the U.I.L. fall marching contest. The Eagle football team ended the regular season with a 10-0 record, holding a record eight opponents to no score and allowing but 10 points in the team's finest regular season ever. A plan was offered by Archer County hospital official Wendell McCord to bring a physician to Holliday. Pottsboro ended Holliday's hopes of achieving a state championship with a 7-6 upset win in Iowa Park. Team physician Dr. Joe M. Hilburn, 32, died in a Houston hospital. Ten Eagles were named to the District 13-AA All-District list, with five repeating on offense and defense. City aldermen met with three prospective justice of the peace candidates in a special called meeting, but failed to name one.

DECEMBER - The Eagle band placed seventh in the state marching contest in Austin. Donita Alley was named to represent Holliday in the Archer County Christmas parade. Dr. John L. Lee toured Holliday and Archer County Hospital with local dignitaries. Dr. Lee is a prospect to become the first physician in Holliday in 25 years, and negotiations are currently underway by city officials to secure his move in the near future. School trustee Durhl Caussey was released as Northwest Christian Academy administrator. Holliday school board placed both administrators and teachers on term contracts for the 1981-83 school year. City officials met with the Wichita Falls city council over the proposed water rate hike, and were met with less than enthusiastic response by the neighboring city's fathers. In follow-up action, city aldermen voted unanimously to abide by their version of the water contract with Wichita Falls and, if necessary, go to court over the matter.

Holliday News

School resumes Monday

School bells Monday morning signal the end of Christmas vacation at Holliday's schools, and its all downhill from here until the end of yet another school year.

Several school-related activities will shortly begin to heat up, with interscholastic competition in literary fields as well as athletics starting to fill the school calendar. And, for the first time ever, HHS will field a varsity baseball team, although the Eagles will have to wait until 1983 before they can lay their hands on a state championship trophy in the sport.

SENIOR TRIP SHORTER

The senior class of 1982 will be limited to four days and three nights for the upcoming senior trip, as stated in the board policy, which was revised during the 1980-81 school year.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following letters were received too late to be published in our Christmas edition, but they were forwarded to Santa Claus, just the same.)

Dear Santa,
I've been a pretty good girl. I just want two things a rabbit coat and radio head phones. And that's all.
Love you very much
Jodi L. Shawver
P.S. MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY New Year

Dear Santa,
My name is Jarrod Brock and I live in Holliday Texas. We don't have a chimney, but you can come in through the attic and I'll have a little snack fixed for you.

I've been a pretty good boy this last year, so I hope you can bring me some of the things that I'd like to have:
1st. a Racetract,
2nd Choo Choo Train
3rd Kawasaki 3 Wheeler (with knob wheels!)
And last of all I'd like a kitchen set if you have one. See you soon.
Love,
Jarrod

The length of this year's trip is one day shorter than last year's, but as the years go by, senior trips will be shortened until by 1984, the senior class will spend one day away from school, and return that evening.

BASKETBALL GETS UNDERWAY

After an 11-day layoff, the Eagles and Lady Eagles will once again take to the court, with the red-and-white scheduled to play Jacksboro Saturday night beginning at 5.

Tuesday night Boyd will travel to Holliday to meet the varsity teams in a District 13-AA tilt, with the Lady Eagles playing first at 7. On Friday, Jan. 8, Chico will bring its varsity teams and junior varsity boys to Holliday for yet another district tilt, with the junior varsity game starting at 5 p.m.

QUICK QUIZ

Are you full of knowledge of world hunger, its causes and cures? This quiz can help you tell.

1. What percent of their earnings do poor people in developing nations pay for their subsistence diets? (a) 1/6 (b) 70 (c) 85 (d) 95?

2. Insects destroy what fraction of the world's crops? (a) 1/6 (b) 1/4 (c) 1/3 (d) 1/2?

3. Worldwide, the number of people who don't get enough calories is about (a) 100,000 to a million (b) 100 to 300 million (c) 400 million to a billion?

4. The average American spends (a) half (b) the same (c) almost twice as much on alcoholic beverages as on religious and charitable activities?

ANSWERS: 1. (c) The figure increases with inflation. 2. (b) Even when enough food is provided, insects and vermin take an almost unbelievable toll on the crop. There is a great need in the developing world for weatherproof, secure storage facilities. 3. (c) 4. (c) One organization many Americans consider a good vehicle for helping others is World Vision. This Christian, non-denominational humanitarian group helps families become self-sufficient through instruction in hygiene, child care, farming, family planning and vocational training. It works in the community and through the community resources in some 85 countries around the world. For a free booklet on how you can help fight world hunger, write to "A World in Need: Hunger," World Vision, Box O, Pasadena, Calif. 91109.
