Buckaroos first foe of '81 Hawk season

No one has had to remind this year's edition of the Iowa Park Hawks how the 1980 season opened. Those who weren't on the varsity have been reminded several times by the returning veterans that another team which dresses in green and white handed the Hawks a 20-6 season debut dumping.

A lot of things have changed since that game. Both the Hawks and the Buckaroos have new head coaches, and both were hit heavily by graduation.

David Baugh has taken over the Head Hawk position from Tommy Watkins, while Bill Pearce was moved up from an assistant position to replace Breck's Larry Parker.

Though the Hawk offensive platoon is much the same as last year, the defensive secondary was totally wiped out when diplomas were handed out last spring.

Neither team has the same quarterback that played last year. In fact, Iowa Park won't have the field general who was expected to start this year.

Curtis Martin was graduated last spring, and senior Tim Smith was to take over this year. But in an inter-squad scrimmage Friday afternoon, Smith broke his right leg and will be out for most or all of the season. Junior Wayne Hodges has been tabbed to take his place.

Kyle Parker has taken the place of his older brother, Brent, as quarterback of the Buckaroos. Both are the sons of the former Breck coach.

1981 Iowa Park Hawk varsity football team

Breckenridge was the top-ranked AAA team in the state when the 1980 season opened, and held that ranking through most of the season until losing 23-28 to Stamford.

The Buckaroos aren't ranked nearly as high this year, but could be. They have beaten both Mineral Wells and Decatur in pre-season scrimmages. Decatur is ranked seventh in the state in one poll.

Besides Smith, another veteran from last year has been lost for the season. Danny Coletrain, 205-pound fullback, injured his knee during workouts in shorts and was recently told by his physician that an operation would be necessary.

But Coach Baugh believes strongly that his team will be ready for the Bucks when they take the field in Hawk Stadium at 8 tomorrow night.

Offensively, he plans to start Hodges (150, jr.) at quarterback, Steve Stewart (206 jr.) at fullback and Jim Smith (160, sr.) at tailback. Linemen will be Jon Dressler (208, sr.) at center, Eric Russell (145, jr.) and Raymond Tyler (155, jr.) at guards, and Jeryl Brixey (225, sr.) and Frank Johnson (176, jr.) at tackle.

Steve Harris (195, sr.) will start at tight end. Split end will be alternated by Russell Hayley (178, sr.) and Les Smith (170, sr.), while wide receiver will also be alternated by Keith Mowery (145, sr.) and Steve Fairchild (145, sr.).

Defensively, Harris will probably start at noseguard, but Lynn Fulfer (145, jr.) will see lots of action there. Tackles will be Stewart and Brixey and ends Johnson and Robin Combs (180, sr.)

Linebackers will be Tyler and Mac Weaver (187, jr.); corners Jim Smith and Les Smith; Hayley at safety; Mowery at rover and Marc Klinkerman (157, jr.) will relieve secondary players at various positions.

Baugh said the Hawks made considerable improvement since their scrimmage with Jacksboro two weeks ago. Their condition is good and their attention to timing and assignments is about where they should be at this point in the season.

Enrollment figures continue to slump

Early enrollment figures took another beating this year, as they have for the past eight years.

Enrollment as of Tuesday was 1,732, down from the 1,820 reported for the same date last year, and also less than the 1,810 reported the final day of school last spring.

As usual, there are indications several students will report for class after Monday's Labor Day holiday. That has been the case every year, according to figures.

But it still doesn't keep school officials from wondering where the students are.

Supt. Harold Cowley said his administrators reported no indications the students are out of town.

Some of them even picked up their high school textbooks, but they didn't report for class.

The biggest drop in attendance is in the 10th and 11th grades. Last year's freshman class was 156 the first week of school, but only 130 were in sophomore class this week. Juniors were counted at 157, but there were 186 sophomores at the start of school last year.

Iowa Park High enrollment as of Tuesday was an even 600, 48 fewer than the first week of 1980. But the junior high has 392, down from the 423 reported for the same period last year.

Enrollment in the school system has dropped every year but one since the record first-week enrollment figure of 2,292 was established in fall of 1970.

The average daily attendance (ADA) for the 1980-81 school year was 1,717. Cowley anticipates this year's ADA, based on first-week enrollment, to drop to 1,636.

First week enrollment by grades, with 1980 enrollment in parenthesis, are:

Special Ed	3 (3)
Early Childhood	10 (8)
Kindergarten	58 (69)
First Grade	137 (132)
Second Grade	130 (128)
Third Grade	122 (125)
Fourth Grade	118 (151)
Fifth Grade	162 (142)
Sixth Grade	140 (136)
Seventh Grade	135 (133)
Eighth Grade	117 (154)
Ninth Grade	150 (166)
Tenth Grade	130 (186)
Eleventh Grade	157 (164)
Twelfth Grade	163 (132)

First-week enrollment in Iowa Park schools the past 14 years were:

1981	1,732
1980	1,808
1979	1,862
1978	1,898
1977	1,968
1976	2,019
1975	2,048
1974	2,076
1973	2,110
1972	2,090
1971	2,188
1970	2,292
1969	2,041
1968	1,813

Season tickets still on sale

Season tickets remain on sale at the high school principal's office.

Principal Bob Dawson said reserved seats for the six home games could be purchased for $12, which is a considerable savings over purchasing general admission tickets at $3 per game at the gate.

The ticket books are on sale during regular school hours, 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. weekdays.

Wal-Mart buys land

Construction on Iowa Park's largest retail store will probably begin in late October or early November.

Wal-Mart has purchased the old fair grounds, between Park West Shopping Center and Shaw Motor Co. Confirmation of plans was not available through Wal-Mart officials, but information gained through several sources indicated construction intentions.

The property was sold by the Iowa Park Industrial Development Corp., headed by H.M. Nipper, for $49,932.04. The check was dated Wednesday of last week.

Attempts were made to contact Bill

Bothwell, real estate manager for Wal-Mart on the project, but he was away from his office in Bentonville, Ark., headquarters for Wal-Mart.

However, it was learned that the date for contractors to submit their bids for construction has been changed from Sept. 9 to Sept. 17.

One source indicated the extension of bid deadline was done to allow for a change in construction.

The original structure was to contain 35,475 square feet, 155 feet deep and 225 feet wide. And space was to be left on the west end for a 20,000 square foot future expansion.

The plan now apparently calls for the expanded structure to be constructed all at once.

According to plans provided for the city, to permit study for conformance with city building codes, call for the structure to be built on the north side of the lot, facing the south. That part of the lot not covered by the building is to be paved for parking.

The site was held under option for more than a year, for construction of a TG&Y family center. But because TG&Y could not obtain a super market to locate adjoining it, the company called off its plans and relinquished its option.

At the time TG&Y was planning its family center, Wal-Mart was planning to build on the land adjoining the expressway, between Pacific and Lake Gordon. That development, which was to include several other businesses, has apparently now been shelved.

Wal-Mart recently opened a store in Graham, and reportedly has plans to build in Burk Burnett. However, no bid date for construction of the Burk Burnett facility has been announced.

Wal-Mart stores are said to be similar to K-Mart and Target discount stores, in merchandise sold. The chain is spreading to the west from its Arkansas base.

A formal announcement of the store's opening is expected later this fall, by the Wal-Mart headquarters.

Zoning ordinance amendments studied

During their regular monthly meeting Monday night, members of the Planning and Zoning Commission set Sept. 21 for a public hearing on two amendments to the city's zoning ordinance.

One portion of the amendments would establish criteria for child care facilities in residential areas and the other would provide for allowing additions of carports, which in the past have required variances from the ordinance.

In other business, the commission approved a mobile home permit for 601 E. Lafayette, but rejected an application to put a mobile home at 615 W. Louisa.

The ordinance amendment providing for child care facilities would prohibit the care of more than 12 children in a residential zone; more than 12 would be restricted to a commercial zone; and provides for space and facilities where children can be kept.

The current zoning ordinance expressly prohibits any child care facilities in a residential area, but the city has permitted facilities to continue operating until the ordinance is amended.

Should the ordinance amendment be approved, after public hearing by the commission and final action taken by the city council, those facilities not in compliance would be permitted a year to comply, the amendment states.

The amendment concerning carports describes the type and size structure which can be constructed, as well as distance from property line.

Vandalism and thefts reported

Two thefts and an expensive act of criminal mischief were reported during the past week to the Iowa Park Police Dept.

Sometime last Wednesday night, someone pried a side door to McClendon Feed and Seed building. Apparently wanting only knives and money, two commemorative knives valued at $100 each and a bag of assorted change, amounting to $40 or $50 were taken.

Sometime between Wednesday and Friday a trailer-mounted welder was reportedly stolen from Deryl James Garage. It was valued at $300.

Between Saturday evening and Monday morning, someone apparently parked or walked on Victoria, across from McClendon's, and shot out windshields of 14 Barbour Trucking Co. trucks which were parked in the firm's lot. Using either a BB or pellet gun, damage was reported at $1,900.

Boosters slate Tuesday meeting

The Booster Club will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the high school cafeteria. Head coach, David Baugh, will review the Breckenridge game film and give a report on next week's opponent.

The coaches for the 1981-82 season will be present.

Whitton, Spruiell wedding vows solemnized Saturday

Rev. Jackie Newton of Kaufman, former pastor of Faith Baptist Church, officiated the double-ring marriage ceremony Saturday evening to join in holy matrimony Miss Beatrice Ann Whitton and Steven Douglas Spruiell. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth M. Whitton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Spruiell.

The Faith Baptist Church, where the bride is a member, was the scene of the service. Featured in the impressive altar decorations were appointments that conformed with the dignity of the occasion. The focal point of interest was a brass archway interlaced with boxwood greenery set off with three sonia satin bows. The decorative pattern was completed with spiral candelabra holding tall white burning candles flanking the arch; arrangements of apricot gladioli, sonia carnations white mums and leather leaf supported by tall brass stands at the terminus points of the altar; and a white-cushioned prayer bench in the foreground. Family pews were marked with sonia satin bows.

Mrs. Billy Hacker, organist, presented the wedding music. For prelude selections, she played "Traumeri," "Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us," "Lord Bless You," "Oh Perfect Love," and "The Lord's Prayer." She heralded the entrance of the wedding party with Wagner's processional, then swelled the notes when the bride entered the sanctuary and started her walk down the aisle to the altar.

During the ceremony, Mrs. Hacker gave a muted interpretation of "Theme from Love Story," "We've

MRS. STEVEN SPRUIELL

Only Just Begun," and "Wedding Prayer," and concluded the music with the traditional recessional by Mendessohn.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her brother, James Coy Williams. She was an exquisite picture in a formal gown of white silk organza and Alencon lace over bridal taffeta. A romantic appeal of the Alencon lace-fashioned bodice was its light stand-up neckline and deep-cuffed bishop sleeves. Appliques of the chosen lace embellished the A-line skirt and graceful train that swept to chapel length.

The bride's face and popular fingertip length veils of misty illusion were attached to a Juliet cap sprinkled with pearls. Completing the lovely effect, she carried a silk bouquet of peach camellias, sonia roses, cream-colored dogwood with matching trailing streamers.

In observing the bridal traditions of wearing "something old and something borrowed", the bride selected her mother's ring that was set with a diamond from the bride's maternal grandmother's wedding ring. She wore diamond ear rings and necklace, a gift from her brother Ray Hamilton, for "something new." She slipped a good luck penny dated the year of her birth in her shoe, and the touch of blue was a bow on her garter.

Mrs. James Coy Williams, sister-in-law of the bride, took part in the wedding as matron of honor, and her sister, Mrs. Jack W. West of Springtown, was bridesmaid. They were attired in formal apricot Qiana gowns designed with natural waist blouson bodices featuring scoop necklines and cap sleeves, and slightly full skirts that flowed to the floor. Their unusual bouquets consisted of white gardenias, sonia roses and English ivy.

Miss Christy Smallwood, the diminutive flower girl, wore a miniature bridal gown of white lace. The frock was styled with a slightly raised bodice, high collar and long sheer sleeves. The waist was accented with an apricot satin ribbon that flowed down the back of the full skirt. The dainty white basket that she carried was filled with sonia sweetheart roses, white daisies and baby's breath.

Philip Jason House, the groom's nephew, carried the rings on a heart-shaped satin pillow. His attire matched that of the groom's attendants.

Candles for the service were lighted by Miss Gayla Rene West of Springtown, niece of the bride, and James Coy Williams Jr., her nephew. Miss West wore a gown of apricot chiffon and Qiana. The chiffon bodice was in similar fashion to the bridal attendants' gowns and topped a long flowing skirt. His attire duplicated that worn by other male participants in the wedding.

The groom wore a formal white Saratoga tuxedo with a tailcoat defined with lapels of matching white satin and a top collar of self-material trimmed in satin. Matching accessories were a white ruffled shirt, tie and groom's sash. His boutonniere was formed of a sonia rose, baby's breath and leather leaf.

Stan Spruiell of Wichita Falls, brother of the groom, was best man, and Wendall House, his brother-in-law, was groomsman. They wore mahogany Chaucer tuxedos with tails defined with dark brown lapels on the coats, vests and ties of matching brown satin.

Ushers, also wearing mahogany Chaucer tuxedos with shaped coats featuring new peak lapels, pleated shirts, vests and ties of brown satin, were Rusty Spruiell, cousin of the groom, Norman P. Williams, the bride's nephew, and Randy Newman of Dallas.

During the service, the bride expressed her love for mothers of the couple with the presentation of long stemmed red roses to them. Mrs. Whitton wore a street-length candlelight crepe dress imprinted with black floral designs and patterned with asymmetrical neckline, short sleeves, elasticized waist clasped with a black crepe sash. Mrs. Spruiell was attired in an ivory crepe street-length dress designed with spaghetti straps and elasticized waist complemented with a white crepe lace-trimmed overblouse with long sleeves finished with ruffled cuffs. Corsages of sonia roses, baby's breath and leather leaf added charm to their gowns.

Registration of wedding guests took place in the church foyer before the ceremony. Linda Smallwood directed signatures at a round table draped to the floor with white polyester satin accented with an apricot and sonia satin bow. The table held the book, apricot plume pen and a vase of sonia rosebuds.

Following the wedding, the bride's mother was hostess for the reception held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's and groom's tables emphasizing apricot and sonia colors in decorations and appointments captured special interest in the setting.

The floor length white polyester satin cloth on the bride's table featuring a deep drape accented with swags of apricot and sonia satin ribbons caught up with matching bows lent fitness to the table decor that gave a pleasing effect.

The special beauty of the table was stressed in the crystal punch service, four-branched silver candelabra bedecked with peach candles, sonia roses, peach carnations and baby's breath, the cake, bell-shaped mints, and napkins colored and lettered with names of the couple and their wedding date in peach and sonia tones.

The four-tiered white cake conformed to traditional style with "an added touch." Sprays of frosting roses with pale green leaves, piped shell borders, stars, drop loops and a set of filigree dividers were a fascinating part of the decorations. The top tier was adorned with four white satin wedding bells enhanced with pearls, lilies of the valley and bits of tulle.

The groom's table was appropriately laid with an ecru polyester satin cloth fashioned in the same style of the cloth on the bride's table. The handsome floral centerpiece was created of apricot, sonia, yellow and white gladioli, carnations and daisies intermingled with baby's breath. Other appointments were the chocolate cake decorated with frosting roses, names of the bride and groom and their wedding date in apricot tones, and silver coffee service.

Guests ate their refreshments at tables covered with apricot cloths and centered with arrangements duplicating the one on the groom's table, and during the reception, they were handed apricot satin rice rosebuds.

Reception assistants were Mmes. Wayne Schroeder, Ray Hamilton, Roland Tate, Misses Deanna Tate, Gayla West and Sharon LaLorga.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at the Trade Winds Motel in Wichita Falls.

As the newlyweds departed from the reception, the bride tossed a nosegay of white carnations. They chose to spend their honeymoon in Vera Cruz and Mexico City, and they will live in Dallas when they return. Both were graduated from Iowa Park High School. He attended Midwestern State University and the University of Texas at Dallas and is presently employed by Acoustical Services. She works as a personnel secretary for Butte's Resources Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Davis announce the birth of Heath Keagan, a seven pound, two ounce son, born August 19. He has one sister, Chastity, four years of age.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wedel of Wichita Falls and Mr. and Mrs. L.T. Wilson of Fort Worth. The great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Nehring of Enid, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hock of Winfield, Kansas and Fred Davis of Irving.

Epsilon Eta plans work

Epsilon Eta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha held the first meeting of the year Tuesday in the home of the president, Mrs. Jimmy Spears.

During the evening, members discussed activities for the year starting with fall rush which will take place in October. Major discussion was given to continuing development of Pace Park, the community project for the year, when it was voted to establish a remembrance fund offering the general public an opportunity to participate. Possible fund-raising projects were also considered.

The chapter will conduct the Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Labor Day Telethon again this year at Shaw Ford. Citizens of the area can make their contributions through the sorority in order that Iowa Park may receive full credit for all monies given.

and Love Prayerfully" by Beth M. Rude.

Mrs. Keeter stated that the purpose of the study would be to gain deeper understanding of the interior life so that those who participate in the study may continue to deepen their own spiritual lives.

"It is necessary that we develop our own interior life through prayer, worship and meditation. There are resources in each of us for this development. We learn what we want to learn. Our most important guide for development is God, and if we are faithful, we, too, can become guides or leaders of others in acts of mercy, justice and love," she stressed in conclusion.

Cook of the Week

"Cooking is more than following a cookbook. You must get involved with cooking, and cook, cook, cook; then cook some more" Jacques Pepin, the French chef stated. Mrs. Leona Moore, the Cook of the Week, has certainly cooked, cooked, cooked and has a talent for it. However, cooking is only one of her many talents, but she is so unpretentious and modest that she is reluctant to acknowledge her varied abilities.

A resident of the Valley View community 40 years, she is the wife of the late O.R. Moore. In recent years, she has gained local, state, national and international recognition as an egg artist. She won second place award in the jeweled category at the International Egger Show held in Rochester, N.Y. this spring. She has conducted eggery classes in her home and, by request, started a new class this week.

Mrs. Moore is also working as a part-time receptionist at Medi-Center in Wichita Falls. She is a member of the Church of Christ.

Much of her cooking experience has come from preparing meals for her five children and 16 grandchildren. Her children are Dale of Oklahoma City, Gary of Iowa Park, Tim of Holliday, Judy Hawley and Mary Jane Seale of Wichita Falls.

The story hour for children four and five years of age will resume next Wednesday at the Iowa Park Public Library, according to Mrs. Billy Washburn, librarian, and will be held each Wednesday between 10-11 a.m.

All star cast gears up for Labor Day Telethon

Celebrity greats of the entertainment world will once again take part in the fight against neuro-muscular diseases when they join Jerry Lewis for the 16th annual Labor Day Telethon to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association beginning at 8 p.m., Sunday and continuing through 6:30 p.m. Monday on KAUZ-TV in Wichita Falls and Lawton.

Epsilon Eta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha will again be headquartered at Shaw Motor Co. to receive telephone pledges.

Chad Everett, David Hartman, and Ed McMahon will be Jerry's "anchors" during the 21 1/2-hour marathon, which will be broadcast live from the Space Center of Del Webb's Sahara in Las Vegas for the ninth consecutive year. Many performances will be telecast from cities around the country such as Dallas, Nashville, New York, and Atlantic City.

"We really have a fabulous line-up of superstars for this year's show, and it looks like it will be our most successful ever," commented Bob Considine, national producer of the Telethon. "They're not only giving us their enormous talent and energy, they're also pouring on the love for 'Jerry's kids', and the result is going to be a high-powered entertainment extravaganza."

The Telethon will also feature Charo, Bill Cosby, Norm Crosby, Crystal Gayle, Jack Jones, Smokey Robinson, Rick Springfield, Ben Vereen, Pearl Bailey, Tony Bennett, Johnny Cash, Sammy Davis, Jr., Larry Gatlin and the Gatlin Brothers, and Don Rickles. More than 50 superstars will be performing. Many of the terrific Telethon stars are also Corporate Members and Vice Presidents of MDA. They're part of the MDA team, devoting their energies and great talents. Among them are MDA Corporate Members Chad Everett and Virginia Capers; and Vice Presidents David Hartman, Pearl Bailey, Mel Torme, Larry Gatlin, Julius LaRosa, and Ed McMahon.

Also throughout the Telethon MDA patients and members of their families will tell their stories of independence, courage, and hope. The Telethon format incorporates 45 minutes of national programming and 15 minutes of local programming in each of the show's nearly 22 hours on the air. A record 94 million people watched the show in 1980, and A.C. Nielson ratings showed that, in the U.S. alone, it was viewed in 36,960,000 homes—47 percent of all American homes with television sets.

The money raised by the Telethon supports MDA's global research effort and free medical service program for patients with any of the 40 neuromuscular diseases. MDA currently sponsors 10 research/clinical centers in the U.S. and England and more than 750 individual research projects world wide. It also supports more than 230 outpatient clinics where patients receive medical care and orthopedic appliances. The MDA Clinic serving the Texoma area is located in Wichita Falls at the Wichita Clinic Hospital under Dr. Michael Hilburn.

MDA's programs are funded almost entirely by individual private contributions.

As I See It....

By ROB HAMILTON

The Leader, along with at least two other newspapers in the state, were sent presents from Bob Bullock, state comptroller, last week.

"Bully Bob the Bookkeeper" apparently wanted us to have a keepsake from him, one which we would easily recognize as being personally his.

In making his decision of a keepsake, he apparently opted against a personal photograph, which is so common a gift from politicians and political hacks, and decided on a real, live, one-of-a-kind cow chip.

It was fitting and easily recognizable. In fact, I agree with his choice. It really does look more like him than would a photograph.

The Leader, the Mount Pleasant Daily Tribune and the Austin bureau of the Dallas Morning News each received a plain, brown, paper-wrapped box through the mail.

Pushed among sheets of the Dallas Morning News was the dried manure upon which a personal business card of the state comptroller was pinned.

An Associated Press story of the mailings quoted Bullock's media representative (the one who is assigned to start every story from the office with "State Comptroller Bob Bullock...") as saying, "He did it on the weekend on his own time, on his own money. It was a practical joke. That's kind of Bullock's style."

One plays practical jokes on one's friends. Bullock is not the friend of any of the three newspapers.

Bob Palmer, publisher of the Mount Pleasant newspaper, told me over the telephone yesterday that he had called Bullock's office to determine if the politician had originated the mailed gift, and was told he had.

In fact, Tony Porfitt, the media representative, quoted Bullock on the reason for the gift and the quote was reproduced on the front page of the Daily Tribune. The quote contained words this newspaper has never, nor will ever, print.

I think it's a sad state of affairs when we have an elected official in Austin who does the things Bullock does. I'll refrain from mentioning some of the scrapes he's had with the law, but they also are no guidelines for elected officials.

Bullock has made numerous soundings like a candidate for governor. But each time he tested the waters, he apparently found bottomless pits. I was told he had bought, or was considering buying, an automobile dealership in the Austin area.

It would be interesting to see Bullock attempt to operate as an independent businessman. He could continue to spread all the manure he wanted, and we wouldn't be supporting his paycheck with our tax money.

Worth Quoting

Arrogance is an unlovely trait that can be exhibited by persons, organizations and business firms. It is considered the most despicable of personality traits that are generally attributed to the upper crust of leaders in any field.

I don't think there is any business organization more arrogant than General Motors and I've dealt with them as a car and truck buyer, and as a dealer. They are, of course, the acknowledged leader in the automobile business. They know it and act like it.

I was appalled to return from vacation Monday, pick up the Wall Street Journal and discover that GM has decided to raise the prices on its 1982 automobiles an average of $617 next year. This comes at a time when the automobile industry is at its lowest ebb ever and most of my dealer friends say price is the number one obstacle to buying.

The big jump caught Ford and Chrysler by surprise. They had reportedly been planning a 4% increase and most of their dealers hope they stick to it.

Ed Mullane, a renegade Ford dealer in New Jersey, summed up my attitude about the price increase. "It's insane," Mullane said. "You can't sell cars now."

Letter to the Editor

Dear Mister Hamilton:

At the present time, Iowa Park has five patients under treatment for M.D. at the Wichita Falls Clinic - please help finance this costly treatment.

September 7, 1981 is Labor Day - it is also Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Telethon Day.

The pledge center in Iowa Park is operated for 22 hours each year by the E.S.A. Sorority members from the Shaw Motor Company facilities. The totals given for Iowa Park throughout the telethon are not accurate because so many of our residents and businesses call Wichita Falls direct. E.S.A. is asking you to please call the Iowa Park pledge center to make your contribution.

If you plan to be away from your phone on Telethon Day and would like to make a contribution, call one of the names below and we will be happy to fill out your pledge form ahead of time to be added to our total. We all work outside the home but one of us will be in during the late afternoon and evening hours. PLEASE CALL.

Thank you,

IRS Tax Tips

Earned Income Credit Received in Two Ways

Persons qualified for the Earned Income Credit may continue receiving the credit in paychecks or as a part of their tax refund at the end of the year, according to the Internal Revenue Service.

Before the 1979 law change, qualifying persons received Earned Income Credit in the form of a tax refund after they filed their Federal income tax return. Now, eligible taxpayers can receive the credit in the same way, or, may choose to get it in advance payments each payday. Qualified persons must present a signed Form W-5, "Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate," to their employers, if they choose the paycheck option.

The law change raised the base amount to 10 percent of earned income up to $5,000, for a maximum credit of $500. In other words, the closer earned or adjusted gross income gets to $10,000, the smaller the credit, until it reaches zero at $10,000.

Live warmer and help hold down your bills.

You may not feel quite comfortable at first when you set your thermostat at 80° or higher, but most people adjust very quickly to living warmer. At the same time, if you dress cooler and use a fan, you may not even notice the difference. But it will help hold down your electric bill.

Eagles open season at Seymour

Holliday's Eagles open the 1981 football campaign tomorrow night in Seymour, after dominating previous scrimmages against highly-touted Knox City and Class AAA Bowie.

The Eagles' first scrimmage of the season, against a Greyhound team picked by some polls to finish in the state's top 10, ended 2-0 in favor of Holliday, capped by a 57-yard run by three-year starter Ray Looney.

In last Friday's scrimmage against Bowie, the Eagles more than made up for a sluggish start in their first offensive series by scoring three touchdowns in the final series through solid, sustained drives against an aggressive Jackrabbit defense.

Passing highlighted the Eagles' offense, with quarterbacks Joel Mankins and Mike Parker completing 77-percent of their passes to receivers, including five to tight end Kevin Blankenship.

Holliday's freshmen team dominated the Bowie freshmen 6-0. Former Holliday coach Ralph Klinkerman, now at Bowie, was in charge of the freshmen Jackrabbits. The junior varsity scrimmage ended scoreless, but Eagle head coach Don Lucy praised the defense for their performance.

Tomorrow night's 8 o'clock tilt with the Panthers will be Holliday's first test of a potentially-fine season. The entire Eagle backfield returns for another year, with three-year starters Looney, Joel Mankins and fullback Joe Chase entering their final year. Juniors Jeff Blecher, Brad Harmon and Mike Parker will see some playing time in the offensive backfield, but are heavily counted on by Lucy to anchor the defensive backfield. In Friday's Bowie scrimmage, Parker made a remarkable behind-the-shoulder interception from his safety position to kill a Jackrabbit drive.

Also returning from last year's Eagle team will be linemen Brad Hardin, Steve Hill, Harold Parsons, Brian Cunningham, Morris Davis, Wayne McDaniel, Wade Sadberry and Clint Sissoms. Backs Eddie Flowers, Mark Rathman and Gil Gilbert will also see some playing time.

Seymour returns its stellar runningback, Robb Stewart, and potential all-state linebacker Curtis Worthington along with four other starters from their 4-6 campaign last year. In 1980, the Eagles posted an easy 27-0 win over the Panthers, and Seymour finished 0-5 in non-district. However, the Panthers turned things around in district competition, finishing second with a 4-1 district slate, and fans in Seymour are hoping the late season success of the past year runs through this season.

Hughes, Molina wedding vows exchanged

Miss Lana Kaye Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Birl Hughes of Wichita Falls, and Randolph G. Molina, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Molina of Holliday, were married recently at the Western Hills Baptist Church in Wichita Falls.

Rev. Jerry Hodges officiated the double-ring service in a nuptial space decorated with an arrangement of roses, carnations, daisies and baby's breath flanked by seven-branched candelabra entwined with flowering huckleberry and filled with tall white candles.

Wedding musicians were Mrs. Roy Stewart, pianist, Miss Tarah Kaye Molina and Miss Vicki Molina, sisters of the groom, vocalists. The former sang "We've Only Just Begun" and the latter sang "Rise Again" with Mrs. Stewart for a duet selection.

The bride's parents gave her in marriage, and her father accompanied her to the altar. She was attired in a floor length white Chantilly lace gown over white satin, designed with a low square neckline, spaghetti shoulder straps and a wide hemline flounce headed with white satin ribbon. She wore a two-tiered waist

MRS. RANDOLPH G. MOLINA length veil of illusion secured by a bandeau of satin and lace and carried a nosegay consisting of white silk roses and buds, pink stephanotis, baby's breath, a lace background and streamers.

Mrs. Dillard Lee served as matron of honor for her sister. She was attired in a long pink polyester dress made with square neckline and spaghetti straps and carried a silk nosegay of pink and white carnations, stephanotis finished with pink silk streamers.

Rudolph Molina Jr., brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Larry DeWayne Hail, nephew of the bride, and Ronnie Robert Molina, brother of the groom.

The bride was graduated from S.H. Rider High School and is employed as a phlebotomist in the laboratory at Wichita General Hospital. The groom, who is a self-employed carpenter, was graduated from Holliday High School. They are now at home in Holliday following a trip to Dallas, Fort Worth and Mineral Wells. For her going away costume, the bride chose a three-piece cream-colored suit with which she wore a dark blue shirt.

A reception was given in the Fellowship Hall of the church following the wedding.

Mrs. Tommy Hail, Misses Karen and Tarah Kay Molina, sisters of the groom, were reception assistants and served refreshments from a table covered with white lace. The three-tiered white cake was tastefully decorated with pink and red icing roses and tiny white bells and topped with the traditional bride and groom standing under a flower-bedecked arch.

Guests registered in the church foyer at a table where Miss Debbie Sharp presided covered with ivory polyester. The appointments included the book, pink feather pen, and a gold three-branched candlestick holding white tapers and a bouquet of white silk flowers.

Special wedding guests were Mrs. Jessie Hail of Iowa Park, the bride's grandmother, and Mrs. Bessie Molina, the groom's grandmother.

Laura Holt first recipient of Simpson Music Scholarship

Laura Lea Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Holt of Holliday, was named the first recipient of the Alva and H.M. "Pap" Simpson Music Scholarship award in the amount of $350.

The award, presented during graduation ceremonies in May for the Class of 1981, will be given annually in memory of Alva and Pap Simpson, pioneer Holliday residents and civic leaders.

Pap Simpson was the first baby born in Holliday, in 1892, and was instrumental in the incorporation of Holliday as a township in 1926. He was also the second mayor of Holliday.

In 1927, Simpson and other Holliday citizens presented their musical instruments to the Holliday schools to form the first school band.

Simpson passed away on January 23, 1963, preceded by his wife's death on November 6, 1950. In memory of the couple, the award has been set up by their daughter, Mrs. Jo Chambers of Malakoff, Texas.

Sheppard AFB to celebrate 40th anniversary

The Thunderbirds, the U.S. Air Force aerial demonstration team, will highlight the 40th anniversary open house celebration at Sheppard Air Force Base Wednesday.

Also performing will be the Half Section from Fort Sill, Okla., jump demonstrations by the Sheppard Parachute Club, concerts by the Air Force Band of the West from Lackland Air Force Base, demonstrations by Sheppard's K-9 Corps, and many others.

An added attraction this year will be a professional carnival which will offer eight rides and other games. Refreshments will be offered by several concession stands operated by various clubs and groups at the base.

Entry for the general public will be through the Missile Road gate just off the Old Burk Road. Gates will open at 11:30 a.m. and will be closed at about 6 p.m.

A unique special edition of the Sheppard Senator will be published Tuesday. It will be a joint edition bearing the nameplates of the Wichita Falls Times and Record

News as well as the Senator. It will be distributed as an insert to both daily newspapers as well as the normal distribution on base the day before the open house.

This special Senator edition will include information on open house activities. It will feature stories and pictures about the 40 years of Sheppard's contribution to the nation's defense force. Interviews with "oldtimers" will give an insight into what the base was like from the very beginning.

Wichita Falls Board of Commerce and Industry has also planned and coordinated several activities in the civilian community in recognition of the contribution Sheppard has made to this area over the years.

All area churches have been asked to recognize current and former Sheppard people who are members of their congregations during services Sunday.

A Board of Commerce and Industry golf tournament at the Wichita Falls Country Club is planned Tuesday. Also scheduled Tuesday is a brunch for wives of current and former commanders at the First Wichita National Bank, and a base-city secretaries luncheon at the officers' club. Approximately 50 secretaries will be given a tour of the base after the luncheon.

Syd Gaines, long-time friend of Sheppard Air Force Base and one of the strongest civilian supporters of the Sheppard community during the past 40 years, will be honored at a luncheon at the officers' club, 12:30 p.m. Wednesday. Gaines has been named civilian chairman emeritus of Sheppard's 40th anniversary celebration. He was also civilian chairman for the 30th and 35th anniversaries. About 110 people are expected to honor Gaines, who received the Air Force Exceptional Service Award in June 1974 and the Secretary of Defense Medal for Outstanding Public Service in 1980.

The Maverick's barbecue at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the VFW Hall on the Sheppard Access Road expects a crowd of 600 military and civilian leaders.

News

Officers of the Valley View 4-H Club were elected at a recent covered dish supper.

Kim Williams was named president, Christy Cravens vice president, Sheri Cravens secretary, Scott Webb treasurer, Lisa Hodges reporter, Jon McKenzie council member, Markita Savage and Dee Dowell sergeant at arms, and Lisa Hodges, Sheri Cravens, Markita Savage and Scott Webb telephone committee.

The club meets at 7 p.m. each fourth Monday at the home of Dr. John Webb.

Attending the organizational meeting were agents David Tunmire and Cheryl Ruggs, and Mrs. Tunmire. Doris McKenzie, leader, chaired the business session.

A good leader believes in people, encourages them and gives them responsibility. The leader also acts as a talent scout and develops a positive attitude toward getting things done.

Anyone who is willing to tackle a job that requires cooperating with others can learn to be an effective leader.

This is where the 4-H program comes in. It can help youth become effective leaders, points out David Tunmire, county Extension agent.

The national 4-H leadership program, supported by Reader's Digest, stimulates young people to become leaders through a variety of learn-by-doing activities. These activities help turn girls and boys 9-19 into the creative, inspiring individuals that others just naturally want to follow.

As a first step, 4-H members gain self-confidence by becoming experts at something, whether it's baking a cake, fixing a bike or playing a game. Then, they share their expertise with others through demonstrations, speeches and exhibits. Soon they are serving on committees and holding offices in their 4-H clubs. As junior and teen leaders they are assisting young 4-H'ers with their projects.

Finally, leadership skills learned in 4-H are carried over into the larger community. Nine national 4-H leadership winners reported activities that ranged from spearheading local charity drives and organizing leadership conferences for inner city teens to chairing a county youth committee for a congressional candidate.

Each national winner receives a $1,000 scholarship donated by Reader's Digest, and two silver trays are presented in the name of the president of the United States.

Other recognition for program members includes an expense-paid trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago for one 4-H member per state and up to four medals of honor in each county.

Winners are chosen by the extension Service, which conducts the 4-H program, and awards are arranged by the National 4-H Council.

THE ENTRANCE to Hawk Stadium parking was made driveway smooth by workers this week. The rutted entrances were re-worked and paved, to permit Hawk fans an avenue to the parking area which wouldn't break the vehicle's springs.

Fertilizer pays way

By Don Decker
County Agent

The check plot in the 1981 Loys and James Barbour wheat fertilization test has gone three years without the addition of any fertilizer. If a farmer ever gets to wondering whether or not his fertilizer program is doing any good, a look at these results will provide solid proof of fertilizer value.

Most fertilizer demonstrations are located on a site with fertilizer history. As a result, there is some carry-over of the fertilizer to the check plot. Barbour's have conducted wheat fertilization demonstrations for the past three years at the same site. The check plot has been maintained in the same spot over this period of time. This has given us a chance to observe what would happen if fertilizer was not available.

The result is astounding. The yield on the check plot with no fertilizer for three years was only 23.1 bushels per acre. The lowest fertilized yield was 39.0 bushels per acre coming from 40-0-0. This is a difference of 15.9 bushels per acre valued at $61.22. Cost of the 40 pounds of nitrogen was $10 which includes application. This leaves an added return of $51.22 per acre.

As we combined the plots, James Barbour remarked, "looks like that check plot is going to get to where it won't make anything. Another year or two without fertilizer, and it won't be worth combining."

As agriculture has come "under the gun" of inflation, high interest rates, and low farm prices, they are looking at ways to cut costs. This demonstration clearly shows one of the practices which cannot be sacrificed is crop fertilization.

Other fertilizer rates, yield in bushels per acre, and added net return above fertilizer costs and application were: 96-37-0 (equivalent to standard rate of 75 pounds of anhydrous ammonia and 75 pounds of 18-46-0 per acre) - 39.6 bushels and $37.73 net return per acre; 40-40-40 - 41.3 bushels and $52.07, 80-0-0 - 44.6 bushels and $66.78.

Other rates and results were 40-40-40 - 45.7 bushels with $63.01 per acre; 25-25-25 - 46.2 bushels with $76.19; and 80-80-0 - 51.2 bushels and $76.19.

There is an indication of crop response to both phosphorous and potassium in this test. This is the first year potassium has shown response on this farm.

There isn't a lot of difference between the fertilized plots. The "eye opener" is the difference between no fertilizer for three years and plots with a fertilized history.

Louis McCarthy may hit the "jackpot" with his broadcast cotton just southwest of Iowa Park on FM 368. This is cotton following grazed out wheat. He just barely had time to get the land plowed, herbicide applied, and seed planted before the dry weather sets in.

McCarthy was trying to get out about 11 pounds of seed per acre. Instead he ended up planting 7 pounds of seed. In view of the dry weather conditions, his planting rate provided plenty of plants per acre. When viewing the field from the road, plants appear to be too thick. However, it loos about right out in the field. This field has about 30 - 35,000 plants per acre. It has held up very well and very few small bolls have fallen as a result of stress.

I am not an advocate of broadcast cotton because of the many problems which can arise from this cultural technique. However, one can not argue with success. McCarthy is making it work for him this year. The major factor contributing to his success is the lower seeding rate giving the correct number of plants per acre. Most broadcast cotton is planted too thick resulting in a field which cannot withstand our usual summer conditions.

"Float like a butterfly, sting like a bee Your hands can't hit what your eyes can't see!"

—Muhammad Ali

An athlete should envision his winning moves to enforce a positive mental attitude but shouldn't loose his concentration, i.e., a player needs to be alert but not rigidly stare. If a batter is told, "Don't strike out" it may plant a negative seed that causes him to do exactly what he visualizes: strike out! Or, a football player may fumble an easy catch because he is thinking of the touchdown he was going to make. A duffer who looks up to see where his golf shot went may find the ball still at his feet.

Another useful idea is that the smaller the target, the better the visual concentration, e.g., in basketball, shooting at a small spot on the back of the rim or in baseball aiming at the chest of the first baseman. In football and in boxing the athlete should watch his opponent's eyes to better second guess where the next move will be.

For athletes who need corrective lenses there are several types of frames available, e.g., a rubberized frame that protects the eyes and the lenses. And contact lenses can be fitted when glasses are impractical.

Suggestions for outsmarting a disaster

If Oscar the Grouch can do it, so can you. Oscar, the grumpy Sesame Street character, lives in a garbage can. And while you don't need to take up residence in one, living out of a garbage can could save your life in a disaster. However, the garbage can has to be one you've stocked carefully with emergency supplies. Admittedly, not everyone will experience earthquakes, floods, fires, hurricanes, tornadoes or flat tires in his lifetime. But if you do, will you be ready? Statisticians are gloomy about survival odds under disastrous conditions. But the worst part of a disaster may not be the event itself. Often the aftermath takes the largest toll on life and health. Lack of food, clean water, heat, light, first-aid equipment, trained medical help—it's the lack of preparation, not the disaster itself, that often kills.

At a general conference of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, church members were instructed to include among their recommended year's supply of food, clothing and fuel an emergency two-week supply. And a good place to store much of it, they were told, is in a garbage can.

A sufficient stash of food, medical supplies, flashlights, blankets and other necessities can be unobtrusively stored in a clean garbage can in a corner, in a garage or under a table. If disaster strikes, you're prepared. Just grab the garbage can and head for shelter.

If a can would be too heavy, use a backpack for the same purpose. Have it packed and ready to go, conveniently stored where it's accessible. Or if you have a car, consider keeping part of your trunk stocked with emergency supplies. This is a wise idea for times other than disasters, too. If you have a flat tire or a suddenly dead engine in an isolated place, your emergency supplies might help.

Under some conditions, however, relying solely on a cache in your car won't help unless your trunk storage is packed in an easily carried form. You couldn't take much with you if you had to carry heavy cans and bulky sweaters in your arms. But a backpack makes it simpler.

Your emergency supply should include several essentials. Consider water purification tablets, matches, candles, a filled canteen, a flashlight, batteries, warm clothing, a first-aid kit, a transistor radio, needed medications, an area map, food and—if you have canned food—a can opener.

You might also include a poncho or other protection against rain, first-aid instructions, a list of emergency aid locations in your community, basic tools, flares and a sleeping bag.

Probably the heaviest item on the list is food. Light, freeze-dried foods that need only moisture and cooking are available, although they can be expensive. Avoid carrying food in glass containers. Store foods that are not easily perishable and are high in calories and nutrients. Also include vitamin tablets.

Once you've organized an emergency stash, spend an afternoon with your family or close friends discussing what steps to follow. Choosing a central meeting place in case of disaster will save you anxiety and worry. It's also wise to instruct family members in turning off gas, water and electricity sources. This can help protect your home from the backlash effects that often accompany disasters.
