ALL-SIZE MARCHERS - They were in all sizes, shapes and forms Saturday, in the annual Little League Baseball parade. Marchers, decorated vehicles and floats extended this year's parade more than five blocks.

Window-breaking vandals, thieves go on a rampage

Vandals and thieves exhibited some of their worst behavior during the past week, with five cases of criminal mischief and four thefts reported to the police department.

Windows were the target of the vandals.

Both Tuesday and Wednesday mornings, sometime between midnight and 7, a window was broken at Discount Foods.

Sometime Friday night, a large glass and small window were broken at the Texaco station at the corner of FM 368 and expressway. Loss was estimated at $1,000.

The doors on the north and both on the west of the high school building were damaged when someone with a four-wheel vehicle pushed in the center posts.

That same evening all the glass on a pickup parked at 617 W. Texas were broken. Charles Strickland said the windshield, back glass and both door windows were shattered.

Five cattle were reportedly taken from the 600 block of East Jefferson between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. Friday.

No decision reached on paving

West Texas residents, council to meet with trustees

During a public hearing at the city council meeting Monday, concerning paving in the 700 block of West Texas, about the only thing that was decided was that more discussion was needed. But the next time with the school board involved.

Monday's hearing was initiated several weeks ago when David Uhren, who lives at 709, complained his paving had degenerated to the point where his car was damaged when attempting to enter his driveway.

At issue is who is responsible for a section of the street between the existing paving and the curb and gutter placed there when the school's building trades class constructed homes on most of the south side of that block.

Home owners expressed opinions about the paving that ranged from satisfied to totally distressed.

No one representing the school was present at the meeting, but Supt. Harold Cowley had given Mayor Charlie Lee a letter stating the school's stand on the issue as being the homes were sold on an "as-is" basis, and that the school had no responsibility after the sale of homes was completed.

When at least two owners said they had been told by school personnel, one said Bill Steger and another said Cowley, that the city was responsible for the paving.

Mayor Lee told the audience that since conflicting statements had been made, he felt the council and the citizens should be on the May 11 trustee meeting agenda to hear both sides at the same time.

Two residents, Joe Minton and James Swan both said the street was satisfactory when they bought their homes.

Mrs. Jack Onstead, who lives on the corner of Second Street, complained that the paving was nothing more than a mud puddle, some of which was caused because drainage on Second was so poor water backs up into their yard.

Lee told the audience "From what I'm hearing (comments from council members), I think something will be done."

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business, aldermen approved a water tap request on the west side of town, but tabled a request to waiver street improvements on West Louisa.

Dennis Brooks requested permission to extend a water line to property he owns west of the high school campus. He agreed to assume all costs for laying the line and setting a meter at the edge of the city.

Brooks' property is separated from the city limits by the Van Horn property, and is not serviced by Wichita Valley Water Cooperative.

It was understood the permission hinged on approval of the city of Wichita Falls to permit Iowa Park's selling the water, as required in a contract between the two municipalities.

Andy Arrington sought a waiver from requirements to pave and gutter the street in the 600 block of West Louisa, where he wants to build a home.

Arrington explained the lot adjoins property owned by the Catholic church, which received a temporary waiver when that congregation built its building.

He agreed to pay for paving, curb and guttering in front of the 50-foot lot, but when asked about property he owns on the north side of the street, he admitted he was not sure of that.

Aldermen approved appointment of Phil McClendon to the city electrical board, and two "house cleaning" amendments to the zoning ordinance which retracted conflicting requirements. They also approved closing the 100 block of East Cash for a May 15 fund-raising project for the library fund.

During a discussion period, rates to charge for sale of water to the Wichita Valley Water group were discussed, a tour of the city facilities by the council will be set up early next month and aldermen told Steve Morath, city administrator, they wanted extra help hired to clean up trash which had blown out of the sanitary landfill during recent wind storms.

The meeting was closed for an executive session to discuss personnel at 9:29 and was re-opened at 10:05, but no action was taken and the meeting was adjourned.

Chief announces retirement plans

The resignation and retirement of Iowa Park Police Department chief Charlie Whittingstall was announced during Monday's meeting of the city council.

Mayor Charlie Lee said advertisements had already been placed to receive applications for the positions, but added that applications from department personnel would also be considered.

Whittingstall placed his retirement effective June 4, but added he would take his two weeks of vacation May 10-21.

Whittingstall joined the police force approximately seven and a half years ago.

Party primaries Saturday

Finnell-Glassford main attraction

Saturday is the day when parties will elect their candidates for the November general election.

On the local scene, most of the interest will be among the Democratic Party voters, because they must decide on their candidate for the newly-formed District 80 state representative.

Because the Republicans have no candidate, the district's representative will either be incumbent Charles Finnell of Holliday or newcomer Bill Glassford of Henrietta.

All the area polls will house both the Democratic and Republican ballot boxes except inside the city of Iowa Park.

Democrats voting in precinct 32 will vote at the county agriculture building, while precinct 33 voters will cast their ballots at Faith Baptist Church.

Precincts 32 and 33 have been combined for Republican voters in Iowa Park, and that box will be at the First Christian Church.

Both Democrats and Republicans will vote at the following polls:

Precinct 34 - West Wichita Co-op building on Valley View school

campus;

Precinct 44 - Smitty's RV Center, 2813 City View Lane;

Precinct 53 - Pleasant Valley Church;

Precinct 60 - Wichita Valley Community House.

Polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

On the county level, incumbent Virgil Hill is running unopposed for justice of the peace, precinct 3. Other Democrats running unopposed are Tom Bacus, county judge; Jim Hogan, judge, county court-at-law; Wayne Wiggins, district clerk; Vernon Cannon, county clerk; and Mary Lynn Welborn, county treasurer.

Elephants to help raise tent today

It really isn't a circus without a tent, say most dyed-in-the-wool circus fans.

In an era when hockey rinks and coliseums have replaced the tent for most shows, a few circuses still perform under a big top. The largest of these, the widely-acclaimed Carson and Barnes 5-Ring Circus is about to hit town.

The five-cent beer and the dollar steak may be things of the past, but if you can remember them you'll be glad to know that elephants still help erect circus tents. They assist a small army of humans in providing one of the great free spectacles that the tent circus has traditionally offered citizens of the cities it visits.

The circus is to set up on the south side of Hawk Football Stadium.

The 80-vehicle caravan that carries the circus is to roll into Iowa Park just after dawn this morning. Iowa Park elementary students will be bussed to the area to watch erection of the tent. Transportation is paid by the Rotary Club.

Heavy pile drivers mounted on the rear of trucks will begin pounding four-foot-long wooden stakes around the perimeter of "The Biggest Big Top on Earth." More than 100 supporting poles will be unloaded from other trucks and arranged in place, then the colorful canopy will be unrolled and spread.

Meanwhile, other trucks carrying the more than 200 wild, exotic and domestic animals will be arriving and discharging their cargo. Some of the more than 25 ponderous elephants will stretch themselves, then head for their morning duties of helping push and pull the big top into the air.

The Carson and Barnes tent this year is the first of its kind in the United States, constructed of brightly-colored, flameproof and waterproof polyvinyl and imported from Italy at a cost of almost $100,000. It stretches the length of a football field from goal posts to goal posts to cover the only five-ring circus in the entire world.

The largest group of horses and ponies carried by an American circus in 25 years has been added to the outstanding roster of animal and human stars who bring joy to another city or town each of the 245 days the big circus is on tour each year.

News in brief

Lions set broom sale Saturday

Members of the Noon Lions club will hold their annual broom and mop sale Saturday in the Park West Shopping Center parking lot.

Sale of more than two dozen household items will go on sale at 8:30 a.m. and continue until 5 p.m., according to John Sibley, project chairman.

Rabies clinic slated Saturday

The annual rabies immunization clinic sponsored by the Future Farmers of America will be held Saturday at the vocational agriculture building on Iowa Park High School campus.

From 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., dogs will be given shots for rabies, DHL and parvo, and cats for rabies, feline distemper and rhivo.

A fee will be charged.

Help sought for library project

There is still time for any organization wanting to help raise money for the library fund to participate in the project, according to Mrs. W.A. George, library board president.

A carnival similar to the annual fall Whoop-T-Do is scheduled here May 15. Organizations sponsoring booths are to turn over all profit to the fund.

"We've contacted all the organizations we know of," Mrs. George said, "but if we've overlooked anyone, we want them to know their effort will be greatly appreciated."

Mrs. George said she could be contacted by any group wanting to participate.

Money from the library fund will be used to renovate the Tom Burnett Memorial Library.

would also be collected at that time.

Members who will be honored at the birthday party are Jesse Seay, Perle Pace, E.E. Sargent, Ethyle Kidwell, Gale Lowrance, Emma Key, Grace Roberts, Ruth Gensler, Paul Callaway.

Reaves, Shown nuptials recited Friday in garden setting

The setting for the exchange of wedding vows by Miss Malinda Lyn Reaves and Edward Louis Shown Friday evening at First United Methodist Church was an improvised al fresco garden scene featuring a white latticework background interlaced with English ivy accented with dark blue silk roses and a border of a profusion of potted blue chrysanthemums. Three dark blue wedding bells held by a large light blue satin bow centered with white silk morning glories were suspended at the top of the latticework in the center.

On either side of the entrance to the garden were white metal stands holding the chrysanthemums in pots tied with blue silk bows. The bows attractively trimmed with white silk morning glories and baby's breath marked church pews.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Reaves and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Shown. Rev. Jim Farris, pastor of St. John's United Methodist Church at Corpus Christi, cousin of the bride, directed the couple in the recitation of their double-ring vows.

The different colors of blue, ranging from very pale to very dark shades chosen by the bride for her wedding, were especially pleasing on the round table arranged for guest registration in the church foyer. Covered to the floor and draped around the top with choice white lace over taffeta, one of the singular appointments was a white basket tied with a blue silk bow that fell in white lace-centered blue silk streamers onto the table. The basket held blue silk rice rosebuds, dark blue and white silk morning glories. The other adornments were double two-branched crystal candelabra holding dark blue candles and tied with light blue silk bows centered with white silk forget me nots, the blue plume pen anchored in blue velvet, and the wedding book. The drapes on the table were caught up with single blue rice rosebuds.

Vicky Reaves presided at the table before the wedding and later when it was removed to the reception area.

Eric Birk presented a concert of organ music while guests were assembling. His selections included "Prelude in C Major," "Wedding Prelude on O Perfect Love," "All Human Thought Transcending," "Adagio, Cantabile" and "Romanze." He provided accompaniment for Terry Escute, vocalist, who sang "The Wedding Song" after the mothers were seated and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony. The organist included the traditional processional and recessional compositions in his offerings.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father who presented her in marriage for her parents. She chose a lovely white sheer formal gown wearing it over acetate taffeta for her wedding. The gown, compatible for a simulated outdoor setting where the couple plighted their troth, was designed with a fitted empire bodice featuring a sheer yoke bordered with an Alencon lace flounce sprinkled with pearls in both front and back, and a full skirt that terminated in a lace-headed flounce that extended to form a chapel train. Lace appliques and pearls were scattered over the dress to enhance its beauty.

Her nylon tulle waltz length veil drifted from a bridal picture hat adorned with pearls. She carried a silk cascade of white roses, rosebuds, stephanotis, lilies of the valley, gypsophila and narrow satin ribbon streamers to complete her costume. The bridal attendants wore knit gowns styled with fitted empire bodices with bow trim, lace-floenced necklines and flared skirts. They carried silk colonial nosegays consisting of blue roses, white rosebuds, stephanotis, lilies of the valley and baby's breath.

The charming trio of attendants included Miss Diane Walls, maid of honor, Miss Keri Knecht, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Tommy Odom of Wichita Falls, the bridesmaids.

Miss Becky Leath, the flower girl, wore a light blue dotted swiss frock duplicating the style of the attendants' gowns. She carried blue and white silk rose petals in a white basket tied with a dark blue velvet bow accented with white silk morning glories and lace.

The groom was attired in a white tuxedo with tails, white shirt and ruffles trimmed in variegated blue and a boutonniere of white silk rosebuds.

Billy Shown, father of the groom, the best man, Stuart Greenwood and Lamar Murphy, the groomsmen and ushers, and father of the bride wore royal blue tuxedos with wing tip white pleated shirts and blue bow ties.

Mrs. Reaves, mother of the bride, wore a long teal blue crepe knit dress made with V-neck, long sleeves and tie belt. Mrs. Shown, mother of the groom, wore a steel blue polyester crepe gown designed with a square neckline, flared elbow length sleeves covered with dark blue lace which was repeated in a wide hemline flounce. Their complementary corsages were formed of dark blue roses, light blue rosebuds, baby's breath and touches of net.

The reception following the wedding was hosted by the bride's parents. They were assisted by Mrs. David Williams, Mrs. James England and Vicky Reaves, who presided at the bride's table, Mrs. Ron Cox, aunt of the groom, Mrs. Lamar Murphy, who served at the groom's table, Mmes. Ralph Wheeler, W.H. Clayton, Eugene Downes and Mary Morgan, members of the houseparty.

The bride's table was characterized by a pleasing design of beauty and grace. Covered with a white Chantilly lace cloth featuring a full skirt falling to the floor from under lace swags accented with sprays of pale blue silk morning glories, the centerpiece was a white epergne completely hidden behind a silk waterfall arrangement of light and blue morning glories and roses, except for three branches at the top that held tall blue candles. Blue ribbons centered with white lace lettered with "Malinda-Edward" in gold extended onto the table and to the blue napkins bearing the names and wedding date of the couple.

The extremities held the crystal punch service and cake, a three-tiered confection of remarkable beauty achieved through frosting artistry. Each tier was bordered with scalloped centering with blue forget me nots and encircled with raised garlands that dipped to clutch blue bows accented with blue forget me nots. A cluster of blue roses spread over the top of the second tier raised by filigree dividers.

A pearled heart centered with white satin wedding bells trimmed with pearls and blue lilies of the valley clappers formed the background for the kissing bride and groom sitting on a bench trimmed with white tulle puffs and blue lilies of the valley for the top ornament.

The groom's table was covered with dark blue polyester overlaid with light blue linen. The floral centerpiece consisting of vari-shaded blue silk roses, green leaves and blue silk streamers overlaid with white lace was arranged in a tool box suggestive of the groom's work. Other appointments were a chocolate sheet cake bordered and trimmed with blue reverse shells and topped with a cut-out replica in blue frosting of a Gold Wing Honda motorcycle marked as the vehicle of "Malinda and Ed." Coffee was poured from a silver service.

Following a wedding trip to Dallas and South Texas, the couple will live in Wichita Falls. She was graduated from Iowa Park High School. He was graduated from Ben Eilson High School in Fairbanks, Alaska and works for Patterson-Oldsmobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Swan Reaves of Iowa Park and Mrs. Julia Mann of Electra, grandparents of the bride, were special guests.

Out-of-town guests included Messrs. and Mmes. Ron Cox of Wichita, Kansas, J.C. Farris of Houston, Bob Jones and Joanna of Arlington, Johnny Thompson of Electra; Mrs. Eugene Downes of Vernon, Mrs. Ruth Carter of Gladewater; John Mann and Sissy of Electra.

SMALL WONDER...

...that private citizens in every walk of life are joined by a number of Texas' most respected farm-and-ranch, business, and professional groups in support of Rep. Charles Finnell. They all have one goal in common. They want responsible representation.

Finnell's opponent equates the acceptance of such support with "selling out." Naturally, he doesn't see his own acceptance of support in so bad a light, only Finnell's!

The fact is, Finnell has received no support that his opponent would not gladly have accepted. The aspersion cast upon Rep. Finnell and the good people who support him is "sour grapes," pure and simple. Finnell is deeply gratified that his support is broadly based, and is exceedingly proud of the exemplary standards of good citizenship that this support represents.

Announce engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rath of Mandan, N.D. announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Lynnett, and Dale Lee Gwinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gwinn of Iowa Park. The wedding is set for May 21 at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Wichita Falls.

Miss Rath was graduated from Mandan High School and received an associate degree in radiology technology from Midwestern State University. She is presently employed at Wichita General Hospital.

The groom-elect, who was graduated from Iowa Park High School, will receive a degree in voice performance from MSU in August and will enter law school at Texas Tech Univ. He works with the ground crew at MSU.

Bride elect is showered

One of the lovely social events of the weekend was the prenuptial shower given in the home of Mrs. Bill Bates Saturday afternoon complimentary to Miss Terrie Rice, bride-elect of Randy Holder. Co-hostesses were Mmes. Joe Singer, Clyde Patterson, Stanley Hoye, Joe Ward, Deryl James, Jim Adams, Robert Mellroy, Keith Aulds, Ronald Schroeder, Howard Marlair and Jack Railsback.

Decorations and appointments for the affair governed by orchid and white, the bride-elect's chosen colors, possessed the quality of delighting guests. As each guest arrived, she was pinned with a white lacy wedding bell accented with an orchid silk violet and a matching ribbon bow.

The guest book was placed on an antique white Victorian lace wicker table. The hostess in charge of securing signatures of the guests sat in a matching purple-cushioned chair. The table held an orchid thumb print glass bowl filled with the wedding bell favors, and a Victorian glass epergne attractively appointed with lavender silk flowers and baby's breath and a lavender candle.

The splendor of the decorations was noted especially on the refreshment table covered with a lavender organdy cloth finished with a wide appliqued border. The centerpiece was a Victorian silver epergne with a blown-glass liner holding orchid sweetpeas, lilies of the valley and baby's breath. Orchid candles glowed in flanking three-branched silver candelabra. Orchid napkins, heart-shaped mints and refreshments repeating the chosen colors lent themselves to the total effect of a picture of perfection.

The antique buffet near the table held clear hurricane globes sheltering burning candles.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a corsage of lavender silk roses and stephanotis and gave Mrs. Don Rice and Mrs. H.L. Holder, mothers of the betrothed couple, corsages fashioned of lavender silk roses and baby's breath.

Soil Stewardship Week to be observed

The Wichita Soil and Water Conservation District will join in the nationwide celebration of Soil Stewardship Week to take place on May 16-23, according to an announcement by Fred Dwyer, SWCD Chairman. The theme of this year's celebration is "A Time for Tenacity."

"This is 'A Time for Tenacity' in our faith, in concept, in communication, in cooperation, in the political arena, in experiments and research, in leadership, in priorities, and in total commitment," cites the National Association of Conservation Districts (NACD). NACD had sponsored Soil Stewardship Week since 1955, in cooperation with the nation's nearly 3,000 soil and water conservation districts.

Informative material on the Soil Stewardship Week theme each year is distributed through local conservation districts to clergymen, lay leaders, churches, civic and educational organizations and to individuals participating in the observance.

Norman Nettleton, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church says that over the years the Presbyterian Church has been a strong participant in the observance of Soil Stewardship Week.

Edwards voted Lions president

A new slate of officers was elected Tuesday for the coming year by members of the Noon Lions Club.

Dr. James Edwards was voted president, Keith Aulds vice president, John Sibley treasurer, Richard Hill secretary, Bill Steger Taittwister and Bob Hamilton Lion Tamer.

After the voting, outgoing president James Morris announced the meeting would be his last here, because he is moving this weekend to establish a private law practice at Paducah.

Flower show held

One hundred and twenty guests and 23 members attended the Iowa Park Garden Club's annual flower show held Friday at United Savings, according to Mrs. Thurman Reitz, flower show chairman.

Door prizes were won by Mmes. R.B. Faulkner, Jack Railsback, Verda Lofland and Wilburn Bedford, Jonnie Jennings and Vicki Gilmore. Refreshments were prepared and served by Skeets Eddins and Gladys Shawver during the show.

Mrs. W.A. George, president, announced to members that the May 14 meeting would be highlighted by a nursery or rose garden pilgrimage in the Cashion Community.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

I'll be glad when this week is over. This year's primary election campaigning has been a pain in the neck.

No, I wouldn't trade the process for anything, but some of the tactics used by most of the candidates really can get under the skin of an editor.

For instance, I distrust any candidate (really his workers), who stamps "local news" on the envelope, and when you open it up, it is just more of the same "news releases" about the candidate's opinion or his attack on an opponent.

Some of the candidates had their political disclaimer printed on the envelope, but the others didn't. The sneaky ones wouldn't put anything except the address of the recipient, just in case you don't like to read political mail.

Another gimic to get you to open the envelope is to have the address written by hand, instead of using a typewriter or stencil. Makes it look more personal. Oh, a couple also wrote on the envelope "personal."

I thought the candidates this year did a much better job of traveling throughout the state to meet both voters and the press. Wichita Falls was a hot spot, apparently. During the past couple of weeks, we averaged more than one phone call a day, informing us of a candidate coming to the area.

One unique telephone interview was arranged in which I participated. Sen Jack Ogg, a candidate for state attorney general, set up a conference call for newspapers here, Bowie, Nacogdoches and Llano, giving us each a chance to question him. The idea was good, but I never have liked Ogg; he writes too much legislation.

The race for state representatives has captured a lot of attention, and I think both candidates Charles Finnell and Bill Glassford have run a good, clean race.

Both are friends of mine, and it makes it tough to choose between them, for those voting in the Democratic Party primary.

I never voice an opinion on local candidates for two reasons: I don't like to burn bridges and local voters usually know the candidates as well or better than I. Only once have I taken an issue on a state representative race, and that one clearly needed it.

Anyway, I'm glad the primaries are all but over. Now we will have a little breathing room and less cluttering of the mail box, at least until September.

Vandals

Charlie Helms, who notified police, said four were red and white and one was black.

A portable welding machine and 10 rods and reels were reportedly taken sometime Friday night from a storage building at 509 E. Washington. Johnny Black, who made the report, said the loss was $500.

Cook of the Week

One of the most popular fruits for salads is mandarin oranges. The fruit is probably a mutant of the sweet orange. Nobody knows for sure when it was developed nor when it reached the West. It is believed to have slipped in by way of North Africa and picked up its alternative name "tangerine" in Tangiers.

The orange is one of the five or six most important fruits in the world and presumed to be a native of China. There are three groups; bitter or sour, sweet and mandarin.

There were no oranges in the hanging gardens of Babylon and no mention of them is made in the Bible. Saplings were planted early in North Africa. They got to Rome but ceased to be heard from after the collapse of the empire. The Moors revived their history in Europe and they were grown in France and England at an early date.

The first importer of oranges to the New World was Columbus, who picked up seeds or saplings in the Canary Islands and planted them in Hispaniola in 1493. The first introduction to the U.S. was probably by de Soto who planted them in Florida in 1539. The Seminole Indians appreciated them. In 1791, they served Williams Bartram, the naturalist, red snapper steamed with oranges and a dessert of sliced oranges that had been marinated in honey for several days. Oranges imported from Mexico were planted in the Arizona Missions in the early 1700s and in the California Missions in 1769.

Mrs. Annie Johnson is among the many cooks who depend on mandarin oranges to add zest and color to her salad recipes. She said that the recipe that she shares with us today lends itself to the meat, vegetables and dessert recipes that she allows us to use this week.

A native of Mexia, Mrs. Johnson lived in the Valley View community about 20 years. She moved to Wichita Falls where she worked as food manager for Woolworth 19 years. She has lived in Iowa Park five years and worked as a part-time practical nurse. She is a member of Faith Baptist Church and her main hobby is cooking.

Mrs. Johnson has three daughters: Mrs. George Hammonds and Mrs. Everett Stephenson of Iowa Park, and Mrs. Raymond Fox of Rock Island, Ill. She has grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

ORANGE-COTTAGE CHEESE SALAD

1 (12-oz.) carton small-curd cottage cheese
1 (4 1/2 oz.) carton frozen whipped topping, thawed

Mrs. Annie Johnson

1 (11-ounce) can mandarin oranges, drained
1 (20-ounce) can crushed pineapple, drained
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1 (3-oz.) pkg. orange-flavored gelatin
Combine cottage cheese and whipped topping in a large mixing bowl; stir well. Add oranges, pineapple and nuts; mix well. Add gelatin and stir well. Chill thoroughly. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

OKRA CASSEROLE

1 small can cream style corn
1 can (16 oz.) tomatoes
1 small onion, chopped
About 3 cups fresh okra cut in bite-sized pieces (frozen okra may be used)
3 or 4 pieces bacon fried crisp
Combine first four ingredients in baking dish. Season with salt and pepper. Pour bacon drippings and chipped crisp bacon over top. Sprinkle with bread crumbs over this. Bake at 350 degrees about 45 minutes or until okra is tender. Do not overcook. This is a delicious vegetable dish for any meal.

COCONUT-SOUR CREAM LAYER CAKE

1 (18 1/2 oz.) pkg. yellow cake mix
1 1/2 cups sugar
1-16 oz. carton sour cream
1 (14 oz.) pkg. angel flake coconut
1 1/2 cups frozen whipped topping, thawed
Prepare cake mix according to pkg. directions, making two 8-inch layers. When completely cooled, split both layers.

Combine sugar, sour cream and coconut, blending well. Cool. Reserve one cup sour cream mixture for frosting and spread remainder between layers of cake.

Combine reserved sour cream mixture with whipped topping, blend until smooth. Spread on top and sides of cakes. Seal cake in airtight container and refrigerate for three days before serving.

SOUTHERN PORK CHOPS WITH RICE

4 pork chops, cut 1-inch thick
1 cup rice
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
1/4 tsp. paprika
2 chicken bouillon cubes
2 cups hot water
1 tomato, peeled and sliced
Brown pork chops in skillet on medium heat. Put rice, green pepper, onion, salt, pepper and paprika in bottom of 1-quart casserole. Place browned pork chops on top of rice mixture. Dissolve bouillon cubes in hot water; pour over pork chop mixture. Place tomato slices on top. Bake covered in 350 degree oven for 1 hour.

Shower fetes bride elect

A lovely courtesy to Miss Rita Ratcliff, bride-elect of Joe Nuckolls, was the miscellaneous shower given Saturday afternoon in Texas Electric Reddy Room.

Guests registered at a round table covered to the floor with white polyester holding a bud vase filled with burgundy and pink dahlias, the wedding book and pen.

Decorations for the function followed a burgundy and pink color combination chosen by Miss Ratcliff for her wedding May 29, Burgundy roses were the featured flower, both in decorations and corsages for the honoree, her mother, Mrs. John Ratcliff and the future groom's mother, Mrs. M.T. Nuckolls of Lubbock.

The refreshment table was laid with ecru lace over pink and centered with a crystal punch bowl encircled with burgundy silk roses flanked by pink candles burning in single gold holders. The silver coffee service, a tray of cookies decorated with pink roses and pink and burgundy napkins added bits of interest to the table decor.

In addition to the groom-elect and his mother, other out-of-town relatives were Mrs. Walter Denton of Cisco, grandmother of the honoree, Mrs. Jimmy Young and Vinetta of Odessa.

Hostesses were Mmes. Bill Robinson, R.T. Robinson, Don Cook, Don Beals, Thomas Johnson, Carliss Hutson, Eddie McCauley and Teddy Haggard.

Class members meet

Thirteen members of the Naomi Class of Faith Baptist Church and two visitors, Mrs. Paul Callaway and Mrs. John Hatfield, met with Mrs. John Hopkins Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Larry Baisley, outreach leader, was the presiding officer during the business session when it was voted to furnish refreshments for the residents at Heritage Manor for Mother's Day for the May missions in action project.

Mrs. Otis Mayo used "Love Thy Neighbor" for the topic of a devotion.

Following the meeting, the group toured the Hopkins' iris garden.

Mrs. Aulds is elected

Officers of the Iowa Park Lioness Club were elected Thursday evening during a meeting held in the home of Mrs. L.A. Thurlo.

Mrs. Keith Aulds was elected president. Those elected to serve with her include Mmes. Thurlo, vice president; Grover Cleveland, secretary; Riley Thompson, treasurer; L.E. Brooks, corresponding secretary; D.O. James, historian; W.E. Karstetter, parliamentarian; Sam Hill, Lioness tamer; Sam Hunter, tail twister; Homer Blalock, reporter; Hunter, Thompson and Karstetter, directors.

Mrs. Brooks introduced the program reading selections from a book by Paul Stevens, including "The Rest of Your Life," "Who Holds the Future?" and "Who Is My Neighbor?"

Mrs. Hunter presented a slide and lecture program on conservation and perils and rewards of birding. She emphasized the conservation measures that are being emphasized by the Wichita County Soil Conservation Service focusing on crop rotation, stubble mulching, grass waterways, terrace construction, brush and flood control problems and educating young people on conservation.

Red Cross committing $1.5-million for Paris

The biggest rebuilding and home repair relief operation since hurricane Camille is planned by the American Red Cross as a result of the devastating tornados which struck Paris and surrounding communities on April 2.

Hurricane Camille, which involved 73,857 families, prompted the Red Cross to rebuild 266 homes. After the Paris tornado, which affected more than 1,800 families, Red Cross will be involved in rebuilding an estimated 150 homes and repairing many others. The need for such an effort is attributed to the fact that a majority of the affected homeowners were uninsured with low incomes, no resources and over the age of 62.

"Now that the Red Cross is completing its emergency phase of disaster relief which includes food, clothing, shelter, temporary home repairs and related medical needs, we are estimating an additional $1.5-million to be spent assisting with home rebuilding, extended repairs, some home furnishings and other needs," said John Crafton, Director of Red Cross relief efforts. Red Cross commitments to date amount to $262,501.

To date nearly 40,000 meals have been provided by Red Cross volunteers to those affected and to emergency workers involved with debris clearance. Red Cross is continuing to work closely with Federal Government agencies in the area, according to Brady Fisher, Chairman for the Lamar County Red Cross Chapter.

Three Wichita County Red Cross workers (Ray Beall, Vivian Galligar and Fred Snyder; are still in Paris and could be there all summer.

Because of the tremendous expense expected, donations are needed. Anyone wishing to contribute should send checks to the American Red Cross, P.O. Box 5166, Wichita Falls, TX 76301, ear-marked "Paris Tornado," or at the Chapter House at 1809 Fifth Street.

In the race for State Representative, 80th District, the issue is simple: Which candidate can represent you more effectively? Finnell's opponent has had NO legislative experience, NO record of accomplishment in this or any similar job.

STATE REP. CHARLES FINNELL

has a 21-year business background, and, as a concerned citizen, is now a veteran State Representative. He has campaigned on his record of service to the people of North Texas in the Texas House of Representatives.

HIS RECORD SHOWS:

He works at his job.

Finnell never missed a roll call or record vote for 8,749 consecutive votes—the longest unbroken record in Texas legislative history. His first absence was occasioned by the April 10, 1979, tornadoes.

He never evades the issues.

Finnell has never voted "present-not-voting," an alternative which reflects conflict of interest, indecision, or fear of confronting the issue at hand. Finnell ALWAYS votes "aye" or "nay." He had the good judgment to oppose and vote against the Peveto Bill (S.B. 621, 66th Legislature), which created havoc with the traditional tax appraisal system, injected the state government into purely local affairs, and added to the local tax burden a new level of bureaucracy.

He is "in tune" with the concerns of this district.

He is a constant ally of: agriculture and small business in general; water development and conservation; quality public education at reasonable cost to the taxpayer; caring for, and providing options for, our senior citizens; adequate health care in our rural areas; strong law enforcement, including Texas' War on Drugs; defending the rights of local government to address local problems; adequate transportation, especially a sound farm-to-market road program; and other concerns.

He responds to needs with positive action.

In response to the April 1979 tornadoes in Wilbarger, Wichita, and Clay counties, Finnell quickly obtained passage of HB 2235, an emergency appropriation bill for disaster relief. When the city of Graham needed quick enactment of legislation to create a water supply district, Finnell met the need. As another example, Finnell authored the bill which ratified and implemented the Red River Compact, apportioning the water of the Red River among the four affected states and avoiding the intervention of federal courts. The list could go on and on.

He chairs a major committee.

As chairman of the House General Investigating Committee (HGIC), Rep. Finnell is one of only 31 persons chairing standing committees, among the 150 members of the House of Representatives.

He is highly accessible.

Kay and Charles live on FM 368 in Holliday, in Archer County, at the center of the 80th House District. Charles's district office is across the street from the Post Office in Holliday. His Austin office is on 3rd floor, west wing of the State Capitol Bldg. He maintains close contact with the people he represents.

He will appreciate your vote in the DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY SATURDAY

Stewart leads Hawk qualifiers to regional

Hawk strong man Steve Stewart kept Iowa Park's string of field event representatives in the regional track meet alive Saturday by qualifying in both the shot put and discus.

He will be joined by hurdler Russ Hayley and distance runner John Henderson, at the region one meet May 8 in Odessa.

Stewart follows a five-year succession in the region left by Kip Fuller and Mike Ray. He placed second in the shot put with a heave of 49-1 and discus throw of 153-1 1/4.

The junior paid a lot of attention to that fraction of an inch measurement in the discus, too. It was one-quarter of an inch further than John Elliott's of Vernon.

Henderson placed second in the 3200-meter run behind Burkburnett's Jimmy Phillips, who was runner-up in state last year. The Hawk's time was 10:08.39.

Hayley also placed second in the 110-meter hurdles with a 15.54 clocking.

The Hawks finished sixth in the district meet, with 49 points. Vernon repeated its title holding with 149, followed by Hirschi, 122, Mineral Wells, 74; Graham, 62; and Burkburnett, 61.

Other Hawks earning points included: Marc Klinkerman, fourth in high jump, 6-2. Henderson ran fourth in the mile, 5:00.88; Kevin Parker, fifth in 100-meter dash, 11:36; Robin Combs, fifth in discus with a career best of 151; and the sprint relay placed fifth.

Stewart, Henderson and Hayley will compete Saturday in a regional qualifiers' meet at Abilene on the campus of Abilene Christian College.

Little League Aux. to meet Sunday

A meeting of the Little League Auxiliary will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday at King's Kids, according to Mrs. Jackie Denton.

To be discussed is a bake sale and help in the concession stand, and mothers of players are encouraged to attend and participate in the meeting. Mrs. Denton said.

Sefcik qualifies for state meet

Hawketts sophomore Lisa Sefcik placed second in the triple jump at the regional meet last weekend, and qualified for the state meet May 7 in Austin.

Though her 34-11 1/2 distance wasn't up to the 35-1 1/2 she posted in the district meet, it was good enough for the bronze medal.

Sefcik ran her best competition time in the hurdles, 15.45, but placed only fifth in stiff competition.

She is to compete in the giant University Interscholastic League championships at 1:45 p.m. in Memorial Stadium on the campus of Univ. of Texas.

Two other Hawketts, Shelly Untalon and Jon Hale, competed at Odessa, but neither qualified for state.

Untalon placed fifth in the discus (100-8) and eighth in the shot put (34-11), and Hale was seventh in the 1600 meter run (13:40).

Holliday springs surprise sprinter

Eagles take track title

When the eight best 100-meter sprinters from District 13-AA gathered together at the starting line during last Thursday's district meet in Holliday, several athletes in red and white could be heard shouting, "Go Toliver."

"Go Toliver?"
Virtually unheard of until the morning preliminaries, sophomore speedster Chris Toliver surprised everyone, including his own teammates, by blowing away a top-notch field in the finals of the 100-meters.

Fellow Eagles Kevin Blankenship, Brad Hardin, Mike A. Parker joined Toliver in winning individual events, and Holliday repeated as district champs over distant second place Nocona.

The Eagles racked up enough points before the final event, the 1600-meter relay, without needing to place to secure the title.

Nocona, however, almost lost second place in the team totals to Boyd when the Yellowjackets won the final relay. The Indians placed third, however, and pulled ahead 108 to 107. Holliday won with 155 total points. Petrolia finished fourth with 63, followed by Archer City and Windthorst with 42 each, and Millsap with eight. Chico failed to tally a point.

Blankenship was the only double winner in the meet, dominating both the 100-meter highs with a 15.14 clocking, well ahead of Nocona's Coats, who placed second at 15.54.

In the 300-meters, Blankenship finished first with a time of 42.93, almost one-half second ahead of the rest of the field.

Parker won the long jump at 20-10, but finished second to Hardin in the pole vault, considered his best event, with more misses at 12-0. Mike Rathman placed third in the long jump.

Patrick Capps and Harold Parsons placed second in the high jump and shot put, respectively, with Capps clearing 6-2, and Parsons putting 46-4. The winning jump was 6-6 by Mc Chesney of Nocona, and Tony Warner of Boyd took the shot with a heave of 46-10.

Rathman placed second in the 200-meter dash, while Bruce Bynum took second in defending his district 400-meter dash title. Rathman clocked in at 23.96, behind Bachman of Petrolia, 23.34.

Bynum lost his repeat bid to Wolf of Windthorst, finishing with a time of 53.45 to Wolf's 52.95, despite having the best preliminary time.

The sprint relay team lost at the wire to Nocona in the meet's first race, and it took a photo of the finish between Holliday's Parker and Nocona's Chambers to decide the winner.

Bynum ran the first leg of the relay, and handed the first of three picture-perfect connections in the relay to Blankenship, with Rathman running the third leg and Parker anchoring. Parker looked to have the advantage at the tape, leaning so far he lost his balance after crossing the line. But, after a short conference between meet officials, it was decided Chambers had crossed the line first.

In all, eight Eagles will advance to the regional meet in Stephenville next Friday and Saturday.

They are: Blankenship, 100-meter high and 300-meter intermediate hurdles, sprint relay; Hardin, pole vault; A. Parker, long jump, pole vault, sprint relay; Toliver, 100-meters; Rathman, 200-meters and sprint relay; Bynum, 400-meters, sprint relay; Capps, high jump; and Parsons, shot put.

In the junior high division, Holliday seventh graders outdistanced Archer City 108 to 92, while the eighth grade Eagles placed second to the Wildcats, 106 to 134.

Lucy praises athletes at annual banquet

A capacity crowd filled the Holliday High School gymnasium Tuesday evening to honor athletes in all school sports, including the 1981-82 edition Eagle football team, which head coach Don Lucy described as "possibly the finest high school football team I have personally seen."

In what turned out to be an emotional address to the players, Lucy praised the team for their performance, including the 10-game winning streak in regular season.

"This was the best record for an Eagle football team since I have been here," the athletic director said. "And to the ones that I don't call on tonight for awards, I want you to know I love each and every one of you."

Lucy also told the crowd of parents, athletes and their dates, that the defensive performance in regular season, where Holliday allowed only 10 points total, was the best record in any classification in Texas. "And the best offensive scoring record was 539 points, and we only scored 407," Lucy remarked. "But I know, and each of these boys know, that we could easily have scored more than 539 points."

Awards presented include:
FOOTBALL: Defensive backs - Joel Mankins and Brad Harmon; Offensive Backs - Ray Looney and

Change of mind, change of place

Holliday sophomore Leslie Mankins went into last Saturday's regional U.I.L. literary meet in Stephenville with a different frame of mind after a bad case of the nerves resulted in a third place finish in the district meet a week earlier.

And the change in attitude paid off. Miss Mankins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Mankins, outclassed a field of 24 and took the first place medal in calculator application home with her. It also qualifies her for the U.I.L. state literary meet in Austin this Saturday.

"I was just calmer at regionals," Miss Mankins said Tuesday. "I knew I could do better than my performance at district." She added that the contest involved problems in keypunch and geometry as well as study problems using the calculator. This is her first year in U.I.L. literary competition.

Miss Mankins and Lanie Oliver of Archer City (second place calculator application) will be the only participants from Archer County this weekend.

Columbus Hall (upstairs); Archer City, city hall, tax/assessor's office, commissioner's courtroom; Megargel, city hall; Dundee, Methodist Church; Lakeside City, Community Building; Lake Creek Voting Box (northeast of Archer City); and, Terripin (south of Archer City).

Pre-kindergarten registration set

Pre-kindergarten registration at Holliday Elementary will be held Tuesday, May 4, with parents of five-year-olds as of Sept. 1, 1982 to take them to the school house by 8:15 a.m., principal Dan Owen said.

The prospective students will go through an orientation period that morning, and can be picked up between 12 and 12:30 in front of the school.

"If any parent with a qualifying child hasn't received a letter from us, then they may call me at 586-1986 before Tuesday," Owen said.

The child should also have on hand a birth certificate and complete health records. Owen said that anyone with an incomplete health record should have it completed before the first day of school this coming fall, Aug. 23.

Spring Clean-Up

Spring Clean-Up in Holliday will commence Saturday, May 8, and Saturday, May 22, co-sponsored by the Holliday Lions Club and Holliday Volunteer Fire Department.

The May 8th pickup date will cover the southside of Holliday, bordered by the railroad tracks.
