Three city aldermen want Morath fired

Three members of the city council Monday night dropped a bomb after a 42-minute executive session and said they wanted the city administrator fired.

However, Steve Morath is still in his city hall office, because no action could have been taken that night because the subject was not on the meeting agenda.

While the action came as a surprise to the public, it apparently was no surprise to council members. The subject had apparently been discussed in another executive session at the previous council meeting.

Alderman Bill Gilmore said, after the meeting was re-opened following the closed meeting, "As of tonight, I'd like to make the motion to relieve Steve of his duties and give two weeks notice."

As indicated by comments made during the discussion that followed, Bud Thompson and Herman Mahler were ready to vote for the motion.

Mayor Charlie Lee not only stated he'd be "very much against it," but he indicated the three aldermen may have violated the Texas Open Meetings law by discussing the subject while not in a formal council meeting.

Thompson listed a number of incidents he felt Morath had failed to respond either to actions or reports sought by the council or volunteer groups such as the planning and zoning board.

Morath countered by explaining each of the items the alderman had mentioned had been attended to, but admitted that not in all cases had he reported the actions to the council.

Newly-elected alderman Johnny

Coker stated, "We're asking an awful lot of Charlie, as new as he is (as mayor), to wait for a new administrator to get on the ground. The timing is not right. It's unfair."

After a lengthy discussion concerning the open meetings law, the mayor stated he would not call for a vote because the topic was not on the agenda, and therefore no action could be taken.

It was later pointed out that, in order for Morath to be dismissed, four aldermen would have to vote for dismissal, instead of the usual majority of three. But any voting to dismiss a city executive would have to come after the individual was given a required advance notice and opportunity for a hearing.

PAVING DISCUSSED

Also discussed but not on the agenda was the plight of Missionary Baptist Church.

Larry Washburn, pastor, told the council his congregation had not renewed lease on the space in Park West Shopping Center, where they've been meeting, and some movement to complete their new building on North Pacific was imperative.

The church had received a waiver from paving of Coleman Street when construction approval for the new building was given. But later council action rescinded the waiver. The church was given permission to get the building "into the dry" stage, but no electrical or plumbing inspections would be given.

Council members asked Washburn if his congregation would be interested in a waiver with restrictions similar to that granted for the construction of the Catholic Church on First Street. That waiver is good for a two-year period, after the building is occupied, and then the street work must be done.

Washburn said he would attempt to make any such agreement on his own.

In other business, aldermen approved appointment of Roger Lee of the law firm of Fillmore, Purtle and Lee, to serve as Iowa Park city attorney. His fee is $80 per hour.

Spring Festival set Saturday

Plans for remodeling of the Tom Burnett Memorial Library will take place Saturday.

The list of organizations which will have booths in the Library Spring Festival has now risen to 18, and more possibly will join in the effort, according to Mrs. W.A. George, library board chairman.

Virtually everyone is familiar with the annual Whoop-T-Do sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce every fall in the 100 block of East Cash.

The Library Spring Festival will be a virtual carbon copy, except all the proceeds will be turned over to the members of the 18 organizations to indicate their support to the library effort, Mrs. George said.

Admitting the amount which will be raised Saturday will not nearly pay for the renovation of the old Burnett home, Mrs. George said the effort will be extremely important, because it will show public support when library board members attempt to solicit donations and grants from foundations and major corporations.

"We must show public support for the project if we have any hope of raising major amounts of money from grants and donations," she said.

Preliminary indications are that phase of remodeling the future library home, but that will be for the downstairs portion only, where the library will occupy.

Joining the list of organizations participating Saturday are the Girl Scouts, who will have a cake walk, and the Boy Scouts, a dart throw.

Danny Parkerson and his show has been cancelled, but other acts are being sought for entertainment.

The Festival is to begin at 10 a.m. and continue until 4 p.m. The block will be roped off between Wall and the post office.

Police receive seven reports

Numerous thefts and acts of criminal mischief were reported during the past week to the police department, and they mostly occurred in pairs.

Wednesday morning of last week, police were informed of a burglary at Iowa Park Cable TV and theft of tires from new vehicles.

Someone reportedly forced open the locked front door of Cable TV on West Highway the evening before, then forced open locked desk drawers to extract $445.03, all of which was cash except one check for $19.50.

That same evening, four tires and wheels were taken from three new Chevrolet pickups parked at 216 N. Yosemite. Total value was set at $700.

Sometime Thursday night, another plate glass window at Discount Foods was broken by an object thrown.

That same evening, at 11:44, two white males were seen attempting to drive a pickup out of the driveway at 409 W. Washington. Iva Jones, who filed the report, said the thieves, who had found the keys in the vehicle, jumped out when seen and ran away. It was too dark for a description, however.

Friday night, Jim's Meat Market suffered a broken front door glass breakage by a rock. Damage was estimated at $400.

Also Friday night, someone

Trustees deny liability for Texas Street paving

School trustees denied any responsibility for street conditions on West Texas Avenue, approved an increase in lunchroom prices for next year and approved transfer students for the coming year.

In addition, board members heard a report on the vocational program for next year, approved a student council trip request and hired three new personnel.

Three members of the city council, Mayor Charlie Lee and Aldermen Johnny Coker and George Hammonds, along with Steve Morath, city administrator, were on the meeting agenda to discuss responsibility for street paving on West Texas.

Also in the audience were five residents of the homes which were built a few years ago by students of the building trades class.

Lee explained he had sought the opportunity to hear the school's side of a dispute after some residents complained the existing paving on Texas had never been connected with the curb and guttering installed by the school. Some residents had insisted they were told by school representatives that the paving would be taken care of.

Board chairman Roy Boutwell told the group the homes were sold on an "as-is" basis, the paving was to be done by the city after a verbal agreement had been reached with city officials by former trustee J.O. McCullough, and that any work done on homes after they were sold was volunteer and not obligated, in accordance with sale agreements.

LUNCH PRICES INCREASED

At the recommendation of Bill Steger, food services director, all lunch prices will be raised 10-cents for the 1982-83 school year.

Prices for lunches will be 75-cents for grades K-2; 85-cents grades 3-5; $1 grades 6-12; $1.35 school personnel and $2 for visitors. Reduced lunch prices will be 40-cents, subject to new legislation.

Also increased were breakfast prices: K-12, $50-cents; reduced, 30-cents; school personnel, 75-cents; visitors, $1.25.

Trustees approved applications for 20 transfers from other school districts to the local district for next year, 18 of which are from the City View district.

Richard Davis discussed the vocational program for the coming year, pointing out federal money expected would be $18,377, which would be $6,000 less than received this year.

However, some of the lost funds would be made up by state funding, Davis explained, and funds lost would cut back equipment purchases.

A request from the high school student council and annual staff to use excess funds raised in projects to charter a bus for a May 22 trip to Six Flags Over Texas. The charter would cost $4,700.

Trustees approved the request, with the specifications that it was not a school-sponsored event and no school money would be used.

During a report on the curriculum committee meeting, Supt. Harold Cowley indicated the group proposed a test program on computer education for the high school.

He explained that if the proposal is accepted, three small computers would be leased for tuition classes this summer and regular after-school classes offered for the 1982-83 school year, in order to determine student acceptance and interest.

Board members said they would like to see a formal proposal at the June meeting and gave indications a year's trial would probably be acceptable.

Three new teachers were hired: Jerry Howard Skelton, junior high sixth-grade teacher and girls' coach; Carol Lee Wilson, second grade; and Donna Chambers, West Wichita Co-op.

Two resignations, Linda Nichols, junior high math teacher, and Linda Gray, West Co-op were accepted.

Trustees also approved purchase of

Cook of the Week

"As American as peach cobbler" could be said without doing injustice to the apple pie because the roundish, yellow, edible fruit is second only to the apple in world distribution, and it has been a part of the American way of life since the colonists brought it to Virginia. They planted the trees before 1629, and they are now grown throughout the U.S. and in 30 states commercially.

Some of the finest peach orchards in the country are easily accessible to all area people and the season is not far off. Many are already contemplating the enjoyment of fresh peaches and cream, cobbler, pastries and preserves. Others are thinking about canning or freezing them for home and commercial use.

Peaches are called freestone and clingstone, according to how difficult it is to remove the pit and there are many varieties, perhaps the best known is the Elberta. Scientists believe that China is the native home of the peach tree where it is called tao and that it was grown there 4,000 years ago. Pliny, the Roman scholar, wrote about the peach tree in the first century A.D. and called it Persian apple.

The American Indians were very fond of the fruit. William Penn wrote in 1663 that there was not an Indian plantation without the trees. Thomas Jefferson planted European peach stones at Monticello in 1802.

Beth (Mrs. Doug) Johnson shares her Peach Cobbler recipe with us today; it calls for canned peaches, but fresh peaches can be used if they are in season.

The Johnsons have lived in Iowa Park six years. He is production supervisor at Cryovac and she is associated with Southwestern Life Insurance Co. The former Beth McClelland of Electra, she was graduated from Electra High School. She is a first-year member of Epsilon Eta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha and had been elected reporter for 1982-83. Her hobbies are reading, cooking, horseback riding and sports associated with the outdoors.

PEACH COBBLER

CRUST

2 cups flour
1 cup shortening

Work the dough and roll out 1/2 of it and cut into strips. Then roll out remaining dough and cut into strips also.

FILLING:

1 large can sliced peaches (29 oz.)
Cinnamon to taste (about 1/4 tsp.)
Margarine (1/2 stick or more)

Mrs. Doug Johnson

Sugar, 1/4 cup or more, according to your taste
Enough flour for thickening

Pour peaches and half of the liquid in a saucepan. Add margarine, cinnamon and sugar; cook until sugar dissolves. Then use remaining peach juice or liquid and flour to make a thickening. Pour this into saucepan, stirring all the while. Again use discretion as to how thick you want the filling. Cool. Then start layering the crust and filling. This will make a 13x9 inch cobbler.

Cook in oven for 25-40 minutes at 375 degrees. Sugar can be omitted if peaches are already sweet. Fresh peaches can be substituted. Delicious with ice cream.

FRENCH PANCAKES

1 cup self-rising flour
2 cups milk
3 eggs
1/4 cup butter

Beat all ingredients together until smooth. Lightly grease a 6 or 7 inch skillet. Spoon about 3 tablespoons of batter into hot skillet, tilt to coat bottom of pan. Cook until small bubbles appear on surface.

Loosen gently with spatula, flip onto the other side and finish cooking on this side. Spread each with strawberry jam or preserves. Roll up to 14 pancakes.

FRIED PIES

Use tortilla flour and mix according to directions on package. Then roll out to desired size and fill with ready made pie filling or use the filling recipe for the peach cobbler. Fold over the edges and crisp up with a fork. These can be baked or fried. Store in covered container.

BUTTER CREAM VANILLA FROSTING

1/4 cup margarine
1/2 tsp. salt
2 tps. vanilla
3 cups confectioners sugar (powdered sugar)
1/4 cup milk
Combine margarine, salt and vanilla; add 1 cup sugar and mix well. Add milk and remaining sugar; mix until smooth. For Sweetheart Cookies below, the frosting can be tinted pink and omit part of the milk. The frosting can be used as a chocolate frosting by adding 1/2 cup Hershey's cocoa.

SWEETHEART COOKIES

1 cup butter or margarine softened
2-3 oz. pkgs. cream cheese softened
1 cup granulated sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
1 cup quick old-fashioned oats, uncooked
1/2 cup chopped walnuts or pecans.
1/4 tsp. salt

Beat together butter and cream cheese until creamy; add sugar and vanilla, then beat again. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Add to creamed mixture; stir in oats and nuts and mix well. Chill several hours or overnight. Cover tightly.

To cook, place rounded amounts of cookie dough on ungreased cookie sheet. Set oven temperature at 375 to 400 degrees. Cook for 8 to 12 minutes. Frost with Butter-Cream Vanilla Frosting. (Above)

Modern Music Study Club meeting held Thursday

The Modern Music Study Club's meeting Thursday evening held in the home of Mrs. James Sewell was highlighted by the annual president's program, and recognition of the senior girl and boy of Iowa Park High School chosen by the club as the Outstanding Music Students for 1982.

Mrs. Delbert Todd introduced the recipients of the club's monetary awards, Connie Heard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Heard, and Eric Birk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Birk, who helped to provide the musical program for the evening.

Miss Heard contributed a piano solo "Could It Be Magic?" and a trumpet solo, "Introduction and Fantasy," one that she will play in state UIL competition the latter part of the month.

Eric furnished piano accompaniment for the trumpet solo and rendered three piano solos which included "1st Movement, Sonata, Op. 13," "Chopin Etude, Op. 10, No. 5," "Polonaise Op. 46, No. 12."

Mrs. John Rentschler, retiring president, presided and introduced the program. Mrs. Jay Farmer introduced the hymn of the month, "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing," by recounting background of its authors. Mrs. Manuel Moyer and Mrs. Gene House were introduced as new members.

Mrs. Rentschler conducted the installation ceremony for Mmes. Jay Farmer, president; Georgia Flanagan, vice president; and Keith Aulds, secretary-treasurer-reporter. As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

The efforts of vigilante groups in the past were termed as uncivilized.

It's true, they made a lot of mistakes, they often took actions that were extremely harsh and turned activities of society against such activists.

But it is also true, though seldom ever pointed out in any history writings, that vigilantes did do some good.

With the hands of law enforcement officers tied as they are today by past court actions, there are times when relief of victims is sought but denied, often to the frustration of the officers. It's because of this that vigilante actions are taken, from time to time.

Take, for instance, the problems suffered by Discount Food Store owner Preston Giles. He's had at least five plate glass windows broken over a four-week period. That is expensive.

There is little doubt in the minds of many in our community as to who is doing it, but they haven't been caught.

This week, Giles had all the plate glass windows taken out, and the front of his store remodeled with wood. Though it looks very nice and upgrades the appearance of his end of the block, it is a disgrace that he, or anyone, would be forced into such actions because of vandals.

The remodeling has been expensive, but not as costly as the systematic replacement of plate glass.

On the same subject, there is a neighborhood in our fair city where one family has ruined living. Long-established residents don't like to get out in their yards anymore, they never know when they'll be abused by loud noises or comments, or harassed in some way or another.

Everything is within the law, but living is outside what we would describe as pleasant in our society today. Individuals of the family don't care about their neighbors, they don't mind visits by the law, and they are always reminding anyone who wants to settle things that they'll sue.

The fact is, residential property in that block has been reduced significantly.

There was a time when these kinds of things were settled in a very quiet manner. The culprit had the situation explained, sometimes forcefully, that things would get better or else!

But that sort of thing can't happen today. We're civilized. And we are victims of our own civilization.

A number of changes in the operation of Iowa Park's Bicentennial Swimming Pool this year, among which will be an earlier opening date than has been observed the past few years.

The admission which will be changed to $1.50 per person, regardless of age. This is a 25-cent decrease for adults. Ticket books with 10 tickets will be $12.50 however.

Thursday. The fee for that period will be $1.

Two Red Cross swimming lessons have been scheduled. The first session will be June 14-25 and the second July 19-30. Depending on the number registering, classes in beginner, advanced beginner and intermediate swimming will be

A two-week lifesaving course will begin May 31, according to John Dressler, one of the lifeguards. This is also a Red Cross instructed course. Dressler said anyone interested in the course can contact him at 592-5990 in the evenings. Hour for the classes will be determined by those registering.

The amount shown is for a 3-ton central electric air conditioner with an SEER of 8.5.

If you replace your central electric air conditioner with one that's more efficient, Texas Electric will pay you a bonus of $80 per ton.

Not only that, you'll save on your electric bill as well. For example, a high-efficiency 3-ton unit will save you about $160 a year.

This equipment costs more initially, but the bonus from Texas Electric plus the savings on your electric bill will make up the difference in just a few years.

If enough people buy high-efficiency equipment, summer peak load growth will be slowed — and so will the need to build new generating plants. In the long run, this will help hold down everyone's electric bill.

Before you replace your old air conditioner, ask your dealer about central air conditioners, heat pumps, and window units that qualify for this program.

Small grains field day next Thursday

Research being conducted on small grain crops by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station (TAES) will be on view next Thursday at the field day to be conducted at the Chillicothe research station.

Presentations by research scientists and commodity spokesmen will focus on wheat, said Dr. W.D. Worrall, TAES small grains breeder.

The Eyes Of Texans

JAMES EDWARDS Optometrist

DETACHED RETINA K.O.'S SUGAR RAY

The recent story that Sugar Ray Leonard developed a detached retina as a result of getting hit in the head during one of his fights, spotlights the problem that eye injuries can happen to anybody. It is relatively easy for an eye to get a retinal detachment even without a head blow because the retina, which is the inside layer of the eye and like the film in a camera, just sorta lies on the other layers of the eye and is only attached at the optic nerve and around the front edges. So a blow can cause the retina to collapse like a circus tent. Since the retina is part of the brain there is no pain involved, but the victim might see a "meteor shower" of lights for hours or even days. Then see a black cloud hanging in front of the eye. A person with these symptoms should get to an eye doctor or hospital as soon as possible. The retina can be welded back in place but the longer treatment is delayed the less chance there is for restoring vision.

Trustee meeting lengthy, complex

Several items were discussed at length and acted upon by Holliday school trustees during Monday night's regular meeting, including contracts for teachers, athletic and band budgets, and policies for substitute teachers, student transfers, and corporal punishment.

The meeting lasted over five hours, with trustees taking two hours in closed session to discuss rehiring auxiliary personnel and salaries for school employees.

The result of the executive session was the rehiring of secretaries, teachers aides and other auxiliary personnel, and salary increases starting from $300, depending on experience. Salary increases for teachers and administrators was tabled until the June meeting.

The one-year teacher term contract, prepared by the Texas Association of School Boards, was approved verbatim by trustees, although principal Dan Owen asked that one section of the contracts previously used be included in the new one. The section, dealing with dismissal of an employee, was considered by Owen to be "too vague" in its wording, stating that the board may dismiss the employee during the term of the contract for "good cause."

In the old contract, "good cause" was replaced with specific instances which would be deemed "good cause" to fire the employee.

Trustees approved the contract as worded, with an amendment to be added only after conferring with the school's attorney.

The athletic budget for 1982-83 was approved with no changes as submitted by athletic director Don Lucy. Next year's budget calls for expenditures of $58,971, an increase over last year's budget of $6,606.

Coaches Matt Robinson, Bill Higgins, Steve McIlhany and Jake Cottrell were also present at the meeting.

Band director Tom Woody's budget proposal for next year was passed by trustees, calling for $19,193 in expenditures. Woody's original proposal was for $17,193, but two additions were made during the meeting with the approval of trustees - one for the purchase of two trombones, and an additional $500 in travel expenses for Woody and his assistant, Duncan Brown.

POLICIES PASSED

After lengthy discussion, trustees okayed policies dealing with substitute teachers, student transfers and corporal punishment.

Under the substitute teacher policy, one can qualify to teach if one of the following has been earned: teacher certification, college degree, college hours, and competent high school graduate.

According to the policy, administrators will have a prepared list of available substitutes, and will call in the order listed above if possible.

The student transfer policy states that all students presently enrolled, prior to May 11, 1982, may continue to attend school until they graduate, as long as they are living with their legal guardian. When legal guardian establishes residence outside the Holliday I.S.D., the student enrolled will no longer be able to attend school.

Exceptions listed were children of school employees, parents in process of building a home in the school district, parents who have already purchased a home and are in the process of moving in, legal transfers presently enrolled with a brother or sister living in the same household with a legal guardian, and students classified as seniors and are in attendance the first day of the second semester.

The corporal punishment policy states that corporal punishment is permitted in the Holliday schools, as a last measure of discipline. The punishment can be administered only by the school principals or their designees, witnessed by at least one professional employee, and administered by an instrument approved by the principal or designee.

The policy also states that, if requested by parents beforehand, the official administering the punishment must furnish a written statement stating the reason for using this form of punishment.

Also, if a student refuses corporal punishment, parents of the students must have a letter on file in the office requesting suspension instead. The suspension for the first offense would be not more than three days, and increase with each offense.

The policy also states that the two-mile limit for eligible bus passengers, agreed not to participate in the vocational-technical training program next year, and accepted an agreement to participate with West Wichita Co-Operative next year.

The two-mile limit clause for bus passengers states that no passengers will be picked up if living within two miles of the school.

Holiday News

Eagles play for title today against Nocona

Holiday High School's baseball team, undefeated in district play in its inaugural season, takes on Nocona Indians at 3:30 p.m. today to decide the winner of the District 13-AA west zone.

The Eagles, 9-7 winners over the Indians in an earlier district contest in Nocona, go into the game with a one-game advantage. A loss by Holliday will necessitate a makeup game with Petrolia, rained out earlier this season.

The winner of the west-zone district will then play in a best-of-three series with the east zone district champ, which looks to be Boyd. The winner of the bi-district playoffs will then advance to regionals, also a best-of-three schedule. The regional champ will then join in a four-team field in Austin.

Band earns highest award

Holliday High School's Eagle Band returned from Amarillo recently after capturing the highest awards possible at the Greater Southwest Music Festival.

The festival, one of the most competitive in Texas, attracts numerous bands in all classifications from a three state area. The Eagle band earned division "I" in concert and sightreading from each of the three judges, and in addition, earned an award as the "Top Class AA Band" at the festival, director Tom Woody said.

Band members earning individual awards in either solos or ensembles were: Annette Wilhelm, Roma Cox, Debbie Long, Sharon Hotaling, Deborah Noll, Charlette Lewallen, Melissa Parish, Terri Briggs, Lisa Boyd, Angie Addison, Ronald McDaniel and Teresa Burks.

In addition to the festival, the

72-member band and their sponsors toured the Panhandle Plains Museum, Palo Duro Canyon, Wonderland Park, and attended the Country Squire Dinner Theatre where they saw the musical South Pacific.

The Eagle Band will present its final concert of the year tomorrow night in the High School auditorium. The junior high and elementary bands will also perform.

Joel Mankins, Cindy Davis are ranking graduates

Joel Mankins was named valedictorian and Cindy Davis salutatorian for the graduating class of 1982 at Holliday High School, according to principal Bill Lee.

Mankins, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Mankins, has an accumulative grade point average of 95.583 in his four years at Holliday. This year he was chosen at the Best Academic Male Athlete at the all-sports banquet.

Miss Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Parker of Holliday, accumulated a grade point average of 95.281 in her four years at H.H.S.

The two will address their fellow graduates at commencement exercises Friday, May 28 in the Erma Barton Auditorium.

Also, Laura Bills and Robert Parkey were named valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, of the eighth grade graduating class this year, said Lee. Bills' grade point average in junior high was 97.25, while Parkey's was 95.83.

The top ten eighth grade students are Bills, Parkey, Jeff McReynolds, Denise Jackson, Michelle Ripplin, Lad Cole, Rhonda Rasmussen, Kathy Davis, and Kelly Smith.

Capps jumps to Austin

Sophomore Eagle Pat Capps jumped his personal best in Saturday's regional track meet in Stephenville, and placed second to advance to the state track meet in Austin tomorrow and Saturday.

Capps made 6-4 on his third and final try at that height, and, according to coach Matt Robinson, barely missed on the winning height, but only Capps and the defending regional champion from Cisco made 6-4, with the Cisco thincad making 6-6 on his second jump. 6-3 was Capps' previous best, which he made at the district track meet in April.

Kevin Blankenship was the only other Eagle to make it into Saturday's finals, clocking the fourth-best preliminary time in the 110-meter high hurdles at 15.02, his personal best.

But in the finals, Blankenship hit the first three hurdles, and lost his balance completely after running into the fourth flight.

"The sprint relay team (Bruce Bynum, Blankenship, Mike Rathman and Mike A. Parker) took six-tenths of a second off their best time, but it still wasn't good enough to make the finals," Robinson said.

Robinson and Capps will travel to Austin today, and the sophomore is scheduled to compete in the University of Texas football stadium at 9:30 a.m. Saturday. The high jump pit is located on the north end of the football stadium.

Mrs. Lee Hicks 87 years young

Mrs. Lee Hicks celebrated her 87th birthday at the Community Center in Holliday.

The 32-year resident of Holliday was joined by her six children and approximately 50 guests.

Mrs. Hicks' children, who hosted the luncheon, are Odis Hicks (Indianapolis, Ok.), Leland Hicks of Roby, Leola Thomas of Graham, Billy Wayne Hicks of Altus, and Haps Hicks and Olene Bolin, both of Holliday.

Brad Thompson earns honor

Brad W. Thompson, Holliday High School junior, was named National Award Winner in leadership recently, according to an announcement by the school's guidance counselor Walter Lemons.

Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Floyd W. Thompson, received the award based on recommendations by teachers, coaches, counselors and other school sponsors. The United States Achievement Academy presents the awards annually to less than five-percent of the nation's high school seniors.

The Thompsons are former residents of Iowa Park.

LISA SEFCIK COMPETES IN TRIPLE JUMP
... in shadow of huge Memorial Stadium.

AT STATE MEET

Lisa Sefcik fails to place as national record is set

Say it was youth and inexperience; say it was the crowd and size of the competition area; say it was the order of competition and those competing.

Whatever it was, Iowa Park's Lisa Sefcik wasn't at all satisfied with her performance in the triple jump event Friday at the state track meet in Austin.

Only a sophomore, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sefcik still has two more years to compete and become use to the big crowd that lines the track at the huge Memorial Stadium of the University of Texas.

But she probably won't have to be competing with a national record-setter.

Sefcik's number was drawn to lead off the competition with seven other athletes. And right behind her was Terri Turner of New Caney, who established a state record last year that was farther than the recognized national record. . . and then beat it Friday.

The Iowa Parkers' jumps were 32-7/8, 32-3/4 and 31-6, in that order. She was well short of the personal best of 35-1/2 set in the district meet.

Turner's state record last year was 40-9/16. It was apparently not recognized as a national record because of the winds. The national record, according to the UIL program was 40-1/2, set in 1980 by Charlotte Reese of A.C. Flora High School in Columbia, S.C.

Officials didn't indicate any wind problem Friday, when Turner leaped 40-11/16. Second place went to Brenda Bailey of Friendswood, who jumped 38-8/16.

No Hawks at state

None of Iowa Park's three entries in the region one track and field meet Saturday at Odessa gained a berth in the state meet this weekend.

Senior Russ Hayley ran his career best in the high hurdles with a 15.18 clocking, but placed only sixth.

Steve Stewart, a junior, placed seventh in both the shot put (48-5) and discus (144-10).

Another junior, John Henderson, probably had his most disappointing performance in the 3200-meter run of the season. He was clocked in 11:17, well beyond his career best of 10:08. The event was won, as expected, by Burkburnett's Jimmy Phillips, and the second-place time was reportedly 10:07.

To qualify for the state meet, an athlete must place first or second in the regional.

Iowa Park has been represented at state the past five years.

FFA News

James Cowley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cowley, won first place in the area speaking contest Friday at Stephenville.

Cowley, a junior, is now qualified to compete against winners of the nine other areas in the state contest, which will be held in conjunction with the state FFA convention in July at Fort Worth.

Another honor went to Dana Hicks, who was named outstanding horticulture student in the area. As first vice president of the area, Hicks was also one of the officers in charge of arrangements for the area meeting.

Voting delegates to the meeting were Scott Young, Tracy Taylor and Misty Hicks. Also attending were Heath Bamber, Bobby Gilbert, Rowdy Robertson and Derrick Crumpton.

Crop, livestock report in works

The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service will begin interviewing Texas farmers and ranchers in mid-May on 1982 crop acreage and mid-year livestock inventories, State Statistician Doug Murfield has announced.

Training officer is Lions speaker

Ross Roberts, senior training advisor of USAF Technical School at Sheppard AFB, was the speaker for the Evening Lions Club meeting Tuesday. He was introduced by Phil Welch and discussed the training and educational programs offered at the base and its impact on the county.

He stated that Sheppard AFB is one of the most diversified of the technical training centers in the Air Training Command and in terms of graduate training it has led the way for the 18th year. When asked about the future of Sheppard AFB, Roberts said that he felt it was indefinite because much construction has just been completed and all of it is permanent structures.

As a reminder of what the base means to Iowa Park, he said that there were at least 125 civilian employee families and 34 military families from here involved.

Mrs. Otis Gay provided dinner music for the covered-dish meal.

Annual wheat tour of area set Monday

Don Decker
County Agent

The Annual Wheat Tour is scheduled to start with a breakfast at 7 a.m. Monday at the Lone Star Truck Stop between Wichita Falls and Iowa Park. The purpose of the tour is to keep wheat growers informed on wheat varieties, response from fertilization, results of fertilization methods, tillage effects, influence of planting techniques, and results of new wheat herbicides.

All wheat growers are invited according to Rex Wells, chairman of the sponsoring field crops committee. He says, "The tour will conclude in the Punkin Center area before noon."

Hosts for the breakfast include: Ralph Harvey of Texoma Agricultural Products, Gene Jordan of First Wichita National Bank, and David Kearney of Case Equipment

Company.

Ear tags treated with Ectrin did an excellent job in controlling flies and mosquitos for Jimmy Foster on his angus herd located in the Wichita Valley. Mosquitos are a major livestock pest in the Valley, and these ear tags are the only method which has given sustained mosquito control over a long period of time for Foster. He placed 1 Ectrin ear tag on each animal during June of last year and realized season-long control from this single treatment.
