

City calls special election Oct. 16

Next Wednesday is deadline for candidates to file

Iowa Park city officials received verbal notice late Tuesday that a special election could be held Oct. 16 to fill two vacancies on the city council.

Candidates for the election will have only until 5 p.m. Wednesday to file for a place on the ballot, according to Steve Morath, city administrator.

The vacancies were created by resignations of aldermen Bill Gilmore and Herman Mahler, leaving only Bud Thompson, George Hammonds and Johnny Coker to serve with mayor Charlie Lee.

Gilmore's resignation was made shortly before he began serving a three-year prison sentence after pleading guilty to a charge of mail fraud in federal court.

The resignation of Mahler came soon afterward and is believed to be a move which would force a called election.

There was no resistance to calling a special election, as far as the surviving members of the council were concerned. But a quirk in the state's election code not only caused the delay in setting a voting date, but could possibly have forced the council to continue operating short-handed until next April.

State law not only restricts the number of elections which can be held in a city, but specifies the months and dates they can be held, unless special permission is approved by the governor.

November is one of the months in which a special election can be held, normally. But since this is an even year, when a general election is to be held, law prohibits a city from holding a called vote during that month.

About four weeks ago the city formally sought permission to hold the special election. Through Roger Lee, city attorney, formal request was made to the governor to hold it. The request was forwarded to the Texas Election Bureau for its recommendation and that body's response was made Tuesday.

Lee was told a proclamation by the Bureau was forwarded to the governor for his signature and a written approval would be received by the city in the near future.

An order calling the election was signed yesterday by Coker, mayor pro tem, in the absence of the mayor, who is out of town, and was to be posted in various areas over the city.

Morath explained the shortness of the notice to potential candidates was due to requirements of the election code, which requires candidates to file within 30 days of the voting.

Immediately after the filing deadline, names are drawn for places on the ballot, the ballots are printed so absentee voting can be held.

Hawk-Rabbit clash tomorrow at Bowie

Fans who plan to attend tomorrow night's Hawk game at Bowie can plan on watching an aerial display... by the Jackrabbits.

Bowie put the ball in the air some 20 times against Jacksboro and picked up most of its 280 offensive yards on completions.

The Rabbits lost to tough Jacksboro, 13-7, but it wasn't because of their defense. The Tigers scored both their touchdowns on defense, blocking one punt and returning an intercepted pass.

At the same time, Iowa Park was earning its season opening victory at Breckenridge, against another team that figured to be good at the passing game.

The Hawks swamped the Buckaroos 28-7. And one of the keys was their pressure on Breck's bluechip quarterback Kyle Parker. The second-year starting signal caller completed only two of nine aerial attempts, and had two intercepted.

One of those interceptions was by safety John Henderson, who is "very doubtful" to play against Bowie. Henderson bruised a knee in last week's game. Swelling set in as the game progressed, and it reappeared during practice Tuesday. Coach David Baugh said yesterday he was doubtful whether the rangy senior would be able to see any action tomorrow.

It's been two years since the Hawks and Jackrabbits met. Iowa Park won 21-0 in their last contest, 1979. The year before that was Bowie's year, claiming a 20-6 win over the Mean Green.

Prior to that two-year non-conference meeting, the last time Iowa Park and Bowie played was in 1970, when, in a district game, the Hawks fought to hold down the score but still wound up winning 70-0.

Baugh said he was impressed with Bowie, eventhough the Jackrabbits lost to Jacksboro. He had scrimmaged the Tigers before the season began and said then the Jack County crew had an outstanding defense. Neither team scored in the scrimmage.

The fact that Bowie is a passing team is no surprise. That school has long had an outstanding basketball program, and passing the football would be a natural phase of the game to compliment basketball ability.

Kickoff at Jackrabbit Stadium is set for 8 p.m.

City, school meetings set

The city council and school board will hold their regularly-scheduled meetings next week.

Council members will meet at 7 p.m. Monday in council chambers, while trustees are to convene at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the administration building.

Two public hearings are on Monday's agenda, one on proposed uses of federal revenue sharing funds and the other will be the proposed 1982-83 budget.

Bids for grazing rights at Lake Buffalo, which had been readvertised after rejecting the lone bid received last month; and aldermen will consider approval of re-platting Parkside View Addition, on north Pacific.

Trustees will consider hiring an additional first grade teacher and discussing fund-raising projects and trips requested by student groups for the year.

HAWK SENIOR TAILBACK Kevin Parker scored the first touchdown of the season Friday night for Iowa Park, a one-yarder, in the first quarter. He later scored another, this time on a 41-yard scamper, as the Mean Green defeated Breckenridge 28-7 in the 1982 season opener. Iowa Park travels to Bowie Friday night for another non-conference contest.

Joy ride ends in jail for teenage Wichitan

A Wichita Falls teenager faces charges of auto theft and eluding officers, as result of his joy ride with a juvenile female here Friday night.

Micheal Scott Baker, who celebrated his 17th birthday Sept. 1, must now stand trial as an adult, while his female companion will be dealt with in juvenile court.

Officer Pat Hannah, shortly before midnight, stopped Baker on a traffic violation. As she approached the vehicle, the car sped away, showering her with gravel and dirt.

During the ensuing chase,

Hannah's patrol car brakes failed and the car wound up in a ditch. She was bruised, but otherwise unhurt. The vehicle suffered only minor damage.

Carl Davis stopped soon afterward and asked if he could assist in keeping the vehicle in view until the backup patrol car could arrive, and did.

Following the vehicle, at a high rate of speed, Davis had his red blinker lights flashing, which are used in his role as a volunteer fireman.

The backup patrol car containing officers Tommy Adams and Teresa Spruiell followed Davis' flashing lights out of town on the old highway and, as all three vehicles neared FM 369, Davis slowed and allowed the police unit to pass.

The youths leaped out of the vehicle as it neared the four-way-stop intersection, with the car still rolling, and attempted to run away afoot, according to the report. They were stopped however, by the police.

During the normal procedure of checking out the license on the vehicle, it was determined that the male driver did not match the age of the registered owner. The real owner was contacted by telephone at his Wichita Falls home, and it was not until then that he learned his vehicle was not still parked in his driveway.

Both were then taken before Justice of the Peace Virgil Hill, charged, and placed in county jail.

CAR VANDALIZED

In another incident, though police have a signed statement from a suspect admitting he slashed tires on a car owned by William E. Kent, no charges had been filed as of yesterday.

Cook of the Week

One of the greatest pleasures many people have enjoyed this summer has been the bountiful assortment of fresh garden vegetables, and now they are looking forward to the produce from the fall gardens. Unfortunately, sometimes the vegetable course is underrated and unplanned, and that does not have to be the case since there are many imaginative recipes that can brighten the taste buds and enhance appreciation of the vegetables.

Vegetables have family trees that go back to the dawn of history. Even before the Christian era, the Greeks and Romans were eating peas and spinach. Modern housewives have learned that certain seasonings and spices add special interest, color and taste to the edible plants of the vegetable kingdom.

Ann (Mrs. W.H.) Fulfer shares her Vegetable Medley with us today (one that is excellent for microwave cooking which she is "sold on"). She uses garlic powder (a by-product of garlic) and lemon pepper to give it extra zest.

One well-known gourmet has referred to garlic as a "necessary presence" in many of the most celebrated dishes in many parts of the world today. Garlic and its by-products have gained rapid flavor with people in the U.S. during the 20th century.

One encyclopedia says that it is of Asian origin; the U.S. Department of Agriculture says that it is a native of Asia. It was one of the most important vegetables in Greece, and was eaten there as a real vegetable in its own rights, not simply as seasoning. It was an important food of Egyptian pyramid builders. Magellan found it in the neighborhood of the Philippines, and it was probably brought to America from Europe.

Ann Fulfer is a native of Fort Worth and was graduated from Haltom High School there. She has lived in Iowa Park for 20 years. She drove one of the buses for the Iowa Park Independent School District for three years; worked at Cryovac for four and a half years, and is presently working part-time for the high school. She is a member of Grace Baptist Church and her hobbies include crocheting, embroidering, sewing and working with friends to make mums for homecoming activities.

Scivally, Copeland unite in ceremony held Saturday

The altar of Temple Baptist Church in Gainesville was illuminated with candles aglow in cathedral-type candelabra entwined with English ivy for the Saturday evening wedding ceremony uniting Miss Janet Lou Scivally and David Wayne Copeland. The decorations were completed with the addition of pot plants. Candles were lighted by Marty and Cindy Rowley of Amarillo.

Rev. Bob Rutherford, pastor of the church, and Rev. M.C. Schivally were the officiants for the double-ring service.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Scivally of Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Copeland of Iowa Park.

Wedding musicians were Miss Marilyn Bullard, organist, who presented the prelude selections and time-honored marches, and accompanied Mrs. Craig Carpenter, sister of the bride, and David Taylor for their vocal solos, the former singing "The Wedding Prayer" and the latter offering "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted and presented in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a candlelight silk Qiana gown. The bodice, overlaid with candlelight lace, was designed with a Queen Anne neckline, long full sleeves inset with wide lace that terminated in Queen Anne cuffs. The full skirt fell easily into a graceful chapel length train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was accented with a wide border of Chantilly lace, and she carried a complementary bouquet of white silk roses and carnations.

MRS. DAVID WAYNE COPELAND

For "something new," the bride wore a gold bracelet, a gift from the groom. An engagement ring that belonged to Mrs. Nellie Crampton, the groom's grandmother, was chosen for both "something old" and

"something borrowed," and she completed the rhyme with the "something blue" accessory.

The bride's cousin, three of her sisters, and a sister-in-law, composed her quintet of attendants. They wore full length peach taffeta dresses distinguished with matching lace overblouses and long full sleeves. The four flower girls were attired in long peach taffeta dresses patterned with puff sleeves and ruffled scoop necklines. Each carried a nosegay of peach silk carnations.

Miss Kristie Scivally of Yuba, Okla., cousin of the bride, participated in the wedding as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Craig Carpenter, Miss Suzy Scivally, both of Gainesville, Mrs. James Herman of Oklahoma City, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Dale Scivally of Marietta, Okla., her sister-in-law.

Flower girls were Shelly and Kellie Crampton of Holliday, cousins of the groom, Jamie and Lezli Herman of Oklahoma City, nieces of the bride.

The groom, ring bearer, male members of the wedding party and ushers wore brown tuxedos with formal length jackets, white shirts featuring front ruffles edged in peach, and brown bow ties.

Cleatius Dale Copeland of Burkburnett, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Chuck Bentley of Wichita Falls, Steve Sorey of Austin, Mike Cuba of Holliday and Phil Johnson of Iowa Park. Danny Scivally of Gainesville was ring bearer.

Ushers were Mark Copeland, brother of the groom, Frank Morris, the groom's cousin, Craig Carpenter and James Herman, brothers-in-law of the bride.

For the wedding, the bride's mother was gowned in peach chiffon and the groom's mother in beige silk.

The wedding reception was hosted by the bride's parents in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The tables were laid with white lace over peach satin and the three-tiered wedding cake was decorated in the colors that were emphasized in the bridal attendants' gowns.

The groom's parents gave the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at K-Bob's in Gainesville.

Grandparents of the bride and groom who attended as special guests were Mr. and Mrs. M.C. Scivally, Mr.

and Mrs. E.H. Langston, all of Marietta, Okla., Mrs. Nellie Crampton of Holliday and Mrs. Stella North of Iowa Park. Out-of-town guests were in attendance from Iowa Park, Holliday, Electra, Amarillo, Lubbock, Midland, El Paso, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Bowie and Wichita Falls.

Following a wedding trip to San Antonio and Salado, the couple will live in Midland. Both were graduated from Texas Tech Univ. School of Law in May. She was graduated from Gainesville High School. He was also graduated from Iowa Park High School and Midwestern State Univ.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Hamilton:

This is an open letter to parents of Iowa Park.

On the second day of school, my daughters (Kindergarten and First Grade) were waiting at the corner for the school bus. A woman, unknown to myself or my babysitter, stopped and offered them a ride, saying they had missed the bus. Fortunately, she did take them to school and all ended well.

So what harm has been done? Well, I have a wonderfully conscientious sitter who sends my children to the corner and keeps vigil on her porch until they are safely aboard the bus. She has other children in her care to whom she must also attend. Her back was turned one moment and the next my girls had disappeared. She was very worried that something had really happened to them. If they had really missed the bus, she would have been aware of that fact.

Parents, Iowa Park seems to be a wonderfully safe place to raise children. But I for one still intend to educate my children as to the facts of life. Anything can happen anywhere. Even in Iowa Park. My girls have been told in the past not to accept rides with strangers, but children this young do forget. They have been reminded again.

To the woman who offered them the ride: I realize that you must have felt you were doing a favor. I appreciate that fact, but in a way, it was not so much a favor. The next stranger with a friendly smile might not have the same good intentions that you had.

Sincerely,
Georgia Weston

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

I call 'em lost weekends. That's what I think about those federally-extended three-day weekends, since congress tagged just about every holiday on the calendar on a Monday.

Oh, sure, were I a salaried worker like most people, having an extended weekend would be great. But as a businessman, that extra day winds up a pain in the neck, back and etc.

And it's doubly difficult for a weekly newspaper that has a Thursday deadline.

There's just about zero we can get done on a Monday holiday. And the same goes for the Sunday and Saturday preceding it. There's even less that can be done on the Friday and Thursday before them, too.

So that, for all practical purposes, leaves us Tuesday and Wednesday... actually that should be Tuesday, Tuesday night, Wednesday and Wednesday night... to get the paper out.

Holidays are problems for just about any business, unless they cater to holiday traffic. The work that isn't done must somehow be done. The business that isn't done is lost, it doesn't get made up. And to top it off, the payroll goes on, for most businesses, and that means no income, but outgo (salaries and expenses) continue.

Let me hasten to say that I do enjoy the time off, as long as I can keep my mind off the business. I enjoy a day away from the office as much as anyone.

It's during this time of year, and the mid-winter period also, that bothers me. The holidays come so close that I begin to get bugged about them.

Maybe I wouldn't be so bothered if our elected officials would quit telling us what to do, when to do it and how it should be done. To set a holiday is one thing, but then to move it so it will attach itself to a weekend is too much.

Maybe I'll not think this way when Thanksgiving rolls around.

Oh, that's right. Thanksgiving is on a Thursday... isn't it?

Worth Quoting

Two Texas women in their mid-fifties went to New York this summer and while there, took in a Broadway play one night.

After the play, they tried for 30 minutes to get a cab to take them to their hotel less than three blocks away. Fearful because of all the stories they had heard about rapings, muggings, and killings on the streets of New York, the women were apprehensive about trying to walk back to their hotel.

Finally, they decided the only safe solution was to clasp their purses tightly to their chests and run the full distance to their hotel... and they did... and made the trip safely but out of breath.

Once inside the hotel, they walked to the elevator, entered, and breathed a tremendous sigh of relief as the elevator doors closed - but just before the doors banged shut, a huge, black arm shot through the narrow opening - and slowly forced the elevator doors apart.

In walked a big black man leading a huge black dog. The women almost fainted. They just knew a horrible fate awaited them - rape, mugging, or even death.

The elevator zoomed passed four floors. Suddenly, the black man commanded: "Sit". . . and both women immediately slid down the elevator wall to sit upon the floor.

At the sixth floor, the black man and his big dog got off the elevator - and the women breathed a prayer of deliverance.

The next morning when the pair went to the cashier at the front desk to pay out, they were informed that their bill had been paid in full.

"There's some mistake," they argued. "We haven't paid out!"

The clerk explained that the bill had been paid and handed them a receipt with a note attached. And the note explained all. It read:

"You ladies made my day last night!" And the note was signed, Reggie Jackson.

Pecan weevil problem arises

By Don D. Decker

The recent showers were ideal for giving good emergence of the pecan weevil, and control measures are recommended now. The rainfall moistened the soil, making it loose enough for the weevils to emerge. Luckily, the rains came at the same time that the nuts are susceptible to weevil damage.

Pecan kernels are developing from the water stage into the gel and soft dough stages. This is the stage female weevils deposit their eggs into the kernels. The spray program kills the weevils before egg deposits can be made. Bill Chitwood of Charlie says his pecans are just reaching the gel stage.

Both commercial and yard pecan tree growers are advised to spray pecan trees this weekend for the control of the pecan tree weevil. The first application is made now with a second treatment made 10 to 14 days later. The recommended chemical on this first spray is 50 percent Sevin at the rate of 2 1/2 pounds per 100 gallons of water, which figures two tablespoons per gallon.

On the second spray, Malathion or Zolone is added to the Sevin for the control of any black aphids which might be on the foliage of the trees. Malathion is probably a better selection. Jimmy Howell of Valley View reports poor control of black pecan aphids with Zolone. Fifty percent Malathion is used at the rate of three pints per 100 gallons of water or two tablespoons per gallon. Zolone is used at the rate of 1 1/2 pints per 100 gallons, which figures one tablespoon per gallon. The Sevin controls the weevils while the Malathion or Sevin knocks out aphids.

The pecan weevil is evident when pecans are found at harvest with no kernels and an exit hole is present in the shell about the size of a pencil lead. The weevil is very immobile, and the growers produce their own weevils. If a grower has never found weevil-damaged pecans under the trees, control measures are not needed.

There is still time for the fall preemerge herbicide and fertilizer application. The herbicide controls ryegrass and henbit seed as they germinate during the fall while the fertilizer provides for extra fall growth before going into the winter.

Ed Garnett, district Extension director from Vernon, has already treated his lawn with Balan for grass and weed control. He also applied a fertilizer high in nitrogen, low in phosphorus, and medium in potassium.

Even if you're unhandy, you can do something to help hold down electric bills.

Save energy and money at home by learning how to insulate, caulk and weatherstrip — it's easy when you know how. Just call us, or ask for our "Unhandy Person's Guides" on the comments portion of your bill.

It's important to learn ways to conserve energy, especially since we're having to pay more for fuels to make your electricity — partly because another of our contracts for low-cost natural gas has expired, but mainly because the price of all fuel continues to rise.

You can conserve and help hold down your bill by using the "Unhandy Person's Guides" from Texas Electric.

Strake Talk

PROPERTY TAXES—
GOOD INTENTIONS AREN'T ENOUGH

I want to talk this week about taxes and good intentions.

As I travel around Texas, I notice that what's known as the Peveto Bill is the subject of much talk and controversy. This bill, named after state representative Wayne Peveto, is a tax reform law: legislation of the best intention.

The law was designed to end confusion and unfairness in the way property taxes were assessed. Property was often on different tax rolls at different values. Older properties went years, sometimes decades, without being revalued or updated. New construction and newly sold property was on the rolls at more correct values and so people who owned it paid a higher share of taxes. Some property was simply left off the rolls entirely. The system was confusing and inequitable.

In an attempt to correct these problems, the Peveto Bill created property tax appraisal boards for each Texas county. These boards were charged with the responsibility of setting all property at its full value—as residential or commercial property or as land used for agricultural purposes. Taxes could then be levied on this accurately assessed property according to the needs of the taxing entities.

It sounded good, but it hasn't worked. The biggest problem is that the people on the appraisal boards are appointed, not elected. They are not accountable to the taxpayers. So now we have a new, faceless bureaucracy to deal with. It amounts to taxation without representation.

My opponent has been on both sides of this issue, first supporting the bill in the legislature—then doing an about-face and calling it bad legislation after it was passed.

The Peveto Bill, though well-intentioned, has created problems which must be dealt with in the next legislature and as your next Lt. Governor, I will do just that. If you have any thoughts on this subject, please write me at 1213 W. 34th, Austin, 78705.

Texas Farm Bureau president to speak

The Wichita County Farm Bureau annual meeting will be held Saturday, Sept. 25, at the Iowa Park High School Cafeteria, beginning with dinner at 7 p.m., according to Fred Dwyer, county president.

There is no charge for the meal. However, those planning to attend should call the Farm Bureau Office for reservations before Sept. 22.

The purpose of this meeting is to exchange ideas on policies to be adopted for the next year, to debate these proposals, and then to vote on them. Officers and directors will be elected.

All members are invited to attend the meeting, but only agricultural producers may vote or be elected to an office, according to county by-laws.

County policies will be made from adopted resolutions concerning local matters. Other accepted proposals will advance to the state convention as recommendations for policies on the state and national levels.

Texas Farm Bureau President Carrol G. Chaloupka will be the guest speaker. Chaloupka, a livestock and grain producer from Dalhart, was elected president in 1974 and was named to the American Farm Bureau Federation of Directors in 1977.

He has been active in Farm Bureau for several years, serving three years as president of Hartley County Farm Bureau. In 1969, he was elected Texas state director from District One. He was later chosen secretary-treasurer the following year, and in 1972, he was elected vice president.

Season looks bright as Hawks win opener

If Friday night's season opener was any indication of the season to come, you can mark Iowa Park's Hawks down as winners.

The 28-7 victory over Breckenridge was the first season-opener win for the Hawks since 1979. And they went on to post their first winning season that year since 1974, with a 6-3-1 record.

In a season-opener, the natural question is: was Iowa Park that good or was Breckenridge that poor? And the answer is a little of both.

There is no question that the Buckaroos are not the class team of the past couple of seasons. But the Hawks showed more balance and overall ability than the clubs of 1980 and '81.

Friday's loss was the first regular season defeat suffered by the Buckaroos on their home field since their 0-7 loss to Stephenville Sept. 22, 1978. They posted a 20-6 opener loss over the Hawks in 1980 at home, and last year humbled the Mean Green 19-0 before the Hawks' home crowd.

Iowa Park's balance was evident when four backs figured in the scoring and three of them wound up the night with net gains rushing ranging between 74 and 89 yards.

Senior tailback Kevin Parker scored the first TD of the season for Iowa Park, in the third quarter, and romped 41 yards in the final period for his second of the evening. He wound up the victors' leading rusher with 89 yards on 19 carries.

Senior fullback Paul Rogers scored in the second quarter, on a one-yard plunge, and finished with 84 yards as result of 16 times with the ball.

Greg Untalon, the 210-pound junior who alternates with Parker at tailback and doubles as a defensive lineman, scored on a 45-yarder in the fourth period. That long scamper helped him average over eight yards for the evening, carrying 74 yards on the nine times his number was called.

Wayne Hodges was perfection as the point-after kicker, splitting the uprights on all four attempts, eventhough a lineman got his hand on the last boot and it still scored.

Hodges, a senior, showed the importance of depth at the quarterback position. Starting as a wide receiver, he took over the signal calling in the last period when Marc Klinkerman was sidelined with muscle cramps, and engineered the last two scores.

Klinkerman, also a senior, connected on all five of his pass attempts. Four of them were good for 33 yards, but the fifth and final aerial was snatched by the wrong green uniform, a Buckaroo, for an interception.

The Hawk defense gave bluechipper quarterback Kyle Parker fits all night, allowing the second-year starter only two pass completions of nine attempts. Two of them were interceptions, by John Henderson and Bryan Fulfer.

If Breckenridge has an outstanding player, it would have to be Ronnie Mercer, who was outstanding on defense and the 'Roos leading carrier with 114 yards on 12 carries. He scored Breckenridge's only touchdown, a spectacular 69-yarder straight up the middle of the Hawk defense.

Hawk defenders held their hosts to only 47 total yards and three first downs in the entire first half. Eight plays wound up in losses, amounting to 48 minus yards, and two fumbles were covered by Iowa Park, Don Sidlauskas and Frank Johnson.

Alternate fullback, Mac Weaver, is apparently Iowa Park's designated diver. On three different occasions during the game, he picked up the yards needed for a first down by diving over the defensive line. On his 10 carries, he finished with 34 yards.

The Hawks actually should have led 28-0 when they left the field at halftime.

On their second possession, the Hawks drove to the 'Roo 15 yard line before a third-down penalty helped kill their drive.

Another penalty killed a scoring opportunity late in the second period.

Klinkerman rolled out 38 yards to the hosts' two yard line, but a clipping penalty took the ball back to the 45 and, on fourth down, Iowa Park opted to punt the ball away.

The Hawks so controlled the game, they got off 72 plays from scrimmage to Breckenridge's 49.

Breckenridge never had good field position. One of the reasons was the two punts by Weaver and the other was the Hawk defense and specialty teams.

Weaver's punt, 29 yards, was whistled dead on the Breckenridge 16 yard line and the other, 26 yards, on the nine. No attempt was made to return either.

School sets 50-cent rate

Holiday School Board last Thursday set the tax rate at 50-cents per $100 valuation, in a special called meeting.

The rate is an increase of eight-percent, calling for 41-cents per $100 valuation for maintenance and operation and nine-cents per $100 for the interest and sinking funds.

Trustees held a public hearing on the increase a week prior to the called meeting, and only a small attendance was noted.

During that meeting, tax Assessor collector Louis Hodge explained the increase in the tax rate stemmed from a projected loss of over $200,000 in tax money this year due to homestead and agriculture-related exemptions.

District opener tomorrow night

Tomorrow night signals the beginning of District 11-AA play. What? So soon?

Instead of the traditional two or three non-conference games preceding district play, Holliday will take on Nocona's Indians to start district play. The reason: the addition of three new district foes (minus Millsap).

And, for a district opener, this ought to be an eye-opener. Despite losing last week to Muenster, the Indians are expected to be the darkhorse among darkhorses in the district, with 13 returning starters among 17 returning lettermen, including two all-district players.

The Indian offense centers around quarterback Ronnie Uselton with B.J.

Hancock at tailback, junior Wesley Keck at fullback and senior Mark Hager as the power back.

Uselton will be throwing, and often, to veteran ends Billy McChesney and Mark Henry, as well as Weaver.

Gametime is at 8.

Gas rate increase okayed; seek Daume's intentions

Holiday City Council, with mayor pro-tem Jim Virdell at the helm, okayed a rate increase request by Lone Star Gas Co. and agreed to submit a letter to alderman Fred Daume Jr., requesting his intentions at whether or not he will continue as a member.

Lone Star Gas representatives Buford Wright of Holliday and Wayne Bolan appeared before the council seeking a response from aldermen on the rate increase request. According to figures supplied by the two, rates for the average consumer in Holliday will increase from $27.27 to $31.31 in the summer, and from $46.61 to $51.68 in the winter months.

"We understand the impact of a rate increase on the customer, and we try to keep this in mind when setting the rates," Bolan said. He added that the increase stemmed from the current economic situation, including interest rates and the price of fuel.

Aldermen John Goforth and Jimmy Willis voted for the proposal, while alderman Leon Addison voted against it. Virdell abstained. Mayor Cook was not in attendance.

After a short executive session, council returned to open session to say they had agreed to have Mayor James Cook submit a letter to Daume in regards to his absenteeism and intentions. Daume walked out of the council meeting Aug. 9th, reportedly saying, "You can take my name off the list, I resign."

Council had been discussing drawing up an itinerant vendor ordinance at that meeting, at the request of Daume, when a disagreement arose as to who would author it.

At the meeting Monday, council set a fee of $5 for itinerant vendors, in addition to registering at city hall. A rough draft of a vendor ordinance will be presented to the council at the next meeting, with action on it expected at that time.

In other business, council renewed the solid waste disposal sight operator's contract with Pete Snyder, excluding the portion of the contract that allowed Snyder to close the city dump on the Monday following a holiday that falls on a weekend.

JUDY LIGGETT
and
HOWARD LANE

Couple sets wedding date

The Church of God will be the setting for a Nov. 6 wedding for the exchange of vows by Miss Judy Kay Liggett, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Liggett, and Howard Paul Lane II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lane.

The bride-to-be was graduated from Wichita Falls High School and Bryan Institute in Tulsa, Okla. She is employed as a dental assistant by Dr. James Brosch. Her fiancé, who works for Burcamp Steel Co., was graduated from Iowa Park High School and Texas State Technical Institute at Waco.

Showers fete bride elect

An apricot and maize color scheme was tastefully carried out and imparted interesting distinction to the setting for two prenuptial courtesies extended recently to Miss Gaye Williams, bride-elect of Marlo Fitzgerald.

The first courtesy was a lingerie shower given by Mrs. William Mattis and her daughter, Kathryn. Guests were served refreshments from a table covered with white linen and appointed with decorations in the appealing colors.

The second courtesy was a miscellaneous shower given in the Fellowship Hall of First Christian Church. Hostesses were Meses. William Andersen, Earl Watson, Rollins Woodall, Pauline Steele, Sammy Henderson, Johnny Cole, Rollin Roberts and Faye McAllister.

Guests signed the bride's book at a table laid with white lace over maize linen featuring the couple's framed wedding invitation on an easel, the book and pen.

The honoree sat at a table before the fireplace covered with white linen to open her gifts for display. Seated with her were her mother, Mrs. Wiley Williams, her sister, Mrs. Eric Jones, the future groom's mother, Mrs. Elcia Fitzgerald of Arlington, and Miss Kathryn Mattis.

White lace over maize satin was the chosen cover for the refreshment table that stressed the honoree's colors in a centerpiece of delicate silk flowers and candles arranged in a lotus-shaped silver bowl. Silver and crystal services added bits of interest to the decor.

The betrothed couple will recite their matrimonial lines Saturday evening at First Christian Church under the direction of Rev. Dale Walling, pastor.

Sharing is topic

The United Methodist Women met in fellowship groups Tuesday morning. Members of Mary Fellowship met with Mrs. James Owens who presented the program on "Gifts to Share: Persons with Handicapping Conditions." She was assisted by Mrs. Larry Parks and Mrs. Eldon Thompson. Thirteen were present.

Mrs. Don Beals was hostess for the Ruth Fellowship, and Mrs. C.L. Thompson was leader for the program entitled "Strangers and Sojourners with Me." Eight members and a new member, Mrs. J.F. Gossett, were present.

The Rebecca Fellowship met in the home of Mrs. Gene Owens for a program presented by Mrs. George Trammell on "Fairness and Justice: A Christian Viewpoint." She emphasized that the purpose of Christian theologizing is to aid people who seek an understanding of their faith, worship and celebration. Eight members were present.

Williamson wins in national event

Joe Howard Williamson, an Iowa Park horseman and his horse, Mr. Winters, captured the Reserve National Show Championship in senior calf roping at the American Paint Horse Association's 19th Annual National Championship Show. It was held July 26-31 at Oklahoma State Fair Park in Oklahoma City.

1983-crop wheat. All-Risk Crop Insurance Field Operations Director F.W. "Ted" Crouch, Jr. says that a list of local agents who offer the insurance can be obtained by contacting the county ASCS office.

Crouch says that the number of applications received to date and the interest expressed by wheat growers suggests that the amount of insurance in force will be a record high. "One major reason," Crouch notes, "is the continuing increase in crop production costs. Many wheat growers simply do not have the necessary cash reserves or additional borrowing capability to take a chance on losing the money that they will have invested in their crops."

"Another reason," the insurance official contends, "is the reduced cost of purchasing insurance." The federal government, in an effort to encourage participation in the program, pays up to 30 percent of the cost of the protection. Anticipated sign-ups also is expected to be higher because a growing number of lenders are requiring or suggesting that borrowers carry at least enough coverage to provide for repayment of production loans.

Organizations to begin new year

A kick-off carnival will be held at First Baptist Church Monday between 3:45 and 4:45 p.m. to get the Girls in Action, Royal Ambassadors and Mission Friends organizations started for the new year. Children from three years of age through the sixth grade are eligible to belong to the organizations and are invited to attend.

The event will be a carnival of fun including booths, games, clowns, balloons, food and games.
