

CHIEF BILLY HAMILTON GETS EMERGENCY CARE
... after three-vehicle accident Sunday.

Iowa Parkan commits suicide; police chief injured responding

A 41-year-old Iowa Park man shot himself late Sunday afternoon, and the chief of police was involved in a three-vehicle accident as he attempted to reach the scene.

Eddie Sanders was found by his wife about 6:45 p.m. lying in his garage at 708 W. Texas. He died Monday morning in Bethania Hospital in Wichita Falls, from a gunshot in the right temple.

Mrs. Sanders told police she had been away from the home. She did not see her husband when she returned, but heard him gasping for breath, because the door between the garage and kitchen was open.

When Emergency Medical Technicians and police arrived, the overhead garage door was closed and tied down by an electric extension cord and had to be forced open.

Sanders, clad in athletic shorts and a t-shirt, was found lying on two rolls of carpet, his glasses and a .38 cal. revolver lying beside him.

A former employee of Barbour Trucking, he had been laid off and had worked for a while for Geer Trucking and recently was employed by Preston Dairy in Burkburnett, according to a neighbor.

The couple had lived at the home approximately two years.

ACCIDENT

Chief Billy Hamilton was driving north on Pacific to reach the scene when he was involved in an accident at the Bank Street Street intersection. The incident was investigated by the Department of Public Safety, a routine measure whenever a city police vehicle is involved in an accident.

As Hamilton approached the intersection, a pickup driven by John Declerico, 303 E. Bank, reportedly was stopped in the east bound lane of Bank and pulled into the intersection.

Though only paint was found on the front of Declerico's front bumper, the rear fender and bumper of the blue police cruiser was damaged. Impact sent the chief into a skid into the ditch.

As the police car returned to the pavement, it struck the left fender of another pickup, driven south on Pacific by Eddie Jones of 604 W. Cornelia. The impact spun the cruiser 180 degrees.

Hamilton was transported by ambulance to the hospital at Sheppard AFB, where he remained until release Wednesday morning. He suffered whip lash to his neck and multiple bruises over his body.

No estimate was available yesterday concerning the damage to the cruiser. It was at the same intersection about three weeks earlier the same cruiser, driven by officer Pat Hannah, experienced brake failure and plunged nose-first into a deep ditch, injuring the officer.

A DPS spokesman said a charge would be filed against Declerico for "failure to yield right of way at an intersection."

Hawks, Huskies to battle Saturday in Wichita Falls

Very little publicity has to be published in order to get a large turnout for football games between Iowa Park and Hirschi.

Fans who like close, hard-fought football know that is what they can expect when the Hawks and Huskies hook up.

And that is exactly what happens at 8 p.m. Saturday in Wichita Falls Memorial Stadium.

Hirschi owns a 3-1 season record and the Huskies already have one victory in their quest for a third consecutive Dist. 3-AAAA championship.

They opened the season with a 20-15 decision over the Wichita Falls Coyotes and then shut out Lawton MacArthur 20-0. After a 19-14 setback at the hands of Rider High, Hirschi opened its district slate with a 10-2 win over Azle last weekend.

On the season, the Huskies are averaging 16 points per outing, considerably more than Coach Dub Largin expected after losing so many seniors to graduation last spring.

The nine-point average allowed by the Husky defense is to be expected, even against the larger schools on the non-conference schedule. Leading the Hirschi defense is 290-pound tackle Juan Castro and defensive back Ronie Wayne Smith, who led the team in interceptions last year and is on track again this season.

The Hawks, on the other hand, are 4-0, but their competition has been with smaller schools than the Huskies have played.

Not too many sports observers raised eyebrows after the Hawks defeated AAA schools Breckenridge (28-7), Bowie (28-0) and Electra (41-0). But when the Hawks opened district play Friday night with a 24-16 win, they caught some attention and gained respectability. The Rams have a good team, as do the previous three teams.

Mineral Wells was among the four teams picked by coaches in the district to finish at the top of the conference. The Hawks weren't.

Saturday, the Hawks will put their undefeated record on the line. This is the first year since 1973 they were 4-0, and they finished 8-2 that season.

Iowa Park and Hirschi have been playing each other since the Wichita Falls school began its junior varsity play the first year it was started.

Over the past 13 seasons, the Huskies have come out on the long end, winning eight, losing four and tying once against the Hawks. Six of those years, the Huskies have been in the large school division, with Old High and Rider.

With only the exception of the 1977 game, they've all been close. In fact, last year they tied 7-7. Twice, in 1976 and 1974, the games wound up with scores of 3-0, with each team splitting.

While the Huskies were in the large school division, Iowa Park lost in 1976 by a 3-0 decision. But two years prior to that, Daryl Frazier, who is now on the Hawk coaching staff, split the uprisings in Memorial Stadium for a similar scoring victory.

Coach David Baugh said his players were all in good condition, injury-wise, and would be ready for the game, which will be the only one played during the regular season on artificial surface.

Local man charged three counts of theft

A 31-year-old Iowa Parkan was arrested Thursday and remains in county jail in lieu of $15,000 bond on three charges of theft, according to Billy Hamilton, chief of police.

Ronald Lynn Meador, 309 W.

Pecan, was arrested while doing roofing work by Hamilton and officer Pat Hannah. He was taken before Justice of the Peace Virgil Hill, who set bonds of $5,000 on each charge.

The first charge was "burglary of a habitation," as a result of numerous tools taken from the Carl Davis home at 212 E. Bank.

"Theft over $200 and under $10,000" was charged against Meador in the case of several new vehicle tires reportedly taken from Woodbriar Apartment 705.

Numerous tools, 24 sets of battery cables and a television from Bryant Pump on Johnson Road resulted in a charge of "burglary of a building."

Hamilton said some of the items had been recovered that were not sold at such places as flea markets.

OTHER THEFTS

Two thefts were reported during the past week to the police department.

Bobby D. Greenroyd told police Friday that someone had entered his garage at 1306 Mary Dr. and taken a prop and battery valued at $356 off his boat.

Sometime since mid July, someone reportedly took from a garage at 400 W. Jefferson, two socket sets and two hydraulic jacks, according to Bob Walker. Value of the tools was set at $465.

Absentee voting ends Tuesday

Absentee voting for the Oct. 16 special city alderman election will end at the close of business Tuesday, according to Ithama Jolley, absentee voting judge.

Fifteen ballots have already been cast and one still remained returned as of noon yesterday, she said.

One of the largest turnouts of voters in the city's history is expected to cast ballots to name two persons to serve unexpired alderman terms until the regular election in April.

The seats were vacated when Bill Gilmore and Herman Mahler resigned.

Voting will be at-large, with the two candidates receiving the greatest number of votes being declared winners.

Candidates, in order of appearance on the ballot, are Mark C. Wicks, Walter Donald Beeman, Carmen Lozipone, H.M. Mahler, Lita H. Watson, Herman L. Rains, Ken Thornton, Robert O. Harper, Timothy W. Hunter, George Van Dee, Charles A. Whittingstall and Johnny Crawford.

City, school meetings set

Both the city council and school board will hold regular meetings next week.

At 7 p.m. in council chambers, the city will consider two resolutions, amending the personnel policy and a request to purchase a backhoe.

One of the resolutions would suspend any action 120 days concerning a rate increase request by Lone Star Gas Co. The other would include the city secretary as one of the persons whose signature is accepted for signing checks.

Amendments for the personnel policy ordinance would include adding two more paid holidays, making a total of eight, which would be the Friday following Thanksgiving and Christmas Eve; providing for a maternity leave; establishing a formal grievance procedure; a uniform dress policy for the police department; and a personnel safety policy.

Aldermen will be asked permission to advertise for purchasing a backhoe with front-end loader for the street department.

School trustees will consider fund-raising projects requested by the high school band and choir, and also electing committees, such as the textbook committee and others.

BULLETIN

Alderman candidate George Van Dee informed the Leader late Wednesday afternoon he was withdrawing from the election. He gave personal reasons for withdrawing. His letter will be published in next week's issue.

MONDAY MORNING SUNRISE ILLUMINATES BLOWOUT SCENE
... tractor levels ground by Spruiell Drilling rig.

Well blowout costly to local drilling firm

The flaming blowout of an oil well near Duncan, Okla. Sunday had a direct and damaging effect on an Iowa Park firm.

Spruiell Drilling Co. was deepening a well for Mobil Oil when the blowout occurred, and the local firm lost its newest rig.

Spruiell Rig No. 4, which was completed and put into the field in early August, is a total loss. Approximately 18 months of planning and construction had gone into the $1.6-million rig which had been designed and customized by Spruiell Brothers, Dan, Glenn and Bill.

Not one person was injured or even suffered a blister, according to the crew.

The rig was set on the site 10 days earlier. It was deepening a hole a mile north of County Line, a small oil community 22 miles east of Duncan.

The equipment is covered by insurance, according to a company spokesman.

Operating at a depth of 3,100 feet enroute to 3,800 feet, the drilling crew encountered an extreme amount of gas pressure, which had not been expected.

The blowout preventer was in place and held the pressure, but mud began to seep through seals. An official from Mobil instructed the crew to open a valve to release some of the pressure, after calling Halliburton for a load of weighted mud.

When the valve was opened, the extreme pressure began to whip the line back and forth. It apparently struck part of the structure, and the spark ignited the spewing gas.

No one can explain the presence of the gas. There is a deep well in the general vicinity, and one theory is it has a leak and the gas reached the more shallow hole site through a porous formation.

The blowout took place about noon, and the firefighting firm of Boots and Coots arrived on the scene about 10 p.m. By daybreak Monday, some 20 frac tanks were on site, the area had been bladed and leveled by four tractors and crews were hooking the tanks to water pumps. Later in the morning more crews arrived to weld together heat shields.

Approximately 10 a.m. Tuesday, pouring thousands of gallons of water and foam on the flame, the fire was extinguished.

The remains of the rig and pipe were still over the well and could not be moved because the collars and bit were still in the hole.

Attempts were being made yesterday to inject mud into the hole to shut off the spewing gas.

No one on the scene would make an estimation of how many thousands of cubic feet of natural gas was spewing from the hole.

Brown, Bartow nuptial vows are exchanged Saturday

A brass arch laced with white-blossomed baby's breath flanked by votive candle trees traced with the flowering vine formed a center of interest that was keynoted by beautiful simplicity for a formal marriage performed Saturday evening at First Baptist Church.

The altar was approached along an aisle reflecting some of the glory of autumn in the bride's chosen colors of rust, candlelight and peach in the satin pew bows, silk roses and baby's breath.

Miss Mary Suzan Brown and Lowery Matthew Bartow, prominent young people of the community, were the principals in the double-ring nuptial service, reciting their significant lines under the direction of Rev. Howell Farnsworth, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Brown, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Betty Bartow and William A. Bartow, all of Iowa Park.

The impressive wedding music was an important part of the service. Mrs. Weicel Jones of Wichita Falls, aunt of the bride, provided the organ music, playing for pre-nuptial selections "We've Only Just Begun," "Colour My World," "You Are So Beautiful," "If," "My Sweet Lady," and "I Won't Live a Day Without You." She accompanied Mrs. Larry Thompson for two vocal solos, singing "Always and Forever" just after the mothers were ushered and seated, and "Endless Love" just prior to the couple plighting their troth one to another.

Mrs. Jones heralded the approach of the bridal party with the traditional processional, continuing to play until each had entered the nuptial space, then swelled the strains to signal the entrance of the bride being escorted by her father, who walked with her to the altar and presented her in marriage for her parents. She concluded her offerings with the traditional recessional.

As wedding guests got their first glimpse of the bride, she was glowing in a lovely formal gown that radiated her happiness on the day of her dreams. The gown, suited to the essence of beauty and taste, was of white silk organza over silk net enhanced with Chantilly lace. It was designed with a lace bodice generously sprinkled with pearls featuring a wedding band neckline and long cuffed organza sleeves. The lace was used to lavishly trim the sides, both front and back of the full skirt, then formed a deep hemline flounce that became a part of the chapel train.

She complemented her gown by wearing a sheer tulle waltz length veil with blusher secured to a Juliet cap of lace and pearls. Her cascade silk bouquet gave magnificent accent to her chosen color combination through rust, peach and candlelight roses, lilies, stephanotis, gypsophila, net accents and English ivy with matching trailing ribbons.

For "something old and borrowed", the bride wore a gold wedding ring on a chain about her neck that belonged to her grandmother, Mrs. Lula Jones of Wichita Falls. She chose her gown and garter for the "something new" and "something blue" accessories and wore the lucky sixpence in her shoe.

Mrs. Randy Brown, the bride's sister-in-law, the matron of honor, and Mrs. Randy Stewart, the bridesmaid, wore appealing rust satin gowns fashioned with elasticized waistlines and matching lace jackets with butterfly sleeves. They carried nosegays formed of the same flowers and accents in the bride's bouquet.

Matching the color of the bride's gown, the groom was attired in a white tuxedo with tails, pleated shirt and ascot and wore a single rust rusebud nestled in baby's breath for a boutonniere. The champagne tuxedos, shirts and ascots worn by the groom's attendants, ushers and fathers of the bride and groom afforded pleasing contrast to the white worn by the groom.

Tony Bartow of Lawton, Okla., served his brother as best man, and Paul Dunsmore of Electra was groomsman. Randy Brown and Scott Brown, brothers of the bride, ushered guests to their seats.

The bride said "I love you" with flowers to her mother and to the groom's mother as she presented them with long-stemmed rust silk roses at appropriate times during the service.

For the occasion, Mrs. Brown chose a beige Qiana gown featuring light beige long sleeves and matching tie and bow at the neckline and full skirt with which she wore a beige lace jacket for extra attraction. Mrs. Bartow was attired in a long salmon-colored Qiana gown designed with asymmetrical neckline, long sleeves and a pleated drape below the belted waistline at the front. Their corsages lent themselves to the flowers and colors highlighted in the bride's bouquet and attendant's nosegays.

Decorations for the postnuptial reception given by the bride's parents in the Fellowship Hall of the church reflected the beauty of the colors emphasized in the wedding on a grandiose scale.

The bride's table was draped to the floor with peach voile over matching brocade satin. Around the top of the cloth a drape was caught up at intervals with peach lilies of the valley. A large natural straw basket in the center held an imposing array of rust gladioli, pink, rust and candlelight roses, lilies, stephanotis and baby's breath and a scattering of white flowers to distinguish it from the other floral arrangements in the setting.

The three-tiered cake, decorated according to the mood of the occasion, was especially attractive with four bouquets of royal frosting flowers featuring candlelight roses, rust morning glories and peach azaleas gathered to peach net and dried baby's breath on each tier. Outstanding sculpturing, between the bouquets, reverse shell borders, a set of filigree dividers, rust ruffled net encircling the base combined to make the confection a thing of beauty.

The sentiment of the cake reached a peak in the top ornament, a bride and groom standing under an archway entwined with peach silk flowers behind a garden gate, which was the top piece for the bride's parents' wedding cake.

The table decor also included the crystal punch set and toasting glasses, candlelight napkins imprinted with "B-Suzan and Lowery" and mints in the same shade.

Mrs. Randy Lind of Pampa, Mrs. Kim Israel of Stephenville, and Mrs. Scott Brown, cousin and sister-in-law, respectively of the bride, served at the table.

The groom's table was covered with rust satin revealing a lace-bordered white crepe skirt. A natural straw basket in the center and flanking crystal cups held flowers in the colors chosen by the bride. The chocolate sheet cake was frosted with chocolate and decorated with two clusters of royal frosting flowers identical to those on the bride's cake and "Lowery and Suzan" in peach letters. The silver coffee service and mint-filled silver bowls added bits of interest. Misses Lisa and Loretta Bartow, sisters of the groom, presided at the table.

Guests took their white net rice bags from a large wicker basket accented with a peach-flowered handle and rust silk bow that was placed on a white lace-covered table by the groom's table.

Members of the houseparty were Mmes. Glen Miller, Gilbert Mueller, Jack Railsback, Charles Dixon, Clyde Patterson and Wayne Williams.

Mrs. Lind directed signatures of guests in the church foyer at a table covered with a tiered peach voile cloth appointed with a miniature arrangement of the flowers chosen for the wedding, and a white plume pen.

The groom's mother was hostess for the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at the church.

Following the reception, the newlyweds departed for their home at Cross Plains where the groom is employed as a coach and teacher in the school system. Both were graduated from Iowa Park High School. She attended Midwestern State Univ. and he received a B.A. degree from the university in May.

Out-of-town guests came for the wedding from Temple, Okla., Houston, Carrolton, Pampa, Winters, Stephenville and Wichita Falls.

Are you dropping your hard-earned bucks all along the highway?

Let's face it. With the cost of gasoline out of sight and at times hard to find as well, it makes better cents, and dollars too, to shop locally.

Driving all over the countryside just to save a few cents just doesn't make sense. The small amount of money you might save may be more than eaten up by the cost of gas. Shop locally, and save time, your energy, fuel and money.

UMW members conclude study

Mrs. S.B. Keeter gave the concluding study in "Singing the Lord's Song" by Bruce Burch for the United Methodist Women in their meeting held Tuesday morning.

In concluding, she stressed the last activity of the series of studies which included the different forms of servanthood for the Lord.

The speaker stated that the church serves as a servant of the Lord and its mission is to establish justice for the whole world. She observed that it is particularly identified with those who have no power by earthly standards.

Continuing, Mrs. Keeter said "The servant church must develop a willingness to fail. There is a tendency, however, for the church to undertake only those things in which it is confident of success. The church is hesitant to be despised and rejected."

She reminded her listeners that repentance, identity and vision have to do with the formation of a community of faith and point to the Christians' inner resources, and that these qualities create a harmony which enables the church to sing the Lord's song just as the prophet Isaiah sang it.

Mrs. George Trammell conducted a brief business meeting. Fourteen members were present.

Leeper-Valencia unite in double-ring ceremony

Miss Anita Kay Leeper became the bride of Leon Jerard Valencia Saturday evening in a double-ring ceremony officiated by Rev. Ken Cole at Faith Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of William T. Leeper of Iowa Park and the late Mrs. Leeper. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Valencia of Albuquerque, N.M.

After a trip to Eagle Nest, the couple will live at Los Lomas, N.M. The bride was graduated from Wichita Falls High School and attended Midwestern State Univ. She has been secretary of Single Adults at Faith Baptist Church and church choir soloist. She has been employed by the U.S. Air Force Regional Hospital at Sheppard Air Force Base.

The groom was graduated from a high school in Albuquerque and is a retired USAF master sergeant.

The nuptial scene was illuminated with tall candles burning in arch candelabra in the choir loft and pyramid candelabra in the center of the altar. Each holder was trimmed with magnolia greenery and baby's breath tied with royal blue ribbon bows. The unity candlestick decorated in the same fashion and two urns trimmed in a lace flounce and long sheer organza bishop-style sleeves cuffed in lace. The charm of the gown was accentuated in the full accordion pleated skirt with a hemline flounce that swirled into a chapel train.

On her head, she wore a Juliet cap of lace from which a two-tiered bridal illusion veil drifted to fingertip length. She carried a white Bible topped with a cascade bouquet composed of white silk roses and stephanotis, burgundy camellias, fresh American Beauty roses and gypsophila accented with white lace and ribbon streamers.

The bride wore her late mother's engagement ring for "something old"; a set of pearl earrings loaned to her by Mrs. Betty Merriman for "something borrowed"; attached to these were another set of drop pearl earrings for "something new." She wore an Indian head penny dated 1895 in her wedding slipper and the traditional "something blue" garter.

Mrs. Ruth Blizzard took part in the wedding as matron of honor. She was attired in a long blue floral print dress made with an elasticized ruffled scooped neck and short sleeves. A matching satin sash encircled the waistline and the full skirt was finished with a hemline flounce. Mrs. L.F. Balch, the bridesmaid, wore a long burgundy linen dress in identical style to the matron's gown except for long sleeves. Their nosegays of burgundy and blue silk roses were held by white lace fans with streamers to match the flowers.

Hope Gilmore, the flower girl, wore a long blue floral print dress with long sleeves. She carried flower petals in a white basket bedecked with a nosegay of blue and burgundy silk flowers.

Renee and Deidre Sadberry were candlelighters and they were attired in burgundy dotted swiss dresses.

S/Sgt. Steven Harris was the best man and Vernon Lewis was the groomsman. Robert Woods served as usher.

The bride's father gave the wedding reception in the church.

The refreshment table, covered with white lace over blue, was centered with single silver holders filled with white candles. The cake and crystal punch service marked the extremities. Mrs. Delaine Sadberry and Mrs. Max Solomon served refreshments during the reception.

The two-tiered cake was erected on burgundy foil encircled with burgundy and white ruffled net. Four cherub pillars that separated the tiers were trimmed with cascades of blue and burgundy frosting roses to match those that decorated the sides of the layers bordered with reverse shells. A kissing bride and groom standing under an arch trimmed with white net and roses was the romantic top ornament.

Mrs. E.M. Owen and Mrs. Earl Jones were in charge of securing signatures of guests at a table in the foyer that held a vase of white carnations and baby's breath tied with burgundy and white ribbons.

Bill Steger, tax collector-assessor for Iowa Park, was elected to serve the remaining two years of a three-year term on the board of directors of North Texas Easter Seal Rehabilitation Center, Wichita Falls, at the annual September meeting.

board; Rudy Miller, first vice president; Ron Longino, second vice president; Burl Kirkland, third vice president; Steve Lindemood, treasurer; and Mike Castles, secretary.

New board members elected to a one-year term are: Mary Jo Dudley, Gene Jordan, Joe Sherrill, Wichita Falls; Gary Ledyard, Archer City; Lewis Farmer, Olney.

Other board members elected to the remaining two years of a three-year term are: Gene Adams, Seymour; Herbie Adams, Electra; Dick Yeager, Vernon; James Easter Burkburnett; Jacque Allen, Graham; and Castles.

Board members rotating off the board are: Glenn Atchley, Olney; Ray Clymer, Ted Litteken, Joe Shaddock, Wichita Falls; Carlton McKinney, Archer City.

Steve Brown, Vernon, was elected to a three-year term.

A budget of $597,754 was approved for 1983. The amount compares to some $450,000 for the previous year.

The North Texas Rehab Center, located at 516 Denver, Wichita Falls, offers therapy to both children and adults with physical, speech-language, hearing problems, learning disabilities and to infants and young children with developmental delay. A total of 579 persons were served last year; 10,246 hours of service were given. The center also maintains a free orthopedic equipment loan service, has counseling for patients and their families and has information, referral and followup services.

Fees are on a sliding scale. The center is funded through private donations, fund-raising events, such as the Easter Seal Telethon, Crippled Children's Livestock Auction and the Texas Ranch Roundup.

Evaluation and therapy are given following a doctor's referral.

Parking zones posted at county courthouse

County Judge Tom Bacus announced that the county parking ordinance has now been fully implemented. All parking areas adjacent to the county courthouse have been posted with signs indicating the types of parking permitted.

The fine for violation of the ordinance is $5 increasing to a minimum of $10 for subsequent violations within 30 days.

Parking controls have been implemented in order to provide greater public access to county facilities. Persons reporting for jury duty will park in the large parking lot immediately north of the courthouse. Plans call for expansion of the lot within the next few months, Bacus said.

The east parking lot adjacent to Lamar Street contains some numbered parking which is reserved for official use only. The balance of that lot has been signed for one hour parking in order to provide ready public access to both the courthouse and the county annex building located one-half block east on Sixth Street.

All areas are patrolled and citations will be given to violators. Violations are class "C" misdemeanors and will be handled through the offices of Justices of the Peace Pee Wee Stewart and Arch Greenwood, located in the main courthouse.

Letter to the Editor

OPEN LETTER: TO THE CITIZENS OF IOWA PARK

With an annual operating budget approaching $2,000,000, I believe your city's business, if not the largest business in town, is certainly the most important. Every decision that is made by your Council affects to some degree, everyone in the community. The planning or lack of it, is what our community is going to be in the future and will affect both present and future generations. I care about Iowa Park and am concerned about its future. I urge each of you to become interested in your city's business, become involved, attend your Council meetings, research the issues, know your candidates, what they stand for, how they represent the best interests of the community as a whole, and exercise that precious privilege of a democracy, THE RIGHT TO VOTE.

Sincerely,
Johnny Crawford

New business opens; another to close

One new business opened its doors this week in Iowa Park, but another business announced intentions to close.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, who live on Huntington Lane, opened Smith X-Ray Co. at 108 W. Cash. They sell x-ray supplies and equipment to area doctor offices and hospitals.

Their location was formerly occupied by Soap Beauty Shop and prior to that Bates Barber Shop.

TG&Y announced it would close its Iowa Park store as of Oct. 30. It is located in Park West Shopping Center.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

If my hair was gray before this week, it should be snowy white now. Boy, are things moving at a mad pace.

The weekend wasn't too bad, trying to work on the statistics of our winning football team and getting in 18 holes of golf Saturday.

Then Sunday came around. Dolores fed 18 family members as we celebrated birthdays for Kevin and one of our grand'uns. It was all very enjoyable.

But late that afternoon it really hit. One man committed suicide with a hand gun and the police chief had a three-vehicle accident while responding to a call at the scene. Both events required photographs, partly for the paper and partly for official police reports.

After rushing around all that, the bed felt good, and still felt good at 1:30 a.m. when my friend, Dan Spruiell, called to tell me about the well blowout that ruined his new drilling rig in Oklahoma.

So at 4 a.m. I got up to go to the blowout site, shot pictures and watched all the activity, and was back at the office by 11:45, 197 miles later.

The balance of the day was routine. You might ask why all that is pressing to one who goes through similar routines with regularity. And you would be right, because it's really not all that much out of the routine of a community newspaperman.

But about all my waking moments, when not applying my trade, are taken with plans and trying to remember the operations of our newest gadget here at the office: our personal computer.

We have long wanted to improve our record-keeping operation, as well as the addressing of newspapers for our mail subscribers. Numerous meetings and conversations have convinced me that the computer is the only way to go.

But without the benefit of classroom instruction, and with all the interruptions of news events, trying to keep the operational methods of that computer fresh in my memory is a task I hadn't counted on.

Of course, my wife and youngest daughter, Kari, are to be the main operators. They're the brains and have received instructions. But publishers like to know the operation of any equipment in the office, and this one is really bugging me.

Anyway, with the patience of Terry Johnston, who is writing the program for the computer and also trying to teach me its operation, we should have you all on computer by next week's issue. Certainly by the week after that... if I don't blow the whole thing and wreck the computer's memory.

If keeping active is supposed to make you feel younger, a few weeks more like this one and I may try on a set of diapers!

No cuts to elderly from Social Security

Present recipients of Social Security old age assistance have no fear of funding cutbacks from the federal government, Cong. Jack Hightower said Tuesday.

Speaking to the Noon Lions Club, the elected official from Vernon admitted the Social Security fund was going into the red with "Constant increases in cost of living allowances and increased benefits."

He said other entitlements paid from the fund might be paid out of general revenue in the future, but he saw no change in old age assistance from the fund.

As to the federal deficit, Hightower said the only way to reduce it was to "reduce spending as much as possible and induce improvements in the economy as much as we can to increase government take."

The only other alternatives in cutting the deficit were to pass a "gigantic tax bill to cover the $110-billion deficit, but no one would stand for that," or to reduce spending in the amount of the budget.

Reducing spending sounds easy, he told the Lions. But to match the deficit would mean more reduction in the national defense and every area of government. This, he said would never be agreed by the people.

The economy is not going to jump back overnight, he pointed out.

Hightower's primary concern, in representing his district, is to get agriculture back on a sound level. He suggested reducing imports of foods as well as convincing other nations, such as Japan, to open its ports to more shipments of food stuffs from the U.S.

Eagles shut out Cubs, 16-0

Holliday's Eagles turned in their finest performance of the year last Friday night in Olney, in a physical contest won by Holliday 16-0.

The win opens things up in the tight District 11-AA race, with Holliday now on top with a 4-0 district record, while Olney drops to 3-1, 4-1 for the season.

While the Cubs can exploit the fact their premier rusher, Blanford Paul, was playing with a huge cast on his right hand thanks to an injury suffered the preceding Wednesday before the game, the Eagles had more to do with Olney's plight.

game came with 2:40 left in the first half, the same time the Cubs crossed the 50-yard line into Eagle territory for the first and final time.

The Eagle defense dominated the line of scrimmage and closed the gaps on the outside, holding the Cubs to five first downs for the night, and a total of 18 yards rushing. In addition, Holliday pounced on two Olney fumbles, and Mike A. Parker recorded an interception. The Eagles, on the other hand, punted a total of three times, giving the ball over to the host team on downs four times.

The entire Eagle defense should be praised for their job, but senior defensive end Kevin Blankenship stands out more than anyone, sacking quarterback Steve Ashton three times in tense situations, and ruining Olney's timing on its option plays to the right side.

THE GAME

Olney tried to master the Eagles defensively, and, discounting two obvious errors in judgment, the strategy almost paid off.

But the two mistakes, one leading to Holliday's initial score, went as follows:

1) Since Holliday won the toss of the coin and elected to receive the kickoff, Olney had the option going into the third period. The Cubs, wanting the advantage of a strong southerly wind, elected to kick off to the Eagles. Holliday mounted a 71-yard drive following the kickoff for the first score of the game;

2) Holliday had driven down to the Cub 43 but stalled, and A. Parker's punt sailed into the endzone, which would have placed the ball at the 20. However, the Eagles were called offsides, and the Cubs elected to force Holliday to punt once again, this time from the 48. A Parker lofted a 44-yard punt to the Cub four yard line, placing the Cubs in a hole.

Holliday's first drive for a score took 12 plays to cover the 71 yards. Eleven and 14-yard runs by Brad Harmon and Jeff Belcher, respectively, aided in keeping the drive alive. Harmon took over from the Cub 12, tightroping the left sidelines for a touchdown. Holliday elected to go for the two-point conversion, and Harmon broke through the right side for the necessary three yards. With 6:06 left in the third period, Holliday led 8-0.

Blankenship was the hero once again in the middle of the fourth quarter, recovering a fumble on the Cub 30. Belcher, who tallied 121 yards in 17 rushes to lead all runners, was called on twice, and made the 30 yards on runs of 13 and 17 yards. Harmon was called on once again to carry on the two point conversion, which opened the game up at 16-0 with six minutes left in the game.

25 singers All-District

Twenty-five students of the Iowa Park High School A Cappella Choir were selected for All-District during tryouts held Saturday.

Birk Circle meets

Miss Titia Belle Blanks taught the Bible lesson for a meeting of the Lucy Birk Circle of First Presbyterian Church in a meeting held Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Lois Holloway.

She explained that the study for the year would have two purposes: to study the entire book of Colossians where God speaks forcefully concerning ways of living; and to give serious consideration to peace making as the urgent task for the church in today's world.

Miss Blanks said "Throughout Paul's writings, he stresses grace and peace, emphasizing that grace expresses the basis of salvation and peace describes its content."

Those taking part in the discussion were Mmes. Gale Lowrance, Edna Lemond, Norman Nettleton and C.E. Birk.

Mrs. L. Shelton presided during the business that preceded the Bible lesson.

A salad luncheon was served at noon. The invocation was given by Rev. Nettleton.

Those selected were Georgia Alsop and Alisa Cain, soprano I; Paula Mashburn, soprano II, Becky Brown and Sonya Herrell, alto I; Lori Barr, Maureen Duffey, Cindy Harper, Jamie Padgett and Tammy Washburn, alto II; Robert Duboise, Scott Webb, Jay Yeakley, tenor I; Kevin Robnett, tenor II; Bryan Fowler and Craig Whisnand, bass I; Andy Anderson, Kyle Grove, Tim Norriss and Kent Roberts, bass II.

The alternates chosen were Phillip Clements, Melissa Hatcher, Lori Hutson, Leola Kent and Wes Toler. The students will audition for the All-Region Choir Oct. 30 at Abilene.

Hawks fight off Ram rally to take 24-16 loop victory

The Iowa Park Hawks stretched their 1982 season record to 4-0 here Friday night, and launched their drive toward a district championship by defeating Mineral Wells' Rams 24-16.

The win marks the first time since 1973 the Hawks have gone undefeated through the first four games of the season.

And though it appeared the Mean Green were going to run away with the Dist. 3-AAAA opener when they took an 18-0 lead with 2:29 remaining in the third quarter, they had to fight for their lives as the Rams mounted an offensive attack that pulled them to within a touchdown and two-point conversion from tying the score.

Two problems led to their concern: the Hawks couldn't score a point after touchdown and penalties kept killing drives.

Those touchdowns by the Rams broke a string of more than 12 quarters... 149.28 minutes of play, to be exact... in which the proud Hawk defense had held opponents out of their end zone.

The defense had not given up a point since 5:15 remained in the third quarter of the season opener against Breckenridge, but the Rams finally scored, three seconds deep in the fourth stanza Friday.

When they did score, stellar defensive tackle Greg Untalan was fuming on the sidelines. He had been ejected from the game with 1:34 remaining in the first half, for "striking a player in the back with his fists," according to a game official. The junior, who alternates at tailback on offense, denied the allegation and films of the game appear to support his claim.

Coach David Baugh pulled a little razzle dazzle play from his book to set up the initial touchdown of the game. Punter Mac Weaver took a snap from his own 40 yard line and, needing only a yard for a first down, ran for eight.

That kept alive a drive which had started on the Hawk 31.

After reaching the Ram 18, two setbacks put the Hawks back on the 27. Marc Klinkerman missed connection on one pass attempt, but found Lynn Fuller at the two on the next play. Paul Rogers pulled his way over the goal line two plays later to light up the scoreboard.

As the half was about to end, the Rams had advanced to the Hawk 28 where, needing only a yard for a first down, the Mean Green defense arose to the occasion and stopped the visiting runner short. They had only to pick up a first down to kill the 1:11 left on the clock, and did.

Fullback Rogers set up the second touchdown by covering the second half kickoff, bobbled by a Ram back. A face mask penalty took the ball to the visitors' 25, but a setback placed the Hawks on the 30.

On the next play, Klinkerman hit Wayne Hodges on the four yard line and he scored. Hodges, who alternates at quarterback, never had to break stride and reached up to full extension to bring down the ball.

Rogers capped a 42-yard, four-play drive with 2:29 left in the third stanza with a three-yard plunge. The three plays setting up the score were an eight-yarder by Fuller, 18-yarder by Weaver and one for 13 yards by Kevin Parker.

Mineral Wells finally got on the scoreboard early in the last period, thanks to the Ram passing game. One aerial covered 29 yards. A three-yard run for two points pulled the Rams to within 10, 18-8.

From there on in the game, whoever had the ball scored.

Iowa Park took the following kickoff and marched 70 yards in eight plays, with Klinkerman plunging over right guard the remaining one yard to score.

But the Rams then covered the 68 yards needed to paydirt in 11 plays, including two incompletions, and scored on a five-yard pass.

When the Rams scored their second two-point conversion, they pulled to within eight points, 24-16, with 4:23 remaining on the clock. That was plenty of time, supposedly, to get the ball back and make one more scoring attempt.

But the Hawks ran out the clock on nine plays, picking up three first downs enroute, to hold onto their victory.

Any one of their extra point attempts would have put the Hawks out of reach of Mineral Wells, had they been successful. But it was not to be.

Hodges' attempt after the initial touchdown was blocked. He tried another later in the game, but pulled it wide left of the uprights.

After the second touchdown, Klinkerman connected on a pass to Robbie Hausler for the conversion, but it was nullified by a motion penalty. Parker tried to run it in on the next play, but was cut down.

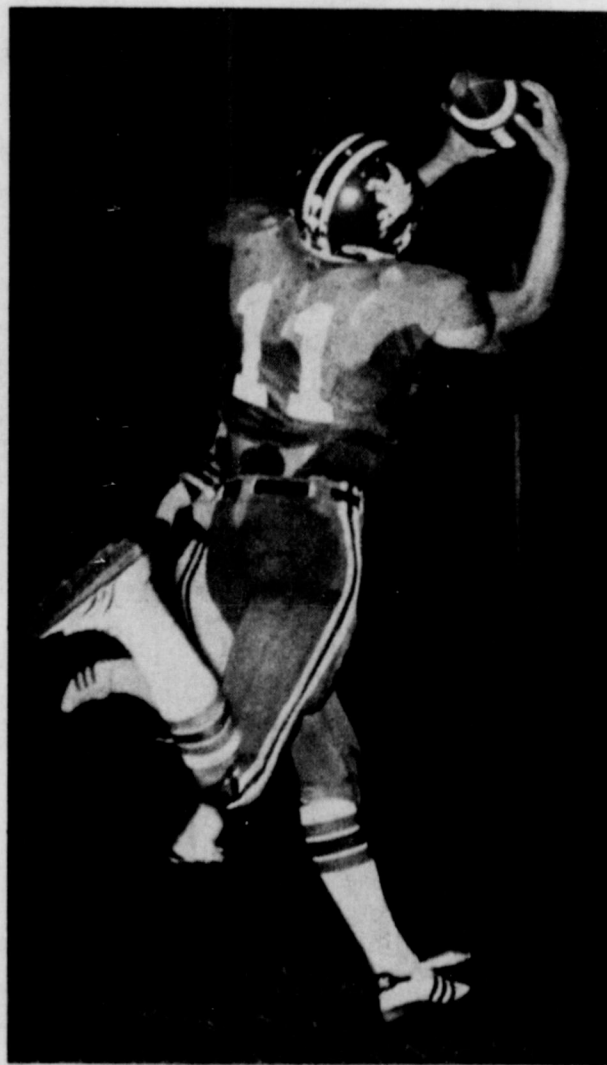

Klinkerman, after the last Hawk TD, faked holding for the extra point kicked and pitched the ball to Parker as he circled the area. But again he was cut down short of the goal line.

Yardage was evenly distributed among the five backs who carried during the game. Rogers gained 88 yards on 20 carries; Parker 42 on 16; Weaver 56 on five; Fuller 50 on four and Klinkerman 34 on five totes.

"Long" John Henderson intercepted one of Mineral Wells' 21 pass attempts and appeared to catch another, but it was disallowed.

Cook of the Week

It's fall and with it comes the romance of raising a garden, canning and preserving, which is as rewarding as the time spent raising and taking care of the spring garden.

Green Tomato Chow-Chow made with the tomatoes, vegetables, spices and vinegar is one of the most popular relishes associated with fall canning. It is a recipe that gives one a chance to enjoy the herb and spice shelf to the fullest.

Mrs. Chester Abernathy uses mustard seed, celery seed, turmeric and vinegar to add zest and flavor to her recipes.

Mustard seeds are the most important edible part of the plant, which is reputed to have been cultivated in much of Europe in the Stone Age, in the Glastonburg lakes of England before the Iron Age, and in pre-historic Gaul before the Roman era. It is said that ancient Egyptians, Romans and Hindus probably popped a few seeds in their mouths while chewing meat, so their value has been known for many centuries.

Celery seeds are among the smallest of the cultivated plants, and the aroma of the celery seed is that of vegetable. Celery seeds must be imported from India, France and Indonesia, and they are the fruit of wild celery or smallage. Celery is a native of Mediterranean areas and North East, and it was used as a flavoring by ancient Greeks and Romans.

Turmeric belongs to the ginger family and is grown in southern Asia. It has been used for hundreds of years as a spice. It is an important ingredient in curry powder and is used to color mustard.

The term vinegar, a flavoring and preservative agent, is applied to one of the most ancient of national fermentations known to man. Bible references to it can be found in the Book of Ruth and Proverbs, and it is said that Caesar's armies drank diluted vinegar.

Jo and Chester Abernathy and their daughters, Kelly, a graduate of Iowa Park High School, and Sara, a fifth grade student, have lived in Iowa Park for nine years. Retired from the U.S. Air Force, he is presently a teacher of diesel mechanics in Wichita Falls High School, and she works as a coordinator for Vernon Junior Regional College and Wichita Falls School System.

A graduate of Altus, Okla. High School, Mrs. Abernathy and her husband have lived in several cities in the U.S. since their marriage. They spent three years in Anchorage, Alaska, four years in England and three years in Germany.

By coincidence, Mrs. Abernathy was chosen for the Cook of the Week for the Oct. 7 issue, the date of the couple's 32nd wedding anniversary. She gets a great deal of pleasure out of being a homemaker, and she enjoys gardening, sewing and reading.

Sara participates in Bicycle Moto-Cross racing and is looking forward to participating in the Grand National contest in Oklahoma City in Nov. Her mother is her cheerleader and her father is the pit crew. The family are members of First United Methodist Church.

Eddie Sanders

Services for Eddie Sanders, 41, were Wednesday morning at Tanner-Aulds Funeral Home, with Rev. Leonard Schoppa, pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

Born March 17, 1941, in Saint Jo, he had been a resident of Iowa Park two and a half years. He was a truck driver and member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. He married Lorene Roth Jan. 24, 1975, in Iowa Park.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Michael of Bowie; a daughter, Lenita Sanders of Bowie; a sister, Sue Richardson of Duncanville; and his stepmother, Audrey Sanders of Bridgeport.

Pallbearers were Donnie Williams, Bill Moore, Moe Briey, James Payton, Richard Schroeder and Jack Witherspoon.

The family suggests that memorials may be made to the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

Loyd D. Cowden

Graveside services were Friday afternoon at West Bridgeport Cemetery for Loyd D. Cowden, 60, with Rev. Troy Cartmill, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating.

He was born Nov. 19, 1926, in Wichita Falls. He was a Methodist and a process operator for Mitchell Energy.

Survivors include three daughters, Arlene Farmer of Albany, Michele Mann of Decatur, and Gene Cowden of Bridgeport; a sister, Ruth Johnson of Holliday; and five grandchildren.

Louie Harold Lawson

Services for Louie Harold "Peewee" Lawson, 78, a former resident of Holliday, were held Monday at Hubbard-Kelly Funeral Home chapel in Odessa, with Rev. Jerry Thorp, pastor of Temple Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was at Sunset Memorial Gardens.

He was born July 20, 1904, in Corbon and married Susie Sadler on Nov. 5, 1937. He retired as a salesman from Odessa Industrial Casting Company, and he was a master Mason, a member of Scottish Rite and Shrine. He was a past patron of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Adrian Lee Preston

Services for Adrian Lee Preston, 60, of Holliday were held Friday morning at the First Baptist Church at Dundee, with Rev. John Jones officiating. He was born March 7, 1922 in Bunger.

He is survived by two sons, Jerry of Graham and Billy of Dundee; two daughters, Kaverne Kellogg of Henryetta, Okla. and Paula Preston of Dundee; three brothers, Earl of Keller, Granvil of Stratford and John Gilmore of Hereford; three sisters, Opal Mathews of Truth or Consequences, N.M., Betty Jo Hensley of Jacksboro and Ann Garrison of Dalhart; nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Elizabeth Gorman was unanimously appointed to fill the unexpired term of Place 2 alderman, vacated recently by Fred Daume, Jr., in one of several major topics tackled by Holliday City Council Monday night.

Mrs. Gorman, who has served as election judge for the city the past several years, will be sworn in at the next council meeting, Oct. 18.

She is the wife of the late C.Y. Gorman, and has been active in both civic and church affairs in Holliday, where she is a member of the First Baptist Church.

The nomination came after a 30-minute executive session by aldermen John Goforth, Jimmy Willis, Jim Virdell and Mayor James Cook. She was among 11 prospective nominees whose qualifications were discussed.

When the group returned into open session, and the floor opened for nominations, Virdell made the initial motion which Willis seconded.

COUNTY JAIL USE

Council voted to enter into a contract with Archer County for use of the county jail facilities, after learning county enforcement officials in the past had refused to accept some prisoners sentenced in Holliday Municipal Court.

The contract calls for Holliday to pay the county $15 per diem for each prisoner, and is effective for one year with a 30-day termination clause.

Council also voted to delete paragraph 4 of the contract, which stated the city would be accountable for medical expenses for a prisoner incurred while in the county jail. The motion came after an objection by city administrator Jim Hamill, who said the city would have no control over the prisoner while in jail, therefore the city should not be liable for medical expenses.

NORTEX GRANT

Council received a list of equipment to be purchased for the police department through a Nortex Regional Planning Commission grant in the amount of $4,500, or 75-percent of the total expenses.

Mayor Cook said Campbell will be in charge of the purchases, which include a scanner head, walkie-talkie, file cabinet, cassette recorder, instant camera, crime kit, film, binoculars, containers and a low-band radio. The total cost is $5,340.

Campbell will first get bids on the equipment, and, when the equipment is purchased, adequate information pertaining to each item will be sent to Nortex.

taxes by eight-percent.

The rate increase proposal will be voted on at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 18. Council held a public hearing Monday night at 6:30 to discuss the proposal, and under state law, had to schedule the vote at least two weeks after.

Supper, dance set Saturday

Holliday Lions Club and the Holliday High School cheerleaders are sponsoring a box supper followed by a dance beginning at 6 p.m. Saturday in the high school cafeteria.

Douglas Thomas, coordinator for the event, said Monday the public is invited, and proceeds will be split between the Lions Club and the cheerleaders.

The band "Southern Lights" will provide the music for the dance.

Jacksboro to invade Eagle land tomorrow

Holliday's Eagles, coming off an impressive 16-0 win over Olney, will try to make it 3-0 against the newcomers to Class AA tomorrow night when they host the Jacksboro Tigers.

The Eagles have beaten Henrietta (39-22) and Olney, both new to District 11-AA, and face an improving Tiger squad which is 1-1 in district, 2-2 for the season.

First year head coach Jim Norman's team has a host of talent, with seven returning starters out of 12 returning lettermen from a 5-5 season in District 9-AAA. Jacksboro wasted Petrolia two weeks ago 42-0, and topped off Chico 60-8 last Friday night.

Junior southpaw quarterback Rob Lane leads an experienced backfield which includes tailback Johnny Webb and sophomore fullback John Matlock.

Lane is considered a good option quarterback and can throw the ball, utilizing the skills of senior split end Troy Rhodes.

The Tiger line is anchored by all-state prospect Steve Simpson, returning tackle Lee Kirk and first-year tackle Steve Hestand.

The major weakness in the Tigers is depth, but thus far they have been able to avoid key injuries.

Holliday will be looking to strengthen its lead in District 11-AA, holding on to first place going into the fifth district game with a 4-0 record, 4-1 for the season. Last week's setback for Olney put them in second place along with Boyd, with each team meeting later this season in what could decide the district runnerup, which, for the first time ever, will advance to the state playoffs.

Gametime for the Eagle-Tiger bout is 8.

BID ACCEPTED

The low bid for movement of the eight-inch water main near Jeters on Seymour Highway was accepted, which Sur-Flo Utilities of Wichita Falls submitted for $4,680.

The main was found to be in the Texas Highway Department's right-of-way by state officials, and the city will pay for all costs. Another adjustment made recently, at Twin Bridges, was funded by both the state and city, with the state paying 90-percent.

In other action, council set the date for a vote of a proposal to raise city
