Vol. 14, No. 33 IOWA PARK, WICHITA COUNTY, TEXAS 76367 THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1983

Pat Hannah releases copy of resignation

Former Iowa Park Police Department officer Pat Hannah this week continues to deny allegations which led to her suspension from the force and states "I was framed."

She was suspended April 8 by Chief of Police Tom Fenley and April 19 submitted her resignation.

The city's first female officer, after serving 24 months in the department, said she has no future plans and admitted she did not know what she was going to do. "My future, at least in this part of the country, as a police officer is apparently ended," she said.

An agreement was reached at the time of her resignation that the city would pay her two weeks severance salary, plus an additional two weeks salary in return for promising she would not in the future attempt to bring any legal action against the municipality or city official.

Hannah released a copy to the Leader of her resignation, which states:

"On April 8, 1983, I was suspended without compensation by Tom Foley, (the correct name is Tom Fenley) Chief of Police for the City of Iowa Park, Texas.

"As reason for my suspension, it was alleged that I had acted in a manner inappropriate to my office as a police officer for the City of Iowa Park, Texas.

"I have categorically and emphatically denied the allegations made against me and, I do so today.

"I will readily admit that I have been a vocal member of the police department. I would not, I could not stand silently by and watch what was happening within the police department. Perhaps I was too outspoken, perhaps not, but I offer no apologies for my action.

"I am sure that I have detractors within the City of Iowa Park, and I know equally that I have supporters. "To my detractors, I say: that you have little of which to be satisfied. You have not harmed me nor will you ever hear me say that you have beaten me.

"To my supporters, I say: thank you for continuing to have faith and belief in me. I did the best that I could do.

"Since my suspension, I have been under great stress. My family has been subjected to the results of my situation.

"Therefore, in the interest of my family, myself, the police department, and the City of Iowa Park, I am, effective as of this date, resigning my position with the police department of the City of Iowa Park, Texas.

"I am hopeful that the problems within the department can be resolved so that no other officer is forced to endure that which I have endured.

Patricia Hannah"

LAST SLAB POURED- Workers pour the final section of concrete paving Tuesday morning on West Park, completing a project which replaced paving so warped some vehicles were dragging high center. The asphalt surface was removed and replaced by concrete because the latter was bid lower than asphalt.

Library progress rapid 'Friends' charter approved; fund balance climbs

Progress on the Tom Burnett Memorial Library has begun to take shape rapidly during the last two weeks.

Articles of incorporation of the "Iowa Park Friends of the Library" have already been approved in Austin, and $51,851.32 in cash and pledges have been received for renovation of the Burnett home.

Headed by a $10,000 pledge from Texas Electric Service Co., $18,646.32 was contributed April 17, during the open house and fund-raising program kickoff.

Members of the Friends of the Library are planning to put up a permanent plaque on which names of those who contribute $1,000 or more. Additionally, a book is planned to be kept in the library in which all memorials will be kept for a permanent record.

Estimated funds needed for the total renovation of the structure was set at $262,000. However, the initial phase of the project, which basically would be the first floor and bracing for use of the second floor, is estimated in the neighborhood of $90,000.

"We're well on our way after such a short time," Tim Hunter, finance committee chairman, said. He indicated several other large-dollar pledges are being discussed.

Persons wishing to make donations to the project can make checks payable to Friends of the Library, and mail them to Frances George, Box 72, or Tim Hunter, 1327 Westridge, both of Iowa Park.

Donors April 17 included Iowa Park Library Board, Texas Electric, 23 Study Club, Iowa Park Garden Club, Superfine Grocery, Marie Callan, Earle Denny, Mrs. D.H. Ford, Mrs. O.E. Lochridge, Iowa Park MuleSkinners, Mr. and Mrs. James Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. Louie McCarthy, H.O. Lochridge, Texoma Ag Products Inc., Billie Pierce, Lee H. Reed Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W.C. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Newhardt, Mrs. Sam Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Silvers, Lois A. Barnes, Mrs. Jewel B. Booher, Josephine Patterson, H.E. Farnsworth Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. William Fehr.

Paperwork for forming the non-profit organization was "walked" through the state capitol last week, saving an estimated three weeks in the process.

City Administrator James Barrington, in Austin on other business, reported to the city council that for an additional $10, the Secretary of State's office agreed to process the paperwork while he was there.

Listed in the initial document as directors are Tim Hunter, James Barrington, Frances George, Jane Owens and Linda Eseeu.

Listed as "incorporators" on the document were Jay A. Cantrell, Barrington and Roy T. Sparkman.

Tire slashings are continued, police report

More tire slashings in the same neighborhood as reported last week were received by the Iowa Park Police Department.

Tires on two vehicles were slashed about 10:52 p.m. Friday at 305 E. Lafayette. Three tires on a van owned by Jimmy Henson ($195 value) and one tire on an auto owned by William Kent ($100 value) were slashed.

As in one case reported a week earlier, two young males were seen running from the area by one vehicle owner.

Slashings were reported the previous week at 602 S. Park, 602 S. Bond and 811 S. Wall.

A heavy metal piece was reportedly thrown through a double-glass door and struck a desk, causing heavy damage, about 7:52 p.m. Wednesday of last week at 1609 Yucca. Loss of the door was set at $148 and an estimated $400 in damage was inflicted on the desk, according to the report filed by Sherwood McKinley.

Paul Curtis Rowe was reportedly uninjured, but his pickup sustained heavy damage to the front about 4:05 a.m. Sunday when he stopped too close to the railroad track on Yosemite and was struck by an east-bound Burlington Railroad train.

City council considers water request

The city council Monday evening discussed methods through which water service could be extended to Dennis Brooks' property west of the high school.

Monday's meeting was unusual, in that it took less than 27 minutes to complete the agenda.

Brooks' property lies between the Van Horn property and the creek. He explained he was unable to obtain an easement to lay his water line over the private property, and was looking to the city for an avenue along the state right of way along the expressway.

State policy prohibits granting easements to individuals for such projects to parallel state roadways, but municipalities can request and receive such easement.

Brooks asked that the city obtain the permission, and he will pay all expenses for the two-inch line, which will be metered at the city's edge in front of the high school. He also agreed he would be responsible for the line after it is laid.

Brooks also said he would not allow anyone to tap the line in the future.

City Administrator James Barrington was instructed by the council to have an agreement drafted by Jay Cantrell, city attorney, for approval at the next meeting.

Two resolutions were approved by the council.

One came after a required public hearing concerning use of federal revenue sharing funds to pay for the resurfacing project on West Park.

The other approved replating of lots on Coleman, changing the width of lots on the south side in Block B from 75 feet to 70.

Appointment of Charles R. Brown to replace Herman Escue on the planning and zoning commission was approved by council.

Three bids were submitted on a pickup being sold by the city, ranging from $150 to $339, with E.L. French making the highest offer. It was accepted.

Council members took official action to accept resignations of two police department personnel: officer Pat Hannah and radio dispatcher Linda Pendley. Replacement of Pendley by Rick Casper was approved.

Mayor Charlie Lee noted that information from the Texas Municipal League concerning legislation being considered in Austin was if the bill is approved intact, Iowa Park would receive $133,200 to repair potholes.

VOLUNTEERS SOUGHT

During the appointment to the planning and zoning commission, Alderman Bud Thompson made the observation that there likely are a lot of people in Iowa Park who would like to serve on similar groups, but don't know how to go about it.

He suggested publicity could be put out that if anyone would like to serve on such a body, he could contact the city hall and have his name put on a volunteers' list.

Mayor Lee agreed that would be a good idea, because his list of known volunteers was shrinking.

He added, however, that volunteers should be made to understand appointments are infrequent, and one's name might remain on the list several months before his name came up for consideration.

Developers reveal plans for new housing addition

Another indication that the national economic recession is winding down surfaced in Iowa Park this week, with the announcement of a new housing addition. An 11-acre tract on the east side of Lake Gordon will be developed as Lakeview Estates by Steve Porter and Robert Cook.

Eighteen lots will be developed, ranging in size from one-third to a full acre. Twelve lots will have single-family residences with a minimum square footage of 1,600, while six will require 2,000 square feet, and will overlook the lake.

Estimated completion of site work, which will include one entrance off Victoria and contain a cul de sac, is July 15. After that, a speculation home will be constructed by Steve Porter Real Estate and Construction Co.

Developers are to erect a privacy fence along U.S. 287 Access Road.

PARADING IS SERIOUS BUSINESS - The annual Iowa Park Little League parade marking the opening of another season was held Saturday morning in the downtown area, and the youngsters took it seriously. Besides all the teams marching, the parade was joined by groups from Sheppard AFB, Junior High Band and numerous youth groups including girls' softball clubs.

Miss Glenn is 'pounded'

Miss Celeste Glenn, who is engaged to Eric Olds, was feted at a novel "Kuntry Kitchen Pantry Pounding" Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Buster Reaves. Guests received their invitations written on paper bags, each sealed with a green frog, a reminder of "Before you find your prince, you have to kiss a lot of toads."

When guests registered with onion and corn pens, they placed their favorite recipes in a box hand-painted with red strawberries, the first hint of the strawberry theme that governed decorations.

The honoree was presented with a unique corsage created of miniature colorful cereal boxes, fruit and vegetable cans finished with strawberry designed streamers.

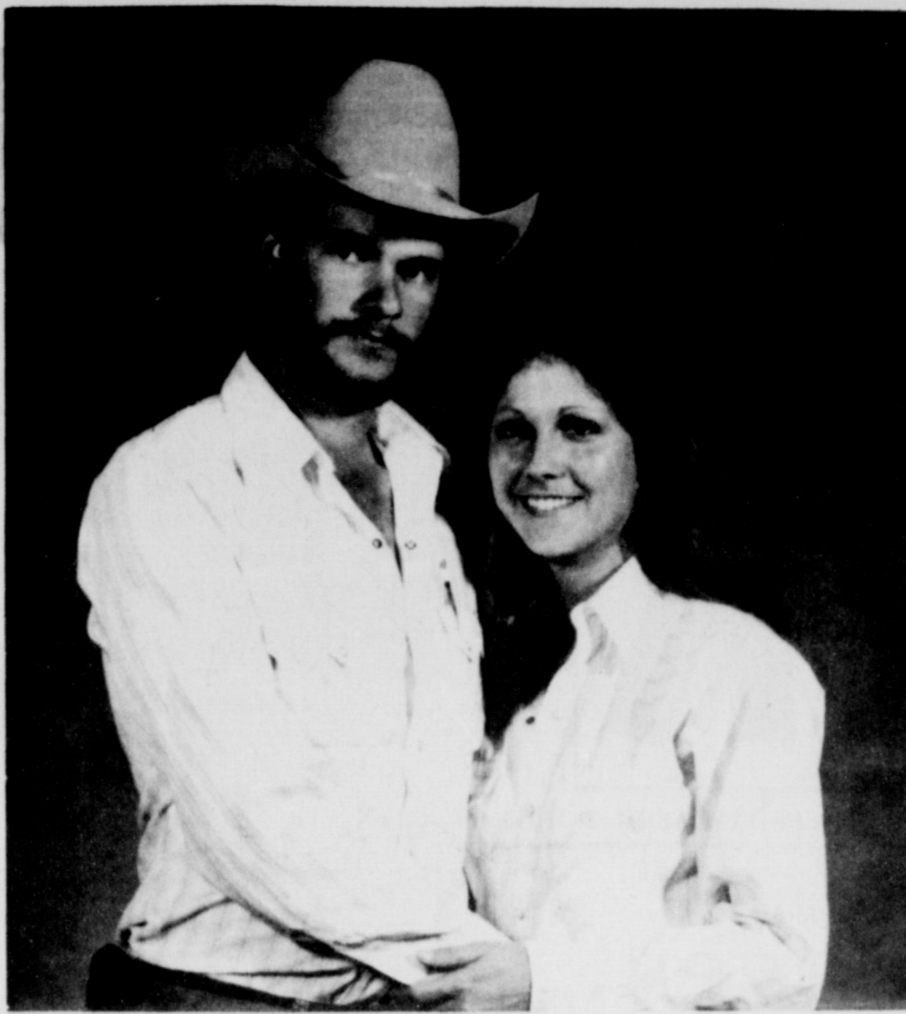

The refreshment table was the conversation piece in the setting. Laid with a cloth appropriate for a country kitchen, it held a basket where a hen sat on a nest of eggs in the center of clusters of strawberries and daisies.

Also on the table were small crock pots hand-painted with the delectable fruit filled with nuts and mints. Finger foods consisting of marzipan strawberries, cheese straws, country look decorative cookies were served on dark blue old granite plates painted with strawberries and daisies with matching spoons. Lemonade punch provided the drink, and strawberry napkins completed the decor.

For favors, guests were given miniature cereal boxes, fruit and vegetable cans to match those in Miss Glenn's corsage.

Special guests were Mmes. Lyndell Glenn and Mrs. Ole Olds, mothers of the future bride and groom, and Mrs. Wilburn Bedford, the honoree's grandmother.

The couple will be married July 1 at the Church of God.

BARRY SCHENK and CATHERINE GRIFFIN

Announce engagement

Mr. and Mrs. W.I. Griffin announce the engagement of their daughter, Catherine A. and Barry Edward Schenk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schenk of Windthorst.

Miss Griffin was graduated from Iowa Park High School. She attended

Vernon Regional Junior College and is employed by Cameron Wholesale in Wichita Falls. Her fiancé was graduated from Windthorst High School and is self-employed.

The couple will be united in marriage June 25 at the Catholic Church in Scotland.

Recently-wed couple feted

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Thompson were honored Sunday at a postnuptial shower in the Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church. Hostesses were Mmes. Don Beals, Robert Robinson, Don Cook, Harroll Brown, Eldon Thompson, Gene Owens and Roy Childers.

Decorations for the party were inspired by the colors of lavender and white, and the center of interest was the refreshment table covered with white lace over lavender. The appointments included a lavender silk floral arrangement, crystal punch service, trays filled with pastel mints and refreshments that repeated the color scheme.

The table where guests registered was laid with white lace and held the book, and deep lavender plume pen.

Mrs. Pat Daughtery assisted the couple in opening their gifts. Special guests were Mrs. C.L. Thompson, Miss Theresa Thompson, mother and

Church group meets

The monthly covered dish dinner of the Christian Workers Class of First United Methodist Church was hosted Thursday evening by Mrs. Kathleen Hatten, Mrs. Ethyle Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mahler.

Following the meal, Mrs. Hatten conducted the business. Twenty five members attended.

Shower fetes bride elect

One of the happiest memories of pre-nuptial courtesies extended to Miss Meri Lynne McIlroy, bride-elect of Russell Guyette, will undoubtedly be a miscellaneous shower given Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Bill Bates. The decorations and appointments in the party rooms were beautifully compatible with both traditional and contemporary settings suitable for such an occasion.

Serving as co-hostess with Mrs. Bates were Mmes. Joe Singer, Glen Miller, Howard Marlar, Wayne Williams, Pete Hughes, Gilbert Mueller, John Cummings, Donald Hill, Bill Curry, Jack Railsback, Joe Ward, Glenn Schell, Vern Horskey, C.O. Dodd, Clyde Patterson and Luke Coffman.

Pink and white, the honoree's chosen colors, played an important part in the eye appeal of the decorations for the function.

Guests registered in the bride's book at an antique brass music stand accented with a bride's bouquet of pink roses, pink maline puffs, white lace wedding bells and lilies and matching trailing satin ribbons.

Entering the dining room, they were particularly impressed with the remarkable beauty of the refreshment table. Draped with white French organza bordered with applied pink linen, it was centered with an antique silver champagne cooler filled with pink silk apple blossoms and roses complemented with accents of pink maline and baby's breath. Flanking the centerpiece were tall two-branched silver candelabra holding tall white candles uprising from pink maline puffs.

Other fascinating features of the table decor were the silver punch bowl, antique hand-painted china serving plates and cups, a cream cheese canopy decorated with a bridal bouquet, fresh red strawberries dipped in powdered sugar, and pink napkins engraved with "Meri Lynne and Russell."

The antique buffet nearby the table held white candles burning in large hurricane crystal globes.

The gift tables where the lovely assortment of gifts were displayed were covered with white lace.

The honoree was presented with a corsage of pink roses touched with maline and ribbon effects to complement the pink-striped white cotton satin dress that she was wearing. Mrs. Robert McIlroy and Mrs. Frank Guyette, mothers of the engaged couple, were given duplicate corsages. Another special guest was Mrs. Cecil Curry of Mineral Wells, grandmother of the honoree.

The couple will be married June 4 at First Baptist Church.

Cub speaker from Holland

Local Cub Scouts had an unusual opportunity Tuesday night to learn first-hand about Scouting across the Atlantic Ocean in Holland.

A 10-year Scout himself, Lt. Lems explained the similarity of the Scouting program in his native country, and also exhibited native costume.

Special guests included William S. Todd, District Executive for the Northwest Council; Tim Hunter, Scouting coordinator for the District, and Ron Barnes, Troop 38 Scoutmaster. Cub Master Buddy Henderson was master of ceremonies.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

The court system is slow. And that's the way defense lawyers and defendants like it. But it causes others concern. And they don't like it.

We have a situation in the 1000 block of Foley that exemplifies those statements.

On Jan. 24, 1982, Joyce Wilson was arrested on a charge of shooting to death her husband, Gene F., at 1014 Foley. She admitted the shooting and was found guilty of manslaughter.

She has remained free while her case is supposedly being appealed.

Saturday night, a man reportedly came out of 1014 Foley, walked across the street and eventually struck a 15-year-old boy.

Statements have been made that the man is 27-year-old Ricky Dean Alexander, who has had his problems with the local police, and is in fact on parole after serving time for burglary in Wichita Falls.

Alexander is alleged to have been offended by noise made by the youth, Jerry Don Allen Jr., as the latter was talking with a girlfriend between 10:30 and 11 p.m.

Statements have been filed that Alexander used abusive language in demanding the youth leave the neighborhood. When the youth replied he would after his conversation, Alexander reportedly got the boy out of the vehicle, slapped him more than once in the face and punched him in the side.

One statement alleged Alexander told Allen he would "blow his brains out if he didn't leave."

Under most circumstances, such a statement wouldn't mean much. But in the 1000 block of Foley, people don't take it lightly.

Allen's father asked to file a complaint and attempted to before municipal court judge G.A. Benesh Wednesday morning. The judge told him such a charge should rightfully be filed in county court, and Allen apparently intends to do just that.

Alexander apparently continued to vent his anger after leaving the scene and returning to 1014 Foley, because early Sunday morning, Wilson called the police station to tell them he had beaten her, broken some ribs, and she didn't want him around any more.

She told police she was calling her attorney to file a restraining order against him. But she did not file a formal complaint with police.

We just don't need this kind of thing in our community.

I fault no one individual, but I do fault the slowness of the courts and the ability of lawyers to have things drug out months on end.

The citizens can complain, the law enforcement people can act, but it is all for nothing unless the courts do their part.

Foley, like all neighborhoods in Iowa Park, is a nice, clean, friendly area inhabited by good families. But it cannot tolerate the lawlessness of the past 16 months.

Cook of the Week

This is the season for fresh strawberries, one of the world's most delectable fruits. Cooks are using them generously as the chief ingredients in cakes, pies, for toppings and ice cream. Some are preserving them to eat with hot biscuits, toast or pancakes now and during the winter months.

This week, Linda (Mrs. Alan) Pfeffer shares her Fresh Strawberry Pie recipe with the Leader readers and many of them will no doubt use it to build up their recipe repertoire.

For ages, many have sung the praises of the strawberry. William Butler wrote Circa 1600 "Doubtless God could have made a better berry, but doubtless God never did." This seems to be the general opinion today; yet it was not until the second half of the last century that it was found readily in the market. The problem was perishability.

There are conflicting accounts of the origin of the strawberry. Prehistoric and historic man may have considered the wild fruit not worth much since it grew on a plant which hugged the ground, was hard to spot and hard to pick. Most of the time, people ate the fruit where it was picked. However, now that they are cultivated, some feel that the domesticated berry does not equal the wild berry in taste. In luxurious restaurants all over the world, gourmets pay premium prices for wild strawberries.

Roger Williams reported in 1643 from Rhode Island "This berry is the wonder of all fruits." Farther south, the Natchez Indians called one of the 13 months into which they divided the year the Strawberry Month. In the early 1800s, they were raised in Philadelphia suburbs close to a concentrated market capable of making it possible to supply the short-lived fruit. It was fashionable for people to frequent the strawberry gardens to eat the delectable fruit; elsewhere strawberries were still a luxury.

The availability of the fruit for more people got on its way when the Erie Railroad began to operate in 1847, facilitating the delivery of perishable products. Now with speedy and refrigerated transportation, strawberries are within everybody's reach, and frozen strawberries are available the year round.

Tech Sgt. and Mrs. Pfeffer have lived in Iowa Park three years. They have two daughters, Kristine, age eight, and Alana, pictured with her mother, three years old.

Linda was graduated from Adair, Iowa High School and attended Creighton Univ., Omaha, Neb. During the couple's three-year stay in Alaska, she was manager of the Arrow Club. She is a member of the First Presbyterian Church where she teaches a Sunday school class, and the Modern Music Study Club. She plays the clarinet and piano and sings. Her hobbies include crochet, embroidery, sewing, gardening and aerobics.

FRESH STRAWBERRY PIE

- 1 cup sugar
  - 1 cup water
  - 3 Tbsp. cornstarch
  - 2 cups sliced strawberries
  - 4 Tbsp. strawberry or raspberry Jello
- Cook water, sugar and cornstarch until thick. Remove from heat, add Jello and cool. Stir in strawberries and spread in baked pie shell. Chill thoroughly. Served with plain or whipped cream. A graham cracker crust can be used, if preferred.

PISTASCHIO DELIGHT

- 2 cups Ritz Cracker crumbs
  - 1/2 cup melted oleo
- Mix crackers and oleo together and pat in 9x13 pan.
- 2 pkgs. Pistachio Instant Pudding
  - 2 cups milk
  - 2 cups vanilla ice cream
- Mix last three ingredients together and pour over crumbs, then chill. Top with Cool Whip.

CONNIE'S VEGETABLE DIP

- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
  - 1/2 cup sour cream
  - 2 Tbsp. parsley flakes
  - 2 Tbsp. green onion, dice and boil until soft
  - 1 Tbsp. accent
  - 1 Tbsp. garlic
  - 1 Tbsp. dill weed
  - 1 Tbsp. onion salt
  - 4 drops Tabasco
- Mix all ingredients together. The flavor is enhanced if left 24 hours.

LASAGNE

- Meat sauce: Brown 1 lb. hamburger and 1/2 lb. pork sausage. Drain grease. Add:
- 1 tsp. parsley
  - 1 tsp. basil
  - 1 lb. can tomatoes
  - 1 clove garlic
  - 2 small cans tomato paste
  - Onions, optional
- Simmer 30 minutes.
- While meat sauce is simmering, make noodles.
- Cottage cheese mixture:
- 3 cups cottage cheese
  - 2 eggs
  - 1 tsp., or less, parsley
  - Dash salt and pepper
  - 1/2 cup Parmesan cheese
  - 1 lb. Mozzarella cheese (I prefer shredded Kraft brand)
- Line 9x13 baking dish with layer of noodles, then a layer of cottage cheese mixture, then a layer of meat sauce, then Mozzarella cheese. Repeat layers to make three.

Bake at 350 degrees 30 minutes or until it bubbles a bit. This can be prepared a day before and refrigerated. Longer cooking time - about 40 or 45 minutes.

2-EGG THIN COOKIES

- 1 cup margarine, at room temperature, or half margarine and half butter
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1/2 tsp vanilla
- 1/2 tsp lemon extract

Cream the margarine and sugar together until light and fluffy. Beat the eggs until they are light and lemon colored and then mix with the margarine and sugar. Add the flour, vanilla and lemon extract and mix thoroughly.

Using a teaspoon, drop on a well greased cookie sheet. Bake at 375 degrees 8 minutes or until the edges are just beginning to turn brown. Makes 8 dozen thin cookies.

SALMON LOAF WITH EGGS

- 1-1 lb. can salmon
- 3 eggs
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 1/8 tsp pepper
- 1 Tbsp. onion, finely minced

- 1 tsp lemon juice
- 3 cups Special K cereal

Sauce:

- 1/4 cup butter
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 cup milk
- 1/4 cup salmon liquid
- 3 (additional) hard-cooked eggs, peeled and finely chopped
- 1 Tbsp lemon juice
- 1/4 cup parsley, finely chopped

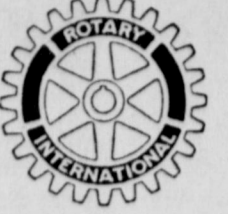

Drain the salmon and reserve the juice. Remove any skin and then flake the salmon quite finely with a fork.

Beat the raw eggs until they are light and lemon colored. Add the eggs to the flaked salmon along with the milk, salt, pepper, onion and lemon juice. Mix all thoroughly. Add the cereal and mix again. Place in a lavishly-buttered loaf pan and bake at 325 degrees one hour.

Melt the butter in a saucepan; stir in the flour and cook over low heat until the mixture begins to bubble. Add the milk and salmon liquid. Continue to cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture has thickened.

Remove the sauce from the heat and stir in chopped eggs and lemon juice. Loosen the salmon loaf with a sharp knife and invert on a heated platter. Pour the egg sauce over the loaf. Garnish the top with finely-chopped parsley. Cut into generous slices and serve each slice with a portion of the sauce. Serves 6.

McMurry easy choice for Iowa Park athlete

Marc Klinkerman, a starter on Iowa Park High School's football team the past two years, has it set in his mind that he wanted to try and play college football. But Klinkerman also had a few other criteria he wanted met before accepting the first nibble that came along.

Marc wanted a small school, "a place where I could get along better," he says. And, he wanted a college with a strong academic program where he could concentrate on his anticipated major in computer science and applied mathematics.

And, he wanted some financial aid... which he got, and then some, when McMurry College in Abilene selected Marc as one of the first eight recipients of its new William Fletcher McMurry Scholarships, a four-year full tuition and fees package based solely on academic achievement.

"I couldn't believe there could be such a good deal," says Marc, who passed up football offers from Panhandle State Univ. and several junior colleges. "McMurry had just about everything I wanted. And, with this scholarship, it didn't take me long to accept."

Marc says, aside from the lucrative scholarship, the primary reason he chose McMurry was because he wanted to find a school he liked where he could get in and stay. "I didn't think it would be a very good idea for me to be moving around after two years," he explains.

Then, of course, there's the opportunity to continue his football career. McMurry is a member of the non-scholarship Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association (TIAA), a league which has enjoyed enormous success since its formation in 1976.

"I really wanted an opportunity to keep playing," Marc admits. "But the academics was the most important thing to me. I was just happy to find a way that I could find both the opportunity to play and a strong academic program."

high school graduating class, and have scored exceptionally well on the ACT or SAT tests.

But the applicants were judged on more than just their academic abilities. The McMurry Scholarship Committee looked at the students for signs of leadership ability, strong moral character and other qualities. The students were asked to write a short essay describing themselves, then had to meet with the Committee for a personal interview.

McMurry plans to award eight such scholarships each fall to incoming freshmen. The scholarships are named after former United Methodist Bishop William Fletcher McMurry, after whom the college was named upon its founding in 1923.

McMurry is a four-year liberal arts college located in Abilene, and is owned and operated by the Northwest Texas and New Mexico Conferences of the United Methodist Church.

Soil Stewardship Week designated

Wichita County Judge Tom Bacus recently released a proclamation officially designating May 8 through 15 as Soil Stewardship Week in Wichita County.

The proclamation, signed at the regular Wichita County commissioners meeting, stated that the Wichita Soil and Water Conservation District would join in the observance, according to Fred Dwyer, chairman.

The theme of this year's stewardship week "Living Waters" focuses on each person's dependence on water and related resources, and encourages the utilization, conservation and proper management of them.

The primary purpose for organizing soil and water conservation districts, according to Dwyer, was to offer farmers, ranchers and local communities a voluntary conservation technical assistance program through which individuals could seek and request assistance in order to meet the land's capabilities and needs.

"Basically, it is the district's responsibility to provide technical assistance when requested relative to proper soil use and treatment, erosion control practices, solve drainage problems and assist farmers and ranchers with crop, range and pastureland management," said Dwyer.

More information and materials for the soil stewardship week can be obtained by calling the district office at 592-4157.

Basil: A Delicious and Easy-to-Grow Herb

Probably everyone has heard of basil, but not everyone knows what to do with it. Basil is an easily grown herb that is used in sauces, soups, and with tomatoes, and it is the main ingredient of the mouth-watering pesto, an elegant, uncooked green sauce for pasta.

Basil is not really that fussy about soil, light, or water. Like a good friend, basil enjoys attention, but forgives neglect. Basil likes full sun, but it does well in partial shade, too, and can take dry spells and wet spells with little problem.

Basil doesn't have much of a bug problem, either. It seems to shrug off the many insects its spicy fragrance attracts. In the

Prepare a seed bed in the spring that has been enriched with manure and 5-10-5 fertilizer. You can plant seed 1/2 inch deep in rows, or broadcast the seed and cover it with 1/4 to 1/2 inch of soil. Thin the plants to 12 inches apart, and don't forget to save the thinnings for cooking.

If given room, basil will grow to 18 inches, and some varieties even grow to 36 inches high. You should keep the young plants weeded, but as basil grows taller, it tends to shade out anything below it, so it almost weeds itself.

As the plants and your need for basil grow, you can pull off the outer leaves and stems, and new growth will constantly follow. For maximum production of leafy shoots, pinch off the clusters of white flower buds that form on the ends of the stems. Even if you don't pinch these buds or thin the plants, you will probably still end up with more basil than you can use.

Now, what do you do with mass quantities of basil? Give it to friends, eat it with tomatoes, or hang it up and dry it for your herb shelf. Or better yet, look through your cookbooks for a recipe for the delicious pesto, and then make all your freezer can hold.

ARE EXTENDED WEAR CONTACT LENSES FOR YOU?

You have probably seen the ads on T.V. for the soft lenses you can wear for two weeks at a time. These lenses can be a real blessing for folks need to wake up seeing clearly like firemen, doctors and others who are subject to being on call at odd hours. They are also great for people who don't have the manual dexterity to handle contact lenses every day or who can't or won't take proper care of their contacts. And, of course, extended wear contacts are nice for people with high corrections who would like to see when they get up without fumbling for their glasses or contacts.

On the negative side not everyone can wear these lenses. Such as people with certain eye diseases and those with tear chemistry that causes contact lenses to become excessively coated and uncomfortable. If you have been thinking about getting extended wear contacts, the best way to find out if you can wear them is to see an eye doctor. He can examine your vision and do tests including having you wear an extended wear lens to determine if you would make a good candidate for this type of lens.

Nine Eagles advance to region

Holliday's Eagle track team fared well in last Thursday's District 11-AA track meet held at Olney, with nine advancing to regional competition May 6-7 in Stephenville.

But it was the Paul brothers that kept the Eagles from capturing the team trophy, and Olney ran up a handy lead with victories in the 400- and 1600-meter relays for a total of 180 1/2 points. Holliday finished with 103, followed by Henrietta with 87, Nocona with 60 1/2, Petrolia 40, Boyd 29, Jacksboro 19, Archer City 8, and Chico zilch with no representatives.

Kevin Blankenship almost made it a double win in the hurdles, capturing first in the 110-meter highs with a 15.33 clocking, followed close behind by Coats of Nocona.

But in the 300-meter intermediates, Stan Ashton of Olney outdueled Blankenship at the stretch, but both will be looking for a trip to state with a good showing at Stephenville.

Patt Capps, the lone Holliday representative in Austin last year, finally overcame an injury to his leg earlier this season by clearing 6-6 in the high jump, second only to Billy McChesney of Nocona.

Barry Hardin captured first in the pole vault after clearing 12-feet, well below his season best. Mike W. Parker finished a close third behind Goodner of Henrietta.

Clint Sissom earned a trip to regionals with a second place finish in the discus, and Kris Toliver also finished second in the 100 meter dash to advance.

Barely missing the cut in the individual events but finishing third were Harold Parsons in the shot put, and Mike A. Parker in the long jump.

The 400-meter relay team consisting of Toliver, Jeff Wise, Bruce Bynum, Mike A. Parker and Tom Hamill finished second and will advance.

In junior varsity action, Olney while Holliday finished fifth behind Henrietta and Petrolia.

Recognition due 48 'A' students

In addition to garnering the top honor for Holliday sports, Kevin was also named best lineman in football, best in male track, and basketball king, while sister Kim was also awarded with ideal female basketball player. The two's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Blankenship of Holliday.

Mankins, Fleming are honor students

Valedictorian Laurie Mankins and salutatorian Sephanie Fleming will lead the 1983 eighth grade class through graduation exercises May 26 at Erma Barton Auditorium, according to principal Bill Lee.

Mankins is top-ranked in this year's class with a 97.87 average while Fleming averaged 96.75.

Other eighth graders making the top 20 of their class are Lisa Lowe, Robert Carlton, Chuck Bearden, Amanda Parnell, Scott Lofland, Amy Goodlett, Traci Hawley and Robert Cass.

Also, Shane Daniels, Daniel Parkey, Mike Martin, Amy Lemons, Tim O'Brien, Brad Grimm, Jason Loftiss, Christean Echols and Tammy Dolberry.

1983 Eagle football schedule is completed

The Eagle football team next season will face virtually the same opponents as last season, except for one change in the scrimmages, according to head coach Don Lucy.

This means Eastland, defending state Class AA champs, will travel to Holliday for the season opener for both teams Sept. 2. The Eagles travelled to Maverick Stadium for the opener last season, losing 28-6.

One long road trip in particular will have to be planned well in advance, when Holliday fans hit the road to Commerce in East Texas Oct. 28 for a 7:30 p.m. tilt against the Bulldogs. This will be the only game starting before 8 p.m.

The Eagles travel to Nocona Sept. 9 for the District 11-AA opener. Round-Up Week festivities culminate the week of Oct. 10-15 with the Big Red Hound Petrolia Oct. 14.

For the first year, Bowie will no longer be a scrimmage opponent for the Eagles, and Lucy has scheduled an Aug. 26 scrimmage with Fort Worth Nolan in Holliday. Nolan is an independent school with an enrollment similar to Iowa Park's.

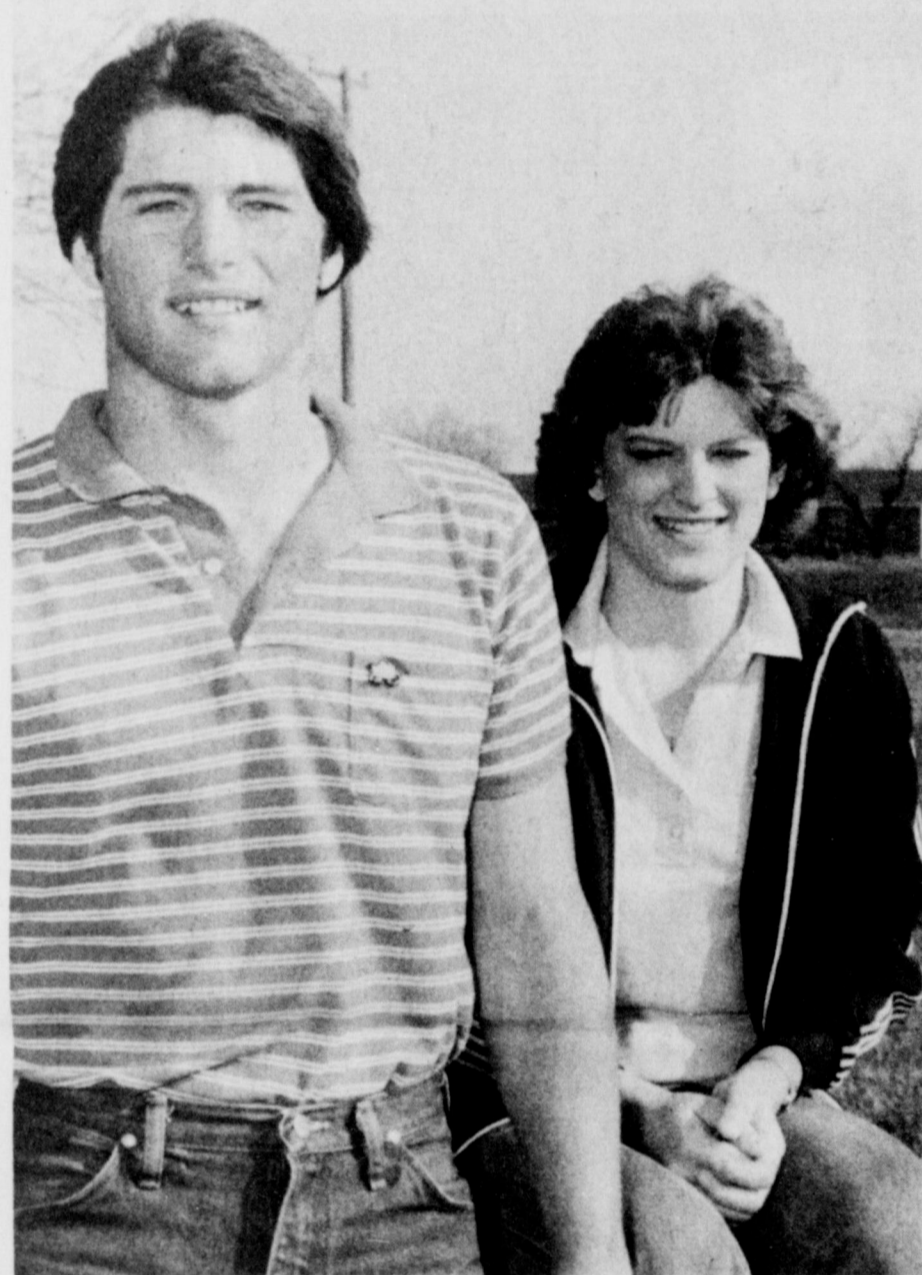

Here is the complete 1983 varsity football schedule:

SOCIAL SECURITY TIPS

EARNINGS REPORTS DUE, MAY AFFECT BENEFITS

Earnings reports are due by April 15 from Social Security beneficiaries who worked last year and earned over the annual earnings limits. The limits were $6,000 for people 65 and over and $4,440 for people under age 65. People 72 and over all of last year do not have to file a report of their earnings. Starting in 1983, the age at which the earnings test does not apply drops to 70.

Social Security officials cautioned people to take the time to complete their report as carefully and as accurately as possible. The information which should describe how much a person earned last year and how much he or she expects to earn this year, is used as a basis for determining the benefit amounts due. Benefits are reduced by $1 for each $2 in earnings over the exempt amount.

The earnings limit for 1983 is $6,600 for people 65 and over and $920 for people under age 65.

IN DISTRICT MEET

Hawks finish fourth

Despite not getting some important points that had been counted on, the Hawks finished fourth in the Dist. 3-AAAA track and field meet at Saginaw Friday.

Three Hawks qualified for the regional meet next week and will compete Saturday in the qualifiers meet at Dallas Kimbell High.

Athletes placing first or second qualify for the region. Steve Stewart was second in the shot put, Jerry Fairchild second in the 800 meters and Kevin Parker second in the 200 meters.

Points expected, but not coming, were first places in the shot put and high jump, and possibly a sweep of the first two places in the 800 meters.

But Stewart was edged in the shot put by a Vernon athlete whom he had beaten all season.

Marc Klinkerman, who won the conference high jump title as a sophomore and established a school and personal record a couple of weeks ago when he cleared 6-8, failed to pick up a single point when he couldn't clear 6-0.

And Brant Baugh was unfortunate to draw the slower heat in the 800 meters. He easily won the heat by 20 or more feet, but because he wasn't pushed, was clocked in only 2:04.02, good enough for third place.

Klinkerman passed at the lower heights in the high jump, and missed all three of his attempts at 6-0, which would have been good enough for second place. First place was 6-6, and jumpers clearing only 5-8 earned points.

As expected, Vernon walked away with the championship. . . . the fifth consecutive conference title. The Lions amassed 154 points to outdistance Boswell's 68. Gainesville had 67, Iowa Park 54, Azle 51, Hirschi 50, Burkburnett 48 and Mineral Wells 25.

But it was a good year for the Hawk thinclads, according to Coach Barry Lucy. He pointed out the team won three meet titles during the year and totaled more points for the season than any of several previous campaigns by an Iowa Park team.

The Hawk freshman team placed fifth in team standings.

Results of competition held Thursday and Friday were:

VARSITY

Shot put - Steve Stewart, 2nd, 51-2.
Discus - Stewart, 3rd, 157-9; Mac Weaver, 6th 137-7.
800 meters - Jerry Fairchild, 2nd, 2:03.29; Brand Baugh, 3rd, 2:04.02.
High hurdles - Marc Klinkerman, 6th, 15.72.
Intermediate hurdles - Wayne Hodges, 3rd, 41.79.
100 meters - Kevin Parker, 4th, 11.7.
200 meters - Parker, 2nd, 23.28.
1600 meters - John Henderson, 3rd, 4:48.78.

FRESHMEN

High jump - Stephen Biddy, 2nd, 5-8.
Pole vault - Ray Sefcik, 2nd, 10-6.
Long jump - Gregg Curtis, 3rd, 18-11 1/2.
800 meters - Biddy, 5th, 2:19.19.
100 meters - Curtis, 3rd, 12.58.
Intermediate hurdles - Sefcik, 5th, 48.17.
200 meters - Curtis, 2nd, 24.78.

JUNIOR VARSITY

800 meters - Jay Priddy, 3rd, 2:18.12.
1600 meters - Priddy, 6th, 5:25.57.

Sefcik looks to next year

Lisa Sefcik will probably have to wait until next spring to take another shot at returning to the girls' state track meet in Austin.

She placed third in the hurdles at the regional meet in Denton Friday with a 15.1 clocking. That qualifies her as an alternate should either the first or second placers not enter the event at state. And that would be an unusual incident.

Sefcik was also sixth in the long jump with a leap of 15-4.

Sherrri Schweiss earned points in the 1600 meter run, clocking the distance in 6:07.2.

Sefcik earned her first trip to Austin last year as a sophomore, in the triple jump.

LITTLE LEAGUE

News and Notes

MINOR LEAGUE

Expos 26
Indians 25
(Winning pitcher, Brian Cox; loser Jason Young) The Indians held a 15-8 lead through three innings with the pitching of Ernie Davila before the Expos made a dramatic comeback, scoring 18 runs in the final three frames to notch the win.

Indians 18
Rangers 6
(Winning pitcher Ernie Davila, loser Phillip McDonald) Ernie Davila and Ace Burkhardt hit home runs to lead the Indians to another win.

Reds 19
Oilers 1
(Winning pitcher Todd Pulley, loser Scott McNeely) Reds' Frank Banks hit an inside-the-park homerun with bases loaded to aid in the win as the Reds scattered 12 hits while holding the Oilers to two hits.

Reds 10
Cubs 6
(Winning pitcher Frank Banks, loser Robert Denton) Robert Cargal added his own version of an inside-the-park homerun with bases loaded to help the Reds win their second game. A.D. Sparlin added an inside-the-park homerun for the Cubs, notching two RBI's in the process.

Ivy moving to Seymour

James Ivy, assistant Hawk football coach the past two years, has accepted the position of head football and track coach at Seymour High School.

Ivy confirmed Tuesday he has submitted his resignation effective Friday of next week. He will use the last three weeks of the school year to inventory equipment and set up his program for 1983, he said. His family will remain here until after the end of the current school year.

Seymour varsity suffered a 2-8 record last fall.

Judging extremely tough in UIL band contest

Although not a single Class AAAA band qualified for a sweepstakes award in the Region II north zone concert and sightreading contest held Wednesday of last week in Vernon, Iowa Park High School was one of the more outstanding units in the event.

Only two bands earned a division one in the contest. Iowa Park received a one in sightreading and Mineral Wells a one in concert. But both received a two in the other half of the contest.

Bands earning a one in both sightreading and concert performances, and a similar ranking the previous fall in the UIL marching contest, qualify for the coveted sweepstakes award.

Only two bands in the larger classification, AAAAA, received top ratings in concert and sightreading at Vernon. They were both the first and second bands from Wichita Falls Rider.

Other AAAA band ratings, using concert rating and then sightreading, were: Vernon, two and two; Burkburnett second band, three and two; Hirschi second band, three and two; Mineral Wells second band, two and two; Burkburnett, two and three; and Hirschi two and three.

McCord named top salesman

Barry McCord was the top salesman in the sale of Henco Snack canisters, a fund-raising project of the Iowa Park Little League baseball teams.
