Hawks not out of picture

Whoa, now! Let's not get the Hawks out of the basketball title picture yet!

The District 3-AAAA executive committee, made up of all superintendents and high school principals of conference schools, has a different interpretation than appeared in yesterday's Wichita Falls Record-News.

The Hawks are still in the picture, depending on a makeup game between Graham and Vernon, to be played tonight at Graham.

As it now stands, Iowa Park, Hirschi and Graham each have one loss in the second round of district play. Should Graham defeat Vernon tonight, a three-way tie would result.

According to the district's rules, reaffirmed yesterday afternoon at a called meeting of the executive committee, a three-way tie will be decided by a coin toss. And that still gives the Hawks a chance at the district title.

Hirschi won the first half of round robin play without a loss. But in the second half, Graham defeated Iowa Park, Hirschi defeated Graham, and Iowa Park defeated Hirschi.

The Graham-Vernon game was delayed because of bad road conditions, and was to be played only if it had an effect on the district standings. And now it does.

A Vernon win would give the second half to the Hawks, because Graham would then have two losses and the Hawks defeated Hirschi. But a Vernon win is considered remote because the Lions haven't won a district game yet this year, and are playing without their leading athlete, Brent Britton, who broke an ankle last week.

The Wichita Falls paper stated, "HHS (Hirschi) can clinch the district title provided Graham beats Vernon Thursday at home in a makeup game. The Steers are 3-1 after defeating Burkburnett 54-42 Tuesday, and by winning can force a three-way tie in the second half. Because Hirschi won the first half and shared the second, the Huskies would advance. For Iowa Park to have a shot at repeating as champs, Graham must lose and the Hawks would have to beat Hirschi in a one-game playoff."

According to paragraph four of the district's policy for determining basketball champions: "If two teams tie for either half, the team that beat the other will be declared the winner of that half. If more than two teams are involved in the tie and one of the teams has beaten the other two, that team will be declared the winner. Otherwise the winner will be declared by a coin flip."

So, if Graham does win and a three-way tie develops, a coin toss will be held between the three schools to decide the second-half winner.

Should Hirschi win the toss, the Huskies are automatically the district champions. But, should either Iowa Park or Graham win, the winner would then meet Hirschi in a playoff for the title and the right to represent the district in the state playoffs.

But, should Graham lose to the winless Lions tonight, Iowa Park would be the second-half winner by virtue of its win over the Huskies, and a play-off with Hirschi would be held.

Bob Dawson, Iowa Park principal, said late yesterday he did not know where or when the coin toss would be held should Graham win, but he suggested the other coaches might be in Graham for the game and the toss held immediately afterward.

In any event, if a playoff is necessary, it will be held on a neutral court, according to the district's rules.

Action expected on Coleman paving plan

Paving of Coleman between Pacific and First streets will take a step closer to realization when the city council meets Monday night.

The council will be asked for permission to advertise for bids on the project, according to Steve Morath, city administrator. Costs of the paving project will be levied against property owners on the block, but it will be financed and administered by the city.

Monday's meeting is to begin at 7 p.m. in council chambers.

Also on the agenda will be appointments to two volunteer city committees, consideration of an alley abandonment request and establishing a self-insurance fund, and a discussion of the library board's financial authority.

Terms of George Hammonds, Keith Auda and David Patterson, on the Planning and Zoning Commission, but all three have indicated they would accept re-appointment, Morath said.

Two members of the library board, Bob Dawson and Afton Pike, have also indicated they would accept re-appointment. Two new members who will be proposed for appointment will be Jane Owens and Linda Eke.

Pete Koonce is expected to make a personal appearance before the council to request the city abandon the alley easement in Block 141, Original Townsite. The alley easement divides Koonce's property which reportedly was approved to be fenced some 20 years ago. However, there is no record of the previous action by council, and it will be sought because Koonce wants to construct a building on the easement line.

Morath said he would propose that the council permit him to establish a self-insurance fund from which any liability payments could be made. Contributions to the fund would come both from the general and water and sewer funds, he explained.

Alderman Bill Gilmore requested a discussion be put on the agenda concerning the library board's financial authority. Several issues concerning that authority have already been brought out at earlier meetings, and with the renovation of the Burnett estate to serve as a library building, the authority will have to be defined.

Volunteer firemen honored

Representatives from all the volunteer fire departments in Wichita County and Holliday were treated to a steak dinner Saturday evening by the Wichita County Young Farmers.

For their devotion to help their fellow man, as well as all the extra hours of working and training to do the jobs for which they receive no pay, all firemen were lauded by the various speakers.

Young Farmers president Freddie Daume asked County Judge Tom Bacus if the commissioners court could afford to pay for the hours contributed not only by the volunteer firemen, but the Young Farmers and Iowa Park MuleSkinners. Bacus could only respond by holding up his hand in a "give-up" gesture.

Daume's question came after he pointed out the better and safer life area residents enjoy because of work carried out by the three volunteer organizations. (The MuleSkinners prepared and served the evening's meal.)

As part of the annual program for the firemen, a representative of each department is given the opportunity to report on his group's activities during the past year.

Iowa Park firemen answered 163 calls to fires, 70 calls by the four Emergency Medical Technicians, and members spent a total of 2,145 hours in training.

It was also pointed out that over the entire state, 44 volunteer firemen have qualified for certification as advanced firemen. Of that number, nine are members of the Iowa Park department.

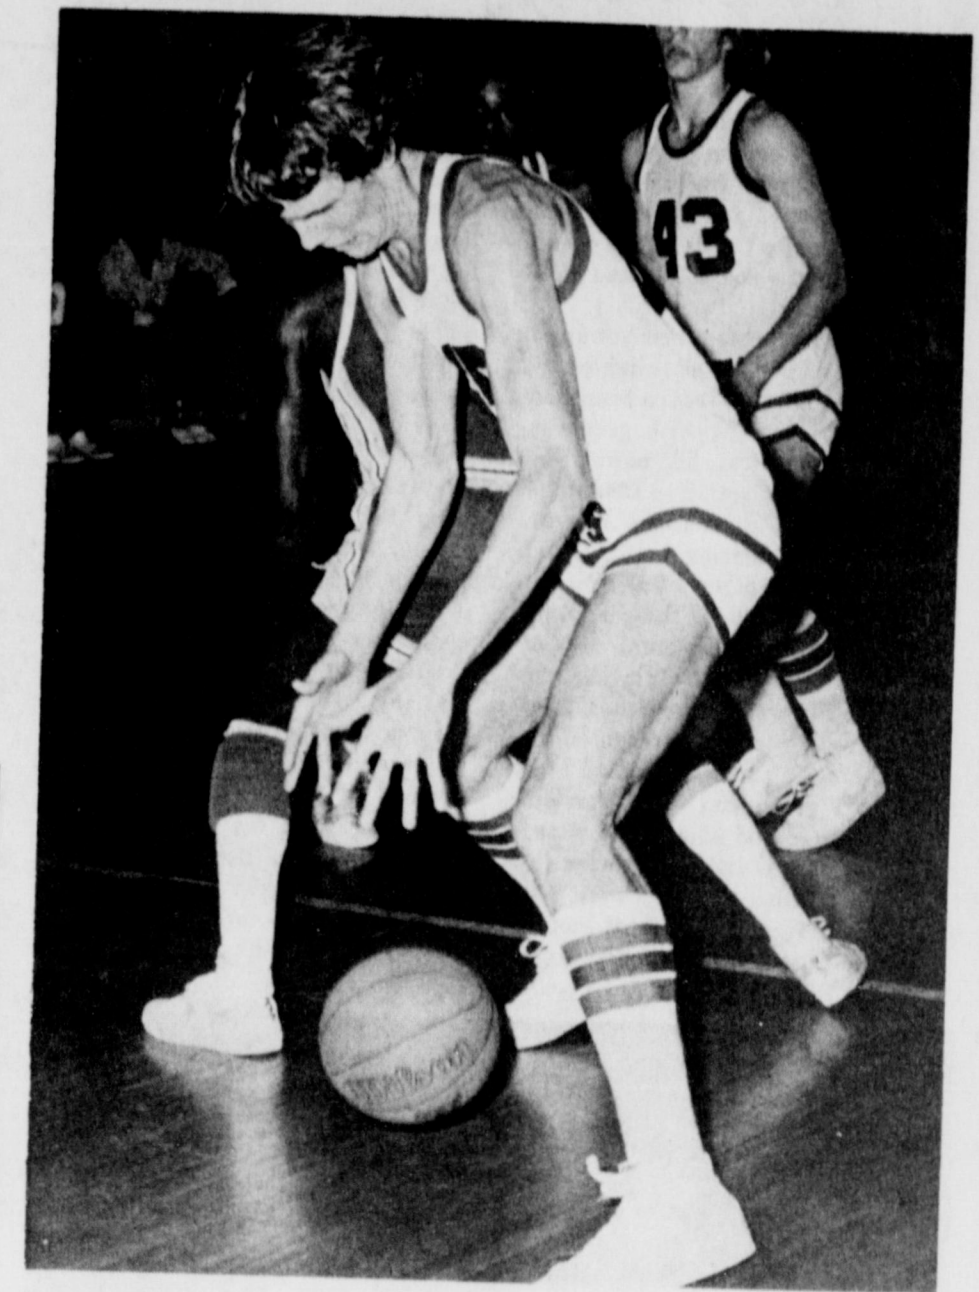

Contributions to a fund collected by the Young Farmers amounted to $2,500, which was divided among the departments being honored.

Approximately 300 persons attended the dinner.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY initiates at Iowa Park High School were announced this week. The 25 equals the record number for the school, established in 1979. Nine are seniors and the rest juniors. They are, from left: front - Terry Escue, Alisa Cain, Lisa Yeakley, Sherrie Cole, Kevin Robnett; second row - Darla Flick, Lori Barr, Debbie Thomason,

Chamber directors approve budget, discuss apartments

Chamber of Commerce directors Monday approved their 1982 budget and discussed the prospects of a new apartment complex being constructed here.

Directors approved a budget of $8,487, up from last year's $8,146, in their first meeting of the new year. The budget included a salary increase for Mrs. Ray Pittman, Chamber secretary.

Phil Welch, new president, told directors he had been asked to write a letter to a building contractor who proposed to construct a 48-unit, two-story complex at the corner of Johnson Road and Magnolia.

Bill Swan, the contractor, had asked Welch to center his letter on Iowa Park's need for additional rental housing.

Mrs. Pittman said she receives an average of 10 or 12 telephone calls daily from persons wanting to know of any listings available in Iowa Park. Charlie Lee told of a survey done here last year which indicated a need for 125 rental units.

Welch asked Mrs. Pittman to write a letter to Swan, including all pertinent information.

H.M. Nipper was appointed by the directors to serve a six-year term on the Wichita County Industrial Corporation. Each president of the Chamber was to be a member, but changes made by the state legislature in its recent session now requires terms of six years, according to a letter from Clarence Muehlberger, president of the county organization.

In a report on finances following the recent Chamber banquet, it was pointed out $3,172.50 worth of tickets were sold and expenses amounted to $2,493.76.

Election activity starts slowly

All three school trustee incumbents have filed for re-election, but no one has yet filed for any of the three city council positions.

Supt. Harold Cowley said yesterday morning only the three board members, Martha Dudley, Roy Boutwell and Ray Hicks, have filed to have their names on the April 3 ballots. This will be Hicks' first time on a ballot, having been appointed to serve an unexpired term.

None of the three council incumbents have filed, Steve Morath, city administrator, said. For that matter, no one has filed.

Terms expire this year for mayor, Johnny Crawford, and aldermen Lita Watson and Bud Thompson.

Sponsored by the Texas Education Agency through Region Nine Service Center, there is no charge for instruction and work in the courses is on individual advancement. There is no particular schedule for participants, who can attend when possible.

Sports banquet date is set

March 26 has been set for the annual school sports banquet, according to Norman Hodges, president of the Hawk Booster Club, who said tickets for the event will go on sale within two weeks.

Former Hirschi coach Jess Stiles, who later joined the staff at Texas Tech Univ. and then Texas A&M Univ., will be the guest speaker.

Price, Adams nuptial vows exchanged Friday evening

A double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Jimmy Johnson at Grace Baptist Church Friday evening to unite Miss Romona Gay Price and Benjamin Adams. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Luna and the late Curtis R. Price, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams.

The couple repeated their vows and exchanged rings at an altar lighted by candles burning in seven-branched candelabra entwined with greenery graced with apricot silk bows. The unity candlestick set off to advantage with the same decorations was an addition to the setting.

Rici Luna, brother of the bride, lighted the candles for the ceremony and provided a sentimental part of the wedding music by playing the organ for the wedding marches. Miss Pat Schroeder, pianist, presented the prelude music and accompanied Miss Georgia Weston who sang "Married" and "Because God Made Thee Mine."

The bride was given in marriage by her step-father. She wore an attractive formal gown of cotton Venise lace and organza made in the prevailing style of wedding gowns with a slightly raised waist, high neck, sheer yoke covered in lace appliques. The shepherdess-style sleeves were cuffed in lace and the full skirt featured a detachable chapel length train. She wore a white picture hat with a rolled brim trimmed with white and apricot silk roses and lifted on one side to which her tulle veil was attached in the back. She carried a bouquet of yellow and apricot silk roses on her late father's Bible.

Mrs. Terry Riley, sister of the bride served as matron of honor, and Miss Sally Adams, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Mrs. Riley wore a long apricot polyester knit dress designed with spaghetti straps, eyelet insets on the bodice, pleated skirt and sheer capelet. She carried a nosegay of yellow silk roses and rosebuds with cascading ribbons tied in love knots. Miss Adams was gowned in a beige polyester dress patterned with a shirred lace-trimmed bodice, flared sleeves, tie belt and tiered skirt trimmed in lace. Her silk nosegay consisted of apricot silk roses and rosebuds with matching streamers tied in love knots.

The groom was clad in a black tuxedo, white pleated shirt and black bow tie. For a boutonniere, he wore an apricot rose centered with a yellow rosebud.

Ray Boutwell, the best man, wore a gray suit. Charles Adams Jr. brother of the groom, was groomsman and was attired in a light blue suit to match the attire of fathers of the couple. Each wore a white shirt. The attendants wore apricot rose boutonnieres and the others wore white roses in their coat lapels.

Mrs. Luna complemented her long champagne knit dress made with boat neckline and long sleeves with a corsage of apricot carnations and baby's breath. Mrs. Adams' corsage was formed of white roses, apricot rosebuds and baby's breath and she wore a long gown of blue floral print polyester.

The wedding reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Mrs. Michael Price presided at the guest book.

Mrs. Randall Price, Miss Tracy Luna and Miss Lora Bonifant presided at the refreshment table covered with white net over apricot. The appointments included white bud vases filled with bridal attendants' flowers, yellow candles in silver holders, crystal punch service, three-tiered cake topped with two white silk bells nestled in lace and apricot flowers.

The newlyweds will live in Wichita Falls. He is a student at Iowa Park High School. She was graduated from Seventeen weighed in for the TOPS Club meeting Monday night. Mrs. George Boles was the best TOPS loser and winner of the jar contest and Mrs. C.O. Dodd was the ideal KOPS and winner of the white elephant contest.

TOPS meets

During the business conducted by Pauline Steele, leader, it was voted to continue the white elephant contest for six weeks and an announcement was made of the State Recognition Day at Austin April 22-24. For the program, Mrs. A.O. Beall and Mrs. Ronald Rainsberg gave a "Tops of the Morning to You" skit.

Bride elect is showered

Miss Reesa Robinson, bride-elect of Kenny Parker, was honored at two pre-nuptial parties Saturday.

The first courtesy was a salad luncheon held in the home of Norma Young where a Valentine theme was carried out in decorations.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. H.D. Parker, mother of the future groom, Mrs. Sandra Watson, Mrs. Darlene McGibbey, Miss Tiffany Watson and Miss Letitia Lynch, all of Dallas, Mrs. Dick Boyd of Seymour, Mrs. Linda Price of Electra, Rexa Wingler of Wichita Falls, sister of the honoree.

Mrs. Bill Robinson, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Ithama Jolley and Miss Cindy Flanagan attended from Iowa Park.

A miscellaneous shower held Saturday afternoon at Texas Electric Reddy Room was the second function given to fete the future bride. Hostesses were Mmes. Robert Robinson, Don Beals, Don Cook, Dean Henderson, John Mixon, Afton Pike, H.C. Johnson, Harroll Brown and Gene Owens.

Decorations in the room were dominated by peach, the color chosen for emphasis in the couple's March 20 wedding.

The refreshment table was covered with peach silk and centered with a nine-branched brass candelabrum holding peach candles in ringed votive cups.

The gift table was laid with a white linen cloth.

Mrs. Bill Robinson and Mrs. H.D. Parker, mothers of the betrothed couple, were special guests.

Little, Brott wedding held Sunday

LISA DAVIS

July date selected

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby J. Davis of Wichita Falls are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Lisa Diane, and Dwight Keith Pool, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pool of Iowa Park. The wedding is scheduled for July 24 at the Unity Missionary Baptist Church in Wichita Falls.

Miss Davis was graduated from Hirschi High School where she was a band member for six years and member of the honors band four years. She was photographer for DECA and played tennis. She is presently working as a dental technician at Fieldsend Dental Laboratory.

The future groom was graduated from Iowa Park High School where he played football and basketball and was a vocational ag student. He is employed as a welder at Wichtex Oil Field Machinery.

Birthday observed

A strawberry theme was carried out in a party Sunday honoring Shannon Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerrol Todd, on her fifth birthday. The party was given by her parents.

The honoree's grandmother, Vesta Todd and her sister, Kara Todd, were special guests. Others were Jeveta Todd, Patty and Michele Robertson, Marsha, Michael and Sara McCarty, Cheryl, Joey and Stephanie Smith, Amy Hessinger, Clint Scobee and Adela Collazo.

Candis Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hill, became the bride of David Duane Brott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fay D. Brott, Sunday afternoon in a double-ring ceremony performed in the home of the groom's parents.

Rev. Larry Washburn was the officiant for the service in a nuptial space centered with a brass archway threaded with boxwood and dotted with baby's breath. A porcelain cherub, a gift from the groom to the bride, hung from the center of the archway and red hearts accented each side to carry out the Valentine theme and the bride's chosen colors of red and white. The kneeling bench and unity candlestick were decorated in the same theme.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Harlyn Hill. She wore a street-length off-white dress designed with a V neckline, three-quarter length sleeves, natural waistline set off with a red ribbon sash that ended in a bow with streamers in the back. She carried a bouquet of red and coral silk roses accented with off-white ribbons and streamers.

The bride observed bridal traditions in her wedding costume. The "something borrowed" was a gold and silver chain necklace that she borrowed from the groom's sister. The "something old" was a sentimental article of wearing apparel. She chose her dress and garter for "something new" and "something blue."

Mrs. Charles Franks of Llano, sister of the groom, attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore a flame red street-length dress and carried a bouquet of coral silk roses touched with off-white ribbons and streamers.

Charles Franks, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man.

MR. and MRS. DAVID BROTT

A reception was held following the wedding. The bride's table was covered with off-white lace and the wedding cake was the center of interest. The other appointments were a crystal punch service and napkins accented with silver bells and "David and Candy", Feb. 14, 1982.

The tiered candlelight cake was set off with deep shells and scallops, red roses clinging to green leaves in frosting designs and white ceramic doves for decorations on the sides of each layer and a top ornament featuring a bride and groom standing under a double lace archway topped with a white dove.

The groom's table was laid with a cloth to match the one on the bride's table. It held a round chocolate cake topped with a chopper motorcycle and a comical bride and groom, names of the bride and groom and their wedding date. Valentine cupids and hearts hung above the table.

The bride and groom were both graduated from Iowa Park High School. She is a L.V.N. presently employed by Dr. Mac Fitzsimmons in Wichita Falls. He is a junior student at Midwestern State University majoring in journalism and works as a photographer for The Wichitan. They will live in Iowa Park.

Hawks drop Huskies 64-61

Tuesday's 64-61 victory here was sweet, sweet for the Iowa Park Hawks.

Actually, when it comes to a long-standing rivalry between two athletic teams, any victory is sweet. But this one was especially enjoyable for the Hawks, who are 22-6 for the season, 4-1 in second half play and 8-2 overall in district.

First of all, it was against the Hirschi Huskies, who had defeated the Hawks 53-47 to win the first half of district play. Secondly, it was before the largest crowd to cram into Iowa Park's gymnasium in the last six or eight years. It was the last of the scheduled games this season.

And lastly, it gave hope of defending their Dist. 3-AAAA crown. But the outcome of that situation is in another story on the front page of this issue, because of press deadline.

The Hawks jumped out to a 14-8 lead in the first quarter, but Hirschi rallied to lead 16-15 before the buzzer sounded the end of the period.

The visitors built a four-point lead in the second quarter, after Steve Page left the court with three fouls, but Steve Smith canned a jump shot with three seconds left on the clock to knot the score at 34-34 at the half.

Iowa Park built a 50-47 lead by the end of the third period, but Hirschi cut that to 50-49 as the final quarter got underway.

Smith's field goal with 5:02 showing on the scoreboard clock made the score 52-49, and that was the last shot from the floor Iowa Park made in the game. The other 12 points came from the foul line.

Smith finished the game with 30 points, 20 on field goals and 10 of 13 from the charity line. Page finished with 15, despite sitting some eight minutes on the bench with foul problems.

Hirschi cut Iowa Park's eight-point lead, 63-55 with 35 seconds remaining in the game, to 63-61 in the next 25 seconds. But with one second remaining, Bobby Bates hit a free shot and missed his second attempt. The ball was still in the air when the final buzzer sounded.

OTHER WINS

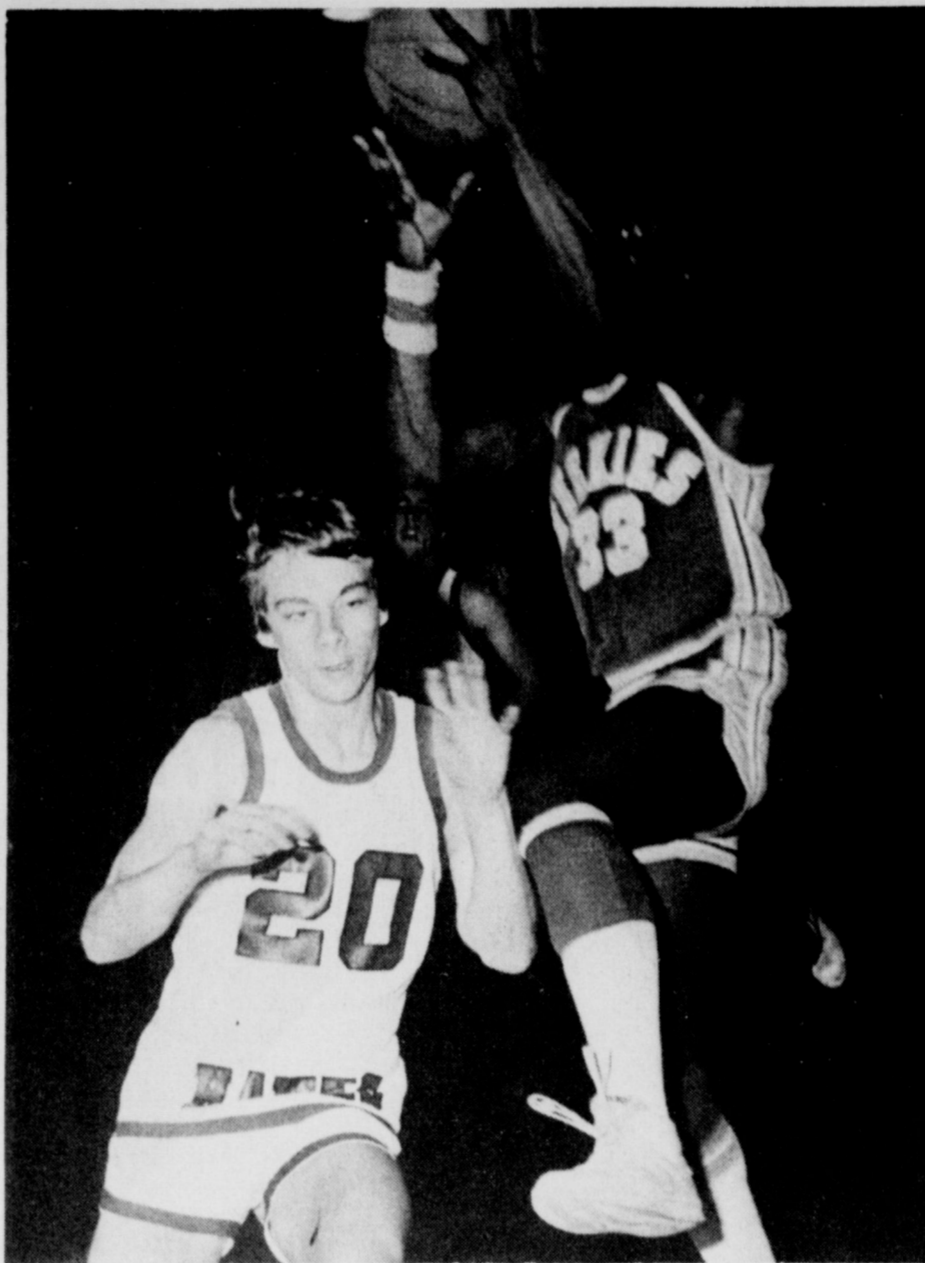

The Hawks utilized big scoring differences in the first and third periods to fashion their 55-49 win at Burkburnett Friday night. In those two frames, they outscored their hosts 17-8 and 18-9.

Smith and Bates had the scoring honors against the Bulldogs, with 22 and 10 points, respectively.

In Saturday's makeup game against Mineral Wells, a strong second half by the hawks proved the difference. After taking a 12-8 lead in the first quarter, the Hawks tried to play "run and shoot" with the Rams, and came out on the short end, 25-18, and trailed 33-30 at the midway point.

But the Hawks got back on their game in the third to outscore their opponents 20-8, and 14-8 in the final period, to win 44-29.

Smith canned 22 points against the Rams, Page 21 and Marc Klinkerman 10.

Martin scouts due

By Don Decker
County Agent

The martins are coming! Their scouts are due in February and martin houses will need to be in place soon. David Padgett of Iowa Park cleans his martin house and raises it into position by the middle of February.

An excellent blueprint for a martin house is available at the county Extension office. It features a central air passage which helps to cool the house during the summer. Martin houses are erected in open spaces. They are erected at heights ranging from eight to 14 feet. In open areas, the height of eight to 10 feet is adequate. If the house must be near trees or buildings, a height of 12 to 14 feet is recommended.

Martins feed almost entirely on insects. An adult marten can consume over 2,000 mesquitos per day.

A Choctaw pecan entry by R. G. Williamson of Wichita Falls took first place in the Western Pecan Conference held in Las Cruces, New Mex. last month. Williamson is past chairman of the Wichita County Pecan Growers, and he has a small pecan orchard in Wichita Gardens. The Texas Pecan Growers Association encouraged his participation in the New Mexico show. Williamson responded and his entry took first place. Williamson has been active in the local and regional pecan shows in this area.

The grand champion plaque was received by Joe Brown from the Texas Pecan Growers Association this week for his Champion Native entry at the 1981 Regional Pecan Show. His native pecan won the county show then advanced to the grand champion native in the regional show. His entry will go to state competition at the annual meeting of the Texas Pecan Growers Association during July. These state show entries are being held in cold storage for the state show.

Study continues

Mrs. Riley Thompson continued the study of "Challenge of the Cities," a home missions book by Marv Knox and Dan Martin Monday during a meeting of the Night W.M.U. of First Baptist Church.

She discussed evangelism, church extension, language missions and Christian social missions, the categories of ministry used by missionaries and ministers in New York City. She stressed how adaptability is one of the workers' greatest assets and shortage of manpower and money the greatest hindrance to spreading the gospel in that area. She described the work of eight missionaries in the four categories.

Mrs. Elmer Singleton was hostess and the presiding officer for the meeting. A letter was read from Mrs. Eleanor Bell, home missionary serving in a shelter for women at Lawton, Okla. Twelve members were present.

Free trees to members

The National Arbor Day Foundation is giving two free red maple trees to all new Foundation members joining during February.

The free maple trees are part of the Foundation's effort to promote tree planting during 1982, the 100th anniversary of the first observance of Arbor Day in schools.

The National Arbor Day Foundation, a nonprofit organization, is working to improve the quality of life throughout the country by encouraging tree planting. The Foundation will give two free red maple trees to new members contributing $5 or more during February.

The trees will be three to five feet tall and will be sent postage paid with enclosed planting instructions at an appropriate time for planting this spring. They are guaranteed to grow, or they will be replaced free by the Foundation.

Foundation members also receive a "Say Trees and Smile" bumper sticker and a subscription to the Foundation's newsletter.

To become a member of the Foundation, and to receive the free trees, a $5 membership contribution should be sent to: Two Free Trees, National Arbor Day Foundation, Arbor Lodge 100, Nebraska City, Neb. 68410, by Feb. 28.

Something happened to his voice

STAN BLAIR

[EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article appeared in this week's issue of The Wichitan, campus newspaper at Midwestern State Univ. The subject, Stan Blair, is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blair, residents of Pleasant Valley Estates.]

By Minnie Jo Pope

Stan Blair has come a long way since his freshman year when he auditioned for a scholarship in voice at MSU and was told that he would be given a scholarship if he majored in violin.

His freshman year he also was told if he learned to play the guitar in order to accompany the choir during pop numbers he might have a chance of getting into the choir despite his voice.

Blair, a graduate of MSU, recently won the Metropolitan Opera district competition in Dallas and placed fourth in the Metropolitan regional competition in San Antonio.

"I had to take voice lessons and at the end of that first year something started happening to my voice. Dr. (Don) Maxwell heard it and was sharp enough to be able to hear through all the problems, to realize that there might be a usable instrument down in there somewhere," Blair said.

"My first opera experience was when I was a freshman and the orchestra had to play for the opera "Carmen". I was sawing away on my violin at one of the rehearsals and at the end he killed her! I couldn't believe it. I thought, "People are supposed to go to the theater to have fun and he killed her!", Blair shared.

"I went to Houston to hear Dale Smith, a graduate of MSU, sing in a contest and also to hear Sherrill Milnes and Evelyn Lear in "Othello" at the Houston Grand Opera. That was my first time to ever go to a professional opera performance. I was never the same after that," Blair said.

"This is my fifth time to enter the Met auditions. We started when I was 20. We knew I wasn't ready but thought if I started when I was 20 by the time I was 23-24 it would be old hat," Blair explained.

Blair said for the competition he had to have five opera arias, in their original language of Italian, German, French and Russian, ready to perform. He chose one and the judges chose one for him to perform. He chose the Act 4 aria from the "Marriage of Figaro". Evelyn Lear, who he heard in "Othello" at the Houston Opera, was the finals judge.

"The Met audition is more of a contest with prizes and study grants. In the past they gave contracts but it was always as third spear carrier on the left, that type of thing. The person who won might have dinky roles at the Met when he could be making good money and be doing leading roles in major companies and working his way up. In the last 3-4 years they have boiled it down to 10 winners (125 tried out in San Antonio this year) and they take them under their wings," Blair explained.

"I owe a lot to MSU. The whole music faculty is a bunch of supportive folk who come to the concerts when you are in your formative years and may not be so good. If I had it to do over, I would be right at Midwestern even if I had a full scholarship to Juilliard," Blair concluded.

New members join noon club

Members of the Noon Lions Club inducted their second new member in as many weeks, and set the date for their annual broom and mop sale, during Tuesday's meeting.

Eddie Chambers was voted into membership Tuesday, a week after Bill Robinson joined the same civic organization.

May 1 was set for the annual broom and mop sale, according to John Sibley, project chairman.

IRS Tax Tips

Commercial tax return preparers must comply with certain requirements when making out clients' returns, the Internal Revenue Service advises.

The IRS explains, paid preparers are responsible for providing a copy of the completed return to the client for his/her records when the client signs the return. Preparers are required to keep copies of returns or a list containing taxpayers' names and identification numbers for three years. These records must be available for IRS inspection during this period.

Paid preparers are also required to sign completed returns and to provide their employer identification number on the return. Rubber stamps and signature facsimiles are not accepted by the IRS.

The handling of refund checks is also regulated.

Camp Fire Leaders

The Camp Fire Leaders met at the Recreational Activities Center Tuesday night. Mrs. Tim Kasper was in charge of the business meeting.

Mrs. Max Solomon reported that the annual candy sale gave promise of being one of the best the Camp Fire Girls have had.

Plans for the Father-Daughter box supper March 27 were finalized. March 12 was set aside for all leaders and assistants from Iowa Park and Wichita Falls to have a campout at Harrell Park.

Cook of the Week

Good homemade soup warms the heart as much as any food on wintry days and nights. The old-fashioned coal range usually held a pot of meat and vegetables, always warm and constantly being added to as it sent forth its appetizing aromas. Today, there are many canned soups which offer a variety to choose from and there are many quick-cooking methods that make it possible to have soup anytime one has a taste for it. However, when all is said and done, there are times when nothing tastes so good as homemade soups and stews.

Patsy (Mrs. Bill) Burns, bookkeeper and assistant director of Friendly Door, who always has a smile on her face that is contagious and helps to lift others out of the shadows into sunshine and happiness, perhaps has a big smile on her face when she sees how much her husband, who is owner of B&B Auto, and her family enjoy her homemade stew.

The former Patsy Thompson, daughter of Mrs. F.L. McCoy and the late Mr. Thompson, has spent most of her life in Iowa Park. She attended Iowa Park High School. She is a member of First Baptist Church and her hobbies are gardening, crocheting and sewing.

Bill and Patsy have two children, Ronnie and John, at home now. Their other children are Kathi Latham of Wichita Falls, Renee Hinson of Chickasha, Okla., Regina Shoemaker of Oklahoma City, Sabrina Bowen of Sulphur, Okla. and Bryan Burns of Graham.

OUR FAVORITE STEW

1-2 lbs. ground chuck or round steak (stew meat, if preferred)

Brown in large deep pan, add: 1 #303 can each of green beans, corn, peas, carrots, veg-all, 3 or 4 cans sliced potatoes. (Fresh carrots and potatoes may be used)

Then add:

1/2 can each cream of onion, cream of celery and beef bouillon soups. (Remainder can be divided and frozen for later use)

1 - #303 can stewed tomatoes
1 small can tomato sauce
Salt and pepper to taste
Simmer 30-45 minutes, stirring occasionally

Makes a lot, but stew is always better the next day.

Mrs. Bill Burns

OATMEAL COOKIES

1 1/2 cups flour
2 tps. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1 3/4 cups oatmeal
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg
1/2 cup milk
1 tsp. vanilla

In separate bowl, sift together flour, baking powder, salt; add oatmeal.

In large bowl cream shortening, gradually add sugar and beat until light and creamy. Add eggs and beat until smooth. Add milk and dry ingredients alternately (1/2 of dry ingredients, all of milk, remaining half of dry ingredients; Add vanilla with milk.

Drop by spoonful on greased cookie sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. Remove from pan immediately. Makes about 3 dozen. Cookies are kind of soft, not hard and crunchy.

QUICK DONUTS

(Patsy says that although she prefers homemade recipes, this is quick and a favorite of both children and adults.)

1 can biscuits
Powdered sugar or other favorite coating

Cut holes in biscuits. Preheat about 2 inches of oil or shortening in pan. Fry donuts until lightly brown on both sides. Drain on paper towel; better the next day.

while still warm coat with powdered sugar. Watch carefully while frying as they cook quickly. Don't forget to cook 'holes' too. They are the best part.

CARROT-PINEAPPLE SALAD

1 lb. grated carrots
1-medium or middle-sized can crushed pineapple
1/4 - 1/2 cup finely chopped pecans
Dash of salt
1/2 tsp sugar
Miniature marshmallows, about a cup

This is best made the day before serving. Add marshmallows an hour or two before serving. Salad keeps well for several days. Replenish marshmallows as needed as they dissolve in salad when stored.

BREAD

1 1/2 cups warm water
1 tsp. honey or pinch of sugar
1 T dry yeast (1 pkg.)
3 T sugar
1/4 cup shortening
2 1/2 tps. salt
4-4 1/2 cups flour

In large bowl, sprinkle yeast into 1/4 cup of the water into which honey or pinch of sugar has been added. Let rest 5 minutes. Mix in remaining water, sugar, shortening, salt and 1/2 of the flour. Beat well. Slowly stir in remaining flour and mix until dough is easy to handle but moist. Knead on well-floured surface about 8 minutes. Add more flour if dough is still sticky. When dough is smooth and elastic place in well-oiled large bowl. Turn to coat all sides of dough. Cover and let rise until double (1-2 hours).

Punch down and divide. Let rest 5 minutes. Shape 2 loaves and place in well-greased pans. Cover and let rise until doubled (1-1 1/2 hours). Bake in preheated oven at 350 degrees 35 to 50 minutes.

Mexico is estimated to have enough oil to supply all U.S. needs for the next 40 years.

State garden club official is speaker

Mrs. Cecil Jarvis, president of Zone One, Texas Garden Clubs, was the speaker for the Iowa Park Garden Club in a meeting held Friday morning in Texas Electric Reddy Room.

Mrs. Frank Harlin, who introduced the speaker, stated that she was a member of the Dig and Delve Garden Club in Wichita Falls, a 20-year Garden Club member, former president of Council of Garden Clubs in Wichita Falls and former president of the Popular Garden Club.

Mrs. Jarvis gave the program on the workings of district and state and how clubs can best win awards. She said that in judging the clubs were penalized unless they had participated in district and state projects. She said that the Iowa Park Garden Club had the highest grade and was one of the most outstanding clubs in this zone with a grade of 95.

Mrs. Jarvis suggested that it would be helpful for all members to subscribe to the District Bulletin and the National Gardener magazine.

Mrs. W.A. George presided during the business meeting. She reported that not all of the rose arrangements that the club made for the Chamber of Commerce banquet had been sold and that they were available for $5 each.

She read a letter from Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. inviting members to take a tour to Vicksburg, Miss. in the spring where gardens and antebellum homes will be visited. The president announced a district meeting in Gainesville March 3-4.

During the business, a nominating committee composed of Mmes. Delbert Todd, James Sewell and Keith Aulds was elected.

The program theme for the evening was "Parade of American Music." Mrs. Farmer told the background of the hymn of the month, "For All the Saints Who from Their Labors Rest," then the group sang the hymn.

Mrs. Aulds sang "If We Only Have Love" by Brel. Following a biographical sketch of David Guion, Mrs. Sewell played his composition "Turkey in the Straw" as a piano solo. Mrs. Todd sang "Stranger in Paradise," and the musical program was concluded with members gathering around the piano to sing American tunes and hymns.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated in a Valentine motif.

John Archer Hughes

Services for John Archer "Arch" Hughes, 79, who died Tuesday afternoon at his home, will be at 10 a.m. Friday in the First United Methodist Church, with Rev. George Topper officiating. Masonic graveside rites will be held at 11:30 a.m. in Wilbarger Memorial Park at Vernon. Burial will be under the direction of Tanner-Aulds Funeral Home.

A resident of Iowa Park since 1937, he took an active part in the civic life of the city until ill health forced his retirement. He served as alderman several years and as mayor between 1973-76. He was past president of the Chamber of Commerce and a former member of the Iowa Park school board. He helped organize the Little League Baseball in Iowa Park in 1957 and managed several teams. He later served as district representative several years.

Arch was a charter member of the Evening Lions Club and was honored by the club that he served as president at a "This Is Your Life" program. At that time, several players on baseball teams that he had managed helped tell the story of his life.

His influence reached beyond the city of Iowa Park in several areas. He was a member of the Wichita Falls City-County Board of Health 18 years, and a member of the Northwest Council of Boy Scouts and Canyon Fire Club. He was the first recipient of the Jaycees' Citizen of the Year award and received the Chamber of Commerce's Senior Citizen of the Year award in 1978.

After graduation from high school, he went to West Texas to work in the oil fields. He was married to Grace Daniels April 1, 1931, in Altus, Okla.

The couple moved to Iowa Park in 1937 and he worked for John B. Barbour Trucking Co. for a time. After a short business operation in Throckmorton, he sold his business interest and moved back to Iowa Park in the mid 1940s, where he established the Arch Hughes Construction Co. which he operated until the mid 1970s.

'Famous Texas Women' club speaker's topic

Dr. Llerena Friend of Wichita Falls, a retired faculty member of the University of Texas at Austin, was the featured speaker for the Tuesday evening meeting of the Amity Study Club held in Texas Electric Reddy Room. Members of the Philia Study Club were special guests.

The speaker's theme was "Famous Texas Women" in keeping with the observance of Texas Day Heritage. Introduced by Mrs. Lee Hale, program leader, she talked briefly about some of the best known women in Texas history, then devoted more time to some of the women of less renown.

Sister Maria of Refugio County, the "Mysterious Woman in Blue", who appeared to the Indians in the 1600s, was the first woman that Dr. Friend described. Others were Sally Skull of the 1800s known for her strong language, many husbands and as a trader with the Mexicans; Ruth Leggett Jones of Abilene, a well known philanthropist who aided black students in attaining their college education; and Ima Hogg, daughter of a Texas governor, who established the Winedale Properties, a complex of arts, which she gave to the University of Texas. She is also remembered for carrying on the work of her brother, the Foundation of Mental Health.

During the evening, Mrs. Don Rice conducted the business meeting when new officers were elected. Mrs. Philip Welch was elected president. Elected to serve with her were Mmes. Jerry Denton, vice president; Earnie Reusch, secretary-reporter; Jim Bob Merrick, treasurer; James Edwards, historian; Charlie Brown, critic-parliamentarian; Leo Thames and Rice, executive committee.

Mrs. Steve Montz gave the devotion to preface the talk by Dr. Friend. She used two poems "Tenacity" and "Leave Your God At Home" from Lou Gatlin's book, "Take Cover."
