FRIDAY AT OLNEY

Coaches expecting Hawks to improve

Coach David Baugh and his staff are looking forward to tomorrow night's scrimmage with the Olney Cubs. They are anxious to see what improvements the Hawks have made since their first scrimmage last Thursday.

Olney is not expected to be as quick a team as the one which scrimmaged the Hawks here last year. But the Cubs are reportedly larger in the line and talented in the skill positions.

ment last week when senior Bryan Fulfer sought a second opinion about his having a back problem which indicated he will likely be allowed to start playing.

Fulfer is the only player on this year's team who had any varsity experience last season. A running back, he is also looked to as a key in the defensive secondary.

Jacksboro's varsity scored once, on a 27-yard play by quarterback Rob Lane, but the Hawks were unable to penetrate the Tiger end zone.

In their two series offensively, the Hawks garnered seven first downs and 133 yards gained. Defensively, they allowed six first downs and 173 yards by the Tigers.

Varsity reserves showed more depth than Jacksboro, scoring once, gaining 75 yards and picking up five first downs. The reserves allowed only three first downs by Jacksboro and 70 yards.

In the junior varsity portion of the scrimmage, Iowa Park outgained the visitors 7-6 in first downs, and scored once. The Tiger JV didn't score.

The freshmen play on Olney's junior varsity team, so the reserves of the JV will scrimmage against the Hawk frosh starting at 6 p.m. at Olney Friday. First JV units will then scrimmage, and the varsities will begin their session about 7:15, according to Baugh.

The Head Hawk said he was pleased with all three teams' play last week against Jacksboro.

Concerning the varsity, he commented "We made lots of mistakes, but we expected the lack of experience to show up."

He quickly added, "We didn't see anything we can't correct."

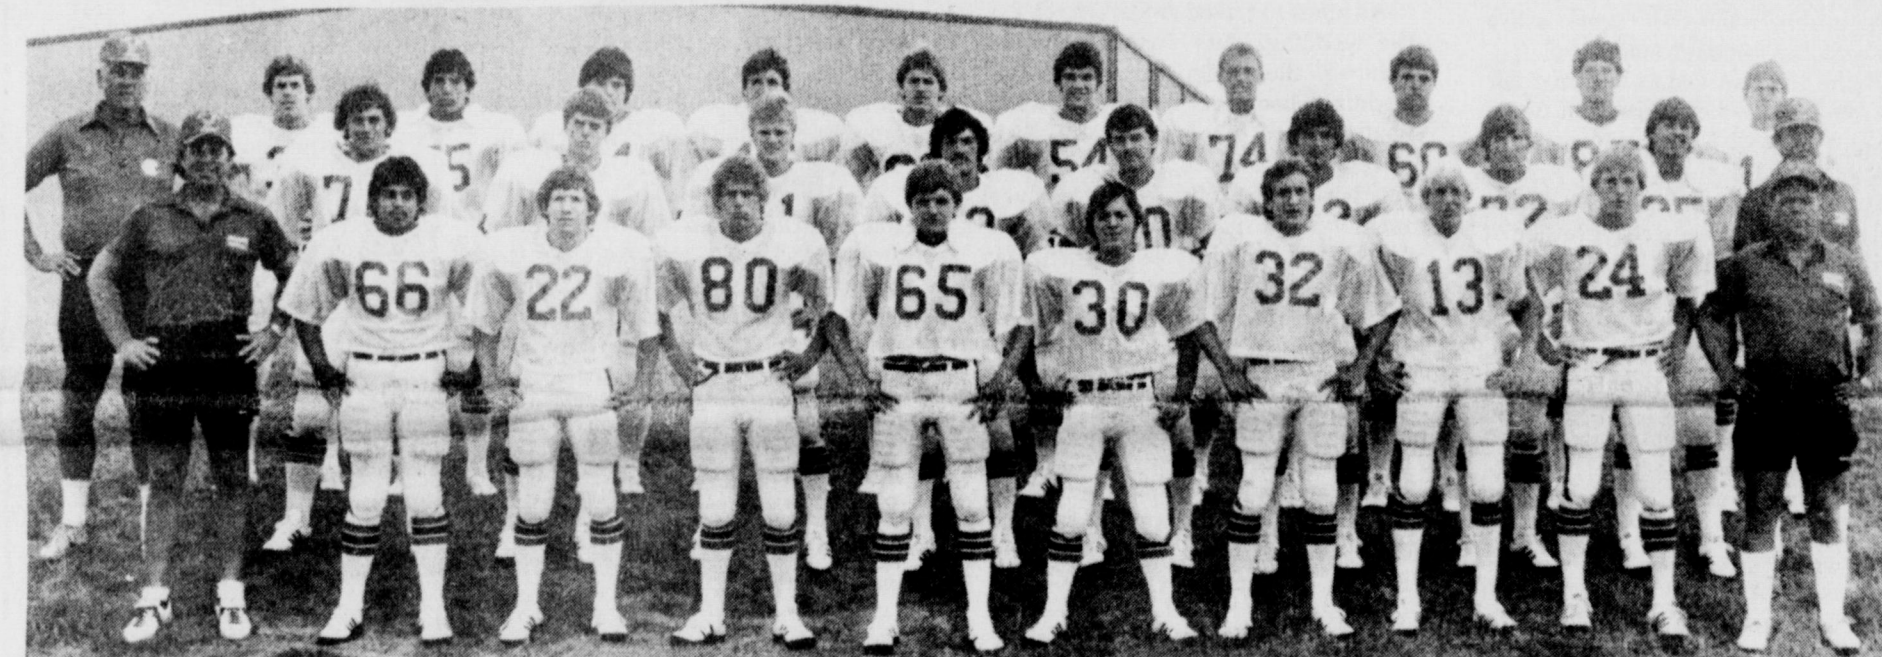

Adding to the team's few on the sideline with injuries, the Hawks have been plagued with a virus that cut the squad's number down to 20 who were able to play against the Tigers.

Baugh received some encourage-

Tax rate stays same, utility fees increased

The city council Monday night set the 1983-84 tax rate, increased fees for water, sewer and trash collection, and was told the state gave the green light on the proposed sanitary landfill site.

As had been discussed at the last meeting, aldermen voted to set the tax rate at 76-cents per $100 value for the coming year. That is the same rate as was assessed for the 1982-83 year.

Broken down, 65.11-cents will go to the general operating fund and 10.89-cents will be used for bond retirement.

However, as Mayor Charlie Lee pointed out, some individuals may not pay the same ad valorem taxes as they paid the previous year because of property value changes made by the Wichita County Tax Appraisal District.

None of the increased fees is to generate any additional revenue required to operate the individual departments, Administrator James Barrington said.

Water rates experienced the greatest increase, 20 percent. Five percent increases were approved for sewer service and trash collection.

The water increase was prompted by a 21-percent increase levied for treated water purchased from Wichita Falls.

But many consumers will find their water bills affected more than 20 percent, because of a change in the city's formula. Currently the city has a step-down rate after the basic 2,000 gallons purchased, reducing the cost per 1,000 gallons for major consumers.

The new formula has a base rate ($4.80) for the first 2,000 gallons and a fee of $1.92 per 1,000 gallons above the base amount. The percentage increase is applicable to all purchasers of city water.

The new rate will be applied to all billing received on and after Oct. 1, according to the ordinance. Therefore it will include September's consumption.

Immediately after approving the local rates, an ordinance amending the charge for water sold to the Wichita Valley Water Supply Corp. was increased from .5841 per 1,000 gallons to .7902.

The 21-percent increase requested by Wichita Falls for water sold to Iowa Park was the fifth increase since Iowa Park built its transmission line to that city in 1971. The agreement raises the rate from 40.68-cents per 100 cubic feet to 49.24-cents, or 65.82 cents per 1,000 gallons.

Iowa Park charges a 13.2-cent fee above what it pays Wichita Falls to the Valley Supply Corp. for transmission.

LANDFILL APPROVED

Barrington told the council, "We had some terrific news today. Our landfill permit was received from the state."

The new site will be on the southwest edge of the city, and is expected to be put into use about Oct. 1 after a road to the site is built and fencing is completed.

The administrator said work must be done on the tractor before the new site pits are dug, and expects that to be accomplished in time.

Concerning fears about contamination of his well water, which Ed Holder had expressed to the state hearing examiner some two months ago, Barrington told the council of testing made of the water.

The water from Holder's well "is worse than" water samples taken from a stock pond at the new landfill site, according to tests made, Barrington said.

A schedule of work is being planned for closing down the present landfill site at Buffalo Lake, complete with a covering of some type vegetation.

OTHER BUSINESS

Other topics discussed or on which action was taken included:

- * voted to table consideration of a public address system for the council chambers, but approved acquisition of a speaker's lectern which could be used by someone wanting to make a formal oral presentation to the council;

- * approved purchase of four new fire hydrants, at $780 each;

- * approved, following the second required public hearing, to dedicate the federal revenue sharing funds received in October to the library and subsequent payments during the fiscal year for street improvements;

- * approved an ordinance redefining terms of employee leave policy;
- * heard a report from Barrington that city-owned property in the south part of town is being cleared and raised with additional dirt where a fire substation will be built;

- * voted to switch insurance coverage of city buildings to Hill Insurance from a Wichita Falls firm at the same $53,000 annual premium;

- * approved purchase of a new fire truck pump engine, not to exceed $4,070;

- * and set Sept. 12, the next regular meeting date, as the public hearing for the 1983-84 budget.

Missing floral pieces returned

Artificial flowers taken from several Highland Cemetery plots over an extended period are being returned, according to a local resident who asked not to be identified.

The flowers are not in their original condition, because they were rearranged into other arrangements, and some pieces discarded.

However, what remains will be placed in bags at the cemetery entrance and can be picked up today.

Morrison retires after 31 years

J.D. Morrison, who retired last week after 31 years of service with Wichita County Precinct 3, was honored at a dinner Friday evening given at Texas Electric Reddy Room.

During the years, he worked under only two county commissioners, Buck Voyles 28 years, and Gordon Griffith the past three years.

The son of Mrs. Minnie Morrison and the late Philip Morrison, he was born in Iowa Park. Before he started work for the county, he had worked for the Ft. Worth and Denver Railroad, the city of Iowa Park and the school system where he did janitorial work and drove a school bus.

He and his wife, the former Ethel Skinner, have two children, Dianne Vance of Burlington, Colo. and Doug of the home.

Attending the dinner Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Morrison and Doug were Messrs. and Mmes. Buck Voyles, Gordon Griffith, Wayne

Kingcade, Dan Ainsworth, Perry Johnston; Cleo Atkins from Precinct

J.D. MORRISON

3, and Mr. and Mrs. Junior Coats from Precinct 4. Buddy Johnson and Don Vines of Precinct 3 were unable to attend.

Morrison started work for the county as a truck driver and retired as a grader maintainer. He was presented with fishing gear and personal gifts at the dinner meeting.

Two sex offense charges filed

Charges have been filed in county court during the past week against two Iowa Park men for sexual offenses with juveniles. Both are unrelated.

A rape of a child charge was filed Friday against Larry Britt. Justice of the Peace R.L. Stewart set bond at $20,000.

The charge, filed by sheriff's deputy Eloy Vigil, alleges Britt and a 14-year-old Iowa Park female registered as husband and wife Aug.

13 at a motel in Burkburnett.

Shortly after noon yesterday, Fritz Lanham Witherspoon, 69, was charged before Stewart with indecency with a child, and bond was set at $5,000. He was taken before the magistrate by Jerry Barker of the Iowa Park Police Department.

Witherspoon allegedly had sexual contact at various times since December with a six-year-old female in his home at 120 W. Garden.

Both offenses are second degree felony.

Gray, Gage exchange wedding vows Saturday

The wonder and beauty of decorations and appointments and the intense joy of the occasion created the mood for an impressive wedding ceremony and reception held Saturday evening at the Church of God where Miss Mary Alice Gray and Christopher Dillion Gage pledged their vows.

Rev. Ole Olds, pastor, officiated the double-ring ceremony to unite the daughter of Mrs. Mearlene Gray of Iowa Park and the late Alfred Gray, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Gage of Wichita Falls.

The variable color of royal blue, combined with white and silver, added special eye appeal to the decorative scheme for both the church and reception room.

The center of the altar was marked with a brass fifteen-branched candelabra flanked by spiral candelabra. Each standard held tall white cathedral candles and was entwined with emerald greenery attractively trimmed with white mums and royal blue gladioli. In the foreground of the altar was a marble-topped prayer bench that gave solemnity to the setting. In the lower altar, two imposing basket arrangements of white silk gladioli, and carnations and royal blue mums were raised by brass stands at either side.

The three-branched candlestick centered with a leatherleaf plaque accented with a royal blue and silver silk ribbon bow came into focus after the ceremony. As the bride and groom were exiting from the church, they lifted the two candles that burned during the service, used them to light the unity candle, then extinguished them to express that they were "no longer twain but one in the flesh."

The pathway to the altar was lighted by votive candles nestled in silk greenery, royal blue and white silk bows atop the pews.

The bride was escorted to the altar and presented for marriage by her brother, Danny Gray. She wore an exquisite white silk organza designer gown over peau de soie steeped in elegant tradition. The entire bodice was gently sculpted with embroidered Belgium lace and designed with an open neckline enhanced with silk flowers draped over layered cape-style sleeves. The flattering waistline was trimmed with a chiffon sash and a single satin bow.

The full skirt that flowed into a chapel train was bordered with a deep flounce of embroidered Schiffl lace delicately threaded with white satin ribbon and adorned with a spray of silk flowers for the perfecting touch.

The bride's two-tiered fingertip illusion veil was gathered to a halo of white silk roses, rosebuds and satin leaves. She carried a large silk cascade bouquet created of royal blue bachelor buttons, white gardenias and forget me nots complemented with English ivy and trailing royal blue and white silk ribbons.

Keeping bridal traditions, she wore her mother's pearls for "something old and borrowed," a fancy white lace garter trimmed with royal blue silk ribbon and pearls, a handmade gift from Mrs. Donnie Taylor for "something blue;" and her gown for "something new."

The bride's sister, Mrs. Leonard Davis III, had the role of matron of honor in the wedding. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joe Stevens, Mrs. Donnie Taylor, Miss Connie Fitzgerald, Miss Kim Gage, sister of the bride, and Miss Lindy Neely.

The sextet of attendants were attired in identical royal blue taffeta gowns designed with straight necklines, chic four-puff sleeves, straight skirts gathered to waistline cummerbunds.

Complementing their gowns were the brass hurricane lamps with etched globes that they carried. The globes were filled with royal blue bachelor buttons and tweedia, white stephanotis, blue and white forget me nots and English ivy with royal blue and white lace ribbons dropping floorward from the lamps.

Jolene Surlis of Holliday, the flower girl was dressed similarly to the attendants in a royal blue taffeta frock modified for her age. She carried the bride's toss away bouquet of bachelor buttons, tweedia, carnations and Queen Anne's lace in the chosen colors in a white lace basket tied with white silk.

J.J. Gibson, dressed like the groom's attendants, carried the ring pillow bedecked with blue bachelor buttons, pixie carnations and white roses.

The groom wore a formal all-white tuxedo with wing tip pleated shirt and a boutonniere formed of white stephanotis, royal blue forget me nots and baby's breath. The masculine participants in the wedding wore silver satin-notched lapelled classic tuxedos with white wing-tipped shirts and royal blue cummerbunds. The ushers wore the same attire without the cummerbunds.

David Gage served as best man for his son. Groomsmen were Clint Gage, Billy Worley of Lubbock, cousins of the groom, Jesse Wilson of Archer City, Craig Lile, and Bruce Gibson. Ushers were Robert Gray, brother of the bride, and Jeff Nolen of Arlington.

Mothers of the bride and groom chose silk corsages of white gardenias, stephanotis, blue forget me nots accented with touches of white satin and pearls to wear with their formal gowns.

Mrs. Gray wore a long royal blue taffeta gown styled with a square neckline, short puffed sleeves, skirt ruffled down one side that split in front to border the hemline. Mrs. Gage wore a pink silk gown designed with a V-neck, long bishop sleeves, cummerbund sash that tied at the waist, and a front skirt ruffle that extended from the waistline to floor level.

The newlyweds are on a wedding trip to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico. For travel, the bride wore a white dotted blue crepe dress featuring short sleeves and an elasticized gathered waistline. They will live in Wichita Falls when they return. She was graduated from Iowa Park High School and is employed at First Wichita National Bank. He was graduated from Rider High School and is employed by Gageco Trucking, Inc.

The bride's mother was hostess for the wedding reception held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride's table, draped in elegant fashion with white Chantilly lace over white bridal satin, clearly stood apart in the setting. The beauty of the cloth was enhanced with swagged lace at the top caught up with royal blue satin and white lace bows.

The eye-stunning attraction of the table was noticed particularly in the centerpiece and cake, with the silver punch bowl, royal blue napkins imprinted with names of the bride and groom and their wedding date in silver, and wedding bell-shaped hand molded mints adding bits of glamor to the total effect.

The center attraction was a silver candelabrum holding white candles and beautifully arrayed with white Indianapolis mums, royal blue bachelor buttons and tweedia. The three-tiered white cake was completely covered with rich and dramatic floral embellishments in pearl-centered frosting roses, bridal trumpets, stephanotis, forget me nots in three shades of blue with very pale green leaves. The same theme was noted in clusters of the flowers for the top ornament to complete the storybook look.

The silver coffee service and mints were placed on a round table nearby covered with the white Chantilly lace over white bridal satin and a top drape with royal blue and white satin bows.

The gift table was covered to the floor with royal blue satin and appointed with white wedding bells filled with rice bags which were handed by Jolene Surlis.

As guests arrived at the church for the wedding, Miss Jennifer Quillen secured their signatures for the wedding book at a table draped identically to the bride's table with the addition of white wedding bells to the bows. The table held a silver compote of royal blue bachelor buttons and a white plume pen.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at their home.

Mrs. Grace Nall of Graham, grandmother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gray of Frederick, Okla., grandparents of the bride, were special wedding guests. Others from out-of-town were Mamie Wilson of Gore, Okla. and Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Prewitt of Kemp.

The decorations depicting the bride-elect's chosen colors of pink and white, were given special emphasis at the refreshment table draped with a white polyester satin cloth featuring a gathered floor length skirt. The attractive centerpiece was a bouquet of pink and white silk tulips, roses, carnations and stephanotis arranged in a crystal bowl with prisms with a gold and marble base. The colors were repeated in the refreshments and pink napkins inscribed in gold with Mary Lee and Charles. Miss Betsy Burrell of Lubbock presided at the table.

Cook of the Week

"The turnpike road to people's hearts, I find, lies through their mouths or I mistake mankind," so said Dr. Wolcott. It is pleasing to know that the Cook of the Week section in the Leader has opened, and continues to open, a treasury of meal-brightening, economical dishes, an endless variety of salads, desserts, main dishes, entrees, etc. with a fresh kind of appetite appeal to pave the turnpike road to people's hearts.

Billie (Mrs. Randy) Scoabee heads her recipes for this week with a Happy Home recipe, one that should be used in every home every day.

The former Billie Denham was graduated from Quana High School and worked for Vernon Mental Health Center. She has lived in Iowa Park for seven years and is presently working as a cashier-clerk at Scoabee's Mini Mart No. 2. She attends the Methodist Church and her hobbies are ceramics, softball and a brand new one, soccer.

Billie and Randy, who works for Cryovac, have two children, Clinton six and a half years old, and Chellie four years of age.

Mrs. Randy Scoabee

Letter to the Editor

Letter to the Editor
 As a Peace Officer in the State of Texas and for the City of Iowa Park I would like to bring something to the attention of citizens of Iowa Park who have infant children and are driving a motor vehicle with these children in their arms. The impact of a vehicle at just 10 miles per hour is enough that the driver is thrown against the steering wheel with enough force to knock the wind out of them. Just think what would happen to a small child that would be between the driver and the steering wheel. As of now there is no traffic law that prohibits a person from holding a child while driving. I just pray to God that I never get a call to a traffic accident where this has happened. Just think of how you would feel if your child was killed by the force of your own body. If this letter makes even one person stop and think then I'm glad that I wrote it.

Officer T.R. Adams
 Iowa Park Police Dept.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

I had thought all summer that I would be able to look at next Monday with an indifferent view. But it just didn't happen.

You may recall last spring, when I pointed out that Dolores and I were out of the public school business for the first time in almost two decades.

Well, I'm just as wrapped up in the first of school as I ever was, with the exception that I won't have one of my children attending.

Not here, anyway. Seems Midwestern State Univ. has set Monday as its first day of school, also. And Kari, our spring high school graduate, has enrolled.

If you thought your high school student was hitting your pocketbook hard with all those fees, memberships, lunch tickets, lock rental, uniforms and so forth, you haven't had a kid in college yet.

I think a wedding is the only thing more expensive than putting your offspring in college.

Even without a child in school here, it's not hard to get wrapped up with the starting of another year. We've had people coming into the office for weeks, wanting to know about the school calendar, whether we will continue publishing the weekly cafeteria menu, what are the supply needs, will there be any changes in school hours, solicitations for school-related organizations and publications. . . the list goes on and on.

It would be extremely difficult for school to start without being interested.

A standing joke exists among business people in the community. It seems, on weekdays, the town comes alive twice daily during the school year: 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. That's when parents drop off or pick up their students and head to the stores.

I like it when school is underway. The community just seems to be more alive. Certainly, from the newspaper standpoint, we have a lot more things to cover.

But people aren't out of town on vacations. They're here, daily, and that's much more interesting to me personally.

Of course, there are some parents who are glad to see school open again. They get their kids out of the house for a few hours a day.

Generally, those who feel that way have a very poor rapport with their children. So it's understandable.

I'm also glad for school to get underway each year because our teachers and their families are back at home. Teachers often scatter in all directions during the summer, attending school, working or traveling. I miss them when they aren't around.

So, starting Monday, I guess I'll be a happy fellow, until May 25, anyway.

READ THE SIGNS!

Because children don't. When kids are at play, often they don't watch out for traffic. Make it your job to watch out for them. Drive with extra caution.

Stop, look and listen for children during school hours and after!

Give your bicycle a pre-school safety check

School days are just around the corner, and getting ready for school should include giving your bicycle a safety check. In the 4-H bicycle program conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M Univ. system, youngsters learn all about bicycle safety, says Cheryl Mapston, county Extension Agent.

Here are some things 4-Hers include in a bicycle safety check:

1) Stand beside the bike and hold the handlebars as you do when riding. If you can turn the handlebars up and down, they need adjustment.

2) Lift the weight from the front end to see if the cones in the front end of the frame are in proper adjustment.

3) Hold the front wheel with one hand and the handlebar with the other. See if you can twist the handlebar post out of position. If you can, have it adjusted.

4) Steady the bike with one hand. With the other, grasp the tire or rim near the front fork. Do the wheelhub bearings feel quite loose, or is the front wheel held securely?

5) Test the rear wheel the same way.

6) The chain should have about half-inch movement up and down. If it's too tight, the bike will run hard and tire you. If it's too loose, it will wear rapidly on the sprockets. Have it adjusted to the correct tension.

7) Is the seat held firmly in place? You will tire less if you keep the ball of your foot on the pedal, rather than the instep. Try the seat for height. Your leg should be nearly straight when the pedal is in its lowest position.

8) Turn the bike over and let it rest on the handlebars. Hold the frame with one hand and the pedal crank near the end with the other. Is there much looseness in your crank assembly?

9) While the bike is upside down, turn the wheels to check for wobble. Check the tires for wear and cuts. If they are damaged, replace them. Also, try the coaster brake to see how it works.

10) Are the wheels in good alignment? Are the rims straight and do they run in the center between the forks? If any spokes are broken, replace them to help keep the rims straight. The wheels can be centered in the fork by a simple adjustment.

11) Are the pedals in good condition? If they are bent and weathered badly, it's usually easier to replace them than to repair them.

12) Check the air pressure in the tires. It should be at the manufacturer's suggested pressure. On a rough road, lower pressure (about 22 pounds on a balloon tire) will make the going smoother. On a hard road, high pressure makes the going easier.

A bicycle rider should practice safety at all times, emphasizes Cheryl Mapston. The rider must obey all rules of the road. Give pedestrians the right of way, stop at stop signs and go slowly in heavy traffic. Stay on the right side of the road, and use arm signals.

Also, cross the street only at an intersection. Get off and push the bike through intersections after checking both directions to see if the way is clear.

Watch carefully where you are going - but know what is happening at each side and behind you. Don't change directions or stop quickly without letting others know what you plan to do.

When riding with others, ride single file on the right side of the road as cars approach. Don't carry riders.

By combining courtesy and safety, bike riding can be an enjoyable experience, says Cheryl Mapston.

Damage high at drive-in

Vandals caused more than $500 worth of damage sometime Thursday night to a local business.

Sonic manager Larry Beckham told police someone had destroyed five radio order station units which cost $100 apiece sometime after the business closed Wednesday and he opened the next morning.

And someone apparently wanted a lot of ice and also to go to the bathroom.

Ray Copening, owner of the Texaco station on North Pacific, said someone broke off the locks on the ice storage bin and the lady's restroom. The locks were valued at $15 each and 20 bags of ice, valued at $10, were reportedly missing.

It entered the pay zone at 720 feet and will produce from a set of perforations 720 to 721 feet into the wellbore.

Each pumping oil at the rate of 16 barrels per day, the No. 23, 24, & 29 Hammon Fee have been completed in the Wichita Regular Field by S&J Operating Co. of Wichita Falls.

Located six miles southwest of Iowa Park, the No. 23 & 29 wells have respective drilling depths of 1,455 and 1,459 feet. Pay zones were entered at 1,411 and 1,421 feet, with perforations ranging from 1,411 to 1,444 feet.

The No. 24 well entered the pay zone at 1,421 feet and went to 1,459 foot bottomhole. Perforations range from 1,421 to 1,426 feet into the hole. It is six miles south of Iowa Park.

The wells are situated in a 409-acre lease of Wichita County's E.T. RR Survey.

Reid Petroleum Resources Inc. of Wichita Falls has revealed plans to drill a 1,500-foot developmental well in the Wichita Regular Field. The operator has 2-acres leased, with drillsite in Wichita County's HT&B RR Survey and has designated the venture as the No. 6 Reid/Slaughter. Drillsite is three miles northeast of Electra.

Pumping at the rate of 16 barrels of crude oil per day on an open choke, the No. 14 Denny was completed in Wichita County's H.B. Balch Survey by Catlin Drilling Co. of Iowa Park.

Drillsite is in a 158-acre lease in the Wichita Regular Field, eight miles southwest of Iowa Park.

After entering the pay zone at 1,025 feet, the well went to 1,350 foot bottomhole. It was perforated to produce from an interval 1,025 to 1,035 feet into the wellbore.

At a location four miles south of Iowa Park, TS&T Drilling Inc. of Electra has completed the No. 5 Roller, new oil well in the Wichita Regular Field.

Drillsite was in a 370-acre lease in Wichita County's R.J. Scott Survey.

The well showed daily potential for 10 barrels of oil on an open choke.

Production will be from an interval 702 to 716 feet. Well's total depth was 740 feet, with top of pay logged at 702 feet.

Flowing at the rate of 903 barrels of crude oil and 193,000 CF casinghead gas per day on a 12/64 choke, the No. 1 Rapp was completed in Hardeman County's H&R Survey by Phillips Oil Co. of Oklahoma City, OK.

The well showed flowing tubing pressure of 1,040 PSI.

Drillsite is in a 110-acre lease, one mile south of Chillicothe.

After entering the pay zone at 8,128 feet, the wildcat went to 8,357 foot bottomhole. It was perforated to produce from an interval 8,309 to 8,357 feet.

The well is 1,000 feet from the west line and 683 feet from the south line of the lease and survey.

The No. 3 T.J. Waggoner "EE" is slated to be drilled in the Wichita Regular Field by L&S Drilling Inc. of Wichita Falls. With projected total depth of 2,000 feet it will be spudded in a 60-acre lease of the H. George Survey, four miles north of Kamay, in Wichita County.

S.L. Mowrey of Wichita Falls has revealed plans to drill a 1,400-foot developmental probe in the Wichita Regular Field. The operator has 140-acres leased, with drillsite in Wichita County's W.H. Anderson Survey and has designated the venture as the No. 20 J.Z. Dunn. Drillsite is three miles southeast of Burkburnett.

DOES IT SEEM LIKE YOUR FAMILY IS ALWAYS RIDING A ROLLER COASTER?

Families have their "ups" and "downs", don't they? There are quiet moments, hugs, loving words, laughter, times of closeness, and affirming support. But there are also hectic schedules, conflicting careers, too many business trips, peer pressure, financial squeezes, raised voices, hurt feelings, pain and tears.

There are countless pressures on families today. We can move from agony to ecstasy, from attraction to aversion, and back again in just one day. That's the kind of people we are. Jesus recognizes that. He didn't promise that families would never have difficulties or conflicts. But He did say He would never leave us or forsake us. Your family is important. It's valuable. It's worth hanging on to. His love helps us in the up's and down's of daily living.

IRS Tax Tips

THIRD QUARTER ESTIMATED TAX PAYMENT DUE SEPTEMBER 15, 1983

Some wage earners and other individuals who have income other than wages may be required to file estimated tax payments, the Internal Revenue Service says.

You are liable for filing a declaration of estimated tax if you have income not subject to withholding of more than $500 and you expect to owe at least $300 on next year's return. The IRS states that you are also liable if you expect to owe at least $300 and your gross income is more than:

$20,000 - if you file as single, head of household, qualifying widow or widower, or married, can file a joint declaration and your spouse has not received wages for 1983;

$10,000 - if you are married, can file a joint declaration, and both of you have received wages for 1983;

$5,000 - if you are married and cannot file a joint declaration.

Just like withholding by employers, the IRS says, estimated taxes are paid in advance of the actual tax return, Form 1040, due for the year. Estimated taxes are normally paid in four installments (the first two were due April 15 and June 15), and there is a substantial penalty for underpayment of estimated taxes.

For 1983 returns, the two remaining estimated tax installment dates are September 15, 1983, and January 17, 1984.

Crop insurance policy can be collateral

Crop Insurance on wheat can pay off in dollars and cents even for farmers who have a bumper crop, according to Ross Smith, Federal Crop Insurance district director for Wichita County. One major benefit, the FCIC official notes, is the possibility of obtaining a more favorable interest rate on crop production loans by pledging the insurance policy as collateral.

Smith points out that many lenders consider insurance to be especially attractive collateral because it provides a guaranteed source of income for loan repayment in the event of a crop loss. Any indemnity checks are paid directly to the designated lender. In contrast, other more conventional types of collateral such as machinery and land can result in the lender having to liquidate the borrower's productive assets and thereby reduce future earning ability.

In addition to the possibility of interest savings when production loans are secured by insurance, Smith notes that some lenders are willing to be more liberal in their lending to borrowers who insure the loan proceeds against possible loss. In a good crop year, the additional credit can be employed to produce additional profits. In a poor crop year, the insurance pays off the loan.

Federal Crop Insurance policies are sold in Wichita County by independent insurance agents and private insurance companies. A list is available from the ASCS office in Iowa Park.

"Many wheat growers who have not carried insurance in the past will find the protection a better buy this year because of the opportunity to purchase protection based on their own yield experience," says Smith. Under an Individual Yield Coverage (IYC) program, policyholders who can document a history of above-average yields for the past three or more years are now being offered additional coverage at no additional cost.

SOCIAL SECURITY TIPS

NAME CHANGE FREE SERVICE AT SOCIAL SECURITY OFFICE

An individual should report a name change to the nearest Social Security office as soon as possible. Prompt reporting prevents confusion of a discrepant name and number on one's earning record. It also prevents a delay in processing income tax returns because of a mismatched name and number.

There have been various reports of private companies charging a fee for persons to have their names changed on their Social Security records. This service is free. All one must do is go to the nearest Social Security Office and fill out an application, and submit evidence substantiating the name change and verifying existing identity.

For example, a woman who has changed her name due to marriage should bring her marriage certificate, which would show her previous and her new name. If the marriage certificate is not available, other documentation could be used. The important factor is that the documentation should verify the name before and after the name change.

Reporting a name change promptly is very important. If you have changed your name contact your social security office at 1000 Burnett St., Wichita Falls, Texas. The phone number is 322-5213.

DELAYED RETIREMENT CREDITS

As an incentive to encourage people to work beyond age 65, Social Security currently increases the future benefit of any person who does not start drawing their retirement checks at age 65 but keeps working. This extra money is called a delayed retirement credit. Presently, the check increases 3 percent per year for every year the individual works between ages 65 up to age 72.

The 1983 Amendments to the Social Security Law now provides for delayed retirement credits to increase, beginning in 1990, an extra one-half percent every other year until by the year 2008.

First-day enrollment shows slight decline

First-day enrollment figures indicate a slight drop in number of students at Holliday schools, according to superintendent Dan Owen, with a total of 727 students attending.

In grades nine through 12, a total of 221 students enrolled, a drop of five from the 226 students accounted for last year, said high school principal Bill Lee.

Grades six through eighth, departmentalized for the first time this year, have 192 students enrolled, according to principal Jake Cottrell. In last week's edition of the Leader, Karla Wallace was incorrectly identified as the new junior high principal, but instead will be teaching in those grades. Trustees hired Wallace as a teacher during the meeting, and named Cottrell as the new principal.

In elementary grades kindergarten through six, 313 students were enrolled, and the drop from last year's 395 figure can be attributed directly to splitting the kindergarten into two halves, with one half taking a full semester of school, followed by another group of kindergarten students, said principal Carol Magee.

Magee also said an "Early Childhood Education" program is being featured at the school this year, with Donna Reynolds helping pre-school students with learning disabilities. She has seven in her class this year.

"If we find someone with a speech or communications problem, (hearing or other), we can find early and try to help them with it," Magee said.

School budget, tax to be set

Holiday school trustees will meet at 7 p.m. Monday for a called meeting to amend the previous year's budget and vote on a possible increase in the tax rate.

In a meeting held recently where expenditures for the 1983-84 school year were discussed, the board was able to hold expenses to almost $40,000 less than the previous year.

However, according to superintendent Dan Owen, the amount of revenue received with the same tax rate would be drastically less this year because of a drop in gas and oil, real estate and various exemptions.

Eagles to scrimmage Nolan tomorrow night

Holiday's Eagles will scrimmage a tough Fort Worth Nolan squad in Holliday at 6 p.m. tomorrow to wrap up preparations for the start of the 1983 football campaign, against Eastland here the following Friday night.

"We feel like to this point offensively we have progressed as well as we have wanted," head coach Don Lucy said after Tuesday's practice. "Defensively," he continued, "we haven't progressed as far as we would like."

Lucy said 65 players suited up at the start of two-a-days recently, and 32 players are now practicing with the varsity squad. "We will probably keep only 27 on the varsity," commented Lucy. He added that, outside of three or four positions, a number of players are still challenging for the starting spot.

The freshman squad will scrimmage Nolan first, followed by the junior varsity, then varsity. Nolan is a Class AAAA Catholic school.

Although the Eagles were felled in the scoring column against Knox City last week, 3-2, Lucy was still optimistic about this year's team.

"Knox City always gives us a hard time," he said. "The year we went to quarterfinals they beat us."

"We have practiced harder and longer than in other years, and now we are going to go out there and play the best we can," Lucy remarked. On the plus side, Lucy said, "We could possibly have more depth than in other years, with more players able to come off the bench and help us."

The negative side, Lucy said, is the boys "... playing the kind of football we need to be playing. They have a lot to learn."

In the district race this year, Lucy feels the top four teams from last year, Boyd, Jacksboro, Olney and Holliday have the upper hand. Archer City and Nocona, said Lucy, are the teams to look out for in terms of improvement over the previous year.

The Eagle roster for 1983, listing only offensive positions, is as follows: Quarterbacks Kurt Lilley, Ronnie Fellhauer and Pat O'Brien; tailbacks Bobby James, Shannon West and Danny Hinsley; wingbacks Lyle Jeffcoat, Tom Hamill and Larry Krob; fullbacks Jay "Bucks" Burks, Mark Parker and Don Hobgood (new player, senior, from China Springs); centers Eugene Whitting, Kevin Nichols, Guy Gilmore and Kelly Carver; and guards Steve Molone, Dee Moer, Kelly Coats, Charlie Featherston, Steve Snider and Mike Muse.

Also, tackles Jeff Wise, Bubba Hester, Marc Fleming and Scott Dyer; and ends Bill Cook, John Smyers, Jim Rogers, Gradlin Franks, Donnie Long and Les Dobberty.

Coaches are Lucy, and assistants Matt Robinson, Jake Cottrell, Bill Higgins, Cody West and Stephen McIlhenny.

Be Wise About Apples

Word games are high on everyone's popularity list. Here's a free association game you might like to try. See if you can come up with the correct answer to this question: "What do Jonathan, Idared and Stayman have in common?"

Know your apples... each has its own flavor and distinct characteristics.

No, they're not a new rock group. In fact, they're different varieties of apples. Don't be discouraged if you didn't know the answer because you can find more than 200 apple varieties grown in the United States. That fact comes from the International Apple Institute, which also tells us that just 16 of these varieties account for 95% of the annual apple production. Apples are grown commercially in 40 states. You can find at least five of these in supermarkets in any part of the country.

The familiar McIntosh, known especially throughout the Northeast and Upper Midwest, is excellent for snacking, applesauce and most cooking. It is very aromatic and has its own distinctive, mildly tart flavor; unmatched by any other variety.

Rome Beauty is a classic baking apple. It is excellent for all cooking purposes, but is less popular as a fresh snacking apple because of its neutral flavor. But baking and cooking release an abundance of hidden flavors.

Unlike other fruits and vegetables such as strawberries and tomatoes, where variety is seldom considered, variety is indeed important to almost all apple lovers. Not only is each variety distinctly different, but most everyone has his or her own special favorite.

There's no such thing as just an apple. Get to know your apples on a first name basis, and try the different varieties offered at your supermarket. In addition to those you already enjoy, you may find some wonderful new friends.

Consider the Delicious, McIntosh and Rome Beauty varieties for example. Delicious is best known for
