Hawks to open season here tomorrow night

How good are the 1983 Hawks? It's been established this is a building year for Iowa Park, after losing a team with senior starters, this is a "building year."

The predictions by state observers are that this will be a season during which the Hawks "build character."

But in Hawk Stadium tomorrow night, the fans will get a pretty good idea just how good their team is. They'll be tested by the Breckenridge Buckaroos when the ball is kicked at 8 p.m.

The Harris Rating System has the Buckaroos a 10-point favorite over the Hawks. But that isn't new. Breckenridge was rated over Iowa Park last year, too. The Hawks won, at Breckenridge, 28-7.

Breckenridge holds a 2-1 advantage over the Hawks in the current series that began in 1980. The Bucks won 20-6 the first year and 19-0 the second.

Two Hawks remember well last year's runners up of Dist. 7-AAA. Greg Untalon and Craig Whisnand were starters for the '82 Hawks and are counted on heavily as leaders of the team this season.

Untalon mostly saw action as a defensive tackle last season, but was called on to run the ball nine times against Breckenridge and gained 74 yards.

This year he's figured to be the leading Hawk carrier, and has shown in the two scrimmages he can do it. But he's also tabbed for double duty, and will play middle linebacker or noseguard defensively.

Whisnand's time on the field last season was primarily as the offensive center. He'll be doubling this year as a down lineman on defense. His play in the scrimmages has sealed that position.

Untalon tips the scales at 200, Whisnand at 205.

Breckenridge will be counting heavily on running back Kelsey Williams, who reportedly stands 6-2, weighs 190, does the 40 yards in 4.7 and gained more than 1,600 yards the past two years.

Baugh must make up his mind who he will start in the backfield prior to tomorrow's kickoff. As possible starters, he's listing both quarterbacks, Dale Hayley and Van Hedrick. Others besides Untalon are Lee Roach, Darin Whitman and Jerry Allen.

Linemen tabbed to start on offense are Whisnand; guards Mark Copeland and Bobby Halady; tackles Charles Perry and Sergio Arrendondo and ends Scott Young and Jeff Brookshire.

Untalon, Whisnand, Allen, Halady, Perry and Scott Young are all tabbed to go both ways, as Baugh also has them listed to start defensively.

Other defensive starters are Kendall Hill, Charles Adams, Bryan Fulfer, Phillip Davis and Chris Reeves.

Eight listed as possible starters are juniors and one is a sophomore.

Because so many players on the team are underclassmen and have virtually no varsity experience, this year's Hawks have been compared with the 1981 team that finished the season with a 3-6-1 record.

The three wins and tie were all recorded in the final four games of the schedule, indicating team improvement over the season.

JV AND FRESHMEN

The junior varsity and freshmen will kick off their season tonight at Breckenridge. The freshmen are to start at 5:30 and JV at 7:30.

Season ticket sales lagging

Hawk football fans have until 3:30 p.m. Friday to purchase season tickets, if they want the same seats they held last season.

Principal Bob Dawson said those unsold by then will go on sale to the general public.

The book of five home game tickets will be sold for $12.50, a considerable savings when compared with the gate purchase price. General admission for adults is $3 and reserved seats at the gate are $3.50.

Student tickets will be sold only at the high school principal's office. In the past they've been available at the other campuses, but due to a shortage of office help, they will not be available other than at the high school this year.

Student tickets sold in advance are $1.50, but at the gate they are $3, according to Dawson.

Season ticket sales have lagged this year. Dawson said about 400 books were sold last year, and only about 200 had been sold by yesterday morning.

STATE REP. CHARLES FINNELL INSTALLS SIGN ... first sign in state to aid reporting.

State wants to know when signals fail

A new system to help motorists report malfunctioning railroad signals begins today, according to the Department of Public Safety. The statewide program will offer citizens a toll-free telephone number to encourage them to report railroad signal problems to the proper authorities.

DPS Director Col. Jim Adams said the program is a cooperative effort between the State Dept. of Highways and Public Transportation, the state's railroad companies and the DPS.

"When a railroad signal is reported to us by the public to be malfunctioning, we will then notify the proper railroad authorities who are responsible for making the necessary repairs. This should help expedite the correction of the problem and provide better service to the public," said Adams.

The program was established under House Bill 1007 by State Rep. Charles Finnell and requires the Dept. of Highways and Public Transportation to place signs on railroad signals which give a toll-free number for motorists to call when a signal malfunctions.

The number is 1-800-772-7677.

Two go carts reported taken

Two go carts valued at $150 each were reportedly stolen here Tuesday.

T.H. O'Brien told police the go carts were taken from 610 S. Victoria. Vandals caused $240 in damage when four tires were cut sometime Saturday night on a car parked at 918 Foley.

Sometime between Sunday night and Tuesday morning, someone apparently entered the First Christian Church and turned on the gas in the ovens located in the church kitchen. No fire or explosion resulted.

ENROLLMENT

First-day count down, but rising

Continuing a trend established 10 years ago, first-day enrollment in Iowa Park schools was lower than the previous year.

But the first-day figures were down out the window by the third day, Wednesday, with 25 additional students enrolling.

Enrollment reported to the administration building at the end of Monday indicated 1,701 students had enrolled. This was down from the 1,693 reported the first day last fall. However, by noon yesterday, principals had reported enrollment had climbed to 1,709. This surpassed the 1,701 enrolled last May 19, just before the close of school.

Traditionally, first-day enrollment figures fail to hold. Some parents even wait until after the Labor Day holiday before enrolling their children in class, so local administrators are looking toward the middle of next week to see if history repeats itself.

Ten additional students enrolled between Monday and Wednesday at the high school, where yesterday's total was 540. Broken down by grades, there were 118 seniors, 148 juniors, 132 sophomores and 142 freshmen.

Enrollment rose from 425 to 428 the first three days at the junior high where 143 were enrolled in the eighth grade, 156 in the seventh and 129 in the sixth.

Bradford Elementary enrollment was increased by only one, and stood at 398 yesterday. There were 132 in the fifth grade, 126 in the fourth and 140 in the third.

Kidwell Elementary experienced the greatest increase during the week, 11. Among the 343 reported yesterday were 118 in the second grade, 138 in the first, 72 kindergarten, 10 early childhood and five special education.

Ironically, this year's second grade has exactly as many students, 118, as were reported on the first day of school when the students were in the first grade.

That class and the senior class are the smallest in the Iowa Park system, with the junior class enrollment of 148 being the largest.

The high school first-day enrollment is down considerably from the 600 reported the first day of the 1981-82 year.

First-day enrollment figures for the previous 16 years include:

1983	1,684
1982	1,693
1981	1,732
1980	1,808
1979	1,862
1978	1,898
1977	1,968
1976	2,019
1975	2,048
1974	2,076
1973	2,110
1972	2,090
1971	2,118
1970	2,292
1969	2,041
1968	1,813

Assistance donations sought for marrow transplant patient

An Iowa Park man is fighting for his life in a battle with leukemia, and friends of the family have set up accounts at banks and two collection points to give citizens an opportunity to assist financially.

Johnny Black, 36, of 509 E. Washington, is to undergo a bone marrow transplant Friday at Baylor Hospital in Dallas. "It's (the transplant) something you have to do because it's the only chance you've got (to survive)," stated his wife.

Black is an employee of Burgess Industries in Wichita Falls. Ownership of the firm was recently changed, and insurance coverage for employees was also changed. In fact, employees haven't even yet received information concerning their coverage, according to Mrs. Black.

So the family doesn't even know how far into debt this serious operation will take them.

"Johnny Black Special Account" has been established at State National Bank and three in Wichita Falls: First Wichita, Parker Square and Interfirst. Also, jars for donations are at Pleasant Valley Grocery and Ken's Gulf.

A massive radiation treatment procedure was to have been begun yesterday. Designed to kill all marrow and the body's immunity system, the procedure precedes the transplant operation.

The Blacks, residents of Iowa Park since 1978, have two children ages 12 and 15. Mrs. Black is employed by a wholesale distributor in Wichita Falls.

Iowa Parkan views friend launched aboard shuttle

At least one Iowa Parkan has more than a passing interest in the first night time space shuttle launching at Cape Canaveral, Fla.

One of the astronauts who was launched at 1:15 a.m. Tuesday is a friend of John Kibler, 516 W. Aldine.

Kibler works in the government weather station at Sheppard AFB. It was there that he met and became friends in the early 1970s with Lt. Col. Guion S. Bluford, Jr., the first black astronaut to be launched into space.

Bluford, 40, holds a doctorate in aerospace engineering.

Bluford and Kibler continued corresponding after the astronaut was reassigned. It was he who put Kibler's name on a select list to receive special invitations to tour the launch facilities prior to the take off.

"... Please be at the NASA Guest Center at 3901 North Atlantic Ave. Cocoa Beach, Florida, at 12:30 p.m. the afternoon prior to the launch.

Buses will be awaiting to take you to Launch Pad 39A (The crew regrets that they will be unable to join you on the tour.) Attendance is limited to invitees only," stated the printed invitation.

Kibler lamented he was unable to attend the launching and watch his friend take off in the eighth voyage of Space Shuttle Challenger.

There are always to many "ifs" involved in a shuttle launching.

The Iowa Parkan noted that any small technical problem can delay a launching. Also, there had been the possible problem of a hurricane last week which could have created delaying problems.

To make the trip, Kibler would have to give advance notice of his intentions to miss a few days work, so planning such an event with the "ifs" involved made it impractical, he said.

"But I'd sure like to have gone," Kibler said. Instead, he viewed the launching on television.

UNLIKE LIGHTNING, fire does strike twice in the same place. Iowa Park, Wichita West and Cameron Gardens answered a call Tuesday afternoon to Huntington Lane. The scene was the former home of George Daugherty. The fire was a barn and other storage structures which held the belongings saved when the house burned... 366 days earlier. The structures were a total loss.

Fitzgerald, Nolen vows are solemnized Saturday in Wichita Falls

The altar decorations at the Floral Heights Assembly of God in Wichita Falls for the Saturday evening wedding of Miss Connie Jan Fitzgerald and Jeffrey Craig Nolen were keyed by impressive solemnity. The double-ring ceremony was officiated by Rev. James L. Harmon.

The bride's parents are Mrs. Betty Hart of Iowa Park and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Fitzgerald of Jamestown, North Dakota, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Nolen of Iowa Park.

The communion table and face-to-face prayer bench in front shed a distinctive air of reverence over the altar setting. The table was centered with a large Bible bordered with white daisies, pixie carnations, fugi mums and baby's breath and flanked by tall white candles aglow in brass candelabra. The prayer bench was traced with smilax and accented with a nosegay of white pixie carnations, daisies and baby's breath.

A 15-branched arch candelabra back of the table was entwined with jade greenery studded with white daisies and baby's breath that extended onto the table to encircle the candlesticks. An impressive part of the decor was the choir rail in the background covered with sprengeri fern and appointed with seven sets of three clear oil lamps filled by the groom's mother the day before the wedding.

The three-branched candlestick near the exit of the church that represented the permanence of marriage was trimmed with jade leaves, baby's breath, a white satin bow and a shower of white silk ribbons. After the bride and groom had been joined in holy matrimony and were exiting from the church, they lifted the two outer candles that had been lighted by their mothers before the ceremony to express their approval of the marriage to set flame to the candle that symbolized their union.

The family pews were marked with plaques of sprengeri fern, white satin ribbons and baby's breath.

A round table in the church entrance was a harbinger of the treasure of beauty awaiting wedding guests in the sanctuary. It was covered with white silk and held a nine-branched silver candelabrum with votive candles decorated splendidly with pink lilies, baby's breath and stephanotis accented with two white love birds to lend a touch of romance. Guests registered at a podium daintily appointed with pink satin ribbon and baby's breath. Miss Ann Kelly directed their signatures at the church and again later at the reception.

Mrs. Dale Kepler gave a concert of organ selections as guests assembled in the sanctuary, including "More," "Feelings," "Because," and "Truly." She provided accompaniment for selections by the vocalists. Mrs. Tom Cale presented vocal renditions of "Endless Love" immediately after the bride arrived at the altar with her father, and "We Are One in the Spirit" when the bride and groom were lighting the unity candle. Robin Fox sang "The Wedding Prayer" while the bride and groom knelt on the prayer bench.

Mrs. Kepler played Wagner's prelude for the entrance of members of the wedding party, swelling the notes when the bride appeared, and accompanied their exit from the church with Mendelssohn's recessional.

All eyes were on the beautiful bride as she walked to the altar with her father who presented her in marriage. She was glowing in a lovely formal white gown of flocked organza, depicting the essence of elegance and taste and designed to capture her youthful beauty. The natural waist bodice was fitted with an off-the-shoulder look featuring a double ruffle that spanned the shoulders and swooped low in the back. The full skirt was styled with a flattering deep hem flounce and drifted to a semi-cathedral train.

For her head dress, the bride wore a bridal illusion veil that flowed to fingertip length from a band of pink silk sweetheart roses and baby's breath. Her bouquet created in a dreamlike cascade with miniature pink rosebuds, daisies, stephanotis and baby's breath gave the perfecting touch to the beautiful picture.

MRS. JEFFREY CRAIG NOLEN

To keep traditions of the day, the bride wore diamond and pearl ear rings, a gift from her mother for "something new;" a blue garter, a gift from Mrs. Marvin Fitzgerald for "something blue;" the groom's mother's pearls for "something borrowed." For "something old," she carried a coin purse that had belonged to the groom's late great-grandmother containing a good luck penny dated the year of her birth provided by the groom's father.

The bride's two sisters served as her attendants. Mrs. Noel Bills of Lubbock participated in the wedding as matron of honor and Mrs. Jimmy Dorman of Tahoka took part as bridesmaid. They wore fashionable formal pink organza gowns designed with fitted bodices featuring ruffle-flounced scoop necklines and full skirts that terminated in deep hem flounces. The attractiveness of their gowns was enhanced with the purple cattleya orchids clustered with baby's breath and lavender silk ribbons that they carried.

A miniature bride and groom, Chondra Bills of Lubbock and Jason Dorman of Tahoka, niece and nephew of the bride also served as flower girl and ring bearer, respectively. She wore a long white organza frock fashioned for a little girl's wedding gown and baby's breath in her hair. She carried the bride's throw away bouquet, a creation of white and pink daisies and rosebuds, lace and ribbons in a white lace basket. He wore a white tuxedo with tails and carried a heart-shaped white satin pillow trimmed in lace.

Robert E. (Bubba) Nolen Jr. of Houston served his brother as best man, and Jon Crawford, his cousin, was groomsman. Ushers were Robin Fox, Chris Gage of Wichita Falls, Noel Bills of Lubbock and Jimmy Dorman of Tahoka.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with tails, white shirt with wing-tipped collar and a pink rosebud surrounded with baby's breath for a boutonniere. The best man, groomsman and ushers were attired in silver gray tuxedos worn with white shirts with wing-tipped collars, pink bow ties and cummerbunds. Fathers of the bride and groom wore silver gray vested tuxedos.

The orchid was the flower chosen by mothers of the couple for adornment to the gowns they selected for the wedding.

Mrs. Hart carried a white cymbidium orchid on her purse with her elegant floor length gown of lilac tinasetta styled with a draped bodice, spaghetti straps, split skirt and a lilac chiffon cape.

Mrs. Nolen wore a brown-throated white phapiopedubum orchid to complement her lovely gown in ivory lace and cafe chiffon. The natural bodice featured a V neckline, and long sleeves with peplum effect. A full flowing skirt fell to the floor from a chiffon sash that encircled the waistline.

Mrs. Fitzgerald wore a pink cymbidium orchid with her soft pastel blue polyester gown designed with three quarter length split sleeves, belted waistline accented with a self bow in front and topped with a blue lace cape.

The postnuptial reception was hosted by the couple's parents at the Silver Square Room in Parker Square where decorations and appointments reflected beauty on a grandiose scale.

The bride's table possessed special grace and charm. It was covered with a white silk cloth embossed with tiny hearts designed and made by Mrs. W.T. Crawford Jr., aunt of the groom. The excellence of the cloth was enhanced with a swag of lilies of the valley caught up with pink silk bows with matching cascading ribbons, backgrounded with white lace and adorned with pink rosebuds and white lilies of the valley.

One of the most vivid memories of the couple's wedding day for them will probably be that of cutting together the first slice of the bride's cake that centered the table. The four-tiered white delicacy with two sets of sugar pillars was a veritable garden of frosting flowers bordered with drop garlands. The flowers blooming in profusion were pastel pink and lavender roses, bridal trumpets, petunias, stephanotis, forget met nots used to decorate the sides and layers, then formed a bouquet for the lavish top ornament.

The cake was flanked by four-branched silver epergnes holding tall white candles and trimmed in magnificent floral finery with pink pixie carnations, roses and daisies, orchid statice, white baby's breath.

The attendants' bouquets, pink napkins engraved with "Connie-Jeff, August 27, 1983" in gold, hand-molded pink wedding bell-shaped mints, and the silver coffee samovar and punch bowl that marked table extremities completed the decor. Miss Mona Miley, cousin of the groom, Mrs. Chris Gage, Miss Carolyn White and Mrs. Donnie Taylor presided at the table.

The groom's table was covered with a silver gray linen cloth fashioned with a box pleated skirt and swagged with a deep gray silk cord also made by Mrs. W.T. Crawford Jr. The intriguing decorations were highlighted with the groom's cream-colored ostrich boot filled with gray silk eucalyptus and pussy willow branches. The chocolate cake featured a frosting imprint of a boot lettered "J.C.N." The gray napkins lettered with names of the couple in pink added further interest to the style of decorations. Miss Staci Newman and Mrs. Tommy Swanson, cousin of the groom, served at the table.

The registry table at the reception was draped identically to the bride's table. Of special decorative interest was the couple's wedding invitation that had been decoupage by Mrs. W.T. Crawford Sr., grandmother of the groom. Complementing it were a crystal vase holding pink and white apple blossoms, a pink candle burning in a hurricane globe tied with a lovely bow to match the ones on the bride's table cloth, white plume pen and wedding book.

The food table was covered with a white batiste cloth with a gathered skirt headed with pink satin ribbon. It held canapes, hors d'oeuvres, finger sandwiches, sweet and sour chicken strips and champagne punch.

Following the reception, the newlyweds departed for a honeymoon trip to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, the bride travelling in a strapless white cotton dress accented with a pink satin ribbon at the waistline and a skirt formed of layered ruffles. Both were graduated from Iowa Park High School. She attends Bauder Fashion and Modeling College in Arlington and is employed by Brooks Fashion. He is employed by Trinity Insulation.

Special wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzgerald of Wing, N.D., Mrs. Mamie Wilson of Wichita Falls, grandparents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Crawford Sr. of Iowa Park, the groom's grandparents.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Glenn Lee Moore of San Antonio, Mrs. Dick Bills of Lubbock, Tom Nolen of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Shelton of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. M.T. Shelton of Luling, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Crawford of Henderson, Bill Wolar of Houston, Lt. and Mrs. Wayne Hallford of Kingsville, Dr. and Mrs. Don Fletcher, Lt. Benny Wolf, and Susan Hatcher, all of Dallas.

Hopkins, Guthrie vows are solemnized in Wichita Falls

Mr. and Mrs. O.N. Hopkins, Jr. of Fairfield, Conn. have announced the marriage of their daughter, Patricia Lynn, and William Lane (Bill) Guthrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill L. Guthrie of Iowa Park and Rev. and Mrs. Claude C. McDonald of Santa Fe, New Mexico.

The wedding was held Aug. 6 in the chapel of the First Christian Church in Wichita Falls and the groom's stepfather was the officiant.

The natural beauty of the stained glass windows was enhanced by the addition of ivy poles and palms at the altar. The setting was completed with white pew markers at the seating places of the parents.

Musical selections were provided by the organist, Jim Eug.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a drop-shouldered gown of white silk organza over peau de soie that featured a wide Chantilly lace bodice and attractive bouffant sleeves. The full floor-length skirt trailed from the fitted waistline and flowed into rows of lace to form a formal train. A two-tiered illusion fingertip veil, sprinkled with tiny pearls, was secured to a halo of white silk roses for the bride's headpiece.

She carried a colonial bouquet of white pixie carnations, pink roses and baby's breath and wore a strand of pearls, a gift from her mother.

Mrs. Billy McDonald of Iowa Park, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a formal length off-shoulder gown of pink organza and polyester. She wore yellow daisies in her hair and carried a nosegay of pink roses and white pixies.

Peyton McDonald, niece of the groom, served as junior bridesmaid and was attired in a matching gown of yellow organza and polyester. She wore pink silk daisies in her hair and also carried a smaller nosegay of pink roses and white pixies.

The groom wore a formal ivory tuxedo with full-length tails complemented with a white silk carnation centered with a pink rosebud. The groom's attendants wore matching tuxedos with fingertip jackets.

Russell Adkins served as best man and the bride's brother, Rick Hopkins of Corpus Christi, served as groomsman. Nephews of the groom, Robby and David Davis of Wichita Falls, were ushers.

Upon completion of the wedding ceremony, the bride presented pink long-stemmed roses to her mother, the groom's mother, and his stepmother, Mrs. Bill Guthrie.

Mothers of the bride and groom chose silk corsages of pixie carnations and pink rosebuds. Mrs. Hopkins wore a street-length dress of rose organza and Mrs. McDonald wore a popular Santa Fe Mexican-styled gown of white cotton in multi-colored design, accenting it with a silver and turquoise squash blossom necklace.

The wedding reception was held in the church parlor. The bride's table was draped with a white rose embroidered cloth. Pink bells hung from the crystal chandeliers and the words "Best Wishes" greeted the bride and groom.

The table was appointed with a crystal punch bowl of pink lemonade and a lemon ice ring and a stunning cake decorated with yellow and pink roses supported by a pink satin arrangement of bells and pearls. Imprinted napkins surrounded a figure of a bride to center the table.

Decorative interest in the room focused on a white lace parasol opened to provide background for a basket of yellow and pink silk flowers and miniature silk arrangements scattered throughout the room. Baskets holding green plants were used to accent the corners of the room and mints were served in antique pink depression glass bowls throughout the parlor.

Mrs. Chuck Molzon and Mrs. Chuck Watson, sisters of the groom, served as hostesses for the reception. Mrs. Jimmy Don Brown obtained signatures of the guests at a table covered with a white cloth holding a brass bud vase of pink and yellow flowers and a pink plume pen.

The groom's parents hosted the patio rehearsal dinner on the eve of the wedding at their home.

The bride was graduated from Andrew Ward in Fairfield, Conn. and is currently employed as a unit clerk at Bethania Hospital in Wichita Falls. The groom attended Iowa Park High School and was graduated from a Santa Fe, N.M. high school. He is employed by Plumlee Ambulance where he is in training to be a paramedic.

After a wedding trip to Angel Fire, N.M., the newlyweds are at home in Wichita Falls.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

We apparently have a bunch of Bradford Elementary student's parents upset with us for the misinformation we published last week about starting time Monday at that school.

I don't blame them. I'd have been upset myself, had I been in the same situation.

It's a little late, but I'll try to explain what happened.

Principal Kenneth Davis last Thursday underwent four bypasses in a Wichita Falls hospital. That left the campus shorthanded, and Ron Woods, vice principal of the high school was dispatched to cover in his stead.

Well, it seems the starting time was changed, and not everyone in the school system was informed. But Woods and company thought the information had been distributed.

Anyway, I was told when gathering information for last week's story that all campuses would ring the tardy bell at 8:30 a.m. But it turned out Bradford's starting time is now 8:10. I'm sorry about the confusion.

To conserve means to save, right? Wrong. At least when it comes to utilities.

Because we had all those nice rains commencing last August and continuing right up through most of June, you didn't use much water on your yard or garden and you thought you were saving money. Right?

Because you poured the insulation into your attic and put a ceiling fan in a couple of rooms, you thought you were saving on electricity. Right?

Sorry, but that's just not the way it works.

That 21 percent rate increase Iowa Park was charged for water it purchases from Wichita Falls was the direct result of saving all that water.

Seems Wichita Falls bases part of its revenue on the amount of water we buy from that city. And since we didn't buy as much as we had in the past, Wichita Falls fell short on its anticipated revenue.

So they increased the per-gallon rate on us to get that revenue back up to what was anticipated.

And as far as electricity is concerned, one of the points used in the rate-making formula is return on investment. Well, that investment is there, whether we buy the electricity or not, and the company by law is allowed so much return on it.

With the higher rate put on water we use in our homes and businesses, coupled with the one-step rate which goes into effect in October, I'm wondering how much water we will conserve, and how much it will cost us a year from now.

And having mentioned the term "revenue," I'd like to make a comment about the recently-settled telephone strike.

There was no question it would be settled. The only question was how soon.

We, first of all, would be hard-pressed to do without our telephone communication system. The phone union people know that, and therefore can make about any demand they want.

The company people put up a good show. But that was all it was. The salary and benefit increase will not affect the company profits one bit. They'll all be passed right on to those of us who are the customers.

So, on this coming Labor Day, look at your phone bill, project it with the increases being sought. . . and let's hear it for the Unions!

DECKER SAYS IN FINAL COLUMN

Lawns need fertilizing

By Don D. Decker
County Agent

September 1 is the best time for the final lawn fertilization application of the season. Fertilizers applied now, even though it is dry, will have time to get into soil solution, be absorbed by the plant, and develop growth before frost.

R.E. Whiteis, Sr. of Wichita Falls is fertilizing his lawn using a fertilizer which is high in nitrogen, low in phosphorus, and low in potassium. Nitrogen has the plant function to cause growth and a green color. Phosphorus hastens maturity with a seedhead, which is not desired. Potassium contributed to a healthy root system. Our soils naturally contain a lot of potassium, however, the addition of a little extra insures good root development.

Examples of good lawn fertilizers include: 15-5-5, 15-5-10, 16-4-4, 16-4-8, 17-7-9, 12-4-4, 12-4-8, and so forth. The first number of these fertilizers is approximately three to four times larger than the second.

Fall fertilization is applied at the rate of six to eight pounds per 1,000 square feet. This figures approximately 100 pounds for an average front and back yard. Since it is dry, watering the fertilizer into the soil would be desirable. However, it is not required.

The complete lawn fertilization program calls for fertilizer to be applied on April 15, June 1, July 15, and Sept. 1. The July 15 fertilization can be dropped on St. Augustine lawns.

Our season has been about two weeks behind schedule, and it appears this condition will make for a late emergence of the pecan weevil. We have weevil traps located with Jim Kuehler in Valley Farms and Leroy Mumford at Burkburnett. Neither orchard has had any emergence of the adult weevil. The dry weather has made the ground very hard. This condition delays adult weevil emergence through the hard soil.

The first fall rain will provide the moisture needed for weevil emergence. Growers are advised to wait until the first rain before treating pecan trees for the weevil. As soon as the first weevil emerges, growers will be advised through the news media to start spraying for the pecan weevil.

Two spray applications are needed at 10 to 14 day intervals. Sevin is recommended on the first application with Zolone or Malathion added to the Sevin for the second treatment. Sevin gets the weevil while the Malathion or Zolone controls the aphid.

Yard tree owners who have watered under the trees will need to delay the start of their spray program too. Adult weevils have not emerged at any location yet, which indicates they'll probably be running one to two weeks behind schedule. Growers are advised to watch the news media for the starting date of the weevil control program.

As soon as the weather begins to cool off, strawberries will begin to make a fall crop. Gail Elmore of Burkburnett indicates her strawberries on a good sandy soil have already begun to bloom toward a fall crop.

Locals ready for telethon

As in the past, members of the Iowa Park ESA Sorority will be participating in the Muscular Dystrophy telethon Sunday and Monday.

Headquarters will be at Shaw Motor Co., where the telephone number is 592-4106.

Persons wishing to make donations can turn them in at Shaw's or call the local number for collection. Members will be working from 5 p.m. until midnight Sunday and 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday.

Cash and checks donated those two days remain in Wichita County, whereas pledges mailed to the national headquarters are used where the national organization determines, according to Shirley Parkey, local chairman.

Is your heating/cooling system gobbling up too much money?

If electric bills are taking too big a bite out of your budget, consider equipment with a higher energy-efficiency rating. The higher the rating, the less electricity it takes to heat and cool your home. And using less electricity will help hold down your bill.

High-efficiency equipment costs more, but when the equipment qualifies, Texas Electric will give you a bonus check to help pay the difference. So if you're planning to install a room unit, or replace central air conditioning or a year-round heat pump, ask your dealer about equipment that qualifies for a bonus check from Texas Electric.

And put money back in your pocket.

Children's auction grosses $153,154

The 15th Crippled Children's Livestock Auction has grossed, to date, $153,154 and has been termed a "tremendous success," according to Joe Parker, general chairman.

The auction, separated into two sales of merchandise and livestock, benefits the North Texas Rehabilitation Center, Wichita Falls, as its largest source of support.

Merchandise sold July 29 brought $50,032; livestock proceeds from the July 30 sale totaled $39,652; and monetary donations totaled $63,470.

Donations continue to come in, Parker said.

Parker and chairmen of the auction committee in each of the counties served by the Rehab Center express appreciation to donors and buyers who made this auction successful.

Total head of livestock donated this year came to 180 - an increase over the 112 head donated in 1982.

UMW begins fall meetings

The United Methodist Women began their fall meetings at a business meeting and luncheon Tuesday. Thirty-five were in attendance.

Proceeding the luncheon, Mrs. Larry Park, UMW president, directed the business period, using a poem "To the Future" as an introduction and welcome.

It was voted to help distribute the foods furnished by the government that had been distributed by the Friendly Door provided that the Iowa Park Ministerial Alliance accepted the responsibility of the food distribution. It was also voted to contribute $500 toward the purchase of a new church van.

Mrs. Eldon Thompson used "Be Somebody," a poem by Amy Bolding for the devotional program following the business. She stated "according to the author, our lives are God-given and in gratitude to him we should be of daily service to his people." Continuing, she stressed that God had given to his people the mind to see how and where they are needed, and that they should not be afraid to express their belief in God and show to the world that they are willing to do what he expects of them as Christians.

Lions view film slides

A newly-completed, professionally-styled film slide presentation on the vocational department of Iowa Park High School was viewed Tuesday by the Noon Lions Club.

The program has a recorded narration by Barry Mahler, former radio announcer, and was presented by Richard Davis, job placement officer for the school.

Depicting all phases of the vocational program, the presentation was prepared for viewing of junior high students to inform them of courses in which they can enroll when they enter high school.

Davis admitted the school's offering of so many courses is difficult, because of declining enrollment. None has been cut even though they were developed when enrollment was considerably greater than it is this year.

He added, however, that some programs may be switched over to newer programs, in order to meet the demands of high technology.

Davis proudly pointed out the vocational programs have not been a deterrent to students enrolling in colleges after graduation. In fact, it has been the opposite.

Of the seniors who graduated in 1977, 38 percent went on to college. That has increased to the high 40 percentile, and he predicted half this year's graduates will go on to college.

GREG UNTALON FOLLOWS CHARLES PERRY AND OTHERS ON END SWEEP

Hawks handle Olney Cubs

Iowa Park's Hawks dominated the Olney Cubs in the second pre-season scrimmage for both clubs Friday at Olney, but there still remains questions about the 1983 edition of Mean Green.

"We were pleased offensively," commented Coach David Baugh. "But we still have a long way to go on defense before we can stop a pretty good team. At times we played well, but then we made mistakes."

While the first unit offense for the Hawks played against Olney's first team defense, Iowa Park rolled up three touchdowns. Olney scored once against the Hawk defensive starters.

During the second unit portion, Olney scored but Iowa Park didn't.

The question can be asked, are the Hawks that much better than Olney, a team that advanced to the state quarterfinals in Class AA last season?

Though it's true Iowa Park is two divisions higher than Olney, AAAA, enrollment differential between the two schools is not as great as the classifications indicate.

But the Hawks must play seven opponents in Dist. 3-AAAA, and that is what has Baugh and his coaching staff concerned.

One of the two returning starters from last year, Greg Untalon, had a good night. But he was expected to. Untalon had several big offensive plays, including a 35-yard touchdown. He was also a standout on defense.

The other returning starter, Craig Whisnand, was a standout both offensively and defensively.

Also scoring touchdowns were tailback Lee Roach, who scampered 21 yards, and James Beebee, 10 yards around end.

All Iowa Park's scoring came during the first, 25-play series. The Hawks rolled up 10 first downs to Olney's five.

The first units each had 10 plays in a later session, and it was during that time Olney scored. The hosts ran a 63-yarder for the score and had another 30-yard play. But otherwise, the Hawk defense held the Cubs to four yards and claimed two Cub miscues, a fumble and a pass.

Iowa Park's offense produced three first downs to Olney's two in that series.

When the second offenses and defenses faced each other on 15-play series, each gained three first downs. Olney subs scored on a 57-yard pass, however.

The freshmen had things their own way and JV did well.

Olney has an unique coaching staff this year, which includes four former head coaches. One is Bill Froman who previously coached at Burkburnett and Mineral Wells.

Also on the school's eight-coach staff is Iowa Park graduate Lowery Bartow.

"We've got to be more aggressive and make better tackles on defense," Baugh summed up his comments on the scrimmage.

Clothing is a parent-child affair

Even young children have definite preferences about what they wear, says Barbara Cornelius, Wichita County Extension Agent. So when it comes time to put together that all important nursery school or kindergarten wardrobe, consider their ideas as well as your own. There are a number of factors that researchers tell us children age three to five consider important about clothing. For one, children like bright colors, particularly red. It's one of the most visible and first seen aspects of clothing for children. They also like to feel clothing and they have a special fondness for warm furry garments or slick shiny surfaces. Although clothing in these textures may not be practical or available, you can usually find trimming for children's clothing in textures they like. Decorative details such as animals or unique designs are also favorites. Children like often-worn clothes because they feel secure in them. This can be a source of frustration for parents, as some children keep selecting the same familiar items, even though they're worn out or unattractive. Children also like to dress as their friends do. At the ages of three or four, children are aware of sex differences, so they may want to dress like their father, older brother or sister. When children do like new clothing, it is usually because of the attention it brings. At very young ages, they are not always aware of difference among purchased, home-made, or hand-made clothing. When the clothes are new to them, they are "new." As expected, parents have a different view of the children's clothing. Their major interest is durability. After that parents consider cost, comfort, ease of care, color, the child's attitude and finally attractiveness.

Dear Parent or Guardian:

The Iowa Park Consolidated Independent School District serves nutritious meals every school day. Students may buy lunch for 75c, 85c, and $1.00 and breakfast for 50c. Children from families whose income is at or below the level shown on the attached scale are eligible for either free meals or reduced-price meals priced at 40c for lunch and 30c for breakfast.

HOW AND WHERE TO APPLY: A separate application must be filled out for each child you want to receive free or reduced-price meals. The completed application must be returned to that child's principal. One application form is attached, but you may obtain additional forms from any principal if you have more than one child for whom you want to apply.

COMPLETE APPLICATION: For an application to be complete, you must provide: the total household income, the names of all household members, social security numbers of all household members 21 years or older or state that a household member does not have one, and the signature of an adult household member. Please answer all questions on the form. An application which does not contain complete information on household members and income cannot be processed by the school.

VERIFICATION: The information on the application may be checked by the school or other officials at any time during the school year.

REPORTING CHANGES: If your child is approved for meal benefits, you must tell the school when your household income increases by more than $50 per month ($600 per year) or when your household size decreases.

REAPPLICATION: You may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If you are not eligible now, but have a decrease in household income, become unemployed, or have an increase in family size, fill out an application at that time.

FOSTER CHILDREN: If you have foster children living with you, they may be eligible for these benefits. If you wish to apply for these benefits for them, please contact the school and they will help you complete the application.

NONDISCRIMINATION: Children who receive free or reduced-price meal benefits are treated the same as children who pay for meals. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, color, national origin, age or handicap. If you believe you have been discriminated against, write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

FAIR HEARING: If you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the result of verification, you may wish to discuss it with the school. You also have the right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling or writing Harold Cowley, Superintendent, Iowa Park Consolidated Independent School District, P.O. Box 898, Iowa Park, Texas, 76367.

The location is four miles east of Abilene in a 20-acre lease in the W.H. Taylor Survey.

Bottomed at 1,180 feet, the well will produce from an interval of perforations 892 to 992 feet into the hole. The pay formation was first encountered at 892 feet.

Baker Oil & Exploration of Wichita Falls has revealed plans to drill a 2,000-foot developmental probe in the Wichita Regular Field, three miles east of Abilene. The well will be located in a 20-acre lease in the Wichita County's O.C. Holcomb Survey and is to be designated as the No. 1 Patton "A".

The No. 2 Constantine is slated to be drilled in the Wichita Regular Field by Bandy Exploration of Wichita Falls. With projected total depth of 1,590 feet, it will be spudded in a 20-acre lease of the Fargo County School Land Survey, six miles west of Wichita Falls, in Wichita County.

The No. 12 W.H. Waggoner F-1, a developmental well in Wichita County's W.H. Waggoner Field, is scheduled to be spudded three miles south of Abilene. With projected total depth of 2,000 feet, the well will be in a 20-acre lease in the F.B. Meade & J. Bandy Survey (Bandy Drilling Inc. of Iowa Park is listed as the operator).

revenues by increasing the tax rate by less than eight percent.

Trustees, voting in open session during the regular monthly meeting, agreed on superintendent Dan Owen's recommendation for an increase of 7.8 percent. It was passed unanimously.

Citing a deficit spending trend in past years, Owen said, "We are trying to cut back to operate the school on tax dollars we are getting."

Figures from the official 1982-83 budget, which was amended during the meeting, shows a deficit of $232,202, which doesn't include approximately $40,000 already trimmed down by the board during the past several months.

A public hearing to discuss a possible tax increase is mandatory when the increase is over three-percent. Any increase of over eight-percent can lead to a rollback call by the entity's taxpayers, something Holliday's trustees want to avoid.

If accepted, an increase of 7.8 percent would make the tax rate .5381/$100 market valuation. This, according to Owen, would increase the school's revenue by $695,000. "It looks like we would run up a surplus with the increase, which could handle most emergencies, but not enough to make the first payroll," Owen said.

Owen added that the increase would raise the tax on a $50,000 home by $21.

"We have maintained the 30-percent homestead exemption," Owen remarked. "We are trying to give homestead owners every advantage they can."

In addition to the public hearing Sept. 12, the board will hold its regular meeting Tuesday, Sept. 20 to vote on the increase.

In other business, trustees heard a report on the official enrollment figures, and a grievance committee was named.

Enrollment in Holliday's schools totals 735, not counting the second semester kindergarten class, which would add 25 students to the figure, said Owen.

"We usually peak our enrollment around February or March," the superintendent commented. "We might end up around 780 or 790 students."

The two-year average from 1981 to present for the high school is 225.5, which is still well below the cutoff for Class AA, which is 264.

A breakdown on enrollment is as follows:

ELEMENTARY: Early Childhood, seven; Kindergarten, 26 first semester, 25 second semester; First Grade, 60; Second Grade, 60; Third Grade, 58; Fourth Grade, 54; Fifth Grade, 50; Total, 315.

JUNIOR HIGH: Sixth Grade, 68; Seventh Grade, 67; Eighth Grade, 58; Total, 193.

HIGH SCHOOL: Ninth Grade, 71; 10th Grade, 54; 11th Grade, 55; 12th Grade, 47; Total, 227.

Holliday-Eastland rematch tomorrow

Holliday Eagle coaches were much more pleased with their team's performance last Friday evening in a scrimmage against Fort Worth Nolan, and attention now turns to a semi-grudge match against defending Class AA state champ Eastland tomorrow night at Eagle Stadium.

"We were very pleased with the way the boys played against Nolan," line coach Jake Cottrell said, adding that the coaches were especially impressed with the offense's performance, a part of the game the Eagles found lacking a week earlier against Knox City in the season's first scrimmage.

Holliday's shot at a perfect season in 1982 was spoiled by the Mavericks in the season opener for both teams, but the Eagles rallied themselves by breezing through a tough conference schedule in addition to wiping out Ranger in the first playoff game, for a chance to meet the Mavs once again.

The second meeting between the two teams was perhaps the game of the year in Texas football, ending in a 7-7 tie. Eastland advanced in the playoffs on statistics, leaving the disheveled Eagles pondering that inevitable question, "... what if."

Both teams were hit hard by graduation, and only a handful of players saw any action in the two games. Not that it won't be on their minds as they square off at 8 p.m. in Eagle territory.

Texas Football Magazine has Eastland fighting hard to place in the top four of District 9-AA, with Winters, Albany and Cisco tabbed to unseat the champions.

In a rebuilding effort, only two defensive starters, running back-linebacker Kale Joiner and running-back-cornerback Carlos Sanders, will lead a team that has only six returning lettermen. Guard Scott Gorden and end Kevin Wright, both seniors, saw some action in 1982 and are looked upon as up-and-comers for the Mavs.

In last Friday's scrimmage against

Nolan, the Eagles showed good poise on defense, and, despite some mental errors on offense, Holliday was successful in moving the ball on sustained drives, scoring twice.

In junior varsity action, the Eagles scored once, and defensively allowed nary a first down by the visiting Catholic school.

Two cultures make one beautiful life

By DEE L. FOWLER

Louise and Jimmy Tabor have a very interesting background and very romantic meeting. Louise (Maria Louisa) was born in Nicaragua of Spanish and Chinese parentage and Jimmy was born and raised in our neighboring town of Frederick, Okla. Jimmy's father was from Czechoslovakia, but he came to the United States in 1919 where he met Jimmy's mother.

So the Tabors laugh when they say "our children and grandchildren have quite a heritage."

When asked how their two worlds came together, Louise smiles and says "That's such a nice story." And they each vie for the opportunity to tell it.

erick and went to California to work. He was employed by the Los Angeles County Police Force at the time of their meeting. Louise had an immigrant visa from her country and was visiting a sister who had married an American and was living in California at the time.

Louise had gone to a club dance with a friend and Jimmy was there with a girl friend. Louise's friend introduced them and commented to Louise what a nice fella he was. But Louise says it wasn't love at first sight for her, in fact she told her friend she wouldn't date him even if he asked.

For Jimmy it was a different story. The bug had bit him and he spent the next eight months pursuing Louise. She says "everywhere I went he was there trying to talk to me."

Finally, Louise says, "We were at a dance one evening and I was dancing with a friend of Jimmy's when Jimmy cut in. We danced and I returned to Jimmy's table with him so that I could meet his friends." Louise flashes a broad smile when she says, "Jimmy and I dated about a month after that and then we were married, and we have been together now for 35 years and we wouldn't change a thing."

Jimmy's life was somewhat normal, growing up in the small American town of Frederick. Louise lived in a country with a totally different culture.

She spent her entire life in a convent and only went home once a month. Louise says she was never allowed to do any work in the convent and there were servants in their home, so she entered into marriage with very little knowledge of domestics.

She says Jimmy was always very patient with her especially in her cooking. Louise comments about the time she tried to make roast-beef and it turned into stew. And about the time she made gravy so thick that Jimmy had to eat it with a spoon. She says Jimmy always just smiled through it all and bragged on how good it was.

Today Louise is a gourmet cook and makes delicious dishes that boasts of the two cultures she knows, Spanish and Chinese. Jimmy says "She makes rice that is simply out of this world." Louise is a typical woman, she loves to cook but she doesn't enjoy cleaning up.

Well, that's where Jimmy comes in, he does the KP duty, making it all worth while.

Louise has had two interesting careers. His hitch with the Los Angeles County Police Force lasted 15 years. He then worked for the Fiber-Board Company as a printer for the next 34 years.

Jimmy was forced to take an early retirement because of asthma, but now, since he is doing well and has not yet reached retirement age, he says he would like to find suitable employment.

Louise grins and says she will miss him if he does go to work because he is a lot of company and also a lot of help.

Louise has had a career of her own. Eventhough she was never allowed to do any work she was determined to learn how to do something.

Upon graduating from the convent she returned to her parents' home and approached her father about working for him. Her father owned and operated department stores. He refused to let her work because he felt it was not proper for females to work. This just made Louise more determined.

When she came to the United States, she applied for a job in a garment factory in California. When they asked Louise if she had had some experience she replied "yes." She got the job and set about to teach herself all about the garment business. In a short time Louise had her own business with 50 people working under her.

In Louise's case persistence really paid off.

Mrs. Tabor still has all of her equipment from her business but says she will probably never go to work again. She enjoys making lovely garments for herself and her family.

The Tabors are members of Christ the King Catholic Church and they are very active. Jimmy says he enjoys working around the church helping to keep up the maintenance. He also loves to visit the sick and is active in the Eucharistic ministries. Louise is bilingual and goes with nursing home patients each week on their regular doctor visits and serves as an interpreter for those who need it.

Jimmy and Louise have a heart-warming story to tell about the reason for their coming to Iowa Park to live.

They have a handicapped son who is in vocational training in Wichita Falls. They brought him here to give him the best advantage afforded him. Their son is named Jimmy also, and they spend many happy hours with him.

Louise says he spends the week at the school and they pick him up for the weekend on Fridays and return him on Sundays. They say Jimmy loves to hunt and fish so they all enjoy the out-doors together.

The Tabors do not question God about their son's handicap. Louise says "God loves us all the same and we have to except his will for us and those we love."

Jimmy is 29 years old and a great joy in their life. They feel that the vocational school has been very good for him. The Tabors moved here from Burleson because the advantages for Jimmy were better here.

They also have a daughter, Josie, and two grandchildren.

The Tabor's spacious home is of Spanish motif, but Louise says she changes it periodically to reflect a Chinese theme. It is all custom designed to Louise's taste and reflects artistry of another country.

Shrimp is the most popular seafood in the United States. It is the most popular because of its ease and versatility. It is the most popular because of its ease and versatility. It is the most popular because of its ease and versatility.

Mrs. Danny Curtis

The first effort to preserve shrimp in the U.S. was by a Chinese who went into the shrimp drying business in Louisiana. His business was so profitable that he was joined by others until they constituted a village which was given the name of Chinaman's Platform. However, when refrigeration came along it gradually knocked him out of the market.

In the United States, shrimp is popular in cocktails, dips, fried and many other ways. Deana (Mrs. Danny) Curtis shares her dip recipe with us today.

After he received his degree, he served as assistant county clerk for under the Farmer's Home Administration at Plainview, Amarillo, Comstock, Seymour, Canyon and Iowa Park.
