News in brief

Open house set at elementaries

Iowa Park's two elementary schools will observe open house next week.

Bradford Elementary will be open to the public between 7:30 and 8:30 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Kidwell Elementary will begin its open house at 7:30 p.m.

Teachers will be in their rooms to meet with parents and explain lesson plans and student activities.

Wednesday's 38 degrees is new record

Texas' weather lived up to its reputation this week, as a record low was recorded Wednesday morning.

A cold front, that failed to produce any beneficial moisture, roared through the area early Tuesday morning.

Yesterday's low was reported at 38, breaking a long-standing record of 45 for that date. The first day of autumn isn't until tomorrow.

Hawks taking off to heal

The Hawks will observe an open date tomorrow, and it couldn't have come at a better time.

Not only will the week's layoff give the players time to heal sprains, aches and pains, but to recuperate psychologically from last week's disappointing 17-0 loss to Electra.

Additionally, the coaching staff will have time to make some player changes, such as replacing linebacker Charles Adams, to prepare for next week's Dist. 3-AAAA opener at Mineral Wells.

Adams, the key linebacker in Iowa Park's defensive scheme, broke an arm on the third defensive play against Electra. The junior will be required to wear a cast at least eight weeks, meaning he's lost for the season.

Two thefts, one attempt reported

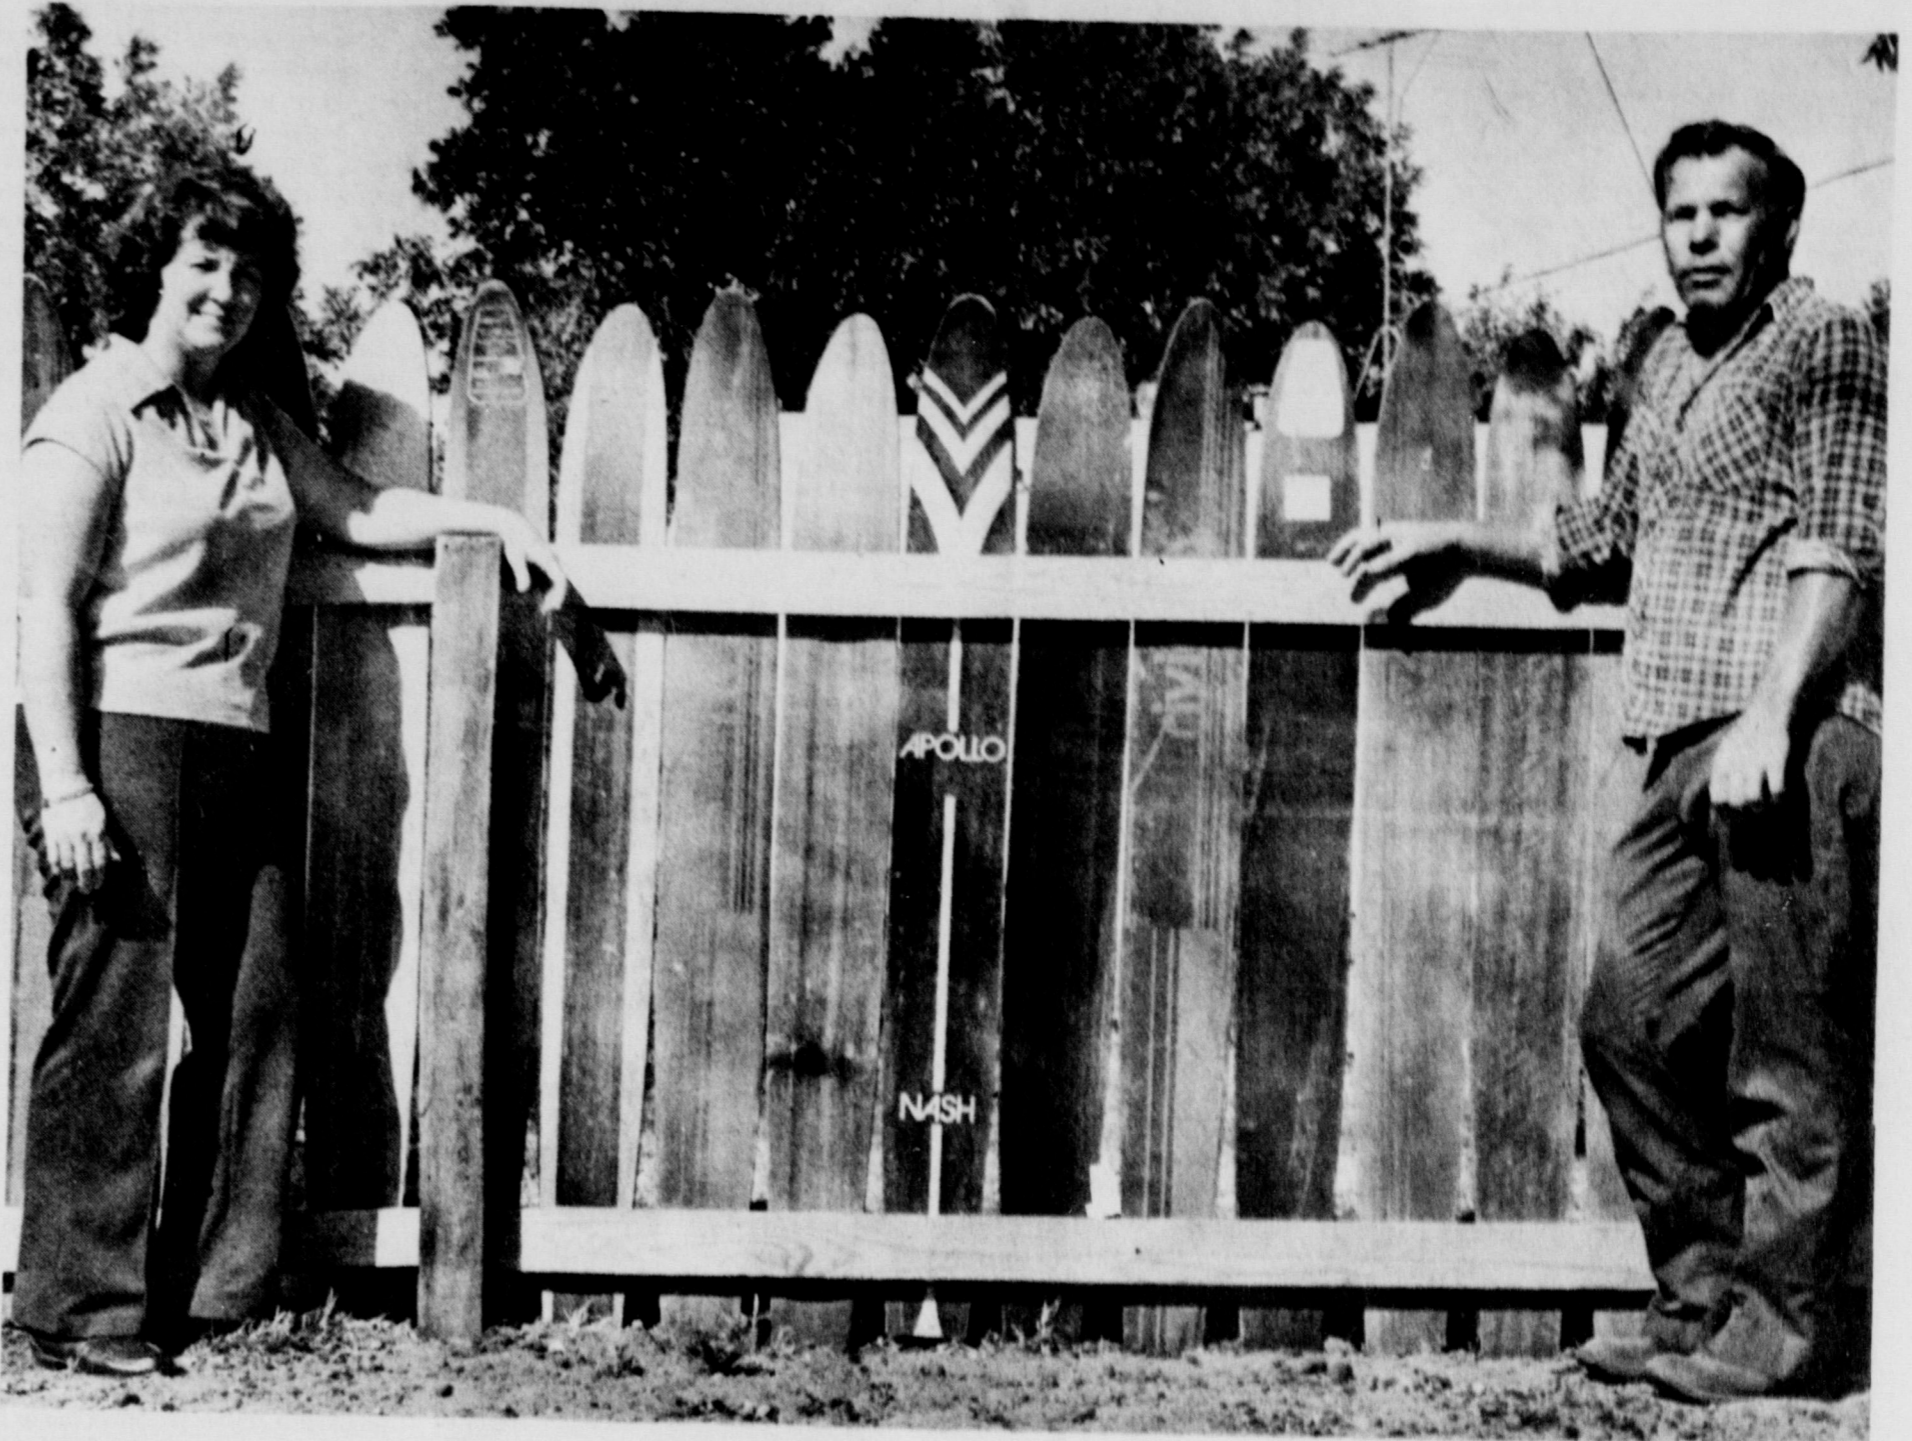

Two thefts and an attempted burglary were reported during the past week to the police department.

Property valued at $1,109 was taken either Wednesday or Thursday of last week from 115 E. Garden. James Ray Lucas of Wichita Falls reported the theft of four truck tires and rims, a 14,000 BTU window air conditioner and two 15-foot scaffolds.

Anita McShane said a white and maroon, 12-inch bicycle valued at $50 was taken from the driveway of 408 N. Victoria between 5 and 7 p.m. Sept. 14.

Someone attempted to break into a home at 707 E. Park early Monday morning while the occupant was at home, according to a police report.

CONVERSATION FENCE - While most fences are thought of as a place over which to hold a conversation, a new fence in Iowa Park is one about which conversations are held. Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Fuller have built a fence around their home at 512 N. Park of unusual material: water skis. They learned of a manufacturer that discards blemished skis in sanitary landfills, and got a load for themselves. And besides, it was free. Of high quality and finished wood, the attractive "fence" material is expected to be long-lasting... as doubtlessly will be the talk about it.

MARTHA ABERNATHY McSTEEN

Native named acting SS commissioner

A native of Iowa Park last week was appointed acting commissioner of the Social Security Administration.

According to an article which appeared in last Thursday's Dallas Morning News, Martha McSteen, Social Security commissioner for the five-state southwestern region, was named acting commissioner.

If permanent appointment is made by the president and confirmed by the senate, she would become the first woman to direct the agency, which has an annual budget of $211 billion which is larger than the budget of most nations.

The appointment was made to replace commissioner John Svahn, who has been named as a domestic adviser on the White House staff.

Mrs. McSteen, now a widow, is the former Martha Lou Abernathy, a graduate of Iowa Park High School and Rice Univ. Her parents are the late Mr. and Mrs. K.P. Abernathy.

A career civil servant, Mrs. McSteen, 60, has worked in various divisions of the Social Security Administration 36 years. She has headed the southwestern region since 1976.

Interviewed Sept. 9 by the secretary of Health and Human Services, Margaret Heckler, she arrived to assume her temporary position Sept. 14.

The commissioner has two offices, one in Washington D.C. and the other in Baltimore, Maryland.

She was attending a meeting elsewhere yesterday and could not be reached.

The Morning News article by Anne Swardson stated Mrs. McSteen "...refused to specify her goals for such programs as Medicare, which is facing financial shortfalls, and disability insurance, whose officials have been reprimanded by Congress for cutting too many beneficiaries from its rolls."

She said, however, she intends to set strict standards for work performance for the more than 20,000 employees of the administration.

Mrs. Heckler is quoted in her introduction of Mrs. McSteen as saying she had "found the opportunity to reach across the country and choose the best and brightest within the system."

The former Iowa Parkan worked as Medicare director in Dallas and Denver and had managed the Social Security office in New Orleans.

The article stated Mrs. McSteen's current salary was $63,000 but did not speculate what it would be if appointment is permanent.

Local sales still high

Iowa Park continues to be one of the few shining lights in Northern Texas when it comes to retail sales.

The city has received almost 25 percent more sales tax this year than during the first eight months of 1982, while most other cities are reporting decline in sales, according to monthly reports from the state comptroller's office.

Iowa Park received a check for August sales of $8,552.77, almost 10 percent above the same month the previous year ($8,388.79).

For the year the city has received $89,513.83, which is 24.79 percent more than the $71,730.25 reported for the same eight-month period in 1982.

Burkburnett is reporting a minus two percent, Wichita Falls minus 6.39 percent and Electra minus 24.19 percent.

Holiday's rebate of sales tax for August was $6,897, but for the year the city stands at minus 14.03 percent.

The money represents one percent of all taxable items sold in the city. The state of Texas collects four percent in sales tax.

Pat Aulds: Multi-talented person

By DEEL FOWLER

Pat Aulds is a gracious lady with an outgoing personality. Whether you see her in the supermarket, singing with her church choir or just relaxing at home with her family, she wears a warm smile.

Mrs. Keith Aulds is a housewife and also a funeral director's assistant along with her husband. Their son Bob is also a licensed director.

Pat was born and raised on a farm just outside the city limits of Chillicothe. She grew up with two brothers and strict parents who taught her the value of work and the love of the land.

At the age of three, Pat met her life-time partner-to-be in Sunday school. She and Keith were life-long friends, but did not take each other seriously until they were high school seniors. Keith tells that Pat was always outstanding in school. She was the salutatorian of their graduating class and also head cheerleader. These remarkable qualities are still apparent in Pat's personality today.

Pat attended college at Hardin-Simmons Univ. in Abilene. She later worked for Senator George Moffett as his secretary. His offices were in Chillicothe at that time.

After Pat became Mrs. Aulds, she helped her husband through college by working as secretary to the marketing director of Anderson, Clayton & Company Food Division in Dallas. She later attended Dallas Baptist College. It's interesting to know that the "Vance Memorial Library" at this college was named in the memory of Pat's grandfather, who was one of the founders.

Before coming to Iowa Park the Aulds lived in Carrollton, where Pat was a member of a very prominent singing group called the "Carroll-tones." This was a sextet similar to a "barber shop" quartet. This ladies group traveled some and were invited to sing at civic and church functions. Pat recalls one of the most exciting experiences for them was being

ARTS AND CRAFTS

Chamber increases Whoop-T-Do booths

Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce is expanding its annual Whoop-T-Do sponsorship to include arts and crafts display and sales by individuals.

At the monthly board of directors meeting Tuesday, President Linda Merrick said the arts and crafts displays traditionally held during Whoop-T-Do on the sidewalks of Wall and Park have been sponsored by the 23 Study Club, but that organization had decided not to carry on the activity this year.

Directors voted to accept responsibility for the activity, and set booth space fee of $10, which is to be paid to the Chamber.

Whoop-T-Do booths, always located in the 100 block of East Cash, require a fee of $20 from sponsoring organizations.

Fees paid for booths help offset the Chamber's annual budget.

With only four weeks remaining before Whoop-T-Do, organizations and individuals should be reserving their space in the near future, Merrick said. Booth locations are designated on a first-come, first-serve basis. Letters of invitation have been mailed to all previous sponsoring organizations, reminding them of the activity.

Among entertainment activities to be presented during Whoop-T-Do this year, according to H.M. Nipper, this year's chairman, are the annual turtle trot contest, both local school bands, a school choir, cloggers and possibly the drum and bugle corps from Sheppard.

Nipper said a cow chip throwing contest may be added as a new activity this year.

Whoop-T-Do was begun in the early 1970s by the Chamber as an additional activity to correspond with Iowa Park High School homecoming.

Chamber members felt an activity the Saturday following the homecoming football game would give people something to do between the game and the alumni banquet that follows on Saturday evening.

Instead of inviting a commercial carnival into the community, non-profit organizations were invited to set up booths of all types in a carnival-like atmosphere. Such booths have become the primary fund-raising activity for many organizations in the community.

Booths include soft drinks, foods of all types, games of skill and numerous others.

City meeting is postponed

Monday's regularly-scheduled meeting of the Iowa Park city council has been postponed until Oct. 3.

Mayor Charlie Lee said at least three members of the council plan to attend a one-day cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) Course to be held here that date.

The CPR course will be held from 6 to 10 p.m. Monday in the high school gymnasium. Registration for the course, sponsored by the American Red Cross, can be made by calling 322-8686.

Lee is joining the mayors of all Wichita County cities in signing proclamations declaring next week "CPR Week." "To improve the quality of human life and enhance individual self reliance and concern for others."

Similar CPR courses will be held Tuesday at Burkburnett, Wednesday at Sheppard AFB, and Thursday and Saturday in Wichita Falls.

Voyles, Pruett nuptial vows exchanged

Miss Leslie Voyles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Voyles, became the bride of Jerry Allen Pruett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lee Pruett of Holliday, in a late summer wedding performed Saturday evening in the chapel of First Baptist Church. Families and close friends of the couple assembled in the candle-illuminated chapel to witness the double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Howell Farnsworth, pastor.

The solemnity of the occasion was enhanced by the tasteful beauty of decorations spotlighted by the stained glass window which formed the background for a brass arch entwined with boxwood studded with white lilies of the valley where the couple stood to repeat their vows. Soft illumination was provided by votive candles glowing in spiral candelabra gently touched with boxwood and lilies of the valley standing on either side of the arch, and in white tapers in graduated brass holders on the piano top.

Mrs. Kenneth Via, pianist, provided the prelude music and time-honored wedding marches. Preceding the ceremony, she played "Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us," "More," "Can't Help Falling in Love," "Always and Forever," "Up Where We Belong," "You Light Up My Life," "Nadia's Theme" and "We've Only Just Begun."

The bride was exquisite in her wedding gown of white silk organza and bridal satin enhanced with Chantilly lace and pearls as she walked to the altar on the arm of her father who presented her in marriage for her parents. The organza bodice, generously ornamented with the lace and pearls, was fashioned with a wedding ring collar, sheer yoke, a wide lace Bertha-type collar below the yoke in both front and back. The delicacy of the lace was given expression in wide panels on the bishop sleeves and again on the cuffs.

The satin skirt was overlaid with organza and lace to fingertip length in front and to full length in the back extending to a deep hemline flourish that swirled into a chapel train.

MRS. JERRY ALLEN PRUETT

A Juliet lace and pearl cap held the lace-bordered illusion veil that cascaded over the back of the gown the length of the train to give it added beauty. The perfecting touch to the bride's gown was her silk teardrop bouquet created of white roses, peach bonnets, white stephanotis, gypsophila, lilies of the valley from which peach and white satin and lace ribbons accented with forget me not petals cascaded gracefully.

The bride followed traditions by wearing her mother's sorority chaplain's gold cross for "something old" and "something borrowed;" her wedding gown and garter for "something new" and "something blue;" and she wore a sixpence in her shoe.

Mrs. Joel Raines was chosen to be the matron of honor and Mrs. Johnny Jones of Holliday, sister of the groom, served as bridesmaid. They wore stylish peach polyester knit gowns featuring elasticized chiffon off-the-shoulder flounces, double satin ribbon tie belts and pleated skirts.

The attractiveness of the attendants' gowns was enhanced with their bouquets formed of brown and spice dwarf mums and gypsophila, candlelight zinnias, peach bonnets and miniature carnations with trailing peach and candlelight ribbons.

The boutonniere that the groom wore with his white tailed tuxedo, white ruffled shirt, bow tie and cummerbund was formed of a peach rose bud, baby's breath and white gypsophila.

Danny Gilliland, the best man, and Johnny Jones, the groomsman, and fathers of the bride and groom, wore champagne tuxedos, white shirts and bow ties.

Mothers of the bride and groom complemented their long dresses by wearing corsages of white rosebuds, brown and peach accents, baby's breath and gypsophila. Mrs. Voyles wore a maize crepe gown designed with round neckline, three quarter length sleeves, a matching sash that tied in a front bow, and a handkerchief point skirt. Mrs. Pruett was attired in a shell pink sheer dress featuring a pearled neckline, empire waistline with pearl trim, attached belt and a separate capelet that dipped in the back.

Immediately following the reception, the bride's parents were hosts for a reception held in the Fellowship Hall of the church which was splendidly decorated to emphasize the bride's chosen colors.

The bride's table will forever linger in the memory of the bride and groom and all guests who thrilled to its beauty. It was draped with lustrous white satin detailed with a two-tiered skirt that fell to the floor from beneath a top ruffle. The richness of the cloth was enhanced with lace-edged white moire ribbon bows at the corners of the ruffle, and a long cascade of white snapdragons arranged with a large bow with streamers at the center front.

The table appointments harmonized in perfect taste from center to extremities. A five-branched silver candelabrum in the center holding tall white candles was impressively arrayed with white snapdragons, peach irises, eucalyptus and leather leaf. The peach napkins accented with bells and "Leslie-Jerry Allen, Sept. 17, 1983" in gold lay in front of the centerpiece.

At one extremity, the table appeal was heightened with the three-tiered white cake that towered with two sets of Grecian pillars. Decorative details featured full blown peach roses, tiny rosebuds, pale green-leaved vines, garlands and scrolls on the sides and between the separated tiers. A bride and groom, dressed in white satin and black tuxedo, stood under two white lace bells accented with a frill of net and pale blue lilies of the valley for the top ornament.

The silver punch service marked the opposite side of the table where Miss Darla Flick and Miss Julie Guyton presided.

The groom's table was covered with a full length peach taffeta cloth and appointed with a brass coffee service, brass holder lifting a hurricane globe sheltering a white candle. The chocolate cake was set off with a horseshoe design surrounded with chocolate shaded roses and centered with a banner bearing the names of the newlyweds. The brown napkins pictured a bride and groom, names of the bridal couple and their wedding date in silver. Mrs. Joe Voyles and Miss Kari Hamilton served at the table during the reception.

Mrs. Ranny Voyles secured signatures of the guests at a table draped like the bride's table. In addition to the wedding book and white plume pen, it held a white candle in a hurricane globe on a brass holder encircled with English ivy.

During the reception, the peach and white net rice bags were handed out.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Park High School and is employed at the Wichita County Tax Office. The groom, who works for O.L. Fulfer Well Service, was graduated from Holliday High School. The bride changed from her wedding gown to an ivory pants suit with a matching silk blouse before the couple left on their wedding trip to Dallas.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at Wichita Falls Activities Center.

Mrs. W.F. Pruett of Wichita Falls, grandmother of the groom, was a special wedding guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hopper announce the birth of their first child, Anthony Michael II, born September 7. He weighed seven pounds and one ounce. Mrs. Hopper is the former Karla Friday.

The grandparents are Mrs. Joy Hopper of Wichita Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Friday of Iowa Park. The great-grandparents are Mrs. Irene Horn of Wichita Falls and Joe Robinson of Denison.

Girl Scouts meetings set

Fourteen Iowa Park Girl Scouts from Junior Troops 29 and 37 and Cadette Troop 34 met at Pace Park Saturday afternoon to practice their outdoor skills. The three troops will be joining other troops within the NorCenTex Girl Scout Council in October for a council wide camp out at Lake Pauline in Quanah.

The troop meetings for the year are as follows:

Troop 37 meetings for fourth graders only will be at King's Kids on Thursday evening from 6:30-8 p.m. Marsha Binion and Candi Brott are their leaders.

Troop 29 meetings for fifth and sixth graders will be Monday from 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the First Methodist Church. Karen Church is the leader.

Troop 34 for 7th-9th grade girls will be in the homes of their leaders Jim and Mary Loving at 900 N. 4th on Wednesday evening from 7-8:30 p.m.

The Brownie troops are currently being organized. All girls and adult volunteers are asked to call Marsha Binion at 592-9618 for further information.

Girls recognized in church service

"Gathering Flowers for the Master's Bouquet" was the theme of the Girls Auxiliary recognition service held Sunday night at First Baptist Church. Mrs. Frank Roberts, the director, was in charge of the program.

Mrs. Clyde Patterson, W.M.U. director, presented the prayer calendar by placing a pink carnation in a rose for the missionaries who observed their birthdays that day. Rusty Stowe, minister of music and education, sang "Gathering Flowers for the Master's Bouquet."

Eleven girls were recognized for passing the first step in their Missions Adventures book one. Their awards were presented to them by their leaders, Mrs. Junior Gellner, Mrs. Roy Price, Mrs. Steven Kelly, Mrs. Joe Vickers and Mrs. Lawrence McLemore. Six girls finished their Missions Adventures book 11 and received a second award.

Each girl carried a carnation and placed it in a vase as she received her award to make a beautiful bouquet which was later taken to Mrs. O.E. Lochridge.

Girls who finished book one were Kelly Grider, Leisa Bates, Michelle Roberts, Kara Easley, Becky Leath, Rhonda Weaver, Shonna Weaver, Jennifer Bernstein, Debbie McLemore, Misty Murray and Darla Easley.

Those who finished their second book were Kara Easley, Michelle Roberts, Shonna Weaver, Debbie McLemore, Darla Easley and Jennifer Bernstein.

A reception honoring the girls was hosted in the Fellowship Hall by the Day Baptist Women, Mrs. Howard Marljar, director, and Mrs. Jerry Gholson, Acteens director.

Reception Sunday for Mannings

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ray will honor her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Manning, at a reception commemorating their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon.

Friends of the couple are invited to attend the reception between 2 and 4 p.m. at 1305 Mary Drive.

Club yearbooks are distributed

The Modern Music Study Club held a salad supper Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. J.W. Farmer to begin the new club year. Mrs. B.G. House was co-hostess.

Mrs. Farmer distributed yearbooks and discussed member participation for the year following the meal and repeating of the club collect. The present program set up calls for three members to perform or be responsible for a guest artist to perform at each meeting during the year.

Mrs. John Rentschler gave the story of "Sun of My Soul, Thou Savior Dear," the hymn of the month, and Mrs. House played a medley of piano numbers for the program.

invited to sing at the "Mary Kay" conventions in Dallas in 1969 and 1970. The group met the cosmetic queen and she presented them each with a string of pearls.

Pat moved to Iowa Park in 1971. She and her husband Keith have three children. Judy is a full-time student at Midwestern State Univ., Mark is employed at Cryovac and Bob is associated with his father in the Tanner-Aulds funeral home.

When Pat is questioned about "happiness" and what the word means to her, she is quick to state that she is a Christian. She believes that being God's will is the only route to happiness and she seeks that in her life. She believes the thing she has really been called to do in her life is to work with pre-school children. She is the co-ordinator of the pre-school children's program at the First Baptist Church, where she attends.

At home, Pat loves to garden and can fruits and vegetables for her family's enjoyment. She has another talent that reflects throughout her lovely home. She loves to re-do old furniture. She loves antiques only if they have sentimental value to her. In her home she has an old victrola that dates back to 1916, and a living room suit that belonged to her grandparents.

Eventhough Mrs. Aulds is very industrious and has a tight schedule, she still has time for club work. She belongs to the 23 Study Club, the Lioness Club and the Music Study Club. From time to time she has held offices in them all.

Music plays a big roll in Pat's life. She sings in a trio in her church and also directs a choir for pre-schoolers. At Heritage Manor, Pat once had a rhythm band for the elderly. This was interrupted, but Pat plans to take this up again this year.

Pat states that life is not without it's problems but she gives her husband much credit for a happy life in spite of them. She says "He has a marvelous sense of humor and this has pulled me through some tough spots."

A well-rounded life with love of God and family are the things that makes Pat Aulds the beautiful lady she is.

Lee, Wilson complete degrees

Holliday High School principal Bill Lee and a former graduate of the school, Vickie Lynn "Stone" Wilson, recently were graduated from Midwestern State Univ. after completing respective degree requirements.

Lee, in his fourth year at Holliday, earned a Masters in Education with an emphasis in school administration. Wilson chose the business field, earning a BBA degree in accounting.

The two were among 133 graduates from MSU this fall, according to MSU registrar Betty Bullock. The degrees, to be conferred in May of 1984, will include 25 associate, 84 baccalaureate and 24 masters degrees, she said.

16 employees in post office

To service the approximately 3,500 postal patrons in the Iowa Park area, the local post office has 12 full time and four part time employees.

The information was made available Tuesday when Postmaster Ken Turman spoke to the Noon Lions Club.

Turman said his office serves approximately 2,200 homes and businesses by five carriers, 800 rural patrons by two rural carriers, and has 474 boxes in the office.

Turman spoke on the history of postal service, mentioning such points as: the first stamped envelopes were in 1853; free rural delivery began in 1896; 83 percent of all mail originates in business offices today; average pieces of mail handled by employees in 1982 was 160,000; 85 percent of all costs of the department are personnel; and the salary budget for Iowa Park is $382,800.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

Have you ever thought about how important music is in our lives?

To a growing number, it is a profession. There are teachers of instruments and voice and theory in schools. Many a person has made his or her living teaching piano in private lessons.

There are those who make recordings for sale, perform on stage, play for dances, musicians you never see who play background music for stage, movies, television. And don't forget those who write music, nor the dancers who must have the music by which to move.

And one can multiply several times over the number of professionals by those who just enjoy playing their piano or guitar for their own enjoyment, or sing in the church choir or some vocal group such as barbershop quartets and choruses.

Can you imagine religion without music?

We hum and whistle to ourselves when no music is available, or tap our feet or clap our hands in time when there is.

A person doesn't have to be "musical" to enjoy rhythm. In fact, one need not even hear music: those who are deaf enjoy the rhythm felt from vibrations.

Many feel they must have music around them at all times, hence the appeal of stereo systems in homes and automobiles. And don't you believe for a minute that a person today buys a radio solely to get their day's news. It's for the music.

Music affects our feelings. A basic proof of this is the music used for effects accompanying movies. Even the piano was used during the soundless movie period, to help generate emotion in the audience.

One of the worst things a family can do, when sitting down for a meal, is to have some fast-tempo music playing in the home. We will unknowingly attempt to feed ourselves, as well as chew, in tempo.

That's one reason why it's not uncommon in fast food places that they will have fast music playing. And it's also the reason why, in a nicer restaurant, only slow music is played. The lower-priced fast food places want you to eat and move on, to give someone else your seat. But the nicer places, where more is charged for meals, don't particularly care if you eat, sip, and gulp and leave so quickly. They want you to enjoy yourself.

Ever tried to walk down the sidewalk with a marching band playing? It's a challenge to not walk in step with the beat.

Know that nice, soft, slow-playing music you often hear in major department stores? Think that's being played for the enjoyment of you or the store's help?

Nope. It's not. A study done several years ago by a team of psychologists proved that people will stay longer in a store where such music is played than in one where no music or fast music is played.

And they proved, also, that the longer one stays in a store, more purchases are made. Grocery stores picked up on that one, also.

Think music doesn't provoke emotion? I challenge you to say there's not at least one song that doesn't remind of a particular individual, place, event or situation. You may not remember the name of the song. You may not even remember if one does provoke recall, until you hear it.

Of course, there are all kinds of music. Some we fancy, some we tolerate, and some we feel we just can't stand. But within us all, there is a need for music.

This would be a dull life, indeed, without it.

Is your heating/cooling system gobbling up too much money?

If electric bills are taking too big a bite out of your budget, consider equipment with a higher energy-efficiency rating. The higher the rating, the less electricity it takes to heat and cool your home. And using less electricity will help hold down your bill.

High-efficiency equipment costs more, but when the equipment qualifies, Texas Electric will give you a bonus check to help pay the difference. So if you're planning to install a room unit, or replace central air conditioning or a year-round heat pump, ask your dealer about equipment that qualifies for a bonus check from Texas Electric.

And put money back in your pocket.

Amity Study Club hears report on city operations

Iowa Park City Administrator James Barrington presented the program for the year's first meeting of the Amity Study Club Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Philip Welch. Mrs. Eddie Worthy was co-hostess.

Barrington explained the three different types of city government: mayor/city council, commission, and city manager/city council. He said that all three types are used with the type depending on the size of the city and the desired form of representative government.

The type of government used in Iowa Park is the city manager/city council form, which originated in New York just before the turn of the century. The form was brought about because of the constant turnover of council members and the need to have one person to keep some continuity in the government, he said.

The city manager works for the city council. He added that the need to remove the council members from the politics related to the office was another thing that led to the innovation.

After this form of government began, colleges started to train people to administer cities and now most managers have degrees in public administration or business administration.

Barrington told of running the City of Iowa Park, with its $1.8-million budget, its 40 miles of paved streets to maintain and its 80-plus miles of water and sewer lines. He said the city is responsible for the most visible departments such as the police department and the fire department. Although the fire department is a volunteer unit, the city still provides some funding and also maintains the equipment, he said.

The less visible operations include the street department and the water/sewer department. He said that the street department is planning to overlay or sealcoat most of the paved streets in the next three to five years on a pay-as-you-go basis.

The water/sewer department includes a $13-million physical plant, and the city is responsible for maintaining and staffing the facility. He explained that the water department is funded independently from the other operations of the city. Everything collected in association with providing water and sewer services goes back into the department. The city at present buys half of the water it uses from Wichita Falls.

Garbage collection fees go toward providing the service, purchasing and maintaining the $57,000 collection trucks and to maintaining the landfill.

Adjustments in taxes and fees are made only after an audit each year indicates that they are necessary, he said.

Saying the city is more diversified than most people realize, he also presented the other areas that fall under city jurisdiction: the library and parks and recreation. He explained the formation of Friends of the Library, a private corporation to handle the renovation of the Burnett Home, but said that the library itself fell under the city's responsibility.

As for parks, the city must provide

Different faith qualities studied

Mrs. Don Owens continued the directed study of the letters to the Hebrews by Roy I Sano for the United Methodist Women Tuesday morning. The study included portions of Chapters 11 and 12. She pointed out that in Hebrews 11, the immediate and most conspicuous references were to faith and the models of faith are characterized by struggle, suffering and hope.

Mrs. Owens said that different translations of the Bible emphasize different qualities of faith; one may direct attention to inward qualities of faith while another may direct attention to the outward.

"Faith as assurance and conviction, substance, guarantee and proof are illustrated in Hebrews, and the author offers a survey of major figures as examples of faith," she said. She further explained that the survey begins with Noah who trusted God's word concerning the flood. She mentioned Abraham and Sarah who illustrate trust and obedience and Moses who retained his identity with his own people although reared by an Egyptian king's daughter.

Twenty-one members were present.

and maintain equipment and does so with the help of local organizations.

Fielding questions, Barrington explained that Iowa Park has a taxbase with an appraised value of $84-million and that the state required that Texas cities be on a pay-as-you-go basis.

He explained borrowing procedures and said that only 11 percent of the city's budget is obligated for bonded indebtedness, which is for the water and sewer plants bonds sold some 10-15 years ago. He said the city is in good shape financially.

Problems facing the city were also discussed. He said one problem would be that the city has some drainage problems and some streets need repairs. These things were already under study. He reported on the progress of the library, stating that $100,000 had been raised and work should begin soon.

Ruth Welch conducted the business meeting and introduced new members Mrs. Bob Hamilton, Mrs. Jerry Gholson, Mrs. Randy Brown and Mrs. James Barrington. She presented each with a daisy corsage and a 1983-84 yearbook. Yearbooks were then presented to members by Mrs. Jerry Denton.

The meditation was given by Mrs. Earnie Reusch reading "I Loved You Enough" a poem dealing with teaching children responsibility and the necessity of saying "no" even when it's hard. She discussed the need for more parents who will say "no" to jobs, cars, drugs and stealing.

Committees for the Santa Rosa District Workshop were announced. The workshop is slated for Saturday, Oct. 15, at the First Baptist Church.

Amity Club will host the Oct. 18 meeting, a joint meeting with Philia Study Club and the 23 Study Club, also at First Baptist Church. Special guests will be the state president Mrs. Sammie Skiles and the Santa Rosa District president Mrs. Erwin Soell.

Mrs. Jim Bob Merriek reported that the sales for the Hawk designer labels had been good, and that they would be sold at the next two home football games and at Whoop T Do.

Secret pals were revealed and new names for this year were drawn.

Special help for special students

By KEVIN HAMILTON

Six youngsters living in the Holliday Independent School District are receiving some special help in a program which the school opted to participate for the first time this year.

It is called "Early Childhood" and is offered by West Wichita Co-op, of which the Holliday I.S.D. has been a member of for several years.

In this special program, which Electra, Iowa Park and City View school districts have joined along with Holliday, preschool children who fit in a general description of children with learning disabilities are tutored by a special instructor for one-half of a regular school year.

Taking on the chore at Holliday is Donna Reynolds, who has taught and still teaches fifth and sixth grade resource. With the help of Gayle Parish and student aide Tammy Pruett, Mrs. Reynolds initially had seven in Early Childhood, but one has since advanced to kindergarten level.

The six remaining are Lacey, Karena, Nathan, and brothers Brad, Chad and Adam. "In Early Childhood we try to teach them to follow simple directions like when to sit, number readiness, language development, fine and gross motor skills, along with art and music," Mrs. Reynolds said. "We will work other things in," she continued. "For example, on Fridays we have different things such as when the nurse across the hall made cupcakes, brought icing and let the kids ice them and eat them. We also have watercolors on Fridays," she added.

Most of the kids that enter this program are handicapped both physically and economically," their teacher explained. "We just try to give them new experiences."

While mentioning that the six have already obtained better behavior skills, you can tell Mrs. Reynolds already holds a deep affection for each one. "The part I like most is the first thing in the morning when the students and teacher have a close relationship period," she admits. Their ages, which range from three to five-year-old, is a good time to begin special instruction in addition to other forms of help, such as the speech therapist who works with them.

The Early Childhood students were screened last year with pre-kindergarten applicants, and each was admitted to the program because of handicaps in particular areas which qualified them for assistance.

In her sixth year of teaching at Holliday, Mrs. Reynolds admits gaining a sense of importance. "It is really exciting, like a three-ring circus," she said.

"When all the schools in co-op had the program, I knew we would eventually get it, and we all knew it would benefit handicapped students here," Mrs. Reynolds said. The only drawback, if any, she said, is having to split time with her Early Childhood students and resource students. "They are really special," she remarked.

EARLY CHILDHOOD STUDENTS AT HOLLIDAY ... enjoy their relationship with teacher Donna Reynolds.

Sixty members and 20 guests attended the first meeting of the Iowa Park FFA last week when Jerry Gholson spoke on swine nutrition.

During the meeting four girls were nominated for FFA sweetheart. These were Kim Williams, Misty Hicks, Natalie Patterson and Becky Whitaker.

New legislation aids Social Security pension system

Texas residents, and all Americans, can face the future with assurance that the financial protection provided by Social Security upon retirement or upon the death or disability of a worker will be available for them - now and in the foreseeable future. The 1983 Social Security Amendments overwhelmingly approved by Congress and signed by the President on April 20 have vastly improved the financial outlook for this most important pension system.

The cost of the overhaul is balanced between Social Security taxpayers and Social Security beneficiaries. On the taxpayer side, there will be newly covered workers such as the President, Congressmen, newly-hired federal employees, and all employees of non-profit organizations; self-employment taxes have been increased so that self-employed persons will be treated in the same manner as employer-employee taxpayers; and, while the tax rates previously established in 1977 for the year 1990 and beyond were not increased, there will be two small, interim F.I.C.A. tax increases during the '80's.

On the beneficiary side, the 1983 Amendments call for a postponement of this year's cost of living increase until next January with future, automatic increases to be paid in January each year; and limited taxation of the benefits of relatively high income retirees. These measures should solve the immediate financing problem, and reserve funds will build up substantially just before today's younger workers - the large "baby boom" generation - begins to retire.

To further assure that adequate funds will be available to pay retirement benefits during the next century, there will be a gradual increase in the age at which a person can get full, unreduced retirement benefits, although early retirement will still be available at age 62.

"Full retirement age will be 67. These increases in the full retirement age reflect the fact that the average person who becomes 65 after the year 2000 can expect to live.

The 1983 Amendments also improved benefits for widowed spouses and for elderly divorcees who had been married to a worker for at least 10 years.

The new law provides, for the first time, automatic cost controls method to restrain automatic benefit increases if it becomes necessary because unforeseen economic circumstances cause tax income to lag behind benefit payments as has happened since the mid-70's. This "stabilizer" provision, which will restrict benefit increases to the lower of price or wage increases if reserve funds get low, is not expected to be needed. But it is in the law, just in case.

The 1983 Social Security Amendments were based on the recommendations of a majority of the members of the National Commission on Social Security Reform, a commission convened by the President and which included representatives of all major interest groups and political parties. In their top to bottom review of the Social Security system, the Commission members unanimously agreed that the original Social Security principles of mandatory participation and of an earned right to benefits were sound and should be retained.

The swift and decisive action of the Congress and the President in translating the Commission's recommendations into law, including a provision which extends tax liability to the lawmakers themselves, is strong evidence that this country fully intends to guarantee the earned right of current and future workers to a solid base of financial support when work stops because of retirement, severe disability or death.

MIDGET ACTION

After suffering a loss to Sheppard one week ago, the Midget Hawks took it out on Electra's Cougars, defeating them soundly 24-8.

Highlights of the game included a 96-yard touchdown run by Iowa Park's Mark Cruz. Cruz utilized the blocking of Vance Stark, Jay Loggins, Nathan Smallwood and Gary Green to score two of the Hawk's touchdowns, including the 96-yarder.

Adding another score for the Hawks was Bryan Pyle, who scored on a two-yard plunge. Jimmy Nicholson scored on all three point after attempts for Iowa Park.

One Cougar drive was stalled when cornerback Vance Edwards intercepted an Electra aerial. The visiting team's only score came on a 15-yard scamper by Steven Gaines, with the extra point attempt good.

Defensive standouts for the Midget Hawks, now 1-1, were Nicholson, Smallwood, Green and Loggins.

PEEWEE ACTION

Iowa Park's PeeWee Hawks grounded out a 14-6 win over Electra recently, utilizing the running of Robert Denton and Greg Martin and a stubborn defense.

Denton capped a 55-yard drive with a touchdown run for Iowa Park's first score of the game, early in the first half.

Both teams sported fine defensive

Cook of the Week

Dianne (Mrs. Ed) Hefti, the cook for this week, is one of Iowa Park's newest newcomers. She and her husband, the band director at Iowa Park Junior High School, and Erin, their seven-year-old daughter, moved here from Navasota just a few weeks before school started.

Mrs. Hefti was graduated from Lamar High School in Houston and received a B.A. degree from Sam Houston State Univ. She taught first grade at Navasota for four years.

The Heftis are members of First Baptist Church. Ed and Dianne are members of the sanctuary choir. She is a member of Baptist Young Women and has joined the ceramics class at the church. Her hobbies are sewing, reading and cooking.

One of Dianne's recipes, Rosie's Great Potato Salad, that calls for minced parsley is a reminder of how popular the cultivated herb is, both to garnish and to season foods. One author said of the herb "to take parsley away from the cook would make it almost impossible for him to exercise his art."

Pliny said that sauces and salads should not be without parsley. It certainly is not recognized as a dominant ingredient in foods. It is true that Scappi in 1570 gave a recipe for parsley broth also called "apostles stew," which was really mutton abundantly seasoned with parsley, according to one authority on foods who also states that Cornish "parsley pie" is a misnomer.

There is a recipe for parsley herb sandwich with cream cheese. Chances are the parsley is used for seasoning because it might well be awarded the title of first among leafy seasonings. A common breakfast for ancient Romans was a piece of bread made more interesting by the light, peppery taste of parsley.

As far as history goes, it grew in southern Europe from Spain to Macedonia, in Lebanon and in Algiers. Verrazano said that he saw parsley on the coast of Massachusetts about 1524. However, there was no written record of its presence in America before 1806 when both plain and curly varieties were being grown.

ROSIE'S GREAT POTATO SALAD
3 lbs. new potatoes
1/2 cup chicken broth mixed with 2 tablespoons cider vinegar

Mrs. Ed Hefti

Salt and pepper
1 medium onion, finely diced
1 stalk celery, finely diced
1 small dill pickle, finely diced
3 hard boiled eggs, diced
2 tablespoons minced parsley
1 canned pimiento, diced (optional)
1/2 to 3/4 cup mayonnaise (homemade if possible)

Scrub and boil potatoes until tender. Peel and cut into slices. Toss the warm potatoes gently in a large mixing bowl with the broth, salt and pepper to taste. Add onion, celery, pickle, eggs, parsley and pimiento. Toss and fold gently. When cool, fold in 2/3 of the mayonnaise. Cover the salad with the remaining mayonnaise and decorate with pimiento, herbs and eggs, if desired.

Electra frustrates Hawks, 17-0

You can mark the evening of Sept. 16, 1983 as one of frustration and deep disappointment for the Iowa Park High School varsity football team.

It was one of those periods in the lives of the Hawks when very little, if anything, went right for them, and about everything their opponents did went like it was drawn on the chalk board.

Electra posted its first win, 17-0, over Iowa Park in 20 years.

The Hawks entered the contest undefeated. In fact, they had averaged 23 points in those two outings and had allowed two very good teams only three touchdowns against their proud defensive platoon.

A study of the game's statistics would indicate to any football fan that the game was close. Iowa Park led 12-10 in first downs. Electra edged Iowa Park by only six yards in total offense. The Hawks even got off 10 more offensive plays, 53-43, than the Tigers.

But it was the big play by the host Tigers that spelled the difference. And most of the big plays were by a sophomore whose ability had preceded the game's kickoff.

Charlie Lott scored both the Tiger touchdowns, one on a 46-yard pass reception and the other a 92-yard return of the second half kickoff.

Besides Electra's effective defense, the Hawks were their own worst enemy. Their own mistakes killed drive after drive throughout the evening.

Of their 12 possessions, drives were killed either by turnovers or penalties eight times. Lost yardage on three sackings of Hawk quarterbacks were a major factor, also.

Besides the loss, there was another major disappointment to come out of the game. Junior linebacker Charles Adams was lost for the season his fourth play of the game, when he broke a bone in his left forearm attempting to tackle a Tiger.

Possibly the major bright spot in the game was the ball carrying of senior runningback Greg Untalon, who finally broke the 100-yard barrier for the first time this season. Eventhough he had been held out of workout all week to enable an injured ankle to recuperate, his number was dialed 12 times and he responded with 101 yards. His first carry of the game was a 27-yarder, and the first time in the second half was for 36 yards.

Fullback Lee "Monsterman" Roach, the team's leading ground gainer for the season, was held to 43 yards on 11 attempts, 24 of which came in the first quarter.

Six penalties were walked off against the Hawks. Four of them set the offense back enough they couldn't make up for a first down, and the drives were killed.

The offense lost the ball four times on turnovers, but only two of them really hurt. Two of the three fourth-quarter interceptions didn't aid the Tigers, because one was on the final play of the game and on the other, the interceptor fumbled the ball back to the Hawks on his return attempt.

The Tigers picked up a lot of momentum early in the game, when the Hawks failed to score on their initial possession.

Darrin Coffman took the opening kickoff on his 17 and returned it to Electra's 49. After Lee failed to gain, Untalon advanced the ball to the Electra 23.

A five-yard motion penalty set the Hawks back to the 28. Lee gained four and Untalon four more on two carries. Facing a fourth and seven from the 20, Coach David Baugh went to his bag of tricks in an effort to score.

Flanker Jerry Allen took the handoff as if he were going to run around right end. He stopped and threw, but the ball sailed over Rocky Martin's head, far above his outstretched hands, and the drive ended.

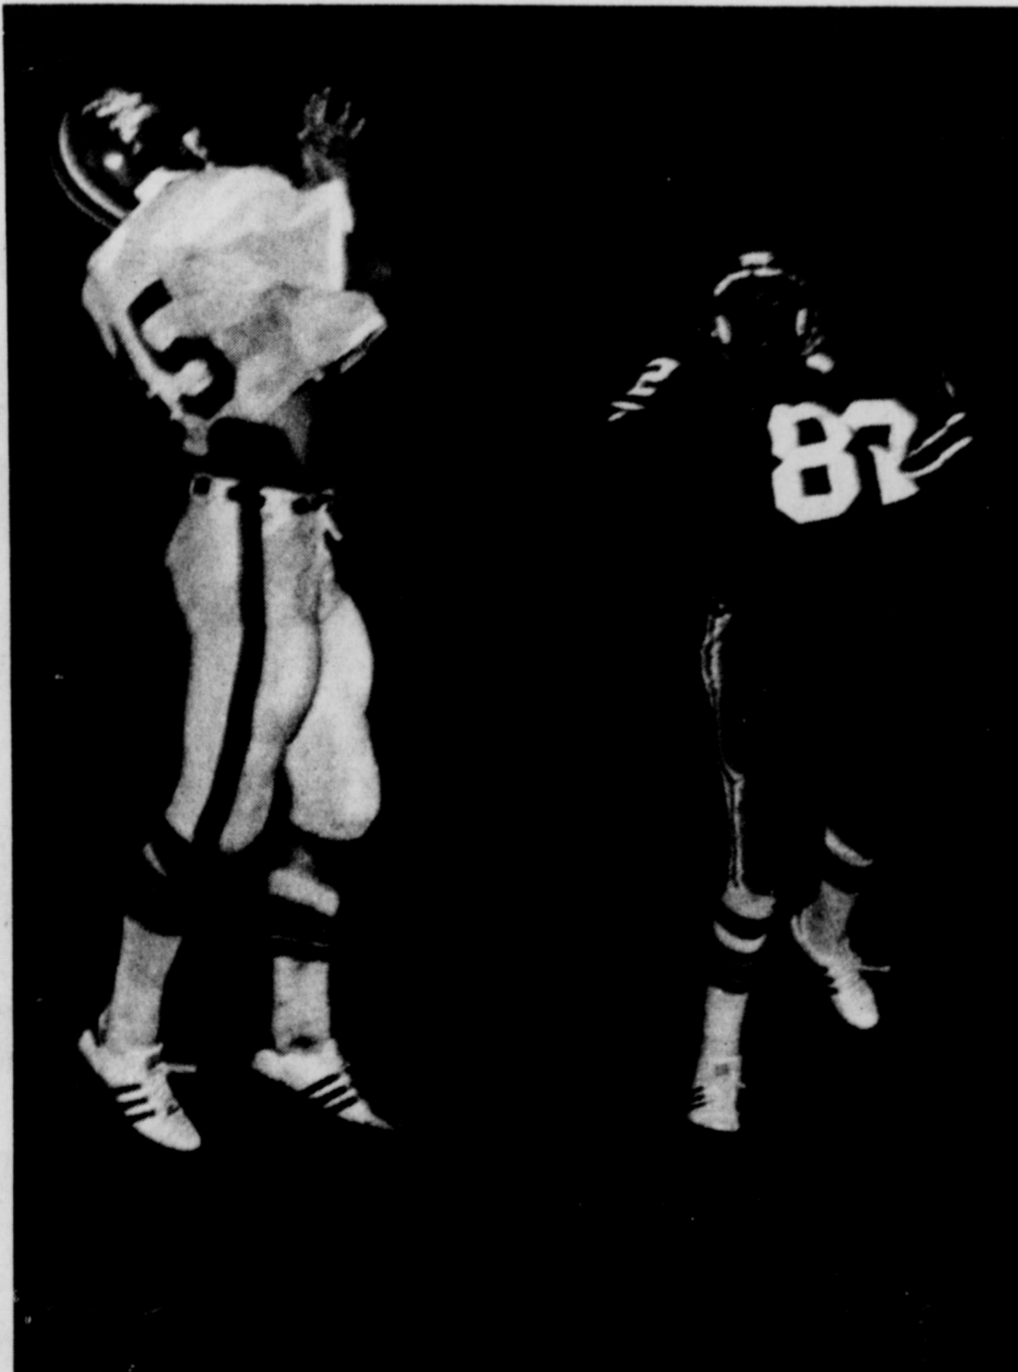

The Hawk defense stopped two Electra drives deep in Iowa Park territory. The first when Allen covered a Tiger fumble on the 11, and the other in the third quarter when Electra advanced to the 12 before running out of downs.

Electra's barefoot, soccer-style kicker, Donnie Chick, had a perfect night. He kicked both extra points and his team's field goal, a 30-yarder that hit squarely atop the crossbar, and bounced on across.

The field goal came with 1:21 remaining in the second quarter to give the host Tigers a 10-0 lead at the half. Lott's pass catch for the touchdown came only 4:36 deep in the same period.

Eagles give Boyd early scare

State-ranked Boyd was one step away from the cardiac-care unit due to the inspired play of the Holliday Eagles Friday night. But the experienced 'Jackets regrouped in the second half to go ahead 21-12.

Ranked as high as fifth in Class AA this year, Boyd upped its record to 3-0 for the year and 2-0 in District 11-AA, while the young Eagles fell to 1-3, 0-2 in district.

The 'Jackets brought a host of players to Eagle Stadium who played last year's Big Red bunch to a 14-6 squeaker. In that game, the score was 7-6 in favor of Holliday until an insurance touchdown late in the third quarter kept the area co-champs undefeated in district play.

This time the roles were reversed, with Holliday playing the potential giant-killer, and Boyd hoping to stay undefeated on its way to the playoffs.

Boyd quarterback Billy Tolliver used his running-passing-punting skills to upend the Eagles, but a lot of help also came from fellow 'Jacket seniors Rodney and Ronnie McCune, Alan Fite, Rodger Cathy, Rodney Scroggins, Scott Story, Mike Egan, Mike Rich and Mike Rhodes.

All 11 of them have played varsity ball for Boyd since their sophomore year. But, for the first half, it was Holliday's night, with the Big Red turning in a fine defensive performance and stopping three potential scoring drives by Boyd.

Holliday failed to secure a first down after receiving the opening kickoff, and Kurt Lilley's punt gave Boyd possession at its 27.

Back Rodney Scroggins broke for a 23-yard blast up the middle on the 'Jackets first play, but Holliday regrouped almost immediately, forcing a fourth-and-two situation at its 42.

Scroggins was again called on, but this time he was met by the likes of Steve Snider, Mike Muse, Kelly Coats, Jim Rogers, Don Hobgood, and Jeff Wise a yard short of a first down.

Another Boyd drive fizzled late in the initial period after going 32 yards in seven plays. Tolliver passed to Fite for a 13-yard gain, and Scroggins accounted for 10 yards in four rushes.

Once again the Big Red closed the gaps, stopping the 'Jacket drive at the Eagle 26.

Runs of six yards by Danny Hinsley and two by Tom Hamill preceded a Pat O'Brien to Les Dolberry combination aerial for a 26-yard gain and first down at the Boyd 38. Hamill racked off a five-yard reverse run shortly after a Boyd penalty set the ball five paces closer to the goal, with another first down at the 'Jacket 28. The 'Jackets got stingy at that point, setting Holliday back 12 yards to the 40 four downs later.

Tolliver began his best effort of the first half after trading unproductive possessions with the Eagles with 4:40 remaining in the half. From their 25, the 'Jackets moved the ball on two passes of 14 and 13 yards in three attempts and rushes of seven and three yards to the Eagle 39.

Four plays later, and with only two minutes left in the first half, Tolliver had his team knocking on the door at the Eagle 13. John Smyers rose to the occasion for Holliday at that point, breaking up three passes, including one in the endzone broken up by a hard hit by the defensive back.

Tolliver then attempted a 30-yard field goal, which sailed wide to the right, and Holliday took over at its 20 with 45-seconds remaining to intermission.

Hinsley, who amassed 153 yards on 21 carries for the night, got a good hunk of that on the first play, following his blockers on a power sweep around right end for 80 yards to give his Eagles a 6-0 lead over the stunned 'Jackets.

The snap for the point after try was fumbled, keeping the score at 6-0 into the third quarter.

SECOND HALF

Boyd was forced to punt for the first time in the game following an unproductive possession to begin the third period. However, Holliday didn't fare much better, turning the ball over four downs later. Smyers got into the act once again, intercepting a Tolliver aerial at the Holliday 15, returning it nine yards to the 24.

Hinsley tallied 23 yards in two rushes from there to give Holliday a first down at its 47. But once again Boyd stiffened, and a short eight-yard punt by Lilley gave the 'Jackets possession at their 43.

Tolliver broke free for a 51-yard gain to the Eagle eight, and a personal foul call on Holliday set the ball at the four. From there, Tolliver kept the ball around the left side for Boyd's first score. His point after split the uprights to give Boyd a slim 7-6 lead.

Eagle Mark Parker, on his first carry of the night, scampered 58 yards on the next Holliday possession, only to be dragged down from behind by Ronnie McCune. Boyd gave little ground from there, and a 29-yard field goal attempt was called wide to the left.

Taking possession at the 20, Boyd drove the length of the field for their second touchdown, culminated by Eugene Andress' five-yard run with 8:29 left in the game. Tolliver's point after was true once again, and the score read 14-6.

Holliday once again couldn't come up with needed yardage, but Lilley booted a 47-yard punt down to Boyd's 17.

Five plays later, Tolliver found daylight from the Eagle 29, running in for the insurance score. Another good point after kick put Boyd ahead 21-6, with 5:05 left in the game.

O'Brien connected with receiver Donnie Long for a 70-yard gain moments later down to the Boyd six. Three plays later, O'Brien snuck in from the one to close the gap at 21-12.

The Eagle quarterback tried once again to find paydirt on the two-point conversion attempt, but came up inches short, freezing the scoreboard at 21-12.

Parker, Arnold vows exchanged here Saturday

The lovely wedding gown that Miss Margaret Ellen Parker wore Saturday afternoon when she exchanged vows with Harold Richard Arnold Jr. made the occasion more memorable. Only ingenuity and talent could have created such a perfect look in the gown designed by the bride and her sister, Mrs. Loyd Ashley, and made by her mother.

The Holliday First Baptist Church was the scene of the double-ring nuptials officiated by Rev. Harvey McMurry, pastor of the City View Baptist Church.

The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Mike A. Parker, Sr. of Holliday and Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Arnold, Sr. of Scottsboro, Alabama.

The bridal gown was fashioned with a white Chantilly lace bodice embellished with pearls and glass beads and designed with scalloped sweetheart neckline that dipped to the waistline in the back, long fitted sleeves with ruffled cuffs. A satin bow gave a distinctive look to the front waistline. The full white crepe skirt overlaid with illusion net captured attention with four lace-trimmed ruffles above the hemline that extended the length of the chapel train.

The bride's gown was complemented with her illusion veil that drifted the length of the train from a wreath of white satin roses accented with pearls and baby's breath, and her cascade bouquet of white silk roses, aqua stephanotis and baby's breath.

She chose her gown for "something new" and her great-grandmother's lace handkerchief for the "something old" tradition. For "something borrowed," she wore Miss Brenda Morgan's strand of pearls and earrings, and a lace garter for "something blue." To enhance sentiment, she carried her mother's lace-covered Bible and wore a lucky penny in her shoe engraved with a "I Love You" message in a heart, a gift from the groom.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, who presented her in marriage for her parents.

The bride and groom repeated their vows and exchanged rings in an altar centered with a prayer bench entwined with greenery. Forming the background for the bench was an archway decorated with English ivy and white carnations. The flanking candelabra were decorated similarly with the addition of white satin bows and held tall white candles. The unity candlestick in the outer altar holding the candle that represented the permanence of marriage played a prominent part in the decorations.

The windows in the sanctuary where votive candles burned were skirted with white lace trimmed with satin ribbon and greenery.

Miss Beth Parker, sister of the bride, pianist, played prelude selections to include "Somewhere In Time," "Love Is a Many Splendored Thing," "Up Where We Belong," and "The Sweetest Thing."

During the lighting of the candles, Patty Glover, organist, and Mrs. Kenneth Edwards, pianist, played "Let It Be Me," and were featured in another duet number "Endless Love" while the mothers were being ushered and seated. At the close of the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards sang "Together" while the couple knelt on the prayer bench. The organist included the traditional marches in her offerings.

The bride's three sisters, Miss Susan Parker, Miss Beth Parker and Mrs. Loyd Ashley served as her bridesmaids. They wore fashionable light aqua crepe gowns styled with lace-trimmed necklines, bouffant sleeves and deep aqua sashes that tied in waistline bows. They wore wreaths of baby's breath in their hair and carried bouquets of deep aqua mums, baby's breath and fern leaves.

Jennifer Givens, the flower girl, and LeAnn Zimmerman, cousin of the bride, one of the candlelighters were dressed identically to the bridesmaids and wore wreaths of African violets and baby's breath in their hair. Gavin Prejean, the other candlelighter, wore an aqua carnation boutonniere with his suit.

The groom was attired in a Devon grey tuxedo with tails and wore a white wing tipped shirt, bow tie and a boutonniere formed with a white silk rose, baby's breath and fern leaf. His attendants wore less formal gray tuxedos.

Harold Arnold Sr. served as best man for his son, Randy Arnold, his brother, and Loyd Ashley, the bride's brother-in-law, were groomsmen. Mike Parker Jr. and Pat Parker, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Mrs. Parker, the bride's mother, wore a floor length aqua polyester dress accented with a floral print chiffon overlay. Mrs. Arnold, the groom's mother, wore a long deep aqua chiffon gown in similar style. Both wore corsages composed of white carnations, multi-colored roses and baby's breath.

The wedding reception was hosted by the bride's parents in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Mrs. Mark Peters directed signatures of the guests at a table draped with white lace over aqua and tastefully decorated with the couple's wedding invitation imbedded in a candle, a floral bouquet in shades of aqua, white plume pen and wedding book.

The bride's cake table, a picture of delicate beauty, was draped to the floor with a white lace cloth adorned at the corners with puffs of lace and bows.

The three tiers of the white cake were separated with ceramic columns and cherubs and adorned in a showy fashion with frosting designs of aqua roses and deep aqua sweetpeas. Three wedding bells nestled in aqua lace were chosen for the top ornament. Other appointments that added splendor to the table were two two-branched crystal candlesticks that belonged to the bride's great-grandmother holding aqua tapers, and the light aqua bridal napkins with "Richard-Ellen, Sept. 17, 1983" printed in dark aqua on either side and underneath a heart.

Those who served refreshments during the reception were Mrs. Jay Leary, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Steven Pirtle; Misses Debra McDonald, Carla Cottrell, Cathy Halenak and Kerri Edwards.

Houseparty members were Mmes. Jim Farr, Bill McDonald, Bob Simmons, Misses Murlene Pearson and Mary Ann Kolter.

The groom's parents, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Steven Pirtle, hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday evening in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The light aqua net bird seed bags tied with dark aqua ribbons were handed out by LeAnn Zimmerman and Kaelyn Prejean.

The bride was graduated from Holliday High School. She attended Midwestern State Univ. and has been employed by Parker Coffee Wholesale. The groom was graduated from Scottsboro, Ala. High School and attended Northeast Alabama State. He is in the U.S. Air Force and is presently stationed at Blytheville, Ark. where the couple will live following a wedding trip to the Ozark Mountains.

Special wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Patrick of Wichita Falls, grandparents of the bride, Mr. Stoker of Memphis, Tenn. grandfather of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. V.C. Randall of Sherman, Mrs. Elva Boren of Garland and Mrs. Augusta Randall of Fort Worth.

School sets tax rate at 58-cents

Holliday school board Tuesday night met in special called session to set the official tax rate for 1983-84 and accept the operating budget for the present school year.

Following mandatory guidelines of setting a tax rate above three percent, trustees called the meeting after holding a public hearing Monday of last week. During that meeting, trustees were commended by a representative of the North Texas Taxpayers Association for their efforts toward lowering anticipated revenues in the school budget.

The board accepted a tax rate of 58-cents per $100 market valuation as was advertised in public notices prior to both the hearing and Tuesday's meeting. The rate is an increase of 7.8-percent over last year's 54-cents per $100 valuation.

Also, the operating budget for 1983-84 was approved, with total expenditures amounting to $1,785,447 with an expected revenue totalling $1,718,414. A more detailed breakdown of the budget will be featured in next week's issue of this paper.

In other business, trustees tabled action on Larry Ledbetter of Ledbetter Enterprises until the October meeting to ascertain his financial position. Ledbetter was sent several letters from the board asking what his company would do to complete the terms of a contract signed three years ago to seal-coat the high school building. The sealant apparently was ineffective, and a second visit by Ledbetter resulted in the south face of the building being sprayed with a white paint, which also was proven to be of little help.

Also, board president Tommy Mankins was appointed as representative to the Archer County Tax Appraisal District Board, and superintendent Dan Owen was given signature authority for the purpose of authorizing the borrowing of money on short term notes.

One more hearing slated on revenue sharing funds

Holliday City Council Monday night heard the proposed revenue budget for 1984, given by city administrator Jim Hamill, and set a public hearing on the proposal before final passage for 6:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 3.

Council will meet following the public hearing to approve the proposed budget, estimated at $8,892.48.

In a new move, council added an additional expense item to the general revenue sharing areas of civil defense, fire department, insect spray chemicals and street resurfacing, adding "research and development for city park" to the list and trimming 20-percent of the figures for the previous-listed areas for that purpose.

Beginning of the year balance, according to Hamill's figures, was $3,652.48, with an additional $5,240 coming from the federal government to be earmarked for 1984.

In other business, council tabled T.H. Stone's presentation of a final plat for his proposed subdivision until the Oct. 3 meeting to give him more time to prepare the plat.

PUBLIC NOTICE

A public hearing for the proposed Revenue Sharing Budget for 1984 for the City of Holliday will be held at 6:30 p.m. Monday, October 3 in the Holliday Community Building.

The public has a right to provide written and oral comments on the entire budget and ask questions concerning the relationship of revenue sharing with the rest of the budget.

A breakdown of expenses in the proposed budget, which totals $8,892.48, is as follows: Civil Defense, $1,760; Fire Department, $2,112; Insect Spray Chemicals, $784; Street Resurfacing, $2,702.48; and, Research and Development for City Park, $1,678.

A copy of the entire budget proposed for adoption is available for public inspection at City Hall, 311 E. Chestnut.

Eagles face Henrietta in third loop contest

Holliday's Eagles travel to Henrietta tomorrow night for their third District 11-AA tilt in as many weeks.

Coming on the heels of an intense game against Boyd last Friday which the Big Red lost, it is anybody's guess whether the Bearcats will be mauled, or petted.

Henrietta, hoping to turn things around after a series of unproductive years, finally got into the win column last Friday with a win over Distract 11-AA cellar-dweller Chico 27-7, which gives the Bearcats and Eagles identical 1-2 records for the year.

But don't count the Big Red out yet, folks. Hungry for a district win coupled with the return of Jay "Bucks" Burks could possibly indicate good fortune tomorrow. In addition, returning letterman Steve Snider, injured in the Boyd game, will be ready to join his teammates against Henrietta.

For the Bearcats, runningback Roger Whatley is their key man in the backfield, along with Greg Polk, who returned a punt 85 yards for a touchdown against the Dragons. Whatley scored the other three times for Henrietta, on runs of six and 13-yards and a 12-yard pass from quarterback Jerry Lee.

Hopes for a playoff spot this year haven't completely left the minds of Holliday's Eagles. Starting in Henrietta, the Eagles could win the remaining conference games, and, hoping Boyd does likewise, advance as runner-up. Let's start the countdown.
