Annual Hawk-Husky clash tomorrow

'Equalizers' could play part in game's outcome

When the Hirschi Huskies come to Hawk Stadium tomorrow evening for their annual clash with the Mean Green, there could be a couple of "equalizers" that could have an effect on the outcome.

By all measures on paper, the defending Dist. 3-AAAA champions of the past three seasons should be the odds-on favorite for the game, which is slated to start at 8 p.m.

The Huskies are running high, coming into the game undefeated. They opened their conference schedule last week against Azle and whopped the Hornets 28-0.

They've got a winning streak going against the Hawks that, with the exception of a 7-7 tie in 1981, extends all the way back to 1975.

The last time Iowa Park defeated the Huskies was in 1974, when Daryl Frazier, who is now an assistant on the coaching staff, kicked a long field goal for a 3-0 decision.

Hirschi shot down Iowa Park 35-10 enroute to the conference title last year.

But all that as it may, there could be a couple of equalizers that could come into play.

First of all, the Hawks will be playing at home. This could be an advantage of sorts, especially if the stands are packed with vocal Iowa Parkans shouting support.

Also, the Huskies play most of their games on man-made turf instead of natural grass. That not only slows down the speed, which they usually have an abundance, but it changes the bounce of the ball from what they are used to.

Another equalizer could be the attitude of the Wichitans when they come into the game. They've been reading their own press clippings after those wins over hometowners Wichita High and Rider and Lawton MacArthur and Azle.

The Huskies are also aware that the Hawks lost their last two games, first to Electra and then to Mineral Wells.

So they could come into the game taking the hungry Hawks too lightly.

To those Hawk fans who traveled to Mineral Wells last week, there's no question the Mean Green group is hungry. They showed it time and again in their battle with the Rams.

They recognized what Coach David Baugh commented about following the game, that the Hawks were just a step away numerous times from winning that game.

He referred to blockers being a step from their target when they needed to be, or tacklers being a step from arm's reach from a Ram carrier, or a Hawk runner being a step away from eluding a Ram tackler and breaking for a long run.

Iowa Park's line is expected to still be short of strength without Jimmy Collazo, who underwent minor surgery a couple of weeks ago.

Bobby Halady gained valuable experience at linebacker last week against the Rams. He was moved from the line to replace Charles Adams, who broke his arm against Electra and was lost for the season.

Otherwise, the Hawks are expected to be healthy for Friday's annual bout with the Huskies.

POUNDING HIS WAY - Big Greg Untalon, senior running back for the Hawks, bulls his way to a five-yard gain against Mineral Wells in last week's game. Also a stellar performer on defense, Untalon is averaging 5.5 yards per carry this season and is figured to be a major force in tomorrow's game here against Wichita Falls Hirschi.

Aldermen, trustees to meet next week

Both the Iowa Park city council and school board will meet next week.

The council meeting will begin at 7 p.m. Monday in council chambers, and trustees are to meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the administration building.

Of the two agendas, that of the city's appears to be more lengthy.

Two ordinances will be considered. One would amend the 1983 fiscal year budget. The other would amend the wording of the ordinance regarding extension of water and sewer lines to undeveloped areas in the city.

A personal appearance has been requested by Mrs. Paul Miller. She is expected to appeal, as she has at different times in the past, for water service to her home in Bogan Acres or to be de-annexed from the city. Her property fronts the expressway and is east of Bell Road.

Aldermen will consider three requests to advertise for bids: one would be equipment at the sewer treatment plant; another would be for construction of a fire department substation in the south part of the city; and the third would be for administrator's report:

* discuss continuing workers compensation insurance through the Texas Municipal League;

* request permission to keep a $2,500 balance in the debt service fund;

* discuss a proposal by Rip Smith, who wants to take the affluent from the sewer treatment plant to be used on a golf course he proposed to locate northwest of the city;

* discuss the city's proposal for a representative to the county tax appraisal board, now held by Stanley Williamson, an appointment jointly shared with the school district.

TRUSTEE AGENDA

Trustees will be asked permission for three basketball trips outside the limit of 50 miles, a restriction imposed passage of the TABS test should be included among requirements for graduation.

Also to be discussed is whether the board wants to use drug-sniffing dogs at local campuses. This has been discussed in the past and a policy written which would permit it, but no action has been taken yet to initiate the activity.

Trustees are expected to set a date in the near future to discuss the school policy manual, which has been undergoing revision.

An executive session concerning personnel may also be added to the agenda before it is finalized tomorrow, according to Supt. Harold Cowley.

New landfill site to be open Friday

After years of planning and considerable work over the past couple of months, the city's new sanitary landfill will be open for use Friday morning.

The new site is southwest of the

The site is open 8 a.m. to 7 p.m., seven days a week. However, public dumping there still requires a permit from the city hall. Current permits issued for use at the old site are still accepted, according to James Barrington, city administrator.

City workers began yesterday digging the first trench to be used, while other workers were cleaning up operations at the old site.

Land for the new site was leased from Mrs. Wilbur Karstetter. All required soil samples and public hearings have been held, and the state gave its final seal of approval of the new trench site late last week after an additional soil sample was taken.

City fathers hope the new site will provide enough room to be used the next 20 years.

A gate has been installed into the landfill site and will be locked during hours it is closed, Barrington said.

Police handle numerous cases during past week

Among the cases handled during the past week by the Iowa Park Police Dept. were four thefts, two vandalism cases, one dog bite and a domestic disturbance in which a child was injured.

Tommy Glen Brewster, 506 W. Washington, told police tools and a tool case with a total value of $1,060 were taken from his home between Saturday and Monday.

A personal check of $345, made out by Lynn DeFoeldvan to Woodbriar Apartments, was reportedly taken from the apartment's mail box between 2 and 6:35 p.m. Friday, according to a report.

Sometime during Monday, a cassette player, two speakers and four tapes, valued at $223, were reportedly taken from a vehicle owned by Robbie Marston, while the vehicle was parked in the west lot at Iowa Park High School.

A 10-speed bicycle valued at $117 was taken either Wednesday or Thursday of last week from 1215 Emma, Charles Barnett Sr. reported.

Virginia Atkinson reported to police that Roger Dale Atkinson "forcefully" took their two-year-old daughter from their home at 710 Coleman at 11:15 a.m. Monday. During the incident, the child received a cut to her head. She was reportedly treated at Park Clinic and returned to the home.

Robert Yow said someone threw a beer bottle, breaking the windshield of his pickup while it was parked at 206 Bell Road between 1 and 7 p.m. Friday. Damage was set at $125. A door to the home at 406 E.

Alameda was reportedly kicked open between 6:30 and 8 p.m. Wednesday of last week. Nothing was reported missing, but damage was set at $50 by Richard West, who filed the report.

TWO IOWA PARK WOMEN were taken to Sheppard Regional Hospital for whiplash treatment late Sunday afternoon when their car was overrun by another vehicle. Cynthia Dawn Brown was driving the vehicle west bound on East Highway and had stopped at Victoria, when a pickup driven by Joe Carpenter Baker, 79, of Vernon, struck the car's rear end. A passenger in the auto was Virginia Troy Brown of 321 E. Cash. Baker was cited for failure to control speed to avoid accident. Volunteer firemen had to use the Jaws of Life to complete extraction of the women.

Student reunion, banquet plans taking final shape

The executive board of the Iowa Park High School Alumni Association met recently to make further plans for the annual reunion and banquet activities beginning with the homecoming parade Oct. 21 and culminating at a banquet Oct. 22.

During the meeting, chairmen were appointed to include: Walter and Wilma Spruiell, parade entry; Kenneth and Glenna Via, period of fellowship for ex-students from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Friendly Door Oct. 22; Jerry and Nancy Gholson reception at the high school preceding the banquet.

Other chairmen include the Don James family, in charge of registration at the homecoming football game; Bud and Lela Mercer, Judy Franklin and Vicki Reeves, banquet decorations.

At the banquet, to be held in the high school cafeteria, the members of the graduating classes ending in "3" will be given special recognition. The menu for the catered meal will be choice of chicken fried steak, turkey and dressing, or fish, four vegetables, choice of salads and desserts, bread, tea and coffee.

A speaker for the banquet will be announced later, but music will be provided by a male quartet, all graduates of Iowa Park High School.

Permits slump during month

Building in Iowa Park went into another slump during September, especially when compared with August.

Permits for construction valued at only $25,604 were issued during the past month.

Permits issued during September included:

H.I. Berry, 916 Van Horn, addition, $500;

Jerry M. Brooks, 604 Manes, addition, $350;

Raley, Fritz wedding vows are solemnized Saturday

The exchange of rings was especially significant in a wedding ceremony performed Saturday evening at Christ the King Catholic Church when Donald Jon Fritz placed the gold wedding ring of the bride's great-grandmother on the finger of Miss Valerie Chylene Raley.

The ceremony officiated by Father Vince Redder of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Wichita Falls uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Jefferson Raley III of Arlington, former residents of Iowa Park, and the son of Mrs. Marian Fritz of Kanakee, Ill., was the first to be performed in the recently built church.

The altar, keyed by beautiful simplicity, was covered with a white embroidered cloth and held a large brandy snifter containing a candle banked with potpourri. Nine-branched candle stands decorated with white bows held cathedral candles along each side of the altar.

The face-to-face prayer benches where the couple knelt to make their commitments one to another were decorated and joined with ribbons accented with a large bow from which a heart emerged to add special interest. The guest table in the entry way was covered in lace. It held the wedding book, white plume pen and violet candles aglow in a large crystal hurricane globe trimmed with ribbons. Miss Kathy Fullerton of Wichita Falls directed signatures of the guests.

The wedding music featured organ, vocal, guitar and flute selections. Broyles Hall of Wichita Falls, organist, played the traditional wedding marches for the entrance and exit of the wedding party.

Mrs. Pat Loehrlein sang an original composition of hers "The Joy of Life" for her first vocal number and "All I Ever Ask Of You" to her guitar accompaniment and flute accompaniment by Mrs. Robert Pancoast. Guitar accompaniment was furnished for a third vocal selection "Wherever You Go" by Mrs. Pancoast.

As the bride neared the altar with her father who presented her in marriage, she paused by her mother to give her a long stemmed rose love gift.

The bride was a vision of traditional elegance in a gown of white Chantilly lace over antique taffeta. The fitted bodice captured attention with a high neck, deep V tulle inset edged with a lace ruffle and centered with an applique hand beaded motif that was repeated on the sheer Victorian leg-of-mutton sleeves. Nostalgic ruffles reminiscent of an opulent age encircled the skirt and cascaded down the cathedral train.

The bride chose her headpiece for the "something borrowed" tradition from her sister. It featured misty tiers of illusion with hand-rolled handkerchief hems drifting from a tastefully beaded Juliet cap. For her flowers, the groom chose for her a bouquet of white roses, statice, baby's breath and ivy accented with ribbon and lace streamers.

Miss Mona Wilkerson of College Station, a longtime friend of the bride, participated in the wedding as maid of honor. She wore a formal pale violet crepe dress enhanced with delicate tucks at the neckline and a matching waistline sash and bow. She wore a haircomb adorned with silk flowers and long flowing ribbons and carried a votive candle banked with potpourri in a brandy snifter tied with trailing satin ribbons.

Mrs. Sam Dospapas of San Antonio and Mrs. Timothy Rich of Iowa Park, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore violet cotton nainsook floor length dresses complemented with matching sashes and bows. They wore ornamental haircombs and carried small brandy snifters decorated in the same fashion as the one carried by the maid of honor.

Katie and Sarah Reeves, the flower girls, wore soft cotton violet print dresses designed with ruffles around the shoulders and hemline flounces. Silk flowers and green leaves were entwined in wreaths with trailing ribbons for their head pieces. One carried a basket of violets and the other carried a basket of violets and potpourri.

Chris Thurkill wore a medium grey tuxedo as he carried out the duties of ring bearer, carrying a white lace-trimmed pillow cross stitched in violet with initials of the bride and groom, their wedding date, and the message "With this ring I thee wed."

The groom wore a dark gray tuxedo. His attendants wore light gray tuxedos. Ronald Fritz of Mattoon, Ill., brother of the groom, was best man, and two other brothers, Richard Fritz of Normal, Ill. and Robert Fritz of Jefferson City, Mo. were groomsmen. Ushers were Robert Pancoast and Sam Dospapas.

The mothers of the couple wore corsages formed of white sweetheart roses with the dresses they selected to wear to their children's wedding.

The reception given by the bride's parents was held at the church. The bride's table was draped with white lace and the beautiful cake trimmed tastefully with violets, stephanotis and star flowers was its center of attention. The placement of the accessories, a large basket of violets, antique toasting crystal stemware that had originally belonged to the groom's grandmother, and bridal napkins added the finishing touches.

Another lace-covered table held a chocolate cake decorated with shaded chocolate frosting roses, a crystal bowl that held the punch made by a special recipe, and crystal bowls filled with an assortment of tidbits.

The groom's mother was hostess for a catered rehearsal dinner Friday evening at the church.

When the newlyweds departed from the church on a wedding trip to Galveston and San Antonio, the new

Mrs. Fritz was wearing a two-piece multi-striped grey dress for traveling.

The bride and groom were both graduated from Iowa Park High School. She attended Midwestern State Univ. and is employed by Dillard's in Wichita Falls. He is a senior at MSU and works for Triplett Carrot Co.

Special out-of-town wedding guests on the bride's side were Mrs. M.L. Weber of Houston, her maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Jess Newman of Newport, her maternal grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Raley of Baytown, her paternal grandparents. Others were Mrs. Natalie McConnell of La Porte and Mary Raley of Houston.

CWF members hear officer

Mrs. Virginia Pingleton of Seymour, president of the Department of Church Women in the Southwest Christian Churches, was a guest and brought an interesting Women's Fellowship history to the Christian Women's Fellowship of Iowa Park First Christian Church. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Sammy Henderson with Mrs. Nancy Henderson serving as co-hostess.

Mrs. Pingleton said that the World Christian Women's Fellowship came about because one woman wrote a letter asking "will there ever be a world organization for women?" She explained the purpose of the organization to be that of providing a channel by which women of the Disciples of Christ and United Christian Churches can join fellowship, prayer, study and service all over the world.

The closing worship was brought by Mrs. Wylie Williams on spreading the word throughout the world.

Mrs. Dale Walling conducted a brief business session before the program. It was voted to purchase a portable public address system for use in church activities for the October project, and to prepare gifts for patients at the nursing home for the November project. Plans were finalized for serving the stew dinner Oct. 22 during Whoop-T-Do activities.

The three federated clubs in Iowa Park, Amity Study Club, Philia Study Club and Twenty-Three Study Club will be the hostess clubs. Presidents of the clubs are Mmes. Phil Welch, Vern Horsky and D.O. James.

Mrs. Erwin F. Soell, a member of the Twenty-Three Study Club and president of Santa Rosa District, will be the presiding officer during the day. A get acquainted coffee will be held between 8 and 9 a.m. and registration and fingerprinting will take place between 8 and 8:45 a.m. The first address of the morning will be given by Lt. Curtis Salyer, Burkburnett Police Dept. He will be introduced by Mrs. Robert Norris of Burkburnett and speak on "Crime Prevention Methods."

Mrs. J.R. Merrick, president of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce, will give the welcome and Mrs. Warren Haynie will give the response. Mrs. Harry Elliott will be presented as a new life member by Mrs. Philip Carpenter of Burkburnett.

During the morning session, Karen Diekhoff, Wichita Adult Literacy Council, will give an address on "Problems of Adults Who Don't Read - They Can Be Helped," and a film "Water-The Timeless Compound" will be shown.

During the business, reports will be heard from Mrs. China B. Smith, a T.F.W.C. trustee and Mrs. Harold Campbell and Mrs. Harold Cowley, scholarship chairmen of the district. Mrs. Chauncey Weiler, district historian, will offer the invocation for the luncheon, and special music will be provided by Rusty Stowe, minister of music and education of First Baptist Church, and his quartet.

The luncheon speaker will be Walter Meller, manager, System Production West Texas Utilities Co. He will give a slide presentation of the construction of the Oklaunion Power Station, which is WTU's first coal-fired generating plant. The title of his presentation will be "The Oklaunion Power Station Under Control."

He will include in his opening remarks something about West Texas Utilities, its service area, and its relationship with the parent company, the Central and South West Corporation, then mention some of the reasons for the decision to build a coal-fired plant instead of continuing to build traditional, gas-fired plants. He will get into a few details about the construction of the plant itself, mentioning in basic terms how some of the equipment and systems operate, and conclude with a word about the cost. If time permits, he will attempt to answer any questions that may be forthcoming.

Following the address, the club presidents of the district will give brief reports and door prizes will be awarded.

Family income management seminar set

"Managing Family Income for Financial Fitness" will be the topic of a free seminar from 7 to 9 this evening at the 4-H Auditorium, 1626 Midwestern Pkwy. in Wichita Falls. The program is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Barbara Cornelius, Wichita County Extension Agent.

Nancy Granovsky, Family Resource Management Specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M Univ., will cover information including: easy steps to managing your money, how to make the process work for you and special plans for controlling the use of credit, solving financial problems and establishing special financial goals such as childrens education.

Cornelius will discuss organizing a family record keeping system by planning a home business center. She says "Elaborate equipment is really unnecessary in establishing a home business center but having a specific spot helps to insure items such as receipts, cancelled checks, forms or bills will find their way to the appropriate place."

Participants in the program should expect to learn skills in getting control on everyday money; how to set and reach financial goals, how to design a financial management plan (budget) that works and how to design a record keeping system to track expenditures and income.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

A question which is often posed by citizens about why so many appeal court decisions overturn cases because of legal technicalities, even when it is clear that the person is guilty, was asked an attorney this week.

It was a good question, and I thought Mike Dodd, local attorney, did as good a job of answering as I've heard so far. But I must add, I don't totally agree.

In so many words, Dodd explained that the courts have drawn a line on what and how evidence can be obtained by law enforcement personnel. If an officer crosses that line, the evidence is not allowed, or other lines would similarly be crossed by other officers.

It's to protect the general public, he explained. And the courts have found it is better to turn loose a guilty person in such cases, than to have the public subjected to searches which would encroach on the privacy of the public.

Dodd was speaking Tuesday to the Noon Lions Club.

His explanation is a bitter pill in many cases, though understandable.

The next morning, when I got Monday's issue of the Lampasas Dispatch, I got a pretty good idea of just how bitter the pill can be.

Back in 1977, law enforcement officers there broke a real big case of marijuana production. As I recall the earlier articles, local and state officers were involved in breaking it.

A huge greenhouse out in the country was found to be producing almost 1,000 marijuana plants. Three persons were arrested, tried and found guilty of growing the pot crop.

Well, the case was appealed. And, yes, you're right, last week it was overturned in a court of appeals.

The four-year sentences were thrown out on grounds that evidence in the case had been unlawfully collected by law enforcement officers in the use of high-powered lenses to see into an opaque greenhouse.

Lampasas Sheriff Gordon Morris commented it appeared officers would apparently have to wait for a court ruling to determine the proper size of binoculars they could use in such cases in the future. He felt officers had done everything they could to not infringe on the privacy of the accused, including weeks of surveillance to make sure of their case before going onto the property.

The case won't be re-tried because all evidence is thrown out.

Something else Dodd pointed out during his talk was particularly interesting. Texas now has a "code of evidence" and no longer has to use court rulings which date back to law in England, pre-United States. The code gives all the evidence all in one publication, rather than having to research all the cases in our legal history.

Dodd also made another point I'd never heard, concerning why lawyers work so hard in finding legal technicalities to defend their clients.

An attorney who does not use a legal technicality to free a client can be sued for legal malpractice, he informed us.

With a code like that, it's no wonder why most of us laymen have such a misunderstanding of the legal profession.

Save energy with a heat pump.

If you're planning to install a new heating or cooling system, consider a high-efficiency heat pump. It's an energy-saving, year-round alternative.

The heat pump provides year-round heating and cooling, using only electricity. During the winter, it extracts heat from the outside air (even very cold air contains heat) and brings that heat inside where it's needed. In the summer, the heat pump is a regular air conditioner, removing unwanted heat from the inside air.

The heat pump is the most efficient combination heating and cooling system that can be installed in your home today.

To learn more about the heat pump, call your air conditioning contractor. And when you call, ask about the year-round heat pump that qualifies for a bonus check from Texas Electric.

Agricultural implements still permitted on roads

The Texas Highway Commission last month acted to clarify the intent of HB 1602, passed to comply with the Federal Surface Transportation Assistance Act of 1982, and maintain the traditional exemption from highway width limitations that allows farm implements to move short distances on public roads without special permitting.

The effect of the action is to: Allow all agricultural implements, regardless of width, to be moved by the farmer or his agent on any public road for a distance of not more than 50 miles in order to carry on agricultural operations, or to deliver implements for maintenance or repair or to their owner.

Limit the width of a vehicle used exclusively to transport cotton seed modules to 108 inches when operated on any highway not listed in Appendix A or Appendix B; on those roads, the vehicle or load must not exceed 102 inches in width.

Allow vehicles carrying cylindrical hay bales to be up to 120 inches wide on all roads except those listed on Appendix A and Appendix B; on those roads, the vehicle or load must not exceed 120 inches in width.

Rep. Charles Finnell praised the action of the Highway Commission. He said that it would relieve the agricultural industry of an unnecessary hardship and financial obligation.

Cook of the Week

Many of the herbs and spices that cooks use today have tradition, myth and history and are exotic to our everyday living. They impart new tastes, as well as enhance the flavors of the food with which they are used. To have a way with spices is one way a cook can take the monotony out of mealtime.

Some of the recipes that Vanessa (Mrs. Rick) Hutchinson shares with us today attest to the use she makes of spices and herbs, to add zest to meals that she prepares for her husband, who is employed by Mobil Oil Corp. at Electra, and their three daughters, Jennifer nine, Valerie six, and Leah three and a half.

One of the recipes calls for basil, a herb of the mint family and many cooks agree that it is one of the most delightful of culinary herbs.

In ancient times, it was a bone of contention with doctors and herbalists. John Gerard, who lived at the time of Shakespeare wrote in his herbal: "A smell of basil is good for the heart and head—cureth infirmities of the hart, taketh away sorrowfulness which cometh of melancholie, and maketh a man merrie and glad."

In Italy, it was, and still is a symbol of love. In some parts of Italy they call it Kiss-Me-Nicholas. Any girl carrying a basil sprig is encouraging her beau to propose. In Romania, the same thing is true. If a young man reaches out his hand and takes a sprig of basil offered by a girl, he may as well consider himself engaged to her. So much for the romance about the herb. In America, it truly is one of the most delightful of the culinary herbs.

Vanessa was graduated from Holliday High School where she was a cheerleader during her junior and senior years. Before then she was a cheerleader for four years at Healdton, Okla. She is a member of Grace Baptist Church where she is a teacher in the junior Sunday School department. She is publicity chairman of the Kidwell P.T.A., a room mother at both Kidwell and Bradford Elementary Schools. Her hobbies are macrame and sewing.

ANOTHER SOPHOMORE DID IT TO 'EM AGAIN

Rams hand Hawks district loss

Sophomores give the Hawks fits. For the second consecutive game, Iowa Park has more sophomore than could be handled.

In the first game, it was Electra's Charlie Lott, who ran a lot, caught a lot and scored a lot.

Friday night it was Mineral Wells' Sean Fisher who ran the option almost to perfection, passed adequately, and led his "Ragin' Rams" to a 14-10 come-from-behind victory over the Mean Green.

Actually, the tall sophomore made numerous mistakes, mostly on pitch outs that hit runners on the shoulder pads and led to two turnovers to the Hawks. And he was held in check most of the game.

But, it seemed, the crafty speedster would always come up with a play when it counted the most, catch the defense spread out, and pick up yardage that kept the Ram drives alive.

The Hawks led twice in the contest, and appeared to be on a game-winning drive late in the game, but came up four yards short of a first down and the host Rams took over at their own 15 yard line and killed the remaining 2:10 on the scoreboard clock.

It was a Fisher-aided fumble that led to Iowa Park's first score. Bobby Halady claimed the ball at the Ram 32.

After picking up a couple of first downs, the Hawk drive stalled at the eight yard line and Greg Untalon split the uprights with a 25-yard field goal.

Mineral Wells appeared to have gone ahead with a 29-yard pass play on the second game of the second quarter, but the play was called back for having an ineligible receiver downfield.

But a few minutes later a 48-yard pass by Fisher advanced the ball to the Hawk 11, and on the next play Fisher skirted right end for the go-ahead touchdown.

Iowa Park showed real determination after taking the second half kickoff, as the Hawks marched 63 yards to score.

Lee Roach, who carried seven of the 10 plays on the series, broke over left guard at the 23 yard line, shook off a tackle at the 15, and bounced into the end zone to score. Jerry Allen's extra point kick sent the Hawks ahead 10-7, with 9:42 remaining in the second half.

Five plays later, Scott Young claimed another Ram fumble on his 36 yard line. It appeared the Hawks were once again marching to the Ram end zone. But, at the Mineral Wells 40 and needing four yards for a first, Iowa Park attempted a trick play that fizzled and the Rams took over on their own 47.

Eight plays later, one of which was a 21-yarder by Fisher, Ram fullback Ron Small slanted over left end and scored from the six, giving the host team a 14-10 lead with 9:23 remaining in the contest.

Allen returned the ensuing kickoff to the Hawk 45, setting up their final drive of the evening. Ten plays later, the Hawks had a first down on the Ram 22, and 3:17 was still showing on the clock.

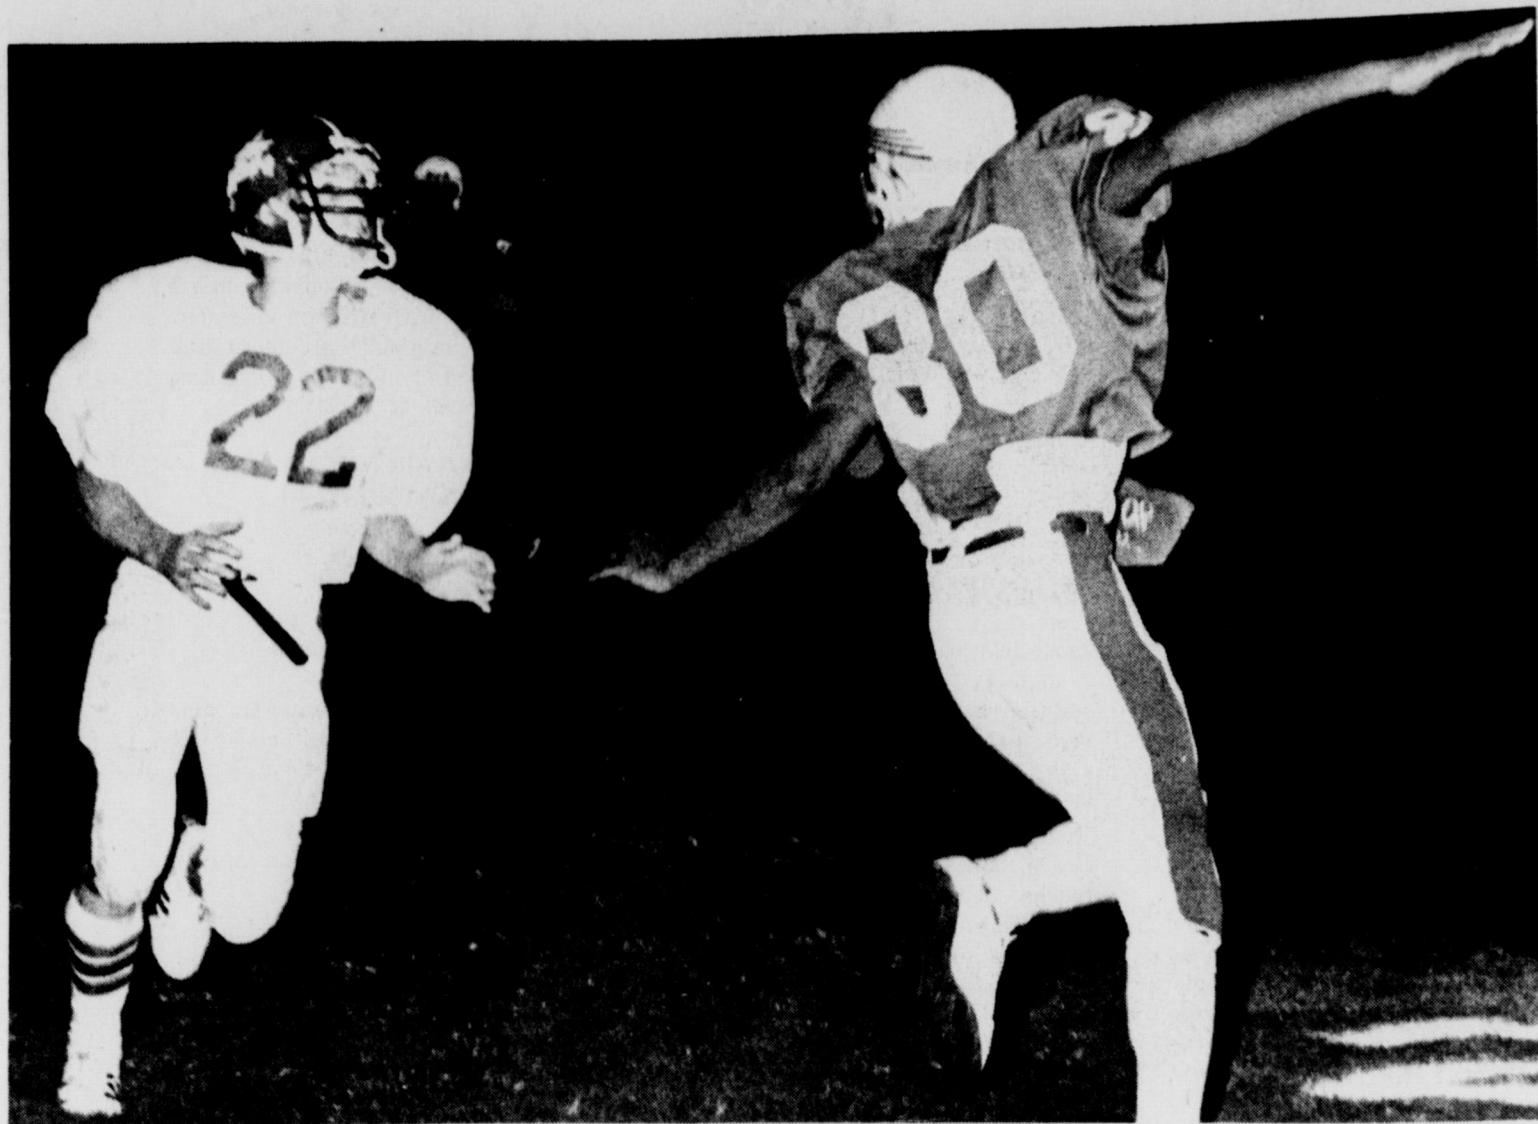

Ray Sefcik, who was sent in to quarterback the last drive, tried to hit Young in the end zone, but the pass was blocked. Then Bryan Fulfer bulled his way five yards, and Kendell Hill gained two more.

Sefcik, on the next play, rolled to his right and attempted to lob the ball to Roach, who was open on the five. But one of the Ram linebackers batted down the ball and killed Hawk hopes of victory.

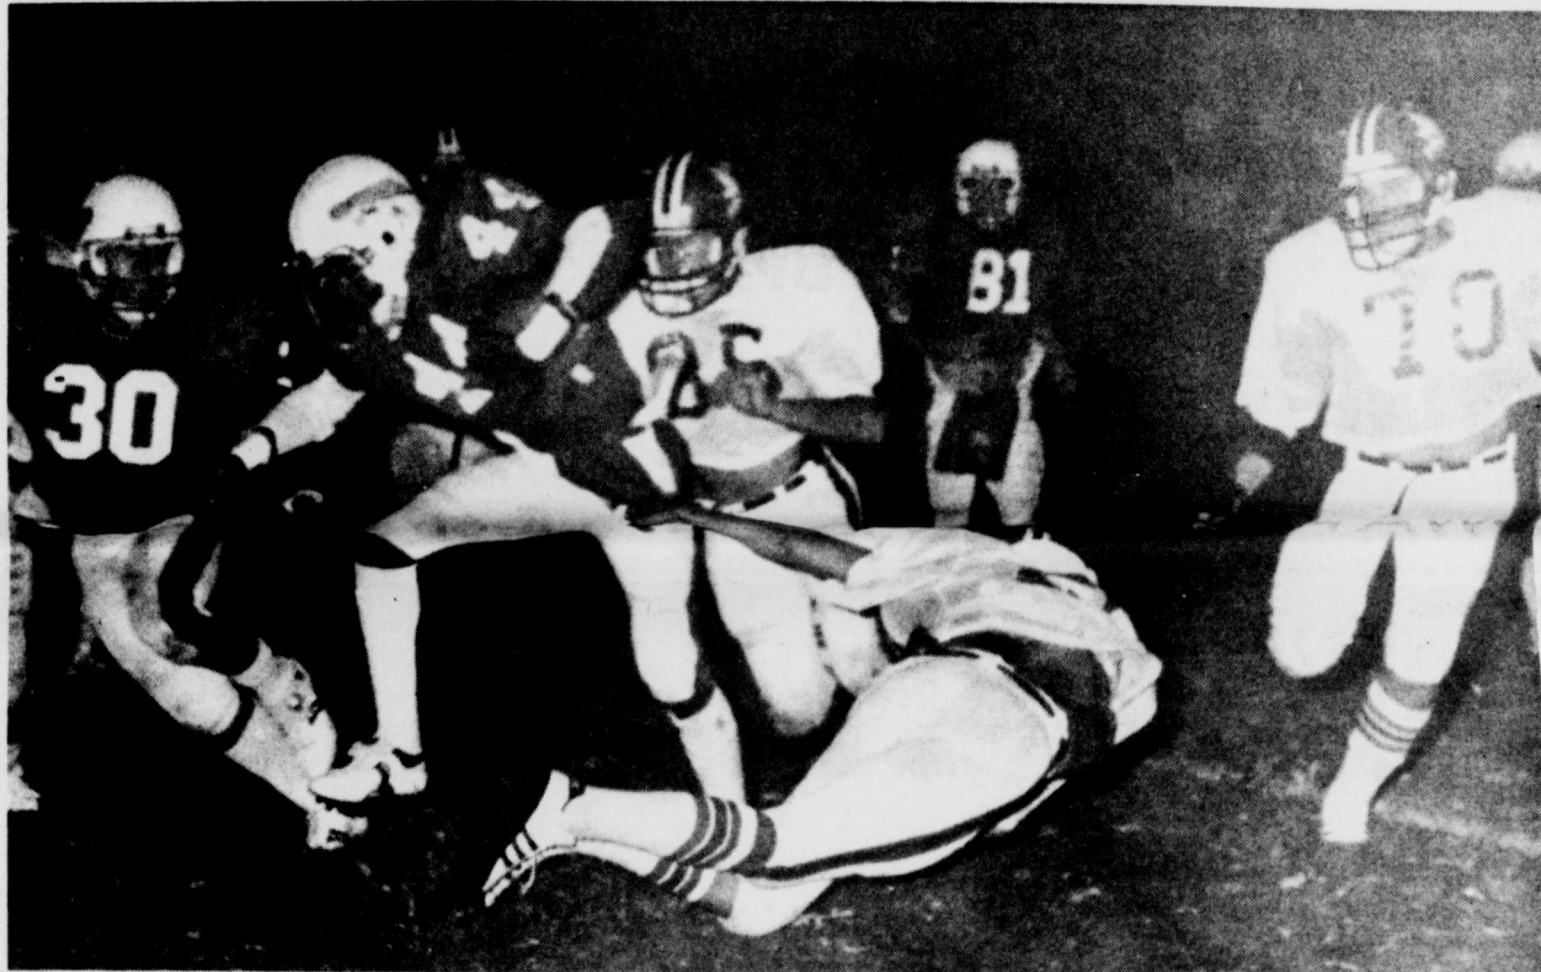

The loss evened Iowa Park's season record at 2-2, but gives the Hawks a 0-1 record in Dist. 3-AAAA play.

Roach was the leading carrier for Iowa Park, gaining 81 yards on 18 carries. Untalon's number was called 12 times and he picked up 44 yards.

Cubs best Eagles to remain unbeaten

Olney's Cubs ruled the roost in Eagle Stadium last Friday night, running up a 41-21 score and staying atop District 11-AA with a 5-0 record, 4-0 in conference play.

The Eagles, meanwhile, dropped to 2-3 for the season and 1-3 in district.

It was an emotional game for both teams, but the faster Cubs prevailed throughout the first quarter, building a 14-0 advantage behind the running and passing of Olney signal caller Tom Enloe, who had a hand in all of the scoring by his team.

The Red Machine finally got untracked in the second quarter, making its initial first down with over a minute gone in that period, and driving for a score to close the gap at halftime 14-7.

Enloe started things off on Olney's second possession of the contest, connecting with Robert Sherrill for a 41-yard scoring toss, with less than a minute left in the first period.

After an unproductive Holliday possession following the next kickoff, Olney once again took possession at Holliday's 43. Enloe scooted around the left side on the first play for 57 yards and the score, giving Olney a 14-0 lead seconds into the second quarter.

On the next kickoff, the Eagles drove 77 yards, with the help of three facemasking penalties called on the Cubs, with Danny Hinsley driving the final five yards for the score. Kelly Carver's kick made it 14-7.

With less than five minutes left in the half, the Eagles successfully snuffed a Cub drive at its 23, and the Red Machine once again got on the roll, driving downfield until seven plays later when Hinsley ran for a first down at the Cub seven. Jay "Bucks" Burks, who led Eagle rushers with 169 yards on 22 carries, ran for four yards to the Cub three on the first play, but three more rushes, one by Burks and two by Hinsley, failed to produce a score, and Holliday went into intermission down 14-7, instead of tied at 14-all.

Olney maintained its momentum going into the second half, driving 74 yards following the kickoff for another score, capped by Enloe's one-yard plunge. The point after kick was blocked, but Olney still led 20-7.

The Eagles mounted another 77-yard drive on their next possession, with quarterback Pat O'Brien taking it in on a one-yard sneak. Carver's kick was off to the right, and the scoreboard read 20-13.

Enloe showed off his deceptive running-style on Olney's next possession, running 67-yards for another score. On the play, Enloe started down the left sidelines, then stopped in his tracks to fend off two Eagles who were cutting him off, and made a bee-line for the right corner where he ran in untouched. The point after try was again no good, but Olney still led 26-13.

Enloe rifled a pass to Sherrill for another score early in the fourth period to increase the lead to 34-13. Holliday mounted a 70-yard drive aided by three passes from O'Brien to Jim Rogers, and capped by Burks' eight-yard run, closing the gap at 34-19 with 1:09 left in the game. O'Brien passed to Shannon West for the two-point conversion to make the score 34-21.

An onside-kick attempt failed, and Olney ran up the score with seconds left in the game on Enloe's 15-yard sprint. The point after kick froze the scoreboard at 41-21.

Jacksboro opponent Friday for Big Red

Holliday's Eagles, coming off an emotional loss to district foe Olney last week, now must cast the past aside and prepare for another challenging Friday night match in Jacksboro against the Tigers in yet another District 11-AA tilt.

Aside from the expected bumps and bruises associated with a hard-fought contest, the Red Machine's injuries following the Cub game were of the emotional kind. Olney came to Eagle Stadium with every intention of evening the score after last year's 15-7 drubbing handed to them by Holliday, and 41 points is the most scored against a Don Lucy-coached Eagle squad.

With Olney and Boyd now on a collision course with the District 11-AA championship at stake, both Holliday and Jacksboro can look forward to wreaking havoc on the rest of the district roster, but first they must play each other.

Both teams have identical 2-3 records for the year, and 1-3 records in the conference. Led by explosive-back Johnny Webb, the Tigers manhandled Chico last Friday night 46-0 with Webb scoring three touchdowns, two on runs and one on an 11-yard pass from Jacksboro quarterback John Matlock.

Rounding out the Tiger backfield are backs Danny Herd, who scored two touchdowns against the Dragons, and Preston Workman, who added one of his own.

The Big Red can edge closer to the .500 mark for the year with a win against the Tigers, and, with three more district games remaining on the schedule (Petrolia, Chico and Archer City), the season can be turned completely around on a winning note. It all depends on who's hungrier.

Jacket order date extended

Costing $20 each, the windbreakers can be ordered by calling Linda Dolberry, 586-1624, between 7:40 a.m. and 3:20 p.m. on weekdays before Oct. 14.
