Whoooee!... it's Whoop-T-Do time

It's Whoop-T-Do time again... the biggest weekend of the year in Iowa Park.

Organized by the Chamber of Commerce, the Saturday following Iowa Park High School's homecoming football game gives local non-profit organizations and area crafts enthusiasts an opportunity to raise funds and provide entertainment for the public.

The hub of activity will be in front of the Chamber of Commerce. Cash Street will be roped off from the post office to Wall, and Wall will be closed to traffic from Cash to Park.

Organizations will have their food, sales and activity booths along Cash Street, while craft booths will be located on Wall.

Entertainment is scheduled throughout the day, and this year's chairman, H.M. Nipper, has brought in some new features which are sure to please the audience.

Among the new additions are a singing group from Sheppard AFB, a dance group, a team of gunfighters who will perform and a cow chip throwing contest.

Saturday's activities will include:

9:00 - The annual Turtle Trot. As usual it will be in front of the Chamber office in the street. Entry is limited to third grade students or younger, and turtles must be marked for identification. A prize will be awarded by Tanner-Aulds Funeral Home.

9:30 - Concert by Iowa Park Junior High Band.

10:00 - Concert by Iowa Park High School Choir.

10:30 - Concert by the Iowa Park High School Hawk Band.

11:00 - The Cloggers, a dancing group that was a real crowd pleaser last year.

11:30 - The Blue Falcons, a choral group from Sheppard AFB, in its first appearance in Iowa Park.

12:00 - Concert by Iowa Park Junior High Choir.

12:30 - Concert by the Iowa Park High Chorale.

1:00 - Studio KG Dance Group performance.

1:30 - The Shootists, a gunfighting group from Wichita Falls using blanks. Their performance will be on Wall Street, beside the Friendly Door. The audience is asked to stay on the east side of the street to avoid powder burn. The act will last about 10 minutes.

1:45 - Coronation of Whoop-T-Do Queen.

2:00 - Cow Chip Contest. Rules include bringing your own chips. Each contestant will donate $1 to the fire department for each throw. State National Bank will award $35 for first prize and $15 for second. Two half barrels will be placed in throwing area. ## Two big days planned for homecoming events

Two days of activities have been planned for Iowa Park High School homecoming, commencing Friday and continuing through Saturday evening.

The traditional pep rally will be held at 5:30 this afternoon in Hawk Stadium. It was moved because of the annual homecoming parade which is scheduled tomorrow.

State National Bank is hosting a reception from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday. Punch, cookies and coffee will be served.

With a theme of "Go for the Gold," the parade is scheduled to get underway at 4:30 Friday. Sponsored by the student council, the parade will feature the football players, school bands, pep squad, floats and various organizations. It is coordinated by the Iowa Park and Leaning Tower. The homecoming queen will be crowned prior to the kickoff of the football game between the Hawks and the Gainesville Leopards. Coronation is scheduled to begin at 7:45 p.m. and the kickoff at 8.

Homecomers will have two places Saturday to meet and talk over old times. One will be during the day at the Friendly Door, formerly known as Tanner Hardware on the corner of Cash and Wall. The other will be in the high school library prior to the 7 p.m. banquet.

There will not be a speaker at the banquet this year, according to Mrs. Leo Cook, president of the Alumni Association, who will preside.

A crowd estimated well above 125 is expected to attend the Saturday evening event, which will feature a catered meal. Association officers for the coming year will be elected.

Throughout the weekend, and especially at the banquet, classes whose year of graduation ends with a three will be given special recognition.

City still leads county in gain

Iowa Park was the only community in Wichita County showing an increase in sales tax collections through September, according to information received from the state comptroller office.

The city received a check for $7,750.25 for sales in the city during the previous month. That was slightly larger than the $7,529.81 check received the same month last year, and raised the year's total to $97,264.08.

Iowa Park's sales taxes are 22.72 percent above the same nine-month period in 1982, according to state office. Wichita Falls is a minus 5.43 percent, Burkburnett minus 2.17 and Electra minus 24.21.

FLAMES LEAP FROM FARLEY FRIDAY HOME EARLY WEDNESDAY
... Iowa Park firemen saved rest of structure.

Light-sleeping father saves family from fire

Farley Friday admits he's a light sleeper, and he's glad it because it may have saved his family's life.

Friday's home at 1326 Edgehill was heavily damaged from flame and smoke early Saturday morning. The fire was reported at 1:26 a.m., and was quickly brought under control by the Volunteer Fire Department.

The family had returned home about 11 p.m. from the Wichita County Fair in Wichita Falls. It was well after midnight before Farley went to bed, he said.

Being a light sleeper, he awakened when the smell of smoke reached his bedroom from down the hall. Searching for its source, he opened the door of his son's bedroom, and found it full of smoke, the top of the dresser and carpet by the dresser ablaze.

David, six, was still asleep, Friday recalled, even though he was only three or four feet from the fire.

Friday was forced to crawl to his son's bed, because of the smoke. He called to the rest of the family -- they have two daughters, Shawn, four, and Amber, three -- and with the assistance of his wife, all left the structure through the front door.

As he was putting his son to bed, Friday remembered the youngster had asked that his oscillating fan be turned on. The fan was atop the dresser.

Fire marshall Bud Thompson said he believes the fan shorted, set the wooden surface on which it sat afire, melted the plastic base and fell to the carpet where it continued to short and set the carpet on fire.

Two trucks from the fire department were used in extinguishing the blaze, which was primarily confined to the bedroom in the northeast end of the home.

Assessing his damage the next morning, which was fully covered by insurance, Friday said the livingroom furniture purchased new last month, and a $2,400 waterbed purchased in April had all been heavily damaged by heat and smoke.

No one was injured.

Thompson estimated firemen probably would not have been able to save the house had they been called three to five minutes later.

play tomorrow without varsity experience.

During practice Monday, Hayley complained of being ill and was determined at the doctor's office to have a hernia in the lower abdomen. He reportedly underwent surgery Tuesday.

Untalon, another senior, has been a mainstay on the defensive team the past two years, injured a knee and has it in a walking cast. How long he will be sidelined will be determined by his physician.

The big Hawk is one of two main ball carriers this year, averaging five yards on each of his 67 carries. As a junior he averaged 8.1 yards on 27 carries.

Haney, who will be missed even more since Untalon is out of the defensive line, is suffering a back ailment. His sideline time also is undetermined.

LEOPARDS LEARN LESSONS

The Leopards were taught a lesson

last year; don't take the Mean Green lightly.

When the two clubs met in Gainesville last season, the Hawks had a respectable 5-1 record. But the Leopards, who were undefeated and ranked second among all the class 4-A schools in the state, had scheduled them for their homecoming opponent.

The Hawks "upset" the Leopards 7-6 and shook not only everybody in that stadium, but sent a shock across the entire state. Iowa Park was probably chosen as a homecoming opponent because the last time the two had met was in 1975, and the Leopards pleased their backers with a 46-6 triumph.

A lot has changed since 1982. The Leopards are no longer state ranked, having been defeated in three of their six starts, two of them to Dist. 3-AAAA opponents.

But the Hawks aren't riding as high as they were at this time last year, either.

Ambulance, computer on Monday's council agenda

Ambulance service and the city's computer are on Monday's city council meeting agenda.

Administrator James Barrington said yesterday that the ambulance subject at that time was only a report item. However, with a meeting pending later this week with other entities contracting Plumlee's service, the topic might be updated to a decision subject if the council wants to take action.

Freddie Simmons has requested a public appearance before the council to discuss the computer recently purchased and installed.

Two ordinances will be considered by the aldermen. One is to amend the fiscal 1983 year budget. The other concerns revision of requirements for sewer and water meter taps and extensions, which was tabled at the last meeting for additional revision.

Mayor Charlie Lee is to discuss a regional meeting of the Texas Municipal League, to be held next month in Wichita Falls.

Weather Report

Weather reports are officially compiled for Iowa Park at the Texas Experiment Station, southeast of town.

Two starters missing for homecoming game

Iowa Park's Hawks, already thin in depth, will be missing two starters and a reserve for tomorrow's big homecoming game against the Gainesville Leopards.

Quarterback Dale Hayley and Greg Untalon, runningback and defensive lineman, have been sidelined, Hayley for the season and Untalon for an undetermined period. Also missing will be reserve tackle Kevin Haney.

Hayley, a senior, has been the starting quarterback all season. However, he has shared time on the field in most of the games with backups junior Van Hedrick and sophomore Ray Sefcik, so neither will

Cole, Crombie nuptial vows are solemnized here Saturday afternoon

The altar decorations and music Saturday afternoon at First Christian Church for the wedding of Miss Joni Elaine Cole and Donald James Sinclair Crombie were characterized by highly refined and excellent taste.

Dr. James Rudd, pastor of Highland Heights Christian Church in Wichita Falls, officiated the double-ring nuptials to unite the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Cole of Iowa Park and the son of Mrs. Thomas Crombie and the late Mr. Crombie of Hooksett, New Hampshire.

As guests assembled for the ceremony, Mrs. Michael Sargent presented an organ concert of compositions by Bach, Largo and Beethoven, and accompanied Norman Flowers for a vocal rendition of "Through the Eyes of Love." She played "The Wedding Song" from Camelot for the processional and "Jesu of Man's Desiring" for the recessional. The vocalist sang "The Lord's Prayer" a cappella at the close of the ceremony, and the organist furnished accompaniment for the concluding vocal number "The Two of Us Shall Be As One" while the bride and groom were lighting the unity candle before exiting from the church.

For recitation of their vows, the couple stood at an altar centered with a large floral arrangement that portrayed the grandeur of white gladioli and lavender mums. The setting was richly illuminated with candles burning in arched candelabra traced with emerald greenery on either side of the floral arrangement. The reverence of the nuptial space was highlighted in the use of the prayer bench in the foreground. The unity candlestick in the lower altar held the two burning candles that the couple used to light the candle to symbolize their union after they were pronounced husband and wife. The church pews where the parents sat were marked with three-branched globed candelabra and other pews held satin bows.

The bride was a beautiful portrait of loveliness in the gown of her dreams, a creation of white organza lavishly trimmed in Venise, Brussels and Chantilly laces. The fitted bodice was encrusted with Venise lace embroidered in pearls and distinguished with a collar and deep yoke of Brussels lace that spanned the shoulders and extended into the sleeves, both sprinkled with pearls. The lace enhanced the glamour of the sheer bishop sleeves that ended in Chantilly lace-ruffled cuffs. The full skirt and semi-cathedral train featured a hemline ruffle of Chantilly lace headed with a band of lace.

The bride carried a bouquet of white roses, gardenias, stephanotis, rose foliage and fresh baby's breath accented with purple trailing satin ribbons on her mother's white Bible that she carried in her wedding, the Bible being used for "something old."

She chose her matron of honor's mantilla illusion veil edged in Venise lace and strewn with motifs of the lace that drifted from a cap of lace for her headpiece and the "something borrowed" tradition. Her lovely gown was chosen for "something new," and her "something blue" garter was the one that her husband had caught when Joel Witt threw his new bride's garter at their wedding. She completed tradition with the sixpence in her shoe.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar and presented her in marriage for her parents. As they came to the pew where her mother was seated, she paused to present her with a white silk rose and remembered the groom's mother in the same way as she and her groom left the altar.

Mrs. Joel Witt of Dallas served as matron of honor for the bride. She wore a lovely formal lavender luster-glo gown fashioned with a natural waist bodice featuring an English tulle yoke and leg-of-mutton sleeves. The semi-full skirt flowed as she walked the bridal path to the altar. She complemented her gown with a nosegay of lavender roses, white baby's breath, rose foliage finished with purple satin streamers.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically to the matron of honor and carrying identical nosegays, were Carol Cole Lennox of Fort Worth, Mrs. Daniel Moore of Wichita Falls, sisters of the bride, Mrs. David Batterson of Fort Worth and Miss Donna Kelley of El Paso.

The groom wore a white tuxedo and shirt, a lavender cummerbund and bow tie and a boutonniere composed of a silk rose, fresh baby's breath and Hahn's ivy. His attendants were attired in black tuxedos with lavender cummerbunds and bow ties, and the father of the bride wore a black tuxedo with a white shirt and bow tie.

Thomas Crombie of Ft. Carson, Colorado, brother of the groom, was his best man. Groomsmen were another brother, Scott Walsch of Merrimac, New Hampshire, Danny O'Neil and Henry Martineau, both of Manchester, New Hampshire. Charles Parker, nephew of the groom, also from Manchester, N.H. was assisted with the duties of ushering by Danny O'Neil and Daniel Moore.

Mothers of the couple put the perfecting touches on the gowns they chose for the occasion with shoulder corsages formed of white gladioli, Hahn's ivy and picot ribbon.

Mrs. Cole wore a formal mauve jersey crepe gown complemented with a mauve chiffon jacket gathered at the waist to form a peplum. The jacket was designed with a high neckline band of wide matching lace and bands of wide lace that extended from the shoulders in both front and back to form a V yoke. Mrs. Crombie wore a cornflower blue georgette gown styled with a ruffled high neck, long sleeves, pleated front and belted waist.

The bride's parents honored the newlyweds at a postnuptial reception held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The dazzling beauty of the lavender, purple and white color combination was noticeable from every part of the room.

The charm of the bride's table was emphasized through each appointment that lent itself to the total design to achieve a striking effect of beauty. The table was draped with white Chantilly lace featuring an interesting three-tiered skirt over white satin. The center attraction was a silver candelabra holding lavender candles, decked with a bouquet of white and lavender mums and accented with the bridal attendants' bouquets at the base.

The three-tiered white cake with two sets of filigree posts was dexterously trimmed with light lavender roses clinging to pale green leaves that cascaded over heavy scrolls, shells and hearts of frosting. The top ornament bespoke of the spiritual aspect of the occasion through a gold cross suspended from a blown glass heart topped with love birds. Other appointments were the silver punch bowl and trays filled with mints and the lavender napkins imprinted in purple with "Elaine and Donald, October 15, 1983."

Mrs. Frank Trotter of Houston and Mrs. Steve White of Dallas presided at the table.

The purple satin cloth on the groom's table featured a tiered lavender moire taffeta skirt secured with beaded pins. The table held a bud vase filled with silk lilacs, the state flower of New Hampshire, the groom's home state. Also on the table was an interlocking rings chocolate cake decorated with the lavender roses, the silver coffee service and trays of nuts.

Miss Janet Jones of Denton and Miss Kris Campbell of Dallas served at the table.

During the reception, the lavender satin rose petal bags were handed out from white baskets by Stephanie and Cristi Chastain of Monahans, cousins of the bride.

Houseparty members were Mrs. Gail Barker of Hooksett, N.H., the groom's sister, Mrs. Hallie Chastain of Midland, the bride's aunt, Mrs.

Rollin Roberts and Mrs. Dale Thompson.

Miss Carey Dale Roberts registered guests in the church foyer preceding the ceremony at a table draped with white satin overlaid with white dotted voile. It held a small bouquet of lavender primroses, carnations and mums, and lavender plume pen.

Following the reception, the bride and groom departed on their wedding trip to Cancun, Mexico, the bride traveling in a purple silk dress designed with draped bodice, and cap sleeves and complemented with a corsage that she lifted from her bouquet. They will live in Fort Worth when they return.

The rehearsal dinner was given Friday evening by the groom's mother at Trade Winds in Wichita Falls.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Park High School where she belonged to the National Honor Society, A cappella Choir and pep club. She was on the annual staff, a choir section leader and sweetheart nominee. She attended Midwestern State Univ. where she belonged to Sigma Alpha sorority and received a degree from North Texas State Univ. She is employed by Overton Park Bank at Fort Worth. The groom, who is employed by Anheuser-Busch Division of Ben E. Keith Co. in Fort Worth, was graduated from high school in Manchester, N.H. where he was a four-year member of the varsity football team and was voted the most valuable player during his senior year. He also played varsity basketball for two years. He attended Wilbraham-Monson Academy.

Mrs. D.D. Burrell and Mrs. Joel Witt were hostesses for bridal brunch Saturday morning in the home of Mrs. Burrell.

Special wedding guests were Mrs. Grace Chastain of Iowa Park, grandmother of the bride, and Miss Charlotte Crombie of Hooksett, N.H., the groom's aunt.

Other guests from Hooksett other than the groom's mother and aunt were Mrs. Gail Barker, Charles and Scott, Scott Walsch, Henry Martineau and Danny O'Neil.

Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hallie Chastain and Steve of Midland, Gary Chastain, Stephanie, Cristi and James of Monahans, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Witt and Mr. and Mrs. Steve White and Rodney from Dallas. Guests from Fort Worth were Carol Cole Lennox, Elliot Fisch, Julia and Kendra, Mr. and Mrs. David Batterton, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hindman, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Leggett and Brandi and Mr. and Mrs. Rodger Fraine. Others were Donna Kelley of El Paso, Mrs. Frank Trotter and Sarah of Houston and Miss Janet Jones of Denton.

Brandt, McGarry wedding vows exchanged here Saturday evening

In a ceremony of impressive solemnity and dignity, Miss Vanessa Ann Brandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M.J. Brandt, became the bride of Robert Lynn McGarry, son of Mr. and Mrs. B.R. McGarry of Burkburnett, Saturday evening at the Church of Christ. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Carl Hecker of Moore, Okla., a Church of Christ minister.

Three groups of tall white candles dominated decorative altar arrangements for the wedding. The candles burned in fifteen-branched brass fan-shaped candelabra and in flanking seven-branched candelabra entwined with sprengeri fern and accented with red taffeta bows. The three-branched candlestick that held the unity candle, symbolic of the lasting and enduring quality of the marriage vows was placed in front of the fan-shaped candelabra.

In the lower altar, tall white baskets held large Boston ferns. Small white chairs tied with red silk bows were placed on either side of the steps where the flower girls sat after they had preceded the bride to the altar carrying their white baskets filled with fresh rose petals.

Family pews were marked with red silk bows inset with white lace, and plain red silk bows topped the other church pews.

The wedding music was provided by an ensemble of vocalists including Craig Whisnand, Wendell Burnam, Norman Gwinn; Misses Carrie Mahler, Tanya Jones, Karen Arrington, Joanni Jennings; Mrs. Danny Custis, and Mrs. Jody Goldman. Their selections included "Sunrise, Sunset," "Can't Help Falling in Love," "The Rose," and "The Sweetest Thing." Miss Jennings sang "The Wedding Song" just before the recitation of wedding vows by the couple. The bride and groom exited from the church to "We've Only Just Begun," the ensemble's concluding number.

The bride was radiant in an exquisitely styled formal gown of white Chantilly lace as she was escorted to the altar by her father who presented her in marriage, then lifted her face veil and kissed her before he left her. The gown was fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline sparkling with seed pearls and sequins, leg-of-mutton sleeves. A band of white satin hugged the waistline and tied in a flat bow with streamers in the back. The full skirt excited special interest in the gown with its graceful tiers that fell from the waistline to hemline and extended the length of the cathedral train.

The bride's imported illusion veil was edged with the lace from her gown and cascaded down the back to the length of the train from a camelot cap encrusted with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of fresh white roses and daisies and sprengeri accented with a lace background, white satin and lace streamers on a white Bible.

MRS. ROBERT MCGARRY

In keeping with bridal traditions, she carried a family heirloom handkerchief for "something old;" wore her mother's diamond and ruby necklace for "something borrowed." The "something blue" garter had special meaning since it was purchased in Paris, France during the summer by the bride. Her lovely wedding gown was the perfect choice for "something new."

The quartet of bridal attendants wore red taffeta gowns designed with ruffled drop shoulders, fitted bodices encircled at the waistlines with matching sashes and full skirts with hemline flounces. They carried white lace-backgrounded nosegays of red and white silk carnations, fresh baby's breath finished with cascading red lace and white streamers.

Miss Joanni Jennings fulfilled the maid of honor position. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Scott Sanders of Wichita Falls, Miss Rhonda McGarry and Miss Brenda McGarry of Burkburnett, sisters of the groom.

Miss Alicia Vestal of Dallas, cousin of the bride, participated in the wedding as the junior bridesmaid and wore a white taffeta gown duplicating the style of the attendants' gowns.

The flower girls, Pennie and Cherie Bradberry, cousins of the bride, wore long white satin dresses overlaid with chiffon and trimmed with red taffeta bows at the necklines and waistlines.

Eddie Vestal of Dallas, the bride's cousin, the ring bearer, was clad in a black tuxedo with velvet lapels, bow tie and cummerbund.

The groom wore an all-white tuxedo with tails and a boutonniere of two fresh white roses and baby's breath. Wesley Griffin of Burkburnett, the best man wore a formal white jacket and black pants. Brodie Brandt of Abilene, the bride's brother, Keith Felty of Burkburnett and Robert Thompson of Wichita Falls, the groomsmen, and father of the bride wore black tuxedos.

David McGarry of Burkburnett, the groom's brother, acted as junior groomsmen and wore a white tuxedo.

Tommy and Charles Bradberry, cousins of the bride, carried the torches and lighted the candles for the service.

During the service, the bride presented red roses of love to her mother and the groom's mother.

The bride's mother wore a long red polyester skirt with matching lace insets and red sash topped with a white chiffon ruffled blouse, and the groom's mother wore a long silver gray polyester dress designed with a V neck, belted waistline and full gathered skirt. Both wore red and white silk carnation corsages.

The wedding reception was hosted by the bride's parents in the church annex.

The pure elegance of the refreshment table covered with candlelight satin accented with red satin bows at the top was emphasized through the cake that will forever be a part of the couple's wedding day memories.

The three-tiered confection with two sets of sugar pillars was a floral deluxe picture featuring white bridal trumpets, roses, stephanotis, petunias, interspersed sparingly with small red rosebuds. From the top ornament, a bride and groom attired in formal white standing under an inverted brandy snifter topped with white bells and doves, white staircases descended on either side to round cakes decorated in the design of the large cake raised by splashing water fountains.

The table was further appointed with a silk fan brought back from Italy by the bride and decorated for the occasion with a nosegay of red and white carnations, the silver punch bowl, and candlelight napkins lettered with "Nessie and Robbie, October 15, 1983" below a pair of love birds holding wedding bands.

Mrs. Howard Patten of Pampa, aunt of the bride, Misses Carrie Mahler, Tanya Jones and Karen Arrington served the cake and punch during the reception.

Guests signed the guest book at a round table draped with a tier-skirted candlelight satin cloth. The bride's chosen colors were noted in the red feather pin and a bud vase holding red and white silk carnations.

Quartet tables set up in the room for hors d'oeuvres, cake and punch were laid with lace-bordered candlelight linen cloths and centered with bouquets of red and white silk carnations.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Park High School and from Midwestern State Univ. The groom was graduated from Burkburnett

High School and is employed at Sprague Electric. They will live in Wichita Falls.

Special wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Vestal Jr. of Iowa Park, grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Ja Shelton of Tioga, Mrs. Herman Rhodes of Randlett, Okla., grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Vestal Sr. of Petrolia, the bride's great-grandparents and Mrs. Betty Tonubbee of Arlington, the groom's great-grandmother.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir,
I am writing to correct a statement in the City Council report in the October 13th issue of the Leader. Parker Square Savings and Loan did not sell the land known as Bogan's Acres in plats. It was July 22, 1975 that my husband and I bought 51 acres known as Bogan's Acres from Parker Square Savings and Loan. The land had been platted but never recorded as such at the court house. I congratulate Mrs. Miller on being heard after only four years. After eight years if I call City Hall or the police department they still ask whether I live in the City limits. I have called to ask for street lights, fire hydrant and other city services. They all ways remind me that I have police and fire protection, and garbage collection. I am grateful for these services. But when we pay our taxes we take it for granted that we will receive city services.

After forty years of living in different towns I feel like we are living in the boon docks, even though we do live on Bell Road in the City limits of Iowa Park, Tx.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Pauline Hawkins
(Mrs. Dean Hawkins)

[EDITOR'S NOTE: I stand corrected. I had thought it was Parker Square all this time that had not fully complied with city regulations concerning the developer's responsibility of providing utilities on tracts of land being sold.]

Chamber plans member meeting

Plans for the annual all-membership luncheon of Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce were discussed Monday at the monthly directors' meeting.

To be held at the county agriculture building, the catered luncheon will be $6 per plate. At the meeting, officers for next year will be elected. Their installation will follow at the annual banquet, which is slated Jan. 28.

Linda Merrick, president, encouraged directors to invite prospective members to the November luncheon.

Ticket sales for the annual banquet will go on sale in mid December, she said.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

"Hey, Look Me Over," was a popular song a few decades ago, but it could be Iowa Park's theme song this weekend when we are hopefully invaded by hundreds of former residents.

This is homecoming week. And if you don't mind, I'd like to do a little Chamber of Commerce bit with our visitors.

Actually, the term of visitor is poor choice of a word. It is not properly descriptive. One does not visit his home, because he is part of that home. A former resident of Iowa Park is always an Iowa Parkan.

Be that as it may, we're glad to have you back among us, for however long you are to stay.

Whether you were here for homecoming last year, five years or even longer, our community cries for your tour and attention to change and improvement.

I know whenever I go to a place where I formerly lived, one of the highlights for me is to tour the community and see what has changed. And also what hasn't.

We'd like you to see the new businesses we have in town, the changes down at city hall where the old fire station has been taken in for badly-needed office space, the new homes, that new apartment complex at Johnson Road and Magnolia, the vast improvements that have been made to the parks of the community (including Pace Park at First and Aldine, Oscar Park on the west side of the old city lake, and Rotary Park down near Bradford Elementary) and the improvements at each of the school campuses.

And we certainly hope you have a chance to meet our new Iowa Parkans... those families that have chosen Iowa Park as their new home.

They're really nice people, everyone of them.

We've been saddened through the past year with the loss of many of our old timers, people who were leaders and stalwarts in our community, and we know you'll miss seeing them.

All of us hope you have the time of your life, during this year's homecoming. We want you to enjoy yourself and make this weekend one you'll look back on with fond memories for months and years to come.

It's nice to have you home again. And come back, soon.

Save energy with a heat pump.

If you're planning to install a new heating or cooling system, consider a high-efficiency heat pump. It's an energy-saving, year-round alternative.

The heat pump provides year-round heating and cooling, using only electricity. During the winter, it extracts heat from the outside air (even very cold air contains heat) and brings that heat inside where it's needed. In the summer, the heat pump is a regular air conditioner, removing unwanted heat from the inside air.

The heat pump is the most efficient combination heating and cooling system that can be installed in your home today.

To learn more about the heat pump, call your air conditioning contractor. And when you call, ask about the year-round heat pump that qualifies for a bonus check from Texas Electric.

FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

World's largest volunteer organization

The largest organization of volunteers in the world (The General Federation of Women's Clubs) has been silently identifying and meeting the needs of the communities for more than 90 years. Mrs. Francis Skiles, president of Texas Federated Women's Clubs, told Amity Study Club members and guests Tuesday. Mrs. Skiles, of Weatherford, said women are "one of this nation's most valuable assets because they work as volunteers in hospitals, care centers, with scouts, teams, in churches, and many other community projects." She described a volunteer as one who offers to enter into any service of his own free will and said that the GFWC is an organization in which everyone wins because the millions of volunteer hours expended by club women have resulted in improved quality of life for the disadvantaged, the needy, the handicapped and victims of life's inequalities. The GFWC wins, also, because it is enriched by the diversity of talent and ability which its members bring to it. Every woman wins, she said, through the challenge of personal development and the satisfaction of helping others.

Mrs. Skiles speaking of her motto, "Unity in Diversity - Volunteer leadership plus youth equals Community improvement," explained the diversity of individuals, of clubs and of the selection of service projects and the unity as a means of improving our community, of impressing the legislature and of helping our own club and the state and federation. By working together, we can accomplish much, she said. Mrs. Skiles ended by encouraging members to exhibit pride in membership and to talk federation to gain members because "We do make a difference in our community, our state and our nation."

Guests included Santa Rosa District President Mrs. Erwin Soell, President-elect Mrs. Joel Ellett and members of Philia Study Club and 23 Study Club.

Mrs. Philip Welch presided and Mrs. Soell gave a light-hearted approach to Thanksgiving as the meditation. Mrs. Jerry Denton led the pledge to the American flag and the Texas flag. Mrs. Frank Gossett led the collect and Mrs. Earnie Reusch closed with an original poem entitled "Unity through Diversity."

Cook of the Week

The Pound Cake has been a popular dessert in America for many years and its popularity seems to increase each year. Many of the recipes for the cake call for almond extract, derived from the edible nut, which definitely enhances the flavor.

The almond is probably a native of Asia Minor. We hear of it early from Anatolia, Babylon, Hittite chronicles and the Bible, one of only two nuts mentioned, the other is the pistachio. It started the march westward before historic times, for it has been found at the Neolithic level under the palace of Knossos in Crete and in the Bronze Age storerooms at Hagia Triada, on the same island.

The Romans were fond of it and called it the "Greek nut." Charlemagne ordered almond trees planted on his domain, and the first French cookbook written about 1300 gives much attention to the almond milk. The American almond country is Calif. There are many luscious uses of almond, such as in marzipan, nougat, extracts, and in French tart amandines, possibly the only piece of pastry to have its recipe transmuted into verse and proclaimed from a play of world renown, Edmond Rostand's Cyrano de Bergerac.

Bonnie (Mrs. Robert) Illingworth inspired a bit of research of the almond by including the extract in the Pound Cake recipe for this week. The former Bonnie Porter, she was graduated from Cross Plains High School. She and her husband, who is retired from Arcadia Refining Co. and works part-time at Gilmore Inc., and their family moved to Iowa Park about 1964 where they lived for seven years. He was transferred to East Texas and they stayed there seven years before moving back to Iowa Park five years ago. They are members of the Iowa Park Church of Christ.

The Illingworths have three children, Vickie (Mrs. Jimmy) Gilmore of Iowa Park, James of Dallas, and Cindy of the home; and four grandchildren. Mrs. Illingworth is employed part-time at Wal-Mart Pharmacy. Her hobbies are needlework, cooking and gardening.

Mrs. Taylor, chaplain, gave the opening thought to open the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Bill Hrncirik. Final plans were made for the Whoop-Do queen contest,

PHILLIP DAVIS THROWS BLOCK FOR TEAMMATE WHO IS ALREADY TAKKLED

7 turnovers doom Hawk hopes

What happens when a team turns the ball over seven times to its opponent? It loses, big. And makes the opponent look better than it really is.

And that's exactly what happened Friday night. The Hawks couldn't hold onto the ball and made the Lions look like worldbeaters with a 42-0 win before a jam-packed Vernon homecoming crowd.

Iowa Park turned over the ball twice in the first quarter, including the first time the Hawks had the ball, once in the second, three times in the third and once more in the fourth.

Five of Vernon's touchdowns resulted directly from the turnovers. The Lions were able to mount only one scoring drive on their own, but that was a 77-yarder.

The Hawk defensive platoon had its back to the ball almost the entire evening. Those Iowa Park fumbles were at the Hawk 29, 27, 32 and 23, while the interceptions were on the Hawk 29, 30 and 39.

The Mean Green defense pretty well held its own against Vernon's yet-undefeated crew, allowing the Lions only 279 total yards for the evening. That kind of yardage does not usually indicate a 42-0 routing.

Except for that one long drive, the Lions had a tough time against Iowa Park's defense. The Lions had to punt four times, twice just inside Hawk territory, but the other two times from their own 18 and 29 yard lines.

Vernon committed one turnover the entire game. It was a fumble late in the second quarter. The Lions had advanced to Iowa Park's 29 yard line, late in the period. They were passing, trying to score once more before the halftime break.

That's when Greg Untalon hit the quarterback so hard, he not only lost the ball, which was covered on the 35 by Rowdy Robinson, the Lion also lost his shoe because of the impact.

Darin Whitman advanced the ball farther than any Hawk during the game. That was on the last play of the first quarter, when he was called on to quick kick the ball, and he punted it 50 yards to the Lion six yard line.

The tone of the game was set early in the game. Vernon was forced to punt without picking up a first down on the Lions' first possession.

Jerry Allen fielded the ball on his own 21. But he was hit at the 38 on the return, the ball spurted loose and the Lions covered it on the 29. Seven plays later the hosts scored.

Two plays after the ensuing kickoff, Dale Hayley's pass was picked off at the Hawk 29 and returned for another score, less than a minute and a half after the initial Vernon TD.

Vernon's long scoring drive required only six plays and a Hawk penalty. A 42-yard run and 14-yard pass accounted for most of the advancing of the ball to the Hawk eight, from which the score was made.

Four plays after the next kickoff, a handoff was fumbled and Vernon covered the ball on the Hawk 27. A pass on the next play was all it took for more lighting on the scoreboard.

Down 28-0 and lacking only two yards for a first down, the Hawks were held shy of the first by a mere couple of inches. Vernon took over at the Hawk 27 when the gamble failed, but punted from the Lion 37 after a couple of major penalties.

A Ray Sefcik pass was intercepted at the Hawk 30 and returned to the 16. But the Hawks took over at the 22, when the Mean Green defenders really got their backs up. Rocky Martin was credited with a 14-yard sack in that series.

But on the second play after taking over possession, Lee Roach fumbled at the 32, and eight plays later Vernon scored again.

The Hawks picked up a couple of first downs on the next series and were at their own 43, when a Sefcik-to-Untalon pitchout failed to connect and Vernon covered at the Hawk 23. A frustrated Hawk was charged with a personal foul on the play and Vernon, all of a sudden, was only 13 yards from the goal line. That disappeared three plays later when the Lions scored on a one-yarder.

Van Hedrick took over at quarterback after Sefcik was shaken while trying to cover a fumbled snap. On the first play Hedrick's pass attempt was intercepted at the Vernon 39. Another frustrated Hawk was charged with spearing the player with the ball and a 15-yarder was added onto the turnover. The defense held on that possession, however.

Only five Hawk carriers advanced the ball the entire game. James Beebee led the team with 30 yards on six carries; Roach 28 on 12; Untalon 25 on seven; Whitman four on two and Bryan Fulfer 14 on three.

Hayley and Sefcik were sacked three times and lost 18 yards.

Hayley completed two passes: 13 yards to Scott Young and nine yards to Whitman.

Eagles please homecoming crowd with victory

Eagle runningback Jay "Bucks" Burks avenged a drive-killing fumble early in Friday night's District 11-AA contest against Petrolia by scoring both Holliday touchdowns as the Red Machine downed the upset-minded Pirate squad 14-12.

The homecoming win for Holliday upped its record to the .500 mark in conference play and respectable 4-3 for the season, while the previously-once-defeated Bucs dropped to 3-2 in district, 4-3 for the season.

Burks, the Eagles' top back in terms of yardage production, lost the handle on the pigskin at Petrolia's two during the Big Red's initial drive of the game. Taking 16 plays and covering 66 yards, the drive may have taken some wind out of Holliday's sails, but only for as long as it took the Red defense to turn the ball back over to the offense.

At 9:32 in the second quarter, Burks drove in from seven yards out on a third-and-goal situation to secure a 6-0 Eagle lead, which soon was upped to 7-0 as Kelly Carver's kick found its mark.

The Pirates, showing a salty-brand of defense throughout the night, found some amount of success on the quick dives on their next possession. Driving from its 29 for two first downs close to midfield, Petrolia was soon stopped by a saltier Eagle defense at the Eagle 41.

However, the Pirate punter's punt was mishandled by John Smyers in the endzone which was covered by a Petrolia player for the touchdown. With over four minutes remaining until halftime, the Pirates attempted a two-point conversion pass which never quite developed to its fullest, instead handing Holliday a slim 7-6 lead it carried into the lockerroom at intermission.

SECOND HALF

An inspired Pirate team answered the second-half bell with an early touchdown, capped by Tony Lopez's two-yard plunge five minutes into the third quarter. The run ended an eight-play drive following the kickoff, giving Petrolia a 12-7 lead. The second two-point conversion attempt was a model of the first try in every way, including the incompleton.

Holliday waited patiently for the right opportunity to go back ahead, and that time finally came late in the third quarter and early in the final period.

Starting from its 40, Holliday drove the length of the field for the go-ahead score, with just under 11 minutes left to play in the game. Burks capped the drive with a 14-yard run, but the play that highlighted the winning drive came just before the Big Red offense even touched the ball.

Smyers, who had lost the punt to Petrolia earlier in the game, intercepted a Pirate aerial, returning it to the Holliday 49. A 15-yard penalty, contested by the Eagle coaches, set the ball back to the 34.

The Eagles failed to record a first on the following possession, but punter Donnie Long's kick set the Pirates back at their 18. Also failing to record a first, Petrolia punted to the Eagle 40, setting up the game-winning drive.

City council tables request

Holliday City Council disposed of a light agenda during Monday night's bi-monthly meeting, tabling an annexation request by John Voyles and taking another item off the agenda when the person requesting time before the council failed to show.

Voyles, who lives on the northwest edge of Holliday's city limits, submitted to councilmen his request for a multi-acre strip of land running east and west and bordered by the city's northern-most limits to be annexed.

However, the council was not quick to okay the request, which Mayor James Cook and city attorney Gary Southard determined was insufficiently prepared to sustain itself through legal maneuvers.

"We are trying to organize the city's planning and growth within its capacity to accept additional growth (in terms of service)," Cook told Voyles.

Cook and Southard discussed at length the state laws governing annexations, which, though vague in definition, nevertheless must be abided by to avoid legal problems.

"We will do anything you want," Voyles told the council. "We will get a petition signed, and annex the land, we just need the water."

Aldermen maintained that first the land would have to be zoned, then surveyed, with Voyles filing the request with the county. At that time, the request would be answered in not less than five days but no more than 30 days.

"Get your work done on it, and we will see you again," Cook said.

Dragons could be tough if overlooked by opponent

A forfeit by the Jacksboro Tigers has been the only bright spot on Chico Dragon football this year, but the win-hungry Dragons want nothing better than a less-than-inspired Holliday team skipping into town for the easy one tomorrow night at 8. More than one team has come close to being totally embarrassed, Dragon-style.

Okay. More than once in the last three years. Alright?

Scoring more points in last Friday's game against Wichita Falls Notre Dame than Chico is accustomed to scoring in four or five games, it took a late-game drive by the Knights to overcome the Dragons.

Chico back Brad Davis turned in a good performance in that game. Scoring one touchdown with a 36-yard run, Davis accounted for another score with a three-yard drive, set up by Dragon quarterback Ronny McGuire's 25-yard pass completion to end Joe Redwine. However, Notre Dame scored seven more points. And rushed for over 300 yards.

Defensive standouts for the Dragons are Junior Mader, Kevin Monett, Danny Price, Jeff Brooks and Redwine.

Travelling to Chico-land can be likened to peeling a basketful of potatoes, with a paring knife. The key to tomorrow's game will be this; just how laid-back will the Big Red players get before gametime?
