Trustees approve contracts, bonuses

Contracts for all key school personnel were extended through the 1984-85 year, and all employees of the district were given a bonus ranging from $100 to $500.

In addition, the school board Monday night voted to turn over fiscal agent responsibilities of the West Wichita County Cooperative to Electra, beginning next year.

One-year contracts were extended to all current principals and assistant principals, counselors and placement officer, athletic director, tax collector and West Wichita Coop personnel.

Voting on the contracts followed an executive session, closed to the public, which lasted an hour and 26 minutes.

Immediately following the vote on the contracts, a proposal to pay all employees a one-time bonus in March was made, but the issue had to be decided with board chairman Roy Boutwell breaking a tie. There was no public discussion on the proposal.

The issue, which amounted to approximately $69,750 from the district coffers, was opposed by trustees Ray Hicks, Rusty Rusk and Jerald Brown. Martha Dudley, Jimmy Howell and Rex Wells voted for the proposal.

"I recommended the bonus because I feel our people are doing a super job and deserve it," commented Superintendent Harold Cowley later.

All professional personnel, which includes teachers and administrators and other key personnel, will receive a $500 bonus, as will the 12-month "para-professional" personnel. Para-professionals under 11-month contracts will receive $400, and 10-month para-professionals $300. Maintenance personnel and mechanics will receive $200, regular cafeteria workers $200 and part-time cafeteria workers $100. Part-time teachers will receive a bonus prorated by the amount of time they work.

"I feel our people are the cause of our schools being excellent and the main reason so many people move to Iowa Park. The extra work and effort they give justifies the bonus," Cowley said.

In discussing turning over responsibilities of the West Wichita Coop to Electra, Cowley reminded the board that Iowa Park had served as fiscal agent since the cooperative was organized between Iowa Park, Electra, Holliday and City View 10 years ago.

The additional workload on the administration and office staff was compared by Cowley with the Byers school district, both in budget and numbers of personnel. He said Electra was also doing its work on computer and felt that district could easily pick up the load when it is turned over at the beginning of next school year.

In other business, the board approved the 1984-85 school calendar, accepted its completed policy book and heard reports from the tax, transportation and cafeteria offices.

Probst home burglarized during Thursday funeral

An unusual series of events Thursday has led to the arrest of an Iowa Park man and a Wichita Falls woman, on charges of burglary of a habitation.

When Mrs. W.C. Probst returned to her home at 900 N. Jackson, from attending the afternoon funeral of her husband, she received a telephone call from the manager of a store in Sikes Center.

The man told Mrs. Probst that her granddaughters had been making some sizable purchases with her credit cards at his store and another in the mall.

Mrs. Probst, who had not noticed anything missing before the call, told the man she had only one granddaughter, and she was with her at the time.

The manager reportedly then alerted the security personnel of the mall who, in turn, called for Wichita Falls police.

Moments after police arrived for giving a description, one of the two females was spotted again in the same store. She reportedly had returned to make an exchange of merchandise, and was taken into custody.

Meanwhile, an attempt to make a purchase at a downtown store was made by a man who, when questioned about the credit card he was attempting to use for payment, fled. An employee got a description of the automobile and part of the license plate.

Wichita Falls police stopped a vehicle matching the description and most of the license plate information. The vehicle was searched, and a newspaper discovered.

Written on the edge of the page with the obituaries was the Probst address. There were addresses of other residences where funerals were also scheduled.

Taken into custody and charged by Iowa Park police with burglary were Steve Alan McClurg, 27, who gave Iowa Park as his address, and Linda Bailey, 29, of Wichita Falls.

McClurg matches a description given by a neighbor of Mrs. Probst, who saw a man walk around the side of the home about the same time as the funeral was underway.

The side door of the home was forced open by an object believed to be a screwdriver found in McClurg's car.

Wichita Falls police have filed a charge of credit card abuse against Bailey. She and another female had made purchases amounting to almost $1,000 at the two stores in the mall, and all the merchandise has reportedly been recovered.

charge of parole violation, because the parole office has placed a hold on him.

The case remains under investigation.

Iowa Park Police Chief Tom Fenley, during an interview this week, said the public should be aware that his department stands ready to oversee any home involved in a funeral, and needs only to be alerted of the need.

ANOTHER CASE

Sometime between 9:30 p.m. Friday and 5:30 a.m. Saturday, someone reportedly took 40 cartons of cigarettes from Kings Food.

Taken in the burglary were 25 cartons of Marlboro lights, valued at $300.

Annexation proposal tabled for second time

The proposed annexation of a 72-acre tract of land into Iowa Park suffered another setback during Monday's meeting of the city council.

First brought up for annexation last month, the tract proposed to be brought into the city by developer Rip Smith was tabled for a correction in the legal description.

The latest delay was proposed by alderman Bud Thompson, who wanted to know why some development requirements required by city policy were not being met, and assurances certain services would not be sought from the city in the future.

Thompson said he was not aware of any improvements being made on the tract. When told a six-inch water line was being laid, he asked about curb and gutter as well as sewer service.

Administrator James Barrington said the city's policy, established several years ago, does not require curb and gutter on five-acre lots. There was no mention, however, of sewer service, which Smith had proposed to be septic tanks.

Thompson told the council he was not against the land being brought into the city, but wanted some assurance future owners of the land would not make demands for services not provided, as had been the case at Bogan Acres.

The issue was tabled until the next meeting, and Barrington was instructed to work out the details with Smith.

The land fronts the expressway on the north side, west of the city, between Park Tank Service and the road to Lake Iowa Park. According to the plat, it has been subdivided into 13 lots, each apparently in excess of the curb and gutter requirement.

OTHER BUSINESS

Other business addressed by the council included:

- * passage of an ordinance establishing fire lanes at Colonial Heights Apartments;
- * acceptance of the city's 1983-84 audit and approval to pay the auditor's fee of $7,050;
- * approved a resolution to expend $7,480 carried over from bonds to build water storage facilities, to purchase water pipe in bulk;
- * tabled for preparation of standards and details of a policy to provide gravel in an alley, requested by Billy Gilmore, and the owner to provide the leveling work;

Cheese distribution set Tuesday

USDA cheese will be distributed at First Christian Church between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m. Tuesday. It was distributed at the First Baptist Church in January.

- * rejected a bid from Sam Hunter of $4,039.85 to purchase the northeast corner lot at Wall and Cash;
- * tabled action on an ordinance establishing speed zones in the city;
- * and approved expenditure of $2,600 for an additional computer terminal for the administrator's office.

ASSISTANT STATE LIBRARIAN Bill Gooch of Austin was in Iowa Park last week to meet with the Friends of the Library concerning a $100,000 matching grant to be used on renovation of the Burnett Memorial Library. He proposed the use of a master librarian to work with the architect in order for the facility to be of maximum use to the public.

City, school elections April 7

April 7 was set this week as election date for both the city of Iowa Park and the school district.

Up for decision of voters in that election will be the mayor and two aldermen for the city, and two trustees for the school.

In the city election, as of yesterday only one candidate had filed for a place on the ballot: Tim Hunter for mayor. Current mayor Charlie Lee has said he will not seek a second term. Neither George Hammonds nor Bud Thompson, whose terms also expire, have filed.

Incumbent trustees Jerald Brown and Rex Wells both filled out their application forms Tuesday night, following the school board meeting. No other filings have been reported.

March 7 is the deadline for candidates to file in both elections. The drawings for places on the ballots will be held Mar. 12. Absentee voting will extend from Mar. 19 through April 3.

Also on the city's ballot will be the question, "Shall a commission be chosen to frame a charter," and also "To elect charter commission members," with a list of candidates on the ballot.

The charter referred to is a question whether voters in the city desire the city to operate under "home rule" rather than under a "general laws" charter. Should that issue pass, the charter commission votes would be counted. Should it fail, however, the commission candidates obviously would not be counted, as the issue would be moot.

The council will have until Mar. 7 to name proposed commission members. Candidates will be named by the council members, as well as names proposed by the public to the council.

As in the past, city will use Kidwell Elementary and Bradford Elementary as its election polls.

In the school election, voting precincts 32 and 38 will use Kidwell; precincts 33, 53, 44 and 60 will use Bradford, and precincts 34, 59 and Archer County precinct 9 will vote at Valley View campus.

Absentee voting for the city election will be done at city hall, while the school administration building will be absentee poll for the trustee election.

Cook of the Week

The popularity of the casserole in American cuisine seems to be increasing all the time. There is hardly a week that a casserole dish is not included in the Cook of the Week recipes, and Gay (Mrs. Gary) Bradford shares one of her recipes with readers this week.

The versatility of the casserole is in a class by itself, and cooks today have their choice of many recipes, not just a few. It can be counted on for a sustaining, satisfying meal, and is especially nice when one is rushed or tired. The casserole dishes offer a never-ending combination of nutrition and tasty flavor. A carefree oven casserole of meat and vegetables, spiked with herbs and served with a salad and crusty bread can turn an ordinary meal into an extraordinary meal.

This is truly the heyday of the casserole which can be a one-dish meal, a boon to the buffet hostess or tiny kitchenette.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford and their three children, Danna, a sophomore in high school, Bret, a sixth grader, and Tina, a third grader, moved to Iowa Park in June from Yuma, Ariz. They purchased a landmark house here and are renovating and revamping it to restore it to its original beauty. She is the new secretary of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce and he is in the Department of Defense at Sheppard Air Force Base.

Mrs. Bradford was graduated from Dumas High School. She and her family have had the privilege of living in Toronto, Canada and St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands as well as interesting places in the United States. Her hobbies are plants, remodeling and volleyball and she is a member of a Wichita Falls volleyball team and plays in tournaments. She was a soccer team mother in 1983 and is a Methodist.

TEXAS GARDENER TIPS

Texas Roses: Where, When And How To Plant Them

Roses add beauty and elegance to any landscape and are easier to plant and grow than most people think.

Locate your rose bed where it will receive at least 6 hours of full sun per day. Heavy shade will produce weak, spindly bushes with few flowers.

Good air circulation is essential, because it aids in the rapid evaporation of morning dew, thereby aiding in disease control. Avoid planting near trees and shrubs having vigorous root systems, since roses are poor competitors against this type of intrusion.

Good drainage is essential, because roses do not like "wet feet." In areas of high rainfall, raised beds may be the best way to provide sufficient drainage.

Roses prefer a loamy soil with high humus content, but will do well in a wide range of soils. The soil should be slightly acid, but if yours is on the alkaline side, you can work 2 pounds of agricultural sulfur per 100 square feet into the bed along with organic matter prior to planting.

In most areas of Texas, roses may be planted anytime in January or February. In West Texas and the Panhandle area, planting should take place in mid- or late-February.

If you are planting bare-root roses, soak the roots in a bucket of water for several hours before planting. Dig a hole at least 12-14 inches deep and 16-18 inches wide, depending on the root system's size.

Replace the soil in the hole so that it comes to within 8 inches of the top. Firm the soil with your hands into a cone shape, so that the top of the cone is about 3 inches below the bed level.

Cut off all damaged or broken roots, and trim off the tip of all other roots about 1 inch to encourage new feeder root development. Place the base of the plant on the mound of soil so the roots spread naturally down its slope.

Cover the roots with soil, packing the dirt firmly in place. Fill the hole with water and allow it to drain; then fill it with water again and drain again. Finally, fill the hole with soil, mounding it slightly above the bed level to allow for settling.

When planting is complete, the rose canes should be cut back to 10-12 inches above the ground, though this may already have been done by the nursery.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

I am completely behind Rip Smith and his effort to build a golf course for Iowa Park. And I think the entire community should do the same.

I'm not aware of a Texas community anywhere close to Iowa Park's population that doesn't have a golf course, either a municipal or country club. Does that mean they are all out of step, and we're not?

No longer a "rich man's sport," golf is an activity for all ages. It's healthy, challenging, entertaining, frustrating; something for families, couples or individuals. One can spend as much or as little as he wishes, and still participate.

One of my first efforts when we moved here was to encourage construction of a golf course. The proposed site was part of the area where Smith plans Quail Valley Country Club.

But it became painfully apparent that the city of Iowa Park wasn't financially able to build such a facility, and efforts to find enough people interested in the project were futile.

An effort began a couple of years ago to organize a country club, hope flickered for a while, but died out.

Money was the problem, primarily. Isn't it always? There's just no financing available for golf courses anymore. Used to be through a federal program, but that played out several years ago.

It takes money to purchase the land, set in irrigation, build the greens and tee boxes, equipment to maintain the course, pay the people who work on it.

Part of this is taken care of, through Smith's plan. He will provide the land for nine holes, and has taken an option for property on which to build the other nine. There's also enough land for a driving range and club house, and some set aside for other things in the future, like tennis courts and swimming pool.

Now he's providing the leadership to coordinate organization of a membership and has a golf teaching professional who has committed to at least five years of management for the facility.

The membership, as Rip explains, is not so much for fund-raising, though it certainly is important. But their monthly fees of the members is a must for the maintenance and upkeep of the course. You don't go out and spend the money it takes to build a course, and then hope someone uses it.

It may be that the term "country club" might turn off some peoples' interest. Some may feel membership in a country club is just for the rich and powerful. In some clubs, that may be true, but not all. There's not enough "rich and powerful" people in Electra to maintain a country club, but they have one, and it's been there many years.

Others feel a country club is a place where members go to get fall-down, filthy drunk, flirt with other's wives and in general have a place to do their hell-raising.

This club will not have alcoholic beverages for sale, Smith has assured everyone. And that is that.

Even for those who choose not to join as members, this course will be open to the general public three days a week. Not all country clubs do that. In fact, few of them do. But the fact that the course will be closed to open play four days a week is only right, because the members are the ones who help get the project off the ground and assure its maintenance and operation. They have an investment.

Look around, and see what we have in the way of entertainment for our people, here in Iowa Park. We have some tennis courts, some parks and some lakes for boating and fishing. While this is great, we need to expand our offerings for leisure time. Golf is ideal.

I haven't mentioned, the club house will have two racket ball courts. They will be indoor facilities and usable no matter the hour or outdoor weather.

Racket ball is one of the fastest-growing sports in the nation. Question that? Try calling one of the YMCAs in Wichita Falls for a reservation.

Notice I said in Wichita Falls? Because we're so close to the city that has so many forms of entertainment to offer, we just haven't tried to take care of our needs here at home.

Until now. This is an important improvement for our community, both for our people and our future residents.

Leisure time is increasing for us all. Few of us are working six days a week anymore, and in the future, who knows how short our work hours will be?

We need this golf course now, we've needed it for years in the past, and we certainly will need it in the future.

That's why I support the proposed country club, and I certainly hope you will, also.

Birk Circle meets

Miss Titia Belle Blanks continued the study of the parables of Jesus in a Bible lesson taught for the Lucy Birk Circle of First Presbyterian Church Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Edna Lemond. The two she discussed were "The Great Banquet" and "The Prodigal Son."

As a background for the first parable, Miss Blanks told how Jesus had been invited to dine at the house of a Pharisee where everyone was watching him to find fault. They criticized him for healing a man of the dropsy on the Sabbath, and he reminded them that their beasts were of more importance to them than a human being.

At the great banquet all of the guests who had been invited gave excuses for not attending and Jesus told them that they considered their own business more important than their relationship to him.

The three stages of the second parable: the rejection of home, the awakening and return to home, and the reception at home were emphasized in the second parable to represent alienation from God, awakening to the situation, and God's welcome to the penitent sinner.

A covered dish luncheon was served at noon after which members packed bandages for the Wilson Leprosy Center overseas.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Bob,

"Congratulations and Thank You." I'm referring to the "Downtown Beautification" projects shown on Page 11 of this week's Leader.

The owners of Homestead Ceramics and Iowa Park Florists should also be congratulated. Having grown up in Iowa Park and having the opportunity to do business there, I'm consistently asked, "Why don't the merchants take better care of their facilities?" Now I can truthfully reply that steps to improvement are being made. The recognition of these efforts is certainly a step in the right direction.

Sincerely,
Lynn Dozier

Silent killer of children traced to Biblical times

Mrs. Sue Maxwell, R.N., a member of the Philia Study Club, presented an informative program on SIDS for the club in a meeting held Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Helen Burrell, with Mrs. Raydean Mattis, the co-hostess. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Thomas Johnson.

Mrs. Maxwell is a member of the North Texas and Southern Oklahoma chapter of the SIDS Foundation, a group which meets once monthly to counsel with parents of SIDS victims.

She described the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome as a silent killer whose first victim is death and said that the disease can be traced back to Biblical times when it was described as an "overlying."

"It is hard for human beings to accept death without a concrete reason, and it is common now, as in the past for blame to be placed upon distraught parents," Mrs. Maxwell said. She continued by stating that when the child fails to awaken at normal feeding time, the parents are shocked to discover their healthy baby dead with the blood already pooling in the tissues leaving behind a bruised effect.

The speaker said that SIDS usually occurs in otherwise healthy babies between the ages of two weeks to one year. The national average ratio for the disease is two per 1000; in Wichita Falls it is six per 2300, and worldwide it is about the same ratio as the national average. She further informed that SIDS is not sex related, but does tend to occur more frequently in the winter months.

Mrs. Maxwell said that the disease can only be diagnosed through an autopsy which is required by law in children found dead in their beds, and that studies indicate that SIDS is not caused from aspirating vomitus or from suffocation. The victims can not be revived even if a qualified adult knowing CPR was standing beside them when death occurs.

"There is a lot of grief and guilt that parents of SIDS victims must overcome, and among these parents there is a high incidence of divorce. It has been noted that Christian parents respond better since they draw deeply upon their faith," she concluded her talk. A question and answer period followed and Mrs. Maxwell passed out leaflets and other SIDS information.

Mrs. Vern Horsky directed the business meeting which was preceded with a Valentine meditation poem by Mrs. Hank Phillips. Mrs. Horsky led the group in singing America, and Mrs. Johnson led the club collect and pledge to the flag.

During the business a new slate of officers was elected which included those recommended by the nominating committee headed by Mrs. Herman Escue. Included in the slate were Mmes. Dean Maxwell, president; Leon Bidy, vice president; Jim Rinehart, secretary/reporter; Miss Linda Ayres, treasurer; Judy Spring, historian; and Mrs. Jim Medlinger, parliamentarian.

Announcement was made of the 24th annual Santa Rosa District Spring Convention to be held March 16-17 at Kiva Inn in Wichita Falls and club members were encouraged to share their talents by entering "The Fashions for Fun" and Arts and Crafts Show.

The Valentine motif was carried out in refreshments and table decorations.

Hawks lose to Dogs, host Azle in finale

The Hawks have only one more chance to add to the winning side of their ledger, and that will be tonight when they host Azle in the final basketball game of the 1983-84 season.

Though they gave Burkburnett's Bulldogs all they could handle here Tuesday, the Dogs stayed in the hunt for a playoff slot with a 47-39 decision.

Burk jumped out to a 4-0 lead at the start of the game, but before the Dogs could bat their eyes, the Hawks were up 9-4, and held on to lead 13-9 at the end of the first quarter.

But the visitors' height started taking its toll in rebounds and a tight zone defense forcing outside shots. Coach Earnie Reusch platoons his players, and one group has players ranging only as tall as 5-11. Burk's height goes all the way up to 6-9.

Robert Harper and Lee Birk led Hawk scoring, but neither could reach double figures. Harper had nine points and Birk eight.

Burk took the lead in the second quarter, held a 26-19 edge at the half, and 36-27 going into the final period.

For the Bulldogs, it was an important win. They go into tonight's final game, hosting Mineral Wells, with an 11-2 conference record, followed by Vernon's 10-3. The Lions host Gainesville, while Hirschi, 12-1, travels to Boswell.

In the junior varsity game Tuesday, Iowa Park missed numerous shots under the basket during the final two minutes and couldn't overcome Burk's lead, losing 34-26.

The junior varsity will tip off at 5 this evening, and the varsity game will follow immediately afterward.

Loss puts Hawkettes third

The season ended abruptly Friday night for Coach Ray Sefcik's Hawkettes.

Needing a combination of a win over Mineral Wells and a loss by Azle to Burkburnett in order to draw into a tie with Azle for second place behind Vernon in the standings, things just didn't work that way.

Instead, it was just the opposite. Iowa Park lost 67-52 at Mineral Wells, and Azle edged host Burkburnett, 52-50.

Vernon wound up with a 13-1 conference record and 24-3 for the season. Azle advances along with Vernon into the playoffs by virtue of a 10-4 district record, though having only an 18-10 overall record.

For the Hawkettes, in their final year of AAAA competition, it was a bitter loss. They finished 20-9 for the season, but 8-6 against Dist. 3-AAAA clubs. That meant that despite losing only one starter off the previous year's team that did make it into the playoffs, they stay at home this season.

Mineral Wells established its lead early, jumping ahead 20-13 by the end of the first quarter. Iowa Park stayed with the host team through the second and third periods, trailing 38-28 and 49-40, but the fourth quarter was all Mineral Wells'.

The Lady Rams led in field goals, 26-23. Iowa Park could have picked up a lot of space at the foul line, but converted only six of 20 shots from that position.

Lisa Holloway and Michelle Smith led Hawkette scoring with 14 and 11 points, respectively.

The junior varsity won handily, 39-29.

Following the third place Hawkettes in the final standings were: Mineral Wells, 7-7; Boswell, 6-8; Burkburnett, 6-8; Hirschi, 3-11 and Gainesville, 3-11.

Young Hawks to be competitive

While the Hawk baseball team is expected to be competitive this season, fact of the matter is that the coaching staff is really looking forward to the 1985 season.

Coach Daryl Frazier said "We have some of the best-looking freshmen and sophomores I've ever seen here." He admits looking to the school dropping down to AAA classification next year, when his team will be playing schools of equal size, but hopefully not with as much talent.

Three or four of the freshmen are likely starters, from what he has seen so far. He's mainly impressed with Robert Adams, Mike Brooks and Mike Williams.

The freshmen and sophomores have been playing together through Little League, and that may mean more team unity as they advance through high school, Frazier figures.

Three sophomores who are expected to be main-stays of the team are Ray Sefcik, Shawn Price, David Taylor and Van Hedrick.

Sefcik is an all-district selection and was runner-up for rookie of the year honors last season. Price is the probable starting catcher and was one of the team's better hitters last year. Taylor is new, but has a good, solid baseball background. Hedrick was also one of the league's leading hitters last year.

Hedrick and Sefcik will be joined by two other starters from the 1983 season, Mike Hayley and Mark Copeland. Hayley, a senior pitcher, is expected to give the leadership needed to keep any team together.

Assisting Frazier this year will be Dan McDonald, a newcomer to the coaching staff, who has about as much background in baseball as Frazier, which is considerable.

Two seniors who are expected to help considerably are Jeff Sawyer and Buddy Trejo. Sawyer didn't play last year, but may have the most talent on the team this season. Trejo hasn't played in high school, but Frazier says he has a solid background in the sport.

Getting his first game-type look at the young team will be this Saturday, when Frazier has scheduled an 11 a.m. intra squad scrimmage.

Their first game will be here Mar. 2 against Notre Dame. That will be one of eight home games on the schedule.

Non-conference games will be Mar. 7, Wichita Falls JV; Mar. 9, Holliday; Mar. 20, and Mar. 21, Notre Dame. All are away.

First district game will be at Hirschi, Mar. 20.

Girls' soccer teams may form

"Any girls in Iowa Park want to play soccer?", Tom Birdett asked.

He said the YWCA is attempting to organize teams of girls from Iowa Park to play in the spring soccer league, which is currently registering players.

The season will begin March 10 and awards presentation will be May 19, with the final week scheduled for playoffs.

Girls from kindergarten through high school (6-16) age interested in playing can contact Annie Ray or Mary Kajs at the YWCA, 723-2124. Parents interested in coaching or helping with the teams are also encouraged to contact the same two leaders.

THE ERIE TIMES

On (date) this newspaper's page design will change to a six column format. This change has been suggested by the American Newspaper Publishers Association and 90% of the dailies and 78% of the weeklies polled will make this design improvement before July 1, 1984. What does it mean to you?

FOR READERS: it means we will be able to set our news and features in a type measure that will be much easier to read. Readership studies have shown that the width in which a line of type is set is just as important as the size and style of the type. Our new 2-1/16 inch columns will provide close to optimum readability.

FOR ADVERTISERS: the new format will make space buying much easier and simplify ad production. A sample of the new format and other pertinent information is available to our advertisers. Contact your ad representatives.

Retirement doesn't give teacher time to relax

By OLIVE BLALOCK

Gearldene (Mrs. J.P.) Miller is a paragon of excellent dedication to teaching adults of all nationalities. During the past 13 years, she has driven over 4,000 miles, averaging 77 miles each week to and from classes, staff and committee meetings during nine or 10 months of the year, to teach English as a Second Language (ESL), or tutor adults through Wichita Adult Literacy Council (WALC).

Mrs. Miller received a B.A. degree from Midwestern State Univ. and taught English at Draughton's Business College two years before accepting a position as English teacher in the Iowa Park High School, where she taught five years. After retiring from public school teaching she has found volunteer teaching of adults a very rewarding experience.

At present, she teaches six times per week on a regular basis. She has taught English as a Second Language at Midwestern State Univ. twice, but mostly she teaches in church-sponsored, non-tuition free classes three times a week. She teaches English each Monday from 4 to 6 p.m. at the North Broadway Day Ministries in the Scotland Addition of Wichita Falls where two Catholic nuns, one from Mexico and the other from Columbia S.A., a Nicaraguan pilot and his wife, a girl from Korea and a girl from India are presently attending. Volunteers from Iowa Park who assist her at this place are Mmes. Vernon Lewis, Norman Hodges, Larry Balsley and Dave Kirk. Substitutes are Mrs. Riley Thompson and Mrs. Tim Kaspar.

Mrs. Miller goes each Thursday morning to teach English as a Second Language and GED at First Baptist Church in Wichita Falls where there are sometimes as many as 20 different nationalities represented. That night she gives instruction to internationals at Lamar Baptist Church. In addition to teaching, she attends three board meetings each week.

She teaches Bible class each Sunday afternoon at the Vietnamese Baptist Mission in Eastside Wichita Falls. She has taught Bible lessons each Friday afternoon at Heritage Manor in Iowa Park 13 years, and she teaches in Adult Three of Faith Baptist Church where she is a member. She serves on the Wichita Archer-Clay Association missionary survey and area-wide crusade prayer committee.

The very busy and dedicated Mrs. Miller was a charter member of the board of directors for Wichita Adult Literacy Council associated with Region IX Education Service. In her desire to help adults learn to read, she began working 13 years ago as a volunteer English teacher through three teaching programs in Wichita Falls, two of which she started. These being the North Broadway Weekday Ministries, where she is a member of the Ministries Council, and at Lamar Baptist Church where she still teaches every week.

Mrs. Miller said that being associated with this ministry has truly been a rewarding experience. She has taught 100 of the foreign women in small groups or one-to-one. When Vietnam fell, she had already been teaching wives of the Vietnamese Air Force, so she was able to help with the refugees who came in great numbers.

Many of her ex-students who have moved away still keep in touch with her and her home is filled (her husband says cluttered) with mementoes from other countries. One Air Force Colonel, who is now a prosperous lawyer in Ore., gave her a beautiful gift, insisting that she had kept his wife from returning to Vietnam because of homesickness and taking their baby with her. She unknowingly had kept the family together by being a friend to the wife.

Mrs. Miller does not do her volunteer work for the praise of man, but her efforts certainly do not go unnoticed. She received a certificate of appreciation in recognition of her nomination for the 1980 Governor's Award for Outstanding Volunteer Service.

MRS. J.P. MILLER

Wills topic of speaker

Mrs. L.S. Whisnand was the guest speaker for the Iowa Park Garden Club meeting Friday morning held at Texas Electric Reddy Room and spoke on the "Importance of Wills."

The thought for the day was given by the chaplain, Mrs. N.D. Hodson, and members answered roll call by giving their favorite type of music. Following the program, Mrs. R.L. Good presided during the business meeting. The conservation committee reported on the Arbor Day tree planting at Kidwell Elementary School. Announcement was made that the club will tour Midwestern State Univ. greenhouse on March 23 in lieu of the program listed in the yearbook.

Mrs. Vernon Gilbert displayed the forsythia branches that she had forced into premature bloom following the procedure given in the latest issue of The Lone Star Gardener. The horticulture specimen of the day was a Red Emerald species of a philodendron brought by Mrs. R.R. Illingworth, who was co-hostess for the meeting with Mrs. Jimmy Gilmore.

Mrs. James Pendergrass was welcomed as a new member, and 18 club members were present. A Valentine motif was carried out in room and refreshment table decorations.

Bob Webb will present a program on "Home Landscaping" for the Feb. 24 meeting and members will invite guests.

Eddie Sasser is graduated

Some 1,000 students were awarded degrees Dec. 17 at the North Texas State Univ. fall commencement ceremonies.

In addition to 640 bachelor's degrees, the university granted 208 master's and 52 doctoral degrees, during ceremonies at NTSU.

Among the NTSU graduates was Eddie Lee Sasser of Iowa Park. He was awarded the master of education degree in vocational-technical education.

SPRING GARDENING TIME

It is spring gardening time with almost half of the vegetables to be planted now. Vegetables to be seeded in mid-February include sugar snap peas, English peas, carrots, beets, radishes, turnips, tendergreens, lettuce, and spinach. Vegetable plants going into the garden now are cabbage, broccoli, brussel sprouts, cauliflower, and onions. All of these can take cold weather. We have the best supply of adapted varieties in bulk seed and plants of any place in the country.

Potato planting is best on Washington's birthday (Feb. 22) according to the "old timers." Loys Barbour of Valley Farms has already cut his Red Lasota potatoes into pieces so the cut surfaces will be dry at planting. He likes to cover the pieces with at least 6 inches of soil. This allows plenty of space for potato development, since all of the tubers develop above the planted pieces.

Fresh fruit all summer for the home orchard grower can be accomplished with the planting of about 6 trees. Bryan Stine of Friberg Cooper enjoys fruit all season from his home orchard, and homeowners everywhere can do the same. Fruits can be selected to ripen at different times. A suggested planting of 6 trees and ripening dates include: Morris plum - early June, Sentinel peach - mid June, Ranger peach - early July, Jefferson peach - early August, Mollies Delicious apple - late August, and Ayres pear - early September.

This could be complemented with a few Brazos berries and Venus grapes to put the "topping on the icing." We have the best selection of research recommended fruits in the area.

Finnell called to Austin, away from campaign trail

State Rep. Charles Finnell once again focuses his attention on state matters tomorrow, and away from the current campaign against challenger and fellow Holliday businessman Durhl Caussey, with an organizational meeting at the State Capitol slated to deal with nursing home legislation.

Finnell, chairman of the Texas House Committee on Retirement and Aging, and a member of the House Joint Committee on Nursing Home Reform, will join eight members of the latter committee whose activities involve oversight of health care, older Texans, and state policy matters. The committee will report its findings to the House prior to the beginning of the 1985 legislative session.

Asked to explore other areas of nursing home legislation by House Speaker Gib Lewis, Finnell said he welcomes the opportunity to spend the next several months in public hearings and research to fully explore the nursing home situation in the state.

"I urge the committee to report back to the next Legislature with recommendations to protect the rights and lives of our nursing home residents, as well as the reputable nursing home facilities, from the abuses perpetrated by a few substandard or unscrupulous operators," said Finnell.

The veteran legislator added, "We will be looking for input from nursing home administrators, workers, and public and others as to how the Legislature can take action to provide even better lives for Texans who live in nursing homes."

SCHOOL BOARD ACTION

Election called, contracts given

Seven school administrators were granted extensions on their contracts, and election judges and clerks were named for the upcoming April 7 school elections, in major action taken by the Holliday School Board Monday night.

Contracts were extended two years for principals Bill Lee and Carol Magee, assistant principal Jake Cottrell, athletic director Don Lucy, guidance counselor Walter Lemons, and vo-ag teacher Cal Gaudlen. Band director Mark Cartwright was given a one-year extension, instead of two, having been with the Holliday school system only one year.

In action taken during last month's board meeting, superintendent Dan Owen was granted a three-year extension, but trustees waited until the latest meeting to set his and other administrator's salaries.

Those salaries won't be absolute, though, until the base state salary for the coming school year is set by the state board of education.

Owen was given a 12-month contract at $7,300 above state base plus $50 per month car allowance; Lee, 11-month contract at $5,000 above base plus car allowance;

Magee, 11-month contract, $3,800 above base; Lucy, 10½-month contract, $5,500 above base; Cottrell, 10-month contract, $4,700 above base; Lemons, 10-month contract, $1,900 above base; Cartwright, 10-month contract, $4,000 above base; and, Gaudlen, 12-month contract, $1,900 above base. Gaudlen's contract is pending until trustees can determine whether the state will help in funding for a vo-ag instructor on a 12-month contract.

The separate contracts, listed prior to the administrator's bonus above base, is for the anticipated number of months each is to work.

ELECTION OFFICIALS NAMED

Judges and clerks for the upcoming school elections were named by the board. They are: (Holliday) Bobby Haney, judge, and clerks Gayna Sadberry and Mary Battles; (Dundee)

Helen Holmes, judge, and clerks Eunice Gibson and Capp Blair; (Bowman) Mary Carlton, judge, and clerks Delores Trainham and Janis Loftis; (Lakeside City) Betty White, judge, and clerks Ann Welker and Linda Beasbe; (Lake Kickapoo) Mary Moser, judge, and clerks Cheryl Berend and Jessie Stoddard.

OTHER ACTION

Trustees also extended the school's contract with Pritchard and Pritchard for collection of delinquent taxes another two years, the tentative school calendar for the 1984-85 school year was approved, and Owen reported to the board that work on the playground and tennis courts is progressing nicely.

Also, the board agreed to meet March 5 instead of March 12 because of the school's spring break falling in the second week of that month.

SOCIAL SECURITY TIPS

NEW SOCIAL SECURITY CARD INTRODUCED

Starting this month people in the Wichita Falls area who apply for a Social Security number for the first time and those applying for a replacement card will get a Social Security number card printed on banknote paper. John Bynum, Social Security district manager in Wichita Falls, said recently.

The new card is being introduced to make the Social Security system more secure, Bynum said. The new card is much more difficult to alter or counterfeit than the old card. Social Security cards now in use are still valid, Bynum said, and there is no need to get a new card unless it is necessary. People who do need a new Social Security card because they lost their old one or who have changed their name can apply at any Social Security office for a replacement. They will need evidence of their identity, and if they have changed their name, the evidence should show both the old and new names. A person applying for a number for the first time needs evidence of age, citizenship or immigrant status, and identity.

A person will receive his or her card about two weeks after applying and supplying all necessary evidence. All Social Security cards are issued from Social Security headquarters in Baltimore, Maryland. More information about applying for Social Security numbers can be obtained at the Wichita Falls Social Security office located at 1000 Burnett St. The telephone number is (817) 822-5213.

TAX BILL INCLUDES CHANGES IN MEDICARE, SSI

The Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982 includes changes in the Medicare program and the Supplemental Security Income

(SSI) program. The changes are expected to result in a savings of $15 billion in Medicare and about $398 million in SSI program costs by 1985. Several new benefits are also included in the law.

The Medicare changes include increases in Medicare medical insurance premiums, extending Medicare to Federal employees, and making Medicare the secondary health insurance plan for employees 65-69 who are covered by an employer group health plan. A number of new limits on Medicare reimbursement to hospitals and skilled nursing facilities are included. A new Medicare benefit hospice care will be provided to beneficiaries expected to live six months or less.

Chief among the SSI changes are new rules for reflecting Social Security cost-of-living adjustments in monthly SSI benefits, promoting the initial benefit from the date of application or the date of eligibility, whichever is later, and rounding the monthly benefit standard to the next lower dollar instead of to the next higher ten cents. In addition, a new provision excludes burial plots not of excessive value or size and burial funds of up to $1,500 in determining whether a person's resources are within the SSI limit. For further information, contact your local social security office at (817) 822-5213.

RAFB OPENS HOUSE

Sheppard Air Force Base will conduct Community Day 1984 April 7 and 8.

The U.S. Navy Blue Angels aerial demonstration team and the U.S. Golden Knight parachute team will be featured performances.

As with past open-house events, numerous military aircraft will be put on static display.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
The Iowa Park Leader office is in need of a new, pitched roof, leaving the old, flat tar roof intact. Those interested in bidding on the job can make the following written proposals:
• your design to accomplish the job
• materials and their quality (receptive to a metal covering)
• approximate starting and completion dates
• cost of the project.
An alternate we will consider is a slanted, shingle-covered front on the building, extending from the roof to the outer edge of the canopy over the sidewalk.
Proposals should be received at the Leader office, 112 West Cash or P.O. Box 430, by 4 p.m. Friday, March 2.
