FREAK MISHAP - Cathy Owen, 407 S. Victoria, has her eyes covered by Michael Dozier, fire department EMT, before she was transported to a doctor's office to have small particles of glass removed. She was driving west on the old highway when, at Rifle Range Road, the car in front of her lost a wheel and it bounced into her windshield, shattering it. Driver of the other vehicle was Randy Visintainer of Wichita Falls.

Smallest in 13 years to graduate

Commencement exercises for the smallest graduating class of Iowa Park High School in 13 years will be held Friday evening in Hawk Stadium.

The Eighth Grade graduation will be held this evening in the high school auditorium.

For the first time since 1970, fewer than 100 seniors will receive diplomas, according to Bob Dawson, principal. This year's class has 96 candidates for graduation. Ninety-three graduated in 1970.

The actual figure will not be known until some borderline students complete their final exams, Dawson said.

Approximately 130 eighth graders are to graduate. The accurate figure was also unknown until late yesterday afternoon, when final exams were completed. It could vary two or three students either way, Jimmy Alsup, principal, said.

High school graduation is to begin at 8 p.m. Should weather not permit exercises held out of doors, ceremonies will be moved into the auditorium. Each graduate will receive eight tickets to be used by family and friends, if the event is held inside. There is no limit to attendance in the stadium.

The processional and recessional marches are to be played by the Hawk Band, under direction of Greg Miller. Invocation will be given by Craig Whisnand and benediction by Betsy House.

Commencement address this year will be by Barry Lucy, faculty representative.

Counselor Herman Escue will make the presentation of honors after class president Bobby Gilbert makes the traditional class key presentation.

Diplomas will be presented by Dr. Roy Boutwell and Marilyn Hale, members of the school board.

JUNIOR HIGH CEREMONIES

High school valedictorian Susan Streich will be the guest speaker for tonight's eighth grade graduation service, which is to begin at 8.

Processional and recessional will be played by Gloria Sargent. Invocation will be by Stan Coker and benediction by Toby Brown.

The eighth grade choir will provide special music, with Allan Andrews directing.

BACCALAUREATE

Baccalaureate service for the Class of '84 was held Sunday evening in the auditorium.

Rev. George Topper, pastor of First United Methodist Church, gave the sermon. Dawson read the scripture after Ron Woods had given the invocation. Supt. Harold Cowley gave the benediction.

Special music was provided by the choir, directed by Andrews. Cindy Harper played the processional and recessional.

SMALL CLASS

This year's senior class is the smallest since 1969, when 84 members graduated. There were 93 in the 1970 class.

Dawson keeps a list of class sizes begun in 1966. According to the list, there were 61 in 1966; 72 in 1967; 83 in 1968; 84 in 1969; 93 in 1970; 117 in 1971; 122 in 1972; 138 in 1973; 124 in 1974; 154 in 1975; 158 in 1976; 166 (school record) in 1977; 163 in 1978; 153 in 1979; 162 in 1980; 153 in 1981; 155 in 1982 and 125 in 1983.

Council seeks grant

School board calls meeting Friday

City aldermen will take the first step toward applying for a grant to replace the older water lines in town when they meet Monday, and school trustees will hold a called meeting tomorrow to consider hiring an assistant superintendent.

The council will meet at 7 p.m. in council chambers, while the school board is to convene at 7 a.m. Friday in the administration building.

Monday's meeting includes a public hearing, where aldermen will hear comments on a proposed application for funding from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development through a community development block grant.

The money, if approved, would be used to replace the water lines in the older parts of town.

Also on the agenda, a committee appointed May 14 to consider the city's participation in development of a municipal golf course is to report; consider bids submitted for surplus equipment and property, and also consider amending the budget to allow hiring of three temporary employees to work in the street department this summer, according to James Barrington, administrator.

Tomorrow's called meeting of the school board is to consider hiring of an assistant superintendent. Four applicants have been interviewed by the personnel committee and Supt. Harold Cowley, and a recommendation is to be made to the full board.

Also on the agenda is a discussion of hiring an assistant principal at the high school.

Barnetts like cats

Business, pleasure

By KEVIN HAMILTON
Today, cats are Big Business. Believe it or not, as Ripley would say, cat ownership in the United States is quickly catching up to the dog population, and, in some respects, has outdistanced the puppy population in pet-related businesses.

There are over 43-million felines with owners in this country, contributing to a 55-percent increase in cat ownership in the past decade. According to some estimates, from 1,000 to 1,500 kittens are born in the U.S. alone every hour, adding eight to nine-million cats to the population every year.

One thing is for certain, though. Pets outnumber humans in the U.S. today, according to the Pet Institute in Washington, D.C.

There exists a wide variety of breeds in the cat population, and new ones are popping up everyday. But, in the case of cat breeders such as Tom and Mildred Barnett, 520 W. Alameda, the point is not to breed all kinds of varieties with very little reason than getting lucky. The true cat breeder attempts to enhance the particular breed to the point of perfection, whether it be a Rex, Manx, Himalayan, or Persian.

For the Barnetts, it has been Persian all-the-way ever since they started up in 1976. To be more exact, the Barnetts are making their mark on the shaded silver Persian population, and they have some champions to prove their success.

A total of 29 Persians, mostly shaded silver Persians with a few black Persians, now reside at Della-Purr Cattery, otherwise known as the Barnett home. Registered with the American Cat Fanciers' Association, the couple have been attending a handful of cat shows in Texas and Oklahoma, and boasts a double-champion male shaded silver Persian named Mi Big Boy, and their most recent champion, Mi Sweet Babe, sired by the double-winner.

Concentrating on shows in Dallas, Oklahoma City and Tulsa, Barnett

says, "We have brought home our share of firsts."

"Not all of the 29 cats are breeders here," Barnett continued. "Some are just old cats, but we don't just throw them away when they can't compete in show any longer." He added that he has given some cats away in the past, but only to an owner he has known and trusted for some time. Purebred felines can bring home a handsome price when young, but Barnett claims his champions have only helped to ease the financial strain of raising them. "It is not a get-rich-quick business," his wife pointed out.

Former residents of Biloxi, Mississippi, the Barnetts moved to North Texas in 1949, finally settling in their one-and-only home in Iowa Park in 1951.

An instructor at the Aircraft Training School at Sheppard A.F.B. Barnett began to supplement his income in the mid-1950s by breeding poodles. He constructed separate quarters behind his home to house the dogs, and continued the practice, which expanded to include dog grooming, for over a decade.

Finally, after retiring in 1976 after 31 years with the federal government, the Barnetts decided to once again put the "dog house" to use, this time raising Persians.

Today, Barnett still grooms poodles when time permits, but most of the couple's attention centers around the cats, 24 females, and five males.

The males are placed in fenced-in

Police find vehicle involved in hit-run

It took Iowa Park police about 40 minutes to find a hit-and-run vehicle late Tuesday night.

Kim Smith, 104 W. Lafayette, told police at 11:37 p.m. someone had struck her vehicle while it was parked. Red paint was easily visible, as were parts of a grill.

According to the police log, officers at 12:06 a.m. found the vehicle, a red pickup with part of the grill missing and heavy damage to the right front, parked at 204 W. Emerald. Owner Joe Wayne Owen was issued three citations. The case is to be heard in municipal court.

Betty Smith, 1219 S. Wall, notified police Friday morning she had found a piece of glass in a can of tuna, while making a sandwich.

The glass, described as about a quarter of an inch by half an inch, came from a 6.5-ounce can of Star Kist brand purchased at the Sheppard AFB commissary.

Chief Tom Fenley said the base officials were notified and they followed up by removing all cans that size and brand from the shelves and also notifying the manufacturers.

No injuries resulted from the incident.

Charles Tillery reported to police at 4:36 p.m. Saturday that a 12-year-old female visiting from Wichita Falls had fainted after being bitten by an insect. Shortly after Emergency Medical Technicians from the fire department arrived, she was taken by private vehicle to the Sheppard AFB hospital.

Casey Rains told police Monday someone had taken his 26-inch bicycle from 829 N. Park. It is valued at $127.

Smith, Patterson vows exchanged Friday evening

The altar decorations at the church of God Friday evening for the wedding of Miss Lorena Louise Smith and Rickey Eugene Patterson lent themselves to the hushed reverence that is felt in the church at all times, and reflected the talent of a master designer.

Rev. Ole Olds, pastor, officiated the double-ring ceremony to join in holy wedlock the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Pruett and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Clark of Wichita Falls.

The votive candles in the altar setting shed soft lighting that bespoke of worship and devotion. These burned in crescent candelabra entwined with boxwood greenery at the center and in spiral candelabra on either side. They were used again with equal effect in the lower altar to enhance the beauty of two large silk floral arrangements of fern, white carnations, mums and gladioli.

The pew markers for family members were graceful fern plaques centered with white silk bows.

The unity candelabrum afforded the parents of the bride and groom the opportunity to show their approval of the marriage. The center candle was lighted for the first time before the ceremony. The groom escorted his mother to the candlestick where she used the center candle to light one of the outer candles. The bride's father escorted her mother down the aisle to light the other outer candle, and having done so, she extinguished the center candle for the bride and groom to light after they had been pronounced husband and wife.

The prelude music featured pre-recorded favorite selections of the bride and groom, and Mrs. Robby Hamilton, vocalist, sang "There Is Love." During the ceremony, the bride and groom sang "Together," and Miss Janet Walker sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the close. All vocal numbers were done to sound track accompaniment. Mrs. Ole Olds, organist, played Mendelssohn's recessional for the exit of the wedding party.

Robert Cook, the bride's brother-in-law escorted her to the altar. When the minister asked "Who gives this woman in marriage?" he replied "Her parents and I."

The lovely gown that the bride chose for her wedding will always be a special remembrance of a most beautiful beginning. She wore a long formal gown of white Chantilly lace enriched with Venise lace. The fitted bodice featured a high neckline of Venise lace accented with sequins and seed pearls. A double ruffle of the Chantilly lace that dipped to a deep V to the waistline in front rose to span the shoulders of the gown and extend to the waistline in the back. A medallion of Venise lace trimmed with sequins and pearls added special interest to a front yoke of the bodice, and the full bishop sleeves were cuffed at the wrists with wide ruffles.

The full skirt reflected a delightful nostalgic look through alternating panels of Chantilly lace and baby ruffles that dropped down each side of the skirt from the waist to a hemline encircled with a single layered ruffle that flowed into a semi-cathedral train.

The bride wore a complementary hat covered with white Chantilly lace. One side was caught up to the crown adorned with clusters of pearls with tiny flowers and satin streamers. She carried a silk cascade bouquet of exclusive taste formed of pink roses, pink and burgundy forget-me-nots, baby's breath, white and pink silk ribbon.

MRS. RICKEY EUGENE PATTERSON

She wore her mother's pearls for "something old" and "something borrowed," her gown was "something new" and a garter was "something blue."

The bride's attendants included a matron of honor, two bridesmaids and a junior bridesmaid. The nostalgic appeal of the bride's gown was matched in their gowns of pastel pink sheer point d'esprit. The gowns were designed with stand-up necklines, yokes with ribbon trim, lace ruffles on the bodices, lace-trimmed puffed sleeves and basque waistlines. The skirts with their lace-trimmed hemline flounces that lifted in the back to achieve a bustle effect added special appeal to the gowns.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids wore pink picture hats banded with embroidered tulle and brims raised at one side. Sheer pink bows with matching streamers added back interest. They carried white lace fans holding silk pink roses, forget-me-nots and baby's breath with pink and burgundy ribbons.

The junior bridesmaid carried a smaller version of the fans and wore a headpiece of pink sweetheart roses, blue forget-me-nots, baby's breath accented with pink ribbon.

Mrs. Robert Cook, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Tracey Patterson of Wichita Falls and Miss Dorinda Morris of Port Lavaca, and the junior bridesmaid was Miss Misty Cook, the bride's niece.

Miss Tammy Cook, another niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Her long frock, duplicating the style of the attendants' gown, was modified for her age. Her headpiece matched the one worn by the junior bridesmaid and she carried a white basket trimmed with pink and burgundy ribbons that held loose petals and baby's breath.

The groom wore a burgundy tuxedo with tails, white shirt with wing-tipped collar, vest, bow tie and a boutonniere of white roses, baby's breath and greenery. The men who took part in the wedding, ringbearer and junior groomsman wore burgundy tuxedos, white shirts and burgundy ties.

Chris Lee was the ring bearer. The groom's father stood by him as best man. Groomsman and ushers were Lonnie Foster of Wichita Falls, the groom's brother-in-law, and Kelly Shearer of Pleasanton, cousin of the bride. Paul Lee was the junior groomsman.

The bride presented long-stemmed red roses to her mother and to the groom's mother during the service. Mrs. Pruett wore a rose pink Qiana gown designed with an accordion pleated skirt that fell below a chiffon sash that encircled the waistline and tied at a silk rose in the front. A chiffon capelet completed the picture. Mrs. Cook chose a fashionable mauve polyester silk gown featuring a white yoke and long sleeves trimmed with sequins and pearls. Their corsages were composed of white mini carnations and pink ribbon touches.

The bride's parents were hosts for the postnuptial reception held in the Fellowship Hall of the church where the decorations were beautifully compatible with those in the sanctuary. The bride and groom stood under an archway covered with boxwood greenery to receive the guests.

Decorations in the bride's chosen colors combined with white to bring a rare charm to the refreshment table. It was draped to the floor with a white satin cloth featuring a tiered skirt and swags of ivy around the top caught with white lace bows with streamers. Burgundy and pink forget-me-nots scattered through the ivy emphasized the bride's chosen colors.

The three-tiered ivory frosted cake was a delightful surprise abounding in novelty floral designs of pink and burgundy roses, petunias, stephanotis, forget-me-nots and bridal trumpets. The frosting flowers covered the tiers and created the top ornamentation. Sugar pillars separated the two upper tiers for a cluster of pink petunias to provide decorations for the second tier.

The centerpiece for the table was a silver candelabrum that held white candles and a delicate silk arrangement of white carnations, mums, gladioli, pink roses. The silver punch bowl, crystal toasting glasses, silver trays of pink rose mints, and burgundy napkins lettered with "And This Our Life Our Beginning, Lorena and Rick, May 18, 1984" completed the decor.

Mrs. Lonnie Foster, Miss Lori Barr and Miss Pam Cope served the cake and punch during the reception.

The gift table was covered with a white silk pleated cloth and centered with a white candle, white snapdragons and ivy arrangement. It also held the pink and burgundy rice bags in small wicker baskets.

As guests arrived at the church for the wedding, they were directed to sign the guest book by Miss Elayne Olds, who sat at a table covered in white satin trimmed around the top with English ivy, and appointed with a white candle in a hurricane globe, white plume pen and book.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner Thursday evening at the church.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Park High School. She attended Texas Christian Univ. and is presently a junior student at Midwestern State Univ. She is employed at Kid's Capers at Sheppard AFB. The groom was graduated from Rider High School. He attended MSU and is presently a general lab technician at Sheppard AFB.

They are now honeymooning at Padre Island and other south Texas points. Before going away, the bride tossed a bouquet of pink roses and changed to a beige polyester dress with a black sash for travel. They will live in Iowa Park.

Shower fetes bride elect

Miss Kathryn Mattis, bride-elect of Joel Nordman, was honored Saturday afternoon at a miscellaneous shower held in the home of Mrs. Helen Burrell. Co-hostesses were Mmes. Erle Crush, Wylie Williams, Glenn Garrett, James Dyer, Joel Witt of Carrollton; Miss Roberta Hill and Miss Betsy Burrell.

Decorations for the informal reception were inspired by pink and white and combined modest simplicity with dignity and good taste.

Perfect detail was accomplished in the designing of the refreshment table laid with white lace over pink. The centerpiece was a four-branched gold candelabrum holding pink candles and a small arrangement of pink daisies. Pink punch was served from a crystal bowl and the color was noted in rose-shaped mints served on a gold tiered tray, and napkins accented with "Kathryn and Joel" in white.

Special guests were Mrs. Wm. C.

Mattis and Mrs. Harvey Nordman, mothers of the engaged couple who will repeat their matrimonial vows June 16.

runs during good weather for exercise, and a series of open-end pens lead to three large rooms where the cats play briskly throughout the day. All of the females are indoor cats.

Barnett personally vaccinates his cats, abiding by a strict regiment beginning at the kitten's eighth week of life. It is not uncommon for the couple to purchase the medicine and food in bulk, because it takes 2 1/2 lbs. of meat per day mixed with dry cat chow, vitamins, calcium supplement, ground beef and kidney. "It is a very expensive hobby," Barnett said. "But all of them are healthy when they leave here, we are strict about that."

Mrs. Barnett, referred to as the "Cat Lady" by neighbors and friends, pointed out they're main consideration in breeding the shaded silvers is to "round-out" the facial features, which traditionally have been indented breaks much like that of a Pekinese dog. "We found that cats with indented breaks commonly developed sinus problems, but the ones with rounded breaks haven't," she noted.

The only drawback to changing the traditional features of a Persian, though, is to draw the ire of a contest judge used to the traditional look. But with Tom and Mildred Barnett, a lot of love and common sense brings them a load of satisfaction at Della-Purr Cattery.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

If you think it's dry around here, wait until you read what James Roberts, the Andrews publisher I often quote, said in Sunday's edition about a rain they received out there last week:

"When you've got babies that have been weaned, walked and talked since the last rain, two-year-old bullfrogs that can't swim, and local Baptists that are sprinklin' rather than dunkin', you know you've been through a dry spell."

Now that's dry. Almost six inches behind normal here now, things are about to get serious for farmers, gardeners and people who take pride in their lawns.

Monday was supposed to have been the unified planting day for cotton in Wichita County. They like to plant all the crop about the same time, for insect control.

About the same thing happened last spring, and some farmers planted cotton as late as mid-June. Was questionable whether it was worth it, however, with such a short yield.

So far, we are still in pretty good shape for lake water, both here and Wichita Falls.

Officials say the lakes can easily handle us the rest of the year. But I remember the salt taste we all experienced back in 1971 when our lakes went dry, the second year of a drought.

Of course, that was before we put in that line to Wichita Falls. Those who weren't here then and haven't heard, we were taking that salty water out of the irrigation ditch for the city's water. It not only ruined your taste, but the pipe lines and appliances as well.

If it continues dry until fall, this would be the perfect time for the cities to get together and hold bond elections to build that dam at Ringgold. It would pass with flying colors.

Dry as it's been, we've been lucky the temperatures have been as low as they've been. This has been an unusual spring.

Didn't we say that about last winter?

Congratulations to the Iowa Park and Holliday graduating seniors, who will receive their diplomas Friday night.

Both these classes have some really outstanding people in them, and I look forward to about 10 years from now to see what they will be doing.

That's the interesting part of being in a community several years, and knowing most of the students graduating. Years later you hear about them owning their own business, becoming professional people, having children, building homes, the whole thing.

Our wishes are for the best of everything for each of you graduating. God bless each of you.

Christian film made in Russia

"Beyond the Cross," a new film, several years in the making and filmed largely by the persecuted church inside Russia, will be shown at First Baptist Church at 7 p.m. Sunday.

The film was produced by Underground Evangelism, a missionary outreach based in Los Angeles, Calif. and is a stirring documentary of the heart-rending story of Ivan Moiseyev, a young Russian who was murdered for his faith. It also portrays scenes of Christian leaders being united with their families only moments after being released from prison, and interviews with exiled believers confined to the barren, frigid wastelands of Siberia.

The public is invited.

Eggery taught to art group

Members of the Arts and Crafts Association were instructed in eggery by Mrs. O.R. Moore at their meeting Tuesday evening. She gave each a goose egg that had been painted pink, cut and hinged, and assisted them in lining and decorating the eggs with beads and flowers.

Mrs. F.E. Schmidt conducted a brief business meeting. New members recognized were Mrs. Buster Reaves and Mrs. Eleanor Bell.

The next meeting will be a workshop in calligraphy conducted by Mrs. Alvin Jeter June 26.

Compton, Stone wedding is double-ring ceremony

Marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Jackie Lynn Compton and Kristian Nicholas Stone Friday evening in the presence of family members and close friends. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Hal Farnsworth, pastor of First Baptist Church, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michie R. Compton. The groom is the son of Mrs. Pat Mednansky of Iowa Park.

The couple stood at an improvised altar in the living room decorated with two large schefflera plants and a pedestal arrangement of silk flowers in the rainbow colors. Candles burned at vantage points in the room to provide soft lighting.

The bride's father presented her in marriage. She chose a gown that complemented her youthful beauty of white silk organza and Chantilly lace. The bodice of the gown was sprinkled with sequins and designed with a sweetheart neckline, sheer sleeves cuffed with wide lace. The lace formed an apron effect on the front of the skirt with a hemline flounce. The attached train that flowed to chapel length featured tiers of embroidered silk net. Her illusion veil cascaded from a cap of embroidered silk net glistening with seed pearls.

The bride carried a classic style bouquet of rainbow colors composed of silk carnations, poppies, tulips, mums, baby's breath, puffs of net and matching streamers. For "something borrowed and blue," she wore Mrs. Eddie Sasser's ring, a blue opal stone set in blue sapphires. She wore her mother's pearl earrings for "something old," and a pearl necklace, a gift from her parents, for "something new."

Miss Tanya Parkinson of Wichita Falls was the maid of honor. She was attired in a long rose pink crepe dress styled with off-the-shoulder puffed sleeves and a skirt featuring handkerchief points in various lengths.

Tod Salts of Wichita Falls was the best man.

The bride's parents hosted the reception immediately following the wedding. They were assisted by Mrs. Mike Leath and Mrs. Terry Daniels, sister of the bride.

The refreshment table was covered with a white crocheted cloth. It held the cake, crystal punch service, silver coffee service, an assortment of hors d'oeuvres and white napkins accented with floral ornamentation and names of the bride and groom.

The cake was beautifully decorated and sculptured in designs of weaving. Two white doves held bits of frosting in their bills as they hovered over two hearts cut in the icing suggesting that they had "pecked" the name of Jackie on one heart and the name of Kris on the other. The confection was further ornamented with clusters of rainbow-colored frosting flowers.

Guests signed the wedding book with a white plume pen at a table decorated with a "Bells of Love" arrangement.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Park High School and is employed by King's Food in Wichita Falls. The groom was graduated from Wichita Falls High School and is employed by Don Fields Construction Co.

Following a trip to the Dallas-Fort Worth area, they are at home in Wichita Falls.

Special wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Coy Blagg of Gainesville and Iley Compton of Childress, grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Nicholas of Wichita Falls, grandparents of the groom. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Terry Daniels and children, Mrs. Ruth McCullum and children and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Compton.

Dixon, Giles marriage vows exchanged

Miss Jody Marie Dixon and Roy Wayne Giles were married Saturday afternoon in a ceremony officiated by Father James Hanland at the Holy Family Catholic Church in Fort Worth. The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Dale Dixon of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. James Preston Giles Sr. of Wichita Falls.

Two large baskets of white gladiola and carnations were used to supplement the altar decorations, and white bows were arranged on top of the first two rows of the church.

The musical selections played during the service were "Thee Our Father," "One Day at a Time," and "The Wedding Song."

The bride was presented in marriage by her father. She wore a white tulle polyester gown trimmed in ruffled Chantilly lace. In design, the gown featured a Queen Anne neckline, bishop sleeves, multi-ruffled hemline and attached chapel train. Her full length veil and blusher were caught to a Juliet cap, and she carried a cascade of pink cymbidium orchids, white stephanotis, baby's breath and greenery.

A matron of honor and four bridesmaids composed the quintet of bridal attendants. They wore ruffled and flounced cranberry organza gowns fashioned with natural waistlines and dropped shoulders. Each wore pink flowers in her hair and carried three pink lilies, spotted in burgundy, and greenery.

Jeanie Ruth Dixon Schmidt of Weatherford, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Paula D. Young of Weatherford, Sarah J. Segars, LaRonda R. Pippen, and Ashley A. Hicks, cousin of the bride, all of Fort Worth.

MRS. ROY WAYNE GILES

The groom and his attendants wore silver gray western-style tuxedos and string ties. He was attended by Tracy Womack of Stephenville as best man, Stephen Schmidt of Weatherford, Nolan Helms of Granbury, Clay McBee of Stephenville, James D. Dixon Jr. of Fort Worth as groomsmen.

The bride's mother wore a gray lace dress and the groom's mother wore a pink chiffon dress, and both wore pink cymbidium orchids.

The bride and groom are both students at Tarleton State Univ. She was graduated from Western Hills High School in Fort Worth and attended Texas A&M Univ. He was graduated from Burkburnett High School. They are in Hot Springs, Ark. this week on their wedding trip, and before they return to Stephenville they will be honored at a reception hosted by the groom's parents in Wichita Falls.

The wedding reception was hosted by the bride's parents at the Fort Worth Headliners Club. The tables in the setting were covered with white skirted cloths trimmed in cranberry and decorated with spring bouquets.

The bride's table held a four-tiered cake set off with a stairway bordered with pink icing flowers tipped with burgundy that descended from a gazebo on the top tier, where a bride and groom were standing, to the base of the cake. The table held the punch, wine and an assortment of hors d'oeuvres. The groom's table held the chocolate cake shaped like a western boot and stitched in light chocolate icing.

Houseparty members were Jennifer Gail Robertson, Lisa Bartlett, Jerrene Campbell and La Donna Almaguer.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at Vance Godbey's where smorgasbord food was served.

Special wedding guests were the bride's grandparents, Mrs. Velma Ellis of Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. D.W. Zook from Serra Vista, Ariz.

Missions topic of Night WMU

The Night WMU of First Baptist Church met with Mrs. H.E. Cummings Monday to continue the study of the home mission book "We Spell Missions - America" by Everett Hullum.

Mrs. S.B. Reaves taught the section on "Travel Agents in Home Missions," directing to three volunteer missionaries in particular: Fern Powers and Diane Seiber, volunteer workers in Olympia, Wash., and Doris Alderman of Charleston, S.C. She stated that the first of the trio started the harbor ministry and the first Baptist Seaman's ministry, the next two were doing outstanding work with the refugees in their respective locations. She also discussed the work of several other volunteer workers.

Mrs. V.I. Woodfin conducted the business and Mrs. E.T. Patterson conducted the missionary birthday prayer calendar. Mrs. Eleanor Bell was welcomed as a new member.

McBride, Hohfeld vows are solemnized

Following a wedding trip to the Bahamas, Mr. and Mrs. Michael John Hohfeld, who were married May 12 at Our Lady Queen of Peace in Wichita Falls, are now at home in Wichita Falls. Mrs. Hohfeld is the former Alisha Tina Lenise McBride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McBride of Holliday, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hohfeld of Wichita Falls.

The double-ring ceremony was officiated by Father Kevin Keith. The altar decorations consisted of fifteen-branched candelabra flanked by seven-branched candelabra laced with greenery and accented with white bows. The unity candlestick commanded a significant place in the setting, and the church pews were decorated with white bows.

Miss Melanie Majors, organist, presented the prelude music, furnished accompaniment for Miss Melissa Majors' vocal numbers, "It Seems I've Always Loved You," "The Lord's Prayer," and played the time-honored wedding marches.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She wore an exquisite ivory gown of beaded peau d' ange lace and organza enhanced with rhinestones and pearls. The raised lace bodice was fashioned with a sheer yoke, stand-up neckline, balloon sleeves with matching lace appliques. The elegant princess line skirt flowed down to a cathedral train of multiple lace ruffles.

For her headpiece, she wore the traditional lace and seed pearl cap to hold her illusion veil. To complete her costume, she carried a large bouquet of light and dark blue silk roses in teardrop effect.

Mother, daughter art on display

Holliday Art Association members Ann and Denissa Weyant will display their works at Olney Savings Gallery through May 31 in Holliday. Hours of the gallery are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Ann Weyant, her husband Denny, and Denissa have lived at Cook's Corner the last decade.

Denissa, a sixth grader at Holliday Middle School, began pastel painting in January of this year and will have several paintings on display. She is a student of artist Steve Grey, is a member of both the Holliday and Wichita Falls Art Associations, and

Mrs. Troy Hayes of Wichita Falls was the matron of honor. Mrs. Gene Gerstener of Iowa Park and Miss Shirley McBride, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They were dressed in long dark blue gowns trimmed with light blue off-the-shoulder and hemline ruffles and carried bouquets of tiger lilies, rosebuds, and sweetheart roses in shades of blue and ivory.

The groom wore a light blue tuxedo with tails, blue shirt and ascot tie. The best man, groomsmen and fathers wore regular blue tuxedos with blue shirts and ascots ties. Gerald Hohfeld, brother of the groom, was best man, and the groomsmen were Troy Hayes and Danny Richie.

The bride and groom are both employed at Margie's Sweet Shop. She was graduated from Holliday High School, and he was graduated from Wichita Falls High School and American Institute of Baking.

The wedding reception was held in the Parish Hall. The tables in the setting were covered with ivory silk cloths.

The bride's table was draped with blue lace over the ivory silk cloth and the focal point of interest was the picturesque cake. A cake of five tiers, the top two separated by ivory posts and the second and third tiers divided by a fountain, was flanked by three-tiered cakes where miniature wedding attendants stood on staircases. Each cake was frosted in ivory and decorated with light blue rosebuds and two-toned blue roses and topped with a kissing bride and groom standing in a gazebo.

The table was centered with a silver candelabrum arrayed with candles and a floral arrangement in has won ribbons in art competition at school.

Mrs. Weyant started wood carving in March of last year, and will have in-the-round and in-relief wood carvings on display. In addition, she will show pen and ink drawings. She is a member of the National Wood Carvers Association, Wichita Falls Art Association, and Texas Fine Arts Association.

The display will mark the opening of the Olney Savings Gallery with Holliday Art Association member exhibits. The public is invited to view the works during regular business hours.

MRS. MICHAEL JOHN HOHFELD

the bride's colors, crystal punch service, silver trays of assorted hors d'oeuvres. The servers were Misses Cheri Hohfeld, Deana Lewis and Cindy McBride.

The groom's table held a Bible-shaped chocolate cake on an easel-shaped cake and the silver coffee service. Miss Delores James served the cake and Miss Wendy Skelton served the coffee.

Art Association elects officers

The Holliday Art Association met last Tuesday to elect new officers for the new term.

They are: president, Jimi Young; vice president, Sylvia Thomas; secretary, Shirley Addison; publicity, Kelly Young; workshop, Peggy Jackson; art show, Lois Blair; telephone, Reba Dolberry; social director, Marilyn Cowan; and parliamentarian, Ann Weyant.

June 12, the Association will be having a short meeting to discuss plans for the upcoming June Fest.

Those present at the May 15 meeting were: Jimi Young, Sylvia Thomas, Ann Weyant, Shirley Addison, Lois Blair, Charles Fennell, and Kay Fennell.

The table where Miss Kristie Holub presided to secure signatures of wedding guests was appointed with pictures of the bride and a candle and floral bouquet.

Tables set up for guests to sit for refreshments were covered with blue cloths, centered with single candles, and held trays of mints and nuts. Poles in the reception room were wrapped with blue streamers and bells.

Rains, Bell vows read Saturday

The balcony of the Wichita Falls Country Club was the scene of a late Saturday morning double-ring ceremony performed by Betty Tanner, Justice of Peace, to unite Donna Jean Rains, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Rains of Holliday, and Barry Don Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Don Bell of Jacksonville, Florida.

The exchange of rings by the couple was a significant part of the service since they designed the rings and bands and had them made.

A recording of "The Wedding Song" (There Is Love) was played before the ceremony.

When the bride's father gave her in marriage, she was wearing a light blue Qiana street-length dress featuring a medium blue satin belt and trim. She carried a silk bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley accented with light blue and mauve gypsophila, light blue and laced white satin ribbon.

Mrs. John White of Bowie, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in a light blue and white street-length dress and carried a long-stemmed white silk rose tied with light blue and laced white satin ribbons.

The groom and fathers of the couple wore dark blue suits. The groom wore a single white rose combined with light blue and mauve gypsophila and baby's breath. His father, who served as best man, and the bride's father wore a single white rose combined with baby's breath boutonnières.

The mothers of the couple and their grandmothers, Mrs. B.J. Royd of Iowa Park and Mrs. Annice Bell of Charlie had corsages composed of white silk carnations and baby's breath trimmed with white satin ribbon.

A luncheon with elegant place settings, hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Larry W. Rains, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, followed the wedding.

MR. AND MRS. BARRY BELL

The tables where the meal was served were centered with floral arrangements composed of blue silk flowers, light blue and mauve gypsophila and baby's breath in bronze urns and were truly works of art by Mrs. Butch Montgomery, a close friend of the bride, who also made the bouquets, corsages and boutonnières.

The meal consisted of a melon salad, chicken breasts stuffed with wild rice, various colorful vegetables served with wine.

A reception, also hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Rains, followed the luncheon. The cake ceremony highlighted the affair. The bride and groom cut the traditional three-tiered cake adorned with light blue and mauve flowers and topped with light blue satin wedding bells. They drank champagne out of the bride's parents sterling silver goblets that were given to them by their children on their 30th wedding anniversary. The guests were then served refreshments. The white napkins were accented with wedding bells, the names of the couple and their wedding date in blue.

The bride's parents hosted a dinner at their home Friday evening for the bridal party, out-of-town guests and close relatives.

Following a trip to Dallas, the couple will live in Wichita Falls.

In addition to the couple's parents and grandparents, other out-of-town wedding guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Richard Fleming of Charlie, Ray Bell of Fort Worth, John White of Bowie; Miss Kelly Bell of Fort Worth; Howard Henderson of Burkburnett, all relatives of the bride and groom.

Pruetts to observe 25th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Pruett of Valley View will observe their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pruett in Holliday between 2 and 4 p.m.

Mrs. Pruett is the former Charlene Johnson.

The reception will be hosted by the couple's children, Frances Alley, Jane Sanders, the Robert Pruett, and Donna Reynolds and Jobeth Meisel, sisters of the couple.

Meux, DeMars wedding held on MSU campus

Miss Laura Elizabeth Meux, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Meux of Wichita Falls, became the bride of Paul Alan DeMars, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bentley DeMars of Winterset, Iowa Friday afternoon in a ceremony officiated by Bruce Hammonds, youth minister at the Westside Baptist Church. The impressive service was held in the Clark Student Center Ballroom at Midwestern State Univ.

The wedding space was defined by planters filled with greenery. Each arched window was centered with a parlour palm. The altar area was formed by banks of English ivy, leatherleaf fern, smilax and parlour palms. Informal baskets of roses, iris, daisies, forget-me-nots and English ivy were placed atop Grecian columns.

Decorations in the altar space were completed with two double-ring candelabra trimmed with azure and ivory satin bows with streamers holding blue votive candles. English ivy was used for the background.

The unity candle flame was first lit by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Winston Harbicht of Dixon, Ill., and the bride's aunt, Mrs. W.F. Pounds of Hot Springs, Ark. The second stage of the unity candle service was lit by the groom's mother and the bride's mother. The bride and groom, accompanied by their fathers, lit their own candle as they approached the altar. After they were pronounced man and wife, they lit a new candle to signify the establishment of a new home. The candles used in the ceremony were made by the groom's sister, Miss Lisa DeMars of Delavan, Wis.

The sentiment of the occasion was enhanced during the exchange of rings by the couple when the groom placed a sentimental gift on the finger of the bride, the ring that his grandmother was given sixty years ago in her wedding.

The wedding music was provided by Mrs. Jim Bell, pianist, and Mrs. Bob Barrow, vocalist. The pre-nuptial recital by the pianist included "Endless Love," "Laura," "Through the Years," and "With This Ring." Selections by the vocalist were "Somewhere My Love" from Lara's Theme, and "My Own True Love" from Tara's Theme. The traditional marches marked the entrance and departure of the bridal party.

MRS. PAUL ALAN DeMARS

Dr. John W. Meux presented his daughter in marriage. Her formal bridal gown was fashioned of pure silk ivory over taffeta enriched with a fitted bodice and cap sleeves of reembroidered Chantilly lace sparkling with seed pearls. The neckline, of wedding ring design, was adorned with seed pearls, and the slightly raised waistline of the gown was emphasized by a sash of azure silk chiffon that tied in a bow with cascading streamers to the floor. The full skirt was enhanced by a deep flounce of Chantilly lace that extended into a chapel train.

The bride's fingertip veil of ivory imported illusion fell from a circlet of lace, orange blossoms and pearls. Her bouquet was a simple nosegay of ivory and azure roses, baby's breath and English ivy.

The bride's dress was "something new," and the sash was "something blue." The rhyme was completed with a sixpence borrowed from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jay Meux, which was a gift from her grandfather in England and was used in her wedding.

Miss Martha Templemeyer of Wichita Falls took part in the wedding as maid of honor. Miss Amanda Pounds of Lawton, Okla., cousin of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid, and Miss Catherine Margaret Cody of Wichita Falls, niece of the groom, was flower girl.

They wore street-length dresses of azure silk in chemise style with short puffed sleeves and fascinating pilgrim collars of hand-sewn French lace threaded with azure ribbon, designed and made by Mrs. John Cody, sister of the groom. The maid of honor and junior bridesmaid carried nosegays of Peace roses and English ivy, and the flower girl carried a basket filled with rose petals.

Alec Victorsen of Minneapolis, Minn., nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer. He was attired in blue raw silk rompers and ivory-lace trimmed shirt reminiscent of the costumes worn by the female attendants. He carried a hand-smocked ivory and azure pillow made by his mother, Mrs. Jon Victorsen, a special keepsake for the bride and groom.

The men wore business suits of either gray or blue and single Peace roses for boutonnières.

Bentley DeMars, father of the groom, was best man, and the groomsmen were Bill Pounds of Lawton, Okla., cousin of the bride. The ushers were Jay Meux of Krum, brother of the bride, Capt. David Pounds of Lawton, her cousin, Dr. John Cody of Wichita Falls, and Jon Victorsen of Minneapolis, both brothers-in-law of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a silk and linen dress of azure blue in shirtwaist style with long sleeves and fastened at the waist with a corsage of Peace roses. The groom's mother wore an ivory silk dress that featured pin stripes of multiple colors and a corsage of Peace roses.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Park High School and holds both a bachelor's and master's degree in library science from Texas Woman's Univ. She is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Alpha Beta Alpha, and the Texas and American Library Associations. She is presently teaching at Midwestern State Univ. where she is also doing additional graduate work.

The groom was graduated from Herbert Hoover High School in Des Moines, Iowa. He holds a bachelor's degree from Bemidji Univ. in Bemidji, Minn. He is currently employed by the Computer Center at MSU while pursuing a graduate degree.

The couple will travel most of the summer touring the northeastern section of the United States and Canada. When they return, they will live in Wichita Falls. The bride chose a royal blue cotton dress with cap sleeves accented with jade green for travel. Before she left, her mother took her corsage and pinned on her daughter, a symbol of the special bond between the two of them.

The wedding reception was held in the Ballroom of Clark Student Center and hosted by the bride's parents.

The bride's table was draped in azure silk over white taffeta and centered with a silver epergne holding blue votive candles, ivory and azure roses, satin ribbons and English ivy.

The three-tiered cake was especially designed to emphasize the azure and ivory of the bridal appointments. Cascades of azure iris, roses and forget-me-nots were brilliantly displayed against the ivory background of the cake. A ceramic kissing bride and groom stood between the upper tiers.

The table decor was completed with a silver punch bowl encircled with English ivy and Peace roses, ivory napkins printed in deep blue with "Paul and Lari, May 18, 1984."

The groom's table, covered in white linen, was appointed with the traditional chocolate cake decorated with marzipan fruit, an arrangement of deep blue silk roses and iris in a silver vase, and the silver coffee service.

The attendants at the bride's table were Mrs. Jon Cody, the groom's sister, Mrs. David Pounds, of Lawton, Okla. cousin of the bride, Mrs. J.W. Rogers, and Mrs. Jay Meux of Krum, the bride's sister-in-law. Those who presided at the groom's table were Miss Lisa DeMars, Delevan, Wis., Mrs. Jon Victorsen of Minneapolis, Minn., sisters of the groom, Mrs. Calvin Hansen and Mrs. Elmer Watts of Burkburnett.

The champagne table was covered with white linen and held a silver punch bowl, and an arrangement of silk flowers in various shades of blue set in an antique blue crystal holder flanked by aqua candles in silver holders.

Miss Traci Pounds of Hot Springs, Ark., cousin of the bride, and Miss Carrie Rogers presided at the guest table covered with white lace over blue taffeta. The bridal attendants' bouquets were used as the centerpiece. The rice bags, which contained some of the rice that was used at the bride's parents' wedding in 1953, were also on the table.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the Sheppard Air Force Base Officers Club. The round tables were covered in white lace and draped with ribbons and streamers of azure and ivory. Hurricane candles surrounded with wreaths of blue and ivory roses and orange blossoms completed the place settings.

Out-of-town wedding guests included Capt. and Mrs. William D. Pounds Sr., Bill and Amanda, Lawton, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Pounds and Miss Traci Pounds, Hot Springs, Ark., Mrs. Winston Harbicht, Dixon, Ill., Miss Lisa DeMars, Delevan, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Materspaugh, Gainesville, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCall, Lorimar, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Meux, Krum, Mr. and Mrs. Jon Victorsen, Minneapolis, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Larry Beninga, Charles City, Iowa.

PROUD HUSBAND - Clyde Skinner proudly displays a ribbon his wife earned Saturday, during special activities for senior citizens held at Sheppard Air Force Base. Both are members of The Friendly Door.

Group opposes changes of Perot committee

Iowa Park High athletic director David Baugh is enlisting support to put political pressure on members of the legislature to refute at least two points of the Governor's Select Committee on Education.

Baugh, speaking at a meeting of enthusiastic parents Monday evening, ask that they enlist others to write legislators, opposing the abolishment of the elected state board of education and oppose any move to abolish the University Interscholastic League.

He told the audience H. Ross Perot, chairman of the governor's committee, has already met with the larger lobbyist in the state to get them to work toward acceptance of abolishing the elected school board.

Perot has been quoted in state-wide media as having pledged half a million dollars of his own money to lobby for a change which would allow the governor to appoint state school board members, as well as all the rest of his committee's recommendations.

The citizens would have no recourse to actions taken by an appointed board, where they do now have that ability with an elected board, he said.

He also feared a change which would require all extracurricular activities be held before or after regular school class hours. Those activities would include athletics, band, choir, agriculture and other organizations.

Should that change be made, each of the educators in the respective fields would be vying for the participation of many of the same students, limiting the students' participation.

"I'm not saying all his (Perot's) stuff is bad. Some is good. I would give up football in favor of education if I felt it was needed," Baugh said.

"I don't know of a coach in this state who doesn't want education first. None of them is working against it. And there is not a state outside Texas that doesn't want a program (UIL) like we have," he said.

Baugh warned, "A lot of what Perot wants will cost millions and millions of dollars, which, of course, comes right back on us as taxpayers."

Form letters were distributed among about 20 persons attending, both to use themselves and to encourage others to use.

The address is left open to be filled in, and the letter states:

"I would like to express my opposition to the proposed abolishment of our elected State Board of Education. I hope you also are opposed to this proposal and voice your opposition to this. I feel that this proposal is an infringement of my rights as a citizen to vote.

"I am also opposed to abolishment of the U.I.L. I feel it should remain under the direction of the University of Texas.

"Please write me and let me know your opinion concerning this matter.

"I will be following this matter very closely during the Special Session and will scrutinize very closely your vote."

Baugh said he was unaware of any similar meetings being held in the state by coaches or instructors of any other extracurricular activities, but added there probably were some.

Band director Greg Miller said he agreed with the proposals made by Baugh and others in the audience.

DAVID BAUGH SPEAKS AGAINST PEROT RECOMMENDATIONS ... he likes elected state board members.

Tips On Dental Health
RICHARD CARVER, D.D.S.
THE SILVER FILLING

The silver alloy used in dentistry is actually a mixture which changes dimensions with a change in temperature. This causes a change in the area when the tooth meets the filling and must be kept clean for the filling to be successful. Large silver fillings are subject to failure (breaking around the edges and cracking) because of the nature of the mixture. The mixture contains mercury which can also cause a dark stain in the tooth and sometimes in the gum tissue. The dentist has little control over this. Silver alloy has served mankind well over time and is still widely used to repair decayed and broken teeth. If you look at your silver fillings and find that they are "black", remember that silver tarnishes and needs polishing regularly. There are other types of materials that may be used such as cast gold alloy for inlays, onlays and crowns. Sometimes, in the interest of appearance, porcelain is fused to the alloy to better match the shade of your teeth. Also there are the new materials called "composites", in shades to match your teeth. These materials can sometimes be used instead of the more expensive crowns, but that is another story. Ask your dentist.

WORM CONTROL FOR GARDENS
There is no reason for allowing loopers and other worms to ravage the leaves on cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli, Brussels sprouts and other plants in the garden. Dipel dust, which is available in a one pound shaker can, is very effective in controlling worms. Mrs. Betty Watson of Iowa Park, used Dipel dust for worm control in her garden, especially on the cabbage type plants. For some reason, cabbages tend to attract worms. Dipel is a bacteria rather than a toxic chemical. The bacteria spreads a disease among the small worms giving control. There is no harvest restriction. This is a safe material causing no problems to the environment. The disease is not contagious to man. Dusting once per week during the peak worm season enables Mrs. Watson to harvest cabbage heads free of insect damage. There is an easier way to mesquite sprout control than carrying a 3 gallon sprayer around on ones back. The results are better too. Four cc's of Velpar squirted at the base of a mesquite sprout gives good control. This chemical is metered in cc's which calls for carrying only a small quantity of chemical by the applicator. Elwood Haynes of Punkin Center is treating about 20 acres of mesquite sprouts using Velpar. He carries one a gallon jug of chemical which is equipped with an automatic metering hand gun. Application is easy and fast. The mode of action of Velpar is through the roots. Rainfall leaches the chemical into the soil where it is picked up by the mesquite roots. A good rain is needed before results can be seen.

Cooks of the Week

The recipes this week are for dishes that the Philia Study Club members prepared and served at a "Tasting" supper to climax activities for the club year. They are quick, nutritious and most of them can be prepared ahead of time.

HAMBURGER CORN-PONE PIE

Val Jones
1 lb. ground meat
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 T. shortening
2 T. chili powder
3/4 t. salt
1 T. Worcestershire sauce
1 cup canned tomatoes
1 cup drained kidney beans
1 cup corn bread batter
Brown meat and chopped onion in melted shortening. Add seasoning and tomatoes. Cover and simmer over low heat 15 minutes, then add kidney beans. Pour meat mixture in a greased casserole, spread corn bread topping, bake.

LIME JELLO SALAD

Linda Escue
This is a quick recipe that has come in handy countless times for family dinners or covered dish dinners. Boil 1 cup water
Pour small box of lime jello in water Add small package softened cream cheese into the hot water. Blend in blender.
Drain liquid off pears and put liquid into jello mixture.
Blend well. Pour into serving bowl. Add pears and chopped pecans (enough pecans to cover the top of the serving bowl.) Chill.

CHINESE NOODLE SUPREME

Raydean Mattis
1 can Cream of Mushroom Soup
1/2 cup water
1/2 can chow mein noodles
1 cup chopped celery
1/2 cup cashew nuts
7 oz. can white tuna
1/4 cup grated onion
Combine soup and water. Add chow mein noodles, celery, cashews, tuna, and onion. Toss lightly. Sprinkle other noodles on top. Bake 15 minutes at 350 degrees. Garnish with Mandarin orange sections.

TATOR TOT CASSEROLE

Helen Burrell
1 lb. ground beef
1 can Vegall
1 can Cheddar cheese soup
1 package tator tots
Brown ground beef in large frying pan. Stir in Vegall and Cheddar cheese soup. Pour into 4x6 pyrex dish. Cover with tator tots. Bake until tator tots are brown. (Onion flakes may be added to the ground meat). Bake at 350 degrees. Serves 4-6.

BEEF ORIENTAL

Jane Cowley
Brown 1 onion in 3 tablespoons margarine.
Remove from pan.
Brown 1 lb. ground beef and 1/2 cup regular rice.
Combine 1 can Cream of Mushroom Soup and 1 can Cream of Chicken Soup and 1/4 cup Soy sauce.
Pour over onion, beef, and rice.
Lightly stir in 1 can beansprouts.
Put in buttered casserole and bake at 350 degrees 30 minutes.
Top with one can chow mein noodles and bake 30 minutes more.

SQUASH BAKE

Judy Spring
1/2 cup margarine
2 onions, chopped
1 (13 3/4 oz.) can Swanson's chicken broth
1 can water
1 cup rice
1 t. salt
1/2 t. sugar
3/4 t. pepper
1 (4 oz.) can green chilies chopped
2 (6 oz.) rolls garlic cheese, slices
4-5 medium squash, sliced
1 (16 oz.) can tomatoes, chopped with juice
Saute onions in margarine. Add broth, water, rice, seasonings, chilies and cheese and cook until cheese is melted. Pour into a 3 qt. casserole, add squash and tomatoes and bake covered at 325 degrees 45 minutes. Freezes well. If prepared early in the day, to freshen appearance at serving time, cover with grated cheese and bake uncovered 30 minutes at 325 degrees. Serves 15.

SEASIDE SALMON SALAD

Linda Springer
2 cups uncooked shell macaroni (cook and drain)
1 (7 3/4 oz.) can salmon, drained
1/4 cup French dressing
1 t. salt
1/2 cup diced celery
2 T sweet pickle relish
2 hard cooked eggs, diced
1/2 cup chopped green onion
3 T minced parsley
3/4 cup mayonnaise
1/4 t. salt
1/4 t. garlic salt
1/8 t. pepper
1 t. prepared mustard
This can be put on lettuce with tomato wedges and cucumber slices.

GOLDEN ONION QUICHE

Sonja Lowe
1 frozen pie shell baked
4 oz. Mozzarella, Pizza or Swiss cheese
3 eggs
1/2 cup canned milk or whipping cream
3 drops hot sauce
1 3 oz. can French fried onion rings
1 T parsley
Beat eggs, cream and hot sauce. Pour over cheese in pie shell. Crush onions and sprinkle over top of mixture. Press down lightly. Sprinkle parsley over top. MW 8-10 minutes on medium or until set in the center.

WATER CHESTNUT GOODIES

Bonnie Medlinger
Wrap water chestnut with 1/2 thin slice of bacon. Bake in oven until bacon is cooked. Drip baked chestnuts in sauce.
Sauce:
1 cup catsup
1 cup brown sugar
Dash Tobasco or Worcestershire
The sauce may be made ahead of time. Warm before serving.

CHICKEN SALAD

Susan Biddy
3 T. lemon juice
4 cups cut-up cooked chicken
1 cup sliced celery
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 jar (2 oz.) sliced pimientos, drained
1 t. salt
1/2 t. pepper

1/4 cup diced roasted almonds or pecans
1 cup seedless green grapes halved
Crisp greens or cantaloupes or honeydew melons
In medium bowl, pour lemon juice over chicken. Add celery, onion, salt, pepper, pimiento, almonds, mayonnaise and grapes and toss. Cover and chill.
Serve on greens or in cataloupe or honeydew melon halves.

RUSSIAN SALAD

Linda Ayres
1 cup cottage cheese
1 cup chopped pecans
1 cup chopped black olives
1 t. minced onion
Serve over avocados. Top with Russian salad dressing.

BARBQ BEEF

Joan Horsky
Combine all ingredients and let stand in refrigerator overnight.
5 to 6 pound boneless chuck roast
1 can (16 oz.) stewed tomatoes
1 large chopped onion
1 cup chopped celery
1 T hot salsa
1 small can chopped mild green chilies
1/2 t. pepper
3/4 t. garlic salt
1/2 t. salt
Cook in 275 degree oven 6 to 7 hours. Remove from oven and shred - may thicken juice if desired. This may be served as a meat dish or with onion rolls or hamburger buns. This can be cooked overnight or while at work. Serves 25 sandwiches.

SUMMER CHICKEN

Linda Rinehart
1 boiled chicken (deboned)
cut in bite-size pieces
1 package chopped broccoli, cooked and drained
1 small jar Cheese Whiz
1 can cream of celery soup
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 cup cooked rice
Combine all ingredients and bake at 350 degrees 25 minutes or until thoroughly heated. This freezes well and is good warmed up in the microwave.

CORN PUDDING
Jean Johnson
This recipe is a perfect "make-n-take". Kids like it, too!
1/4 cup margarine
4 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup flour, mixed with salt and pepper
1 can whole kernel corn, drained
1 can cream style corn
Melt margarine in baking dish. Use to grease dish.

In another bowl, mix eggs (beaten), sugar, flour, salt, pepper, corn and the remainder of the melted margarine. Mix.
Pour into greased baking dish, and bake 25 minutes at 350.

STRAWBERRY-BANANA SALAD
Dee Decker
2 pts. strawberries (fresh)
3 bananas (cut up)
1 jar Strawberry Glaze
Poppy seed
Cover bananas and strawberries with glaze. Sprinkle poppy seeds over mixture. Serve chilled.

WILDLIFE WORKSHOP - A recent Texas Parks and Wildlife Department workshop covering wildlife management and conservation was completed by Jim Euston, right, of Iowa Park, at Kerrville April 8. This specialized workshop certificate was presented by J.D. Paas, assistant hunter education coordinator, Austin. The wildlife management training will enable each participating instructor to incorporate these techniques into their hunter education classes.

Ma Bell asks help to save cable costs

Southwestern Bell is seeking the assistance of its customers in reducing the number of underground telephone cables damaged by digging and other excavation work. During 1983, thousands of damaged cables were reported in Texas, amounting to $6-million in damage. Dan Adams, Southwestern Bell manager, said the damage is caused by a wide variety of sources, ranging from contractors and excavators, to homeowners setting mailboxes and fence posts. "A cut cable has a devastating effect on our company and our customers alike," Adams explained. "Long distance or local service may be interrupted over a widespread area. Increased labor costs and replacement cable expenses have to be incurred. All these things affect the company and, ultimately, the consumer." Adams said many potential cable cuts were avoided due to conscientious contractors and residence customers who sought telephone company assistance in identifying cable locations before digging. Over the past several years, most telephone cable has been placed underground. The decision to use buried cable is based on its ecological, service and financial benefits, Adams said. Buried cable solves the problem of sight pollution, caused by the appearance of poles and overhead wires. According to Adams, placing cable underground protects it from falling trees, traffic, weather changes, and squirrels. "Although the below ground cable offers these advantages, it remains susceptible to damage by digging and excavation work," Adams said. "That's why we are seeking the assistance of our customers in reducing the number of cuts that take place." Area contractors and local residents can call Enterprise 9800 for assistance in identifying cable locations before digging. Callers can reach this number by asking the operator to connect them to the number. There is no charge for the call. "We welcome calls to the Enterprise 9800 number," Adams said. "If we can avoid just one damaged cable with this procedure, it will result in better service for our customers." Adams also said Southwestern Bell will bill contractors or individuals who damage cable, for the expense of repairs.
