Reagan, Gramm carry local, county boxes

Sixty-five percent of all eligible voters in the two precincts in Iowa Park turned out for Tuesday's general election, and they went the way of the majority of most Texans in supporting Ronald Reagan for second term as president and Phil Gramm as the state's new senator. Precinct 32, at the ASCS building, is the largest box in the county in numbers of eligible voters and votes cast. Of the 2,908 eligible voters, 1,930 cast votes Tuesday. That is 66 percent. Reagan drew 70 percent of their votes in box 32. Sixty-three percent of Precinct 33's 959 eligible voters cast ballots at Faith Baptist Church. Of the 606 ballots, 63 percent supported Reagan.

The president, who won every state in the nation except Minnesota and the District of Columbia, received 68 percent of the 224 votes cast at Precinct 34 (Valley View school campus), and at the Valley Farms Community House, Precinct 60, 314 ballots were cast and Reagan received 63 percent of those.

Precinct 34, 138-72; and Precinct 60, 217-86. Others sweeping local and county voting in contested races were: Mack Wallace over John Thomas Henderson for Railroad Commission; Sam Houston Clinton over Virgil Mulanax for Court of Criminal Appeals; and John Hill over John Bates for the Texas Supreme Court.

Gramm, seeking to succeed Wichita John Tower in the senate, received almost the same percentages at three of the four local polls as did Reagan.

He out-pollied Democrat Lloyd Doggett: 1,206 - 697 in Precinct 32; 125-92 in Precinct 34 and 180-127 in Precinct 60.

However, Precinct 33 was carried by Doggett, by a scant one vote, 300-299.

The Democrats carried all the other races, both in the four local boxes and in the county.

Incumbent U.S. Representative Jack Hightower's lead was slight in the four boxes and in the county, but he reportedly was unseated by Republican Beau Boulter.

He took Precinct 32 by a scant 967-937; Precinct 33, 350-252; Precinct 34, 112-105, and Precinct 60, 177-132. The same slight margin was reflected over the county, 23,948 - 21,068.

Democrat Barry Macha swept the four boxes as well as the county away from Republican challenger Clifford Bridwell, to win the District Attorney's race.

His margins were: Precinct, 32, 1,245-615; Precinct 33, 422-163;

Unopposed local candidates in the election were A.L. Bohannon, incumbent constable, and State Rep. Charles Finnell of Holliday.

While the percentage of voters casting ballots from the two Iowa Park boxes was high, the figure actually is greater. Absentee ballots from voters of the two precincts are not reported by their respective boxes, but in the county's total of 5,430.

Only one other precinct in the county, Precinct 27 at the Burkburnett Community House, came close to the turnout of Precinct 32. There were 1,635 ballots cast in box 27.

Two amendments failed in the four boxes and also over the county.

They were No. 6 (concerning insurance) and No. 8 (perdiem for members of the legislature).

Amendment 6 was vetoed as follows: Precinct 32, 1023-501; Precinct 33, 277-132; Precinct 34, 87-62; Precinct 60, 181-79; and county, 21,198-12,303.

Amendment 8 lost as follows: Precinct 32, 1,067-477; Precinct 33, 290-114; Precinct 34, 102-49; Precinct 60, 194-74; and county, 21,628-12,169.

City, school leaders set meetings next week

City aldermen are expected to approve replatting of half a block for home construction, and the school board is expected to change its method of electing trustees, when the two bodies hold regular meetings next week.

The council is to meet at 7 p.m. Monday in council chambers, while members of the school board are to meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the administration building.

Requested by developer Bill Swan and recommended by the Planning and Zoning Commission, the half block south of Heritage Manor will be considered to replat, allowing 10 lots instead of eight.

Another request by Swan, passed on to the council without recommendation or rejection by the Commission, is to replat lots 16 through 19 in block 157 and the city abandon 20 feet off Emerald.

Bids will be considered on the purchase of a new patrol car for the police department, and also to sell the old hotel property at the corner of Wall and Cash.

Administrator James Barrington said he would request authorization to advertise for the purchase of a new pickup for the water and sewer department.

Barrington said he would discuss the meeting schedule of the council's for the balance of November and in December, which will conflict with holidays.

He said he would propose not meeting the third Monday in November, and move up by one week the two December meetings, which would put them on the third and 17th.

SCHOOL BOARD

Trustees will likely act on a proposal made at their October meeting, to change the procedure of electing members.

Instead of all candidates running at large, with those receiving the greatest number of votes being declared winners, it was proposed that each seat at the council be numbered, allowing candidates to run against a particular incumbent.

As it now stands, one incumbent is actually running against another, with all other candidates being included, using the at-large system.

The 1983-84 school budget audit is reportedly ready for presentation to the board.

Also on Tuesday's agenda is the action on changes in school policies, and a discussion of the future of the junior high football stadium, which has been considered dangerous.

Hawk season finale a game for pride

Tomorrow night's season finale for Iowa Park's Hawks will be a game of pride.

Instead of it being an important contest, one in which they have to win to keep their playoff hopes alive, it now has nothing to do with post season play.

Five weeks ago, the Bridgeport game was figured to be the Hawks' launching pad into the state playoffs. They were undefeated and scarcely pressed by their non-district opponents.

The team then breezed past its first Dist. 5-AAA opponent, Bowie, giving the players, students and fans even more hope of good things to come.

But that hope was dimmed somewhat by a 14-7 upset at the hands of Decatur.

The home seemed more of a reality when the Hawks held state-ranked and district favorite Vernon to a 0-0 tie.

But the bottom fell out last week when Iowa Park fell victim to another upset. This time it was a 19-13 disappointment against Springtown, in a game that was not finally decided until the last seconds.

So the 8 p.m. kickoff tomorrow at Bridgeport will be a contest in which the Mean Green will be called on to show its pride. A game in which there is nothing at stake other than victory itself, and to decide who will finish in fourth place in the final district standings.

And even though Bridgeport's Bulls have only a 1-8 season and 0-4 district standing, they must still be considered dangerous. They've played most of the teams close, despite last week's shellacking by Vernon of 57-6.

The preceding week, the placement of the ball by an official determined the outcome of their game with Bowie.

On that placement, Coach Tom Fambrough explained his team had just made a strong defensive stand, stopping Bowie on fourth down at the one-yard line.

But on the next play, Bull back Chris Martinez was tackled at the goal line. After the ball was placed by one official, he huddled with the other officials, and the outcome was that they determined it was a safety.

And Bowie won the game, 9-7.

Breaks similar to that have been a problem of the Hawks, who are averaging scoring 23.7 points per game while allowing nine opponents an average of only 7.2. Yet their season record is 6-2-1 and they are 1-2-1 in district.

Offense has been no problem for Iowa Park. The Hawks are averaging 317 yards through nine contests.

But they've had a real and serious problem with penalty flags. In fact, they've been penalized 68 times, an average of 7.5 per outing.

In fact, they've been penalized 632 yards, which is 12 more yards than the Mean Green defense has allowed all nine teams on the ground (620).

While a victory tomorrow would give the Hawks a season record of 7-2-1, it would fall half a game short of the 8-2 record achieved by the Hawks in 1982. But it would be a significant improvement over the 1983 record of 4-6.

Police arrest man on burglary charge

A 26-year-old Iowa Park man was arrested by local police on a charge of burglary of a habitation.

Police took Dean Evan Troutman into custody at his apartment at 1000 Mary Drive at 7:17 a.m. Thursday. Accused of burglarizing a nearby apartment, he was taken before Justice of the Peace Virgil Hill, who placed him under $5,000 bond, and then transported to county jail.

But at 7:54 that evening, police were called back to the victim's apartment where Troutman and two other men allegedly had attempted to bribe the victim not to file charges.

The men were told to leave the area, and the victim was escorted by officers to another residence where she spent the night, according to the police records.

Another burglary was reported at 5:20 p.m. Sunday at 610 E. Washington. Maggie Pendergrass told police someone had taken some medication, phenobarbitol, from the house between that date and Oct. 31.

Saturday morning, two juvenile females were taken into custody on a charge of shoplifting at Wal-Mart.

They were released to the custody of their parents.

Michael Edward Elwell, 26, was arrested in the 100 block of S. Victoria at 11:05 p.m. Monday, on warrants issued by the Department of Public Safety.

He was released at 2:13 a.m. Tuesday after paying $65 in fines by money order, made out to the justice of the peace in Archer County. The warrants were for speeding and failure to appear.

Iva Carole Eaton, 37, was arrested at 11:57 p.m. last Thursday on a DWI charge in the 100 block of W. Aldine. After refusing to take a breath test, she spent the night in the local jail and was released at 7:29 a.m. Friday to the county jail.

One act of vandalism from Halloween night was spray painting of a vehicle and its registration sticker at 207 W. Jefferson, according to reports.

Jim Bob Merrick told police at 5:25 p.m. Sunday, a dog bit his five-year-old daughter at 1513 Douglas. The dog was quarantined by its owner.

TRADITIONAL RECOGNITION - The nine senior members of the Hawk Band were honored at halftime Friday night when they were called by name to hear the rest of the band play the school song. The next morning, they led the underclassmen at Vernon to a Division One rating in the regional UIL marching contest after having qualified with the same rating the previous week in the district contest.

KERRI RENEE EDWARDS AND BYRON LEE SCHMIDT

Announce engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Edwards of Iowa Park are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Kerri Renee, to Byron Lee Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin A. Schmidt of Kingsburg, Ca.

Miss Edwards is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and attended Bethany Nazarene College. She is a senior at Midwestern State Univ., majoring in music and voice performance.

Her fiance was graduated from Kingsburg High School and attended Pasadena Nazarene College in Pasadena, Ca. He is an air traffic control RAPCON watch supervisor stationed at Galena Airport in Alaska.

The couple will exchange vows June 29 at Faith Baptist Church.

UMW meeting has highlight

The meditation given by Mrs. Don Owens was the highlight of the Tuesday morning meeting of the United Methodist Women. She used an article "Waiting for God" taken from Michael Daves' book "Come with Faith."

She said "Women wait for God; they wait and carry on meaningless conversations," according to the author. Continuing to quote the author, Mrs. Owens stated that God has been used as a stop-gate for man's ignorance, and, as religious people, we often speak of him when our human perception is at an end. A poignant statement was that God is called on either as a way of solving insoluble problems or as an aid and comfort of life's extreme conditions.

Mrs. Owens closed with "God comes to us in many ways: our neighbor's needs, the hunger and loneliness of men the world over, and the headlines of the daily newspapers which challenge us to take a moral stand. So we must pray for eyes to see and ears to hear his coming. We must want the Lord to come more than anything else in the world."

Mrs. Larry Parks directed the period devoted to business. Mrs. David Springer reported on the work done by United Methodist Women at the Wichita Falls State Hospital and presented an award given to the organization for outstanding service. She also discussed the gifts that are needed for the Christmas party for the patients. Mrs. Gene Owens gave a report on the district UMW meeting held recently in Wichita Falls.

Twenty members attended the meeting.

Simms, Hildebrand vows are exchanged

In a formal ceremony performed Oct. 20 at the First Christian Church, Miss Dieta Lynn Simms, daughter of Malinda Irene Simms of Walters, Okla., became the bride of Marc Theodore Hildebrand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Hildebrand of Iowa Park. Rev. Clyde Markee, former minister, officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The beauty of the altar decorations was accented by simplicity. Featured in the setting were silk arrangements of lilac and lavender flowers in white baskets leading up the steps to the altar. The atmosphere of the nuptial setting was enhanced with soft illumination provided by candles burning in two seven-branch candelabras and the unity candle, each standard decorated with the chosen greenery and flowers.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Michael Sargent, who presented a concert of favorite prelude selections and played the processional and recessional compositions. Prelude selections were "Truly," "Endless Love," "Brian's Song," "Adalio," and "O Promise Me." The wedding party entered to the Prince of Denmark March. During the ceremony, "The Theme to Ice Castles," "Lord's Prayer," and "Longer Than" were sung, the last selection offered during the time the bride and groom were lighting the unity candle.

The bride's brother, Clifford Roy Simms, presented her in marriage.

The bride wore a lilac, off the shoulder gown, with a fitted waist that drew to a full organza skirt with a soft loop. She wore a fingertip veil cascading down from a wreath of leaves and blossoms.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade of lavender daisies, and orchid roses surrounded by baby's breath.

Mrs. Kent Simpson, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor, and Brenda Simms, sister of the bride, and Miss Malinda Kuykendall served as bridesmaid and junior bridesmaid, respectively. The matron of honor and bridesmaids wore identical lilac, off the shoulder gowns. The gowns were fashioned with small puffed sleeves and a gathered bodice. The full skirt was gathered at the bottom with lilac bows. They carried lilac daisy nosegays with cascading lilac and lavender streamers.

The junior bridesmaid wore a full length lilac dress with an accordin pleated skirt. She carried a nosegay identical to the others.

Christi Massingill, niece of the groom, was flower girl.

The groom wore a formal tuxedo with a white jacket, black pants, cummerbund, and bow tie, and a lavender ruffled shirt. Bill Andersen, best man, wore a black tuxedo and a lavender ruffled shirt. Groomsmen and ushers were David Hildebrand, brother of the groom, and Tony Massingill, nephew of the groom. They wore tuxedos identical to the best man.

The mothers of the bride and groom wore corsages of lilac daisies and sweetheart roses with their fashionable gowns. Mrs. Simms was attired in a formal lilac full length dress with a jacket. Mrs. Hildebrand was dressed in a full-length lilac gown with an accordin pleated skirt and a self-belt.

A post-nuptial reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Assisting were Mary Cole and Mrs. Bill Andersen.

The bride's table was draped with a white lace cloth over lilac and gathered at the corners and center with grapeleaf ivy and flowers. The highlight of the table was the three-tiered cake trimmed with flower petals and topped with a miniature bride and groom. The table also held two three-branch candelabras with burning lilac candles and a silver punch bowl.

The refreshment table was draped with white lace. Silver bowls held salads, roast beef sandwich rounds, and butterfly cupcakes.

The groom's table was decorated with white lace over dark purple with deep purple swags of ribbon caught up in bows. Carrying out the color scheme was a large purple candle in a hurricane lamp rimmed with grapes. The cake was chocolate decorated with grapes and two interlocking hearts with "Marc and Dieta" inscribed inside.

The registry table, attended by Pat Roberts, sister of the groom, held the couple's wedding invitation in a lilac shadowbox, the bride's book, and a lilac plume pen.

The bride is a graduate of Colbert High School in Colbert, Okla. She is employed as assistant manager of Gordon's Jewelry in Sherman.

The groom was graduated from Iowa Park High School where he was a member of the National Honor Society, band and the thespians. He attended Midwestern State Univ., and is the manager of Gordon's Jewelry in Ardmore, Okla.

The bride's going away attire was a lilac dress with a blouson top and self-belt.

After a trip to Dallas, the couple will reside in Sherman.

Special guests include Mrs. L.S. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Bell, Mrs. Arthur Haynes, Beth Haynes, Faye Carrington, Terrie Menti, Mrs. Lee Talley, Roy Thompson, Roy Simms, Gayle Simms, Mrs. David Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Simpson, and Brenda Simms.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy L. McDonald of New Braunfels announce the birth of a son, Gatlyn Louis, born at Methodist Hospital in San Antonio Oct. 31, weighing seven pounds.

The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. G.C. "Bud" McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Bill L. Guthrie, all of Iowa Park, and Rev. and Mrs. Claude C. McDonald of Santa Fe, N.M. The great-grandmother is Mrs. Emma Phillips of Iowa Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Gholson announce the birth of their second child, a boy, Heath Wayne, born Oct. 30 at Wichita General Hospital, and weighing seven pounds, 12 ounces. The newborn infant has a sister, Jamie, 4.

Grandparents are Mrs. Hoyt Watson and the late Hoyt Watson of Iowa Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gholson of Kamay. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Watson of Iowa Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Neel of Odell.

23 Study Club members tour museum at Vernon

The 23 Study Club members made a field trip to Vernon Thursday to tour the Heritage Museum and to visit the site of the new museum that is being constructed on the southwest corner of the Vernon Regional Junior College campus.

Jeanne Ross, president of the Sorosis Club, who served as their guide and speaker.

In giving a brief history of the museum, Miss Ross explained how the Red River Valley Museum was established in 1965 in the Wilbarger Auditorium for the purpose of preserving the heritage of an area rich in Texas and American history.

She said that it was a repository for the J. Henry Ray Indian Artifacts Collection.

When club members toured the room that holds the collection, Miss Ross said the Smithsonian Institute had expressed an interest in the collection but the Ray family wanted it to remain in Wilbarger County where most of the items had been found.

Continuing with the history, she said that the museum was moved to the former Vernon Clinic Hospital building during the nation's Bicentennial celebration in 1976. As the years passed, many additional exhibits were acquired and the facilities became too small for future growth.

In Nov. 1981, the Vernon Regional Junior College board of trustees gave approval for the museum to relocate on its campus. Plans are to occupy the new building before the end of the Sesquicentennial year.

In addition to the Ray Collection, other rooms in the museum of special interest to the club members included the one that holds the Electra Waggoner Biggs sculpture models, and the one that holds the C.F. Doan collection of personal items, clothing, quilts, fans, etc. from early-day Vernon, which was first called Eagle Flat because of the great number of eagles that were found there.

A case in the museum holds apothecary jars of herbs and drugs mentioned in the Bible which came from the early-day drug stores. The Santa Rosa Palomino Club room filled with trophies, photographs and keepsakes from the beginning more than 30 years ago was of interest to club members, as was the equipment from both the Vernon Record and Vernon Times. Mrs. Keith Aulds, president of the 23 Study Club, stated that she was secretary to R.H. Nichols, publisher of the Record News, at one time.

The tour guide called attention to the old photos that had been enlarged, framed and hung in every room and new ones that had been made of the buildings or their sites that hung by them, showing contrast that the years have made.

The next meeting will be a joint meeting of the three federated clubs in Iowa Park, Nov. 12, when Mrs. Joel M. Ellett, president of Santa Rosa District, will be guest speaker.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

Thank goodness, the general election is over!

Now, maybe, we can settle down to some semblance of everyday living again.

I actually believe the only thing that wasn't disrupted by the campaign were the soap operas.

We had a great turnout of voters here and in the area. I must admit my delight over the success of Ronald Reagan and Phil Gramm.

But I had absolutely no idea so many would vote straight Republican and allow that guy from Amarillo that nobody here knows, Beau Boulter, to coat-tail Reagan strong enough to defeat my friend Jack Hightower for the congress seat.

But I can't say enough about the turnout of voters in our two local boxes. They cared enough to make the effort to express their opinions, and they did it.

Some of the voters, in their lower to mid 30s cast ballots for the first time.

Many of those who voted revealed they hadn't voted in a number of years by the fact they didn't know how to operate the computer card punching "machines" the county purchased several years ago.

A large number of those casting ballots cared only to vote in the candidate races, and didn't even mark the constitution amendments. And nearly the same number voted their preference in the presidential and senatorial races, leaving the balance of their ballots untouched.

And one election judge expressed surprise, especially here in Iowa Park, how many punched one hole, that of straight Republican.

But it's over, thank goodness.

Now maybe coffee talk will turn to other, equally important issues, like the weather, the pecan crop and how the Hawks will do next football season.

October sales tax declines

October sales tax receipts apparently did not reflect the additional revenue anticipated when numerous items and services were included in the list to be taxed by the legislature.

Iowa Park's rebate check from the state comptroller's office was $11,816.68, down from the $12,909.33 received in November last year.

Sales tax for Iowa Park stands at 2.29-percent above the same period last year. The city has received $112,698.05, approximately $2,500 above the amount received last year, which was $110,173.41.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Leader Readers,

When soccer came to Iowa Park a few years ago, every child in town was urged to pay the fee, buy a uniform, and join a team. They would learn a sport, sportsmanship, and above all, have fun. Since then, the urge to "win, win, win!" has overcome some of our coaches. They sometimes pick the number of "good" players needed to fill the field and the rest become bench warmers. My son, Bryan, is on the Chiefs team, coached by Danny Skinner. Last Sunday, we packed up the family and went to Memorial Stadium where we watched him warm the bench for 58 minutes out of a 60 minute game. Is it fair for "certain team members" to play for 60 minutes at every game while others play for only 2 or 3? If the most important aspect of the "game" is to win, why don't they just have tryouts, like they do for cheerleaders, and that way the coaches could "pick" the players they wanted and the others would at least know before the season started that they probably wouldn't be allowed to play, unless someone on "the team" wasn't there. Isn't it time we got back to sports such as these as a form of recreation, entertainment, and fun, instead of allowing these coaches to play only their best players while others spend most of each game watching from the sidelines? I hope the next time any of you parents go to a soccer game, you'll take notice of how long your child is on the field and how long everyone else's child is on the field. People like Danny Skinner shouldn't be allowed to let this happen just so he can say he made a championship team. The glory should go to the players - all of them - not just a select few or to the coach who "picked" them. Better late than never, Susie Mc Kerley

Holliday received a rebate check for October from sales tax receipts totalling $10,150, slightly over the amount received in a comparable period last year, but less than the amount received the past four months, according to figures released by the state comptroller's office.

The city has taken in around $94,539 in sales tax rebates for 1984, which is over 25-percent more than a comparable period last year, when the city received $75,414.

Also, for the first time in several months, Archer City took in more than Holliday, this one for $12,069, around $2,000 more than Holliday.

Homemakers have sale

BAD BOUNCE of the volleyball in addition to inspired play by their opponents put the Holliday Lady Eagles against the wall during the bi-district tourney in Springtown last Thursday night. Coppell forced the Lady Eagles out of the tournament by winning two of three games played in Thursday's match. Trailing by one game which was lost 15-6, Holliday rebounded to even the match by winning the second game 15-10. A see-saw battle in the final game was finally won 15-13 by Coppell, ending a second consecutive outstanding volleyball season for the Lady Eagles.

Former school leaders to highlight open house

Holliday Schools will observe Public School Week Nov. 12-16 with an Open House Tuesday featuring the traditional Junior Class Supper and a program recognizing school board members, administrators and teachers involved in the Holliday I.S.D. the past 50 years.

School superintendent Dan Owen said Monday that administrators, teachers and school board trustees from the past 50 years have been invited to the open house, where they will be recognized at an assembly in the Erma Barton Auditorium at 7 p.m. "All these people have had something to do with the past and present success of this school system," Owen said.

The Junior Class Supper will be held prior to the assembly, from 5:30 until 7, at the high school cafetorium. The menu includes turkey and dressing, creamed potatoes, green beans, gravy, cranberry sauce, rolls, tea and coffee. Dessert will be an additional charge, with adults paying $3.50 and children Grade Five and below $2 for the privilege of eating the fine meal, in addition to aiding the class and its projects.

Eagles blank Petrolia, 20-0

Holliday's Eagles went one step further Friday night in their quest for a respectable season, blanking Petrolia 20-0 and evening the Big Red's District 9-AA record at 3-3.

The game, totally dominated by the Eagles with the exception of a few bright moments from the Pirate's Paul Lopez, also pushed Holliday's record to 5-4 for the season, while Petrolia falls to 4-5 for the year, 2-4 in District 9-AA.

The Eagle offense grounded out 381 yards rushing in addition to 75 yards in the air enroute to 17 first downs in the contest, while the Stonewall Defense had another big night of its own, holding the Pirates to a meager two first downs the entire night.

Eagle defensive back Les Dolberry had a big night of his own, intercepting a Lopez aerial and countering on offense with a 20-yard touchdown pass completion from quarterback Tim O'Brien.

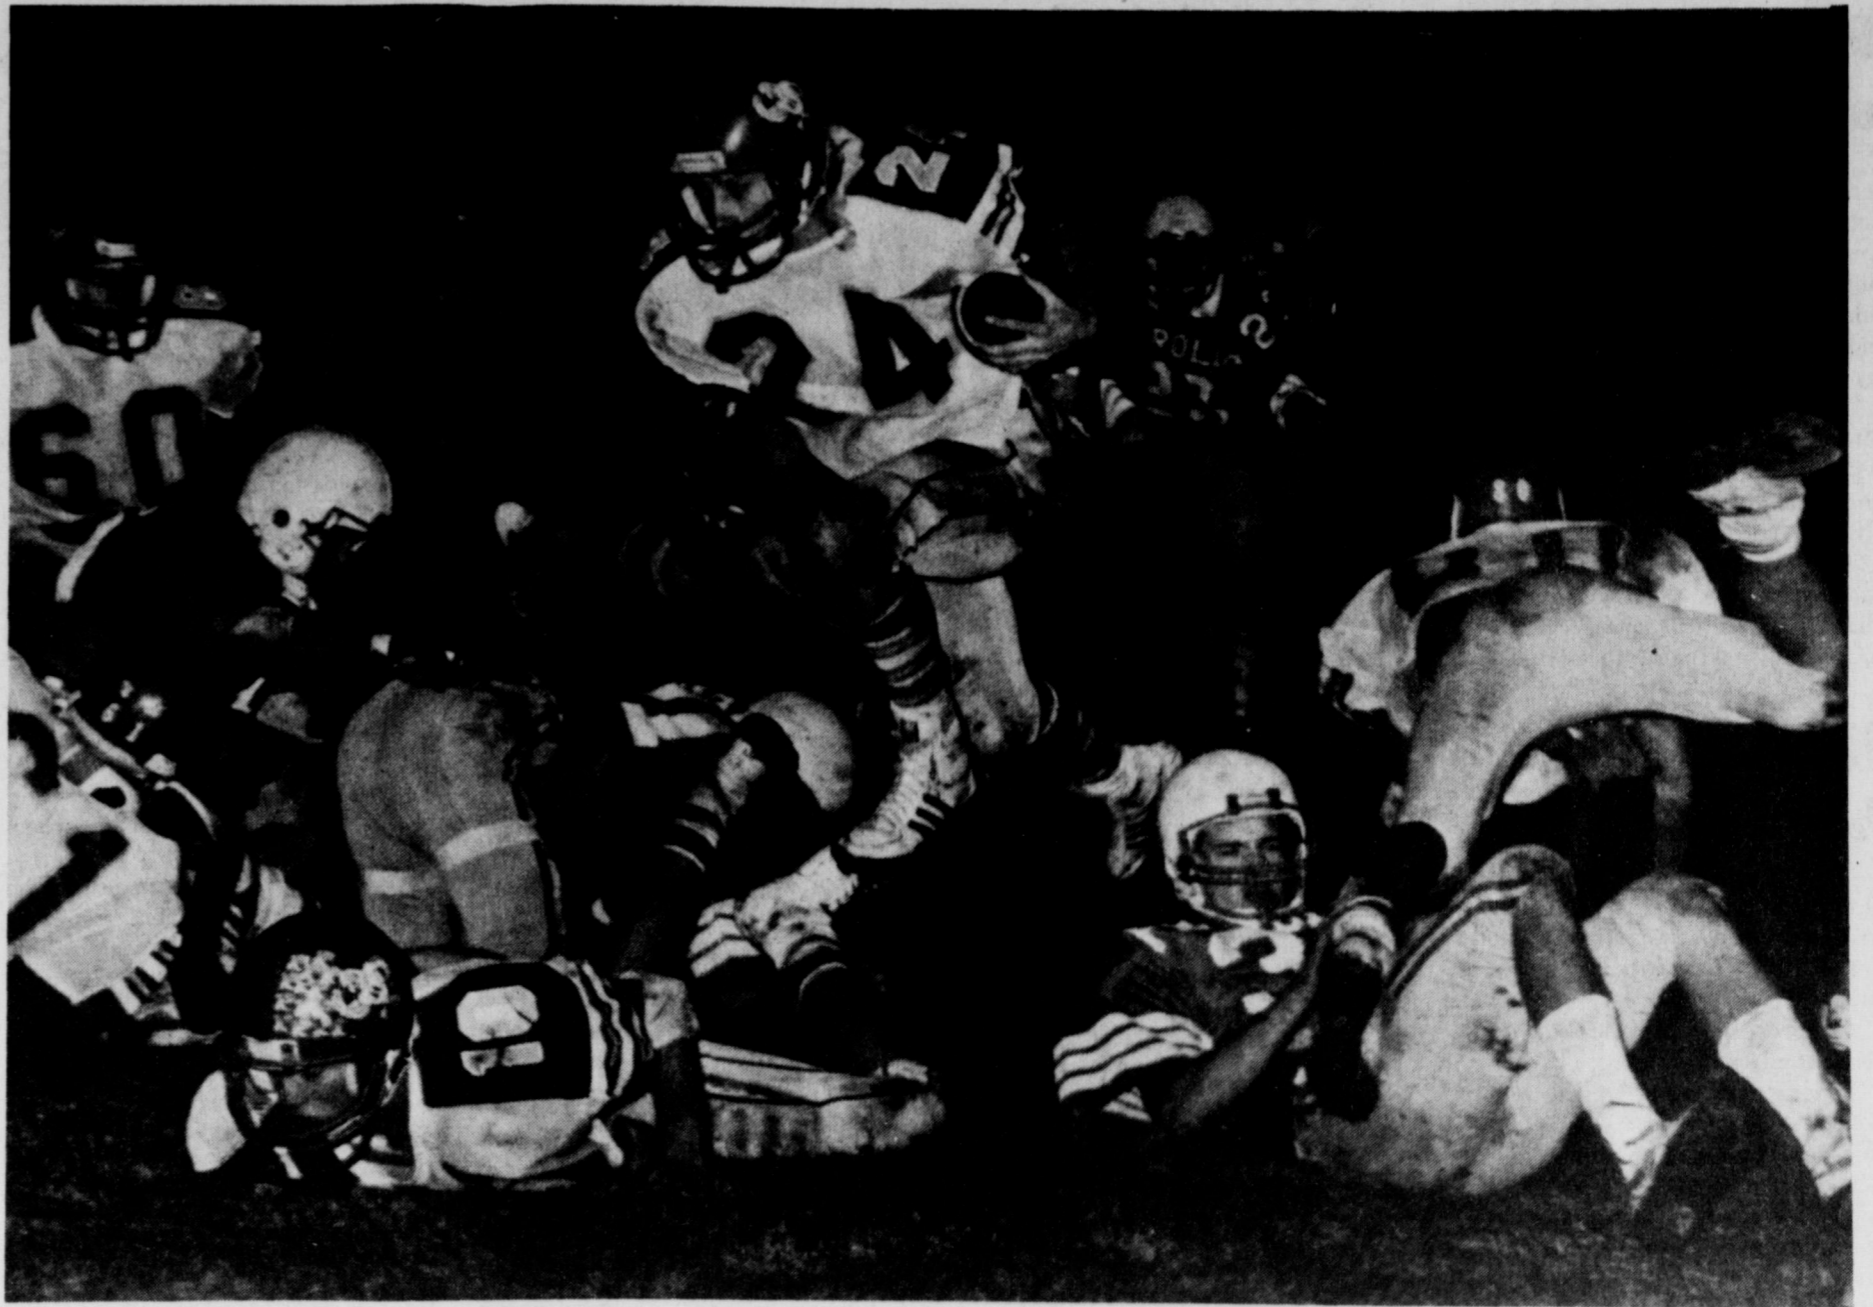

Lopez, one of the best talents to come out of Petrolia in some time, but with little support from his inexperienced teammates, found very few openings in the Eagle defense all night long, but did break for two runs which totalled 92 of the Pirates' 140 yards rushing total.

On the other side, it was Eagle back Larry Krob who had another big performance, leading all rushers with 99 yards on 22 carries, and one touchdown. His four-yard blast into the end zone became Holliday's only first half score, with Kelly Carver kicking his first of two successful point after tries to give the Big Red a 7-0 lead.

Holliday could have scored once if not twice more in the first two periods, but timely penalties, in addition to a fumble lost inside Petrolia's 10-yard line stalled potential scoring drives for the Eagles.

The red and white offense came up with two scoring drives in the second half, one a 67-yard drive capped by Danny Hinsley's three-yard plunge in the third quarter. The snap from center on the extra point attempt was mishandled, however, Holliday had a comfortable 13-0 lead.

In the final period, Dolberry snatched his touchdown pass of 20 yards to wrap up Holliday's scoring for the game, and Carver made his extra point kick to freeze the scoreboard at 20-0.

DANNY HINSLEY LEAPS OVER TIM O'BRIEN ENROUTE TO TOUCHDOWN

Big Red aims to be 'giant killer'

There is expected to be a mass convergence on Cub Stadium in Olney tomorrow night at 8 as the Holliday Eagles seek to prove a big point against the Tom Enloe-led Cubs.

Last week, the Cubs surprised the Henrietta Bearcats, and everyone else for that matter, with a 33-0 blanking which secured a playoff spot for Olney along with district leader Electra.

Therefore, with Holliday sitting in fourth place currently, things can change with a Big Red win, meaning the Eagles can tie for third with Henrietta with a big win, and prove to the rest of the district that they can play like playoff contenders after all.

Holliday's 20-0 drubbing over Petrolia set up tomorrow's perennial rivalry among the two adversaries, which in the past has featured hard hitting and big playmaking.

The Stonewall Defense for Holliday, playing the last three games in excellent fashion, will have all eyes riveted on Enloe.
