Builders Announce New Homes Here

To Be Finished Soon The D & R Construction company announced this week that work on the new homes they are building in Iowa Park was progressing nicely. They expect to have several of the structures ready for occupancy in the near future.

Persons interested in the homes are invited to drop in and inspect them. Since they will be in different stages of completion, prospective purchasers can now see just how the buildings are being constructed.

These homes can be purchased by veterans on a low down-payment plan and by non veterans on FHA terms that are extremely liberal

Grade School Fete Was Brilliant Display Of Students' Talent

The annual spring festival was presented by Grade School students Tuesday evening in the Iowa Park High School auditorium. "Music around the World" provided the theme for the fete, which was directed by Mrs. Lester Hawkins with assistance from other teachers in the grade school. Children who participated were dressed in native costumes depicting the countries they represented. June James was crowned queen of the fete. Her escort was Donald Cope and the royal attendants were pupils of the 7th and 8th grades. Mrs O. R. Kelly served as chair-

Everything's O.K.! It's a BOY!

What price good news?

So often it's the price of a telephone call . . . and that means just a few pennies to spread the glad tidings.

Worth more? Of course. Many telephone calls are practically priceless in their value to you.

And yet the average cost, including tax, of each local telephone call-the big, important calls and the usual everyday variety-is about 21/2¢.

Can you think of a better bargain?
