SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT

Cowley to resign

Harold Cowley, superintendent of Iowa Park schools, will submit his resignation Tuesday night, to accept a similar position this summer with the Talco-Bogata schools.

mar 7

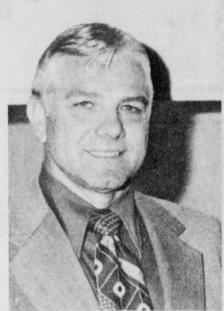

Cowley confirmed yesterday that he has written each member of the Iowa Park school board, informing them of his intentions. The resignation would be effective at the end of his present contract, which extends until June 30.

"I'm going home," explained Cowley, who was raised on a farm that is partially located in the Talco-Bogata district.

Mrs. Cowley, who teaches business courses at the high school, does not plan to resign at this time, but rather remain here.

Besides owning a farm nearby, Cowley said his wife's parents live 14 miles away, in Sulphur Springs, while his father is in a nursing home at Mt. Pleasant. Additionally, their son is a student at East Texas State Univ., at Commerce.

Cowley was graduated from Winfield High School in 1950, at the age of 15. He attended Paris Junior College before transferring to East Texas, where he graduated in 1954. After working a year as a chemist for Lone Star Steel, he was hired as vocational agriculture teacher at Harrold where he remained until moving here at mid-term of 1964 as vocational agriculture teacher.

He became principal of Kidwell Elementary in 1967, remaining there until 1970. That year he received his administrator's certificate from ETSU and moved to the administration building as vocational director and business manager.

Cowley was hired to succeed Faris Nowell as superintendent in February of 1980.

The Talco-Bogata school, located about midway between Mt. Pleasant and Paris on Highway 271, has an enrollment of about 800 pupils.

Though smaller than Iowa Park, Cowley will receive a salary about equal to what he receives here, as well as use of a three-bedroom brick home with all utilities paid, according to that school's board chairman.

Cowley had received a one-year extension to his present contract at January's meeting of the Iowa Park board of trustees.

MARK COPELAND AND JERRY ALLEN PRESSURE SEMINOLE PLAYER ... at regional tournament Friday in Lubbock.

Seminole drops Hawks at regional tournament

The season came to an abrupt halt Friday evening for the Hawks, when they lost 75-53 in the first round of the regional tournament at Lubbock to the Seminole Indians.

But while the final game was lopsided, there are some points to be considered that can smooth whatever hurt the players may have felt.

First and foremost, this year's team did not have a starter returning from the 1983-84 season. Yet the team won the district, bi-district and area titles, and advance to the regionals for the first time since 1956.

Secondly, the loss to Seminole, 1979 state champions, was dimmed when the Indians Saturday night defeated Dimmitt 66-51 in the finals. Dimmitt has made it to the state tournament the past three years. winning the big crown both two and three years ago and losing to the winner last year.

Seminole had held a 16-4 lead early in the first period.

Jerry Allen got the tip at the start of the second half and drove for a basket that tied the score. "I thought we might just win it when he did that," Reusch said. "We have had a lot of good third quarters."

But the Indians had made some adjustments defensively, mostly to keep the ball out of Allen's hands. It worked, because Allen had scored 18 points in the first half, but was held to the layup and a free shot the entire second half.

Allen, however, was named to the ll-tournament team for his effort.

two minutes to draw Iowa Park within nine points, 54-45.

But that was as close as they ever got.

When the Indians reached their season scoring average of 72 points, with 2:14 remaining in the game, they led 72-48.

Bates finished with 10 points, Sefcik had seven, Mark Copeland and Stephen Biddy six each, Steve Johnson two and Van Hedrick had one.

In the championship game Saturday, Dimmitt was father behind at the half than were the Hawks. Seminole led 20-7 after the first quarter, 31-23 at the half and 45-39 going into the final period. Dimmitt had advanced to the finals by edging Gatesville 51-50.

City, school meetings to be lengthy next week

Both the city and school board meetings next week are expected to be lengthy sessions, according to their advance agendas.

The city's agenda was expected to be lengthy, because the second of two regularly-scheduled meetings in February was cancelled. The city meeting will begin at 7 p.m. Monday in council chambers.

Trustees are gearing for several hours together Tuesday. Highlighting the 7:30 p.m. session is hiring of classroom teachers for the 1985-86 year, the career ladder, considering a change in kindergarten scheduling and high school curriculum.

Among the four ordinances to be considered by city aldermen are two recommended by the Planning and Zoning Commission.

One would change the minimum size lots and frontage in R-1 zones from 5,000 to 6,000 square feet and from 50-foot frontage to 60 feet.

The other would change the standards for new street construction in the city, requiring concrete instead of asphalt.

The other two ordinances to be considered would change the personnel leave benefits and also specify locations for new traffic signs.

Three resolutions will be considered by aldermen. One concerns wages for contract work on city hall, another would accept work on the 700 block of West Louisa street, and the third would request the second year grant from state to fund the police department's investigator.

Two bids will be considered at the meeting. One would be for phase two of city hall remodeling, while the other is for lease of property adjoining the sewer treatment plant. Mark Bottles has requested a personal appearance concerning an all-weather surface on three blocks of Eas Lafayette.

Appointments are to be made to two volunteer groups that benefit the city. Two terms expire on the Planning and Zoning Commission, while one term expires for a member of the Parks Board.

Under the administrator's report are: a report of a trip to Austin and Fredericksburg; a proposal for a fee to generate Christmas decorations; improvements on Louisa between Pacific and Second; and discussing a request for improved water service to Southgate Addition.

SCHOOL MEETING

Personnel will get the attention of trustees Tuesday.

Besides several resignations to be submitted, March is the month when all teacher contracts for the coming year are considered. All administration and key personnel contracts have already been extended.

Personnel requirements for 1985-86 will also be discussed, based on course offerings next year at the high school. A study of pre-enrollment has been made to determine teachers needed.

A group of parents seeking to change the kindergarten scheduling from all day half a year to half a day all year has asked time to speak to trustees.

Board members will discuss how much they want to pay career ladder employees. This will be the second year this state-required program has been undertaken locally.

A discussion will also be held on a proposal to share a nurse locally with another school district in the area. Iowa Park does not hire a school nurse.

Athletic director David Baugh is to report on studies he has been making the past three months on improvements at Hawk Stadium.

"I feel good for the kids," Coach Earnie Reusch said this week. "They earned everything they got. I just wish we were still playing."

He complimented the players for not quitting in the second half against Seminole, when the momentum swung to the winners and the Hawks could do hardly anything right. "They never quit," he declared.

Iowa Park finished with a 19-10 record, Seminole is now 30-2.

There was a large crowd of Iowa Park supporters in Texas Tech's coliseum Thursday evening to see the game. And the locals were noisy, despite the fact they had to split up because of the crowds that had arrived earlier and stayed for the game.

It was anybody's game through the first half. Seminole held a 22-16 lead at the end of the first quarter, but the Hawks pulled to within two, 36-34, by Iowa Park scored only seven points the entire third period. The Hawks were super cold. Joey Bates had a pair of field goals midway through the period to account for the other four points.

Down 54-41 as the fourth quarter started, Ray Sefcik canned a pair of unanswered field goals in less than Class AA teams shared the coliseum Friday and Saturday. Early arrivals saw Morton beat Sanford-Fritch 74-68 and Seagraves beat Paducah 63-58. Morton went on to win the title, 73-57.

More candidates file before deadline time

Shortly before the signup ended yesterday for candidates in the April 6 city and school elections, there was competition in both races.

Andy Arrington filed for city alderman, bringing the total to four the candidates seeking the three open positions. He opposed newcomer Diane Robnett and incumbents George Hammonds and Johnny Coker.

Also filing yesterday, James

Richter will oppose Ray Hicks as a candidate for place one on the school board. Bob Goodknight is running against incumbent Martha Dudley for place three.

Trustee and board chairman Roy Boutwell, holding place two, was unopposed.

Today is the last day persons may register to vote in the April 6 elections.

Absentee voting will open Mar. 18.

Dervl Roy and Stephen Biddy; back row, Brian Todd. Kristi Wynn, K.D. Cockburn and Randy Boutwell. Tracey Hall was not present.

Dressed in her clown suit, she said "clowning is anything that makes people laugh even though it has evolved and changed as society has changed."

She gave interesting historical information about the clown, recalling that the first mention of one was in the days of Pharaoh, the ancient Egyptian king. Blossom said that the word "clown" originated in the 16th century and continued by describing the different types of clowns and their roles from the days of the kings and queens.

To revive interest in clowning in the United States, a clown school was established in Venice, Fla. in 1967 and now has a long waiting list, and a professor at one of the universities is teaching a clown class.

Cook of the Week

To be a good cook with a wealth of recipes that satisfy the appetites of family and friends, even the most "finicky" eaters requires ingenuity. Our cook for this week, Tommie (Mrs. Roy) Smith has that ingenuity, but it isn't limited to just cooking.

Some of her hobbies listed attest to her many talents. These include quilting, oil and water painting, calligraphy and most any kind of needlecraft. The Trinity Methodist Church at Duncanville benefitted from her ability to create the beautiful decorations at their 1984 Christmas banquet. She made 33 tall fabric dolls (eight hours required for each doll) for the table decorations. The church members were so fascinated with them that 31 were bought by families the evening of the banquet to enhance interest in the Christmas decor of their homes.

Tommie was graduated from Greenwood High School, Decatur Baptist College and North Texas State College at Denton. She taught first and second grades in Montague County two years before becoming a member of the Iowa Park school faculty where she taught first grade 23 years. Her name will go down in the annals of the local school system as one of the best and most dedicated teachers.

An active member of the First Baptist Church, she is currently serving as coordinator for children from the first grade through the sixth grade in Sunday school. She is president of the Night Baptist Women, a member of the constitution and by laws committee, and is responsible for keeping the bulletin boards up to date with attractive pictures, posters and lettering.

One of Mrs. Smith's most endearing qualities is her sensitivity to the needs of people and her readiness to respond. During the past few years, she has given much time to a stroke victim by giving him voice therapy and taking him to Wichita Falls for physical and voice therapy. She visits the sick at home and in the hospital. She stays with families during surgery and spends the night at the hospital if she is needed.

Mrs. Roy Smith

Mrs. Smith's late husband was a coach and math teacher in the local school system. They had four daughters and nine grandchildren to enrich their lives. The daughters are Nancy (Mrs. Randell) Pierce, Wichita, Kansas, Linda (Mrs. Ron) Hambrick, Fort Worth, Paula, (Mrs. Jack) Holmes, Plano, and Mickie (Mrs. Larry) George, Duncanville.

Randy Alsup, trooper for License and Weight Service, gave an informative talk for the Bradford P-TA Tuesday night. Mrs. Steve Gray conducted the meeting of the executive board preceding the regular meeting. Announcement was made that the goal of a project the P-TA has worked on two years, that of purchasing a new piano for the music room, will be met. The group will donate $1,200 toward the purchase and the school will pay the balance. The old piano, purchased in the 1940s, was formerly used at Valley View.

I've got to admit, I'm having real trouble trying to accept the demands of those farmers who converged on Washington D.C.

There are a lot of things that must be considered, when a group of farmers is asking to be bailed out of financial trouble by the government.

Truth is, I've only been around a few farmers who believed the government owed them anything. And I was working with farmers nine solid years back in the 1960s, when I produced a weekly newspaper just for farmers.

I've not heard much from farmers in this area on the subject, but those with whom I've discussed the situation believe the northern farms making the most noise have just mismanaged their operations.

One farmer saw the same thing I did, when a television report was filmed at an auction that was disrupted by union workers. They saw equipment lined up that they felt was too much for the acreage the farmer operated. Rig, expensive equipment.

I attended a number of auctions on the South Plains when I had my farm paper. Without exception, the list of items to be sold included a big, fine fishing boat.

There's nothing wrong with a man

Letter to the Editor

Dear Bob,

I am a potential victum. This is in reference to the Lady who recieved a ticket, for crossing in front of a train. I hope I'm not the only person that values my life, more than the few minutes an irresponsible act like this might save. This woman is wrong in believing she only endangers her own life, in this careless and thoughtless act. What about the trainmen and the enginers on the trains? What about the people that might innocently be in her path, also damage done to property other than hers. Not to mention the horrible nightmares, that follow people dieing so needlessly. Its impossible for something weighing over a million tons, even traveling 30 mph to stop like a car can.

If this woman has lived on Wall for 20 yrs. as she said, then she knows there is a crossing there that she travels frequently. Even if there isn't a sign or cross arms, she should use the same caution she would at a crossing with ample warning. It would be like saying after being burnt, that the flame had no sign saying it was hot.

I would like to refresh this womans memory about a school teacher that died in a train wreck not too long ago. She had crossed in front of a train successfully on several occasions. One day she didn't make it, it wasn't just a loss to her family, and students but to the community.

Is it any wonder the youth in our community have such little respect for the laws set down to protect us, or for the officals that have the never ending task of enforcing them. The same disrespect was demonstrated in this woman's letter. I thought we as parents were suppose to practice as well as instill in our children, respect for laws and others property. I thought it was our duty to teach them to respect their authority figures, such as Law Officers and Teacers.

This woman said our tax money was being wasted on our law officer's giving her a ticket such as this. I say if it saved even one life it was money well spent.

Potential Victum

New FmHA rule offers credit help to farmers

dependent on federal farm programs. This is a shame, but a fact of life. I guess they never thought the government would some day have to cut down on what they pay farmers as price supports or for production they never grew.

But when the government owes $12-trillion, which figures out to be a debt of every man, woman and child in the country of $152,967, how can anyone expect the government to put out more money.

There is no question the farmer has a problem with the price he receives for his labor. He has no control over it, in many cases. He must be able to diversify, produce what is drawing the best prices, and often times market his own product when possible.

It wasn't any surprise to see this state's commissioner of agriculture on the television screen, filmed in Washington, taking the president and administration to task for starving the farmers.

He can afford to be liberal. He's a Democrat, he gets all that free exposure on prime time news by making a talk, and he wants to continue wearing that cowboy hat that he never wore until he was elected to his position.

Republican congressman Beau Boulter said he didn't agree with the president's policy, because it will bring higher food prices to the consumers.

Evidently the Amarillo politician figures it's better to keep on with unsuccessful government farm programs and paying interest on that $12-trillion, than it is to have food prices raised.

By far, the majority of farmers I know would like the federal government completely out of farming. Most of my acquaintances ment, too.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Members of State Board of Education,

I am writing this letter in an carnest plea for you to please open your closed minds and ears to the young people of our state.

You are all very well educated and brilliant people, and it may be difficult for you to understand, we are not all geniuses. Many of our young people have tried, and tried hard to make their grades, but are having great difficulties doing so.

Many of these children may have purchased their animals for the Jr. Livestock show months in advance. before you ever brought these laws into existance. We are asking for these students to have another chance for showing their animals.

Do you honestly feel it is justified for you to decide the fate of our young people, just because you happened to have been appointed to this position? I think you have taken this job way too far out of your boundries. You are putting more pressures on students than they are able to handle. They are not yet adults, but you are expecting them to handle many pressures even adults aren't able to cope with.

What are you trying to achieve, more drop outs from school, so that the only ones that are left are the extra smart ones, and so you can brag about how smart graduates from Texas are, or to increase the rate of drug users or suicide in students, or maybe you are just wanting to attack the Voc. Agriculture programs where the enrollment is down low enough to stop the programs. Maybe you are trying to achieve all these. Believe me, the way you have messed up the education system you're going to achieve most of these.

Our teachers taking a competency test is not the answer, either. True there are many teachers that should not be teaching, but the test is not going to take care of that. It's hard for an educated genius to understand the needs and problems of an ordinary student or a student with difficulties in learning. You are just pushing these students out the door. I know several students that have dropped out of school, thanks to you and have talked to quite a few that are thinking remember farming without govern- of doing the same thing. These kids need that education, but you people have made it too difficult for them to obtain it. I hope you are all unable to sleep nights, the way many of us parents have been this year.

When you meet Sat. March 9, please try to open your closed minds. These children need help, and support, not more laws and rules, not some dictators telling them how it will be done or else. Give these young people another chance.

Sincerely, Maxine Young Ann Fulfer

New Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) regulations allow commercial banks and other lenders to write down interest rates for farm borrowers who could not otherwise get a production loan for Spring planting according to Texas FmHA State Director J. Lynn Futch.

The regulations, published in the Federal Register Feb. 15, are in addition to earlier rule changes which helped lenders make loans to some farm borrowers who were having trouble making payments on their loans.

The earlier changes, announced last September, offered an FmHA guarantee on a portion of the loan if the lender agreed to write off at least ten percent of the principal. The FmHA guarantee is an agreement that the Federal government will make up part of the loss to the lender if the borrower defaults.

Banks and other lenders told FmHA that they could help more farm borrowers if they could write down interest rates instead of, or in combination with, writing off part of the principal. In response to their requests, FmHA made the rule change allowing the interest write down in exchange in lieu of a write off. The borrowers loan payments must be the same under this option.

Futch said the new rules will enable many lenders to help some farmers, whose loans are classified as substandard. "Lenders, who feel this Debt Adjustment Program can help, will review loans they now have with farmers who are having trouble repaying. They will determine whether or not the farmer could make payments if the loan is reduced by at least ten percent. If so, the lender can come to FmHA to get our guarantees on part of the remaining debt.

"With the assurance that a large portion of the debt is guaranteed, the bank or other lender is in a better position to extend credit to farmers for production expenses this Spring," Futch said.

"Even this additional assistance will not reach every farmer who is having economic problems. The farmer must be able to show that debt payments can be made within the expected cash flow. To do this, the farmer's expected income from all sources must exceed expenses by ten percent. Expenses include debt payments, tax payments, and family living expenses as well as production.

"With the cooperation of banks, other lenders, and FmHA, many good farmers who, for reasons beyond their control, are suffering financial stress will be able to continue their operations." Futch said.

Students meet McGruff

Wichita County Sheriff's Deputy Artie Woods greeted his first group of grade school children at Kidwell Elementary Tuesday morning, holding the increasingly familiar McGruff (take a bite out of crime) up for the kindergarten and early childhood students to see as they walked in the room.

"That dog's not real," a bright-eyed blonde-haired girl exclaimed as she walked past. "That's right," Woods said, a knowing smile crossing his face. "This is McGruff, and he is just like the Muppets." The girl, understanding, replied, "You're right."

Even without McGruff, Woods wouldn't trade his meetings with area children, for the world "Basically, I am trying to stress crime prevention," said Woods. "But I am also trying to ease preconceived fears children often have of the law enforcement officials, to show them that we are really good guys after all."

The visit to Kidwell Elementary was Woods' second stop in a two-day agenda, spending Monday at Bradford Elementary with the older grade schoolers.

Woods is employed fulltime to take McGruff to area schools, and the two are working for the Wichita County Crime Prevention Program. With each class, Woods give a preliminary talk, then brings his friend into the act using a cassette recorder. "I've got seven cassettes for each grade kindergarten through sixth," Woods mentioned.

He added that each cassette is targeted to each age group, and the older the students are, the more topics to discuss. The 12-year law enforcement veteran added that in one month, he has seen close to 3,700 students and given in excess of 50 presentations.

His presentation to the kindergarten and early childhood students centered on fire safety, including what to do in case of a fire at home, and the "drop and roll" method of extinguishing flames if ones clothes catch fire. Students were also informed how to show respect for authority.

Other topics discussed by Woods and McGruff include rollerskate safety, bicycle safety, child abuse, stranger danger, crime prevention, traffic safety, drug abuse, gangs, self discipline, arson, shoplifting, hitchhiking, and several others.

Tori Jean, a six pound, six ounce daughter, was born to Mr. and Mrs. David Fowler February 12. She has two brothers, Trinity, four years old and Titian, one year old.

Christians show concern

The Night BW of First Baptist Church held a finger foods supper at the church Monday to precede the Week of Prayer Program for Home Missions coordinated by Mrs. Eleanor Bell Mrs. E.T. Patterson introduced the program with special remembrance for the missionaries on the birthday calendar for the day.

The theme of the program was "Who Cares." The leader assigned topics from each program for the week showing that Christians are caring for the deaf, hungry, poor, homeless, Hispanic, strangers and communicating across cultures in Houston, Denver, Chicago, Atlanta and Pittsburg. Topics were discussed by Mmes. Bell, Ora Mae Cummings. Terrel Silvers, Sam Hill and Riley Thompson.

Others participating in the program were Mrs. S.B. Reaves, who read the scriptural background, Mrs. W.F. Booher and Mrs. Roy Smith, who read appropriate songs.

Mrs. Smith directed the business following the program. She read an invitation from the BSU at Midwestern State Univ. to members to be guests at a luncheon March 15. The initial work of two continuing projects, making hot food carriers for newcomers in town, and piecing quilts for several special people was begun.

Fifteen members were present.

Nine city candidates; seven on school ballot

Holliday voters will be faced with respective slate of candidates for the April 6 city and school elections, as seven candidates had filed in the school race and nine in the city race just hours prior to the 5 p.m. deadline yesterday.

In the school's at-large election, incumbents Larry Lilley, Larry Finnell and Tommy Mankins had filed for a new term, while Don McClendon of Lakeside City, Carl Nichols and Durhl Caussey of Holliday, and David Parkey of Black Flat also filed. The seven will meet tomorrow to draw for places on the ballot, according to superintendent Dan Owen. CITY RACE

Alderman John Goforth announced his intentions of running for mayor in the city elections, and will be opposed by Don H. Duke, owner of Holliday Home Furnishings.

Goforth, a veteran councilman, will vacate Place 5 on the council, and three have signed up to run for his former position. They are H. Doris Owens, Melvin Bills, and former alderman Leon Addison.

For Councilman, Place 1, incumbent Jimmy Willis has filed for a new term, and will be challenged by Roy Pursur.

Councilman, Place 3 will see incumbent Jim Virdell going against Glenn R. Wood.

Absentee voting for both elections will be held from Mar. 18 to April 2, with absentee ballots in the school race cast at the Holliday I.S.D. tax office in the elementary building, and city ballots at city hall.

env council meeting. Lewallen Co., formerly Lewallen Welding, was the lowest of three bidders and the only local firm to bid on the bulk of the $160,000 Texas

Community Affairs Grant for water improvements project. Owner of the firm, John Lewallen of Holliday, was present at the meeting. Upon hearing his company had been awarded the contract. Lewallen told the council, "I appreciate it, and we will do the best that we can."

project in the city, in action taken during Monday night's bi-monthly

Lewallen's bid of $118,743 was by far the lowest of the three bids, with Costello Construction of Wichita Falls placing a bid of $124,812, and Bowles Construction, also of the neighboring city, put in a bid of $153,079.

The bids were opened at the offices of Biggs and Matthews Consulting Engineers last Thursday morning. Kerry Maroney, city engineer, told the council "They were excellent bids." Maroney personally recommended Lewallen's bid, and added that over $17,000 in additional water improvement funds would be left over after the contracted work is done.

Maroney told the council there were three things to do at that point. Award the bid, discuss how to spend the additional funds, and designate either at that meeting or soon before the contracted work is completed where the money will go.

"Also, people are going to be inconvenienced on a project the size of this one," Maroney stated, "It will be tough not to.'

OTHER BUSINESS

Before the council could turn its attention to the grant, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Conway addressed the council concerning the opening of Cherry St. from Myrtle St. to Magnolia St., and the possibility of having the street paved.

The Conways held the floor for close to one and one-half hours before the council agreed to grant the variance to the street ordinance (Ordinance 83-3) to open Cherry St., having Maroney locate the dedicated right-of-way from Myrtle St. to Magnolia St., and for the city to pay one-third of the cost of having the street paved, and, following a public hearing, assess property owners affected two-thirds of the cost, and empowering the city to assess the actual cost.

Mr. Joe Hrncirik approached the council with petition asking the city

NUISANCE ON EASY ST.

Abatement of a public nuisance located at 710 Easy St. in Holliday was brought to the council's attention. Council decided to advertise for bids to cleanup two one-half lots, the south half of Lots 10 and 11, 21-A Wood Addition and owned by Edward Davis.

A partially-burned house is located on the property, and reportedly has been in that condition for several years, with no effort to demolish the frame.

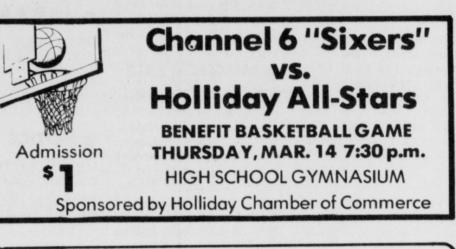

Finally, council adopted a Fair Housing Ordinance in conjunction with the water improvement grant, and tabled action on naming a representative to the North Texas Housing Finance Corporation Board of Directors.

Organization to boost Vo-Ag

Parents of some 90 vocational agriculture students at Holliday High School are scheduled to meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the high school vo-ag building to organize an FFA Booster Club, according to coordinator Dan Shores.

Shores said the effort to form a booster club has become necessary following cuts in funding to all vocational programs across the state. The cuts are a result of the legislature's new school reform and highway bill.

accident happens to one eye, does the remaining eye get stronger? A: If the remaining eye is a normal eye it will not get "stronger" per se, but a person with one eye generally becomes more visually alert. This state of visual readiness is the reason one-eyed drivers have such remarkably low accident records.

Four Eagles all-district

Four Holliday Eagle basketball players earned mention in the District 9-AA All-District team this season, which was dominated by regional finalist Olney with three players selected to the first team. For the Cubs, Michael Paul, J.R. Dean and Tom Enloe were chosen for the first team, while Jon Moore and Greg Mills made the second team.

Holliday landed two spots on the first team, with senior Kurt Lilley and junior Les Dolberry making the list. On the second team, Eagles chosen were senior Gradlin Franks and junior Pat Parker.

Q: I find it very difficult to put eye drops in my eyes. Most of the drops run down my cheek. What can I do to get more drops into my eyes? A: Many folks find it almost impossible to relax their lids when putting drops in their eyes. A simple solution is to lie on your back and close your eyes. Then place one or two drops in the hollow where the corner of your eve meets the bridge of your nose. Then blink and the drops will automatically flow into your eyes.

The electric company can help me take care of myself. (If I ever need any help.)

Let's face it, at my age things can sneak up on you, and you may need some help. The electric com-pany understands that.

That's why they'll arrange it so your bill payment can wait until your social security check arrives. And their Special Friend Program makes sure someone doesn't overlook monthly bills. There's even a program to help provide essential energy services in a real emergency.

Right now, I don't need all this help to take care of myself. But I get a kick out of knowing it's there.

We've got lots of ways to help.
