Annual Clean-Up Week underway in community

The annual Clean-Up, Fix-Up Week is underway in Iowa Park.

All this week, residents are permitted to dump trash at the city's sanitary landfill free of charge.

Anyone with shrub and tree trimmings wishing to have them hauled away can stack them in the alley, but must notify city hall or the Chamber of Commerce of the location, and city crews will dispose of them.

Department supervisor Mike Price said not all the trimmings will be picked up by Saturday by city crews, because of a backlog, but workers will do the job if they are notified.

SATURDAY BIG DAY

Saturday, the final day of the annual week-long event, is the day volunteers do their bit for the community by picking up trash and debris along major roadsides and in parks.

Organizations, especially youths, are relied on each year for this service.

Volunteer groups are asked to be at the Chamber of Commerce office by 9 a.m., where they will be met by Harrel Sullivan and Bud Burch who will issue plastic bags and designate areas to be worked.

The Chamber is providing soft drinks for all workers Saturday. Clean-Up, Fix-Up Week is co-sponsored annually by the Chamber and City of Iowa Park.

Council to consider three new ordinances

The city council will consider ordinances Monday which would concern penalties for delinquent tax collections, a flat fee for metal storage building permits and abandoning a portion of West Louisa.

The council is to meet at 7 p.m. in council chambers.

One ordinance, if passed, would authorize the tax collector to add legal costs and penalties while collecting delinquent taxes.

Another would set a flat fee for permits to erect small storage sheds in home yards, instead of using the formula for home construction.

The third ordinance is being proposed by the Christ the King Catholic Church, to close half a block of West Louisa, which has never been opened. The church owns the property on both sides of the street.

Under the administrator's report on the agenda, James Barrington will discuss the following topics:

- * method of paying for a new fire truck which is about to be delivered;
- * advertising for the services of a new city auditor;
- * action on a proposal to pave East Garden Drive;
- * request council interpretation of lot sizes in R-1 zone;
- * act on a request for water and sewer service to a tract not in the city limits;
- * discuss a delegation to attend Sen. Ray Farabee Day in Austin;

* and hold an executive session concerning personnel, at which time applications for public works director will be considered.

IOWA PARK HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM WAS USED TUESDAY AFTERNOON FOR JERRY MAYS' FUNERAL SERVICE

School, community in mourning over death of student-athlete

LEADER

25 Cents

Vol. 16, No. 31 IOWA PARK, WICHITA COUNTY, TEXAS 76367 THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1985

Jerry Mays was only some 300 meters from earning his first medal this track season, when his race and life ended.

The 16-year-old Iowa Park sophomore died, apparently instantly, as he began the eighth and final lap of the 3200 meter run Saturday morning at Holliday.

And his death shocked the school campus as well as the entire community of Iowa Park.

Services were appropriately held Tuesday afternoon in the auditorium of Iowa Park High School, with Rev. Larry Washburn, pastor of the Pacific Avenue Baptist Church, officiating.

Seated as a group at the services were his team mates, each wearing his football game jersey in Jerry's honor. The auditorium was almost filled to capacity and the stage was adorned with dozens of floral arrangements.

His track coach, Barry Lucy, gave his eulogy. Burial was in Highland Cemetery under arrangements of Tanner-Aulds Funeral Home.

His pallbearers were classmates Jeff Tucker, Craig Conners, Sam Bandee, Monty Castro, Mike Kent and Derrick Thyer.

Gerald "Jerry" Mays was born July 26, 1968, in Panama City, Fla. He was a member of the junior varsity football team, junior varsity track team and the Future Farmers of America.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Mays of Iowa Park; two brothers, Ronald Mays of Iowa Park and Edgar Vaughn of Xenia, Ohio; two sisters, Cynthia Young of Wichita Falls and Karen Grooms of Dayton, Ohio; and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adams of Fort Worth, Edna Dawson of Fairborn, Ohio, and Dallas Jenkins of Hampton, Va.

Competing in the junior varsity division of Holliday's meet, Mays was in third place and was on the first curve of the last lap when observers said he slowed, stumbled and fell to the running surface. It was about 11:30 a.m.

Holliday coaches Matt Robinson, Jake Cottrell and Don Lucy were the first to the athlete's side. Cottrell and a coach from Childress began administering cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

"I could tell that something was very wrong just by looking at him," said Cottrell. "I couldn't get a pulse or heart beat from him, although the CPR seemed to revive him at times before the ambulance arrived."

Holliday physician Dr. Ed Thornton was summoned from his home and accompanied the youth to Bethania Hospital in Wichita Falls.

Iowa Park's Coach Lucy said he was at the high jump pit when the incident occurred. His first impression was that Mays had suffered cramps, but when it was evident that was not the case, rushed to the scene.

None of Iowa Park's athletes was aware of Mays' condition until after lunch, when Athletic Director David Baugh went to Holliday from the hospital. He gathered the group together and informed them of the sad news, shortly after the meet finals had begun.

According to Dr. Thornton, after a preliminary autopsy was completed, Mays suffered from a rare heart condition that was not discovered last summer when he was administered a required physical examination by a Sheppard AFB physician.

The disease, known as idiopathic hypertrophic subaortic stenosis, enlarges the heart. "His left ventricle was 25 to 30 percent larger than normal. Only one in 200 deaths are from sudden cardiac collapse," Dr. Thornton stated.

"You never think something like this is going to happen. It was quite a shock. It was a good meet up to that point, and you could tell there was a definite difference in the attitudes of the athletes after it happened," said Robinson.

Holliday's Coach Lucy, father of Iowa Park Coach Lucy, said, "You wonder if there isn't something you could have done to prevent this from happening. But there is really not a lot you can do. It's terrible for something like this to happen."

Barry Lucy said Mays had been working hard all year, and was fast improving and gaining confidence to the point he was going to move him to the varsity for the district meet this weekend.

He had run the mile and two-mile event in five meets this season, but had not finished among the top three for a medal. His training had included running some 20 miles each week since January. The Monday prior to the meet he had run an eight-mile course, Lucy said.

In all the training and competition this spring, Mays had never complained about having any problems, according to Lucy.

Last fall, Mays played linebacker, fullback and some offensive end on the junior varsity football team.

He was a hard-working, devoted young athlete who wanted to succeed, improve and contribute to his team's success.

TRIAL PARKING MARKERS - City workman Danny Haynes installed new reflective markers on Cash Street Tuesday, which possibly will be used throughout the business section eventually as parking lane markers. The yellow tile discs may replace painted stripes, if they prove successful, according to the city council.

News in Brief

10 applications for superintendent

Though today was the deadline to receive applications for school superintendent, 10 applications had been received yesterday for consideration.

Copies of the applications will be distributed to board members tomorrow, and a meeting is expected next week for interviews.

The successor to Supt. Harold Cowley, who has resigned to accept a similar position elsewhere, is expected to be here in June to become acquainted with the local policies and assist in formulating next year's budget.

Kindergarten screening, registration set

The annual screening and registration program for Iowa Park kindergarten age children is scheduled for May 6 and 7 at Kidwell Elementary School, according to Ron Wood, principal.

All children who will be five years of age on or before Sept. 1, 1985 should be screened. Parents who have not received an appointment time through the mail are asked to contact the school at 592-4322.

A full year of special education for the three and four-year-old children with a physical or learning deficiency is available. This is determined by sight, hearing, speech, mental maturity or a physician's diagnosis.

Parade participants are sought

Plans are underway for the April 27 opening day parade for Iowa Park's Little League Baseball, and league officials are looking for groups and individuals wishing to participate.

The traditional opening day festivities have enjoyed a good response in the past from local merchants and organizations, and officials want to extend a welcome to other groups, clubs, organizations or individuals wanting to continue participation, or who want to start showing their support this year.

Those interested can call Sherry Kennedy at 592-5134.

Goff, York nuptial vows are solemnized

Miss Lisa Renee Goff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Goff of Burkburnett, and Chris York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred York of Iowa Park, were married Saturday afternoon at the Evangel Temple in Wichita Falls. Following a wedding trip, they will live in Wichita Falls.

Rev. Jack Dial officiated the double-ring ceremony at an altar decorated with fresh flower arrangements of white carnations dipped in rose pink and burgundy and roses accented with rose pink. The church pews were marked with bows in the chosen shades.

The wedding music was presented by Mrs. Nelda McDuffy, organist, and Diane Howard of Houston, vocalist. Their selections included "Love Me Like" and "Love Me Tender."

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father who presented her in marriage. She wore a formal gown of white silk organza featuring a Queen Anne neckline, bodice of Schiffler lace and seed pearls with a fitted waist and sheer bishop sleeves. The skirt front had a motif of matching lace and seed pearls and the back swept into a three-tiered pleated cathedral train edged in matching lace.

Her bridal hat was enhanced with Schiffler motifs accented with seed pearls, a sheer bouffant bow and lace fingertip veil. She carried a teardrop bouquet of burgundy and rose pink roses, white gardenias and lily-of-the-valley.

Sheila Goff of Burkburnett was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Shelley Gast of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Kayla Nault and Renee York, both of Iowa Park. They wore gowns of rose pink taffeta with balloon sleeves, fitted waists and A-line skirts. Each carried a bouquet of white carnations dipped in rose pink and burgundy, and daisies.

Brandon Mills of Iowa Park served as best man. Groomsmen were Harold McCann and Eric Russell of Wichita Falls and Tommy Green of Tulsa, Okla. Ushers and candlelighters were Roger York, brother of the groom, and Harold McCann.

Charity Smirl, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She carried a white basket with white carnations dipped in rose pink and burgundy, the basket was decorated with bows and streamers in the same colors.

Randy York, nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer.

The bride's parents hosted the reception at the church following the ceremony. Decorations in the room included arrangements of white carnations dipped in rose pink and burgundy combined with roses.

The refreshment tables were covered with white lace. The bride's table was set off with a four-tiered cake trimmed with rose pink and burgundy roses. Staircases descended from either side of the top tier to the heart-shaped cakes at the base of the large cake to enhance interest. The staircases held four ceramic groomsmen and four ceramic bridesmaids.

The groom's table held a double-heart chocolate cake, punch and coffee.

Reception assistants were Angie Smirl, Lana Meek, cousins of the bride, Cheryl York and Coleen Cadwallader. Jennifer Roper registered the guests and distributed the rice bags.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the Wichita Falls Activity Center.

The bride was graduated from Burkburnett High School and is presently employed by Union Square Credit Union. The groom was graduated from Iowa Park High School and is employed by K&C Oil Company.

Locals observe national week

Iowa Park Girl Scouts recently participated in the national Girl Scout Week through various activities.

The Brownies finalized their plans for Investiture, and helped their teachers after school. Junior Troop 29 and Cadette Troop 34 joined together for a special Girl Scout birthday party, with each girl and their leaders making special birthday hats for the party.

The troops are now preparing for their spring activities which range from a Teddy Bear Picnic for the Brownies, to a Pet Show for the Junior Troops, and a very special Cadette-only campout.

NEW CANCER RESEARCH FOR VITAMINS C AND E

Vitamins C and E may be valuable in blocking the formation of cancer-causing nitrosamines in the body.

A report issued by Dr. Steven R. Tannenbaum, professor of toxicology and food chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, said that blocking nitrosamine formation requires an agent that will react with the nitrosating agent more rapidly than with the target nitrogen compound.

In addition, the reaction product(s) of the blocking agent must be biologically innocuous.

Dr. Tannenbaum said that vitamin C and vitamin E are the only two substances that meet both requirements while remaining biologically acceptable in large doses.

According to the report, not only are the two vitamins suitable for blocking formation of nitrosamines, but are also complementary in their action.

Because vitamin C is highly water-soluble and vitamin E is fat-soluble, they make an ideal combination in complex systems such as the body or certain food products.

Dr. Tannenbaum's report said that it has been clearly established that nitrosamines are highly carcinogenic in many species of animals, which leaves little doubt they would also be active in man.

Nitrosamines are formed from nitrite reacting with an otherwise harmless nitrogen compound known as an amine. Nitrites are formed in humans with the conversion of nitrate-containing food by natural microbes. The nitrite conversion process is continued in the stomach by bacteria. In the normal stomach, nitrite is destroyed by food components and gastric juice, but in the process, some may be converted to nitrosamines.

Nitrate is rapidly absorbed into the blood and distributed throughout the body fluids which distribute it into all the body's tissues and compartments.

According to Tannenbaum, one of the highest risk groups in nitrosamine formation are cigarette smokers.

Smokers are exposed to 17 micrograms of nitrosamines daily. Cigarette smoking and synthesis within the body far exceed nontobacco environmental sources, including cured meats, a known source of nitrates.

Tannenbaum reports that persons with severe gastritis are at greatest risk from endogenous or internal formation of nitrosamines.

While it is still premature to reach any conclusions about the connection of vitamin C and E and the blocking of nitrosamine formation, Tannenbaum reports that in April 1984, the F.D.A. affirmed that alpha-tocopherol [vitamin E] is generally recognized as safe when added to bacon to aid in blocking nitrosamine formation that occurs as a result of the high temperatures encountered during cooking.

Volunteer medical service to Haiti is program topic

Mrs. James Palmer, wife of Dr. James Palmer, minister of the Floral Heights United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls, presented a program of slides and narration on volunteer eye service in Haiti Tuesday morning for the United Methodist Women.

Mrs. Palmer is a registered nurse and head of the emergency division at Wichita General Hospital. She is part of a team of doctors and nurses from the United States who have chosen Haiti for their volunteer eye service twice each year. She will leave within about two weeks on another special mission to the republic of the West Indies.

She showed slides that showed the existing conditions of the poverty-stricken people in Haiti where starvation is a way of life, very few jobs available and little sanitation.

Mrs. Palmer said that the Haiti eye service mission of mercy is not a Methodist project, rather it is inter-denominational. She showed slides of the type of work done by the doctors and nurses in the poorly-equipped hospitals compared to those in the U.S. For any type of surgery, the fee is $1 which is paid by members of the team for the most part, she said.

The UMW voted to give a substantial monetary contribution for the continuance of the worthy program.

LOOK WHO'S NEW

A daughter, Bryanna Doyle, was born April 10 to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Marklinger of Wichita Falls. She weighed six pounds and 12 ounces. Mrs. Marklinger is the former K.K. Connor of Iowa Park.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Connor of Iowa Park and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Marklinger of Canada.

Home mission book reviewed

Mrs. S.B. Reaves continued the review of "Light Upon The Land," a home mission book, for a meeting of the Night BW of First Baptist Church in a meeting held at the church Monday and hosted by Mrs. W.F. Booher. Fifteen members and a guest, Mrs. Jessie Stone from Garland, were present.

The study dealt with the work of several home missionaries in Montana and Utah, with particular emphasis on Sue Brunke at Big Sky ski resort and West Yellowstone in Montana and Medford Hutson in Richfield, Utah. At the time the book was written, Miss Brunke had entered the seminary to further her education to be more effective in resort missions, and he was involved in establishing more Southern Baptist churches in various points of Utah.

Mrs. E.T. Patterson was in charge of the prayer period for missionaries on the birthday calendar for the day and Mrs. Roy Smith was in charge of a brief business meeting.

Four members of the Iowa Park Garden Club, Mmes. Vernon Gilbert, Kathleen Hatten, Bob Illingworth and Jimmy Gilmore, and a guest, Mrs. Billy Gilmore, visited the Fort Worth Botanic Garden Friday.

The Botanic Garden was constructed between 1933-35 and was built by 750 relief laborers and it is one of the most outstanding horticulture gardens in the nation. The 114.6 acre garden has approximately 3,500 rose bushes, 2,000 different plants and more than 150 varieties of trees.

The group walked the Fragrance Garden for the blind, the 7.4 acre Japanese Garden and the display greenhouse.

After viewing the gardens, they toured the Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. headquarters which is located on 75 acres of the Botanic Garden grounds. En route home, they took the scenic drive through Jacksboro and thrilled to the beautiful Texas wild flowers which spread their color along the roads and fields.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

It was a shock to return home Saturday evening from East Texas, and learn of the loss of young Jerry Mays.

He and I had shared numerous joking comments during the past year. Though not a close friend, he was a friend.

I had watched Jerry in football and during his training for track. To be frank, I feel cheated that I will not be able to see him reach his potential, because I had high hopes for that young athlete.

He was a hard worker. And he had a contagious smile.

He'll be deeply missed.

Had it not been for my obligation to attend the annual convention of the North and East Texas Press Association last weekend at Marshall, I would have been at Holliday for the track meet.

I had returned Saturday full of pride, which made the news of Jerry's loss even more emotional.

The pride came from the fact that members of the NETPA had seen fit to make me recipient of the organization's coveted Sam Holloway Award.

The award is given annually to a publisher in recognition for his contribution to the journalism profession. It was named for a publisher from Deport, who served as the NETPA president back in 1927, and was begun in 1958.

To have one's name listed with the outstanding recipients of the past is an honor and one I shall always cherish. I wanted to say that to the membership after receiving the plaque, but I am too emotional, and failed.

It could well be there are no other publishers in the organization, who have not yet been named recipients, who held their first newspaper job more than 42 years ago.

But I honestly feel that had I been named sometime in the next 20 years, I would still have been surprised.

It is always nice and a humbling experience to be recognized by one's peers.

NEW CHAMBER SECRETARY DEE BLACKWELL ... looks over Gay Bradford's shoulder.

Chamber hires secretary

At their regular monthly meeting Monday, directors of the Chamber of Commerce were introduced to their new secretary, Mrs. Darryl Blackwell.

Mrs. Blackwell, whose first name is Dee, is replacing Gay Bradford, who has held that position approximately 18 months and has accepted a position with the postal service in Wichita Falls.

A native of Clyde, Mrs. Blackwell met her Iowa Park native husband while the two were attending Tarleton Univ. at Stephenville, where she received her Bachelor's Degree in physical education.

Her last employment was 10 years ago, when she worked at Settle Drug. She has been a housewife since, raising her two children, Dell, nine, and Darla, six, at their rural home southwest of the city.

During their business session, directors discussed the possibility of welcome signs at the outskirts of the city. Robert Palmer volunteered to get cost estimates for similar signs erected recently at Electra.

Dr. James Edwards was named representative of the Chamber to a committee which will supervise purchasing and installation of Christmas decorations to be financed by voluntary contributions of residents on their city water bills.

Changes in the Chamber's by-laws, proposed for revision, were distributed to board members. Dr. Erwin Soell, president, said voting on the changes would probably be done at the annual membership meeting in November.

Cook of the Week

Food has played, and continues to play, a major role in the history of mankind. In fact, one writer in discussing its importance said "without food there would be no history of mankind." He also wrote that it had helped to shape the development of society, widen the horizons of commerce, inspire wars, and play a large role in the creation of empires and discovery of new worlds. It has also had a big part in religion, science and history.

Pauline (Mrs. Travis) Smith, a retired teacher in the Wichita Falls school system, knows full well from study and research how food has influenced the history of our nation and other countries. She and her late husband travelled extensively over the United States and since his death, she has had the opportunity to travel and learn about many things, including foods, in Egypt, the Holy Land, Great Britain, Central Europe, China, Canada, and Greece.

Mrs. Smith was reared in Throckmorton and graduated from high school there. She received a B.A. degree from McMurray College at Abilene, and a master's degree in library science from Texas Woman's Univ.

During World War II, she enlisted in the U.S. Navy and served as a personnel officer at Norman, Okla. Naval Air Base for 3 1/2 years. The man she later married was also in the Navy at that time. Following their marriage, they lived in Wichita Valley Farms for 11 years and later moved into Wichita Falls where he worked at the post office and she served as librarian and taught social studies at Wichita Falls High School.

Mrs. Smith is a member of the Iowa Park First United Methodist Church and UMW where she is presently serving as chairman of publication sources. She is also an assistant teacher of the Christian Workers Class. In Wichita Falls, she is a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Retired Teachers and Retired Federal Employees. She is also a member of the 23 Study Club in Iowa Park.

Her hobbies include travelling to broaden her education as well as for pleasure, bicycle riding and outdoor sports.

Iowa Park School Scene

...All information prepared by Iowa Park School Counselors.

Plans are now being made, by an audiovisual committee formed of representatives from each school campus, to broaden the scope of audiovisual materials available in Iowa Park classrooms. In addition to continued membership in Region IX Education Service Center, local library media centers will begin enlarging their audiovisual collections. Because of rapid technological progress in the field of videotape recorders, prices of video recorders and videotapes have been steadily decreasing. Iowa Park schools are preparing to take advantage of these new changes. The high school library now has three VHS video recorders and one U-Matic video recorder available. The junior high library, Kidwell Elementary and Bradford Elementary each have one VHS video recorder with plans to add additional video recorders during the coming school year. Future goals also include the addition of videotape cameras.

Curriculum plans include utilizing videotapes, with local school libraries purchasing taped programs for their media centers. In addition, the high school will join KERA-TV 13 in Dallas for the 1985-86 school year. KERA is the instructional television station which provides instructional television for this area. KERA will work closely with the high school librarian, informing her of upcoming programs and will provide teacher guides and auxiliary materials for use in the classroom in conjunction with their programs. The librarian will be the coordinator between KERA and the teachers in providing tapes of programs that will fit into the curriculum areas.

Audiovisual media has proven to be a useful teaching tool. It can be used to communicate information effectively, to reinforce concepts, or to introduce material and create excitement in the learner. No one method of teaching is effective at all times, therefore, it is important for the teacher to have a variety of methods so that they might choose the one most effective for a particular lesson. The expansion of local audiovisual libraries should be a helpful step in providing the support needed.

Iowa Park tracksters 'win meet for Jerry'

The tragic death of Iowa Park distance runner Gerald "Jerry" Mays Saturday overshadowed what track coach Matt Robinson referred to as "... an otherwise excellent track meet" during the annual Eagle Relays in Holliday.

The meet started off Saturday morning with the field events, and running preliminaries, under clear skies and mild temperatures. At 11:30 Mays collapsed on the final lap of the two-mile (3200-meter) run. The remaining events were delayed as coaches attempted to revive Mays on the field before the arrival of the ambulance. "You could tell there was a definite difference in the attitudes of the athletes and the crowd after it happened," Robinson commented.

May's teammates from Iowa Park went on to capture the team trophy, totalling 93 points compared to 72 points from runner-up Graham, in a field of 15 teams.

Placing behind Iowa Park and Graham in the varsity division, in order as follows, were: Olney 64, Quannah 60, Chillicothe 48, Electra 41, Seymour 35½, Bridgeport 31½, Springtown 29, Archer City 24, Bowie 14, Childress 13, and Holliday, two.

Childress captured the team trophy in the junior varsity division with 202 points, dominating the 12-team field with host Holliday placing second with 80. Other teams placing were: Olney 66½, Seymour 43, Electra 35, Bridgeport 32½, Springtown 25, Iowa Park 18, Chillicothe 17, and Archer City four.

Hawks seek revenge Tuesday with Vernon

The Hawks can put themselves in the driver's seat for the Dist. 5-AAA baseball crown Tuesday when they host Vernon.

After having started off the second half of the district schedule with big wins over Springtown and Bridgeport, Iowa Park will have a chance to revenge that 12-13 heartbreaker suffered earlier at Vernon.

A win Tuesday would give the Hawks a 2-0 record for the second half and a chance to knock off the Lions for the title in a playoff.

Vernon went 3-0 in the first half, with yet a rained-out game to be played if it is necessary. Iowa Park was 1-2 in the first half, also having a playoff game to be played with Springtown.

Saturday's 9-0 shutout of Springtown was a second-half game, as was Tuesday's 18-2 revenge match with Bridgeport. The Bulls had edged the Hawks in the first round.

So with the two latest victories, Iowa Park now stands at 7-4 for the season, with Bowie yet to be played after Vernon.

Sophomore fastballer Robert Adams went all the way Saturday, giving up nine hits but receiving great support defensively from his team mates.

Offensively, Ray Sefcik had two hits in three official at-bats. Adams aided his own cause by going two for four, and David Taylor, Rocky Martin and Eric Whitman were one for three.

Bridgeport started off like a house afire here Monday, scoring two runs by the second and third players in the batting order of the first inning.

But from that point on, senior pitcher Van Hedrick took control, with the support of his defensive players, and had a field day.

The Hawks could do little wrong offensively, scoring three runs in the first and second innings, seven in the third and five in the fourth. The game ended after the top of the fifth inning on the 10-run rule.

Hedrick and Taylor were two for three at the plate, Sefcik was three for four, Shawn Price was two for four and Adams got hits on both his official at-bats.

Going into the Springtown game, Price was leading Hawk hitters with a .600 average, Hedrick was .454, Taylor and Jeff Huff were .333 and Sefcik .300.

District track meet Saturday

The District 5-AAA track and field championships will be held Saturday at Bridgeport.

Competing in the meet will be varsity and junior varsity teams of both girls' and boys' teams.

Field events will begin at 9 a.m., running preliminaries at 9:30, awarding of field event winners at 2 p.m., followed at 2:15 by the finals in all running events.

No preliminaries will be held in the relays or distance races. The top seven finishers in the preliminaries will advance to the afternoon finals.

This is a new format for track meets this year, having the meets for both girls' and boys' teams the same day. The format will be carried through the regional and state meets.

VAN HEDRICK STARTS HAWK PARADE TO THE PLATE ... as Iowa Park defeats Bridgeport 18-2.

Clerk robbed at gunpoint

Allsup's Convenience Store in Holliday was robbed in the early morning hours Thursday as two men, one carrying a shotgun, took a small amount of cash and merchandise before fleeing. The men, described by clerk Sandra Snyder as two white males wearing army-green fatigues and masks, approached her at the counter shortly before 2 a.m., first demanding cash, then ordered her to lie on the floor. Snyder also said that only one man spoke during the episode, which lasted a few short minutes. The two exited the store after taking an assortment of merchandise. The cashier called Holliday policeman Jules Colburt, then store manager Joyce Craig, also of Holliday.

Minutes later deputies from the Archer County Sheriff's office, and Department of Public Safety arrived at the scene. It was determined that the suspects parked behind the store, and tracks in grass and mud from the car showed that they turned north on

FM 368 toward Iowa Park, said Craig. "It (the robbery) scared her to death," the manager remarked. "She was pretty upset over it." Craig led a contingent of concerned local residents in requesting more police protection during Monday night's city council meeting. Council members agreed, deciding to advertise for a second police officer to help Colburt in his duties, giving Holliday two local enforcement officers for the first time in recent history. "I never thought this would happen in Holliday," Craig said of the robbery. "And, I certainly hope it doesn't happen again."

Three to state UIL meet

Three Holliday High School students advance to the state U.I.L. Literary meet after placing in the regional meet in Stephenville last week. Cheryl McMasters placed first in informative speaking, Debra Battles third in prose reading, and Stephanie Fleming third in typing, earning them the right to compete in the state contest, to be held in Austin.

Three other H.H.S. students competed at regionals. Laurie Mankins placed fifth in calculator application, Darren Carlton reached the finals in informative speaking, and Angela Jones placed sixth in spelling. Sponsors attending the meet in Stephenville included Steve Ransom, Mary Ann White, Peggy Wallace, and Dee Cottrell.

Tax check tops county

Despite receiving the largest sales tax rebate check in Archer County in April, Holliday's share reflected the first decline in several months for the amount received in a comparable period in 1984. The drop, amounting to just over three-percent, is noted as the most recent check of $4,928 is compared to the 1984 check for $6,215. The total amount received from the state comptroller's office in 1985 is $28,493, as compared to $29,406 taken during the same period in 1984. Archer City showed a slight increase, two percent, receiving a check for $4,694.

City agrees to hire additional policeman

Holliday city council agreed to hire an additional police officer in order to provide more protection to local citizens and businesses, in response to requests from a group of concerned residents voiced during Monday night's regular council meeting.

The group, led by Allsup's Convenience Store manager Joyce Craig, voiced concerns over the city's shortcomings in providing police protection to homes and businesses, with the recent armed robbery of Allsup's the prevalent issue.

Craig told council members that her cashier was fortunate not to have been harmed by the two men, one carrying a shotgun, as they robbed the store. She also added that, despite the hard work of police chief Jules Culbert, it is still impossible for one officer to police a town sufficiently by himself. Council agreed with the group, and voted to advertise for the hiring of an officer, giving the city two local enforcement officials for the first time. The motion came after a short closed executive session.

OTHER BUSINESS

Council also agreed to apply for a governmental grant in 1985, held an "emergency" reading of an ordinance to apply penalties to delinquent taxes, elected council officers, and decided to survey Earl Allen's property to determine if the use by the city of part of the land is improper.

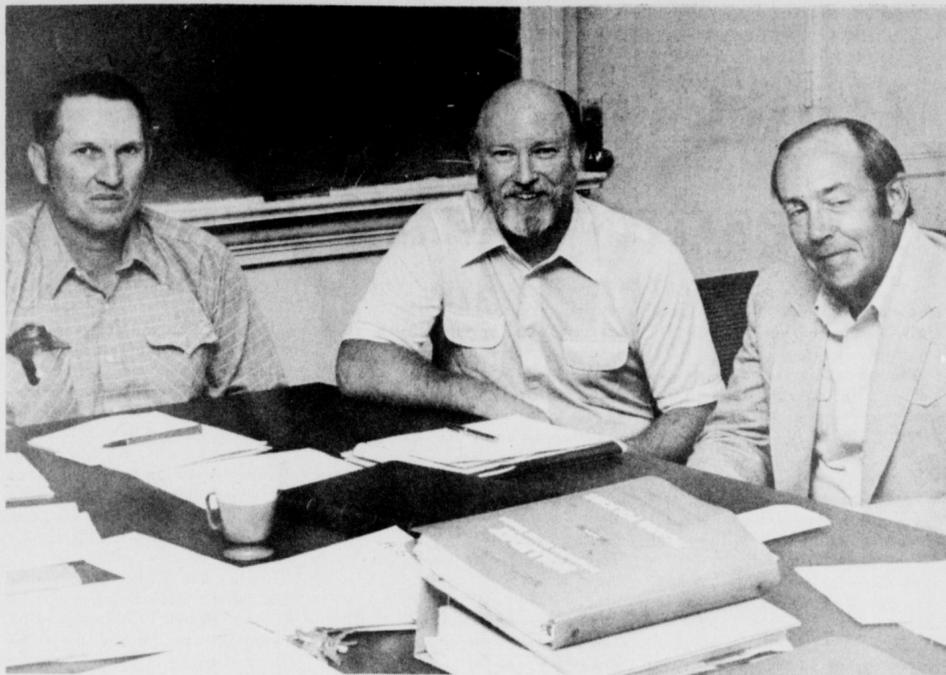

Governmental Service Agency, Inc., which successfully aided the City of Holliday in applying for and receiving its first block grant in 1984, was hired once again to make application for a new grant, under the 1985 Texas Community Development Program.

Council heard the first "emergency" reading of an ordinance which will apply 15-percent penalty to delinquent city taxes for collection. The term "emergency" will make the ordinance effective immediately after it is read the second time.

Elizabeth Gorman was once again elected mayor pro-tem, and Melvin Bills was chosen to serve as treasurer, formerly held by John Goforth.

Allen's property, located on Southwest Avenue behind the Dairy Queen, will be surveyed at a cost of $250 to determine if part of the land being used by the city is infringing on Allen's land. Cost of the survey will be paid by the city if it is negligent, and by Allen if it is found the land is not his.

Newly-formed school board gets finance briefing

After swearing in three trustees to new terms on the Holliday school board, it was down to business, with several major topics addressed during the regular meeting Monday night.

Incumbent Tommy Mankins and newcomers Carl Nichols and Jack Parkey III were issued the oath of office to begin the meeting. Then, trustees elected Mankins once again as board president, as was Gene Harmon as vice president and Alice Bishop Carver as treasurer.

Superintendent Dan Owen greeted the new members, and went over the tax statement and adjustments portion of the agenda at length with them, detailing each section concerning the schools financial condition. Trustees also approved minutes of the previous three meetings; a regular, called and emergency session.

NEW BAND UNIFORMS

Outgoing band director Mark Cartwright and representatives of the Eagle Band Club appeared before the board to request financial assistance in purchasing new band uniforms to replace the 10-year-old uniforms now being used.

Cartwright recommended that the school purchase the most expensive of two uniforms he had received bids for, claiming superior quality and material of the Fruhauf Co. uniforms to be a better investment.

The Fruhauf Quality Uniforms Co. of Wichita, Kansas, makers of the present uniforms purchased by the band club in 1975, submitted a bid of $19,897 for the new uniforms, each carrying a 12-year guarantee. At $198 per uniform, it is $12 per outfit more than the bid submitted by the Nitingor Co.

Owen told the board the last uniforms, 110 of them, were purchased for a cost of $127.63 per uniform.

Saying the band club currently has $5,900 collected for the new uniforms, Cartwright asked the board to finance half of the total cost, amounting to $9,948, with the club paying the other half. The board approved the request, adding that credit given by Fruhauf Co. for the old uniforms would be credited to the band club to help pay its share of the cost.

Cartwright said the band members for next year will be measured as soon as possible, and the order should be received in time for the next year. The board accepted the resignations of two teachers, hired three, and promoted another following a lengthy closed, executive session.

The resignations of head basketball coach Bill Higgins and high school math teacher Ann Doan were accepted by trustees. Jim Bob Wallace was promoted to head vocational agriculture teacher, extending his teaching contract to 11 1/2 months.

Hired were Mikki Phillips as special education teacher, and Kent Lemons as assistant girls and boys coach and teacher. The board also hired Johnny Dormier as head boys basketball coach.

Dormier formerly coached at Goree, Perrin and Seymour, including nine district champions, four regional finalists, and one state finalist team. The board also set employee salaries for the 1985-86 school year, giving all professional employees (coaches, principals) $300 above state base bonus; and classroom teachers $1,000 above state base pay, a cut of $300 from the previous year. Owen said the school won't be able to tell if savings in the teachers' bonuses will be made until all teachers are hired, including the additional teachers requested by the new school reform bill.

MORE BUSINESS

The board cut the contract to tax collector Jana Goforth from 12 months to 11 months, with no collections made in June except for emergencies.

The transfer list for 1985-86 school year was approved with 24 students. The board also approved the warrant for a new driver education car, with financing done through the First State Bank of Archer City, and the automobile leased from Murphy Brothers Chevrolet. A second car will be leased in June and used two months, while the first car will be used from April 15 to July 15.

Owen also gave a report of a monitoring visit from the Texas Education Agency, saying the overall comments were good, but listed a few concerns, including class sizes, the need for an emergency light in the vo-ag building, and replacement of torn carpet in the dressing room.

Principals serving as instrumental leaders and the maintenance of personnel records were praised by the TEA, as was time allotments, and the new reform bill implementation.

Pizza, anyone?

Residents wanting to personally help in financing the Holliday Eagle Band's new uniforms for the next marching season, band members will gladly take orders for a pizza kit until the April 26 deadline.

Outgoing band director Mark Cartwright said the kits, each costing $14.95 will help the band club pay its share of the cost for the uniforms, which will amount to just under $10,000. The band club currently has approximately half of that amount collected.

Each kit consists of six crusts, pizza sauce, cheese and choice of meat, either pepperoni, sausage, or regular cheese.

Persons wishing to order the kit can call 586-0058 anytime or 692-7568 after 5 p.m.

Bill would effect elderly care homes

Taking steps to encourage a more reasonable state policy toward community care services for the elderly, Rep. Charles Finnell passed HB 653 in the house of representatives this week.

If approved by the senate and enacted into law, the bill will establish a task force to review the licensing standards for personal care homes and to make recommendations for revising those standards.

"Many elderly citizens could benefit a great deal from this legislation," Finnell said.

CORRECTION

Laura Lea Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Holt of Holliday, was named to the Dean's List for the fall semester at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, not Abilene Christian College as was reported.

The Holliday reporter regrets this error.

Hernandez was given a breath test in Wichita Falls and then turned over to Wichita County Sheriff's Department.

At least four telephone calls were made early Saturday morning to the police station, complaining of someone walking in the street, yelling and breaking windows. The calls were from North Park, North Wall and West Magnolia.

Clifford Lee Roach, 18, was arrested by police at 1:35 a.m. and charged with public intoxication, for which he paid a fine. He also faces a charge of criminal mischief.

Iowa Park still leading county

Iowa Park continues to lead the rest of Wichita County communities in percentage of increase in sales taxes.

Through March, Iowa Park's increase is 18.37 percent, more than 10 percent greater than Burk Burnett's 7.31, Wichita Falls' 7.01 and Electra's minus 2.84 percent.

The March rebate from the state comptroller's office was $8,451.89, making the three-month total $46,908.57. Comparable figures last year were $7,770.11 and $39,628.55.

The April check represents taxes collected on sales made in February and reported to the comptroller by Mar. 20.

Letter to the Editor

What has happened to our city? Since the retirement of Mr. Helms our alley's lay full of brush that needs picked up.

Our dumpsters are filled to the top before they are empty.

Our streets are getting deep holes that need to be filled.

Some of us citizens would like some answers as to what the problems are. Are we going to be able to have our alley's sprayed during masquito season?
