Community gears for year's busiest weekend

The biggest and busiest weekend of the year is here.

Beginning at 4:15 p.m. Friday, activities will continue almost non-stop through Saturday evening. It's Iowa Park High School homecoming and the community's Whoop-T-Do celebration!

This year's parade will possibly be the largest ever assembled in Iowa Park.

According to Jay Yeakley, Student Council president, at least seven floats will be in the 60-unit parade. Participants are to be at their assigned positions by 4:15 p.m., and it is to get underway at 4:45.

The parade route will be west on Cash to Yosemite, north to Park, turning east one block and back west at Wall, north on Yosemite and west on Bank, winding up in Park West Shopping Center.

Yeakley said he didn't know if the shopping center parking lot would be blocked off to receive the parade, but urged caution to everyone in vehicles because so many young children will be afoot and looking for their rides. He also said one of the parade participants would be Lloyd Doggett, Democratic candidate for U.S. Senate.

Entries in the parade will be judged, and placings will be announced during Friday night's football game.

At 7:45, prior to the kickoff of the Iowa Park and Bowie homecoming game, the homecoming queen will be crowned.

During the evening, former homecoming queens in attendance will be recognized, as will members of the 1964 Hawk championship team. Graduates and former students will be registered at a booth at the stadium by the Ex-Student Association.

Cryovac to pay city to remain outside

The city council Monday night approved an agreement to not annex Cryovac, but permit the industrial plant to make payments to the city in lieu of taxes and also pay a premium for water and sewer service.

A contract, which calls for Cryovac to pay 30 percent of "normal city taxes" as well as 150 percent of the in-city water and sewer rates, is to cover a period of five years, with two one-year extension options.

Mayor Tim Hunter told the audience the city and industry people had been discussing such a contract over a two-year period, and the 1984-85 budget includes the in lieu payment.

Similar agreements have been made between Wichita Falls and plants located outside its city limits. A major difference, however, is that Cryovac's payments will be based on annual appraised values by the county appraisal district. This was important, because the Wichita Falls agreement locks in the value at the time of the contract, while Cryovac's value will be assessed annually, which will include enlargements and improvements during the contract period.

Council members approved the contract, without comment.

BURNT BUILDING IN QUESTION Council members approved a resolution calling for the city to demolish the burnt-out remains of Jim's Market, in the 100 block of West Cash.

Administrator James Barrington told the council no response had been received from the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wilson, since being notified by registered mail of the city's intent.

However, Tuesday, Wilson visited with Barrington and reportedly told him of his (Wilson's) plans to rebuild and that he intended to commence this weekend.

Barrington said yesterday he had not contacted council members about Wilson's proposal, but said he intended to recommend a wait-andsee attitude. He said if the owners did not make a desirable show of intent, he would exercise the order given by the council.

PURCHASE FIRE TRUCK

Aldermen approved the low bid of four to purchase a new truck for the fire department. It was submitted by Denmark at a cost of $59,199.

The other bids ranged as high as $75,849, but firemen recommended the low bid was acceptable.

OTHER BUSINESS

Other business which council members considered included:

* Lone Star Gas manager Bud Burch made a formal request for a 4.61-percent rate increase, but no action was taken;

* Approval of a change in testing for issuance of an electrician's permit;
* Approved use of a flexible,

non-metallic wiring in multi-family dwellings;

* Approval of adopting "Updated Service Credit" for employees participating in the Texas Municipal Retirement System;

* Approved an ordinance Abandoning a 15-foot strip in the 400 block of N. Alcott, requested by Mrs.

Maurice Todd;

* Declined a resolution to enter into a joint agreement with an individual to pick up large dead animals in the city, explaining the $68-monthly charge was unnecessary since none had been needed for more than two years;

* Approved sale of a used trash collection truck for $3,200;

* Approved a proposal to advertise for the third time the corner lot north from city hall, with the money, if sold, to go to the library;

* Approved advertising for bids for a new police car, for January delivery;

* Approved a general insurance policy, which includes fleet coverage, through Texas Employers after learning the present carrier would no longer carry fleet automobile insurance:

* Approved a maintenance agreement on the computer equipment with CPS for an annual premium of $4,406;

* And agreed with cable television manager Raymond Greenwood that his firm's purchase of the local system was an "asset sale" alone, absolving the present owners with past-due taxes owed the city.

STREET WORK DONE Barrington provided a list of priorities for street repairs, to be done through an agreement with county commissioner Gordon Griffith. Council members said the work should begin as soon as possible, while good weather held.

Trustees take up issue of elevating teachers

Iowa Park school trustees Tuesday night took the first step toward implementing the career ladder feature of the school reform bill, and also gave tentative approval to change the procedure of electing board members.

Additionally, the board approved sale of half a block of land and recanted its disapproval of a high school band trip.

Supt. Harold Cowley explained the features of HB 72, as it pertained to elevating teachers on the career ladder and qualifying them for bonuses.

He said the bill calls for an evaluating team, or more than one team, each composed of three administrators and two classroom teachers. This group will function the first year.

His proposal was accepted to have two teams, one to evaluate teachers from pre-kindergarten through the sixth grade, and the other from seventh grade through the 12th. He named himself, Jimmy Alsup and Don Ickles for the lower grades team and Robert Palmer, Richard Davis and Ron Woods for the other group.

The four teachers are to be named at a later date.

Evaluation will be on the basis of college degree, post-graduate hours taken, professional workshops attended and classroom evaluation.

Under the bill, the school is to receive $30 per average daily attendance (ADA). That figure will not be known until the end of October, the month when the ADA is established.

Cowley estimated the school would receive approximately $49,000 from the state. He also estimated some 46 teachers would be eligible for bonuses, but pointed out that the minimum they could receive for being elevated to the second ladder was $1,500.

Trustees discussed whether to limit the number to elevate and pay them each $2,000, stretch the $1,500 as far as it would go, or do the latter and pay the remaining qualified teachers not funded by state from local funds.

A decision of whom and how much they will be paid will be determined by the board at a later date.

ELECTION CHANGE

Trustee Marilyn Hale proposed the school district change its trustee election policy from the public voting at large to by place.

Instead of all candidates running against each other, with those receiving the greatest number of votes winning, the proposal would permit candidates to run for a particular chair on the board, creating a head-to-head confrontation.

None of the board members voiced opposition to the change, and those who commented were in favor. So a resolution changing the procedure will be considered at the next board meeting.

If changed in November or December, it would be effective for the April election. Also, if changed, Supt. Cowley read from the law that it could not be changed back again to the present policy.

Only one bid was submitted to purchase the north half of the block the school has been using for Building

HAWK-HARE CLASH

Friday night's game homecoming highlight

Iowa Park's Hawks have chosen the Bowie Jackrabbits as their homecoming opponent, and also to make their debut in Class AAA play. Kickoff time is 8 p.m.

As the Hawks enter Dist. 5-AAA competition against the 'Rabbits, they are the only undefeated team of the five-team conference.

Iowa Park has been in Class AAAA since the 1971 season, and was lowered to AAA this season after the school's two-year enrollment average fell below the minimum for the higher division.

While the Mean Green enters tomorrow's contest with a 5-0 record, Bowie carries with it a 3-2 record. The two schools have met only five times in the last 15 seasons, and the Hawks are 4-1 in the series. They won 21-12 last year and 28-0 in 1982. Prior to a two-year skip, Iowa Park beat Bowie 21-0 in 1979, but lost, 6-20, in 1978. The fifth game was played here in 1970, and appropriately the score was 70-0 for the Hawks.

Bowie's three victories this season have been the 28-6 season opener against Jacksboro, 14-6 over Henrietta and a 31-0 homecoming win over Forney. The Hares lost 9-15 to Sanger in the third game of the season, and last week they fell 7-21 to Dallas St. Mark's.

While the two teams figure to match up fairly evenly in size, depth could be a major factor in favor of the Hawks.

For the first time since the season opener against Breckenridge, the Hawks will be at full strength. Kendell Hill returned to the field Friday night after having his back injured in the opener; Charles Perry has indicated little or no problem with an injured foot that restricted his play to offense; and Jimmy Collazo's ankle injury suffered in the Stamford game and held him out last week has healed to the point where he will be back in uniform.

Another player who missed action Friday at Haskell was back Lee Roach. He was in uniform, but didn't play. He had suffered from a viral infection all week and the 145-pounder had lost 18 pounds. He was the second-leading rusher as a junior, and is averaging 4.9 yards on 43 carries thus far this season.

James Beebe is the workhorse of the Hawk offense, having carried the ball 96 times thus far and gained 617 yards, an average of 6.4.

The Hawk offense has racked up an average of 32.6 points in its five games, while the defense has held its opponents to a 6.4-point average.

While scoring those points, Iowa Park has averaged 351.8 yards per contest while the Mean Green defenders are limiting their opponents to only 139.8. PAGE 2, IOWA PARK LEADER, IOWA PARK, TEXAS, OCTOBER 11, 1984

It's the biggest weekend of the year in Iowa Park. A time when folks come home to reunite with former classmates, for renewing old acquaintances, for remembering the good times, and for a lot of fun.

Welcome home!

When the parade starts Friday afternoon, the bands will be playing. But there's another part of an old phrase having to do with bands, no flags will be waving. At least, not this year.

I'd like to take this space this week to give a plug for the Iowa Park

Rotary Club. A member of the Lions Club almost three decades, it's tough to toss laurels toward another civic organization, but the Rotary Club has come up with a jewel of an idea.

Wouldn't it be nice, for next year's homecoming, to have the American flag flying in front of every business in the city. . . and maybe half the homes?

Let's go a few steps further, and have them waving each Memorial Day, July 4th, Flag Day, Labor Day and Veteran's Day.

Well, Rotary is giving us the

News in Brief

School changes to be discussed

Iowa Park school superintendent Harold Cowley will be the featured speaker at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Kidwell cafeteria to discuss several changes involving education at the Kidwell P-TA meeting.

Cowley will discuss new school policies, grading systems, the new attendance requirements, and the new policy on unexcused absences. The public is invited to attend the meeting.

Commodity distribution Monday

USDA commodities will be distributed at the First Christian Church from 12 to 6 p.m. Monday. Volunteer workers from six churches, under the sponsorship of the Iowa Park Ministerial Alliance, will distribute cheese, butter, corn meal, butter and/or flour and dry milk. Over 200 families in Iowa Park are eligible to receive commodities. In September, 2,289 pounds of food were given out. Men are needed to unload the truck at 10:30 a.m. Any man who would like to help is asked to contact Dale Walling, president of the Iowa Park Ministerial Alliance, at 592-4913, or tell their own church minister.

Supermarket opening scheduled

Opening date of B&R Supermarket, which is buying Mike's Thriftway, will probably be sometime during the fourth week of October.

Ronny Wilfong, co-owner of two other food stores of the same name, said the opening has been delayed about a week longer than he and his brother, Bill, had expected.

The Wilfong brothers own stores in Tulia and Fritch. They are to begin rearranging and stocking the local store next week.

Payment to creditors of Mike's is to be made Oct. 19 at the store, according to an amended letter of "Notice of Bulk Sale," mailed last weekend by Attorney Bruce Martin.

opportunity. They are offering one-year contracts to wave the flags for us.

It works this way: I sign a contract and pay $18. Rotary provides me with a flag, fixes a bracket to hold its staff. puts the flag out on each of the six dates and takes it down that evening.

I've seen this type of project work in Amarillo and other communities. and believe me, when the sponsoring organization gets good participation, the community really looks great!

I don't have a flag, because I've never bothered to buy one. I haven't bothered to buy one because I don't have a place for flying it. And I probably wouldn't remember to put it up and take it down on the days it should be flown, even if I had one.

I'm as patriotic as anyone, and maybe more than some. But I'm as forgetful as anyone you can name. So I appreciate what the Rotary Club is offering, and I've already put my name in the pot for the service.

I hope everyone does.

Congratulations, Rotary. You've come up with that "better mouse trap" for a fund-raising project.

After twice having rejected the Hawk Band's request to participate in Amarillo's Greater Southwest Music Festival in the spring, the board reversed its stand when director Greg Miller explained he had not fully communicated the information on the event

Miller told the board the students would not miss any classes, leaving on a Friday afternoon and returning Saturday. All expenses would be paid by the band, Band Boosters and individuals other than the use of buses and school truck, he explained.

Another anticipated trip by students in the music department was explained to the board.

Choir director Alan Andrews told the board his students had been invited to participate in a festival held this summer in Vienna, Austria, sponsored by the Association for International Cultural Exchange.

Financing of the trip has been undertaken by the Choir Boosters, but the actual cost will not be determined until the accurate count of students to make the trip is decided.

Cost per student, which will include transportation, lodging, and two meals daily, will be $1,579.

Boat flips, trio saved

Three young Wichita Falls men were soaked and chilled, but otherwise safe after their small boat capsized early yesterday afternoon in Lake Iowa Park.

Richard Arrieta said he swam, with the assistance of a life vest, to shore and drove his pickup to a telephone to summon assistance.

Left with the boat were Chris Hernandez and Ricky Ward, one with a life vest and the other without. All three are in their early 20s.

Hernandez was towed to shore by a flat-bottomed boat with Bob Evans and Mark Wicks using paddles. Ward and the boat were pulled to shore by an outboard boat.

The trio had been fishing about an Andrews said he knows all 105 members of the choir would not be able to participate. But he said if 50 make the trip, the cost would be $75,950.

He admitted only some $8,000 was now available for the trip, commenting, "The money has not come in fast.'

Supt. Cowley explained the number of "administrative policies" he had developed, which will be used until the newly-appointed state board of education produces policies called for in HB 72. The policies are available at the principal's office on each campus.

Trustees voted not to fund hiring of a school nurse, at a cost of $4,500 annually. They agreed with Cowley, that services did not match the expense, based on previous years experience.

Board members approved a proposal to next meet Nov. 6, instead of Nov. 13:

The Park Area Extension Homemakers Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Irene Sargent.

A luncheon was then served by hostess Irene Sargent and co-hostess Maurice Todd.

Save momentos for scrapbooks

Jean Haves, art teacher at Kirby Junior High in Wichita Falls was special guest speaker at the Philia Study Club meeting Monday evening at the Iowa Park High School library. The program was "organizing a scrapbook."

She saves cards, notes, theatre tickets, brochures and anything else that interests her to put into scrapbooks. The results she achieves with these treasures are prize-winning scrapbooks.

She urged everyone to become a "saver" of important events of their lives and to place them in a scrapbook as a permanent treasure. "Many of our memories and treasures are lost if we don't organize them this way," Hayes said.

She gave some trade secrets that are useful for everyone. She said, "Artwork is important in a scrapbook, but English is just as important. Poor spelling or faulty grammar could ruin the overall effect. There should be a purpose or overall theme of a scrapbook and this theme should be carried out throughout the project."

The cover of the scrapbook sets the stage for everything that is inside. Make sure it is decorated appropriately. Notebooks are handy to use and come in many sizes, shapes and price ranges.

The paper used for the pages is very important. It should be of good quality that will not allow felt markers to "bleed" through. Printing shops are excellent sources of different types of paper.

The organization of pages in the scrapbook is also very important. The method of organizing events, pictures, etc. in chronological order works well most of the time.

Mount the items on one or two colors before applying to the page. Use them throughout the book to pull it all together.

Rubber cement works best for application. It will not wrinkle the paper. Avoid using scotch tape or "corners", as they tend to distract from the overall effect.

Labeling is the final step in putting 'ogether a scrapbook. You should use another piece of paper to label, not the page. Felt markers, calligraphy pens, rub-on letters and typing are excellent. It is important to maintain an even style.

She closed her presentation with color slides showing examples of good and "beginners" scrapbooks. This was followed by a short question and answer period.

Mrs. Dean Maxwell, president, presided over the business meeting, and Mrs. Jack Jordan was introduced as a new member. The meeting adjourned, and refreshments of punch and pumpkin cake were served.

St. Jude research doctors and other personnel work in many areas of catastrophic diseases and have recently discovered, while doing a bone marrow transplant, for a child that also had cyckle-cell anemia, that the bone marrow transplant has made the anemia become dormant, and of course they are hoping that it proves to be a cure for the anemia.

About 150 to 180 patients are treated daily. Monday through Friday. There are only forty beds available at the hospital and they are for the very critically ill. Each bed is completely private and very much like a critical care unit, but is furnished so that a child can enjoy television, a telephone, and have games and books. There is a "Parents Room" that is separated from the patient's room by a wall of glass, and is also comfortably furnished.

It was noted that the hospital personnel and volunteers work closely together, and are very dedicated. It was obvious that they have a deep and special affection for the children.

Mean Green defense leads Hawks to 42-0 shutout

An outstanding defense can make a good offense look even better. That's what happened Friday night at Haskell, when the Hawks wound up their pre-conference schedule with a resounding 42-0 shutout of the Indians.

Iowa Park's initial four touchdowns were either set up or scored by the Hawk defense. In fact, the Indians had only 32 yards total offense and a pair of first downs during the entire first half of play.

Five different Hawks were credited with touchdowns, and Coach David Baugh "called off his dogs" midway in the third quarter, playing reserves the balance of the game.

And while the defense was shutting down the hosts to a mere 98 yards total offense and gobbling up five Indian turnovers, the offensive line was opening gaping holes to allow nine Hawk runners 389 yards on the ground.

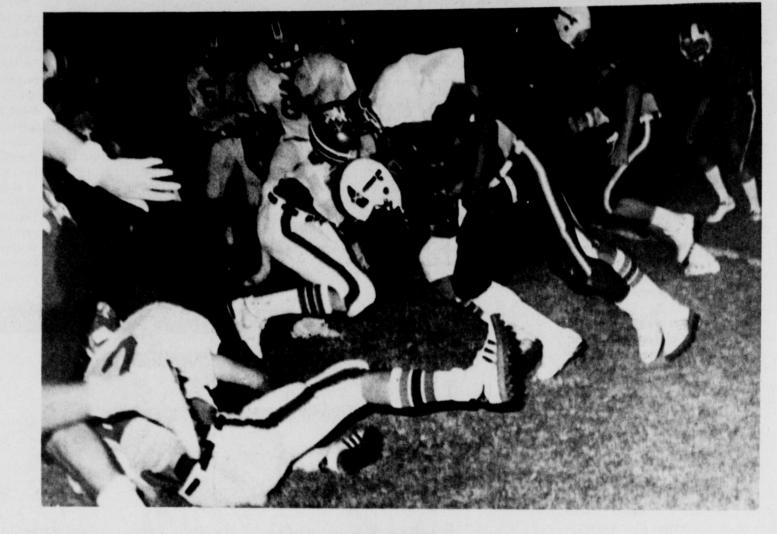

But, for the second consecutive Friday, the Hawks' aggressiveness drew a downpour of penalties....12 of them for 110 yards. That was the same yardage they lost at Stamford.

Sophomore noseguard Robert Adams covered the first Indian fumble, on the third play of the game, on the Hawk 45 yard line. Eleven plays later, Fullback James Beebe punched over from the one. He would have another TD before the night was over.

Four plays after the following kickoff, Jerry Allen broke through Haskell's blockers and blocked a punt that bounced into the endzone, where Scott Weaver covered it for the second touchdown of the evening. That came at 3:56 remaining in the quarter, and 1:48 after Beebe's score. Three plays following the next kickoff, the Indians fumbled again and Phillip Davis laid claim to it on the Indian 23. Five plays later, Weaver was attempting to punch his way over from the one, lost the ball when tackled, but alert Jeff Tucker covered it in the end zone for the third touchdown of the quarter, 16 seconds before changing ends of the field. Neither team could mount a successful drive during the second quarter, during which each team suffered a turnover. Sophomore Danny Forman lost the handle on his first handoff as a varsity player. But Stephen Biddy got the ball back two plays later with a pass interception on his own 12. On their first possession of the second half, the Indians attempted a screen pass over the middle of the line, but defensive end Scott Young snagged it on the Hawk 30, setting up another Iowa Park score.

Beebe broke loose on one of his patented long runs, a 61-yarder, for Iowa Park's fourth TD.

It took the Hawks nine plays to cover 62 yards for their next touchdown. Forman was called on six times on the drive. Two of his runs were called back on holding penalties. But on the sixth carry, he registered his first varsity touchdown, scoring from the one.

The final touchdown was scored midway through the final period by a player who hadn't been counted on to even be in uniform.

Kendell Hill, a senior, suffered a back injury early in the first quarter of the season opener against Breckenridge. He had been forbidden to do anything more than walk until Thursday afternoon, when he was given a clean bill of health by his doctor. scrimmage and sprinted 25 yards for his touchdown.

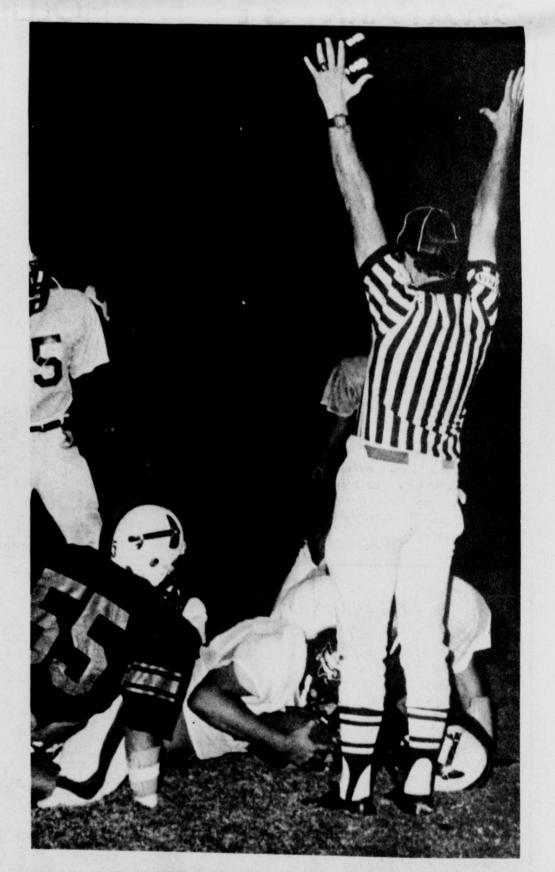

Allen kicked five of the six extra points. The other was booted by Robert Adams.

Beebe, who didn't touch the ball in the fourth quarter and only three times in the third, was called on 18 times and finished with a 146-yard night.

Allen had 83 yards on seven carries, including a 35-yard run that set up Forman's touchdown.

Weaver was credited with 60 yards running, Hill 41, Davis 30, Forman 22 and Charles Adams nine. So dominating was the Hawk defense, Haskell got off only 37 plays from the line of scrimmage. The Mean Green had 58 plans rushing and six passing.

'64 district champs to reunite

Homecoming '84 should be an exciting time, and one of the highlights will be the first-time reunion of the 1964 Hawk football team.

Team members will be recognized during tomorrow night's homecoming game between Iowa Park and Bowie. Members are asked to stop at the front gate to register, and they will be seated together, according to Bob Dawson, principal.

The reunion is being coordinated by Dawson's son, Robert, who was a member of the team. Why recognize the '64 team, other than the fact it's been 20 years since the group has been together? It was the 1964 team that became Iowa Park's first football team to ever complete a regular schedule undefeated, and an outright district champion.

It was also the 1964 team that started a series of winning seasons that culminated in two state championships and state-wide recognition of Iowa Park as a football

7th graders suffer loss

The lone Hawk score was a 15 yard touchdown pass from Duggins to Jeremy Sine.

The eighth grade Hawks suffered

In establishing their season record of 10-1-1, the '64 Hawks defeated five non-district opponents: Henrietta, 36-0; Stamford, 26-0; Decatur, 34-0; Hirschi (which went to the state AAA semifinals after that) 19-6, and Burkburnett 35-6.

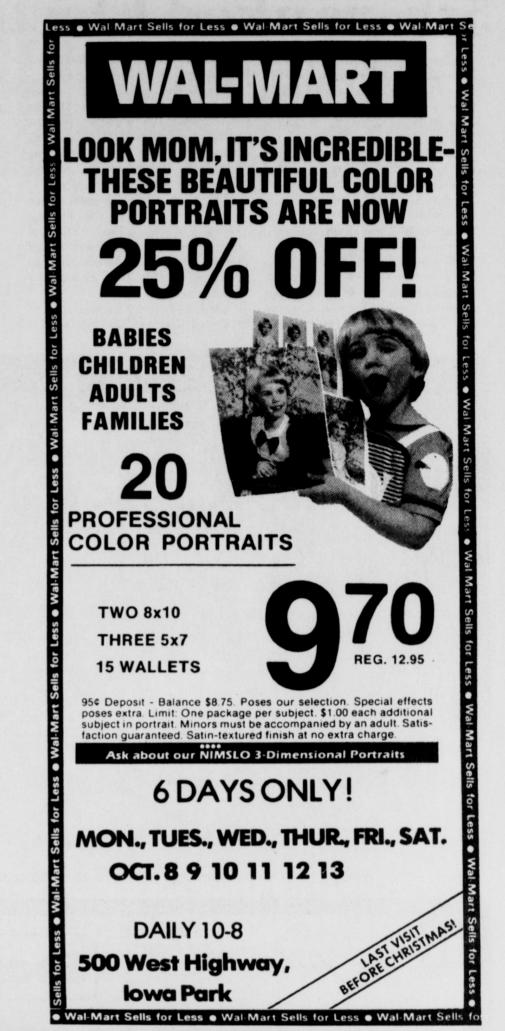

Top 'o Texas League broke even at the .500 mark for the season last Saturday in Seymour with a hard-fought 14-6 win over the Panthers.

Opening the season with a 14-0 blanking of the Electra Tigers, the Midget Hawks suffered two consecutive setbacks, to the Holliday Eagles and Sheppard Redskins, coming into the Seymour game.

Against the bigger Panther team, Iowa Park's rangy defense corraled Seymour's 180-lb. back much of the night. On offense, the local controlled the tempo of the game with outstanding performances from fullback Gary Green, halfbacks A.D. Sparlin and Brandon Martin, and quarterback Danny Tatom.

Defensive standouts were end Chad Witherspoon, tackle Jimmy Freeman, nose guard Gary Green, cornerback Stormy McDonald and monster Ronnie Berry.

5th-ranked Electra prevails, 41-7

The and the second second

Electra's Tigers, otherwise known as Charlie Lott & Co., justified their state ranking in class AA Friday night with an impressive 41-7 win over Holliday's Eagles in Eagle Stadium.

Ranked sixth in Texas coming into th game, the Tigers remained undefeated with the lopsided win, aided by Lott's 156 yards rushing in 11 carries, including three touchdowns in addition to kicking a 19-yard field goal.

The big Tiger back didn't play the game by himslef, though, as the Electra defense played an important role in keeping the Big Red out of the end zone until the final period, assisting the Tiger offense in controlling the game's tempo.

The Eagles, looking shell shocked after losing an important District 9-AA opener the preceding week 7-6 to Seymour, found the going even more difficult against Electra. The loss drops Holliday to 2-3 for the season and 0-2 in conference play.

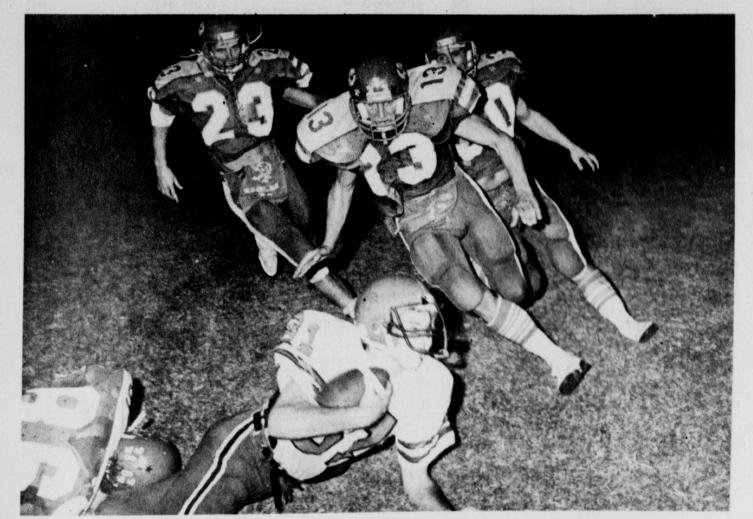

The Eagles looked hopeful in the early going, taking the opening kickoff to the Tiger 21, but quarterback Pat Parker was sacked by the hungry Tiger defense, and the resulting fumble was covered by Electra at its 23.

Electra's first drive stalled short of the goal line, and Lott utilized his impressive talents, which includes booming kickoffs and field goals, to nail a 19-yard three-pointer to go ahead 3-0.

Disaster struck once again for Holliday, as quarterback Tom Hamill was intercepted on the Big Red's next possession at the Electra 46, which was returned by the Tiger defensive back to the Eagle 36.

Three plays later, Lott blasted off tackle for 15 yards for his first of three touchdown runs, and a missed point after kick put the Tigers ahead 9-0 with less than five minutes left in the initial period of the game.

Electra's defense stymied Holliday's next possession at the Eagle 40, and the Tigers set up shop at its 28 following the punt by Parker.

TRIO OF EAGLES COME IN FOR LANDING TO AID DOLBERRY ON TACKLE

On the second play of the drive, Lott took the handoff enroute to his best rush of the evening, sweeping to the left sidelines, coming virtually to a standstill with three Eagle defensive men around him, then breaking away to win a 70-yard foot race to paydirt. A try for two points came up short, but the visiting team built a 15-0 lead with time still left in the first quarter.

Holliday was intercepted once again with five minutes left in the first half, and Electra mounted a two-play, 45 yard drive with the entire distance made in one rush by Lott, who again showed superior speed and agility with the run. The point after kick was good, giving Electra a 22-0 cushion going into intermission.

SECOND HALF

Taking the second half's opening kickoff, Electra mounted another scoring drive, this one going 57 steps in four plays. Lott ran once in this particular drive, busting loose for 37 yards to Holliday's 23, and, two plays later, teammate Royce Reynolds broke for an 18-yard touchdown run. A missed point after kick resulted in a 34-0 score early in the third period. Almost routinely, the Eagles were forced to punt following the ensuing kickoff after failing to make a first down. At 8:29 in the third period, the Tigers grinded out their final touchdown drive of the contest, going 62 yards in 11 plays, also aided by two personal foul penalties called on the Big Red.

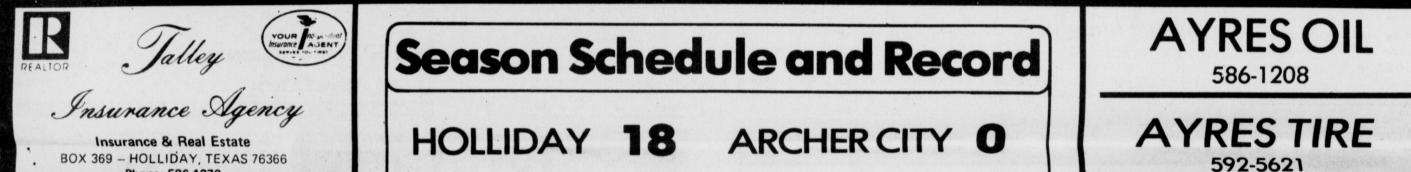

Tiger back Eddie Rogers tallied the final score on a one-yard plunge, with Donny Chick adding the extra point to give the visitors at 41-0 lead.

The Big Red finally found pay dirt four minutes into the final period, mounting a 39-yard drive capped by a five-yard run by Hamill for the touchdown.

DENISSA WEYANT WITH BARN PAINTING

Pre-teen is artist

Denissa Weyant of Cook's Corner captured a second place ribbon for her pastel painting of a barn at the Henrietta Art Club Art Show, held Sept. 15 in conjunction with the Pioneer Reunion in Henrietta.

The 12-year-old artist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denny Weyant, will exhibit her works through the rest of this month at Olney Savings in Holliday during regular business hours. A seventh grader at Holliday Middle School, she has displayed works at the First Federal Savings and Loan Gallery in Wichita Falls, at Olney Savings in Holliday, and the West 'o Wichita Arts and Crafts Show held St. Patrick's Day in Holliday.

The painting of the barn was her first pastel work, but paintings of a tiger, seascape, mountain scene, and two paintings of flowers have followed.

Holliday tax leads county

September's sales tax check to Holliday totaled $9,163, once again placing the city above all other Archer County towns in the amount received, and reflecting an increase of over 28-percent over the amount received for a comparable period in 1983.

Information received from the state's comptrollers office showed Holliday receiving net payments of $84,389 for the year, almost $20,000 more than in 1983, when the city's total rebate was $65,719.

Archer City received a check for September totaling $5,700, giving the county seat a total of $77,061 for 1984, placing it above Megargel and Scotland.

Cortney Louise, a seven pound, 14-ounce daughter, was born Oct. 1 to Mr. and Mrs. Brit Robertson of Holliday. She is their first child. Mrs. Robertson is the former Kim Addison.

In addition, teaching policies dealing with student examinations, class interruptions, student removal, and alternative education programs were accepted by the board.

Other policy changes made include an update of the employee-studentcitizen grievance procedure, a policy on limited English proficiency students, and a policy on fire safety and fire prevention programs.

Eagles look for district win

With an 0-2 record in District 9-AA going into the third week of conference play, Holliday's Eagles still have a chance to salvage a winning season and playoff spot, but, with a tough membership in the district, it will have to be approached one game at a time.

In that manner, the Big Red is focusing its attention on the Bearcats of Henrietta, one of three teams standing at the top of District 9-AA with a 2-0 conference record, including a 47-0 rout over Petrolia last Friday night.

From out of nowhere the Bearcats have emerged as a prime state playoff candidate, standing 3-1-1 for the season, which is two games more than they won all of last year, when they finished 1-9.

Seven starters and 11 lettermen have returned with visions of that dismal 1983 season still in their minds, and the turnaround effort has proved successful with an emphasis on team play on both offense and defense.

In the two district games played thus far by Henrietta, they have produced 71 points offensively, allowing only 22. Eagle coaches hope to reverse that Bearcat momentum in Henrietta tomorrow night at 8.

Eagle Mark Parker, a sparkplug for Holliday as a fullback and defensive back, is still recovering from a vehicle accident which forced him to watch the Electra game from the sidelines last Friday night, and is doubtful for tomorrow's game.

In District 9-AA thus far, the Tigers are looking the most impressive with a current unbeaten record, but Olney and Henrietta are tied with Electra for first place, followed by Seymour and Jacksboro with 1-1 records, with the Eagles uncharacteristically sharing the cellar with Nocona and Petrolia with 0-2 records.

But the conference is probably the most unpredictable of any previous season, and anything can happen to switch the standings more in Holliday's favor. One game in particular that could produce an upset is the Seymour-Electra contest, with other district games featuring Jacksboro at Olney and Nocona at Petrolia.

Every day of ol missed by any student during is month is costing the school district money, as the funding from the state this year will be based on the number of students present each day in October. Principals and teachers at each campus are checking closely on all absences, and are nforming parents of the need for tudents to be in school every day if all possible.

The current law pertaining to the absences of students states that: -- A student may not be given credit for a class if the student has more than five (5) days of unexcused absence during a semester. (Education Code 21.041)

KIDWELL/BRADFORD ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS: TESTING PROGRAM

Periodic evaluation of students' progress is a necessary part of the elementary school program. This testing helps the teachers to know which overall areas they need to stress, and therefore helps in planning curriculum for Iowa Park students. The individual test results give teachers and parents helpful information about each child's progress.

Kindergarten students are given the Stanford Test of Early School Achievement at the end of the semester in which they attend. This test checks progress in the areas of environment, mathematics, letters and sounds, and aural comprehension. Scores from this test help to indicate areas of strengths and weaknesses for each child, showing areas in which the child may need reinforcement.

The Comprehensive Test of Basic Skills (CTBS) is given to elementary students in grades 1,2, and 4 (as well as in some of the secondary grade levels.) This is an achievement test which tests skills in reaking, spelling, language, and math. Scores from this test, which is administered in March of each school year, indicate both national and local percentiles. Elementary students in grades 3 and 5 take the Texas Assessment of Basic Skills (TABS) test each February. This is a test required at these grade levels (as well as at grade 9) by the state of Texas to check progress in the basic skills areas of math, reading, and writing. Reports from this test show whether or not students have mastered objectives in these three subject areas.

The CTBS and TABS tests are sent off for computerized scoring, and when the reports are returned to the schools, copies of the scores are sent home to students and parents. When these scores are sent home in the spring, parents should feel free to contact their child's teacher or counselor if they have questions concerning the scores.

Iowa Park students have consistently scored above grade level on the overal CTBS scores for each grade tested. Scores for all objectives on the TABS test have reached or neared the 85% mastery level set as a goal for the Iowa Park Students.

THANKS FOR VISITING

The Iowa Park Jr. High School faculty and staff would like to express appreciation to the parents attending Open-House Thursday night, September 27, 1984. To effectively implement the new educational changes, a closer relationship hetween home and school is highly desirable. Parents are urged to seek better communication with the teachers of their children and to become better informed about their school and its activities.

Results of a survey. A Parent's View of the School, distributed at Open-House will be carefully reviewed by school personnel. Suggestions for improving our school will be considered in our future planning. An overwhelming majority of parents indicated a high degree of satisfaction with our school program. Most parents indicated a need for more information about specific areas of concern. All parents expressed interest in their childrens' progress. As educators, we are encouraged by your positive response, and renewed in our determination to serve your children.

Cook of the Week

Spare time is a luxury for Cheryl (Mrs. David) Wright, who works outside the home, maintains a household, and takes care of her husband and two children.

Cheryl works part-time at the Burkburnett Florist as a bookkeeper and secretary. When she isn't working, she is cleaning house, spending time .with her two sons Chase, who is one and one-half years old, and Chad, who is five, and watching her husband, David, play softball.

Softball season begins in March and ends in November, so a lot of the family's nights are spent watching softball games. Along with softball, Cheryl is a big fan of Hawk football. They try to go to all of the high school football games as well as the Top O' Texas League games.

With "so much to do and so little time to do it," Cheryl likes recipes that are quick and easy. Most of her recipes were given to her by friends and relatives, but mostly by her mother, Mrs. L.S. Whisnand, who taught her to cook.

The Wrights attend Faith Village Church of Christ in Wichita Falls.

Cheryl's hobbies are reading, and of course, softball.
