JULY 4TH

New ordinance would make fireworks illegal in city

Until the city ordinance is revised again, this will be the last July 4th fireworks will be permitted inside the city limits.

The council Monday night passed by unanimous vote an amendment to the ordinance which currently prohibits "...the sale, offer to sale, or explode, any type or kind of fireworks, including firecrackers, torpedoes, rockets, Roman candles and any other types of explosives commonly used for such purposes, within the city."

The new ordinance, however, will not go into effect until proper notice to the public is published.

The changed ordinance now includes "possess" and "transport," inside the city.

During a discussion on the change, it was pointed out that the council had wanted to restrict the sale of fireworks within the city's extra-territorial jurisdiction, which is one mile outside the city limits.

However, the problem of enforcement prohibited making it unlawful to sell fireworks in that zone.

So, after the required waiting period, it will be unlawful "...for any person to sell, offer for sale, possess, transport, or explode any type or kind of fireworks, including firecrackers, torpedoes, rockets, roman candles, and any other types of explosives commonly used for this purchase, within the city limits."

City officials are encouraging residents who have fireworks to set them off over the water at one of the city lakes, either Lake Iowa Park or Lake Buffalo.

Lake Gordon, in the northeast part of town, is inside the city and therefore setting off fireworks there is unlawful under the current ordinance.

Asked about use of fireworks at Lake Iowa Park after the new ordinance goes into effect and after the lake area is annexed into the city limits, one official said a special zoning of the lake would probably be made to permit fireworks there.

Patriotic program set Saturday

A patriotic program is on tap for Saturday evening's "Summer In The Park" series, with the Blue Falcon Chorale of Sheppard Air Force Base scheduled to perform at 7 p.m. at City Park on East Cash.

Free watermelon will be on hand during the hour-long program.

The Red River Blue Grass Band has been asked to return for a special performance at 7 p.m. next Thursday at City Park after being rained out two weeks ago.

Pat Raby, coordinator, said the band performed last year and added, "They are so popular. They went over really big."

The next program in the series will be "World of Record Days," planned for July 30.

Pool to observe 100th anniversary

A special observance of Iowa Park's 100th anniversary will be held July 4th at the Iowa Park Bicentennial Swimming Pool.

The feature will be distributing 100 quarters in the shallow end of the pool and letting the children retrieve them, to keep.

That will begin at 4 p.m.

Also, homemade ice cream will be served, according to Robert Palmer, assistant superintendent of schools and president of the Chamber of Commerce.

City to shut down Monday for holiday

Other than police and emergency services, all city departments will be closed Monday in observance of July 4th.

The sanitary landfill will be closed and trash collection routes will be run on Tuesday and Wednesday, according to Mike Price, public works director.

School trustees to meet tonight

Iowa Park school trustees will hold a called meeting at 7:30 this evening in the administration building to study the 1988-89 budget.

In addition, the vocational agriculture and horticulture position, only teaching slot yet unfilled, is expected to be acted on.

DRUG LAB SCENE ON MCFALL ROAD, EAST OF VALLEY VIEW COMMUNITY ... equipment was on trailer behind second mobile home.

AT VALLEY VIEW

Lawmen shut down drug lab

Law officers arrested five persons near Valley View Tuesday afternoon, and confiscated an illegal drug laboratory along with numerous guns and other items believed to be stolen.

The site was a mile east of Valley View, and about half a mile north of FM 258 on McFall Road.

Arrested were Lloyd Glen Drake, 32, of 1215 North 3rd. in Wichita Falls, Mary Ellen Hubbart, 31, of Wichita, Kan., Cindy Marie Labora, 27, James Anthony Streadwick, 27, and Laura Jean Phillips, 29. The latter three gave their addresses as the McFall Road mobile homes.

Labora was charged with possession of marijuana, under two ounces, and was placed under $200 bond.

The other four were charged with unlawful possession of controlled substance, marijuana, $5,000 bond, and aggravated unlawful manufacturing and delivery of controlled substance (amphetamine), and placed under $125,000 bonds.

Bonds were set by Justice of the Peace Arthur Bea Williams in Wichita Falls.

Taking part in the arrests were officers from the Wichita Falls Police Department and Wichita and Archer County Sheriff's Departments.

There were more than two mobile homes on the scene, but only two of them were occupied by the suspects.

Behind the second mobile home was an open trailer on which laboratory equipment for manufacturing amphetamine was in boxes.

A large quantity of white powder identified as amphetamine was found in small sacks.

Officers seized several hand guns, a .45-caliber machine gun, rifles, a pair of Samurai-style swords and bows and arrows.

Numerous items, including weapons, radio scanners, and a chainsaw were believed by officers to have been taken in area burglaries.

Numerous vehicles were parked around the mobile homes and in a large, unused area on the east end of the lot. At least two were also believed to have been stolen.

A fragmentation bomb and two hand grenades were discovered inside one of the mobile homes, and demolition experts from Fort Sill were summoned to destroy them.

The operation had been watched about a year by law officers, but not until intelligence was gathered in Archer County recently did officers have hard enough evidence to seek a search warrant.

Posted on the wall of a shed nearest McFall Road was a standard printed sign "No trespassing" and below it was one of the neighborhood watch stickers distributed by the K-V Kickers.

Council okays Chamber building

The city council Monday night voted approval of a number of proposals, including construction of a new building for the Chamber of Commerce, acquiring property for a new Senior Little League ballfield, and an ordinance prohibiting on-street parking on part of Fourth Street.

Aldermen approved a proposal to advertise for bids to construct a building on the vacant lot west of city hall for the Chamber.

In exchange, the city will take possession of the Chamber's office which adjoins city hall on the east end.

An agreement drafted in January 1959 between the city and Chamber provided for the city to take possession of the building should the need ever arise, with the provision that a suitable structure be provided in exchange.

The Chamber does not own the property on which its building is located, nor will it receive a deed to the land on which the new building would be built.

Administrator James Barrington, responding to a question of how the project would be paid for, said it would have to come from "unobligated funds" of the general and water funds.

Following the council's unanimous vote to advertise for bids, Mayor Tim Hunter told aldermen it was estimated it would cost $85,000 to build an addition onto city hall equal to the space of the Chamber's.

With a lease agreement approved by Cable TV of Iowa Park and a tentative similar agreement with the owners of Sonic, for strips of unused land, the council approved purchase of adjoining land, for $5,000, on which the Senior Little League will build its new field.

The lease calls for a fee of $1 annually.

Little League officials, with Max Henderson representing them, have long been seeking a different location from the Burnett Field next to the RAC.

Henderson has explained their major concerns were lack of control of the field, which is also used for softball play, as well as a "serious need" for improvements to the lights and other facilities.

Henderson expressed concern that the new field could be ready for the 1989 season, because of work clearing the field and planting of new grass getting underway so late. He had wanted to begin work more than a month ago.

However, he was told the city had done as much as it could.

Following the vote on the field acquisition, aldermen approved a proposal to have a cost study ready for the next council meeting for improvements to Burnett Field. This would include moving the fences to meet softball requirements, as well as new lighting.

A proposed ordinance was passed which prohibits on-street parking in the 900 block of Fourth Street, which is from West Highway to Van Horn.

Several complaints have been registered with the city about vehicles parking on the street since the city built two sand-surfaced volleyball courts in that area.

Signs are to be erected in the block by the street department in the near future.

Barrington was also authorized to advertise for two other bids, one to either upgrade or purchase replacement of the city's computer system. The administrator said the unit had been in use almost five years and was becoming overloaded.

The present computer will be advertised for sale, if a new unit is purchased, because only $6,000 has been offered for a trade-in value.

The new unit is expected to cost about $45,000, plus an additional $5,000 for a municipal court program.

The other bid to be sought will be for proposals for insurance coverage of the city's with the exception of medical. It's been three years since the city last advertised for bids for the coverage, Barrington said.

Council members also approved a proposal to paint the water plant, for a fee of $4,995. The project had been budgeted for $15,000, but some

Two arrested at lake

Iowa Park police received a call at 7:33 p.m. Saturday of an apparent sexual assault underway at Lake Iowa Park.

When officers arrived, at the request of the sheriff's department, they stopped a pickup with two men and a young girl at the gate attempting to leave for investigation.

The two men were taken into custody by sheriff's deputies, who arrived later, and transported to county jail.

Charged with public intoxication and terroristic threat were David Joe Emory, 25, and Dennis Craig Miller, 30. Both gave their addresses as 1212 15th St. in Wichita Falls. Each was placed under a $1,000 bond.

The girl was allowed to drive the pickup from the area.

Four witnesses, two of whom asked an office worker at the Lone Star Gas Company transmission office to call police, described the scene as an attempted rape of the girl, who was not identified.

Witnesses said the trio had been swimming and were on the lake shore north of the boat ramp, and the two men had taken the girl's clothes off, against her objections.

While one of the men went back to the water, the other "was slapping the girl to get her to cooperate," one witness said.

A fourth witness, riding a motorcycle, also reported the incident to police after leaving the scene.

One witness (names are not used in fear of retaliation) said he attempted to intercede, but was threatened by both men as they held sticks or clubs in their hands.

JAMES 'ROBBIE' FLEETING, three, is held by his mother, Mrs. Gary Schlumbohm, after being treated at Iowa Park Clinic for first and second degree burns to his feet and ankles. He received the injuries while playing with gasoline in the family garage, and fumes apparently were ignited by a pilot light on a natural gas clothes dryer. Quick response by neighbors had the small fire extinguished before firemen arrived. The home is located at 117 W. Garden.

Lewis, Lear exchange vows Saturday in Holliday

Miss Crystal Ann Lewis of Iowa Park and Brian Alan Lear of Holliday exchanged vows during a double ring ceremony Saturday evening at First Baptist Church in Holliday. Rev. David Hardage officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Don Lewis of Iowa Park and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Lear of Wichita Falls.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by both parents, the bride chose a formal white gown of mira mist adorned with schiffli embroidery, pearls and iridescents for her wedding day. The slightly dropped waist bodice featured schiffli lace appliques with pearls and iridescents and a sweetheart neck-line. The oversized puffed sleeves were trimmed in tiny rows of ruffles.

The full skirt had lace appliques delicately strewn about and featured a ruffle hem forming a cathedral-length train that was covered in rows of ruffles.

She chose a waltz-length veil of bridal illusion flowing from a wreath of pearls, iridescents and silk flower sprays to compliment her gown.

She carried a cascade bouquet formed of peach rosebuds, white open roses, peach and white forget-me-nots, white stephanotis, teal-colored baby's breath and peach and white ribbons.

The bride kept tradition by wearing her maternal grandmother's ruby ring as "something old," her wedding gown as "something new," her sister's pearls as "something borrowed," and the "something blue" garter. She also wore a lucky sixpence in her shoe.

Mrs. Tim Swedberg, sister of the bride, of Wichita Falls served as matron of honor. She wore a teal gown with a dropped lace bodice featuring a scoop neckline forming a V-shape in the back with a bow at the waist. The sleeves were made of lace, and the A-line skirt was satin.

Mrs. Swedberg carried a white lace fan covered in peach sweetheart roses, white and peach daisies, peach azaleas, teal-colored baby's breath and fern, centered with a peach bow.

Bridesmaids were LaDonna Wilkinson and Amy Jeffcoat, both of Wichita Falls, Leslie Needham of Lubbock and Jamie Ridlehuber of Iowa Park. They wore dresses identical to the matron of honor's and carried similar fans.

The flower girl was Miss Tiffany Ezzell, niece of the groom, of Holliday. She carried a white basket holding an arrangement of peach sweetheart roses, white and peach daisies, peach azaleas, teal baby's breath and fern. She also wore a small halo wreath of peach baby's breath.

The groom was attired in a Christian Dior grey striped tuxedo with tails, a black tie and cummerbund. His boutonniere was formed of a white rosebud with greenery and baby's breath.

MRS. BRIAN ALAN LEAR

Each male member of the wedding party wore a grey striped tuxedo with a black tie and cummerbund and a peach carnation boutonniere.

Carlton Lear, father of the groom, was best man. Jim Ezzell, brother-in-law of the groom, of Holliday, Brent Proffitt, James Wright and Lyle Jeffcoat, all of Wichita Falls, were groomsmen. Nicholas Stewart of Iowa Park, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Ushers were Bennie Ezzell of Holliday and Curtis Williams, cousin of the bride, of Iowa Park.

The couple exchanged vows before an arch covered in boxwood greenery with an arrangement of white gladiolas, peach and apricot roses, carnations and fern centering the top.

Two seven-branch candelabras holding burning tapers stood on each side of the archway, and were decorated in the same fashion. A unity candle stood to the side of the altar area and was adorned with gladiolas, roses, carnations and fern in the bride's chosen colors.

Two brass stands holding Boston ferns were placed on each side of the altar and peach bows marked seating for the guests.

Donna Gibson, pianist, accompanied Brad Lewis, brother of the bride, when he sang "The Wedding Song" and "My Only Love" as prelude selections, and "God Bless This Marriage" and "Author of Love" during the ceremony. Traditional wedding marches were played.

Mrs. Lewis chose a teal dress to wear at her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Lear, a peach dress. Each was presented with corsages formed of peach roses, mini-carnations and baby's breath.

Miss Lewis presented each mother with a red rose upon entering and leaving the church.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The bride's table was the focal point of the room, carrying out an elegant theme.

The bride's cake was a four-tiered confection, with the bottom two layers stacked and the top two set apart by Grecian pillars. Iced in white, a cascade of peach and teal roses covered the front of the bottom layers and wrapped around the upper layers. The cake was topped with clusters of tiny white roses against a scalloped heart background.

The table was covered in white draped tafetta decorated with English ivy. White lace bows adorned each corner and the center of the table. A silver candelabra with white gladiolas, peach roses and carnations and teal forget-me-nots, a silver punch bowl, silver mint dish holding peach mints, and teal napkins bearing a rose outlined in silver, and the names and wedding date of the couple, completed the table decorations.

Cousins of the bride, Donna Williams, Kim Williams and Sheila Stewart, served.

The groom's table, attended by Denise Ward and Whitney Rexrode, held an elaborate chocolate sheath cake decorated with a white Bible and verse on one side of the cake and the names and wedding date of the couple on the other.

The table was draped in peach tafetta decorated with English ivy. It held a silver coffee urn and mint dish, and a small peach and teal candle arrangement.

The registry table was covered in white tafetta with English ivy, and held the bride's book, a white plume pen and an arrangement of white and peach gladiolas. Miss Karen Moore, cousin of the bride, directed signaturs.

A catered rehearsal dinner, given by the groom's parents, was held at the church the evening before the wedding. Tables were decorated in the bride's chosen colors.

Grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Robinson of Olney and Mr. and Mrs. O.M. Lear of Archer City were special out-of-town guests.

Upon leaving the church, the bride was wearing a pink and black sailor dress. The couple are living in Holliday.

The new Mrs. Lear is a graduate of Iowa Park High School where she participated in choir, track and basketball. She was a cheerleader and a member of student council and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. She attends Midwestern State Univ. and is manager of Gadzooks.

The groom graduated Holliday High School where he played football and was a member of Future Farmers of America. He is employed at TU Electric.

Cook of the Week

Mrs. Bill Dickerson

This week's Cook of the Week, June (Mrs. Bill) Dickerson, is another cook most of us envy who puts together dishes with "pinches" and "handfuls." She did, however, come up with some recipes that use standard measurements.

She said the "Busy Day Brownies" is one of the first recipes her children ever cooked on their own, and make easy, delicious brownies. She also said anyone who says they can't make homemade pie crust hasn't tried the Pie Dough recipe she gave. The Meat Loaf recipe is one she transcribed by memory.

The former June Hail was born in Iowa Park and has lived here all but six years of her life.

She and Bill have been married 35 years and have four children, Jeanna Wilson, Rebecca Wright, Joe and Eddy, and four grandchildren. Bill has worked for Wichita County Water Improvement District 36 years.

June lists her first hobby as her grandkids. After that comes sewing and crocheting. The couple are members of Faith Baptist Church in Iowa Park.

Evening Lions hear program on drugs

John Grimes of Wichita Falls, senior partner in the firm of Grimes and Tannahan Drug and Alcohol Consultant, was speaker Tuesday for the Evening Lions Club.

He was introduced by Dave Davis, who said the firm set up drug and alcohol programs for businesses and conducted seminars for different organizations over a wide region.

Grimes said the drug and alcohol problem was a serious one in practically all parts of the state and nation.

He said the local area of Texas was the "amphetamine capital of the world" and that 80 percent of the house burglaries were drug related. He said 20 to 40 percent of workers use drugs.

Grimes said drugs were never going to be controlled by law enforcement or a negative approach and that he strongly favored a positive approach to get young people and adults to be aware of the danger of drugs and alcohol.

He listed education and support mechanism as strong factors in the positive approach.

Davis, vice president, presided during the business session, and Mrs. Lem Tate was a visitor.

Four Iowa Park 4-H members were to be among 120 from the area participating Tuesday through today in a tricity 4-H camp at Lake Murray in Oklahoma.

All counselors for the younger youth, the four include Scott James, Rex Wilson, Justin Daume and Greg Carrillo-Miranda.

Members, leaders and Extension agents from Wichita, Jack and Clay counties were to attend.

Activities scheduled were swimming, vespers and a cabin skit competition. Workshops included water safety, CPR, folk dance and wildlife tour, as well as outdoor cooking.

Lakeview Church delegate is named

Pastor Ole Olds will be representing the Lakeview Church of God as an official delegate to the 62nd General Assembly of the Church of God which will convene Aug. 2-7 in Fort Worth.

The international gathering is expected to draw some 15,000 attendants to the Tarrant County Convention Center for worship, business deliberations, special events and church product exhibitions.

The meeting is held biennially in various cities.

As I See It... By BOB HAMILTON

Two of the articles on our front page this week demand comment. They concern the drug lab bust out near Valley View and the attempted rape at Lake Iowa Park.

I've been expecting more than a year that methamphetamine labs were operating in Wichita County. Not so much because of any trafficking I've noticed, but more because of the isolated areas of the county that are so similar to those in Wise and Montague counties, where numerous busts have been made.

There also is a market for the drug, i.e. a "needed" source.

People in rural areas should be watchful for such labs. A sure tipoff is the distinct odor of ether.

Attempts to hide the odor often are the burning of trash, and this takes place at some odd hours. Even burning of tires is done to hide it, as I understand.

Should you ever make such an observation, or have suspicions, do not attempt to investigate yourself, however. Just inform a law office of one type or another, probably the sheriff's department.

In every article I've read concerning raids on drug labs, the operators have been heavily armed. They could interpret your trespassing as someone trying to knock them off for their product, and get tough.

Your information or suspicions could fit into a pattern already known by lawmen, and be very helpful.

Labs have also been found in communities, so they are not always in isolated areas.

Oh, by the way, I couldn't let it pass about the location of the lab that was raided.

One television report had the lab located in the Kadane Corner area, while that paper had it in the Kamay area.

Those reporters should submit themselves to a geography lesson on Wichita County.

The attempted rape case was shades of New York City.

In broad daylight, in a very open area, and with at least six known adults observing, this all took place.

Only one man, who had to use a cane because of a dislocated back, attempted to intervene, and he was

1.08 rain measured

Iowa Park received 1.08 of rain over the weekend, primarily Saturday evening, according to Virgil Woodfin.

The precipitation fell in a slow, soaking form, and farmers and residents reported very little runoff.

However, there apparently was considerably more rain to the west, because Tuesday evening the Wichita River was flowing well above its recent level.

backed off by threats of the two men.

He had asked a man riding a motorcycle to back him up, and the rider said he wasn't going to get involved.

Two women reported the incident to a nearby office, and police were informed.

But I still haven't figured out what the two men with whom they were seen leaving the area later were doing. Didn't want to leave their fishing until it started raining, I guess.

I just never thought I would hear of people in this area turning their backs on something like this. Would the two fishermen have done something had their women been attacked? I'm disgusted.

changes in work to be done were made, reducing the cost.

The council decided to make no changes in its previously-approved plan for construction of a new sewer lift station west of the city, as well as boring under US 287 for installing sewer lines.

The decision came after hearing concerns expressed by engineer Kerry Maroney about the bonding company which covers the successful bidder.

Maroney did not recommend the city change its contractor because of the bonding company, but only told of his firm's experience of law suits filed on another project by the bonding firm.

A lengthy discussion was held with representatives of the E-911 emergency telephone system, concerning responsibility of "signing off" for dispatching fire departments outside the city.

The mayor expressed concern of liability of the city when it had no authority outside the city limits.

He also said he felt the county was not paying its fair share of the costs of both firefighting and dispatching.

After it was decided that Fire Chief Danny Skinner would sign off for all fire calls outside the city, the council voted 4-0-1 in favor of the proposal, with Alderman Bud Burch abstaining and Hunter saying he would have voted against it if he had a vote.

Chamber project deemed successful

Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce purchased some 4,500 pounds of scrap metal, mostly aluminum cans, from residents here Saturday and Sunday, according to Ken Via, chairman of the project.

He said the same project would be held again July 30.

"I'd consider the project as being very successful," Via said, "and we want to thank everyone for participating."

Paper can help put out fires.

We, your local volunteer firefighters depend on your contributions. We depend on them every time we fight a fire. And that's because the tools of our trade don't and shouldn't come cheap. Like the $200,000 it costs for a new ladder truck. The $100 we pay for a protective helmet. Or the $25 it costs for an axe to help us reach a trapped victim a few seconds earlier. Over the next several weeks, you're going to be asked to help us put out fires. With paper. Give what you can. We do every time the fire alarm rings.

Your local fire department.

Worth Quoting

We noticed in the Amarillo Globe-News that KFDA (radio and tv) is going to make an attempt to keep the business in Amarillo...they figure Amarillo and the Panhandle are losing $638-million yearly as people shop elsewhere for their needs.

We can guarantee you very few Amarillo people are shopping in Canyon, Happy or Tulia. Unfortunately the cash flow is the other way, the shopping money goes into Amarillo.

One Tulia merchant has said he thinks Tulia merchants lose about one half of the community retail business to area larger towns.

He might be right. As we see merchants closing their doors in Tulia, we can be aware of the fact that because we were not loyal to the hometown merchants they are falling by the wayside.

If you want to look at the overall picture (especially our people who receive paychecks that are dependent on tax money) our disloyalty may mean there won't be any businesses around to pay taxes to make the payroll.

Saving hometown business will be a part of the PRIDE economic improvement seminar that begins here next week. We hope that some ideas will come out of the brainstorming sessions as to how all of the people in this country can make a better living ... on both the spending and receiving ends of the economic picture.

THE PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

I remember this one teacher, Mr. Lasswell, who said: "I've been listening to you boys and girls recite the Pledge of Allegiance all semester and it seems as though it is becoming monotonous to you. If I may, may I recite it to you and explain the meaning of each word:

"I-me, an individual, a committee of one. Pledge-dedicate all of my worldly goods to give without self-pity. Allegiance-my love and my devotion. To the flag-our standard, Old Glory, a symbol of freedom. Wherever she waves, there is respect because your loyalty has given her a dignity that shouts freedom is everybody's job. Of the United-that means we have all come together. States-individual communities that have united into 50 great states. Of America. And to the Republic-a state in which sovereign power is invested in representatives chosen by the people to govern. And government is the people and it's from the people to the leaders, not from the leaders to the people. For which it stands. One Nation-meaning so blessed by God. Indivisible-incapable of being divided. With liberty-which is freedom and the right of power to live one's own life without the threats or fear of some sort of retaliation. And Justice-the principle or quality of dealing fairly with others. For All-which means it's as much your country as it is mine."

"Since I was a small boy, four states have been added to our country and two words have been added to the Pledge of Allegiance-"under God." "Wouldn't it be a pity if someone said, "That's a prayer" and that would be eliminated from schools, too?"

Red Skelton spoke the above words. May we ever be mindful never to take the blessing of liberty and freedom for granted!

GARAGE SALE

Here's a handy sign for your garage sale!

And here are some helpful hints for holding a successful sale:

1. When you're rounding up those usable but no-longer-used items for your sale, be sure to check all the storage areas in your home -- the basement, garage, attic, closets, seldom used cupboards.
2. Saleable items include outgrown bicycles, lawn and patio furniture, small appliances, dishes, kitchen utensils, toys, golf clubs, and other sports equipment, lawn mowers, decorator items, books, records, musical instruments - - your "extras" may be "extra-special" to someone else!
3. Visit a few garage sales before you hold your own. You'll get great ideas, and maybe pick up a treasure or two.
4. Once you've picked the date for your sale, call the Iowa Park Leader Classified Department at 592-4431 or come by 112 W. Cash and place a Garage Sale ad. Your ad will reach 8,049 people in Wichita County and surrounding areas. Just 15 cents a word if paid in advance.
5. When you're clearing out your garage, you'll probably discover that some of the items in there will have to stay there -- even though you won't be selling them. Try to cover these "not-for-sales" or push them out of the way.
6. Use tables to display as many of the sale items as possible. Items on the floor of the garage, especially small items, may be overlooked by prospective buyers.
7. Make sure there is enough walking space through the garage, and that sale items are easy to reach.
8. Put a price tag on everything! Prospective buyers will appreciate it, and you'll find it makes things easier for you.
9. Before your sale begins, be sure you have change and some sort of cash box on hand. Set up a "check-out" table just outside the garage.
10. Be ready for rush at opening time -- garage sale shoppers like to come early, and with your ad in The Leader, you'll have plenty of shoppers!

(You may cut out and use this sign on this page. Just paste it on heavy cardboard and post it by your house.)

Newest addition to the coaching staff at Electra is Greg Graves, who will move there from Bridgeport. The son of former Head Hawk Grady Graves, who attended school here and graduated Holliday High, will teach in junior and senior high school, as well as coach.
