WINNING ENTRIES

'What Thanksgiving means to me'

These are the winning entries in a "What Thanksgiving Means To Me" theme contest, sponsored by the Iowa Park Recreational Activities Center, for students of Bradford Elementary School. They were to be written in 75 or fewer words.

All entries are to be displayed Tuesday and Wednesday at the RAC, and all participants received a certificate.

What Thanksgiving means to me. Thanksgiving is important. That is the time to thank God for everything I have. I also thank him for living in a great land like the United States.

Thanksgiving also means to spend time with my family. I think I should really show how much I love my family. It means to be happy and nice. I think I should always have a smile on my face on Thanksgiving and be nice to everyone I see. I also think that if possible I should give something to the poor like money, food, or clothes because they do not have as much things as I do. That's what Thanksgiving means to me.

Thanksgiving is a time for love
Having families all together
And rembering our good times
Nothing can take the place of Kindness for each other or Sharing our love.
Giving to those in need
Inviting them into your homes.
Visiting the sick.
I love Good food and the Nice times we have. But most of all
Giving thanks to God.

That's what Thanksgiving means to me.

Thanksgiving is love and being friendly and also sharing your gifts with other people. Giving thanks to Jesus Christ and to the nation. The Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock in 1620. And they say their prayers before they eat. They also would be friends with the Indians and share their gifts with them. The Indians were poor and didn't have any food or clothes.

Three thefts reported

Three thefts and two arrests were listed on the police blotter during the past week.

Two of the thefts were reported on the same day, Friday.

A.L. Bohannon, 520 W. Magnolia, told police someone had taken a 15-inch tire on a five-hold wheel from his pickup.

The other theft was reported by H.M. Mahler, 204 W. Clara, who said someone had taken a ladder from that address.

Saturday morning, Vicki Kennedy filed with police a theft over $20 complaint. Someone had taken a used dryer and washer and also a bed frame from her garage at 1330 Sunset.

Four charges were lodged against

Mark Allen Swanson, 28, at 4:40 a.m. Sunday, when he was arrested at 401 E. Ruby.

He was taken to Wichita County jail after charges of criminal trespass, terroristic threats, resisting arrest and criminal mischief over $20 were filed at the local department.

Police took Jack Henry Bruton, 36, into custody at 2:57 p.m. Saturday at Pacific and Texas after it was determined warrants were against him from the Department of Public Safety. He was later turned over to a DPS trooper.

A criminal mischief complaint was also filed with police Sunday morning. Someone allegedly threw an object through a pickup windshield while parked at 801 Park Plaza.

Thursday a holiday

Only a couple of businesses will be open Thursday, but a list of them is incomplete.

Thanksgiving holiday is to begin Wednesday for students of Iowa Park schools. Classes are to dismiss one hour earlier than usual, and students will not return to campuses until Monday morning.

Issue is printed early this week

Eventhough this week's issue of the Leader carries its usual Thursday dateline, it was printed Tuesday evening for distribution to subscribers Wednesday.

The paper's policy is to publish a day early whenever a holiday falls on a Thursday.

"We always want our readers to have their papers for the holiday, not after it," stated Publisher Bob Hamilton.

The Leader office will close at 12-noon Wednesday, and re-open at 8 a.m. Monday, so the staff can spend some time with families over the Thanksgiving holiday.

We have much to be thankful for in this great land of ours. For we live in a nation of abundance and opportunity, health and prosperity. Where freedom is our birthright...and brotherhood our life spirit.

This spirit of brotherhood is one that our forefathers exemplified on the first Thanksgiving. And from it we have established a lasting sense of loyalty, compassion and respect for one another. For this, we are truly fortunate.

Let's take this holiday as a time to reflect on all that we have to treasure. And celebrate Thanksgiving in the true tradition of peace, unity and love.

Miss Evans feted at bridal shower

A bridal shower honoring Miss Michelle Evans, bride-elect of Monte McCoy, was given Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Jerry Reed.

Co-hostesses were Mmes. Donald Potter, Herb Adcock, John Rentschler, T.R. Brixey, Charles Lee, Sam Laird, James Beavers, Lewis Hillard, Norman Hodges, Harrell Riggins, Gary Rusk, Dick Lunney and Steve Kelly.

The traditional colors of Christmas, depicted in the Christmas plaid chosen by the bride-elect, were carried out in the decorations throughout the home.

The refreshment table was covered with a white floor-length lace cloth, swagged and tied with Christmas plaid taffeta bows. The table held a silver punch bowl with matching cups and a votive centerpiece containing poinsettias and greenery tied with matching bows. An assortment of cookies, nuts and mints, and napkins in the Christmas motif completed the setting.

The registry table, covered with a red floor-length skirt and overlaid with white lace, held a brass chamberlight surrounded by a poinsettia ring.

Special guests for the courtesy were Mrs. Jerry Evans of Iowa Park, mother of the honoree, and Mrs. Lee McCoy of Wichita Falls, mother of the groom-elect.

Hostesses presented corsages of red poinsettias to the honoree and mothers of the couple.

Miss Evans and McCoy will exchange vows Dec. 10 at Faith Baptist Church in Iowa Park.

"Gifts to the WTC Scholarship Foundation are welcome in any amount and these can be made to honor a special occasion or in memory of a loved one."

Students interested in financial aid through scholarships and/or grants are invited to contact Carlton's office in the WTC Administration Building for information.

Members of 23 Study Club "look back"

The 23 Study Club members took a "further backward look" Thursday afternoon in an Iowa Park Centennial Celebration held in the home of Mrs. Erwin Soell. The co-hostesses were Mrs. John Rentschler and Mrs. D.O. James.

A nostalgic atmosphere was created in the old-fashioned dresses worn by the members, the heirlooms on display, music and tales of pioneer families.

Mrs. Lowell Short, who has a deep appreciation of styles and fashion during earlier times, served as program leader.

Mrs. C.E. Birk, a member of a pioneer family, used "In Times Like These" by Helen Steiner Rice for the devotion.

Club members answered roll call with the approximate dates and reasons they, or their families, moved to Iowa Park.

Mrs. Jim Medinger, organist, and Mrs. John Rentschler, pianist, took members on a musical trip in the past with their selections "Moments to Remember," "Down Memory Lane" and "Memories."

Another feature of the music during the afternoon was a vocal solo by Mrs. Joe Singer who sang "The Clubwoman's Song."

Mrs. Birk, Miss Frances Park, Mrs. Short and Mrs. Homer Blalock continued the program by contributing talks of their pioneer families which were the Birks, Lowrances, Van Horns and Whites. Mrs. Warren McDonald concluded with brief talks about the Denny and Lochridge families.

During the business directed by Mrs. Soell, Mrs. C.L. Thompson used "Paper Bags Have Sacks Appeal" for the federation counselor's report.

The attractive refreshments served by the hostesses were highlighted with an Iowa Park Centennial cake baked and decorated in purple and gold, the club's colors.

The next meeting will be Dec. 1 when club members will make the annual trip to Wichita Falls State Hospital where they will provide a program and refreshments and present a monetary gift to Volunteer Services.

When families gather around the dinner table this Thanksgiving, they can look forward to giving thanks for the blessings received throughout the year, as well as the traditional spread of food that graces many tables.

The day after, however, holds in store leftovers and many promises of post-holiday diets.

This week's featured cook, Lida (Mrs. Willie) Browning, probably won't have many leftovers with a family of her size, or make any diet promises. She won't have to because of her incredible will-power and the fact that she is a member of TOPS (Taking Off Pounds Sensibly), a national organization with a chapter in Iowa Park.

A member of TOPS 19 months, Lida was named TOPS Queen for 1987, an award given for losing the most weight in a year. This achievement she credits to the support of her fellow club members.

Being conscientious of her caloric intake doesn't mean her family will lose out at the dinner table tomorrow, however. The Browning's three children, Lannie and Eddie, both of Iowa Park, and Kay Gensler of Archer County, and nine grandchildren, will enjoy a traditional Thanksgiving dinner cooked by Lida. She acknowledged that there will be certain things that she can't eat, but didn't seem to mind.

Two of the recipes Mrs. Browning shares with readers this week, Hamburger Veggie Soup and Bean Salad, are low calorie recipes showing that good taste doesn't have to be sacrificed to lose weight.

Lida and her husband, Willie, have been married 37 years, and have lived in Iowa Park 31 years. Mr.

Shop Iowa Park FIRST

No other Newspaper in the World would make that statement!

As I See It... By BOB HAMILTON

Wichita Falls Board of Commerce and Industry has come up with an idea that we've been telling Iowa Parkers for years: shop at home first.

They kicked off a big public relations campaign Tuesday. Actually, a group of citizens over there started the campaign a couple of years ago, after the oil price dropped.

Now the folks in the big city are hollering the same tune as those of us in the smaller towns.

Your local businesses, in Iowa Park, not Wichita Falls, have been asking you for years to shop them first. Then, if you don't find what you want and at a competitive price, they won't say a thing about your going someplace else.

But on that competitive price topic, be sure you aren't going to spend more money in travel to get the price you want, rather than buying here.

The biggest mistake shoppers make is to think they can make a 25-mile round trip to save $5 or $10. It just doesn't compute.

Let's take a look at what is involved in the purchase of something, like maybe a $75 table. Let's say the exact same table costs $65 in a store in Wichita Falls. Okay?

Assuming you know exactly which store has the same table, and you can drive directly to the store, and not have to make three or four stops at stores to find it.

You've spent at least $3 for gasoline alone, and that doesn't take into account the wear and tear on your car, the cost of insurance during that time, depreciation, those things that have to be taken into account. Have a flat tire or blowout, and we're talking some real money.

Such a purchase contributes about $1 to the sales tax of Wichita Falls, instead of going into the Iowa Park street repair and building fund.

And that purchase, combined with five or six of your neighbors', could have paid an employee's salary here in Iowa Park. That kind of buying has cost a lot of jobs in our own community.

It should also be pointed out that your purchase of that table here in Iowa Park helps the merchant keep his doors open, not only paying the employee salaries, but the taxes that support our city and schools.

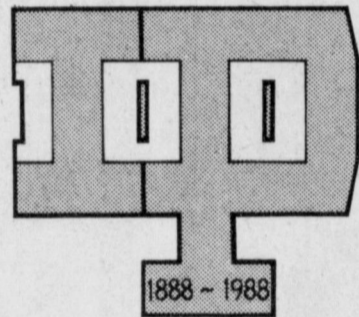

Should that business fold, because it didn't sell enough tables, the cost of city and schools continues. So those taxes not paid by the closed business are portioned out to your home taxes.

A part of the profits from the sale of that table is used to make donations to your children's school, church, or organization projects. So that source would dry up, if the table is purchased in Wichita Falls.

And maybe, just maybe, your child would want a job selling those same tables in that same business in Iowa Park some day. But the job might not be there in the future, if that table is purchased elsewhere.

There are a lot more reasons to make that table purchase right here in Iowa Park. Just think about it, and SHOP IOWA PARK FIRST!

Bids Sought for New School

Iowa Park school board met Tuesday night with John Clapp Jr., president, directing proceedings. Plans were made for bids on a new elementary school to be opened and let Tuesday, June 26, at 4:00 p.m.

The building will cost in the neighborhood of $200,000 and is to be located in the south part of town. Property on South Texowa was purchased from Ruben Parish.

The structure will have eight classrooms, a cafeterium and a boiler room large enough to care for another wing if it should become necessary to add it.

Elgin Denny Digs Up Pipe, Gets History of His Farm Home

Even a piece of 3/4-inch pipe can have a fascinating story -- especially when it has been unearthed in remarkably good condition after having been in old Mother Earth for more than 60 years!

While laying a water line at his farm home southwest of town last week, Elgin Denny struck and uncovered the pipe. At first it had no special meaning to him, but as he worked he began to wonder when and why the pipe was laid. He brought it into town to Bradford's Furniture and Hardware Store and searched out some old settlers who had lived on the farm before his father, the late S.L. Denny, purchased it.

Aaron Brubaker furnished Elgin with the information he sought. Back in 1890 when the late Mr. and Mrs. A. Brubaker, parents of R.R. Brubaker, owned the place Aaron helped his brother lay a water line from a well east of the house for the purpose of carrying water which was drawn from the well by means of an IXL windmill up to the house. The windmill was shipped from Kansas City, according to Mr. Brubaker.

After S.L. Denny bought the farm the old house was torn down and a new one built in about 1904.

Not long ago Elgin was doing some repair work on the house which required removing part of the siding. Underneath he found this message: "This house constructed by J.J. White and son. The son referred to is James J. (Jim) White. He and his father, the late J.J. White, worked together as contractors and carpenters."

Mr. Bradford furnished this reporter with a romantic touch to the story of the Denny farm. Being single when he purchased the land, Mr. Denny lived there alone until he fell in love with a comely young school teacher in the community. Soon they were married and together they successfully operated their home and farm for many years.

As a parting word, Mr. Bradford said, "The pipe we sell nowadays is just as good as that old pipe, and will last as long."

CORNER STONE DAY?

The Iowa Park Register of June 14, 1901 notes that the ladies of the Christian Church will serve ice cream and cakes on Corner Stone Day, June 29th. A handsome arbor will be erected for the occasion. Does anyone know what Corner Stone Day was?

Worth Quoting

A national poll reveals that more men are likely to support Republican candidates than women, as they did in 1976, 1980 and 1984. There are many theories as to why men are more likely to vote Republican than women. In Ochiltree county this gender gap does not exist as it would appear that both men and women have been favoring the Republican candidates for a long time. Ochiltree county went for Tom Dewey and Barry Goldwater, bucking the national trend, and it is to be assumed that voters of both sexes cast the ballots here.

But in studying the matter of why men vote Republican stems from the position of the two political parties. The Democratic party promises to discriminate against men. The Republican party does not. In 1984, the Herald sent our young reporter from Philadelphia and Princeton, Mark Bernstein, to the national Democratic convention in Los Angeles and were able to get floor credentials for Mark. Mark grew up in a Democratic family and considered himself a strong Democrat. He came home with his faith shaken. One of the shockers was the discovery that the white male delegate to the Democratic convention was ignored and shoved aside in favor of committee assignments and favored positions for blacks, Hispanics, women, labor union leaders and other groups who won their demand for equality in convention assignments. The white males took what was left over.

At the Democratic convention in Atlanta this year, the Democratic party adopted a platform which promises to marshal the resources of the federal government to help everyone from teachers to small business owners, but repeatedly emphasizes that ethnic minorities and women will come first. Everyone knows what this means. It means numerical quotas and affirmative action in hiring which places other groups ahead of ordinary white males when it comes to getting a job. It means large "set asides" for contracts for companies owned by ethnic minorities or females. Rather than equality of opportunity, it means forced equality of result. How women groups worked themselves into a position of "minority preference" is a mystery, but they have done it.

A Democratic controlled Congress has passed laws which require police and fire departments to hire and promote members on the basis of race and sex regardless of ability. United Airlines was sued for failing to live up to a government consent decree which promised to hire black and women pilots at twice their percentage of pilot applicants. The attitude of airline passengers who were on a plane whose captain held his job on the basis of race or sex rather than ability has never been considered.

Men, and women, have deserted the Democratic party in Texas for a number of years and for other reasons. For a long time there was really only one party in Texas and that was the Democratic party. Resentment against the Republicans dated back to Reconstruction days when most of the carpetbaggers and scalawags who descended upon Texas and the South to loot it were Republicans. For a long time the Democratic party in Texas was a battleground between conservative and liberal Democrats. In the postwar years the battles were marked by spirited clashes between conservatives such as Allen Shivers, Price Daniel and John Connally and liberals Ralph Yarbrough, Maury Maverick and Frankie Randolph.

But eventually the Republican party began to gain some strength and began to attract conservative Democrats who were not comfortable with the policies of the state party and especially with the liberal policies of the national Democratic party. Over the past couple of decades the national Democratic party has adopted a platform out of step with the thinking of most Texans and while the Democratic state party is still dominant, Texas has voted Republican in most presidential elections beginning with Dwight Eisenhower. Even Lyndon Johnson, a native Texan, had a narrow margin of victory when he ran for president as a Democrat.

A great many Texas Democrats have switched parties because they feel that the national Democratic party has left them instead of vice versa. Texas has not yet realigned itself into a true two party state but it is moving in that direction. At least it is no longer a disgrace to admit to being a Republican. And Texans have learned that you no longer have to vote Democratic just because your pappy did.

HAROLD HUDSON
Perryton Herald

Several years ago, a popular song nationwide was entitled "The Age of Aquarius."

A few generations from now, historians will probably look back on this time as the "Age of Acquiescence."

The dictionary defines acquiesce as a word that means "to accept or comply passively" and going-along to get-along pretty well defines the accepted practice nowadays of governments, institutions, schools, churches and individuals.

Small, highly vocal protesters, through the use of television "news bites," lawsuits, and staged events have browbeat most institutions in this country into acquiescence -- no matter what the cost -- and you and I are paying for it.

What brings this to mind is a trip made Monday over to the Waste Isolation Pilot Project site in the southeast corner of New Mexico. The facility is located about 40 miles west of the Andrews county line.

During one of the presentations made by a staff member on the facility that is owned by the Department of Energy and operated by Westinghouse, the total cost of the pilot project was estimated at $600-million.

The question was asked of the project engineer: "How much of the $600-million is due to overkill -- the addition of dubious safeguards suggested by amateurs, outsiders and politicians?"

"Sixty percent!" was the ready answer by the engineer. In other words, layer after layer of unneeded, unnecessary, unwanted, unproven backup safeguards have been added to the facility, not for needed safety reasons, but to acquiesce to demands of unqualified outsiders.

Another example is the Comanche Peak nuclear reactor under construction by Texas Utilities at Glen Rose. The cost of that plant is nearing $11-billion and it is still not on stream. We would guess that well over half of the projected cost is due to outside interference -- demands by environmentalists, foes of nuclear energy, and demagogues to add backups upon backups, inspectors on inspectors, supervisors of supervisors, and no one dares to say no.

Ten years from now, when France, Germany and England are enjoying cheap electricity generated by nuclear power, cost of electricity in this country will be the highest in the world. And those products made by plants using electricity will be priced out of the world market with the resulting loss of jobs.

It is little wonder that our products cannot compete on the world market. By acquiescing to every demand, every whim, every cockeyed theory of safety, of imagined disaster, we've so saddled American industry with so many additional costs, that their products cannot compete worldwide.

And the cost of the "Age of Acquiescence" not only hits industry. The additional costs of compliance hurts city governments, counties, states and other public institutions.

An example is a recent ruling by the Texas Department of Health regarding the city of Andrews. We've got along for years with having one operator of the city dump station on Northwest Mustang. Now the state agency says the city must have an operator on duty 24 hours a day. To comply, the city must employ three additional operators. Is it necessary for the safe, efficient operation of the plant to have an operator on duty 24 hours a day? Is it needed, wanted, or necessary? Nope! But the state says do it -- regardless of the costs!

Another example is fluoride. The EPA has arbitrarily set a figure of 04. parts per million of fluoride as the limit for fluoride in drinking water. At 02. parts or below, fluoride should be added to drinking water for health reasons. Above 04. parts, the fluoride should be removed from the water. In Andrews, the water contains 4.7 parts per million and the EPA says Andrews must build a plant to remove the fluoride down to acceptable levels.

This despite the fact that no practical method has yet been determined for removing fluoride from water. And this despite the fact that doctors and dentists associations have found no harmful health effects from fluorides below ten parts per million.

A fluoride removal system could cost above a million dollars -- and still not work. But costs are not a concern of EPA -- that's not their problem -- that's the problem of local taxpayers.

Politicians at the national and state levels have found that it's easier to acquiesce to demands of small vocal groups than to resist. Our schools, our universities, our churches, have discovered the same thing... go along to get along and to hell with the costs.

But the ultimate, long range costs are not in dollars and cents. The ultimate result is to reduce our governments, our institutions, our learning centers to whimpering, inert masses of indecision, unwilling and incapable of serving the needs of the public.

The costs of the "Age of Acquiescence" is too high. We need to usher in a new "Age of Common Sense."

State Hospital asks assistance for holiday season activities

Scenes of Christmas are being enacted at Wichita Falls State Hospital as volunteers wrap boxes or bring in gifts, and as donations of money arrive in the mail.

The Volunteer Services Council needs assistance in making the season happy for those remaining in the hospital during the holiday season.

Many groups of individuals have scheduled parties for the month of December, but additional parties are needed for the 21 wards at the hospital as each ward will hopefully have two parties.

Interested persons should call the Volunteer Services office, 692-7010, for information.

The Volunteer Services Council's Christmas Center opened Nov. 15 and gifts will be displayed awaiting selection by hospital personnel for the clients in mid-December. Each patient will receive four new gifts.

Suggested gifts for all ages are instant coffee, gloves, coloring books and crayons, toilet articles (in plastic bottles), transistor radios and batteries, sweaters, and pajamas.

Gifts for men are socks, handkerchiefs, underwear, pants and shirts, and belts.

Ladies gifts include cosmetics, gowns, robes, jewelry, and lingerie.

Gifts can be taken or mailed to Volunteer Services, Wichita Falls State Hospital, Box 300, Wichita Falls, 76307. They should be unwrapped so items can be selected for the individual patient.

Donors should enclose their name and address and a list of gifts and their value.

Gifts of money enable volunteer shoppers to buy at tax-exempt, wholesale prices. Checks should be made payable to "Volunteer Services Council."

All donations, whether money or gift items, are tax deductible.

Additional volunteer effort will be needed throughout the holiday season. Many Christmas helpers are needed for 1,984 at the Hospital.

A THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

by Abraham Lincoln

October 3, 1863

The year that is drawing toward its close has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. To these bounties, which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, others have been added, which are so extraordinary a nature that they cannot fail to penetrate and soften the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful providence of Almighty God. In the midst of a civil war of unequalled magnitude and severity...peace has been preserved with all nations, order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere except in the theatre of military conflict.

No human counsel hath devised, nor hath mortal hand worked out these great things. They are the gracious gifts of the Most High God, Who, while dealing with us in anger for our sins, hath never the less remembered mercy.

It has seemed to me fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently, and gratefully acknowledged as with one heart and voice by the whole American people. I do, therefore, invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November next as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens.

Optimists hear program on drug, alcohol abuse

Members of the Iowa Park Optimist Club heard a program on alcohol and drug abuse during a meeting held last week.

Martin Barrick, outreach director of Great Plains Crisis Center, gave the program in which he gave statistics on the abuse of alcohol and various drugs.

He stated that drug abuse is at epidemic stages, with one out of 10 people to become alcoholics. He said alcohol is the most abused drug in the United States, and is also the leading cause of disease and death. Parks cited marijuana as the "gateway" drug, saying that it is often the door leading to experimentation with other drugs. He said marijuana is an illegal narcotic derived from the hemp plant.

Cocaine, he told members, is an illegal narcotic and the most potent stimulant of natural origin. It is derived from the leaves of the coca bush cultivated in the Andean Highlands of South America. "Crack" is a purer form of cocaine, processed into tiny chips. Parks said cocaine is a psychologically and physically addictive drug that can cause heart disease and death.

Parks stated that some 4,000 drug treatment programs were in effect five years ago, as compared to 7,000 now.

He continued saying that $110-billion is grossed from drug sales each year, with marijuana listed as the third largest cash crop in the country.

He said that 76-percent of high school students use alcohol, and 33-percent use marijuana.

Parks closed by telling members to attack drug abuse from the supply and demand side, teaching children to say no to drugs. "If there is no market for it, it will go away," he said.

Ralph Carillo-Miranda gave a report on the club's annual tree lot, scheduled to open Friday at the vacant lot between B&R Thriftway and Golden Fried Chicken.

Attends conference

Sue Hatcher, Code Enforcement Officer for the City of Iowa Park, attended the 15th annual Animal Control Personnel Development Program at Texas A&M Univ. last week.

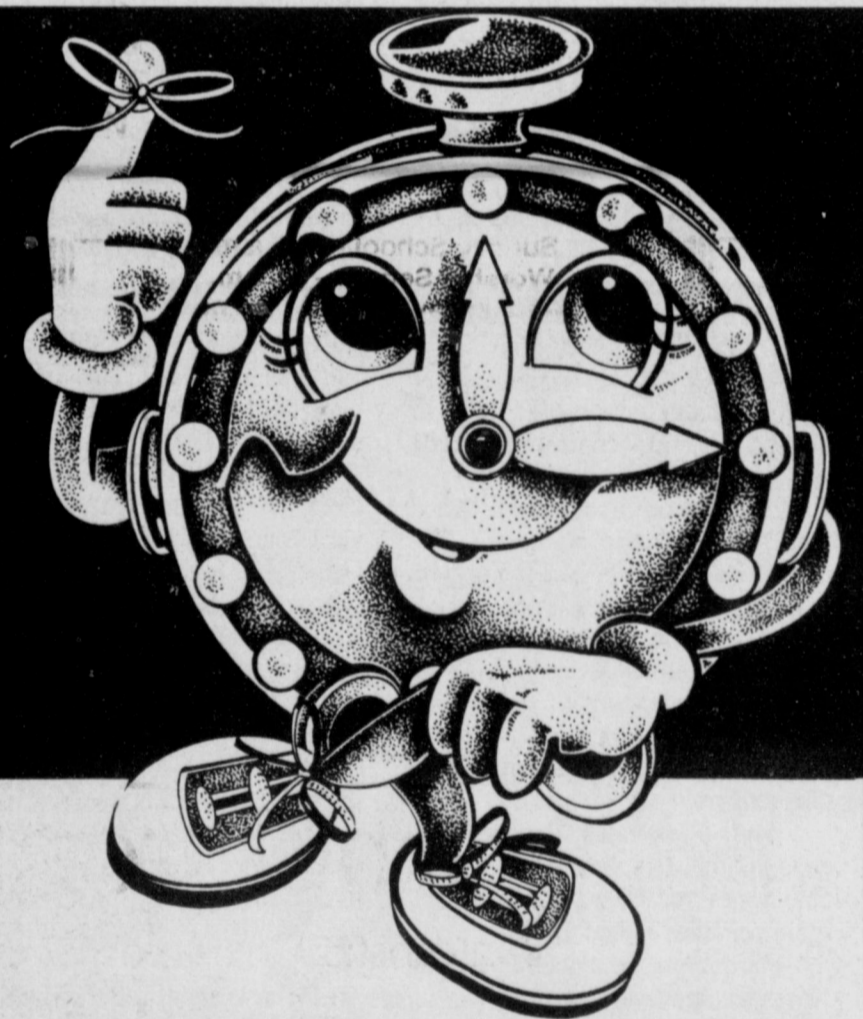

Animal control officers from Texas and surrounding states heard experts speak on subjects such as disease and parasite control, vicious dog ordinances, investigative techniques, rabies, euthanasia and grief control during the three-day conference.

The program coincided with Gov. Bill Clement's proclamation of "Animal Control Personnel Week."

CARD OF THANKS

Our sincere appreciation goes out to all our friends and neighbors for all the kindness and love shown during the illness and loss of our loved one, Joy Hedrick. To John Mollet, pastor of First Methodist Church, whose service touched us deeply and for the lovely singing by Marcie Spears.

MUENSTER'S SHANE WIMMER MOVES IN TO STOP PADUCAH'S MICHAEL EVANS

Muenster 31-0 Area champion

While the Paducah Dragons were self-destructing, Muenster's Hornets earned the Area championship Friday in Hawk Stadium.

The Hornets shut out Paducah, 31-0, and took home a trophy provided by State National Bank and presented in heavy fog by Chamber of Commerce President Robert Palmer.

The game was a season turnaround for both clubs. Muenster ended 1987 with a 3-7 record, while Paducah was eliminated in the state quarterfinals by Munday, and went home with a 13-1 record.

Muenster continues in the playoffs with a 10-1 record, and Paducah returns to basketball, 5-6.

Muenster took advantage of Dragon mistakes and scored twice in both the first and second quarters, and added one more TD in the third.

For Dragon quarterback Allen Hurd, Friday was a nightmare. The state's leading carrier as a junior with 2,032 yards, was converted to quarterback this season.

Hurd fumbled twice in the first quarter, both leading to scores, and was intercepted twice in the second period, and those both set up Hornet touchdowns.

And if turnovers weren't bad enough, the Dragons were flagged nine times for 80 yards. Time and again penalties stalled drives.

Hurd managed a net 92 yards on 18 carries, however.

Muenster had to settle for a 26-yard field goal into a stiff breeze by Bob Thornhill to light up the scoreboard initially. A holding penalty had negated a seven-yard touchdown run earlier by Donnie Boydston.

On the following kickoff, Paducah returned the ball to the Dragon 38, but on three consecutive plays the ball was set back on the 23. A Hurd fumble gave Muenster the ball on the 18.

Three plays later, Keith Klement scored from 12 yards out, and Boydston kicked the extra point for a 10-0 lead.

Following a booming, 64-yard punt by Muenster early in the second period, Paducah mounted a drive that took the ball to the Dragon 47.

But Hurd's first interception put the ball on the Dragon 38.

Hornetquarterback Jerry Brawner then completed his first pass of the evening, to Shane Wimmer, good for a 38-yard touchdown.

The Brawner-Wimmer combination worked twice more in the same period, and both were for scores.

But before Muenster was to score again, Paducah got its deepest penetration of the evening, taking the ball all the way to the Hornet 10.

Once there, however, a major penalty was followed by Hurd's second interception, this time by Boydston, who returned the ball to the Dragon 37.

With 11 seconds showing on the clock, Brawner hit Wimmer on a 42-yard touchdown pass, and then hit him again for a two-point conversion, to take a 24-0 halftime lead.

With an extremely heavy fog blowing across the field as the second half got underway, the Dragons again became their worst enemy.

Muenster, following a short punt by Hurd to his own 34, had the ball on the Dragon 17, and Paducah was flagged for defensive pass interference. That put the ball on the two yard line.

A Paducah coach then was penalized for unsportsmanship, placing the ball on the one, from where Keith Klement punched over the goal line. Thornhill's kick for extra point ended the scoring for the evening.

With the outcome evident, both teams pulled their starters midway in the fourth quarter and allowed their reserves to finish the contest.

During the second half, the fog became so thick that observers in the pressbox could not see the concession stand on the south side of the field. Play was never halted, however.

RYAN McDONALD

Former resident excelling in soccer

Ryder McDonald, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy McDonald of New Braunfels, has recently been named to the Western District Junior Olympic Developmental Soccer Team (Under 13 1/2).

He advanced to district level after being selected at New Braunfels.

The McDonalds are former residents of Iowa Park.

In January, a second tryout will be held in Austin to condense the group to a single team to represent the district in regional tryouts held this spring in Houston.

From there, a state team is formed which travels across the United States competing with other state teams in their age group. The final showdown is held at Denver in July.

McDonald was selected to play center mid-field on the district team, and competed against 117 players sent from various cities throughout western Texas.

Many of the future Olympic players are drafted from the Colorado

Competition, while others are offered college scholarships.

He began his soccer career in Iowa Park in the spring of 1981 at the age of five. He played for the Iowa Park Hawks from 1981 to '84, where his team took first place in the Greater Wichita Falls Soccer Association tournament in both the fall of 1983 and spring of '84.

In 1986, he joined the Level Two New Braunfels Blue Wave, and saw his team place first in the New Braunfels Youth Soccer Association.

McDonald joined a Level One team -- the highest level of select soccer -- in 1987 where he was co-captain on the Mid-Cities Gold Stars two seasons.

The team is coached by a professional player and coach, Daniel Pavloschi, who, himself, played Olympic soccer in Romania before his defection to the United States in 1983. Pavloschi continues to coach McDonald on a private level.

This year, McDonald is with another Level One team, the San Antonio NEYSO Arsenal '76, where he has scored more points for the team than any other player. Arsenal is coached by Dave Stolarski, former coach of the St. Mary Rattlers of San Antonio.

In recent times, McDonald attended various soccer camps where he has earned the following awards: Most Outstanding Player 1986, Roger Wrobel Soccer Camp; Best Midfielder 1987, Daniel Pavloschi Summer Camp; and Third Overall in the 1975-76 Age Group 1988, Roy Rees

School of Soccer Excellence.

He has been invited to play with the '76 Austin Capitals, '76 Georgetown Longhorns, Under-14 Mid-Cities Stars, and New Braunfels Blue Wave this year.

McDonald is a seventh-grade student at New Braunfels Middle School, where he is an honor roll student with a perfect attendance record of three years.

He has been recognized with the Presidential Physical Fitness Award for the past two years, and was honored as Most Outstanding in both Language Arts and Physical Education last spring.

He holds records in the 100-meter dash at Canyon Middle School, and plans to add track to his athletic activities this spring.

He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. G.C. (Bud) McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Guthrie, all of Iowa Park, and Rev. and Mrs. Claude C. McDonald of Katy.

Junior Hawks are recognized

A banquet was held Friday at the high school cafeteria to honor the Iowa Park Junior High football teams.

Steve Moody, junior high history teacher and former Electra coach, spoke to the audience about "determination and fulfilling your dreams."

T.J. Bean and Stan Tigrett gave the invocation and benediction.

Coaches Bob Gray, Terry Davis and Mark Wilson recognized the football players, and Carolyn Richter, cheerleader sponsor, recognized the cheerleaders.

John Hoelter also coached the Eighth Grade team.

Iowa Park MuleSkinners provided the brisket dinner.

The Seventh Grade Hawks finished with a 2-4 season, and the Eighth Grade went 4-4.

FOR TAKE OUT ORDERS
CALL 592-4731

Take precautions before ordering by mail

Christmas is not far away, and if you plan on ordering gifts by mail this year, now is the time to start shopping since it usually takes four to six weeks for the orders to be filled.

Most mail order companies are legitimate and honest. But, as in any business, some are not.

The Better Business Bureau notes that mail-order purchasing ranks near the top of its list of consumer complaints.

Some fraudulent companies are only interested in making a fast buck. They may simply take your money and close up shop.

To protect yourself, check the company out with the BBB before placing an order.

Watch out for exaggerated claims or unrealistically low prices for merchandise. Read catalog descriptions carefully -- is it wood or plastic? Diamond or glass?

Also compare prices for similar products in your area. Find out if the merchandise is offered on a satisfaction guaranteed or money-back basis.

Pay the order with a check or money order. Don't forget to include any shipping or handling charges. Keep a record of your order, and check the order as soon as it's delivered. If it is not satisfactory, notify the company immediately or, if possible, refuse delivery of damaged or spoiled merchandise.

Before placing your order, get as much information as you can about the merchandise. Scan the advertisements with care. Since you don't have the chance to examine the merchandise, any product information is important. Read the small print. "Wholesale" or "below retail" costs claims often are misleading.

When ordering, carefully give correct sizes, colors, and other product information. And make sure that you note your name, address, and zip code on the order so it may be easily read.

Also, it's a smart idea to save the mail-order advertisement.

Be aware that you have no obligation to return or pay for any un-ordered merchandise you receive and it's illegal for a company to bill you for it.

To help protect consumers against mail fraud, the Postal Service has changed its rule on C.O.D. orders. In the past, consumers were required to pay the Postal Service for C.O.D. orders. The Postal Service would then pay the company that had shipped the merchandise.

The rule now allows the recipient of a C.O.D. package to pay the charges with a check made payable to the sender. Consumers can later stop payment on the check if they think the goods have been intentionally misrepresented.

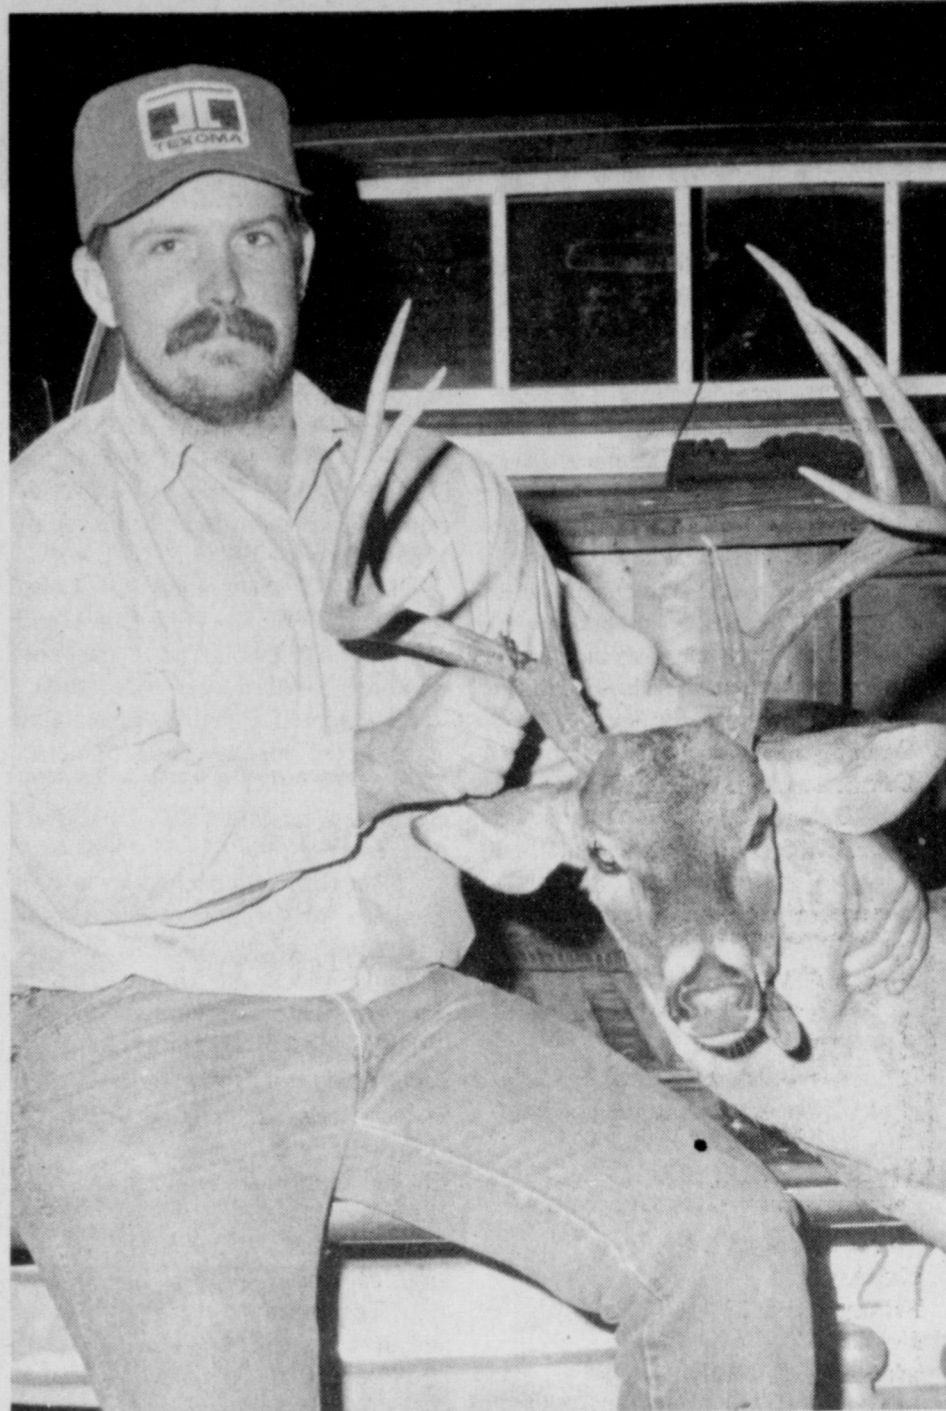

Keep in mind, some banks charge a fee for cancelled checks.

How about mail order complaints?

A Federal Trade Commission rule gives you the right to have merchandise shipped when promised, or to cancel for full refund. If no shipping date is stated, your right to cancel begins 30 days after your order and payment are received or your account is charged.

You should receive a full refund, because of shipping delay, within seven working days or one billing cycle after the company receives your request to cancel.

If you have further complaints, write to the company. If they do not respond satisfactorily, contact the local Better Business Bureau.

RONALD D. CUNNINGHAM

Cunningham enjoys travel and benefits of military

Story, photo by JO2 Todd Willebrand, USN

Ronald D. Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randal Cunningham of Iowa Park, recently visited Australia while assigned to the 7th Fleet guided missile destroyer USS Berkeley as an electronics technician third class petty officer.

The 22-year-old Texas native works on a myriad of the ship's electronics systems, maintaining, and when the need arises, repairing them.

"I wanted a new experience," said Cunningham. "So I joined the Navy."

I wanted to travel and get some training and I've managed to do both."

This is evidenced by his trip to Australia but not limited to that.

He has been to Hawaii, the Philippines and will look forward to many other exotic stops while on-board Berkeley.

"I like the travel and the experiences I have encountered so far," Cunningham said. "Experience is also something I have gained in my job. That and the great technical training I've received is what I like best about the Navy."
