WICHITA FALLS MAN DIED IN ACCIDENT WEDNESDAY MORNING
...on FM 367, just east of Bridwell Road.

FATALITY

Wichitan killed in freak wreck

Rain-slick pavement contributed to a freak accident that took the life of a 43-year-old Wichita Falls man early Wednesday morning.

The incident took place shortly before 3 a.m. on FM 367, just east of Bridwell Road.

Pronounced dead at the scene by an official of the sheriff's department was Kenneth Foreman of 3020 Pool.

Also involved in the accident were Helen Admire, who resides at Colonial Heights Apartments, and Emily Birdett of Rt. 3, Iowa Park.

Admire said she was riding with Foreman earlier, and as they neared the accident scene, Foreman swerved to avoid two dogs.

He lost control of the vehicle, apparently on the slick surface, and it rolled onto its side in a deep ditch on the north side of the pavement.

Neither driver nor passenger was injured. They were able to get out, but unable to upright the vehicle.

Admire accepted a ride to Iowa Park with a passing vehicle, to get her car. She returned, they hooked a chain onto the wrecked vehicle in another attempt to upright it, but still were unsuccessful.

The Admire car was parked on the pavement, facing west, when she saw the lights of an oncoming car from the west.

She said Foreman stepped into the middle of the road, attempting to flag down the car, which was driven by Mrs. Birdett.

Again, the pavement's slick surface came into play.

When she applied her brakes, the car skidded, striking Foreman first, and then the Admire car.

When the Birdett car came to a halt, its front wheels were almost on the pavement. Its rear wheels were in the north ditch, and Foreman's body beneath them.

The Birdett car also stopped only a couple of feet from the front bumper of the Foreman vehicle.

The Iowa Park volunteer rescue unit was summoned, to use its Jaws of Life to lift the vehicle from the victim. Wichita West volunteers also were called to the scene with its equipment.

Firm hired by school to dispose of chemicals

In a called meeting of the school board last Thursday morning, trustees approved hiring a firm to dispose of hazardous chemicals and another firm to conduct a "needs assessment of school facilities."

The high school science department had accumulated 484 containers of hazardous chemicals which were no longer usable, but must be disposed of in a manner acceptable to the federal government.

Cost of disposing is $3,825.

The complete board was not in accordance on hiring Gary Keep of Dallas to make an assessment of future building needs.

Voting for the proposal were Jerry Reed, Sheri Kennedy, Gary Fielding and John Sibley. Wendall House voted against the motion, and Don Decker was absent.

Keep, an officer of SHWC, Inc., Architects, Engineers and Planners, is to study the local facilities, as well as class enrollments, and prepare a facilities master plan for the district.

All trustees present voted approval of the district's participation in "Project 2000," which was described as a "positive plan for heightening public awareness of the issues facing schools and enlisting public support through effective communication."

Other proposals approved at the meeting were the district and campus at-risk plans, health policy manual, and recommendations from the District Improvement Committee.

The recommendations included goals of student performance, curriculum and facilities. Members of the committee included teachers, patrons, counselors, board members and administrators.

Iowa Park police continue to be inundated by burglaries and thefts.

Still under investigation are the theft of a color television, stereo speakers, cassette player, 35mm camera, jewelry and a boy's bicycle and several other items.

The burglar reportedly tore the metal screen from a window to gain entry. The theft was reported at 11:03 p.m.

A two-way radio and a pair of 12-volt batteries were taken sometime over the weekend from Iowa Park Ready Mix, 500 W. Chestnut.

Police were notified Monday afternoon of a burglary of several items from a residential garage at 309 W. Lafayette, including a drill press, arc welder, router, tork wrench and jig saw.

Tuesday, police received a report that a wood-burning stove had been taken from Iowa Park Air Conditioning, 607 W. Bank.

Two men were arrested on outstanding warrants and released after posting bonds.

Matthew Curt Wallace, 29, was picked up Thursday morning on local traffic warrants, and Ronald Dale Napier, 25, was arrested Friday evening on Department of Public Safety warrants.

MRS. MICHAEL LANIER LEATH

Schmidt, Leath vows exchanged Saturday in double-ring ceremony

Frances Cecilia Schmidt and Michael Lanier Leath exchanged nuptial vows Saturday afternoon at Tom Burnett Memorial Library. Dr. Derrell Monday, pastor of First Baptist Church in Iowa Park, officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Evelyn Schmidt of San Antonio, and Leath is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Leath of Iowa Park.

Given in marriage by her brother, Michael, Miss Schmidt wore an elegant tea-length white satin gown with a lace overlay. The dress featured a deep scoop at the neckline in the front and back. The elbow-length sleeves were puffed at the shoulders, and the waistline dipped to a V-shape in the front and back. She wore a spray of silk flowers and pearls, and carried a cascade bouquet of silk roses in candlelight and mauve to complete her wedding costume.

Observing bridal tradition, Miss Schmidt wore a ring belonging to the groom's great aunt, Mrs. Titia Belle Blanks, for "something old" and "something borrowed;" her wedding gown for "something new;" and the "something blue" garter.

Mrs. Gloria Godwin of Bryan

Eleven members of the Iowa Park High School band were awarded positions on the Class A, 2-A, and 3-A All-District Band, according to Greg Miller, IPHS band director.

Students from 20 high schools in the North Texas area auditioned recently at Rider High School for the 110 seats available in the All-District band.

Iowa Park musicians named to the band include Stacy Swan, clarinet; Marcy McCarthy, bass clarinet; Tricia Anderson, tenor saxophone; Jodi Meisel, baritone saxophone; Tim Bradberry, trumpet; Michelle Hooker and Andrea Walls, French horn; Jay Freeman and Paul Birk, trombone; Jeff Floyd, bass trombone; and Dennis Blevins, baritone.

Michelle Haney, Ken Allen, Mike Brillhart and Patrick Birk were selected as alternates.

Those selected will attend an All-District Clinic and Concert Jan. 28 at Wichita Falls High School.

and Kathrine Schmidt of San Antonio, sisters of the bride, served as honor attendants. They each wore a tea-length mauve velveteen dress, and carried a nosegay bouquet made of candlelight and mauve roses.

Jimmy Gilmore of Iowa Park was best man, and David Beck of Wichita Falls was groomsman. Murray Shook of Iowa Park and Steve Godwin of Bryan, brother-in-law of the bride, assumed ushering duties.

The groom was attired in a charcoal grey suit, and his attendants wore navy blue suits.

A reception was held following the ceremony.

The refreshment table, covered in a candlelight linen cloth and skirted with lace, held the bride's and groom's cakes, silver coffee and punch services, and the female attendants' bouquets were arranged to form a centerpiece.

The bride's cake was a three-tiered confection, each tier separated by Grecian pillars. Each tier was decorated with ruffled scallops on the sides, with clusters of mauve and pink icing roses adorning the sides and between each layer. The cake was topped with an old-fashioned porcelain miniature bride and groom figurine.

The groom's chocolate cake was decorated with an icing telephone on top, depicting the groom's occupation.

Mrs. Karen Gauthier, Mrs. Lynn Compton, Mrs. Karen Bowder and Miss Pam Smith served refreshments.

The gift table was covered with an antique lace cloth belonging to the bride's late maternal grandmother, and was centered with a "wishing well."

Misses Beckiey Leath, daughter of the groom, Sarah Shook and Erin Shook presided at the registry table.

Miss Schmidt is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and attended Midwestern State Univ. She is employed by Clarklift in Wichita Falls. The groom is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and is employed by Southwestern Bell Telephone.

The couple took a wedding trip to Dallas and Fort Worth, and are planning a delayed honeymoon trip to Telluride, Colo. The Leath's will make their home in Iowa Park.

He said that a partnership exists between the scouts and the Optimists and cited the importance of the two organizations working together.

Cook listed three things the Optimist Club is responsible for, including to insure the leadership, to provide a place for scouts to meet and to be a program resource for the scouts.

It was announced that the scouts will be putting on a pine derby in late January, and that judges and starters will be needed.

As I See It...

By BOB HAMILTON

You can look for two things to come out of Austin in the next few months: a tax increase, and some "serious" discussions among members of the newly-elected state school board.

Despite the fact the state comptroller has said the state will have an increase in state revenues of more than $1-billion, there are those elected officials who have been telling us more than a year that "we've got to have more money," but the billion is only half enough.

A so-called "poll" was taken of Texans on what they felt the best means of raising additional revenue for state government would be. And wouldn't you believe it, a corporate income tax just hit the spot.

It's that old deal of "let someone else pay the tab, I'm paying enough."

Some folks just don't seem to understand that anything charged to businesses is passed on to the consumer, or the business ceases to exist.

I have no idea what will be done to increase state revenues, but you can bet your bottom dollar (and that may be all that's left when the legislature gets through) that something is going to cost us more so we can fund state government.

In a meeting of the appointed state school board members with the elected replacements, the first of shots was fired Monday.

Bill Hudson, the retired superintendent from Electra who is now our district's representative, said he didn't like the amount of student testing that is going on.

He was quoted in the Dallas Morning News as "complaining that some officials appear to want to educate students for the state's benefit rather than the children's good."

He had expressed that same thought to me a couple of weeks ago, and I tend to agree.

"It seems that we're trying to push these children into high technology because of the economy of the state of Texas...We're educating children to make Texas prosper," he was quoted.

Well, one of the Perot-Hobby appointees who, thank goodness, is out of a job now, said he hasn't seen that occur.

The paper said William McBride of San Antonio said he has seen a "strong movement" to prepare children for productive lives.

Hudson also voiced displeasure with the passage of a constitutional amendment, which also allows investment of the Permanent School Fund in real estate and oil and gas ventures, as well as the new Texas Growth Fund.

"I don't think the people of Texas understood the constitutional amendment the way it was written on the ballot," he said.

Bless his heart, Bill is one who will say what he thinks. But I don't think it's going to set too well with the big city liberals who dominate the newly-elected board.

There'll be some sparks flying while that good'un is in office. And I think that's the reason we elected him.

Worth Quoting

Two agencies of the federal government, FDIC and FSLIC, are well-known here in West Texas.

They're the cats who walk in and take over failed banks and savings and loan institutions, merge them with healthier institutions, or find new buyers after swallowing all the bad loans.

They're the people who are guaranteeing your account at the bank or savings and loan up to $100,000.

We've been a close observer of the actions of these two agencies ever since they wiped out a lot of stockholders in banks at Seminole, Snyder, Lubbock, Midland and Odessa. We've read of their actions at 40 or 50 other institutions in Texas and it rattles.

The two agencies seem to have a bias against West Texas and the oil patch in general and small town institutions in particular.

In almost every instance when they take over a bank or savings and loan out here, the excuse is given that the institution failed because of bad loans, bad judgement, mismanagement, greed, or self-serving actions on the part of the bank's or savings and loan officers.

Never, never, do you read of any admission of fault by the FDIC or the FSLIC. Nosirreeeeebob.

Yet, every bank, every savings institution that is a member of FDIC or FSLIC is audited regularly by those agencies -- and those loans were approved and okayed as good by the agency auditors. How come when the loans go sour because of falling crude oil prices or real estate, suddenly it's the institutions' fault? How come the auditors of those two regulatory agencies, who approved those loans year after year, are not held accountable, and not prosecuted, are not held equally responsible? We can well remember back in 1984 and the early part of '85 that nearly everyone in the oil patch was in agreement that oil could easily go to $90 per barrel. Economists with the major oil companies, forecasters with banks and with savings and loans, federal reserve officials, and most experts with the top agencies in this country, were predicting $90 per barrel oil, and our Texas legislature was spending every dime collected because tomorrow there would be even more taxes flowing in.

Yet when everything turned sour, when the price of crude fell rather than climb, and loans turned bad, suddenly the whole disaster was blamed on the lenders. Certainly, lenders were at fault but it seems to us, in all fairness, that the regulators, the auditors, of the FDIC and FSLIC who for years okayed those loans, ought to be held accountable.

There's enough blame to go around for all -- and those two agencies ought to admit they were just as gullible as everyone else in the financial world.

JAMES ROBERTS
Andrews County News

News media, both television and print, had a field day with McGregor last week over the old application for membership that had been used by the McGregor Volunteer Fire Department.

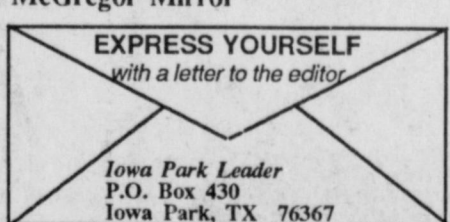

The yellowed form said in eight-point type that only "white males, 21 years of age or older" need apply for membership. Everyone should know that those days are gone forever, and rightly so.

The Emergency Medical Service, which shares the garage space with the MVFD, is staffed by many well-qualified blacks, Hispanics and women. Representatives of each have served as president. I doubt that members of this volunteer organization have even considered the race and sex of its members.

I know the MVFD application that was displayed at the city meeting last Monday night was printed sometime before the 1940s. I could tell by the type that was used by The Mirror in printing it. Revelation of its wording came as a shock to most of the people at the meeting. A new application has been printed this week. It contains no reference to race or sex, but it does specify that the applicant be of "sound mind, able body and of good moral character."

This matter should be resolved. I hope so. Those of us who love McGregor hate to see news of this sort played so prominently in the Waco media.

TOM MOONEY
McGregor Mirror

Dear Mr. Hamilton,

As a citizen and a taxpayer in this nice town, I would like to know why at every city council meeting the council will discuss and vote yes on every item that will get the City new trucks, new phones, new offices, new pay raises and everything else that benefits the city and its employees.

For the past 9 years that I have lived in this town I have been hitting the same hole in the same street. At the corner of James Dr. and W. Garden, the hole has been filled with a shovel full of asphalt and they expect this to last a lifetime. It only last about two weeks. I don't understand why they don't just replace the pavement at the intersection. But I guess that is asking to much from them. They might need new paper clips and staples.

Also, on South Wall from Diamond St. to W. Garden where the street was just replaced to the stop sign, what about the rest of the street to Garden Dr. it is a disgrace. For all the damage it has caused citizens on their cars, I'm surprised they haven't been sued yet.

For once in history replace these bad places on the streets instead of buying new cars and computers.

Also, the 10¢ donation on the water bill is to buy decorations for the city streets. I was upset to know that the Library got most of the decorations. I don't consider the Library as part of the city streets. After all go in there and try to find something on Alzheimer's Disease besides the definition. If you find out please let me know, because that's all that I found.

EDITORIAL

Iowa Parkans have right to be proud

Iowa Parkans have earned the right to be smugly proud of how their community looks during this Christmas season.

Residents are decorating their homes with lights, wreaths and creating scenes that make for a most interesting season tour. The business community is also doing its part. And the community's volunteer donations to the public area decorations crown the entire effort.

If you've not yet been out driving at night, you should. You will find it a rewarding experience.

There have been periods when the community was not so attractive during the Yule season. This was during the late 1970s and early part of this decade, partially because of the energy crisis but primarily when the public area decorations, purchased in the first place, were declared unfit to be displayed after years of use.

The proposal made by Mrs. Phil Welch that was gratefully accepted by our city council, to collect at least 10¢ monthly from volunteers with the utility bills, has made the big difference here. And lest we forget, a lot of hard work by our city employees is expended in displaying the decorations in the public areas.

We owe Mrs. Welch and our city council our sincere appreciation and encourage continued support of the project.

And Iowa Parkans also are to be congratulated, not only for their generous monthly donations to the decorations fund, but also for their individual efforts of making their homes a seasonal sight to behold.

The beautiful time of Christmas is made even more beautiful, with everybody's help and cooperation.

"Week of Prayer" observed by Baptist Women's group

Mrs. E.T. Patterson presented the program for the Thelma Smith Baptist Women Monday evening in a meeting held in the Fellowship Hall

RICHARD S. LUNA
Completes basic

Pvt. Richard S. Luna has completed basic training and Advanced Infantry Technology at Fort Benning, Ga.

While in training at Fort Benning, Luna studied tank weapons, hand to hand combat and first aid, among other facets of the Army.

He is now stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky., where he will study air assault.

The 1988 graduate of Iowa Park High School is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Luna of Iowa Park.

of First Baptist Church. The theme of the program was "Because We Have Been Given Much" in observance of the Lottie Moon Week of Prayer.

She remarked that 1988 marked the 100th anniversary of the Southern Baptist taking an offering for foreign missions, the first offering was at the request of Lottie Moon, a missionary to China. She said that since that first offering a billion dollars had been given at Christmas time for foreign missions.

Mrs. Patterson discussed the work of missionaries in Honduras, Austria, Taiwan, Togo, Brazil, Israel, Botswana and the Philippines, only a few of the countries that benefit from the annual Lottie Moon Christmas offerings. She introduced the program with special prayer for missionaries on the birthday calendar for the day.

Mrs. V.I. Woodfin conducted the business and gave a report on the missions in action project.

Mrs. Roy Smith and Miss Helen Reed were hostesses for the meeting. Christmas decorations throughout the room and on the refreshment table reflected the ingenuity of the hostesses. Seventeen members were present.

Come on home!

HOW GREAT THOU ART!

Anyone who thinks the sky is the limit has no imagination. The sun is so large that if it were hollow, it could contain one million worlds the size of earth. There are stars larger that could hold 500 earths! Distancewise if the distance from earth to sun was the thickness of this newspaper the distance to the nearest star would be represented a stack of paper 71 feet high. The diameter of our little galaxy would be a 310 mile sheaf of paper. Numberwise if a person counted 250 a minute for 1,000 years we would count to 100 billion. Multiply that by a few trillion and you get an idea of the possible number of galaxies in the universe, each with about 100 billion stars. Visualize this way: look up at the sky on a clear night, you can see as much of the universe as a protozoan can see ocean, about one drop of the boundless sea. God brought all this into existence by simple words. How powerful the World of God is to accomplish His purposes! (Hebrews 4:12, Romans 1:16) Why would God make such an immense expanse in order for us to play out our small earth's invitation to redemption and glory? When the universe is considered, most of us are drenched with needful humility. David expressed it well: "The heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament shows his handiwork." (Psalm 19:1). "What is man that thou art mindful of him?" (Psalm 8:4). Consider that the universe indicates the limitless love of God. That vast excess of the universe demonstrates that the love and beauty of our God is abundant. Only one that loves our Creator dares to think of this.

Safe toys for safe tots this holiday season

Christmas just wouldn't be the same without toys for the children.

But each year many children are injured by cute, seemingly harmless playthings meant for their joy and entertainment.

Texas Safety Association offers the following safety guidelines to help you make the smart choices during your holiday season buying.

* When selecting toys for babies or toddlers, choose those made of washable, flexible materials. Toys constructed of glass, brittle plastic, or other hard materials should be avoided.

* Toys should not be small enough to fit in mouths, ears, or noses.

* Avoid toys with cords or strings that could wrap around a child's neck.

* Select brightly colored toys that are light enough not to cause injury if dropped on the child. Mobiles, squishy stuffed dolls, or squeeze toys make good choices.

* Avoid toys with sharp edges, small detachable parts, or electrical or toxic components.

* Check stuffed toys for internal wires, or small pieces such as eyes that might be pulled off and swallowed.

Purchasing toys for older children require a safe approach, as well.

* Be sure that playthings are well-constructed and strong enough to withstand hard use.

* If you purchase electrical toys, make sure they bear the Underwriters Laboratories (UL) label. You can eliminate shock and cord hazards by buying battery-operated toys, instead.

* Avoid toys that have heating elements.

* If used with the chemicals provided in the set, chemistry sets are generally a safe buy.

* Avoid toys that shoot a projectile, such as arrows, rubber-tipped darts, disks, or other hard materials that could injure an eye.

After all the gifts have been opened and the wrapping thrown away, show your children the safe way to play with their new toys, and how to store them when they are finished.

Remind older children to keep their toys out of reach of smaller children, and if a broken toy can't be fixed, throw it away.

Cook of the Week

Mrs. Calvin Huff

This week's featured cook, Elaine (Mrs. Calvin) Huff, is an active mother of two whose recipes indicate that her interests lie in the kitchen as well as other areas.

Mrs. Huff acknowledged that taste cannot be compromised when cooking for two teenagers, probably any mother's worst critics at the dinner table. And her recipes show that a lot of thought go into her meals as well as desserts.

Mrs. Huff and her husband, Calvin, have lived in Iowa Park 14 years, moving here from Wichita Falls. Mr. Huff is employed at Cryovac.

The couple's two children, Tammie, 17, and Jamey, 15, are both active students at Iowa Park High School.

The couple are members of FFA Boosters, where Mrs. Huff is reporter, and Band Boosters. They were previously involved in Little League Baseball and Pee Wee Football.

In her spare time, Elaine enjoys reading, horseback riding and tennis.

23 Study Club gives Christmas program

The 23 Study Club held a brief business meeting Thursday afternoon at TU Electric before departing for the 33rd annual Christmas visit to Wichita Falls State Hospital. Mrs. C.L. Thompson, federation counselor, gave a report on International Clubwomen.

At the hospital, Mrs. China B. Smith, club president, greeted several hundred patients, staff members and workers, and told "Twas the Night Before Christmas" and "A Cowboy's Christmas," and Mrs. Don Stribling led the group in singing favorite Christmas carols.

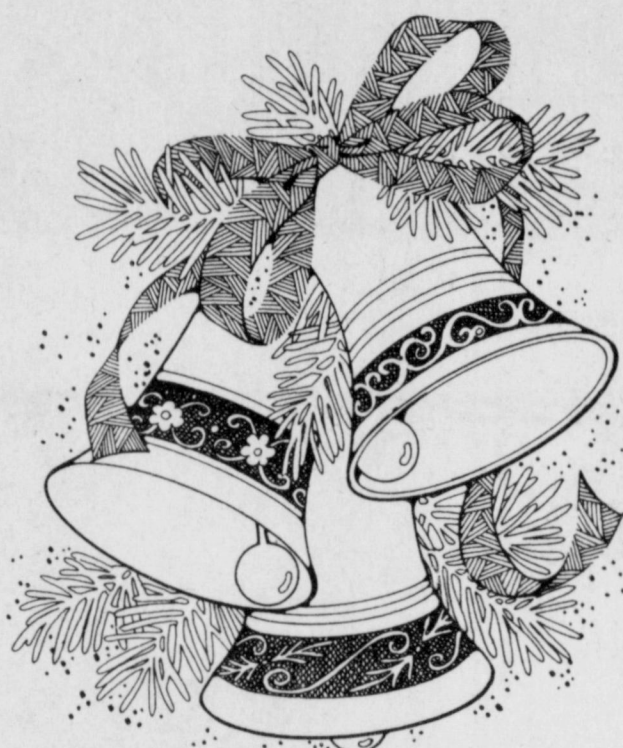

Following the program, the patients were served homemade cookies and drinks provided by the club, which also presented a monetary gift to Volunteer Services.

As members returned to Iowa Park, they went by the home of Mr. and Mrs. China B. Smith where they had been invited for refreshments. The home was attractively decorated for the Christmas season.

The next meeting will be Dec. 15 at the home of Mrs. Howard Marlar for the annual Christmas party and program. The co-hostesses will be Mmes. C.E. Birk, Warren McDonald and China B. Smith.

Christmas 'Tour of Homes' slated Saturday

The events leading up to the traditional festivities of Christmas day can be just as pleasing, at least to the eye, as the opening of gifts or the Christmas feast.

This is evident in the beautifully decorated homes on slate for the annual Christmas Tour of Homes scheduled from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday.

The tour, sponsored each year by the Iowa Park Recreational Activity Center, will include the homes of Messrs. and Mmes. Don Decker, Joe Singer, Dale Thompson, Stanley Williamson and Roger York. Refreshments will be served at the Decker home.

Tickets for the annual fund-raiser are $3 per person and are available at the RAC, located at 304 E. Texas, from RAC board members or by calling 592-4471 or 592-4941.

Modern Dentistry

By Dr. Richard Carver

Using modern materials enables the dentist to be able to provide high quality and long lasting dentistry, such as the latest porcelain veneer facings that require no shots or grinding on the teeth and you can change the color of that tooth that has turned brown.

The very latest in personalized full and partial dentures can make a real difference in your appearance, ability to use them, and your outlook on life.

The use of the new bonding composites makes it possible to restore the shape of those front teeth that have broken or have been filled with silver.

To protect your health we are wearing surgical gloves and masks and sterilizing the instruments with chemicals, heat, and pressure as well as ultrasonic pre-cleaning...yes...we change gloves between patients!

"I've made a lot of friends over the years. I was ready for a career change. I'm not going to leave Iowa Park. I like it here." Jack Watson, father of Dan who is a third generation in the cleaning business, said no changes in personnel or time of business are planned. The only change is the addition of Nobby's to the name, he said.

Rep. Finnell preparing for legislative session

With a month remaining before the 71st Texas Legislature convenes on Jan. 10, Rep. Charles Finnell is already working to prepare himself and others for the biennial session.

Finnell, who ranks fourth in House seniority, was among a group of legislators invited to Austin to discuss vital issues such as school finance and to help orient the 26 newly-elected House members about life in the Legislature.

His wife, Kay, also played a role in the orientation as president of the Legislative Ladies Club. She drew on her experiences to help the new members' spouses prepare for the changes in their lives.

Finnell also is conferring on the issue of public school finance directly affecting each of the 21 independent school districts of his 80th District, preparing his legislative agenda and discussing upcoming committee assignments with the Speaker of the House.

He currently chairs the House General Investigating Committee and also serves on the House Retirement and Aging Committee and the County Affairs Committee.

How does the old saying go? "If the first time you don't succeed..."

Dist. 5-AAA football champion Decatur will get another shot at Southlake Carroll when the two meet at 8 p.m. Saturday on Pennington Field in Bedford for the Class AAA state semi-finals. Navasota and Sweeny are playing the same night for the south half title.

One of the Eagles' two losses was in nonconference play to Carroll, 24-0.

McGregor was finally knocked out of the AA playoffs last week, 29-25 by Celina. The Bulldogs went all the way to the AAA finals last year after defeating Iowa Park.

8th Lady Hawks defeat Graham

Of four basketball games between Iowa Park and Graham junior high schools played Monday, the Eighth Grade Lady Hawks were the only local winners.

In swamping Graham 44-12, the Eighth Grade girls continued their undefeated season.

Erica Knight led in scoring with 10 points, Shelley Goodknight had nine, Christie Catlin seven and Michelle Robertson six.

Graham edged the Seventh Grade girls' game, 19-16. Nikki Williams had five for Iowa Park and Jennifer Ricks three.

The Eighth Grade Steers defeated Iowa Park 52-39, despite the 18-point effort of Mark Childs.

Graham also won the Seventh Grade boys' game, 34-25. Scott Byrd had 10 for the locals.

Lady Hawks in action Friday

The Lady Hawks will be looking for their second win of the season when they take on Chillicothe Friday morning in the Holliday tournament.

A win in the 8:30 a.m. game would put the team back on the court at 7 that evening, but they will return at 4 p.m. if they lose.

The Lady Hawks were edged 37-35 Tuesday night by Wichita Falls High, a team they defeated 45-40 last week.

The Lady Coyotes jumped out to a 24-14 halftime lead, and then fought off a rally by Iowa Park in which the Lady Hawks outscored their hosts 8-4 and 13-9 in the final two quarters.

Tomie Sue Cockburn was the only Iowa Parkian in double figures, with 10.

The JV defeated Wichita 37-25, with Melody Gray scoring 10. Wichita Falls won the Freshman game, however, 27-19.

Iowa Park lost both games in Graham's tournament, 42-30 to Archer City and 56-40 to Olney, after leading 23-20 at the half and 36-34 going into the final stanza.

Cockburn was high in Friday's game with nine points. Kerri Dorner and Misti Murray each had 11 against Olney.

The varsity, junior varsity and freshmen will host Burk Burnett Tuesday, with the first game starting at 5 p.m.

'Dogs drop Hawks

Iowa Park's Hawks gave Burk Burnett all the competition they could handle in the early part of their game here Tuesday night, but a disastrous third quarter put the visitors out of reach.

The AAAA Bulldogs won 80-56 and handed the Hawks their fifth loss in six outings.

Iowa Park won its first game of the season in the Graham tournament last weekend, defeating Olney 56-51 in overtime. They lost 62-42 to Archer City and 69-38 to Bowie.

The Hawks' defense caused several Burk Burnett turnovers during the first half, allowing them to stay in the game. They were tied 14-14 at the end of the first quarter, and trailed only nine points, 34-25, at the half.

But four consecutive turnovers by reserves in the third quarter led to nine unanswered points by the 'Dogs, and they held a 62-40 lead going into the final stanza.

Jeff Floyd, after missing three shots under the basket early in the game, finished with 18 points. Jimmy Duggins had 14.

Playing Olney in the consolation bracket, the Hawks scored nine points in the first, second, fourth and overtime periods. But a big 20-10 third quarter, coupled with Floyd's seven points in overtime, turned the trick for Iowa Park.

Olney led 13-9 after the first period and 27-18 at the half. Regulation time expired with the score knotted at 47-47.

Three Hawks finished in double figures: Duggins 17, Floyd 13, and Bruce Palmer 10.

Archer City, the defending state AA champion, jumped out to a 20-8 lead in the first period, but led only by nine at the half, 31-22.

Duggins had 10 points and Wayne Chitwood scored eight.

The quarter scores against Bowie were similar to those against Archer City, in Saturday's game.

The Jackrabbits led 21-5, 31-22 and 52-26 at the end of the first three periods.

Duggins again led the Hawks in scoring with 21 points. Clay Miller canned seven.

The Hawks are scheduled to play in the Holliday tournament this weekend, which opens today, and the Freshmen are to play in a tournament at Vernon.

The Junior Varsity lost 62-24 to Rider and 64-40 to Hirschi in a tournament at Wichita Falls last week. Michael Reasor scored seven against Rider and Patrick Birk had nine in the Hirschi game.

The JV lost 69-31 to Burk here Tuesday.

The well is located in a 2,100-acre lease 1,300 feet north and approximately 250 feet west of southwest corner of the L.C. Dennison Survey.

Drilling operations are nearing the 8,600-ft. mark at the No. 1 Brown "B5" in a Hardeman County wildcat location. Spudded on November 2, the venture is in a lease three miles west of Medicine Mound in a 672-acre lease 2,270 feet from the north line and 374 feet from the west line of Sec. 85, Blk. H of the W&NW Survey. Paul DeCleva Inc. of Wichita Falls is the operator.

Oil patch haulers call for changes in pricing

The president-elect of Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association called on the Railroad Commission of Texas at Victoria Tuesday to allow trucking rates and service terms to be determined in the marketplace.

Rob Looney of Austin, speaking on behalf of the Coalition for Competitive Oil Field Transportation, told the inaugural State of the Transportation Industry Conference sponsored by the RRC that "restrictive Commission rules and procedures impede flexible responses to the changing marketplace."

Looney said the Coalition was formed out of a common concern that Texas' regulated trucking rates are abnormally high in comparison with widely available, interstate contract rates.

Looney noted that a report by the Coalition has concluded that the disparity between interstate and intrastate trucking rates may be as much as 30 to 60 percent.

For example, the cost of shipping rigs and pipe from Denver City to Midland is $194 per mile compared with a cost of $111 per mile to ship an identical cargo from Lovington, New Mexico, to Midland.

Likewise, the cost of shipping lube oil from Baytown to Texarkana is $2.38 per mile while the same shipment from Baton Rouge, Louisiana, to Texarkana costs $1.84 per mile.

"Such high Texas shipping rates reduce the ability of Texas petroleum service and supply industries to compete for business in Texas. Missed sales can translate into losses of jobs, payrolls and tax receipts, thus hurting the state's economy as well as the Texas oil industry.

"In the face of oil price adversity beyond our control, we hardly can tolerate self-inflicted injury to the competitiveness of the Texas petroleum industry. We need transportation policies that enhance our competitiveness through provision for competitive oil field transportation pricing and flexible terms of service," Looney added.

"The member companies represented by the Coalition do not feel they need to be protected from the carriers and they do not believe the carriers should continue to be insulated from competition with one another. The Coalition supports ICC-like economic deregulation of Texas' oil field trucking industry as the ultimate solution," he said.
