Police recover stolen property

Investigation by local police into the theft of a riding lawnmower reported Monday has led to the recovery of numerous stolen items and will clear a large number of burglary reports in Iowa Park.

When police began investigating the theft of the mower, taken from 307 W. Lafayette, the trail led to a rural residence on Huntington Lane, north of US 287. There, police found more items than could be loaded onto two pickups.

"We'll be doing paperwork for at least two weeks on all these items we've recovered," commented Chief Alan Sheffield.

The items, including the mower, lawn mowers, tillers, two motorcycles, boat motors and power tools, were brought into town Wednesday where officers immediately began cataloging their finds.

A complete inventory will be released next week.

Several arrests are expected during the week, Sheffield said.

As if the discovery wasn't enough, Iowa Park police had one of their busiest weeks in several months, unlike the preceding week.

According to the police blotter, police received complaints of six thefts, including the riding mower, six criminal mischief complaints, and made three arrests that were unrelated to the thefts.

The first theft was reported Saturday, when a 10-speed, light blue bicycle was reportedly taken from the front porch of a home in the 300 block of Kathleen.

Sunday, the theft of several small hand tools and seven quarts of oil was reported in the 100 block of East Jefferson.

Another theft was reported Monday to police, when a resident in the 600 block of West Washington told police an electric boat motor and fishing tackle was taken sometime during the previous night.

Cadillac hood and trunk ornaments were reportedly taken Tuesday from a vehicle while parked in the west lot at the high school.

Also reported Tuesday was the theft of gasoline from a vehicle and an eight-foot ladder from a home in

TWO FIRES SATURDAY - Kamay and Iowa Park firemen answered a call Saturday to the Pete Ermis home, where a blaze had spread from the fireplace to the walls and flooring. Quick response and hard work saved the structure. That evening, Iowa Park firemen (shown above) were called to 105 E. Garden, home of Bill Sasser. Fire apparently began in the water heater compartment and had spread into the kitchen cabinets. Much of the house interior was damaged by heat and smoke.

Filing begins in May 6 elections

Incumbent city alderman Virgil Woodfin was the first to file as a candidate for the May 6 election, but as of Wednesday, no one had filed for a place in the school's election.

Woodfin, who occupies Place One on the council, completed and turned in his paperwork Monday, which was the first day for candidates to file.

Neither Johnny Coker, Place

Three, nor Diane Robnett, Place Five, have indicated whether they will be candidates for re-election.

Terms of two school trustees expire this spring. They are Jimmy Howell, Place Five, and Jerry Reed, Place Four.

Howell, who has served as chairman of the board the past two years, has said in meetings he would not seek return to the board. He has not, however, recently verified his intent. Reed reportedly had picked up the paperwork to file for re-election.

Qualifications to hold office include being a citizen of the United States, a registered voter, at least 18 years of age and a resident of the city (for the council) or school district (for the board).

Holdover council members include Bud Mercer, Bud Burch and Mayor Tim Hunter.

School board holdovers include John Sibley, Wendall House, Don Decker, Sheri Kennedy and Gary Fielding.

Applications for places on the two ballots will be accepted until 5 p.m. on March 22, and absentee voting by personal appearance begins April 17.

Other important dates for the election are April 28, the last day to receive applications for absentee ballots to be voted by mail, and May 2, last day to vote absentee by personal appearance.

Applications for filing, as well as absentee voting, are at city hall for the city election, and school administration building, for the city election.

Trustees set work session Monday

School trustees will hold a work session Monday night, primarily to assess recommendations for future building needs.

The only action to be taken by trustees at the meeting, which will be held at the Baptist Chaparral Camp, is to vote on a request to buy robes for the junior high choir.

Supt. Glen Mitchell said recommendations made by Gary Keep, who was engaged to study future needs at the four campuses of the district, will be discussed, along with input from the four campus principals.

The board's next meeting has been set Mar. 13.

Local teacher helps with new state test

The Texas Education Agency is to change its testing of students in public schools, and an Iowa Park teacher has participated in formulating a part of the examination.

The new TEXAS test (Texas Academic Skills) is to be introduced throughout the state in the fall of 1990, replacing the TEAMS test (Texas Assessment of Minimum Skills).

Jan Yeager, who teaches math to fourth grade students at Bradford Elementary, returned last week from Austin where she was invited by the TEA to be a part of the committee developing the new TEXAS test.

Grades to be tested will be the same as those currently taking the TEAMS test, which are the first, third, fifth, seventh, ninth and 11th, or exit level for high school.

The first grade test will be a "readiness" test.

TML members to meet here tonight

Area municipal officials are to attend a quarterly meeting of the Texas Municipal League here tonight. The Iowa Park city council will host a steak dinner for the visiting officials, to begin at 7 p.m. in the MuleSkinners' MuleBarn. Approximately 80 are expected.

Bloodmobile set here Monday

The Red River Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at Faith Baptist Church between 4 and 6:30 p.m.

Monday. Iowa Park's goal is 30 pints.

3.28 inches are measured here

Though more than four inches of rain was measured in some areas north of town, Iowa Park received

3.28 inches from the recent wet spell, according to Virgil Woodfin.

FOURTH STRAIGHT YEAR

Mock trial team state-bound

Iowa Park High School's mock trial team has won region every year it has been held as a competitive event and qualified for the state meet. And this year is no exception.

Eventhough the number of schools competing has increased to five, this will be the fourth consecutive year Iowa Park has advanced to the state level.

The team, sponsored by Jeanie Wilson, earned its ticket to the Mar. 10-11 meet in Dallas by winning the regional held Saturday in Wichita Falls.

Members include David Rinehart, Steve Catlin, Jenny Salan, Chris Blalack, Marc Thames, Paul Schlaud and Bruce Palmer.

Frank Trotter and Ron Poole are attorney coaches.

Other schools competing this year were Bowie, Holliday and two from Wichita Falls High.

This year's case was Bison County School district vs. Ossicles, a rock band.

In the first round, Iowa Park was the plaintiff and defeated one of the Old High teams.

Lawyers were Rinehart, who opened proceedings, and Catlin did the closing. Their witnesses included Kim Stewart, a teenager and senior class officer, played by Salan, and William Stanley Blum, a senior history teacher and senior class sponsor, played by Thames.

Iowa Park defeated Bowie in the second round.

The local team was given the defense in the case. Blalack opened for the defense and Salan closed. Witnesses included E. Tim Pany, the band's drummer, played by Thames, and Lesley Lefleur, the band's agent, played by Schlaud.

Iowa Park drew a bye in the third round.

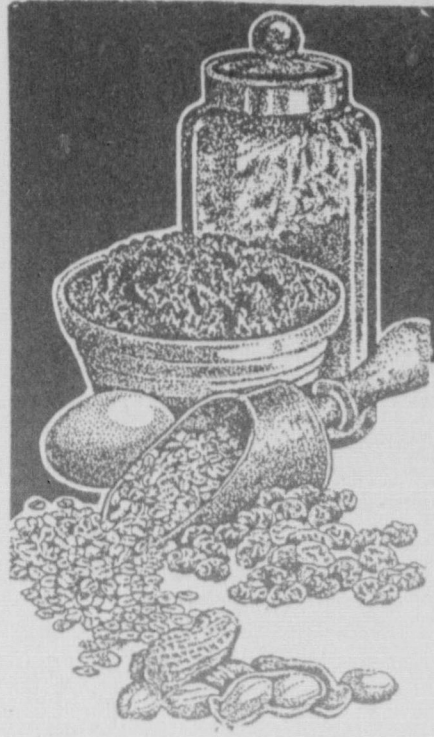

Entering the fourth and final round, Iowa Park took on Holliday. Both were 2-0 in competition.

Cook of the Week

Brenda Ivey, an energetic mother of four, integrates her love for children into a career.

Mrs. Ivey runs a registered daycare home, where she keeps three children. Entertaining, feeding and taking care of her own children, David, 12, Rachel, 10, Ronny, seven and Matthew, two, comes naturally to Brenda, and prepared her to take on other children.

In order to run a daycare home, organizational skills and creative planning must be at an optimum. Brenda said she has learned to do extra chores while the children are napping, and judging the recipes she submitted, she knows a wide variety of food is essential for the health of her children.

Brenda also has a love for outdoor activities, and has instilled that in her children. She said she enjoys gardening and canning her produce, camping and fishing, the latter of which she taught her children.

The former Brenda Stewart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Stewart of Iowa Park, and Patricia Stewart of Wichita Falls. She was raised in Iowa Park and attended schools here.

The family are members of First Presbyterian Church in Iowa Park.

PEACH PIE AND FLAKY CRUST

Crust:
2 cups flour
1 stick margarine, room temperature
1 lg. pkg. cream cheese, room temperature

Combine ingredients. Mix well. Divide dough in half. Spread 1/2 dough in pie pan with your hands. Roll other 1/2 dough out on heavily floured board for top crust.

Peach Pie:
2 cups sliced peaches
1/4 cup sugar
2 tsp. margarine
1 tsp. cinnamon
2 Tbsp. cornstarch

Brenda Ivey

Measure peaches into bowl. Combine sugar, cinnamon and cornstarch. Stir into peaches. Add syrup off of peaches according to how much juice you want. Pour peach mixture into prepared crust. Dot with margarine. Add top crust and make slits. Sprinkle with sugar. Bake in preheated 400 degree oven 30 to 40 minutes.

HAMBURGER CASSEROLE

1 lb. hamburger
1 onion, chopped
1 can whole kernel corn, drained
1 can peas, drained
1 lg. can tomato sauce
1 pkg. corn bread mix
Brown hamburger and onion together. Drain grease. Add corn, peas and tomato sauce. Heat until warm. (You may need to add a small can of tomato sauce if you want more sauce) Mix corn bread mix according to directions on the package. Spread cornbread mix on top of meat and vegetable mixture. Bake in 425 degree oven until cornbread is done, about 25 minutes. If you brown your meat in an iron skillet, you can put it in the oven, also.

PORK CHOPS AND SAUERKRAUT

6 to 8 pork chops
1 can sauerkraut
1 lg. onion
4 to 6 potatoes
Peel and slice potatoes. Arrange in the bottom of a crock pot. Slice onion and put on top of potatoes. Put sauerkraut on top of onions. Arrange pork chops on top of sauerkraut. Salt and pepper. Cook several hours. Can also be cooked in the oven 1 1/2 to 2 hours on 350 degrees.

HOMEMADE BISCUITS AND CHOCOLATE GRAVY

Biscuits:
2 cups sifted flour
3 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. salt
1/3 cup shortening
3/4 cup milk
Preheat oven to 425 degrees. Mix flour, baking powder and salt in a bowl. Cut in shortening with pastry blender or fork until mixture looks like coarse meal. Add milk and stir just enough to hold dough together. Place dough on a flour board. Knead lightly about 10 times. Roll dough 1/2" thick. Cut with floured biscuit cutter. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet 12 to 15 minutes or until as brown as desired.

Chocolate gravy:
1 cup sugar
1/4 cup cocoa
1/2 cup water
1/4 cup milk
3 to 4 Tbsp. flour
Combine sugar and cocoa in a small saucepan. Add water. Mix well. Mix flour and milk together and stir until flour is dissolved. Stir into sugar and cocoa mixture. Cook over medium heat until thickened. Serve over hot biscuits.

No presents, please!

If you're planning to attend the 85th birthday celebration for Mrs. Gladys James Saturday, don't bring a present.

Mrs. James explained invitations that were mailed did not state she didn't want presents, and she wanted her friends to be sure and know.

The event, which is being hosted by her children, will be from 2 to 5 p.m. Saturday at the Tom Burnett Memorial Library.

Wood is initiated

John Wood, freshman agriculture economics major at Okalahoma State Univ. at Stillwater, has been initiated into Sigma Alpha Epsilon, a social fraternity.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Wood, is a 1988 graduate of Iowa Park High School.

Epsilon Eta plans 40th anniversary

The Epsilon Eta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha made plans for the club's 40th anniversary in April at a meeting held recently in the home of Mary Lynn Boyd.

Co-hostesses were Toni Wood, Dee Dee Kelley and Skitter Clark.

Epsilon Eta was chartered in April, 1949. Committees are being set up for the event which will be held April 30 at Tom Burnett Memorial Library.

Dee Dee Forney presided over the business meeting where Connie Hrcirik gave a report on service projects coming up. She announced that the chapter will sell balloons at the Easter Seal Telethon Mar. 5 at Sikes Center Mall. She also said that ESA members will be manning phones at the home of Lela Mercer Mar. 4 and 5. Pledges will be taken by phone at 592-4610.

Hrcirik also announced that a benefit for Shannon Haymon will be held Mar. 12.

Lela Mercer gave the opening thought, "The Closing of Doors and Other Doors Opening for You."

It was announced that the club's youth award will be presented at the next meeting.

Toni Wood, Mary Lynn Boyd and Dee Dee Kelly gave the educational program on mental retardation and how the MHMR began in the area. They also told of how the ARC began their training centers.

RENEE SADBERRY AND JOSEPH KING

Engagement announced

Miss Renee SADBERRY and Joseph King will be married June 17 at Faith Baptist Church in Iowa Park, according to an announcement by the couple's parents.

Miss SADBERRY is the daughter of Addie SADBERRY of Iowa Park and Mr. and Mrs. Lee SADBERRY of Holliday.

King is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John King of Archer City.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and is employed at City View Day Care. Her fiancé is a graduate of Archer City High School and is employed by Archer City Schools.

Nation's capital is program of 23 Study Club

The quote, "That the future may learn from the past," the motto of Colonial Williamsburg, was a suitable one for the 23 Study Club's Public Affairs program given at a meeting held Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Jim Medlinger. The co-hostesses were Mrs. John Clapp and Mrs. C.L. Metz. Mrs. C.E. Birk served as program leader.

The fine arts number was an organ and piano presentation by Mrs. Medlinger and Mrs. John Rentschler who played a patriotic medley of "America the Beautiful."

Mrs. Homer Blalock gave the devotion on "The Noblest of Human Graces: Magnanimity." She used three public figures in past history, Abraham Lincoln, Robert E. Lee and Booker T. Washington, as examples of showing magnanimous spirits.

Mrs. Frances Park took club members on a tour of the National Capital and Colonial Williamsburg to places of historic significance and breathtaking beauty through slides, pictures and narration. Appreciation of the national heritage was enhanced through visits to John F. Kennedy Memorial and grave, Lincoln, Vietnam, Arlington and Jefferson Memorials, Arlington National Cemetery, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Library of Congress, Supreme Court, National Congress, House of Representatives, National Archives, Smithsonian Institute, White House, U.S. Botanic Gardens and many other landmarks.

Miss Park described a service that she attended at the Washington National Cathedral and statues of Janette Rankin, the U.S. Congresswoman, who voted against World Wars I and II, and David Crockett, the cherry trees and flowers to enhance interest.

Mrs. Don Stribling gave an interesting and thought-provoking talk on "Population Pressures on a Fragile World," stressing how the effects of population pressure were being felt on water supplies, animal, fish, bird and plant life in several states.

She said that 1,200 people are moving into the state of Florida in any two days with their cars and boats. The pressure is causing the dwindling or extinction of the panther, key deer, wood storks, sea cows and crocodiles, which are seen now at only the zoo.

Mrs. Stribling said that the California desert which was once a balance of plant and animal life, is now being marred with three-wheeled vehicles, campers, dune buggies, vandalism and trash as people seek recreation and relaxation.

Continuing, she said that Disneyland, with its miles and miles of concrete has hurt the land. In regard to the population pressure on water, she said that much of the water for the southern part of California had to be pumped from hundreds of miles away and the drainage destroys the life in the rivers and land that once was fed.

She remarked that many of the trees in the nation had been removed for building and roads due to population pressure and that was hurting the wintering of birds and Magnolia butterflies, which travel thousands of miles to winter where they won't freeze. In closing, she reminded members to be cautious about conserving water and mentioned how the Colorado River with once a rich delta was now a desert. She suggested planting trees and flowers native to the area that grow naturally without excess watering as one way to conserve water locally.

Mrs. Erwin Soell conducted the business meeting following the program. Mrs. C.L. Thompson used Girlstown at White Deer for the topic of the federation counselor's report.

The next meeting will be the annual guest day and will be held in the Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church March 16. Mrs. Lydia Thomas, a guest artist, will review the book, "A Day at a Time," by Margie Culley.

James Kaspar represents scouts

Cub Scout James Kaspar was selected to represent the district and council recently in Austin.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Kaspar attended a breakfast at the Four Seasons and was given a tour of the capitol building.

He is a member of Cub Scouts Pack 7.

Mrs. James gives program for Baptist Women

Mrs. D.O. James gave the introduction and first chapter of "Together We Can," a home missions book by Joe Westbury, Monday evening for the Thelma Smith Women of First Baptist Church.

She explained that the study would present a national agency of the Southern Baptist Convention formed to spread the gospel to different program approaches. She also stated that it would feature people of different races, diverse backgrounds, abilities and gifts working together in national missions projects.

The first two people featured were Sambo Eng, who emigrated from Cambodia to Columbus, Ohio and became involved in witness and ministry to the Cambodians of Stowe Baptist Center. Then, Bill Rogers, who served as volunteer director of Christian Social Services ministries of the Noonday Baptist Assoc. in suburban Atlanta, Ga., and worked there many years until his health failed. He then accepted a less taxing position in volunteer work.

Mrs. O.S. McLemore presided

during the business, and Mrs. Bill Curry conducted the prayer observance for missionaries on the birthday calendar.

It was voted to furnish cakes for the Baptist Student Union at Midwestern State Univ. Mar. 8, and to purchase paper goods and other needed items for the local pantry for the missions in action project. Mrs. McLemore reported that members had delivered meals-on-wheels for Friendly Door the previous week.

The meeting was held at the church and the hostesses were Mrs. H.E. Cummings and Mrs. Elmer Singleton. Twelve members were present.

As I See It... By BOB HAMILTON

It's become painfully apparent, to me at least, that I'm never going to be asked to be the "Cook of the Week."

So, I'm going to share with you what I've been saving a long time.

It'll do you no good, however, unless you sincerely appreciate roast beef and stew.

You also will need to share my desire to save money.

This will be especially helpful to those who don't have lunch at home, eating only in the evenings. It'll cost you about $15 for the five evenings, and a couple of hearty snacks over the weekend!

You pick out a big beef roast at the supermarket. The size depends on the size of your family, or how many you plan to invite for any of the dinners.

Put the roast on to cook Monday for that evening's meal. Be sure to add plenty of potatoes, onions and carrots, for added flavor.

That, with a light salad, will be plenty for the first meal.

Tuesday, cut some slices off the roast and grill them. While the cuts are on the grill, make some toast and gravy, and serve yourself a tasty hot roast beef sandwich for supper. You can also re-heat the potatoes and carrots in the microwave as a side dish.

Wednesday night, slice some more cuts of beef for cold beef sandwiches. Along with lettuce and tomatoes, it's delicious, and doesn't take much time. So you can get to church before the service starts.

For Thursday's dinner, cut some more meat off the roast. Chop it into cubes. Put them into a blender, along with some mayonnaise and mix well. It makes a delicious beef salad that can be eaten alone, or as a sandwich spread.

Now comes Friday's feast. In the morning, before you go to work, cut up the remaining roast. And be sure there's still a bunch (I told you to buy a big one to start with).

Put it into the largest cooking pot you have, and add a bunch of potatoes, carrots, onions, peas, corn, hominy and whatever else you like in a stew. Bring to a boil and simmer the rest of the day. It'll be good and ready by supper time.

You'll want to re-heat it for one of your meals Saturday, and if you still have some, another Sunday. If you like stew, anyway.

The second and third meals off the stew are always better than the first, because stew gets better each time it's re-heated. Just be sure to not scorch it.

Actually, after you've finished your Friday meal, and have enough left over, you can put your remaining stew into two different plastic containers and freeze them separately. They can be re-heated easily in the microwave.

You can make your stew even less expensive if you'll save your leftovers from meals in a freezer carton.

I like to scrape the peas, beans, corn and whatever else is left over, even whipped potatoes, into a plastic carton and freeze it. There's no problem adding more to it each time there's leftovers available.

This is especially true with those slices of fresh tomatoes and onions we have in the summer.

Things like this always seem to dry out in the refrigerator, and are thrown away.

But it all makes a stew just that more delicious...and inexpensive.

Of course, your stew can be enhanced if it's served with cornbread and sweetmilk. But be sure you don't eat too much.

You see, if you'll save some room, you can do like I do for desert. I love to top off such a meal by crumbling up what cornbread I left over, into my milk, and eating it from the glass.

Talk about saving. You don't even have to dirty up a second spoon.

GRADUATES - Cindy Coltrain, sixth from left, was among 20 students to graduate from the North Regional Police Academy. She began her career as a radio dispatcher for the Iowa Park Police Department and continues there on the staff. Also in the class were two of her brothers, Daniel, who is with the Wichita County Sheriff's Office, and Jack. Besides Wichita County, other students in the class were from Wilbarger, Clay, Young and Hardeman counties.

Vetoed bills on agenda

Monday's meeting of the city council will include reconsideration of two ordinances passed at the Feb. 13 meeting and vetoed the following day by the mayor.

The meeting, which is to begin at 7 p.m. in council chambers, will also include another item that was on the last meeting of the council which was tabled.

All three of the subjects were discussed by council members during an informal work session held this week, during which no actions were taken.

The two ordinances include rules and regulations to be applied around Lake Iowa Park, which has been annexed into the city, and one revising animal control policy.

The issue that was tabled concerned a request from Tommy Key, who asked the city to not require certain changes to his two business buildings in the 100 block of West Cash.

Key argued at the last meeting that changes allegedly required by the building code should not apply, because there had been no changes since the structures were last inspected by the code enforcement officer, and were approved.

Three public appearances are noted on the meeting agenda. They include Dan Adams, Billy Gilmore and a delegation from the volunteer fire department.

Adams, who spoke to the council earlier about a program Southwestern Bell Telephone is proposing to the Public Utilities Commission, is to ask the city for support of the company's plan.

Gilmore will ask permission to have a motorcycle event at Lake Iowa Park.

Firemen will request authorization to change the organization's retirement system.

Mayor Tim Hunter is to announce appointments to the Planning and Zoning Commission.

A public hearing will be held to determine if a public nuisance, an old structure at 314 E. Crystal, has been brought up to city code standards or removed. If neither, action is called for on the agenda.

An ordinance is to be proposed which establishes rules for application for new water services outside the city. This would change the city's policy which has been observed several years that prohibited any new the 600 block of East Washington.

The first of the criminal mischief complaints was filed Friday, when the owner of a boat in the 900 block of Louisa told police ropes holding a canvas cover on the boat were cut.

The complainant also said a neighbor had experienced the same problem at apparently the same time, according to the police blotter.

A mail box was knocked down in the 1600 block of Yucca sometime Thursday night.

Owner of a vehicle parked on Hope Lane told police the windshield was broken sometime Friday night.

Sometime Saturday night, a car parked in the driveway of a home in the 1300 block of Edgehill was egged.

Vandals pulled the spark plug wires, stole hub caps and let the air out of the tires of a vehicle parked in the 300 block of East Cash. The incident was reported at 2:05 a.m. Monday.

Police arrested Eldron Andrew Loyd, 18, in the 100 block of North Wall Saturday afternoon, on outstanding warrants for speeding and warrant fee issued by Wichita Falls Police Department.

Two men were arrested on charges of public intoxication Tuesday afternoon at Woodbriar Apartments. They were Richard Otis Owen, 37, and Jimmy Jack Rogers, 35. Both were released five hours later after posting cash bonds, according to the blotter.

sales of water beyond the city limits.

Aldermen will hear a report on a recently-completed study of the water system in the city, which includes either building a new water tower or relocating one of the three in place.

Authorization will be requested to have a study done on the city's sewer system.

Test

"The TEXAS test is a revision of TEAMS based on new or revised essential elements provided by the state and will be given in October, rather than February, and will test skills covered in the previous two years," according to Robert Palmer, assistant superintendent.

He said social studies and science could possibly be added. Currently, only language and mathematics skills are tested.

Another "positive facet" of the TEXAS test is that the results are to be returned within two weeks of the test date and the criteria can be utilized by teachers who can then concentrate on weak areas of students, Palmer said.

The committee, composed of educators from throughout the state, felt the TEXAS exam is a positive step toward making students more productive adults.

Chamber board to meet Monday

Directors of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce will hold their monthly meeting at 11:45 a.m. Monday in the chamber building.

The luncheon meeting was postponed from the regular third-Monday date because it was an official holiday.

Worth Quoting

I found a fellow named "Bean" who drove me back up on his snowmobile and helped replace the belt. All he wanted was "a six pack of beer" and I later rewarded him handsomely.

I spent the remainder of the day talking to county commissioners, the sheriff, a city policeman, the highway department and anyone else who would listen. Stranded Idlewild residents were a concern, they said, but they were having difficulty keeping the major highways cleared of the massive volume of snow.

To make a long saga somewhat shorter, the four left behind got to worrying that their food wasn't going to hold out until help arrived. The lack of a woman's planning was evident in the available foodstuffs:

heavy on chips and dips, short on anything substantial. They left the warmth of the cabin and trudged the three miles in thigh-deep snow to Eagles Nest.

The road department did clear the Idlewild road later that day and we got the van and most of our possessions safely to Eagles Nest. All roads exiting the town were blocked, but we were plenty relieved just to get to sleep in a motel room after being stranded in Idlewood.

We took up lodging, along with a motel-full of other people, most of whom didn't have Eagles Nest on their travel agenda either. We played cards and exchanged snow stories with folks from Borger, Dalhart, Dumas and Amarillo -- all wondering how the Panhandle could operate without us.

By the time Sunday rolled around, approximately three feet of new snow had fallen. We paced back and forth through the game room as snow crews worked to clear a path through to Cimarron.

The report came in about 11 a.m. that one lane of traffic was open. We scrambled to the parking lot to dig out the van and hit the road. Talking to others earlier this week, there were still lots of locals still stranded in that area, with an eventual snowfall of 80-plus inches.

Finnell concerned about stations

Rep. Charles Finnell says many small gas stations in Texas may be forced out of business if the state does not help relieve the cost of extensive clean-ups mandated by a new federal law governing underground fuel tanks.

Finnell said a new federal Environmental Protection Agency regulation requires owners of large underground fuel storage tanks to show financial responsibility for the first $1-million in costs for replacing corroded tanks and cleaning up pollution caused by fuel leaks.

Only one fully-regulated insurance company in Texas currently offers coverage for the $1-million amount, and premiums are more than $15,000 annually.

"Owners of small 'mom and pop' operations can't afford these expenses," Finnell said. "No one is saying that we don't need to protect our water from fuel pollution, but the burden being placed on small stations is excessive. Many of them will quit selling gasoline or just shut down entirely."

He endorsed legislation filed by State Sen. Bob McFarland to create a state fund to help those who are financially unable to replace leaking tanks and remove contaminated soil.

Tank owners would be responsible only for the first $10,000 of clean-up costs. The fund would be financed by a six-tenths of a cent fee paid by distributors for each gallon of motor fuel they sell in Texas.

Finnell, a member of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, said if financial relief is not provided for tank owners, Texas motorists will find more long stretches of highway without gas stations.

Obituaries

Beulah Garner

Services for Beulah Garner, 81, were held Tuesday afternoon in Tanner-Aulds Funeral Home Chapel with Dr. Derrell Monday, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery under the direction of Tanner-Aulds Funeral Home.

She died Saturday, Feb. 18, in a Wichita Falls hospital.

Mrs. Garner was born July 20, 1907, in Baylor County, Texas. She had lived in Wichita Falls since 1936, and was a member of the Order of Eastern Star and First Baptist Church of Iowa Park.

Survivors include one son, Weldon of Amarillo; two daughters, Reba Juanita Hair of Phoenix, Ariz., and Ernestine Wilkerson of Iowa Park; seven grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

Serving as pallbearers were Bud Patterson, Burt Caddell, Bob Hill, Royce Caddell, Harold White and Junior Adams.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Alzheimers or Lupus Foundations.

Milburn David Reed

Funeral services for Milburn David Reed, 68, were held Saturday afternoon at McCoy Funeral Home in Saint Jo with Rev. Orville Rogers officiating. Burial was in Nocona Cemetery.

He died Friday, Feb. 17, in a Nocona hospital.

Reed was born June 24, 1920, in Montague County, Texas. He and Margie Van Zandt were married Aug. 2, 1937, in Montague. He was a farmer and a resident of Saint Jo most of his life. He was an Army veteran of World War II.

He is survived by his wife; two daughters, Barbara Ann Knabie of Saint Jo and Joye Beatrice Farris of Holliday; one son, Oliver David of Nocona; one sister, Velma Ashley of Saint Jo; three brothers, Gene of Comanche, Okla., Willis of Nocona and Grady of Eules; nine grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Katherine Cottrell

Memorial services for Katherine Jernigan Cottrell, 79, formerly of Iowa Park, were held Sunday morning at University Park Church of the Nazarene in Wichita Falls.

She died Feb. 14 in a Centerville nursing home.

Services were Thursday, Feb. 16, at New Salem Baptist Church in Centerville with Rev. Billy Gunnels officiating. Burial was Friday in Binger, Okla. Cemetery.

Mrs. Cottrell was born Nov. 21, 1909, in Texas. She was a longtime employee of Walgreen Drug Store in Wichita Falls and had been a cook. She was a charter member of University Park Church of the Nazarene in Wichita Falls, where she was a Sunday school teacher. She had lived in Centerville three years.

Survivors include a daughter, Janus of San Antonio; a son, Tommie of Centerville; three sisters, Ester Hail of Iowa Park, Lee Johnson of Bruno, Ark., and Lorene Hartness of Mountainview, Ark.; three brothers, Walter Jernigan of Tucumcari, N.M., Roy Jernigan of Hobbs, N.M., and James Jernigan of Fall River Mills, Calif.; nine grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

Cora Lee Harmon

Services for Cora Lee Harmon, 81, of Burkburnett, were held Saturday afternoon at Hampton-Vaughan Funeral Home with Rev. Larry Tinsley, pastor of First United Methodist Church in Burkburnett, officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

She died Thursday, Feb. 16, in Burkburnett.

Mrs. Harmon was born Oct. 11, 1907, in Jack County, Texas. She was a retired civil service worker and a member of First United Methodist Church in Burkburnett.

She is survived by two sisters, Wanda Roberts of Burkburnett and Ruth Sawyer of Iowa Park; and two brothers, O.R. Clingman of Pueblo, Colo., and Joe Clingman of Burkburnett.

Former resident assists in arrest of felon

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article was printed in the Feb. 9 issue of the Lockney Beacon about the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Yeakley)

A prime example of good triumphing over evil would be the case of the new Floydada First Baptist's Youth Minister, Jay Yeakley, starting a chain of events that led to the capture and arrest of an escaped felon.

On Sunday, February 2, a man stopped in at the First Baptist Church in Floydada asking for money to buy gas. Jay Yeakley, the church's brand new youth minister, came to talk to the man. During the conversation Yeakley told the man that he was an ex D.P.S. officer. It was obvious the information made the stranger nervous as he left quickly without obtaining the money for gas.

Yeakley's suspicions were aroused so he followed the man outside and obtained the license number. Yeakley called in the tag number to the sheriff's office and they discovered that the vehicle had been stolen from Amarillo.

All officers in the area were alerted and the vehicle was located on Hwy. 70 by Lockney Police and D.P.S. troopers.

The vehicle was stopped and the passenger and driver were arrested and booked into the Floyd County jail for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

The sheriff's office later found that the driver of the vehicle was also wanted for escape from a county jail in California.

"We all want to thank Jay Yeakley," said Police Chief Leonard Gilroy. "Without the help of concerned citizens getting involved and reporting suspicious activity, we would be unable to do our job. We are fortunate in Floyd County to have people like Jay to help us out."

Hildebrand feted at birthday party

Mrs. Sue Hildebrand was honored on her 56th birthday Sunday with a party and dinner at her home.

Hosting the event were her children and grandchildren, Pat and Frank Hicks of Lawton; David of Wichita Falls, Marc and Dieta Hildebrand and Mindy of Tulsa, Bruce and Judy Wigton, Jennifer and Amanda of Houston, and Christi of the home.

Card of Thanks

It is with grateful hearts that we thank all our friends for the many acts of kindness shown to our family in the passing of our sister, Margaret Slay. We know you know and greatest of all, God knows who you are and what you did for us. Our prayer is that we may be able to show love and compassion to you in your hour of need just as you did to us. And many thanks to Dr. Watson and Dr. Soell and to the nursing staff at Heritage Manor and to Bro. Jerry Miller.

God Bless each of you,

AREA OIL & GAS NEWS

Pumping 20 barrels of oil per day plus eight barrels of salt water, the No. 1y Hugh Reilly "A" has been brought on line in the Wichita Regular Field, about five miles southwest of Burkburnett.

Century Resources of Wichita Falls is the operator.

Century took the hole to a 1,675-ft. bottom and perforated the Gunsight Formation for production at 1,616 to 1,627 feet into the wellbore. Oil tested at 41-gravity.

Odell Blackwell of Iowa Park is preparing to make hole for a 2,000-ft. developmental well in the Wichita Regular Field, about four miles southwest of Iowa Park. The well will be known as the No. 3 Blackwell "A". It is in a 132-acre lease block in the BS&F Survey A-485, 5,400 feet from the southerly north line and 2,300 feet from the most southwesterly line of the survey.

The No. 2 Dickinson-Extec is scheduled for spudding in the Wichita Regular Field with West Landrum of Burkburnett as the operator. Located about one-half mile west of Clara, the well is in a 60-acre lease in the Specht Colony Subdivision Block 3. It is 1,090 feet from the south line and 390 feet from the west line of Block 3.

Total drilling depth is projected to 1,990 feet.

First production data have been posted for a new producer in the Wichita Regular Field, 2.5 miles southeast of Fowlkes. The well had been branded as a dry hole when first drilled in May of 1981.

It is designated as the No. 28 Murphree Estate.

It pumped two barrels of oil daily along with 25 barrels of waste water from perforations in the Cisco Sand, 896 to 904 feet into the wellbore.

Bottomhole was at 1,800 with plug-back to 931. Oil tested at 39-gravity.

Williams Petroleum of Burkburnett has replaced Vanguard Exploration as the operator.

A 300-ft. developmental well is planned by Bohner Oil of Wichita Falls at a drillsite four miles south of Burkburnett, Wichita County. The location is in a 63-acre lease, 450 feet from the northerly most north line and 1,574 feet from the east line of the W.A. Grady Survey, A-610. Well's designation is the No. 22 Fresno-Roller. It is in the Wichita County Regular Field.

MJB Oil of Iowa Park has filed for permit to drill the No. 48 Lilly Hooks, a 730-ft. developmental well six miles southwest of Iowa Park. Location is in a 190-acre lease in the L. Netherly Survey, A-240. The location is 10,200 feet from the south line and 1,820 feet from the most northerly west line of the survey. The well is in the Wichita County Regular Field.

L&J Oil of Wichita Falls has abandoned three undrilled locations in the Wichita County Regular Field, two miles north of Kamay. The wells had been designated as the Nos. 2, 3, and 4 McCarthy "K".

An undrilled location has been abandoned by C.J. Melton of Burkburnett at a drillsite 1.5 miles west of Clara in the Wichita County Regular Field. The venture had been designated as the No. 1 F.W. Prechel.

Drillsite has been staked for the No. 1 Arledge, an 8,500-ft. wildcat well in Hardeman County. The operation will be located five miles south of Chillicothe in a 100-acre lease in the H&TC Survey. The location will be 1,811 feet from the south line and 1,131 feet from the north line of the survey. The operator is Kadane Oil of Wichita Falls.

Plug-and-abandon orders were issued for the No. 7 Pyeatt, a developmental venture of S.M. Ferguson Jr. Inc. of Dallas in the Southwest Piarist Field, Hardeman County. Spudded Dec. 21, the well had reached 8,405-ft. total depth. Drillsite was six miles south of Chillicothe, 1,320 feet from the north line and 140 feet from the west line of the H&TC Survey, A-1479.

Basketball skills testing Saturday

All children age eight through 13 who like basketball can test their skills at an event Saturday, sponsored by the Iowa Park Optimist Club.

To be held in the high school PE gymnasium, the contest will include ability to pass, dribble and shoot the basketball.

There is no entry fee, and contestants can register by picking up a form at city hall or on the day of the contest.

PROCLAMATION - Lorre Moser of Iowa Park, standing in center, was on hand recently when Scurry County Judge Bobby Goodwin signed a proclamation designating Feb. 12-18 as Community College Week. She is a freshman representative of Western Texas College Student Senate at Snyder, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Don Moser. An agriculture major, Moser is a member of the WTC women's rodeo team.

If Iowa Park and Springtown get together again on the football field, the Porkys won't be led by head coach Lucky Gamble. He resigned two weeks ago to take the head job at Little Cypress, a class AAAA school at Mauriceville. He's got his work cut out for him, because Little Cypress is in the same district with perennial power West Orange Stark. Gamble's Porkys won two of their three games against the Hawks under Gamble's guidance.

Chillicothe won a tune-up game in Iowa Park High's gym Tuesday night, 80-60, over Bellevue. In another tune-up game played elsewhere, Dist. 5-AAA champ Decatur lost to the defending state AA champion Paducah Dragons 75-69.

Mavericks suffer loses

The Iowa Park Mavericks suffered two straight defeats before picking up another victory Tuesday night.

The team is now 7-2 in league play.

Both setbacks were by 14-point margins. The Wichita Falls Vikings won 48-34 and the undefeated City View Falcons 40-26.

But Tuesday, the Mavs won their first overtime game, 39-34, over the Henrietta Cubs, after being tied 34-34 at the end of regulation time.

Josh Castles scored 22 points and hauled in 16 rebounds, eventhough he spent the entire first quarter on the bench.

With a victory Friday, the Mavs will be seeded third in the playoffs, which will start Mar. 3.

The team will compete in a tournament for 11-12 year olds Saturday at Archer City, and is also entered in a tourney that starts next week at Sheppard AFB.

Local Optimist Club showered with honors

The Iowa Park Optimist Club and two of its members were awarded the highest honors given in the district, as well as others, during the district board meeting and awards banquet held Feb. 11 at the Wichita Falls Hilton.

The Iowa Park chapter was the recipient of the Bill Pierce Award after being judged on activities during the 1987-88 club year, under the presidency of Louis Sefcik.

Iowa Park Optimists, with 32 members, was named the best club out of the 89 clubs in the North Texas District with membership ranging from 20 to over 300, for the award.

The Iowa Park club was also double distinguished by the district for increasing membership in its own organization and building a new club, the Red River Optimist Club, in Wichita Falls, making Sefcik the second Distinguished President since the chapter was formed in 1973.

Sefcik received a watch from the Optimist International President.

A member of the local club since it formed, Sefcik has served as vice president, president, on the board of directors and has chaired several programs.

Also under the leadership of Sefcik, the club received the Friend of Youth Award, the Community Service Award, New Club Building Award, and the Community Projects Booklet Award for Youth Appreci-well known for its work with youth in the area, sponsoring bike safety week, a "Just Say No" program, essay contest, Junior Optimist Club, Respect for Law program and several others.

One Act Play cast named

This year's One Act Play cast for Iowa Park High School consists of three seniors, one junior and four sophomores.

Scenes from "Close Ties" by Elizabeth Diggs were selected for competition by Director Jeanie Wilson, who says of her cast: "An excellent group of young people with lots of energy and loads of potential."

The play is a dramatic comedy about how a family copes with an aging and very forgetful grandmother.

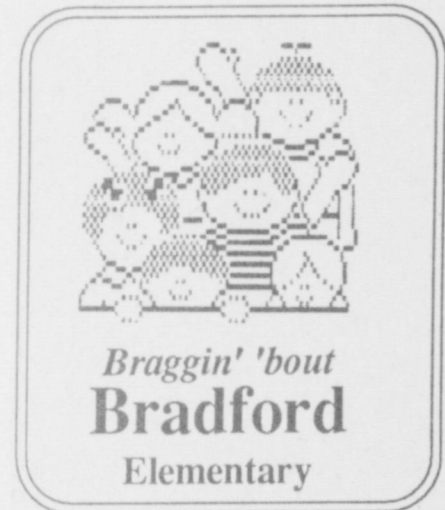

Cast members include seniors Rhonda Foechner, Cindy Lawson and Michelle Haney; junior Jay Loggins, and sophomores Paul Schlaud, Mary Owens, Steven Day and Marsha Glass.

Alternates are Troy Mooneyham and Paul Lee, both sophomores, and senior Alexia Gerhart.

Crew members, all seniors, are Angie Loving, Eddie Dornier and Denise Dunlay.

Competition date is Mar. 16.

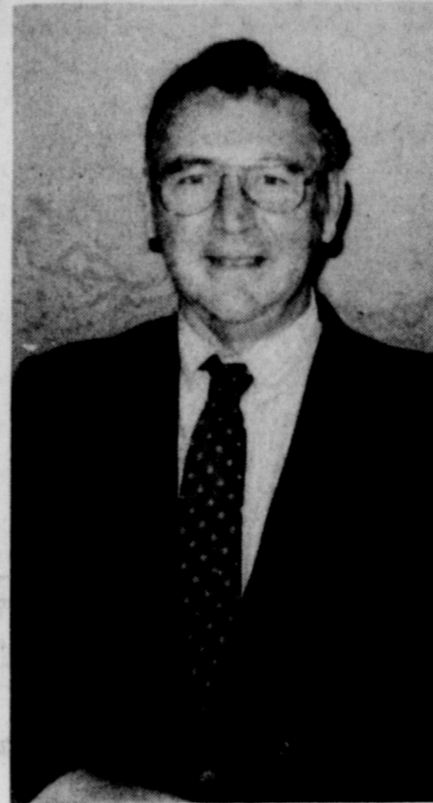

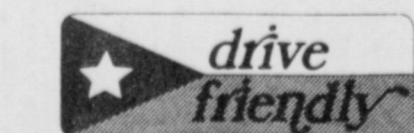

Bradford fifth grade students participated in the Soil and Water Conservation Poster Contest sponsored by the Wichita District Soil and Water conservation office. Each student was allowed to create a poster and winners were selected from each class. Two posters were selected as overall winner and will be sent to Temple for the regional contest. Overall winners were Jenny Rotolo and Justin Gossett. Other winners were:

Freshmen third in tourney

Teams from Graham and Vernon defeated each other, by one point, to win the two divisions of the Dist. 5-AAA Junior Varsity and Freshman basketball tournament held here last weekend.

Iowa Park's Freshmen swamped Bowie for third place, and the Hawk Junior Varsity finished fourth.

Vernon won the Freshman division with a 47-46 victory over Graham.

Immediately afterward, Graham's Junior Varsity returned the favor by defeating Vernon 61-60.

Both Iowa Park teams won their opening round contests Thursday with Decatur, and Friday, they were both sent into the third-place finals by Graham teams.

In the other part of the Freshman bracket, Bowie knocked off Bridgeport 47-33, but then lost 60-47 to Vernon.

Bowie's Junior Varsity also beat Bridgeport in the first round, 53-40, and then lost 35-34 to Vernon in the semi-finals.

Both the Wise County schools, Decatur and Bridgeport, were to have played in the consolation finals Saturday, but opted to not make the trip back to Iowa Park.

Because of the two cancelled games, everything Saturday was moved up three hours.

FRESHMEN

In their opening game, the Hawk Frosh trailed through the first half, and were down 31-30 at the half. But they took a 45-42 lead by the end of the third period, and went on to win, 59-56.

Three Hawks scored in double digits: Jeremy Carroll, 15; Justin Goodnight, 13, and Joey Boyd, 11.

In their second game, Iowa Park stayed with Graham in a close game, but eventually was edged 64-60. After leading 18-16 at the end of the first period, the Frosh fell behind 36-32 at the half and 52-46 going into the final period.

Carroll had 16 and Boyd 15.

After a close first period, the Hawk Frosh continued extending their lead and eventually blew away the Bowie ninth graders, 71-39.

Iowa Park led 19-13 at the first rest stop, 38-23 at the half, and increased the spread to 49-25 by the end of the third period.

Eleven of Iowa Park's 12 players scored, but the leaders were Carroll, with 14, Young, with 12, and JBill Merrick, 10.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The Hawk Junior Varsity had a much easier time against Decatur than did the Frosh. They led 11-9 at the end of the first quarter, 24-16 at the half, and 38-27 after three periods and went on to win 50-37.

Jeff Boyd and Chuck Brown each scored 10 points.

Graham had a close call but beat the Iowa Park JV in the second game, by a narrow 36-31 margin.

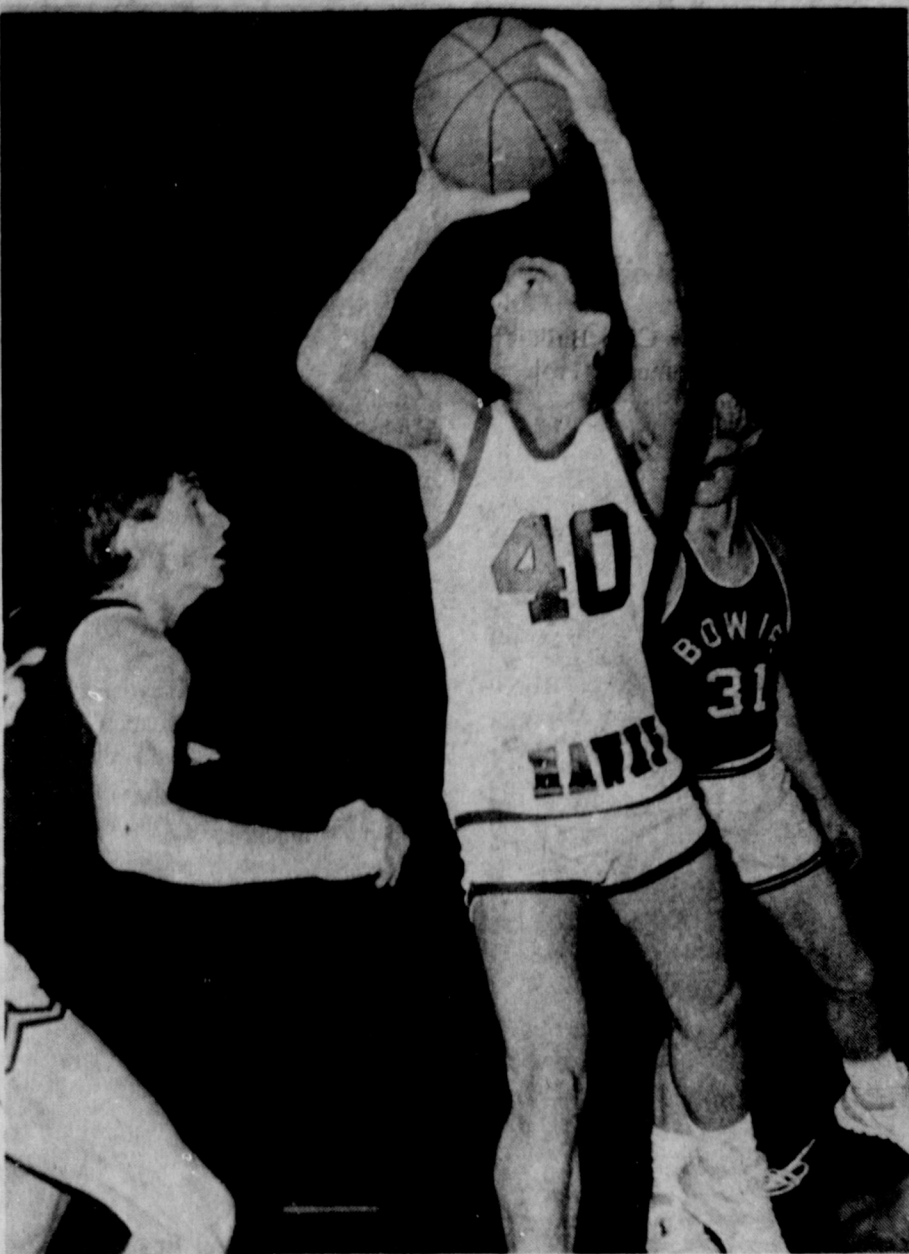

Graham led 11-7 after the first quarter, but Iowa Park took a 22-21 edge at the half. Graham came back to lead 30-26 by the end of the third. Patrick Birk and Brent Wineinger were high-scorers for Iowa Park, with eight and six points, respectively.

Bowie won the third-place final, 51-37. But it was a close game until the fading minutes of the contest.

Bowie led 11-7 after one period, and held on for a three-point lead, 18-15, at the half. The Rabbits extended the lead to 36-26 before the start of the final quarter.

Brown and Birk led Iowa Park scoring, each with nine points.

Early Bird Relays on tap here Friday

There may be only two schools here Friday afternoon to inaugurate the First Annual Early Bird Relays, but, weather permitting, the meet will be held.

Boys' Coach Barry Lucy said he had invited a number of schools, and several had said they would attend, but he won't actually know until it gets underway which schools will be here to compete with Holliday and Iowa Park.

Unlike regular meets, this will be a relay-type meet featuring seven relays and two field events, the shot and discus.

The first regular meet will be Mar. 4, which will be the Third Annual Iowa Park Lions Club Hawk Relays.

There will be two divisions, girls and boys, with a team permitted to enter one team per relay. Individuals are limited to four events.

Lucy said other schools could show up to compete, but he had not received confirmation from any other than Holliday and Iowa Park.

Field events will begin at 2:30 p.m.

Relays will begin at 3 in the following order: shuttle hurdles; 3200 meter; 400 meter; sprint medley; 800 meter; distance medley and ending with the 1600 meter.

In the shuttle hurdle relay, four boys will run 55 meters and four girls will run 50 meters.

Four athletes run equal distances in the 3200, 400, 800 and 1600 meter relays.

In the girls' sprint medley relay, two run 100-meter distances, one runs 200 and the other 400. Those distances are doubled for the boys' sprint medley relay.

In the distance medley relay, the first girl runs 600 meters, followed by a 400 meter runner, then 800 meters and finally a 1200-meter run.

Boys' distances in the distance medley relay are, in order, 800, 400, 1200 and 1600 meters.

Little League signup slated

Youngsters who want to play in Little League Baseball this year can register any Saturday at the W.F. George Field on West Magnolia.

April 1 is the deadline for players to sign up.

Any youth who will be six through 15 years of age by July 31 is eligible.

Sign up hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each Saturday through April 1.

Tennis Boosters to meet Monday

A meeting of the Iowa Park Tennis Booster Club will be held at 7 p.m. Monday, in the TU Electric Reddy Room.

Parents of all children in the school's tennis program, grades seven through 12, are encouraged to attend.

26th birthday important to men

Young men who will turn 26 in 1989 will be reaching an important milestone, according to the Selective Service System.

Beginning Jan. 1, men who were required to register with Selective Service in 1981 will be turning 26. Selective Service does not have the authority to accept late registrations after a man reaches his 26th birthday.

Selective Service state director Harold Doyle warned that, with few exceptions, a man who fails to register before turning 26 will permanently forfeit his eligibility for certain federal benefits such as student aid, job training, and most federal employment, in addition to facing possible prosecution as a felon.

Some states also require registration for state student aid, entrance to state-supported colleges and universities, state employment, and permission to practice law.

Many of the men who have not registered may be unaware of the requirement or do not understand the importance of the obligation to register. Some may even have served in the military but failed to register either before entering the armed forces or after leaving active duty.

Others may have been institutionalized or incarcerated at the time of their 18th birthday and did not realize they were required to register if released prior to age 26.

Doyle points out that men age 18 through 25 who have not yet registered can avoid the risk of prosecution and loss of benefits by registering promptly at any local post office.

Failure to register is a felony punishable by a fine of up to $250,000, up to five years in prison, or both.

For those men born in 1963 who have registered, 1989 also marks the year that ends their eligibility for selection for induction under present law.

Over 21-million men have registered with Selective Service since registration was reinstated in 1980. Currently, over one-million Texas men age 18 through 25 are registered.
