Chick Distribution Moved to March 23 At Aggie Building

The Ag Shop building at the Iowa Park school will be the scene of distribution of chicks on Friday, March 23, in the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce chick project.

Deadline for getting the chicks will be 6:00 in the afternoon on that day.

Since the several thousand chicks may be delivered at an early morning hour and the shop building offers regulated heat and ample space, the committee thinks it an ideal place for the chick take-off. Here the chicks will be vaccinated for Newcastle disease and every care will be taken to see that the contestants receive them in healthy condition.

It is estimated that more progress has been made in the improved methods of caring for chicks during the past three years than in the previous 25 years.

This week the chick committee is pairing off sponsors and contestants and the program will get into high gear by the weekend, General Chairman J. K. Bradshaw says.

Contestants will receive their Notice of Acceptance through the mail soon. These forms must be signed by the sponsor before chicks can be given to the contestant.

Sponsors will also be notified of their contestant's name and address and name of parents.

This broiler program which requires 10 weeks—and will set the date of the Junior Poultry Show for June 1 and 2, is a Chamber of Commerce project.

The annual school board election for Iowa Park Independent School District has been set for Saturday, April 7, according to O. R. Kelly, secretary. The front part of the Grade School building will be used as a polling place and the hours 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. will be observed.

Two incumbents, H. B. Klinkerman and Neil Johnson, whose terms of office are running out, have filed with Kelly for re-election. Deadline for further filings is 12 midnight on March 31.

The secretary announced also that a petition signed by at least 20 qualified voters would serve to have a person's name put on the ballot. If the candidate himself files for the position a petition is not necessary.

The board named Earle Denny as election judge. He will be assisted by Mrs. John Tidwell, Mrs. L. C. Perry and J. C. Searl, clerks.

W. F. Luckett, 66, Dies in Oklahoma

DRAFT CALLS THREE PARKANS

1951 RED CROSS FUND

If you see an Iowa Park retail merchant during the next couple of weeks — I say IF you see a retail merchant in Iowa Park during the next few weeks — you will see a worried and flustered individual with lots of items on his mind.

In fact he's apt to have every item in his store on his mind. He might even have a list of them in his hand. He might have a worried look and a few more gray hairs.

The cause of it all is the OPS. The OPS has a penchant for making retail merchants have lists of items on their minds and in their hands, and worried looks and gray hairs.

It seems that price controls go on lots of items handled by local retail merchants on March 29—and that's not far off.

If the local retail merchants find they have more than they can get done by March 29, let me advise them—don't call on me or your friendly competitor across the way. All are in the same boat and have more than they can get done by March 29.

The current funds drive of the crippled children's societies of Texas offers the people an opportunity to add another category in which they are "biggest." By the manner in which they respond they can show just how big their hearts are.

The money received from the Easter Seal drive will be used to aid children crippled as a result of a number of causes. The name of the Texas Society for Crippled Children means what it says, and where help is needed, the society endeavors to give it.

One of its main efforts is directed toward aiding children with cerebral palsy. Around 8000 suffer from this affliction in Texas.

Cerebral palsy is not a disease. It is a condition brought on by injury to the brain. As a result of that injury, many of those who suffer from it are unable to do so much as stand even with the aid of crutches and braces. Virtually all of them have speech difficulties.

Treatment is directed toward educating other portions of the brain to perform the functions of the injured part. Muscular control thus developed results in correction to a degree that those treated are capable of normal or near normal living.

This treatment is slow, expensive. The society must have a lot of money to carry it on. And this money comes from donations. It gets no state funds.

The effort began February 25 and will go through Easter Sunday. Contributing to it will be investing in human happiness and well being that will pay rich dividends.

Baptist Revival To Conclude Sunday Eve With Baptisms

The two weeks' revival campaign at the local Baptist church will be concluded Sunday evening, March 18, with the baptismal service following the worship hour.

Through Wednesday evening 25 persons, mostly adults, had come into the membership of the local church, eight by transferring their church letter and 17 by baptism.

According to Rev. James N. Eastwood, pastor, Sunday is to be a red-letter day for attendance. The goal for Sunday School is 510 and for Training Union is 169.

Rev. E. K. Shepherd of Snyder, Texas is doing the preaching and Rev. Thomas F. Glosop of Duncan, Okla., is directing the music. Mr. Glosop is leading a Junior Booster Band group each evening of some 50 youngsters in a period of chorus singing prior to the regular service.

He is a brother of Mrs. J. C. Roby. Mrs. O. E. Lochridge, Mrs. R. A. Tanner and Mrs. E. W. Sumrall have accompanied the director and choir on the organ and piano for this series of services each morning at 10:00 and evening at 7:30.

A nursery is being kept during each service for the convenience of families with babies and small children.

The public is cordially invited to attend the remaining services of the revival campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McMurry of Burkburnett were Sunday visitors of Mrs. J. C. Roby.

Former Minister Here for Lions Club Ladies Night Party

Fun generated by the antics of three Lioness tallwisters made the Ladies night supper this Tuesday an enjoyable meal. In the absence of Lion Tallwister O. R. Kelly, Hazel George, Marie Pastusek and Faye Guthrie fought for dimes all over the dining room.

President Scott Ralston carried on a business session, including acceptance of Weakly (?) Bradford into membership.

For musical entertainment, Leon Rollins Woodall introduced a fly-boy accordion player who really put on a show with the squeeze box. The name escapes us but, it's probable he'll be brought back and we can acknowledge him more fully.

For an entertaining and inspiring 45 minutes, the Lions, Lionesses and guests were privileged to listen to J. Fred Miller, once a student preacher here and now a big shot in YMCA circles, with offices in New York City.

Fred started off with reminiscences of times some 15 years ago when he was a green country preacher trying to lead a Scout troop. His tales of adventures in and around Iowa Park brought many chuckles of recollection to his listeners' throats.

Then Fred got serious and set forth his ideas on the world situation and what we could do about it. By choosing stronger leaders and backing them to the limit, J. Fred figures the strongest nation on this earth can also become the greatest beacon light for better living.

He made many other points, but our limited capacity could absorb only a fraction of his talk.

Mr. Miller spent Tuesday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Barbour. After the Lions club meeting, the Barbour home was the scene of an informal gathering of friends to renew acquaintance with the former Iowa Park minister.

Drama 'Cross Bearer' To Feature Program Of Presbyterians

Young people of the Presbyterian church will present a timely drama "The Bearer of the Cross," on Sunday evening, March 18, at 7:00 at the hour of evening worship.

This play, by Mattie B. Shannon, is based on the story of Simon, a Cyrenian, whom the Roman soldiers compelled to bear Christ's cross on the day of the crucifixion.

Though this is largely an imaginary story, the author has reverently tried to be careful and scriptural in mentioning the scriptural happenings.

There is an idea that Simon was a Negro because of the situation of Cyrene in northern Africa. Cyrene, however, was a Greek settlement and the Jews were numerous and influential in that district. It is recorded that Ptolemy the First was a favorite of Alexander the Great, who gave him Egypt as his province.

Ptolemy sent a party of Jews to inhabit the city of Cyrene in order to secure the government for himself.

Some of these Cyrenian Jews later returned to Jerusalem and settled there. Simon may have been one of these settlers. There was much disturbance between the Cyrene Jews and the Roman soldiers and rulers and racial feeling was bitter.

Bearing the cross was a degrading task and no better way could be found to express their hate than to force it upon the shoulders of the despised Cyrenian.

Background of the play is a room in the home of Simon, a husbandman owning a small farm near Jerusalem. The furnishings are plain, the characters simply robed.

Players are: Simon of Cyrene, Jonathan Dressler Jr.; Eunice, his wife, Ella Lou VanHorn; Beulah, his daughter, Joline Cooksey; Alexander, his son, Sammy Shelton; Rufus, younger son, Kendall Hill; Ahab, a beloved relative from Bethany.

This will be a repeat performance for Sgt. Dressler of the SAFB, who has played the role of Simon in "The Bearer of the Cross" on Easter in his home town in Pennsylvania.

DENNIS HERRINGTON INJURED IN FALL FROM BICYCLE

Dennis Herrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herrington, received a serious ear injury last Wednesday evening when he fell from his bicycle while playing and struck a tree. He was given emergency treatment at the Park Clinic hospital here and was transferred to the Clinic Hospital for treatment.

Following release, he was returned for where his condition is encouraging at this time.

U.N. Relief in Korea

Moving swiftly to alleviate the suffering of the civilian population of Korea, the United Nations is undertaking a vast program of relief and rehabilitation. Here, inhabitants of Seoul are seen receiving the daily ration of rice distributed by the United Command with the help of local organizations to the city's seven districts. The rice was largely contributed by Thailand and the Philippine Islands.

Charles H. Van Horn, Pioneer Farmer, Dies After Long Illness

Charles Henry Van Horn, 84, a resident of Iowa Park since 1901, died at the home of his daughter Mrs. Dewey Cole in Fort Worth, Monday, March 12, shortly after 9:00 a.m. He had been in ill health for 7 1/2 months.

Mr. Van Horn was born at Lone Tree, Iowa, Jan. 25, 1857. After graduation from high school, he was determined to get a college education in spite of difficulties which confronted him. He walked nine miles morning and afternoon each day to attend Iowa university, from which institution he received his degree with a major in mathematics.

He taught school for seven years before deciding on farming as a career.

Mr. Van Horn came to Hale Center, Texas, in 1890 and purchased a farm. In 1896 he returned to Parsons, Kans., to claim Miss Clara Frazee for his bride. The couple came to the Iowa Park community in 1901 and settled on a farm three miles west of Iowa Park, where they lived until 1935. At that time they moved into town.

Mr. Van Horn was a member of the Methodist church, which he joined while attending Iowa university. He was a retired director of the Federal Land Bank in Houston and served for a number of years as secretary of the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance company.

Funeral services for Mr. Van Horn were held at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon, with Rev. Kirk M. Beard officiating. Burial was in the Highland cemetery under direction of Tanner Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Paul Zink, Albert Johnson, Albert May, J. E. Sewell, H. W. Fillmore of Wichita Falls, Oral Jones of Wichita Falls, Curtis Hill, Neil Johnson.

Survivors include the widow, one son James of Iowa Park; three daughters Mrs. H. T. Langston, Mrs. Louise Baxter and Mrs. Dewey Cole, all of Fort Worth; two sisters Mrs. Edith Fields of Happy and Mrs. Alice Berrie of Dill, Okla.; one brother J. W. Van Horn of Iowa Park; 11 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

FAST FAST FAST

At 2:44 Thursday afternoon the Iowa Park Volunteer Fire department was called to the Gates residence, 312 Aldine, to control a grass fire which could easily have damaged two garages and some fencing.

At 2:51 they had taken care of the blaze, returned safely to the City Hall and had quietly proceeded back to their normal way of life.

Box Supper Draws Dads to Camp Fire Supper Meeting

The Dad - Daughter Sweetheart box supper for the local Camp Fire and Blue Bird groups was an event of Thursday evening at the school cafeteria. The annual party was given this year during the week of observance of the 41st birthday of the Camp Fire organization.

"Everybody Counts," the theme for the current year's work, was interwoven with St. Patrick's motif in the decorations and program. At the supper the girls and their dads or sweethearts ate a meal that the girls had packed in decorated boxes. These were interesting decorative features on the banquet tables where runners in green and white extended the length of the boards.

The speakers table was centered with sprayed cedar dotted with shamrocks. F. E. Hill, president of the Area Camp Fire Council, was toastmaster for the occasion.

Judging of the boxes was the first activity. A $2 prize was awarded for the most beautifully decorated box prepared by a Camp Fire girl and also for the one prepared by a Blue Bird. This money was put in the group treasury.

For the invocation the group sang the Camp Fire song. Following supper the Sparkling Blue Birds were in charge of a candlelighting ceremony. "A Toast to Dads" was the contribution of the Ka-Ki-Ka Camp Fire girls. "Melody of Songs" was given by the Joyful Blue Birds, which preceded the awarding of box prizes. The Cha-Ki-Ka Camp Fire group furnished an ensemble number.

"The Thing," which depicted a typical Camp Fire meeting was cleverly given by a group of dads. Clad in appropriate regalia, the group included J. W. Thomas, I. W. Cordeur, A. L. Reed, D. S. Smith, Archie Bryant and Doyl Koonce.

The invocation was given by Rev. Chester Gleason.

The local Camp Fire and Blue Bird guardians are Mmes. Corder, H. P. Boyd, Bryant, Forest Bates, Wilburn Bedford, Marvin Laxson, W. G. Barnhart.

You and your Congress

Congress began to pick up speed this week after two months of little productive effort in terms of legislation enacted.

But the weeks of committee hearings and study are beginning to pay off. A steady flow of laws is building up.

One of the most important of all the bills before Congress this year sped through the Senate. It calls for the drafting of 18-year-olds for 24 months of military training and service.

Most attempts by Senators to make major revisions in the legislation failed. The most controversial amendment—by Senator Morse (R. Ore.) to set the new induction at 18 1/2 was defeated on a roll call vote of 55 to 31. However, on motion of Robertson (D. Va.) the Senate placed a 4,000,000-man limit on the size of the armed forces over the objection of military officials, who wanted no manpower limitation.

About the time final action was taken in the Senate, the House armed services committee wound up weeks of hearings on similar legislation. Sentiment among the committee members seemed to indicate a "take-it-easy" attitude, in marked contrast to decisive votes in the Senate. It seemed apparent, for example, that when the bill reaches the full House it will provide an 18 1/2-year-old induction limit.

And committee members were ready to vote for a large number of other restrictions which the National Defense Department could call damaging.

The bill prepared by the House committee is scheduled for floor debate next week.

The Senate next will consider a statement of policy on the raging debate over foreign policy.

The Senate foreign relations and armed services committees have agreed to a resolution endorsing the president's plan to send ground troops into the North Atlantic Pact army without congressional limitation.

As a spur to action, our military leaders have said that developments of the greatest importance to the troops-to-Europe question probably would occur within the next 30 days. There was no amplification of that statement.

Two laggards in the legislative procession were the appropriations and tax bills. It is doubtful that those two big projects would be finished before midsummer. Work was going ahead on both however.

As usual the House appropriations committee was conducting its hearings in secret on $33 billion of Truman's proposed $71 billion spending program for the fiscal year which begins next July 1.

In two or three weeks, our military leaders will parade to Congress to explain what Truman meant when in January he warned Congress that our military during the next fiscal year will need at least $41 billion in cash and $61 billion in contract authority.

Hearings on Truman's request for $10 billion in new taxes now and another $6.5 billion later have been going on in the House ways and means committee for more than a month and the end is not in sight.

The two-part program was spelled out in detail February 5 by Treasury Secretary Snyder. Some committee members have said privately that Congress will accomplish whatever it finally does agree upon in one bill. The eventual total of new revenue probably won't be more than $10 billion.

Investigations are taking up much of the lawmakers' time. Underway or planned soon are investigations of the RFC, the Maryland election, organized crime, reports of the sell-in of federal jobs in Mississippi, communism in Hollywood and other places, internal strife in the VA, the price ceiling on raw cotton, surplus property disposals, the railroad strike, small business problems and alleged monopolistic practices.

Lt. Charles Roby, who has been stationed at George APB, Victorville, Calif., spent a few days last week with his mother Mrs. J. C. Roby. He returned to Camp Stone-man, San Francisco, to report for overseas duty and will be sent to Korea, where his assignment will be jet interceptor.

Mexican Consul, Aide, Dancers, Musicians Bring Club Program

Ignacio Pesqueria and Ralph Llanes, consul and vice-consul of Mexico with headquarters at Dallas, were the featured speakers for the Inter-racial meeting of the 23 Study club Thursday afternoon.

The meeting was held at the high school auditorium. It was open to the public and invited guests included junior and senior high and grade school students. The young people were asked not only for the entertainment but also to impress upon them the place of inter-racial understanding in improving the international situation.

Mr. Pesqueria was born in the state of Sonora, Mexico, and was graduated from the School of Commerce, Mexico City. He has been in the consular service since 1930, having been stationed in a number of West Coast cities of the U.S. He went to Dallas from Salt Lake City in 1950.

The vice-consul has been in the service since 1938.

The speakers were introduced by Ivey Gonzalez, identification expert and a member of the Wichita Falls police department since 1919.

The addresses were characterized by generalities pertaining to the need of better relations between the Anglo-Saxon and Latin American groups. They left a quantity of colored folders on Mexico for distribution.

Songs and dances contributed by Latin American artists reflected the distinguishing qualities of music, entertainment and art south of the Rio Grande. All the entertainers were dressed in colorful native costumes.

Maria Elena Armendariz, 14, an 8th grade student at Reagan Junior High school, Wichita Falls, who won an award in Xavier Cugat's show in Wichita Falls last fall, was a personable performer. She did two dances, the rumba and balentin dela sierra.

The Mexican hat dance by Josefina Arias and Arturo Gallegos was a delightful feature of the entertainment.

Guitar music with featured soloists was provided by the Latin American Trio composed of Ricardo Villareal, Jose Arias and Pepe Diaz; and a duo which included Larry Morino and the Texas Kid. Songs used by the trio included "Cuatro Caminos" and "Queretana Soy." As the program was brought to a close all the artists appeared on stage in an ensemble farewell number.

LOCAL MUSICIAN SCORES HIT IN WICHITA FALLS RECITAL

Miss Lou Ann Duke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Duke, was one of the featured soloists for a program presented by the Junior Musicians club of Wichita Falls at the Woman's Forum, Tuesday evening.

Lou Ann won a warm place in the hearts of Wichitans. This was reflected in a writeup of the program by W. L. Underwood which appeared in the Wichita Times. He said, "Miss Duke graced the stage easily and revealed a contagious warmth in her address to tuneful program songs."

Miss Barbara Butts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Justin Butts, provided piano accompaniment for Miss Duke's performance.

★ SENIOR NEWS

This winter weather has been just about more than we can take. We will sure be glad to see the sun shine so we can continue our baseball games.

Mr. Weathers has been showing films of football games at noon this week. They are rather interesting. Also if you look around you may see some interesting sights. For instance, that new Jr-sr couple Jackie and Paul could be seen sitting together. Also Sandra and Lucille were sitting between two soph boys. They finally managed a date too.

Patsy Mitchell seems to be doing just fine. She is still wearing that Coyote ar ring. She has had it for about two weeks now, so I guess everything is running smoothly.

Harold Lewis had a soph wearing his class ring for a while but I don't know what has happened except that he has it again.

Wanda looks extra happy now-a-days. She has good reason too. Herb will be here in time for the banquet. Edon seems to be getting along fine with that cute blonde soph again. By the way, Edon, who dedicated that song to you the other night? Ruth Mary?

Peggy and Clifton seem to be getting along just fine.

Sandra is trying her best to make us another sr couple. She went with Tommy, Monday night, and we have reason to believe there will be another date soon.

I saw Mr. Weathers talking to James the other morning. From what I gathered from the conversation, he wasn't telling James to prepare a valedictory address either. He asked him the other day if he wanted to reserve his seat to use again next year.

Eiga Ann says the srs will be ordering graduation announcements pretty soon now. Everybody is talking about the coming sr play. There isn't much to say about it yet.

The characters will be chosen this week and practice will get underway before long. It can't keep from being a hit because it is a cute play and there is lots of talent to put it over. The title of the play is "The Whole Truth."

Caroline Sue has a new haircut and it is really cute.

Wilma had an anniversary this week: two whole months!

Wanda Ann came up one day saying she didn't want to wear a jr pin anymore but she changed her mind overnight.

Kenneth Munden has some of Lucille's earrings he has had for a year and from what I hear he is going to get his head peeled if he doesn't bring them to her. Also he got a picture out of her billfold. She is going to let him keep the picture if he will bring the earrings. Warning!!!

Charlene says she is going to sell the ticket she bought for Doyle. She is not going to let Doyle go with her to the All Sports banquet. He got a burr, so he will just have to suffer. Right, Charlene?

Music Association Memberships Close After Saturday

A free concert featuring Robert Merrill, March 20 is in store for the citizens of Iowa Park who join the North Texas Civic Music Association by Saturday, March 17.

Edwin A. Beba, president of the association, which has members from near North Texas and Southern Oklahoma cities, said the annual week-long membership campaign has been in full swing the week of March 12 only. Headquarters are at Max Kreutz House of Music in Wichita Falls.

During last year's association has presented such artists as John Charles Thomas, Isaac Stern, Gladys Swarthout, Jan Peerce, St. Louis Symphony, Ezio Pinza and other artists of the concert stage and opera.

Artists to be presented next season will be selected and announced at the close of the membership campaign when the amount of the membership funds has been tallied.

The Iowa Park representative of the association is Mrs. James Sewell.

Pupils of the high school figured prominently in the program at the regular meeting of the Iowa Park Parent-Teacher association Wednesday afternoon. First to perform was Miss Jimmie Joy George, who provided music as members assembled.

Mrs. O. R. Owens was leader for the meeting. Mrs. Jack Ralston read the 27th Psalm and verses from Romans 8 as a background for her meditation thoughts which dealt with the Lord's promise.

The music class directed by Mrs. Owens rendered four numbers with Eugene Parish reading a part in the last selection. Barbara Butts provided piano accompaniment.

A panel discussion on "Should the School Offer Home Management and Home Relations Courses" was carried on by Patsy Mitchell, Mary Hackman, Harold Lewis and J. C. Parmer. The speakers agreed that such courses are important contributions to marital happiness and should be offered in high school since two thirds of the young people do not go to college. They mentioned home economics and physical education as courses making for better homemakers but expressed a conviction that more such courses should be offered.

Mrs. J. T. New was elected president of PTA for 1951-52. Other officers named include Mrs. Lloyd Lowe, vice-president; Mrs. Orville Bell, secretary; Mrs. Wilburn Bedford, treasurer.

Reports were given by Mrs. Rollins Woodall, publications chairman; Mrs. Bedford, treasurer; Mrs. D. O. James, study group chairman, who announced the final study session of the year will be held at her home March 28. She also stated that a parliamentary procedure course will be taught March 21.

Mrs. Burk Scott, registration chairman, recognized the 6th and 12th grades as winners of attendance awards.

Supt. W. R. Bradford announced that an intersquad football game will be played next Monday night, and that the All Sports Banquet will be Tuesday evening.

Discussing census taking, Mr. Bradford revealed that the local school must have an average daily attendance of 638 pupils to be eligible for an additional teacher next year.

The association voted to co-operate with the school board in the building of lockers for the boys' dressing rooms.

The executive board of the PTA met at the home of Mrs. Burk Scott, Monday evening. Mrs. L. C. Perry was co-hostess. Thirteen were present.

Elgin Denny Digs Up Pipe, Gets History Of His Farm Home

Even a piece of 3/4-inch pipe can have a fascinating story—especially when it has been unearthed in remarkably good condition after having been in old Mother Earth for more than 60 years!

While laying a water line at his farm home southwest of town last week, Elgin Denny struck and uncovered the pipe. At first it had no special meaning to him, but as he worked he began to wonder when and why the pipe was laid. He brought it into town to Bradford's Furniture and Hardware Store and searched out some old settlers who had lived on the farm before his father, the late S. L. Denny, purchased it.

Aaron Brubaker furnished Elgin with the information he sought. Back in 1890 when the late Mr. and Mrs. A. Brubaker, parents of R. R. Brubaker, owned the place Aaron helped his brother lay a water line from a well east of the house for the purpose of carrying water which was drawn from the well by means of an LXL windmill up to the house. The windmill was shipped from Kansas City, according to Mr. Brubaker.

After S. L. Denny bought the farm the old house was torn down and a new one built in about 1904.

Not long ago Elgin was doing some repair work on the house which required removing part of the siding. Underneath he found this message: "This house constructed by J. J. White and son. The son referred to is James J. (Jim) White. He and his father, the late J. J. White, worked together as contractors and carpenters.

Mr. Bradford furnished this reporter with a romantic touch to the story of the Denny farm. Being single when he purchased the land, Mr. Denny lived there alone until he fell in love with a comely young school teacher in the community. Soon they were married and together they successfully operated their home and farm for many years.

As a parting word, Mr. Bradford said, "The pipe we sell nowadays is just as good as that old piece, and will last as long."

Texas Venture

In Education • 1876-1951
Our first state college—Texas A. and M. is now in its seventy-fifth year

An emigrant boy who came to Texas in the days of the Republic and carved out a brilliant career as merchant and statesman, George Pfeuffer was one of the early Texans of great vision who made possible the development of the A. and M. College. He came to this country with his family at the age of 15, from his native Bavaria and settled at New Braunfels, where, after a number of years he and a brother established themselves as leading merchants. Soon he spread his holdings throughout the state, in the lumber business and even established sizeable holdings in Mexico. He served as county judge of Comal County and later served with distinction as a state senator. He was appointed a member of the board of directors of A. and M. College in 1880, and developed a deep interest in its educational opportunities, which he carried with him to the Senate. Almost singlehandedly he fought the battles of the college in the Senate at a time when it was being neglected while the new State University was being created. Pfeuffer Hall, oldest building standing on the A. and M. Campus today, was named in his honor.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Watch Out For The "Blind-Spots"

Stopped by Squint Miller's farm the other day and saw a vinegar bottle in his kitchen with an oversized cucumber inside it. The cucumber filled the whole bottle.

"What's a cucumber doing in there?" I asked him. "That's my 'blind-spot' reminder," says Squint. "My grandmother kept one in her kitchen to remind her to take stock of herself now and then."

"I slipped that bottle over the cucumber when it was just starting to grow on the vine," he went on. "And like certain viewpoints, not noticed, it just grew and grew—now it's there to stay."

From where I sit, we could take a cue from Squint and watch for our own "blind-spots" and prejudices before they grow too big to get rid of. We've got to respect our neighbor's right to his preferences... preferences for a certain make of car, a favorite movie star, or a temperate glass of beer after work. We won't be tripped by any blind spots if we keep our eyes—and minds—open!

The State National and F. E. Hill are performing a real service for the vocational agriculture students and the community in making it possible for the boys to purchase dairy heifers.

With the arrival on Monday, March 11, of 9 more Holstein heifers, the bank has now made available to the boys 20 calves, and one more has been approved. This makes a total of 29 dairy heifers in the local project.

Boys receiving calves recently are John Trigg, James Beavers, Joe Noel, George Clements, Loyd Klinkerman, Ralph Brown, Arlen Shook, Tommy Patterson and Alan Morris. Thomas Johnson will get one soon.

Harold McDonald, president of the Iowa Park FFA chapter, recently completed a project of two feeder pigs. He bought the pigs when they weighed 35 and 43 pounds at $10 and $11 respectively, making them cost a total of $21.

He fed 1020 pounds of hedges, 300 pounds of shorts, 100 pounds of corn and 1050 pounds of skimmed milk. He then charged off rent for the pen and cost of self-labor to bring the total expense to $28.65.

When he sold the hogs, one weighed 290 and the other 240 lbs. He received 21 1/2 cents a pound, bringing the total income to $122.63 for a net profit of $39.58. This plus his self-labor came to a total of $48.48.

No country on earth dislikes to produce weapons of war more than America.

But no country on earth can do the job as swiftly and expertly as America—when she has to.

One of the reasons we can out-produce any other nation is our telephone system—the biggest and best in the world.

Here in Texas millions of telephone calls tie our defense efforts together. Ideas, proposals, decisions, orders, instructions and information flash over telephone wires—and production lines move full speed ahead.

It is our job at the telephone company to meet these responsibilities. We will do so, as we have tried to meet all our service obligations—with all the skill and financial strength at our command.

A community park is being built in the Beaver Creek community about 10 miles southwest of town as a project of the Beaver Creek Home Demonstration club. Since the park is being built on the Waggoner estate, it has been named Waggoner Park. Work was begun on the project about two weeks ago and members and their husbands and volunteers have made considerable progress toward creating an ideal place in that vicinity for picnics, recreation and relaxation.

They work each Wednesday afternoon between two and four and they hope to complete the project within four to six weeks.

Mrs. Lindon Jordan is president of the club. Other officers include Mrs. A. T. Hunter, vice-president; Mrs. V. R. Munden, secretary; Mrs. J. R. Byrd, council delegate.

Other members are Mmes. George Rogers, A. W. Rowell, Clifford Hestand, O. E. Barron, Oscar Bentley, R. B. Lyles, T. M. Crossfield, Tommy Suerwood, J. J. Titus, Ed Penn, Bill Pratt and Miss Dorothea Crossfield.

The park project committee is made up of Messdames Rowell, Hestand and Penn. Under the supervision of J. R. Byrd, six swings have been made and the frames for see-saws are ready. A. W. Rowell is chairman of the tables and chairs committee. The recreation ground is in the process of being fenced; the tables and chairs are receiving paint jobs and the trees are to be whitewashed.

At the next club meeting Thursday afternoon, March 22 in the home of Mrs. Bill Pratt, a cancer film will be shown, the president has announced.

The final chapter of the book "We Seek Him Together" was the topic of study for the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the Methodist church Monday.

Mrs. W. E. Stockton, president, conducted a brief business session in which it was voted to send $1 toward a life membership for district vice-president Mrs. M. T. Clements of Wichita Falls.

To open the worship service, the group sang "Take time to be holy." A period of silent meditation was observed, after which Mrs. Stockton offered prayer.

Mrs. Ida Chatelain was in charge of the program and introduced the topic "Worship Together," stressing the fact that worshipping together was a road of adventure, deepening the sense of the presence of God, and reminding us of our relations as Christians by insight into the lives of others.

To close the study Mrs. Chatelain read the poem "A Lifted Burden," by Ina Temple.

Mrs. Scott Morris offered prayer to dismiss Mmes. C. J. Simpson, Ida Chatelain, R. Abernathy, Jim George, S. L. Denny, L. C. Perry, E. B. Taylor, Carl Sullivan, T. C. Scott, H. W. Weaver, Miles Thompson, M. L. Smith, Archie Bryant, James A. Sewell, Scott Morris.

Mrs. Johnny McDaniels and Mrs. G. C. Williamsons of Holiday were shopping Wednesday in Iowa Park.

Farmers Union legislative activity has become increasingly more fruitful over the years. Political action is one of the main planks in the Farmers Union Program. This is in proportion to our strength in numbers our successes have been outstanding. We recognize however that our legislative efforts must be fortified with political action.

The family type farm must be defended at the ballot box. Candidates must be judged, elected or defeated on a basis of their records in light of the Farmers Union program, or our legislative efforts will be hampered. Also some advice that should be heeded by everyone, is to study the records of all office seekers, without partisan or personal bias.

Figure it out this way: In every district about 65 out of every 100 are registered voters. Of this 65 only 40 vote on election day. Of these 40, only 16 vote in the primaries, which is an average of 8 in either party. Of these 8, a candidate needs only 5 to win a primary. Thus, if a vigilant, militant 5 per cent is at work in each congressional district, free enterprise and the preservation of the Constitution need not become political issues.

"Free enterprise," "States rights" and "Preservation of the Constitution" are terms used by the champions of those who fight against improving the living standards of the average citizen. This is not saying that the government should provide for the welfare of everybody, but the government does do a lot for the general welfare of the people. The best examples of which we know is the work of the NSDA and the school lunch programs.

Democracy is everybody's business, and democracy won't work unless the people do.

Homecoming Feature of WSCS Meeting

Homecoming Day was held recently when the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met to observe the 10th anniversary of the organization, which was formerly the Woman's Missionary Society.

Mrs. Fenton Dale, chairman of the membership committee, was in charge of the program and introduced its theme "A Charge to Keep."

Mrs. James A. Sewell gave an organ prelude followed by the welcome address given by Mrs. W. E. Stockton.

The group then sang "A Charge to Keep" led by a quartet composed of Mmes. Preston Pace, B. E. Cain and Grace Hughes.

Mrs. Stockton was in charge of the signature service. Charter members signed first, followed by the regular members.

Mrs. C. B. Smith gave a Biblical Reading. Rev. Kirk Beard was in charge of the rededication service at the altar, after which he gave the benediction.

During the noon hour approximately 45 members and guests gathered around the table to enjoy the quarterly birthday luncheon, held in honor of those having birthdays during the past quarter.

The chief attraction was a huge three tiered birthday cake baked by Mrs. H. M. Mahler.

The invocation was pronounced by Mr. Beard. Following the luncheon the group assembled in the sanctuary around the altar to have a picture made.
