WHOOOPS-- Not all the paint got on tower

The crew painting the relocated water tower apparently did some spraying when the winds were higher than they should have been, several car owners have complained.

City Administrator James Barrington confirmed yesterday that he has received numerous complaints from owners who report finding small specks of paint on the surface of their vehicles.

He said he is referring all calls to the firm of Biggs and Mathews in Wichita Falls, which handles all city engineering work.

Specifically, Gary Jones and Kerry Maroney are the men to contact, at 766-0156, Barrington said.

Biggs and Mathews is not responsible for the painting, but did the engineering work on the tower's relocation from its former resting place at Lake Gordon, as well as drafting the specifications for the work.

Pittsburg Tank and Tower Inc. in Kentucky was the successful bidder on the project, but the painting is being done by a sub-contractor, which has insurance coverage from a firm in Arkansas.

Maroney said there is no question of some cars being damaged, but at least one complaint he received could not have been related. The color was wrong.

Owners of both new car dealerships reported vehicles on their lots had small, light-colored specks on the paint which would not come off with buffing and other methods norm-

School enrollment down from 1988

Iowa Park's two elementary schools were the only two campuses reporting an increase in enrollment over last year, when classes resumed for a new year Tuesday.

Enrollments reported Tuesday totaled 1,848, as compared with 1,872.

Iowa Park's record first-day enrollment was in 1970, when 2,292 pupils reported for classes.

However, the figures could be somewhat misrepresentative, because last year's total was taken the first day classes resumed following the Labor Day holiday, and are not first-day enrollment.

Iowa Park chose to not start its school year until after Labor Day this year, an option permitted by the Texas Education Agency.

Traditionally, many parents held their children out of school until after the long Labor Day weekend.

Kidwell reported a gain of 14 students, even though kindergarten was down by six. That campus had 477 students Tuesday.

Bradford had an increase of nine students, with 461.

The junior high's 406 students was 10 fewer than last year, but the high school reported only 504 students, which was a reduction of 37.

There were 25 fewer seniors, 17 fewer freshmen and six fewer juniors at the high school, with the only gain being in the sophomore class, where 21 more were enrolled.

First-day enrollment for 1989, by classes, include:

12th Grade	106
11th Grade	112
10th Grade	145
9th Grade	141
8th Grade	130
7th Grade	150
6th Grade	126
5th Grade	138
4th Grade	174
3rd Grade	149
2nd Grade	148
1st Grade	169
Kindergarten	147
Early Childhood	7
Special Education	6

1989 EDITION OF THE IOWA PARK HAWKS

Hawks open season here Friday ... with lots of reasons to beat Burkburnett!

When Iowa Park takes on Burkburnett at 8 p.m. Friday in Hawk Stadium, the athletes in green and white will have a whole host of reasons to win.

First and foremost, they want to turn around last year's disastrous 1-9 record ... something Iowa Park teams, and fans, don't take lightly.

Then, they'd like revenge for that 25-12 loss in their opener in 1988, in which they aided in their own defeat by turning over the ball three times on interceptions and another on a fumble.

While most of the Bulldog faces will be new to the returning Hawks, because of graduation, there'll be one very familiar to them. A starter on last year's Mean Green team, Vance Edwards, moved to Burkburnett during the summer and is a starter for that club.

Iowa Park and Burkburnett have been playing each other since the two schools began competitive sports. Over the past 20 seasons, Burk holds the winning edge, 11-9.

Eventhough the Hawks lost by a pair of touchdowns in '88, their offense was able to move the ball, gaining 247 yards.

After that win over the Hawks in the opener, the Bulldogs posted only three more victories. A senior team, the 'Dogs have only four offensive and two defensive starters, all linemen, among the 11 lettermen who are back this season.

Burkburnett is a member of Dist. 5-A. The two teams last played each other as conference members in 1983, which was won by the 'Dogs 20-9.

Iowa Park won the two following years, 24-13 and 9-3, before losing three consecutive contests.

Head Hawk Len Williams said he was pleased with the attitude and hard work of his '89 club, and expects a much better finish in the win-loss column this year.

But high school football doesn't wait until Friday to get started.

The Hawk Junior Varsity and Freshmen travel to Burkburnett tonight for their season openers. The Frosh are set to kick off at 6 and the JV at 7:30.

Junior High teams will not see action until Sept. 19, when they take on Graham.

Tate new SNB president

Jimmy Tate, a vice president of State National Bank six years, has been elevated to president of the local financial institution effective Sept. 1, according to Stanley Williamson, chairman of the board.

The position was vacated Friday when Bert Williamson resigned. He did not issue a public statement and was unavailable for comment.

Tate, who began his 33-year career in banking when he joined the First National Bank, which was later known as First Wichita. While there, he worked in all phases of banking.

He joined State National as vice president in September 1983, and last January was elevated to senior executive vice president.

Tate and his wife, Sue, completed building their new home on North Peterson Road in 1986.

The couple has two daughters, Teri Hansen and Pam Presson, both married and living in Wichita Falls.

Tate is a native of Wichita Falls, having graduated Wichita Falls High School in 1953. He attended Midwestern State Univ., and was graduated in 1974 from the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking at Southern Methodist Univ. in 1974. He later graduated the National School of Real Estate Finance at Ohio State Univ.

Jimmy Tate

He continues as a Sunday School teacher at the First Baptist Church in Wichita Falls, and is a past director of the Sunrise Optimist Club, and past treasurer of Camp Fire Girls Council.

City, school meetings set

Members of the city council will decide what action to take on an issue vetoed by the mayor, and school trustees will hear reports from campus principals, at their respective meetings next week.

The city meeting will be at 7 p.m. Monday in council chambers and trustees will start their meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the administration building.

At the Aug. 28 meeting of the council, Mayor Tim Hunter warned aldermen he might veto their action concerning a requested six-month delay to demolish a fire-damaged home at 908 E. Highway.

Aldermen, however, voted unanimously to delay any action by the city against the property owner, Cora Blevins.

Hunter submitted his letter of veto Wednesday to Administrator James Barrington. It was the second time the mayor has exercised his veto power to void action by aldermen.

So, a second "determination hearing" on the property will be held.

Also Monday night, the city will hold a required public hearing on a proposed tax increase which, if finally approved, would raise the 1989-90 tax rate from 84-cents to .885 per $100 evaluation.

Two ordinances and a proclamation are also on Monday's agenda.

One ordinance would add a chapter to the code for "Emergency Reporting Equipment and Procedures," and the other would increase fees for animal permits and change the effective year dates.

The proclamation would declare Alcohol and Drug Awareness Year in Iowa Park.

SCHOOL BOARD

School trustees, now that classes have started for the new year, will hear annual reports from each of the school principals, as well as a report on enrollment from Supt. Glen

Trustees will also act on a letter of resignation received from Trustee Gary Fielding, who announced last week his intentions to resign.

An annual task of the board is to act on requests by organizations and classes for field trips and fund-raising activities during the year, which is on the meeting agenda.

An audit agreement with Nayland F. Smith and Associates will receive board action, as will a request for student transfer.

The board is expected to call for a bond election to do approximately $2.75-million in construction and necessary improvements to buildings during the coming year. Members have spent approximately five months studying proposals.

Also to be considered is a proposal to dismiss school early Sept. 15, in order for students to be able to attend the varsity football game at Abilene Wylie.

Daylight home burglaries are investigated by police

Police figure two bold daylight burglaries reported Monday in the same neighborhood were committed by the same culprit.

Two reports of burglaries of a habitation were filed Thursday, one in the 600 block of Clara and the other in the 500 block of Coleman.

In both cases, residents were out of town, the front doors had been kicked in, and there was no ransacking of the insides.

A large coin collection and jewelry was taken from the Clara home, and jewelry and a scanner radio from the Coleman residence. Nothing else was taken, though there was a lot of items left behind which are often taken in such cases, police said.

Police have talked with neighbors of the two homes, and one resident reported hearing a loud noise one day but believed it to have been a car door being slammed. The resident looked out a window and saw a car parked in front of one of the homes, but did not report it to police at the time.

In an unrelated theft, a woman told police $2,300 in cash had been taken from her purse. The case was filed Saturday from a residence in the 1000 block of Pasadena.

Another theft report received Friday indicated a pearl necklace had been taken, but the owner, who lives in the 200 block of E. Jefferson, did not know exactly when it occurred.

Five arrests were listed during the week's police blotter.

Michael Wayne Davis, 31, was taken into custody in the 100 block of E. Garden Thursday evening on a local traffic warrant. It was later found he had two warrants for his arrest from the Wichita Falls Police Dept., one from the Wichita County Sheriff's Office, and two from the Lubbock DPS. Davis was transported to county jail.

Arrested Friday afternoon at Lake Gordon was Brian Dean Riley, 35, who was wanted on a DPS warrant. He was later released after paying his fine, according to the blotter.

Also arrested on a DPS warrant, issued from Sulphur Springs, was Frank Nolin Harvard, 32. He also was released after paying a fine.

Officers responded to a 9-1-1 call in the 900 block of Cash at 9:13 p.m. Saturday to find a woman who said she wanted a man in the house to leave, and he wouldn't.

The woman, according to the report, was very loud and cursing, and when the man attempted to assist officers in calming her, was struck in the jaw by a cup the woman swung.

Hester Sisk Jenkins, 51, was taken into custody on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Charles Lee Ribble, 25, was arrested Sunday evening on a charge of theft over $20. Ribble is accused of stealing water service from the city, and possibly a water meter. He was taken to county jail and later released after posting a $500 bond.

Two men told police Monday afternoon they had taken a motorcycle from Lake Iowa Park, near the dam, after having found it submerged in about five feet of water.

Records were checked on the vehicle, which had not been reported by its owner of record in Wichita Falls as stolen. However, the body appeared to have been wrecked and the motor was missing, police said.

Cook of the Week

The majority of young wives and mothers today will tell you that they learned to cook by watching their mother or grandmother. The method often used was called "throwing it together."

Angel (Mrs. Skip) Sheets is no exception. She said she learned to cook while watching her mother and grandmother use "a pinch of this, and a pinch of that." "I had to sit down and think about the measurements of the ingredients before I could put some of the recipes on paper," she said.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Bean, Angel was born in Iowa Park. The family moved away because of her father's work, but they moved back when she was a junior in high school.

She is married to Skip Sheets, who grew up in Iowa Park and has been employed at Cryovac since he graduated from high school.

They have two daughters, Courtney, who is seven years old and a first grade student, and Carrie, a five-year-old kindergarten student.

The family belongs to Faith Baptist Church where Angel is a teacher for the College and Career Class, and a Training Union teacher for third and fourth grade students. Skip plays on the church softball team.

Angel is a Mary Kay beauty consultant, and says she enjoys this type of work because it allows her more time with the children.

Her only hobby, she said, is horseback riding. Her love for horses and riding started when she showed horses in 4-H and participated in riding contests. She was Sheriff's Posse Sweetheart in Jacksboro for two years.

"The New Testament assigns the church a clear role in missions," she said to introduce the program that emphasized how successful missions development always involves local churches. She stressed the opportunities a local church has in meeting needs in the community such as ministering to the poor, sick, homeless and unemployed. In closing, Mrs. Patterson said we must be conscious that missions begin with the local church seeing the needs at its own door, then give to the cooperative program which helps to meet the needs of the state, home and foreign fields.

"Healthy Body, Healthy Mind, Healthy Spirit"

As I See It... By BOB HAMILTON

It seems impossible, but it's a fact. With this issue of the Leader, we are completing 20 full years of publication in Iowa Park.

It's an old cliché, but "My, how time does fly!"

I thought it might be interesting to those of you who weren't here, or might not remember, what the news was here back in September of 1969.

Well, our lead story was about the rejection of voters concerning zoning and urban renewal, with fewer than one-third the city's 2,079 eligible voters bothering to cast ballots.

Schools had just opened, after being delayed a week because the new high school building had not been completed on schedule, with 2,041 pupils.

Though classes hadn't started, the Hawks had opened their most successful season ever on Sept. 12 by wholopping Burkburnett 44-7, and were preparing to take on Decatur.

Banking was also in the news, as it is on today's front page. Stanley Williamson confirmed all 200,000 shares of stock in a new bank he was proposing to start here had been sold. (The charter was never granted by the state banking commission.)

There were three of us on the staff that first issue. Dolores, me, and Annetta Reusch, our typesetter. (Mrs. Reusch is now the journalism instructor at Wichita Falls High.)

We had one wedding story in that Sept. 18 issue. It announced the marriage of Linda Kay Steger and James Robert Merrick. And one of the engagement stories announced the approaching marriage of Lynna Kay Nowell, daughter of then superintendent of schools Faris and Mrs. Nowell.

And, just like is happening this issue, we announced a meeting for the organization of Camp Fire Girls.

Mike Hickey had just been elected president of the Iowa Park Chapter of Future Farmers. Chuck

Dyer was vice president, Duncan Spruiell secretary, Jerry Spruiell treasurer, Mike Kelly reporter and Steve Holder sentinel.

Our largest advertisers, bless their hearts, were State National Bank, Parkway Furniture, Duckworth Chevrolet, Shaw Motor Company, Whites, Park T.V. and Furniture, Lone Star Gas Company, Park Pharmacy, A&K TrueValue, and a whole host of signature advertisers in a layout welcoming us to the community.

And we had 10 advertisers on our two-page football booster ad: Park Pharmacy, Shaw Motor, Parkway, Park T.V. and Furniture, A&K, State National Bank, Iowa Park Florists, Flowers by Shirley, and Settle Drug.

These 20 years have been good to the Hamiltons, and we appreciate it.

We're now looking forward to the next 20.

Worth Quoting

When the Special Called Session of the Texas Legislature drew to a close, the pivotal issue of the session and the reason for Gov. Bill Clements to call the assembly of the legislature, Worker Compensation reform was scheduled for a yes or no vote in the Senate. The vote never happened. The bill was sent to a conference committee for study, effectively killing the bill.

After months of political wrangling, a hand full of trial lawyers in the Senate destroyed all chance of the reform measures becoming law. If only five Senators would change their vote to favor the much needed reforms in the Worker Compensation system, then workers and businesses of the state could move on to greater economic opportunities.

The problem with our current system was stated by Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby at the beginning of the 71st Legislature. He said, "The problem with our Worker Compensation insurance system in Texas is that it does not work and it does not compensate."

Texas is in the top five states in the amount of premiums paid by business, but in the lowest five in the amount of compensation that injured workers receive. The difference is primarily paid to a host of trial lawyers that, by law, receive one-quarter of every dollar paid in compensation to injured workers that retain counsel.

Only one other state in the Union allows lawyers to be involved in the Worker Compensation system as in Texas. The other 48 states use administrative hearings and a schedule of benefits to determine the amount of compensation an injured worker receives.

In Texas we have a system called trial de novo. After a perfunctory administrative hearing, either party can file suit in district court and demand a jury trial to determine compensation. With no schedule of benefits as a guide, jury awards vary widely across the state for the same injury.

Because of that uncertainty of award, insurance companies are forced to set high premiums to cover the costs of future awards.

Trial lawyers love the present system. They should, they designed it as a lawyer's paradise. They use the threat of a jury trial to coerce insurance companies to settle for higher compensation amounts to stay out of court. To the lawyer it all pays the same, 25 percent plus fees.

This lawyer's relief program is costing Texas jobs and business expansion. In some industries the premium for having a worker in this state as opposed to a neighboring state is over $5,000 per employee. Many industries are not willing to pay that price to locate in Texas.

It is time to reform our Worker Compensation Insurance system. We cannot let five state Senators stand in the way of that reform. By refusing to vote for reform, they are holding the economic prosperity of Texas hostage to protect their own narrow interests.

JIM HUDSON
Perryton Herald

You probably had this fellow at your last class reunion. You know the type -- new threads, a rented sports car, borrowed gold watch, and just enough cash to make it back to the old hometown for a reunion.

There's this story about this guy who met up with a fellow who had been his best friend in high school.

They hadn't seen each other since graduation. The friend was driving an expensive car that he obviously owned, a hand-tailored suit and was obviously beaming with success.

Asked the unlucky fellow: "You've got it made, and I've had nothing but failures. I'm behind on my bills, my inventory is too high, my banker is breathing down my neck and my wife just ran off with her tennis instructor. Tell me your secret, how did you make it?"

"I got religion," he replied. "Right after high school I was scraping by. Then one night I went to a tent revival and took the preacher's message to heart. I went home and asked for a sign. Then I opened my Bible and closed my eyes and I put my finger on the page. I looked down and the Bible was open to the book of Joshua and my finger was pointing to the word 'horse'.

"The next day," he continued, "I looked in the paper and a horse named Joshua was running at 100-

1 odds. I took every cent I had and bet on him. I took the winnings and bought some horses and opened my own stable.

"But there's more," said the successful classmate. "I took down my Bible again, closed my eyes and pointed. My finger was on the word 'cattle'. That very day I bought half interest in a ranch. Another time my finger landed on the word oil, and we've never had a dry hole."

The unlucky classmate listened to this success story, and left the reunion early. He rushed back to the motel and found the Gideon Bible. With hands trembling, he closed his eyes and opened the Bible and put his finger on the page.

He opened his eyes, looked down to where his finger was pointing and read, "Chapter 11".

Paint

ally used to remove paint.

It is estimated there may be as many as 500 cars affected.

Maroney said he had suggested to the insurance company a crew of four or five adjusters locate here for a few days, to receive complaints.

There still is one more coat of paint to be applied to the tower, and Maroney said the crew is planning to use rollers to complete the project.

Restitution not enough

Dear Bob:

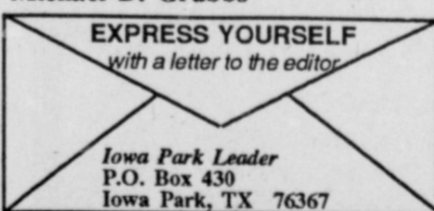

I'm disturbed by a trend in Iowa Park! You recently reported that a local eating establishment was burglarized. Later you reported that the restitution had been made and the complaint was dropping charges.

The same thing happened last year at the school. The school reported the doors at the High School had been rammed by a vehicle. Later the police made an arrest, but the charges were dropped when restitution was made.

As a preacher I understand forgiveness and grace, but remained concerned that the only lesson that is being learned is that you pay IF you get caught and then everything is okay!

This makes our police department little more than a free private detective agency. I would urge the city council to pass an ordinance requiring those who file charges and then drop them after the police have apprehended the perpetrator be assessed a charge for their abuse of the police department's resources.

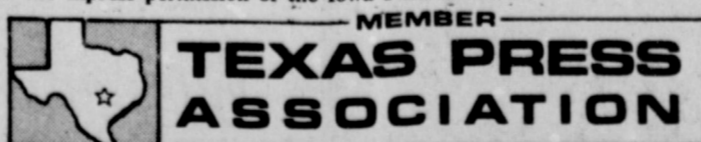

Sincerely,
Michael D. Grubbs

A new number for Telephone Repair:

1611

It's a small change. Just four numbers. But changing our repair service number will improve our service to you.

From now on, when you need to reach Southwestern Bell Telephone's repair service, call 1611.

In the past, repair calls sometimes were routed to several locations before reaching the repair service bureau, increasing the chance that you reached a busy signal.

Now, by calling 1611, your call will be routed directly to the repair service bureau and that should minimize your waiting time for one of our repair service representatives.

So, for repair problems or questions, just remember four numbers — 1611. Or check the front of your new White Pages Directory for information on repair service.

It's just that easy.

The one to call on.

ASK YOUR PHARMACIST

QUESTION: "Is it OK to break tablets to adjust dosage?"

ANSWER: Only tablets that bear a "score mark" should be broken to adjust dose. Tablets without this "slot" may contain important coating to give a specific "timed dose" or to allow absorption at a specific place in the gastro-intestinal tract. Unscored tablets should generally be swallowed whole. When in doubt, consult your pharmacist.

NEWS BRIEF:

The Food and Drug Administration again warns athletes about the dangers of abuse of anabolic steroids. FDA notes that the effect of steroids on muscle growth is temporary, but the damage from misuse of the drugs can be permanent, including cancer, hair loss, liver disease, and sexual dysfunction. If you're aware of anyone using these substances improve their athletic abilities, be sure to warn them of the long term consequences. You'll be doing them a great favor.

A SALUTE TO EDUCATION

All those who have children are well aware that school has now begun for another year. How deeply indebted we are to those who educated us many years ago! Stop and consider the blessings and benefits of education for a moment! It is because a teacher cared you acquired the ability to read and are able to read this article today. It is because of education the ability you have today to communicate and interact socially with other individuals in an acceptable manner. It is because of education we can read of human history and learn to avoid the mistakes of the past. It is because of education we have dared to dream what the future may be like and what contributions we can make to make this world a better place for all to live in peace and harmony.

I like the thoughts of Solomon in Proverbs 3:13-18: "How blessed is the man who finds wisdom, and the man who gains understanding. For its profit is better than the profit of silver, and its gain than fine gold. She is more precious than jewels; and nothing you desire compares with her. Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor. Her ways are pleasant ways, and all her paths are peace. She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her, and happy are all who hold fast."

Education gives one a foundation for a successful life. Education does not give you all the answers for every problem encountered in life. Education does give you the knowledge of where to research, and the ability to think and reason for yourself. Education helps to prepare one for life. It is truly one of our most valuable freedoms and possessions!

TAB commends Rep. Finnell

Rep. Charles Finnell has been commended by the Texas Association of Business for his efforts during the regular and special sessions of the legislature to reform the state's troubled workers compensation system.

In a letter, TAB President Dane Harris praised Finnell for "taking a strong stand to reform a workers compensation system that is victimizing injured workers as well as employers and costing jobs for our state."

Harris said with Finnell's continued support of both small and large business in the special session set for Nov. 14, "We can create a cost-effective system that is fair to both injured workers and employers."

"This is clearly the most critical issue facing Texas," Finnell said. "I am hopeful that we can quickly come up with reasonable reforms to take the burden off small business in this state."

Drivers should be aware of school bus activity

What's yellow and black and has 144 feet? A loaded school bus.

Summer vacation is over and children across the state are returning to school, many aboard big yellow and black school buses. One of the most common sights on our roadways during the school year, these buses can carry from 71 to 83 seated students on any given trip each day.

"Yet as common as they are, every year there seems to be an unfortunate rash of accidents caused by drivers who fail to follow safe driving practices for a stopped school bus," stated Major Vernon Cathon, Regional Commander for the Texas Dept. of Public Safety.

State law requires drivers on the same roadway as a school bus that is stopped to load or unload children, to also stop until the bus driver has turned off the flashing red lights. This rule applies unless the vehicle is separated from the bus by a divided highway with a median strip.

The first few weeks of school are the most dangerous, according to Major Cathon. "This time of the year presents safety problems for both the school children and the driver," he explained. "Many youngsters are attending school for the first time and others might be going to a different school, where they are unfamiliar with local traffic conditions. One problem seems to be that during the summer recess, some drivers have gotten out of the habit of being alert for both school zones and school buses."

Public Safety officials are asking Texas drivers to begin thinking now about the safety of our school children, as the beginning of a new school year starts up. By observing the speed limits in school zones, being alert for increased pedestrian traffic, and watching for school bus activity, we can make this a safe school year for all.

The Iowa Park 4-H Club will hold its first meeting of the year at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the ASCS office here.

Any child between the ages of nine and nineteen years old interested in joining 4-H are invited to attend the meeting.

Officers for the 1989-90 club year include Scott James, president; Melissa Motl and Jennifer Panter, vice presidents; Shelley Panter, secretary; Justin Daume, treasurer; Melinda Mod, reporter; Randy Barnes and Kristen Bauer, council delegates.

In The Military

In ROTC camp

Cadets Bret A. Cantwell and Kelvin H. Hamilton received practical work in military leadership at the U.S. Army ROTC advanced camp, Fort Riley, Kan.

The six-week camp, attended by cadets normally between their third and fourth years of college, includes instruction in communications, management and survival training.

Successful completion of the advanced camp and graduation from college results in a commission as a second lieutenant in either the U.S. Army, Army Reserve or National Guard for the cadet.

Cantwell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cantwell of Iowa Park. Hamilton, a 1980 graduate of Iowa Park High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy T. Hamilton, also of Iowa Park.

Rail crossing deaths down

Auto-train collisions at Texas highway rail-crossings are down 22 percent for the first three months of the year and Rep. Charles Finnell credits his safety legislation for much of the improvement.

Figures just released by the Texas Railroad Commission reported 145 auto-train accidents at rail-crossings in the first quarter of 1989, resulting in 15 deaths.

There were 186 accidents resulting in 18 deaths during the same period last year.

Finnell said his Rail-Crossing Safety Information Act has greatly reduced the number of auto-train accidents statewide by helping to report dangerous conditions at crossings on state highways.

The law established a statewide toll-free telephone number for reporting stolen or damaged crossing signals or other hazardous conditions at crossings.

WHAT SITS OUT BACK, RUNS SUMMER AND WINTER, AND SAVES YOU MONEY?

A heat pump. And there are three good reasons you should get one.

A HEAT PUMP COOLS, HEATS AND SAVES.

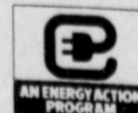

Replace your old air conditioner with a new electric heat pump. It's a high efficiency air conditioner in summer. While, in the winter, it's the most energy efficient heating system you can own. On even the coldest days, a heat pump system operates efficiently and will provide all the warmth you need.

A HEAT PUMP CAN SAVE $130 A YEAR.

Compared to a gas furnace, a heat pump is more energy efficient. And TU Electric's low rates make heating and cooling your home with a heat pump an even better value. Tests have shown you can save $130 or more a year by installing a heat pump.*

HAWKS FIRE OUT ON SCRIMMAGE PLAY AGAINST OLNEY DEFENSE

Improved Hawks topple Cubs

It was a much-improved green and white club that took the field Friday night, when the Hawks held their final pre-season scrimmage against a good club at Olney.

The improvement, over the previous week's scrimmage against Holliday, was mainly in the offensive line's blocking.

Iowa Park's varsity outscored its host team 2-1, had 295 total yards offense in 50 plays to Olney's 194, and led 16-9 in first downs. The Hawks rushed for 222 yards and picked up the other 73 passing. Olney was allowed 170 yards rushing and 24 passing.

Olney also lost the ball twice on turnovers, but the Hawks lost the ball only once. All turnovers were on fumbles.

To cap off the scrimmage, each varsity team was given the ball five plays to score from the five-yard line. Iowa Park scored three times, twice on runs and once on a pass. On the other two plays, the Hawks were two yards short of the goal line, and lost a fumble on the fifth. Olney was unable to score on any of its five plays.

And, like the previous scrimmage session, it was no contest for the Hawk freshman and junior varsity teams. Olney, extremely thin in its underclassman ranks, as was Holliday, had to use its JV subs against Iowa Park's freshmen, and the same quarterback had to go through both sets.

The Frosh scored twice while holding Olney scoreless, and led in first downs 9-4. Both teams lost the ball once on turnovers, Iowa Park with a fumble and Olney by interception.

Three of the JV's first downs were touchdowns, and the defense held Olney to only one first down. Iowa Park didn't turn over the ball, but Olney lost a fumble and an interception.

Four Iowa Parkans were on the sidelines before the evening ended, including three varsity and one JV. However, none of the injuries were considered serious.

Bunkie Imboden sprained an ankle, Jimmy Duggins bruised a shoulder, and Gary Green sat out the last session with a bruised thigh. JV starter Greg Steger also sprained an ankle.

The first-unit varsity offense racked up 97 yards rushing, 47 passing on its first 20-play possession, and scored once. Olney, against the first-unit Hawk defense, was allowed 68 rushing and 13 passing. The Cubs scored on the final play.

Iowa Park's second-unit offense cruised 114 yards on the ground and added 17 passing, also scoring on the final play. Olney was held to 66 rushing and 11 passing, and no score.

During the last set with the ball, which was a 10-play series, the Hawk first platoon ran only three times, picking up 11 yards, and connected on but one of five pass attempts for nine yards. Olney picked up 36 yards rushing and did not complete its only pass attempt.

Volunteers search for fishermen who didn't drown

More than 30 persons became involved in a search for three possible drowning victims Sunday morning at Lake Buffalo, before finding their efforts were for naught.

Iowa Park Police Dept. radio dispatcher was notified at 3:36 a.m. that a man and two young boys had gone to the lake Saturday afternoon to do some fishing, and had not returned to their home in Burkburnett.

The father of one boy had gone to the lake, found the man's pickup and boat trailer, but not the trio, and turned in the report.

Members of the Iowa Park and Electra volunteer fire departments were summoned to lead the search which, by sunrise, included deputies from the sheriff's department, the county's mobile emergency command post, and even the Red Cross canteen.

Three boats were launched before dawn to scan the shoreline and several mobile units combed the roads and possible camping sites around the large lake.

And family members patiently awaited whatever news searchers had, taking up watch next to the pickup and trailer.

Mrs. Zoltan Szaloky said her husband and son, Jeffery, 14, had gone to the lake with Michael Woods, 13, about 3 Saturday afternoon, and had said nothing about staying the night.

The Steve Woods became concerned about 2:30 a.m., and went to search for the threesome. It was he who turned in the report to police.

"We've been in situations before when we stayed out on the water (of a lake) at night when it became too dark to find our way back to the landing site," Mrs. Szaloky said, as she patiently waited news.

CONCERNED WIFE AND MOTHER GREET'S HUSBAND WHEN HE APPEARS ... after all-night fishing spree on Lake Buffalo.

But she said she had expected the trio to return about 10 Saturday night.

The search boats combed the shoreline more than three hours, and then returned to the base to await the sunrise. Their lights had been unable to pick up any sign of the boat and its occupants.

Shortly after sunlight, one of the boats headed back on its search, and soon after, another boat was seen heading to the launching site. It was the three fishermen.

Mrs. Szaloky was standing at the shore when the boat beached. Her words could be heard a couple of hundred yards up the hill, where the emergency command post was stationed.

But her husband's explanation couldn't.
