Officials encourage safety for holiday

Of all the holidays during the year, officials are most concerned about what takes place during the annual Fourth of July celebration.

The concern is expressed at all levels, from the sale and handling of fireworks to driving on the highways and around bodies of water.

July 4th is observed by almost all Americans, and it is the volume of celebrants that concerns officials. Residents are reminded not only of the safety necessary in setting off fireworks, a tradition among Americans, but where they are used.

For instance, there is a longstanding city ordinance which prohibits both the sale and setting off of fireworks inside the city limits of Iowa Park.

"It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale or explode any type or kind of fireworks, including firecrackers, torpedoes, rockets, roman candles and any other types of explosives commonly used for such purposes, within the city," states the ordinance.

Members of the Iowa Park Voluntary Fire Department are always on alert during the holiday, because so many grassfires are started by careless setting off of fireworks in the rural

This is especially true during years like the area has experienced, when frequent spring rains have made the weeds and grass grow tall, and then turn dry as it is now.

Those wishing to set off fireworks have in the past been encouraged to go to the two city lakes, Iowa Park and Buffalo, and shoot them out over the water where they can land and not ignite fires.

However, residents should be reminded that Gordon Lake, in the northeast part of town, is inside the city limits, according to James Barrington, city administrator.

Because of the hot weather, many venture to lakes for enjoyment swimming and boating. Officials point out that all boating safety rules should be observed, such as wearing of life vests, and a close watch should be made by experienced swimmers, especially when youngsters are in the water.

Because July 4th falls on a Friday this year, making it a long holiday weekend, the Texas Department of Public Safety is expecting extra heavy traffic on highways.

The DPS will be conducting "Operation Motorcide" from 6 p.m. today through midnight Sunday, and officers will be closely watching for the drinking and speeding drivers.

"Everyone should know the most dangerous time to drive is on weekends, during the summer, and on holidays. This July 4th is going to combine all three," stated Maj. V.J.

Council sees budget; approves hall project

In a called meeting of the city council Monday evening, changes in plans for the exterior renovation of city hall were approved, and members got their first look at the proposed 1986-87 budget.

Changes proposed by architect Don Daugherity were sought by the council, in order the trim the cost of the price of the project down to the anticipated level, they did save some $9,000 from the lowest of bids received at bid opening, submitted by M&F Littiken.

Primarily, the changes included using a smaller tile than originally proposed, and painting the east side of the building rather than plastering.

Cost of the project is $70,882. A conference was tentatively set today with the contractor to discuss anticipated quality of work, as well as scheduling.

Administrator James Barrington While the changes failed to get said he expects work to commence in about two weeks.

Work on the exterior of the old structure is the final phase of a project commenced several years ago. The renovation work has included converting the old firemen's meeting hall into council chambers; closing in the four-bay fire department and creating offices, storage, rest rooms and conference room, and most recently remodeling the original portion of the structure and adding a drive-up utility payment window.

The preliminary budget for next year calls for deficits in both the general fund, $135,330, and water and sewer fund, $57,218.

A $200,000 carryover is anticipated for the general fund, down some $100,000 from last year, and with anticipated revenues of $1,287,-000 and expenses projected at $1,442,330, the deficit created, Barrington explained.

Tanner, Brown vows solemnized Saturday

Miss Michelle Renee Tanner became the bride of Homer Abe Brown in a double-ring ceremony performed Saturday afternoon at Sunnyside Baptist Church in Wichita Falls with Rev. Bill Etheridge, pastor, officiating.

The couple chose Jack Tar Village in the Grand Bahamas for their honeymoon destination. They will live in Wichita Falls when they return.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Tanner of Wichita Falls, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay B. Brown of Iowa Park.

Flamingo pink, white and pink, the colors chosen by the bride for emphasis in her wedding, were noted in altar and pew decorations. An arch at the center of the altar featured garlands of greenery accented with pink bells and flamingo pink bows. The baskets that flanked the arch were filled with daffodils and carnations in the bride's colors. The seven-branched candelabra and unity candlestick that completed the altar decor lent themselves to same color and floral theme.

The church pews were topped with flamingo pink bows and ivy and those on the family aisle were marked with white candles.

Mrs. Jack McNeil provided the instrumental and vocal music for the wedding. Her selections included "Endless Love," "The Wedding Song," "Just You and I," "Evergreen" and the traditional marches.

The bride's father presented her for marriage. For the special day in her life, she chose a formal gown of white sheer organza and Chantilly lace. Appliques of the lace adorned the bodice designed with a Victorian neckline encircled with Chantilly lace that sparkled with pearls, and long fitted sleeves with wrist ruffles. The lace trim was seen again at the slightly raised waist.

The skirt of the gown was especially attractive with tiered ruffles of sheer organza and Chantilly lace that formed an apron effect and extended the length of the chapel train.

MRS. HOMER ABE BROWN

Her headpiece was a band of silk flowers that held her original chapel length veil of bridal illusion which was shortened to expose the tiered ruffles of sheer organza and Chantilly lace of the chapel length train. She used the extra illusion from the veil to make the rice bags so that everyone at the wedding could have a piece of the veil for a memento.

The bride carried a white lace fan covered with flamingo pink, white, and pink roses, stephanotis and baby's breath with streamers in shades of pink that cascaded to the floor. The fan was fashioned by Miss Lori Harman.

Mrs. Mark Warren served as matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Becky Bartley, Miss Stacey Musick and Mrs. Jeffery Flowers. Their festive gowns of pink taffeta were adorned with rows of ruffles, and flirty bows at the shoulders added charm to the scooped necklines. The fitted bodices tapered to the back with bows, and the skirts were full length.

The bride decorated the white lace fans that her attendants carried with pink and flamingo pink carnations with matching streamers.

Christian Flowers, the flower girl, wore a formal length dress of pink taffeta trimmed with chiffon and white lace. Homer Gene McNeil of Lubbock, the ring bearer, was attired in a white tuxedo with flamingo pink tie and cummerbund.

The groom wore an all-white long-tailed tuxedo with pleated shirt. He wore a flamingo pink rose complemented with white roses and pink and white baby's breath for a boutonniere.

His attendants and ushers were attired in flamingo pink Miami Vice tuxedos, pink shirts, flamingo pink ties and cummerbunds and wore boutonnieres formed of white carnations encircled with flamingo pink flowers.

The bride's father wore a white tuxedo with flamingo pink tie and cummerbund. The pink color was reflected in the rose combined with baby's breath in his boutonniere.

Brian Fulfer of Iowa Park served the groom as best man. The groomsmen were Darrin Whitman, David Strayhorn, both of Iowa Park, and Derek Little of Wichita Falls. David Tanner, brother of the bride, and Roger Brown, brother of the groom, served as ushers and candlelighters.

The bride's parents hosted the wedding reception in the church hall. They were assisted by Mrs. Jake Garrett, Mrs. Butch Garrett, Mrs. Donald Gee and Miss Denise Spain who presided at the refreshment tables, and Mrs. Vernon Nesmith who was in charge of registering the guests.

The bride's table was draped with a pink silk cloth featuring a white lace gathered skirt. The special beauty of the table was stressed in the four-tiered "Promenade of Love" cake with Roman columns with petite bells, doves and cherubs arranged between them. The cake was trimmed in roses and rosebuds to match the color of the flowers in the fans carried by the bride and her attendants, garlands and ribbons joining filigree and reverse scrolls, and the tiers were bordered with scrolls.

An exciting part of the cake decorations was a filigree stairway where miniature bridesmaids and groomsmen were descending. The top ornament was a Happy Heart bisque porcelain couple.

Pink bells hung between the bride's table and the groom's table covered with a flamingo pink cloth. The German Chocolate cake was both a delight to the eyes and to the palate. The large heart-shaped cake was decorated with a smaller pink heart in the center outlined with pink ruffles and bon bons. It was further detailed with zigzag shell borders and names of the bride and groom.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner in the ball room of the Sheraton Hotel.

The bride was graduated from Rider High School and works as a dental assistant for Dr. Vernon Nesmith. The groom was graduated from Iowa Park High School and is employed by Texhoma Agricultural Products.

Special wedding guests were Mrs. Vernon Hunter and Mrs. Paralee Tanner of Wichita Falls, grandmothers of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brown of Altus, Okla. and Mrs. Homer McNeil of Pampa, grandparents of the groom.

Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gee of Marlin, Mr. and Mrs. Jack K. McNeil and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wood from Mexia, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Brown of Altus, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. McNeil of Lubbock.

MRS. MITCHELL SCOTT PUGH

Couple weds in Midland

Lori Thames, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Thames of Midland, and Mitchell Scott Pugh were married June 21 at the Crestview Baptist Church in Midland.

The bride attended Iowa Park High School until her junior year when she moved with her parents to Midland in 1983.

The bride's wedding attendants were Sheila Simmons, the matron of honor, Kathy Ferguson, Judy Brannon, sister of the groom, and LaChelle McKinley, the bridesmaids.

Randie and Jackie Brannon, the groom's nieces, were the flower girls, and Joey Thames, the bride's brother, was ringbearer.

Dwain Thames, brother of the bride, was best man. The groomsmen were Joey Hamrick, Wayne Ramsey and Reggie Weeks. The ushers were Richard Thames, brother of the bride, and Andy Thames, her uncle.

After a honeymoon trip to Jamaica, the couple are at home in Midland.

Cook of the Week

A certain woman paid tribute to her wonderful grandmother's ability to cook by describing her this way "If there is such a thing as a kitchen green thumb," my grandmother has it. She asked her to share her mealtime recipe with her and this is what she said, "refresh the spirit, please the eye, tickle the nose and tease the appetite to satisfy body needs."

friend enthusiastically A described Polly (Mrs. Ben) Story, as a fantastic cook. It was easy to imagine that she has a degree in every department of cooking and a master's degree in cake baking from what the friend said.

When we interviewed Mrs. Story to be this week's cook, we learned that cooking is her main hobby and that she particularly enjoys baking cakes and preparing other desserts. Four of her recipes this week are of the "sweet tooth" kind and each one calls for sugar as one of the main ingredients.

Housewives today think nothing of going to the grocery store and purchasing a five or ten pound bag of sugar. In the nineteenth century, sugar was such a prized commodity it was included in a list of rare and precious gems presented as a wedding gift to Maria Theresa, the future queen of Hungary and Bohemia.

Hundreds of years before the birth of Christ, the people of India learned how to make sugar from sugar cane. Not until the time of the Crusades was sugar introduced by the Arabs into Europe. At first it was a great rarity and even used for medicine.

Ben and Polly Story and their sons, Greg 11 and Colby 7, moved to Iowa Park from Wichita Falls about a month ago. He is a Baptist evangelist and she has worked as a certified surgical technologist at Wichita General Hospital five years. They are members of the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church.

She was graduated farom Wichita Falls High School. In addition to cooking, she enjoys canning fruits and vegetables and collecting cook Thirty-four 4-H'ers from Young and Wichita County enjoyed a 4-H Home Designer Fun Day June 27. Members and leaders of the 4-H Housing Project from both counties participated in the days activities in Wichita Falls.

Several tours highlighted the day. The group first toured an older restored home which now houses Graphics II at 1100 Travis Street. Kim Jackson of Graphics II was narrator for the tour. Second on the agenda was a tour of Huff's Furniture Galleries. Patti Nabors, interior designer for Huff's pointed out the different periods and styles of furniture as well as new trends in wall and floor treatments. Home accessories were also discussed.

The group also toured the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Barrett at 2719 Sheppards Glen. Popular trends in new housing were discussed and illustrated by County Extension Agent Bethann Oswald. trends pointed out were special ceiling effects, open dining and living areas and larger master bedrooms with luxury baths.

Larry Fangman of Charles Chandler Century 21, then hosted the group at 9 Rob Roy. Mr. Fangman illustrated additional popular trends in new housing and answered questions pertaining to home ownership.

The 4-H members and leaders then returned to the 4-H Auditorium for a housing workshop. The workshop was planned to prepare 4-H'ers for their county home designer

As I See It....

You'll recall in the past I've been telling you to be ready for higher taxes to finance public education.

Well now you can get ready for higher state taxes. Yep, those same fellers in the legislature who passed the school reform bill and handed down a bunch of changes for the local districts to finance themselves, are in financial trouble.

We've been reading all sorts of dim predictions about the financial health of the state from the comptroller's office, ever since the price of oil went into its world-wide slump.

Well, Saturday down at Kerrville at the Texas Press Association, I got the word from the, excuse the term, horse's mouth.

Stan Schlueter of Killeen, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, plainly told us this state is in one heck of a fix, money-wise.

And since it appears it's going to take a couple of billion dollars just to bail the state out this year, not even looking ahead to next year, you can expect to see your pocket shrink daily.

I'm talking sales tax.

Letter to the Editor,

Schlueter mentioned the possibility of an increase in sales tax, but he spoke mainly about broadening of the sales tax base.

Shucks, the legislature did that in its last session, including removing exemptions on services, newspapers, etc.

Just to meet the current standard of state services, it is possible that all items and services presently exempted from sales tax will be put on the tax block.

If anything, from what I gathered from his talk, could be exempted it might be health care. But that's not a sure thing. That's my impression. He didn't say that.

Looking ahead, I'd say the only way all exemptions aren't removed from sales tax, is the fact that we have an election coming up in November. And in that case, higher tax on those items already taxed may be their solution.

I didn't know exactly what to expect, my first time to hear the representative from Killeen. He's a businessman and rancher with a master's degree in economics who is supposed to be pretty hard-nosed and plain-office who apparently speaks through only one side of his face.

You might not like what he says, but you can believe him.

According to Schlueter, who pointed out the state's major source of revenue is from sales tax and not petroleum, he has been warning that Texas was going to get into money trouble, even before Bob Bullock!

And while on the subject of taxes, let me make a mention about this thing that has been going on several years. It's called Federal Revenue Sharing.

First of all, I've never been able to understand how, with the deficit the federal treasury has had all these years, they've been able to shell out

But my point is, I keep reading about all the crying the governors, county judges and city mayors are doing about that program being cut.

Anyone you hear say it's unfair for the feds to cut out the Federal Revenue Sharing fund is publicly admitting he doesn't have the guts to raise his own taxes, but would rather blame someone else for high taxes, while he spends it himself.

PORCELAIN FACINGS

A few years ago, if your teeth were stained, the only way you could correct the situation was with porcelain veneer crowns. Even though the teeth had not a single cavity, they had to be ground down in order to fit the

Many people objected to grinding, the shot, the time, and sometimes the shades that were available for the porcelain crowns. I don't really blame them, however the dentist has to work with the materials that are available.

Now, thanks to continued research - things have changed. The dentist now has procelain laminates or facings to work with. These very thin laminates made of procelain gives the tooth the look and luster of natural tooth enamel. These facings can be fabricated then bonded to the front of the teeth with the relatively new light activated composites. Unless the teeth are unusually out of alignment, rotated, or severely broken these facings can be placed without shots or grinding.

We have used them to close spaces between the front teeth, cover stained and discolored teeth, correct alignment and change the shades of teeth. We have found them to be very durable and cost less than a full

Cripple children's auction set who als been auctioneering for these

The 18th annual Crippled Children's Livestock Auction will be held July 25 and 26 with committee members, ranchers, farmers and merchants already rallying to "outdo" the 1985 proceeds of $210,000.

Joe Parker of Byers, general chairman for the past 13 years, says that a tough economy will have to make workers, donors and buyers "just get tougher." The auction, commonly known as the cattle auction, is the largest fund raising project for North Texas Rehab Center, Wichita Falls, for treatment of handicapped children and adults.

The livestock portion of the auction will be held at 11 a.m., Friday, July 25 at Arrowhead Sales Co. on the Jacksboro Highway, Wichita Falls. Although it is known as the cattle auction, this auction offers a variety of livestock at this part of the two-day sale. There will be horses, goats, dogs, and "almost any animal with four legs."

The big merchandise sale and barbecue will begin at 5 p.m., Saturday, July 26 at Wichita Falls Activities Center, 1001 Indiana. Featured will be all kinds of new and antique merchandise, art and furniture.

An all-day silent auction will begin at 10 a.m., close at 4 p.m. and reopen at 5 p.m. Featured also will be the well-known Light Crust Doughboys, a musical team from each year by workers who stay home due to back problems. Dr. Alan Lacy, assistant professor of physical education at Texas Christian Univ., believes that much of the pain could be avoided with proper conditioning.

CARD OF THANKS

Lower back pain is a major com-

"I've seen estimates that as much as 80 percent of all lower back pain is the result of a weak abdominal region, weak abdominal muscles as well as a lack of flexibility in the lower back," Lacy said.

It's a mistake to try to find a simple solution to cure back pain.

"There's evidence to support the idea that if people have strong abdominal muscles and good posture and reasonable flexibility in the lower back and hamstring area that a great many of the minor back discomforts could be avoided or at least reduced." stressed Lacy.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

As we celebrate the 210th anniversary of the birth of our great nation, it is easy to recall those whose names are recorded in the annals of history. However, there are many unsung heroes deserving our recognition and thanks who have namelessly contributed to the strength of the United States of America.

From the days of the first permanent settlement in Jamestown, through the American Revolution, the War of 1812, the American Civil War, both world Wars and most recently, Vietnam, men have borne arms to fight the common foe when occasion demanded.

During peace and during war, committed men have maintained the military strength so vital to the strength of the nation. Today we are blessed with peace and are fortunate to celebrate more than 13 years of draft-free existence. However, we must be prepared to bolster the all volunteer armed forces in the event of a national emergency.

Since Selective registration was reinstituted in 1980, more than 16-million men have added their names to the list of those eligible to serve their country in a time of need.

As we take time to celebrate this national day of pride and rejoice in the unveiling of the refurbished Statue of Liberty, let us also take the time to celebrate the commitment of the 18-year-old men who take five minutes of their time to register with Selective Service and thereby continue our efforts to keep America the "land of the free and home of the brave."

Sincerely, Wilfred L. Ebel Acting Director
