Natural gas blamed in house explosion

Woman killed, husband hospitalized

A leak in the natural gas line underneath the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phares Lemond was blamed as the cause of an explosion Tuesday morning that totally destroyed the structure and apparently caused the death of Mrs. Lemond.

As of Wednesday afternoon, the body of Mrs. Lemond, 75, was in the Southwest Forensics Institute in Dallas, where it was taken along with her medical records for positive identification.

Mr. Lemond, 68, was taken by ambulance to Bethania Hospital in Wichita Falls with second and third degree burns on his legs and feet. He reportedly was placed in the hospital's intensive care unit, but was able to talk with relatives.

An explosion that was both felt and heard in every point of the community at 6:53 a.m. destroyed the couple's home at 100 E. Emerald.

Its force completely blew away the north, west and south walls of the structure, causing the roof to collapse onto the interior.

Natural gas that had been leaking from a connection joint underneath the house has been determined as the cause, following an investigation Wednesday morning after the remains of the flooring and debris had been cleared away.

Making the determination was David Duke, Wichita County Sheriff deputy who is also the county fire and arson investigator, who was working with Det. Chris Pearson, Iowa Park fire marshal.

The fire that followed the explosion was fueled by gas escaping from the ruptured line following the explosion, until service was disconnected.

Deputy Duke said evidence found on the water heater indicated its pilot light had apparently ignited the explosion.

Iowa Park volunteer firemen were on the scene within minutes of being notified by radio.

However, because the fallen roof was covering the interior of the house, extinguishing the roaring blaze was made difficult.

Mr. Lemond was quoted as saying he had just gotten out of bed, and the next thing he knew he was lying partially outside the house, unable to get up.

Mrs. Lemond's body was found in the area of the bed, which was a few feet from where her husband was extracted from the burning debris by two men, Jerry Starr and Duncan Spruiell.

The force of the explosion was so great that the walls fell with the bottoms away from the foundation and the tops toward it. Portions of the siding were scattered over the entire neighborhood, but only one window in a home across Wall was reported broken.

The only portion of the house left standing was the west wall, the carport attached to it, and a storage shed under the carport.

Both the car and van of the couple were undamaged, and pulled from the flaming structure by Billy James and his wrecker.

No arrangements had been made as of Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Lemond's funeral, according to a member of the family.

The couple has two sons, Edwin of Plano and Clark of Kerrville, and four grandchildren.

Some members of the family had been at the Lemond home Saturday.

New students should enroll

High school students who are new to the district should do so as soon as possible, said Iowa Park High principal Richard Davis.

Students new to the area and who have not already enrolled should go to the high school office between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. any weekday, and have with them records from their former school and immunization records.

Students who attended Iowa Park schools the previous year, or who have already enrolled after moving here, are to pick up their class schedules Aug. 30-31.

Seniors are to pick up their schedules 9-11:30 a.m. Aug. 30, followed by juniors 1-3:30 p.m. Sophomores will pick up their schedules 9-11:30 a.m. Aug. 31, and freshmen between 1 and 3:30 p.m.

All high school students are to report to the school auditorium at 8:05 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 1, for the first day of classes, Davis said.

Chamber gets busy planning centennial

Plans for Iowa Park's centennial celebration this fall got into full swing Monday during the monthly meeting of the Iowa Park Chamber of Commerce board of directors.

The officers were divided into six committees which will plan not only the centennial observance, but the annual Whoop-T-Do as well.

Centennial activities have been slated to coincide with the Chamber's annual event that was started some 15 years ago as part of the local school's homecoming activities.

Committees and members are:
Formal Celebration Program - H.M. Nipper, Joe Hughes, Tommy Key, Dr. Richard Carver and Kenneth Via;
Special Events - Danny Coffman, Leon Stevenson, Allen Gilstrap, Ruth Pirkle, Phil Welch and Bob Aulds;

Certificates - Jan Clapp, Glenna Via and Ruth Pirkle;
Building Dedication - Glen Mitchell, Gene Jordan, Keith Aulds and O.N. Newman;

Registration - Dr. Richard Carver, Sam Laird and Harrell Sullivan.

Publicity - Loretta Sheffield, Harold Smith and Bob Hamilton.

President Robert Palmer said about an hour of the Whoop-T-Do event will be devoted exclusively to the centennial and dedication of the new Chamber building.

Concerning the building, which is under construction west of city hall, Palmer said the structure should be completed in time for the Oct. 22 event.

The building is being built by the city in exchange for the Chamber office area.

Kenneth Via reported the organization earned $173 from the second and most recent scrap metal purchasing project.

Loretta Sheffield was elected new director to the board.

CONCERNED NEIGHBORS ATTEND TO INJURED PHARES LEMOND ... while awaiting ambulance to transport victim to hospital.

Heroic action by two men saves life of Phares Lemond

By Bob Hamilton

The fast action and heroic deeds of two men undoubtedly saved the life of Phares Lemond when he was trapped in the flaming debris of his house following an explosion that demolished the structure Tuesday.

The two men are Jerry Starr and Duncan Spruiell. They were the first on the scene following the explosion.

Starr was the first. He was passing the house to go to work at Raymond's Welding when it exploded.

He got out of his pickup and ran to the only doorway left standing, next to the carport. As he arrived, he saw Spruiell running to the scene, and told him to call for help.

Spruiell, after instructing a neighbor to call for help, joined Starr in trying to locate the occupants of the house.

They heard Mr. Lemond calling for help, and located him near where they were standing, but out of sight.

His head and shoulders were outside the flooring, with the rest of his body inside. He was pinned by the roof which collapsed after the exterior walls had been blown away.

Hearing his screams that he was being burned, Spruiell gathered himself under the eave of the roof and was able to lift it enough on his back for Starr to grab Mr. Lemond's arm and pull him from the debris.

After sitting him next to his van parked in the driveway, the two men returned to the blazing shambles to search for Mrs. Lemond.

But Spruiell said the roaring flames made it impossible to get close enough to make an extensive search.

"The heat was so great we couldn't get close, like a gas fire or something feeding it from underneath," he said.

They assisted the victim across the street where neighbors attended the injured man until an ambulance carried him to Bethania Hospital in Wichita Falls where he was described as having second and third degree burns over approximately 15 percent of his body.

Public hearing tonight on school budget, rate

Iowa Park school trustees will hold a public hearing on the 1988-89 tax rate at 7:30 this evening in the junior high school library.

Board members last week tentatively agreed on raising the tax rate five cents, to 81-cents from the past year's 76-cents, in order to fund the new budget and have enough carry-over to start the 1989-90 year.

The hearing will follow a 30-minute period during which trustees will be introduced to all the new faculty members, an event that was begun last year.

Following the public hearing, trustees are to set a date for a meeting when the tax rate will be officially set, along with adopting the new budget and amending the previous year's budget.

Also on the agenda is a proposal concerning the district's extended sick leave policy, consider a resolution supporting the concept of effective school practices, and contracts for the football stadium and gymnasium concession stand contracts for the coming year.

Ordinance changes on council's agenda

Iowa Park city council Monday night will consider adopting six ordinance changes, all necessary to update the city code to comply with the Southern Building Code, Administrator James Barrington explained.

Also on the agenda for the 7 p.m. meeting in council chambers are a request to advertise for bids for a new trash truck and action on the city's participation in the E-9-1-1 district budget.

Barrington said the trash truck is in the 1988-89 budget.

The administrator will also discuss the city's policy regarding charging trash service to vacant houses still receiving water service.

Clark, Potter exchange vows in candlelight ceremony

In an impressive candlelight setting, Miss Tracie Rochelle Clark became the bride of Gregory Scott Potter Friday evening at Faith Baptist Church. Rev. Jerry Miller officiated the double-ring ceremony.

A large fan-shaped candelabra holding burning white tapers and decorated with an arrangement of calla lilies and white doves stood in the center of the altar area, where the couple exchanged vows. Two spiral candelabras stood on either side, and two fan-shaped candelabras decorated outer extremities of the altar. The unity candle was placed off-center in the altar area. Each was entwined with grapeleaf ivy.

Two stately white columns holding baskets of calla lilies, teal carnations, peach roses, greenery and baby's breath stood on each side of the altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Clark of Wichita Falls, and Potter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Potter of Iowa Park.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a luxurious white lace gown with a deep-V neckline trimmed in flower appliques, and a taffeta overcoat with a chapel-length train. A cummerbund accented with bugle beads wrapped around the gown and coat for a fitted waist. The floor-length veil with flower appliques was attached to a head band decorated with pearls and a large net pouf in the back.

She carried a cascade bouquet of calla lilies, roses, stephanotis and teal poppies with baby's breath.

The bride carried out tradition by wearing pearl earrings for "something old," a strand of pearls given to her by the groom for "something new," a slip for "something borrowed," and the "something blue" garter.

The groom was attired in a black tuxedo with a white shirt, cummerbund and bowtie.

The bride was attended by Rachel Clark of Wichita Falls, her sister, as maid of honor, Michelle Bloxham of Wichita Falls as matron of honor, Sheila Potter of Iowa Park, sister of the groom, and Rebecca Baxter of Wichita Falls as bridesmaids.

The quartet each wore a tea-length teal mermaid-style dress, and peacock comb in her hair. They carried cascade bouquets made of peach roses, teal poppies, stephanotis, calla lilies and baby's breath.

Miss Cassandra Wilburn of Wichita Falls, cousin of the groom, was flower girl, and wore a miniature version of the bridesmaids' gowns. She carried a basket of flowers similar to those carried by the bride's attendants.

Troy Don Potter of Iowa Park, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Donald Ray Potter, Jr. of Iowa Park, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were James Hughes of Wichita Falls and Gary Smith of Iowa Park. Michael Conley and Joe Jasper, both of Wichita Falls assumed ushering and candlelighting duties.

Members of the male wedding party wore black tuxedos with teal cummerbunds and ties.

Cindy Harper, pianist, provided prelude selections which included "It Might Be You," "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," and "Sheep May Safely Graze." She offered "Endless Love" while mothers of the couple were being seated.

Miss Harper accompanied Karen Cook, vocalist, when she sang "The Rose," "Theme from Ice Castles," and "Wind Beneath My Wings" during the ceremony. Traditional wedding marches were used.

The registry table was covered in a teal cloth and held the couple's wedding invitation encased in a shadow box on an easel, the bride's book and a teal plume pen.

The bride's chosen colors of teal and peach governed decorations at the reception held at the Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony.

The bride's table, covered in white lace over peach and caught up in swags with teal bows was centered with the bride's four-tiered cake.

The confection was separated with two sets of Grecian pillars and decorated lavishly with a spiral of silk peach and teal carnations. A white porcelain swan holding a small silk arrangement of flowers sat between two layers, and a bouquet of peach and teal carnations accented with ribbon and net topped the cake.

The outer extremities of the table held a silver punchbowl and mint dishes, and a candelabra decorated with teal carnations, calla lilies and greenery, holding four burning tapers.

Mickey Amas, Connie Baxter and Paula Miller presided at the bride's table.

The groom's table held a chocolate cake decorated with peach and white icing wedding bells, held at the top with peach and teal silk carnations. "Greg and Tracie" was inscribed at the bottom of the cake. Also on the groom's table, covered in a pleated teal cloth, were a silver coffee service, two burning tapers and nut and mint dishes. Lea Lindsey, Laura Carter and Vallissa Benson served.

Mrs. Lana Cargal and Sondra Williams served at the food table, which held finger foods and a centerpiece of two white doves.

The gift table, covered in peach lace over peach satin, held the bride's throw-away bouquet, and a basket, decorated with peach and teal ribbons, containing rice bags.

Mmes. Harrell Riggins, Jimmie Copeland, Cy Elliott and W.E. Ruby were members of the house party.

Following a wedding trip to Branson, Mo., the couple are at home in Iowa Park.

The bride is a graduate of Rider High School in Wichita Falls and attends Vernon Regional Junior College. The bridegroom is a graduate of Iowa Park High School.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. David Potter of Vernon, Mrs. W.E. Ruby and Walter of Hernando, Miss., and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Copeland and Kevin of Odessa.

Hines, Sanders wed in double-ring ceremony Saturday

Miss Lori Beth Hines and Jeffrey Lynn Sanders exchanged vows amidst a background of candlelight, greenery and white accents Saturday afternoon at First Baptist Church. Mark Simons of Fort Worth, brother-in-law of the bride, officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The couple repeated wedding vows before a white archway and kneeling bench. A heart-shaped candelabra and unity candle, each decorated with greenery and intertwined with white flowers, decorated the altar area. Two white columns holding baskets of white gladiolas stood on each side of the altar. White bows marked seating for the guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hines, and Sanders is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Sanders, all of Iowa Park.

The bride was radiant as she was escorted down the aisle by her father, who gave her in marriage. Her gown, trimmed in simulated pearls, sequins and Venice lace, featured a sweetheart neckline and short, puffed sleeves with lace inserts. The shirring drop waist, accented with a large, soft bow in the back, went to a full skirt and a cathedral-length train. A lustrous acetate satin hat completed the bridal ensemble. The hat was lavishly trimmed with flowers, venise lace, pearls and sequins, and was accented with a nylon net pouf with streamers.

She carried a bouquet that will hold great sentimental value, as the bride made it herself, and it contained her cradle-roll Bible, which she used as the "something old" bridal tradition. The bouquet was made of white roses, accented with pearls, baby's breath, tiny peach roses and peach and white streamers.

Other traditions included her wedding costume for "something new," a strand of pearls from Becky Whitaker for "something borrowed," and the blue garter, made by her grandmother, Mrs. Clyde Hines, as "something blue."

Art show planned

The Iowa Park Arts and Crafts Assoc. met recently at the TU Electric Reddy Room where plans were made for the organization's People's Choice Art Show this year.

Mrs. Eddie Worthy presented plans for the show, which will be held Oct. 22 in conjunction with the annual Homecoming Whoop-T-Do celebration. Prizes to be awarded to the winners in each category were also discussed.

Mrs. Alvin Jeter, president, conducted a workshop on paper sculpturing. Each member made several paper objects to decorate paper bags and gifts.

Nine members were present.

MRS. JEFFREY LYNN SANDERS

Miss Becky Whitaker of Iowa Park was maid of honor, and wore a peach satin tea-length gown with a sweetheart neckline and natural waistline, accented with a bow in the back. She carried a nosegay of peach and white roses with white, peach and blue streamers.

Mrs. Raymond Tyler of Kamay served as bridesmaid. Her gown and bouquet were identical to the maid of honor's.

The groom was attired in an all-white tuxedo, and wore a boutonniere made of a peach carnation on a background of baby's breath.

Scott Sanders of Iowa Park, brother of the groom, was best man. Carlan Flatt of Wichita Falls was groomsman.

Terry Hines, brother of the bride, Dale Hayley and Brian Fulfer, all of Iowa Park, assumed ushering duties.

Members of the male wedding party wore pearl grey tuxedos with white pleated shirts, and peach cummerbunds and bow ties. Each wore a boutonniere made of a peach carnation with baby's breath.

Mrs. Kenneth Via provided organ music for the prelude selections which included "Canon in P," "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," and "Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us." During the ceremony, Scott Sanders sang "I Have You," and Roger Laird and Pam Cope sang a duet, "Battle Hymn of Love." Mrs. Via played the Lord's Prayer. Traditional wedding marches were used.

Miss Robin Isbell secured

guests' signatures in the foyer of the church. The round registry table was covered with lace and held the bride's book, a plume pen and a basket of peach and blue flowers.

The mother of the bride chose a slate blue dress with a white collar for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Sanders wore a pink blouse and beige skirt. Each were presented with corsages made of peach roses with slate blue ribbon accents.

A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony.

A three-tiered white cake separated with two sets of Grecian posts and decorated with peach and slate blue flowers highlighted the bride's table. The cake was topped with a porcelain bride and groom.

The table was covered in white lace over white knit swagged at each corner and in the middle with peach bows. A crystal punch bowl and crystal bowls filled with peach and white heart-shaped mints stood at the one extremity of the table, and the bride's and bridesmaid's bouquet served as centerpieces. Kathy Simons, Amy McNabb and Gina Methvin presided.

The groom's table was covered in slate blue linen and held a chocolate cake decorated with a dirt bike trail scene, depicting the groom's hobby. Other table appointments included a silver coffee service and two brass candle holders with slate blue tapers. Julie Gonzales and Amy Silvers served.

Members of the houseparty were Mmes. Pete Hughes, Jim Adams, Charlie Heacox and John Cummings.

When the couple left for a honeymoon trip to San Antonio, the new Mrs. Sanders was wearing a white sundress with red accessories.

The couple are graduates of Iowa Park High School. The bride is attending Midwestern State Univ., and is employed by Univ. Academy

Daycare Center. Sanders is employed at Cryovac.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNabb and Mrs. Clyde Hines, grandparents of the bride, all of Vernon; and Mrs. Edna Sanders of Iowa Park, grandmother of the groom.

As I See It... By BOB HAMILTON

I don't want to overdo the issue of school tax rates, which I had in this space last week, but one point is worth mentioning.

I saw a tax receipt for the Iowa Park schools, dated back in 1938.

On that receipt, it was very clearly printed, the rate was exactly $1.00.

For all practical purposes, summer is over.

No, I'm not trying to say that the temperature is going to get any cooler in the near future, nor am I commenting about all the trees that are shedding their leaves.

Summer ends when school begins, in communities like Iowa Park,

Explosion

urday, and then they and others attended a family reunion Sunday at Jacksboro.

Mr. Lemond, said to have retired more than once, has for several years been an independent salesman of industrial work gloves.

Two of Mr. Lemond's brothers were at the scene Tuesday afternoon and extracted from the ruins a metal box containing important papers he had asked them to get.

Because it was not fireproof, many pages of the documents inside were completely burned or badly singed.

Virtually everything else of the couple's was destroyed.

One member of the Iowa Park fire department, Mike Dozier, was slightly injured.

A part of the structure fell on him. He was taken to Wichita General Hospital for observation and released.

A team of investigators and workers from Lone Star Gas Company were on the scene Tuesday afternoon, taking tests of the soil around the house to determine if any gas from the firm's lines had escaped from main lines that might have caused the explosion.

Using sensitive equipment after holes were made deep into the soil, no indication of any leaking gas outside the structure area was apparently found.

Police have busy week

Leading the list of activities the Iowa Park Police Department handled during the past week was taking a possible suicide suspect into custody, arresting a man wanted in Bexar County, and investigating two thefts.

Police responded to 706 E. Bank at 12:34 p.m. Saturday after being notified by Lifeline Ambulance dispatcher of a possible suicide attempt.

At that location, a 24-year-old man was taken into custody. He was transported to Wichita General Hospital for emergency care and then to Wichita State Hospital for emergency commitment, according to the police blotter.

Officers took Dale Arthur Hazleton, 18, into custody at 1:50 a.m. Tuesday on a criminal trespass warrant from Bexar County. He was transported to county jail.

Mike Harper, 715 Park Plaza, notified police Friday evening a 10-speed bicycle had been stolen from his home.

Saturday, Tom Moore, 502 W. Daisy, told police someone had taken a battery worth more than $20.

and that is only two weeks from today.

In fact, teachers begin their in-service training next Wednesday, and classes will commence Sept. 1.

I say summer is over in a town our size when school begins, because our community is built around our school. It touches each and everyone of us, either directly or indirectly.

Just ask one of our business people about what transpires when the youngsters start attending classes.

For instance, one would think people would have higher grocery bills during the summer, when the kids are home.

In Iowa Park that is not the case. Nosir. Our grocers have reminded me more than once about how buying slacks off the day schools are dismissed for summer, and how it picks up when the fall tardy bell rings.

Drivers can sure notice the increase in traffic once students start back to school. It's a snap getting onto West Highway from Fourth St. when I'm coming to work in the mornings, during the summer. But I've got to start to work at least five minutes earlier in the nine-month period of school.

There's another indication that school time is here, talking about driving to work.

The past week, I've noticed that I have to lower my car's sun shade as I round the curve in front of Park Ford because the sun is directly in my eyes at that hour. That's not the case during June, July and most of August.

Most folks lately have commented that they're ready for the temperature to cool off. They've had it with these 100-plus degrees the past couple of weeks.

Well, keep the faith. With the ringing of the school bells in the fall always comes closely behind cooler temperatures.

This is a great time of the year.

Worth Quoting

Memorial Day weekend is a suitable time for reflection on past wars fought by this country and perhaps wars yet to be fought.

For this nation, wars are not what they used to be. Ever since World War II, we've kinda gone downhill. We lost the Korean war, got kicked out of Vietnam, and won a minor skirmish on the tiny island of Granada.

If the past is any indication of a trend for the future, we can imagine that future generations, in observing Memorial Day, may well remember the 7-day war in 1988.

Sunday Noon, May 29th, 1988: War Bulletin: Secretary of State George Shultz, in an emergency news flash, announced that at dawn this morning, Communist-led Mexico troops had invaded the United States near Del Rio, Texas.

Shultz explained that three divisions of tank and infantry troops had crossed the Rio Grande north of Amistad Reservoir. One unit had thrust northward, overrun Langtry and by noon today had occupied Sheffield, Iraan, and Fort Stockton. The second unit had struck due north, overran Ozona, Barnhart and was nearing the outskirts of San Angelo.

Shultz said President Reagan had left the summit and was on his way back to the United States.

Sunday Night: Second bulletin by Shultz indicated U.S. troops were slow in reacting to full-time alert because of the Memorial Day weekend.

Mexico paratroopers had landed at the old Goodfellow air base and, along with units thrusting north from Del Rio had taken the city of San Angelo. Tanks had been reported on the outskirts of Monahans.

Monday Noon: President Reagan announced from the White House that the 82nd Airborne division out of Fort Benning, Ga. had been flown into Midland-Odessa airport and deployed south toward Monahans. He reported that Gov. Clements had activated the Texas National Guard and those troops had been established on a line running from Robert Lee on the west to Brownwood on the east.

The president said Congress had been called into an emergency session to proclaim that a state of war existed with Mexico.

Monday Night: CBS News'

Dan Rather reported that Democratic Presidential hopeful Jesse Jackson was on his way to Del Rio to talk with Generalissimo Herman Hernandez. Sam Donaldson of ABC asked the president if Nancy had consulted an astrologer as to the best time for a counterattack.

Tuesday Noon: In Congress the debate heated up over the call for an all-out war against Mexico. Congressman John Dingell of Michigan argued that all armed service women be excluded from wartime activity in Texas. The senator from Hawaii asked that $20,000 be paid any Hispanic family that had to be moved from the war zone.

Wednesday: President Reagan deplored the wrangling in Congress over declaring war, Jesse Helms of North Carolina called on the Chiefs of Staff to drop the H-bomb, and the FAA complained that bombers were not following assigned altitudes nor getting prior clearance, and the EPA called for a cease fire until sufficient portable potties could be provided troops for both sides.

Tuesday: The cities of Midland and Odessa fell to the invaders as did Brownwood and Abilene. Sen. Phil Gramm said war expenditures would exceed Gramm-Rudman targets, the Sierra Club sought an injunction in Federal Judge Justice's court against both Mexico and the U.S. to stop fighting because the war was threatening the endangered species of the carmine-caped coyote and the hood-headed hoot owl. Michael Dukakis announced an economy recovery plan for Del Rio. Panama dictator closed the Panama Canal to all American ships.

Friday: Secretary of Energy John Herrington announced that U.S. tanks and fighter planes were grounded waiting on a new shipment of fuel from the Middle East; CBS's Rather reported that Sen. Ted Kennedy has asked for priority for home heating oil for the northeast, the Sierra Club said that the green gooch-eyed gobbler was now threatened by the fighting, and the EPA said clean air standards had been exceeded in both the San Angelo and Abilene areas and ozone levels worldwide were threatened. Helms again asked for the dropping of the H-bomb.

Saturday: Dinosaur bones had been discovered by an infantryman digging a foxhole and activity in the U.S. war zone stopped pending investigation by archeological experts, EPA called for an environmental impact statement before tanks were allowed in the Abilene area, and Gov. Clements called for the opening of the strategic oil reserve on the Gulf Coast.

Gays in Dallas demonstrated over the lack of recognition of their war effort, Mark White said he might run for governor again now that most of West Texas was in the hands of Mexico, and farmers near Hamlin sought $20,000 each from the government for acid rain on their cotton crop. Sierra said shrapnel was killing the do-waddle ducks of Del Rio and called for an immediate ban on all artillery shells.

White House Bulletin: President Reagan announced that in an agreement with Kremlin leader Mikhail Gorbachev, a cease-fire went into effect at 11 a.m. this morning. The terms: Noriega steps down in Panama, Nicaragua is given to Cuba, Columbia to the Sicilian mafia, and Texas ceded to Mexico.

Other terms: Pemex would take over the Texas Railroad Commission, Jackson was placed in charge of the Panama Canal, and tamales would be served in the White House every Friday night.

Happy Memorial Day!

There are a great many grandparents, and probably a great many parents today who have not been inside a school room or school hall for a number of years. Those in this category probably think of school like it was when they were there. But times have changed.

A list was published a while back of the top seven problems that faced educators in 1940 and in thinking back, these were probably true:

- Top Problems in 1940:
1. Talking
 2. Chewing gum
 3. Making noise
 4. Running in the halls

5. Getting out of line
6. Wearing improper clothing
7. Not putting paper in wastebaskets

Take a look at the list of top problems today and it might shock you:

- Top Problems of 1988:
1. Drug abuse
 2. Alcohol abuse
 3. Pregnancy
 4. Suicide
 5. Rape
 6. Robbery

Carriker wins senate race

Though Roby Democrat Steve Carriker carried every county in the 30th state senatorial district, he was able to carry only three of the four voting polls in the Iowa Park area in Saturday's special election.

Carriker bested Wichita Falls Republican Bobby Albert 167-150 in the Precinct 32 box; 72-15 in Precinct 33, and 20-12 in Precinct 34.

Albert, however, had command of the Precinct 60 box at Chaparral Baptist Camp, where he received 40 votes to Carriker's 29.

Both 32 and 33 boxes are in Iowa Park, and 34 is located at Valley View.

Carriker now will serve out the vacated term of Ray Farabee.

He and Albert will meet once more, however. Both their names are on the November general election ballot for a new senatorial term.

Community Center not wanted

Dear Bob,

I have talked with several friends and neighbors concerning the building of a Community Center. All of us have agreed that we do not need -- nor do we want to pay for a Community Center. Our school taxes have increased -- the price of school lunches have increased plus -- the cost of other things have increased. A few cents here and there can add up and eventually things can get out of hand.

I also think that before the city council passes an ordinance -- the people should vote on it. For instance -- the business of fire-works. Personally -- I don't like fire-works but -- I do resent being told what I can or can't have in my car. That is more like a dictatorship than a democracy. Surely -- I can't be the only person in Iowa Park who feels this way.

Thanks for letting me have my say.

Vallery, Graves nuptials read in Saturday evening ceremony

Miss Deane Vallery and Gregory Taylor Graves were united in marriage Saturday evening at the First Christian Church in Electra with Rev. Miles Graham, pastor, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Helen Addison and the late Edward J. Vallery. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Graves of Holliday.

For her wedding day, Miss Vallery chose a traditional formal gown of snow white alencon lace over tissue peau de seau. The deep-V neckline was framed with a stand-up collar and the full lace bishop sleeves were etched with pearl beads. The fitted waist went to a full skirt, with row upon row of lace descending to an aisle-wide chapel-length train. A tiered net shoulder-length veil was attached to a headpiece of pearls and embroidered lace to complete her wedding costume.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and carnations intertwined with Holland ivy.

In keeping with tradition, the bride carried a small white Bible at the base of her bouquet, the same Bible the groom's mother carried at her wedding, for "something old;" her veil for "something new;" a strand of pearls from her mother for "something borrowed;" and the "something blue" garter.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with a white cummerbund and bow tie, complemented with a dusty rose-colored carnation boutonniere.

Miss Cathy Harrison, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a dusty rose tea-length chiffon over taffeta dress with matching shoes, and carried a bouquet of silk roses and carnations in dusty rose.

Gerry Graves, brother of the groom, was best man. He was attired in a pale gray tuxedo with a dusty rose cummerbund and bowtie.

Troy Linthicum and Robert Hastings were ushers.

MRS. GREGORY TAYLOR GRAVES

The couple exchanged vows before an archway decorated with greenery and white carnations. Two large arrangements of white carnations and roses in white vases stood on either side of the archway, flanked by two candelabras intertwined with greenery and white carnations holding burning white tapers. The unity candle, used during the ceremony, stood to one side of the altar area.

White bows centered with white flowers marked pews reserved for family seating.

ReDonnaMcKee, pianist, accompanied Denay Miser when she sang "Endless Love."

Following the ceremony, parents of the couple hosted a reception and dance at the Hilton Hotel ballroom.

The bride's cake was a two-tiered white on white confection featuring icing roses and deep scrollwork. Decorations were in the bride's chosen colors of dusty rose and pink.

The bride is a graduate of Bolton High School and attended Northeast Louisiana Univ. Graves is a graduate of Holliday High School and Midwestern State Univ. He is employed by the Electra Independent School Dist., as a high school athletic coach and teacher.

The couple are planning a belated honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe in December, and will make their home in Electra.

PILES OF DRIED SLUDGE DEPOSITED ON SITE OF NEXT YEAR'S GARDEN ... hauled in by city at resident's request.

Neighbors raise stink over garden fertilizer

Some residents in the neighborhood of Crystal, between Wall and Yosemite, have lodged complaints about dried sludge from the city's sewer treatment plant being dumped on two garden areas.

City Administrator James Barrington said he was aware that some city trucks had dumped the loads, and stated no policies had been broken, but the property owners would be asked to incorporate the sludge into the ground soon, or it would be hauled away.

The city has been trucking the dried sludge to an old landfill site. A standing policy of delivering and dumping anything being worked on by the city, onto a site requested by a city taxpayer, was observed in this case, he said.

While the sludge poses no health problems, Barrington said he could understand why neighbors might not appreciate the odor, prior to it being incorporated with the soil.

However, he said a similar odor could result from barnyard manure, either from a feedlot or commercially packaged, being put on the soil.

INSPECTING REMAINS - Iowa Park Fire Chief Danny Skinner describes the scene Tuesday to Don Lemond of Henrietta, third from right, nephew of Phares Lemond. We had our Summer Youth Theatre production, "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown," last Thursday and Friday nights. The play was well received by our audiences.

Of course, we had the usual forgotten lines and a few nervous giggles, but it all turned out fine. I was proud of each child involved.

Summer in the Park will present a salute to Iowa Park on its 100th birthday at 7 p.m. Aug. 25 in the City Park.

Festivities will begin with the "Funeral Of Razor." This is to encourage the traditional beard growth that goes with a centennial celebration.

The Modern Music Study Club will present an hour-long program featuring performance by Men's Trio, Cloggers, Square Dancers, Children's Chorale special and Children's Solo special.

Following the program, a street dance featuring music from the 1960s, 70s and 80s, will be in progress. Dave Landry and Kent Smith, from K-Lite 106, will disc jockey the dance which will continue through midnight.

CRP deadline Aug. 31

The seventh sign-up for the Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) is underway, with those eligible having until Aug. 31 to do so, according to Michael Isbell, District Conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service.

The sign-up period for the 10-year program began July 18 and was to end Aug. 5, but was extended through Aug. 31.

"Under this conservation program, producers receive annual payments to keep highly erodible cropland out of production," Isbell stated. "The land has to be planted to a protective cover of perennial vegetation or to trees."

Besides the annual rental payment, the producer may also receive up to 50 percent cost share on establishing the vegetative cover.

To be eligible for the program, the cropland has to be in capability classes six, seven or eight; or land classes two, three, four or five that has gully erosion and/or exceeds a set soil loss tolerance; as well as all land passed as highly erodible under the 1985 Food Security Act.

The determination of eligibility is made by the Soil Conservation Service (SCS) for the Agricultural Stabilization Conservation Service (ASCS).

"Filter strips, cropland areas 66-99 feet wide with a permanent cover, next to streams, lakes and estuaries, will be eligible for the Conservation Reserve Program in the seventh sign-up period even if the cropland

Springtown superintendent Conny Martin apparently cannot convince the Springtown Epigraph staff that they are misquoting him about the school retaining all money from reserved and season tickets sold prior to the season. The article was printed again last week for the third time, and two weeks after he was contacted by Iowa Park superintendent Glen Mitchell. Martin assured Mitchell Iowa Park got its proper share from the ticket sales in 1985 ($999) and 1987 ($2,054).

HAWK SECOND UNIT OFFENSE MOVES BALL UPFIELD

Hawks, Eagles to scrimmage Friday

Coach Len Williams and his staff will have an opportunity to determine how much improvement the Hawks have made during this week, when they scrimmage the Holliday Eagles Friday evening at Holliday.

The varsity scrimmage will follow a 6 p.m. junior varsity match.

After last Saturday's intrasquad scrimmage, which was marred by two injuries, Williams was asked his assessment of the team.

"You've got to accept the bad along with the good, and just be glad you had some good," he commented.

Williams was pleased with the play of his two quarterbacks, senior Dan Fannin and junior Jimmy Duggins, as well as his runningbacks and receivers.

Though Fannin was leading the first unit offense, Williams explained he could flip a coin on which player he would start and be happy.

He pointed out that the combined stats on the two quarterbacks were 11 completions in 17 pass attempts, one interception, for 144 yards and three touchdowns.

He had particular praise for two linemen, sophomore Gary Green and senior Pete Armstrong.

Jimmy Nicholson and Chuck Brown were helped off the field during Saturday's scrimmage, both with knee injuries. The extent of damage will not be determined for about a week.

Lost for the season during non-contact workout earlier in the week was Steve Catlin, who also suffered a knee injury.

Another lineman, Jay Loggins, was forced to watch the scrimmage. He was sidelined by a pulled leg muscle.

The varsity scrimmage followed those of freshmen and juniors. A huge crowd of parents, students and fans lined the field throughout the morning.

Following the lengthy session, everyone was offered ice-cold watermelon.

While he was praising the play of his athletes, Williams also heaped laurels on the school's cheerleaders.

"They've made misery (working out in the August heat) of two-a-days a little more pleasant," he said.

The Head Hawk explained the cheerleaders have had favors of one type or another for the players after workouts.

The teams will have one more scrimmage after their trip to Holliday, when Olney comes here Aug. 26, in preparation for the varsity's Sept. 2 season-opener at Burkburnett.

Top of Texas sign-up slated

Sign-up of youngsters to play in the Top of Texas Kid Football Program for Iowa Park will be held between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Saturday at the ASCS Building, 220 W. Park.

Players must be at least eight years of age before Sept. 1 and cannot be 12 before the same date, according to Gordon Griffith.

Interested parents who have questions are encouraged to attend the sign-up meeting.

Any youngster unable to attend the sign-up period can contact Griffith at 592-4840 or be at the practice session Monday afternoon behind the junior high school, in shorts and playing shoes.

Dear Parent or Guardian:

The Iowa Park Consolidated Independent School District serves nutritious meals every school day. Students may buy lunch for $1.00, $1.10 or $1.25 and breakfast for 75¢. Children from households that meet federal income guidelines are eligible for free meals or reduced-price meals at 40¢ for lunch and 30¢ for breakfast.

HOW AND WHERE TO APPLY:
A separate application must be filled out for each child you want to receive free or reduced-price meals. The completed application must be returned to that child's principal. One application form is attached, but you may obtain additional forms from any principal if you have more than one child for whom you want to apply. If you have any questions or need help in filling out the application form, please contact your child's principal.

FOOD STAMP/AFDC HOUSEHOLDS: If you currently receive food stamps or "Aid to Families with Dependent Children" for your child, you only have to list your child's name and food stamp or AFDC case number, print your name, and sign the application. Since you have already given income information to the welfare office, the school can confirm your eligibility.

ALL OTHER HOUSEHOLDS: If your household income is at or below the level shown on the attached scale, your child is eligible for either free or reduced-price meals. To apply for meal benefits, you must provide the following information and sign the application: (1) list the names of everyone who lives in your household. Include parents, grandparents, all children, other relatives and unrelated people who live in your household, (2) list the social security number of each adult age 21 or older. If an adult does not have a social security number print "None", (3) list total monthly income and amount of income (BEFORE deductions for taxes, social security, etc.) each person received last month and where it is from, such as wages, retirement, or welfare. If you have a household member for whom last month's income was higher or lower than usual, list the person's expected average monthly income.

VERIFICATION: The information on the application may be checked by school officials at any time during the school year.

REPORTING CHANGES: If you list income information and your child is approved for meal benefits, you must tell the school when your household income increases by $50 or more per month ($600 per year) or when your household size decreases. If you list a food stamp case number or AFDC number, you must tell the school when you no longer receive food stamps or AFDC for your child.

REAPPLICATION: You may apply for benefits at any time during the school year. If you are not eligible now, but have a decrease in household income, become unemployed, or have an increase in family size, fill out an application at that time.

FOSTER CHILDREN: If you have foster children living with you, they may be eligible for these benefits. If you wish to apply for these benefits for them, please contact the school and they will help you complete the application.

NONDISCRIMINATION: Children who receive free or reduced-price meal benefits are treated the same as children who pay for meals. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, sex, color, national origin, age or handicap. If you believe you have been discriminated against, write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

FAIR HEARING: If you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the result of verification, you may wish to discuss it with the school. You also have the right to a fair hearing. This can be done by calling or writing Glen H. Mitchell, Superintendent, Iowa Park Consolidated Independent School District, P.O. Box 898, Iowa Park, Texas, 76367.

CONFIDENTIALITY: The information you provide will be treated confidentially and will be used only for eligibility determinations and verification of data. You will be notified when the application is approved or denied.

Sincerely,
Glen H. Mitchell,
Superintendent

Cook of the Week

Sandy (Mrs. Jerry) Matthews, this week's featured Cook of the Week, is a working wife and mother of three who says she doesn't have a lot of time to spend in the kitchen.

Her recipes, however, show that she doesn't compromise taste or nutrition in her family's diet.

Most of her recipes were given to her by her mother or mother-in-law. She said the recipe for "Robert's Cake" is one of her favorites, and is "quick and easy."

Although she said she doesn't have time for hobbies, she does enjoy crocheting and reading in her spare time.

Jerry Matthews owns and operates Great Plains Siding and Insulation, where Sandy works.

The couple, married 14 years, have three children, Christy, 11 years old, Marc, seven, and Joe Bob, four.

The former Sandy Toler was raised and attended schools in Iowa Park.

In The Military

Completes training

Robin L. Combs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Combs of Iowa Park, has completed training in fundamental military skills at the Army ROTC Camp Challenge at Fort Knox, Ky.

Camp Challenge is designed to give college juniors and sophomores who have not taken ROTC courses the chance to enter the program. The camp also qualifies high school graduates for the ROTC program at any of the nation's six military junior colleges.

During the encampment, cadets received training in basic rifle marksmanship, military drill and ceremonies, communications and individual and small unit tactics.

Combs is a student at Midwestern State Univ.

CHARLOTTE LYONS AND TIMOTHY COOK

Couple sets September date

Miss Charlotte Lyons of Iowa Park and Timothy Cook of Wichita Falls will be married Sept. 30 at Pleasant Valley Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Lyons of Iowa Park and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cook of Wichita Falls.

Miss Lyons is a graduate of Iowa Park High School and attended Midwestern State Univ., and Vernon Regional Junior College. She is employed at Wichita Falls State Hospital.

Cook is a graduate of Hirschi High School in Wichita Falls, and is employed by Borden's Inc.

Branson's Plummers to appear here April 14

Iowa Park Lions Club Tuesday signed a contract to bring one of the popular entertainment shows here from Branson, Mo.

The Plummer Family, known to most visitors at the famous southern Missouri tourist town, will make their first appearance in the Iowa Park High School auditorium April 14.

The Plummer Family is a group of talented musicians and vocalists who perform gospel, country and western, as well as popular music, along with wholesome family-type comedy.

State missions program topic

Sixteen members of the Night BW of First Baptist Church, and one guest, Mrs. Dorothy Morris of Waco, attended a salad supper, business meeting and mission program Monday.

Mrs. V.I. Woodfin conducted the business which was opened with the prayer period for missionaries on the birthday calendar by Mrs. E.T. Patterson. It was voted to make a monetary contribution to the North Broadway Weekday Ministries, Inc. for the August missions in action project.

Mrs. Carl McKinnon reviewed "Texas, a Goody Heritage" in preparation for the upcoming Week of Prayer for state missions. She began with Texas Baptists who flocked to the promised land known as Texas in the early 1800s. She listed some of the best known people on the roll call of the early trailblazers, who did not see themselves as people of destiny, but only wanted to be obedient to the Lord and faithful to the challenge at hand.

She gave a graphic description of how the early people of destiny responded with energy, resources and wisdom to the human and spiritual needs, and in so doing, they provided a goody heritage for future generations. Mrs. McKinnon discussed the growth of the state and Texas Baptists through the years, emphasizing that the church growth has not kept up with the population growth. She stated that there are over eight-million people in Texas who are not affiliated with any church, and in the midst of so great a challenge, Texas Baptists stand at a pivotal point as a people of destiny.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our gratitude to our friends in Iowa Park for all the cards, flowers, food and other acts of kindness that were shown to us during the loss of our wife and mother. We were deeply touched and will never forget all you have done.

Sincerely,
The June Dickerson Family
