Bud Burch, long-time local Lone Star Gas manager, was appointed city alderman Monday evening.

The appointment was ratified during a called meeting of the city council, while members were inspecting work at the Burnett library. He took his oath of office on the structure's front steps. Burch, who will remain a resident of Iowa Park but is being promoted and transferred to Wichita Falls, will fulfill the unexpired term of Don Decker. Decker had to resign when he moved to Pleasant Valley Estates, outside the city. His term is to expire

BUDGET WORKSHOP

After the tour of the library. council members went to council chambers where they held a two-hour budget workshop.

In general, the discussion centered around holding the line on taxes.

However, some fees may be increased. These, according to Administrator James Barrington, would be levied primarily on areas where abuses occur, such as hot checks, reconnections due to non-payment of bills, and other areas where charges do not meet costs.

Report indicates local schools shorted on aid schools shorted on aid

Eventhough state aid to public schools of Texas was increased by $1-billion last year, to $4.6-billion, very little of the increased funds were evident at the Iowa Park and Holliday school districts.

To meet state requirements, but with less state funding, Iowa Park had to increase its tax levy by 20.6 percent and Holliday 26.7 percent for 1984-85, as compared to a 14.3 cent increase averaged by the

The figures come from the latest issue of "Bench Marks for 1985-86 School District Budgets in Texas," an annual publication of the Texas Research League, an Austin-based, educational corporation engaged in governmental research.

The report does not, of course, include budgets for the 1985-86 school year, which are currently being prepared. Forecasts are that both Iowa Park and Holliday will have to raise taxes again.

While the average over the state called for spending of $3,103 per student, Iowa Park budgeted $2,789 per student based on the 1,601 average daily attendance and Holliday budgeted $2,729 for its 695 ADA. The ADA was for 1983-84.

Four of each five of these dollars were spent for salaries. Statewide, payroll expense averaged $2,478 per student, as compared with $2,027 for Iowa Park and $1,881 for Holliday. Payroll expense is a combination of salary levels and staffing patterns.

The average salary for classroom teachers paid by Iowa Park in 1983-84 was $17,538 and $17,970 by Holliday. The average among all school districts in Texas was $20,117 per classroom teacher.

There was an average of one teacher for 14.3 students in the Iowa Park district and 19.3 at Holliday. compared to a statewide pupilteacher ratio of one to 16.2. Because of small classes, especially at the high school level, and abbreviated teaching schedules, many classes have more than the average number of students. The new law requires no more than 22 pupils in kindergarten, first or second grade classes next School property tax rates in 1984-85 averaged $0.622 per $100 of market value (selling price), which computes to a tax of $622 for property valued at $100,000 in the average school district.

The rate on market value in Iowa Park's district was $0.487, and $0.625 at Holliday.

If the property were a homestead or owned by a senior citizen, the school tax would be less because of various exemptions. Open-space land that qualified would be valued on its productivity value rather than market value.

Revenue lost from exemptions totaled $780-million, which was $99.5-million more than the total for the previous year. To balance school budgets, the revenue loss from exemptions was imposed upon other taxpayers in the school district.

Holliday has announced a phasing out of exemptions beginning this

As compared to the billion-dollar increase in state aid last year, only $129-million more state funds will be distributed to schools next year. Only 492 districts will get more; the other 576 districts will receive less.

The strategy to equalize presupposes that local property taxes will remain about the same. However, the large property tax increase last year, the report concludes, substantially negated the equalization improvement that the legislature tried to

Local sales tax gain highest in county

Increase in sales tax collections over the previous year for Iowa Park continues to be higher here than any other city of the county.

Iowa Park has a 15.13 percent increase over the same period of 1984, according to the state comptroller's office. Burkburnett is 4.95 percent, Wichita Falls 4.22 and Electra 1.01

Taxes collected last month, for a period ending July 3, were $9.598.78. That made the year's sum to date, $80,805.94, as compared to the $70,189.58 reported this date last

TO CONSTRUCT BUILDING

Fund-raising campaign launched for cemetery

The quarterly meeting of the Highland Cemetery Association was held Sunday, at which time it was voted to launch a building fund campaign for a gazebo-styled structure to replace the present small building at the cemetery.

Bill Gilmore, president of the association, stated that the gazebo will be approximately 50 feet in diameter, constructed of decorative building blocks, designed in lattice fashion. The north section of the octagon will be enclosed as separate office space, and adequate caretaker storage. A bathroom will also be included.

Gilmore stated that an open-air pavillion will be used for Memorial day services and association meeting, as well as a cool place to rest for those working on their lots. It will also be available for graveside services and will add beauty and grace to the

He explained that financing for the project is to be raised entirely by donations. He said that Don Daugherity donated his services for the blueprint, and that the MuleSkinners initiated the drive with a $1,000 donation. Gilmore said further that memorial plaques will be placed on the dividing wall of the pavillion. After $100 is donated by an individual or family, he will then place a name plate on a plaque in memory of any person or couple interested in the cemetery.

It was also emphasized that if the drive fails to raise $20,000, all donations will be returned unless the donor instructs that it is to be used as needed. A separate account is being established at the bank to prevent confusion with funds from lot sales, and other donations.

Donations should be accompanied by the information attached to an ad in this week's paper, and returned to Highland Cemetery Association Memorial Building Fund, Box 12, Iowa Park, Tx. 76367.(H.C.A.M.B.F.) will do.

The public is asked to notify all relatives of those interred at the cemetery that may not be on the out-of-county mailing list. No letters will be mailed locally, instead direct contact and phone calls will be make.

Gilmore said "We anticipate a joint Memorial Day service and dedication in 1986."

Burrus, Reed nuptials solemnized Saturday

Miss Jo Ann Burrus became the bride of James Lige Reed in a ceremony performed Saturday evening by R.L. Stewart, Justice of the Peace, on the lawn of the bride's parents' home. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Burrus of Wichita Falls, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Reed of Iowa Park.

The couple stood before a large white gazebo to recite their vows. Two wicker stands on either side of the entrance held potted ferns, and wicker stands on the inside held ivy and mixed greenery.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Mayo furnished the keyboard and guitar prelude music and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, who was presented in marriage by her father, chose an ivory satin gown in an Old South style for her wedding. Special features of the gown's design were a lace panel that extended from the square neckline in front to floor level, three quarter length puffed sleeves, a bodice accented with tiers of Chantilly lace, and a full skirt worn over a hoop that was distinguished with a scalloped hemline over ruffles of lace.

To complete the Old South look, she wore an ivory picture hat

For "something old," she wore an antique gold ring that was brought from Germany over 100 years ago, now in the possession of her mother. She carried a handkerchief crocheted in love knots, the handiwork of the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Eva Farris of Addington, Okla. for "something new." She wore her mother's pearls for "something borrowed," and a garter for "something blue."

Miss Jennifer Burrus, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. She was attired in a pink chiffon dress fashioned with an off-the-shoulder ruffle, and along gathered skirt that lifted and was caught at one side with a bow. She carried a nosegay of flowers in the bride's bouquet.

Bill Overbey attended the groom as best man. The ushers were Ronald Stogsdill, John and Jim Burrus.

The wedding reception was held indoors and hosted by the bride's parents. The refreshment table was covered with an exquisite cloth featuring alternating layers of handkerchief lace that belonged to Catherine Dugger, the bride's great-aunt.

A vantage silver punch bowl and a cut glass punch bowl marked table extremities, and the cake was the centerpiece. The three-tiered delicacy was decorated with pink frosting roses and garlands peaked with rosebuds. Satin wedding bells held by two doves in a cloud of pink net was the top ornament.

Reception assistants were Mmes. Glen Hutchinson, Don Moser and Dan Shores, and Michelle Shores handed out the rice bags.

The groom's parents gave the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at their home.

Cook of the Week

Finding the time to prepare delicious meals after work each day is no problem for today's woman. That is, if you enjoy the actual task of cooking in the first place, says Gemma (Mrs. Rusty) Spruiell, our Cook of the Week. Another incentive to stay away from the restaurants and microwaves, she adds, are the compliments her husbands heaps on her following a well-prepared dinner at home.

"The motivation I get in the kitchen is from the satisfaction it gives Rusty," she says, adding, "Cooking is a big pastime for me, and if I have any spare time, that is usually where you'll find me."

Married for seven years to the local oilman, and a resident of Iowa Park the same number of years, she hails from Pottsville, Pennsylvania, a coal-mining town of 25,000. Currently a receptionist for L.D. and P.C. Burns in Parker Square, the energetic lady also finds time for other hobbies in addition to cooking during her spare time, namely spending time out on the lake boating, skiing, and camping.

To her, the outdoor hobbies are as calming as cooking in the kitchen. "It kind of rests my mind (cooking), and makes me feel good when something turns out really nice - it's good therapy."

As a girl, she learned everything about cooking from her Polish-Lithuanian grandmother, as well as mother. Pottsville being well-populated with Polish-Catholics, families such as hers were able to retain traditional methods of cooking, as well as trading various recipes.

"My grandmother doesn't have one can or box in her house," she says. "She grows everything she eats in her garden, and goes to the store only for meats and other essential staples."

Unlike her grandmother, Gemma and her mother both have adopted some modern cooking practices, still, they both have a desire to follow up on her grandmother's traditions in the kitchen.

Her advice to other young homemakers is, "If you are getting in a rut, just open up a cookbook and find different ways to fix your

She adds, "I think it is important to keep a lot of spices on the shelf, because even the most common dishes have particular spices that enhance the flavors."

Worth Quoting

The Supreme Courth ruled the other day that the Constitution prohibits a moment of silent prayer as practiced by the public schools in Alabama.

The robed justices declared that the schools can have a moment of meditation but only if those in authority do not use the word 'prayer'.

The church is supposed to be separate and distinct from government--and we can understand

The Pilgrims came to these shores to get away from religious prosecution that was tied in too closely with the monarchy-and we can understand that.

Separation of church and state is essential to democracy-and we can understand that.

What we don't understand is how the Supreme Court justices interpret the Constitution to fit one group and not another.

If we are to keep students in school from uttering public prayers in order to maintain separation of church from state, how come we permit the government, including the nine robed justices, to honor religious holidays.

How can you say that prayer to a Supreme Being is illegal and turn right around and observe generous holidays at Christmas, Good Friday, and Easter?

It would appear to us that if school children can't pray in public schools then government workers cannot take time off from work to observe religious holidays.

If we are to truly separate church from state, then all employees of city, school, county, state, and federal government ought to work through the Christmas holidays, Good Friday, and other days with religious ties. If true separation of religion and government is the law of the land, then the law ought to apply to everyone in the public sector.

And the nine robed justices of the Supreme Court ought to follow their own judicial rulings-by working straight on through the Christmas holidays.

Consistency, like cleanliness, is next to Godliness.

Tax Tips

This is the last year that taxpayers may claim the residential energy tax

The credit for energy conservation materials is figured at 15 percent for the first $2,000 spent on such items as storm or thermal windows and doors, insulation, weather-stripping and caulking. Also qualifying are certain fuel saving heating system modifications. Only materials installed in homes that were built before April 20. 1977, are eligible for energy credit.

The "renewable" energy source credit is 40 percent of the first $10,000 invested in qualifying solar, wind, or geothermal equipment used to heat or cool or to provide hot water for use in the home.

For additional information, order the free IRS publication 903, Energy Credits for Individuals, by calling the Federal Tax information number listed in the telephone directory under U.S. Government.

and let some of these over-paid jokers try to live on 10 percent of their current salaries.

I could not only live without professional sports, I believe I would be much happier. I'm fed up with hearing the cries of jocks who pay two times as much in taxes as I make operating my own business.

Still on the subject of sports, I'm glad the Shriners in Wichita Falls got the green light to have the Oil Bowl again this year, and hope it continues in the future.

Early stories coming out of the neighboring city indicate more public support, in the form of ticket-buying, will be needed to continue the annual all star football game. That's reasonable, considering the profits go to charity.

I'll remind the Shriners that several years ago, I had an idea on how more surrounding communities would support the ticket buying. The idea must not have been any good, however, because it was never tried.

My suggestion was that the people from Iowa Park or Burk like to sit together. It stands to reason that they like to talk with those around them about a big play.

Well, tickets must be purchased in Wichita Falls. Should blocks of tickets be offered in each of the surrounding communities, say up to a week before the game, we and our neighbors could buy with the assurance we'd be sitting among our own friends and acquaintances.

Apparently too much trouble for the ticket committee, the suggestion has never become a reality. And neither has the desired volume of sales.

Man 'fixes' his stereo

An Iowa Park man apparently became upset because his stereo was too loud, playing the wrong tune or maybe because of the hour. Whatever, he fixed it.

Police received a call at 12:31 a.m. Monday from the wife of Jessie Charles Marshall, saying her husband, 53, had just shot their stereo set with a .20 guage shotgun and left their home at 304 Kathleen in his pickup.

Patrolmen were unable to locate Marshall, according to the police Officers responded to a call from a resident who reportedly found in a vacant rent house a bag containing drug paraphenalia and a used candle. The find was confiscated and taken to headquarters.

Kevin Robert Hamilton, 26, was escorted Friday afternoon to the police department on DPS warrants from Mineral Wells. He was released after posting $63 bond for speeding and failure to appear.

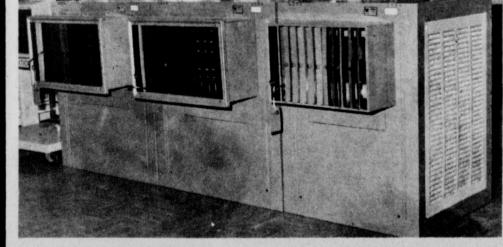

Jeff Miller told police Sunday someone had stolen his bicycle from his home at 403 E. Cash.

Insurance companies encourage belt use

Under a new insurance rule that goes into effect July 1, if any insured vehicle occupant wearing a seat belt or protected by an air bag dies as a result of being in an automobile accident, insurance companies will pay a "Supplementary Death Benefit" of up to $10,000 to their beneficiary.

According to Charles Wirth, chairman of the Texas Automobile Insurance Service Office (TAISO), the insurance industry wants the benefit to be an incentive for Texans to use their sear belts.

According to Wirth, the "Supplementary Death Benefit" applies to an insured's medical payments coverage, personal injury protection coverage and/or accidental death coverage. The amount of the death benefit would be equal to the limit of liability of those coverages, not to exceed $10,000 per person per policy.

"Insurance people are very aware of the benefits of seat belt usage and the consequences of them not being worn," Wirth said. "Ninety-seven percent of the Texans killed on our highways last year were not wearing seat belts. We believe that many of those persons would be alive today had they been belted."

Although seat belt usage is presently voluntary, a mandantory seat belt law passed by the Legislature this spring will go into effect Sept.1.

"Although we didn't know the Legislature would pass a seat belt law when we proposed the rule change allowing for the benefit, we're glad they did," Wirth said. "We believe the benefit will complement the new Wirth, noting that the seat belt law will not be enforced until Dec. 1, said, "We hope the benefit will encourage people to buckle-up voluntarily now, rather than under the pressure of a fine five months from now."

Wirth said the failure to wear seat belts has cost Texas insureds and taxpayers hundreds of millions of dollars each year. However, he said, "our greatest loss has been the loss of our children and young people."

"Automobile accidents are the number one killer of one to 25 year-olds," Wirth said, "and seat belt usage could greatly mitigate this

"Parents should set an example for their children by buckling-up because it's the smart thing to do, not because it's required by law," Wirth said. "It's a difference children can appreciate and one you'd appreciate if a seat belt saved your child's life."

TAISO is licensed by the State Board of Insurance to advise it and provide technical support on all automobile insurance matters. Located in Austin, TAISO publishes the automobile manual rules, rates, rating procedures, policy and endorsement forms for all automobile insurance written in the State of Texas. TAISO members write more than 96 percent of the premium volume for regulated automobile insurance in the state.

In addition to serving as TAISO chairman, Charles Wirth of Austin is the southwest auto division manager of State Farm Mutual Auto Insurance

Gault, Holt wedding held Saturday at Lubbock

The enduring beauty of a Bible opened beneath a tall wooden cross and sunlight streaming through the stained glass windows of the First Christian Church at Lubbock accentuated the reverence of a double-ring wedding ceremony performed Saturday evening for Miss Dorothy Jane Gault and Dennis Garland Holt to exchange their vows.

The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gault of Mobile, Alabama, and Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Holt, Jr. of Holliday.

Seven-branched candelabra flanked the wooden cross to complete the nuptial setting where Rev. Dorman Kinard, a retired Baptist minister, officiated the ceremony.

Julie Wyrick provided the traditional organ prelude music and wedding marches. She also accompanied Diana Boulter for her vocal solos, "Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride was an enchanting picture in a glowing slipper satin wedding gown enhanced with Chantilly lace ruffles. The fitted bodice featured a sheer yoke detailed with a lace scroll accented with seed pearls, and puffed sleeves. The softly pleated skirt fell gracefully into a chapel train.

The bride's veil was gathered to a circlet of roses, and she carried a bouquet of white roses, phaleanopsis orchids, English ivy and baby's breath on her mother's white Bible.

Mrs. Grant Tshundy took part in the wedding as matron of honor. She wore a blue organza gown designed with an off-the-shoulder ruffle, fitted bodice and long skirt, and carried a bouquet of white roses and English ivy.

Amanda Neugent of Lamesa, the flower girl, wore a blue dotted Swiss dress and carried a basket of white roses and baby's breath.

Colin Brown, nephew of the bride, the ring bearer, wore a blue suit and bow tie and carried a white lace heart-shaped pillow.

The groom and best man, Charles Ainsworth, and Shawn Thornton, the usher and candlelighter, wore grey tuxedos with matching cummerbunds and bow ties, white shirts with pearl studs.

The bride was graduated from Monterrey High School at Lubbock and from the Univ. of Tennessee. She is employed by the Lubbock Independent School District as a teacher of deaf students. The groom was graduated from Holliday High School. He attended Princeton Univ. and was graduated from Texas Tech Univ. He is employed by the Tahoka Independent School District. They will live in Lubbock.

The bride's parents were hosts for the reception held in the church parlor. The refreshment table was covered with white lace over blue and highlighted by the wedding cake, baked and decorated by Miss Dana McCullough of Brownfield, a close friend of the bride and groom. The three-tiered white cake featured one set of divider posts, frosting designs of blue and white roses and ribbon, and a ceramic bride and groom for a top ornament.

The melon bowl centerpiece and silver punch bowl completed the table decor. Mrs. John Brown, sister of the bride, served at the table.

Miss Laura Holt sister of the groom, presided at the guest book.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at The Gridiron.

Special wedding guests included
Mrs. Faye Jackson of Ardmore, Okla., Mrs. Effie Holt of Holliday, and
Mr. and Mrs. Roger Pastlethwaite of Wichita, Kansas.

Holliday tops among cities

The City of Holliday received a sales rebate check in the amount of $11,701 for a period ending July 3, according to a release from the state comptroller's office in Austin, leading all other Archer County entities by at least $8,000.

However, despite showing an increase in the amount received for June over a comparable period in 1984 (the city received $8,739), the total amount received to date in 1985 is still far below the total taken in at this time a year ago.

For the year, Holliday has collected $49,384, which is just over $7,000 less than the total at a comparable period in 1984, when it received $56,560. The decrease amounts to over a 12-percent drop in the total, depicting an unwelcome trend of decline in rebates from the state, following a steady period of growth.

Archer City was the only other county entity receiving more than $2,000 for the month, taking in $3,627. Yet, total payments for the county seat are still above Holliday's, at $53,130, a slight increase of less than one-percent over 1984.

Spotlight on Texas

Texas has become the envy of many other states. And it's not just because of our mouth-watering chili and mesquite-smoked

Our state is now attracting more and more businesses to headquarter or locate a major operation here. Corpus Christi was just chosen as the new U.S. Navy base for the battleship Wisconsin. And support warships will be stationed in the Houston-Galveston area. The annual economic impact is expected to top $250 million.

No longer is our state a land of only oil and agriculture. While those industries still play major roles, they are now part of a varied big picture, which includes the banking, defense, computer, tourism and telecommunications industries, to name a few.

Regardless of their locations within Texas, the influx of new businesses is a boon to the whole state. New businesses increase the state's tax base and create new jobs for all Texans.

Attracting new businesses

Helping to draw new businesses to Texas are the state's abundant resources, good climate, excellent transportation and hard-working For example, good transportation was a dominating reason for Southwestern Bell Telephone's recent decision to locate a major distribution warehouse in Lancaster, south of Dallas. The new 490,000 square foot complex will serve all five of our company's

In addition to transportation, telecommunications facilities are also important in many business relocation decisions. Southwestern Bell Telephone is proud to offer top-notch telecommunications in the 450 towns it serves in Texas. For the eighth year in a row, we are investing more than $1 billion in new construction to meet Texas' growth and to continue adding state-of-the art communications facilities.

Reasonable phone rates

Also, Texas residential telephone rates are among the lowest in the nation. In fact, a recent study conducted by an investment brokerage firm — Smith Barney — found Texans had the lowest average monthly residence bill among the 18 states surveyed.

From 1975 to 1984, the average residential phone service for most Texans increased only 44 percent. During that time, the Consumer Price Index rose 93 percent, gasoline went up 117 percent, medical costs increased 184 percent, while natural gas prices rose 239

In fact, statistics show it actually takes a smaller percentage of earned income to pay for telephone service today than it did 25

Even at our current proposed increases. Texans will continue to enjoy quality communications at affordable rates.

What makes Texas grow? It's a lot of factors, from its highways to its telecommunications services to its state government that actively works to promote economic development.

It's also good people, including Southwestern Bell Telephone's

35,000 Texas employees. We're proud of our traditions of service in the state since the late 1800s. And we're confident of our abilities to continue meeting the needs of our growing state.

All athletes who plan to play football at Iowa Park High School and Junior High should start having their physicals taken as soon as possible, according to Athletic Director David Baugh.

Physical forms are available at the high school field house for those who plan to go elsewhere than Park Clinic. Forms are already available at Park Clinic, Baugh said.

FATIGUE OFTEN SIGN OF UNDERLYING ILLNESS Fatigue often is a symptom of an underlying problem, such as a physical or mental illness, or an adverse drug effect, according to Dr. Beth Lown of the Harvard Medical School and Dr. Thomas Delbanco from the Beth Israel Hospital in Boston.

The physical causes of fatigue could stem from cardiovascular and rheumatoid diseases, or endoctrine, respiratory, metabolic, and sleep disorders, or infection, multiple sclerosis, and hematologic problems.

If some persons are taking alcohol, stimulants, antidepressants, antihypertensives, or sedative-hypnotic drugs, fatigue is a frequent side

Big bike race just around corner

The "Hotter 'N Hell Hundred" bicycle race set for Aug. 24 in Wichita Falls is the largest, and possibly, the hottest race of its kind in the country. And dozens of Iowa Parkans are expected to be entered.

While the average temperature is expected to be in the 90s, the course will take more than 4000 cyclers through Burkburnett, Punkin Center, Electra and Kadane Corner.

The century (100 mile) race began as a kick-off event for the Wichita Falls centennial celebration in 1982. It has since grown into a major North Texas sporting event.

In addition to the century route, the race also includes 10-mile, 25-mile, 50-mile and 100-kilometer routes which break off from the original course. The common start for all races is at 8 a.m. at Memorial Stadium on Southwest Parkway.

Every rider receives a commemorative passport which will include a photo, maps and important cycling tips. The first 3,500 participants will also ride home with commemorative t-shirts and a large specialized water bottle.

Check points with fruit, water and other liquids will be stationed about every 10 miles. Medical aid will also be provided. Sag wagons will cruise the course to offer water and road assistance to cyclists who have mechanical trouble or who become too fatigued to finish.

To cool off the hot cyclers and spectators, a "Great Texas FreezeOff" homemade ice cream contest will be held, as will a Best Bicycle Legs contest and a Volks March self-paced

The early registration fee is $8 if mailed before Aug. 16. The late fee will be $10 from 6 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. race day and will apply to registrations received from Aug. 17-24. Groups of 10 or more participants may register in advance for $7 each. For more information contact Roby Christie, 817/691-1505.

Co-sponsors include Wichita Falls Clinic, MBank Wichita Falls, Bud Light and Falls Distributing Co., local distributors of Anheuser-Busch

The race proceeds will benefit the Wichita Falls Green Space projects and bicycle safety.

League All-Star District Tournament for 13-year-olds now advances to the sectional tournament in Carrollton this weekend by virtue of a 4-1 win over host Burkburnett in the tourney finals Friday night.

The young senior leaguers were the only team out of three to advance in the Little League playoffs, with the Major League All-Stars bowing out to the eventual champ, Sheppard AFB, 6-3 last Wednesday, and the older senior league representatives losing in the tournament finals Friday night to host Sheppard AFB, 5-4.

It is the first successful trip to the district playoffs for an Iowa Park Little League entrant in several years, the last teams advancing, both from the major league, in 1971 and

According to local league president Jimmy Duggins, whose son is one of two key players for Iowa Park, their opponent in the sectional tournament is yet to be known. Play begins Saturday, with four districts District 6.

Jimmy Duggins and Jimmy Nicholson were the key to Iowa Park's success at Burkburnett, combining for a total of 47 strike outs on the mound in four games, while the local team tallied 38 runs in four contests. Duggins was the winning pitcher for Iowa Park in the 4-1 win over Burk in the finals.

Prior to the final game of the tourney, Iowa Park blasted Olney 11-1, Burk 16-7, then losing their only game 12-7 to Burk, before coming back to win the championship in the best two-out-of-three match.

IRS Tax

Estimated Tax Penalties Waived for Church Employees

The penalty assessed for non-payment of estimated taxes required to be paid by employees of certain church or church controlled organizations is being waived for 1984, according to the Internal Revenue Service. Certain churches or church controlled organizations that are opposed for religious reasons to the payment of employer social security taxes may have elected, under the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984, to be exempt from these taxes. Employees of these electing institutions must then generally make estimated tax payments to cover their self-employment Contribution Act (SECA)

Many churches filed their election to be exempt from paying employer social security taxes late in 1984. This late election resulted in many church employees being unaware of the estimated tax liability for 1984.

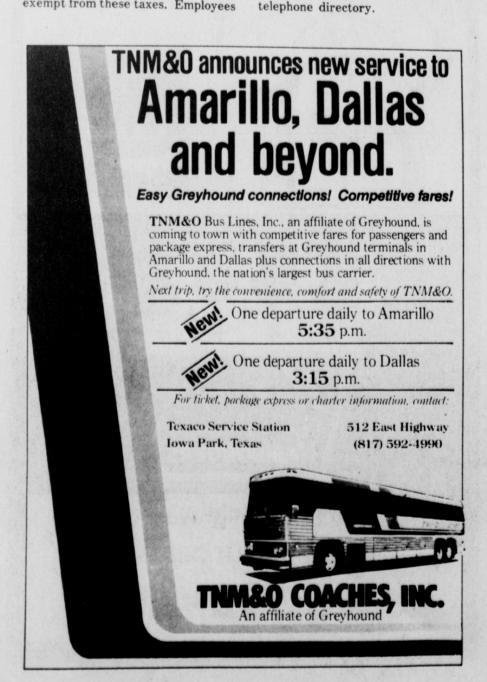

While some affected taxpayers may be charged a penalty initially, the IRS is identifying these church employees and will adjust their tax liability to abate or recompute the penalty. For more information, call the IRS using the number listed in the local LOOK WHOS NEW

Light Crust Doughboys will refresh memories

The Light Crust Doughboys, a popular musical group throughout Texas in the early 30s and 40s, will entertain for the second year at the Crippled Children's Livestock Auction July 26 at Wichita Falls Activities Center.

This 17th annual auction benefiting North Texas Easter Seal Rehabilitation Center, is a two-day sale of merchandise and livestock.

The Doughboys will play from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. during the Silent Auction and again from 5 to 7 p.m. before the big merchandise auction and barbecue "feed" begins. (Livestock will be sold Wednesday July 24 beginning at noon, at Wichita Livestock Auction, 2509 Sheppard Access Road.

The Doughboys are expected to play some of the old favorites that won them fame when they were first organized by Pappy Lee O'Daniel in 1931. They broadcast over KFJZ, Fort Worth, for Burrus Mills of which O'Daniel was general manager. They became so popular that O'Daniel formed his own radio network to cover all of Texas, known at the Texas Quality Network.

The Doughboys originally featured Bob Wills, Milton Brown and Herman Arnspiger and others were added as the group's popularity increased.

The Doughboys reorganized several times throughout the years but went off the air in 1942 because of World War II. They returned to the air in 1945. By 1951 the group left the air on a regular basis but continued to play under sponsorship of Burrus Mills throughout the South.

Hundreds of recordings have been made by the Doughboys and their music promises old memories, such as San Antonio Rose, Red River Valley and Lone Star Rag, for example.

The Doughboys are under current leadership of Jim Boyd and Smokey Montgomery.

The Doughboys were a popular feature of the 1984 auction with requests to have them return this
