Everybody was a winner

Everyone appeared to be a winner during Iowa Park's biggest weekend of the year, as local residents celebrated Iowa Park High School Homecoming and the accompanying Whoop-T-Do.

From the opening day's parade that featured the oldest local graduate, Gale Lowrance, to Friday night's coronation of Kari Robnett as Homecoming Queen, to Saturday's daytime activities to that evening's recognition of former students, everyone was a winner.

During the business session of the Alumni Association banquet, Jerry Spruiell was elected president, Junior Guthrie first vice president, Karen Andersen Lehman second vice president, Lela Mercer recording secretary, Joe Patterson corresponding secretary, Ruth Gard treasurer and Joni Whitis reporter.

Marie Grussendorf Bennett and Paul Gilstrap were recognized as having traveled the farthest: Oregon and Maryland, respectively.

Largest class attending the banquet was that of 1945, with 20 representatives. The Grussendorf and Clements families were recognized for having the most members attending.

Also Henry Gossett, oil landscape; Angie Kyle, oil wildlife; Lonita Shaw, oil still life; Helen Reed, water color landscape; Helen Reed, water color floral; Denissa Weyant, pastels.

Also Ruth Dillard, portraits; James Edwards, acrylics; Dorothy Lowry, china painting; Dorothy Jeter, various art media; Carol Scott, photography; Carmen Lambert, tile painting; Laura Coleman, wire sculpture; Glenna Via, stained glass and Ann Weyant, wood.

QUEEN, KING

Jaime Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter, was crowned Miss Whoop-T-Do Queen and Corky Petty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bob Petty, was crowned Master Whoop-T-Do King in the contest sponsored by Epsilon Eta.

Other queen winners were Rachel Walls, 0-3 division, and Amanda Frazier, 4-7 division. Other king winners were Jerry Kirkhart, 0-3 division, and Chris Thurkill, 4-7 division.

COW CHIP THROWING

First place in distance for cow chip tossing went to Jeff Stansbury, men, and Rene Petty, women. Tiffany Stephens was the only accuracy winner. Chad Felding won second place in men's distance division and Janette Robertson second in women's.

GIVEAWAYS

TURTLE TROT

Joint ownership of the winning turtle trotter for 1985 was Sandy and Sally Rusk, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Rusk. They received a $25 prize from Tanner-Aulds Funeral Home.

LARGEST CROWD

Estimations of Saturday's Whoop-T-Do crowd ranged as high as 2,500, according to observers.

Virtually every organization participating with booths reported best revenues of any year in the past, and representatives said they were looking forward to an even bigger year in 1986.

Board meeting is postponed

Tuesday's meeting of the school board was postponed until next Tuesday, due to the death of trustee Ray Hicks.

Trustees, who are to meet at 7:30 p.m. in the administration building, are to hear details of the new Discipline Management Program, which was required under the school

Staff members to serve as discipline management system designees are to be appointed, as well as hearing officers and a district committee.

Trustees are to consider recommendations to do repair work on the gymnasium at Bradford campus, and also on the lamb and steer pens at the agriculture barn.

A meeting is also scheduled with an architect to consider additional classrooms for Kidwell Elementary.

A board policy will be considered concerning the use of school vehicles, and a policy revision will be proposed on hours of duty for employees to coincide with present practices.

Trustees will consider an application for transfer of a student from City View school.

EMERGENCY WORKERS, FAMILY AWAIT MEDICAL OFFICER ... at Ray Hicks' graineries after accident.

Explosion takes life of agricultural leader

An explosion early Sunday afternoon took the life of Ray Hicks, 44, local agricultural and civic leader.

Hicks and Keith Meadows, one of his sons in law, were rotating wheat in his storage bins, located about a quarter mile west of his home on West Smith, at the time of the accident.

According to Tom Ross, another son in law, the work had been completed and Hicks was unplugging the equipment when an apparent electrical spark set off the explosion inside the elevator shaft.

A metal door to the fuse box was blown off its hinges, striking the victim in the head, and was found some 60 feet away.

County medical investigator Lt. Grady Smith said a chemical Hicks was using to treat grain for insects was apparently ignited by the sparks, causing the explosion. He said Hicks died instantly.

Evidence of the explosion inside the elevator shaft was evident from top to bottom. The metal had been expanded between the joint bands.

Iowa Park Emergency Medical Technicians were notified at 12:46 p.m. No one else was injured in the incident. The body was taken by ambulance to Wichita Falls for an autopsy.

Four land annexations on city agenda Monday

Four items on Monday's city council meeting agenda deal with annexations of land into the city limits.

Two of the items are ordinances concerning tracts which have previously been discussed in council meetings and await final action.

One tract is on West Smith, slightly under five acres, and the other is a residential area, Shiloh Three, which is located north of Shiloh Two.

A public hearing will be held on a second tract on West Smith, which is intended to be the future site of Cornerstone Pentecostal Church. The hearing is required before an ordinance annexing the land can be approved.

Fourth annexation item on the agenda is another addition in the Shiloh area. Proposed by developer Rip Smith, the latest tract is 748 feet fronting Johnson Road, to be divided into 11 lots with 223 feet depth.

A proposal to restrict smoking in city hall was considered at the council's Sept. 23 meeting, but tabled without action. It will be considered Monday as a resolution, rather than an ordinance, and will not provide for a fine if ignored.

Aldermen will consider bids submitted for the purchase of an additional computer storage disc. They will also be asked to consider authorizing advertising for bids to have all railroad crossings paved with concrete.

Under the administrator's report are:

- * consider authorizing the closing of the city library, possibly Nov. 1, to prepare for relocation;
- * consider authorizing final payment for city hall renovation work;
- * consider renewal of insurance policies (the liability insurance premium has doubled, according to James Barrington, administrator);
- * consider action on water runoff from the landfill;
- * and authorize an agreement to hire a consultant to work on the latest water rate increase proposal offered by Wichita Falls.

Voters receive charter copies

In compliance with the Texas Election Code, copies of the proposed Home Rule Charter were mailed Friday to 3,750 registered voters residing in the two precincts affecting city elections.

While there are not that many registered voters in the city, the copies were mailed to all registered in Precincts 32 and 33 because the state computer, which produced the mailing labels, could not break down the list to those residing only inside the city limits, James Barrington, city administrator, said.

Voting on the proposed new charter will be held Nov. 5, at the same polls as the general election.

However, this is the first time a charter election has been held in connection with another election. The other four times, voters had only the charter to attract them to the polls.

GALE LOWRANCE DAY - Gale Lowrance, left, oldest surviving graduate of Iowa Park schools, was honored in Thursday's homecoming parade. Riding with him is son Linton, while Bill Robinson and Virgil Hill sit in front. For more weekend pictures, please turn to page 14 of this issue.

Hawks to open district play Friday at Bowie

Iowa Park's Hawks will experience a couple of season first tomorrow night.

It will be their first game on the road this season, having played all their non-conference games in Hawk Stadium. And it will be their first test against a Dist. 5-AAA opponent.

The Jackrabbits, though boasting of a strong running offense that has amassed an average of more than 300 yards per 1985 outing, are only 2-3 on the season.

Bowie lost its season opener 7-14 to Jacksboro and then had its two wins on consecutive Fridays, 27-20 over Henrietta and 13-10 over Sanger. But the past two weeks Jackrabbit opponents have come from behind to outscore them, Forney winning 27-13 and St. Marks 24-21.

Defense against the passing game appears to be the problem of the Rabbits. The Hares allowed St. Marks only 11 yards on the ground last week, but the winners amassed more than 300 yards over the heads of the Bowie defenders.

Iowa Park enters district with a record just better than Bowie, 3-2. The Hawks lost 14-28 to Breckenridge, then managed a couple of defensive victories over Burk Burnett, 9-3, and Holliday, 9-0, before losing 7-21 to Stamford.

Last week the Mean Green got its offense in gear to humble the Haskell Indians 43-6 before a delighted homecoming crowd.

Iowa Park and Bowie have met only six times in the past 17 seasons, and the Hawks hold a 5-1 edge in the series. The last time Bowie beat the Hawks was in 1978, the year Iowa Park posted a 4-6 season, when the Rabbits walked off the field with a 20-6 advantage.

The two teams were district opponents back in 1970, and Iowa Park did everything it could to hold the score down to 70-0.

Iowa Park avenged that '78 loss the following year, shutting out Bowie 21-0. The two clubs have played the past three consecutive years, with the Hawks winning 28-0, 21-12 and 31-0.

If pass defense is a problem for Bowie, the Hawks may be able to take advantage of that weakness. The Mean Green is hitting .343 of its aeriels, connecting on 22 of 64 attempts for an average of 109 yards per game.

The Hawk ground corps is no slouch, however, averaging 161 yards in its five outings. Scott Weaver leads that group with 274 yards on 61 carries. Randy Boutwell has 195 yards on 47 chances with the ball and Danny Forman has a 5.7-yard average, having carried 31 times and gained 179 yards.

Coach David Baugh praised his club after last week's game with Haskell, saying they had begun executing their plays with greater effectiveness and consistency.

Speaking to the team Monday, he warned the players that this would be a tough week for them mentally. While they will be concentrating, they must also concentrate on their school work, because six-week tests were held Wednesday and Thursday.

Though they didn't need reminding, he pointed out a failing grade in any of their subjects would result in their becoming ineligible, under the new school reform act.

Sirens misbehaving

If you've been worried about the unusual number of fire sirens blaring recently, so have others.

Volunteer fire officers and the city police radio dispatchers began experiencing problems when the sirens malfunctioned midway through last week, and continued through Tuesday.

Once a siren has been touched off, even through malfunction, it must complete its cycle before being shut off. The problems arose when the dispatcher would attempt to contact West Wichita Volunteer Department

Thompsons to observe golden anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Thompson were honored Sunday afternoon at a reception held at the First United Methodist Church to commemorate their 50th wedding anniversary. The affair was hosted by the Couple's daughters and their spouses, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vaughan of McKinney and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Johnson of Iowa Park.

The couple were married in Burkburnett and have lived in Iowa Park 39 years. He is owner of the Park Welding Works and she is a homemaker.

They are members of the Methodist Church and she is a member of the United Methodist Women. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge.

The couple have five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Shower fetes bride elect

The home of Mrs. Glen Miller was the scene of a pre-nuptial shower given Monday evening to honor Miss Penny Hughes, bride-elect of David Martin.

The co-hostesses were Mmes. Ken Hines, Charles Hecox, C.O. Dodd, Luke Coffman, Howard Marlar, Wayne Williams, Jack Railsback, John Cummings, Gilbert Mueller, Robert McIlroy, Joe Ward, Clyde Patterson and Alton Hunter.

Blue and white, the honoree's chosen colors for her wedding Oct. 26 at the First Baptist Church, were artistically carried out in decorations. The refreshment table, the focal point of interest, was draped with an exquisite white lace cloth over baby blue satin, and set off with a centerpiece bouquet of white silk roses, blue silk delphiniums and lilies of the valley accented with tiny pearls in a crystal bowl.

A treasured crystal punch bowl and tray that held the refreshments depicting the future bride's colors, and the white napkins marked with names of the betrothed couple in blue completed the decor.

Special guests were Mrs. Pete Hughes and Mrs. Rocky Washburn, mothers of the prospective bride and groom.

Shower fetes Mrs. Cole

A baby shower honoring Mrs. John Cole was given Saturday in the home of Mrs. Bob Hamilton. Co-hostesses were Cathy Hamilton, Polly Boyd, Cindy Russell and Susan Walls.

The refreshment table was covered with a blue cloth overlaid with white lace. It held a white round cake decorated in red, yellow, blue, and green frosting and topped with a clown. Two identical miniature versions of the cake were placed on each side.

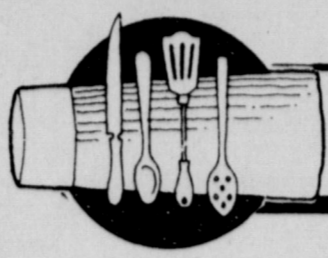

Framed baby pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Cole, the crystal punch bowl, nuts and mints, and yellow napkins completed the setting.

Approximately 30 guests attended. Mrs. Cole is the former Tessy Johnson of Iowa Park.

Cook of the Week

David Wade states in his "Magic Kitchen" book that in all the world there are only eight basic recipes - baking, roasting, braising, broiling, steaming, frying, sauteing, and stewing. He says to master these and you will never have trouble with any of the variations, whether you are preparing a simple supper or the haughtiest of the haute cuisine.

How is a cook to know when he/she has mastered the rules? Mastering takes practice. Experienced cooks probably practice them by rote and new cooks are practicing to master them.

The recipes that appear in this section of the paper from week to week, whether shared by experienced or novice cooks attest to familiarity with the basic recipes and what the cooks are practicing to perfect them. We are convinced that many cooks do a lot of practicing on Mexican dishes to make them taste like the authentic South of the Border foods.

Pamela (Mrs. Thomas) Stephens, our cook for this week, is the wife of a local police officer and manager of the Woodbriar Apartments. She attended Bellevue and Wichita Falls High Schools. She has lived in Iowa Park four years. Decorating cakes, as time consuming as it is, is one of her hobbies.

The couple are members of the Liberty Baptist Church in Wichita Falls where they both sing in the choir, and she sings in quartets. Their children and their ages are: Tommy Jr., seven, Bambi, five, and Kristain, three.

PINEAPPLE-COCONUT PIE

3 eggs
1 cup sugar
1/4 cup drained crushed pineapple
1/2 cup light corn svrup
1/4 cup melted butter
Juice of 1/2 lemon
1/4 cup shredded coconut
1 - 9-inch pie shell, unbaked Beat eggs slightly; add remaining ingredients and blend well. Pour into pie shell and bake at 350 degrees 45-50 minutes.

Yield: 6-8 servings.

QUICK SWEET & SOUR PORK

2 Tbsp. vegetable oil
1 can (15 oz.) pineapple chunks
1/2 cup Karo light corn svrup
1/4 maple svrup
1/4 cup vinegar
2 Tbsp. catsup (or BBQ sauce)
2 Tbsp. soy sauce (or Worcestershire sauce)
1 clove garlic, minced
2 Tbsp. Arzo corn starch
1/2 cup green pepper pieces
1/4 cup sliced carrots
Salt and pepper
1 lb. pork, cut in cubes

Heat oil in skillet. Brown pork, add pineapple, corn svrup, maple svrup, vinegar, catsup, soy sauce, garlic, carrots, salt and pepper. Bring to a boil and simmer 10 minutes. Mix cornstarch with 2 Tbsp. water, add to pork with green pepper. Boil 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Serve over rice and cheese noodles.

Mrs. Parker leads meeting

Mrs. J.T. Parker directed a program on "The Global Woman" at a meeting of the Night BW of First Baptist Church Monday. Mrs. E.T. Patterson was hostess for the meeting held at the church.

The program topics emphasized how the Great Commission calls for Christian women to think, feel and act from a worldwide perspective, and how the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention has opened doors of opportunity for them in overseas settings.

Some of the global women of 1800, early 1900 and 1980 were discussed by Mmes. J.A. Berg, C.L. McKinnon, Homer Blalock, H.E. Cummings, and Mrs. Sam Hill presented "The Challenge Goes On" for the concluding part.

Mrs. Roy Smith was in charge of business when it was voted to assist with the GA Daughter-Father banquet Oct. 19. Mrs. Terrel Silvers read a letter from Ellie Bell, volunteer home missionary to Samoa, and Mrs. C.A. Hicks was recognized as a new member.

A Halloween theme was carried out in refreshment table decorations. Sixteen members were present.

AGING

Age-Proofing the Body and the Mind
"Walk and be happy; walk and be healthy. The best way to lengthen out our days is to walk steadily and with a purpose." - Charles Dickens

Long before anybody knew about the neurobiology of aging, the world-famous novelist realized the benefits of walking for those no longer young. Today researchers are probing the effects of endurance training on the well-being of the elderly. What they have learned is that any exercise that increases the amount of oxygen reaching brain tissue can bring about positive changes in the mental and physical well-being of the aging individual.

On the belief that the central nervous system declines with age, researchers at the University of Utah looked at the effects of aerobic exercise on sedentary seniors and found that regular aerobic training resulted in extensive mental gains. The subjects' psychological test scores vastly improved after a four-month period of aerobic training.

Aerobic training increases the ability of the body to carry and utilize oxygen in all the tissues, including the brain. This is accomplished through exercises that create a continuous oxygen demand for an extended period. The test involved people ages 55-70, all of them initially sedentary with no differences in their physical parameters. One group either walked or jogged slowly three times a week, a second group did only strength and flexibility exercises, and the third group did no exercise at all.

Though all of them had essentially similar blood pressures and heart rates at the outset, after four months the aerobically trained group showed an oxygen uptake increase of 27% against only 9% for the group that did strength and stretching exercise. The latter group had more exercise sessions as well. The aerobic group showed more improvement on the psychological tests than the strength/flexibility group, while the nonexercising group showed no improvement at all.

The researchers speculate that the increased oxygen to the body's tissues and the brain account for the mental improvement. The brain uses a fifth of the body's oxygen intake to produce the chemical neurotransmitters required for sending impulses to receptors throughout the system. These nerve chemicals are used up at a rapid rate in both physical and mental activity. With increased production in the presence of oxygen, both mental and physical activity are enhanced.

Earlier studies on animals demonstrated that exercise also stimulates the cortex of the brain due to the increased blood flow. This adds fuel to further research to determine exactly why exercise improves mental function in the elderly.

It seems now that exercise age-proofs not only the body but also the mind. It assures us that the active lifestyle will slow down those lengthening shadows that lie across Golden Pond.

Even Dickens assured us as he continued: "The wandering man knows of certain ancients, far gone in years, who have staved off infirmities and dissolution by earnest walking - hale fellows, close upon 90, but brisk as boys."

UMW meets

The United Methodist Women met in separate fellowship groups Tuesday morning with the program leaders directing the programs as scheduled.

Following the meetings, they assembled together to hear a program by Mrs. Ellen Palmer of Wichita Falls, one of a team of ophthalmologists working with people in Haiti. She discussed the existing conditions of starvation and tuberculosis in the country.

She also showed photographs of the people and the work being done to benefit them, not only by the teams of doctors and nurses but by different church groups supporting the International Interdenominational Hospital in Haiti.

Mrs. Palmer said that the United Methodist Committee for overseas relief is one of the greatest supporters, and stated that many organizations were now seeking training groups to go into Haiti to help the people become self-supporting.

The UMW voted $200 toward continuing the work of Mrs. Palmer and her group, and $89 was given by individual members at the meeting.

Refreshments were served to 24 members and one guest.

Church groups meets

Fourteen members and two guests, Rev. David Jones and Rusty Stowe, attended the monthly luncheon of the Alathean Class of First Baptist Church Tuesday.

Mrs. Sam Hill used "What Music Means in the Life of a Church" for the theme of her devotion.

Mrs. W.F. Booher directed the business when it was voted to present Mrs. Floyd Heard, who has resigned as teacher of the class, with a love gift.

Honeycutt promoted

Air Force Staff Sgt. Robert Alexander Honeycutt II was recently returned from a three-year tour of duty at Hohn AFB, Germany, and received a promotion.

The 1978 Iowa Park High School graduate is currently stationed at Holoman AFB, N. Mex. An environmental control technician, he works on F-15 fighters.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wood of Odessa are the proud parents of a daughter, Lindsey Marie, born September 7, weighing seven pounds and six ounces.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffman of Iowa Park and R.C. Wood of Graham.

Party fetes Mrs. Lee

Mrs. Gracie Lee was honored Saturday night on the eve of her 75th birthday at a party given at the Hilton Hotel by eight of her nine children.

Tribute was paid to the honoree by each of her children and members of their family through speeches, gifts and special music.

Attending from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lee, Judy and George Bertone, Rockford, Ill., Mr.

Western-style breakfast launches another year

The 23 Study Club started activities for the current year at a western breakfast held Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. D.O. James with Mrs. Homer Blalock, the co-hostess, Miss Betty Meadows offered the invocation.

Following the meal, Mrs. Keith

Aulds, president, served as program leader and conducted the business.

Mrs. China B. Smith conducted a beautiful candle-light memorial service for the late Mrs. T.M. Thaxton and Mrs. Rollins Woodall. Candles were lighted for the former club members by Mrs. Joe Singer and

Mrs. Homer Blalock. She closed with the poem, "Blow Gently Winds of Autumn."

Mrs. Smith directed the group reading of tributes to the American and Texas flags, and presented the inspirational thoughts on "It's the Little Things That Make a Difference."

The little things that she stressed that would contribute to a successful club year were: adapting to change, having innovative programs, reflecting a good image of the club, and each member being friendly, willing and eager to say "thank you," and being enthusiastic about her assignments and duties.

The arts number was a vocal presentation of the Club Collect by Mrs. Singer with Mrs. John Rentschler providing piano accompaniment.

Mrs. Aulds used "Beginning Again" for her charge to club members for the new year. She emphasized the need of unity among members in spite of their diversified interests.

Library opening may be delayed

Board members of the Friends of the Library met Wednesday of last week for a tour of the Tom L. Burnett Memorial Library.

Mrs. W.A. George, president of the Friends, conducted the tour and explained the decorating of the interior.

It was hoped to be in the library on or about Nov. 5th but a problem has developed with the carpeting which may delay the opening.

After the tour, members went to the home of Mrs. George to discuss rules for the library upstairs meeting room. At the meeting Tim Hunter, mayor, announced that Patricia Costello will be library program coordinator and anyone wishing to make a reservation to use the meeting room will have to contact her.

Mrs. George had library rules from Olney and Duncanville. After discussion it was decided there would be no fund-raising meetings or political meetings but did not decide on any other rules. Members were asked to think about it and will decide possibly at the next board meeting.

Mrs. George served refreshments to eight members present.

and Mrs. Clifford Compton, Wichita, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Major, Tulsa, Okla., Rev. and Mrs. Jerry Lee and Chris, Dallas; and Tommy Major, Stillwater, Okla.

Those who attended locally were Mrs. Betty Hensley, Mrs. Jaynell Manuel and Kendall; Messrs. Bob Frazier, Wally West, Trinity, Brandy and Ashley, Mike Negri and Brandon, G.L. Smith and Steve Frazier.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

As great a deal as last weekend was for Iowa Park, and as much fun as I and apparently everyone else had, I've got to admit I'm glad it's over.

Apparently the old saying is true: Nothing is good unless you work for it.

Well, it was great, because I felt like I had done a year's work when Saturday night's feed at the alumni banquet was over and all the pots and pans were washed.

I look forward to a year's rest, while plans are made for a bigger and better weekend in 1986.

Reaction to my recent column about the city council considering an ordinance banning all smoking in city hall has been mixed.

Most of those commenting on the column agreed with me, but I will admit I had comments and one letter opposing my argument.

Now I notice the council is coming back with another angle on the proposal. Instead of an ordinance, which would have fined any violator at least $100, the council will consider at Monday's meeting making it a resolution, without a fine.

If passed, I understand they'll just post a bunch of signs asking "No smoking, please."

That's a lot better, but I still can't wholly agree. Seems like there could be one or two areas where those of us could commit our vice.

For those who disagree with me, allow me to give you a comparison for your consideration:

Everyone on the council smokes. Everyone working in city hall smokes. And an ordinance or resolution is passed to require everyone entering the publicly owned facility to fire up a cigarette before entering.

Sound ridiculous?

Then what do you think all this sounds like to a smoker?

I'm going to miss Ray Hicks.

I considered Ray a good friend, and learned to admire his commitment to agriculture and his community through work he has done over the years.

But my admiration was increased after Ray was elected to the school board.

He didn't say much, but he never abstained when a vote was called for.

When he did speak up, however, you knew to listen to what he had to say. That was because you knew he had given the subject deep, thoughtful consideration, and his opinion was worth knowing.

He'll be missed. Ray was a good'un.

Man, woman arrested

Police in less than an hour and a half Saturday night picked up two persons wanted on multiple warrants from areas other than Iowa Park.

At 1:35 a.m. Sunday, Michael John Barth, 22, was arrested in the 1000 block of East Highway on outstanding warrants from Clay County. One was "false report to police officer," a $500 bond required, and the other was "driving while license suspended," another $500 bond.

After being taken before Justice of the Peace Vireil Hill to have his rights read, he was turned over to a Clay County Sheriff's deputy.

Then at 3 a.m., in the 600 block of West Highway, officers took into custody Vicki Cook Griffin, a 25-year-old white female. Besides an outstanding warrant from the Iowa Park Department for displaying an expired motor vehicle inspection sticker and failure to appear in court, a total bond of $60, she was wanted on warrants from: Eastland County, revocation of probation, no bond; Wichita County Sheriff's Office, theft by check, no bond; and Ellis Department of Public Safety, for driving on wrong side not passing, a $11 bond.

Griffin was turned over to Wichita County later that morning, and remained there yesterday afternoon.

Thursday afternoon, Cheryl Peery, 614 W. Louisa, reported to police of "simple assault." Details were not available, but officers said charges are in the process of being filed.

A citizen Thursday evening reported finding two Dallas Morning News paper racks on the west shore of Lake Iowa Park.

Madonna Smith, 702 E. Alameda, told police someone had taken one of her license plates, number RSE 638. She did not know when or where it happened, according to the police blotter.

Ray Hicks

Funeral services for Ray Hicks, 44, were held Wednesday morning at First Baptist Church with Rev. Dan Farnsworth, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Floydada, officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery under direction of Tanner-Aulds Funeral Home.

He was born March 27, 1941, in Sweetwater and had lived in Iowa Park the past 28 years. He died Sunday in a farm accident.

He was a well known farmer in the area and a trustee on the Iowa Park school board. He was a member of the Wichita County Livestock Association, the Wichita County A.S.C.S. County Committee, Wichita County Young Farmers Association and the Soil and Water Conservation District. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

He is survived by his wife, Linda; three daughters, Wendy Meadows of Chico, Dana Ross of Wichita Falls, and Misty Hicks of Iowa Park; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O.R. Hicks of Indianola, Okla.; a brother, Ronnie of Wichita Falls; a sister, Linda Brewer of Iowa Park; and his grandmother, Lea Hicks of Iowa Park.

C.L. Slack

Services for C.L. "Red" Slack, 61, were held Friday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Holiday with Dr. Ronnie Armstrong, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Graham, and Rev. David Hardage, pastor of the Holiday First Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial was in the Holiday

Iowa Parkan MSU counselor

Debra Higginbotham, the former Debra Pennington and daughter of Mrs. Frances Pennington, has accepted a position as director of counseling at Midwestern State Univ.

A graduate of Iowa Park High School, she received a B.A. degree from MSU and a masters of science degree in psychology from North-eastern State Univ. at Tahlequah, Okla. She, her husband and daughter have moved to Wichita Falls from Tulsa, Okla.

Bowie to test undefeated JV tonight at local field

After knocking off Burkburnett for the second time this season, the Hawk Junior Varsity will carry a 4-0 record against Dist. 5-AAA opponent Bowie tonight at Hawk Stadium. Hosting Burk last Thursday, Iowa Park's JV shut out the visitors 14-0. John Woods set up the first score by covering a Burk fumble. Scott McCarter ran five yards to light up the scoreboard. Mike Williams ran an end sweep for the second TD, and both extra points were kicked by Toby Brown. The JV has actually won five games, but the one against Wichita Falls High's freshman team isn't being counted as an official game. Burkburnett had little trouble with Iowa Park freshmen, winning 42-6. The Frosh play the first game tonight against Bowie, kicking off at 6 p.m. The JV game is to start at about 7:30. Next week the teams travel to Decatur.

Junior high splits with Kirby

Iowa Park Junior High split games here Tuesday night with Kirby Junior High, the Eighth Grade winning 40-26 but the Seventh Grade losing 16-26.

Chad Patterson ran wild in the Eighth Grade game, scoring three touchdowns on runs of two, seven and 13 yards, and a pair of two-point conversions.

Jim Duggins intercepted a Kirby pass and returned it 50 yards to score. Duggins connected on an aerial with Jim Nicholson that covered 70 yards to set up Patterson's two-yarder.

Nicholson had a 75-yard TD sprint and Marc Cruz scored on a 30-yarder.

Vance Edwards scored a touchdown for the Seventh Grade from 10 yards out, and ran in both extra points.

The other TD was a 40-yard pass from Brandon Martin to Brian Luney. The teams host City View Tuesday, with the first game kicking off at 4 p.m.

Bowerman wins meet

Four local high school tennis players placed well in the Octoberfest Tournament held at Weeks Park in Wichita Falls over the weekend.

Sophomore Jenny Bowerman fared particularly well, winning first place in high school girls singles by beating back the challenge of returning district singles champ Susan Fetterly of Hirschi.

Bowerman also placed second in women's singles.

Freshman Jeff Bartow made it to the finals before dropping a match to Woody Moss of Wichita Falls. Bartow's performance was good enough for second in the high school boys singles division, however.

In boys high school doubles, senior Mark Cooke and sophomore Craig Connors placed second, losing in the finals to the Rider duo of Woody Moss and Gary Osborne.

Hawks make fans happy: 43-6 win over Haskell

To the delight of a near-full stadium of homecoming fans Friday night, the Hawks maintained their stout defensive play, and at the same time found the offense that had sputtered through the first four games of the season.

And the combination spelled victory in the form of a 43-6 score over the Haskell Indians.

While rolling up a total of 364 yards offense, the defense was holding the Indians to only 130 yards, as well as forcing six turnovers, two by interception and four fumbles.

Hawk fans can't help looking to the future, when they realize seven of the eight backs who ran with the ball, amassing 244 yards, are underclassmen. And only one of the five Hawks who caught passes is a senior.

The statistics and score would have been even greater in favor of Iowa Park, had a 75-yard touchdown run by junior back Scott Davis not been nullified by a motion penalty in the fourth quarter.

As it was, Davis wound up with no gains on his two carries, but the junior speedster caught two passes for 77 yards, one of which was for a touchdown.

Fullback Randy Boutwell was the only senior to carry the ball from scrimmage, among the eight carriers. His number was called 11 times, and he responded with 53 yards, and a TD.

Junior tailback Danny Forman was the workhorse of the evening, being handed the ball 12 times and gaining 54 yards and a touchdown. Fullback Robbie Wilson, another junior, gained 47 yards on four carries, and a touchdown and two-point conversion.

Youngest of the carriers, sophomore fullback Jim Cummings, was called on nine times and he produced 44 yards. He also caught a seven-yard pass.

Scott Weaver, another junior and the leading gainer so far this season, got his hands on the ball only five times Friday night. But he gained 31 yards on four carries, scoring a touchdown, and caught a 10-yard pass.

Senior end David Dietrichson caught two passes covering 19 yards, and sophomore tight end Steve Allen caught only one pass, but it was a seven-yard TD.

Time and again, interior linemen had gaping holes for backs to run.

DAVID DIETRICHSON HAULS IN 9-YARDER WITH LEAPING CATCH

Weaver took a handoff at the 20 on the game's opening kickoff return and rambled all the way to the Indian four yard line. But the officials ruled he had stepped out of bounds at the Haskell 28.

Six plays later, Weaver got his TD on a five-yard run.

Later in the initial period, Wilson's punt set the Indians back on their 10 yard line. After a five-yard motion penalty set the visitors closer to their end zone, they tried a quick pass over center, but veteran safety Ray Sefcik, a senior, hauled the ball in on the seven and scampered untouched into the end zone.

Kicker Robert Adams had missed the extra point try after the initial touchdown, so Coach David Baugh called on Wilson to bull his way into the end zone for two points, making the score 14-0 with 1:28 remaining in the first quarter.

Jeff Tucker set up the next Hawk score when he covered an Indian fumble at the Haskell 33, just before the period ended.

Eight plays later, Boutwell banged over left guard the final two yards, and Adams kicked the extra point.

Iowa Park's next TD came quickly: 1:37 after Boutwell's score. It was set up when the Indians mishandled a pitchout, and Greg Feltman claimed the ball on the Haskell seven yard line.

Sefcik hit Allen on the next play, with the big sophomore taking the ball as he crossed the end zone line. Adams' kick was again good, and the Hawks took a 28-0 lead to the dressing room for the halftime break.

The third quarter was the big one for Iowa Park, as the Hawks rolled up nine first downs and three touchdowns.

The Indians took the second half kickoff, but had to punt four plays later.

Iowa Park needed only five plays to cover 59 yards, as Sefcik hit Davis from the 30 to score with 8:15 remaining in the period. Adams' kick was good.

David Meissner covered a Haskell fumble on the Hawk 27, and Forman capped that drive with a 23-yard scamper into the end zone. Again, Adams' kick was good, giving the Hawks a 42-0 lead with 2:50 remaining in the period.

Weaver intercepted an Indian pass attempt on the third play following the kickoff, giving the Hawks possession on the Haskell 34.

Wilson gained 12 yards, but then a 15-yarder by Cummings was nullified on a five-yard penalty, and Iowa Park drew another five-yarder on a pass attempt, setting the Hawks back to the 33.

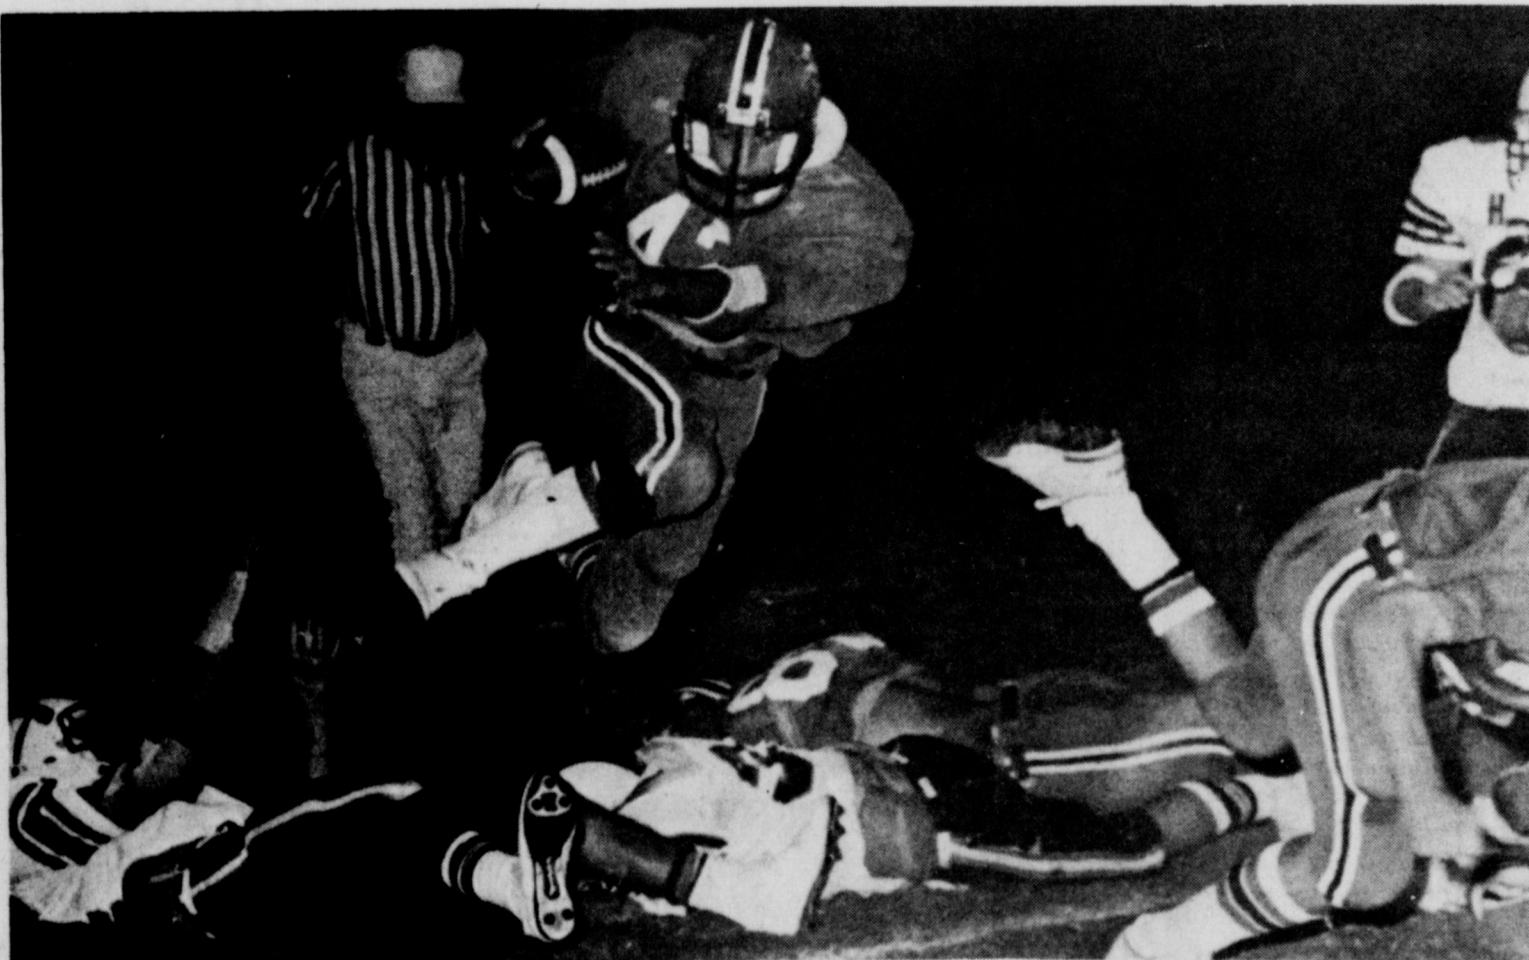

But Wilson took a pitch out around left end, got a three-man block on the safety at the 10, and rambled untouched across the goal line, with 20 seconds remaining in the period.

Adams missed his second extra point kick of the evening, but the Hawks had their 43 points of the evening.

With a Hawk defense composed almost entirely of second and third stringers, Haskell finally scored with 44 seconds remaining on the clock. It came on an apparent pass play, with the teams spread out across the field. Unable to find a receiver, the quarterback threaded his way 25 yards to the end zone.

Disappointed, because they had wanted a "lights out" emblem on their helmets if they held Haskell scoreless, the Mean Green broke up Haskell's attempt to kick the extra point. Wilson led a host of Hawks to block the attempt.

Big Red puts scare into top-ranked Tigers

Despite turning the ball over to top-ranked Electra five times Friday night, four on fumbles, the Holliday Eagles still managed to put quite a scare in their hosts before bowing 42-21 in a District 9-AA contest.

With Tiger back Charlie Lott no stranger to the Holliday players or to the fans assembled at the overflowing Tiger Stadium, the Big Red kept the game very close throughout the majority of the contest utilizing their patent "Stonewall Defense" while the Eagle offense ground out 17 first downs and over 300 yards total offense in an effort to match the Tigers point for points.

In fact, the Eagles put the first points on the board on their first possession of the game, with the help of one of two roughing the punter penalties called against Electra.

The Tigers received the game-opening kickoff and quickly opened shop at their 31. Spirited defensive play by Holliday's Bobby Pautsky and Kerry Wise kept Electra's output to a mere two yards in three rushes, two of those by Lott.

Punting 38-yards to the Eagle 43, a two-yard return by Les Dolberry gave Holliday its first possession at the 45. Three rushes netted only five yards, but a Tiger defenseman cut punter Pat Parker's feet out from under him, drawing the yellow flag and a 15-yard markoff from the official zebras.

From the 35, Tim O'Brien used his blockers well and made a few moves in open field for a 33-yard carry to the two, where he took it over for the first touchdown of the game at 6:18 in the first quarter. Parker's extra point try was off to the right, leaving the score at 6-0, Holliday.

Fielding the kick at their 30, Electra initiated its first scoring drive of the night, highlighted by pass completions of 18, 15 and 17 yards. Lott took it over from the one with under two minutes remaining in the initial period to tie the score at 6-all. The extra point kick for Electra was also wide, but the left, leaving the score dead even.

Turnovers became a factor in the outcome, starting with the ensuing kickoff, O'Brien, returning the kick, was covered by a host of Tiger jerseys, and the ball popped loose, covered by a Tiger at the 26. Two plays later, quarterback Rodney Bell hit Lott on a swing pass the big back took in all 26 steps for the touchdown. A two-point conversion pass attempt was foiled, keeping the score close at 12-6.

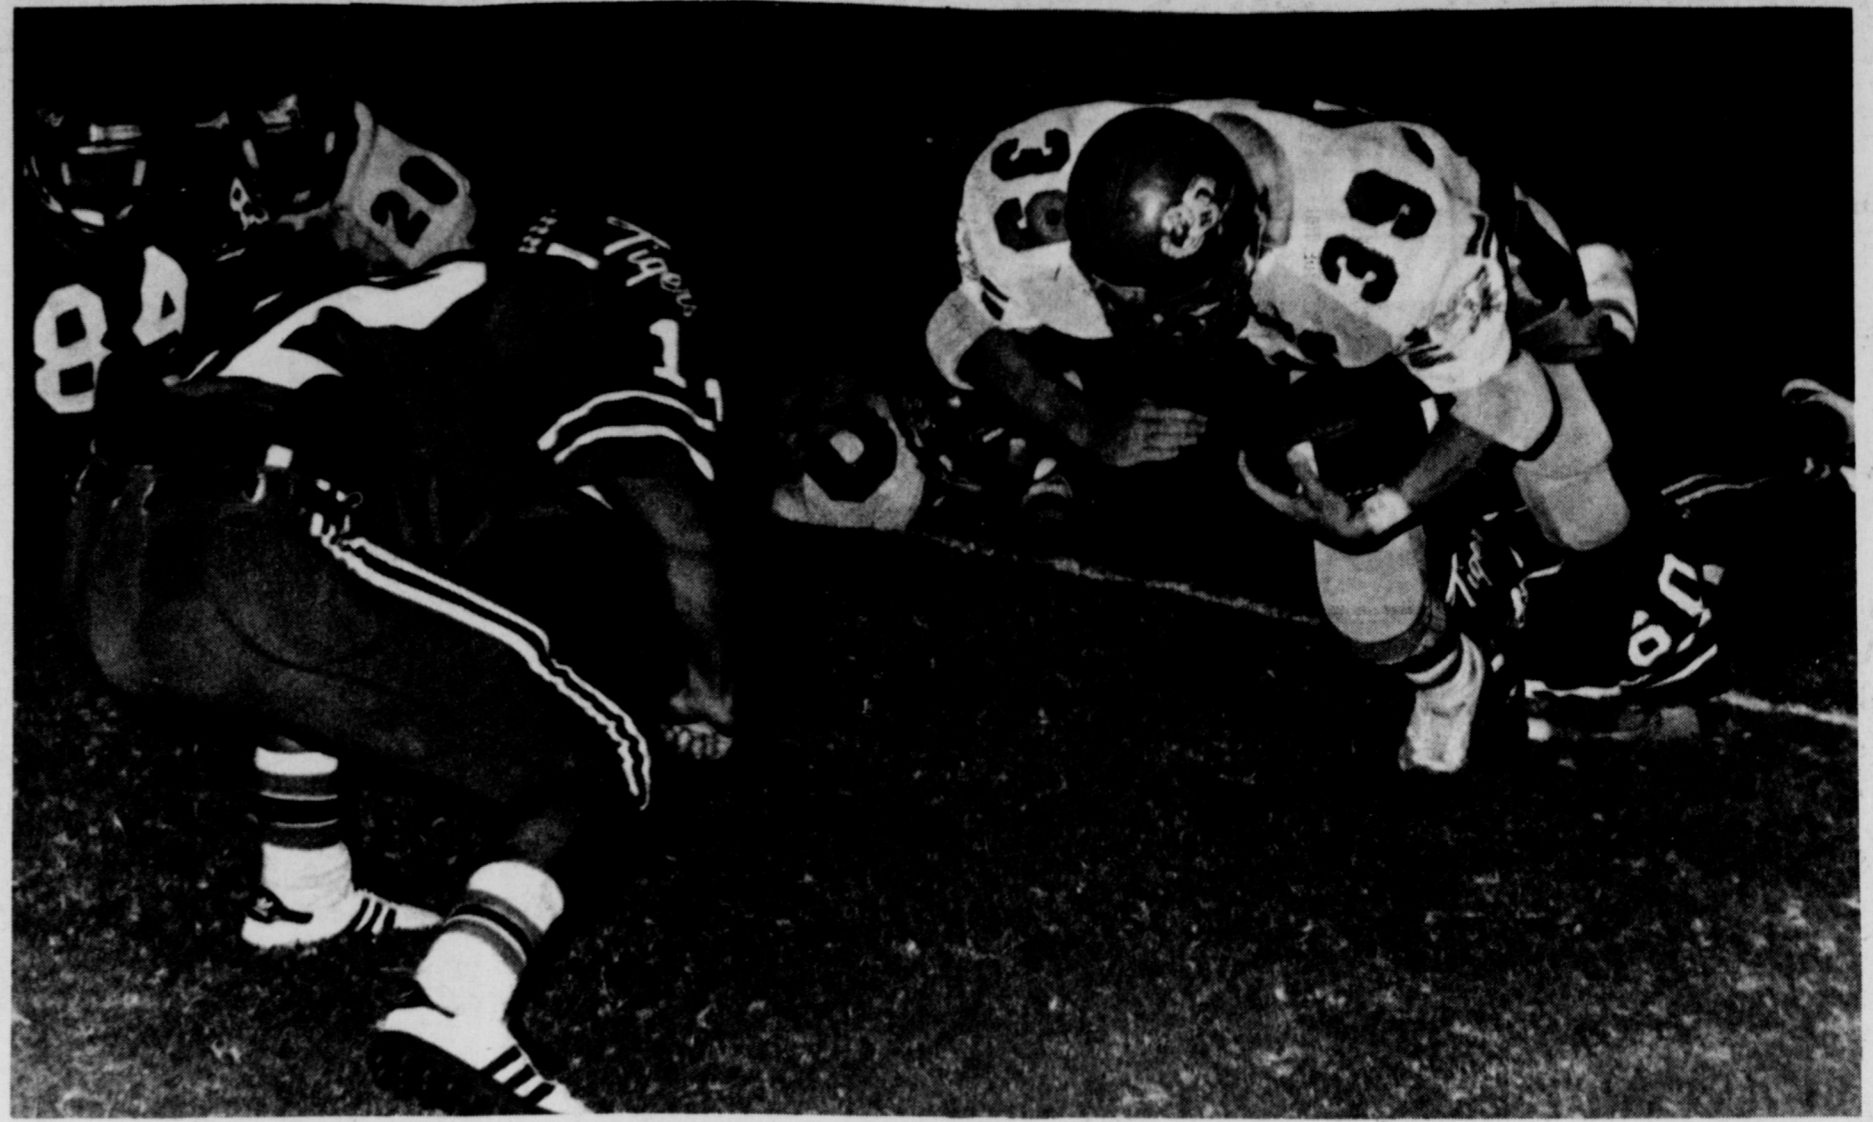

Defense ruled the game at that point until the Tigers put together a long drive with less than five minutes remaining in the first half. Holliday had taken the ball down inside the Tiger 10, but a fourth and two situation at the nine ended there when Parker mishandled the snap from center.

Eight plays later, Bell swept around the left side for a 13-yard score, and followed up with a run for two points on the conversion to make it 20-6 Electra going into intermission.

SECOND HALF

Both teams traded possession of the ball at the start of the final half. The Big Red offense, sparked by a bruising 42-yard run by sophomore David Hoepfner, mounted a 72-yard drive capped by Hoepfner's one-yard plunge with just over two minutes left in the third period. Lined up for an extra point kick, O'Brien took a handoff from Parker around the right side, pulled up and landed a pass in Dolberry's arms all alone in the end zone for a neat two-point conversion, pulling the Eagles to within six points of their hosts.

Lott broke for a 42-yard gain on the second play following the kickoff, giving Electra a first and ten at the Holliday 17. On the next play, however, Lott apparently fumbled, and the Eagles looked to have recovered the pigskin. But to the dismay of the Eagle crowd, the referees ruled that Lott had fumbled after his knee had touched the ground. Three plays later, Edward Willis took it over from the two for another Tiger score.

FULLBACK LARRY KROB READIES FOR HEADON WITH TIGER RODNEY BELL

On the conversion attempt, Bell hit tight end Trace Reed for two, giving Electra a 28-14 cushion.

Just about the time the crowd was writing off the Eagles, the Big Red offense sparked, driving from its 25 to the 45 of Electra. From there, Parker hit Dolberry on a deep pass, and the end took it all the way for a 45-yard passing score. Parker's extra point kick was good, pulling Holliday to within seven with 10 minutes left in the game.

Electra called Lott's number on three of four plays in a 78-yard scoring drive, highlighted by a 75-yard romp by Lott to the three. Two plays later, Lott broke over from the one for the score. The point after kick upped the score to 35-21.

A fumble by Hoepfner at the Eagle 18 set up Electra's final score, which came three plays later on a 16-yard pass to Willis. The extra point kick froze the scoreboard at 42-21.
