Stores burglarized here over weekend

A suspect is in county jail after two Iowa Park businesses were burglarized over the weekend, and another man has been arrested on a charge of aggravated sexual assault of a 12-year-old girl.

Deputy sheriffs had a man in custody early Sunday morning and three guns with price tags still on them before they found out where they had been taken.

Deputies stopped a vehicle traveling east when the driver failed to dim his headlights. When the vehicle was approached, the three guns, two were shotguns and the other a rifle, were lying in the back seat, in plain view.

The suspect allegedly told the officers he didn't know they were there or where they came from.

The man was taken to county jail and a teletype sent out about the guns.

Shortly after 3:30 p.m. Sunday,

Kenneth Via and other employees had gone to Parkway to inventory merchandise. They discovered the safe had been ransacked and called police.

It was then Iowa Park police asked Via if he were missing guns. Still unaware any were missing, Via checked his gun cabinet and saw some were missing. Serial numbers from the teletype were compared with Via's records, and their ownership confirmed.

Via said about $2,800 was missing from the office safe, also.

Entry was gained through a ceiling vent, investigators surmise.

Then, Monday morning, Shirley Rains discovered someone had been in her place of business, and entry was gained through another ceiling vent.

Approximately $200 was missing and files and records were in a shambles, she said.

The suspect, who deputies have reportedly determined is wanted on a parole violation in Ohio where he was also arrested for burglary, was said to be scratched. The scratches, officers figure, came from his sliding through the narrow vent openings.

MAN ARRESTED

James Wofford Jenkins, 54, of 904 E. Cash, was arrested last week on two warrants of aggravated sexual assault of a 12-year-old girl.

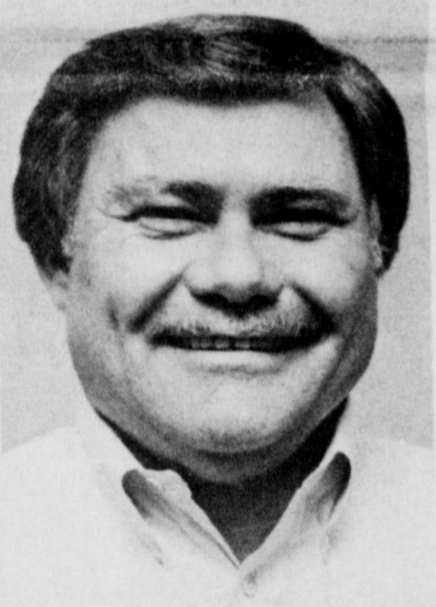

He was taken before Justice of the Peace Virgil Hill, who informed him of his rights and also placed a $10,000 bond on each charge, and he was then taken to county jail.

Police took Ronald Allen Smith, 20, into custody at 1:59 a.m. Sunday in the 100 block of N. Yosemite. He was charged with driving while intoxicated and turned over to sheriff's deputies.

JACK MARTIN

Park Pharmacy has new owner

Iowa Park once again has three pharmacies.

Jack Martin has purchased the building formerly occupied by Park Pharmacy, and has amended the name to Jack's Park Pharmacy.

He opened his doors to business Monday, though admitting to having still a lot of work to be done both to the interior and adding of stock.

Martin live on FM 369, and has operated Jack's Pharmacy at the University Park Clinic in Wichita Falls the past 18 years, closing that business' doors Saturday.

A native of southern Oklahoma, he is a graduate of Grandfield High, where he played on the state championship football team.

His wife taught two years at Holliday, where their daughter Jamie is a junior this year. Their other daughter, Kristi, graduated HHS and is a freshman at Midwestern State Univ.

Martin is planning a grand opening, after he assembles his fixtures and new merchandise. His pharmacy was open for business, however, when he opened the doors Monday.

Though he bought both buildings occupied by the former pharmacy, he has partitioned off the west half.

School election date to be set

Trustees of Iowa Park schools will hold their second meeting in three weeks, when they convene at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the administration building.

The board is to call its annual election for April 5, but just in time for candidates to file. Cutoff for candidates to file for a place on the ballot is Feb. 19, according to Supt. Glen Mitchell.

Contracts for key personnel will be considered at Tuesday's meeting, as will be bids for new high school band uniforms and instruments.

February is the traditional meeting when trustees consider contracts for the following year for the assistant superintendent, principals and assistant principal, athletic director, tax collector and counselors.

Teacher and support personnel contracts are considered in March.

At their meeting last Thursday, which was a called session, trustees accepted the lowest of two bids to do repairs on the track at Hawk Stadium, gave final approval on plans for construction of four new classrooms at Kidwell Elementary, and approved the district's new "Discipline Management System."

Anderson Asphalt submitted a bid of $8,985 to repair the track, with completion to be within 14 working days, weather permitting.

Architect Don Daugherty estimated the Kidwell classrooms, to be added onto the west end of the south wing, would cost approximately $220,000, based on $45.84 per square foot.

Bids are to be opened Feb. 20 and work completion specified no later than Aug. 1.

The Discipline Management System, called for by the legislature's school reform act, is a 62-page document which spells out how discipline will be administered locally.

The project, coordinated by assistant high school Don Ickles, was produced by a discipline management system committee which included Alyce Bondurant, Jimmy Duggins, Allen Gilstrap, Jim Gotcher, JoAnn Hale, Kim Nicholson, Robert Palmer, Laura Thames, Ron Woods and Colleen Roberts.

Time capsule to be buried

A time capsule is to be buried at the Tom L. Burnett Memorial Library this spring, to be opened in the year 2036, and residents are being encouraged to contribute items to be included.

The capsule burial is one of the projects approved by the community's Sesquicentennial committee, as part of the state's 150th anniversary celebration.

Because of space limitations, the capsule will be 44 inches long, 17 inches wide and 17 inches deep, those who will submit articles are asked to restrict items to small, flat items such as paperwork like letters, newspaper clippings, photos, etc.

Organizations and churches are encouraged to submit articles about activities and histories.

Anyone wishing to have items included in the capsule should submit them at the Chamber of Commerce office. They will be accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis.

March 1 has been set as the deadline for accepting articles.

Burial will be during the formal opening ceremony of the new library, which has been designated as the major event in the community for celebrating the Sesquicentennial.

It rained!

After some two months without any precipitation, area farmers and gardeners were elated with more than half an inch precipitation yesterday.

Virgil Woodfin measured .61 at his home, but amounts varied over the area from less than half an inch to almost an inch, according to reports.

Farmers with wheat were especially concerned about the lack of moisture. Those who were grazing with cattle said without moisture they were running out of anything for the cattle to feed on.

CEMETERY PAVILLION - Workers of Gilmore Inc. and Barbour Trucking put the pre-built roof Tuesday on the new pavilion under construction at Highland Cemetery. The structure will feature an open air area where gatherings and services can be held, as well as an office, rest room and storage area. Construction is being financed primarily by volunteer donations.

Shiloh Four plat back on city agenda

Among the numerous items on Monday's city council meeting agenda is an ordinance to accept the final plat of Shiloh Four.

The meeting is to begin at 7 p.m. in council chambers.

Council members rejected the plat submitted at the last meeting, when they decided rear-entry to the homes would not, in their opinion, provide adequate parking for visitors to the residences.

Shiloh Four fronts Johnson Road, north of Wagonwheel. A deep ditch separates the proposed lots from Johnson.

Administrator James Barrington said he had met with developers since the last meeting, but he did not know if the changes would be ready for council consideration this early.

The audit of the previous year's financial records has been received and aldermen will be asked to pass a resolution accepting it. The city's fiscal year begins Oct. 1.

Other topics on the agenda include:

- * consider request to authorize sale of surplus property by bids;
- * consider a request to sell water outside the city, on Coleman Park Road;

- * discuss purchasing a used bulldozer from the county;
- * consider reducing width on a portion of South Park to allow additional parking at Faith Baptist Church;
- * discuss selling computer used by police department;
- * consider building standards change for access to mini warehouse units;
- * discuss request to permit Cub Scouts to meet at city's south fire station;
- * discuss priority lists for street improvements, one for sealcoating and other for upgrading dirt roads to all-weather surfaces.

Permits set pattern for big year locally

The new year was started off in a big way, building-wise, as permits issued by city hall during January amounted to $163,168, greater than 10 percent of the 1985 total.

A new church, new office building and new home bolstered the month's total.

Permits issued during January included: Wayne Gaston, 201 Hope, addition, $2,592; Mary McClure, 206 E. Alameda, repair, $3,500;

Corner Stone Church, West Smith, new church, $43,200; Ray Cook, 410 S. Colorado, mobile home, $2,000;

Orange Lester, 615 W. Coleman, addition, $480; Tom Venhaus, 1517 Douglas, addition (pool), $16,000; Farm Bureau, 301 E. Cash, new office, $48,000; Jim Pendergrass, 308 W. Crystal, addition, $3,000; Librada Chacon, 110 S. Colorado, carport, $300; Jimmy Via, 903 E. Pasadena, addition, $5,616; Frank Baston, 1012 Cornelia, addition, $2,520; Rip Smith, 1517 Brentwood, new home, $34,960; Wayne Williams, 510 N. Yosemite, alteration, $1,000.

Owners should claim lost bicycles

A number of bicycles turned into Iowa Park Police Department over the past couple of years but not claimed are beginning to cramp storage space, according to Chief Bob Dean.

The bikes were never reported as missing, so Dean said personnel have never been able to return them.

He asks that persons who have lost bicycles give their descriptions to an officer, and if it is in storage, the owner can claim its return.

But claims must be filed by Mar. 1, because the chief said he was going to have to sell them to bidders in order to clear his storage room.

Friday, Cathey vows exchanged Friday

A late afternoon wedding was performed Saturday at the First United Methodist Church to unite Tracy Renea Friday and Gregory Dean Cathey.

Rev. George Topper, pastor of the First United Methodist Church at Henrietta, officiated the double-ring ceremony for the exchange of vows by the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harroll Brown of Iowa Park and the late Doyle Combs, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cathey of Garland.

The altar decorations featured seven-branched votive candelabra entwined with boxwood, with the unity candlestick and kneeling bench draped with the same foliage enhancing the solemnity of the occasion.

Miss Kim Cathey, sister of the groom, provided piano accompaniment for vocal selections by Miss Carmen Stone who sang "You Light Up My Life," "The Wedding Song," "Theme from Romeo and Juliet" for prelude numbers and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony. Miss Patty Little, organist, played the traditional wedding marches for the entrance and exit of the bridal party.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar and presented her in marriage for her parents. For her wedding, she chose a designer gown of shimmering ivory chiffon and Venice lace. The gown featured a ruffled front bodice and dropped shoulder yoke accented with tiny seamed pearls to the flattering waistline, and a Victorian neckline highlighted with a cameo design. Tiny covered buttons added the perfect touch to the back of the sheer imported lace bodice. The Victorian sleeves were beautifully adorned with lace appliques. The full double chiffon skirt gracefully flowed into a semi-cathedral length train to complete the picture.

Her illusion veil cascaded to waistlength from a bow attached to the back of her stylish hat covered with ivory lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations, yellow-tinted daisies, baby's breath and leatherleaf.

The bride kept traditions by wearing her late great-grandmother's wedding ring for "something old," her mother's pearl earrings for "something borrowed," her wedding gown for "something new," and a garter for "something blue."

The bride was attended by Mrs. Jeri McCann, her sister, as matron of honor, Mrs. Terry Wirmel of Wichita Falls, the bridesmaid, and Miss Becky Thompson of Amarillo, her niece, the junior bridesmaid. They wore identical pink fantasia gowns designed with dropped shoulder yokes outlined with ruffles, long fitted sleeves set apart with fascinating ruffled back trains with pickups.

The attendants complemented their gowns with pink tinted baby's breath headpieces. They carried single long stem pink carnations combined with baby's breath and greenery.

The groom wore an ivory tuxedo with tails, matching shirt, cummerbund and tie, and the male participants in the wedding wore black tuxedos with white shirts, pink ties and cummerbunds.

Bob Cathey, father of the groom, was best man, and Bruce Hawkins of Garland was groomsman. David Friday, son of the bride, was the junior groomsman. The ushers were Jerry Thompson of Amarillo and John Ethridge of Sheppard Air Force Base.

During the service, the bride presented her mother and the groom's mother with long stem red roses. The mothers' corsages were formed with pink and yellow carnations.

The bride's parents hosted the wedding reception held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

The refreshment table clearly stood apart in the setting. Covered to the floor with ivory taffeta, it was swagged with grape ivy caught at the corners and in the center with ivory-colored magnolias accented with ivory bows and ribbons. A brass candelabra in the center that held ivory candles was arrayed with grape ivy, magnolias, pink petunias and yellow roses. Brass trays holding pink and yellow heart-shaped mints, and napkins in the bride's colors marked with "Tracy and Gregg, With This Ring I Thee Wed" decorated the table in front, and the extremities held a brass punch bowl and the cake.

The cake was a delightful surprise in construction and decorations. The first two tiers were stacked and separated with Grecian pillars from the two stacked top tiers. The lower layers were trimmed with lattice work and draped scrolls, and the others featured pink and lily-of-the-valley trim. The top ornament composed of two white satin bells and two white doves with halos above their heads fit superbly with the decor of the cake.

Mrs. Jerry Thompson and Miss Shannon Cathey served refreshments during the reception.

The registry table was covered like the refreshment table and held a brass candlestick and ivory plume pen.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the NCO Club at Sheppard Air Force Base.

The bride was graduated from Iowa Park High School and is employed by Wal-Mart at Burkburnett. The groom was graduated from South Garland High School. He is a member of the Air Force stationed at Sheppard AFB as a pharmacy technician.

When the couple left the reception for an out of town trip, the bride was wearing a grey jump suit of crushed acetate and satin. They will live in Burkburnett.

Special wedding guests were Mrs. Viola Lemasters and Mrs. Josephine Cathey of Wichita, Kan., grandmothers of the groom.

AN OPEN LETTER, AND INVITATION, TO OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS WHO ARE PRESENTLY INACTIVE MEMBERS OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Have you thought about the Catholic Church recently? Have you considered your membership in the Church, and whether or not you really mean to stay away? We miss you. Would you take this opportunity to take another look at the Catholic Church, and consider becoming an active member once again?

Especially during this Lenten season, as we prepare for the celebration of Our Lord's Resurrection, we can be reminded of the value of a church family. Most Catholics have many happy memories of years in the Church---memories of First Communions, of beautiful liturgies, of hymns we can never forget, memories of friends and family, of shared activities and prayer.

Not all memories are happy ones, of course. People in the church have been hurt, neglected, ignored. Some memories may recall our being excluded rather than welcomed. If these are your memories, can you find it in your heart to forgive us, and to give yourself another chance in the Church.

Please take this opportunity to think about our Catholic Church, and your participation in it. Our parish family of Christ The King extends its hands in love-with full hopes and plans to be the welcoming, forgiving, praying community Jesus calls us to be. Won't you consider being part of it once again?

It would be a blessing for a parishioner, parish leader or minister to have the opportunity to help you come home.

As you open yourself to God, and listen for his leading, I pray for you in the words of Saint Paul.

"May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, grant you a spirit of wisdom and insight to know him clearly. May he enlighten your innermost vision that you may know the great hope to which he has called you, the wealth of his glorious heritage to be distributed among the members of the Church and the immeasurable scope of his power in us who believe. (Eph. 1:17-19)

May God bless you.

Sincerely,

Patrick J. Burke

Cook of the Week

At the first sign of mealtime preparation, the question very often asked in American homes is "What for dessert?" The answer can range from cake, pie, ice cream to fruit and cookies. There was a time, however, when the answer would have been bread pudding, as a glance through an old family treasure recipe book will show. Bread pudding is still a delicious dessert, but there are so many different ones to choose from today.

In reading the methods of food preparation in earlier years, modern cooks with the advantages of modern equipment, methods and food can hardly conceive of how their ancestors ever prepared a meal.

Patti (Mrs. Joe) Hughes' dessert recipes this week can certainly answer the question, "What for dessert?" They all sound like they would be a grand finale to any meal, but the Scripture Cake seems to have a special kind of appeal.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and their daughters, Shellye, seven, and Sharla, five, moved recently from Garland when he purchased Settle Drug.

Patti was graduated from Duke, Okla. High School and attended Altus Junior College. She is working part-time at their drug store now. Her hobbies are cooking, needlepoint, volleyball and tennis.

SCRIPTURE CAKE

Mrs. Hughes explained that the recipe for the cake first appeared in a 1904 Christmas edition of Gold Medal cookbook, but the ingredients amounts were not given; one was supposed to look them up in the Bible and use her/his own judgment as to the amounts. She said that the recipe was published later in a Fort Worth paper with the amounts, but one could look up the references in the Bible.

Judges 5:25 - 1/2 cup butter
Jeremiah 6:20 - 1 cup sugar
Isaiah 10:1 - 3 eggs, separated
Exodus 16:31 - 1 tablespoon honey
1 Kings 4:22 - 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
Leviticus 2:13 - 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1 Kings 10:10 - 3/4 teaspoon cinnamon and 1/4 teaspoon each of ground cloves, allspice and nutmeg
Genesis 43:11 - 1/2 cup milk
1 Samuel 30:12 - 1/2 cup dried figs and 1/2 cup chopped raisins

Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy and all sugar is dissolved. Add egg yolks one at a time, beating well after each one. Beat in honey. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk and beat only until smooth. Stir in nuts and fruit, then fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into greased loaf pan lined on the bottom with wax paper cut to fit. Bake at 350 degrees about an hour.

Combine cake mix, remaining 1/3 cup milk, butter, mixing with electric mixer until dough holds together, stir in nuts. Pour half of cake mixture into greased 13x9 pan. Bake at 350 degrees 6 minutes. Sprinkle chocolate morsels over crust. Pour caramel mixture over chocolate morsels, spreading evenly. Crumble remaining cake mixture over caramels. Return pan to oven. Bake 15 to 18 minutes. Cool. Health topic of UM program

United Methodist Women observed the "Call to Prayer and Self Denial" Tuesday morning with a sacrificial luncheon of pinto beans, cornbread, and water.

Mrs. China B. Smith was coordinator for the program, using Mrs. Mary May's booklet "Toward Wholeness." She was assisted by Mrs. Vernon Gilbert, Betty Dyer, and Bernice Compton, with audience participants.

Emphasis was given to the importance of health as a vital part of wholeness in life, which finds its precedence in Jesus' ministry as he went about healing the sick.

Mrs. Smith narrowed the focus to the roll of women and health in response to conditions which affects women's lives in every phase of life. A woman's health has to do not only with her own life, but the community or world in which she lives. It is our concern as United Methodist Women to minister to the mental, emotional, spiritual and physical well being of all people. But if our lives are to exemplify concern for the suffering and needs of people, we must present ourselves as wholeness of body and spirit.

A monetary gift was sent to undesignated missions.

Twenty-three members were present.

I would like to express my deepest appreciation to those who remembered me with their prayers, gifts and visits during my surgery and stay in the hospital. I would especially like to thank our pastor, Bro. Larry Washburn for being there with his support for my family. May God bless each and every one of you.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

I had the opportunity Tuesday night to attend my second annual banquet honoring volunteer firemen.

This time, it was Holliday's department of 13, and it was easy to see the pride they have in their organization.

My earlier banquet, of course, was Iowa Park's department.

Though small in numbers, Holliday has five members who are certified Emergency Medical Technicians. That's an unusually high percentage out of 13 members.

Besides chasing sirens more than 30 years as a reporter, I've had a life-long admiration and respect for firemen, especial volunteers. I've even served on a couple of departments myself.

One of my earliest recollections as a child in Grandfield was a car racing down main street, its horn blaring, headed toward the doctor's office.

I was to learn a volunteer fireman, one of my parent's closest friends, had been injured fighting a fire. He didn't survive.

Then, soon after I had joined the staff at the Moore County News in Dumas on my first full-time job as a reporter, I was covering a fire that took 19 lives. Eighteen of them were volunteer firemen from Dumas and Sunray.

That fire was at the Shamrock refinery, and it was almost 30 years ago, July 29, 1956.

But I often wonder how many people realize what fire department volunteers go through to serve their fellow man.

There are regular training sessions, some more extensive than others. There's the getting up from the dinner table, or out of a warm bed, or taking off from work, whenever the call is sounded.

There's the risk not only of injury while fighting a fire, but that of dodging drivers who don't watch where they're going, both as firemen travel in their personal vehicles and also in the big, red trucks.

There's the natural concern shared by the wives and children, each time the fireman answers a call. Few ever express it, but the concern for the fireman's safety is always there.

Many people take the time to tell volunteer firemen how much they are appreciated. A year ago, Iowa Park's entire department was recognized by the Chamber of Commerce as the "Citizens of the Year."

Tuesday's dinner for Holliday department personnel and their guests was paid for by Rusty Lindeman, of Windthorst. He insisted on paying for the event, and didn't ask how much it would cost. Lindeman obviously appreciates the firemen.

Firemen don't ask much. At least not our's around here. Only for good equipment, which isn't a bad trade, considering what a paid department would cost.

I think, besides equipment, they are satisfied with a simple "thanks," from we citizens.

Knowing they've helped, maybe saved a life, and some acknowledgement, is enough for a volunteer fireman.

Freshmen hardest hit by no-pass, no-play rule

A summary of ineligible students during the first semester of the 1985-86 school year for grades nine through 12 were released recently by Holliday High School principal, Bill Lee.

The first six weeks of school showed 44 per cent or 30 of 68 freshman students failing one or more courses. The second six weeks showed a 50 per cent failure rate among freshmen, but the figure declined in the third six weeks to a 36 per cent failure rate, making the semester average 43 per cent.

Lee accredited the high failure rate of the freshman class to many students trying the advanced academic program as opposed to the regular high school program, which resulted in many failures, proving costly to the students. He also cited that failure to turn in homework was a problem.

The tenth grade failure rate for the first six weeks was 16 percent, for the second six weeks, 22 per cent, and 20 per cent for the third six weeks, averaging 20 per cent for the semester.

Eleventh graders failing one or more classes in the first and second six weeks resulted in a 16 per cent failure rate each grading period, and a 17 per cent failure during the third six weeks, averaging to a 16 per cent failure for the first semester.

Twelfth graders did fare well during the semester, but it is noted that the senior class is almost half the size of the other three at the high school.

Two students out of 33 failed one or more classes the first six weeks for a six per cent failure rate, with a duplicate amount of failures the second six weeks. Failures dropped the third six weeks for a three per cent failure rate and an average of six per cent for the semester.

Students being kept from participating in extracurricular activities, as mandated by the no pass, no play rule, proved costly for the vocational department as well as the home economics.

There were 14 freshmen kept from participating in vocational activities, 10 from home economics, eight from band, six from athletics, and two from UIL drama.

Sophomores unable to participate in extracurricular activities total eight in vocational, three in home economics, one in band, two in athletics, and two in drama.

Eleventh graders kept from extracurricular activities include seven from vocational, seven from home economics, two in athletics and six in drama.

Of the seniors, only one was kept from participating in each home economics, band and drama.

Of these figures, there are duplications of one student unable to participate in different activities.

Five awarded at TFA meet

Five Holliday High School Students brought home awards from the recent TFA speech tournament at Abilene Christian College.

Deborah Battles placed third in prose and second in humorous. She qualified to represent the area in humorous at the TFA state competition.

Others receiving awards were Tommy Berend, finals in prose; Jerry Wise, semi-finals in prose; and Garner Mahan and Tammy Cash, finals in duet acting.

Nineteen schools participated in the tournament.

Estate planning seminar to assist rural families

"A properly drawn estate plan may save many farm and ranch families up to $200,000 in estate taxes." This statement made by Wayne Hayenga, Texas Extension Economist and Attorney, assumes a lot of information: a married couple who "like each other" and want to care for each other, who have a farm or ranch worth $1-million or more, and want to pass it on to their children.

This is an eye opening fact for many farmers and ranchers. In fact, many people only worry about estate planning if they hear of a friend's "problem" in settling an estate or paying estate taxes. "But," Hayenga continued, "for many families the estate tax savings are not as large - - if they have smaller operations. In fact, for many farm/ranch families, the income tax savings of a properly prepared estate plan can be greater than the estate tax savings."

A two-day seminar talking about these complicated tax topics will be held Mar. 11-13 in Lubbock. The program is structured to help farmers and ranchers learn how to lower their tax burden and ease administrative burdens that affect passing their estates to their loved ones. In addition to discussing estate planning systems, tax savings possibilities will be discussed from corporations, partnerships and trusts when family members are involved in the business.

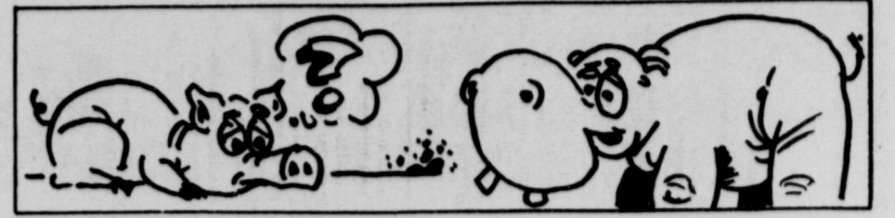

Making gifts to avoid estate taxes will be discussed also. "There are two problems with making excessive gifts -- the first is dying poor; the second is the adverse income tax consequences the gift can cause the recipient. A properly planned estate can save many dollars in income taxes for the heirs."

Two problems that affect family operations -- planning for inflation and growth of the business will be discussed. Another topic, how to be fair among all children when one child is interested in the family business and others are not will be addressed.

This seminar has been conducted 33 times and attended by over 1,400 people in the state. At the last three seminars, over 40 percent of the participants were there for the second time to increase understanding of this complicated but crucial subject for their families.

The registration fee is $60 and registration information is available at all local county extension agent offices.

Although the name hippopotamus means "river horse", this animal is really related to the pig.

Tanner's store fire damage is extensive

Tanner's Kuntry Store was declared a total loss with damage estimated at $250,000 after a fire occurred in the building around 2 Friday morning, according to Bettye Tanner, owner.

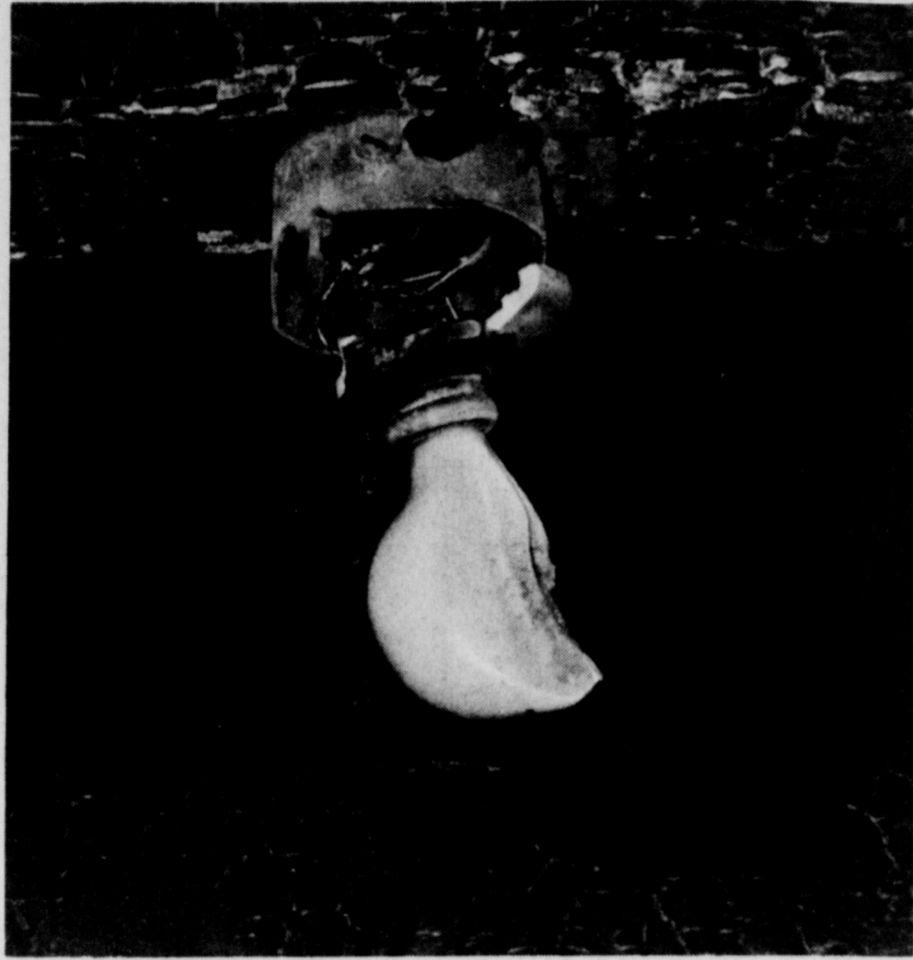

The fire was detected when Wiggie Tanner, the wife of Bill Tanner who is Bettye Tanner's son and partner in the store, smelled smoke in the bedroom of their home which adjoins the store on the west end. The Tanner's immediately left their home with their three children and called the Holiday Fire Department. No one sustained injuries.

Three Holliday units were called to the fire, but when firemen arrived they were held off from dousing the blaze by live ammunition, stored under the front counter, going off.

Firefighters managed to contain the fire to the front portion of the store, but heavy smoke damage resulted in total loss of the store as well as the adjoining home.

An investigation, conducted by Holliday Police Chief Juel Colbert and Wichita Falls Fire Department Arson Team, cited the cause of the fire as being electrical, starting in an ice cream box at the front of the store.

Mrs. Tanner stated that insurance would cover the cost of the building, which is owned by Kerr-McGee, and the partial cost of the contents, all of which must be buried, according to law.

Tanner also said that they are planning to rebuild, but it won't be known when for another week.

District is changed by UIL realignment

District 9-AA lost three schools and picked up one after district realignment by the University Interscholastic League last week.

The district lost Petrolia to Class A, after their enrollment dropped to below 135. Jacksboro moved up to Class AAA, when they gained enrollment, and lost Nocona, who moved into another district, but stayed in the same class.

They did, however, pick up Archer City again, after a two-year absence from their class, when enrollment went up.

Holliday is one of six teams in the district, which include Electra, Henrietta, Olney, Seymour and Archer City.

Head football coach, Don Lucy, said that the realignment hasn't made things too much different than they have been in the past, except that with only six teams in the district, it is harder to find non-district games within a short travelling distance.

Holliday will have to schedule five non-district games next football season.

Lucy also stated that it is a good, competitive district as well as balanced.

Eagles still in hunt for playoff position

The Eagles varsity team downed the Panthers Friday night, 68-47, at home, and the Electra Tigers Tuesday night, 53-44, to remain second in the district to Olney with a 4-1 record. A win tomorrow night against Olney in the last district game will tie the Eagles with Olney for first in the zone.

The Lady Eagles, however, ended their season Friday night with a disappointing 47-57 loss against Seymour's Lady Panthers.

The first half of the girl's game looked more promising than the second as the girls were only trailing in the first quarter 8-12 and at the half only 25-26.

Travelling calls against the Lady Eagles proved costly in the second half as they fell behind 34-45 by the end of the third quarter and 47-57 by the sound of the final buzzer.

Top scorers for the Lady Eagles were Jana Harmon with 20 points and Niki Huff with 10.

The boys beat Seymour, 68-47, Friday night.

The end of the first quarter showed the score to be 14-11, but the Eagles pushed ahead by the half gaining 16 points to the Panther's 14, making the score 27-25.

As in the girl's game, the second half proved to be the deciding factor as the boys gained 12 points to the Panther's seven in the third quarter giving the Eagles a 39-32 lead.

The fourth period turned out to be most impressive for the Eagles, as they scored 26 points, as compared to the Panther's 15, ending the game with a 55-47 score.

High scorers for the games were Still with 14 points, and O'Brien and Maxwell, with 12 points each.

Holliday went on the road Tuesday night to beat the Electra Tigers, 53-44.

The Eagles ended the first quarter ahead, 17-14, but dropped behind by one point at the half with a score of 29-30.

The Big Red pulled ahead again in the third quarter after scoring 10 points to the Tigers five, bringing the score to 39-35, and outscored their opponents again in the fourth quarter, 14 points to the Tiger's nine, making the finals score 53-44.

Top scoring honors for the game were O'Brien with 16 points, Maxwell with 15 and Still with 10.

The Eagles will play the Olney Cubs on their home court Friday night, with games to begin at 6 p.m. with the JV boys team.

With a win, the Eagles will be tied with Olney for first in the zone, and have a playoff to determine who represents the zone as champions.

A loss would place Holliday as second in the zone.

Parks board topic of executive session

During a called meeting of the Holliday City Council Monday night at the high school cafeteria, aldermen held a two-hour executive session to discuss the Parks and Recreation Board and funds associated with the Parks Board, and the ownership of Stonewall Jackson Camp.

When the meeting reconvened in open session, Mayor Don Duke announced that Stonewall Jackson Camp is not owned by the city, therefore it is not a city park. Rather, those serving on the city council at any given time are trustees to the camp.

"The council got their hats mixed up" between being aldermen and trustees of Stonewall Jackson Park, Duke commented.

Since the city does not own a park, the Parks and Recreation Board has nothing to look after, therefore it is expected that the board will be dormant until the time that the city has it's own park.

A decision concerning the Parks Board will be rendered at the regular Feb. 18 meeting of the city council.

In other business, the council tabled consideration of spending unbudgeted money for a sewer main extension on Live Oak Ave. from Bois D'arc west to the alley. The local city staff estimated the total cost of the project to be $3,514.80.

Alderman Jim Virdell objected to the expenditure of unbudgeted funds in the middle of the fiscal year, questioning where the funds would come from.

Another unbudgeted item on the agenda was the payment for plowing and seeding of the closed sanitary landfill site in the amount of $400 to T.H. Stone.

Some questions arose from citizens and some alderman about the charges for seed, saying that the seed had already been paid for by the city.

City Administrator Brown Hudson stated that the seed had been paid for originally, but after an inspection by the State Department of Health, it was found that some sections needed additional seeding, cover and grading.

Aldermen authorized Brown to pay Stone.

The council recognized Rusty Lindeman's contribution to the City of Holliday Volunteer Fire Department, after he offered to pay for the annual fireman's banquet held Tuesday night at a Wichita Falls restaurant in appreciation for the outstanding service of the volunteer firemen.

As a last unlisted item on the agenda, Virdell questioned Duke's intention to run for mayor in the April election. He said, "I think it would be a problem if you decide to run for re-election, living in another county."

Duke stated that he expected to be back in Holliday by March 1, and that his actions are legal as far as everybody they had talked to are concerned.

After the council meeting adjourned, members of the Riding Club and trustees of Stonewall Jackson Camp met to discuss the club's contract. It was agreed that the contract is valid another 16 years, and that the riding club may continue their activities at the camp.

TEXAS GARDENER TIPS

How To Plant Early And Protect Your Crops

Several frost-tender crops, including tomatoes, cucumbers, melons and squash, can be harvested a month earlier than normal if they're planted outdoors soon enough and protected from the cold and wind.

For an early harvest, you must plant well before the average frost-free date in your area. Normally, it's recommended you plant two weeks after that date. For example, if the frost-free date in your area is April 1 and you wanted to be sure your plants wouldn't be killed by a late freeze, you'd plant between April 15 and 20. However, you can plant earlier and still have healthy plants if you install protection devices, such as hotkaps, cans, milk jugs or plastic-covered tunnels. All of these help trap solar heat, store it in the soil and prevent it from escaping at night. Their advantage is that you can have production a month earlier. These same devices also provide protection from the wind. Here's the major items used to protect plants and how they work:

Coffee Cans: Cut the bottom out of an empty 3-quart coffee can that has a plastic cover on top. Then you can set out plants when they have three to five true leaves and place the can over them, pushing it into the ground to anchor it. Whenever temperatures are expected to get below 32 degrees, place the top cover on the can.

Plastic Jugs: An empty 1-gallon jug with the bottom cut out is placed over the plant. However, you must vent the jugs by cutting a hole at the top and bottom to prevent excessive heat build-up.

Tunnels: These are formed by pushing U-shaped wire frames into the soil and covering them with plastic. These provide good protection, but are more difficult to install and can be expensive.

Hotkaps: These are miniature, cone-shaped tents made out of wax paper. They're 11 inches in diameter and 6 to 9 inches tall. Place hotkaps over the top of the plant and secure them by placing the soil around the bottom. This device makes an efficient miniature greenhouse to trap maximum amounts of solar radiation for frost protection, but they are expensive.

District loses two in UIL realignment

The district in which Iowa Park High Students compete was changed last week in both numerical name and membership by the University Interscholastic League.

Besides changing from 5-AAA to 6-AAA, Vernon and Springtown were moved from membership, and Breckenridge and Jacksboro were brought into the district.

Springtown, which was brought into the district two years ago against its objections, got what it wanted and was named to Dist. 9 along with Diamond Hill Jarvis, Lake Worth, Lake Dallas, Sanger and Southlake Carroll, all closer than Iowa Park.

Vernon, as had been predicted by most observers, was moved back to AAAA classification, and will be in the old District 3 with Hirschi, Burkburnett, Mineral Wells, along with Graham and Azle.

Iowa Park's district besides Breckenridge and Jacksboro will continue to be Bowie, Decatur and Bridgeport.

Coach David Baugh said he had no problem with the makeup of the district, feeling all the athletic teams can be competitive with them, but because of restrictions set by UIL on contracting other teams to play next fall, admitted he was having a tough time filling next year's schedule.

Unofficially - nothing can be official until Feb. 19 as set by the UIL - it appears non-conference games next fall will be with Vernon, Burkburnett, Graham and Springtown. He was still on the phone yesterday, trying to line up the fifth opponent.

Film to be shown

A film, The Angel of Sardis, will be shown at 7 p.m. Sunday at the First Baptist Church.

The Angel of Sardis is a dramatic story of Pastor Robert Ingstrom's fight to save his church.

The exercises are designed to develop uniformity of doctrine, standardize procedures for rapid response to a crisis and demonstrate solidarity in commitment to NATO goals and objectives.

Womble is a tank systems mechanic with the 37th Armor at Fort Riley, Kan.

The private is a 1983 graduate of Tipton High School, Okla.

Lady Hawks play Bowie for place in playoffs

The Lady Hawks will play Bowie Saturday evening in Archer City to determine which will advance in the state playoffs as runner-up in District 5-AAA.

Defending state champion Vernon won both halves of the district schedule, and advances as the top team from the district.

Iowa Park won the first half of play, losing only to Vernon. Bowie won the second half, also losing to Vernon. Hence, the playoff for second place in the conference.

Archer City was chosen as a neutral site. The high school's gym will be used for the game, which is to get underway at 7 p.m.

Iowa Park will be the "home team" and wear white uniforms.

Ticket prices will be the same as all district admission prices: $2 for adults and $1.50 for students.

The Lady Hawks, who finished the regular season schedule with a record of 16-7, defeated Bridgeport here Friday night, 58-43, but had more than they could handle hosting Vernon Tuesday, losing 41-64.

Leading 16-9 after the first quarter against Bridgeport, the Lady Hawks fought off a rally by the visitors in the final period after leading only 40-34 at the end of the third.

Laura Parker finished with 19 points and Cindy Clanton had 13.

Playing without their point guard, Clanton, who was home ill with a cold, the Lady Hawks were plainly outclassed by Vernon.

The No. 1 ranked team this year jumped out to a 24-4 lead after the first quarter, and actually scored enough points in the first half, 44, to have won had they not scored another basket in the entire second half.

According to the records, the Lady Lions missed only four shots in the entire first half.

Lori Allen was Iowa Park's only player in double digits, scoring 11. Parker had nine.

Hawks still have shot

Coach Earnie Reusch's Hawks still have a shot at the playoffs, but they must win their last two games against Bowie and Decatur.

The team travels Friday to Bowie and returns home for the last regular-schedule game Tuesday against Decatur.

The Hawks beat Bridgeport here Friday, 76-48, but were edged 44-62 Tuesday by Vernon.

Against the Bulls, the Hawks jumped to a 19-11 first quarter lead, and continued to build the difference throughout the game, leading 32-22 at the half and 48-32 after the third.

Stephen Biddy had one of his better nights, canning 25 points. Scott Davis came off the bench to score nine points.

The Hawks trailed only 12-13 at the end of the first quarter against Vernon and 27-28 at the half.

But the second half was just about all Lions. The visitors extended their lead to 44-33 before heading into the final stanza.

Biddy was held to 12 points, thanks mostly to double teaming by the defense. Ray Sefcik had 11.

Little Dribblers play underway

The Sneakers beat the Little Rascals, 20-10, but the Hot Shots lost 11-22 to the Southside Sensations in Little Dribblers action last week.

Little Dribblers games are played at the Southside Girls Club.

Kay Dawn Cockburn and Kari Robnett coach the Little Rascals; Cindy Coltrain and Marvi Marshall the Sneakers and Audrey Klinkerman the Hot Shots, all Iowa Park teams made up of fifth grade students.

Erika Knight scored 14 points for the Sneakers, Cheri Halady and Michelle Robertson each had four for the Little Rascals and Kim Pyle had four to lead Hot Shots scoring.

CINDY CLANTON GATHERS A CROWD WITH BALL

Girls' softball meeting slated

Iowa Park Girls' Softball Association will have a meeting next Tuesday to discuss the upcoming season.

New officers will be elected at the meeting to begin at 7:30 p.m. at the ASCS office. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

Junior girls win three

Junior high girls' basketball teams won their last three games.

The Seventh Grade beat Barwise 37-12 and City View 26-21 to close out their season with a 9-4 record.

Chasity Sims had 11 and Julie Short eight against Barwise. In the City View game, Sims and Short were tied with eight each.

The Eighth Grade high scoring honors went to Turner, Beavers and Sosebee, each with eight.

The Eighth Grade is to play City View today.

The child trusts him. He buys the child candy, takes the child to movies, gives the child his time when no one else will. He is the child's special friend.

The child does not want to lose his friend. The child will do anything to keep him. Besides, he is a grown-up; he knows what is right and what is wrong. Child pornographers can destroy precious moments of childhood. When a camera is held by a pornographer, the child will be haunted by the experience for the remainder of his life.

According to the Texas Department of Human Resources, studies show that a majority of those who are sexually abused as children will become child molesters as adults. The wreckage of the life of a sexually abused child is devastating and society pays the price.

Anyone from a stranger to a close friend or family member can be a sexual abuser of children. The Crime Stoppers Advisory Council for the month of November is concentrating its efforts on the prevention and apprehension of child pornographers in Texas.

Parents, family members and friends are encouraged to become informed on ways to prevent children from becoming involved with child pornographers and sexual abusers, and learn to recognize the symptoms of a child under a pornographer's influence.

Persons with information on child pornographers are asked to call their local Crime Stoppers program or the toll-free Texas Crime Stopper's hotline at 1-800-252-TIPS anytime, day or night.

Cash rewards are available for information leading to the arrest and felony indictment of criminals in Texas. Citizens are not asked their names and will be given a unique code number for reward purposes.

Child pornographers and other sexual abusers of children can be stopped, but only with the help of informed citizens.
