Police arrest 3 during week

Three persons were arrested during the past week by city police, two on local warrants and the other on warrants from outside the community.

Officer took Stephen Lee Lane, 22, into custody at 8:33 a.m. Thursday for driving while his license was suspended.

Lane was taken before Justice of the Peace R.L. Stewart where he was placed under $500 bond, and turned over to county jail.

At 8:38 that evening, Ronald Michael Antepara, 32, was stopped on a traffic violation and found to have outstanding warrants from the Department of Public Safety as well as Wichita Falls Police Department.

Warrants against Antepara included speeding and failure to appear by the DPS, motor vehicle inspection violation, no motor vehicle liability insurance and a warrant fee from the Wichita Falls police.

Unable to post a total of $322 in bonds, he was released to a sheriff's deputy and taken to county jail.

Officers arrested Hannalore Kunz Cooke, 49, at 915 W. Louisa Monday morning on a warrant for driving while intoxicated.

The arrest was issued after blood sample analysis results taken after her vehicle crashed Feb. 18 into a neighbor's house were received.

In that accident, Charles Friday's home at 914 W. Louisa reportedly sustained $8,500 in damages when Mrs. Cooke's station wagon crashed into the front wall.

A complaint that two men who were paid $55 in advance to do work at her home, but never fulfilled the agreement, was filed Friday by Martha Dillard, 302 E. Ruby.

She supplied police with a name presumed of one of the men, as well as a vehicle description.

Lee R. Riley, who lives at 1000 Mary, Apt. 603, told police he found two bullet holes in the windshield of his pickup Sunday morning.

Cook of the Week

Mrs. Fred Daume

The onions and onion soups in Mrs. Fred Daume's recipes this week attest to the popularity of the onion with its pungent odor and taste and it's by-products in American cookery today. The history of the onion show that it has been an important part of people's diets in many parts of the world for centuries.

The origin of the onion remains a mystery. It was being cultivated by prehistoric men when they were still in the collecting stage which preceded the pastoral and agricultural stages. The roots and bulbs were easy to gather, the onion perhaps the easiest because it gave itself away by its smell.

Wherever it originated from its written history seems to begin in Mesopotamia where it was one of the most familiar vegetables. The oldest known body of law, the Code of Hammurabi, stipulates that the needy shall receive a monthly ration of bread and onions. But it was also grown in one of the gardens of the kings.

The Egyptians were great onion eaters. It is a plant most often shown in Egyptian art. Greece produced quantities of onions, which were eaten widely, especially by the poor. In Rome, it was also a food for the poor; however Apicius whose cook-book was designed for the wealthy, did use onions in its sauce or as an accompaniment for other dishes.

Columella, the first agriculturalist writer of the Christian era, praised the onions of Pompeii and Charlemagne ordered them planted in his domain. They have been popular in England at least since the thirteenth century.

In America, Cortez saw onions on his way to what is now Mexico City. The onion eaten in America today, by both the poor and wealthy, are almost always descendants of the Eurasian, first known to have been planted in Massachusetts in 1648.

Mrs. Daume, the former Tayna Ray of Holliday, was graduated from Holliday High School and Midwestern State Univ. with a degree in speech therapy and LD. She taught at Burkburnett for seven years, and is presently the special education teacher at Iowa Park Junior High School.

She and Fred, who is a well known agriculturist in the area, are members of First Baptist Church where she is a member and soloist of the sanctuary choir, and her hobbies are needlework and music. She has a daughter, Megan, 6, and two stepsons, Josh, 7, and Justin, 12.

To donate clothing

Mrs. Elmer Singleton gave a talk on "The Golden Class" for the devotion Monday evening at a meeting of the Friendship Class of First Baptist Church.

She emphasized love as the most important part of the class and discussed it from the standpoint of Christ's love which inspires unselfish, sincere and impartial love on the part of His followers.

During the business directed by Mrs. O.S. McLemore, it was voted to contribute clothing and miscellaneous items to the Wichita Falls State Hospital for the March outreach project.

Mrs. C.L. McKinnon was in charge of the recreational period.

The meeting was held at the church with Mrs. Glenn Mitchell and Mrs. E.T. Patterson serving as hostesses. The refreshment table carried out a St. Patrick's Day theme through green and white runners, shamrocks, leprechauns and arrangements of ivy.

Alathean Class holds luncheon

Sixteen members of the Alathean Class of First Baptist Church and one guest, Rosetta Hill of Amarillo, attended the monthly covered dish luncheon Tuesday.

Mrs. R.A. Tanner brought the devotion using "The Way We Were" noting the changes that have taken place since the 1920s in clothes, transportation and ways of living. She said that most people are anxious to change to new and better things, but stressed that belief in Jesus was the one thing that was constant and unchangeable.

Mrs. Nelda Noland of Bryson conducted a workshop on Battenburg lace Tuesday evening for the Iowa Park Arts and Crafts Club in a meeting held at TU Electric Reddy Room.

Miss Kidwell reviews Philippines turmoil

Miss Ethyle Kidwell gave a talk on how the United States is affected by the recent turmoil in the Philippines, for 23 Study Club Thursday afternoon in a meeting held at the First Presbyterian Church and hosted by Rev. Betty Meadows and Mrs. B.G. House.

Mrs. Earle Denny was the program leader. Mrs. C.L. Metz gave a review of Charles Wysocki's earthy American painting for the arts number. She gave a brief sketch of the famous folk artist who paints America as he would like to see it, and sells the finished products.

She described him as a stickler for order and showed paintings on two of his calendars, most of them inspired by rural and family life spiced with patriotism as shown by his liberal use of flags.

Miss Kidwell's topic was "Philippines at the Crossroad - The Fight Has Just Begun." She said it was a crossroad of the South China and Sulu Seas and the Pacific Ocean. It is one of the most strategic land masses on earth, made up of 7,000 islands, counting every little mound of dirt with grass, a tree or bush on it. Today, about 50-million people inhabit about 700 of the islands.

"Whatever it may mean to Asian neighbors, it is of utmost importance to the United States," she said.

She said that now under the rule of Mrs. Aquino, a lot of things have to be set straight for the Philippines. She stressed how the strategic interest of the United States, including the military bases, may force the Reagan administration to consider deeper involvement in the country not only for more aid, but, eventually perhaps, American military advisors for the Philippines.

Miss Kidwell said, "We would like to believe now under Aquino's rule that there is far less worry that our critical U.S. military bases in the Philippines will become guerilla targets or held hostage to political demand." She went on to say as yet Aquino has not committed herself to a long-term renewal of the lease, and the Communists who are strong there are strongly insisting that the lease on the bases not be renewed.

The speaker recalled the events that led to the United States' interest in the Philippines, stating that the U.S. gained possession of the islands after the Spanish American and Philippine American Wars, although the Japanese occupation during World War II led to independence for a republic founded on July 4, 1946.

She said that the Philippines are a source of concern to Asian neighbors as well to Western Allies for it is a pivotal point of global power. But of far more concern is the recent naval buildup of the Soviet Union in the region.

Miss Kidwell remarked that many U.S. officials believe that a bet on Aquino is a good bet on the future stability that would provide the best possible assurance of security for Sulu Naval Base and Clark Air Base.

She pointed out some "flies in the ointment." One was in the recent election of the constitution. The draft charter of the constitution says that after the lease on U.S. expires in 1991, no foreign military bases, troops or facilities will be allowed in the country except by bilateral treaty.

Another controversial provision declares that the Philippines pursue a policy of freedom from nuclear weapons.

She listed seven of the problems Aquino is facing as she is trying to "run the country by example," one of the biggest being that Communist insurgents are trying to get in command, referring to the New People's Army with 20,000 fulltime rebels. She said that Mrs. Aquino wanted peace and to that end, the New Armed Forces will resume operations against the insurgents.

In closing, Miss Kidwell asked, "Will Mrs. Aquino make it? Hers is a Herculean job. If she does make it, I think that women everywhere should shout from the housetop, 'Hail to Womanhood.'"

Mrs. Joe Singer was in charge of the business meeting that followed the program. Mrs. D.O. James, federation counselor, reported on the 200th anniversary of the Constitution of the United States which was drawn up in 1787.

The refreshment table decorations and refreshments carried out a St. Patrick's Day theme.

and getting automatic banking FREE!

I work sharp, shop smart and bank at Independent American.

When looking for a bank, I realized that I kept a little money in my checking account all the time. So why shouldn't it be earning interest for me while it's just setting there. So, I made a list of what I wanted from a checking account.

- I want to earn a reasonable rate of interest on my deposit.
- If I keep higher balances, I think I should earn a better rate.
- I want to have the choice of getting my cancelled checks back with my statement or have them kept for me.
- I think that if I keep a reasonable balance, I shouldn't have to pay a service charge.
- I'd like to have ready access to my money whenever or wherever I need it. Like with an ATM. Maybe a card that could be used just about anywhere, and doesn't cost more just because the right machine isn't handy. How about totally Free?

Is that asking too much?

No! That's why I chose Freedom Checking at Independent American; interest rates that increase when my balance reaches different levels; MoneyMaker ATM card free anywhere I use it. I joined the Revolution . . . You should too!

As I See It... By BOB HAMILTON

If my head looks a little larger and my chest puffed out somewhat, please excuse me. But I'm proud. I'm going to brag about being a member of the Iowa Park Lions Club that sponsored the revived Hawk Relays Saturday.

Discounting the fact that I'm a sports nut, especially about track, the fact that the event attracted more than 600 people, fans, coaches and athletes, to the community is a big deal.

It was an activity, and communities that have enough activities like the meet are those that progress.

The meet was well run, everything run on time, thanks to David Baugh, Barry Lucy and Dean Kirkpatrick, as well as some 55 volunteers who volunteered their services for the day.

The weather cooperated, and in fact couldn't have been more perfect.

The Iowa Park Booster Club had the concession stand, and apparently did very well there. In fact, those who showed up were needing help. Apparently a lot of members didn't think they would be that busy, and didn't show up to do their part.

The meet is now an annual event and we can look forward to attracting larger crowds to our community.

That makes two annual events here now, when we add to it the Whoop-T-Do in the fall.

Anybody got any other ideas? I shouldn't overlook the Evening in the Park series that is supposed to get underway in May, in the park by city hall. That doubtlessly won't draw as many out-of-town people as the other events, but it will be something all of us can enjoy.

Another part of my pride is the fact we've finally been able to put our money where my mouth has been over the past couple of years.

We're fixing up the front of our office, to go along with our neighbors.

You'll recall I've been encouraging businesses to fix up their appearances in the business district for a couple of years. We just had to hold off a while while we got some things done inside.

Hopefully, with other businesses joining those of us who have done some sprucing up, we'll not have any more of those comments we heard several years, about how rundown the business district looked.

Doing things like fixing up one's business, participating in events that attract people both from within and outside the city, are all part of a positive attitude that makes life more interesting.

A person who lives in a rundown, poorly kept home usually has a very low personal esteem. The same is true when applied to business and community.

It may take a little money and a whole lot of work, but gosh it's nice to experience the feeling!

Report shows local sales taxes decline

Iowa Park's sales tax rebate check from the state comptroller's office this month was less than one received for the same period a year ago.

The check, $9,391.85, was down about $2,300 from the $11,672.30 received in March of 1986, and dropped the year's total to a minus 3.82 percent as compared with last year.

The check brought the city's total for the year to $40,717.85, as compared with $42,335.64 reported this same time in 1986.

All four communities in Wichita County are on the minus side for the year, though Iowa Park's reduction is the least of them.

And the local sales tax reported by the 1,038 cities collecting it over the state is down six percent from the same period last year, according to the comptroller's office.

Burkburnett is showing a minus 5.97 percent, Wichita Falls minus 9.81 and Electra a whopping minus 41.39 percent, according to the report.

Holliday, like Electra, has the greatest reduction in sales taxes collected so far this year, when compared with last year, at a minus 55.40 percent.

That community has received $9,895.63 thus far, compared with $22,186.22 reported this month in 1986.

Archer City is minus 39.12 percent, Lakeside City minus 33.28, and Windhorst minus 19.09, but Scotland, with $1,245.92, is barely on the plus side with 0.22 percent.

Figures reported by the comptroller's office reflect sales taxes reported through Feb. 20.

Worth Quoting

An editorial in the Sunday edition of a Decatur paper took issue with our column last week relative to the sign on the courthouse lawn promoting the Decatur Eagles.

I am sorry that the management of that paper does not require its own writers of opinion to operate under the same rules it sets for its writers of letters to the editor. They require a signature on each letter.

As it is, we don't really know who we're talking to, because the editorial was not signed.

Of course, we realize that many papers run unsigned editorials, claiming they do not need a signature, because they represent the opinion of the newspaper.

I have never yet known a piece of paper that had an opinion. But I may be getting off the subject a little bit.

The writer of this editorial contends that whether or not the county government should promote such things as the Decatur Eagles is a matter of perspective. I can't imagine anyone having his perspective so screwed up that he would think this is a function of county government.

The writer points out that having the magnificent courthouse in Decatur was the luck of the draw, and adds, "but why not exploit it?"

One reason for not exploiting it is the fact that it does not belong to you. It belongs to all of us.

The editorial mentioned that five years ago, commissioners agreed that if any other high school team in the county wanted such a sign on the courthouse lawn, it "would have to be allowed."

I think it would be safe to say that if the seven high schools in the county and the various Chambers of Commerce were to erect signs on the courthouse lawn, the management of this Decatur newspaper would join us in seeking removal of these signs.

We do not think the lawn of our magnificent courthouse should ever be used as a site for a clutter of bill boards.

The writer also indicated that I might have a hidden motive in bringing this matter up.

I don't have any hidden motives. And if I have one in this particular situation, I'd like for somebody to tell me what it is. I might try to exploit it.

Even though I don't have a hidden motive, I do have an obvious motive, or at least I thought it was obvious.

I want to get Decatur billboards moved off the courthouse lawn.

It is against the law to shove or push while running in or around Nacogdoches, Texas.

Running with eyes closed or while asleep is banned in Gladstone, New Mexico.

It's against the law to whistle anything "other than Dixie" while running in Wade's Mill, North Carolina.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Bob:

On behalf of everyone associated with the school system, I want to thank you for the positive comments that you made about the school in your column last week. I also want you to know that we appreciate your taking pictures, writing stories, and attending the many school activities that take place every week.

In your column last week, you indicated that people have commented over the years that they moved to Iowa Park because of the school system. I might also mention that many of our teachers have selected Iowa Park because of the positive working relationship between the school and the community.

Thank you again for the many good things that you do for the school. We sincerely appreciate you.

Glen H. Mitchell
Superintendent
Iowa Park C.I.S.D.

HARLAN BRIDWELL Bridgeport Index

With the warm weather, track season cannot be far away and the Hamlin athletes are now having to compete for time on the local track. There is nearly always someone walking or running around the track at any time of the day or night.

The local track has some simple rules for its use including wearing soft-soled shoes and walking and running in the outside lanes.

However these are extremely easy to remember, compared to the following laws pertaining to running in different parts of the country.

Single women in Bluff, Utah,

Did'ja hear about the school district at Sundown that decided to try a lunchroom experiment?

Instead of serving the usual hot meal, the school cafeteria handed out peanut butter and jelly sandwiches.

After lunch, a satisfied first grader marched out the door and complimented the cafeteria manager.

"Finally, you gave us a home-cooked meal!"

IRS Tax Tips

NEED TAX HELP, TRY VITA OR TCE

Free tax return preparation is available close by through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) or Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) programs.

The VITA program provides free assistance in the preparation of relatively simple tax returns for taxpayers with special needs—lower income, non-English speaking, elderly and handicapped. The volunteers, who usually set up their tax assistance sites in libraries, schools, and similar locations, are trained by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

The TCE program provides tax assistance mainly for persons 60 years or over.

The IRS advises that persons going to a VITA or TCE site for assistance should be sure they take along the tax package that came to them in the mail, their wage and earnings statements, interest statements, copy of last year's return, and other necessary tax information and documents.

Irrigation is program

Leaky Pipe, a sophisticated subsurface trickle irrigation system designed to compensate for nature's inconsistency and prevent plants from suffering during stress periods, was discussed by Gordon Griffith for the Evening Lions Tuesday.

He said that it was a unique, flexible, permanent porous pipe made from recycled automotile tires, an invention of James Turner and staff of South Lake.

During the business conducted by C.L. Thompson, a nominating committee composed of Griffith, Gordon Callahan and Sam Hunter, was appointed, and Jim Sligar and Lee Holt were named to the summer camp committee. It was also voted to allow DC Auto Parts to use the building March 19 for a demonstration of brake parts.

Guests were Allen Sheffield, Joe Raines and Ronnie Hatcher.

TIMID PARROT - City police spotted a green parrot feeding in a chinaberry tree along Atlantic Monday afternoon. With all the berries the bird had available, efforts to coax it from the tree with bird seed were futile, and it remains at large.

Project show's first night winners listed

The first of two nights judging of the annual Iowa Park 4-H and FFA Project Show was held Tuesday night, and the second round is slated to get underway at 6 this evening in the FFA Barn on East Ruby.

The annual event has always been held on a Saturday, prior to the county show. But the effects of HB 72, which limits the number of days a student can miss school classes, was felt in the scheduling of both events.

The county show will get underway Friday, during Spring Break, and continue Saturday and Sunday, with the premium sale Monday evening.

Judging tonight will be for poultry, rabbits and swine. Ray Dillard, Vo-Ag teacher from Electra, is judging both nights.

In Tuesday's judging, Marcy McCarthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Denny McCarthy, exhibited the grand champion mare.

Kent Kyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Kyle, showed the grand champion gelding, and also was named recipient of the showmanship award of the class.

Both the reserve champion mare and gelding were shown by Brandon Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lane.

Kristy Riggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrel Riggins, exhibited the grand and reserve market lambs, and also received that division's showmanship award.

Deanna Sosebee, daughter of Mrs. Tina Sosebee, had the grand and reserve champion breeding goats, and earned the showmanship award of the goat division.

Monte Medina, son of Vance Medina, showed the grand and reserve grand wether goats.

The grand champion beef steer was shown by Dana Gray, son of Bob Gray and Tony Murty, while Casey Moser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Moser, had the reserve champion steer.

Showmanship award for the steer division went to Lorre Moser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Moser.

Finnell bill seeks equity for smaller towns

Rep. Charles Finnell has co-sponsored legislation which seeks to provide financial equity to the smaller cities of North Texas.

The legislation would require cable television companies to disperse the collected sales tax revenue to the smaller city where the customer actually paid the tax.

"These are tough economic times for all municipalities of the 80th House District," Finnell stated. "These funds should be allocated to the treasury of each local city government."

H.B. 133, introduced by Reps. Bob Melton and Finnell, has been referred to the House Ways and Means Committee where it is expected to be heard within the month.

Allstate Update: Auto Insurance

"Does your auto insurance need a tune-up?"

Robbin Crawford

Agent
311 North Wall
Iowa Park
Bus. 592-2726
Res. 592-4873

When you keep your car running well, you can feel the difference. But what about your auto insurance? For all the money you put into it, your coverage still could be badly out of tune. And you might not even know it. Maybe it's time to compare policies. Auto rates and coverages aren't the same at every company, and lots of folks are finding out they get a better deal with Allstate. Our office is nearby, so why not bring in your auto policy or give me a call? I'll help you compare your coverage and rate. And maybe you'll drive out with a better value. You're in good hands with Allstate.
