JACK RAILSBACK RECEIVES AIR FORCE'S OUTSTANDING CIVILIAN SERVICE AWARD ... From Maj. Gen. David W. Forgan, Sheppard Technical Training Center commander.

Iowa Parkan receives USAF award

Jack Railsback, a resident of Pleasant Valley Estates and claims officer at Sheppard AFB Office of the Staff Judge Advocate, recently won the Air Force's Outstanding Civilian Career Service Award.

The award is presented to the civilian employee who "continuously demonstrates outstanding performance in his duties."

According to Col. James R. Barrow, Sheppard's Staff Judge Advocate, "Mr. Railsback's leadership and expert management skills were directly responsible for significant cost savings to the Air Force and for promoting high morale among people assigned to the Center."

Under the leadership of Railsback, the Claims Division was rated "outstanding" during the 1986 Air Training Command Management Effectiveness Inspection.

His duty performance was individually recognized by the Office of the Judge Advocate General of the Air Force in its 1984 evaluation of the Sheppard's Staff Judge Advocate Office.

Railsback also received high praise for his "professional" handling of claims involving military members of foreign nations participating in the Euro-NATO Joint Jet Pilot Training program in 1984 following a fatal aircraft crash in the early stages of the program.

He is also credited with assisting in the development and implementation of the preventive medical malpractice programs, Risk Management Training, which helped reduce the number of medical malpractice claims against base hospitals. "Mr. Railsback is recognized at all echelon of command as a highly experienced and dedicated professional who made himself available to share his knowledge and experience to help others develop themselves with no expectation of any reward on his part," said Col. Barrow.

Boat racing okayed on lakes by council

Boat racing will return to Iowa Park this summer, and a new field for the Little League Senior division could be in the offing.

City aldermen Monday night approved a request from the Iowa Park Athletic Alumni Association to use one of the city's lakes for a second running of small boat races.

However, the site of this year's event, which will be the second weekend of June, could possibly be moved from Lake Iowa Park to Lake Buffalo.

Jerry Spruiell, who appeared before the council to make the request, was informed Lake Iowa Park level is being lowered in order for installation of a new boat ramp.

Because of the lowering, which could be as much as eight feet below its level of last year, Spruiell said he had no objections to using Buffalo this year.

The new ramp could be in place by June, he was told, but refilling by rainfall probably would not be done until the fall rain period.

Spruiell, who pointed out the race last year received national publicity along with several major cities across the nation as sites, asked that his organization be given control of whichever lake is used two days, instead of one.

He proposed local organizations could have booths and other activities similar to the Whoop-T-Do on the Saturday preceding the races, when drivers would be practicing on the waters.

Max Henderson, representing the Little League, complained use of Burnett Field during league season was presenting problems.

"The field needs a lot of work, and our people don't want to do what is needed, only to have it torn up by other people before the season is over," he told the council.

He asked that the field be turned over to the Little League exclusively from the first of April until mid-July, with the exception of the tournament that is sponsored annually by the MuleSkinners.

Betty Merriman, director of the Recreational Activities Center which oversees scheduling of the field, said softball tournaments have already been scheduled through March and possibly one for April.

She denied a claim by Henderson that no work is done on the field by anyone other than Little League workers, pointing out workers have always done clean-up and repairs, even while Little League was underway.

Alderman Johnny Coker proposed that a new field could be built on the vacant block just north of West Highway, between Third and Fourth Streets.

"We have the land and we'd like to see it used. This is one of our leading goals," Coker said.

Mayor Tim Hunter, however, pointed out more information and study would be necessary before any such commitment could be made.

He instructed Mrs. Merriman to provide at the next council meeting data on the use of Burnett Field.

Should a new field be built for use next year, the work would need to be done this summer, it was pointed out.

Instead of purchasing decorative lighting for city hall park, aldermen decided to rent lighting from TU Electric.

Bids ranging from $5,899 to $6,116 for the decorative lighting fixtures were rejected by the council after fears were expressed that the fixtures would be susceptible to vandalism, and the cost of operation would be virtually the same as using units provided by TU Electric.

An amendment to the animal control ordinance was approved, moving the position from the responsibility of the police chief to the chief code enforcement officer, and providing for use of a drug injection gun.

Approval was also given by the council to advertise for bids on fencing to be put around the sanitary landfill.

Administrator James Barrington discussed a response to be made to the Texas Water Commission concerning studies that body has requested the city to make on dams at lakes

Iowa Park and Buffalo. The studies requested would cost the city an estimated $83,000, but most of the findings have already been found by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

He proposed he write a letter that would concur with the Corps' study, and then ask that the state contribute funds for whatever corrective work is required.

Several months ago, a study was made which found that the dam at Lake Iowa Park would be dangerous under conditions which included it being so full that water was flowing 30 inches over the spillway at the same time the area received a once-in-100-year rainfall.

The lake last year reached its record level, Barrington pointed out, and that was six feet below the spillway.

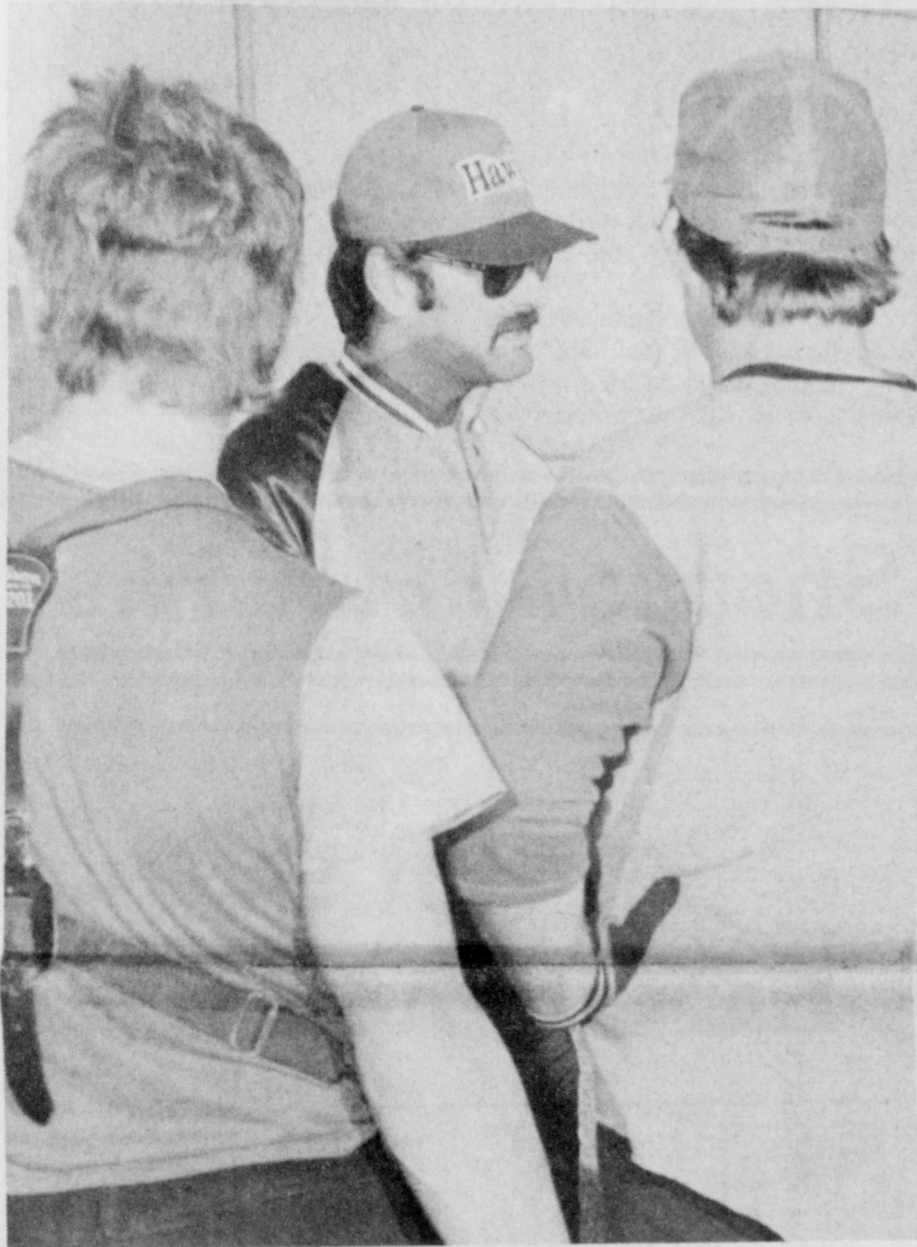

In other business, the council heard Mayor Hunter read a proclamation declaring the week of Feb. 28 as Severe Weather Awareness Week in Iowa Park; aldermen approved a mutual aid agreement to fight fires with Sheppard AFB, and also rejected counter proposals from Gene Wigley concerning part of his land south of Lake Iowa Park being annexed into the city.

Four candidates file for city's election

Though filing for the May 7 city council election opened only Monday, a race has already developed.

As of noon yesterday, two candidates had filed for Place 4 on the council. They are incumbent Bud Burch and challenger Cecil Yoder.

Also filing for re-election are Mayor Tim Hunter and Place 2 Alderman Bud Mercer.

SEASON OPENS - Iowa Park coach Daryl Frazier talks to his players during a scrimmage Friday, before opening the 1988 season Tuesday with a 9-1 win over Vernon. In the shortened, five-inning game, Craig Rickman went the distance on the mound, striking out 11 Lions. Friday's game with Nocona has been cancelled, so the next game for the Hawks, defending district champions, will be at 5 p.m. Tuesday at Holliday.

Key school personnel get pact extensions

Contracts for all key school personnel were extended another year, most of them with salary increases, by the school board Tuesday night.

Contracts for the assistant superintendent, all principals and assistant principal, counselors and tax collector were extended.

Robert Palmer, assistant superintendent, Richard Davis, Jimmy Alsup, Ron Woods and Richard Davis, principals, each received a $2,736 "catch-up" salary increase.

All trustees except Don Decker voted for the motion.

It was later explained that none of the five had received a salary increase as have teachers the past two years.

Decker's opposition vote was not pertaining to the contract extensions of the administrators, but only to the increased expenditure for salaries which comes from the general fund.

Counselors Herman Escue and Colleen Roberts each received a

$1,140 salary increase. Because both have reached the maximum state base salaries of $26,600, the raises were to keep the two in line with other increases faculty members receive.

Pat Davis, the other counselor, will receive the $1,140 state-based increase, as provided under HB 72, as will assistant high school principal Randy Lovelady.

Allen Shewmake's contract extension did not include a salary increase.

Voting on the contracts was taken following an executive session that lasted an hour and 26 minutes.

Trustees noted an unusual drop in the district's enrollment, following mid-semester.

The district's enrollment dropped from 1,845 in January to 1,811. That figure is only 15 greater than the same date in 1987.

High school and junior high experienced the greatest decreases. The high school went from 530 students last month to 512, and junior high from 420 to 405.

Most of the decrease was the result of families moving outside the district, though about half a dozen were dropouts at the high school, it was explained.

Next month's regular meeting will be held Mar. 22, it was decided. Several dates were discussed, and the date selected was the only one at which fewer than one trustee would be unable to attend.

The upcoming meeting is considered very important because of two major issues to be considered: contracts for all faculty members, and to hear recommendations for textbooks to be adopted.

A board policy of requiring employees to take a physical examination annually, including one for TB, was deleted from the policy book.

Other business of the board Tuesday included the presentation of the board's recognition plaque to Donna Gibson, who was named to the All State Choir; appointing an additional teacher appraiser, Newman Young; hearing Palmer recommend an increase in school lunch prices next year, though the amount is not yet set, and heard Shewmake report on tax collections and efforts to collect delinquent taxes.

Benefit basketball tourney starts Friday

A benefit basketball tournament for 10 local and area men's teams will get underway Friday evening at Iowa Park Junior High gymnasium.

Play will get underway at 6:30 p.m. Friday, and resume at 8 a.m. Saturday, with the finals that evening.

Admission will be $1 per person and all proceeds will benefit the Bertha McDonald Memorial Scholarship Fund.

Two men arrested

Two men were arrested during the past week, according to the police blotter.

Eddie Arterberry, 26, was taken into custody Wednesday of last week on a warrant issued by the Wichita Falls Police Dept.

Friday, officers arrested Roger Lee Abraham, 26, on a charge of driving while license was suspended. He was transferred to county jail.

It's All New . . .

Hunter's opening store Saturday

Tim and Tammy Hunter will observe the grand opening of Hunter's Farm and Home Saturday, and the observance will be marked by a ribbon cutting at 9:45 a.m. by representatives of the Chamber of Commerce.

The new firm is located just south of the railroad tracks, between Wall and Yosemite, and features agrichemicals for farmers as well as products for yards and gardening.

New column features school news

A new feature in the Iowa Park Leader is initiated this week. A column, entitled "Halls of the Hawks," will be written by Jana Rains and Jenny Salan, Iowa Park High journalism students, and will cover current news on the high school campus.

Changes made in TV schedule

Following a trial run that appeared last week in the Leader, a scaled-down listing now appears in the paper.

While the listing includes all the programs of the major networks and cable channels, it no longer describes movie topics, nor does it rate them, as the listings have in the past.

Does your subscription to the Leader expire this month? check the list on page 4.

Miss Darla Rae Bates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donny R. Bates, became the bride of Gary L. Chandler Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary L. Chandler, Saturday evening in a double-ring ceremony performed at the Allendale Baptist Church in Wichita Falls by Rev. Ron Redding, pastor.

The altar decorations consisted of a rainbow-shaped arch trimmed with fresh greenery, pink carnations, white poms and baby's breath flanked by heart-shaped candelabra. The candelabra and unity candlestick were decorated to match the arch. The mothers of the bridal couple lighted the outer candles in the candlestick before the ceremony.

Mrs. Ron Redding, pianist, presented the prelude music, and played the traditional wedding marches. She also furnished accompaniment for the vocal selections. Miss Tammy Offutt sang "Endless Love" and Miss Pam Wiemer sang "Through the Eyes of Love."

As the bride, who was given in marriage by her parents, walked to the altar she paused by her mother's pew to present her with a red rose of love. As she and the groom left the church following the ceremony, she gave the groom's mother a red rose.

The bride chose a formal gown of white miramist enhanced with Venise lace, Schiffl embroidery and pearls. Lace appliques and pearls covered the basque bodice and outlined the Queen Anne neckline. The short, three-tiered sleeves were adorned with pearl drops in each tier. The full skirt was strewn with Schiffl embroidery appliques and featured a lace hem extending into a chathedral train. The train bearer was Laci Bates, cousin of the bride.

The bride wore a teardrop bridal cap trimmed with embroidered lace, simulated pearls and polyester flowers set off with a pouf in the back to secure the fingertip length nylon net veil and blusher. She carried a silk cascade bouquet of burgundy roses, pink carnations, baby's breath, ivy accented with pearls and completed with falling pink and burgundy ribbons.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Ray Bates, her cousin, as matron of honor, Mrs. Keith Aldrich, sister of the groom, Miss Tonya Robertson and Miss Tressa Wilson as bridesmaids. They wore identical long rose satin formal gowns designed with V-shaped backs and matching bows at the dropped waistlines.

Mrs. Bates carried a single pink rose and the others carried single burgundy roses.

Heather Aldrich, niece of the groom, was the flower girl. She wore a lace-covered white silk frock made with long sleeves and a square collar. She carried a white basket holding pink carnations and baby's breath.

Heath Aldrich, nephew of the groom, the ring bearer, was dressed like the groom in an all white tuxedo with tails. The groom wore two pink roses for a boutonniere.

Jimmy Cope, cousin of the groom, served as best man, and the groomsmen were Keith Aldrich, brother-in-law of the groom, Donny Bates, brother of the bride, and Bobby Robertson. They also assisted Gary Bates, cousin of the bride, with duties of ushering. The candlelighters were Donny and Gary Bates.

The male participants wore white tuxedos with short coats, rose cummerbunds and bow ties. The father of the bride wore a white tuxedo with burgundy cummerbund and bow tie, and the groom's father wore a grey suit.

The bride's mother wore a cream-colored silk dress designed with a dropped waist. The groom's mother wore a mauve satin dress trimmed in one side. The four-tiered white structure was raised over a splashing water fountain. It was ornamented with mauve and burgundy silk roses and the tiers were divided with Grecian posts. The staircases that descended from the top on either side were trimmed with silk flowers and ribbons in the bride's colors, and the picture was completed with a Precious Moments bride and groom standing in a gazebo on the top.

A crystal punch service marked the opposite side of the table, and other appointments were the pink napkins marked with "Darla and Gary, February 20, 1988."

The groom's table was covered like the bride's table. It held a chocolate sheet cake covered with chocolate frosting and decorated with silk flowers to match those on the bride's cake, the silver coffee service, napkins and trays of mints.

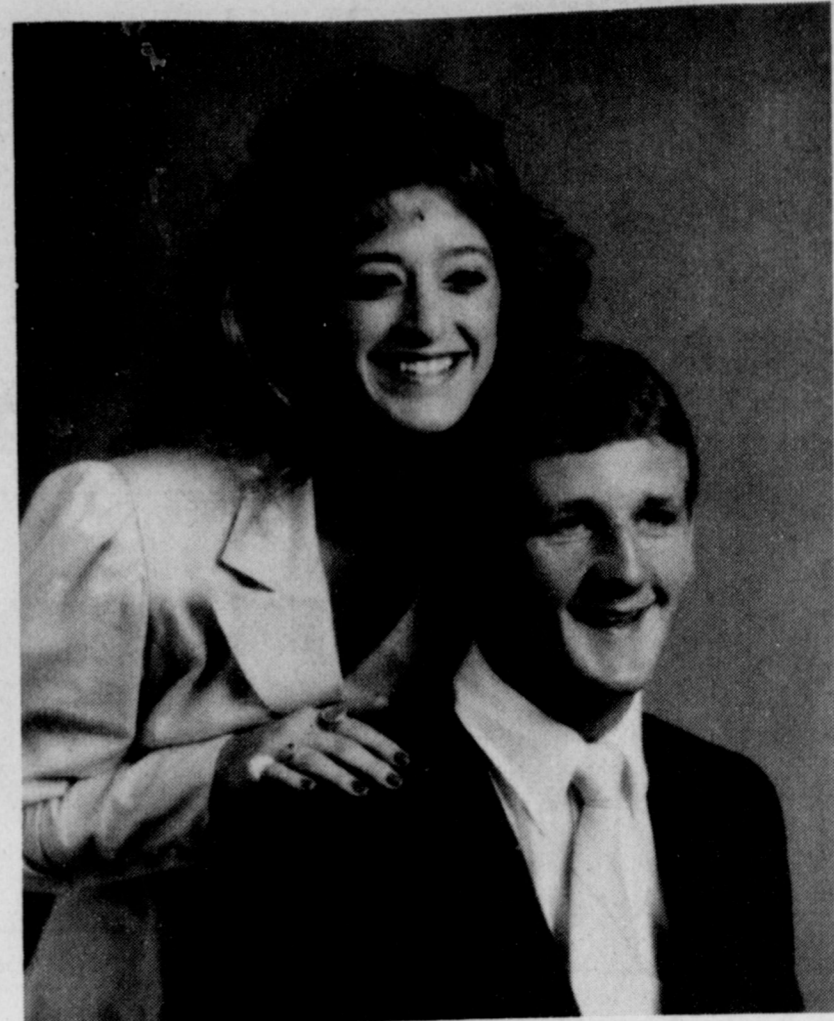

During the reception, Sandra King, Rita Fletcher, cousin of the groom, and Becky Schmidt presided at the bride's table, and Lisa Fletcher, cousin of the groom, and Laura Carter served at the groom's table.

Hetal Gore and Pam Billingsley directed the registration of guests, at a table holding a brass candlestick with pink candles, pink plume pen and wedding book.

Following the rehearsal for the wedding Friday evening, the groom's parents were hosts for a catered dinner served at the Log Cabin in Lucy Park.

The bride was graduated from Archer City High School and is employed at Monnig's Department Store. The groom was graduated from Iowa Park High School and works for Swanson Properties. Following a wedding trip to Padre Island, they will live in Wichita Falls.

The couple were honored with a miscellaneous shower Thursday night at Allendale Baptist Church.

The couple have selected June 25 for the date of their wedding which will be held at the First Baptist Church in Holliday.

Plan car wash

The Iowa Park Police Explorers, a group of youth learning about criminal justice, will hold a car wash from 1 to 5 p.m. Saturday at Walmart.

Cost of the wash will be $3 and tickets can be purchased at various businesses in town or at the car wash.

Proceeds from the car wash and other up-coming events will help members of the organization attend a law enforcement conference in Boston in July.

Cook of the Week

Mrs. Keith Rusk

BROCCOLI-ONION DELUXE

2-10 oz. pkg. frozen cut broccoli or cauliflower or mixture of both
2 cups small whole onions or 2 med. onions quartered.

1/4 cup butter or margarine
2 Tbls. flour

1/4 tsp. salt
1 cup milk

1-3 oz. pkg. cream cheese

1/2 cup shredded sharp Cheddar cheese

1 cup soft bread crumbs

Cook broccoli or cauliflower as directed on package. Drain well. Cook fresh or frozen onions until tender in salted boiling water. Drain. In sauce pan, melt half of butter. Blend in flour, salt and dash of pepper. Add milk. Cook stirring constantly until thick and bubbly. Reduce heat and blend in cream cheese until smooth. Place vegetables in 1 1/2 qt. casse-role dish, pour sauce mixture over and mix lightly. Top with American cheese. Melt remaining butter, toss with bread crumbs. Sprinkle atop casserole. Bake at 350 degrees until heated through, 40-45 minutes.

BREAD STICKS

Day old hot dog buns

Butter or margarine

Garlic salt

Parsley

Parmesan cheese (grated)

Break apart bun. Butter top of each piece. Sprinkle with all or any combination of garlic salt, parsley, Parmesan cheese. Cut down middle. Will make 4 long strips. Bake on cookie sheet in 400 degree oven until browned. Package of 8 buns will make 32 sticks.

BLACK FOREST CHERRY PIE

Elegant but easy 4-layer pie

2/3 cup sugar

3 Tbls. cornstarch

1/4 tsp. salt

2 cups milk

2 eggs beaten slightly

2 Tbls. butter

1 tsp. vanilla

1/3 cup Nestle's chocolate chips

1 (8-inch) baked pie shell

1-16 oz. can pitted dark sweet cherries, drained and halved
1/2 cup whipping cream

Combine sugar, cornstarch and salt in medium sauce pan. Gradually stir in milk. Cook, stirring until bubbly; cook 2 more minutes. Stir small amount of hot mixture into beaten eggs. Return to hot mixture and cook 2 minutes more. Add butter and vanilla. Stir 1/2 cup pudding mixture into melted chocolate chips. Spread in pie shell. Cover vanilla mixture with waxed paper. Cool 30 minutes. Arrange cherries, cut side down, (reserving 8 halves). Spread vanilla mixture over this; chill. Whip cream. Spoon around edges. Add remaining cherry halves.

ICED TEA

2 cups fresh, cold water

3-4 family-size tea bags

1 1/3 - 2 cups sugar (to suit your family's taste).

Lemon slices

Put water in pan, bring to a boil. Add tea bags. Remove from heat and cover. Let sit for at least 3 minutes. Put sugar in gallon jar. Add tea mixture, then fill remainder of jar with fresh cold water. Pour over ice and add lemon slice.

ORIENTAL CHICKEN

1 whole or 2 halves chicken breast

Marinade:

1 Tbls. cornstarch

1 Tbls. light soy sauce

1 Tbls. sherry

Sauce:

1 tsp. salt

1-2 Tbls. curry powder

4 Tbls. catsup

1 Tbls. oyster sauce

1 medium onion

2 medium tomatoes

1 medium green pepper

3 Tbls. oil

2 Tbls. brown sugar

Slice chicken in thin strips and marinate for 15 to 30 minutes. Cut tomatoes into wedges and marinate in brown sugar for 15 to 20 minutes. Heat wok and add 1 Tbls. oil. Stir fry onions with green peppers for 1/2 minute. Add 1 Tbls. sherry and cover for 1/2 minute. Set aside in dish. Pour 2 Tbls. oil in wok, let heat, and stir in curry powder. Let flavor release for few seconds. Add chicken and salt and stir until done. Add tomato wedges and stir until heated through. Add catsup, onions and peppers until heated.

Best served over rice. Wonderful!

"The turnpike road to people's hearts, I find, is through their mouths or I mistake mankind," said Dr. Walcot.

It is pleasing to know that the Cook of the Week section of the Iowa Park Leader has for years, and continues to open a treasury of meal-brightening, economical dishes which include an endless variety of main dishes, vegetables, salads, desserts, entrees, etc., with a fresh kind of appeal to pave the turnpike to people's hearts.

The recipes shared this week by Chi Chi (Mrs. Keith) Rusk will probably be a boon to many cooks. Some of them are, no doubt, new, others may be old with a new twist that gives promise of adding new flair and excitement to meals. Cooking is one of her hobbies, and she takes seriously the responsibility of planning and preparing the right kind of meals for her family and friends.

The former Chi Chi Price was graduated from Iowa Park High School. She and Keith, who works for Park Tank Trucks, were high school sweethearts and married while she was still in school. They have three children, Sandi, 10 years old, Sally, nine years of age, and Justin, seven.

Chi Chi has just recently started taking piano lessons. She is a member of the Lakeview Church of God where she sings in the choir, is actively involved in the youth work, and is an assistant leader of a kindergarten group. She is also secretary of the Bradford PTA. In addition to cooking, she helps take care of and show the family's horses, and she enjoys playing golf.

BEST BEEF AND NOODLES

1 tsp. oil

1 tsp. salt

12 oz. pkg. Fettucini noodles

2 Tbls. butter or margarine

1 tsp. oregano

1 medium onion, sliced (boiled for 3 minutes)

1/2 lb. Velveeta cheese

Leftover roast or soup bone meat

2 cans cream of mushroom soup

1/2 cup milk

Bring salted water to a boil; add oil. Add noodles and cook for 8 minutes. (Do not overcook). Drain, add butter and toss gently until melted. Add oregano and Parmesan cheese. Toss to coat evenly. Layer in a large, sparingly greased, casserole dish. Next layer meat, cut in bite-size pieces, onion, and sliced Velveeta. Mix milk and soup and pour over top. Bake in 350 degree oven 25 minutes.

BLACK FOREST CHERRY PIE

Elegant but easy 4-layer pie

2/3 cup sugar

3 Tbls. cornstarch

1/4 tsp. salt

2 cups milk

2 eggs beaten slightly

2 Tbls. butter

1 tsp. vanilla

1/3 cup Nestle's chocolate chips

As I See It...

By BOB HAMILTON

If I can make it over to the public forum tonight at Wichita Falls High School auditorium, I've got a question to ask of the Dist. 14 candidates for the state board of education.

I plan to ask how many of them think the world is flat.

The question, of course, refers to the allegation of Ross Perot to members of the elected state board prior to having them appointed so HB 72 could get off the ground.

The one who thinks the world is flat will get my vote. Just about anything Perot is against, I'm for.

I do think it's important for as many of us who are interested in education as possible should be at the forum, which is sponsored by the Association of Texas Professional Educators (ATPE).

We should learn as much about these candidates as is possible. To have organizations endorse one or more, and use that endorsement as a reason to vote for someone is useless.

And, boy, do we have groups endorsing candidates for the board.

Candidates for Dist. 14 include Charles Eugene McDonald of Bangs, William Luther Hudson of Wichita Falls, Ben Doyle Sudderth of Comanche, and James Lewis Wilks of Sweetwater, all Democrats, and Peter N. Micale of San Angelo and Donald Ray Dorsett of Stephenville.

I got some intended help from Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby on whom I should vote for in the election.

Hobby, who worked hand-in-

Texas State Teachers Association is endorsing Dorsett, even though he's a Republican.

But I'm not going to vote for him, even if I've known the man two years, because he is a worker for the TSTA, and that organization is affiliated with the National Education Association, which is as militant a union as most coal minor's locals.

TSTA, by the way, is endorsing Paul Simon for president. Speaking of liberal....

No, I plan to listen to the candidates and make up my own mind which I can support. Should I choose one of the Democrats, I'll just have to wait for the general election and hope he survives the primary.

A voter can, you should remember, cross over from one side to the other on the general election ballot, and vote for whomever one chooses. glove with Perot to pass HB 72, is leading an organization called "Texans for Education, Excellence and Schools."

That group "recommends" Wilks. And since I'll not be casting my vote in the Democratic Party's primary, I'll just discount that one.

But it would be discounted anyway, if I were voting in that party's primary, since Hobby is pushing him.

Finnell continues House work

Eventhough Rep. Charles Finnell is actively seeking election to the Texas Senate, he is still involved in his duties as state representative.

Finnell, commenting on his participation in the Lubbock meeting, said, "Good roads make for a strong economy, so a well-planned transportation development program is vital to all Texans."

House Speaker Gib Lewis announced last week he had appointed the Holliday resident to the House Select Committee on the Marketing and Pricing Practices of Petroleum Products.

Also last week, Finnell participated in a public forum on the Future of Transportation Into the 21st Century, held in Lubbock.

Conservation is topic of study club program

Seventeen members of the 23 Study Club, including Mrs. John Clapp, a new member, met at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Marlar in Pleasant Valley Estates Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Marlar and Mrs. C.L. Metz were hostesses for the meeting.

Mrs. China B. Smith served as leader for the conservation program which emphasized the devastating effects of acid rain and hazardous

Fiberoptics are explained

Capt. Randall Trussell, chief of the Telephone Inside Plant of the 3750 Technical Group at Sheppard Air Force Base, spoke to the Evening Lions Tuesday on the importance of fiberoptics in communications.

Introduced by Jim Sligar, he explained that fiberoptics is the system of using light in glass and told how it is being used in the Air Force. He discussed its advantages and disadvantages and predicted that it would continue to increase in importance, both to the military and civilian life.

During the business conducted by Sam Hunter, a nominating committee composed of Gordon Griffith, Riley Thompson and Wayne House was named.

Visitors were Harvey Troutman, Howard Everline, Herman Daymude and Sam Fairchild.

Big meal planned

HOLLIDAY - The Holliday Band Boosters are hosting an all-you-can-eat supper from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Holliday school cafeteria.

Members of the Holliday High School and Junior High Bands are bringing the dishes to be served at the meal, which will include salads, casseroles and desserts.

Tickets for the dinner will be $2.50 for children sixth grade and under, and $3.50 for seventh grade and up, and can be purchased from band members or at the door.

This event is a fund-raiser for band trip to Six Flags in the Spring.

waste. The program was started and closed with appropriate poems. Mrs. L.E. Brooks began by reading "Trees" by Joyce Kilmer and "The Old Trees" by the late Mr. Brooks.

Mrs. Homer Blalock presented "Acid Rain: The Sugar Maples Are Dying" for the first topical discussion which preceded the discussions of hazardous waste and Clean Sites, Inc., a new project independent organization working to accelerate the hazardous waste cleanup in America.

Mrs. Sam Hill's topic was "Defining the Hazardous Waste Problem." Mrs. Metz gave "Achieving Private-Party Cleanups," and Mrs. C.L. Thompson discussed "Close to Home."

The leader closed the program with a fitting prayer poem.

Mrs. Joe Singer directed the business. She introduced Mrs. Clapp and presented her with a bud vase of carnations in the club's colors and baby's breath.

Mrs. D.O. James, federation counselor, read "What Is a Woman's Club?"

It was voted to start meeting once a month, instead of twice monthly, when the new club year starts in October, and to make a monetary gift for a present to the retiring state president.

Mrs. Smith, newly-elected president, named the following officers and committees to serve with her during 1988-90: Frances Park, Mrs. Riley Thompson, budget and finance; Mmes. Erwin Soell, Jim Medlinger, Homer Blalock, program; Joe Singer, Howard Marlar, John Rentschler, art; Lowel Short, C.E. Birk, Metz, Blalock, centennial; Soell, D.O. James, Medlinger, reports; Birk, C.L. Thompson, Sam Hill, telephone; L.E. Brooks, Hill, John Clapp, tellers; Frances Park, Mmes. Don Stribling, Rentschler, Riley Thompson, youth awards; C.L. Thompson, Brooks, conservation; Birk, Clapp, Hill, home life; Travis Smith, Riley Thompson, education; James, Travis Smith, international; Short, Medlinger, Texas Heritage; John Mollett, Stribling, Americanism; Singer, parliamentarian; Soell, federation counselor; and Blalock, reporter.

HOME DESIGNER CONTEST IS SATURDAY EVENING

Wichita County 4-H Club members will exhibit their skills in interior design and selection of home furnishings at the annual Wichita County 4-H Home Designer Contest at 7 p.m. Friday in the 4-H Auditorium.

The project helps members acquire knowledge of interior design and develop skills in selecting home furnishings.

They must prepare a poster showing a room arrangement drawn to scale, furniture and interior selections, and exhibit a coordinating home accessory, explained Bethann Oswald.

A special category on energy efficiency will be sponsored by TU Electric.

Awards will be presented following the judges' interview with each participant. First place winners from the three age divisions will advance to district competition Mar. 19 in Childress.

The public is invited to attend.

CARD OF THANKS

To all the people who helped us stand tall after the loss of our adorable daughter, Crystal Lee Bridges Troup, your kindness and many acts of Christian love were overflowing. Thanks to the Iowa Park Fire Department EMTs, doctors, nurses, and Gold Cross Ambulance drivers. You made her last day's happier. Thank's to all who opened a door and said a kind word to her. You'll always be blessed I do pray. Keep smiling in Christian love is my wish.

AREA OIL & GAS NEWS

The Tricore Field, Wichita County, will see more developmental action when Tri Core Oil and Gas of Irving spuds a pair of developmental wells. The ventures will be known as the No. 1 and No. 1-M Dickinson, with drillsites four and three miles north and north-northeast of Clara, respectively.

The No. 1 is in a 64-acre lease in the Specht Colony Land Subdivision Block 19, 2,520 feet from the south line and 1,000 feet from the east line. The 1-M is in a 79-acre lease in the same subdivision Block 19, 2,700 feet from the south line and 150 feet from the east line.

Pumping 43 barrels of oil per day, the 91 Dickinson has been completed in the Tricore Field, Wichita County, three miles north-northeast of Clara.

With Tri Core Oil and Gas as the operator, the well bottomed at 1,727 feet and will produce from the Gunsight Sand, 1,634 to 1,636 feet into the hole. Water production totaled 27 barrels daily. Oil tested at 41-gravity.

Tom Swanson of Electra has completed the No. 54 Burnett "D" in the Wichita Regular Field, two miles south of Fowlkes, Wichita County. It pumped 18 barrels of oil per day.

Swanson took the hole to a 2,000-ft. bottom and perforated the Megargel Formation for production at 1,830 to 1,840 feet. Oil tested at 40-gravity.

The same operator has plugged and abandoned the No. 12 Burnett "F" in the Wichita Regular Field, two miles south of Fowlkes. Spudded on Jan. 4, the well probed to a dry bottom at 422 feet.

A pair of 2,000-ft. developmental bids are scheduled for spudding in the Wichita Regular Field about five miles south-south-east of Electra. Ray Craighead Petroleum of Wichita Falls will be the operator. The wells will be known as the No. 2 and No. 3 Mrs. E.D. Collett "C".

They are in a 251-acre lease in the GS&SF Survey Block 1. The No. 2 is 150 feet from the south line and 150 feet from the west line of the block, while the No. 3 is 140 feet from the south line and 450 feet from the west line of the block.

Ronkaran Oil of Wichita Falls has revealed plans to drill the No. 9 Perkins and Cullum in the Wichita Regular Field, about six miles south of Iowa Park. The 800-acre venture is in a 180-acre lease in the Denton CSL Survey A-417, 150 feet from the north line and 725 feet from the west line of Section 5 Block 4.

Kuehne-Pullen Oil has completed a trio of stripper wells in the Wichita Regular Field, about five miles southeast of Burkburnett. The wells include the Nos. 32, 33 and 34 North Bear.

They showed ability to pump one, two and one barrels of oil per day from Cisco Sand perforations. Pay interval for the No. 33 was 250 to 260 feet into the hole. The other two wells produced from 574 to 584 feet into the hole. Water production average about 19 barrels per day.

An 8,200-ft. Wilbarger County wildcat is scheduled for spudding three miles south of Farmers Valley. Baker and Taylor of Amarillo will be the operator.

Designated as the No. 1 Taylor Ranch, the well is in a 4,274-acre block 1,710 feet from the north line and 105 feet from the west line of the section. It is in the H&TC Survey Section 81 Block 16.

Operating out of Los Angeles, Calif., the Ellwood Co. has completed the No. 1 Wallingford in the Wilbarger Regular Field, five miles east of Vernon. It pumped 17 barrels of oil with a small volume of salt water daily.

Elwood took the hole to total depth of 8,320 feet and plugged back to 8,125. Production will be from a set of perforations in the Bend Conglomerate, 7,315 to 7,489 feet into the wellbore.

East West Oil of Edgewood, Ky., has suspended operations at a location in the Bryant-Dobos Field, Wilbarger County, two miles southeast of Odell. It was designed as the No. 1 Lehman with total depth projected to 5,700 feet. The well was bottomed at about that depth and had been perforated for possible production.

Pumping 13 barrels of oil with 154 barrels of water daily, the 154 H&TC has been completed in the Wilbarger Regular Field, 2.5 miles southeast of Harrold. Mobil Producing is the operator.

Mobil bottomed the well at 2,909 feet, plugged back to 2,250 and perforated the Cisco Sand for production at 551 to 1,849 feet into the hole.

Wildcat drilling action is slated in Wilbarger County, about five miles south of Lockett, with Kingdon Resources of Austin as the operator. The explorer well will be known as the No. 3 Guggisburg. It is located in a 200-acre lease in the W. McKinney Survey 1,200 feet from the north line and 2,370 feet from the west line of the survey.

The No. 191 Frances Sumner has been brought on line in the Wilbarger Regular Field by Mobil Producing of Midland.

It pumped 14 barrels of oil with seven barrels of waste water on an open choke. Oil tested at 43-gravity. Located four miles southeast of Harrold, the well is in a 1,099-acre lease in the H&TC Survey 2,168 feet from the south line and 556 feet from the east line of the section.

Amerada Hess has abandoned plans to re-enter a 46-year-old producer in the Fargo Field, Wilbarger County, about three miles southwest of the Doan community. The well was known as the 1902 Fargo Unit, formerly the No. 2 Luedtke when drilled by Amerada in September of 1941. It produced from the Canyon Sand at 3,892 to 3,965 feet into the hole.

Four new producers with combined potential to yield 146 barrels of oil per day have been completed in Wilbarger County's Regular Field with Mobil Producing TX & NM of Midland as the operator on a 1,099-acre lease in the H&TC A-346 Survey, four miles southeast of Harrold.

The wells include the No. 180 Frances Sumner located 1,854 feet from the south line and 992 feet from the west line; No. 181 Frances Sumner 2,090 feet from the south line and 1,570 feet from the west line; No. 182 Frances Sumner 2,371 from the south line and 1,960 feet from the west line; and the No. 183 Frances Sumner 2,550 feet from the south line and 2,675 feet from the west line.

ACCIDENTS REPORTED

Department of Public Safety troopers investigated 15 accidents in Wichita County during January that resulted in injuries but no fatalities, according to Sgt. Larry Peterson of the Wichita Falls DPS office.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank everyone for their help, support and thoughtfulness during my recent hospital stay and recovery time at home. The flowers, cards, gifts and food were all very much appreciated.

A Friendly Church
A friendly church is a church whose members look forward to times of assembly and Bible study. They come not only to receive encouragement, but to give to others. They enjoy being together.
A friendly church is a church where a guest never leaves without receiving numerous greetings, introductions, and handshakes. Once a member meets a guest, that member introduces the guest to other members, which increases the feeling of warmth and personal attention.
A friendly church is a church whose members are not content to spend all of their time with a few familiar friends. Instead, they initiate conversations with other members they don't know, offering their name first.
A friendly church is a church where long-term relationships are constantly nurtured and new friendships are constantly anticipated. Friendly churches have members who realize the best way to have friends is to be friendly.
Come worship with us. We invite you to be a part of a growing friendly church at 300 East Park.

Halls of the Hawks

BY JENNY SALAN AND JANA RAINS

Recently, 55 Hawk Band members were awarded medals for earning superior ratings at Region Solo and Ensemble Contest. Fifty-two of these medals were for Class I solos or ensembles. These students are eligible for the State Solo and Ensemble Contest.

"I can't recall a time when we've had so many qualify for state competition. We were very pleased with the outcome," Greg Miller, band director said.

State qualifiers are Ken Allen, Amy Berry, Dennis Blevins, Stan Coker, Sheri Cravens, Karie Davis, Jeff Floyd, Rhonda Foehner, Darrell Franklin, Jay Freeman, Joel Galloway, Lisa Hodges, Glen Hopkins and Greg Huff.

Also, Barry Kaiser, Angelia McIlroy, James McIlroy, Jodi Meisel, Kame Oshiro, David Rinehart, Jenny Salan, Markita Savage, Jason Welch, Angie Barker, Jennifer Welch, Nancy Storey, Stacy Swan, Marc Thames, Sean Pendleton, Patrick Birk, Timmy Bradberry, Mike Brillhart and Richard Owens.

The International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, Quill and Scroll, was reinstated at a special ceremony held Feb. 11 at the Tom Burnett Memorial Library.

Candidates must be juniors or seniors, must be in the upper one-third of their class, have done superior work in school publication and must be recommended by the publication advisor.

Quill and Scroll initiates are Cindy Lawson, Julie Sheffield, Melissa Lewis, Doug Hale, Kellye Lehman, Jami Ming, Mitsi McKee, Jenny Salan, Jody Beavers, Jason Orender, Karen Walker, Jana Rains, Cody Claybrook, Angie Loving and Eddie Dorner.

Recently two Iowa Park Mock Trial teams competed against Burkburnett and Holliday on the Regional level. One Iowa Park team will go on to the finals against Holliday to determine who advances to State competition.

"I'm real proud of the students and the hard work they've put into it. I feel we are very capable of going on to State," Jeanni Wilson, sponsor, said.

Mock Court is a simulated trial based on an actual case. The parts of lawyers and witnesses are portrayed by students.

Baugh, Wood graduates

Two Iowa Parkans both graduated and were named to the Dean's List at Texas Tech Univ. in Lubbock.

Brant Adrian Baugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Baugh, and Kristi Lynn Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Wood, were two of some 1,200 student receiving degrees in the fall 1987 commencement exercises.

Baugh received a bachelor of science degree in entomology and Miss Wood a B.S. degree in home economics.

Both graduates, along with Frank Douglas Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Johnson Sr., were also named to the Dean's List for the fall semester.

To qualify for the Dean's List, a student must earn a grade-point average of 3.5 to 3.9 enrolled for 12 or more hours that semester.

MSU offering $1,000 scholarships

Ten outstanding high school seniors will be awarded a Midwestern State University President's Leadership Scholarship of $1,000 for 1988-89.

According to Dr. Paul Travis, director of enrollment management, the program seeks high school seniors who possess a multitude of leadership skills, have maintained academic excellence and who wish to pursue an undergraduate degree at MSU.

Incoming freshmen chosen for the program will participate in both in-class and out-of-class activities designed to promote personal knowledge about the student government, administration, and academic structure of MSU, said Travis.

Applications for the scholarship may be picked up from high school counselors.

Scholarship offered

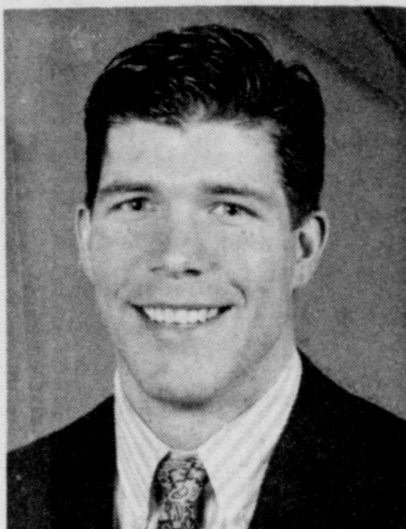

Officials of the Iowa Park Wal-Mart store have announced an area high school senior will be selected this spring as the recipient of a $1,000 Wal-Mart Foundation Community Scholarship.

Students interested in applying for the scholarship may pick up applications from the school counselor or administrative office, and must be returned to the school by the third week of February.

Store manager Rod Murray said, "We are very pleased to offer this annual scholarship to a deserving area student on behalf of our store and the company. Through Wal-Mart's scholarship program, we can contribute to the quality of life in the Iowa Park community and to the opportunities of our area youth."

A team of judges consisting of area business and community leaders will be formed to evaluate the applications and make a final selection during student interviews.

The scholarship, payable over a two-year period and awarded to a college- or university-bound student, will be based on the student's scholastic and academic achievements, extracurricular and work activities and financial need.

A COMMITMENT TO SERVICE

Letter

to the Editor

Coach is good choice

Dear Bob --
I noted in the Waco paper that Len Williams will be your new coach. You got a good one. I don't know the man personally, but we have played his teams every year. I don't recall the won-loss record, but we're always glad to escape with a one-point margin. Sometimes we didn't.

Mart is a football town, like Iowa Park and McGregor. Add a good coach and you have winning chemistry.

Just had to congratulate you on the choice. See you in April.
Tom Mooney
(McGregor)

'Joke' in poor taste

Dear Bob Hamilton,
While I haven't always agreed with your editorial comments, I have usually found them both interesting and thought provoking. NOT this time Dear Bob. That you are "grumpy" at "that paper" for referring to Iowa Park as simply IP is understandable and shows genuine concern for one's home ground, but to end your column with the rather distasteful and thoughtless quote given to an impending aids facility, was I had hoped beneath even you! "Sex Fags Over Texas," come on Bob, your reporter Mrs. Collins could and should have advised you otherwise on that one!

Sincerely Yours,
Frances M. Krause
P.S. You do have a way of getting one churned up and that is certainly good for those of us who tend to become too complacent--

(BOB'S NOTE: Thanks for the comment. Both Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Hamilton strongly suggested that I not use the joke, but since I considered it a humorous play on words, as well as the column being a reflection on me and not a standard news story which would reflect on the paper, I used it.)

Thank you

On behalf of myself and the Iowa Park Board of Directors I'd like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped to make our "Tenth Anniversary Open House" such a success.

We appreciate each and every one of you who came out to help us celebrate. The crowd was great.

A special "thank you" to all the area media, television, radio and news papers for the terrific job they did in getting the message out to the public. We are always so indebted to them. Also thanks to K.G. Studios, the Iowa Park Cloggers and "Kids Under Construction" for the entertainment they provided.

It was our privilege to host one of the first celebrations to be held on Iowa Parks Birthday. We are glad to be a part of this special event.

Sincerely,
Betty Merriman

Williams meets players

"I'm not here to change your traditions. I'm here to build on them," new Head Hawk Len Williams told athletes Monday when he met them for the first time.

Williams, who succeeds David Baugh as head football coach and athletic director at Iowa Park High, was in Iowa Park a week early, explaining he was eager to get on with his new position.

He was selected by the Iowa Park school board from some 70 applicants. His contract does not call for him to report for work until next Monday.

He spoke to the underclassmen who reported to the last-period off-season football program.

"I can't think of any place I'd rather be," said the successful former head coach of Mart High School.

He told the athletes he had talked to several people over the state about Iowa Park, and said "I have yet to hear a negative word about Iowa Park."

He said the school and its traditions in football are well known as far south as Central Texas, and possibly further. "That's as far south as I checked," Williams said.

"This is probably one of the most sought-after jobs in the state, and I'm very pleased to be a part of it."

He warned the students that he would let slip from time to time various references to Mart, because he had been there so long. But he promised that would only be for a short time.

To indicate his dedication to his new school, Williams said, "If you were to cut off my arm right now, I promise you it would bleed green."

"I hear you are all workers, and I'm going to test you," he said, adding he intended to see that each was tired after the 55-minute athletic period each day.

He told the athletes one of the main areas of work would be in "foot speed." "If you can't move quickly from one place to another, you can't play football."

He emphasized the need for upper classmen to demonstrate leadership, and told the juniors that they were all seniors, in his eyes.

Williams, who does not plan to move his family -- Sherri, his wife, and son and daughter -- here until the end of the school year, emphasized he observes an open-door policy with his athletes and encouraged them to visit at any time should a problem need discussing.

"My office and my home are open to you at all times. You're welcome to come by at any time," he said.

Williams, who appeared in a white shirt and green tie, was introduced to the athletes by assistant coach Dean Kirkpatrick.

Kirkpatrick was among the five finalists for the position. He told the students, "I'll guarantee you people, he'll do you a good job."

Boosters to meet new coach, discuss track meet plans

Meeting the new coach and discussing the Hawk Relays are the two topics on the agenda Monday night for the Iowa Park Booster Club.

The event is to get underway at 7 p.m. in the field house.

Members will be able to meet and hear Len Williams, new head football coach and athletic director of Iowa Park High.

Activities relating to the Mar. 5 Hawk Relays will also be discussed, Denny McCarthy, Booster Club president, said.

Worth Quoting

The proposed new Wise County Emergency Services District may be a great idea, but I don't think so.

We don't need another bureaucracy and taxing authority. What we do need is to demand that county commissioners and city councils adequately fund emergency services, using existing tax sources.

The answer seems so simple, but county commissioners repeatedly reject efforts to adequately fund the 14 volunteer fire departments in this county.

The proposed emergency services district is a direct result of the frustration of volunteer firefighters and citizens in the Southeast part of the county to secure adequate funding.

The proposed district, which could add up to 10-cents to your tax bills, is not necessary if county commissioners and city councils will live up to their obligations to finance fire and ambulance operations.

County Auditor Tim Rodgers told me last week the county has budgeted $78,000 this year for fire protection. Of that amount, $68,640 goes directly to the fire departments with the remainder financing the fire marshal's office.

Rodgers also said each penny of the current tax rate brings in $118,200 based on present valuations.

The arithmetic is woefully simple. Commissioners could double the monthly allocation to fire departments, from $380 to $760 per month for only six-tenths of a cent increase in county taxes.

I feel like ambulance operations are adequately funded for the two existing EMS operations, but if the county wants to add a third ambulance to serve the Southeast communities of Rhome, Boyd, Aurora and Newark, it would not "break the bank" and would be far less expensive than the new district.

Rodgers said the county spends $156,200 a year for EMS services and buys a new $45,000 ambulance about every 18 months.

That means each ambulance operation costs $78,100. Be a little generous and buy a new $45,000 ambulance every year. My math tells me the cost of adding a third ambulance would be $123,100.

If each penny on the tax rate brings in $118,200, then you could see that third ambulance would cost a little over an extra penny in taxes.

So instead of a five-or-ten cent tax rate and another bureaucracy, we can double the support to the fire departments and add the third ambulance for less than two cents on the county tax rate -- 1.7 cents to be exact.

I sat at home this weekend and listened to the scanner as a volunteer, and I stress the word volunteer, firefighters battled grass fires in every nook and cranny of this 920 square mile county. It made me ashamed that I haven't done more to press elected officials for adequate funding.

Compare the money the firefighters get -- $78,000 -- with the cost of a new dump truck at $45,000 or a new motor grader at $100,000 and you will quickly see where commissioners' priorities lie.

Before I get off this soap box, one more thing.

City councils must also step up their support of the fire departments with adequate city budgets. It is the cities that benefit from lower fire insurance rates when fire departments are adequately equipped and have proper training, not the folks out in the country.

Decatur is a good example of a city that is slowly, but constantly, increasing its financial commitment to the fire department. This year's budget for the Decatur Fire Department is $70,500 -- $45,500 for operations and $25,000 for debt retirement.

The time is long since past when the volunteer fire department in this county must go hat-in-hand to the folks they serve. We should demand that our elected officials adequately fund them with tax dollars.

Fire protection and ambulance service are darned sure more important than dump trucks and road graders.

ROY EATON Wise County Messenger

Watched with interest the results of the New Hampshire primary Tuesday. We've got a real selection don't we.

Would somebody please tell me how (or why) a candidate can finish last and still smile like a mosquito in a nudist camp?

How can there be no losers? There were enough pearly-whites flashing to put a toothpaste commercial to shame.

Everybody won -- except the winner who lost because he didn't win by enough???

Bush got the most votes, but Dole said he came away the winner? Gephardt also thought second place was a win.

Kemp finished third and related the story of being a third-string quarterback in 1957 and three years later becoming the starter. I hate to tell him, but the election won't wait that long for him to be a GOP starter.

Robertson said he wasn't interested in being No. 2 although he finished last (I think).

Jackson won because he got some of the white vote. Gore won because he didn't run. Simon lost because he didn't finish second (makes sense I guess). His platform was a little shaky anyway.

All the demos won (in their own minds??) and the TV boys are still trying to nominate Gov. Cuomo. Gary Hart is fading in his bid to be the first president with both a first and second lady.

I'm lost! Each of the GOP boys support Reagan more than the others and the major distinguishing factor among the demos is Simon's bowtie and Jackson's color.

Al Haig, former secretary of state, withdrew. He's probably the most capable of the litter.

I'll keep trying to figure this mess out and maybe it will get better, but until then -- "Hey Al, come on back. We need somebody who's in control."

JOE THOMPSON Hood County News

The national media has made so much out of the Iowa caucus, and the New Hampshire primary, it would almost make you think that these early voter actions have more or less decided the presidential nominations.

Now, let's examine the facts.

FACT: Iowa has only eight electoral votes. New Hampshire has four. By contrast, when several state primaries are held on "Super Tuesday," there are well over 100 electoral votes involved. Texas has 29 and Florida 23.

In Iowa, these were local (precinct) caucuses. The candidates who won approval on that level now have their delegates set for county conventions, and later state conventions.

At the final state convention, the decisions are made as to how to divide up the state's votes (and remember, compared to other states, Iowa doesn't pack much of a punch).

It was argued that Iowa is "Middle America," and should prove fairly representative of the nation as a whole.

FACT: Regional candidates Bob Dole (senator from Kansas) and Richard Gephardt (representative from Missouri) had the best support from their neighbors in Iowa.

These candidates now must move into other areas of the country and prove themselves. We expect that in the other states, other region support may develop in other directions.

We feel that it is too bad that so much is made by the media of these early primaries, which usually causes some candidates to lose their support in other states, before they even have a chance to voice their wishes.

The good thing is that most voters no longer let the national media tell them what's good for them, and do their own thing at the polls.
